ARE HORSES MORE LIKELY TO BREAK DOWN ON WET TRACKS? THE STATS SAY NO
by Bill Finley

Are wet tracks more dangerous than dry ones? According to statistics compiled by the Jockey Club, the answer is no. The TDN reached out to The Jockey Club and asked it to dig into the Equine Injury Database and provide us with statistics regarding breakdowns and various dirt track and turf course conditions. The study was conducted by Dr. Euan Bennet and Professor Tim Parkin and covered the years 2021 and 2022.

On the dirt, there were 419 fatalities on tracks listed as fast during those years from 308,954 starts. That comes out to 1.36 deaths per 1,000 starts. The numbers varied little on tracks listed as something other than fast.

ARE HORSES MORE LIKELY TO BREAK DOWN ON WET TRACKS? THE STATS SAY NO

by Jessica Martini

A colt by Twirling Candy broke clear of the pack when selling for $925,000 to Jim and Dana Bernhard’s Pin Oak Stud during an otherwise steadily consistent conclusion to the Book 4 section of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale Tuesday in Lexington.

Through both sessions of Book 4, Keeneland sold 606 yearlings for $46,078,000. The book average of $76,036 declined 5.0% from last year, while the median dipped 8.3% to $55,000.

During last year’s Book 4 section, 609 yearlings sold for $48,726,500. The section’s average was $80,011 and the median was $60,000. The book’s top price was $600,000, one of seven to sell for $400,000 or over during the two sessions. Just two hit that mark this year.

With just 55 horses reported not sold Tuesday, the session buy-back rate was 15.45%.

Paramount Sales, which sold the session topper, was the session’s leading consignor with 26 head sold for $2,529,000.

“We had a fantastic day,” said Paramount’s Pat Costello. “I think we only had three or four RNA’s, you can’t beat that. It’s a great sale, all in all, really. And it’s still coming on. I didn’t think it would be this strong, but it is.”

The Keeneland September sale continues through Saturday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m. Keeneland cont. p3

Keeneland Candy Grab for Pin Oak

A colt by Twirling Candy (hip 2555) was a clear standout Tuesday at Keeneland, attracting a host of admirers from around the grounds before selling for $925,000 to Jim and Dana Bernhard’s Pin Oak Stud. The operation has already enjoyed top-level success with a son of Twirling Candy’s sire, Candy Ride (Arg).

“He’s a big two-turn looking Twirling Candy with a standout physical,” the Bernhards’ advisor Matt Weinmann said of the yearling’s appeal. “We’ve had good luck with the Candy Ride line so far in Geaux Rocket Ride and we want to find 10 more just like him. This colt fits that bill and we’re thrilled to have him.”

Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride (Arg)) was one of the Bernhards’ first Thoroughbred purchases when they acquired the colt for $350,000 at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton July Sale. He won this year’s GI Haskell S. and was second in the GI Pacific Classic.

Bred by Alice Bramford and Highfield Investment Group, hip 2555 is out of Hiking (First Defence) and from the family of English highweight Logician, Group 1 winner Cityscape and Grade/Group 2 winners Didina (GB), Bated Breath and Equilateral. He was consigned by Paramount Sales.

“Our expectations were high for him,” said Paramount’s Pat Costello. “He was a nice individual. He passed everybody and most of the grounds were on him. We were delighted for the breeders and delighted Pin Oak got him.”

Of the colt’s final price tag, Costello said with a laugh, “That was on the upper side of our expectations, being honest.”

The $925,000 price tag was the most expensive horse sold during the eighth session of the Keeneland September Yearling Sale since 1999.

Cont. p4
Also Tuesday, Pin Oak purchased a colt by Oscar Performance (hip 2481) for $105,000. Through eight sessions, the operation has acquired 19 yearlings for $8,835,000.

Belladonna Stays Busy at Keeneland

Trainer Cherie DeVaux continued to add yearlings to the Belladonna Racing partnership into Book 4 at Keeneland, purchasing the top-priced filly of Tuesday’s session when going to $275,000 to acquire a daughter of Not This Time (hip 2631) from the Paramount Sales consignment.

“David [Ingordo] goes out and scouts at the farms,” DeVaux said. “And he had seen this filly out prior to the sale last month and marked her down as a horse to keep an eye on. He waited for her today.”

Also Tuesday, the partnership purchased a colt by Twirling Candy (hip 2159) from Warrendale Sales for $240,000 and a son of Collected (hip 2593) for $80,000.

“You hope it gets more reasonable,” DeVaux said of the market as the Keeneland sale moved into its second week. “But these days, the way the sales have been throughout the last two years, it’s been really strong throughout and you have to buy when there is a horse that you like that fits whatever your parameters are. If you try to wait to get more in the later books, it doesn’t necessarily translate.”

Through eight sessions, Belladonna has now purchased 18 yearlings for $4,917,000. Leading the way was a Quality Road half-brother to GI Pacific Classic winner Arabian Lion (Uncle Mo) (hip 41) acquired for $500,000 during last Monday’s opening session of the auction.

“We are just trying to get the best athlete with some pedigree for what we pay,” said DeVaux. “Some we knew we would have to stretch on, we know, but we were really just trying to stay where we evaluated them.”

Belladonna was represented last season by graded-stakes performers Coastana (Kitten’s Joy), third in the GII Fasig-Tipton Waya S. and the GII Flower Bowl S., and Bout Time (Not This Time), who won the Goldwood S.

“We started out with only getting fillies for the first four years just because that was less risk with having some residual value,” DeVaux said of the evolution of the partnership. “We introduced colts in the last couple of years buying predominately from the yearling sales instead of the 2-year-old sales. And it’s gotten a lot bigger. The first group had six and it had four the third year, it continues to evolve in the numbers and the budget.”

The sixth edition of the partnership will continue its shopping next spring.

“We still have some [of the budget] left for the 2-year-old sales,” DeVaux said. “The budget really isn’t that much different from last year, it’s just our average per horse is less this year than it was last year.”

The possibility that track conditions were a factor in breakdowns came into play in 2019 when 30 horses died at Santa Anita in what was an unusually wet period in Southern California. Since, 1/ST racing, which owns Santa Anita, has been cautious when it comes to inclement weather and has, on a number of occasions, canceled racing on days when there has been a lot of rain.

When it comes to turf racing, the numbers look similar. On courses listed as firm there were 91 fatalities from 81,434 starts. That comes out to 1.12 deaths per 1,000 starts, again, in line with all other course conditions. Below are the statistics covering course conditions in the grass:

“For the two years of data studied--2021 and 2022--there were no statistically significant differences in incidences of fatality found to be associated with track condition on either dirt or turf surfaces, Bennet and Parkin concluded.
STABLE RECOVERY LOOKING FOR ROOM TO GROW IN HORSE COUNTRY by Sue Finley

It's an achievement in itself to take something from idea to unqualified success in three years, putting aside the fact that the idea in question is changing hundreds of lives, reuniting families and restoring purpose to people. But Frank Taylor's Stable Recovery--a path back to life for recovering addicts--has done just that.

Stable Recovery, which Taylor started with the group's current Director of Addiction Recovery Christian Countzler, is at once halfway house and vocational rehab, providing a 12-step program, meaningful employment, and a new workforce source for the Thoroughbred industry.

But with a waiting list longer than he can count, Frank Taylor can't help but wonder, 'what if it could be even more?'

Right now, Stable Recovery and its partner, the Taylor Made School of Horsemanship, can rehabilitate 32 people at a time in a 90-day program where men live in one of two houses, do daily therapy and AA, and work at a horse farm. The program was profiled in Chris McGrath's They've Taught Me to be Human Again in the TDN in August. One home for 20 men is in the city of Lexington; another, on Taylor Made's property. The program is financed from fundraisers and private donations, around 50% of which have come from the Taylor family; Frank and his brothers Mark, Duncan and Ben. The ticket is about $600,000 per year.

And while Taylor used to imagine the program spreading to other parts of the country, he said he now realizes the opportunities and growth potential in Lexington before moving on to other cities, due to the sheer number of horse farms and the efficiency of having the program in one place.
A few years ago, Taylor, himself a recovering alcoholic, visited the DV8 Kitchen in Lexington, which operates a restaurant providing employment to men and women in the early stages of substance abuse recovery. Taylor said he was inspired by the atmosphere, quality of food and the obvious satisfaction of the employees.

He was inspired to start the Taylor Made School of Horsemanship in the same model, but didn't act on it, he said, until his son came to him and told him he was an alcoholic.

"It shocked me," said Taylor of his son's news. "I'm an alcoholic, too, and I drank way too much, but I was functioning. I didn't lose my wife or my family or our business, but I was definitely drinking too much. I had said I would quit drinking a thousand times, and then never did. But when that happened, I actually said I'm quitting and I just quit."

The Stable Recovery team at Taylor Made | Stable Recovery

They say that the best way to stay sober is to help other people stay sober, and Taylor decided he'd do that through TMSH. But it's a big leap of faith to invite a house full of addicts onto your farm, and into your business and your lives.

"There was naturally a lot of concern," said Taylor. "You're bringing in people with criminal backgrounds, people with addiction. What if a horse gets hurt? What if a person gets hurt? What if somebody ODs? All of these things were big concerns." Taylor acknowledged all of those issues to his brothers, but countered with another set of what-ifs.

"I said, 'What if we save somebody's life or reunite somebody's family or save somebody's son?' He asked them to let him try a three-month pilot program. He said if something went wrong, they'd just drop the whole idea.

"Three years later," he says, "nothing has gone wrong. We're three years down the road and now they're more comfortable with it. I think the industry knows about it now. And every day somebody's coming up and telling me, 'Hey, I've got a son, I've got a brother, I've got this person and that person that needs help,' and we're able to actually help them."

Rock bottom isn't just an expression, he said. The reality is that addicts need to reach a point of absolute zero to get the most out of the program.

"The more broken they are, the better," said Taylor. "In AA they talk about the gift of desperation, where they get so down, so out, a lot of people homeless, or in jail. You get so much pain in your life that you're willing to do something else. The way you qualify to get in the program is to have a real desire to do anything we tell you to do to get sober."

But of course, the need is greater than the capacity, which has led Taylor to dream. In a perfect world, he said he could see one new center opening per year on a different Kentucky Thoroughbred farm.

The days are rigidly structured, leaving little time for idol thought. They're up at 5 a.m., at a morning meditation and reading by 6 a.m., and are off to work at Taylor Made or another employment by 6:50, where they will work until 4 p.m. They maintain that schedule for five days a week.

Partners in the project now include Rood & Riddle and Spy Coast Farm, with Darley and WinStar ready to come board. In terms of his employment goals for the men, Taylor has high aspirations.

People outside of the industry are starting to hire the graduates. "We've sent several people to Clark Equipment, and they pay very well," he said. "We're not just trying to turn these guys into a bunch of grooms. There might be some of them where that's where they need to be, but there are a lot of these people who are highly talented who could do a lot of things. And we want to see them be upwardly mobile, not just stopping at a groom spot or a barn foreman spot. One of the things I'm very proud of is that in three years, we have developed three Taylor Made managers."

The program, he said, has changed their lives. "They all have their own houses, they have their own truck, they have insurance, they're making good wages, and they're a key, vital part of our operation. And having them in our management staff, they're empathetic, they understand these people's situation and they're better at mentoring them."

Stable Recovery has hired a grant writer to look for funding, and is holding the John Hall Golf Scramble fundraising event on October 9, but needs to step up the funding if it's going to expand its reach. Taylor says he's hopeful the Thoroughbred industry will realize the benefits of helping.
Those benefits include not only helping those in need and developing a much-needed new work force, but perhaps also a bit of positive PR at a time when the industry desperately needs it.

For a sport reeling from a year in which it has stumbled from tragedy to tragedy, it seems as if supporting and embracing an inspiring program with Thoroughbred racehorses an integral part of the solution would be a positive for which we’re desperate right now.

Despite recent events, said Taylor, “There are a lot of good things going on, and this is one of them. We’re helping a lot of people. And the thing about Stable Recovery is that we’ve got the secret sauce. When you throw the horse in the equation of somebody working the 12 steps, it’s like a whole different level. I can see it every day. These guys spend an hour with a horse and it’s like you couldn’t have hired the best therapist in the world to work with them and do any better.”

A BRERE JONES REMEMBRANCE: LETTER TO THE EDITOR BY DAN LIEBMAN

One of the first horsemen I met when hired to cover the Thoroughbred industry full time in 1984 was Brereton Jones, who with his wife, Libby, owned Airdrie Stud on Old Frankfort Pike.

As journalists, we must always keep a distance from those we cover, in order to remain neutral in our coverage. But when reporting and writing about a specific topic day in and day out, you can’t help but become friends with some of those you encounter.

Brere and I instantly became friends.

We had many on-the-record conversations, and, perhaps more importantly, many off-the-record as well. There are others with whom I cultivated similar relationships, but perhaps none whose ear I bent more when needing information or advice about a particular Thoroughbred industry topic.

When I heard a rumor he was considering a run for lieutenant governor, I phoned Brere and he told me, off the record, the rumor was true. I suggested he meet my late father, Herb, an attorney in Frankfort, Ky., who had worked in numerous Kentucky political campaigns, all the way back to Happy Chandler and his second term as Kentucky governor in the 1950s.

We met at the Frankfort Country Club and subsequently raised funds and courted voters for Brere’s elections as lieutenant governor in 1987 and governor in 1991.

I have many stories, but a couple come to mind after he passed away Sept. 18 at age 84.

I recommended he hire Larry Jones to train for him and together they won two Kentucky Oaks, with Proud Spell (2008) and Believe You Can (2012). He always thanked me for the suggestion, and I have lilies from the blankets won by both.

One time I was in New Orleans for an important day of races, and walking down Royal Street late morning, I noticed a man getting his shoes shined. No one knew it was the former governor of Kentucky, and we chatted as the shoeshine man never broke stride.

I asked him once about rising stud fees, and he launched into a soliloquy about the “free enterprise system,” one of his favorite topics. I got the same speech when I once broached the topic of limiting books of mares.

It pleases me Airdrie will continue under the direction of Brere and Libbie’s son, Bret, who had an excellent mentor and even better father.

I will miss our conversations, whether about horses and politics. And I will say, on the record, I will miss my friend.

HUTTER TO BE HONORED BY TURF WRITERS

Cindy Hutter, who continues her inspiring recovery from a severe brain injury sustained in a training accident in July 2022, has been named the 2023 winner of the Bill Mooney Award for displaying courage in the face of tremendous adversity by the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters.

Hutter started riding at a young age before going to work for trainer Bruce Miller after she turned 16. Hutter later worked for D. Wayne Lukas, galloping such stars as Winning Colors, Thunder Gulch, Open Mind and Flanders, and later for Todd Pletcher, working with more greats such as More Than Ready, Jersey Girl and Graeme Hall.

Hutter and her husband, trainer George Weaver, launched their own stable in 2002. With Hutter serving as assistant and lead exercise rider, the couple campaigned Grade I winners Lighthouse Bay and Vekoma.

Hutter suffered injuries July 3, 2022, when a filly she was galloping on Saratoga’s Oklahoma Training Track collapsed and died from an apparent heart attack. Unconscious for several weeks, Hutter continues to bounce back through rehabilitation and therapy all while making her presence felt at the barn even from a distance.

“We’re very honored to win this award,” Weaver said. “Cindy was tough beforehand, and we ended up finding out how much tougher she was after everything happened. We’re doing everything we can and she continues to improve. She’s still got a strong work ethic. She might come out to the barn once a week, once every couple weeks. She came out the other day, spent the whole morning with us. And, of course, there was no shortage of comments to do this, and to do that.”

Hutter was on hand this summer when her husband saddled Crimson Advocate to victory in the G2 Queen Mary at Royal Ascot, one of 10 stakes wins for the stable so far this year.

Hutter joins five prior Mooney winners—the award’s namesake who died after a long battle with cancer in 2017: horseman Kiaran McLaughlin, retired jockey Joy Scott, retired jockey and owner Rene Douglas and horsewoman Martine Bellocq. She will be honored along with the NTWAB’s other four award winners at the organization’s 63rd annual Awards Dinner at The Woolf Den by The Derby in Arcadia near Santa Anita Nov. 1.

CANTY TO RECEIVE LEADERSHIP AWARD

Pioneering horse racing television commentator Charlsie Cantey will be honored with the Jane Goldstein Exemplary Leadership Award at the second annual Horse Racing Women’s Summit, Sept. 27-29, at Santa Anita Park.

A native of North Carolina, Cantey started her career with race horses in New York after graduating from George Washington University in 1968. She worked with trainers Elliot Burch, Frank Whiteley, Jr., David Whiteley, and Sidney Watters, as well as Joe Cantey after their 1969 marriage.

She was persuaded by Frank Wright and Dave Johnson, co-hosts of the WOR-TV (New York) weekly racing show, to join them in 1975. Two years later, she made her network debut on CBS for the Travers S., alongside Wright and Jack Whitaker. During nine years with CBS, she originated interviews from horseback.

When ABC was contracted for Triple Crown coverage in 1986, Cantey was part of the talent team that included Jim McKay, Al Michaels, Whitaker, and Johnson. In 2001, the contract went to NBC, where she worked with Tom Hammond and others for the Triple Crown, as well as the Breeders’ Cup World Championships.

“I am honored, and beyond humbled, to receive the Jane Goldstein Leadership Award,” Cantey said. “To be recognized by Jane and the Horse Racing Women’s Summit is a stunning surprise, and I am so grateful to be remembered by this important collective force committed to advancing all facets of our mutual lifelong passion, Thoroughbred racing.

The award is named for ground-breaking turf publicist Jane Goldstein, who was recognized for the inaugural presentation last year.

CHAMPION SPRINTER AMAZOMBIE EUTHANIZED AT OLD FRIENDS

Eclipse Award winner and GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint champion Amazombie (Northern Afleet) was euthanized Sept. 18 at Old Friends in Georgetown after suffering a fractured ankle. The 16-year-old had lived at the retirement facility since 2014 thanks to his owners, trainer Bill Spawr and Thomas Sanford.

“Amazombie was a lot of fun,” Spawr said. “He was so much fun, you just can’t imagine. And, you know, he died doing what he loved to do—run! You guys [at Old Friends] did a great job. We appreciated that.”

Racing over four seasons, Amazombie amassed a career line of 29-12-5-6, $1,920,378. In addition to annexing the 2011 GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint, the California-bred bay won the 2011 GI Ancient Title S., 2012 GI Bing Crosby S. and the GII Potrero Grande S. twice. He also and won or placed in eight other stakes and was honored as champion sprinter in 2011.

“Amazombie died doing what he did best—running like the wind,” Michael Blowen, President and founder of Old Friends, said. “I like all of our retirees, I love just a handful, and we lost one of those when Amazombie outran his limitations, and I’m certain that I’m not the only one who is heartbroken.”

LIAM BENSON JOINS OLD COLONY INSURANCE

Liam Benson has joined Old Colony Insurance as part of its team of farm and equine agents.

Benson, who grew up doing everything from foaling mares to training horses of racing age on his family’s Ocala farm, attended the Equine Industry Program at the University of Louisville. He joined the stallion nominations team at Taylor Made Farm in 2017, while also managing his family’s boarding operation in Lexington.

“I’m looking forward to joining the team at Old Colony in a way that I can continue to be around horses, while not having to focus in on a single facet of the industry at all times. It’s great to be joining a team with such broad ranging experience,” Benson said.

“I’ve known Liam since he was at U of L and am thrilled to have him on the team,” said John David Christman, director of Old Colony’s Farm & Equine division. “His background on the family farm, the racetrack and at Taylor Made, position him for a successful career in the bloodstock insurance business. He understands and embraces the Old Colony standards of unparalleled customer service and 24/7 accessibility.”

RTIP SYMPOSIUM PANELS ANNOUNCED

The Race Track Industry Program at the University of Arizona has announced the line-up of panel sessions and workshops for its upcoming 49th annual Global Symposium on Racing, scheduled to take place from Dec. 4-6 at Loews Ventana Canyon.

“The broad cross-section of North American and international participants, representing all pari-mutuel racing breeds, makes the Global Symposium on Racing the largest industry-wide conference in the world,” said RTIP Chair Robert Hartman. “The panel discussions and workshops, along with networking functions, allow for unique knowledge sharing opportunities.”

The 2023 Symposium will include discussions on subjects like: HISA in 2024 and Beyond; Computer-Assisted Wagering—The Good, The Bad, and the Future; Land For Sale—How Will Race Track Closures Impact the Industry’s Long-Term Sustainability?; Embracing Change—Are We Ready to Adopt Category 1 Rules In the US?; Out of the Shadows—Shining a Spotlight on Mental Health and Emotional Wellness; From Data to Dollars—Understanding Horse Racing’s Economic Impact as Racing’s Future is Questioned; Legends of the Game—Racing’s Iconic Turf Writers; Updates & Path Forward—HISA’s Racetrack Safety and Anti-Doping & Medication Control Programs; TPA Mark Kaufman Workshop—Protocols and Communication Strategies for Equine and Jockey Injuries.

Scheduled workshops include: Track Surface Regulatory Requirements; 3rd Annual Racing Secretaries Summit; HISA Workshop for State Regulators and Stewards NTRA/NHC Workshop. For more information, visit RacingSymposium.com.

The Florida-bred bounced alertly from the widest alley in a field of nine and easily crossed and cleared his rivals to lead into the first corner. Galloping along comfortably through the middle stages while facing only token pressure, the gray colt snuck away a bit into the stretch and was never in any danger, scoring by 2 1/2 lengths. OWNERS OF BIG EVS REINVEST IN 190K LOPE DE VEGA FILLY AT TATTS IRE

The day one sale topper was by Ballylinch sire Lope De Vega.

By Brian Sheerin

Less than a week on from that scintillating display in the G2 Flying Childers S. at Doncaster, the connections of Big Evs (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) were reinvesting at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale on a Lope De Vega (Ire) filly for €190,000.

Fitting that it was a Blue Point half-sister, the Jessica Harrington-trained Bluedrum (Ire), who provided the page with a timely update when running out an ultra-impressive winner of a maiden at Naas last week.

She looks destined for black-type races and Conor Quirke, who purchased the Lope De Vega filly from The Castlebridge Consignment to be trained by Mick Appleby, has similar aspirations for his acquisition.

He said, "She was a standout for me and ultimately the half-sister got her over the line. This filly is lovely and was well-placed here—the breeders are good at their job. Today was not her cup final, she is going to keep improving, which I appreciate. She is a lovely filly and hard to fault. We like the sire, too, and it all made sense."

The day one top lot is out of Drumfad Bay (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), herself a dual winner who finished second in a Group 3 and won a Listed contest.

MARKET 'REALLY HOT' BUT KEENELAND LURE IS STRONG FOR EUROPEANS

In this time of back-to-back yearling sales, the logistics for bloodstock agents and trainers may be one of the biggest concerns, but one thing that appears not to be a worry is the strength of the market.

From America to Europe, the yearling season has started in bullish fashion. A proper staying pedigree is required to last to the end of Keeneland’s September Sale, which is now well into its second week, while at Fairyhouse, the Tattersalls Ireland September Sale is also in full swing. Plenty of breeze-up pinhookers have attempted the double, while some have remained in Kentucky in the hope of unearthing a bargain in the later books, no doubt mindful of the fact that Keeneland has generally been a happy hunting ground for a variety of buyers from the sector.

Too Darn Hot continues blazing spell with Fallen Angel's Moyglare Stud Stakes triumph

17:00, 10 September 2023

DARNATION IS TOO DARN GOOD IN THE MAY HILL

Darnation continues the great recent run for members of the first crop of the Duhallow Hill Stud stallion Too Darn Hot, when they gave a million and a half to land the Gr.1 May Hill Stakes at Doncaster yesterday.

Leading Freshman Sire by Group winners, TOO DARN HOT, bred & raised by Watership Down Stud. For that extra bit of backup and support while breeding and raising your trailblazers, Saracen are here to help.
Wednesday, September 20, 2023

The day’s leading purchaser Anthony Bromley of Highflyer Bloodstock struck early on behalf of owner Andrew Megson buying a filly by Ten Sovereigns, who is a half-sister to last year’s listed winner and Group 3-placed Lakota Seven.

DAUGHTER OF SIYARAFINA DEBUTS AT CHANTILLY

Siyandra (Ire) (Medaglia d’Oro), the first foal out of G1 Prix Saint Alary winner Siyarafina (Fr) will make her first career start Wednesday.

DARK ANGEL'S SON OF MAN WINS AT FIRST ASKING

The China Horse Club International’s homebred was off a step slow in the Yarmouth Novice but rallied strongly to win by 1 3/4 lengths.

RIBCHESTER FILLY VICTORIOUS AT YARMOUTH

The well-bred David Menuisiers trainee picked up her first career win in just her second career start in a Yarmouth maiden on Tuesday.
Quirke added, "She has residual value and is a half to a good Blue Point filly and she will be a broodmare in time. She will go to Mick Appleby. I have bought for RP for the last five years or so. We have danced all the big dances this year with Big Evs and we want to get back to it again next year."

It was breeze-up consignor Mickey Cleere who found Big Evs initially. He paid 50,000gn for the colt at the Tattersalls October Book 2 Sale before selling him through Quirke to his current connections who are enjoying the thrill of a lifetime.

Providing an update on the Breeders’ Cup bound speedster, Quirke concluded, "He bounced out as usual and I have booked my flights to America. Mick is great fun, the owners are good people and it has been a great journey so long may it continue."

- Mickey Cleere raised a few eyebrows by revealing in these pages over the weekend that he had not started buying for the upcoming breeze-up season despite the fact that there has been a number of major sales prior to Fairyhouse. Well, Cleere, who found Ballymount Boy (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) here last year, didn’t waste any time on getting in on the action. The first lot into the ring. Bang. An Arizona (Ire) colt consigned by Alice Fitzgerald goes the way of MC Thoroughbreds. Cleere may have his own approach to the sales but few can argue that it is not an effective one. He went on to land an Aradad (Ire) filly later in the day for €38,000.

- It didn’t take long for the day to produce a good pinhook. Lot 20 into the ring, a Teofilo (Ire) colt consigned by Castletown Quarry, was snapped up by Hubie de Burgh for €70,000. Not a bad result for connections who bought the colt out of the unraced Dubawi (Ire) mare Amazing Grace (Ire) for just 21,000gn at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale.

- The first horse to rock into six figures was lot 12, a Ten Sovereigns (Ire) filly from Glenvale Stud, snapped up by Anthony Bromley of Highflyer Bloodstock for €100,000. A half-sister to Lakota Seven (Ire) (Sioux Nation), a smart colt for Joseph O’Brien, the Ten Sovereigns filly was bought on behalf of Polly Pott’s owner Andrew Megson to be trained by Ed Dunlop. Speaking alongside Dunlop’s brother Harry, Bromley commented, "She has been bought for Andrew Megson, who is perhaps known more for his jumping string. Harry is helping the Megsons and this filly is going to his brother Ed Dunlop, who has a few for the couple to run on the Flat for some fun."

- It was yet another productive yearling sale for Bromley but he kept everyone guessing as to who he signed the €100,000 Mehmas colt on behalf of. Bred by Yeomanstown Stud, lot 141 was bought by Rochestown Lodge Stud for €40,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale before selling to Bromley on behalf of “an Irish breeze-up client”. Bromely said, "It is punchy, but I love the sire and this colt has a little more scope than some by Mehmas. He is very athletic. I believe this horse is a racehorse and so does my client. Let’s hope he is a weapon!"

Don't miss their yearlings selling at the upcoming sales
The only Wootton Bassett (GB) to go under the hammer on the day was always going to capture the imagination and it was BBA Ireland’s Mick Donohoe who bought the Norelands-drafted filly on behalf of a Middle Eastern client. Donohoe went to €82,000 to secure the filly, out of a winning Dalakhani (Ire) mare, who has also produced a winner. The top agent said, "She has been bought for a Middle Eastern-based client, who has been a lucky client of mine. She will stay in Ireland to be broken and will go on to be trained in Ireland, England or France. It is very busy here, there are lots of buyers and Tattersalls and Irish Thoroughbred Marketing have worked hard to get buyers here across all levels. There should be a good clearance rate today."

The clearance rate stood at 86%, down 5% on last year, but the aggregate, average and median was on the up for what was admittedly a bigger book [13 extra yearlings compared to in 2022]. The aggregate was up 3% to €6,729,500, the median up 13% to €30,000 and the average up 5% to €32,827.

Kameko Colt Heading To Norway At 115k

The progeny of Kameko have been in high demand at the yearling sales so far this year and a colt by the Tweenhills sire piqued interests at Fairyhouse when selling to Edgar Byrne for €115,000.

Byrne, who has had a lot of success buying horses to go abroad, notably 3,000gns horses-in-training purchase Kitty Marion (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), who went on to win a group 3 in Germany, was acting on behalf of Norway-based trainer Niels...
The trainer commented, "For Scandinavia, you tend to look for a well-balanced horse as our tracks are a little sharper and we don't have any straight courses. We have dirt and turf tracks and he might be one that could suit either surface. He fits what we are after."

Petersen added, "I have bought a lot here before, but not for some time. We chatted about coming here to see what we could find. We think this bracket suits our requirements–our prize-money is good and it is easier to win than in Ireland!"

The trainer may be a familiar face at Fairyhouse but for the JC Organisation, for whom the colt will race for, this represented the first time shopping this sale. Byrne hopes it won't be the last.

The result represented a standout pinhook for Clenagh Castle Stud. Bought for just 11,000gns at the Tattersalls December Sale, the Kameko colt brought home nearly six figures in profit before costs, and the outfit’s Adrian Costello said that sourcing one by the stallion was high up on his agenda for pinhooking. How right he was.

Costello said, "He was a gorgeous foal and has done well all the way through and this year Zoulu Chief (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) has come out and done well. I loved the idea of Kameko last year but it was hard to buy one!"

Poste Delivers With Three Yearlings For New Breeze-Up Project

Charlie Poste, the popular ex National Hunt jockey, made his first trip to this sale count by teaming up with top bloodstock agent Tom Biggs to secure three colts for a new breeze-up venture.

Retired from the saddle four years now, Poste has done well trading point-to-point horses in Britain, but the international appeal of the bloodstock market on the Flat convinced him to gather up a syndicate of 10 people to branch out into the breeze-up game.

Poste signed for a Calyx (GB) filly for $30,000, a Kodiac (GB) filly for $36,000 and a Churchill (Ire) colt for $25,000 on the opening day of the sale under the banner of Blandford Bloodstock and his own Station Yard.

He said, "This is a new venture for us and Tom Biggs of Blandford Bloodstock has been a huge help. We've put together a syndicate of 10 people and the plan is to buy five yearlings to breeze for next year. We went to Doncaster and to the Somerville and underbid plenty so it has been a bit of a frustrating start. But today has been great. We were guided by Tom to come here and we're delighted to have bought three."

Poste went on to explain that the fact much more credence is paid to point-to-point form in Ireland compared to Britain, where he is based, was another deciding factor in getting involved in training horses for the breeze-ups.

He said, "The breeze-ups is something we have been interested in and building towards for a while now. We started off with all of our own money and didn't have a big backer or anything like that. We needed to create a bit of cash flow with the National Hunt side of the business and, thankfully, there is a bit of that there now.

"We were just trying to look into something where there is a bit more of a global market because there is always going to be somewhat of a ceiling in selling British point-to-pointers rather than Irish point-to-pointers. There is no such bias in the breeze-ups if you turn up and do a good time and look the part so that was another reason for getting involved in this side of things. We have our own ideas about how we do things and are looking forward to seeing how things develop in year one."

Meet The Italian Buyer Who Spent Almost 200k On Day One

I'll be the first to put my hand up and admit that I knew next to nothing about Razza Latina, who popped up for five yearlings to the tune of almost €200,000 on the day.

That propelled Razza Latina, which is the bloodstock arm of Italian trainer Cristiana Brivio's business, the fourth busiest buyer on the day.

Brivio trains alongside her husband Endo Botti in Tuscany and her colours are said to be quite recognisable in her home country. She has developed a strong list of clients back home and described herself as happy with the quality that she was able to secure at Tattersalls Ireland.
"I am a trainer with my husband but I buy as an agent as well," she explained. "We train together and they run in my colours. The trade has been very strong here but I think the quality of the horses has also improved in recent years. Yes, it is a strong market, but there is value here."

Brivio has reason to be happy about shopping in Ireland. It was her €23,000 Goffs Autumn yearling purchase Goldenas (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}), picked up from Blackberry Road Stud, who landed this year’s Italian Derby in Rome.

Brivio said, "I have been very lucky in Ireland. I bought the Italian Derby winner Goldenas here and Ireland has been very good for me. I have always been very lucky here and have bought many winners. I am thankful to my clients for giving me the opportunity to come back. I will be at Goffs next week as well and we just try to buy a nice horse, nothing in particular—a nice racey horse."

Buy of the Day

It was Edmond Ryan of Weir View Stud who supplied Native American (Ire) (Sioux Nation), winner of the €300,000 Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction, at this sale last year. And who’s to say the top consignor hasn’t unearthed another gem in lot 114, a Make Believe (GB) colt knocked down to Luke Lillingston for €70,000. Bought for just 13,000gns by Ryan at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, the Make Believe clearly turned into a belter of a yearling and wasn’t missed at Fairyhouse, with many of the top buyers turning up for him in the ring. Out of a High Chaparral (Ire) mare who won three times and has produced two winners, including the first and only winner for Waldgeist (GB) in Britain to date, the Make Believe is a colt to look forward to in the second half of next year and beyond. He is off to Andrew Balding, who was standing alongside Lillingston when the hammer fell.

So far, Willie Browne, Tom Whitehead, Brendan Holland, Eddie O'Leary, Roger O'Callaghan, Katie Walsh, Roderick Kavanagh, Jim McIRTan, Jerry Horan, and Matt Whyte are among the Irish breeze-up pinhookers to have appeared on the buyers' sheets at Keeneland, as well as Mick Murphy of Longways Stables, who was working in tandem with agent Ted Durcan.

"I was intending to stay to the end of Book 4 but we got wrapped up a little bit earlier so I came home sooner," said Durcan after arriving back to Newmarket before packing his bags again for Ireland and next week's Orby Sale at Goffs.

"I thought it was an extremely healthy market. It looked healthy at all levels and any nice horse was not being missed at all, which you'd expect, and that's worldwide now," he added of trade at Keeneland.

"I helped Mick last year and he bought seven. This year he bought four nice horses, all to go breezing. Three colts by Quality Road ($150,000), American Pharoah ($225,000) and Speightstown ($90,000), and then he bought a very nice Blame filly ($85,000) as well."

Last week it was announced that the Goffs Dubai Breeze-up Sale, which is held in conjunction with Dubai Racing Club just ahead of the World Cup meeting at Meydan, was being paused as it coincides with Ramadan in 2024. Introduced two years ago, it is a sale which has been populated predominantly by Irish pinhookers selling American-bred juveniles.

Durcan continued, "There were a lot of people out there looking at horses with that sale in mind, but in fairness to everyone involved, the announcement came before any horses had been bought. It altered out numbers a bit. We ended up buying four but I think Mick and Sarah [O'Connell] would have ended up buying a few more for that sale, but we just scaled back."
Durcan also teamed up with an old colleague from his days of riding for Sir Henry Cecil, the Kentucky-based Irishman David Lanigan, to buy a yearling for $750,000 for owner Scott Heider. They struck early on the opening day at Keeneland for lot 31, a filly by Nyquist whose half-brother Conclude (Collected) won the GII Del Mar Derby just ahead of the start of the sale.

"David does a lot of work for Scott and he asked me to help him just because trying to have everything viewed on your own is not easy," Durcan said.

"There’s such a huge amount of horses that you can find value out there. It’s not easy and it’s hard work, but there definitely is value out there with the volume of horses being offered. The sale is run extremely well. Tony Lacy and his team run a very slick operation."

Durcan expects to see plenty of reverse track, with American buyers likely to be out in force at the forthcoming sales at Goffs and Tattersalls over the next few weeks.

He said, "In recent years there’s been a big appetite for people in America looking for horses from over here, especially fillies to race on the grass. You only have to look at last week and the meeting at Kentucky Downs on turf. The money on offer there was absolutely phenomenal."

He continued, "It’s a hectic few months and the sales just roll from one to the other. But it’s nice to see that, from the older horses in the July Sale, then onto the first yearling sale in France, the market just looks very healthy at all levels. With the amount of horses being sold to Australia, and the expansion in the Middle East, there is a huge demand for older horses as well as yearlings.

"I haven’t been to a sale yet where I think the market is softening. If anything it’s the opposite."

Nancy Sexton has long been a regular at the Keeneland September Sale in her role as the European representative for the Kentucky-based Schumer Bloodstock agency. Along with Chad Schumer, Sexton has worked closely with a number of breeze-up pinhookers in that time and she says that the participation from Europeans buyers is as high as ever, with the news about the absence of the Dubai breeze-up failing to dent enthusiasm.

"The news that Goffs wasn't going to go ahead broke just as Book 2 was starting and that didn’t affect them at all because the market to sell to places like Saudi Arabia, Dubai, is so big now and you are looking for more of a dirt-bred horse for that. I didn’t see anybody pull back on investment. Looking at what’s coming home [to Ireland and Britain], I’d say numbers are on a par," she said.

"A lot of people began in Book 1, but there seem to be more people here this year working the later books, having arrived in during Book 3 and working through to the end of Book 6."

Sexton added, "We've seen how well these dirt horses do at the European breeze-ups if they hit, and that's translating to the activity here. I also saw quite a few more trainers this year that I haven't seen here before, like Ralph Beckett and Richard Hughes.

"[The buying] is not just restricted to yearlings by the likes of Speightstown either; Roderick Kavanagh had a good result with Catalina Cruiser last year and Tom Whitehead with a World Of Trouble, and he gave $310,000 for a Maclean’s Music colt this time. They're spending plenty and the horses are hard to buy. The market is really hot."
“The IFHA and the ICHSWJ Steering Group are looking forward to the return of this important conference,” ICHSWJ Chairman Darragh O’Loughlin said. “Improving jockey health, safety, and welfare is vital for our sport. Themes we will explore at this year’s conference include concussions, spinal injuries, and mental health. Following each presentation, we will also have a question-and-answer session as we all strive to expand our understanding of these topics.”

For those interested in attending the ICHSWJ in person, priority will be given to delegates who are members of the IFHA. Individuals outside of the IFHA’s membership are encouraged to submit their request as soon as possible as space is extremely limited. A free live video stream of the ICHSWJ conference will be available, and those attending remotely are strongly encouraged to register in advance.

The conference will begin at approximately 9:00 CEST (GMT+1).

DUBAI RACING CARNIVAL TO OFFER FREE STABLING TO OVERSEAS RUNNERS

Stabling for runners in the International Quarantine Stables traveling from overseas for the upcoming season of the Dubai Racing Carnival will be free, the Dubai Racing Club announced. The season kicks off Friday, Nov. 10, with the first of 14 meetings at Meydan Racecourse.

Further incentives, including travel, will be decided by a special committee on a horse-by-horse basis. Stable staff staying in the quarantine facilities can do so for a fee of AED1000 per month (US$272).

The incentives are in addition to the new Dubai World Cup Bonus Race Scheme—nine races guaranteeing starting places at the Dubai World Cup meeting, with bonuses of more than $4-million. The bonus, 10% of the prize-money for the corresponding race on the Dubai World Cup card, will be paid if the horse wins both races.

“We’re really excited about our new-look season. The new programme is aimed at encouraging owners and trainers to base their horses here throughout the winter, allowing them to make use of our five star facilities and wonderful climate,” said Major General Dr. Mohammed Essa Al Adhab, Executive Director of Dubai Racing Club.

The Dubai Racing Carnival precedes the $30.5 million Dubai World Cup meeting, which takes place Saturday, Mar. 3, 2024.

DAUGHTER OF SIYARAFINA DEBUTS IN FASCINATING CHANTILLY AFFAIR

12.50 Chantilly, Debutantes, €50,000, 2yo, f, 8fT
SIYANDRA (IRE) (Medaglia D'Oro) is the first foal out of The Aga Khan's G1 Prix Saint Alary winner Siyarafina (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}), who was out of a listed-winning and dual group-placed half-sister to the owner-bred's sire sensation Siyouni (Fr) and the G1 Sun Chariot S. and GI E. P. Taylor S. heroine Siyouna (Ire) (Medicean {GB}). Francis-Henri Graffard has charge of the March-foaled homebred, whose peers include Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard's Million Miles Away (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), a Pascal Bary-trained daughter of the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Channel (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) bought for €400,000 at last year’s Arqana Deauville August; and a Wertheimer pair in the Christophe Ferland-trained Aventure (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), a half to the G1 Prix Vermeille winner Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), and the Andre Fabre-trained Solite (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a daughter of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud scorer Plumania (GB) (Anabaa) and a full-sister to the G2 Prix du Muguet winner Plumatic (GB).

15.05 Sandown, Novice, £12,000, 2yo, 7fT
DUKE'S COMMAND (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) cost Godolphin 1.6million gns at last year’s Tatts Book 1, with his dam being a daughter of the revered Lillie Langtry (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and therefore a full-sister to the Classic heroines Minding (Ire), Tuesday (Ire) and Empress Josephine (Ire). Connections will be buoyed by the fact that Minding’s Dubawi colt Henry Longfellow (Ire) placed himself in the elite of his generation in the recent G1 Vincent O’Brien National S. and Charlie Appleby opts for a track that he often sends his better juveniles to.

14.30 Sandown, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, 8fT
DAMBUSTER (GB) (Kingman {GB}) was a 750,000gns buy-back by his breeder Chasemore Farm at Tatts Book 1 and is now one of Andrew Balding’s Kingsclere stable as he prepares for his debut. A full-brother to the G3 Prestige S. winner Boomer (GB), the relative of The Cheka (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) meets a rare Shadwell runner for the Harry Eustace stable in Muttaasil (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), a colt from the immediate family of Tamayuz (GB).
Showcasing

19.00 Newcastle, Novice, £6,600, 2yo, f, 6fT

Leveret (Ire) (Invincible Army (Ire)) may have had the pedigree, being a half-sister to the recent GI Beverly D S. heroine Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan (Ire)), but was not expected to make waves on this debut at 33-1. Belying those odds despite a tardy break, the Manister House Stud homebred finished off strongly to be runner-up which augurs well for her future.

Also Ran: Kingswood (GB), Any Dream Will Do (Ire), Keep In Touch (Ire), Fleetfoot (Ire), Blues Emperor (Ire), Fizzical (Ire). Scratched: Adelaise (Ire), Alanya (Fr), Carracci, Snowcapped (Ire), Vega Magnifico (Ire).

Stepping up markedly on her past form, Maud Gonne Spirit put a series of disappointing efforts behind her to conjure a surprise black-type win on the easy ground she relishes. Moving up in trip here, the five-times winner whose previous best came in a seven-furlong Gowran Park conditions race last September came into her own as stamina was called upon, finishing with a surge from mid-pack to collar Miramis close home.

The dam, whose daughter of Zarak (Fr) sells next week in the Goffs Orby Book 1, is a half to the listed performers Brindisi (GB) (Dr Fong) and La Spezia (Ire) (Danehill Dancer (Ire)) who produced the listed scorer Livia's Dream (Ire) (Teofilo (Ire)) and G2 Doncaster Cup winner Thomas Hobson (GB) (Halling) respectively. Boasting a connection to the G1 Oaks heroine Talent (GB) (New Approach (Ire)), she also has a colt foal by Space Blues (Ire).

5th-Listowel, €30,000, Cond, 9-19, 2yo, 8fT, 1:47.69, sf.

NOR TIME NOR TIDE (IRE) (c, 2, Ten Sovereigns {IRE}--On Ice {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), who was impressive in a Killarney nursery last month, was allowed to stride past Old Faithful (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) after the first two furlongs. Always in control thereafter, the 9-4 second favourite was pushed out to beat that rival by 2 1/2 lengths. “We jumped from the gates, we went good and even and he stayed at it well,” jockey Conor Stone-Walsh said. “He was good and brave, I had won on him in Killarney and he stays going very well. He won’t quicken much, but stays galloping.” The winner is the second foal out of the dam, whose half-sister to the G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Kingsbarns (Ire) and a full-sister to the GII Senorita S. winner Sweeter Still (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)), who was in turn responsible for the G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Futurity Trophy hero Kameko (Kitten’s Joy). Also kin to the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. scorer Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}), she also has a yearling filly by Wootton Bassett (GB) and a foal full-sister to the winner.

5th-Listowel, €30,000, Cond, 9-19, 2yo, 8fT, 1:47.69, sf. NOR TIME NOR TIDE (IRE) (c, 2, Ten Sovereigns {IRE}--On Ice {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), who was impressive in a Killarney nursery last month, was allowed to stride past Old Faithful (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) after the first two furlongs. Always in control thereafter, the 9-4 second favourite was pushed out to beat that rival by 2 1/2 lengths. “We jumped from the gates, we went good and even and he stayed at it well,” jockey Conor Stone-Walsh said. “He was good and brave, I had won on him in Killarney and he stays going very well. He won’t quicken much, but stays galloping.” The winner is the second foal out of the dam, whose half-sister to the G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Kingsbarns (Ire) and a full-sister to the GII Senorita S. winner Sweeter Still (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire)), who was in turn responsible for the G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Futurity Trophy hero Kameko (Kitten’s Joy). Also kin to the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. scorer Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}), she also has a yearling filly by Wootton Bassett (GB) and a foal full-sister to the winner.

Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $34,705.

O-Mrs A M O’Brien & Mrs John Magnier & Michael Tabor; B-Mrs Ann Marie O’Brien (IRE); T-Joseph O’Brien.
“His first run was a good run, he got no rub of the green at the Curragh and on his last run he seemed to run into one,” said rider Gavin Ryan. “All his runs have been with plenty credit, but this is a tough place to come in these [testing] conditions. He has had to do all the hard work in front, which leaves you vulnerable, but it is a sharp track and he was good and tough. Most of the Niarchos family’s horses are versatile ground-wise, the come from good pedigrees and when you ride horses like him they’ll handle anything.” Starliner is the latest of six foals and third scorer produced by a winning half-sister to MG1SW sire Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) and the stakes-winning duo Sunday Sunrise (Lemon Drop Kid) and Bottega (Mineshaft). The March-foaled homebred bay’s second dam Sun Is Up (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) is a half-sister to G1 Thekwini S. victrix Ameanee (Aus) (Pivotal {GB}) and a granddaughter of storied champion Miesque (Nureyev). Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-2, $15,968.

SON OF MAN (IRE) {g, 2, Dark Angel {IRE}--Crisolles {Fr} (MGSP-Fr, $200,851), by Le Havre {IRE}} was tardy at the break and raced off the pace, with just one rival in arrears, through the initial fractions of this first go. Pushed along to close approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 9-1 chance went sixth entering the final furlong and sprouted wings with 100 yards remaining en route to an ultimately snug 1 3/4-length defeat of Fine Interview (Fr) (Havana Grey {GB}). Son Of Man is the latest of three foals, all winners, produced by G2 Prix de la Nonette runner-up and G3 Prix Vanteaux third Crisolles (Fr) (Le Havre {IRE}), herself a full-sister to stakes-winning G2 Prix de Royallieu and G3 Prix Minerve third Sotteville (Fr). CROSS THE TRACKS (GB) {c, 2, Rajasinghe {IRE}--Local Fancy {GB}, by Bahamian Bounty {GB}}, tanked along under a firm hold and was positioned in a handy second for most of this debut. Inching ahead with a quarter-mile remaining, the 25-1 chance locked horns with Manhattan Mirage (IRE) (Inns Of Court {IRE}) passing the furlong pole and was driven out to deny that rival by a half-length after a nip-and-tuck tussle. Cross The Tracks is the latest of 11 foals and ninth scorer produced by a winning granddaughter of G3 Criterion S. runner-up Local Lass (IRE) (Local Suitor), herself a half-sister to G3 Hungerford S. victrix Abuzz (IRE) (Absalom {GB}). Local Lass is also kin to the dam of European champion juvenile and dual Group 1-winning sire Revoie (IRE) (Fairy King) and Prix Eugene Adam victor and G1 Prix Jean Prat runner-up King Of Tara (IRE) (Fairy King). ASHARIBA (FR) {f, 2, Ribchester {IRE}--Ashaaqah {IRE}, by Dansili {GB}}, seventh on debut over a mile at Goodwood last month, was held up in last early after a tardy start. Cajoled into contention approaching the furlong pole, the 5-1 shot overhauled Prometeo (GB) [Postponed {IRE}] in the final 50 yards en route to a cosy neck success. The winner is currently the last known foal out of the dam, whose son Admiral De Vega (GB) (Lope De Vega {IRE}) was successful in the Listed Stockholms Stora Pris and who also produced the Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie winner Zeeyara (IRE) (Nathaniel {IRE}).
The second dam is Shadwell’s Listed Prix Charles Laffitte scorer Kareemah (Ire) (Peintre Celebre), a half to the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Turf and GI Flower Bowl Invitational-winning champion Lahudood (GB) (Singspiel [Ire]) related to the brilliant Baaeed (GB) (Sea The Stars [Ire]) and his King George-winning full-brother Hukum (Ire). VAUBON ASSIGNED 55KG FOR MELBOURNE CUP

The weights for the 133 horses still in the running for the Nov. 7 G1 Lexus Melbourne Cup were released Tuesday and early 4-1 favourite VAUBAN (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) was assigned 55kg, 3.5kg below highweight and 2022 Melbourne Cup winner Gold Trip (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}). The Willie Mullins-trained 5-year-old former hurdler, who won the G3 Ballyroan S. at Naas last month after taking the Listed Copper Horse H. at Royal Ascot in his first flat attempt in June, sits sixteenth on the weights list. Vauban’s stablemate and Ballyroan runner-up Absurde (Fr) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was handed a 53kg impost after capturing the Ebor H. at York on Aug. 26. Gold Trip, who could become just the sixth horse to win consecutive Melbourne Cups, also seeks to become the first horse to successfully tote the top weight of 58.5kg since Think Big in 1975. “The announcement of the weights for the 2023 Lexus Melbourne Cup is always a pivotal date for connections who are plotting a path towards the first Tuesday in November which is only 49 days away,” VRC Executive General Manager of Racing Leigh Jordon said. “Gold Trip was impressive in winning the Lexus Melbourne Cup last year carrying 57.5kg and he will be required to be at his best again to go back-to-back carrying 58.5kg.

“Win and you’re in races become important targets for horses hoping to secure their spot, the next chance for horses to gain ballot exemption is through the Group 3 Lexus Bart Cummings on TAB Turnbull Stakes Day at Flemington [Oct. 7].”

Their Majesties King Charles III and Queen Camilla’s Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who is trained by William Haggas, will carry 51.5kg and is 20th in the order of entry for this year’s Cup.

Just Fine (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who was formerly owned by King Charles III and is now in the care of Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Gai Waterhouse AO, was assigned 52.5kg after his two-length win in the Kingstown Town S. in his Australian debut last week and will need to pass the ballot to gain a start.

Trainers Ciaron Maher and David Eustace hold sixteen other nominations in this year’s race, including last year’s third-place runner High Emocean (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}), who was assigned 50kg. Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Chris Waller holds 14 nominations in this year’s Cup, headlined by Soulcombe (GB) (Frankel {GB}) (53.5kg) and Francesco Guardi (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) (54kg).
