SHOWDOWN AT THE SPA AS PERSONAL ENSIGN HEADS FRIDAY'S GRADED ACTION

Champion Nest was ultra-impressive in the Shuvee, her first start of the year | Sarah Andrew

A compelling Grade I race with year-end title implications and it’s not even a Saturday? Such is the magic of Saratoga.

Friday’s $500,000 GI Personal Ensign S. at nine furlongs has attracted older mare division leaders Nest (Curlin) and Clairiere (Curlin). Both are multiple Grade I winners with stellar records; the two will meet for the third time.

Nest, last year’s Eclipse champion 3-year-old filly, is the 4-5 choice after besting Clairiere in a bang-up GII Shuvee S. July 23 over track and trip. It was her first start of the season after ending last year with a fourth as the favorite behind Clairiere’s third in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff at Keeneland. Nest is undefeated in three tries at Saratoga, including last year’s GI Alabama S. and GI CCA Oaks. She was featured earlier this week in TDN.

“She had a spectacular season as a 3-year-old and I think her Coaching Club American Oaks and Alabama wins were two of the most impressive races we saw at Saratoga last year. It earned her a championship and she’s come back and is training even better at four,” said Nest’s Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher.

SAEZ SIDELINED INDEFINITELY, PRAT PICKS UP TRAVERS MOUNT ON MAGE

Jockey Luis Saez, who went down during the running of Wednesday’s John’s Call S. when his mount Burning Bright suffered a fatal cardiac event, was diagnosed with a dislocated collarbone and slight fracture in his left wrist, according to a tweet from former trainer and current agent Kiaran McLaughlin, but was released from Albany Medical Center. He will be out of the saddle for an undetermined period of time.

After Javier Castellano committed to GI Belmont S. winner Arcangelo (Arrogate) for Saturday’s $1.25-million GI Travers S., Saez was named by trainer Gustavo Delgado to partner with GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic) in the mile-and-a-quarter centerpiece of the Saratoga meeting. Early Thursday morning, Delgado tweeted that Flavien Prat will now replace the injured Saez.

Prat sits fifth behind Irad Ortiz, Jr. in the current jockey standings at the Spa, with 23 wins from 130 rides (18%).

“She has that rare ability to quicken at the end of a dirt race—you don’t see a lot of horses show that display of turn of foot at the top of the stretch like we see her do,” continued Pletcher. “She’s just a very, very special filly.”

Clairiere, second choice at 5-2, is no slouch either. She finished behind Nest in the Shuvee after a less-than-ideal trip and was also second in her first start of the year—Oaklawn’s Mar. 11 GII Azeri S. behind fellow Personal Ensign entrant Secret Oath (Arrogate)—but in between she captured the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn and the GI Ogden Phipps S. at Belmont. She’s a four-time Grade I winner who has age and experience on her side, not to mention seven triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures.

“I’m very happy with how she’s training,” said fellow Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen. “Obviously, Nest is a very tall order. We’ll see how we do, but we couldn’t be happier with Clairiere going in. She’s a four-time Grade I winner of $3 million. She’s covered plenty of ground.”

Clairiere’s dam, Cavorting (Bernardini), won the 2016 edition of the Personal Ensign.

GI Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Oath has beaten both of the top contenders and Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas is never shy about putting her in tough spots, including tries against the boys last year, where she finished third in the GI Arkansas Derby and fourth in the GI Preakness S. When she’s on her game, she is very, very good. Secret Oath skipped the Shuvee to await the Personal Ensign.

Brad Cox’s Juddmonte homebred Idiomatic (Curlin), on a two-race win streak that covers the GII Delaware H. and GII Shawnee S.; Tom Amoss trainee and GSW Sixtythreecaliber (Gun Runner), an optional allowance winner July 19 over this surface; and Wayne Catalano’s last-out Hawthorne allowance winner Malloy (Outwork) complete the field. Cont.
Show Me the Money at Charles Town

Night owls are in for a treat as Charles Town hosts two rich late-night graded races Friday. The $1-million GII Charles Town Classic, won the last two years by the late Art Collector (Bernardini), attracts a field ages three and up going nine furlongs. Among the top choices are Giant Game (Giant’s Causeway), winner two back of the GIII Cornhusker H. at Prairie Meadows over the re-opposing MGSW Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) and Call Me Fast (Dialed In). A Dale Romans trainee, Giant Game was fifth behind White Abarrio (Race Day)’s monster effort in the GI Whitney S. Aug. 5. This spring’s GI Carter H. winner Doppelganger (Into Mischief) and West Virginia-bred Muad’dib (Fiber Sonde), second to Art Collector in last year’s Classic, are among the others looking to make some noise.

Also on tap at Charles Town Friday night is the GIII Charles Town Oaks offering a $750,000 purse for sprinting sophomore fillies going seven furlongs. All eyes will be on Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief), the Tom Amoss trainee who captured the GII Golden Rod S. in her third straight last year but faltered since in disappointing efforts. In her last out June 17, she appeared to be getting back on track in the Monomoy Girl S. at Ellis Park, which she captured over subsequent GI CCA Oaks winner Wet Paint (Blame).

Prat’s stats at Saratoga this summer include Grade I successes aboard Program Trading (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the Saratoga Derby Invitational; Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) in the Diana S.; and Wet Paint (Blame) in the CCA Oaks.

JOIN TDN WRITERS’ ROOM PODCAST

There was a lot to cover this week on the TDN Writers’ Room podcast presented by Keeneland, including the upcoming GI Travers S. and last week’s gut punch that was the deaths on back-to-back days of Grade I winners Art Collector (Bernardini) and Cave Rock (Arrogate), both from laminitis.

That’s why this week’s podcast had two Green Group Guests of the Week.

Dr. Raul Bras, a specialist in laminitis who practices at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, explained why laminitis remains such a serious problem and gave an update on the efforts being made within the veterinary community to combat the condition.

With a victory in the GI Kentucky Derby on his record, Mage (Good Magic) has already had a standout campaign. But his connections are looking for more and will be looking for a second Grade I win on the year in Saturday’s GI Travers S. To get the latest on Mage, assistant trainer Gustavo Delgado, Jr. shared his thoughts on the 10-furlong feature. He said the entire Mage team was very pleased with the colt’s second-place showing in the GI TVG.com Haskell S., pointing out that he wasn’t fully cranked.

“We really were aware that he wasn’t 100% for the Haskell,” Delgado said. “Not even close. So we were happy with the effort.”

Mage has proven he can win at the highest level, but he has not proven that he can beat Forte (Violence), the morning line favorite in the Travers. He finished behind him in both the GII Fountain of Youth S. and the GI Curlin Florida Derby. Why might it be different this time? Cont.

“The thing that has changed the most is the lack of experience he had before,” Delgado said. “He was in the Fountain of Youth in only his second start. That’s what we had to do. We had to do that in order to gain the points to get into the Derby. If we hadn’t done that we probably wouldn’t be talking about a Derby winner because he got 10 points in the Fountain of Youth and then 40 in the Florida Derby. He’s more experienced now. He’s not just a baby. He’s more mature and we got to know him better, too.”

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, NYRA Bets.com, WinStar Farm, XBTV.com, Stonestreet Farms, Lane’s End and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Zoe Cadman, Bill Finley and Randy Moss took a look back at the GI Alabama S. and the front-running win by Randomized (Nyquist) and the impressive debut of the latest foal from Beholder (Henny Hughes), Tamara (Bolt d’Oro). The filly earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ status when she broke her maiden Aug. 19 at Del Mar. The team also took a moment to remember owner and breeder Anthony Manganaro of Siena Farm, who passed away last week at the age of 79.

TWIRLING CANDY’S EVVIE JETS UPSETS BALLSTON SPA AT 29-1

She may not have been the longest shot on the board—that title fell to intent-on-the-lead pacesetter and 55-1 shot Sister Bridget (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB})—but Mertkan Kantarmaci’s 29-1 trainee Evvie Jets (Twirling Candy) was still an afterthought in the public’s eye at 29-1 behind a trio of Chad Brown entrants and one shipped stateside by Ireland’s Joseph O’Brien in Saratoga’s GII Mohegan Sun Ballston Spa S. Thursday. Longshot or not, Evvie Jets set the Spa lawn on its ear with a bold win up the rail as MGSW & MGISP Fluffy Socks (Slumber {GB}) and Ascot GSW Jumbly (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) followed in a tight finish.

Evvie Jets broke like a jet when the gates flew, but stepped aside as Sister Bridget and the accomplished Technical Analysis (Ire) (Kingman {GB})—a ‘TDN Rising Star’, MGSW, and MGISP—fought for the lead. Those two pulled more than a half dozen lengths clear of the field with Sister Bridget getting the first fractions of :23.50 and :48.67 as Technical Analysis backed off. As the field closed in and swarmed the two leaders in the stretch, Evvie Jets snuck up the inside from fifth under Manny Franco and collared Technical Analysis, who had taken over from a tiring Sister Bridget as MGSw Gam’s Mission (Noble Mission {GB}) attacked from the outside. Cont.

It looked to be anyone’s race a sixteenth from home, but Evvie Jets kept her head in front, despite being on her wrong lead, as Fluffy Socks and Jumbly closed in. Less than a length and a half covered the first seven under the wire in a wild blanket finish. Final time for the 1 1/16 miles was 1:43.06, a new course record.

Franco picked up the ride on Evvie Jets from Luis Saez, who was injured Wednesday and is out indefinitely.

"Manny [Franco] did the right thing--just save and save and our plan was only stick to the rail, and he did--and save in the second turn also," said Kantarmaci. "She just made the stretch run today after the hot pace. She can do that. She showed that a long time ago already, but she ends up in fights in the slower pace. Today was the day for her to close."

The winning trainer continued: “Since the first day, we took care of her like a stakes horse because I knew she was going to come to that level, but we wanted to go step by step with her. Now, of course, she’s extra special after this race. Unbelievable she did that today.”

A winner two back of Belmont’s July 2 Perfect Sting S. over Ballston Spa 6-5 favorite Technical Analysis, Evvie Jets was winning the second graded race of her career following a 2022 win in the Gill Noble Damsel S. She’d kicked off her 2023 campaign Apr. 16 at Aqueduct with a win in the Plenty of Grace S. and was last seen Aug. 2 in defeat to Technical Analysis in the De La Rose S. Originally trained by Anthony Dutrow until claimed for $80,000 in 2021, Evvie Jets has run exclusively in stakes company for the past 11 months and also placed in the Gill Athena S. last fall. Cont.

Pedigree Notes:
Evvie Jets is one of 18 graded winners for Lane’s End sire Twirling Candy, a son of fellow Lane’s End stallion Candy Ride (Arg). With 43 black-type winners bred in the Northern Hemisphere and eight Grade I winners spread from coast to coast, Twirling Candy last had a graded winner at the Spa in 2018 with GII Honorable Miss H. scorer Finley’s luckycharm. Although Evvie Jets is his only stakes winner out of a Consolidator mare, Twirling Candy has a number of his top stakes winners out of mares by Consolidator’s extended Storm Cat sire line. Consolidator himself was exported to stand in the Philippines ahead of the 2012 season and has 10 stakes winners out of his daughters.

From the family of MGISW and $1.85-million Keeneland broodmare Kalookan Queen (Lost Code), the Ballston Spa winner’s dam was unraced and is, like her daughter, a Farfellow Farms-bred. Natchez Trace’s 2-year-old colt by Catalina Cruiser was a $240,000 OBS March juvenile and has since been sent to Japan after being purchased by Katsumi Yoshida. With no foals in the meantime, Natchez Trace was bred to Airdrie’s Upstart for next term.

BACKGROUND CHECK: PERSONAL ENSIGN
by Jill Williams

2023 Personal Ensign entrant and MGISW Clairiere is a daughter of 2016 winner Cavorting | Sarah Andrew

In this continuing series, we examine the past winners of significant filly/mare races by the lasting influence they’ve had on the breed. Up today is Saratoga’s GI Personal Ensign S., renamed in 1998 to honor the undefeated Hall of Fame Phipps mare.

Originally known as the Firenze H. and then the John A. Morris H., the Personal Ensign dates to 1948. While members of the Phipps family have won six editions of the race which now holds one of the greatest names associated with the stable, Personal Ensign never actually ran in the contest.

In 1987, when the great mare was three, she had not yet returned to the races from a broken pastern bone in her left rear leg sustained as a juvenile. That year’s race was run on Aug. 30; Personal Ensign would not come back until a week later in a Belmont allowance, her first start in nearly 11 months. The race would also miss the champion’s dance card in 1988, but for a very different reason. She was fresh off a win over males in the GI Whitney S. just three weeks prior.

The transcendent mare’s champion granddaughter, Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat), did win the Personal Ensign S. in 2004. Like her legendary granddam, she was a Phipps homebred raised at Claiborne Farm and trained by Shug McGaughey.

Not only was Personal Ensign an unblemished champion on the racetrack, she also was named Broodmare of the Year in 1996. She produced one champion, three Grade I winners, and a dynasty through her daughters that is still churning out major winners today, including 2023’s GISW Arabian Lion (Justify), who is set to run in Saturday’s GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial S., and GSW Major Dude (Bolt d’Oro). Cont.

1980 winner Relaxing’s son Easy Goer was the sire of Breeders’ Cup winner My Flag (outside), a filly out of Personal Ensign who would produce 2004 Personal Ensign winner Storm Flag Flying | Horsephotos

Following are highlights of some of the most important Personal Ensign winners by what impact they’ve had on the sport through their sons and daughters.

Cavorting (2012, Bernardini--Promenade Girl, by Carson City), bred by Swettenham Stud: A mare this young with two stakes winners to her name wouldn’t normally make a list of matriarchs, but one of her foals is Clairiere (Curlin), a four-time G1SW and 5-2 morning-line second choice in this year’s Personal Ensign.

Heavenly Prize (1991, Seeking the Gold--Oh What a Dance, by Nijinsky II), bred by Ogden Phipps: This Phipps homebred and Hall of Famer produced MG1SW Good Reward (Storm Cat), as well as GSW and good sire Pure Prize (Storm Cat). Her descendants include GISW Persistently (Smoke Glacken), a 2010 Personal Ensign winner for Phipps Stable, as well as more recent GISWs Instilled Regard (Arch) and Queen Goddess (Empire Maker).

Number (1979, Nijinsky II--Special, by Forli {Arg}), bred by Claiborne Farm: Japanese champion and MG1SW Gold Dream (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}), Breeders’ Cup and GI Met Mile winner Corinthian (Pulpit), French G1 winner and Japanese sire Jade Robbery (Mr. Prospector), and a ‘number’ of other graded performers trace to this incredibly well-bred mare from one of the most ‘special’ families in the stud book.

Relaxing (1976, Buckpasser--Marking Time, by To Market), bred by Ogden Phipps: How fitting that this mare’s greatest son would be bred to Personal Ensign, resulting in that mare’s greatest daughter, My Flag. This 1989 Broodmare of the Year produced champion and Classic winner Easy Goer (Alydar), as well as GI winners Cadillacing (Alydar) and Easy Now (Danzig).

Her descendants include GISW Strolling Along (Danzig), MGSW Cat Cay (Pleasant Colony), and MGSW & MGISP Abaco (Giant’s Causeway).

Sugar Plum Time (1972, Bold Ruler--Plum Cake, by Ponder), bred by Calumet Farm: A number of big winners trace to this mare, who was the first Phipps mare to win the then-Firenze, although she wasn't a homebred. Among her descendants are GISWs Grand Slam (Gone West), Christmas Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), and Kudos (Kris S.); MGSW Christmas Gift (Green Desert); and MSW & MGISP Bright Candles (El Gran Senor).

Kittiwake (1968, Sea Bird (Fr)--Ole Liz, by Double Jay), bred by Martin Andersen: This bay Florida-bred produced French G1SW Kitwood (Nureyev), six-time GISW Miss Oceana (Alydar), and MGSW & GISP Larida (Northern Dancer). Among the top horses tracing to her are European champion and MG1SW Dawn Approach (Ire) (New Approach (Ire)), GISW Aruna (Mr. Greeley), and English G1SW Magic of Life (Seattle Slew).

Obeah (1965, Cyane--Book of Verse, by One Count), bred by Bertram N. Linder: There may not be a big placeholder for this mare in the breeding annals as her two best foals to make it to the breeding shed--MGSW/MGISP Dance Spell (Northern Dancer) and GSW/GISP Discorama (Northern Dancer)--weren't able to leave a significant mark. Regardless, this mare will forever command a special place in racing due to her beloved champion daughter Go for Wand (Deputy Minister), who was lost too soon.

Straight Deal (1962, Hail to Reason--No Fiddling, by King Cole), bred by Bieber-Jacobs Stable: Desiree (Raise a Native) was the sole Grade I winner produced by this champion, whose multi-year racing campaigns meant she didn't have her first foal until age 10. However, her daughters certainly gave her an assist, with descendants including MGISP Adored (Seattle Slew); Breeders’ Cup winner Dangerous Midge (Lion Heart); GISWs Qualify (Danzig), Scorpion (Seattle Slew), and Alwajeeha (Dixieland Band); MGSW and good sire Belong to Me (Danzig); and popular MGSW and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Eight Belles (Unbridled’s Song).

Blue Banner (1952, War Admiral--Risque Blue, by Blue Larkspur), bred by Mrs. John D. Hertz: This lovely bay produced a Broodmare of the Year in Key Bridge (Princequillo (GB)), who in turn produced Horse of the Year Fort Marcy (Amerigo (GB)), champion and influential sire Key to the Mint (Graustark), additional GISW Key to Content (Forli (Arg)), and GSW Key to the Kingdom (Bold Ruler). Others tracing to the then-Firenze winner include European champion and MG1SW Silver Patriarch (Ire) (Saddlers' Hall (Ire)), English highweight and G1SW Papineau (GB) (Singspiel (Ire)), and Brazilian champion Mensageiro Alado (Brz) (Ghadeer (Fr)).

Rare Treat (1952, Stymie--Rare Perfume, by Eight Thirty), bred by Erdenheim Farms Co: Among her descendants are European champion and G1 Epsom Derby winner Golden Fleece (Nijinsky II); U.S. champion What a Treat (Tudor Minstrel (Ire)); French G1SWs Mandaean (GB) (Manduro (Ger)) and Wavering (Ire) (Refuse To Bend (Ire)); U.S. GISWs Victory Speech (Deputy Minister) and Ida Delta (Graustark); and European MGSW Be My Guest (Northern Dancer), England’s leading sire in 1982. Cont.

Parlo (1951, Heliopolis {GB}--Fairy Palace, by Pilate), bred by William duPont, Jr.: Horse of the Year Arts and Letters (Ribot {GB}), champion Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), MGISW Waquoit (Relaunch), and Chilean champion All Glory (Honour and Glory) are among the top horses that trace to this diminutive chestnut, who also produced Broodmare of the Year All Beautiful (Battlefield).

RUFFIAN REMAINS RELOCATED TO CLAIBORNE FARM

The remains of Hall of Famer Ruffian have been transferred from the infield at Belmont Park to Claiborne Farm in Paris, Kentucky, where the legendary filly was born and raised, officials at the New York Racing Association (NYRA) announced Thursday. NYRA has also relocated the plaque from Ruffian’s gravesite at Belmont Park to Claiborne Farm.

Ruffian was buried Thursday at Marchmont Cemetery on the grounds of the famed nursery, the final resting place of the likes of Damascus, Danzig, Easy Goer, Unbridled, Personal Ensign, her daughter My Flag and granddaughter Storm Flag Flying, Special--the dam of Nureyev--Obeah, the dam of Go For Wand, and many more.

Ruffian's remains had been buried at the base of the flagpole near the Belmont Park finish line since 1975. NYRA is beginning the construction of a one-mile all-weather track at that location. The move to Claiborne will allow greater public access to her gravesite.

“Shes known throughout racing as one of the greatest fillies of all time and it’s only fitting that she returns to her birthplace and will lie alongside other great mares such as Personal Ensign, Inside Information and Moccasin, among others, in our Marchmont Cemetery.

Ruffian was bred by Stuart Janney, Jr. and his wife Barbara Phipps Janney. In her two-year career, Ruffian won all of the 10 races she finished, including the Acorn, Mother Goose and CCA Oaks, then referred to as the American Triple Tiara. Ruffian was dominating from the start, winning her maiden by 15 lengths on debut while equaling the Belmont track record for 5 1/2 furlongs. She was never headed in any of her starts and set records in each of the eight stakes she won.

The champion 2-year-old filly of 1974, she was also champion of her generation at three, but died in July 1975 from injuries sustained in a 10-furlong match race with Kentucky Derby winner Foolish Pleasure. She was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1976.

“I’d like to thank NYRA for preserving and protecting Ruffian’s gravesite at Belmont for close to 50 years,” said Stuart Janney, III, who made the decision to move the remains jointly with Claiborne and NYRA, where he is a board member.

“We have been working with NYRA and Claiborne for months, and this is a wonderful outcome that will increase the public’s ability to visit the site and pay tribute to Ruffian and her incredible legacy. Claiborne is one of the most beautiful and revered Thoroughbred farms in America and the home of some of the greatest horses in racing history, and the ideal place for Ruffian.”

In addition, NYRA announced that the remains of Timely Writer, winner of the 1981 Hopeful S. and Champagne S., will be transferred to Old Friends in Georgetown, Kentucky. A one-time claimer, he won the Florida Derby in 1982, but missed the Kentucky Derby due to injury. He won nine of his 15 starts for earnings in excess of $605,000.

BLUE DIAMOND STUD BRANCHES OUT WITH ACQUISITION OF KENTUCKY’S STONEREATH FARM

Imad Al Sagar’s Blue Diamond Stud is the new owner of Stonereath Farm in Kentucky in a purchase which “underlines the intention of the stud to compete on the world stage”.

The Kuwaiti-born owner-breeder of Group 1 winners Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Decorated Knight (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) has a burgeoning involvement in racing and breeding in North America, where his Blue Diamond Stud has been represented this season by the homebred Wonderful Justice (Justify), winner of the Black Gold S. at Fair Grounds. The 3-year-old colt is trained by Brad Cox alongside the Grade II-placed Free Look (Tapit), a recent purchase at the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale.

Situated just outside Paris in Kentucky, Stonereath Farm was previously home to the celebrated broodmare Best In Show while under the ownership of Darrell and Lindy Brown. Its most recent owner was Dr. Christoph Berglar, the German owner-breeder of international Group 1 winners Protectionist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Novellist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Set on 252 acres, the historic farm’s facilities include 60 stalls in four barns, 24 paddocks and a yearling show ring area.

"We are excited to add Stonereath Farm to the Blue Diamond Stud portfolio," said Al Sagar, whose aforementioned filly Nashwa was runner-up to Mostahdaf (GB) (Frankel (GB)) in Wednesday’s G1 Juddmonte International. Cont.

Nashwa won the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket in July as well as last year’s G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Nassau S.

"With such a long history of producing such good racehorses, I am confident that it will be a valuable complement to our European division while allowing us great opportunity to diversify. We look forward to growing our presence in the U.S. and yielding the advantages of everything that Kentucky and its differing bloodlines has to offer."

Blue Diamond Stud chief executive officer Ted Voute has previously been involved in the launch of Clearsky Farm in Kentucky. He added, "Imad Al Sagar has incredible foresight and energy to invest in a vein of land in Bourbon County that is a proven source of Kentucky Derby winners.

"Stonereath Farm has not been over-horsed in recent times and is in pristine condition. I am excited for the future combining some of Blue Diamond's already illustrious bloodlines with this fertile land. Imad has infectious, overwhelming enthusiasm driving every one that works with him to produce Thoroughbreds to perform either at the sales or on the racetrack at the top level."

The team of stud staff employed during Berglar’s tenure under his Narola banner will remain in place, led by Walter Nathaniel Lobato and office manager Donna Callaway.

In Britain, Blue Diamond Stud owns two Newmarket-based properties, with Blue Diamond Stud South, which is home to the mares and foals, overseen by broodmare manager Andrew Rawlin, and Blue Diamond North, which is primarily the yearling division, run by yearling manager Gerry Meehan. In 2018, Al Sagar bought out his former partner in the stud, Saleh Al Homaizi, with whom he raced the Derby winner Authorized (Ire) and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Araafa (Ire) as well as Decorated Knight.

NEW YORK THUNDER TAKES PERFECT RECORD TO GI JERKENS by Mike Kane

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Unbeaten and hardly challenged so far through four starts, New York Thunder (Nyquist) will not be an unknown Saturday in his second visit this summer to Saratoga Race Course.

New York Thunder made a grand entry on the big stage at the Spa on July 28 with a resounding victory in the GII Amsterdam S. Sent off at 11-2 in his first race on dirt, he rolled to a 7 1/2-length score under jockey Tyler Gaffalione. Though he was eased up in the stretch when the outcome was no longer in doubt, New York Thunder completed the 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:14.65. His six-furlong split of 1:07.77 was faster than the 1:07.92 track record set in 2019 by Imperial Hint (Imperialism) in the Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. He got a Beyer Speed Figure of 110.

In the $500,000 H. Allen Jerkens Memorial, New York Thunder will step into Grade I competition for the first time. He drew Post 5 in the field of six and will be flanked by Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert’s runners, Fort Bragg (Tapit) and Arabian Lion (Justify). Both of the Baffert horses are coming off wins at Belmont Park. Arabian Lion prevailed in GI Woody Stephens S. on June 10 Belmont Stakes program. Fort Bragg stumbled at the start of the GIII Dwyer on July 1, recovered and won by a nose over Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming).

If trainer Jorge Delgado had his way, New York Thunder would be a low-profile outsider in the Jerkens. He understands that it is not a likely scenario with a horse that has won his races by a combined 23 1/4 lengths and is now proven on dirt.

"Hopefully, we can stay under the radar and let the horse do the talking for me," Delgado said. "I would not like too many expectations and just approach the race like we did last time. We didn’t have any pressure from the outside." Cont.

"When we were approaching the Amsterdam, no one was actually paying attention to him. When I was in the walking ring, I saw that they were interviewing a couple of other trainers on camera with other horses. With the way he won, I know he’s going to be in the spotlight. People are going to be watching him and a couple of other horses. I’m sure people are going to be looking forward to see what he can do."

Delgado, 33, is the nephew of trainer Gustavo Delgado, whose GI Kentucky Derby winning colt, Mage (Good Magic), will run in the GI Travers S. three races after the Jerkens. Jorge Delgado worked for his uncle in Venezuela and the U.S. before opening his own stable in 2017.

For Jorge Delgado, New York Thunder has been an exciting adventure. Though the colt with a dirt pedigree was bred in Kentucky and was purchased for $130,000 at the 2021 Keeneland September Sale, he was prepared for the races in Europe. New York Thunder arrived in Delgado’s care last year from the training center with a reputation of being very fast.

"In the very beginning with him we really didn’t know what direction to go as far as the surface," Delgado said, "since he was training in (Europe) and they don’t have a main track there to train on. They have grass, and run on synthetic and grass."

Brazilian-born former jockey Robson Aquiar was on the team that selected New York Thunder at Keeneland for Kai Joorabchian’s AMO Racing USA and did the pre-training.

"Robson told me that he was excellent on both but he liked the synthetic more," Delgado said. "That was the reason, since I was in Gulfstream in the winter, it makes sense to put him on the Tapeta."

Delgado was right. New York Thunder debuted on Nov. 27 and scored in a five-furlong race by 6 1/2 lengths.

"He was like 70 to 80% ready for racing and when he wins the way he did it, you think he’s a Tapeta horse or a grass horse," Delgado said. "That’s the first thought that comes to your mind."

One month later, New York Thunder picked up his first level-allowance victory, taking a five furlong turf race by 1 3/4 lengths.

"He won but he wasn’t as excellent like he was on the other surface," Delgado said. "So I spoke to the owner and said, 'let’s keep going the Tapeta direction.'"

Joorabchian, 52, is an Iranian-born entrepreneur, who has a long involvement in soccer in Europe and South America. He has been a horse owner in Europe for two decades and has had a North American AMO division since 2021. AMO’s first U.S. graded stakes winner was Affirmative Lady (Arrogate), who earned that victory for trainer Graham Motion in the GI Gulfstream Park Oaks on April 1. She finished 11th in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Affirmative Lady and New York Thunder came to AMO out of the 2021 Keeneland sale, as did King of Steel (Wootton Bassett (GB)), who has emerged as a top 3-year-old in England with a narrow second in the GI Epsom Derby and a win in the GII King Edward II S. at Royal Ascot.

New York Thunder scratched out of the $250,000 Animal Kingdom S. on March 25 at Turfway Park and made his stakes debut on April 30 at Woodbine in the six-furlong Woodstock. He romped by 7 1/2 lengths.

"We won the race at Woodbine and right away, we were targeting a race on dirt," Delgado said. "The owner was insisting he wants to run back in a graded stakes race."

Drawing the rail in the Woody Stephens, he was scratched with a foot bruise before Delgado shipped him up from his summertime base at Monmouth Park for the Amsterdam.

"That for some people didn't make any sense," Delgado said. "To switch the horse’s surface in a graded stakes race is not like the best idea always. But it turned out to be something really good. Now the horse has a name. Most people in the country know him. We have received a few offers for the horse and the owner is actually not a big seller, but at least we were sitting in that spot."

Speedy Ryvit (Competitive Edge) stumbled leaving the gate and New York Thunder was alone on the lead. He ran the first quarter mile in :21.48 seconds and followed that with a 22.08 to reach the half-mile in 43.46. Even-money favorite Drew’s Gold (Violence) moved up alongside on the turn, but New York Thunder and jockey Tyler Gaffalione responded quickly to the threat and were gone.

Delgado said that since the Amsterdam and the Jerkens are only 29 days apart, he has been very careful with New York Thunder in the interim. The two breezes have been slow by the colt’s standards: four furlongs in :52. Delgado said New York Thunder is showing him that he is ready for another big outing.
"This horse hasn't said no once," Delgado said. "He hasn't said, 'I'm not eating' or 'I'm not feeling well,' or 'I don't have energy.' He hasn't given any of those signals. He hasn't communicated any of that.

"Actually, he's been the opposite. Since the day he came back, the day after the Amsterdam, he was proud, he was moving around in his stall, he was looking around.

I know it's very tough to repeat the same performance, to repeat the same number, but he's really going to need that and more to win the race. But I believe in the horse, I believe in his heart and I believe in what we do."

"He's doing good. He's turned out with the other yearlings from his crop at my farm," Willoughby told TDN. "He looks like he's going to be big enough to run. But I don't think he'll be able to race. I don't know who his daddy was, that's the thing."

Without a foal certificate from The Jockey Club, the baby out of Beautyatitsbest lacks both racing credentials and an official name.

Willoughby and his wife, Rachel, who run Stonetown Stables, a boarding, breaking, lay-up, and broodmare service farm on 70 acres in Stamping Ground, Kentucky, have taken to calling the colt "Mystery" while trying to figure out what his future holds.

Unexpected backstretch stall births are not at all common. But maybe once a decade or two anecdotal news of one will pop up at some American track. When the story about Beautyatitsbest and her foal was first reported last year, Reed told the Paulick Report the filly had shown no signs of pregnancy other than she wouldn't shed weight.

Although Beautyatitsbest had been at both Reed's Mercury Equine Center in Lexington at age two and under his Belterra shed row at three, at one point she had returned to Willoughby's farm to recover from bucked shins. Reed told the Paulick Report last year that he believed she got in foal at Stonetown when turned out in a paddock with some male juveniles who had been recently gelded but could have been still carrying sperm before their castrations took full effect.

Willoughby, though, told TDN on Wednesday he's not quite sure that's how it happened.

"I don't think she got in foal at my farm," Willoughby said. "I think it happened at Mercury. They had her for about 11 to 12 months. And she was never with any stallion here. So what I'm thinking is, the first 30 days he had her turned out at the farm there, and I'm thinking they put them together thinking the others were geldings, and they weren't." Cont.

TDN asked Shannon Luce, the communications director for The Jockey Club, what rules or guidance the registry might have for an "unknown sire" situation. Luce responded with the following emailed explanation and an offer to help:

"If the colt born at Belterra Park meets all requirements of registration of the Principal Rules and Requirements of The American Stud Book, he is eligible for registration with The Jockey Club.

"In order for the colt to be issued a Certificate of Foal Registration, the correct sire of the foal would have to be determined and the DNA sample pulled from the colt would have to qualify with the sire. To the extent possible, the registry office would help the owner determine the sire," Luce wrote.

Willoughby said he isn’t sure right now if he’ll pursue the DNA testing option for Mystery.

As for Beautyatitsbest, Willoughby said she “was kind of shell-shocked" in the aftermath of her unexpected delivery—which matched the mood of her caretakers.

"I wasn't sure she was going to make it back. She had a lot of problems. She had a lot of circulation problems and things like that, but she's come through all of it now and she's doing great. She weaned and got to be turned out for about four or five months, just to 'be a horse', before she went back into training," Willoughby said.

That training, though, hasn't been with Reed. Willoughby changed conditioners for his small racing stable earlier this year, moving from a Derby-winning trainer with 40 years of industry experience to Robert Lee Clark, who has a 6-for-86 lifetime record dating to 2014. Willoughby cited cost as a factor in making the switch.

"I had to go where I could get more bang for my buck," Willoughby said. "So I've got five or six in training now versus two."

Clark has had a respectable Belterra meet so far this summer with limited stock, posting a 2-2-1 record from seven starts.

The Willoughbys are an endangered species on a Thoroughbred landscape that once was flush with smaller-scale, family-run farms. They have a broodmare band of five, maybe sell one foal a year at auction, and race the rest of each year's crop wherever the horses fit in. Over the past 30 years, the economics of the bloodstock and racing industries have been brutal on those types of operations. With foal crops declining, farm costs rising, and racetracks closing, it's harder than ever for these sorts of outfits to earn profits on their investments.

"It's tough," Willoughby acknowledged. "You know, I'm a working man. I have to go out and go get it on every day. I'm self-employed. Run my own businesses. We run a farm, a machine shop, and we do our own horses and everything, too. So we're kind of a special story on all of it, really."

Beautyatitsbest is dual-entered at Belterra in two versions of the same maiden-claiming condition on Aug. 26 (at a mile) and Aug. 29 (six furlongs). She drew the rail for both races, but the route lured only three other entrants, so that's where Willoughby intends to start her.

"I'll be honest with you: We expect her to win Saturday," Willoughby said. "She's sitting on a big one. She's doesn't show any excitement. She acts real professional. She's a tiny horse and she's not real big, but she's got a lot of heart."

PACIFIC CLASSIC’S POTENTIAL FIELD GROWS TO 10

The list of potential runners for Del Mar’s 33rd running of the G1 FanDuel Racing Pacific Classic Sept. 2 has grown to 10, so far. Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) won last month's GII San Diego H., the local prep for the Pacific Classic. Cont.

Todd Fincher is not afraid to put the 5-year-old homebred owned by Joey Peacock in after he rewarded the New Mexico-based trainer with the second Grade II stakes win of his career. Senor Buscador worked five furlongs in 1:00.40 (6/38) at Del Mar Thursday morning.

"It's a Grade I and that's kind of important for a stallion prospect," said Fincher. "With the right circumstances, he can definitely run with them."

Another potential starter is Tripoli (Kitten's Joy), winner of the Pacific Classic in 2021. The nearly $1-million earner is looking to get back on track after finishing fifth for trainer John Sadler in the San Diego H.

Skinner (Curlin) is the third 3-year-old to jump on board for the Classic. The John Shirreffs trainee was last seen running second in the Los Alamitos Derby July 8 after finishing third in the GI Runhappy Santa Anita Derby back in April. The bay colt's most recent work came last Saturday when he went seven furlongs in 1:26.40 at Del Mar (1/2).

"We have another work to go," Shirreffs says. "Then we'll decide if we're going to go."

One other addition is Call Me Fast (Dialed In) from the Michael Puhich barn. The dark bay gelding joins Defunded (Dialed In), Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo), Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}), Order and Law (Violence), Slow Down Andy (Nyquist) and Stilleto Boy (Shackleford), who are already potential starters.

Entries include:

- More than 50 horses of racing age, including stakes and graded stakes performers, as well as maiden, allowance, stakes, and claiming level horses. Several prominent racing stables are represented, including 14 entries from DJ Stable.
- More than 50 broodmares, including mares in foal to Good Magic, Dialed In, McKinzie and War of Will.
- Broodmare prospects by Arrogate, Curlin, Gun Runner, Empire Maker, Munnings, More Than Ready and Nyquist.

BIDDING OPEN FOR FASIG-TIPTON AUGUST DIGITAL SALE

Bidding opened Thursday, Aug. 24 at Noon (ET) and closes Tuesday, Aug. 29, at 2 p.m. (ET) for the Fasig-Tipton August Digital Sale, the organization said in a release Thursday.

The catalogue features 146 horses of racing age, breeding stock, yearlings and weanlings. The offerings are located in 14 states, as well as Ontario, Canada.

“This is our largest digital sale to date since launching the platform in March of 2022," said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales. "We have a particularly strong group of racehorses, as this sale works well as an outlet for stables as the summer race meets draw to a close. We are also pleased to welcome several new consignors to the platform, which demonstrates the increasing popularity of Fasig-Tipton Digital."

Entries include:

- More than 50 horses of racing age, including stakes and graded stakes performers, as well as maiden, allowance, stakes, and claiming level horses. Several prominent racing stables are represented, including 14 entries from DJ Stable.
- More than 50 broodmares, including mares in foal to Good Magic, Dialed In, McKinzie and War of Will.
- Broodmare prospects by Arrogate, Curlin, Gun Runner, Empire Maker, Munnings, More Than Ready and Nyquist.

NOMS DUE OCT. 1 FOR MARYLAND JOE KELLY AWARD

Given by the Maryland Million Ltd. Board of Directors, nominations for the 2023 Joe Kelly Unsung Hero Award are due by Oct. 1, the organization said in a release Thursday.

This year's recipient will receive a $1,000 honorarium and be recognized at the Sip & Win event and during Jim McKay Maryland Million Day at Laurel Park on Saturday, Oct. 14.

Potential nominees should embody characteristics that are valuable, but often go unrewarded. They should be honest, hardworking, humble and should set a good example through their principles and actions.

Nominees that are not selected for the award will be considered in the future without further need for submission.

Kelly, the first and only publicist for the Jim McKay Maryland Million Day racing program, was involved from the introduction of the concept in 1985 until his death in 2012.

Recent recipients include, Heather Cellinesi, Ahesahmahk Dahn, Brenda Herzog and Fran Burns.

Nominee must have:

- Demonstrated a particular commitment, impact or contribution to the Thoroughbred industry or equine community in general;
- Been involved in the Thoroughbred industry in Maryland for at least five years.

Nomination must include:

- A completed nomination form, online or hard copy;
- A recommendation letter of 500 words or less expounding on the reasons for your nomination.

Return all documents to: Maryland Million Ltd., Attn: Becky Remsberg, 321 Main Street, Reisterstown, MD, 21136 or email bremsberg@marylandthoroughbred.com.
NYTB HONORS LEGENDARY NEW YORK-BRED TRIO ON SUNDAY

Connections from champions Dayatthespa (City Zip), Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) and Saratoga Dew (Cormorant) will be honored by the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc. (NYTB) during their Showcase Day program after the sixth race on Sunday, Aug. 27 at Saratoga Race Course, the organization said in a release Thursday.

The trio were chosen by a panel of New York turf writers and represent the second class of honorees, joining last year’s inaugural group of Fio Rito (Dreaming Native), Commentator (Distorted Humor), Fourstardave (Complicance), Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) and Tiz The Law (Constitution).

BREEDERS’ CUP TO COLLABORATE WITH BALLARD DESIGNS

Breeders’ Cup Limited will collaborate with Ballard Designs to outfit the Trophy Lounge and breakfast settings at the 2023 Breeders’ Cup World Championships, to be held Nov. 3-4 at Santa Anita, the organization announced in a release Thursday. Both the Breeders’ Cup and Ballard Designs are celebrating 40th anniversaries this year.

Ballard Designs has 18 retail locations across the U.S. offering a variety of high-quality furnishings and decorations. Breeders’ Cup ambassador and television personality Carson Kressley will curate the layout of the Ballard sections and settings at Santa Anita.

“We are excited to work with Ballard Designs to provide a stylish and unique touch to both our VIP lounges and breakfast area for this upcoming Breeders’ Cup,” said Breeders’ Cup Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships Heather Higgins. “Special thanks to Carson Kressley for making an introduction our VIP guests are sure to enjoy.”

SUMMER BREEZES: Zverev Looks to 'Ace' Saratoga Debut

by Alan Carasso

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer racing season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings at both Saratoga and Del Mar and at Ellis Park, which attract its fair share of high-priced offspring from a variety of top national outfits.

Summer Breezes highlights debuting 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, with links to their under-tack previews. To follow are the entries for Friday at Saratoga and Del Mar. Ellis Park has rescheduled its Friday card to Monday, Aug. 28:

FRIDAY

RACING INSIGHTS:

by J.N. Campbell

NOT THIS TIME COLT TACKLES TWO TURNS IN SPA GRASS DEBUT

Tireless (Not This Time) will take on two turns in his first career start over the grass. Trained by Todd Pletcher and ridden by Irad Ortiz, Jr., the dark bay colt’s dam Kitty Union (Union Rags) was purchased by Rosilyn Polan at the 2021 Keeneland November Sale for $160,000 carrying a colt by Impomible. His third dam Tizso (Cee’s Tizzy) produced GI Haskell Invitational S. hero Paynter (Awesome Again) and is a full-sister to Horse of the Year
Tiznow. TJCIS PPS

6th-SAR, $136K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 4:00 p.m.

Change of Command (Into Mischief) went for $570,000 as a weanling at the Fasig-Tipton November sale before fetching $1.05 million from Courtlandt Farm at the Keeneland September Sale. The Shug McGaughey trainee is out of a full-sister to MGSw Mrs McDougal (Medaglia d'Oro).

Fellow firster Billal (Street Sense), trained by Bill Mott, brought $725,000 from Kaelem Shah as a Keeneland September yearling. Dam Bambalina (Bernardini) was purchased by Repole Stables at the 2020 Keeneland November Mixed Sale for $270,000 with Billal in-utero. She’s out of champion grass mare Perfect Sting (Red Ransom), who is also responsible for GSW Smart Sting (Smart Strike). TJCIS PPS

4th-DMR, $82K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 7:29 p.m.

Talla Racing LLC, West Point Thoroughbreds and Edwin Barker’s Indispensable (Constitution) was an $825,000 buy at the Keeneland September Sale. His extended female family includes MGSws Gulch Approval (Gulch) and Rusty Slipper (Lemon Drop Kid).

Bob Baffert has a pair of firsters ready to fire in Wynstock (Solomini), who initially sold as a yearling for $50,000 at the Keeneland September Sale before bringing $700,000 from Edward Allred and Jack Liebau at OBS April. The New York-bred is his dam’s first offspring.

Don Alberto homebred Ultra Power (Curlin), also trained by Baffert, is out of dual champion female Unique Bella (Tapit). She is a daughter of GI Breeders’ Cup Ladies’ Classic heroine Unrivaled Belle (Unbridled’s Song), who is also responsible for full-sister Vanishing Point, a $1.5-million purchase at the 2019 Keeneland September Sale by Yuji Hasegawa. TJCIS PPS

THIS DATE IN HISTORY...

August 25, 1987...Julie Krone won her 1,000th career race aboard Tiger Higgins in the second race at Monmouth Park.

August 26, 1972...Secretariat won the Hopeful S. by five lengths at Saratoga Racecourse for his second stakes win in as many tries.

August 27, 1953...The Thoroughbred Racing Associations denounced a plan for off-track betting in New York. John A. Morris, the TRA president, declared: “Although it could mean increased profits for the racetracks, off-course betting would inevitably subordinate racing and bring on an adverse public reaction which would kill a traditionally great sport and an economically significant industry.”
RACING WORLD MOURNS DEATH OF LADY O'REILLY

By Emma Berry

Highly successful and longstanding owner-breeder Lady Chryss O'Reilly, the owner of Haras de la Louviere in Normandy, has died at the age of 73.

As recently as Saturday, she was represented as the breeder of two Group 2 winners in Britain and Ireland. At Newbury, Witch Hunter (Fr) (Siyouni (Fr)) won the Hungerford S., while Vespertilio (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), bred in partnership with Ecurie des Monceaux, won the Debutante S. at the Curragh.

As ever, Lady O'Reilly was present at Arqana in Deauville during the last week, where her consignment of yearlings once again put her among the top ten vendors of the August Sale. Haras de la Louviere also topped Arqana’s V.2 Sale on Tuesday with a Kodiak (GB) colt out of Rainbow Vale (Ire) who was sold for €200,000 to Arthur Hoyeau.

Born in America in 1950 as Chryssanthie Goulandris, she held dual U.S. and Greek citizenship. Her parents John Goulandris and Maria Lemos hailed from two Greek shipping dynasties, and she shared her passion for racing and breeding with two of her uncles: George Goulandris owned the 1962 Oaks winner Monade (Fr), while Constantin Goulandris was the former owner of La Louviere and bred two champion trotters.

As well as operating under her own banners of Skymarc Farm and Petra Bloodstock Agency, Lady O'Reilly was also one of the breeding partners in Ecurie des Monceaux. Cont. p3

WARM HEART PREVAILS IN YORKSHIRE OAKS THRILLER

by Sean Cronin & Heather Anderson

Coolmore and Westerberg’s G2 Ribblesdale S. heroine Warm Heart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Sea Siren {Aus}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was unable to land a telling blow when fifth behind stablemate Savethelastdance (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in last month’s G1 Irish Oaks and stepped out of the shadows to claim a career high in a thrilling renewal of Thursday’s G1 Pertemps Network Yorkshire Oaks, becoming the 99th Group 1 winner for her sire.

The 9-1 chance, who had earlier outbobbed Irish Oaks runner-up and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) in Newbury’s May 20 Listed Fillies’ Trial, settled into a comfortable rhythm racing four lengths off the searching tempo pounded out by Savethelastdance on the front end and inched closer once into the long home straight. With her husband, the businessman and former Irish rugby international Sir Anthony O’Reilly, she previously owned Castlemartin Stud in Ireland, and she was a former chair of the Irish National Stud.

Lady O’Reilly’s achievements as a Thoroughbred breeder span almost 50 years and include the Group 1 winners and influential sires Highest Honor (Fr) and Lawman (Fr), as well as the latter’s fellow Classic-winning half-sister Latice (Ire). She also bred the 1996 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe winner Helissio (Fr), G1 Pretty Polly S. winner Chinese White (Ire), and G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lightening Pearl (Ire) among a host of stakes winners. She was inducted into the ITBA Hall of Fame in 2013.

A hugely popular figure on the European scene, Lady O’Reilly supported a wide range of trainers, including Nicolas Clement, Pascal Bary and Henri-Alex Pantall in France, and Kevin Prendergast, Dermot Weld and Eddie Lynam in Ireland, where her distinctive black-and-white hooped silks with blue cap were carried to victory by the Group 1 winners Rebelline (Ire) and Voleuse De Couers (Ire). She also enjoyed much success with the late British trainer David 'Dandy' Nicholls, who trained for her the likes of group winners Sovereign Debt (Ire), Moss Vale (Ire) and Peace Offering (Ire).

Eddie Lynam, who trained the G2 Sapphire S. winner Soffia (Ire) among other black-type winners for Lady O’Reilly, told TDN, “She was a very kind woman. I was fortunate to have trained for her for 15 years, maybe more, and she was a pleasure to train for as she was very knowledgeable. She will be sadly missed in racing throughout the world, never mind here, where we were very fond of her. She used to come and visit and she was great fun. We did everything bar win a Group 1 for her: we were second in a Group 1 and won a Group 2, Group 3, Listed and all the rest.

"She was great for racing, she was chair to the National Stud here in Ireland and she was a fabulous breeder. My family and I were all very fond of her and we will miss her. My thoughts are with Sir Anthony and the rest of her family."

Henri Bozo of Ecurie des Monceaux shared Lynam's view. He said on Thursday, "It's a sad day. She's been amazing and she's a huge loss for many people. She was such a supportive and kind person and she made our industry nicer and more human. This is a big shock but she has enjoyed the last days of her life doing what she loved."

He continued, "Through Patricia Boutin I got to know Chryss at the beginning of my career and she helped me like she helped so many young people. When we started Monceaux she was very happy to go into partnership. She was here all the time. She was a fantastic person when you had to give her bad news, and she was so happy when there was good news. On Saturday we won the Debutante S. together as breeders, and she and Patricia and I were in a box together in Deauville and she had a big smile on her face. It is my last memory of her and it is very special."

Arqana's Eric Hoyeau and Freddy Powell paid tribute to Lady O'Reilly in a joint-statement which read, "It is with deep sadness that we have heard the news this morning. Lady O'Reilly was at the sales this week, greeting everyone entering the B yard with a smile. Many of her friends stopped by to chat with her; we believe that her last few days were happy ones, surrounded by her cherished Thoroughbreds and horse people.

"Chryss has been selling in Deauville for decades and everyone will remember her champions Highest Honor, Helissio, Lawman or Latice. Last Saturday, she was delighted when two of her graduates won Group 2s in England and Ireland, then on Tuesday, La Louviere sold the V.2 top price.

"We would like to express our deepest condolences to her family, her friends and all the people who cared for her horses on her stud farms. Deauville sales will never be the same without her."

Such notable success on the racecourse and in the sale ring in the last few days of her life are just reward for an individual who put so much time and thought into her own operation and the sport itself. That Lady O'Reilly had raced so many of the horses whose names appear on the page of her sale-topping Kodiac yearling, including his damsire Moss Vale and second dam Rainbows For All (Ire), speaks volumes for her enduring contribution to the world of Thoroughbred breeding.

Making her presence felt when looming large on the bridle approaching the quarter-mile marker, she seized a narrow advantage with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining as Free Wind (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) threatened out wide and was resolute under a James Doyle drive in the closing stages to outpoint that rival by a head in a thrilling ding-dong tussle. Savethelastdance stayed on gamely once headed and finished 2 1/4 lengths adrift in third, providing her sire with yet another Group 1 trifecta.

“She’s a very good filly who won very well in Ascot and then she just got back in a slowly-run race [at the Curragh] and it was hard to make up ground,” said Aidan O’Brien after claiming a seventh success in the contest. “She loves fast ground, she’s a very slick filly and I think she’s probably made for the [GI Breeders’ Cup] Filly & Mare Turf. She’s a nice size to her, she’s strong and has tactical speed as well. She could go straight there to Santa Anita or she could run on Irish Champions Weekend or Arc weekend, but she likes nice ground and maybe we shouldn’t overface her. The lads do keep horses in training as 4-year-olds, including fillies, so I’d say they’ll definitely think about it at the end of the year. She’s progressing from run to run.”

Reflecting on the performance of Savethelastdance, the trainer added, “Ryan [Moore] wanted an even pace for his filly as she stays well. We were worried about the [faster] ground for her today. When the ground gets slow it helps her as it makes it tougher for the others, but she still ran a great race. She always runs her race, but she’s better on soft ground. Whereas most horses struggle, she improves. She definitely could be an Arc filly as, on softish ground, she grows another leg. She has the choice of the St Leger or the Arc. If she ran in the St Leger the Arc comes up two weeks after that, so it’s a little bit tight and she’d probably have to do one or the other. We’ll probably give her an easy time now and see. We always felt she could be a filly for the Arc, especially if the ground got soft.”

It was a case of so near yet so far for rider Frankie Dettori after he was narrowly denied a Group 1 double at the meeting on his season-long lap of honour. “She’s run a super race, but I couldn’t get out when I wanted to. I had to wait an extra half-furlong and that meant James [Doyle] had all the momentum. I got to him, but I just wish I’d been able to get my filly rolling beforehand. That nine-pound [weight-for-age] pull just took its toll in the end. I think the pocket I got stuck in cost me.”

Ground conditions were a direct factor in Bluestocking’s defeat, according to trainer Ralph Beckett. “She’s just not quite as effective on that quicker ground as she is on slower ground and that’s all it is,” he said. “She’s run her race, she’s run well and she’s run through the line, but she’s just not quite as good on quicker ground. Come the autumn, I’d like to think there will be a few nice targets for her.”
Galileo: In Numbers

With the victory of Warm Heart, the late Coolmore supremo Galileo sired his 99th individual Group 1 winner worldwide. A total of 44 of his top-level winners are fillies, with Warm Heart the 41st British Group 1 winner for her sire. He is also represented by 40 Irish winners of top-tier races, as well as 26 in France and 15 in America. His most decorated British runner is undoubtedly his undefeated champion son Frankel (GB), who garnered 10 Group 1 laurels.

From a distance perspective, Warm Heart joins 30 other top-level winners to have won between 11 furlongs and 12 furlongs, the most of any distance category for Galileo. However, he did sire Clemmie (Ire) to take the Cheveley Park S. over six furlongs. An additional 22 have prevailed at distances beyond one-and-a-half miles.

Warm Heart is also the second Group 1 winner out of a Fastnet Rock mare, joining Hong Kong Gold Cup and dual Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup hero Russian Emperor (Ire).

The majority of Galileo’s Group 1 winners have done their best work as 3-year-olds (67), with 23 juvenile Group 1 winners to his credit and 38 have triumphed at the highest level at four.

Pedigree Notes

Warm Heart is the fifth of seven foals and one of four scorers produced by G1 Manikato S., G1 Doomben 10,000 and G1 BTC Cup heroine Sea Siren (Aus) (Fastnet Rock (Aus)), herself kin to the pattern-race winners Oratorio (Aus) (Stravinsky) and Lady Dehere (NZ) (Dehere). The February-foaled bay, whose third dam is G1 Karrakatta Plate heroine Hold That Smile (Aus) (Haulpak (Aus)), is a full-sister to G3 Derrinstown Stud Fillies S. runner-up Celestial Object (Ire) and the winning 2-year-old colt Bremen (Ire). She is also kin to a yearling colt by Camelot (GB). Sea Siren has returned to Australia and recently foaled a colt by Coolmore’s Home Affairs (Aus) (I Am Invincible (Aus)).

STALLION NEWS: BLAKE AND CANTILLON BUY SMART SPRINTER BOUTTEMONT

Brian Sheerin

Kevin Blake and Jack Cantillon have secured French sprinter Bouttemont (Ire), who they are targeting at a rare Group 1 double in the Flying Five and Prix de l'Abbaye, before standing the highly-rated son of Acclamation (GB) in Ireland.

Bouttemont will see out his career with current trainer Yann Barberot and will race in the colours of Syndicates.Racing, the successful ownership group which is headed by Cantillon.

A number of packages that include racing and breeding rights are available in the Group 3 winner with Blake describing the opportunity to invest in Bouttemont as a rare one for prospective investors.

The well-known racing pundit and breeder told TDN Europe, "We're doing things a little bit different in that people can get into Bouttemont for the remainder of his racing career and also secure breeding rights. This is a new partnership between Jack and myself and I really believe that Bouttemont is quite a compelling horse. He has the form, the profile, the looks and the pedigree. You'd like to think he'd be an appealing horse at that level.

"I think it's quite a unique thing that, anyone who gets involved in the horse at this stage, they get to rock up to the Irish Champions Festival in a few weeks' time and then on to Longchamp with a share in a Group 1 runner on Arc day. You don't usually get an opportunity to do this sort of thing without spending an awful lot of money so it's a pretty interesting opportunity."

Bouttemont landed the Group 3 Barriere Prix de Meautry at Deauville a year ago. He posted an impressive speed figure when landing a listed contest at Chantilly over the minimum trip back in June and Blake says he is confident that the five-year-old has more to offer over five furlongs.

He explained, "Bouttemont ran to an RPR of 116 when he won the Prix Hampton at Chantilly and that's the performance that I'd be focusing in on because an RPR of 116 would have been good enough to win or finish second in any of the past five Flying Fives or Prix de l'Abbayes. The ability to be good and competitive in those races is there when he gets his conditions."

Blake added, "Nearly every person we've bounced the idea of the horse to can see the case and have shown a lot of enthusiasm. In most cases, people wouldn't have been familiar with the horse but, when you explain what you're thinking and provide them with the information, they can see it and are quite excited by it. Again, it's the uniqueness of being able to get in on a racing and breeding level which is appealing to a lot of people."

Bouttemont may represent Blake's firstendeavour into standing a stallion but this won't be Cantillon's first rodeo. Far Above (Ire), who stands at Micheal Orlandi's Starfield Stud in County Westmeath, was sourced by Cantillon and covered 142 mares in his first season at stud.

Commenting on his latest stallion acquisition, Cantillon said, "I don't think people should get confused about the fact they could achieve two things that they might otherwise never achieve in their lifetime here. When you pick up the TDN over the next few weeks and months, you will read announcements about horses retiring to stud. This isn't a stallion retiring announcement. This is a stallion prospect being reimagined."

"What really excites me about this is that, not only do people have the opportunity to own a breeding right in one of the highest-rated sons of Acclamation, but they also have the upside of racing. People can accomplish the lifelong goal of owning a stallion and ultimate life goal of owning a Group 1 runner with a live chance as well."

He added, "Dealing in cold hard facts, this horse gave a performance in the Prix Hampton which places him on a career higher-rating RPR than Mehmas and Dark Angel, achieved a top speed of 72 kilometers per hour in that race and almost broke the track record. He's an exceptionally-quick horse.

"I have always gotten on very well with Kevin and we have combined what we are good at here; identifying value and being a champion of the breeder, which involves new ways for breeders to get involved in our great game. Hopefully we have unearthed the next great stallion son of Acclamation and, who knows, he could be the last son of Acclamation who ever retires to stud. Even if he doesn't get his ground in his remaining Group 1 dates, he already has the proven credentials of the type of horse that thrives at stud in Ireland."
Relief Rally Pounces Late for Lowther Triumph

By Sean Cronin

Simon Munir and Isaac Souede’s G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}—Kathoe {Ire}, by Fayruz {GB}) impressed when annexing Newbury’s Weatherbys Super Sprint by daylight last month and pounced late to secure a fourth win in five starts, upped to six furlongs for the first time, in Thursday’s G2 Sky Bet Lowther S. at York.

The 2-1 favourite, who had earlier snagged early-season wins over five furlongs at Windsor and Salisbury, was sharply into stride and settled under cover behind the leaders in fifth after the initial strides. Bustled along with a quarter-mile remaining, she was angled to the stands’ side for a clear passage passing the furlong pole and quickened smartly under continued rousting in the closing stages to deny Cherry Blossom (Ire) (No Nay Never) by a length nearing the line. Symbology (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) finished a head adrift in third in a bunch finish for the minor placings.

“You don’t get much time in a six-furlong race to worry, but I thought she had a bit to do and was really impressed with the way she picked up,” admitted William Haggas. “I think she’s a pure 2-year-old. I’ve had a few fillies, one called Besharah won this race, and she didn’t go on. I think it’s really hard, especially when they are small. We don’t want to get wrapped up in them being a fantastic 3-year-old and this may well be her year, in which case we want to capitalise. She’s pretty good and she’s good in her head, although she dances a bit in the paddock. She’s easy to train. I haven’t had chance to talk to Tom [Marquand], as this is [owner] Simon [Munir]’s day. It’s his first ever trip to York.”

Looking over the horizon, Haggas added, “Whether we have one [more run] before her last run [this year], I don’t know. If we do, it will be the [G2] Flying Childers with a Group 2 penalty, but that’s 50-50. Then it will be the [G1] Cheveley Park or the [G1] Prix de l’Abbaye.”

Marquand added, “We hoped stepping up to six [furlongs] would work in her favour and I was looking forward to it. Over five, she’d hit a little flat spot before finishing really strongly and, over six, that just didn’t happen today. She had plenty to pass a furlong out, but they were all within a length. To be honest she never had me worried and she hit the line hard. William has done a remarkable job to get her to win the pot she did after Royal Ascot. I hope it’s the Cheveley Park [next]. If she goes for the Abbaye I won’t be able to ride her [due to her low weight], but William will make the right decision.”

Pedigree Notes

Relief Rally, the latest of eight reported foals and one of five scorers for her dam, hails from the family of G1 Irish 2000 Guineas-winning sire Jaazeiro (Sham) and G1SW Irish champion Woodstream (Northern Dancer). The April-foaled bay is a full-sister to G3 Chipchase S. victor Koropick (Ire). Their second dam Water Spirit (Riverman) is an unraced half-sister to Listed Grand Prix de Marseille Vivaux runner-up Private Enquiry (Ire) (Gorytus) and G2 Gallinule S. fourth and sire Northern Date (Far North).

YORK: “SHE LOVES THIS PLACE.” HIGHFIELD PRINCESS BACK ON THE KNAVESMIRE TO DEFEND NUNTHORPE CROWN

By Tom Frary

Friday sees the G1 Coolmore Wootton Bassett Nunthorpe S. take centre stage at York with the returning heroine of last year Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) the star turn in the line-up for the Win-and-You’re-In contest ahead of the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint. Emphatic 12 months ago when dismissing the 2-year-old The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}), the John Quinn-trained 6-year-old has to do it all again with another juvenile Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) lurking with his 21-pounds weight-for-age swing.

Having come up short against the revitalised TDN Rising Star Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) in the G1 King’s Stand S. and finished third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee S. at the beginning and end of Royal Ascot, there was a question mark over whether the formidable mare retained her level of last season. Having brushed off those doubts when regaining her dominant aura in the G2 King George S. at Goodwood earlier this month, she returns to the track at which she also won the 2022 G2 1895 Duke Of York S.

“It’s a spicy race,” Quinn said. “When a three-year-old wins a King’s Stand you have to sit up and take notice and the two-year-old is a Royal Ascot winner and a Goodwood winner and looks really tough, hardy and mature, so they are two and something else could pop up who at their best could be in the mix. Goodwood was very good, so we’re hopeful anyway.”

“It’s a spicy race,” Quinn said. “When a three-year-old wins a King’s Stand you have to sit up and take notice and the two-year-old is a Royal Ascot winner and a Goodwood winner and looks really tough, hardy and mature, so they are two and something else could pop up who at their best could be in the mix. Goodwood was very good, so we’re hopeful anyway.”
“She’s done so much and people expect plenty from her, but she seems in good nick and she loves this place, which is all you can ask.”

Bradsell, who also went through a fallow period after his G2 Coventry S. success last June, was remarkably having his first try at this five-furlong trip when upstaging Highfield Princess at this year’s Royal Ascot but he has to do it on the flat, fast strip which offers such a contrast to the Berkshire venue. “We thought he might not have as much early speed as the Australian sprinters, but he showed more speed than ever before and really thrived down in trip,” Hollie Doyle said of the King’s Stand performance. “He’s our flagbearer at Archie’s and it’s great to be going to the Nunthorpe with a live chance again.”

The Mick Appleby-trained Big Evs, one of the key members of his remarkable sire’s first crop, has been added at a cost of £40,000 following his Listed Windsor Castle S. and G3 Molecomb S. successes with his connections hoping they have timed it right with that huge weight concession. Clipper Logistics’ TDN Rising Star Dramatised (Ire) (Showcasing (GB)) won the G2 Queen Mary S. last year and the G2 Temple S. on her 3-year-old bow and this could be ideally poised if she can put a disappointing effort in the King’s Stand behind her.

“It was a non-event at Ascot, we thought they were drawn on the wrong side,” the owners’ racing manager Joe Foley said. “Danny (Tudhope) came in and said he looked up two furlongs out and they were a long, long way behind. Also the ground was quite dead on the first day of Ascot and she needs fast ground, hence we missed the King George at Goodwood. She has been working very, very well, so it’ll be interesting to see where she stands with the proper group one sprinters now that she is a mature three-year-old and is getting her ground."

TDN Rising Star Johannes Brahms Heads Gimcrack cast...

In the G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Gimcrack S., Ballydoyle are represented by TDN Rising Star Johannes Brahms (GB) (Siyouni (Fr)), still exciting and unexposed having chased home Big Evs in the Windsor Castle over an inadequate five furlongs. Ryan Moore already knows all about the impressive Listed Dragon S. winner Kylian (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)), who may have been compromised by Goodwood’s soft ground when third in the Molecomb, so major market support for the Aidan O’Brien raider will be significant.

“I rode Kylian in the Molecomb and we didn’t see the best of him there,” Moore said. “He may be the one to beat, up in trip, but Johannes Brahms is a colt with improvement in him. He already brings a good level of form to the table, winning over six furlongs on his debut and then chasing home Big Evs stepped down to five in the Windsor Castle, and he is a horse I like.”

This is always tough and the presence of the G2 Vintage S. winner Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain (Ire)) and Clipper Logistics’ highly-regarded Newmarket novice scorer King’s Gamble (Ire) (Kingman (GB)) are another two to stand out. The latter, who is trained by Ralph Beckett, earned a supplementary entry with his performance on debut and Joe Foley explained, “He’s a horse that we will probably step up to seven soon, but Danny Tudhope thought he showed a lot of speed at Newmarket that Friday and the sectionals backed that up, so we thought we would give the Gimcrack a go.”

Courage Mon Ami On Retrieval Mission In The Lonsdale Cup...

Another who failed to shine at Goodwood’s Qatar Festival was Wathna Racing’s G1 Gold Cup hero Courage Mon Ami (GB) (Frankel (GB)), who became like so many others lost in the backwash behind Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)) in the G1 Goodwood Cup. Having learned from that experience, connections will possibly be looking for a change of tactics in Friday’s G2 Weatherbys Hamilton Lonsdale Cup. John Gosden is hoping the 4-year-old can put up a fight this time. “We all know the Goodwood Cup was an interestingly different sort of race and not dissimilar to the Lonsdale last year, really,” he said. “He couldn’t get a run and then when he did get a run, the race was over. So, he had what I call a nice racecourse gallop, really!”

Quickthorn, who had given forewarning to his Goodwood rivals with a 14-length beating of Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman (Ire)) in this 12 months ago, is the enviable mount of Tom Marquand who understands just how fast to go throughout the early stages of these staying contests.
“In the Lonsdale, he pretty much ran away with me if I’m honest,” he admitted. “I was going to make the running, but I didn’t intend to go that fast and he was doing too much really. But he’s a lot more measured now and at Goodwood he never felt as though he was going that quick. Hughie [Morrison] has done an amazing job having Quickthorn right on the day so far and he’s no one-trick pony. Far from it. He doesn’t have to make the running, so long as he finds a rhythm and is in his comfort zone and he only has to beat horses he has beaten before.”

LAWMAN MOVES TO HARAS DU MAZET

Group 1 sire Lawman (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) has been transferred to Haras du Mazet for the 2024 breeding season, Jour de Galop reported on Thursday. His fee will be €4,000.

A winner of both the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and the G1 Prix Jean Prat in 2007, the 19-year-old has sired 38 stakes winners. Of his 22 group winners, six have scored at the highest level, including Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Just The Judge (Ire), 2020 Cartier Champion 2-Year-Old Filly Pretty Gorgeous (Fr), Most Improved (Ire), Law Enforcement (Ire), St Leger victor Harbour Law (GB) and Marcel (Ire).

After beginning his career at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland in 2008, the half-brother of G1 Prix de Diane heroine Latice (Ire) (Inchinor {GB}) switched to Haras de Grandcamp for the 2019 breeding season, where he stood through 2022. This year, he covered mares at Karwin Farm for €6,000.

LATEST GODOLPHIN FLYING START TRAINEES BEGIN TWO-YEAR COURSE

The 2023-2025 Godolphin Flying Start trainees began their two-year programme at Kildangan Stud in Ireland on Aug. 14. A total of five different nationalities are represented among the students, including Australia, New Zealand, Ireland, the UK and the USA. The complete list of 2023-2025 trainees are:

- Mitchell Whelan, New Zealand
- Harrison Everett, Australia
- Sean Cooper, Ireland
- Anna Cahill, Ireland
- George Connolly, Ireland
- Sam Baker, Ireland
- Johnny Marsh, UK
- Jake Swinburn, UK
- Daisy Fenwick, USA
- Gerard Donworth, Ireland
- Harper McVey, USA
- Claire Wilson, USA

Godolphin Flying Start Executive Director, Clodagh Kavanagh, said, “We welcomed our 21st Godolphin Flying Start class of 12 trainees to Kildangan Stud on August 14th. It is a milestone year for the programme, having had our 20-year reunion in Kildare in June which was attended by over 100 graduates. We look forward to collaborating with industry professionals to give the trainees opportunities to learn, complete externships, and gain employment in the future so that we may achieve our vision of being the source of influential leaders of the industry.”
ROR RACING TO CRICKET AUCTION LOTS ANNOUNCED

Retraining of Racehorses Racing to Cricket event will also feature 11 lots set to be auctioned to support the racing charity. The event is set for Wormsley Cricket Ground as eight racing teams will square off to win the trophy on Sunday, Sept. 3. The live auction will be held at 1:30 p.m. earlier that day, with charity auctioneer Martin Pope signed on. Bids can be made in advance by 6 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 2 by email to rorauction@ror.org.uk.

Among the auction items are stallion nominations in Group 1 sire Aclaim (Ire) and young sire Lope Y Fernandez (Ire); a trip for four people to the renowned Punchestown Festival in May 2024 with a tour of the Irish National Stud and overnight stay at The Club; a two night stay is offered in the luxury B&B Aylworth Manor in the Cotswolds along with tickets and hospitality for two at the November Meeting at Cheltenham on Sunday, Nov. 19; a behind-the-scenes day with former jockey Luke Harvey at a televised race meeting; a week’s stay at Southdown Barns, located in the National Trust coastal hills of Devon accommodating up to 12; and Corney & Barrow has offered with the Tack Room a wine tasting event for up to 20 people at the National Horseracing Museum in Newmarket.

David Catlow, RoR Managing Director said, “RoR has an important role in leading the development and delivery of an overarching strategy for the aftercare of former racehorses. To date, RoR has made a real difference to the lives of many thousands of former racehorses and funds raised at the RoR Racing to Cricket day will help towards the development of activities which support the charity’s vision ‘For all former racehorses to enjoy a good life’.

“We are so grateful for the generosity and support of donors, who have given RoR these wonderful auction lots, as well as individuals and businesses who are supporting the day and raising valuable funds for the charity.”

DRAGON LEADER (IRE) (c, 2, El Kabeir--Sweet Dragon Fly {GB} {SP-US}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), undefeated after notching six-furlong wins at Salisbury in June and earlier this month, went postward as the 7-2 joint-favourite for this £300,000 Goffs UK Harry Beeby Premier Yearling S. and broke sharply to seize an immediate lead. On the front end throughout this third start, he was pushed along when threatened by the pack approaching the quarter-mile marker and surged clear under a drive inside the final 150 yards to easily outpoint market rival Ziggy’s Condor (Ire) (Havana Grey {GB}) by an impressive 4 1/2 lengths. “That’s three from three and it was no surprise, but to do it quite as comfortably as he did was great,” said trainer Clive Cox. “Ryan [Moore] got into a really nice rhythm and to see him kick like he did was amazing. We’re very happy and it means a great deal to win Harry Beeby’s race as he was a very close friend. Ryan is top drawer and I think our strike-rate is pretty good when he does occasionally dip in, but a lot of thanks goes to John Fahy who worked hard on this horse in the spring as well. He’s in the [Weatherbys Scientific £300,000] sales race at Doncaster, which is a jolly nice prize too. His median value qualifies him really nicely for that and we’ll see how we go, but we’ll be thinking about group races as well.”

Sea Theme backed up a June 18 debut third at Salisbury with a breakthrough score at Doncaster last month and continued on an upward trajectory with a career high on black-type bow here. Racing in fourth until slipping to fifth at the top of the straight, she was scrubbed along with three furlongs remaining and stayed on relentlessly under a continued drive inside the final quarter-mile to put her head in front on the line.

“Tom [Marquand] said she doesn’t know what she’s doing yet,” revealed trainer William Haggas. “She’s a tough filly and she’s done well to win as she’s pretty inexperienced. She battled hard and she’s clearly got ability. She’s had a race today and there were no prisoners taken there.” Looking ahead to future targets, he added, “The [G2] Park Hill [at Doncaster] is a possibility if she’s all right, but I don’t know about Champions Day [at Ascot]. That’s a big step up. I always felt she wanted top of the ground as she’s such a fluent mover. She won on the soft at Doncaster when I wanted to pull her out, but the owner said to let her take her chance and I’m glad we did. She seems to go on most ground, so I suppose she’s going to be pretty good.”

Sea Theme is the third foal and scorer produced by G3 Prix Allez France victrix Mayhem (Ire) (Whipper), herself a full-sister to G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein victor and G1 Hong Kong Mile runner-up Royal Bench (Ire). Mayhem, who is a granddaughter of G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Cerulean Sky (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), is also kin to G3 Ormonde S. winner and G1 Irish Derby second何况Memphis Tennessee (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) and Listed Glencairn S. third Vega Magnifico (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). The February-foaled bay is a half-sister to stakes-winning G2 German 1000 Guineas and G3 Prix Impudence runner-up Sky Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), the unraced 2-year-old colt A La Noche (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and a yearling filly by Blue Point (Ire).
Dragon Leader is the second of four foals and lone scorer out of Listed Golden Poppy S. third Sweet Dragon Fly (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), herself the leading performer produced by Listed Bosra Sham Fillies’ S. winner Sweet Cecily (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). Sweet Cecily is a granddaughter of Gil Selima S. victrix and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies second Sweet Roberta (Roberto), whose descendants include MGISW sire Brody’s Cause (Giants Causeway). The February-foaled chestnut is kin to a yearling colt by Invincible Army (Ire) and a weanling colt by Supremacy (Ire). The former is part of a 13-strong Yeomanstown Stud draft and catalogued as Lot 223 for this month’s Goffs UK Premier Yearling sale at Doncaster. Sales history: £45,000 Ylg ’22 GOFFUK. Staying on strongly on the rail in the straight, the 9-4 second favourite reeled in Arctic Mountain (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) a half-second. Thavemuchtodo (Ire) (Shalaa {Ire}) and a foal full-sister to Al Hakeem, is a daughter of the GII Nassau S., GII Lake Placid S. and GII Las Palmas H. winner and GI E. P. A five-length winner of a soft-ground mile Navan maiden in October, Salt Lake City had run second in the nine-furlong Listed Glencarin S. here in June and sixth in the G2 Minstrel S. shortening up to seven also at this venue in July. Kept close to the early pace by Killian Hennessy, he looked to have been left behind as Didn’tthavemuchtodo opened up in early straight but found a surge to overhaul that rival in the shade of the post.

“He had a lovely run in the Minstrel Stakes and he was a bit unlucky,” stable representative Chris Armstrong said. “He would have finished closer, except that he just got held up at the wrong time. Aidan felt he would handle Killarney and Killian gave him a lovely ride. He kept it uncomplicated, floated around the bend and just let him creep into it nicely. There’s only one winning post and he made sure he got the right one. It’s fantastic for Killian, he’s well able to ride and it’s just getting the opportunities. Every opportunity Aidan has given him, he has delivered on this year and he has a fair strike-rate.”
The winner is the first foal out of the G2 Queen Mary S. and G2 Flying Childers S.-winning dam, who was a 1.3million gns purchase by Coolmore at the 2018 Tatts December Mares Sale. The second dam is the Listed Lansdown Fillies’ S. winner and G3 Prix de Saint Georges-placed Place In My Heart (GB) (Compton Place {GB}), while the family also features the G3 Tetrarch S. scorer Leitrim House (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). Heartache’s yearling and foal fillies are by Frankel (GB).

Winner of two of his first three starts prior to this including a latest seven-length conditions success over 1 furlongs at Navan, Harbour Wind relished this marked step up in trip to suggest he can take high rank among the stayers. Always travelling easily in mid-division, the homebred showed smart acceleration from the home turn to take command approaching the furlong pole and draw away from some useful peers.

“It’s a race I like to win, commemorating Vinnie Roe and Pat Smullen is in my mind always,” trainer Dermot Weld said. “He’s still a big immature horse, coming forward. He’s next year’s horse and he’ll be trained accordingly. That was a good renewal of that race, plenty of strength and of course he liked the better ground. He’s very like his uncle Forgotten Rules in every way, make, shape and attitude. There is lots to look forward to.”

The dam is a half to the aforementioned Forgotten Rules (IRE) (Nayef), who captured the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup and G3 Vintage Crop S. and was third in the G1 Gold Cup. The G3 Park Express S.-placed second dam Utterly Heaven (IRE) (Danehill) is kin to the GII Orchid H. winner Lisieux Rose (IRE) (Generous {IRE}) from the family of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner (Affirmed). Topaz Clear also has a 2-year-old filly by Zoffany (IRE) and a yearling colt by Profitable (IRE).

1ST Leopardstown, €16,000, Mdn, 8-24, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:27.63, gd. CONTENT (IRE) (f, 2, Galileo {IRE}--Mecca’s Angel {IRE} {MG1SW-Eng, GSW-Ire, GSW & G1SP-Fr, $999,035}, by Dark Angel {IRE}), well-beaten in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot.

“Definitely a race I’d like to win, commemorating Vinnie Roe and Pat Smullen is in my mind always,” trainer Dermot Weld said. “She’s a very honest, all she wants to do is jump and run hard. I was impressed with her and I think she has a lot of strengthening up to do. She’ll get a bit further in time, but at the moment six or seven is fine, a mile might stretch her.” The winner is the fourth foal and second runner out of the dual G1 Nunthorpe S. heroine Mecca’s Angel, whose first was Galileo’s TDN Rising Star Hudson River (IRE) who raced only twice. A full-sister to the G3 Criterion S. and G3 Chipchase S.-winning sire Markaz (IRE), her yearling filly is by Frankel (GB). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $11,970.
