KENTUCKY DERBY-WINNING OWNER RAMIRO RESTREPO EXCITED FOR ARQANA

Restrepo with his Kentucky Derby winner Mage
Coady Photography

By Brian Sheerin

DEAUVILLE, France--Ramiro Restrepo has arrived. Fresh off the plane, the first port of call is to pay a visit to Etreham's base in Barn C, where his Hello Youmzain (Fr) colt (lot 38) is based.

The Kentucky Derby-winning owner and bloodstock agent has not seen the colt since he purchased him as a foal here at Arqana in December but it doesn't take long to gauge his approval.

"Man I am pumped," a larger than life Restrepo effuses as the colt exits his stable. There is a certain amount of showmanship to Restrepo, as anyone on the other side of the Atlantic will confirm, but his appreciation of what a good horse looks like is genuine.

His arrival on the international scene as a bloodstock agent and owner was fast tracked by Mage (Good Magic), the brilliant winner of this year's Kentucky Derby, who has left Restrepo sitting high amongst his peers--a place where he is more than comfortable.

"Winning the Kentucky Derby is the realisation of a dream on so many levels," he says. "There have only been 149 Kentucky Derby winners and for us to be the 149th is amazing." Cont. p3

'IT SHOWS HOW MUCH FRENCH BREEDERS HAVE BEEN INVESTING': POWELL RELISHING RETURN OF THE AUGUST SALE

By Emma Berry

DEAUVILLE, France--Over the next three evenings, around 280 youngsters considered to be the cream of the French yearling crop will pass through the sale ring in Deauville, where this time last year the collective bidding stopped just north of €50 million to bring record returns at Arqana.

The term 'record-breaking trade' has appeared countless times in this and other publications, and frequent rejigging of sales formats allows that to be claimed perhaps more often than it genuinely should be, but the 2022 August Sale really was quite the blockbuster by all measures.

A tightened catalogue helped, because as the numbers were trimmed and 40 fewer horses were offered, the clearance rate improved to its highest mark of 82.5%. Cont. p4

He adds, “To think that from now until the end of time, your name is going to be up there with the luminaries of the sport and that Mage’s name will be up there with some of the most successful racehorses we have seen, it’s just a dream.”

He added, “It’s opened up a few doors and it’s just been an amazing amount of attention and love sent your way, which is just indescribable. I pinhooked a Breeders’ Cup winner [Structor] in 2019 and that gave me the confidence. But when you achieve a Grade I Kentucky Derby win, it’s like a holy grail, you know.

“So many famous and important people in our industry have been chasing that and haven’t been able to achieve it. And to say that you’re able to do that, you look around and are so grateful for the team because it takes a village to get something like this accomplished. It’s been a life changer for all of us.”

If Restrepo once walked this sale ground as a little-known American-based bloodstock agent, Mage has changed that. He has been coming to Arqana since 2018 but this week marks his first trip to the August Yearling Sale and he plans to make it a memorable one.

“I came here for the first time with a group of Americans in 2018 and we walked around the sales grounds and I got, you know, full fever. I ended up buying a No Nay Never colt who we sold for a tidy profit as a two-year-old in training. That was right at the time when No Nay Never was really taking off.

“So, in my career, first-crop stallions have always been something that I’ve been drawn to. If you were to look at a highlight of the horses who I have bought that went on to either sell well or perform well on the racetrack, they’ve all been sons or daughters of first-crop sires.”

In many ways, lot 38 is a Restrepo special. Bought in partnership with Nicolas de Chambure of Haras d’Etreham for €67,000 with the help of Hubie de Burgh and Martin Buick at the December Breeding Stock Sale, the Hello Youmzain colt fits Restrepo’s tried and trusted model.

By an unproven sire who was a deadly-fast racehorse, winning twice at the highest level, including the Diamond Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, there is scope for the share price in the progeny of Hello Youmzain to rise this week. That’s the hope at least.

“I was here last winter with Hubie de Burgh and Martin Buick, who are two amazing people. Obviously Hubie is an amazing judge of equine talent and Martin has been a good pal and we were walking the sales ground together.

“They were shopping for some racehorses but at the same time there were some foals that I kept seeing. This Hello Youmzain colt caught my eye. I’ve been a big fan of Hello Youmzain, being a son of Kodiak (GB), and you saw him do some nice things as a two-year-old before he beat Calyx (GB) in a Group 2 at three, which really caught my attention. Then at four, he obviously won the Diamond Jubilee and became one of the best sprinters in Europe.”

He added, “I know Nico [de Chambure], who obviously stands the stallion, and I asked him if I bought the colt would he be interested in partnering up.” Cont. p4

He said, “Nico had seen the colt and liked him a tonne so we went ahead and got in there and threw some punches. So here we are. He’s grown up here [in France] and we’re ready to rock. He was accepted to this sale and now hopefully he can do well.”

Lot 38 is just what you’d expect from a son of a top-class sprinter. A fast-looking colt, he has been described as “a baby version” of his sire by Restrepo, who is cautiously optimistic about how he gets on in the ring on Friday.

“I hope everyone here sees what we saw in him way back in December and that he is accepted positively by the marketplace. Hopefully he is purchased by some pretty successful connections and he goes on and has a great career. That’s all you can ask for, is to have tempered expectations and then, you know, be very happy if things work out.”

Restrepo added, “As for myself, I’m just really enjoying the sale. I’m also going to be shopping it for the first time. I’ve been here in the winter, but it’s my first summer sale. I just came here on a plane of 50 Americans. Most of them have come here for the first time so there’s a lot of excitement to come over here and participate in the sale.

“We’ve heard about it and read about its success for so long, and it’s a blessing to be able to come over here and be a part of it.”

Furthermore, the average exceeded the €200,000 mark for the first time to settle at €209,972, and the median shot up to €140,000 from a previous high of €125,000. All things considered, it was indeed pretty good.

Several graduates from that sale have already impressed on the track, and Ramatuelle (Justify) could yet add a Group 1 title to her impressive season when challenging for the Sumbe Prix Morny on Sunday. Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) chipped in with a Listed win at Salisbury on Wednesday for Godolphin, boosting the appeal of his three-parts-brother by Night Of Thunder (Ire), who sells on Saturday. They have been backed up by the Class of '21, which includes Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never), Meditate (Ire) (No Nay Never), and the colt who has folk in a froth in France and beyond, Ace Impact (Fr) (Cracksman {GB}). Arqana August Preview Cont.

The fact that it has been a strong year on the track for French-trained runners matters immensely. Of course not all horses bought at this sale will remain in France. Last year's top lot, the brother to Arc winner Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) bought for €2.1 million, is currently in pre-training in Japan. Named Shin Emperor (Fr), he will soon head to the Ritto training centre to continue his tutelage under the eye of Yoshito Yahagi, who is back in France to peruse the best of this year's sale.

But French racing prides itself on its lucrative owners' and breeders' premiums, not to mention the allure of its picturesque training environment in Chantilly and beyond. The horses have to perform here to encourage owners to want to have them in training in France, and this year they have stepped up to the mark with gusto, headed by the likes of Blue Rose Cen (Ire), Jannah Rose (Ire), Marhaba Ya Sanafi (Fr) and Mqse De Sevigne (Fr), as well as the aforementioned Prix du Jockey Club winner Ace Impact. The fact that he already has a stallion deal in place could prove to be something of a double-edged sword: on the one hand, it is fantastic that he will be staying in France to stand at the Chehboub family's Haras de Beaumont, but on the other, the current dearth of exciting stallion prospects in the country may well hasten his retirement at the end of this season. We'll see.

Reflecting on this banner year on the track for the home runners, Arqana's executive director Freddy Powell said on Thursday, "The timing is pretty good, and thanks to Mr [Charlie] Appleby yesterday as well, who won the Listed race, because we have some from the family here in the sale."

He continued, "It just shows how much French breeders have been investing in good mares and nominations. There's a great diversity of stallions and pedigrees, so we are blessed really."

As has become tradition, Arqana laid on a plane from America, bringing in around 50 potential transatlantic buyers.

"There are plenty of international people here already and still more coming," Powell said, and added of last year's leading buyer, Yoshito Yahagi, "We are always happy to see his hat."

The trainer of this year's Saudi Cup winner Panthalassa (Jpn) and the Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Marche Loraine (Jpn) is noted as much for his love of foreign travel as he is for his snazzy headwear, and a colourful Panama was indeed being sported in Deauville on Thursday as the temperature started to soar and the sales ground became ever busier.

Powell added, "It's nice to feel that most people have been around once already and they are all talking quite positively about the stock. It's important not to get too excited about things but the signs are all good and it looks like it's all falling into place."

MIGHTY ULYSSES AND EMBESTO DEAD-HEAT IN SALISBURY FEATURE

by Sean Cronin

Last term's Listed Sir Henry Cecil S. victor Mighty Ulysses (GB)

(Ulysses {Ire}--Token Of Love {GB}, by Cape Cross {Ire}) and last month's Listed Sir Henry Cecil S. second Embesto (GB) (Roaring Lion--Dibajj {Fr}, by Iffraaj {GB}) were inseparable at the end of Thursday's G3 Tattersalls Sovereign S., with both registering a career high in the one-mile Salisbury feature. The duo were well away from the gates with Mighty Ulysses positioned second and Embesto third through halfway. Locking horns after passing the pacesetter Dancing Magic (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) with a quarter-mile remaining, they engaged in a ding-dong tussle thereafter with Embesto's final lunge ensuring the pair were snapped in unison.

"It was a nice performance and he was the one that definitely forced the dead-heat," commented Embesto's rider David Egan. "My lad really pinned his ears back and put his head down. I was confident that, if I hadn't won outright, it'd go to a dead-heat, but it's very fine margins and there's that element of hope too. I've ridden him in every start, I ride him a lot at home and this is fantastic for a horse who has taken his step up in grades. He finished behind a horse I think could be a superstar [Nostrum] last time and he's going the right way. He's still learning on the job, he's taken a step forward today and will definitely get 10 furlongs. He hit that last 100 yards strongly and galloped out good. He hasn't reached his peak yet and stepping up in trip will see him reach his full potential." Cont. p7

by Tom Frary

Looking to have limitations before Thursday's G3 Bahrain Turf Club Desmond S. at Leopardstown, John Bourke's Lord Massusus (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}) took a step forward to register a personal best in the mile feature. Held up in rear early by Gary Carroll, the 11-2 shot travelled strongly into the straight and took the rail route to impose himself on Alfred Munnings (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) with half a furlong remaining. Carrying on his momentum into the clear, the Joseph Murphy-trained gelding had 1 1/2 lengths to spare over Ballydoyle's TDN Rising Star at the line.

"We got him switched off today, he came home well and a fast pace suited him," Murphy said of the winner, who had scored in The Curragh's Irish EBF Auction Series Race last term and under top weight in one of the country's competitive premier handicaps at Naas in May. "He won like a good horse, I thought it was a good performance. He has a low action, so good ground makes no difference. We'll look forward to the big meeting now, he'll go for the [G2] Dullingham Park Stakes on Irish Champions Weekend." Cont. p9

One of 30 winners from 55 to race in the U.S. (55%) for Juddmonte’s Kingman, Activist Investing’s brethren have chalked up 20 stakes wins in that jurisdiction by eight individual stakes winners (18%).

A Soft Touch At Del Mar

Qatar Racing’s Gentle (GB) (No Nay Never), making her U.S. debut, graduated in her third start for trainer George Papaprodromou at Del Mar this past weekend (video).

Bred by Ammerland Verwaltung GmbH & Co., she is a one of two winners for her dam, the G3 Prix de Psyche third Light The Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Sold for €200,000 out of the Arqana August Yearling Sale to her owner, Gentle’s first two starts were fourth-place efforts over the British all-weather circuit last December and this May. She is a half-sister to 2-year-old filly Light The Moon (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), a yearling filly by Waldgeist (GB), and a weanling filly by Zarak (Fr). Her second dam is the group winner Lady Vettori (GB) (Vettori {Ire}), best known as the dam of G1 Prix du Jockey Club winner-turned star sire Lope De Vega (Ire) (Shamardal).

Coolmore’s No Nay Never has sired 38 winners from 74 runners Stateside (51%). A total of nine of those (12%) are stakes winners, with G1 Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Meditate (Ire) the best of the bunch to date.

KING OF STEEL WILL BYPASS INTERNATIONAL AND POINT TO IRISH CHAMPION INSTEAD

Derby runner-up King Of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}), last seen when third in the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. last month, will skip the Aug. 23 G1 Juddmonte International S. and instead target the G1 Royal Bahrain Irish Champion S. on Sept. 9.

“We didn’t confirm him today for York,” said Tom Pennington, racing manager for owners, Amo Racing. “I know when you look at the prize-money and think it could be quite a small field, you might get a bit carried away, but we are going back to what was always Plan A and go to Ireland.

“We’ve been patient with him all the way along and I don’t think another couple of weeks is going to do us any harm. He’s in good form and he’s on the right track, we’re very happy with him. When you look at his size, touch wood, he should be even better again next year and we’re playing the long game with him.”

O'BRIEN CHARTS COURSE FOR RIVER TIBER, KYPRIOS

River Tiber | Megan Ridgwell

Aidan O'Brien confirmed TDN Rising Star River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) remains on track for Sunday's G1 Prix Morny at Deauville despite missing a piece of work two weeks ago. Campaigned by Tabor, Smith, Magnier, Westerberg and Brant, the juvenile was last seen winning the June 20 G1 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot.

"The plan is to run River Tiber [this weekend]," O'Brien told Sky Sports Racing. "He had a setback a couple of weeks ago so there will be a cloud over him when we do run him as we're a bit worried about his fitness, but the plan at the moment is to run.

A runaway winner in his career bow at Navan Apr. 22, the colt followed up with another victory at Naas May 21.

O'Brien continued, "He had a hold-up and missed his second-last piece of work so he had that week off, but he did a piece of work this week so that gave him a chance to go.

"He seems to be in good form since, but the ground that we lost you couldn't make back up with him."

O'Brien also indicated multiple Group 1 winner Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), last year's Gold Cup winner, may mark his return in the Sept. 10 G1 Irish St Leger. The chestnut was last seen destroying his rivals in the G1 Prix du Cadran at ParisLongchamp Oct. 1.

"Kyprios was at the Curragh for a canter last weekend after racing and that went well. He seems to have come out of that well," said O'Brien. "We're looking at maybe starting at the [Irish] Leger, but that's a tough enough race to come back in so we'd be hoping he could run a good race, come out of it OK and then have a look at something on Arc weekend, something like that, because you couldn't expect him to perform at his best after such a traumatic year. If it all went well we could look at next year with him."

WERTHEIMERS ACQUIRE WILDENSTEIN FAMILY'S DAYTON INVESTMENTS BLOODSTOCK PORTFOLIO

Wertheimer et Frere have purchased the entirety of the Wildenstein family's Dayton Investments bloodstock, including 'TDN Rising Star' and G3 Prix Penelope heroine Pensee Du Jour (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). She was due to race in the Ballymore Thoroughbred Racing colours in the G2 Prix de la Nonette on Sunday, but will instead carry the blue silks with white sleeves and seams of Alain and Gerard Wertheimer.

A storied operation since the 1920s, the Wildenstein family's bloodstock have produced a slew of stars on an international scale, including a quartet of G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winners. Current flagbearers for the breeding programme are four-time Group 1 winner Paddington (GB) (Siyouni {Fr})--an €420,000 yearling at the Arqana October Yearling Sale--and three-time top-level winner-turned Darley stallion Persian King (Ire) to name just a few.

"We confirm that we have recently acquired all the horses belonging to Dayton Investments," a spokesperson for Wertheimer et Frere told Journal de Galop on Thursday evening.

The spokesperson said, “This is a rare opportunity to integrate many elements of exceptional quality into our broodmare band, such as the dams of Classic [winners] Persian King and Paddington, the winner of the [2014 G1] 1000 Guineas Miss France (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), as well as horses-in-training, including Pensee Du Jour. The yearlings and foals also join the Wertheimer et Frere squad.

“We hope to continue to develop the success of the great families of Dayton Investments who, since 1923, have been among the most important families in the European stud book and have notably produced four Arc de Triomphe winners. The main lines that will thus join the stable are from iconic mares such as Albertine (Fr), Madelia (Fr) or even Petroleuse (Ire).”

A yearling and horses-in-training dispersal was conducted for the Wildenstein family by Goffs during the 2016 Orby Sale.

SWIFT HAWK FLIES HIGHEST AT TATTERSALLS ONLINE

William Knight’s Rathmoy Stables consigned Swift Hawk (GB) (Hawkbill) and he brought a sale-topping 85,000gns from Tom Malone Bloodstock to lead the way during the Tattersalls Online August Sale which concluded on Thursday.

Sold as lot 16, the 3-year-old gelding has been placed three times from five runs over the turf and all-weather. His dam, Zacheta (GB) (Polish Precedent), has already foaled the dual group winner Ransom Note (GB) (Red Ransom), and another half-sibling is responsible for the Indian stakes winner Murioi (Ind) (Dubawi {Ire}). Under his granddam is three-time Group 1 winner Marienbard (Ire) (Caerleon).

“He’s a lovely 3-year old who has good size and scope and he came highly recommended by William Knight,” said Malone. “He was arguably very unfortunate to recently run second to a nice horse of William Haggas’s who is now rated 94. He looks the sort who will jump for us and I was very happy to get him.”

Mitch Beer Racing and Heywood Bloodstock signed for Desert Voice (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) at 50,000gns. Lot 28, from William Haggas’s Somerville Lodge, sports two wins from four starts and is bound for Australia. Her second dam is the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup winner Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector), with four of her daughters foaling black-type winners including G1 Irish Derby runner-up Piz Badile (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}), and G2 Gimcrack S. hero Threat (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}).

Beer said, “We were looking for fillies and found her. She is a lightly raced, two-time winning filly by Invincible Spirit who needs no introduction down here. We spoke to William Haggas and he recommended her for Australia so it was a no-brainer. There are so many options for her down here and I can’t wait to get her home.”

Seraphic (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) (lot 8) was another who found favour with buyers, bringing 37,000gns from Killarney Glen. The Ecurie Hugo Merienne-consigned gelding has been placed under both codes and was last seen winning by 30 lengths.

Altenbach Bloodstock’s Lorelei Rock (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) (lot 65) was knocked down for that price by Ladyswood Stud, as well. The stakes-winning mare is pregnant to Havana Grey (GB).

A total of 32 lots sold for a gross of 474,200gns. The average was 14,819gns and the median was 6,500gns.

DULLINGHAM PARK TO SPONSOR GROUP 2 AT LEOPARDSTOWN DURING IRISH CHAMPIONS FESTIVAL

Dullingham Park is the new sponsor of the G2 Clipper Mile on the first day of the Irish Champions Festival at Leopardstown on Sept. 9, Leopardstown Racecourse announced on Thursday.

One of Newmarket’s oldest establishments, Dullingham Park has recently been renovated and expanded as part of owner Steve Parkin’s Clipper Group. The one-mile race was upgraded to Group 2 status in 2014, and has been won in the past by Parkin’s Space Traveller (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), who now stands at stud at Ballyhane Stud in Ireland.

Ollie Fowlston, Managing Director of Dullingham Park, said, “This is a wonderful opportunity to be involved in such a prestigious race meeting, it is a race that Steve Parkin has a close affinity with due to him owning past winners Suedois and Space Traveller. Dullingham Park is a new venture and we look forward to welcoming visitors from both Ireland and the UK. Irish Champions Festival is a remarkable meeting and we could not be more thrilled to support one of the biggest days in the Irish racing calendar.” Cont. p14

Tim Husbands, CEO of Leopardstown Racecourse, added, "We are delighted to welcome Dullingham Park to Leopardstown as sponsor of the G2 Dullingham Park S. Steve Parkin has had a long and successful association with Irish Champions Festival as an owner and sponsor and we are thrilled that he has chosen this elite racing festival to showcase his new stud farm."

Tulipa Chope | ScoopDyga

Tulipa Chope followed up a May 15 debut success tackling six furlongs for Kevin Tavares at Bordeaux-Le-Bouscat with a June 25 third for new connections at Lyon-Parilly and went postward for this coming back off a third over seven furlongs in Vichy's July 19 Listed Prix des Jouvenceaux et des Jouvencelles. Shuffled back to occupy a position in rear after breaking in the second rank, she was angled to the outer when making headway into contention approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under late rousting to deny Zabiar near the line for a career high.

"The initial groundwork was done well by her former trainer Kevin Tavares and I have only overseen her general maintenance in the interim," explained in-form trainer Stephane Wattel. "Her subsequent improvement has been a natural progression since Mr [Alain] Jathiere purchased her. She is a beautiful filly and maybe there is more to come."

Tulipa Chope is the fifth of six foals and one of three scorers produced by a winning daughter of Vandalixa (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), herself a full-sister to Listed Prix Imprudence victrix Valima (Fr).

Valima is the dam of G1 Prix de Diane heroine Valyra (GB) (Azamour {Ire}), dual Group-winning sire Valirann (Fr) (Nayef), stakes-winning G3 Prix Daphnis runner-up Valiyr (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) and the dual stakes-placed Valasyra (Fr) (Sinndar {Ire}). Valasyra, in turn, is the dam of the stakes-placed duo Vadsariya (Fr) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and Varana (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), with the latter being the dam of Listed Prix de la Cochere victrix Varkesha (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}). JASNA'S SECRET (FR) (f, 2, Galiway {GB}--Orpena {Ire}, by Orpen), who scored on debut over this course and distance last month, tracked the leader Zorken (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) throughout the early stages of this valuable Criterium d'Ete sales race. Breezing by that Listed Criterium du Bequet and the G3 Prix du Bois runner-up with 300 metres remaining, the 12-5 second favourite who was a bargain €42,000 Arqana September graduate made the eight-pound pull with that rival count as she extended to win by three lengths. "She is a smashing filly," trainer Carlos Lerner said. "When she first ran she won nicely, but today she was very impressive. She had improved a lot from her first run and we were confident of a great performance. She has a lot of class and I am sure that she will stay the mile. She has been entered in the [G1] Prix Marcel Boussac and we will see if she will run again in between." Orpena, who is kin to the listed scorer and stakes producer Flash Dance (Ire) (Zamindar) and to the dams of the South Beach S. winner and GIII Athenia S. runner-up Stormy Victoria (Fr) (Stormy River {Fr}) and the G1 Golden Horse Sprint winner Battle Force (SAf) (Act Of War {SAf}), descends from the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Riverqueen (Fr) (Luthier {Fr}). MIRADOR (FR) (g, 2, Almanzor {Fr}--Abraxa {Ire} {SW & GSP-Ger}, by Verglas {Ire}), sent off at 8-1 for this Arqana Series des Poulains, was settled in mid-division early. Challenging towards the stands, another cheap purchase to excel on this card as a €35,000 Arqana October graduate hit the front with a furlong remaining and drew away to score by 1 1/4 lengths from National Interest (Fr) (Kingman {GB}). The winner is currently the last known foal out of the useful dam, a listed scorer and group 3-placed in Germany who is kin to the dam of the GIII Florida Oaks winner Outburst (GB) (f. by Outstrip (GB)). ROSE BLOOM (IRE) (f, 2, Lope De Vega {Ire}--Xaarienne {GB} {MSP-Fr}, by Xaar {GB}) found cover off the pace in seventh through halfway in this valuable Arqana Series des Pouliches for unraced fillies. Nudged closer with 500 metres remaining, the 7-2 favourite was caught in traffic approaching the final furlong and quickened smartly under a late drive once into the clear to deny Atlantic Ways (Ire) (Ulysses {Ire}) by a length in the dying strides. Rose Bloom is the eighth of nine foals and fifth scorer out of the dual stakes-placed Xaarienne (GB) (Xaar {GB}), who has also produced G3 Prix Six Perfections victrix See The Rose (Ire) (Kendargent {Fr}), Listed Prix Francois Boutin victor Xaarino (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}), G3 Prix de Cabourg placegetter Mont Kiara (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) and a yearling full-sister to the winner. Taking until the final half a furlong to gain the upper hand over that spirited rival, the 30-100 favourite eked out a half-length margin at the line. "Ryan said he was very babyish still, that he came out and he didn't really know what to do even after having a run," Aidan O'Brien said. "He said he always felt that he was going to win, but that he was very green with him and he said he felt like a horse that was going to improve a lot so we won't rush him. We could look at something like the [G2] Beresford, so we won't have to rush him and he'll stay at a mile. He'll handle an ease in the ground too and he's a middle-distance horse for next year." Chief Little Rock is the fourth foal out of the G1 Thousand Guineas, G2 Milady S. and G2 NSW Breeders Classic-winning dam, whose first is Galileo's Okita Soushi (Ire) who was second in the Listed Orby S. and who captured Royal Ascot's Duke of Edinburgh H. FED UP WITH THE CAWS, BRENT SUMJA IS NOW AN EX-HORSEPLAYER

by Bill Finley

It was back in 2004 that Brent Sumja made a career decision. He was among the leading trainers in Northern California, but wasn't following his true passion. That was playing the horses. So he disbanded his stable and set out to be a professional handicapper. It went well. He played the races regularly and also focused on the handicapping tournaments. In 2014, Sumja won five tournaments in a four-month span from May to September to clinch the title of 2013 Daily Racing Form NHC Tour Champion and the first prize of $75,000 that goes with it. For years, he was confident that he had made the right decision.

But the game he was playing in 2013 is nothing like the game being played today. That, he says, is because of the proliferation of the Computer Assisted Wagering (CAW) players. He's found that he can't compete against them, their algorithms, their ability to bet huge amounts at the very last second and their huge rebates.

In a Tweet posted Sunday, Sumja announced that he was walking away. "They (CAW players) have infiltrated every last pool and after 40+ years I am done feeling and being duped by sketchy practices," he wrote. "Going to concentrate on other sports I am excited about. They ruined horse racing."

MULTIPLE GRADE I WINNER ART COLLECTOR EUTHANIZED AFTER DEVELOPING LAMINITIS by Bill Finley

Art Collector (Bernardini--Distorted Legacy, by Distorted Humor), a winner of eight stakes, including the 2023 GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational and the 2021 GI Woodward S., was euthanized Thursday in Saratoga after developing laminitis.

Horse Racing Nation was first with the story.

"This was sudden and a tough experience for me and my wife," said owner-breeder Bruce Lunsford. "I can summarize this pretty easily. He gave me my highest highs in this business and now my lowest low. That's as simple as I can put it. He will be in my brain and my thoughts for the rest of my life. He was very special. The biggest win of my life was in the Pegasus down in Miami, so this was a really big loss. And he was going to be a great sire."

Brent Sumja | Horsephotos

Ironically, the decision came after he made a winning bet on the 20-cent jackpot Pick Six at Del Mar. The winners paid $5.40, $14, $5.20, $56.80, $6.60 and $4.40 and the bet paid $3,216. Sumja is convinced it should have paid more and that the reason it didn't is because the CAW players swooped in and took home most of the pool.

"It's been a culmination of years of just feeling like something is going on that makes me feel that I am not playing on a level field because of the computer players," he said. "I don't understand technology, so I don't know how they are doing it. But I do know that when you see late odds changes and they are correct way too often in terms of them winning it seems not possible. It gives me a feeling that I am playing in a game that is stacked against me. You know the old adage, when you feel like you are the sucker at the table it's time to get up. I have read what Jerry Brown wrote in the Thoroughbred Daily News and have followed all the numbers Pat Cummings has been coming up with. It's made me realize I have no edge anymore. If I can't beat the computer players why should I play?"

Sumja said he had been wagering about $500,000 a year and worked with two other horseplayers, one betting $2 million a year, the other $1 million. Both partners have also quit wagering on racing. Sumja's wagering dollars are now devoted to sports betting.

"We're all out, but I don't think the tracks care," he said.

As is the case with many horseplayers, Sumja got tired of watching the horse he wagered on at 4-1 30 seconds before the race break on top and go down to 8-5. Even when those horses won, it left a bad taste in his mouth and he can't understand why the horses whose odds take a late plunge seem to win far more than their fair share. He is not willing to concede that maybe that's because the CAW players' algorithms are so good that they usually come up with the winner.

“I’m not going with the company line that they are just great handicappers. I don’t buy it,” he said.

Sumja wants the tracks to close the pools well before the race starts.

“They have to close the pools off significantly ahead of the first horses going into the gate,” he said. “That would take away the feeling that something isn’t quite right. You bet on sports and you take a team at +$350, the game ends and you win you get paid +$350. If you take a team getting four points and if they cover the spread you win. What horse racing is doing would be like them telling you with a football bet we’ll let you know what the spread is after the game has started. You might have plus three or plus six. We’ll let you know during or after the game. Why would you play that? You wouldn’t. Shut the pools down three minutes to post. Shut everything down. Let every player see what odds they are really getting.”

Sumja understands why the tracks willingly accept wagers from CAW players. By some estimates they now account for one-third of all the dollars wagered on U.S. racing or about $4 billion annually. The tracks have made a business decision that it’s in their best interests to take their bets. Sumja counters, saying that a lot of players are now doing the same, making a business decision that because of the CAW players it is not in their best interests to continue betting on the sport.

“If that’s what racetracks want, to cater to CAW players, that’s fine,” he said. “But you have a choice not to play nowadays. There are so many other types of wagering available. I’ve been making my own football line since I was 15. I love betting on sports. And when I make a sports bet that is paying 7-2 I get 7-2 if it wins and not 6-5. It’s a refreshing feeling.

“In his article, Jerry Brown wrote about the myth that horse racing won’t make it without the money being bet by CAWS. Horse racing made it for 100 years before anyone ever heard of CAW. I understand games change. If racetracks feel this is what they need to do to maintain their business that’s what they’re going to do. It also comes to a point where you make your own decisions and when you realize you’re in a bad spot you’ve got to stop playing. That’s my position. I’m not playing anymore. Neither are my friends.”

Sumja said that after he posted his tweet he heard from dozens of people who said they also have quit betting on racing and that they were happy that he spoke out. The horse racing industry used to get $500,000 a year in handle from Brent Sumja. Now it gets none. How much longer can this keep happening and how many more Brent Sumjas can it afford to lose before real and lasting harm is done to the sport? These are real problems and so far the sport hasn’t been able to offer any Trainer Bill Mott said the problems started only a few days ago but became more serious by the day.

“He started to develop laminitis a couple of days ago and he went in a hurry,” Mott said. “He had a very good work on the fifth of August and was fine the next day. Then he developed what appeared to be a small foot abscess two days later. We were soaking it and treating it. We didn’t think it was going to be anything serious, but it developed into laminitis in all four feet. He was with us in Saratoga and was in his stall. He started to get real uncomfortable on Tuesday. Yesterday was a bad day and it was getting worse and we had to make the decision to put him asleep.”

Art Collector was originally trained by Joe Sharp. He was transferred to trainer Tom Drury for his 3-year-old campaign. His first graded stakes win came for Drury in the 2020 GII Blue Grass S., which, because of the pandemic, was run on July 11. He returned with a win in the Ellis Park Derby before finishing fourth in the GI Preakness S., which began a three-race losing streak.

In July of 2021, Lunsford made the decision to turn the horse over to Mott, who helped turn around the horse’s career. He won his first three starts for Mott in a streak that included the Alydar S., the GII Charles Town Classic and the Woodward. He scored another win in the Charles Town Classic in 2022. After winning this year’s Pegasus, he finished his career with second-place finishes in the GII New Orleans Classic and the GII Alysheba.

He was being pointed for a return visit to this year's Charles Town Classic. Lunsford said the plan was to retire Art Collector after the Charles Town race and then to send him to Claiborne Farm, where he was to stand at stud.

Art Collector won 11 of 21 starts and earned $4,231,290.

"To win the Pegasus, what a brilliant race that was for him," Mott said. "It may be the biggest race of the year so far in North America. We all have great memories of that. He won 50% of his races. He wasn't just an average race horse. He was pretty special."

CHRB AWARDS '24 SOCAL DATES, BUT WARNS NORCAL UNCERTAINTY COULD BE FACTOR IN FINAL SAY

by T.D. Thornton

Southern California's racing calendar for 2024 will nearly mirror this year's dates template, with the exception of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club being awarded a fifth week at its fall meet to dovetail with that track's hosting of the Nov. 1-2 Breeders' Cup.

But several California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) commissioners who voted in favor of next year's SoCal schedule at the Aug. 17 monthly meeting made it clear those dates allocations were not to be considered a "rubber stamp" approval that couldn't change at some point in the future.

That caveat was relevant because of the uncertainty unleashed upon the statewide industry July 16 when 1/ST Racing, which owns both Santa Anita Park and Golden Gate Fields, announced that Golden Gate would cease racing at the end of this year.

On Aug. 16, a 1/ST Racing executive said at a meeting of the CHRB's race dates committee, which reports to the full board, that the company might be willing to push back Golden Gate's closure by six months, to June 2024, pending discussions with industry stakeholders about how to best re-work the NorCal schedule in a way that doesn't harm the $30 million investment the company is making to improve SoCal racing.

That Wednesday news about Golden Gate's possible six-month reprieve prompted differing opinions on Thursday between the California Thoroughbred Trainers (CTT) and the Thoroughbred Owners of California (TOC) about how the CHRB should handle its scheduled agenda item that dealt with the awarding of the '24 SoCal dates.

Alan Balch, the CTT's executive director, advocated for the CHRB to hold off on awarding the '24 SoCal dates.

"We believe the entire state is interdependent," Balch said. "We welcomed the [1/ST Racing] suggestion [Wednesday], not only that they would consider extending northern California at Golden Gate, but that they supported additional racing in the future in Northern California after the closure of Golden Gate. Since the state is integrated, because horses run [on both northern and southern circuits], we strongly urge this board not to allocate southern California dates given the pendency of potential legislation, and for many other reasons, until all the stakeholders can get together [to work out a plan]."

Bill Nader, the TOC's president and chief executive officer, said that it was his group's belief that the "absence of insight in knowing what the north might look like didn't really influence the south."

Thus, Nader continued, it would be "prudent" to award the SoCal dates on Thursday in order to give "the rest of the country some clarity and completeness that California is still strong and has a vision leading into 2024."

CHRB commissioner Thomas Hudnut said he thought the CTT's

idea had merit because delaying the awarding of dates to Santa Anita could be used as an aid in negotiating how 1/ST Racing might help the industry absorb the massive gap it is creating in the NorCal schedule.

"We can't force dates on anybody. But we can withhold them," Hudnut said. "And I think there is some merit in the suggestion of the CTT to avoid awarding any dates right now. The dates are the 'carrot,' and the 'stick' we have is not awarding them pending people getting their collective acts together..."

After listening to industry stakeholders go back and forth for 2 3/4 hours at Wednesday's dates committee meeting, CHRB commissioners Wendy Mitchell and Damascus Castellanos both expressed concerns on Thursday how some entities didn't seem to be acting with enough urgency considering one month has passed since 1/ST Racing let it be known it would walk away from California's lone commercial Thoroughbred license in the north.

"I've been on this board four years now, and we're really at a crossroads more so than I think we've been [at] in my time here," Mitchell said. "And I'm very concerned.... It is more urgent than it's ever been to have the industry stay in California."

Said Castellanos: "Everybody has an idea of working together and doing what they've got to do for the industry. But nobody really came to us [Wednesday] with a plan.... So my concern is the urgency.... We can't force dates on anybody. You guys have got to come up with this.... I suggest, as an industry, get together. Figure it out."

Eventually, Hudnut moved to defer the allocation of the SoCal race dates until the board's September meeting. But no commissioner seconded his motion, so it died.

CHRB chairman Gregory Ferraro, DVM, took a different approach. He not only made a motion that the board take up the SoCal dates issue right away, but he specified that the '24 dates for that region be "the exact replication of the dates we awarded for 2023, with the exception of the one week" during which Del Mar hosts Breeders' Cup.

Santa Anita, this year's Breeders' Cup host, currently has control of that extra autumn week. Its executives did not lodge any opposition Thursday to Del Mar being granted that week in '24.

Ferraro's motion was seconded. Before the final vote was taken, CHRB vice chair Oscar Gonzales reminded commissioners who might be cognizant of Hudnut's "carrot and stick" analogy that the board still has other resources to act as cudgels of compliance, such as the CHRB's powers to halt any licensee's ability to race at any time, or even to deny a license altogether after blocks of dates have been awarded.

"I mean, we have a lot of latitude as the board, so it's among the reasons that I intend to vote for southern California racing dates knowing that this board has been empowered [to make changes after awarding blocks of dates]," Gonzales said. "I believe we are going to be paying very, very close attention to see how things unfold here over the next few weeks and months."

The motion to award the '24 SoCal dates then passed, with Hudnut casting the lone dissenting vote.

The exact blocks of SoCal dates were not read into the record prior to the vote. But the template they will follow lines up with year's rotation: Santa Anita from Dec. 26, 2023, to late June 2024; then Los Alamitos through early July; Del Mar through mid-September; Los Alamitos until late September; Santa Anita through late October; Del Mar through the first week of December; Los Alamitos until late December.

Coming in off a gate-to-wire victory in the Tyro S. on July 30, No Nay Mets (Ire) (No Nay Never) looks to extend his record to three-for-four in Friday's Skidmore S. at Saratoga. Trainer George Weaver was so impressed with his juvenile pupil's recent performance at Monmouth Park that he decided to send the two-time stakes winner to another start less than three weeks after seeing the winner's circle.

"It's hard early on with these 2-year-old races to know exactly what you're running against, but when you win by five lengths, that's a pretty big margin sprinting on the grass," Weaver said of the Tyro win. "He just sprinted away from those guys in the stretch. He's always had a bunch of quality."

Front)--whose family includes GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) under the second dam--No Nay Mets was originally slated as a pinhook prospect for Houston Astros All-Star Alex Bregman when he was purchased for €180,000 at the 2022 Arqana August Yearling Sale. Although the juvenile posted a :20 4/5 breeze at the OBS Spring Sale, bidding stalled at $335,000.

Retained by his original buyer, No Nay Mets was sent to Weaver, who was tasked with preparing him for the Royal Palm Juvenile S. just a few weeks after the sale.

"He went straight from the sale to me and he's been straightforward and a very smart colt from day one," said Weaver. "We never really had to rush him with his gate work. We shipped him to Gulfstream to work out of the gate. We shipped him to run at Gulfstream. We shipped him to England. Nothing fazed him."

No Nay Mets was a front-running 3 1/2-length winner at Gulfstream, where he earned an automatic berth to compete at Royal Ascot, but the colt did not fare as well as his stablemate Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) at the prestigious meet. After failing to get the same speedy start he had shown on debut, he settled for ninth in the G2 Norfolk S.

"He didn't get away and wasn't able to cut the pace that day," said his conditioner. "I think his speed is his asset. He came back at Monmouth and we used his speed and it just worked out a lot better."

Owners Bregman Family Racing and Ivan Carbrera are hoping that their star can come back with a similar performance at Saratoga, but a rainy forecast Friday morning could put a damper on their plans.

"I would prefer not to run him under unfavorable circumstances," admitted Weaver. "He's been so good to us and he just won. We're coming back on a short rest, but I'll just have to talk with Alex and we'll do what we think is best."

For now, morning-line favorite No Nay Mets is slated to race from the seven position in a 10-horse Skidmore. The field also includes Mike Maker's Ship Cadet (Midshipman), who was second to No Nay Mets in the Tyro. Stonestreet Stables' Fandom (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) was impressive in his debut at Keeneland this spring, but he finished a disappointing 11th in the G2 Coventry S. at Ascot. The MyRacehorse colorbearer Seize the Grey (Arrogate) will make his turf debut coming off a maiden win in the slop for D. Wayne Lukas on July 29 at Saratoga.

runner-up Market Street (Street Sense) will likely make his next start on grass in the Aug. 31 GIII With Anticipation S.

Lukas, 87, built his exceptional career with dirt horses and most years saddles far fewer horses on the grass. So far in 2023, just six of his 193 starters (3%) have run on turf. Since the beginning of 2019, 11.9% of his starters have been on turf. His most recent graded stakes winner on turf was Skyring (English Channel) in the 2014 GII Mervin Muniz Jr. H.

In the last four-and-a-half seasons, Lukas has had 38 2-year-old starters on turf from a total of 301 runners (12.6%) and has a record of 0-1-4.

Conditions permitting, Lukas's first 2-year-old runner on the grass this year could be Seize the Grey (Arrogate) Friday in the Skidmore S. With a rain forecast of 90% Thursday night and 100% Friday, there is a good chance that the New York Racing Association will move the turf races to the dirt.

Lukas has targeted the 1 1/16 miles With Anticipation for Market Street because he is planning to run Just Steel (Justify) in the GI Hopeful Sept. 4. Just Steel finished second by three lengths to 'TDN Rising Star' Pirate (Omaha Beach) on July 15 and broke his maiden by a nose on Aug. 5.

Market Street set the early pace in the 6 1/2-furlong Saratoga Special, but Rhyme Schemes (Ghostzapper) unleashed an impressive run in the stretch and matched his Ellis Park maiden score with a 9 1/2-length victory.

Lukas said he was pleased with Market Street's run in the Special--"I thought it was good enough," he said--even though he was a distant second to a spectacular performance.

"That's what happens up here," he said. "You run a real good race and all of a sudden you look up and there's one that is really good. You have to deal with them."

Lukas said Market Street will not train on the turf before the With Anticipation, but with his running style should be able to handle the surface change.

"We're not smart enough to have a crystal ball to tell whether they like it or not," he said. "That's always a conversation among trainers. I always say, 'I don't think anybody knows till they try it.' I've really got a couple other horses backed up, so it's kind of a nice fit for him to drop in there."

Lukas noted that in this wet summer at Saratoga Race Course the With Anticipation might end up on the dirt.

Through Wednesday's racing, Lukas has a record at Saratoga of 2-9-0 from 25 starters. Both of his wins and five of his seconds have come from 13 starts with 2-year-olds. He said he has five maidens in his barn.

"Our 2-year-olds should all come around a second time now pretty strong," Lukas said.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM STARVATION TO THE RPP MAKEOVER: HOOSIER ARTIST

Frida, formerly known as Hoosier Artist | Taylor Tricarico

On an impossibly sunny day in October 2022, I found myself at L&D Stables in Nicholasville, Kentucky, looking at a very handsome chestnut gelding for my first OTTB restart project.

Despite his flashy presence, my eye kept drifting to a small herd of mares in a nearby paddock. I made my way to the fence line and was met immediately by a pair of kind eyes and an inquisitive pink nose, searching for my face and neck. Sixty seconds later that nose was gently resting on my shoulder. I was won over. Three days later, Hoosier Artist came home as 'Frida.'

This chance meeting was not the beginning of Frida's story of course. Not even close! By the time we were serendipitously united, this little 5-year-old mare had already endured and overcome so much.

Hoosier Artist was rescued from an extreme neglect situation in April 2021 by Lonnie and Diana Winkelspecht, the owners of L&D Stables. Literal skin-and-bones and struggling to stand, she was fighting for her life. After weeks and weeks without food, water and care, other horses on the same property had already perished and for some the only option was euthanasia. The scene was a nightmare. Despite her condition and against the recommendations of veterinarians, Lonnie and Diana knew they had to give this little filly a chance. They began nursing her back to health, sparing no resources. She was small, weak and unable to eat anything, but water-soaked hay and she was scared of everyone. Over the next few months they not only nourished and strengthened her body, but earned her trust.

Frida with Taylor | Taylor Tricarico

Hoosier Artist exceeded everyone's expectations and by mid-summer she was thriving! She began race training in earnest and showed grit and grace. Her first race left everyone who knew her in awe, and in some cases tears of joy. How was this the same horse that had to be supported to stand? How was this the same filly that had a body score of one, not six months earlier? And now she was doing what she was bred to do.

Despite a promising first time out, her racing career was short-lived, lasting only a half dozen times. Following a mismatch of training styles, the difficult decision was made not to push her, but to bring her back to L&D. This is where she stayed as the farm favorite, for several months before our accidental meeting.

I had no specific plans for Frida when she stepped off the trailer at my little farm in Versailles, Kentucky. All I knew is that this was a special soul and I was lucky to now call her mine. During our first off-track ride she couldn't turn right to save her life, as her gates were erratic and she held her head so high I wondered how she could see where she was going. But she was reasonable, responsive and had the best stop I'd ever sat. Two weeks later, we were riding bareback in a halter. Two months after that, she'd mastered all the groundwork I could throw at her. Before I knew it, my 7-year-old son was piloting her. This was a good horse. But what to do with her?

I'd missed the application window for the 2023 Retired Racehorse Project Thoroughbred Makeover (RRPTM), when a ISO Facebook post caught my eye. A young trainer was looking to buy an RRPTM horse that matched Frida's description exactly: kind, quiet, slow, small. I messaged her asking, "I know this is a long shot, but would you be willing to partner and take my mare to the RRPTM? She's not for sale, but she is just what you are looking for." The next day Blakely Releford was in my round pen working with Frida, swooning over her quick brain and sweet demeanor. I could tell immediately that this was a perfect match. A partnership was born and Hoosier Artist, the little-mare-that-could, was RRP bound!

--Taylor Tricarico, Versailles, KY

HONOR CODE TO STAND AT YUSHUN STALLION STATION

MGISW Honor Code (A.P. Indy) has been sold and will stand the 2024 breeding season at Yushun Stallion Station in Japan, Lane's End Farm said in a release Thursday.

The 12-year-old, who will take his place alongside notable sires such as Henny Hughes (Hennessy), will offer an outcross to the many Sunday Silence mares there.

Bred in Kentucky by Dell Ridge and campaigned by that farm along with Lane's End Racing, Honor Code entered stud at Lane's End in 2016.

"We are hopeful that on completion of his stud career Honor Code will return to Lane's End. He has provided us with so many memories. We would love to have him back some day," said Bill Parish of Lane's End Farm.

SPORTS BETTING THREE WEEKS AWAY IN KENTUCKY

With the opening day of sports betting just three weeks away, Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear has provided a timeline of key dates, including that betting will officially start at 10 a.m. EDT on Thursday, Sept. 7, for in-person bets at licensed retail facilities.

A list of approved retail facilities and mobile applications will be released Aug. 22, following the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) meeting.

"The countdown is on. We are just three weeks away from sports wagering in Kentucky," said Gov. Beshear. "We are ready to deliver the quality entertainment experience Kentuckians asked for, while bringing money to the state to support pensions and free up funds that can be used to build a better Kentucky."

Sports Betting Timeline:

- Tuesday, Aug. 22, at 1:30 p.m. EDT: KHRC will meet to vote on license applications. This vote will determine which retail facilities and mobile applications will be approved for use in Kentucky.
- Monday, Aug. 28, at 6 a.m. EDT: Kentuckians can pre-register an account with approved mobile applications. Allowing pre-registration eases strains on electronic systems that can sometimes happen when many people try to register at once.
- Thursday, Sept. 7, at 10 a.m. EDT: Wagerers can place an in-person bet at licensed retail facilities.
- Thursday, Sept. 28, at 6 a.m. EDT: Approved mobile applications can start taking wagers.

"The KHRC is excited to open sports wagering and is working efficiently to meet the necessary deadlines. This is a careful process dedicated to wagering integrity and protecting bettors in the state of Kentucky," said Kentucky Horse Racing Commission Chairman Jonathan Rabinowitz.

THOROUGHBRED OWNER CONFERENCE SERIES 'BUYING AT PUBLIC AUCTION' NOW ONLINE

The seventh panel of the OwnerView Virtual Thoroughbred Owner Conference held Tuesday, Aug. 15, is now available online.

The session featured bloodstock agents Erin Birkenhauer, Murette Farrell and Mike Ryan, plus auctioneer Tom Biederman discussing horse selection and the bidding process at Thoroughbred auctions. The panel was moderated by OwnerView's project manager, Gary Falter.

Topics included yearling sales, buying 2-year-olds, buying horses in training, the importance of vet records and conformation.

"For people getting into the business for the first time, a great approach is to buy some fillies because you have some exit strategy, you've got resale/residual value," Ryan said.

There are four more Thoroughbred Owner Conference virtual panels scheduled for 2023, with the next session, 'Claiming,' to be held Sept. 12 at 2 p.m. (ET).

There are no fees for the series, but registration is required. Click here for more information.

LATE NYRA PHOTOGRAPHER BOB COGLIANESE TO BE HONORED AT SARATOGA

Bob Coglianese | courtesy NYRA

Friday's first race at Saratoga is named in honor of Bob Coglianese, the late NYRA track photographer who passed away in December. Coglianese, who would have been celebrating his 89th birthday, spent more than half of a century documenting racing history. Friends from his decades at the track are welcome to join in the winner's circle presentation following the race and all are encouraged to turn their attention to the on-track screens for a video tribute. If you would like to honor his legacy, the Coglianese family recommends donations to the Belmont Child Care Association, the Backstretch Employee Service Team, or the New York Race Track Chaplaincy.

MILLION-DOLLAR INTO MISCHIEF DEBUTS AT ELLIS

6th-ELP, $70K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 3:18 p.m.

Live Oak Plantation's CHARLOTTEAPPROVAL (Into Mischief) makes it to the races Friday afternoon at Ellis Park in her first start since bringing $1,000,000 as a yearling at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. She is the second foal out of MGSW Curlin's Approval (Curlin). Racing out of the Mark Casse barn, she fired a bullet drill two back, going four furlongs from the gate in :47 3/5 (1/16) July 6 and most recently went another four furlongs in :48 4/5 (9/32) July 28.

In the middle of the gate, Courbe (Quality Road) is a Wertheimer and Frere homebred from the family of Honest Lady, herself a half-sister to the late Empire Maker (Unbridled). Under that third dam is GI Forego H. winner First Defence (Unbridled's Song) and MSW/GSP Honest Mischief (Into Mischief). TJCIS PPS

A $550,000 Keeneland September yearling, Rhiannon (Medaglia d'Oro) makes the races for CHP Racing and trainer Chad Brown. Out of a graded-stakes winning mare who is a half to MGSW Divine Oath (Broken Vow), this is the family of GSW/GISP Ocho Ocho Ocho (Street Sense) and MGSW Interactif (Broken Vow).

Making her first start back since March is Magical Song (Tapit), the second foal out of dual-champion mare Songbird. Jose Ortiz gets aboard for this filly's fourth start, her first for trainer Todd Pletcher who removes the blinkers in this spot. TJCIS PPS

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the horses entered for Friday at Ellis Park:

Racing at 1 1/16 miles for the first time since last Fall, Ramblin' Wreck has contested four-straight stakes races and picked up the win two back in the New York Stallion Series S. at Belmont June 18. He was beaten just a neck as the favorite in the same division July 20 at Saratoga. Taken back after the start to tail the field, the 4-5 favorite was ready to run but kept under wraps up the backstretch through a half in :24.61. Unleashed just behind

Ramblin' Wreck (outside) duels with Let's Go Big Blue
Sarah Andrew

Let's Go Big Blue turning for home, the pair duelled the length of the lane and Ramblin' Wreck just missed the bob to be second under the line. A steward's inquiry into the stretch run determined that Let's Go Big Blue, racing to the inside, drifted out and impeded Ramblin' Wreck in the final sixteenth enough to merit a disqualification, awarding Ramblin' Wreck the win.

"I think [the interference] cost us the win," said winning trainer Danny Gargan. "When these colts and geldings get next to each other, they want to lay on each other. We lost half a stride and we didn't even get beat a half-length. I think the stewards made the right call. That cost us the nose we lost by."

The winner, out of a half to GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Dakota Phone (Zavata), has a weanling Caravaggio half-brother while his dam visited Justify for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

NOT SO CLOSE (f, 4, Empire Maker--Bird Legacy, by Mineshaft) made her first six starts on the main track before switching to the turf last time out to be second at Ellis July 1. An 8-1 shot Thursday, the homebred rushed up to set the tempo from an outer draw and was never headed, holding off a challenge from a closing Chili Flag (Fr) (Cityscape {GB}) to nab the win by three-quarters of a length. A half-sister to Bird King (Tiznow), SW, $245,290, Not So Close is out of a half to champion 3-year-old filly Bird Town (Cape Town) and MGISW Birdstone (Grindstone). Up to contest the pace from the opening call Thursday, the 8-5 second choice turned back Goodlookingjustice (Street Boss) and opened up a sizeable advantage down the lane to defeat that rival by 8 1/2 lengths. TANGENTIAL (f, 3, Justify--Missamerica Bertie, by Quiet American) made a pair of starts as a juvenile after bringing $450,000 at OBS April last year but went winless on both the dirt and the turf in New York. Not seen since missing by a neck at Aqueduct last November, she returned Thursday with Lasix as the 3-1 choice. Held just off Sister Maha (American Pharoah) despite breaking on even terms, Tangential had to rate up the backstretch, shifted out to begin her move as the top group swung off the turn, and was urged to the line to win by 1 1/4 lengths. No Deli (Ire) (No Nay Never) closed from last to get second. The eighth-straight winner for her dam, Tangential is a half to Carried Interest (Henny Hughes), GSP, $208,874.

Missamerica Bertie is herself a half to MGSW/GISP Hurricane Bertie (Storm Boot) and to the dam of MGISW Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid). 3rd-Woodbine, C$87,852, Msw, 8-17, 3yo/up, 7f (AWT), 1:23.88, ft, 3/4 length.

CHAMBER MUSIC (g, 3, Mendelssohn--Dance to the Sea, by Gone West) faded from the lead in his last start over the synthetic track at Woodbine Nov. 22. Quickly into stride despite early contact shortly after the break, the 5-1 shot raced just off a leading duo through a half in :46.31 before pouncing with a wide move at the head of the lane. Late leader Alpha Meister (Tapizar) was game but Chamber Music was able to just gain an advantage close to home to graudate by three-quarters of a length. Second dam Dance Smartly, herself a Canadian Horse of the Year, produced Canadian champion 3-year-old filly Dancethruthedawn (Mr. Prospector) and Queen's Plate winner

Scatter the Gold (Mr. Prospector). Third dam Classy 'n Smart, another Canadian champion 3-year-old filly, is responsible for GISW and sire Smart Strike (Mr. Prospector). The winner has a yearling half-sister by Ransom the Moon while his dam visited Aloha West for next year. Sales History: $210,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. FLOWERS FOR ME (f, 2, West Coast--I Do Declare, by Declaration of War) was sixth as a 41-1 longshot in a similar spot facing an auction-restricted field at the Spa July 19. Ridden for the front, the 13-1 shot was out-sprinted and had to tuck in behind Leslie's Loot (Fast Anna) through a half in :46.08. Tipped outside of that rival into the far turn, she rallied to take over a furlong from home and was ridden out to the two-length win. Ginuccha (Maximus Mischief) rounded out the exacta. I Do Declare is a half-sister to recent G2 Queen Mary S. winner Crimson Advocate (Nyquist). This is the family of champion 2-year-old filly Caledonia Road (Quailty Road). The winner has a yearling Accelerate half-brother. Sales History: $18,000 Ylg '22 OBSWIN. alertly, led through :22.76 and :45.52 fractions, opened up and came home a 3 1/2-length winner over Make It Snow (Empire Maker). The winner is a half to Backthetwoods (Flashback), SP, $242,947. Up to lead into the lane, she was driven out to win by 1 1/4 lengths with Independenceavenue holding second. Her freshman sire's (by Curlin) fifth winner, Cap Classique is a half to Assertive Style (Nyquist), GSP, $200,214, and from the extended family of dual-champion mare Tepin (Bernsetin) and MGSW/MGISP Vyjack (Into Mischief). Up on the lead with The Gang That Sang (Macleans Music) keeping her honest to the outside, she was able to separate from the field with a burst of speed into the stretch and drew off for the 3 1/4-length win over 8-1 shot Bondiva (Blofeld). GENUINE PERIL (f, 2, Enticed--Shoyoya, by Macho Uno) struggled as a longshot over the Colonial turf July 20 to be eighth but took money for this second start while switching to the main track and facing boys. In pursuit of Adios Pluma (Adios Charlie) and heavily-favored Sir Flash (Not This Time), the 9-2 chance rated off that pair through a half in :45.40 before tipping out to come with a four-wide move out of the far turn. Up to engage Sir Flash midstretch, she was able to drive past and graduate by 1 1/4 lengths. The eighth winner for her freshman sire (by Medaglia d'Oro), Genuine Peril is out of a full-sister to Gill Withers S. winner and GI Hill 'N' Dale Cigar Mile H. runner up Harlem Rocker. EMBLEM BOMB (c, 2, St Patrick's Day--Jelly Cable, by Sky Mesa) is out of a stakes-placed daughter of black-type winner Linda Coqueta (Rubiano), the dam of three-time SP Alfarabi (Yes It's True) and GSP Capo (Capote). This Mar. 18 foal failed to find a new home when bidding stalled at $15,000 at last year's OBS October Sale, but he became the second-priciest 2-year-old from the first crop of this full-brother to American Pharoah when hammering to Hideyuki Mori for $155,000 at this year's OBS March Sale (21 sold/25 ring) after working in :10 flat. B-Brent & Crystal Fernung (FL)

6th-KOK, ¥13,720,000 ($94k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1700m

JASPER ROBUSTO (c, 2, Khozan--Prize Informant, by Marciano) was purchased by Blaz Perez Stable for $27,000 at OBSOCT last fall, but blossomed over the next several months and was sold to Mori on behalf of the 'Jasper' owner Kazuo Kato for $265,000 at OBSMAR, the best of 25 juveniles (33 ring) by the sire during this season's breeze-ups (:9 4/5). The bay is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to Wise Answer (Wised Up), who nearly swept the Florida Stallion S. series in 2007, capped by a 10-length romp in the In Reality S. at Calder. Produced by a half-sister to this year's G3 UAE Oaks heroine Mimi Kakushi (City of Light) and MSW Moment Is Right (Medaglia d'Oro), this March foal fetched $265,000 from Ciaran Dunne's Red Wings Enterprises at last year's Keeneland September Sale and lit up the tote at OBSMAR to the tune of $900,000 after working a furlong in :9 4/5. B-Woods Edge Farm LLC (KY)

KINGS CROWN (JPN) (c, 2, Yoshida {Jpn})--Tulips Galore, by Giant's Causeway) is the first Japanese starter for his WinStar-based stallion and was acquired in utero for $45,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. The unplaced dam is a half-sister to New York-bred stakes winner Gambling Girl (Dialed In), runner-up in this year's GI Kentucky Oaks, third in the GI CCA Oaks and entered for Saturday's GI Alabama S. at Saratoga. The colt's third dam Eventail (Lear Fan), a half-sister to Take Charge Lady (Dehere), is responsible for Heart's Cry's dual Japanese listed winner Strong Souther (Jpn) as well as GSW Straight Story (Giant's Causeway). B-Yuki Dendo
