BREEDERS' CUP CHALLENGE SERIES BACK AT WOODBINE, DERBY-OAKS ROADS BEGIN AT CHURCHILL by J.N. Campbell

Racing roads converge this Saturday. With a little over a month left before horses and their connections officially point to Santa Anita, the Breeders' Cup Challenge Series returns to Woodbine Racetrack. Featured are three 'Win and You're In' chances, including the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile.

Meanwhile, at Churchill Downs, the prep seasons officially open for 2-year-old colts and fillies, who are seeking to bank points for next May's 150th editions of the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Kentucky Oaks.

There is much to get to with Belmont at the Big A, Pimlico and Hastings, all carding graded races as well.

Appleby Looks to Repeat in Woodbine Mile

Last year, trainer Charlie Appleby sent MGISW Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) to Toronto for the Woodbine Mile and the now-retired globetrotter with William Buick aboard brought home the prize en route to another win in the Breeders' Cup.

PENN FAMILY RIDING HIGH INTO BOOK 3 AFTER SEVEN-Figure SALE

by Katie Petrunyak

Alex Penn wasn't at Keeneland when his family's Penn Sales sent their first seven-figure yearling through the ring during Book 1 of the September Sale. He was back home in Bourbon County, busy prepping the rest of their consignment's yearlings pointing for the later books.

“They were all drinking champagne and I was grooming horses,” he said as he jokingly nudged his wife Kendra and laughed, because really, he wouldn't have it any other way.

With the breeding season right around the corner, it’s time to start checking out who’s new at stud for 2024. Here, the TDN’s Katie Petrunyak interviews Walmac Farm’s Director of Stallion Sales Jay Goodwin about their two new sires, Pappacap (Gun Runner) and Fulsome (Into Mischief) for an upcoming TDN feature. | Sara Gordon photo

His family's business was founded a century ago as an all-purpose farm—over the years raising tobacco, Thoroughbreds, cattle, hay, even squash a time or two—and each generation to carry the Penn banner has stuck to its roots.

“We’re farmers,” Kendra said simply. “If we can make a profit that’s obviously the goal, but we’re not here chasing seven figures on a regular basis.”

Of course, the Penn family couldn’t help but get their hopes up about the youngster that would go on to sell for $1.35 million to M.V. Magnier. The Uncle Mo colt out of Forever for Now (War Front) looked like a star from the moment he was foaled and the Penns told his breeders Neal and Pam Christopherson going into sale day that he had gotten multiple looks from the right people.

“We had so many of the big folks coming back to look at him,” said Kendra. “He was super nice from the day he was born. He came out as a classic Uncle Mo—big, athletic, good feet, good walk. We had been telling [the Christophersons] that if we could just get him to the sale, that this horse was really nice.”

Spoken like a true farmer, Kendra shared the real 'win' of their momentous day in the spotlight.

“We were all asleep by 8:00 that night,” she said with a grin. “We had to get up at 4:00 to be back out here and do everything we need to do at home. It was definitely an honor to be a part of because the experience is not something that just happens on a regular basis, but life goes on and there are more horses and you just get up and get ready for the next day.”

During the second session of Book 1, Penn Sales offered a colt by Authentic. The half-brother to GISW Arklow (Arch) and MGSW Maraud (Blame) brought $360,000.

Choosing to skip Book 2 in order to keep their manpower within one sales barn at a time, Penn Sales will be back in action for Book 3 on Saturday with six going through the ring.

The Penns are particularly excited about Hip 1241, a Blame colt who is from the same family as the Authentic colt that sold well earlier in the auction.

“He’s out of a young mare from a family that has been good to us,” Kendra explained. “His mom is a half to Arklow and Maraud. This colt is everything that family is. He’s a really classy colt and he looks a lot like Arklow, so we’re really excited about him.”

Their Book 3 lineup features two more colts: a Practical Joke full-brother to Kaling, who ran third in the GI Spinaway S. last year, and a colt from the first crop of Spendthrift’s Vekoma.

Equally represented by three fillies, Penn Sales will offer a Classic Empire from the family of GISW Swift Temper (Giant’s Causeway), a Maclean’s Music out of a half-sister to Tonalist, and a filly from the first crop of Three Chimneys stallion Volatile.

Each of the 20 yearlings in Penn Sales' Keeneland September consignment were foaled and raised at the family's 1,000-acre... farm outside of Paris. With oversight from the farm’s two leaders in Alex’s father John and his uncle Frank (profiled by TDN’s Chris McGrath here), Alex and Kendra foal out around 40 mares each year and pride themselves on their hands-on approach.

“I don't think you'll find many farms left that do literally everything themselves,” Kendra noted. “From cleaning stalls to bathing to prepping to breeding, there’s not an aspect of it we don't do. I think it makes a difference because we care. It's our livelihood. Everything on the farm is there year-round and so all the horses there have our attention 365 days a year.”

While Alex grew up in the Bluegrass and played a role on the family farm since childhood, Kendra hails from northwestern Pennsylvania. Her family had a small Thoroughbred breeding operation there and like her husband, she was handed equine-related responsibilities from an early age.

Kendra took the horsemanship skills she learned from her childhood and applied them to the yearling prep program at Penn Sales.

“My mom worked for Domino in the eighties when they were a premier sales company and the folks that taught her were pretty special,” she explained. “She handed that down to me. I want our horses to be respectful because a respectful horse is important for every step of their future, racing and beyond.”

Kendra recalled how a few years ago, a first-time employee had asked Kendra if she would be helping with cards during the sales. That newcomer quickly learned that Kendra can be found at the end of the shank for the majority of the sales season while simultaneously keeping a mental log of their consignment’s visitors.

While Alex and Kendra said they are happy to continue passing on the spokesperson duties of their business to Frank and John, the younger generation of Penns are grateful for the opportunity to carry on the family legacy. Even their three children, they said, now have a small hand in the operation.

“I’m pretty proud to continue that tradition,” said Alex. “[Frank and John] pride themselves on their reputation and I hope to keep that going.”

“The Penns have done an amazing job raising horses for a long time,” Kendra added. “What John and Frank started has been easy for us to tailor to the sales market. We’re here for the long haul, doing right by the horse and hoping that they have a sound and successful career.”

Perhaps equally as gratifying for the Penns as their first million-dollar sale, they also raised the winningest horse of 2022 in Beverly Park (Munnings), who won 15 of his 30 starts last year. The Penns said they believe that the hard-knocking horse’s success may be attributed in some part to the way he was raised and the land he was raised on.

“That’s something that is very important to us is letting them be horses,” Kendra said. “We raise them as racehorses and hope that the soundness carries them through. We bring them here to let people see that and hopefully they go on and be racehorses.”

With a trip to the FanDuel GI Breeders’ Cup Mile on the line, this time around the Godolphin conditioner ships in multiple-group winner Master of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was well-beaten last March on the World Cup undercard in the G1 Dubai Turf, but won the G2 Fred Cowley MBE Memorial Summer Mile S. by four lengths at Ascot July 15.

“He has natural pace and travels well,” said Charlie Appleby.
“The E.P. Taylor is a nice conventional track which suits him. It is a fair track with a nice straight that gives you a chance.”

The 5-year-old morning-line favorite will face five others, including MGSW War Bomber (Ire) (War Front), whose stalking trip led to a key victory in the Aug. 19 running of the GI King Edward S. That race saw ‘TDN Rising Star’ and GI Maker’s Mark Mile hero Shirl’s Speight (Speightstown) run fourth, which was the 6-year-old’s first attempt since finishing fourth in the G1 Dubai Turf.

Also scheduled, trainer Mark Casse has almost half of the field looking for a trip to the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf in the GI bet365 Summer S. Out of his entries, My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince) was certainly eye-catching when he won against restricted company by 14 lengths in the Simcoe S. over the Tapeta at Woodbine Aug. 27. The gray upstart will do battle with Catch a Glimpse S. victor Airosa (Uncle Mo), who is looking to take on the boys.

The fillies will get their chance for a trip to Santa Anita and the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf on Saturday in the GI Johnnie Walker Natalma S. Airosa could run in this spot, but it is an incredibly open race with Appleby’s import Dazzling Star (GB) (Blue Point (Ire)) present and the Christophe Clement-trained Ozara (Ire) (Lope de Vega (Ire)), who broke her maiden by a neck Aug. 6 at Saratoga.

“We liked this horse from day one,” said Miguel Clement, son and assistant to the trainer. “She’d been working well on the grass, and we were actually quite confident in her. She’s a gutsy little filly, with tactical speed and a turn of foot that makes her very dangerous.”

Switching to the Tapeta, Woodbine rounds out their graded races with the GIII Vigil S. Seven sprinters will try to derail the early speed of Patches O’Houlihan (Reload), who stepped up to win the GIII Bold Venture S. in Toronto Aug. 20.

The Roads Begins Where It Ends at Churchill

Less than nine months from now, the 150th GI Kentucky Derby and GI Kentucky Oaks will be crowned. The roads start at Churchill Downs on Saturday as points of 10-5-3-2-1 will be distributed to the top five finishers.

For the colts, the GIII Iroquois S. includes Winchell Thoroughbred’s Risk It (Gun Runner), who sprinted home a winner at first asking Aug. 19 at Saratoga for trainer Steve Asmussen. The morning-line favorite will try to outrun WinStar and Siena Farm’s Gettysburg Address (Constitution), who won in his first career race for trainer Brad Cox at Ellis Park Aug. 6.

As for the fillies, their race is no-less competitive as nine will be sent on their way in the GIII Pocahontas S. V V’s Dream (Mitole) makes her return to the races after garnering ‘TDN Rising Star’ honors when she debuted for Kenny McPeek back in mid-May at Churchill Downs. The gray filly was second in her last effort to the undefeated GISW Brightwork (Outwork) at Ellis July 2 in the Debutante S. Facing her will be a number of contenders on the make, including SW Hot Beach (Omaha Beach), Empire Island (Classic Empire) and Peignoir (Mendelssohn).

Wrapping up the graded day of racing, Hastings Racecourse will put on the GIII British Columbia Derby. Morning-line favorite SW Sunbird (Orb) will look to rebound after the bay gelding ran fifth in the GIII Canadian Derby.
JUDGE HALTS ANTI-HISA SUIT IN LOUISIANA PENDING OUTCOME OF HBPA CASE IN U.S. APPEALS COURT by T. D. Thornton

A federal judge has stayed a 14-month-old lawsuit initiated by the states of Louisiana and West Virginia that is trying to wipe out the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) via alleged constitutional violations, ordering the case to be "administratively terminated" until the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals makes a ruling in a separate suit in which the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA) is also alleging HISA is unconstitutional.

However, U.S. District Court (Western District of Louisiana) Chief Judge Terry Doughty wrote in his Sept. 14 ruling that, "This Order shall not be considered a dismissal or disposition of this matter," and that he was halting the case while the Fifth Circuit decision played out "without prejudice to the right of the parties to reopen the proceedings."

This means the plaintiffs (the two states are joined by the Louisiana racing commission, the Louisiana HBPA, the Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association, West Virginia's racing commission, and five individuals regulated as "covered persons" under HISA) and the defendants (the HISA Authority, the Federal Trade Commission [FTC], plus overseers of both entities) must now await the decision--likely to be issued months from now--that will result from the Fifth Circuit oral arguments scheduled Oct. 4.

In 2 1/2 weeks, the National HBPA and 12 of its affiliates will be trying to prove claims that the 2022 rewrite of the HISA law remains "patently unconstitutional," and that the Authority overseeing the sport "is basically a private police department" whose sweeping powers equate to "oligarchic tyranny."

The HISA Authority and the FTC will go into those same arguments backed by a lower court's opinion issued in May that ruled HISA is indeed constitutional, because "Congress cured the unconstitutional aspects of HISA's original approach."

It's also on the judicial record that the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit upheld the constitutionality of HISA back in March.

One day prior to Judge Doughty's ruling, Magistrate Judge David Ayo wrote in a report that recommended staying the Louisiana case that the multiple, overlapping anti-HISA lawsuits currently swirling in the court system are clogging federal dockets.

"After an exhaustive review of the landscape of suits challenging the Act, this Court concludes that [an amended complaint the plaintiffs had filed] is the result of deliberate strategy" that equated to "an abuse of procedure and an impermissible use of judicial resources," Judge Ayo wrote in his Sept. 13 report.

The original lawsuit in this case was filed June 29, 2022, alleging that HISA violates the Fourth, Seventh and Tenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, plus the Administrative Procedure Act, which governs the process by which federal agencies develop and issue regulations.

WAGERING UP 4.3% AT KENTUCKY DOWNS

Edited Press Release

The key indicators to measure the success of a race meet were either up or maintained a lofty level at the FanDuel Meet at Kentucky Downs, which came to a close Wednesday.

Purses paid out to horse owners were a record for the 12th straight year. Money wagered was another record, increasing 4.3%. Field sizes remained among the highest in the country with an average of 10.42 starters per race.

"Kentucky Downs' ownership led by Ron Winchell and Marc Falcone continually pushes us to present racing in a different way, to look for ways to innovate and improve," said Ted Nicholson, Kentucky Downs' Vice President for Racing. "We put a premium on creating a memorable experience for our guests, horsemen and our sponsors. Horse owners put on the show. We want to show our recognition and appreciation for that with our hospitality."

All-sources wagering on the meet totaled $83,640,261, up from $80,175,928 last year. A total of $25,065,000 was offered in purses for 76 races, including $10,523,750 in purse supplements from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund. Of the 11 stakes offering $1 million or more in purses, 10 were won by Kentucky-breds.

Total purses paid out this meet is still being verified but is certain to top last year’s $17,863,177 for 73 races. Seventy-two different ownership entities won races.

Damon Thayer, Kentucky’s Senate Majority Floor Leader, has seen up close the transformation of Kentucky Downs.

"Yes, the financial success is there with the handle being up," said Thayer, who attended five of the meet’s seven days. "But it also has a cool vibe factor going for it. I also think the prestige of the meet is starting to get baked in across North America. It used to be kind of a quirky, novelty track, and there were some people who wouldn’t run here. Now everybody is coming. All the jockeys are here, all the trainers, the big outfits. It exemplifies what’s going right with Kentucky racing."

BOOK REVIEW: BLACK GOLD REMINDS US
WHY WE BREED, RACE, AND DREAM
by J.N. Campbell

It was an era of controversial stewards’ calls, late money affecting the odds before the break, and tracks facing increasing financial pressure from government.

It was a time when criticism of short field sizes was rampant, breeding operations continued to take risks on untested sires, and when sugar horses--those who didn't run often in order to preserve their stamina--were seemingly everywhere.

If that wasn't enough, the age witnessed the rise of the Kentucky Derby as an increasingly highly commercialized party, as debates raged over when Pimlico’s Preakness Stakes should..."

Yearlings offered at Keeneland’s September Sale.
The year wasn’t 2023; it was hundred years prior in 1923. The more things change, the more...check.

To the historically driven, it’s not anachronistic to find significant pieces of the past spurning the trash heap of history. Instead, they are resting comfortably on a tuffet and teed-up nicely for all of us in the present to witness, if we are willing to listen.

That is precisely what author Avalyn Hunter’s new book, Dream Derby: The Myth and Legend of Black Gold, just out from the University Press of Kentucky’s Horses In History Series, does as it takes in the larger events surrounding a colt named Black Gold, his dam Useeit and their owner Rosa Hoots. This is a monograph with a complex story around their march to what was then the 50th Kentucky Derby in 1924.

Chances are you’ve read Marguerite Henry’s famous children’s book, illustrated by Dennis Wesley, about the little black colt that could. First published in 1957, it went through numerous printings, but Hunter is not looking to supplant the plucky images that were created over the generations. For her, the story behind the legend isn’t just one dusty fact after another. Dream Derby is a splendid prism in which to view key American events leading up and after World War I, as the nation spun into the turn of the Roaring ’20s. We learn that horse racing’s roads in North America were traveled regularly by dreamers seeking the winner’s circle prizes from Mexico to Canada and everywhere in between.

Central to the plot is Black Gold’s owner, Rosa Hoots. Raised in the ways of the Osage people in Oklahoma, she was a shrewd businesswoman in Tulsa at the time. Her husband passed away and left her Useit, along with the prophecy that she would produce a Derby winner. She did send her mare to Kentucky and the resulting colt, named Black Gold, was a reference to the booming oil deposits that many of the Osage discovered after moving to reservation land.

Not only does Hunter do an excellent job explaining the complexities of racial discrimination associated with the subject of David Grann’s 2017 bestseller Killers of the Flower Moon: The Osage Murders and the Birth of the FBI (which is a major motion picture from Martin Scorsese this fall), but she also examines the impact of the Tulsa race riots of 1921. She ably helps us to understand the world that Hoots inhabited and despite advances for women in categories like suffrage, it didn’t mean the road was clear. As a horsewoman and not from the Eastern establishment, Black Gold’s owner entered a world that is still dominated by men to this day.

The supporting cast is just as intriguing and chock full of characters worth mentioning. We find the hard-drinking trainer, Hanley Webb, who believed that cutting a hole in the stall next to his charge was essential, so he could use it as both an office and a bedroom to sleep as close as possible to his horse. There’s 20-something jockey J.D. Mooney, who scratched and clawed his way back into Webb’s good graces in order to pilot the best horse he ever rode. Who can forget Colonel Edward Riley Bradley? The founder of Idle Hour Stock Farm, Bradley's timely appearance in New Orleans after a Useit victory brought the Hoots’s mare to breed with his little-known sire Black Toney.

Also figuring prominently is the story of Churchill Downs's tipping point and the role played by Matt Winn. Hunter makes no bones about the integral role played by him. The Derby nearly perished into regional obscurity before his arrival in the early 20th century, and how different would everything be if that major cultural event never happened? Winn's savvy bookkeeping and courting of everyone from the racing press to the Eastern powerhouse breeders kept Churchill from going down—their pun at that time, not mine.

With the path to the 150th Derby upon us, reflection on what this sport meant then and what it means to us today can be grounding. The case of Black Gold and his rise to fame is just as alive today as it was then. In times like these, nothing like a reason to breed, race and dream.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR: BREEDING FOR MORE DURABLE THOROUGHBREDS

Recent discussions about racing fatalities are putting the sustainability of Thoroughbred racing to the test. Various solutions have been suggested to reduce fatalities and maintain public acceptance of our wonderful sport. We should pay more attention to the opportunities of breeding to improve sustainability.

Let us look at the history of dairy cattle breeding for inspiration to breed more sustainable Thoroughbreds. For a long time, farmers focused almost exclusively on maximizing milk yield until their attention shifted towards reducing involuntary culling and improving animal health and welfare. Breed associations supported breeders by providing genetic information on longevity, health traits, and functional conformation. Targeted bull selection is now a proven strategy for improving herd sustainability.

We can improve the sustainability of racehorses through genetic selection, too. To successfully do so, we need data on hereditary observations. It is promising that research using data from the UK and Hong Kong clearly shows that some disorders, such as musculoskeletal problems, have a genetic background. This is also true for more general traits that indirectly reflect sustainability, such as career length, number of starts, and lifetime earnings.

Fortunately, racehorse disorders are increasingly being recorded at a large scale, as can be seen in the Equine Injury Database. We can use observations of a sire and his relatives to estimate his breeding value for these traits.

In the short term, genetic selection for sustainability is not a silver bullet for drastically reducing the number of conditions. Because, for many traits, the genetic background explains only a small proportion of the variation. Genetic improvement tends to take longer than a non-genetic intervention, such as changing the surface of the racetrack.

But these concerns do not outweigh the benefits of breeding for the long term. Genetic progress is permanent: a one-off selection decision that has a lasting effect on future generations. On top of that, the selection effect is cumulative; with each new generation the population progresses. Genetic selection can also be very cost-effective, especially when using already available data.

So, while breeding might not be a quick fix, it is undoubtedly an attractive prospect for improving the sustainability of the
LETTER TO THE EDITOR: THE UNSPOKEN SAFETY FACTOR IN HORSE RACING FATALITIES FROM THE HANDICAPPER'S PERSPECTIVE

Handicappers use the term "bounce" to explain a poor performance of a horse or to project a possible poor performance. This handicapping angle is more pronounced in demanding stakes races where a horse will often meet a field where only a top performance will result in a placing. But what does a "bounce" really mean? It refers to a horse that had a recent fast performance, several tough races in a short period or many races in a racing campaign. The handicapper is implicitly (and unknowingly) using basic biology to posit that a given horse did not have enough time to recuperate before the next race. But what if this notion of "bounce" has more serious implications beyond performance intersecting with that of safety? Well, apparently it does.

After the deaths at Santa Anita in 2019, I began to observe the records of horses that had catastrophic injuries. A certain number seemed to be horses whose racing and training schedule appeared excessive. While it is impossible to say with certainty that over-racing was the case individually, I surmised it had to be one factor in catastrophic injury in the aggregate. Now HISA apparently is looking at this angle regarding horse safety. In its, 2023 Equine Fatalities: HISA's Strategic Response under "data analysis," it asks, "Would a maximum number of high-speed furlongs (published works and races) either lifetime or within a rolling period reduce equine injury?" The issue is finally on the table in racing's most significant institution.

Dr. Sue Stover, chair of the HISA Racetrack Safety Committee, goes well beyond what handicappers have noticed in their "bounce" notion only to prognosticate a poor performance for a horse. Dr. Stover in the Spring 2023 Churchill Downs Equine Fatalities: HISA Findings under the category "high speed exercise analysis," concluded--after comparing the Churchill deaths to the control group--that (indeed) the deceased horses had more races per year and that the data coincides with the notion that, "frequent high injury exercise (as observed in injured horses) that does not allow for recovery of exercise-induced microdamage contributes to the development of stress fractures and subchondral stress which presupposes horses to catastrophic injuries." Dr. Stover is based at UC Davis and their veterinary webpage regarding catastrophic injuries to racehorses includes "training intensity" as a risk factor. Thus, from Dr. Stover's remarks, the science on thoroughbred injury has already progressed to a point where the new (Churchill) data is being amalgamated with existing hypotheses.

The notion that with the recent deaths at Saratoga and Churchill Downs there is no one risk factor in common does not mean that several risk factors are not known. The industry has come a long way since 2019 and many risk factors or pre-existing conditions are known including the over-racing of horses.

I do not want to mention individual horses as it is impossible to know with certainty in any single case whether a horse's racing and training schedule was the main culprit in a breakdown. Too often, in my view, trainers are being cast as "bad guys" and that's too easy a way to address industry wide problems in relation to safety. And my point is not to prove this notion as it is already part of the science on racing injury. I wish merely to bring the issue out from the shadows to be part of a necessary discussion on horse safety. But I will relate a few high-profile examples of a horse's racing schedule in horses that broke down in top races dating back to 2019 without mentioning the name of the horse.

• Horse A had 13 races in 11 months and broke down in a grade 1 race,
• Horse B had 10 races in 12 months mostly at the grade 1 level and died after a workout,
• Horse C raced 11 times in 10 months breaking down in a grade 3 stakes,
• Horse D had 4 races in 4 ½ months moving up into a grade 1 with less than a month off.

There are other high and lower-profile examples and again HISA, in their report, summarizes the horse’s racing schedule as part of their analysis. Of course, many horses can handle a tough schedule—there is genetic variation in any species. Nonetheless, the over-racing of a horse is one risk factor that has to be addressed in any overall plan regarding horse safety. It intersects with other issues like medication: rest versus therapy.

Why this factor of over-racing a horse has been understated in recent discussion of horse fatalities until now, I suspect, to the implications on possible restrictions for the scheduling of a horse’s campaign. It may mean limiting the number of starts per horse per racing level, age, etc. It obviously casts a doubt about the spacing of racing’s greatest event: The Triple Crown.

Yes, I support 1/ST Racing’s Aidan Butler’s efforts to move the Preakness date because of the safety issue alone. Yes, it would be a tough go to factor in a horse’s schedule regarding an overall safety plan for thoroughbred racing. But if the horse racing industry is going to completely address the issue of safety, the over-racing of horses (not the racing but the over-racing of a horse) needs to be looked at. There is not a good alternative to not do so.

SATURDAY INSIGHTS: INTO MISCHIEF COLTS FRONT AND CENTER AT THE BIG A

by Alan Carasso

Bounteous is out of a half-sister to champion Close Hatches

The Feb. 26 foal is out of 12-time winner Blake's Magic (Bernstein), a half-sister to Canadian champion and four-time GSW and GI Atto Mile runner-up Mobil (Langfuhr). Agra (Blame) is a granddaughter of MSP Greenery (Galileo {Ire}), the dam of Gl Donn H. hero, Gl Woodbine Mile second-place finisher and G1 Dubai World Cup third Lea (First Samurai) as well as 2020 Iowa Derby winner Acre (Blame). Agra was bought back on a bid of $190,000 at this year’s OBS April Sale. TJCIS PPs

1st-BAQ, $90K, 2yo, Msw, 6 1/2f, 1:05 p.m. ET

Spendthrift’s irrepressible Into Mischief has had a whopper of a week at the Keeneland September Sale and a pair of immaculately bred juveniles are down to debut in the Saturday opener from Aqueduct. Juddmonte’s BOUNTEOUS hails from a very active female family, as his dam Hall (Tapit) is a half-sister to the operation’s Eclipse Award winner Close Hatches (First Defense), the dam of MGSW/MGISP sire Tacitus (Tapit) and unbeaten ‘TDN Rising Star’ Scylla (Tapit); and to SW/MGISP Lockdown (First Defense), whose daughter Idiomatic (Curlin) defeated champion Nest (Curlin) in the GI Personal Ensign S. at Saratoga last month. Jay Em Ess unveils its homebred Ignite the Light, a son of nine-times stakes-winner and GISP By the Light (Malibu Moon), whose six scorers from eight to race include dual Grade I winner By the Moon (Indian Charlie) and GSP Wonderful Light (Tiz Wonderful). Commander of Truth (Constitution), a daughter of 2009 GIII Natalma S. third Jungle Tale (Lion Heart), was a $200,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Becky Thomas this time last year and was sold to Lauren Carlisle for $675,000 at OBS this past March after breezing a furlong in 1:10 flat. TJCIS PPs

6th-BAQ, $90K, 2yo, f, 6fT, 3:42 p.m. ET

MITOLE MAGIC (Mitole) was an $80,000 purchase out of the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Fall Yearling Sale, but matured nicely and was knocked down to First Row Partners for $275,000 at OBS this past March (.9.4). TJCIS PPs

With a couple of nifty spins on the grass on display, Sacred Wish made her turf debut a winning one, parlaying a comfortable trip into victory in Friday's Memories of Silver S. at Aqueduct.
Away neatly from a low draw, Sacred Wish scraped paint from a midfield fifth as Lady Beth (Hard Spun) galloped them along at a decent clip. Asked to improve three furlongs out, Sacred Wish rallied through to be third turning into the stretch, was switched out into the three-wide line and sprinted home slightly better than Silver Skillet. Soviet Excess rallied wide from the back of the pack to snatch third on the wire.

“Perfect trip,” said winning jockey John Velazquez. “She broke well and got behind the leaders in there. I bided my time and followed Joel Rosario’s horse [Silver Skillet], which was one of the horses to beat. She gave me a great trip.”
A maiden winner in two Oaklawn starts for Lynn Chleborad, Sacred Wish was runner-up in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks in her first run for these connections Apr. 1 ahead of a disappointing ninth in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 19. Second in a muddy Belmont allowance June 16, she led clear into the final furlong of the July 22 GI CCA Oaks, but was run down by Wet Paint (Blame), and lost any chance in the Aug. 19 GI Alabama S. at the break, finishing a distant seventh of 10 to Randomized (Nyquist). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

The 28th stakes winner for Not This Time, Sacred Wish is out of a half-sister to GSW Mint Lane (Maria's Mon) and to GISP Sister Girl Blues (Hold For Gold), the dam of GSW and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Firing Line (Line of David). Another half-sister, So Sharp (Saint Liam), produced GISW sire Sharp Azteca (Freud), while the unraced Remembered (Sky Mesa) dropped MGISW turfer Bowies Hero (Artie Schiller). Sacred Wish is the 101st stakes winner from a daughter of Indian Charlie and has a weanling half-brother by Knicks Go. She was bred to Practical Joke and Jack Christopher this year.
Stonestreet purchased Fibber’s Gill Gardenia S.-winning dam for $350,000 at the 2014 Fasig-Tipton Winter Mixed Sale. A half-sister to MSW & GSP Pioneer Spirit (Malibu Moon), Devious Intent produced a Good Magic filly after changing hands for $52,000 at Keeneland November in 2021 and was bred to Corniche this past season. Sales history: $55,000 Ylg ’22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $113,560. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BALTA (c, 2, Munnings--Laquesta, by Lemon Drop Kid), runner-up on Ellis debut June 17, went one better at the Peapatch July 23 and was a latest pacesetting fifth in the Aug. 13 Juvenile S. in Henderson. A 15-2 chance with ‘TDN Rising Star’ American Rascal (Curlin--Lady Aurelia) attracting all the pari-mutuel attention at 1-2, Balta was outsprinted and settled in mid-division as Normandy Hero (Omaha Beach) just led from the hot favorite. American Rascal gave way in upper stretch, but Balta commenced a rally at the fence, took over with a touch less than a furlong to race and went on to best Epic Battle (Runhappy) by three lengths. American Rascal beat just one home in sixth.

Balta has a yearling half-brother by Hard Spun and his dam was bred to Golden Pal. Sales history: $165,000 Ylg ’22 KEESEP; $685,000 2yo ’23 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $144,840. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

NY TRAFFIC (h, 6, Cross Traffic--Mamie Reilly, by Graeme Hall), a two-time stakes winner at age five in 2022, was making his first start since finishing fourth at even-money in the John Morrissey S. at Saratoga last August and was an almost-hard-to-believe 43-5 in this return to action. With the early pace from between rivals, the gray entire dropped back into fourth and appeared to be losing some ground midway on the turn. Urged along by Irad Ortiz, Jr., NY Traffic advanced wide into the stretch, came calling for the lead three or four off the inside at the eighth pole and went on to score comfortably as Kinetic Sky (Runhappy) finished with interest for second. GET TWISTED (f, 3, Get Stormy--Bird Swing, by Birdstone) debuted here at the big price of 91-1 and did not disappoint her handful of backers. The bay filly raced up the backstretch in the eighth position, began to make progress around the far turn and with a strong turn of foot to the outside, she rolled late to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Red River Magic (Justify). The winner has an unraced 2-year-old full-sister named Pink Moon and her dam foaled a colt Apr. 28 by Heart to Heart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,000. PARCHMENT PARTY (c, 2, Constitution--Life Well Lived, by Tiznow) sported a typically steady worktab for this outfit over the Belmont training track and shipped in from the Big Apple to make his debut here as the 16-1 second-longest shot in a field of nine. Slowly into stride from the four hole, the $450,000 Keeneland September graduate was void of any speed and settled at the back of the pack behind a moderate tempo. Still last entering the final half-mile, the June foal was making progress at the fence on the turn but James Graham had to shut him down a bit at the five-sixteens at off heels. Still full of run as they hit the stretch, Parchment Party was once again in very tight inside of 14-1 Warp Nine (Hightail) at the eighth pole, but squeezed through that opening and outfinished tough-trip Django (Medaglia d'Oro) by 1 1/4 lengths. It was also a horror watch for Warp Nine backers, as the Calumet homebred was stopped cold in traffic at a critical stage and was forced to settle for third, a further two lengths away. A half-brother to Muqtaser (Distorted Humor), MGSP, $303,605; and to Darley Japan stallion American Patriot (War Front), GISW, $487,272, Parchment Party is out of Life Well Lived--a full-sister to MG1/G1SW Well Armed--who was purchased by Bobby Flay in foal to American Pharoah for $1.25 million at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. Sales history: $450,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. Life Well Lived, who was RNAd for $750,000 when offered in foal to Curlin at KEENOV in 2019, has a yearling full-brother to Parchment Party and returned to Constitution this term. NORTHERN FLAME (c, 2, Flameaway--Darling's Darling, by Bernardini) was well-beaten in his first pair of races at Ellis Park when fourth July 21 and third Aug. 28. Bet down from 6-1 to a 9-5 here, the bay colt made the lead from the bell, continued to set the fractions through the backstretch and when asked, the Kenny McPeek trainee responded at the top of the lane en route to a 1 1/2-length win over Real Men Violin (Mendelssohn). The winner’s dam, a half-sister to GII Santa Ynez S. heroine Forever Darling (Congrats) and GI Darley Alcibiades S. victoress Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon), produced GSP On Alert (Medaglia d'Oro). She was bred once again to Flameaway for next year. Northern Flame was the 13th winner for his freshman sire (by Scat Daddy). Sales history: $425,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. THOUGHT EXPERIMENT (f, 3, Gun Runner--Appealing Music, by Successful Appeal) raced with Lasix for her debut here at odds of 6-1. The bay filly settled mid-pack up the backstretch, launched her bid around the far turn and steadily reeling in the pacesetter, the Chad Brown trainee outlasted Risk Free (American Freedom) to win by a head. The winner's dam is a half-sister to SP Adore You (Tactical Cat), the dam of GISP Piedi Bianchi (Overanalyze), MSW Outadore (Outwork) and a May 5 weanling filly by Authentic. AWESOME CZECH (f, 2, Mendelssohn--Marvelous Martina, by Awesome Again) was a well-beaten fourth in a July 14 Saratoga maiden going 5 1/2 furlongs and improved several lengths when rounding out the exacta in a seven-furlong test on a dry track Aug. 24. Stretching out and trying the grass for the first time, the homebred was one of the first away, then settled in a ground-saving fourth for the opening 6 1/2 furlongs. With Manny Franco looking for a way out off the final corner, Awesome Czech angled four deep into the lane and took some time to find her top gear, but finished strongly to score by a lengths at odds of 19-5. Boxed Wine (Vino Rosso) also hit the line hard to be second. Hailing from the deeper female family of Bernardini, Awesome Czech has a yearling half-sister by Central Banker and her dam was most recently covered by Honest Mischief. FILLY CRYSTAL (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Stainless (MGSP), by Flatter) fired a bullet half-mile from the gate at the nearby training center last month and had plenty of support in the market at odds just shy of 4-1. Drawn two, the dark bay flashed good early speed and argued the pace from the inside. She was briefly overtaken just after the field reached the stretch, but she battled back gamely to edge in front a furlong from home and managed to drop her nose down on the line just ahead of the more experienced Birdie Rose (Cairo Prince). Filly Crystal hails from the family of champion Countess Diana and has a 2-year-old half-brother named Rocket Night (Quality Road), a yearling half-sister by Curlin and a weanling half-brother by Charlatan.

REMEMBER (c, 2, Audible—Mom’s Deputy, by War Chant) was third over the Tapeta in both of his starts this summer at Gulfstream Park. Attempting to graduate as the 8-5 second choice here, the bay colt tracked Papalote (Palace Malice) into the first turn and up the backstretch. Taking aim at the leader, Remember began to make his move around the far turn, took over at the quarter pole and went on to win by 3 3/4 lengths over Freedom Principle (Flameaway). The winner is a half-brother to Mom’s On Strike (First Dude), MGSW, $594,550 and Otago (Speightstown), SW, $134,225. CLASSIC JOKE (c, 2, Practical Joke—Caramel Candy, by Candy Ride [Arg]), couldn’t quite overcome a poor break and ran on for fourth on turf-sprint debut at Laurel Aug. 12 and was cutting back a furlong off a distant third to Colonial main-track maiden romper Patriot Spirit (Constitution) Aug. 25. Making his third trip to the races in the space of 34 days, the 16-5 second betting choice caught a flyer from the gate, was prompted through the middle furlongs by favored Regalo (Maximus Mischief) and did the better work of the two late, scoring by a daylight margin. The winner’s dam, purchased for $47,000 with this colt in utero at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale, is out of an unraced daughter of MGSW & GISP Miss Isella (Silver Charm), herself a half-sister to MGSW Sir Cherokee (Cherokee Run); MSW Guam Typhoon (Distorted Humor); and MGSP Lady Linda (Torrential). SOKYU (JPN) (f, 2, Arrogate--Hightap, by Tapit) looks to become the sixth winner from eight to race from her dam, the 2009 GIII Iowa Oaks victress who was purchased by Big Red Farm with this filly in utero for ¥350,000 at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. A May 2 foal, Sokyu--bred on the same cross as GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. hero Arcangelo--is a half-sister to Halladay (War Front), all-the-way winner of the 2020 GI Fourstardave H. at Saratoga. Arrogate is the sire of 11 winners from 13 starters in Japan. B-Big Red Farm

BIG EVS BLITZES FLYING CHILDERS RIVALS

by Sean Cronin

RP Racing’s Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point (Ire)--Hana Lina (GB), by Oasis Dream (GB)) finished among the tailenders in last month’s G1 Nunthorpe at York and rebounded in style with a scintillating pillar-to-post triumph in Friday's G2 Carlsberg Danish Pilsner Flying Childers S. at Doncaster.

The Michael Appleby trainee, who had earlier left his stamp on Royal Ascot’s Listed Windsor Castle and Glorious Goodwood’s G3 Molecomb, hit the ground running as the traps opened and held an immediate advantage before turning the screw with a :10.72 second furlong. Clear of threats on the front end throughout, the 9-4 favourite was asked to stretch by Tom Marquand with a quarter-mile remaining and enjoyed splendid isolation in the closing stages, hitting the line with a 2 3/4-length buffer back to Flora Of Bermuda (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)). Rosario (Ire) (Harry Angel (Ire)), who became upset in the stalls beforehand, was best of the rest and finished 1 3/4 lengths adrift in third.

“After he jumped out of the stalls there wasn’t really a doubt,” said Appleby after claiming a career high of his own. “You’ve got to be up the front on this [soft] ground and once he got three or four lengths on them they weren’t going to catch him. It is not the ideal ground for him, but he’s got the job done well and he’s won a Molecomb and a Flying Childers on soft ground now. We just had to put a line through the Nunthorpe.”

DONCASTER: ST LEGER HOLDING OUT FOR A HERO by Tom Frary

It would be brave to call the winner of Saturday’s G1 Betfred St Leger and at this stage difficult to even decide what will start favourite for a wide-open renewal of the Doncaster Classic. There is very little separating the obvious trio of Continuous (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry (Jpn)), Arrest (Ire) (Frankel (GB)) and Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn (GB)), while even Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) could yet threaten for pole position in the market given his Royal status. Each one has yet to prove themselves at this level, with Continuous and Arrest well-beaten when contesting the European Classics this summer before staging their comebacks in their preps. Doncaster’s unforgiving final Classic of the season will stretch the elastic and only one will truly stay the course. Cont. p8

SOTTSASS'S FULL-BROTHER FEATURES AT ARQANA

A total of 731 yearlings were catalogued for the Arqana October Yearling Sale next month, including a full-brother to an Arc winner.
He added, “I think he had an exceptionally hard race at Goodwood and that just took its toll.”

Looking forward to loftier targets, the trainer added, “I think it will be the Breeders’ Cup next for the [GI] Juvenile Turf Sprint and he’ll go straight there. It’s five furlongs at Santa Anita which should be ideal and, if he can get the rail, he could be difficult to peg back. He’s been an amazing horse, the owners have turned down some big bids and there’ll be more now, but luckily he’s not for sale.”

Pedigree Notes

Big Evs, the sixth of eight foals, is one of four scorers thrown by a daughter of G1 Cheveley Park S.-winning European champion Queen’s Logic (Ire) (Grand Lodge), herself a half-sister to MG1SW sire Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and G1 1000 Guineas heroine Homecoming Queen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor (Ire)). Queen’s Logic’s leading performer is G2 Lowther S., G2 Diadem S. and G3 Princess Margaret S. victrix Lady Of The Desert (Rahy), who also hit the board in the G1 Cheveley Park S., G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Prix de l’Abbaye. Lady Of The Desert, in turn, is the dam of G2 Lowther S. winner Queen Kindly (GB) (Frankel {GB}), herself the dam of Lowther runner-up and G3 Firth Of Clyde S. third Queen Me (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). CLEERE: ‘I WAS NEVER AS NERVOUS - BIG EVS IS THE FASTEST I’VE RIDDEN’

By Brian Sheerin

Top breeze-up handler Mickey Cleere has shared how he breathed a huge sigh of relief after Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), a horse he describes as the fastest he has ridden, bounced right back to form to run away with the G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster.

That win provided Cleere with an added pep to his step ahead of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale, where he picked up the similarly smart juvenile Ballymount Boy (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) for just €8,000, before turning him into a €110,000 breezer some eight months later.

But the Mick Appleby-trained Big Evs is something out of the ordinary in the eyes of Cleere. And that is saying something given the talented operator prepared 2019 G2 Norfolk S. winner A’Ali (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}) for the breeze-ups on behalf of Star Bloodstock.

"I've never been as nervous," an ecstatic Cleere admitted after the race on Friday. "It was such a bad run in the Nunthorpe, I was only hoping that he could bounce back to what I thought he could do, and it's just great that he showed people what he's made of." Cont. p5

He added, "Big Evs is the fastest horse I have ever been associated with and I breezed A'Ali for Star Bloodstock. It's fantastic to have been involved with a horse as good as him. It's the best feeling in the world. I can't even describe how good it is to have been involved with a two-year-old as good as Big Evs.

"Everyone is after a Royal Ascot two-year-old these days and it's a dream to have found one. It makes you trust your own judgment. Hopefully it will be good for business as well. We'll find out next year I suppose."

Cleere's judgment was bang on the money about Ballymount Boy as well. Despite being light on pedigree, the colt was judged to have been such a looker by Cleere that he rolled the dice on him at Tattersalls Ireland almost a year to the day, and it is a decision that has paid off in spades.

From a humble price tag of just €8,000 from Ridge Manor Stud, Ballymount Boy then fetched €110,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale in the spring to Danny Hussy on behalf of trainer Adrian Keatley.

The colt was snapped up on the private market by the emerging force of Wathnan Racing in between runner-up efforts in the G2 Richmond S. and the G3 Acomb S. and will bid to further illustrate Cleere's talents at spotting top-class runners when lining out for the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at ParisLongchamp.

"I didn't even have Ballymount Boy on the list of horses I wanted to see at the sale last year," Cleere recalled. "I'd binned him, to be honest, purely because he was by Camacho. They can be hard horses to re-sell in my game.

"It's completely the wrong way of doing things and I know that. We're all basically like sheep in the breeze-up game and are following the fashion. At the same time, you are kind of forced to, aren't you? The day you buy is the day you sell and you have to be guided by fashion somewhat."

Cleere added, "One thing I will say about Ballymount Boy is that I went down to look at another horse who was stabled beside him but, when I saw this Camacho colt out showing for a different person, he just caught my eye." Cont. p6

He said, "I followed him over to his stable door and he was a cracking yearling. I thought he was as good as I saw on the day—a man among boys, really. His pedigree was okay without being savage but I was prepared to go to around €25,000 for him because I liked him so much."

In many ways, horses like Ballymount Boy capture the philosophy of what Cleere's business model is all about; finding race horses, first and foremost. He has tried following fashion in the past, but to his detriment, and says he is happy to continue to ply his trade as he feels best.

He explained, "I started out on my own under MC Thoroughbreds in 2019 and I'm trying to go the opposite way to most people by just buying a nice horse, rather than the horses by the nice stallions."

"I've bought the Kingmans and the ones by fashionable sires and you're just never getting a good enough horse for the money that I want to spend so that's why I am going the other direction now. I'd prefer to forgive the pedigrees a small bit and buy the nicer physcals."

In Big Evs, Cleere managed to secure a horse by one of the hottest young sires in the business in Blue Point, but the Killenaule man reveals that the speedster required some outside-the-box-thinking at 50,000gns from Houghton Bloodstock at the Tattersalls Book 2 Sale.

Cleere said, "I'd say if Big Evs was a couple of inches bigger I wouldn't have gotten near him. When I bought him, he was handy enough but he was very strong with a good enough walk. For a small horse, he walked like a big horse. He'd have made somewhere between seventy and a hundred grand if he was a bit bigger."

He added, "I was never so sure about a horse than Big Evs, though, and we got him sold privately without going to any sale. For me, he was quicker than A'Ali, and I was confident of that. I'm just glad he's proving us right."

With Big Evs and Ballymount Boy among last year's graduates, Cleere could have been forgiven for hitting this year's yearling sales hard. However, he revealed that he has not started shopping yet, and that he plans on adding the first of next year's two-year-olds to the team at Tattersalls Ireland next week.

He said, "I haven't started shopping yet. I always let them power away early on before jumping in a bit later. I just find it is harder to buy at the earlier sales. There's plenty of early and speedy horses at Fairyhouse and even Book 2 at Tattersalls, so there's no real panic."

"We hope to get 20 yearlings over the next few weeks and I'm looking forward to Tattersalls Ireland. The place has been very lucky for me. I've bought plenty of winners there and hopefully that continues next week."

REVITALISED TRUESHAN WINS THE DONCASTER CUP by Tom Frary

Beaten in the G2 Doncaster Cup last season, Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur (Ire)) showed his story is far from finished back in that Town Moor feature on Friday as he registered an unorthodox success returning from a break.

Only fourth in the G3 Sagaro S. when last seen in May, the Singula Partnership’s 7-year-old had undergone wind surgery in the interim and there were obvious questions as to whether he could get back to his previous pinnacle in the staying division.

Things looked dubious for the 100-30 shot in the back straight as Hollie Doyle struggled to contain the imposing veteran behind the pace and as she let him go with five furlongs still to race it was touch and go whether he would last home. Separated from the other four in the straight, the pride of the Alan King stable could have given up as the Gosdens’ Sweet William (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) gained a brief lead approaching the final furlong but instead piled it on to regain the advantage and record another impressive success by 1 1/4 lengths.

“Two that was definitely not Plan A! It’s not the first time he’s given me a rodeo either, but he can still win because he’s so superior,” Doyle said. “He’s back to his best. To do it that way round he must be. The thing today was we were going a pedestrian pace and it was breaking his stride, so when you are on a big horse like that I just let him bowl along and it was going to be make or break. The wind op has definitely helped. At Ascot earlier this year, we hacked around and he curled up a furlong and a half out whereas today he proved he’s back to his best.”

It is rare to see a horse do so much wrong and still prevail at this level, but what we already knew about Trueshan is he is a true class act on his day in these “Cup” races. That was clear in the 2021 G1 Goodwood Cup, that year’s G1 Prix du Cadran, in the last three editions of Ascot’s G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup and in last year’s Northumberland Plate in which he put up one of the all-time great weight-defying handicap performances. With Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) back in the mix after the weekend, this win adds spice to the division’s autumn features.

Pedigree Notes

Trueshan has only two black-type performers under the first three dams, but one of them happens to be the current smart Australian stayer True Marvel (Fr) (Masked Marvel (GB)). In April, he was runner-up in the G1 Sydney Cup at 150-1, while two months later he proved that was no fluke when third in the G2 Brisbane Cup.

Ballydoyle know what it takes to win this and the number one is Continuous, who comes from the race’s premier trial, York’s G2 Great Voltigeur S. While the race was set up perfectly for his hold-up style, there was much to like about the fluency with which he dealt with Gregory and co. and Ryan Moore was never going to ride anything else.

“People talk about the tactics that day, but just focus on the fact that he won the best trial for this Classic by nearly four lengths, with Gregory back in third, and he was very strong at the line,” he stated. “Of course, you never know they stay until you try and maybe quicker ground may have been ideal with stamina in mind, but he won on soft ground in France at two and he has very strong credentials.”

Gregory was carrying a three-pound penalty returning from a break in the Voltigeur, having won Royal Ascot’s G2 Queen’s Vase, and probably set off too fast on the Knavesmire but that performance has obviously failed to keep Frankie interested. This is a big day for the soon-to-be-retired figurehead of the sport, so it is significant that he opts instead for Juddmonte’s Arrest.

Siding with Arrest is a gamble, given he was beating probably a substandard field in the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury last month, but if it gets softer there is the memory of his heavy defeat of Adelaide River (Ire) (Australia {GB}) in the G3 Chester Vase on testing ground in May. Juddmonte’s European racing manager Barry Mahon is aware of the gravitas surrounding Frankie’s decision. “It would be special and it’s a hot race, it’s certainly hard to dismiss much in the race. They are all of a similar level and it’s definitely quality over quantity,” he said.

“In fairness to the horse, his record is pretty solid and we made two bad calls with the horse running him on good-to-firm ground at Epsom and [Royal] Ascot. We know he likes an ease in the ground and if you forget those two runs, then his record is pretty outstanding. Over a mile and five and a half at Newbury he looked comfortable enough, so we just have to be hopeful he gets the extra furlong.”

Arrest’s trainer John Gosden also has Gregory and Qatar Racing’s Melrose H. winner Middle Earth (GB) (Roaring Lion) and he started with Wathnan Racing’s representative. “He’s got a great mind and he is a pretty laid-back character,” he said. “I trained both the mother and father and he’s inherited all the good traits of their mental attitude towards racing. We gave him all the time he required and he’s done nothing but shine this year. I think he’ll enjoy the distance, although we are perfectly aware it looks like being a vintage St Leger.”

Of Middle Earth, he added, “He’s proven he stays the trip and the long straight here tests the tactical speed and the stamina, so he looks like he should be able to answer those two calls. If you’d won a handicap in the style he did at York, that was a tougher race than some of the trials. If you’ve got the right horse at the right time and he handles the ground, then he has every right to be there.”

The King & The Queen’s G3 Gordon S.-winning TDN Rising Star Desert Hero would be the first winner in the Royal colours in this since Dunfermline in 1977, so it would be some landmark. Trainer William Haggas told QIPCO British Champions Series, “I think it would mean the world to everyone in our industry. We have been fortunate for so long to have such stoic Royal patronage, and anything that can enhance that will be good. He won on soft ground at Goodwood and on faster ground at Ascot, so I don’t think the ground is a worry. Soft ground will put more emphasis on stamina, but if he relaxes he should stay.” Cont. p9
Rosallion Kicks Off Action In The Champagne

Doncaster’s action starts with the G2 Betfred Champagne S., where Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s impressive Listed Pat Eddery S. winner Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) has command on all known form. His four-length defeat of Al Musmak (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) looks even better now that the runner-up has won the Listed Ascendant S. and we could be dealing with one of Britain’s leading 2000 Guineas hopes. Teme Valley and Ballylinch Stud’s G2 Vintage S. runner-up Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is the main threat, having finished ahead of Ballydoyle’s Mountain Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) in that Goodwood contest, but anything other than a convincing win for the Richard Hannon trainee will be an anticlimax.

Hannon said of Rosallion, “We were delighted with his run at Ascot and he’s come forward a good bit since then. Al Musmak won very well at Haydock and he looks a nice horse, so that was very pleasing. We’ve won it with Threat, Chindit and Estidhkaar. It’s a nice race and it comes at a good time for the big races in the autumn and hopefully this is a nice race on the way to the Dewhurst.”

Cachet Confirmed For Sceptre Return

Sunday’s card at Doncaster has been boosted by the first sighting of last year’s G1 1000 Guineas heroine Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}) in the seven-furlong G3 Japan Racing Association Sceptre Fillies’ S. Highclere Thoroughbred Racing’s star has been off since finishing fifth in the G1 Coronation S. last June and trainer George Boughey is happy to get her back on the track.

“This is an exciting race,” Boughey said. “She’s come out of her prep in great condition and she’s looking very well. Her form from last year is very solid and she’s got a lot of speed on her side. We’re very confident she can do well.”

ST LEGER: WHERE DID THEY COME FROM?

by Heather Anderson & Brian Sheerin

The final leg of the original Triple Crown, the G1 Betfred St Leger features nine colts, with several homebreds and auction graduates both reasonable—£100,000—and those of a more expensive bent—£440,000. If Their Majesties’ Desert Hero (GB) pulls off the victory, he would be the first royal winner since The Late Queen’s Dunfermline (GB) in 1977. Aidan O’Brien, gunning for his seventh edition, will saddle a quartet of individuals, all in with a chance, and the choice of Ryan Moore is the G2 Great Voltigeur S. hero Continuous (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry {Jpn}).

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Maiden winner over an extended mile at the back end last year; sent off odds-on favourite for the G3 Ballysax S. at Leopardstown, a key Derby trial, on his seasonal return, but couldn’t rival White Birch (GB) (Ire) back in third; mid-season break of 144 days before disappointing in the Vinnie Roe S. on his first attempt at 1m6f and, while he is from the family of this stable’s 2018 St Leger winner Kew Gardens (Ire), he still has plenty to prove at this level; outsider. ARREST (IRE), Frankel (GB)--Nisriyna (Ire) (Intikhab)
Owner: Juddmonte
Breeder: Swordlestown Little
Trainer: John & Thady Gosden

Sales History: €440,000 Goffs November foal

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: The seventh foal out of his unraced dam and her third black-type horse, this half-brother to group winner and G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup third Dinozzo (Ire) (Lilbourne Lad (Ire)) has already won a brace of Group 3s, including when collecting the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. just 100 yards shy of the St Leger trip last month. One of the most highly rated in the field, it would be no surprise to see him give Juddmonte their third St Leger.

CHESSPIECE (GB), Nathaniel (Ire)--Royal Solitaire (Ire) (Shamardal)
Owner: Godolphin
Breeder: Ammerland GMBH & Co Kg
Trainer: Simon & Ed Crisford

Sales History: €100,000 Arqana October yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: The most decorated offspring of his dam, who won the G2 Badener Meille and was second in the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis Bayerisches, this stakes winner already found the re-opposing Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn (GB)) too tough to handle in the G2 Queen’s Vase at this distance. However, he was only a neck shy of Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) in the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood last month. Several of these would have to run below par for Chesspiece to prevail.

CONTINUOUS (JPN), Heart’s Cry (Jpn)--Fluff (Ire) (Galileo (Ire))
Owner: D Smith, Mrs J Magnier, M Tabor & Westerberg
Breeder: Orpendale, Chelston & Wynatt
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Dished out a comprehensive beating to Gregory in the Great Voltigeur at York, the form of which is up there with the best on offer in this race, and his chance is bolstered by the fact that he is Ryan Moore’s pick of a Ballydoyle four-pronged attack. In truth, the rider would not have had much to think about, as this colt has gone from strength to strength this season and appears ground versatile; gave the impression that he would see out the 1m6f at York and rates a leading player on form and pedigree. His dam Fluff (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) is a sister to the formerly smart stayer Barbados (Ire), which gives hope that he should be as effective over the extra two furlongs, while she is also a sister to the Irish 1,000 Guineas winner Maybe (Ire), now the dam of Saxon Warrior (Jpn); classy sort.

DENMARK (IRE), Camelot (GB)--Board Meeting (Ire) (Anabaa)
Owner: D Smith, Mrs J Magnier, M Tabor & Westerberg
Breeder: Dayton Investments (Breeding) Limited
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien

Sales History: €440,000 Arqana October yearling

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: From the family of French Oaks winner Bright Sky (Ire) (Wolfhound) and, while there is plenty of stamina in the pedigree, he didn’t appear to have any excuses when beaten by Middle Earth on his penultimate start at York. He hung left-handed when third in a handicap at Haydock last time; plenty to prove.

DESERT HERO (GB), Sea The Stars (Ire)--Desert Breeze (GB) (Dubawi (Ire))
Owner: HM The King & HM The Queen
Breeder: The Queen
Trainer: William Haggas

Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Bred by The Queen, Desert Hero is closely related to four-time group winner and dual top-level placed Dartmouth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Gritty performer who has advertised his St Leger credentials in grinding out victories in a handicap at Royal Ascot followed by the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood. Could be open to even further progression upped in trip.

GREGORY (GB), Golden Horn (GB)--Gretchen (GB) (Galileo {Ire})
Owner: Wathnan Racing
Breeder: Normandie Stud Ltd
Trainer: John & Thady Gosden
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: This Queen’s Vase winner was third to Continuous (Jpn) (Heart’s Cry {Jpn}) in the Great Voltigeur, after winning his first three starts. Retiring jockey Frankie Dettori has opted for fellow Gosden trainee Arrest, so Kieran Shoemark will partner the son of G2 Park Hill S. heroine Gretchen. A Cocked Hat S. hero like his half-brother Lionel (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), Gregory’s staying proclivities come naturally, and his dam’s half-brother Duncan (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) won the G1 Irish St Leger. One to watch.

MIDDLE EARTH (GB), Roaring Lion--Roheryn (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})
Owner: Qatar Racing Limited
Breeder: The Roheryn Partnership
Trainer: John & Thady Gosden
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Although yet to earn black-type and by a classy sire who was just found out at the 12-furlong distance in the Derby, this half-brother to the multiple group-placed stakes-winning Buckaroo (GB) (Fastnet {Aus}), has inherited his stamina from his King George V Cup-winning dam, whose four group placings were anchored by a second in the G3 Ballyroan S. Already a winner at this trip defeating Denmark (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) in the Melrose H. at York, Middle Earth’s connections thought highly enough of his chances and paid the supplementary fee. However, the waters are a great deal deeper in this contest.

TOWER OF LONDON (IRE), Galileo (Ire)--Dialafara (Fr) (Anabaa)
Owner: D Smith, Mrs J Magnier, M Tabor & Westerberg
Breeder: Lynch Bages Ltd & Camas Park Stud
Trainer: Aidan O’Brien
Pedigree Notes/Form Analysis: Brother to Irish Derby and St Leger winner Capri (Ire) and fellow smart stayers Cypress Creek (Ire) and Passion (Ire); denied a third win on the trot when narrowly beaten in a Group 3 over 1m5f at Newmarket in July and, while this is his first start since then, fitness will not be an issue hailing from this camp. One of the more lively outsiders and he certainly commands respect.

FULL-BROTHER TO SOTTSSASS PART OF ARQANA’S OCTOBER YEARLING CATALOGUE

A full-brother to Arc hero Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) (lot 59) is one of the highlights of the upcoming Arqana October Yearling Sale from Oct. 17-21.

Divided into three parts with a total of 731 yearlings on offer, the sale will feature 228 yearlings beginning at 11 a.m. in Part 1 on Tuesday, Oct. 17. Ecurie des Monceaux will consign lot 59, who is also a half-brother to Eclipse champion and Breeders’ Cup winner Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}). Haras de la Perelle consigns lot 63, a son of Sea The Moon (Ger), who is a half-brother to German Group 1 winner Simca Mille (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}); while just two lots later, Haras de Castillon’s draft contains a Mehmas (Ire) half-brother to the stakes-winning G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains second Texas (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). Other lots of note include a filly (lot 79) by Persian King (Ire) out of G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua heroine Waikika (Fr) (Whipper) from Elevage de Tourgeville. Frankel (GB) and Anabasis (Ger) (High Chaparral (Ire))’s colt is lot 95 from La Motteraye Consignment. Cont. p12
Ross Birkett has been appointed as the new Tattersalls Online sales and marketing coordinator. The Newmarket native is a son of trainer Julia Feilden and holds a degree in journalism from the University of Brighton. Formerly a producer/presenter for the Dubai Racing Channel for three years, Birkett also spent stints with trainer Gai Waterhouse as part of winning the Alex Scott Memorial Scholarship, and has also been a jockeys' agent and a rostrum spotter for Tattersalls on sales days.

Tattersalls Online sales executive Katherine Sheridan said, “We are delighted to welcome Ross to Tattersalls and believe he will be a tremendous asset to the team. Ross brings a wealth of experience to this role and we believe he will be a great addition as we continue to develop and grow the Tattersalls Online platform.”

Added Birkett, who acts as an assistant trainer to his mother and is a three-time champion amateur jockey, “It’s a great honour to join the Tattersalls team on a full-time basis having worked for the organisation on sales days for many years.”

Horses purchased for €1,000 up to €70,000 are among the 51 entries eligible for the €120,000 Irish EBF Auction Series Race Final at Naas Oct. 15. The Irish EBF is the largest sponsor of races in Ireland.

“It’s hard to win 2-year-old races in Ireland but this series is a great initiative,” trainer Noel Meade said. “The races are worth good money and to have the final at the end of it, it really is great. It is nice to be able to say to somebody that we have these races to run in and then the final at the end. The maidens are worth €20,000 and some of them are worth €25,000 and it really is great money without running into the top sires and the very expensive 2-year-olds.”

Also, Cork Racecourse will host the €50,000 Irish EBF Auction Series Nursery H. over six furlongs. The race is one of the Auction Series finals and worth €170,000.

“The Irish EBF Auction Series, now in its ninth year, is a booming success and hitting all the targets it set out to achieve when created by the Irish EBF board and HRI,” Joe Foley, Chairman of the Irish EBF said. “The main purpose of the series was to give valuable race opportunities to horses bought at the middle to lower end of the auction market. Now trainers and owners are sourcing yearlings to target at the series and with a good horse you can win significant prize money, increase their value, sell them on or target one of the two finals available to them. It’s a win-win series.”
FREE RACING AT CHELMSFORD FOR ARMED FORCES PERSONNEL ON REMEMBRANCE DAY

Chelmsford City Racecourse has teamed up with the Royal British Legion to offer free entry to members and veterans of the armed forces for the race meeting on Remembrance Day, Saturday, Nov. 11. Furthermore, all profits made from general admission tickets will be donated directly to the charity’s Poppy Appeal.

Jo Flaherty, head of charity and community at Chelmsford City Racecourse, said, “We are proud to be supporting our armed forces locally and further afield by giving them the opportunity to enjoy a complimentary raceday experience. I am looking forward to not only celebrating our armed forces but raising vital funds for the Royal British Legion as we continue with our ongoing commitment to engage with charities and the local community.”

Laura Gibbs, the community fundraiser for the Royal British Legion in Essex, said, "Life in the armed forces comes with unique challenges for those serving and their families, both during and after service, and the RBL is there every step of the way throughout their lives whenever they need us."

Along with the racing action, there will be a wreath-laying ceremony, a performance from the Military Wives choir and live band, sponsored by Lookers Ford. The Mayor of Chelmsford, Linda Mascot, will also be in attendance.

Past and present service personnel can apply for two complimentary general admission tickets for the day. Under 18s can also attend for free.

WOMEN IN RACING AWARDED ADDITIONAL GRANTS FOR RACING PORTAL

The Racing Foundation has awarded £64,240 and Kindred Group has contributed £20,000 in grants to Women in Racing, an organization working to improve the working lives of parents and caregivers in the horse racing industry. The funds will assist Phase Two of the Racing Home project for education and empowerment initiatives for all employers, employees, and self-employed workers within the racing industry.

The first phase facilitated the development of the Racing Home Portal, an online platform that provides the horse racing community information, advice and support about rights and entitlements regarding pregnancy, maternity, paternity, adoption, shared parental leave, flexible working, self-employment and statutory pay. Phase Two of the Racing Home project includes further development of the online portal. Input will be collected from stud and stable staff, as well as the corporate side of the industry to ensure the information is relevant in order to enhance the user experience.

"Supporting and retaining working parents and carers is a vital component in ensuring a sustainable workforce for British racing," Tansy Challis, Chief Executive of the Racing Foundation said. "The Racing Foundation is proud to fund Phase Two of the Racing Home project and looks forward to seeing the impact it makes while building on the success of the initial phase."

Due to the cancellation of the Gowran Park meeting on Saturday, the G3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies S., has been transferred to Fairyhouse on Monday, Sept. 18. The Group 3’s distance has been adjusted to one mile, one furlong and 20 yards, 80 yards shorter than formerly. In addition, the race reverts back to entries after final forfeits stages with fresh declarations to run to be made by 10 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 16.

WHAT’S IN A NAME? CAPULET, VAUX LE VICOMTE By Andrea Branchini

The name of brilliant 2yo Dundalk winner (and later G2-second) Capulet (Justify) gets one thinking, with the obvious connection to the famous tale of Romeo and Juliet. It also makes perfect sense that the dam is called Wedding Vow (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}): Shakespeare’s play is very much about the tragic conflict between two different matrimonial projects—the arranged marriage of Juliet with older man Count Paris versus the young girl’s unlikely and passionate love for her “only hate” Romeo Montague. Cont. p14

The play could very well be re-titled “Two Weddings and Five Funerals” (Mercutio, Tybalt and Paris also die). Now Juliet was a Capulet, and this equine Capulet is a colt, which may seem a bit counterintuitive, but “Capulet” is the exact character’s name for Juliet’s father in Shakespeare’s text. In any case, this column has a soft spot for the time-defying story of the two “star-crossed lovers” of Verona, owing its very title “What’s In A Name” to it. We will always cheer for this “big, beautiful horse with a good temperament”, so described by rider Seamus Hefferman.

4th-Dundalk, €15,000, Mdn, 8-15, 2yo, 8ft, 1:41.46, st. CAPULET (c, 2, Justify--Wedding Vow (Ire) (GSW-Ire & G1SP-Eng, $316,572), by Galileo (Ire)).

There are fascinating stories of grand palaces and chateaux hidden in the name of multiple-winning filly Vaux Le Vicomte (GB) (Lightning Spear (GB)). The Clairefontaine winner is out of Tuileries (GB) (Cape Cross (Ire)), namesake in real life to what is now known mostly as a wonderful public garden in the center of Paris, but that once was a royal palace with more historical memorable moments than any architectural wonder of the world --destroyed during the Paris Commune revolt of 1871. Vaux-Le-Vicomte, southeast of Paris, on the other hand, is still standing, but only just. This property was the manor marvel that provoked the jealousy of the Sun King Louis XIV towards the owner (and his Minister of Finances) Marquis Nicolas Fouquet (1615-1680), with the building of the magnificent Palace of Versailles being the ultimate consequence of it--according to legend and Alexandre Dumas, who placed the masterful climax of his Man In The Iron Mask narrative in the middle of a grand fete at the castle on 17 August 1661 in the novel “The Vicomte De Bragelonne” (1850) (a worthy sequel to “the Three Musketeers”, with aging D’Artagnan at his very best). Quite a lot to live up to for this brave young filly.

Dancing Gemini followed up a fifth in Ascot’s July 29 Listed Pat Eddery S. with a breakthrough success in an Aug. 19 Newbury maiden and routed eight rivals by daylight to register a career high here.

Bowling along in a handy sixth through the initial fractions and easing closer once past halfway, he powered to the front passing the quarter-mile marker and lengthened clear in spectacular fashion inside the final furlong to easily outclass Gushing Gold by a widening 4 1/4 lengths.

“We’ve held him in high regard all year, he did a piece of work last week that was breathtaking and I knew we had him in good shape heading into today,” revealed trainer Roger Teal. “We won this with Tip Two Win [in 2017] and I think he could possibly be as good. He’s got a similar profile because he’s got speed, with a good turn of foot and a good cruising gear. He’s in the big one [G1 Futurity Trophy] here at the end of the season, but we’ll play it by ear and see how he comes out of today. If all is well and the owner is happy, we might take a punt. If not, we’ll wait for next year when we’ll go for a trial before the Guineas.”

The victory was a career high for rider Lewis Edmunds, who said, “That was good, he was very impressive and it’s nice to sit on horses like that. I think he’s got no end of class and the sky’s the limit for him at the minute. That’s my biggest winner. I’ve won a sales race, but that was something special.” Cont. p17

The April-foaled bay is half to a yearling colt by Ghaïyyath (Ire) and a weanling filly by Sottsass (Fr). Sales history: 65,000gns Wlg ’21 TADEWE; 50,000gns RNA Ylg ’22 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $21,105. O-Pineapple Stud & Miss C Douglas; B-McCracken Farms (IRE); T-Richard Hannon.
Breaking through in black-type company with a win in the 14-furlong Listed Prix Michel Houyvet at Deauville in August, La Mehana had added the Listed Prix Pawneese to her tally over this trip at Chantilly in June. Off for two months prior to finishing two-lengths fifth behind the subsequent G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Melo Melo (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) in the 12 1/2-furlong G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville in August, the half-sister to the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Ocean Fantasy (Fr) (Make Believe {GB}) was able to defy a penalty in this tough contest to suggest she can go higher. In second from the outset, she subdued Mistral Star to take command a furlong out and stayed on strongly from there.

The dam, a half to the G2 Prix Chaudenay and G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuw winner Watar (Ire) (Marju {Ire}), is a granddaughter of the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Ocean Fantasy (Fr) (Make Believe {GB}). She was in turn responsible for the G1 Grand Prix de Paris-winning sire Grape Tree Road (GB) (Caerleon) and is the second dam of the triple group-winning stayer Stretarez (Fr) (Saumarez {GB}). Oceanie’s yearling filly is by Calyx (GB).
