LEE EINSIDLER JOINS THE TDN WRITERS’ ROOM PODCAST

The tough old pro Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) has now won four Grade I races, plus two more graded stakes over a career that began in 2018. There’s been a lot of highlights, but for his co-owner Lee Einsidler, one stands out, and it is last Saturday’s win at Saratoga in the GI Fourstardave H. To get the inside story on this year’s Fourstardave and the remarkable career of Casa Creed, Lee Einsidler joined us this week on the TDN Writers’ Room podcast sponsored by Keeneland. He was the Green Group Guest of the week.

“You’re running in a Grade I at Saratoga on national TV defending your title with a 7-year-old in an important race,” Einsidler said. “During the running of the race everything went against him. He had every reason to lose. He had every reason to run a good second. Annapolis was in front of us. He got the jump, which we knew that he would. We tracked him. He opened up three and it didn’t look good. But Casa Creed has the heart of a champion and just ran him down and got there by a length, not by an inch. So I have to say, what we did on Saturday was the best. The best so far. As a 7-year-old to win back-to-back Fourstardaves and get his fourth Grade I under very unfavorable conditions, that’s why it was the best one.”

Einsidler has so enjoyed the years he has owned Casa Creed along with partner Mike Francesca that he is looking to race him next year as an 8-year-old.

“What’s in a name?” Spurning Master Shakespeare and embracing anecdotal evidence, consider the tale of how Saratoga’s Oklahoma Training Track got its name. Horsemen complained that the distance across Union Avenue to the main course was such a hike that it might as well be in Boomer Sooner land.

Another piece from the past concerns the name of the Alabama S. Dating to 1872, the race was given that moniker after the Derby-winning owner William Cottrell of Mobile asked if it could be dubbed after his home state, instead of him. We need these names and the history within. What's in a name? Plenty.

Speaking of the Alabama S., another Grade I edition of the fabled race arrives this Saturday and it's a good group of filles that have assembled. As is her running style, Wet Paint (Blame) was up in the final jumps to win the GI CCA Oaks, her first at the elite level, at Saratoga last month. She'll once again face Sacred Wish (Not This Time) and GI Longines Kentucky Oaks runner-up Gambling Girl (Dialed In), who finished second and third, respectively.

Also present are a pair that Wet Paint bested in the GII Honeybee S. earlier this year at Oaklawn Park. GSW Taxed (Collected), trained by Randy Morse, certainly turned heads when she won the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico May 19, but she was last seen running second to Kenny McPeek trainee Defining Purpose (Cross Traffic) in the GII Indiana Oaks. That gray filly's best effort this year came when she won the GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 7, a race which included third-place runner GSW Julia Shining (Curlin), who returns for Todd Pletcher's barn here.

McPeek, who has won the Alabama twice, said when asked about the distance test for Defining Purpose, “She's been a filly that has been a bit of an overachiever from the beginning. She was a $14,000 RNA as a young horse, so everything she's accomplished up until now is all gravy. She's extremely smart and is very willing. She loves her tasks and she's an easy filly to train. She's training fantastic.”

The Saratoga Saturday card includes the GII Lake Placid S. for 3-year-old fillies and up on the inner turf. Chad Brown has a quartet ready, which includes GSW and GISP Prerequisite (Upstart), SW Aspray (Quality Road) and a pair of Klaravich Stables-owned entries in GIII Lake George S.-winner Surge Capacity (Flintshire (GB)) and Tax Implications (GB) (Mehmas {Ire}), who was second in that race. Cont.
Looking to record the first stakes victory of her career is Gloria’s Princess (Cairo Prince). The gray filly graduated from the maiden ranks at Churchill Downs May 3 and then won an allowance condition at Ellis Park for trainer Brendan Walsh June 25.

Heading west, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club is holding its own Grade I event, as the Del Mar Oaks has drawn a field of 10. Out of these 3-year-old fillies that will be going nine furlongs on the grass, Anisette (GB) (Awtaad {Ire}) performed impressively with a strong late turn of foot to win the Gil San Clemente S. for trainer Leo Powell July 22, while the Richard Mandella trainee Window Shopping (American Pharoah) netted her own Grade II when she won the Summertime Oaks June 3 at Santa Anita. Also from the Hall of Famer’s shedrow comes Ruby Nell (Bolt d’Oro), a $1.2-million ‘22 FTFMAR purchase by Spendthrift Farm, who won in gate-to-wire fashion against optional claimers at Del Mar July 22.

NEW Breeder’s awards for 1st through 3rd finishes

Beginning in with foals of 2024, Virginia breeders will earn bonuses for registered Virginia-breds finishing 1st through 3rd in open races in North America (state-bred and state-sired races are excluded except at Colonial Downs and NSA sanctioned meets in Virginia*).

Foals must be dropped in Virginia and the foal’s dam must reside in Virginia from September 1st, 2023, until foaling the following year. Mares purchased at public sale after September 1st may enter the program if they arrive at a Virginia Facility within fifteen days of the purchase date (60 days if purchased outside of the U.S.)

*Upon approval by the Virginia Racing Commission

“She’s all the talk. I’m at five million three, three, three, two, three, five million two, five million three. On e.c. now, five million two—three! Four, four. Go ahead, e.c. four? Four million five. Four million four. Four million five. Oh my, four million four. I got five million five. Five million six, six, all through? Thank you for what you did do. Five million five and, in the back. Five million, five hundred thousand. And good luck.”

Two tracks that will sport their own weekend graded stakes races include Monmouth Park and Woodbine Racetrack. The ‘Shore’s Greatest Stretch’ will host the GIII Philip H. Iselin S. for older horses going a mile and a sixteen on the dirt. As the heavy morning-line favorite, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Zozos (Munnings) comes in for Brad Cox off two stakes wins in a row.

Heading north to Canada, Woodbine hosts the prep for the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile on Saturday as 11 are scheduled to go to the post for the GI King Edward S. Turf veteran GISW ‘TDN Rising Star’ Shirl’s Speight (Speightstown) returns to the races after he ran fourth in the G1 Dubai Turf on World Cup Night back in late March, as he will square off against GSW ‘TDN Rising Star’ Salimah (El Kabeir) will try to notch his sixth win in what will be his seventh career start in the Bold Venture, while in the Dance Smartly, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Salimah (El Kabeir) ships in for trainer Chad Brown and the 2022 Canadian Horse of the Year Moira (Ghostzapper) looks to return to her winning ways. Il Malocchio (Souper Speedy) goes from Tapeta to turf after she won the GIII Trillium S. last time.

“He’s [Shirl’s Speight] still carrying a bit more weight than I’d like him to, but I need to run him in this race to get to the [Woodbine] Mile, anyway,” said Hall of Fame trainer Roger Attfield. “He’s working lights out, but he always does.”

Shifting to Sunday’s card which includes the King’s Plate S., a pair of graded races are on tap with the GIII Bold Venture S., for 3-year-old males and up, over the Tapeta at 6 1/2 furlongs and the GII Dance Smartly S., for 3-year-old females and up, going 1 1/16th over the grass. Patches O’Houlihan (Reload) will try to notch his sixth win in what will be his seventh career start in the Bold Venture, while in the Dance Smartly, ‘TDN Rising Star’ Salimah (El Kabeir) ships in for trainer Chad Brown and the 2022 Canadian Horse of the Year Moira (Ghostzapper) looks to return to her winning ways. BACKGROUND CHECK: DEL MAR OAKS
by Jill Williams

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they've had on the breed. Up today is Del Mar's GI Del Mar Oaks, inaugurated in 1957 on the dirt but a permanent fixture on the grass since the 1965 edition.

As always, when there's racemares of this caliber, many will go on to become excellent producers. A few especially leap off the page for their accomplishments after racing. Following are highlights of some of the most important Del Mar Oaks winners by what impact they've had on the sport through their sons and daughters.

No Matter What (1997, Nureyev--Words of War, by Lord At War {Arg}), bred by Arthur B. Hancock III and Stonerside, Ltd.: Not too many mares produce five graded/group winners, but this one did. Her best was English/Irish highweight and MG1SW Rainbow View (Dynaformer).

Hollywood Wildcat (1990, Kris S.--Miss Wildcatter, by Mr. Prospector), bred by Irving and Marjorie Cowan: One of the few mares to both win a Breeders' Cup and produce a Breeders' Cup winner, she is the dam of GI Mile winner War Chant (Danzig). She would go on to produce three other stakes winners, including GSW Ivan Denisov (Ire) (Danehill), who also placed in Grade I/Group 1 races in three countries. Japanese G1SW Danon Smash (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) and Canadian Classic winner Danish Dynaformer (Dynaformer) are among the stakes performers produced by her daughters.

Hidden Light (1983, Majestic Light--Tallahto, by Nantallah), bred by Howard B. Keck: Her pièce de résistance was her 11th foal, the tough Breeders' Cup winner Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}), who has doubled up on siring Grade I/Group 1 winners in both the U.S. and Australia. His best to date is Australian champion Flying Artie (Aus), in turn the sire of Australian MG1SW and English invader Artorius (Aus).

French Charmer (1978, Le Fabuleux {Fr}--Bold Example, by Bold Lad), bred by A. D. D. Rogers: England’s 1989 Horse of the Year and nice sire Zilzal (Nureyev) was her top son, while other descendants include Canadian champion and U.S. MGISW Negligee (Northern Afleet).

Country Queen (1975, Explodent--Carrie's Rough, by Rough'n Tumble), bred by Ocala Stud, Inc.: This Florida-bred mare produced one minor stakes winner, but a daughter of hers went to France and made a massive splash. Among the latter's sons were MG1SW and sire Slickly (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) and among her daughters were the dams of European champion Siyouni (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) and G1SW Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}). Currently one of the world's leading sires and based in France, Siyouni is responsible for the likes of Sottsass (Fr), St Mark's Basilica (Fr), Laurens (Fr), and Paddington (GB).

Sandy Blue (1970, Windy Sands--Blue Nola, by Limelight {GB}), bred by Mr. & Mrs. Dan Gershon: A long list of stakes winners traces to this California-bred chestnut, most notably the wonderful champion grass mare and six-time GISW Possibly Perfect (Northern Baby). Other GISWs include Eddington (Unbridled), Coil (Point Given), Chiropractor (Kitten’s Joy), and Miserden (Private Account), the latter in France.

Desert Trial (1963, Moslem Chief--Scotch Verdict, by Alsab), bred by Joseph M. O’Farrell: Among this mare's four stakes winners were dual champion and six-time GISW Desert Vixen (In Reality), as well as a full-brother to that champion in GISW & GISP Valid Appeal. The latter was an excellent Florida-based sire, known for throwing early runners with an abundance of speed. Desert Vixen, in turn, produced French GISW & MG1SP Real Shadai (Roberto), who would become a leading sire in Japan.

Fun House (1958, The Doge--Recess, by Count Fleet), bred by C. V. Whitney: Before there was a Winchell Broodmare of the Year with the same name, this dark bay produced six black-type winners, including GISW Court Ruling (Traffic Judge) and eventual leading Argentine sire Good Manners (Nashua). Her descendants include dual Canadian champion and U.S. MGISW Windsharp (Lear Fan), dam of Breeders' Cup winner Johar (Gone West) and 2003 Del Mar Oaks winner Dessert (Storm Cat).

But the decision may revolve around whether or not Einsidler can work out a stallion deal for Casa Creed. As good as he is, turf horses are not in high demand in this country when it comes to being welcomed as stallions.

“We know that some folks from Japan are very interested in standing Casa Creed,” Einsidler said. “And I think we'll have some other people interested in him. There are few farms in Kentucky that are starting to really think about it, especially after what happened this past Saturday. It’s just hard to ignore what this horse has done. There’s the longevity, the wins, sprint wins, distance wins. We’ll get that figured out.”

Einsidler is the CEO of Casamigos, a premium tequila. He was hired by Casamigos' founders George Clooney and Rande Gerber. You would think that Clooney would have too much else going on to pay any attention to Casa Creed, but Einsidler said that’s far from the case and is optimistic that the A-List actor will attend this year’s Breeders’ Cup as his guest.

“George loves the game,” Einsidler said, noting that Clooney was born in Lexington and once walked hots at Keeneland. “He sent me a text message after the race Saturday and it said, ‘Jesus Christ, Lee, when are you going to get this horse to win from the front? He’s going to give me a damn heart attack.’”

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, NYRABets.com, WinStar Farm, XBTV.com, Stonestreet Farms, Lane’s End and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Bill Finley, Randy Moss and Zoe Cadman discussed the latest developments concerning the Triple Crown. The Stronach Group says it wants to move the GI Preakness S. to four weeks after the GI Kentucky Derby, but the New York Racing Association (NYRA) has said it has no plans to move the date of the Belmont S. All three agreed that the Preakness should be moved and called on NYRA to fall in line and push back the date of the Belmont.

Two of the most exciting performances over the weekend came in 2-year-old races as Rhyme Schemes (Ghostzapper) romped in the GII Saratoga Special S. and Prince of Monaco (Speightstown) was sensational in the GIII Best Pal S. for trainer Bob Baffert. The group looked at both races, said it liked both horses, but agreed that Prince of Monaco looks like the one who could become a superstar.

AFTER SKIPPING SHUVEE, SECRET OATH RETURNS IN PERSONAL ENSIGN by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY -- Never shy about being a promoter, Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas did not have to use his best pitch as he looked ahead to the GI Personal Ensign S. on Aug. 25 where he will saddle Secret Oath (Arrogate).

Always an important race that draws the top older dirt fillies and mares, the $500,000 Personal Ensign will once again have a strong lineup on Friday. Champion Nest (Curlin) and Clairiere (Curlin), who ran 1-2 in the GII Shuvee S. on July 23 are the obvious headliners. In addition to Secret Oath, the field could include Juddmonte's GII Delaware H. winner Idiomatic (Curlin). Three-time graded stakes winner Search Results (Flatter), the runner-up last year by a half-length to champion Malathaat (Curlin), was also nominated.

"This will be a Breeders’ Cup prep. That's what this is," Lukas said. "This may be the best race of the year up here."

The field will be without one standout, Rigney Racing's Played Hard (Into Mischief). Cont.

KEENELAND SEPTEMBER SALE GRADUATES HAVE WON THE LAST 4 RUNNINGS OF THE ALABAMA S. (G1)

True to our mission to invest back into the Thoroughbred industry, Keeneland Sales is proud to sponsor the 2023 Alabama S. (G1) and celebrate the tremendous talent associated with this historic race.

Trainer Phillip Bauer said Friday that she will skip the Personal Ensign. The GI La Troienne S. winner spiked a fever in July that caused her to miss the Shuvee, had a breeze interrupted when a rider on another horse was unseated and is not quite ready to return to top-caliber competition.

Lukas, 87, is anxious to run Secret Oath in the Personal Ensign. She opened her 4-year-old season with three strong races. She beat Clairiere by 2 3/4 lengths in the GII Azeri S., but Clairiere reversed the finish by a neck in the GI Apple Blossom H. Played Hard edged Secret Oath by a neck in the La Troienne.

In her fourth outing of the season, Secret Oath was a well-beaten fifth of six behind Clairiere and Search Results in the GI Ogden Phipps S. on June 10 at Belmont Park. Lukas said the filly's owners, Stacy and Robert Mitchell, wanted to pass on the Shuvee and have her ready for the Personal Ensign, the GI Juddmonte Spinster S. on Oct. 8 at Keeneland and the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Santa Anita on Nov. 4.

Secret Oath, winner of the 2022 GI Kentucky Oaks, has been in Saratoga with Lukas throughout the meet and has breezed four times on the Oklahoma training track.

"She's doing everything right and working lights out," he said. "But there's nothing like racing to keep them sharp."

During the 76 days between starts, Lukas has made a point of giving her aggressive works. She turned in a bullet five furlongs in :59 flat (1/14) on Aug. 12 and will work again early Sunday morning. He was she was good, but laid back, so he is trying to tune her up.

"She's trained and put on weight and gotten a lot more relaxed mentally," he said. "That kind of happens when you give them those long breaks. She's had an eight-week break, maybe even more, but she's really doing everything right. I'm hoping that she'll wake up."

To that end, Lukas worked her five furlongs in 1:00.45 on Aug. 3, sent her out for a circuit of the track doing a two-minute lick on Aug. 7 and followed up with the bullet breeze. He will continue with that approach Sunday morning.

"I will let her work," Lukas said. "They say, 'I just want a maintenance work.' I'll go :59, :58. That will be fine with me. I want a sharp one."

Secret Oath was scheduled to be sold at auction last November, but Lukas encouraged the Mitchells to withdraw her and keep her in training this year. He argued that she could earn quite a lot of purse money and probably enhance her value. She has earned $576,350 this year, pushing her career total to $2,344,767 from 17 starts.

At Saratoga last summer, Nest easily handled Secret Oath in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and the GI Alabama S., which sent her to the 3-year-old filly Eclipse Award. Lukas said that Secret Oath has improved in the last 12 months.

"She's stronger and bigger and she should run better," he said. "Let me put it this way, I think this race will be good for her, really good, but the next one will be a lot better. I really feel like once she gets this one under her belt, she will be really tough in the Spinster."

Bauer said he had to scuttle the plan to run Played Hard in the Shuvee and the Personal Ensign.

"We decided after a five-eighths drill the week before that we had really lost too much fitness with the time that she got sick," he said. "We went back and forth on it, but basically landed on, if we're going to take on this type we better not have any reservations about it. We're just going to turn the page to the [Sept. 16 GIII] Locust Grove, which she won last year at Churchill. She's probably a work away from the Personal Ensign, which we may have achieved if the first work off the time off would have gone to plan. Everything kind of blew up on us for both of the races up here."

Santa Anita Park returns to a traditional $1 Pick Six when its 18-day Autumn Meet opens on Friday, Sept. 29, the track said in a press release early Friday. Cont.

Officials have responded to the wishes of a vast number of players seeking a return to a more traditional format with 70% of the net pool paid to tickets which correctly select all six winners and 30% paid in a consolation payoff to those players who select five of six winners.

As is the case with the traditional Pick Six format, in the event there are no tickets with all six winners, 70% of the net pool is carried over to the next card and 30% is paid out to winning consolation tickets.

The Pick Six will again be comprised of the final six races on each day’s program with a mandatory payout in place on closing day, Sunday, Nov. 5.

HORSE RACING NOW AVAILABLE TO ONTARIO BETTORS

Woodbine Entertainment and bet365 have made horse racing now available to Ontario sports bettors, the track said in a release Friday.

“This a great day for Ontario sports bettors and especially for the horse racing industry in the province,” said Jim Lawson, CEO, Woodbine Entertainment. “For over a year, we have been working hard with regulators, government agencies and our partners at bet365 to develop the technology and satisfy all requirements to allow players to access pari-mutuel horse racing betting products using accounts with legal gaming operators in Ontario with the customer experience at the forefront. Betting on horse racing in Ontario is now on its way to becoming more accessible than ever.”

In addition, Woodbine Entertainment and bet365 created a four-year marketing partnership, in which the latter receives naming rights for the apron winner’s circle, inner turf course and paddock. Additionally, bet365 will have naming rights for stakes races throughout the year.

BIG PEDIGREES ON DISPLAY IN SATURDAY ACTION

7th-DMR, $82K, Msw, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 8:15 p.m.
A filly whose pedigree needs no introduction, TAMARA (Bolt d’Oro) is the latest foal out of MGISW Beholder (Henny Hughes) to make the races for Spendthrift Farm and trainer Richard Mandella. Beholder, now a graded-stakes producer with Teena Ella (War Front), saw her youngest foal by Curlin bring a sale-topping $4 million at last week’s Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. Out of blue-hen Leslie’s Lady (Tricky Creek), she is of course a half-sister to GISW Mendelssohn and leading general sire Into Mischief. Drawn on the rail, Tamara picks up veteran Mike Smith for her debut.

Further outside for Mandella, Flynn’s Chance (Medaglia d’Oro) brought $675,000 as a yearling out of Keeneland September last year and is a full-sister to GSW Moonlight d’Oro. This is the family of champion 3-year-old filly Abel Tasman (Quality Road). A filly making her second start for trainer John Sadler, Hope Road (Quality Road) dead-heated for second by just a half-length at Del Mar July 22. She is the first foal out of GISW Marley’s Freedom (Blame). TJCIS PPS

1st-SAR, $136K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 1:10 p.m.
On the East Coast, Hunt Ball (Into Mischief) debuts for Godolphin and trainer Bill Mott. Out of the Tapit mare Dance Card, herself a Grade I winner, he is a half-brother to MGISW Cody’s Wish (Curlin) and MGSW Endorsed (Medaglia d’Oro).

Act of Mutiny (Quality Road), a Will Farish homebred, is a half to GSW/GISP Eagle (Candy Ride {Arg}), MGSSW and freshman sire Catalina Cruiser (Union Rags) and MGSSW Royal Flag (Candy Ride {Arg}).

7th-ELP, $70K, Msw, 3yo/up, 6f, 4:00 p.m.
Making a belated debut for Shadwell Stables is Sahalat (Speightstown), a 4-year-old colt who brought $800,000 as a yearling back in 2020. He is a full-brother to MGISP Dawn the Destroyer. TJCIS PPS

TODAY’S FEATURED REPLAY

Ship Cadet (Midshipman) takes the rained-off Skidmore S.
(click to watch)
In a race affected by several scratches once it was taken off the turf, Ship Cadet took advantage of the defection of MSW No Nay Mets (Ire) (No Nay Never) to pick up his first stakes win. Second to that rival in Monmouth's Tyro S. last time out July 30, he also had main-track experience when second in the Tremont S. at Belmont two back June 11. Sent right to the front at odds of 2-1, Ship Cadet set a :21.77 opening quarter pace and was never seriously challenged. Up by a comfortable margin inside the final furlong, he had enough left to safely prevail over El Grande O.

“We debated all morning [on scratching],” said winning trainer Mike Maker. “The way I looked at it, we might as well run. The horse was doing well and if we waited another month, something might happen.”

The 59th worldwide stakes winner for his sire, Ship Cadet was the second-priciest offering at last year's WTBOA Yearling Sale behind recent Del Mar debut winner Impeachalot (Sir Prancealot {Ire}). Ship Cadet has a weanling half-brother by Take Charge Indy and his dam was bred to Straight Fire for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

5th-Saratoga, $100,050, Alw, 8-18, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, 1 1/8m (off turf), 1:49.76, my, 3 3/4 lengths.

CRUPI (c, 3, Curlin--Don'tforgetaboutme, by Malibu Moon) contested both the GII Risen Star S. and the GII Wood Memorial S. as a maiden and got his first win last time out at Monmouth over the main track July 7. Facing just two rivals as a main-track only entry in what was to be his turf debut Friday, the 7-2 shot stayed in the back of the bunched-up trio until the group swung into the far turn. Up to engage Paddington (Curlin), he dueled that rival into the lane and was able to clear off late, defeating Royal Spirit (Into Mischief) as Paddington faded to third. A half-brother to Royal Spirit (Into Mischief), GSW, $333,672--racing as a first-time gelding for this turf bow--bided his time at the back behind modest fractions. Asked to go with about 2 1/2 furlongs to race, he was switched out in upper stretch and attacked the line to be along in the nick of time. Produced by a half-sister to the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Tourist (Tiznow), the winner has a yearling half-sister by Omaha Beach and a weanling half-sister by War of Will. Sky Walk was most recently bred to Volatile.

NAUTICAL STAR (c, 3, Dixie Chatter--Kiss Me Chocolate, by Evansville Slew) broke his maiden at Oaklawn Park at second asking back in February, switched barns from Nathan Quinonez to Saffie Joseph, Jr. and ran a well-beaten ninth behind champion and MGISW Forte (Violence) and GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) in the GI Curlin Florida Derby in his most recent appearance. Favored here at 9-5, the Oklahoma-bred settled in third up the backstretch, built momentum to take the lead at the end of the far turn and won by 1 1/4 lengths over Lightning Tones (Tonalist). The winner's dam produced a yearling filly by Code West. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $94,900.

COREY AND QUINN (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Youcan'tcatchme {Ch. Female Sprinter-Can, MGSw, $425,710}, by The Daddy) debuted as the 7-5 favorite here and after yielding the front up the backstretch to Spun Special (Hard Spun), took over the lead around the far turn. With a sixteenth left, she found more to turn back a charge from La Girvina (Girvin) to win by 1 1/2 lengths. From the extended female family of GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Alabama S. heroine Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior), the winner's dam, who sold for $130,000 carrying this filly in utero at the 2019 Keeneland November sale, is responsible for Arnie (City of Light), a 2-year-old colt who was purchased last year for $400,000 by CRK Stable at Keeneland September. She foaled Feb. 11 a filly after being bred back to Street Sense and she visited Maxfield for next year. Sales History: $250,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $57,750. STUNNINGLY (f, 3, Gun Runner--Happy Mesa {MSw, $237,555}, by Sky Mesa) missed breaking her maiden on her fourth try June 23 at Belmont Park and again July 20 at Saratoga before being installed here as the 6-5 favorite. The chestnut filly led from the bell as Revolving Credit (Classic Empire) tracked her up the backstretch. The pair dueled all the way to the wire, but it was Stunningly who pulled ahead to win by half a length. Out of an extended female family which includes MGSw Green Means Go (Green Dancer) and GI Test S. victress Missed the Storm (Storm Cat), second dam Happy Choice (Broken Vow) is a half sister to SW No Use Denying (Maria’s Mon), who produced GI Spinaway S. heroine Perfect Alibi (Sky Mesa). After foaling Stunningly, her dam was bred to Gun Runner each of the last four years, yielding a 2-year-old colt named Hailstorm, a yearling filly and a colt foaled this past Mar. 20. DANCING MISCHIEF (c, 2, Maximus Mischief--Shoop, by Uncle Mo) had a pair of prior starts on the turf and hit the board at this meet just two weeks ago Aug. 3. The 2-1 choice in this rained-off spot, he was hard ridden from the gate and established good early position behind only Khadullah (Mission...
Impazible). He hung off that rival up the backstretch, made a move around him leaving the far turn and easily handled the muddy track to the wire to win by seven lengths. The 13th winner for his freshman sire (by Into Mischief), Dancing Mischief has a yearling Good Samaritan half-sister. His dam was bred back to Central Banker for 2024. MOZLZIL (c, 2, Uncle Mo--Southern Strike, by Smart Strike) was just off the pace behind pacemaker Black Diamond (Street Sense) through a half in :48.66. The 5-2 second choice began to range up with an outside move into the lane, took over a furlong from home, and edged away late to graduate by 2 3/4 lengths. Succession Gold (Always Dreaming) closed to be second. The half-brother to Fila Primera (War Front), SW & GSP, $138,455, is out of a half to GSW/MGISP Promenade Girl (Carson City), the dam of MGISW Cavorting (Bernardini) and GSW Moon Colony (Uncle Mo). FANCY LOOKER (f, 2, Lookin At Lucky--Brandys Secret, by Secret Romeo) ran fourth in a 5 1/2-furlong turf sprint at Ellis July 16 and stretched out to a route Friday. Tabbed the 5-2 favorite, she sat just off early leader Enticing Sunset (Enticed) as the half went in :48.18 and stuck her head in front into the far turn. Sistina Chapel (Liam's Map) came with a closing run but Fancy Looker got the better of the bob under the wire to steal the win by a nose. Brandys Secret, already responsible for the winner’s full-brother Fancy Liquor, GSW, $584,691, foaled a City of Light filly this spring and was bred back to American Pharoah. COURBE (f, 2, Quality Road--Ysteric, by Unbridled's Song) jumped right into stride to sit in behind Pursuit of Liberty (Constitution) through a :22.76 opening quarter. Shifted out to be a bit wide into the turn, she carried that momentum past the quarter pole, took command inside the final furlong and won going away by 1 3/4 lengths. Controlled Temper (Collected) was second at 23-1 while Charlottesapproval (Into Mischief) finished eighth. The Wertheimer brothers acquired second dam Honest Pursuit (Storm Cat), a daughter of Juddmonte GISW star Honest Lady (Seattle Slew), for a sales-topping $3.1 million from the Overbrook dispersal at Keeneland November in 2009. PUMPKIN SCON (f, 3, Into Mischief--Embellish the Lace (GISW, $441,540), by Super Saver) brought $1,25 million as a yearling at Keeneland in 2021 but did not debut until this year, placing in a pair of starts at Churchill and Ellis. Trying her shortest distance to date, the 4-5 favorite went right out to the set the pace and was never headed, widening her winning margin down the lane to cruise by 7 1/2 lengths. Stagflation (Shaman Ghost) outran odds of 59-1 to finish second. Out of 2015 GI Alabama S. winner Embellish the Lace, Pumpkin Scone counts GI Florida Derby winner Materiality (Afield Alex) and GSW/MGISP My Miss Sophia as extended family members. Embellish the Lace foaled a Quality Road filly this year and was bred back to Life Is Good and Constitution. Sales History: $1,250,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $91,000. POET’S WOODS (f, 3, Lope de Vega {Ire}--Celestial Woods, by Forestry) was last seen attempting to break her maiden at fourth asking July 9 at Monmouth when she finished third. Sent on her way here as the 6-5 chalk, the chestnut filly broke alertly from the rail as Classic Performer kept pace up the backstretch just to her outside. In lockstep around the far turn, the pair went back and forth until her rival pulled ahead to win by 3/4 length. After a jockey's objection and a steward's inquiry, Classic Performer was taken down and placed second for interference midstretch. The winner is a half sibling to Camelot Kitten (Kitten's Joy), MGSW, $1,069,477; Bobby's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), G1SW-USA, SW-Ire, GISP-Can, $1,389,417; and Major Magic (Kitten's Joy), SW, $158,023. DEAUVILLE, France---In the week that it was confirmed that Diane Wildenstein’s breeding operation Dayton Investments has been sold to the Wertheimer brothers, a Dubawi (Ire) yearling from one of the most recognisable Wildenstein families became the first seven-figure yearling in Europe this season.

When there are yearlings by Darley’s flagship stallion on the market, it is often a safe bet that Sheikh Mohammed will be interested. With the Ruler of Dubai in attendance in Deauville, the day’s top lot (21) was duly sold to Godolphin for €1.25 million, with the sheikh’s agent Anthony Stroud at the helm for the bidding.

THE CURRAGH: TDN RISING STAR HENRY LONGFELLOW TAKES AIM AT THE FUTURITY

by Tom Frary

In a season when even by their exalted standards Ballydoyle seem to be boasting more than the average amount of highly talented juveniles, Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) Coolmore Stud Wootton Bassett Irish EBF Futurity S. at The Curragh on Saturday. Earning TDN Rising Star status when beating the subsequent Galway maiden winner and G3 Prix Francois Boutin runner-up Mythology (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) hollow on debut over this course and seven-furlong distance last month, the son of Minding (Ire) (Galileo {GB}) is as exciting as it gets at this time of year.

Ryan Moore has an idea where his mount stands, but admits this will tell connections a lot more. “This is clearly up another grade or two but we have an excellent record in this race, winning it with some top-class future Classic winners and hopefully Henry Longfellow can stamp himself as a candidate for future group 1 honours too,” he said in his betfair blog. “But let’s not get ahead of ourselves, as his bare form to date means this is a tough enough task in its own right, even with just four rivals.”

Among them is Vincent Gaul’s Spanish Flame (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}), who took Tipperary’s Glenvale Stud Race over nearly 7 1/2 furlongs last month and who is held in high regard by Ger Lyons. Cont. p12

ALABAMA ROLLS A STRONG DRAW AMID BUSY WEEKEND

J.N. Campbell previews the busy weekend of graded stakes racing, headlined by a strong GI Alabama S. draw amidst strong cards across the US.
The Henry de Bromhead trainee was able to register a career high in the G3 Irish Stallion Farms EBF Give Thanks S. over 12 furlongs.

DUAL, the specialist underwriting arm of Howden Group Holdings, has completed the acquisition of David Ashby Underwriting Limited, a MGA specialising in bloodstock and high value sport horse insurance.

London City, the third foal out of the multiple Group 1-winner, will be unveiled against a well-bred field in the seven furlong affair.
Lot 21: the top lot at Arqana on Friday | Zuzanna Lupa

The colt was bred by the partnership of Ecurie des Monceaux, David Redvers, Langlais Bloodstock and Beauregard Bloodstock, who bought his dam Pretty Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)) as a three-year-old for €150,000. Though she was placed just once in her brief racing career, she is a three-parts-sister to the treble Group 1 winner Persian King (Ire), who is himself represented by his first yearlings this season. Pretty Spirit and Persian King represent five generations of Wildenstein breeding and a dynasty which includes Horse of the Year Pawneese (GB), Arc winner Peintre Celebre, and more recently the champion stayer Stradivarius (Ire).

Five of the seven Dubawi yearlings in the sale were offered within the first 39 lots on Friday and all were consigned by Monceaux. Godolphin also bought lot 17, a colt out of the G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Pollara (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) from Monceaux for €550,000, while David Redvers went to €400,000 for the grandson of another Group 3 winner, Pacifique (Ire) (Montjeu (Ire)) (lot 27). After the session ended, Redvers also privately acquired lot 5, a son of Group 3 winner Paix (Ire) (Muhaarar (GB)) herself a daughter of Pacifique, for €500,000. The final one to be sold, at €390,000 to Hubie de Burgh, was theilly out of the Lope De Vega (Ire) mare Right Hand (GB) (lot 39). The Wertheimer-bred dam’s half-sister Left Hand (GB) is one of Dubawi’s many Group 1 winners and is the dam of this season’s G3 Prix de Psyche runner-up Left Sea (GB) (Frankel (GB)). Cont. p4

AUSHORSE
THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITY
Talking Points

- A number of key industry figures have jetted in to Deauville for the first major yearling sale of the year in Europe. Sheikh Mohammed, John and Sue Magnier, Sheikh Joaan Al Thani and Kia Joorabchian are all in attendance, along with a number of owners from Bahrain, America and beyond. The many trainers on site include Aidan O’Brien and Yoshito Yahagi.

- As is so often the case with sales, the opening session felt a tad shaky to begin with but it soon hit its stride. The day ended with 101 sold (seven fewer than last year) for an improved clearance rate of 85.6%. At €230,842, the average was up by 29%, and the aggregate was also up, by 20% at €23,315,000.

- Wootton Bassett (GB) may have left the French stallion ranks but he has not been forgotten. Eleven members of his first Irish-conceived crop were sold in Deauville on Friday for an average of €338,182 from his 2021 fee of €100,000.

- Sottsass (Fr) leads the freshman sires to have had more than one yearling sold after the first day of trade at Arqana, with the five sold returning an average of €142,400. Earthlight (Ire) had just one go through the ring, and Elevage de Tourgeville’s filly (lot 101) from the family of Oaks winner Soul Sister (GB) fetched €160,000, sold to Blandford Bloodstock.

- Five members of the first crop of Hello Youmzain (Fr) were offered on Friday, and all sold at an average price of €127,000. These were led by Haras de la Perelle’s filly out of the Listed winner Testa (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) (lot 94) who was bought by Peter Kavanagh of Kildaragh Stud for €210,000. It is a family that Kavanagh knows well, as her third dam is Mahalia (Ire) (Danehill), a smart runner and influential broodmare for Gerry Oldam of Citadel Stud. Cont. p5

- The sole Kameko yearling on the opening day of the August Sale will be off to Hong Kong eventually, having been bought by Mick Kinane on behalf of the HKJC for €310,000. Lot 42 is a half-brother to the dual Listed winner Buckaroo (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Ire}) out of the stakes-winning Galileo (Ire) mare Roheryn (Ire).

- Pinatubo was another first-season sire to make a good start with his yearlings. The first lot into the ring was a filly from La Motteraye by the Darley-based stallion and she set the tone for a hot sale when selling to Louis Dubois on behalf of Wesley Ward for €250,000. All told, Pinatubo had four yearlings sell for €960,000 at an average of €240,000 on Friday.

Coolmore Make Statement Signing With 720k

Wootton Bassett Colt

Wootton Bassett has gone some way in justifying Coolmore Stud’s faith in him with River Tiber (Ire) winning the G2 Coventry S. for Aidan O’Brien and Bucanero Fuerte (GB) landing the G1 Phoenix S. for Amo Racing this year alone.

The results on the racetrack carried over into the sales ring on Friday with Coolmore, from which John and Sue Magnier and their son MV were present at the back of the auditorium, going to €720,000 to secure Monceaux’s (lot 118) colt by the stallion. MV Magnier said, “He is a very nice Wootton Bassett and everybody knows that Monceaux does a brilliant job. Listen, he’s a very nice horse and thankfully Wootton Bassett is absolutely flying at the moment.”

He added, “It was [a big commitment to bring Wootton Bassett to Coolmore Stud] and, thankfully, it looks like he has worked out. He keeps improving our stock and there are some very good two-year-olds by him. The future is going to be very bright for him.”

Coolmore’s River Tiber could harden his reputation as a top-notch two-year-old in Sunday’s G1 Sumbe Prix Morny at Deauville, however, according to Magnier, the colt could struggle to maintain his unbeaten record after suffering an interrupted prep for the race.

He explained, “Aidan will hopefully run River Tiber on Sunday but he missed a week two weeks ago so he is a little bit worried about how fit he is coming into the race. Hopefully, if he does run, he can run well.”

Asked about the market, Magnier added, “It’s been good and Arqana does a great job in getting everybody here from America, Japan, the Middle East, Australia, Ireland, England and Europe.”

Widespread Praise For Wootton Bassett

Wootton Bassett’s popularity was borne out in the results throughout the day with top American owners snapping up an expensive colt by him, respected bloodstock agent Richard Brown declaring his love for the stallion and even Godolphin shelling out €320,000 for a colt by him.

His first yearlings from his debut year at Coolmore Stud sold well, with 11 going for an average which was more than three times his 2021 fee of €100,000.

One of the picks was a filly (lot 33) consigned by Haras d’Etreham, and she made her way to the Bregman Family in America for €550,000. The Bregman Family are perhaps best known in Europe for being the owners of classy juvenile No Nay Mets (Ire) (No Nay Never) and are represented by bloodstock agent Mike Akers.

After signing for the most expensive filly by Wootton Bassett on the day, Akers said, “Lovely filly, very well prepped from a breeder who has been producing nice horses for a long, long time. I bought her for Alex Bregman of the Bregman Family Racing LLC. Alex is racing some nice fillies and hopes to be a significant breeder here and in the US in the future. We are very happy with what we have bought.”

Blandford Bloodstock’s Richard Brown may not have been able to confirm who his Wootton Bassett filly would be racing for but didn’t hold back in his praise for the stallion when going to €410,000 to secure lot 82 from Ballylinch Stud.

Out of a winning Oasis Dream (GB) half-sister to Silasol (Ire) (Monsun (Ger)), Brown’s purchase hails from a strong Wertheimer family and had the looks to match.

Brown said, "I love the stallion and, obviously, he's having an incredible year. It's a very good pedigree and she comes from an exceptional nursery. Historically, I haven't bought a huge amount of horses from Ballylinch but it hasn't been from a lack of trying. They are a world-class nursery and do an exceptional job. Her dam is a sister to a very good filly [Silasol] and physically, I thought she was right up there with the best fillies that I have seen here. There is a very good selection of horses here. I had to stretch to get her but I am delighted to have got her."

He added, "It looks like Wootton Bassett is going to go from strength to strength. He's one of the leading sires around so you have to take him very seriously."

Godolphin added a Wootton Bassett to their roster in the shape of lot 6, a filly consigned by Ecurie des Monceaux who hails from the family of the brilliant Peeping Fawn (Danehill), for €320,000.

Saint Pair's Frankel Plays Starring Role

Richard Brown was back in action later in the session but remained tight-lipped about the client on whose behalf he bid €950,000 on the colt by Frankel (GB) out of Via Pisa (Fr) (Pivotal (GB)) (lot 111).

From the signature family of Andreas Putsch's Haras de Saint Pair, the 11-year-old dam was herself a Listed winner whose dam and granddam Via Medici (Ire) and Via Milano (Fr) are both Group 3 winners. The family also includes the Japan-based stallion and Grade 1-winning miler Admire Mars (Jpn). Via Pisa's first foal, a brother to this colt, is the treble winner and Listed-placed Green Fly (Fr).

“Once you have these families it's great but of course we didn’t expect that," said Putsch. "We had fantastic vibes all through the presentation days. We were busier than ever and the amount of high-rollers looking at the horses was tremendous. I'm really very impressed."

He added, “Today we had a rocky start and we bought back the first filly but then it got stronger and I expect it to be strong tomorrow."

Force Behind Amo Racing Ahead Of Prix Morny

Less than a week after recording a Group 1 breakthrough at the Curragh when Arqana August graduate Bucanero Fuerte (GB) landed the Phoenix S., Kia Joorabchian of Amo Racing was once again flexing his muscles in the sales ring.

Things could get even better for the Amo team on Sunday when, just a few hundred yards across the road at Deauville racecourse, the operation's Royal Ascot winner Valiant Force (Malibu Moon) will bid for Group 1 honours of his own in the Prix Morny.

Those are the stars of today but Joorabchian was busy recruiting next year's two-year-olds at Arqana alongside Robson Aguiar, who said he hopes lot 112, a Kodiac (GB) filly from Etreham who cost €430,000, is as nice as she looks.

“She will be for racing and, if she goes as nicely as she looks, I think she could be a very nice racehorse,” he said. "I have worked with a lot of Kodiacs and she looks like a good one."

SARACEN HORSE FEEDS

Reflecting on the fine run Amo Racing is enjoying, Aguiar added, “We try to buy a good horse. Sometimes it works, sometimes it doesn’t. At the moment, it’s working.”

Knight Snaps Up Sottsass Filly For New Saudi Investors

The first yearlings to sell by the Arc winner Sottsass (Fr) went down well with five selling for an average of €142,400, headed by the €300,000 daughter of prolific producer Shermeen, who was bought by Richard Knight on behalf of new Saudi investors.

Knight described himself a big fan of Coolmore Stud’s Sottsass, who stands for a fee of €25,000, and labelled lot 66 as his favourite offering by the stallion in the entire sale.

Knight said, “I thought she was a very athletic filly and is a daughter of Sottsass and, from what I have seen from the stallion, she was my pick. The dam has been a very good broodmare and she has been bought for a new Saudi operation called Salhia Stud and she’ll go back to the UK where she will be trained.”

Shermeen was multiple Group-placed herself before producing seven individual winners, including three black-type performers, the best of which was David Wachman’s G1 Phoenix S. winner Sudirman (Henrythenavigator).

There could be even more from the progeny of Sottsass at the August Sale as lot 183, a colt who sells under the Coulonces banner on Saturday, has been tipped by many of the top judges to be one who could command a pretty penny.

Rose Blooms Just In Time

John O’Connor is not known for his timekeeping, but he is certainly widely regarded as one of best operators in the business, both in his role at the head of Ballylinch Stud and as a breeder in his own right. A crucial update may have been last-minute for lot 121, the Lope De Vega (Ire) filly he bred from Xaarienne (GB) (Xaar {GB}), but it could not have been more emphatic as it came right under the noses of those in town for the sale when the filly’s year-older sister made an explosive debut in the Arqana Series des Pouliches at Deauville on Thursday evening. Named Rose Bloom (Ire) and running in the colours of the China Horse Club she was however only enhancing an already strong family. Other half-siblings include the G3 Prix Six Perfections winner See The Rose (Ire) and Listed winner Xaarino (Fr), both of whom are by Kendargent (Fr).

The yearling duly sold for €460,000 just over 24 hours later and was signed for by Alex Elliott on behalf of Coolmore.

Lot 40, b, c, Hello Youmzain (Fr)—Rime A Rien (GB) (Amadeus Wolf {Ire})
Vendor: Haras de Montaigu
Buyer: Longways Stables
Price: €105,000

The first yearlings by Haras d’Etreham’s dual Group 1-winning sprinter Hello Youmzain have impressed at Arqana, generally exhibiting a decent action and looking fairly forward types. It will be no surprise if they catch the eye of some of the breeze-up buyers, and indeed this colt out of the proven producer and stakes-placed Rime A Rien was bought by Mick Murphy and Sarah O’Connell of Longways Stables. If he gallops as well as he walks he could well prove profitable back in Deauville next May, especially as his half-siblings include the G2 Sapphire S. winner Soffia (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) and the Listed-placed multiple winner Nationalista (Fr) (Nathaniel {Ire}).

This colt was a €36,000 Arqana December in utero purchase by Guy Pariente. Sent through the ring on Friday, he realised almost six times his dam’s price in 2021 when he caught the eyes of John Hammond and Mandore International Agency’s Nicolas de Watrigant. His second dam is Listed Prix Vulcain heroine Oh Beautiful (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), kin to Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and her brood of high class runners.
Persistent heavy rain brought about by Storm Betty resulted in an early abandonment of Cork’s Friday evening card, but not before Henry de Bromhead trainee Term Of Endearment (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}--Miss You Too {GB}, by Montjeu {Ire}) was able to register a career high in the G3 Irish Stallion Farms EBF Give Thanks S. over a stamina-sapping 12 furlongs.

The well-backed 9-2 chance, who went postward for this second pattern-race start coming back off a runner-up finish in Limerick’s June 23 Listed Martin Molony S., tracked the tempo in third as the six-runner field splashed through standing water on the track. Inching closer once into the home straight, she came under pressure to challenge three-wide passing the quarter-mile pole and was driven clear in the closing stages to hit the line with a 4 1/2-length buffer back to Library (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

“It’s very hard work out there, but she’s very game and a tough filly,” reflected rider Colin Keane. “She’d a very good run at the backend last year, behind Yaxeni [in the Listed Bluebell S.], on very slow ground at Naas. She seems to be getting better with racing and is relaxing and giving herself a chance. I thought we went a good gallop in the conditions and I’d say she’s a filly that could go a bit further. She ran around a bit, but there’s a strong headwind and we can forgive her that today.”

Pedigree Notes

Term Of Endearment, who also hit the board in last term’s G3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud S., is the fifth of eight foals and leading performer from four winners produced by the stakes-winning G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third Miss You Too (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}). The March-foaled bay’s dam is a full-sister to G3 Killavullan S. runner-up Vitruvian Man (GB) out of Listed Aphrodite S. third Portrait Of A Lady (Ire) (Peintre Celebre). Portrait Of A Lady, in turn, is kin to the dam of G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Prix de l’Opera heroine Covert Love (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}). Miss You Too has the a 2-year-old filly Animous (GB) (Le Brivido {Fr}) and a yearling filly by Ardad (Ire) to come.

Chesham Rematch In The Debutante...

In the seven-furlong G2 Alpha Centauri Debutante S., Lindsay Laroche’s unbeaten Snellen (Ire) (Expert Eye {GB}) renews rivalry with Ballydoyle’s Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never) who she narrowly edged out when last seen in Royal Ascot’s Listed Chesham S. Dropping back to an extended six furlongs in this track’s G3 Anglesey S. last month only confirmed that the latter needs at least this trip.

Trainer Gavin Cromwell said of Snellen, “We gave her a short break after Ascot and she’s done well since and we’re looking forward to Saturday. She’s going to have to come forward, but we’re hopeful she has done. Everything has been straightforward with her since Ascot.”

Aidan O’Brien said of Pearls And Rubies, “She’s in good form and she won’t mind an ease in the ground either. We were a little bit disappointed with her the last day but Ryan [Moore] said to maybe go a bit further, he said she was coming home well but the line just came too quick for her.”

Hungerford Test For Mostabshir...

Newbury sees the G2 Hungerford S. over seven furlongs, where Shadwell’s TDN Rising Star Mostabshir (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) drop back in trip following his sixth in the G1 St James’s Palace S. and fourth in the Listed Sir Henry Cecil S. The half-brother to Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Nazeef (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) most likely has his best days ahead of him but this is a tough call for 3-year-olds taking on hardened older horses and specialists at the trip like Pogo (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) and last year’s winner Jumby (Ire) (New Bay {GB}).

“He’s an interesting horse and a horse who works very well at home and shows plenty of ability there,” racing manager Angus Gold said. “I’m not quite sure he has fulfilled his potential so far on the racecourse. He won very well at York obviously earlier in the year and on his day he’s capable of putting up a good performance, but he really needs to step up to the plate now. He’s been a bit immature, but like everything out of his mare, hopefully he is only going to get better as he gets older.”

Calvados Heads Deauville Action...

Deauville’s August Festival continues apace, with the seven-furlong G2 Prix du Calvados for 2-year-old fillies featuring Gerard Augustin-Normand’s course-and-distance G3 Prix Six Perfections winner Laulne (Fr) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) and Haras d’Etretam and Craig Bernick’s Listed Prix des Jouvenceaux et des Jouvencelles-winning TDN Rising Star Les Pavots (Ire) (No Nay Never). Adding intrigue is Amo Racing Limited’s Qatar Goodwood Festival winner Ornellaia (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), while the card’s other group 2 is the 1 1/2-furlong Prix de Pomone, where Juddmonte’s G3 Prix de Royaumont scorer Ottery (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) could have more to offer.

Morny Humdinger In Store For Sunday...

Friday saw the draw made for Sunday’s G1 Sumbe Prix Morny and it did not disappoint as the 2-year-old race of the season attracted the G2 Coventry S. and G2 Prix Robert Papin-winning TDN Rising Stars River Tiber (Wootton Bassett {GB}) and Ramatuelle (Justify) respectively. Also in the line-up are the G2 July S. winner Jasour (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), the G2 Norfolk S. scorer Valiant Force (Malibu Moon), G2 Richmond S. scorer Vandee (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) and the G3 Prix de Cabourg winner Elite Status (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), as well as the G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Sacred Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). A field of eight will contest the same card’s G1 Sumbe Prix Jean Romanet, where the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) is set to encounter the G1 Prix Rothschild winner Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}).

DUAL COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF DAVID ASHBY UNDERWRITING

DUAL, the specialist underwriting arm of Howden Group Holdings, has completed the acquisition of David Ashby Underwriting Limited ("DAU"), a MGA specialising in bloodstock and high value sport horse insurance. The latter had been formed in 2020 following David Ashby’s purchase of Amlin’s bloodstock and livestock book and provided cover in Thoroughbred bloodstock, commercial breeding, rear and racing, and high value sports horses.

David Howden, CEO, Howden, said, “Joining with David and his expert team deepens our connection to the equestrian world, and makes us a true differentiator in this exciting market. DUAL now provides world-class expertise in all the major equine markets, and we will continue to leverage our expertise to provide more choice and a fresh alternative for clients.”

BBAG AUGUST ONLINE AUCTION WRAPS

The BBAG August online auction wrapped with two of the top lots destined for England while a third would be exchanging hands to Swiss customers. Lot 56, the group-placed Western Soldier (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), achieved the highest auction price at €62,000 and went the way of Christian Freiherr von der Recke in a long bidding duel with five bidders from three countries; England to be his new home. The same buyer also went to €60,000 for lot 38, the stakes-placed Quality Road (Ger) (Aerion {Ger}), who will also be trained in England. For €35,000, Fabian Xaver Weißmeier bought the Geman Classic-placed Dhangadhi (Ger) (Soldier Hollow (Ger)) (lot 16).

At the end of the day’s trade, 36 lots sold from 58 (62.07%) offered for a gross of €386,500. The average was €10,236.

Impressive with a clear-cut debut success at Sandown last month, Miaharris left it very late here but duly justified favouritism on this black-type bow. Starting reasonably well but soon outpaced and losing ground on the leaders, the bay found a dramatic late surge to overhaul Majestic Beauty in the dying yards.

“She was a little bit inexperienced early and to be as far back as that I was thinking it would be good to get black-type placing, but she hit the line strong and six is going to be her game,” trainer Owen Burrows said. “She is lengthening and although she looked a bit small at the breeze-ups and we were thinking of Ascot, she didn’t make that and it could have been a blessing. I can’t see why shouldn’t train on next year.”

Miaharris is the eighth foal out of the Listed Curragh S.winner and G3 Round Tower S.-placed dam, who was also responsible for the GI Nassau S. and G3 Albany S. runner-up Bletchley (GB) (Makfi {GB}) and the Listed Empress S. scorer Time Scale (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}). A half to the G3 Killavullan S.-placed Ballyfiddle (IRE) (Lil’s Boy) from the Bolger family of the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial and G3 Ballysax S. scorer and G1 Irish Derby-placed Light Heavy (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), her yearling filly and colt foals are by Kameko. SILENT MOVE (GB) (c, 2, Ardad {Ire}--Feliciana {GB}, by Lope De Vega {Ire}), a June 17 debut fifth going six furlongs at York in his only prior start, broke smartly and raced on the front end throughout this return. Shaken up to gain an outright lead at the quarter-mile marker, the 6-5 favourite was safely clear entering the final furlong and ran on strongly to easily account for the group winners Prairie Star (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) and Pacific Rim (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}). KING’S GAMBIT (IRE) (c, 2, Saxon Warrior {Jpn}--Pure Song {GB} by Oasis Dream {GB}), who was 33-1 having been eighth after a disastrous start over seven furlongs here last month, broke cleanly here to track the leaders early. Produced approaching the final furlong, the chestnut reeled in the long-time leader City Burglar (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) 100 yards out en route to a 3/4-of-a-length success. The dam, whose yearling colt by Invincible Army (Ire) is due to sell in the upcoming Tatts Book 3, has the stakes-placed Miner’s Cat (Mineshaft) to her name. She is a daughter of the champion Serena’s Song (Rahy) and full-sister to Grand Reward and Sophisticat and sire Vocalised. Sales history: 125,000gns Ylg ‘22 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $8,260. NAAEY (GB) (f, 3, Lope De Vega {Ire}--Materialistic (GB) {SP-Eng}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), not seen since finishing runner-up on debut over a mile at Kempton in November, travelled with ease behind the leading pair throughout the early stages. Asked to take control approaching the furlong marker, the 11-8 favourite responded instantly and was pushed out to score comfortably by 3/4 of a length from Avon Light (GB) (Lightning Spear {GB}). The listed-placed dam, whose yearling son of Frankel (GB) is due to sell at the upcoming Tatts Book 1, is a daughter of the G2 Lancashire Oaks winner and G1 Yorkshire Oaks runner-up Pongee (GB) (Barathea {Ire}). Connected to Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), she also has a colt foal by Wootton Bassett (GB). ALMARADA PRINCE (IRE) (c, 2, Prince of Lim (Ire)--Almarada {Fr}, by Le Havre {Ire}), a July 21 first-up sixth over this trip at Pontefract last time, broke well from the stands’ side stall and raced to the fore throughout this return. Nudged along approaching the two pole, the 4-1 chance came under sterner urging inside the final furlong and was driven out to assert by 1 1/4 lengths from Apocalyx (GB) (Calyx {GB}). Almarada Prince is the latest of four foals and second scorer out of a half-sister to Listed Premio Estate victor Way Back (Fr) (Motivator {GB}). SAPPORO KINEN AN IMPORTANT JUMPING-OFF POINT FOR BIG NAMES

by Alan Carasso

The return of Group 1 racing in Japan is officially about six weeks away, but Sunday’s 2000-metre Sapporo Kinen—a Group 2 in name only—sees the return to action of some familiar names who are potentially looking to prep for big spots further afield over the coming months.

Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)), the 2021 G1 Tokyo Yushun hero, makes his first start since finishing fifth to world’s top-rated racehorse Equinox (Jpn) (Kitasan Black (Jpn)) in defence of his title in the G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 25, with a trip to America for the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf in the offing, all things equal. The 5-year-old son of Dubai Majesty (Essence of Dubai) will be ridden for the first time by Takeshi Yokoyama.

Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) was just defeated in the 2021 Sapporo Kinen before going on to annex the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf. The 6-year-old, third in the 2021 G1 Yushun Himba, holds an entry for the G1 Caulfield Cup during the Melbourne Spring Carnival Oct. 21, but will need a strong effort to merit the journey down under.

Win Mighty (Jpn) (Gold Ship (Jpn)) steps out for the first time since finishing a narrowly beaten second when going for consecutive victories in the G3 Mermaid S. at Hanshin June 18. The 6-year-old, third in the 2021 G1 Yushun Himba, holds an entry for the G1 Caulfield Cup during the Melbourne Spring Carnival Oct. 21, but will need a strong effort to merit the journey down under.

Defending champion Jack d’Or (Jpn) (Maurice (Jpn)) won a star-studded renewal of the G1 Osaka Hai going this distance at Hanshin Apr. 2 and cut back to the mile for his latest in the G1 Yasuda Kinen, where he finished a determined fifth to the Breeders’ Cup-bound Songline (Jpn) (Kizuna (Jpn)) after setting the pace. He would become the first back-to-back winner of this race since Air Groove (Jpn) in 1997-98.

Danon Beluga (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)), who ran on well to finish three-parts of a length adrift of the three-peating Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan when last spotted, should also appreciate Sunday’s 10-furlong trip. The 4-year-old is reunited with Joao Moreira this weekend.

The progressive Prognosis (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)), third to Shahryar in Group 3 company in 2021, earned his first success at pattern level when prevailing by 3/4 of a length in the G2 Kinko Sho last March. It was off to Hong Kong for his next and a meeting with local champion Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Accalamation {GB}) in the G1 FWD QE II Cup in late April, and Prognosis covered himself in glory in finishing two lengths adrift of the course-and-distance specialist in second. All roads could lead back to Sha Tin for the Longines Hong Kong International Races meeting in December.

Defending champion Jack d’Or (Jpn) (Maurice (Jpn)) won a star-studded renewal of the G1 Osaka Hai going this distance at Hanshin Apr. 2 and cut back to the mile for his latest in the G1 Yasuda Kinen, where he finished a determined fifth to the Breeders’ Cup-bound Songline (Jpn) (Kizuna (Jpn)) after setting the pace. He would become the first back-to-back winner of this race since Air Groove (Jpn) in 1997-98.

Danon Beluga (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)), who ran on well to finish three-parts of a length adrift of the three-peating Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)) in the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan when last spotted, should also appreciate Sunday’s 10-furlong trip. The 4-year-old is reunited with Joao Moreira this weekend.
