

WITH $3M INTO MISCHIEF TOPPER, KEENELAND SEPTEMBER SIZZLES FROM START TO FINISH TUESDAY

Hip 261 Into Mischief–Nonna Mia $3-million colt | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini & Christina Bossinakis

LEXINGTON, KY - With the very first horse through the ring bringing $1.3 million, the second session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale was off to the races Tuesday and the action didn't slow down throughout the day as the second-to-last offering brought $1.25 million. In between, 13 other yearlings sold for seven figures, including a colt by Into Mischief who brought top price of $3 million from the partnership of Chuck Sonson, West Point Thoroughbreds and Woodford.

With eight million-dollar yearlings Monday, the two-session Book 1 section concluded with 23 yearlings bringing $1 million or more.

"It was a great day with lots and lots of different buyers, the partnerships were active, it was active from the domestic side as well as the international side," said Keeneland President Shannon Arvin. "The 15 top prices were bought by 13 different buyers. And there was also a real diversity among the consignors, which was really nice to see. There were a lot of consignors who had a lot of success today."

Figures for the marathon auction continue to track very closely with its record-setting 2022 renewal. Cont. p3

HISA: NO SPECIFIC CAUSE FOR CHURCHILL DEATHS; 'ALL HANDS ON DECK' PROTOCOLS IN PIPELINE by T.D. Thornton

A months-long investigation by the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) has determined that there was no specific cause for the 12 equine fatalities that occurred at Churchill Downs this past spring.

The detailed study released Sept. 12, however, has yielded a newly created "strategic response plan" that HISA believes "will either contribute meaningfully to the reduction of equine fatalities or allow further study and analysis for future implementation if confirmed by the data."

In all, 221 yearlings sold during Book 1 this year for a total of $116,925,000. During last year's Book 1 section, 220 yearlings grossed $113,660,000 as the auction was well on its way to recording its first-ever gross over $400,000,000.

"Going in, I didn't think it would be fair for us to expect that we could replicate last year," said Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy. "But I think when you look at the numbers--obviously the median is down a little, the average is up a little bit--but overall the fact that the gross is up over $3.5 million from last year is incredible. When you look at the numbers through the ring that got sold, it's very, very comparable."

The Book 1 average of $529,072 is up 2.41% from a year ago, while the median dipped 11.11% to $400,000.

From a catalogue of 383 yearlings, 302 went through the ring with 81 failing to meet their reserves for a buy-back rate of 26.82%. It was 21.99% a year ago.

"A lot of people don't have to sell," Lacy said. "When you have a purse structure and people are enjoying it so much, they are happy to race."

Gainesway was the book's leading consignor with 29 horses sold for $20,920,000. The farm sold eight of the book's 23 million-dollar yearlings, with five coming from Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm broodmare band.

"We had high expectations coming in," Gainesway's Brian Graves said. "I wasn't sure we had as many million-dollar horses to sell as we actually did. The market proved to be really strong. But we knew we had a really good group of horses for our clients. The market is alive and well."

Mike Repole continued to lead all buyers at the auction. On his own, the New Yorker purchased 21 yearlings for $8,135,000, while in partnership with Spendthrift Partners, he acquired an additional two yearlings for $1.2 million.

In addition to his activity buying, Repole also bred and sold the section's $3-million topper through the Lane's End consignment.

Into Mischief continued to dominate the top of the market. The Spendthrift stallion had 11 seven-figure yearlings and a total of 31 head grossing $27,910,000. Coolmore's Uncle Mo, with four seven-figure yearlings, had 17 Book 1 horses sell for $12,495,000. The duo were represented by nine of the book's top 10 yearlings.

The Keeneland September sale continues with Book 2 sessions Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 11 a.m. Following a dark day Friday, the auction continues through Sept. 23 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Hip 261 Into Mischief--Nonna Mia colt | ThoroStride

Continuing to underscore the sheer sire power of Into Mischief on this year's yearling market, Hip 261, a colt by the Spendthrift sire out GISP Nonna Mia (Empire Maker) landed a $3-million final bid from the partnership of West Point Thoroughbreds, Woodford Racing and Chuck Sonson.

"This is a beautiful colt. This is a young family [and] with Into Mischief, you don't have to say much. He was always in the hands of Lane's End, so we knew a little about his upbringing," said Terry Finley, who handled the signing duties from inside the pavilion. "We are really excited and have a new group of partners who are in on him. We will try to get to the Derby in 2025."

Of the session-topping yearling, Finley added, "I thought he'd bring a significant amount of money. You never know. After they bring $1.5-$2 million, you never really know where you're going to stop. I was just glad that we got to a point where I thought it was a 'reasonable' amount of money, if you can in fact call $3 million reasonable for a racehorse that has never had a saddle

The buying partnership also combined to purchase Hip 220 and Hip 225, a pair of $800,000 colts by Candy Ride (Arg) and Quality Road.

The Feb. 11 foal was consigned by agent, Lane's End.

“When you bring an individual like him to this sale, you hope to be rewarded and that’s what happened today,” said Lane's End's Allaire Ryan. “Over the past decade, of the horses we’ve raised at the farm, he is right up there. He’s always been a forward individual from Day 1. He’s been a special horse for us.”

She continued, “All the top players you think would be interested in a future stallion prospect like him. I’m just thrilled for everybody on the farm. To be entrusted to a mare like this for Mr. Repole means a lot in and of itself but to be able to raise a horse and bring him to an auction is rewarding for everybody.”

While showing moderate ability on the track, Nonna Mia has already proved her mettle in the breeding shed, producing GI Wood Memorial winner Outwork (Uncle Mo), in addition to SP Nonna's Boy (Distorted Humor).

Day 1 Leading Buyer Repole Returns Tuesday with Breeding Score

Mike Repole was busy spending through Book 1, purchasing 11 yearlings, alone or in partnership, for just a tick under $3.945 million. Recouping some of that cash during Tuesday's session, Repole sat front and center with his team when a homebred colt out of a horse he campaigned, Nonna Mia, lit up the board.

“She was named after my grandmother,” he said. “I named the horse in 2009. My grandmother passed away in 2020. So she's very special to me.”

A half-sister to MGSW Cairo Prince (Pioneerof the Nile), Nonna Mia was a $200,000 purchase by Repole from the Mill Ridge consignment at the 2008 renewal of the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

According to Repole, the 16-year-old mare currently resides at Lane's End.

"Nonna Mia is getting up in age, maybe she has one more in her, maybe not," he said.

The pedigree received a significant bump at Saratoga when Repole homebred Fierceness (City of Light), a son out of Nonna Mia's daughter Nonna Bella (Stay Thirsty), blew the doors off to earn 'TDN Rising Star' status Aug. 25.

"She also gave me Outwork and a horse I think is the best 2-year-old, Fierceness, who is going to the GI Champagne S.," he confirmed. "So, we're lucky to have her."

Underscoring the importance of the recent update to the colt's catalog page, Finley added, "I was up at Saratoga when Fierceness ran. I was awestruck by that performance."

During Tuesday's session, Repole was also an active buyer, securing an additional 12 yearlings, 11 alone and one in partnership, for a gross of $5,390,000.

"I want to be the leading buyer and leading seller one day," he quipped. "But I am passionate about all aspects of this game. Stallions, stallion shares, broodmares, buying, selling, weanlings, yearlings, even claiming horses for $12,500.

"I just enjoy the game. I like to play it at every single level I can and try to as well as we can do. I enjoy winning."

Asked whether he will be back for Book 2 and 3, Repole laughed, "We'll be buying today, tomorrow, and the next day. Don't forget, we bought [juvenile champion] Forte in [Keeneland's] Book 4. Winners can come from anywhere."--

Stewart Strikes for Uncle Mo Filly

Hip 337 Uncle Mo--Starship Warspeed filly | ThoroStride

John Stewart, who made a big splash during Monday's first session of the Keeneland September sale, took his biggest swing of the week when going to $2.5 million to acquire a filly by Uncle Mo (hip 337). While Stewart was at the sale in person during the first session, he left bidding Tuesday to agent Gavin O'Connor and farm manager Chelsey Stone.

"She's an unbelievable filly," O'Connor said after signing the ticket on the yearling who was consigned by Denali Stud as agent for breeder, WinStar Farm. "Uncle Mo is the sire of incredible fillies."

The yearling is out of Starship Warspeed (Congrats) and is a half-sister to GI Kentucky Oaks winner Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil).

"I know the family personally," O'Connor said. "I used to work for WinStar. I spent five years under Dave [Hanley] and Elliott [Walden]. So I have had babies out of the mare. They have a full-brother in training and he looks very promising as well."

O'Connor, who was on the phone with Stewart during the bidding, admitted they had to stretch to get the filly.

"It was a little bit more than we wanted to go, but like we've said, John is a buyer," he said. "I thought we were going to have her at $2.2 there, and then it went 3, 4, 5, and I thought, 'How far can we go here?'"

He added, "She's just an unbelievable broodmare prospect. She's an incredible filly. And the residual value is there. We just feel we have a safe asset at that price."

Stewart purchased 10 yearlings during Book 1 for a total of $7,750,000. In addition to his $2.5-million acquisition, the Lexington financier also paid $1 million for a colt by Into Mischief (hip 147), a colt by Constitution (hip 135) for $850,000

Into Mischief Colt Rewards St George Team

Archie and Michelle St George, along with pinhooking partners Tony and Roger O'Callaghan of Tally-Ho Stud, hit a home run Tuesday at Keeneland when selling a colt by Into Mischief (hip 283) for $1.8 million to Coolmore's M.V. Magnier. The team had acquired the dark bay for $550,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

“I'm kind of speechless at the moment,” Archie St George admitted as Magnier signed the ticket on the yearling. “We're just very fortunate to have a horse as good as him. It's a huge team effort, with everyone at home, Roger and his dad and my wife Michelle and all the lads. A lot of work has gone into the horse and this is a huge thrill.”

The yearling is out of Princess Haya (Street Cry {Ire}) and is a half-brother to stakes winner and Grade I placed Lady Kate (Bernardini).

Asked about the nerves associated with buying a pinhook prospect for $550,000, St George said, “It's nerve-wracking, but it's high risk-high reward. It's the quality of the horse. It's a huge team effort. I'd like to thank Coolmore and their partners and wish them the best of luck.”

Magnier, who purchased a son of Uncle Mo for $1.35 million Monday, was making his second purchase of the Keeneland sale. Magnier later added a $1.25-million Gun Runner colt late in the session.

“He is a very good mover and Into Mischief is a very good sire and [his son] Practical Joke is doing really well [as a sire] at the moment,” Magnier said of hip 283. @JessMartiniTDN

$1.35M Not This Time Colt Gives Airdrie Sentimental Score

Bret Jones | Keeneland

Offering a small but select group of yearlings in this year's Book 1, Airdrie Stud once again showed quality over quantity often wins the day when it comes to the sales. Underscoring that point this week, Hip 344, a colt by Not This Time, drew a tidy $1.35 million final bid from Jacob West, who was bidding on behalf of Robert and Lawana Low. Over the course of two days, Airdrie sold all three of the yearlings it offered, amassing $2,475,000 in gross receipts while averaging $825,000. Airdrie also sold a Nyquist filly (Hip 31) for $750,000 on Day 1 and a $375,000 colt (Hip 356) by Complexity Tuesday.

After selling its priciest yearling so far this season, Airdrie's Bret Jones, who also bred the colt, said, "Special is the right word. A little overwhelming. I'm feeling a little sentimental right now, thinking about dad [Brereton C. Jones] and thinking how many memories we get from these great horses, these horse sales, horse races."

The Mar. 8 foal is out of Street Mate (Street Cry {Ire}), dam of Grade I winner Bell's The One (Majesticperfection) and GSW King Cause (Creative Cause). The 15-year-old mare, who was a $35,000 purchase at Keeneland November in 2012, is a half-sister to GSW and GISP Tap Day (Pleasant Tap)

Jones continued, "The colt has always been beautiful. He is by the right stallion. And the mare has been incredible to us. It's a really special family. He has always lived up to that family. He is just so good looking and makes you think he can be a special horse on the racetrack. The horse vetted perfectly clean which is always nice."

When asked about the reserve, Jones didn't miss a beat.

slightly more subtle road while still packing a punch with five yearlings realizing $2,980,000, yielding a robust $596,000 average on Day 2. Leading the fray Tuesday was Hip 324, a bay colt who realized a $1.3 million final bid from Larry Best's OXO Equine. The purchase was Best's sole purchase on the afternoon.

“I thought he was one of the best colts in the sale,” said Best. “I paid more than I would want to. This particular auction I’ve never seen one quite this strong. I knew he was going to be around $1 million to get him. But he’s a beautiful specimen of a Constitution. He looks very racey, very athletic.”

Bred by Kindred Stables, the Mar. 26 foal was consigned by Indian Creek. The bay is out of the unraced Solo Uno (Medaglia d'Oro), a half-sister to MGSW and GISP Tom's Ready (More Than Ready).

“When you buy colts it’s a high risk game,” Best said. “And when you saw some of the other colts that I liked in the sale they went for $2-million plus. There is only so much money I want to invest in a colt. This was a good shot. We’ll see how it works out.”

Serengeti Empress's First Foal in Demand

The first foal out of GI Kentucky Oaks winner Serengeti Empress (Alternation), a son of the omnipresent Into Mischief, was scooped up by the partnership of WinStar Farm's Maverick Racing, Siena Farm and CHC, Inc. for $1.2 million Tuesday at Keeneland.

"If he didn't break his ribs as a foal, he might have topped the sale," said WinStar Farm's Elliott Walden. "We saw him on the farm and David [Hanley] and I both loved him. He's out of an Oaks winner on a Distorted Humor cross. Hopefully he can do some great things on the racetrack."

Serengeti Empress was one of the first yearlings Joel Politi purchased when he decided to purchase young fillies with the goal of raising his own broodmare band from scratch. Politi and trainer Todd Amoss purchased the future Oaks winner for $70,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September sale.

After watching the mare's first foal go through the ring Tuesday, Politi admitted, "It was emotional watching him go through the ring. I had a lot of second thoughts in the back ring. I was thinking, 'My goodness, he is so good-looking.' But we set a price that we would be ok with him moving on. I am being practical about the whole thing. So you can't argue with it really. He's going to a great place. WinStar is a first-class operation. They will take good care of him and they will have him here in Kentucky and we can come visit him, so it's a win-win."

Westwind Farms graduate Epicenter winning the GI Runhappy Travers S.

In the last 15 years, from an average foal crop of 14, Westwind Farms has bred or raised 19 stakes winners; 10 of which were Graded stakes winners, including 5 Grade 1 winners.

They include: Epicenter (G1), Valid Point (G1), Zenden (G1), Sweet Reason (G1), Santa Teresita (G1), Timber Reserve (G2), Maybesomaybenot (G2), Bobs Edge (G3), Restrained Vengeance (G3) and Engaginglee (G3).

acquired a racing prospect in a $1.2-million daughter of Into Mischief (hip 316). Also partnering on the yearling is John Bellinger and Brian Coelho's BC Stables.

Bred and consigned by Gainesway, the gray filly is out of Silver Colors (Mr. Greeley) and is a half to GI Alabama S. winner Eskimo Kisses (To Honor and Serve) and a granddaughter of GI Kentucky Derby winner Winning Colors.

“For us, she was the pick filly of this book,” Hartley said. “It's just such a great female family and we just felt like if we put enough guys together, we could get her. To have a half-sister to a Grade I Alabama winner and the grandmother a Kentucky Derby winner, you just don't get those pedigrees that often. So she was a filly we thought we really needed to have in the barn.”

A Miami music titan, Mendez has been on both sides of seven-figure transactions this year. He purchased an Into Mischief colt for $1.3 million at the OBS April Sale. Now named Urban Legend, the juvenile is in training out west with Bob Baffert. Mendez was also involved in seven-figure pinhooks with Hartley/DeRenzo at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale and at last month's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

Asked if the purchase of this well-bred filly indicated Mendez would consider getting into the breeding side of the business, Hartley said, “We are thinking about it for sure. This would obviously be one you'd want in your barn. My favorite saying is black cats have black kittens and she's a beautiful filly, so I think she would definitely have beautiful babies. It was just a pedigree that you very rarely get and we felt like we really had to stretch to get her. But we were taking her home.” @JessMartiniTDN

All Into Mischief, All The Time

Continuing the feeding frenzy for colts, specifically those by Into Mischief, a son of the Spendthrift sire joined the millionaire's club when reeling in a $1.2-million final bid from Team Coolmore at Keeneland Tuesday. Led by M.V. Magnier, the group held their customary spot out back, picking up their fourth purchase, also the fourth seven-figure buy, of Book 1. Offered as Hip 331, the flashy grey was consigned by Machmer Hall, who also bred the colt.

“I'm overwhelmed,” said Carrie Brogden, standing alongside her mother, Sandy Fubini. “I had no idea he was going to bring that much money. Personally, that is our most expensive yearling. We've sold 2-year-olds for more, but that is our most expensive yearling. We are overjoyed.”

Commenting on the price, she admitted, “Our reserve was well below $500,000. We're sellers and breeders. We're here to sell our horses."

The Feb. 26 foal is out of Special Me (Unbridled's Song), who failed to distinguish herself on the racetrack, allowing Craig and Carrie Brogden to swoop in to secure the mare for a mere $6,000 at Keeneland January in 2009. Subsequent to that most fortuitous purchase, the mare produced GI Santa Anita H. winner Gift Box (Twirling Candy), MGSW and GISP Stonetastic and MGSW Special Forces. She is also responsible for GI QEII Challenge Cup S. heroine Gina Romantica (Into Mischief), herself a $1.025 million purchase at Keeneland September in 2020.

"We're never going to get another mare like her," Brogden said. "We have a Twirling Candy filly for 2023 and it'll be a hard decision whether she comes up here or not because we can buy a lot of new broodmares for a million dollars. She is tough as nails. She is in foal to Flightline right now, but we might have to send her back to Into Mischief after this."

Armed with both top-class runners on both the dirt and turf, Brogden admitted she doesn't see any limitations to what this colt will be able to do.

"I wouldn't be surprised if he is a great dirt horse or if he is a great turf horse," she said.

Seeming to have the knack for coming up with pricey sales prospects out of inexpensive mares, Brogden explained Machmer Hall's overall breeding philosophy.

"We just try to go with the families we like and understand what we can afford," she explained. "For example, I bought Stonetastic's daughter for $400,000 because I can afford that. I can't afford Stonetastic even though we bred her. You have to know the families you are dealing with."

"And I have to thank Unbridled's Song once again. [Monday] we sold six yearlings, three of them out of Unbridled's Song

A large yellow '$600,000' is shown, followed by '2ND HIGHEST-PRICED FIRST-CROP FILLY IN BOOK 1'. mares.”

While the Machmer Hall team can credit hard work, commitment and diligence to much of their success, Brogden is quick to point out that sometimes the intangibles can also come into play.

“We had two yearlings struck and killed this year and [the Into Mischief colt] was in the same field with them,” she said. “And there were only 14 of them. We got lucky it wasn't him.”--

Volatile Filly Sparks Three Chimneys' Day

Three Chimneys Farm, which hit it out of the park with the fast-starting stallion career of Gun Runner, could have another stallion success in the making after a first-crop daughter of Volatile (hip 215) sold for $1.15 million to the bid of Mike Rutherford Tuesday at Keeneland.

“I don't think you could write it out any better than to have a $1.15-million filly in the first crop, but those are the kind of mares that we bred to him,” said Three Chimneys' Chris Baker. “That's the kind of confidence that we have in him.”

The filly, consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, was bred by Three Chimneys and is out of multiple Grade I winner Love and Pride (A.P. Indy).

“She was a spectacular filly,” Baker said of the yearling. “She deserved that kind of recognition. She is that special. We wish Mr. Rutherford all the luck in the world with her.”

Three Chimneys purchased Volatile (Violence) in partnership for $850,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September sale. The gray won the 2020 GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. and stood this season at Three Chimneys for $12,500.

“Volatile has consistently produced great physicals, horses with scope and substance that look fast,” Baker said. “And he was fast. It's really been pleasant to see how consistently he has race horse physical types. So we are as excited as we can be right now."

Of the stallion's first seven-figure yearling, Baker said, "With a horse that started at his initial stud fee, it is a pleasant surprise--it's not shocking, but it's a pleasant surprise."

Three Chimneys came right back with another seven-figure yearling when a colt by Into Mischief (hip 218), co-bred with Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm, sold for $1.1 million to the SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership.

Consigned by Gainesway, the yearling is out of Magical World (Distorted Humor) and is a half-brother to multiple Grade I winner Guarana (Ghostzapper). Guarana's Into Mischief colt sold for $1.4 million during Monday's first session of the September sale.

"Nothing would have surprised me with him," Baker said. "I think he is an exceptional colt. He's a great-moving colt with a great pedigree--by a top sire out of a top mare. So I think he is well sold and I expect to hear more about him in the future."

Also Tuesday, Three Chimneys sold a filly by Munnings (hip 280) for $700,000 to Shadwell. The yearling is out of Princesa Carolina (Tapit). @JessMartiniTDN

Gun Runner Filly to Speedway

Hip 222 Gun Runner--Mama Yay filly | ThoroStride

Marette Farrell, bidding on behalf of Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's Speedway Stable, went to $1.2 million to acquire a filly by Gun Runner (hip 222) from Jody and Michelle Huckabay's Elm Tree Farm consignment. The Huckabays were selling the youngster on behalf of Dell Ennis, who purchased the filly for $625,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton November sale.

"She is so athletic and so light on her feet and has an amazing demeanor,” Farrell said. “I believe she is a runner and I hope Peter and K.C. are lucky with her.”

The bay is out of Mama Yay (Mineshaft), an unraced full-sister to Dialed In and a half to Broadway Gold (Seeking the Gold). The yearling is a half-sister to stakes winner Empire House (Empire Maker).

“It is a pedigree that Peter Fluor himself loved,” Farrell said. “We now have three stallions--Collected, Roadster and Corniche--so we are trying to do things with a view towards buying fillies [to breed to them]. We were the underbidder on this filly when she sold as a weanling. So we followed her and saw her here.”

Ennis said the filly's pedigree was what attracted him to her at Fasig-Tipton last November.

“I loved her,” Ennis said. “I loved the pedigree. I love Miss Doolittle and I love Mama Yay.”

The filly was Ennis's lone pinhook of the year and the Virginian admitted to some pre-sale jitters.

“I woke up at 2:22 this morning and couldn't sleep,” he said. “She is so classy and confident in herself. You are going to be writing about her again.”

Tuesday's seven-figure transaction was an emotional one for veteran horseman Jody Huckabay.

“I've been doing this for 35 years and this was my first million-dollar horse,” a visibly moved Huckabay said after watching the filly sell. “We thought she was a very, very good filly and obviously a lot of people thought she was nice. But you never know.”

Huckabay and Ennis were enjoying their first collaboration at the Keeneland sale.

“Dell bought this filly and called me and said, 'I hear you raise a good horse,' and he sent her to me. I met him yesterday [for the first time]. So I didn't know him. But things worked out. It's a very exciting day.”

Of the decision to send the weanling to Elm Tree last November, Ennis said, “I interviewed several farms and at the time, [Huckabay] checked the boxes for us. He could take the filly right from the sale, so he checked the boxes. I have a very good rapport with several other farms in Kentucky and I love them as well. Jody and Michelle are very hands on and they pay attention to detail. And that's what it takes to get a horse in that ring from a weanling.”

This is not the first time the bay filly has rewarded her connections in the sales ring. She was bred by Mark Erlandson, who purchased Mama Yay for $20,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November sale. Erlandson sent the Gun Runner filly through the sales ring at Fasig-Tipton last year through the New Hill Farm consignment. @JessMartiniTDN

HIT THE SWEET SPOT

Not wishing to sugar-coat it, but Frosted is enjoying a tasty 2023: eight Graded Stakes horses – no stallion under $50k is doing better – plus two Stakes winners in the past week.

Latest yearlings selling now, and – just imagine! – his juveniles have sold for $900k and $475k this year and already include two Stakes horses.

Into Mischief Continues Powerful Run Into Day 2

Picking up where he left off Monday, Into Mischief was represented by his first seven-figure yearling of the session when Hip 218 reeled in $1.1 million from agent Donato Lanni. Tom Ryan signed the ticket on behalf of prolific partnership of SF Bloodstock, Starlight and Madaket.

“There is no mystery about the stallion,” Ryan said. “It’s a very unique pedigree. Just a fantastic piece of paper. And it’s rare you have the opportunity to buy into that sort of bloodline. So we’re glad to be involved.”

According to Ryan, the colt will go to Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert.

“Donato loved him and so did Bob. Our own team, John Moynihan was involved too. We’re excited to have him.”

Whisper Hill Farm and Three Chimneys Farm bred the colt in partnership. The Apr. 20 foal is out of Magical World (Distorted Humor), most notably the dam of GI Acorn S. winner Guarana (Ghostzapper). The colt is also half to SW Beatbox (Pioneer of the Nile) and SW and GSP Magic Dance (More Than Ready). The family includes GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Pleasant Home (Seeking the Gold).

Following a lucrative streak, Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill, in partnership with Three Chimneys Farm, extended to $5.2 million to secure Magic World while carrying this foal at Fasig-Tipton November in 2021. Last term, the partnership dipped into the family again to purchase Magical World's colt by Quality Road for $1.1 million. Guarana herself was a $4.4-million purchase at Fasig-Tipton November in 2021.

The family had its desirability in full display Monday when a son of Guarana, also by Into Mischief, brought $1.4 million.

During Tuesday's session, Lanni also secured Hip 207, a colt by Into Mischief out of Late Night Pow Wow (Fiber Sonde) for $900,000 and Hip 243, a colt by Justify ($625,000) for the same partnership. --@CbossTDN

Seven-Figure Book 1 Parade for Pope

Mandy Pope, who has steadily been building a high-octane broodmare band, reaped the benefits of her investments during Book 1, selling five seven-figure yearlings over the two sessions. Leading the way was a $1.7-million son of Into Mischief (hip 162) who sold Monday. Pope got Tuesday's second session of the auction off to a quick start when the first horse through the ring, a daughter of Tapit (hip 202), sold for $1.3 million to the internet bid of Sinandigan Stable. Also Tuesday, Pope, in partnership with Three Chimneys Farm, sold a colt by Into Mischief (hip 218) for $1.1 million to the SF/Starlight/Madaket partnership; and a colt by Curlin out of champion Songbird (hip

“It’s been a lot of hard working buying the right mares,” Pope said. “We worked hard buying excellent race mares and trying to reproduce them. This has been an awesome day for us.”

Asked how the results in the sales ring matched up to her expectations, Pope said, “We thought a couple of them would sell that well. A couple of them were surprises for the better and one or two were not. The usual thing.”

Pope's Book 1 yearlings were at the forefront of a big two days for the Gainesway consignment.

“Mandy has invested a lot of time and a lot of money and it's starting to yield dividends,” said Gainesway's Brian Graves.

Speaking at a press conference that followed the release of the investigation's findings, Lisa Lazarus, HISA's chief executive officer, said, "This is, for certain, an 'all hands on deck' moment. There's no one stakeholder that's responsible for the fatalities. And so there's no one stakeholder who can take responsibility for solving the issue. This is something that we have to do together as an industry and move forward..."

"Horses dying is not okay. No one in the industry thinks this is okay," Lazarus emphasized, noting that current efforts to eliminate equine fatalities have to be viewed against a longer-term backdrop.

"If you look historically, at kind of where we've been and where we are now, we have been making progress repeatedly over the years. But we need to do better, and make more progress faster," Lazarus said.

HISA found no significant cause for deaths at Churchill Downs | Coady

Although many of the proposed measures outlined in HISA's strategic plan focus on veterinary protocols, track maintenance, new safety rules, and the incorporation of data analytics to better predict and halt catastrophes before they occur, one potential change that has direct implications for the bloodstock industry stands out: Extending the scope of HISA's medication oversight to Thoroughbred auctions.

"Many have questioned whether the industry would be better served if anti-doping and medication control (ADMC) protocols were consistent throughout the lifetime of a horse," stated HISA's strategic plan. "For that reason, HISA has initiated discussions with sales companies, Fasig-Tipton, Keeneland, and Ocala Breeders' Sales Company, toward the goal of entering into voluntary agreements to more effectively align and coordinate our respective ADMC programs throughout the lifetime of a horse."

Lazarus explained that Thoroughbred auctions are currently a gray area of HISA's oversight, but she hoped that a spirit of cooperation might smooth over any gaps relating to how the ADMC rules could be implemented at sales.

Lazarus noted that "a horse becomes a HISA [covered] horse after it's had its first public workout, first timed workout. So some of the 2-year-old sales would certainly fall under HISA's purview. The weanlings and yearlings wouldn't. But I think we're at the point where if HISA leads the way that we should, and the way that we intend to, that we'll be able to motivate the industry to come under one kind of comprehensive, understandable, kind of ADMC approach."

Another key proposal in the strategic plan is sure to ramp up the already divisive debate over whether synthetic racing surfaces should become more of a mainstay in American racing.

"Current available data suggests that artificial surfaces may be safer for horses than dirt or turf surfaces," the HISA strategic response stated. "While additional research and analysis is necessary to fully evaluate the potential impact of artificial surfaces on overall equine injury rates, more synthetic surface options should be introduced into Thoroughbred racing."

HISA has also proposed a new rule requiring a 30-day stand-down time from racing and a 14-day stand-down time from workouts after a horse receives a corticosteroid intra-articular injection into the fetlock joint.

In addition, HISA wants to see more oversight for these types of injections, including the creation of a designated area at the racetrack for intra-articular injections to be administered and/or the requirement for veterinarians to record and upload a video of the intra-articular injection being given along with the standard injection report.

"Oaklawn Park has volunteered to implement the designated treatment area concept for their race meet beginning in December 2023," the HISA strategic findings stated. "The pilot program will be used to determine the feasibility and value of this approach, as well as to identify challenges that would need to be resolved for it to be successful."

Although HISA's investigation focused on the Churchill fatalities that caused the track's corporate ownership to abandon the spring meet and move racing to Ellis Park in early June while stabling and training continued at Churchill, the findings also took into account other recent spates of Thoroughbred deaths at Saratoga Race Course and Laurel Park. Lazarus said separate reports on the fatalities at those venues would be forthcoming in the near future.

"The absence of a singular explanation for recent equine fatalities at several racetracks across the country is extremely frustrating for the entire sport of Thoroughbred racing, for fans and the public, and also for HISA," the strategic plan stated.

"The fatalities at Churchill Downs, Laurel Park and Saratoga Race Course identify a number of potential factors that warrant implementation or further study and industry discussion," the strategic plan stated. "The inevitable recognition that horse fatalities are almost always multi-factorial means that the response must similarly be multi-responsive."

Specific to Churchill, the findings report stated that "The investigation concludes that there was no causal relationship between the racetrack surface at Churchill Downs and the equine fatalities. Similarly, there was not a clear pattern in medical histories or injury profiles across the fatalities that point to a single, causal explanation for the fatalities. Nor were there any medication violations present. However, analysis of training histories did indicate an increased risk profile for some of the horses due to the frequency and cadence of their exercise and racing schedules."

The causes of the 12 Churchill fatalities were summarized in the report as follows: One traumatic paddock injury; one fracture sustained in training on the dirt track; two cases of exercise-associated sudden death; two soft tissue injuries sustained in racing on the dirt track; two fractures sustained in racing on the turf track; four fractures sustained in racing on the dirt track.

"Of the seven horses with inoperable fractures, six involved the metacarpal or metatarsal-phalangeal joint ('ankles' or 'fetlocks')," the report stated. "Both soft tissue injuries involved the distal sesamoidean ligament. The nine musculoskeletal fatalities occurred in races ranging from maiden special weight to claiming to graded stakes, and on dirt surfaces listed as fast and good, and on turf surfaces listed as firm.

"In other words, there was no discernible pattern," the report summed up.

Asked if HISA might have preferred to have found glaring evidence of what caused the deaths at Churchill, Lazarus responded this way:

"Obviously, if you have one 'smoking gun,' one clear answer, that's simpler. You can put all of your resources into dealing with that one issue. That being said, I think the fact that it is multi-factorial gives us an opportunity [as a] national regulator, to say, 'We can't just kick the can down the road.' I think that's the message of the strategic response, is that we're not kicking the can down the road. This is a time where racetracks and horsemen and breeders and consignors and sales companies, we all have to get behind real change, [and] no stakeholder group can decline to participate."

But the findings did note that in some cases, "procedural and information reporting deficiencies" by industry entities were hampering HISA's safety efforts.

"HISA has not been reliably and consistently receiving fatality notices or necropsy reports as outlined in Racetrack Safety Rules 2131(c)(7) and 2170(e) from many jurisdictions, including Kentucky," the findings stated.

"In addition, the information and data contained in the necropsy reports have not been sufficiently comprehensive to provide all the information necessary for HISA Veterinarians to conduct a thorough analysis," the report continued. "Consequently, HISA experts in necropsy reporting have been working since the Churchill Downs fatalities with the relevant necropsy laboratories to expand the information provided and clarify the reporting obligations under HISA's preemptive rules."

With regard to timely injury reporting, the findings stated that "HISA is not currently receiving reports of 'all equine injuries and fatalities...within 72 hours of injury' as required by HISA Racetrack Safety Rule 2131(c)(7). This is not limited to Kentucky but must be rectified going forward to position HISA for maximum effectiveness."

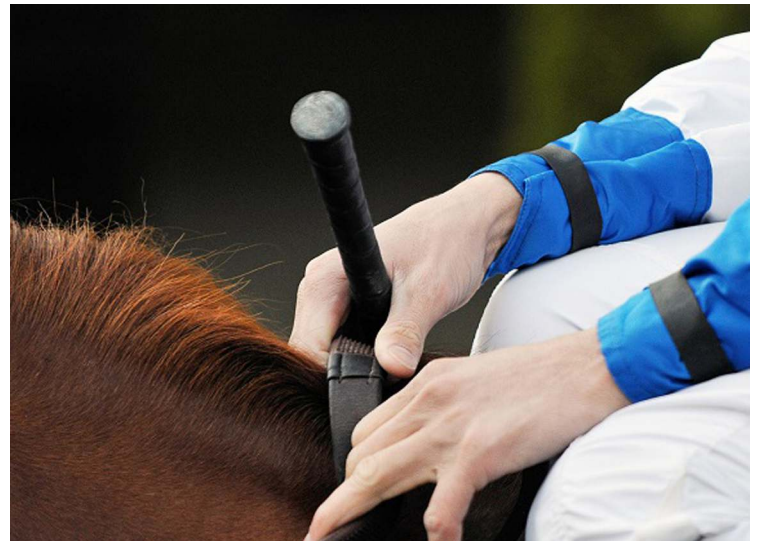

Lazarus underscored near the end of the press conference that it is not HISA's job to be shutting down racetracks when clusters of equine fatalities occur.

"There's one permutation and nuance that may not be apparent to everyone," Lazarus said. "HISA's authority is not to shut down a racetrack. That [power is vested in each] state racing commission. HISA's authority is to prevent a racetrack, if they don't meet our accreditation standards, from running covered horse races, which means they can't send out their signal for betting. We don't control whether or not they actually run on a given day."

IN A FIRST, FTC OVERTURNS HISA WHIP

ADJUDICATION by Dan Ross

The Federal Trade Commission overturned a decision by Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) on the whip rule | Sarah K. Andrew

In a decision handed down Monday, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) overturned a decision by Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) stewards at Albuquerque Downs Racetrack last September who ruled that jockey Oscar Ceballos had struck his mount, Sheriff Brown (Curlin), in the Downs At Albuquerque H. five more times than the maximum six strikes permitted by HISA.

The sanctions imposed by the Albuquerque Downs stewards that day included a fine and suspension for the jockey, and disqualification of the horse's purse earnings.

It is understood that this is the first such appeal of a HISA whip adjudication both heard by the FTC and overturned by the governmental agency.

"This whole thing has been very frustrating because when you actually read the written rules we did not violate any of the written rules," said Joseph Peacock Jr., Sheriff Brown's owner, who estimated that the legal proceedings have cost him north of $50,000 "and probably close" to $100,000.

"If we had lost at the FTC level appeal, [it] would have set a very dangerous precedent for riders going forward that you can't use the crop to preserve the safety of other horses and riders without HISA counting the strikes against you," Peacock added.

The three-person panel of stewards at Albuquerque Downs Racetrack ruled on Sept. 25, 2022, that Ceballos had struck his mount 11 times during the prior day's Downs At Albuquerque H., which Sheriff Brown won in a driving finish.

Deeming the alleged infraction a Class 2 violation under HISA's rulebook, the stewards handed Ceballos a $2,160 fine, a three-day racing suspension, and issued him five HISA points. The stewards also disqualified the horse from purse earnings. The winner took home $108,000.

Ceballos and Peacock appealed the decision, which the HISA Board heard on March 27. The following May, the HISA Board affirmed the original stewards' decision.

Ceballos and Peacock then took their appeal to the FTC, which was heard by chief administrative law judge D. Michael Chappell in an evidentiary hearing on July 13, 2023.

The crux of the case centered around the correct interpretation of HISA's rule on "Use of the Riding Crop."

The language of the rules states a rider may "use the crop on the hindquarters to activate and focus the Horse a maximum of 6 times during a race," and can "tap the Horse on the shoulder with the crop while both hands are holding on to the reins and both hands are touching the neck of the Horse." The jockey is also permitted to "use the crop to preserve the safety of Horses and riders."

At that hearing, the plaintiffs argued that Ceballos struck Sheriff Brown three times on the hindquarters, and that the jockey's additional use of the whip had been down Sheriff Brown's shoulder for safety reasons-permitted under HISA's rulebook-as the horse has a history of "lugging in," according to Chappell's written decision.

Jeff Williams-an accredited steward since 2013 and a former jockey with a 32-year career-testified on behalf of the plaintiffs, alongside Todd Fincher, Sheriff Brown's trainer.

In his decision, Chappell wrote that Williams "credibly opined that strikes to the shoulder do not motivate a horse to speed up or go forward, but rather are used to straighten out the horse, consistent with Ceballos' and Fincher's testimony stating the same."

At the same time, Chappell questioned the professional bona fides of Albuquerque Downs steward Larry Fontenot, an accredited steward for approximately five to six years.

"Steward Fontenot's testimony about the absence of a safety issue was not particularly persuasive. Fontenot does not have professional jockey experience and his opinion that a safety concern did not exist because he did not see Ceballos rise from Sheriff Brown during the final stretch of the race was contradicted by testimony of Ceballos, Williams, and Fincher, who have significantly more experience than him in the field," Chappell wrote, in his decision.

Further noting the "poor" quality of the race-day video footage, Chappell wrote that "the evidence fails to prove that Ceballos struck Sheriff Brown more than the 6 times on the hindquarters that are permitted under HISA. Moreover, the evidence proves that even if there were strikes to the shoulder, the strikes would have been made to stop Sheriff Brown from lugging in to preserve the safety of horses and riders."

Peacock raised concerns with the HISA Board's hearing of their appeal in March via Zoom, saying that the panel failed to adequately field and address the plaintiff's testimonies and arguments.

"They were two hours late for our Zoom call. They listened to our arguments. Their witness who was one of the racing stewards that actually made the original decision, he was on his cell phone driving somewhere they had palm trees-he had no material in front of him. The whole hearing was a farce," said Peacock.

"When it was over, I was talking to [trainer] Todd Fincher, and he goes, 'we've got a problem.' And I go, 'what's that?' And he said, 'they didn't ask a single question,'" said Peacock. "If we're saying the use of the crop was to preserve the safety of the horse and rider, don't you think that they should have asked the rider, 'hey, is that true? Is that what happened?'"

A senior HISA official on background countered various aspects of Peacock's characterization of the March Zoom hearing before the HISA board, saying that the panel was not late, but that the case was one of several being heard that day in a cue. The entire hearing, the senior HISA official added, lasted nearly two hours.

In explaining the HISA board's appeal ruling, the senior official said that the panel was limited to a standard of review of finding whether or not the original steward's ruling was clearly erroneous. The FTC's administrative law judge, on the other hand, was not required to give such deference to the stewards' original findings.

Irrespective of whether a party appeals the FTC's decision, that governmental agency has 45 days to unilaterally review the case itself, the senior HISA official said.

There exists no provision requiring HISA to recompense the plaintiff's legal fees.

Over a track surface turned sloppy by steady afternoon rain at Fort Erie, Velocitor finally got the better of rival Paramount Prince to take the second leg of the Canadian Triple Crown in the Prince of Wales S.

Fourth to the King's Plate S. winner in each of his last two starts, the dark bay gelding was able to turn the tables while drawn two gates to the outside of the 5-2 favorite. Outsprinted to the lead by Paramount Prince, Velocitor was able to tuck into a cozy spot just behind the pacesetter and enjoyed a ground-saving trip through a quick :22.80 opening quarter. Joined outside by Ottawa (Violence) up the backstretch, the 7-1 shot threaded between horses to begin his bid into the far turn. Paramount Prince, no doubt growing leg weary as the half went in :45.99, was game along the rail and top two turned for home together. Head and head into the final furlong, it was Velocitor who had something left to just edge by his rival close to home. Kaukokaipuu had plenty of run left despite hanging on his left lead and got up in time to nail Paramount Prince on the line for the exacta slot.

Pedigree Note:

Polar Plunge, herself a multiple stakes winning mare, is a full-sister to fellow MSW Wind Chill Factor. She is also a half to GIII Whimsical S. winner Shakopee Town (Jersey Town). Velocitor hails from the first crop of Mor Spirit (by Eskendereya) and became his sire's first stakes winner last fall with a victory in Woodbine's restricted Coronation Futurity. His dam produced an unraced 2-year-old full-sister and reported a colt by Rock Your World this spring before returning to that Spendthrift stallion for 2024.

TCA AWARDED MORE THAN $821,000 IN GRANTS IN 2023

Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) in 2023 awarded grants totaling more than $821,000.

A total of 75 organizations were approved for grants, which included 45 aftercare organizations, 20 backstretch and farm worker programs, six equine-assisted therapy organizations, three Thoroughbred incentive programs, and one research organization.

TCA's 2023 grants to aftercare organizations were bolstered by support from Hagyard Equine Medical Institute's Race to Give online fundraising campaign, which last year helped raise more than $35,000 for approved organizations.

“Thanks to our generous donors, we are thrilled to be able to award grants to 75 organizations working tirelessly on behalf of Thoroughbreds and backstretch and farm workers,” Erin Halliwell, executive director of TCA, said. “We are so proud of the impact our grantees make and we are pleased to support their work.”

Grant recipients can be found on the TCA website. Grant applications for the 2024 grant cycle will be available in mid-January.

MAIDENS TACKLE KENTUCKY DOWNS ON CLOSING DAY

2nd-KD, $150K, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 2:02 p.m.

TIRELESS (Not This Time), an $875,000 Keeneland September yearling, makes the races for Repole Stables and St. Elias Stables under the guidance of trainer Todd Pletcher. Third dam Tizso, herself a full-sister to Horse of the Year Tiznow, is also responsible for GISW and sire Paynter (Awesome Again).

Lined up just to that one's outside, American Decision (American Pharoah) is a son of champion female sprinter Informed Decision racing for Augustin Stable and trainer Jonathan Thomas. TJCS PPS

5th-KD, $150K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1mT, 3:41 p.m.

In the filly division of the same race, Christinabarcelona (Tapit), a homebred for Joseph Allen, is a full-sister to GSW Mrs. Danvers and a half to GSP Nathan Detroit (Union Rags). Also Ran: Guns n' Rojas, Don't Stop Dreamin, Walter Me Lad.

One Bay Hemingway picked up his first stakes win Tuesday with a gritty victory in the Ontario-bred Lake Erie S. Making his first start away from Woodbine off a 8 1/2-length defeat to Patches O'Houlihan (Reload) in the Lake Superior S. two back, the 3-5 favorite was determined to get the lead but was never allowed to get comfortable with One More Brew breathing down his neck from second. The top two battled it out turning for home and each looked at moments as though they may reign victorious. But One More Hemingway on the inside had the better final strides and gutted out the win. With just the one runner to his name, sophomore sire Danger Bay (by Stormy Atlantic) picked up his first stakes winner with the effort. Miss Hemingway has visited Signature Red each of the last four breeding seasons but has only produced one foal, a yearling colt.

WHERE NEXT FOR THE MIGHTY QUINAULT?

Stuart Williams with his stable darling Quinault | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

From being branded a bit of a tearaway, Quinault (Ger) is now simply a runaway winner. In fact, he is the winningmost horse in Britain and Ireland this season, with seven victories from his 10 starts in 2023 for Newmarket trainer Stuart Williams.

The Oasis Dream (GB) three-year-old racked up an impressive string of six wins from April 27 to July 13 before finishing third in the Shergar Cup Sprint. Last weekend he returned to Ascot, and to the winner's enclosure, in the hands of Williams's apprentice Luke Catton, who has forged a successful partnership with his mount at home and on the racecourse. From his opening handicap mark of 59, Quinault is now rated 102.

His trainer has long proved himself adept at conditioning his horses to win with frequency, and a former stable stalwart, Sendintank (GB) (Halling), is a joint-record holder, having notched 10 handicap wins in one season back in 2004.

"Sendintank was a phenomenal horse but you can't do what he did now," Williams says. "He won four races in a week twice in the same season, and he won two other handicaps on top of that.

"Obviously with Quinault, he's on seven now, and he's gone up to a mark of 102, so he's not going to get to that number in handicaps but I am hopeful that he will be able to make his mark in stakes company." Cont. p3

GREGORY FAVOURITE AS NINE REMAIN IN ST LEGER

Nine horses have stood their ground for the Betfred St Leger, which takes place at Doncaster on Saturday.

While much attention will focus on the presence of a royal runner, Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)), who bids to give King Charles III his first Classic success 46 years after Dunfermline (GB) won the St Leger for his late mother, there is also the matter of Frankie Dettori's last ride in a British Classic.

The Italian, who is set to retire from race-riding at the end of the year, will renew his partnership with race-favourite Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}), on whom he won the G2 Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot. Owned by Wathnan Racing, the colt is one of three potential runners for John and Thady Gosden, along with Qatar Racing's Middle Earth (GB) (Roaring Lion) and Juddmonte's contender Arrest (GB) (Frankel (GB)). Cont. p5

He said, "I think his run style would suit. I don't think he has to be in a big-field handicap. I think the way he goes about winning his races would quite suit the smaller fields."

Bred by Gestut Fahrhof, Quinault's dam Queimada (Ger) (Dansili {GB}) was unraced but there was plenty of cause for optimism when her first foal was presented at the BBAG September Yearling Sale of 2021 as the mare is a half-sister to the Group 1 winner Querari (Ger), who also happens to be by Oasis Dream. Furthermore, her young colt was a strong and good-looking individual.

The €58,000 yearling turned into a 310,000gns Craven breeze-up purchase by Godolphin in the year after another of their breeze-up buys by Oasis Dream, Native Trail (GB), had been crowned champion two-year-old. However, Quinault's one run in the royal blue, at Doncaster last June, saw him take a keen hold before fading to last of the seven runners. Tattersalls beckoned once more.

"He was difficult when we first got him going, just trying to run away," says Williams, whose longstanding owner Tom Morley bought the gelding for 25,000gns at the Horses-in-Training Sale last autumn,

"Luke used to take him out on his own on the farm [canter], just trying to get him to drop his head and go steady and to teach him that that was the place where he could relax. He's a lovely quiet rider, Luke, and he just gelled with him straight away. He's the only one who's ridden him all the time he's been here."

He continues, "After he ran at Ascot the last time he was at the stage where he needed a jab, as we have to give them flu jabs every six months now, so I said to Luke, 'He's going to have ten days off so you'd better have some holiday as well', so they both had time off together."

Catton, a five-pound claimer, has been on board for four of Quinault's wins, including on Saturday when he made all to win by a neck down Ascot's straight seven furlongs. Williams admits that he has been surprised by how the horse has thrived this season.

"Definitely," he says. "Tom doesn't usually buy this type of horse. Tom loves going through the numbers and the form, even pedigrees, but he doesn't really buy horses when he can't see the form. But we were struggling to buy the ones we wanted at last year's sale. So many of them are going abroad and the prices were so strong, and you can't really justify those prices to keep them here."

He adds of the tall, strong bay, who appears unfazed by his latest effort on a very hot Saturday at Ascot, "He's been on the go for quite a while now." Cont. p4

Darley

A dominant juvenile, then a runaway stayer: Henry Longfellow and Eldar Eldarov give Dubawi two major G1s inside half an hour.

THE DUBAWI DYNASTY

IT'S THE ULTIMATE WINNING LINE

Fallen Angel in the Moyglare is a spectacular first-crop G1 winner for Too Darn Hot – with Night Of Thunder fillies filling the places. He'd had impressive G2 miler Flight Plan the day before.

Their latest yearlings (and the first by Ghaiyyath) are at the sales now...

The trainer added, "He actually ran quite well the first time we ran him. My idea was, to get the freshness out of him and to teach him to race properly, that we'd hold onto him over five furlongs and that they would go quick enough for him to settle. But it didn't really work. He was quite keen and he didn't really settle but he finished third. The he was drawn wide, and he was keen and awkward round the bend on his second start for us, but that was actually a race that threw up quite a few winners."

From those first two starts for the Morley family back in February, Quinault then had another two months off.

The trainer continues, "We gave him a little bit of a break again. He still wasn't really fully settling so we decided that he was better settled in front instead of trying to fight him to stay in behind. On the gallops if you have one in front of him, no matter how fast it's going it's never fast enough for him to drop his head, but if he's in front he's more relaxed."

Of Quinault's latest step up from six furlongs, he adds, "I was quite confident he'd get seven [furlongs]. We'd won over seven on a fast track at Brighton, but that was a lower grade. But

Saturday was a good race against proven seven-furlong horses and he got the trip really well. I think at some stage we'll definitely go a mile with him, though whether he'd get any further than that I don't know. And I'd quite like to see him go round a bend with his running style. He's very quick out of the stalls, gets into his stride sharply and goes a nice pace. It's probably easier to do that rather than on the straight tracks as he's been doing."

Future options for Quinault include a step into Pattern company and the G2 Challenge S. on Newmarket's Future Champions weekend or a return to Ascot, either for a valuable handicap on October 7, or for a bigger prize two weeks later, the G1 QIPCO British Champions Sprint. Cont. p5

Of the latter, Williams says, "I talked to Tom after he'd won the heritage handicap here [at Newmarket] and the entry was closing so we put him in [on Champions Day]. He's only 14/1 for the race but there's another discussion to be had before his next race as to which way we go. I'd be slightly surprised if he's a Group 1 horse over six furlongs. I think if he ends up being a Group 1 horse it will be over seven furlongs or a mile. But you never know, and Tom will have a big say in what we do. He takes a keen interest in all the race planning."

He adds, "We have had a couple of big offers for him but Tom has got very excited by this horse. He has really rekindled his enthusiasm for racing. And it's great for us, as so often when those huge offers come in and you're a smaller stable you have to sell them."

With earnings bordering on £200,000, Quinault is more than earning his keep, as well as serving an important reminder of the skills of one of the shrewdest trainers in the business.

Aidan O'Brien has four remaining entries, led by the G2 Great Voltigeur winner Continuous (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), who could be joined by Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Alexandropoulis (Ire) and Denmark (Ire).

The last two named are sons of Camelot (GB), who narrowly failed in his Triple Crown bid in 2012 when beaten in the St Leger by Godolphin's Encke (GB).

This time around Godolphin has just one potential runner, Chesspiece (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), who is trained by Simon and Ed Crisford and was runner-up to Desert Hero in the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood.

The King and Queen's runner completed a gallop in Newmarket on Tuesday, with trainer William Haggas reporting that Desert Hero worked well.

"He was impressive at Goodwood with cut in the ground and he won on top of the ground at Royal Ascot, so I don't think that bothers him too much," Haggas told Sky Sports Racing.

"Obviously the softer it is the more accent it puts on stamina and he may not be a strong stayer at a mile and six and a half [furlongs], but we'll see. I think he will."

He added of Desert Hero's royal connections, "Everyone who is involved in horse racing in any shape or form would like to win a Classic, whether they breed it, own it, train it, ride it or look after it. The Classic is everyone's dream, so they're no different to everyone else."

Haggas continued, "There doesn't look to be too many that shouldn't be there. John has got the strongest hand with Gregory, Middle Earth and Arrest, and Aidan's horse [Continuous] was very impressive in the Voltigeur.

"I suppose Gregory and Continuous are the two, but they're the front two in the market. Chesspiece is very solid and we're pretty solid too, so I think it's a good renewal and it will be a good, fun race."

Oisin Murphy will ride the Melrose H. winner Middle Earth and was also aboard his late sire Roaring Lion for all four of his Group 1 wins. Speaking on Sky Sports Racing, Murphy said, "He has to step up on his Melrose victory, but the form has been franked.

"Sheikh Fahad has won the race before with Simple Verse, so hopefully he'll be bang there. It doesn't look like it's going to be a very big field, but there's some good horses in there.

"Time will tell, but I think he's a horse with the right profile and I'd be very excited about his future in general anyway."

DETTORI RIDING HIGH AS HE BIDS US A LONG GOODBYE

Frankie Dettori's retirement this winter has acquired a caveat: 'in theory.' So, in theory, the most famous jockey since Lester Piggott will ride in his last English Classic, the St Leger, at Doncaster this weekend.

More garlands, perhaps more tears shed. But Dettori's valedictory lap of world racing at 52-years-old is becoming a little complicated. With every big prize won, and each sparkling performance in the saddle, the fait accompli of his departure feels less secure.

To us, the grateful audience, the response to Dettori's radiant affirmation of his talent is straightforward: stay, don't go, U-turn, don't deprive us of the comfort of having the finest jockey perched astride our bets. In entertainment industry lore you go out at the top, leaving them wanting more. Yet there is always the risk of mistiming it. Not that any of us should be telling Dettori what to do. The dilemma, though, is relatable, for people in all professions. When have you reached 'enough'?

The cost to departing stars is high. Limelight, validation, the adrenaline-fix of winning, structure, discipline, purpose and...yes, the money. There is a Group 1 pot of riches that Dettori will have to forego if he wakes on Christmas day an ex-jockey. In these autumn months he will ride work on young horses that burn with promise. Someone else could be holding those reins next spring. Another grinning rider might be rolling in that money.

Dettori's quandary has echoes across the world of sport. The finite nature of any great career is better managed than denied.

Frankie Dettori with his hero and friend, the late Lester Piggott
Scoop Dyga

It hurts to call time. Many experience it as a bereavement. A superstar's halcyon days can become a clutter of photos and trophies that suffuse a home with a sense of loss. Some never properly adapt.

The memory of Roger Federer weeping courtside at London's O2 Arena last year after his final tennis match was a watery illustration of how painful and bewildering an ending can be. Federer cried so hard that Rafael Nadal found himself sobbing in sympathy. The Manchester United full-back Gary Neville walked off the pitch one day in February 2011 and retired there and then, after 602 appearances for his club. His body had betrayed him. Others cling on, refusing to believe the evidence of their decline or concealing it with bravado.

In many sports life is bisected in the mid-Thirties. Dettori is way beyond that point. Piggott was 59 when he finally retired, after a sensational comeback five years previously. Dettori's riding career spans 37 years, with plenty of undulations. However boyish his public face, he is a veteran in every sense.

His current form however renders his age almost an abstraction.

Liberated, perhaps, by knowing the curtain is descending, he is riding with boldness, freedom and precision. His prime is not receding so much as finding fresh expression. His winning ride on Mostahdaf in the Juddmonte International at York on August 23 for example was not the act of a man raging against the dying of the light.

THE FINITE NATURE OF ANY GREAT CAREER IS BETTER MANAGED THAN DENIED.

His recent joke about carrying on if a juicy retainer came his way may have been mischievous. But it was reasonable to wonder whether we were hearing the first crack in his plan to abdicate to a new life in London's Mayfair, where high society would love him, but the screens would show big races being won by horses he could have ridden. Here too he would be gambling. Racing offers no guarantees, even to household names, that this year's joy will stretch to next season. Cont. p7

Dettori's retirement will flatten us, for a while. We will slide through the gears of elegy, gratitude, nostalgia and a tinge of fear about whether anyone can replace him adequately on racing's billboard.

We know the farewell tour is due to take in Champions Day at Ascot, then marquee days overseas. We know too that he has three options: stick with his retirement plan, reverse it, or step down and come back later, after a change of pace. Piggott retired but returned at 54. Twelve days after renewing his licence he won the 1990 Breeders' Cup Mile on Royal Academy. "No moment in my career ever tasted sweeter," Piggott said then. The difference is that there will be more facets to Dettori's post-riding life than there were to Lester Piggott's.

Roger Federer had an emotional retirement in London last year
Getty Images

There are things we cannot see--the sacrifices made by the Dettori family, which he may want to repay; the toll of weight-management; the travelling and stress, the urge to try new things. Wanting to retire is easier than being forced to. We can only guess how much of Dettori's exuberance this summer is rooted in a sense of impending liberation.

With every sunset comes a fear of the dark. Nobody in racing beyond his rivals in the weighing room wants to say goodbye to Frankie Dettori (even they will feel conflicted, because he brings the crowds in). This feels like a very public dilemma. In reality, it's intensely personal.

FABRE HAS BIG TARGETS FOR PLACE DU CARROUSEL AND MQSE DE SEVIGNE

Andre Fabre has outlined plans for star fillies Place Du Carrousel (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) that could see the former line out in the Arc and the latter run at the Breeders' Cup.

Last year's G1 Prix de l'Opera winner Place Du Carrousel beat the boys in the G2 Prix Foy last weekend and is now bound for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. She could also be on the plane to America, according to Fabre, who revealed an audacious tilt at the Breeders' Cup and then Hong Kong could be in store.

Fabre said of Place Du Carrousel, who passed up an option against her own sex in the G1 Prix Vermeille most recently, "I wanted to run her against the colts to see how she did because that is what she is going to be running against in the Arc. I was quite happy.

"She proved she stayed 12 furlongs well. I need to discuss things with the owner, but if she remains in good shape she's quite fresh because she hasn't run much this year, we could look at big races in the States or in Hong Kong. She's proving that she can handle any sort of ground, but the Arc will be tough. She's going to run well."

Mqse De Sevigne has won Group 1 races over a mile and 10 furlongs in her last two races and is likely heading to Newmarket next for the G1 Sun Chariot S. before she runs in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile. Cont. p8

Fabre explained, "She's a very nice filly. She will go to Newmarket next back over a mile. Her plan is the Breeders' Cup Mile so running her at Newmarket will sharpen her up a little bit--a mile race will be perfect.

"She has really improved this season, she's got stronger, but we always liked her. Ground doesn't matter to her, the ground is always nice at Newmarket. Alexis [Pouchin] has a good relationship with her and he will probably be on at Newmarket."

PAIR OF GERMAN GROUP 1 WINNERS ANCHOR ARQANA ARC CATALOGUE

Sammarco will be offered at the Arc Sale | Scoop Dyga

German Oaks heroine Muskoka (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) (lot 38) and dual German Group 1 winner Sammarco (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) (lot 41) are two of the highlights of Arqana's Arc Sale, which will be held at Saint-Cloud after the first day's racing on Sept. 30. Currently, the sale contains 44 lots, and remains open for additional entries.

The former who won the G1 Preis der Diana this summer and is offered by trainer Henk Grewe, will be sold with an entry in the G1 Prix de l'Opera Longines. Another German Classic winner set to sell is Angers (Fr) (Seabhaç) (lot 27) from the yard of Mario Baratti. Successful in the G2 German 2000 Guineas, the 3-year-old is joined by G3 Prix de Fontainebleau hero American Flag (Fr) (Wootton Basset {GB}) (lot 52).

Group winner Shartash (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) (lot 7), who has been placed twice at the highest level as a juvenile, is part of Johnny Murtagh's draft. Two-time group scorer Assistent (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) (lot 28) is also from the Grewe yard, and he was third in the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin. Laulne (Fr) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) (lot 44) won the G3 Prix Six Perfections and, rated 100, most recently ran third in the G2 Prix du Calvados.

OWNER DREAMING OF 100K GOFFS SPORTSMAN'S RICHES WITH KING CUAN

Connections of the Paddy Twomey-trained King Cuan (GB) have said that they are optimistic about landing the €100,000 Goffs Sportsman's Challenge at Naas on Thursday afternoon and that the What's App group has been on fire since the colt won at Cork last week.

Owned by the Red Lily Racing Syndicate, which is headed by Naas native Alan Hennessy, King Cuan will come into the lucrative sales race off the back of that extremely impressive Cork display and confidence in the camp couldn't be higher.

That win came after a 103-day absence, after which his trainer Twomey described the €21,000 Goffs Sportsman's buy as "a quick horse," and connections are hopeful that the son of Tasleet (GB) will prove just that at their local track on Thursday.

"It has been a brilliant experience so far and we are really looking forward to Naas on Thursday," Hennessy said.

"It all started last summer when I was approached to see if I'd be interested in a share in a horse and then King Cuan was bought at Goffs this time last year and it has just gone on from there.

"To be going to my local track for a €100,000 race is a dream come true and the WhatsApp group for the owners has been buzzing since the horse won at Cork last week."

He added, "There are people like myself who got involved for the first time in a horse and there's others who have been involved in horses for many years so it is a great mix and great banter among the syndicate.

"We have people in from all over Ireland so it has been the perfect syndicate experience and it gives you a real taste for ownership. Last week at Cork was brilliant but Thursday looks a tough race so we'll cross our fingers and hope he runs well. Paddy has said he come out of the race in Cork in good form. The joke at the moment is that we might need the top hat and tails for Royal Ascot next year! It's only a joke at the moment but you never know!"

Champion jockey Colin Keane has been booked for the Clive Cox-trained James's Delight (Ire) (Invincible Army {Ire}) with Gavin Ryan partnering the other British-trained runner Beechwood Star (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) for Richard Fahey.

The first on a seven-race card on Thursday is due off at 1:55 p.m. with the Goffs Sportsman's Challenge at 3:05 p.m.

GALIWAY COLT TOPS FINAL DAY OF OSARUS

The stock of Galiway (GB) continues to be on the rise and his son from MM Stud, out of the winning Exceed And Excel (Aus) mare Exceedingly Diva (GB) (lot 136), topped the Osarus Yearling Sale as it concluded its run at La Teste de Buch.

Bought for €41,000 by Pegasus Bloodstock, the colt is from the family of Sarayir, the half-sister to Nashwan, Unfuwain and Nayef who made her own mark on the breed as the dam of 1,000 Guineas winner Ghanaati.

A Kendagent (Fr) half-sister to G3 Prix du Bois winner Cosachope (Fr) (Soave {Ger}) (lot 146) was signed for by Laurent Benoit on behalf of Capucines Bloodstock for €40,000 and was the leading filly on a day when trade picked up a little on the opening session.

A larger catalogue this year saw 224 horses pass through the ring over the two days, with 144 sold (64%) for a total of €1,423,950. The average price of €11,069 was largely on a par with last year's trade, while the median dropped by 10% to €9,000.

Haras des Faunes, which consigned the Kendagent filly, was the sale's leading consignor with 23 horses sold for €291,500. Marseille-based trainer Christophe Escuder was the leading buyer after signing for 11 yearlings.

DAUGHTER OF MISTY FOR ME STARTS AT PUNCHESTOWN

13.15 Punchestown, Mdn, €15,000, 2yo, f, 7fT
GREENFINCH (Justify) is the eighth foal out of the accomplished Misty For Me (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), heroine of four Group 1 races including the Irish 1000 Guineas, and therefore a half-sister to War Front's multiple Group 1-winning duo U S Navy Flag and Roly Poly. Among the Ballydoyle newcomer's peers is Juddmonte's Rising Sign (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a Ger Lyons-trained full-sister to the smart 3-year-old Covey (GB) from the family of Acclamation (GB).

13.45 Punchestown, Mdn, €12,000, 2yo, 8fT
FIGHTER (IRE) (Frankel {GB}) is another Ballydoyle newcomer, this time sporting the Matsushima colours, who adds spice to this card as a half-brother to the G1 Irish Derby hero Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). He meets nine on his debut in this maiden in which the stable's River Thames (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) earned TDN Rising Star status two years ago.

HOW THEY FARED

15.25 Leicester, Nov, £9,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
 Jim and Fitri Hay's hitherto untested Ciro Di Marzio (Justify), a €518,519 Goffs Dubai Breeze-Up half-brother to GI Summer S. winner Fog Of War (War Front), was unable to feature at the business end of this debut and finished over 10 lengths behind the winner in ninth.

15.50 Galway, Mdn, €16,000, 2yo, 8f 123yT
Grosvenor Square (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the half-brother to Santiago (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), got off to the ideal start and although he had to work for it the way he finished off suggests he will be a strong stayer with a touch of class.

Still a maiden entering this test, Thunder Roll had shown enough when second to TDN Rising Star Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Listed King George V Cup at Leopardstown and when third in Cork's G3 Munster Oaks in June to suggest that she had what it takes to eventually garner one of these. Undone by a smart newcomer in The Aga Khan's Sumiha (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) dropping to 10 furlongs in a Curragh maiden returning after a break last month, the Whisperview homebred came into her own back over a trip that suits her staying prowess. Cont. p14

Caught wide the whole way having been drawn on the outer, the chestnut was committed by Dylan Browne McMonagle with over two furlongs remaining and once she had the lead was never going to relinquish it as a blanket of closers tried in vain to bridge the gap. “I let her jump forward from the gates and she stayed well, although it was a bit messy for the first half and I got the worst of the barging around the first bend,” her rider said. “She has been a model of consistency and never runs a bad race. It is onwards and upwards now and she looks like she could be better next year.”

The dam, whose unraced 2-year-old colt Dreige (Ire) is by Caravaggio and who also has a colt foal by Australia (GB), gets her stamina from her Listed Lupe S.-winning grandmother Fragrant Hill (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}). A half to Linamix’s strong-staying class acts Fragrant Mix (Ire) and Alpine Rose (Fr) from a family crafted by Jean-Luc Lagardere, the second dam is the Listed Prix des Tourelles winner and G3 Prix Cleopatre-placed Farfala (Fr) also by Linamix who is the dam of the G2 Lancashire Oaks-placed duo Under The Rainbow (GB) (Fantastic Light) and Starfala (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), with the latter also responsible for the G3 Dubai Duty Free Legacy Cup winner and recent G1 Pretty Polly S. runner-up Stay Alert (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). VIDEO.

TANNOLA (IRE) (f, 2, Awtaad {Ire}--Tanoura {Ire} {SW & GSP-Eng, GSP-Fr, GSP-Ire, $126,320}, by Dalakhani {Ire}), runner-up to the subsequent Listed Ingabelle S. winner Kitty Rose (GB) (Invincible Army {Ire}) over this trip at Naas last month, travelled strongly in second throughout the early stages. In front approaching the furlong pole, the 1-5 favourite was driven out to beat Miss Tapley (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. The dam, who was successful in the Listed Galtres S. and finished third in the G2 Park Hill S. and G2 Prix de Royallieu, has produced the G3 Fairy Bridge S. and G3 Silver Flash S. winner Tanaza (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the G2 Minstrel S. and G3 Cornelscourt S.-placed Tarawa (Ire) (Shamardal), the G3 Bendigo Cup-placed Taramansour (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and the listed-placed Taniyar (Ire) (Shamardal). A daughter of the G2 Pretty Polly S. winner Takarouna (Green Dancer) who produced the multiple group and graded-stakes scorer Takarian (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), her yearling filly is by Ghaiyyath (Ire) while she also has a colt foal by Wootton Bassett (GB). Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $25,432.

GROSVENOR SQUARE (IRE) (c, 2, Galileo {Ire}--Wadyhatta {GB}, by Cape Cross {Ire}), a half-brother to the G1 Irish Derby hero Santiago (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), broke well before taking a lead. Driven to get on terms turning for home, the 6-4 favourite powered to the line to record an ultimately convincing 2 1/4-length success from Naturally Nimble (Ger) (Too Darn Hot {GB}). “He is a lovely horse, he is only starting to develop and was just right for starting here,” stable representative Chris Armstrong said. “Aidan thought it would be a nice introduction to get him started, but obviously they went steady which wouldn’t suit. We’ll step him up into one of the group races now and everything is building to next year. It took Killian [Hennessy] a long time to pull him up and he was only doing his best work once he hit the line.” Following her first foal Santiago, who also captured the G2 Queen’s Vase and was third in the G1 Goodwood Cup, the dam produced as her second the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Yorkshire Oaks third La Joconde (Ire) by Galileo’s son Frankel (GB). Wadyhatta is a half to the G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Motamarris (Ire) (Le Havre {Ire}) and the multiple listed-placed dam of the G3 Prix de Cabourg, G3 Prix de Meautry and G3 Prix du Petit Couvert scorer Tantheem (GB) by Galileo’s Teofilo (Ire), while she is also the second dam of the stable’s G3 Killavullan S. winner Glounthaune (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). From the family of the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Tamayuz (GB) and the G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. heroine Eshaada (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}), her yearling is a full-brother to La Joconde. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $10,320.

ERATO (IRE) (f, 3, Galileo {Ire}--One Moment In Time {Ire}, by Danehill), only sixth in a Bellewstown maiden over this trip last month, raced just behind the leader early before being committed approaching two out. Headed by Deadly Nightshade (Justify) with a furlong remaining, the 6-1 shot rallied to get back up in the shade of the post and prevail by a nose. The winner, a full-sister to the G3 Curragh Cup and G3 Vintage Crop S. winner and G1 St Leger runner-up Bondi Beach (Ire) and the G3 Gallinule S. scorer Constantinople (Ire), is currently the last known foal out of the unraced dam who is a full-sister to the G1 Fillies' Mile and G1 Falmouth S. heroine Simply Perfect (GB) (Danehill). In turn is the dam of last year's G1 Criterium International winner Proud And Regal (Ire) and the G3 International S. scorer Mekong River (Ire) also by Galileo (Ire), she is a daughter of the G1 Fillies' Mile and G1 Moyglare Stud S.-placed Hotelgenie Dot Com (GB) (Selkirk) whose half-sister Bianca Nera (GB) (Salse) was successful in the Moyglare.
