RICE HIT WITH BUTE FINE, SUSPENSION; LODGES APPEAL JUST BEFORE NYSGC TO RULE ON 'IMPROPER PRACTICES'

by T.D. Thornton

Trainer Linda Rice has been suspended 14 days and fined $2,000 by the New York State Gaming Commission after a filly under her care returned a positive test for the non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug phenylbutazone following a 9 1/2-length win as the 4-5 favorite at Aqueduct Racetrack more than eight months ago.

Rice has appealed the Sept. 28 ruling, so she has been granted a stay of those penalties pending a final resolution.

The NYSGC also made it public on Friday that Rice will be appearing before the commission for a separate matter when the board conducts its monthly meeting this coming Tuesday.

Rice’s name appears on the just-released agenda for the Oct. 3 meeting for an adjudication of her “improper practices” case that has persisted at the commission level and in the New York courts for more than two years.

In 2021, the NYSGC fined Rice $50,000 and revoked her license for three years after investigating claims that Rice received favorable treatment from the New York Racing Association and that the racing office was releasing to her the names and past performances of horses that had already been entered in races, giving her an unfair advantage. Each race--particularly a Breeders’ Cup win--is special to the connections of the winner, but some races stand out more than others in all who are lucky enough to witness them. Some get embedded in the mind and take up permanent residence there. Just about everyone in racing can recall in vivid detail Araiž’s scintillating 1991 Juvenile or Personal Ensign’s electrifying 1988 Distaff or Tiznow’s gripping 2001 Classic. Each of those are among the transcendent performances in our sport that stir the soul, both for those who witnessed them in person or live on television and even in newer racing devotees who discover them for the first time. Songbird with her 2023 Curlin filly at Gainesway. | Sarah K. Andrew Without a doubt, the 2016 GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff ranks among the best races in Breeders’ Cup history. Two already-beloved Breeders’ Cup winners and future Hall of Famers locked horns in what would prove a race for the ages, only to finish millimeters apart at the wire.

To jog the memory, that year’s Distaff was the last Breeders’ Cup race on Friday’s card at Santa Anita and the final race of Beholder’s stellar career. The Spendthrift colorbearer was already a three-time Eclipse champion, a 10-time Grade I winner, and a dual Breeders’ Cup winner. However, after three straight runner-up finishes and certainly in the twilight of her career at the age of six, there were whispers that perhaps the great mare’s best days were behind her.

“I was really nervous about it going in because I wasn’t quite sure she was the same Beholder as a 6-year-old as she had been her 5-year-old year,” said Ned Toffey, general manager at Spendthrift. “I remember the next day wondering why my hands were sore and it was because I was pounding on the box, pounding on the wall as they were coming down the stretch, cheering her home.”

For her part, the Fox Hill-owned Songbird was no slouch either as an undefeated 3-year-old filly. Her previous 11 starts—and wins—included seven Grade I victories and the last year’s Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, as well as an Eclipse championship of her own. The question facing her was how she would handle older mares for the first time, especially one as tough as Beholder.

“With her first Breeders’ Cup, I don’t think we’ve ever had a horse we were as confident in,” said Victoria Keith, Fox Hill Farm’s vice president at the time. “You get really, really spoiled by a horse of her caliber. With [Fox Hill’s] Havre de Grace and Hard Spun, you knew they were going to give a good effort, but with Songbird, you got the idea she was invincible.” Cont.

“This race was the toughest competition. When you’re going to be meeting up with Beholder...” Keith trailed off. “I always feel when two great horses meet each other, the [older horse] is going to have the physical advantage even with a weight allowance. The fact that Songbird ran so well was something to be so proud of.”

It was exactly the type of showdown we all crave and that so rarely comes to fruition. Both were clearly at their best that day. Of course, there were a number of other top fillies and mares in that year’s Distaff, but they were all running for third.

In a stretch run reminiscent of Sunday Silence and Easy Goer in the 1989 Preakness or Affirmed and Alydar in the 1978 Belmont, Songbird and Beholder exited that final bend together and threw it all down. Nose to nose for stride after pulsating stride, neither deserved to lose.

“We had a bad angle on the wire and it looked to me like Songbird had gotten her nose down on the wire,” said Toffey. “It was a great race. Two champions, two gutsy, courageous mares. Those are the kind we’re all looking for.”

Keith had the same thoughts. “We all stood there and thought Songbird had won. From our angle it certainly looked like she’d nased out Beholder. We were so proud to be part of that race, one that is considered to be one of the best Breeders’ Cup races ever.”

In the end, the photo showed Beholder’s nostrils just a hair breadth in front at the wire, but the bob could just as easily have gone to Songbird. Both had given their best, neither had disappointed, and the two have been inextricably linked since.

“We were waiting for [the photo] and when it came down, I remember the look on [Fox Hill owner] Rick [Porter]’s face,” said Keith. “At first, we were so disappointed, so sure it was us, and then so proud that the disappointment didn’t last long.”

The Spendthrift team had the opposite experience, initially believing they’d lost the photo and then realizing they’d won the epic battle.

“Our group was ecstatic. Just jubilation,” said Toffey. “We all knew going in that it was going to be Beholder’s last start.”
“At six, it was time to be retired and be bred,” continued Toffey. “It was funny because there wasn’t a sense of pressure because she’d had such a remarkable career already, having won a Grade I at two, three, four, five, and six. It was, in some ways, an unprecedented career.

“Songbird was a worthy adversary and she certainly didn’t disappoint. It was a really, really fitting way for Beholder to wrap up one of the greatest careers we’ve seen, a great and fitting way to cap her career.”

Both Beholder and Songbird earned year-end championships in their respective divisions. Beholder became only the second horse in history to win three Breeders’ Cup races.

Despite officially losing what would become a match race, Songbird inspired enduring respect and a legion of hashtags on social media claiming #SongbirdWon.

Both owners of the two champions have since passed away: Fox Hill’s Rick Porter in June, 2021 and Spendthrift’s B. Wayne Hughes two months later.

“Probably one of my favorite memories is that Rick and Mr. Hughes became friends,” reminisced Keith. “One time [Hughes] invited us to his house to show us his guest bathroom downstairs with custom wallpaper of Songbird and Beholder.”
“Obviously for him to do something like that showed how equally proud he was. Those two gentlemen were two of the finer men in racing. Both were so proud to be part of that race and those two fillies. That's what is so special about it to me.”

Both mares have continued to make headlines. Beholder was retired after the Distaff to Spendthrift Farm.

“It was huge for us to bring her home,” said Toffey. “There are obviously plenty of nice mares on the farm, plenty of nice horses, but when you have a horse like that get off the van, there’s a little added sense of pressure to the task of getting her let down safely and settled into farm life, plus to go on and get her bred, all those things.

 “[Trainer Richard] Mandella did such a great job taking care of her at the track. It was very gratifying for her to come home and to hope she was going to come in and have a good, long career. A horse like that sort of picks everybody’s head up on the farm. There’s a sense of pride, something really special about it, how it lifts everyone’s morale.”

Each foal has been eagerly anticipated, with the farm willingly sharing updates with the public. Beholder’s first two foals did not live up to her lofty standards at the track, but her next three have each made headlines in 2023. There is a sense that she is just getting started as a producer despite a slower start.

Her first foal, Q.B.One (Uncle Mo), did not win at the racetrack. He is now a 5-year-old and has been gelded.

“He is a young lady’s show horse,” said Toffey. “He has a great, great home, goes to horse shows regularly. He was not an easy horse. If he had almost any other pedigree, he would have been gelded sooner as he was a little bit of a rogue. He had a hard time concentrating on doing his job, so it was hard to get an assessment of his talent level, but he didn’t show a lot of focus.”
Karin With an I (Curlin), Beholder’s 4-year-old, was unplaced in two starts.

“She is back here at Spendthrift,” said Toffey. “She's a beautiful filly, very strong, marked sort of similarly to Beholder. For whatever reason, she didn’t demonstrate a lot of talent. She is in foal to [Spendthrift’s Kentucky Derby and Breeders’ Cup Classic winner] Authentic.

“The mating was always interesting. We were waiting to do it for a generation or so because there’s some thought of inbreeding to superior females. The foal will be 3x3 to Leslie’s Lady. We’re excited about the potential there.”

Leslie’s Lady, of course, was the Broodmare of the Year who produced both Beholder and Into Mischief, Spendthrift’s record-breaking four-time leading sire.

Beholder’s current 3-year-old filly, Teena Ella (War Front), became her first winner in February and then went one better by capturing the GIII Senorita S. in May. Toffey said she is the least impressive physically of Beholder’s foals to date, as she is “somewhat short and compact, but definitely had a little bit of zip to her.” He said she was just starting to come into her own, but had some niggling issues and will be retired and bred this coming year.

A graded winner is a wonderful accomplishment for any broodmare, but Beholder is not just any mare. In hindsight, she was just warming up with Teena Ella. Her 2-year-old filly has since become the undefeated ‘TDN Rising Star’ and facile GI Del Mar Debutante S. winner Tamara (Bolt d’Oro), who has given flashbacks of her brilliant dam. Tamara is targeting the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies, which Beholder won 11 years ago. And then, of course, there’s Beholder’s yearling colt by Curlin, who topped August’s Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale when realizing $4 million from agent Donato Lanni on behalf of Zedan Racing.
Beholder was barren to the cover of Gun Runner this year. She is in foal to Jackie's Warrior for 2024.

“There was a time when Mr. Hughes thought about selling Beholder,” said Toffey. “It was early in her career, but she developed a fever which kept us from shipping her to Fasig-Tipton. That may have been some of the best luck we've ever had. Mr. Hughes had a saying, 'This is the damnedest business, because at the time when you have luck, you don't even know for a couple of years whether it's good luck or bad luck.' How fortunate that led us to keep her. After her win [over males in the 2015 GI] Pacific Classic, there was no selling her. Some of the best luck.

“There is something really special about Beholder,” continued Toffey. “She's only a little bit bigger than average. She's a good, strong filly, not huge, but now on the farm she's grown and developed and is that much bigger. She has a tremendous presence about her that you would get a sense of even if you didn't know who she was. She sort of knows that she's special. There's a presence and a substance to her that really strands out.”

Songbird had a slightly different journey than her biggest rival after the 2016 Distaff. She briefly raced the next summer, adding two more Grade I wins to her extensive CV, then topped Fasig-Tipton's November Sale as a $9.5-million broodmare prospect when Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm LLC won the bidding war.

“While it was hard [to say goodbye to Songbird], Rick was never really into breeding,” said Keith. “He had tried his hand at it a little bit earlier and thought about buying a farm in Lexington, but it didn’t pan out and he didn’t really want to board them elsewhere. Rick loved the horses but was also very disciplined. For him that meant there was a certain amount of money he'd spend at auction and from that crop there would be...

a very small percentage that would pay for the rest, not on the track, but in selling. That enabled him to keep in the black by having that discipline.

“He had to be able to sell the valuable breeding prospects. The good thing is that he was at the level in racing that you know the person who is going to buy the horse is going to be a good owner, and give certainly as good a home as we’d ever give the horse. It was exciting for him to see his horses do well in every area. The businessman in him was very disciplined in that.”

Like Beholder, Songbird did not immediately find success with her first foals, but each foal brings renewed promise and hope. Also like Beholder, she too sent her first yearling to the sales this year. Songbird’s Curlin colt was a $1-million Book 1 purchase by Grandview Equine at the Keeneland September Sale.

Songbird’s initial foal, the unraced Arrogate filly Song Gate, produced her first foal, a filly by Tapit, this year. Songbird’s 3-year-old filly, Magical Song (Tapit), last raced at Saratoga Aug. 18 for trainer Todd Pletcher but has not yet found the winner’s circle. She also has an unraced 2-year-old filly by Tapit, as well as that seven-figure Keeneland yearling. Songbird produced another Curlin foal, a filly this time, May 1 and has been bred back to Gun Runner.

“I’ve watched her from afar,” said Keith. “She was such a sweetheart, it’s sort of unbelievable to me how sweet she was [and yet such a competitor]. The most you can hope for in racing is that you’ve been blessed enough to own a horse like that.

“Rick was very blessed and I got to ride along on the coattails. I got to live vicariously. It was so fun, a very special journey. I wish everyone in horse racing could experience it.”

It was further alleged that Rice had paid racing officials in exchange for the information, a charge she denied. She did, however, admit to routinely giving members of the racing department, as well as the gate crew, Christmas presents.

On June 8, 2023, the New York Supreme Court Appellate Division ruled that the three-year banishment imposed by the NYSGC was "entirely unwarranted."

But that same court also upheld the commission’s determination that the "improper practices" rule had been violated, and ordered the matter back to the NYSGC to reassess the penalty "with the constraint that any reassessed penalty cannot contain a license revocation."

Rice’s Jan. 21, 2023, bute penalty was triggered by Afleet Arlene (Afleet Alex), who is owned by Winning Move Stable and has been unraced since that victory. A disqualification from the win and a purse redistribution from the $16,000 claimer ($15,400 winning purse) was mandated by the under-appeal ruling.

The ruling stated that the bute finding was "in excess of the quantitative threshold" of 0.3 mcg/ml in plasma.

The relatively long time that the NYSGC’s drug-test findings linger behind the scenes prior to a ruling being issued has been an issue of concern in 2023, with some cases still resurfacing even after the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act Authority took over as the sport’s nationwide testing entity back on May 22.

Back on May 11, trainer Todd Pletcher was fined $1,000 and suspended 10 days after tests revealed that his trainee Forte (Violence) tested positive for meloxicam following a win in the GI Hopeful S. on Sept. 5, 2022, at Saratoga Race Course.

Cont.
The length of the delay made headlines because in the interim between the Hopeful S. and the ruling, Forte won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, was voted the Eclipse Award champion of his division, had won two other graded stakes, and was the favorite for the GI Kentucky Derby before being scratched the morning of the race with a right front foot bruise.

Another Pletcher trainee, Capensis (Tapit), triggered a bute finding in a Saratoga post-race test on July 30, 2022, but that ruling (14-day suspension, $2,000 fine) was not made public until 10 ½ months later, on June 11, 2023. Pletcher is currently appealing both cases.

In the ensuing debate over why New York's positives take so long to come to light, regulators have blamed trainers for "repeated procedural delays" in getting split samples tested, while horsemen have accused the commission of needlessly dragging out the process and not being responsive or timely in responding to scheduling requests.

At the May 22, 2023, NYSGC meeting, it was disclosed that three outstanding, pre-HISA Thoroughbred drug positives remained unadjudicated by the commission and were still lingering at various stages in the regulatory process.

When commissioner John Crotty asked what the timeline was for resolving those cases, NYSGC chairman Brian O'Dwyer told him that in light of the scrutiny related to the Forte delay, he suspected that the commission "will be very, very diligent in terms of making sure that those things are adjudicated much more promptly."

It turns out that Rice's bute finding was one of those then-undisclosed cases. It took more than eight months from the date of the alleged violation until a ruling was issued.

 TICKETS PLEASE! BREEDERS' CUP CHALLENGE SERIES, OTHER GRADED ACTION WHISTLES INTO WEEKEND

by J.N. Campbell

Just over 100 years ago, the Jockey Club's resident New York handicapper, William Vosburgh, knew the value of history and understood how it could be applied when he penned his magnum opus, Racing In America, 1866-1921.

The turf wordsmith revealed his intent in the Preface when he said, "I shall show that, owing to want of popular support, racing had fallen so low, and so infrequent, as to excite little or no interest."

What he was talking about was a sport in crisis, as progressive forces in America drove racing to the edge of extinction. With renewed governmental support from states and a bit of luck from private sources in the 1920s, everything began to turn... around. Investment coupled with excitement, revived American competition.

It's a cycle of precipices Thoroughbred racing has continued to weather to this day.

In the current era, one of the sport’s greatest innovations, the Breeders’ Cup World Championships, is set for its 40th edition in November. As we celebrate the final month of the Challenge Series, here’s a preview of all the weekend graded activity which will leave the station at Churchill Downs, Santa Anita, and Aqueduct.

Next Stop, Churchill

Chugging into Louisville, the Saturday action lands under the Twin Spires for the GIII Ack Ack S. going a mile around one turn.

With a trip to the GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile up for grabs, GII Louisiana Derby runner-up and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Zozos (Munnings) will serve as the 6-5 morning-line favorite. The Brad Cox trainee was last seen running fourth in the GIII Philip Iselin S. Aug. 19 at Monmouth Park.

The 4-year-old colt will face a number of challengers which includes MGSP O Besos (Orb), the last out winner of the GII John Nerud S. at Belmont Park Three Technique (Mr Speaker) and come from behind hero Aug. 13 of the R.A. Cowboy Jones S. at Ellis Park in ‘TDN Rising Star’ Stage Raider (Pioneerof the Nile).

Also scheduled is the nine-furlong GI Lukas Classic which pits GISP Rattle N Roll (Connect) against GI Cigar Mile champ Americanrevolution (Constitution). Shortleaf homebred Whelan Springs (Street Sense), who incidentally won the Iselin S., will look to upset both for trainer Lindsay Schultz.

Santa Anita, The Place To Be

The whistle stop tour of graded events doesn’t stop there because Santa Anita Park begins its Autumn Meet with a number of key Saturday and Sunday races.
The GI Awesome Again S., which the TDN previewed and highlighted in a special edition of Friday's paper, will lead a packed weekend at 'The Great Race Place', as nine will face one another for the chance to line up in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Three Grade II races compliment the Saturday card and it is going to be quite a duel in the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship S. between former winner Dr. Schivel (Violence) and GI Woody Stephens S. hero and 'TDN Rising Star' Arabian Lion (Justify).

Heading to the Downhill Turf Course, a competitive group of grass specialists will cross paths with one other led by MGISW Bran (Fr) (Muharar {GB}) from John Sadler's stable. The dark bay gelding will line up along the inside next to MGSP Sumter (War Front), who goes with the blinkers for Richard Mandella.

Staying on the grass, the GII City of Hope Mile S. wraps up the evening with a route as local favorite MGISW Hong Kong Harry (Ire) (Es Que Love {Ire}) returns to a course where he has captured three wins in five attempts.

The Sunday Santa Anita slate has its share of graded action as the GII Zenyatta S. marks the return of Michael Lund Petersen's Adare Manor (Uncle Mo), who comes in riding a four-race win streak. Also featured will be the GII Tokyo City Cup S. and the GII John Henry Turf Championship S.

Sunday's BAQ Forecast, Brighter Days Ahead

Speaking of the Jockey Club's New York historian and handicapper, William Vosburgh received a nod from the New York Racing Association when they named a race after him. Now moved to Sunday because of a deluge, the GII Vosburgh S. continues to be a mainstay on the NYRA stakes schedule and, with the Belmont Park construction, returned to Aqueduct last year for the first time since 1986. The seven-furlong event offers paid entry into the GI Qatar Racing Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Last year’s GI Breeders' Cup Big Ass Fans Dirt Mile champ Cody’s Wish (Curlin) certainly impressed when the 5-year-old took home both the GI Churchill Downs S. and Belmont Park's GI Met Mile earlier this summer. Even though the stretch out in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga did not yield a win, his ability is unmatched even over a wet surface against five others here.

“One turn and seven [furlongs] to a mile is good for him,” said Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott. “We wanted to see if he could win the Whitney—it’s a very important race and if he could win the Met Mile and the Whitney, those are two very big races.”

The Sunday BAQ card also sports three other graded races. Heavy morning-line favorite Caramel Swirl (Union Rags), who was a runner-up in last year’s GI Ballerina at Saratoga, finished fourth this time around to MGISW Echo Zulu (Gun Runner). The 5-year-old mare will look to get back on track in the GII Gallant Bloom S. when she faces five others.

A soggy turf course at Aqueduct will not deter runners for the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic S. Going the distance will be MGISP War Like Goddess (English Channel), who faces the boys once again after she missed by just a neck against older females in the GII Glens Falls S. Aug. 3 at Saratoga. Also headed to the post will be GI Breeders' Cup Turf victor Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who last lost his rider in the GII Bowling Green S. July 30 at Saratoga. The dark bay gelding will not only have to contend with War Like Goddess but also MGISP Soldier Rising (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and MGISP Stone Age (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Finally, a can’t miss on this Sunday card is the GII Woodward S. 'TDN Rising Star’ Charge It (Tapit), winner of the GII Suburban S. July 8 at Belmont, and GISW Zandon (Upstart), who will head to stud duty at Spendthrift Farm next year, will take on G1 Dubai World Cup runner-up Algiers (Ire) (Shamardal). The Simon Crisford trainee is making his first U.S. start after taking the summer off. Cont.
“It is a fact-finding mission,” said Ed Crisford, who shares a license with his father. “We want to see if he can handle the American dirt because it is different than Meydan. I do think the New York tracks are more similar to Meydan than some of the other tracks. We want to see what he can do against top American dirt horses. If he goes well, wins or runs very well, we can justify going to the Breeders’ Cup. If not, we’ll probably just take him back to Dubai. It all depends on what happens on the weekend.”

PACO LOPEZ SUSPENDED 30 DAYS FOR GREENWOOD CUP RIDE

by Bill Finley

Jockey Paco Lopez, who pulled up his mount Ridin With Biden (Constitution) a few steps before the finish of last Saturday’s GIII Greenwood Cup S. at Parx, likely costing the horse a second-place finish, was handed a 30-day suspension Thursday by the stewards at Parx.

In ruling, the stewards wrote that the suspension was for failure to give his best effort and failure to use the proper diligence in Race 7 on September 23, 2023 while astride the horse Ridin With Biden...."

The suspension began Thursday and will conclude on Oct. 27. Lopez has waived his right to appeal.

“The penalty is justified,” said trainer Butch Reid. “We have to look out for our owners as well as the betting public. My concern was that the horse was sound and he is. He has been inspected by state vets three times since the race and is fine.”

In the Greenwood Cup, a mile-and-a-half race, Ridin With Biden chased the winner Next (Not This Time) for about 10 furlongs before that rival started to pull away to what would become a 25-length laugher. However, Ridin With Biden appeared to have second-place wrapped up as he was eight lengths clear of the rest of the field at the eighth pole. But when he pulled the horse up, he was caught for the place, losing out by a nose to 84-1 shot My Imagination (Lea).

Here’s how the Equibase chart caller saw it: “Ridin With Biden prompted the winner to midway on the final turn, proved no match then was eased in the final stages costing the place.”

For third-place, Ridin With Biden earned $19,000 or $19,000 less than the second-place payout of $38,000. Lopez’s move also, no doubt, costs plenty of bettors. The combination of Next over Ridin With Biden was the lowest payout among all exactas.

KIRSTENBOSCH GETS HER DUES IN CHILLINGWORTH

Talk about keeping good company.

Kirstenbosch (Midnight Lute), a 4-year-old making her 17th lifetime start for trainer John Sadler, has not raced out of graded-stakes company since her third-place finish in the GI La Brea S. Dec. 26. Perhaps more impressively, she’s been on the board in all but three of the eight starts since that post-Christmas trifecta. And though absent of the winner’s circle since victory in the GIII La Canada S. Jan. 15, Kirstenbosch has run second or third to GISW Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) and a pair of Friday’s rivals in GSW/GISP Elm Drive (Mohaymen) and GISW Eda (Munnings).

Facing an opportunity to turn the tables on those rivals, Friday’s 6-1 shot spotted the field a step at the break and trailed with only Lady T (Into Mischief) to keep her company as the remaining five runners all vied for command into the opening furlong. Several lengths out of it still as the speed began to sort itself out into the turn, Kirstenbosch had Clearly Unhinged (Into Mischief), Home Cooking (Honor Code) and Elm Drive to catch as heavily-favored Eda was already under a ride from fourth. Switched inside around the bend and back out again at the top of the lane, she had a clear path to victory and surged past Clearly Unhinged inside the final sixteenth to score the upset.

“What I’ve been talking about with Keith (Abrahams) is it is not the distance for her, it is the setup, and she finally got the setup she wanted, which is faster,” said trainer John Sadler. “She always puts in a good late run, but if they go slow in front it’s sometimes hard for her.”

When asked about a potential next run in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Sprint, Sadler didn’t hesitate: “Yes, because it’s seven eighths and you might get a strong pace,” he added.
Kirstenbosch | Benoit

Pedigree Note:
A Keith Abrahams homebred, Kirstenbosch is the third foal and third winner out of GIII Las Cienegas S. runner up Llandudno, also campaigned by Abrahams. She'd previously produced stakes winner and GII Monrovia S. runner up Constantia (Munnings) and reported a yearling full-brother to Friday's winner. Hill 'n' Dale stallion Midnight Lute, himself a champion sprinter, is perhaps best known for his prolific $5.5m Keeneland November sale-topping daughter and Champion older dirt mare Midnight Bisou.

AQUEDUCT'S SATURDAY PROGRAM, LED BY TURF CLASSIC, PUSHED BACK TO SUNDAY DUE TO TORRENTIAL RAIN
The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) has moved Saturday's 11-race card at Aqueduct, featuring a quartet of graded stakes races, to Sunday and pushed Sunday's 10-race program to Wednesday due to torrential rainfall causing widespread flooding and hazardous conditions in the New York metropolitan area.

Friday's 11-race card, featuring the GII Noble Damsel and Ashley T. Cole, was canceled with more than five inches of rain expected and Ozone Park under a flash flood warning and flood watch on Friday. Heavy rainfall will continue throughout Friday and into Saturday.

Saturday's card, headlined by the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic, will move in its entirety to Sunday with a first post time of 12:05 p.m. Eastern. The stacked 11-race program also features the GII Woodward S., the GII Gallant Bloom S. and the GII Vosburgh S., a "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

The 10-race card originally scheduled for Sunday will move in its entirety to Wednesday with a first post time of 1:05 p.m. Wednesday's action is co-headlined by a pair of Grade II "Win and You're In" qualifiers for juveniles at 1 1/16 miles on turf.

The Pilgrim S. awards a berth to the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf while the Miss Grillo S. for fillies awards a berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

All-turf Monmouth-at-Meadowlands cards for Friday, Sept. 29 and Saturday, Sept. 30 have also been canceled due to the inclement weather.
UNBEATEN BRIGHTWORK PREPS FOR KEENELAND’S OPENING DAY

WSS Racing’s undefeated Brightwork (Outwork) completed her major preparations for next Friday’s GI Darley Alcibiades by working a half-mile in :48.60 over a fast track Friday morning.

With Ricardo Santana Jr. aboard, Brightwork produced fractions of :24.60, :48.60 and galloped out 5 furlongs in 1:01.40. Last Friday here, Brightwork produced a best-of-20 half-mile in :47.

“That was very perfect, and I am grateful that Ricardo made the drive over from Louisville both times to work her,” trainer John Ortiz said. “Last week was a good drill for speed, and this morning was to maintain that speed.”

Ortiz is pointing another runner to next Friday’s stakes in 4 G Racing’s Crown Imperial (Classic Empire). Winner of the Pepsi Untapable S. at Kentucky Downs, Crown Imperial is considered probable for the GI Jessamine S. Crown Imperial worked a half-mile in :49.20 at Churchill Downs Friday morning.

JOCKEY JESSICA PYFER RETIRES; JOINS XBTV/SANTA ANITA

Jessica Pyfer, the 2021 Eclipse Award Outstanding Apprentice Jockey, has retired as a jockey and will join XBTV/Santa Anita as a full-time racing analyst, she announced on the social media platform X.

"After an amazing three years as a Jockey, I am officially transitioning my career and have accepted a full time position with XBTV/Santa Anita Park as a Racing Analyst and couldn't be more excited to continue working in this role," she said in a post.

"I am so thankful for the times I have had in the apprentice jockey. I will still be riding in the mornings because if you know me, I could never spend more than a day off the back of a horse."

From 819 mounts, Pyfer posted a record of 88-89-106 and career earnings of $4,210,897.

90K ANCHOR DOWN COLT TOPS LOUISIANA YEARLING SALE

A colt by Anchor Down out of the unraced Half Ours mare Solo Buena was purchased by Noble Oaks Farm for $90,000 to top Thursday’s Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association’s Breeder’s Yearling Sale.

Hipp 131 is a full-brother to the stakes-placed Swot Analysis and a half-brother to multiple stakes winner Free Drop Maddy (Free Drop Billy). The top three yearlings in the sale were all sold by Clear Creek Stud LLC, agent.

A total of 120 yearlings sold for a gross of $1,306,100, an average of $10,884 and a median of $6,000. There were 40 RNAs.

Followed by a mixed session, two weanlings sold for a gross of $6,700 and an average of $2,350. One horse of racing age sold for $1,000 and 23 broodmares sold for a gross of $67,300 and an average of $2,926. The overall gross for the sale was $1,381,100.

Complete results can be found on the LTBA Website.

SPEAKERS AT UPCOMING PEDIGREE AND CONFORMATION CLINIC AT FASIG-TIPTON INCLUDE TERRY FINLEY AND KENNY MCPEEK

West Point’s Terry Finley, leading trainer Kenny McPeek and others have been announced as speakers for the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association’s Pedigree & Conformation Clinic on Monday, Oct. 23 at Fasig-Tipton in Lexington, Kentucky.

The day-long clinic will take place on the first day of Fasig Tipton’s Kentucky October yearling sale.

Attendees will learn insights on different aspects of Thoroughbred auctions, bloodstock, pedigree, and conformation analysis, and more from industry professionals as well as enjoy a day at the sales.

The topics and speakers at the clinic include:

- Role of the Auction House & Auction Process, presented by Anna Seitz-Ciannello (Fasig-Tipton, Director of Client Relations)
- Thoroughbred Horse Racing Partnerships, presented by Terry Finley (West Point Thoroughbreds, President & CEO)
- Yearling Prep for the Sales, presented by Katie Taylor (Taylor Made Sales, Vice President of Operations)
- Horse Selection/Conformation/Pedigree, presented by Kenny McPeek (Multiple Graded Stakes Winning Trainer and Leading Thoroughbred Bloodstock Advisor)
- Equine Insurance, presented by Tyler Clarke (Clay Ward Agency)
- Equineline & Pedigree Resources, presented by Susan Martin (The Jockey Club Information Systems, Director of Marketing)
- Grayson-Jockey Club Current Research, presented by Jamie Haydon (Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, President) and Johnny Mac Smith, DVM (Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, Veterinary Advisor)

Registration is available online, until Friday, Oct. 20, at: toba.memberclicks.net/seminars-clinics.

RRP ELECTS NEW BOARD MEMBERS, ESTABLISHES ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Retired Racehorse Project has elected new officers and created an advisory council, a body of non-governing individuals representing an array of backgrounds and professional experience chosen to help enhance the RRP’s execution of its charitable mission the organization announced Friday.

Existing board member Neil Agate was confirmed as board chair earlier this Spring when personal obligations required previous chair, Richard Lamb, to step back from the officer position. Lamb is still completing his second term serving on the board of directors.

“I have enjoyed being part of the RRP during the first ten years as a volunteer and competitor,” said Neil. “I am extremely honored to be asked to help shepherd the organization as board chair and I am looking forward to working with our great team of staff and volunteers to keep the RRP ecosystem growing and vibrant.”

The formation of the advisory council allows the RRP to engage a variety of professionals in an ongoing, consultative fashion without the full governance obligations of becoming board members.

“We’re pleased to grow the community of individuals who help to inform the RRP’s approach to issues relating to development, marketing, governance, and strategic planning,” said RRP executive director Kirsten Green. “The RRP has reached a stage in organizational maturation where it has firmly established itself as an integral part of the national aftercare industry and as we look to build upon our impact, it’s essential that we are seeking expertise from a broad range of individuals who not only have the skills we need but also represent the communities that we serve.”

OBS OCTOBER SUPPLEMENTAL CATALOG AVAILABLE

The Supplemental Catalog for the Ocala Breeders’ Sales Company’s 2023 October Yearling Sale is now available via the OBS website and in printed form at the OBS sales grounds. Thirty-seven horses have been supplemented; in all 713 horses will be sold.

There are two sessions, set for Tuesday, Oct. 10 and Wednesday, Oct. 11. Hip No.’s 1–338 plus supplements 339–359 will be offered Tuesday and Hip No’s 401–739 plus supplements 740–755 will be sold Wednesday. Both sessions will begin at 10:00 a.m.

The supplemental catalog adds substantial sire power to the sale. Flatter, Liam’s Map and Munnings are represented, as are Nyquist, Oscar Performance, Quality Road, Spun to Run, Thousand Words and Win Win Win.

This group joins the large roster of sires in the original catalog, headed by Audible, Bernardini, Bolt d’Oro, Bucchero and Candy Ride (ARG). The list also includes Catalina Cruiser, City of Light, Complexity, Curlin’s Honor, Game Winner, Girvin, Global Campaign, Good Magic, Gunnevera, Hard Spun, Honest Mischief, Improbable, Instagramd, Instilled Regard, Kantharos, Khozan, Maximum Security, McKinzie, Mendelssohn, Not This Time, Omaha Beach, Practical Joke, Tiz the Law, Union Rags, Vekoma, Vino Rosso, Volatile and War of Will.

SATURDAY’S RACING INSIGHTS: $625K OBS GRAD MAKES FIRST START AT DELAWARE
By J.N. Campbell

5th-DEL, $38K, Msw, 2yo, 5 1/2f, 2:30 p.m.
AMERICAN WAR HERO (Constitution) will make his first start for owner Boardshorts Racing. The dark bay colt brought $165,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Yearling Sale in July before running a furlong at 10.1 during the breeze show and then pinhooked for $625,000 at the OBS March Sale. The Graham Motion trainee is out of GIS Libby’s Tail (Tiz Wonderful) who also produced a yearling colt by Improbable that went for $135,000 at the Keeneland September Sale to Michael Rullo. TJCIS PPS

5th-CD, $120K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1m, 2:48 p.m.
At Churchill Saturday, Ken McPeek debuts Thorny (Violence), a $325,000 Keeneland September buy out of SP Boule (Exchange Rate). She was in-foal with the dark bay filly when she sold to Rhianon Farms at the Keeneland November Sale in 2020 for $160,000. Out of an extended female family which includes MGISW Tates Creek (Rahy) and her son, Australian multiple group stakes winner Spirit Ridge (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), Boule counts Gulf W.L. McKnight hero Tide of the Sea (English Channel) as a half-brother.

Also entered is Coffeepot Stables’ Starina (Candy Ride {Arg}), who will take her first crack at racing for trainer Wayne Catalano. The chestnut filly out of SW Rebridled Dreams (Unbridled's Song) is a half-sister to GI Toyota Blue Grass S. victor Carpe Diem (Giant’s Causeway), Gil Twinnies.com Fair Grounds Oaks heroine Farrell (Malibu Moon) and to the dams of current in-training runners SW Salute the Stars (Candy Ride {Arg}) and SW Wonderful Justice (Justify). TJCIS PPS

4th-SA, $61K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 5:30 p.m.
Santa Anita is underway and there we find homebred Bolt At Midnight (Bolt d’Oro) on debut for Ruis Racing. The dark bay colt’s third dam, who is a full-sister to MGISW Seeking the Gold (Mr. Propsector), is responsible for GI Gotham S. winner Survivalist (Danzig).

Just to his outside is Bartholdy (Mendelssohn), owned by Kaleem Shah. The $300,000 OBS April grad includes among her extended female family MGISW Chocolate Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}), GI Hollywood Starlet S. victress Killer Grace (Conagree), and GI Hollywood Gold Cup S. hero There Goes Harvard (Will Take Charge). TJCIS PPS

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
7th-Churchill Downs, $141,080, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($150,000), 9-28, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:41.57, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.
DASH ATTACK (g, 4, Munnings--Cerce Cay, by Hard Spun) was up against a seasoned group here, and had to work for the win from the jump, the second choice in the betting setting a pressure pace to the inside of familiar foe SP Twilight Blue (Air Force Blue). Locked in battle though the far turn, the long time away got to his rival while Dash Attack shook clear to win by 2 1/2 lengths.

Cont.
This contest should’ve worked as class relief with the winner’s last two races being the Aug. 25 GIi Charles Town Classic, where he ran third, and Saratoga’s July 27 Birdstone S., also to run third, but he faced a seasoned field once again. Dash Attack is his dam’s most accomplished runner and has a fleet of unraced siblings in the wings including a 2-year-old full-sister Joelma and a 2023 Speightstown half-sister. Dam Cerce Cay visited Olympiad for 2024. Lifetime Record: GSP, 14-5-0-3, $603,547. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

8th-Churchill Downs, $100,247, Alw, 9-29, (NW2L), 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:40.08, fm, head.

GAVEA (GER) (f, 2, Gleneagles {Ire}--Goiana {GB} {SW-Ger}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) made her July 16 French debut at Chantilly a winning one by the slimmest of margins, and after moving to the states from the barn of conditioner Waldemar Hickst to Al Stall Jr., scored this victory in much the same fashion. Secured in a private sale by Bal Mar Equine from Dr. Christoph Berglar, the German-born 9-5 favorite was well placed early as a trio in front of her disputed leadership rights. Taking aim from three off the fence and coming fast, she drove past the leader in midstretch but was lingering on the wrong lead. Changing to the right late in the furlong grounds as Mo Fox Givin (Mo Town) was looming the danger, she shifted out at the sixteenth pole as that one rapidly closed the gap but gamely hung on by a head. Gavea has a winning elder sister in Germany and thus far is the last registered offspring for her dam, a stakes winner in their home country. Sales history: €36,000 RNA Ylg ’22 BBAGS. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $62,222. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

6th-Churchill Downs, $89,580, Alw (NW3$X)/Opt. Clm ($100,000), 9-29, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:43.90, ft, 4 1/2 lengths.

HEARTYCONSTITUTION (f, 4, Constitution--Distinct Sparkle, by With Distinction) reeled off three straight wins earlier this year, capped by a victory in the grassy Lyphard S. for state-breds at Penn National June 2. She made two starts on dirt since, finishing fifth as the heavy favorite in the Mari Hulman George Memorial H. in Indiana July 8 and third in the Pink Ribbon S. at Charles Town Aug. 25. Favorited at 1-5 while facing just two rivals here, she set the pace and never looked back en route to a 4 1/2-length victory over Soul of an Angel (Atreides). The winner is a half to Chateau (Flat Out), GSW, $734,564; a Weigelia filly of 2022; and a colt by Union Rags of this year. Sales history: $165,000 Ylg ’20 KEEJAN; $150,000 RNA Ylg ’20 FTKSEL; $200,000 Ylg ’20 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: 11-5-2-2, $328,580. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

2nd-Santa Anita, $69,048, Alw (NW1$X)/Opt. Clm ($50,000), 9-29, 3yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f, 1:15.98, ft, 2 1/4 lengths.

POETICA (f, 3, Speightstown--Poetic Justice, by Pioneerof the Nile) made her debut in the same Nov. 12 Del Mar maiden which ended up yielding ‘TDN Rising Star’ GISW Faiza (Girvin); MGSP Lily Poo (Tapiture); GSW Teena Ella (War Front); and SW Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy). Gone until August this year, she ran second on her seasonal return in service of first-time Lasix and improved another spot last out Sept. 1 at track and trip to gamely turn away a late challenger. Cont.
The 7-5 favorite for this next step up, Poetica jumped well and rated in third as the leading pair set the fractions. Patiently handled from the rail through the bend, she was roused for her run at the quarter pole and skimmed the paint to take over at the top of the stretch as Essential Business (Practical Joke) drifted into the track. She was kept to her business late but easily kept that rival at bay by 2 1/4 lengths. The flag bearer for her dam, Poetica has a yearling Laoban half-sister as well as a 2023 Maxfield half-sister. Dam Poetic Justice visited Olympiad for 2024. Sales history: $425,000 Ylg ‘21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $107,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

9th-Laurel, $64,170, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($44,000-$55,000), 9-29, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24.80, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.
FILLE D’ESPRIT (m, 7, Great Notion--Sweet Valor, by No Armistice), who rose from the claiming ranks to become a staple on the Laurel stakes calendar and with plenty of frequent flyer miles up and down the Midatlantic seaboard, was last seen in a runner-up effort in the Feb. 18 GIII Barbara Fritchie S. Missing by a half-length to GSW Swayin to and Fro (Straight Talking), it was a placing higher than her effort in the 2022 rendition of the race, where she ran into MGSW Glass Ceiling (Constitution) and MGSP Jakarta (Bustin Stones). With torrential rain drenching the region, this race was scratched down to a party of three and she was crowned the 2-5 favorite, stalking I’m Gittin There (Golden Lad) and Edie MeenyMinyMo (Upstart) as those two disputed how much early speed they wanted to give. Advancing through the turn for home, Fille d’Esprit took command quickly and drew off by 2 1/2 lengths as I’m Gittin There got the best of Edie MeenyMinyMo in a photo. The very first foal for a dam who has since produced two more winners from as many to be born, the victress has a 2-year-old half-sister Never More Valor (No Never No More) as well as a yearling half-sister Cross of Valor (Blofeld). Dam Sweet Valor visited Engage for next season. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 27-15-5-2, $777,881. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:
4th-Churchill Downs, $123,375, Msw, 9-29, 2yo, 5fT, :58.65, fm, 1 length.

CEEPEEGEE (c, 2, Army Mule--Dance for Daddy, by Scat Daddy) debuted Aug. 20 in an Ellis Park main track dash and never really engaged in the race, finishing a distant seventh. A chilly 32-1 on the totes here for the swap to the turf sprints, Ceepeegee jumped well to vie for the lead to the inside of a keen trio. Locked in battle as the top three exchanged punches into the bend, he gamely fought back to retake the lead from debuting Spirit’s Mischief (Into Mischief) as firster Lightning Myqueen (Palace Malice) inched closer from the outside to claim second but was held to a length margin by the winner. The second winner from as many to the track for a young broodmare, Ceepeegee has a pair of younger siblings in the wings—a yearling Upstart filly and a 2023 half-brother by Yaupon. Dance for Daddy visited Volatile for next season. Lifetime Record: 2:1-0-0, $69,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

VANDEEEK TO STAR ON SUPER SATURDAY?

by Tom Frary

Saturday’s action features four Group 1s and four Group 2s across Newmarket and ParisLongchamp, with all ages and distances covered from the six furlongs of the G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. and G1 Juddmonte Cheveley Park S. to the two and a half miles of the G1 Qatar Prix du Cadran. It is the former pair of prizes that take centre stage, with so much at stake for the precocious stars of their generation. The onus is very much on KHK Racing’s G1 Prix Morny winner Vandeeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) in the Middle Park given the manner of his success in that Deauville feature, having taken the G2 Richmond S. en route.

Since 2012, five winners of the Morny have followed up here including three of the last four in Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never), Perfect Power (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}) and Earthlight (Ire) (Shamardal), so the Crisfords’ leading light has history on his side. Ed Crisford is keen to see if he can become the latest to do the tough double.

“It’s a good field, as you’d expect for a race of this stature, but I’d say he goes in there with a favourite’s chance,” he said.

GOFFS ORBY PART 2 RECAP: DAUGHTER OF NIGHT OF THUNDER LEADS WAY AT 140K

By Brian Sheerin

Goffs chief Henry Beeby acknowledged the selective nature of the trade at the re-branded Part 2 Goffs Orby Sale where a €140,000 Night Of Thunder (Ire) filly led the way on Friday when selling from Derrinstown Stud to Macie and Kishore Mirpuri.

That sale continued the theme of well-bred fillies commanding plenty of respect in the ring during Book 1 and Book 2 of this year’s Orby Sale.

Lot 955 was purchased by the Polish agent Kishore Mirpuri on behalf of Macie Jodlowski, the leading trainer in that jurisdiction. However, neither had time to chat, as they quickly nipped off to Dublin Airport to catch a flight home as soon as they signed the dotted line.

There was no shortage of buyers at the upper end of the market but the middle to lower tiers remained patchy across both days of the Book 2 Sale. The statistics backed up such a statement.

All told, the sale returned an aggregate of €8,097,500, representing a 22% fall from the Sportsman's Sale last year.

He said, “It will be the first time he’s encountered ground this fast, but he’s a nice-moving colt by Havana Grey so that shouldn’t be a problem.”

Third in the Morny after his well-documented training troubles, Ballydoyle’s TDN Rising Star River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) is the obvious thorn in Vandeek’s side now that he has a clear preparation for this highlight. He had a host of smart peers behind including Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in Royal Ascot’s G2 Coventry S. on ground similar to the unseasonably fast conditions he encounters here and Ryan Moore is happy to tackle Vandeek again and another quintet of group winners including the G2 July S. hero Jasour (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) from the always-to-be-feared Clive Cox stable.

“He wasn’t at peak fitness [for the Morny] and I thought he shaped very well in the circumstances,” Moore said of River Tiber, who represents the stable successful in three of the last six runnings. “I would expect him to get a lot closer to the winner here and I’d say we had a very fair shot at winning this group one. He’s in good shape.”

Relief Rally Poised For Cheveley Park Coronation

Whatever wins Newmarket’s Cheveley Park S. will first have to see off Simon Munir and Isaac Souede’s Relief Rally (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), whose sole defeat in five starts was as a result of coming out the wrong side of a head-bobber with Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot. Having dealt with every European rival thrown at her so far, including Ballydoyle’s Cherry Blossom (Ire) (No Nay Never) in York’s G2 Lowther S. last month, the William Haggas trainee has some new contenders to front up to here but the willingness to fight is almost her forte.

Jockey Tom Marquand has faith that she can come through her most important bout to date. “She has taken big steps forward with each of her runs and she was unfortunate not to win at Ascot, but she has shown a high level of form,” he said. “I was really looking forward to riding her over six furlongs at York, as I thought it would suit her so well and she proved us right.”

One of the lesser-known rivals to Relief Rally is Wathnan Racing’s Criterium d’Ete scorer Jasna’s Secret (Fr) (Galiway {GB}), who saw off the smart yardstick Zorken (Fr) (Goken {Fr}) in that valuable Deauville prize and is entitled to due respect as a result. Whether Carlos and Yann Lerner’s bargain €42,000 Arqana Deauville September purchase has the know-how to cope with some hardened opponents remains to be seen, with the G3 Albany S. scorer Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) and the G3 Princess Margaret S. scorer Sacred Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) boasting the touch of class necessary to win one of these.

Capulet Heads Strong Royal Lodge Cast

Newmarket’s G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. is one of the day’s more intriguing contests, with Ballydoyle’s G2 Champions Juvenile S. runner-up Capulet (Justify) taking on Godolphin’s G3 Solario S. winner Aablan (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsabah’s Listed Ascendant S. scorer Al Musmak (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). Another in the mix for the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf qualifier is Jeff Smith’s unbeaten Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), the recent winner of a seven-furlong Ascot novice from which the impressive subsequent winner Military Artist (Munnings) emerged.

Ryan Moore said of Capulet, “He did it nicely on his debut at Dundalk last month and he obviously improved a good deal when running Diego Velazquez to half a length at Leopardstown last time. That form looked strong at the time and it looks even better now with the well-beaten fourth, Deepone, coming out and winning the Beresford next time. All of these have the potential to take a big step forward, most notably Ghostwriter maybe, but he deserves to be the favourite as it stands as the Leopardstown form is the best on offer going into the race.”

Clive Cox said of Ghostwriter, “His first success at Newmarket on the July course, and the way he was balanced and produced a winning debut, gives me confidence he will handle the track. He followed that up with a really impressive success at Ascot and showed a lot of class. He has thrived throughout, he is a wonderful physical, big, strong colt and I’m looking forward to seeing him step up to a mile. He is very deserving of running in this sort of grade. He’s a horse we have always loved and he definitely sets the pulse racing.”

Trueshan Looks For Second Cadran

At ParisLongchamp, the Cadran sees Alan King’s star stayer Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) bid to double his tally in the prestige marathon having mastered Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in style on easy ground two years ago. Back with a bang after a second wind operation in the G2 Doncaster Cup earlier this month, he has no genuine staying star of that calibre to contend with in a disappointing turnout but he does have Ballydoyle’s ever-reliable Emily Dickinson (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Cont. p5

While the ground is not as easy as she would like it, neither is it for Trueshan and a repeat of the form of her latest second in the G1 Goodwood Cup would be good enough should the veteran giant deliver one of his deflating efforts.

Aidan O'Brien said of her, “We think the trip will suit her and any ease in the ground will suit her as well. If the ground had come up soft or heavy, we probably would have had a good, strong think about the Arc, but we thought over the Cadran trip she would be more comfortable. She does stay very well and she seems in good form. When she ran in the Gold Cup she ran very well even though the ground was quick–she didn’t have any problems with it.”

All To Play For In Open Royallieu

There is no stand-out in the Qatar Prix de Royallieu and it is fair to say that there have been better editions of the 14-furlong contest since it was elevated to top-level status in 2019. They have included an Oaks heroine in Anapurna (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and the top-class Wonderful Tonight (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), but this is a line-up of wannabes at present headed on the formbook by Wathnan Racing’s G2 Prix de Pomone winner and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Melo Melo (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}). Most of her rivals have had plenty of chances at a lesser level and missed the target, so perhaps The Aga Khan’s progressive G3 Stanerra S. and G3 Irish St Leger Trial S. winner Shamida (Ire) (Australia {GB}) could be the answer or the Arbibs’ G2 Lillie Langtry S. and G2 Park Hill S. scorer Sumo Sam (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) if she can transfer her soft-ground dominance to this livelier surface. Cont. p6
Big Things On The Horizon?

ParisLongchamp’s trio of Group 2 races see Moyglare Stud’s exciting Harbour Wind (Ire) (Nathaniel (Ire)) look to enhance his reputation in the staying category in the Qatar Prix Chaudenay; Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum’s G3 Sovereign S. dead-heater Embesto (GB) (Roaring Lion) act as one of the more promising types lining up for the Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein; and one of the day’s more exciting runners in Horizon Dore (Fr) (Dabirsim (Fr)) look to boss the Qatar Prix Dollar.

Horizon Dore, who has flaunted his wares in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam and G3 Prix du Prince d’Orange, is one of the more lively outsiders at present for next month’s G1 Champion S. and he sports the Gousserie silks already renowned at that Ascot fixture. Compatriots Cirrus Des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top (Ire)) and Skalleti (Fr) (Kendargent (Fr)) and also the British raider Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai (Aus)) have taken this en route to making a major play at the Champion and so Saturday’s closing act of ParisLongchamp’s pattern-race bonanza takes on extra weight.

Sunday’s Supporting Group 1s Confirmed

Friday saw ParisLongchamp’s five other Arc-supporting Group 1 contests finalised, with the opening two being the big juvenile prizes. The Qatar Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere features Philippe Allaire and Haras d’Etelham’s unbeaten G3 Prix la Rochette-winning TDN Rising Star Beauvatier (Fr) (Lope De Vega (Ire)), while the Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac includes Newtown Anner Stud Farm’s impressive G2 May Hill S. and G3 Prestige S. winner Darnation (Ire) (Too Darn Hot (GB)) and Haras d’Etelham and Craig Bernick’s G2 Prix du Calvados-winning TDN Rising Star Les Pavots (Ire) (No Nay Never).

In the Prix de l’Opera Longines, Yeguada Centurion SL’s G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane heroine Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill (Ire)) takes on 11 rivals, while the 19 due to assemble for the Prix de l’Abbaye de Longchamp Longines include the star sprinting mare Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder (Ire)) and the G1 Qatar Prix de la Foret sees last year’s winner Kinross (GB) (Kingman (GB)) favourably drawn in two bidding to provide Frankie Dettori with the ultimate Paris send-off.

The median fell 14% to €18,000 and the average dipped 7% to €23,136. Of the 464 horses offered, 350 were sold, representing a clearance rate of 75% [down from 86% in 2022].

Beeby commented, “Following an excellent Orby Book 1 headed by two millionaire lots it was always going to be a challenge to maintain such a vibrant trade in our rebranded Orby Book 2.

“Orby Book 2 is the successor to the Sportsman’s Sale which has enjoyed many strong years, not least 12 months ago when it was headed by a superb €300,000 top price, grew by 49% with a 21% leap in average and the median advancing by nigh on a third over the 2021 edition. So to come anywhere near to those statistics is relatively pleasing and, in fact, today’s figures represent the second best since the sale expanded to two days due to popular demand in 2019.” Cont. p7

He added, “All that said we would be bordering on deluded not to acknowledge the selective nature of the trade. Whereas those yearlings deemed to hold the most appeal were as hard as ever to buy, as demonstrated by more six-figure transactions and more over €75,000, there were plenty that struggled as evidenced by a less than pleasing clearance rate of 75%. It will be interesting to review the last two days at the end of the autumn sales season when more context will be available but I confess that we would have preferred a deeper buying bench from the UK and across Europe as was the case in 2022.

“So we will review the results of the sale with the benefit of time and reflection, and work with ITM to explore how to make the sale more attractive to overseas buyers who are so vital to the marketplace. We will also take soundings from breeders and vendors as to the format of the sale as a more select one day version may be preferable especially when we have the two/three day Autumn Sale in four weeks’ time as a very viable alternative for those more commercial types.

“As ever I extend our thanks to every purchaser and each vendor for their support throughout the week. Both Books of the Irish National Yearling Sales exist to serve the Irish breeder and over €60 million of yearlings have been traded in Kildare Paddocks which is a fitting testament to the appeal of the world class Irish bloodlines that are nurtured with such skill and devotion in the spiritual home of the thoroughbred.”

King Of The Jungle Goes Back To The Well

Maurice Burns might want to send Con Marnane a Christmas card this year for all that he has done to promote Bungle Inthejungle (GB). Cont. p8

Or maybe it should work the other way around given the amount of luck that Marnane has enjoyed with the Rathasker Stud-based stallion?

The highlight came earlier this summer when Marnane sold Givemethebeatboys (Ire) to Bronsan Racing for £1.1 million at the Goffs London Sale.

Marnane once again reinvested in a family he knows well when landing a sister to Funny Money Honey (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) from Newlands House Stud for €95,000.

Marnane said of lot 954, “It’s more than likely we’ll race her, that’ll be the plan. She’s a long-term broodmare prospect, and hopefully she’s able to gallop.

“I’d say Pat Burns of Newlands House Stud is pound for pound the best breeder in Ireland. He only produces seven or eight horses each year and comes up with stakes horses time after time.”

Talking Points

- There’s an old saying that, if you give a busy man a job, he will get it done. That certainly applied to Goffs Senior Bloodstock Executive Conor Wixted, who enjoyed a profitable day with an Equiano (Fr) pinhook. Purchased alongside Goffs Bloodstock Executive Joan Tyner for just €6,500 here at the November Foal Sale, the Equiano colt (lot 936) rocked into €26,000 on Friday to BBA Ireland on behalf of Javier Maldonado. A brother to six winners, including James's Delight (Ire) (Invincible Army {Ire}), who was placed in the Sportsman's Challenge, the Equiano colt was clearly well bought by the Goffs young guns. Hats off. Cont. p9

- Amy Lynam was another busy woman at Goffs this week. As well as signing for fillies by Kodiac (GB) and Dark Angel (Ire) to the tune of €125,000 in Book 1, she played a leading role at Book 2 when snapping up a James Garfield (Ire) filly (lot 989) on behalf of "a long-standing owner" of her father Eddie Lynam’s who "wants a good horse." Who doesn't?!

- Cristiana Brivio of Razza Latina has enjoyed a profitable stint in Ireland in recent weeks. After signing for 14 yearlings for just shy of €400,000 at Tattersalls Ireland last week, the Italian buyer picked up on where she left off at Goffs with a further six purchases for €233,000.

- It was interesting to see bloodstock agent Kevin Ross and Gavin Cromwell team up this week. Ross bought three horses on behalf of the multiple Cheltenham Festival and Royal Ascot-winning trainer at Book 2 for just under €70,000.

- It has also been noticeable over the past two weeks that Johnny Murtagh is a huge supporter of the domestic yearling sales. Along with his right hand man and leading breeze-up consigner Eddie Linehan, Murtagh has signed for numerous yearlings at Tattersalls Ireland and this week at Goffs. His Book 2 haul at Goffs was headed by a Havana Grey (GB) filly (lot 914) on behalf of Nick Bradley Racing, for whom Murtagh has enjoyed good success with, courtesy of talented handicapper Wave Machine (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}). “We've had a bit of luck with Nick Bradley Racing this year,” Murtagh said. “This is the one he picked out and when we went down to see her all the lads loved her. She was the one we wanted today, she just cost a bit more than we expected! When the good ones come in, they're all making their money. “I haven't trained one by Havana Grey before but he's doing well. You could see how many people were on her today.”

Buy Of The Day

Kevin Ross was rewarded for staying to the bitter end when landing a nice Invincible Army (Ire) colt from Rossenarra Stud [lot 1050] for just €28,000. It's hard to see a situation where that does not turn out to be decent value.

A lovely-walking colt, he boasted plenty of size and substance and a good attitude to boot. He was followed into the ring by plenty of decent judges and looked like a racehorse. Cont. p10

SARACEN HORSE FEEDS
Thought For The Day

Reading between the lines of Henry Beeby’s statement following Part 2 of the Orby Sale, a smaller and more select catalogue could be in store next year. That would make sense given how things played out this week.

In the defence of Goffs, it must be remembered that any agents who hoped to get some viewing done on day two of Orby Book 1 were stopped in their tracks due to the pretty vicious storm. Without having got around to all of the barns, they couldn’t exactly leave lengthy lists for horses to be bought in Book 2.

But all things considered, Goffs will no doubt be disappointed by the lack of a buying bench for those middle to lower tier horses. It will be interesting how trade is for horses in that bracket for the rest of the yearling sale season but perhaps a more streamlined version of Orby Book 2 would work best in future.
SHOWTIME AS WRAPS COME OFF THE OCTOBER YEARLINGS

By Emma Berry

One doesn’t need to delve too far into the Group 1 results to find a graduate of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, and come Saturday afternoon another may be added to the list, with the G2 Coventry S. winner River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) and G2 Gimcrack S. winner Lake Forest (GB) (No Nay Never) among those favoured to go well in the G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. at Newmarket.

By that stage, there will be frenetic action of a different kind just a mile up the road at Park Paddocks where several days of Book 1 inspections will be underway ahead of the start of the nine-session October Sale on Tuesday. The first three days are devoted to Book 1, the profile of which continues to rise to ever dizzier heights. A 200,000gns median last year tells its own story, that figure having doubled in a decade. The average meanwhile settled at its own record high, just shy of 300,000gns and, at the final ringing of the tills, more than 126 million gns was spent across three days in 2022 for 424 fledgling racehorses. Looking ahead to this year’s sale, it is hard not to envisage more of the same, or perhaps just more.

Jimmy George, the marketing director for Tattersalls, says, “It’s an outstanding catalogue. Book 1 seems to collect the cream of the British and Irish, and perhaps wider European yearling crop year after year. And it’s not only a catalogue of real quality, it has diversity as well. In simple terms, it’s probably fair to say that it represents the biggest collection of yearlings by the best turf stallions in the world that you’ll find anywhere.”

In the bloodstock world’s version of chicken-and-egg, the fact that Britain and Ireland continue to enjoy a golden age of stallions no doubt influences the fact that there is a growing throng of international breeders keeping mares in those countries, or indeed transporting them to be covered. We cannot forget, however, the importance of those blue hens and classy matrons in making these stallions what they are in the first place.

"The consistency of these top stallions at the moment, the seamless movement on from the Galileo era, it's just amazing," George says.

"I'm not ranking them in any particular order, but you have Frankel, Dubawi, Kingman, Lope De Vega, Wootton Bassett, Sea the Stars, and there's the thick end of 200 yearlings by those six stallions in Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale.

"And I think that tells prospective buyers all they really want to know, these are game-changing stallions on their own, but that collection together is pretty mighty."

From Program Trading (GB) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) landing the GI Saratoga Derby on only his third start to the victory of Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) claiming his third Group 1 - one for each season of racing - in the Tattersalls Gold Cup and Good Guess (GB) dominating the G1 Prix Jean Prat for a Japanese owner in France, the broad international success of the October Sale, and Book 1 in particular, remains a strong theme.

"It gives [owners and breeders] access to these top stallions; they recognise the quality of the horses standing in Britain, Ireland and also France at the moment," George continues. "And if they’re going to have regular access to these sort of horses, they come here and buy them as yearlings, and in the case of yearling fillies, perhaps leave them over here [to race] and breed from them in the future.

"One of the aspects of Book 1 that strikes me year after year, is that the top owner-breeders will also target Book 1 for their broodmare bands. They’re racing these beautifully-bred fillies and they can go on to have a huge impact on their own broodmare bands later down the line.

"In the Juddmonte International this year, which was won by Mostahdaf, and Nashwa was second, both of them are raced by owner-breeders, and both of them are out of mares who those owner-breeders have bought as yearlings at Book 1."

The sale dovetails nicely with two weekends of Group 1 action on the Rowley Mile, making a trip to East Anglia in October an extra draw.

"Newmarket is the hub, not only in the British racing and breeding industry, but really the European racing and breeding industry," says George.

"We've got two racecourses here, we've got numerous stud farms in and around the area standing some of the best stallions in the world, we've got all the top veterinary facilities, we've got 70 to 80 different racehorse trainers here, the most fantastic training grounds, and we've got Tattersalls."

He adds, "The owner-breeders feel comfortable here, they come to Newmarket, whether it's to race or whether it's to see their broodmare bands and their young stock, or to buy. Which is obviously why they come to Tattersalls."

Some 500 Book 1 yearlings will usher in a fortnight of action at Park Paddocks, where the newly refurbished and levelled yards at Somerville R, S, T have just been unveiled. Naturally there are some swanky pedigrees to digest.

The brother (lot 316) to 2022 Derby hero Desert Crown (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)) – himself a 280,000gns Book 2 graduate in 2020 – features among the Newsells Park draft, while a Dubawi half-brother to Imad Al Sagar's treble Group 1 winner Nashwa (GB) (Frankel (GB)) heads a select consignment from Blue Diamond Stud and, catalogued as lot 35, may well prove to be one of the early highlights on Tuesday.

The McCardan family's Ballyphilip Stud brings lot 240, a half-brother to that brilliant sprinter Battaash (Ire) who is by another brilliant sprinter and budding young stallion, Blue Point (Ire). Meanwhile, Blue Point's own immediate family is represented by his three-part-brother [lot 81] from the first crop of fellow Darley stallion Earthlight (Ire) and consigned by Hillwood Stud.

From the same Shamardal sireline, and with a typically strong female family behind him, comes the Lope De Vega (Ire) half-brother to St Leger and Irish St Leger winner Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)), the colt having been pinhooked for 300,000gns from Kirsten Rausing's St Simon Stud draft at the December Foal Sale. He is reoffered by Eugene Daly's Longview Stud as lot 226. Cont. p13
Among the colts on offer from Cheveley Park Stud is a three-quarter-brother to the farm's champion filly Inspiral (GB) (Frankel (GB)). The son of Ulysses (Ire) features on the first day of Book 1 as lot 127 and is one of eight yearlings to be offered by the Thompson family, along with a Kingman (GB) colt out of the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Queen's Trust (GB) (Dansili (GB)).

The above is just a taster. It's easy to make a case for pretty much every yearling in the opening book, and for agents and trainers tasked with doing just that for potential purchasers, it is made a little easier by the existence of the Book 1 Bonus. It's a scheme which is now well established and has over recent years pumped almost £8 million in additional prize-money to owners with more than 340 bonuses now having been won. From next year, that individual bonus is set to rise from £20,000 to £25,000, with all yearlings catalogued for Book 1 of this year's sale eligible for the scheme.

George says, "I think people are unnecessarily negative about the sport in Britain at times. There's so much to be positive about. One, it is the most magnificent sport. But two, there are aspects of British prize-money that need to be recognised, and Britain is the most lucrative place to own a horse in Europe, if it's a decent horse. British prize-money for group and listed races is superior to anywhere else in Europe, and that's a fact. And it isn't always a fact that is put out there often or loudly enough, in my humble opinion, but you only just have to look through the Pattern book and look at the prize-money available for British group and listed races and compare it with France and Ireland, who are the obvious main competitors in that respect. Britain is comfortably number one. The average prize-money for a Group 3 race, a Group 2 race, a Group 1 race in Britain is significantly higher than anywhere else in Europe."

What is often grumbled about of course is the lower levels on offer for maiden races and handicaps, but a significant number of maiden and novice races for two- and three-year-olds have been boosted this year by extra sponsorship from Juddmonte, Darley and the British EBF. On top of that, a Book 1 graduate has a chance of scooping an extra pot, and that is not restricted to British races, but also includes Ireland.

"We know the impact it's having," he continues. "We've distributed directly to racehorse owners in Britain and Ireland the thick end of £8 million in prize-money, with no deductions, just directly to the owners, since the inception of that scheme."

"That is a lot of money to win for winning your maiden. The average price, or the average win prize-money next year for a Book 1 Bonus winner, will be I'd say comfortably over £30,000, which is significant. It's not headline prize-money, it doesn't show up in statistics, but it is significant."

George adds, "I think it's so important for us not to talk ourselves into thinking that there isn't opportunity out there, because there is. Whether it's our bonuses for Book 1, or whether it's Great British Bonuses, or certain sales races, or other angles that are out there, there's more there than sometimes we're led to believe."
Traditionally, the October Sale, under its various guises over the years, brought the curtain up on the autumn season at Tattersalls, but since a reshuffling of venues, which brought the Ascot Yearling Sale, now known as the Somerville, to Tattersalls, the sale grounds have already been busy in Newmarket since the yearling season began, and we head into a frenetic fortnight on the back of encouraging results not just at the Somerville, but pretty much across the board in Europe and America.

"The sales calendar bears no resemblance to how it once was, and we've had the addition of the August Sale and Somerville Yearling Sale in recent years just at Park Paddocks alone. Under the Tattersalls umbrella it's grown out of all recognition, with Cheltenham and Tattersalls Ireland and the online sales," George says.

"But it still remains that the Tattersalls sales season really kicks off with the October Yearling Sale. That's when we become the focal point and it's pretty intense for those two weeks of Books 1 through to 4.

"It's a busy time, but it's an exciting time, and there's a lot riding on it for everybody. It's very busy for the trainers and the agents, but the owners enjoy their time at the sales as well. And long may that last, it's very much part of the ownership experience."

ANOTHER NEWMARKET TRIUMPH FOR MUTASAABEQ by Tom Frary

Practically unbeatable on Newmarket’s Rowley Mile, Shadwell’s Mutasaabeq (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) made all to annexe back-to-back renewals of the G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Joel S. on Friday and gain a fifth success from six visits to his favourite venue.

Always happy on the front end with the bias firmly for front-runners, the Charlie Hills-trained homebred son of Ghanaati (Giant’s Causeway) had to work late to deny two others who have likewise been around the block but remain just shy of the very top.

They are the Freemason Lodge favourite Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}), who for some time up the rising ground to the line threatened to ruin the party for the 11-4 favourite, and the imperturbable Chindit (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) but their combined doggedness and three-pound advantage over the penalised winner was not enough. By hard-fought head and half-length margins, Mutasaabeq saw them off to add to his Suffolk tally which also includes the rescheduled G2 Sandown Mile in May, a 2-year-old novice contest and conditions event the following season in which he gained TDN Rising Star status.

The returning Maljoom (Ire) (Caravaggio) was never able to land a blow and finished fifth.

"This was right up there with his best," jockey Jim Crowley said. "He loves it here, he likes to get rolling between the three and the two and where he has folded in the past, in fairness when they came to him he kept fighting and toughed it out well." Cont. p15
Charlie Hills added, “It is a case of horses for courses and he has got a tremendous record at the Rowley Mile. I think when he wins he puts a lot into it and so he can’t put too many races together, although he is a little bit older now and a bit stronger.”

“When he won here as a 3-year-old, he looked unbeatable and he was not far off favourite for the 2000 Guineas just off winning a conditions race. He has been pretty sound through his career, but he has not had too many chances at Group 1 level. I’ve always felt he is up to it and I’ll speak to Angus [Gold] and Sheikha Hissa, but we could have a look at America for the [ Breeders’ Cup] Mile—that could be an option.

“What do you do with a horse that has won three Group 2s? He is a good miler and he likes fast ground. I’m sure he will handle the journey and he only needs to improve a couple of lengths with the travel and the conditions and you never quite know. A track like this tests his stamina, but a two-turn mile at Santa Anita will suit him ideally.”

Pedigree Notes
Following on from Thursday’s G3 Tattersalls S. win of his relative Alyanaabi (Ire) (Too Darn Hot (GB)), Mutasaabeq adds another chapter to the remarkable story of his third dam Height Of Fashion (Fr) (Bustino {GB}). A son of the aforementioned G1 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. heroine Ghanaaati, he shares his second dam Sarayir (Mr. Prospector) with Alyanaabi and is therefore linked to the operation’s current and very recent Sea The Stars (Ire) luminaries Baaeed (GB) and Hukum (Ire) and past greats Nashwan and Nayef.

Invincible Spirit’s sire line also shows up in the family’s G3 Cumberland Lodge S.-winning sire Mawahheeq by Danzig, the G2 Queen Mary S. winner and 1000 Guineas-placed Maqaasid (GB) by Green Desert and the GI New York S. winner Makderah (Ire) by Danzig’s Danehill. Ghanaaati also produced the G3 Mahab Al Shimaal scorer Wafy (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Royal Hunt Cup winner Afaak (GB) by Green Desert’s son Oasis Dream (GB).

CARLA’S WAY BRILLIANT IN THE ROCKFEL; HAS BC JUVENILE FILLIES TURF BERTH
by Tom Frary

All who witnessed the Doncaster debut success of Carla’s Way (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}--Sulaalaat {GB}, by New Approach {Ire})) already knew that she was a talented performer, but Shaikh Duaij Al Khalifa’s imposing chestnut had to show it where it matters and she duly delivered in Friday’s G2 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Rockfel S. at Newmarket.

Gifted an ideal lead, a strong pace and fast conditions in this seven-furlong “Win and You’re In” for the $1-million Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, the Crisfords’ 7-2 shot was not for catching once James Doyle had committed passing two out.

Despite the admirable effort of the 13-8 favourite Shuwari (Ire) (New Bay (GB)) from an impossible position, the contest had already been decided and there was a safe 2 1/4-length margin between them at the line. Cont. p16

Ballydoyle’s G3 Silver Flash S.-winning TDN Rising Star Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was back to form a further 2 1/2 lengths away in third, but was outpaced some way out in a race that looked top-level in all but name.

Carla’s Way, who had showed she could run as fast as only the best can do when defeating the smart pair Star Of Mystery (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) and Serene Seraph (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) on her introduction 20 days before disappointing when eighth in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot, had undergone a wind operation before finishing second to the subsequent G2 May Hill S. winner Darnation (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) on ground that would have been unsuitably soft in Goodwood.

The third dam Sumoto (GB) (Mtoto {GB}) was responsible for the G1 Eclipse S. hero Compton Admiral (GB) (Suave Dancer), the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Summoner (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) and the G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Twyla Tharp (Ire) (Sadler’s Wells) who in turn produced the G1 Irish Champion S., G1 Prince of Wales’s S., G1 Nassau S. and G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}). This is also the family of the high-class G1 July Cup and G1 Prix de la Foret winner Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}).

Pedigree Notes

Carla’s Way, who at £350,000 was the second-highest-priced filly at the Goffs UK 2yo Breeze Up Sale, is the third of three current foals out of Sulaalaat who sported the Shadwell silks and was at her best over this trip. Registering a career-best in a handicap at the same Doncaster venue at which her daughter starred on debut, she is a full-sister to the dam of another member of the 2023 juvenile class who has produced something out of the ordinary in the Ripon debut winner but subsequently disappointing Listed Rose Bowl S.-placed Asadna (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

EASY FOR ALCANTOR IN THE THOMAS BRYON by Tom Frary

Up to a mile for the first time in Friday’s G3 Prix Thomas Bryon Jockey Club de Turquie at Saint-Cloud, Baron Edouard De Rothschild’s TDN Rising Star Alcantor (Fr) (New Bay {GB}) made light work of the test to put himself to the forefront of the year’s home-trained juveniles.

Successful here and at Chantilly either side of a third to Havana Cigar (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) over a six-furlong trip that was too sharp at Chantilly in July, the Andre Fabre trainee was always in his comfort zone tagging on to the back of the field with Mickael Barzalona content to wait.

Allowing White Birch Farm’s fellow TDN Rising Star Havana Cigar first run in the straight, the €180,000 Arqana December Foal purchase was finally unleashed wide of the remainder to take control a furlong out en route to a comfortable 2 1/2-length success. The Aga Khan’s unexposed Saganti (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) got up for second, a short neck ahead of Havana Cigar who appeared to tire late.

“His last race was the perfect education to teach him to relax after he had done too much in front on his second start,” Edouard De Rothschild said. “We also made the right decision not to run him in the Prix des Chenes at Longchamp on a day when the temperature reached new heights. He is certainly a very good horse with a lot of talent and it would be nice for his future career at stud to try to win a Group 1 this year, so the Criterium International is a possibility. We will first see how he comes out of this race and then decide if we run him again this season or wait for 2024.”

Pedigree Notes

Alcantor’s dam Bianca De Medici (GB) (Medicean {GB}), a half to the stakes-winning Hungarian champion Thunder Teddington (GB) (Halling), is also responsible for the G2 Union-Rennen winner Boscaccio (Ger) (Mount Nelson {GB}). She is a granddaughter of the Haras du Quesnay broodmare of note Trevillari (Riverman), a full-sister to the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Treble who produced the G1 Shoemaker Breeders’ Cup Mile-placed Tsigane (Fr) (Anabaa) and the dam of the brilliant dual G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe heroine Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}).

Also connected to last year’s G2 Moonee Valley Gold Cup winner Francesco Guardi (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and the multiple champion Triptych, Bianca De Medici’s yearling filly by Romanised (Ire) was a €170,000 purchase by Haras de Meautry at last month’s Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale. She also has a filly foal by Waldgeist (GB).

TIME LOCK TO THE FORE IN THE PRINCESS ROYAL by Tom Frary

Having shown flashes of talent so far, Juddmonte’s Time Lock (GB) (Frankel (GB)) needed to put it all together and duly built on an ego-boosting Listed Grand Prix de Craon win to stamp her class all over Friday’s G3 Princess Royal Al Basti Equisworld, Dubai S. at Newmarket.

Runner-up to the operation’s classy Haskoy (GB) (Golden Horn (GB)) in York’s Listed Galtres S. last August, the Harry and Roger Charlton-trained granddaughter of Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili (GB)) had gone four outings without making the breakthrough prior to her foray to north-western France.

Always travelling strongly towards the rear for Ryan Moore, the 9-2 shot moved easily to the front approaching two out and galloped relentlessly to the line for a commanding 4 1/4-length success in this competitive affair. Adding ballast to the form, the Gosdons’ progressive 3-year-old Sweet Memories (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)) was second, with the same stable’s impressive Listed Pretty Polly S. winner and one-time leading Oaks fancy Running Lion (GB) (Roaring Lion) another 1 1/2 lengths away in third.

“We had been struggling to get our stakes win here, so we decided to bring her over to France for the race we won last year with a nice filly and she bolted up—I’d say it gave her a bit of confidence and she looks to have improved for it,” Juddmonte’s Barry Mahon said. “They went quick and they went a proper mile-and-a-half pace for a Group 3. She stays well, is genuine and tries hard and has always looked a good filly.”

Ascot’s Champions Day fixture could be on the cards now, according to the operation’s racing manager. “We could definitely think about giving the [G1] British Champion Fillies & Mares S. a go, but it would need to be good or good-to-soft ground,” he added. “If it was heavy, it wouldn’t be her cup of tea. There is a Group 1 race in Germany as well for her, so we will speak to the owners and see what they would like to do.”

Pedigree Notes

Another true blueblood to win at this Cambridgeshire meeting, Time Lock is the first foal out of Time Chaser (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) who shares her aforementioned G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud-winning dam Passage Of Time with the multiple group winner and group and Grade I-placed sire Time Test (GB) and the dual Group 3 scorer Tempus (GB) (Kingman (GB)). Passage Of Time, who was also placed in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Turf, G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Nassau S., is a half to the G1 Falmouth S. heroine Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) and G2 King Edward VII S. scorer Father Time (GB) (Dansili (GB)) from the family of the champion Twice Over (GB) (Observatory) and GI Matriarch S. winner Viadera (GB) (Bated Breath (GB)). Tim Chaser’s yearling is a full-sister to the winner, while she also has a filly foal by Sea The Stars (Ire).

AMERICAN CHAMPION MODERN GAMES TO STAND AT DALHAM HALL NEXT YEAR

Godolphin’s Eclipse Champion Male Turf Horse Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}—Modern Ideals {GB}, by New Approach {Ire}) will stand under the Darley banner at Dalham Hall Stud alongside his sire in Newmarket next season. A fee for the five-time top-level victor will be announced in due course.

Trained by Charlie Appleby, he won both the G3 Somerville S. and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf at two. Sent to France at three, Modern Games duly nabbed the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouilains and was third in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club, and second in the G1 Sussex S. two starts later. Returned to North America, the royal blue colourbearer added the GI Woodbine Mile S. and the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile, with a runner-up performance in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. in between. Kept in training at four, the 4-year-old ran second in the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury in May. In his final start, he was fourth in the G1 Queen Anne S. to Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and was retired later this season with a record of 16-8-4-1 and earnings of $3,571,418.

Darley’s Sam Bullard said, “The success of Dubawi as a sire of sires is now well known. How lucky we are to have such a sensational addition by the stallion, and one whose mother is also extraordinarily talented. He is a French Guineas winner, and his half-sister won the English Guineas. He won a Group 1 at two, remaining sound throughout, he finished with a Lockinge at four, and he has a magnificent mindset.

“He is now available to view, breeders should come and see him while in Newmarket and get involved.”

The chestnut is a half-brother to 2023 G1 1000 Guineas heroine Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), as well as listed winner Modern News (GB) (Shamardal), who was runner-up in the G3 Diomed S. and G3 Sovereign S. His dam is a half-sister to G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere victor and sire Ultra (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}), and the family also features dual Group 1 winner Act One (GB) (In The Wings {GB}).

CLASSY SPRINTER CASTLE STAR JOINS THE CAPITAL STUD ROSTER FOR 2024

by Brian Sheerin

Castle Star (Ire), one of the highest-rated sprinting sons of Starspangledbanner (Aus), will stand at Capital Stud in 2024.

A smart sprinter for Fozzy Stack, Castle Star landed the G3 Marble Hill S. He also won the First Flier S. at the Curragh during an exciting juvenile campaign that saw him narrowly miss out on Group 1 honours when runner-up to Perfect Power (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}) in the Middle Park S.

Castle Star will stand alongside Alkumait (GB), Hunting Horn (Ire) and Mirage Dancer (GB) at the County Kilkenny-based stud in Ireland.

He was described by Stack as “straightforward with a great constitution” and Capital Stud’s Ger O’Neill said he was delighted with the acquisition.

“We’re delighted to stand a horse of Castle Star’s calibre,” O’Neill said. “Throughout his two-year-old career he displayed speed, soundness and courage while also having the good looks and pedigree to boot.

“One of the most appealing aspects of standing him for us is access to the Danehill sire line which is becoming more and more difficult.

“He is also from the family of our very own Alkumait. We look forward to supporting Castle Star with some of our best mares and welcoming breeders to Capital Stud to see him.”

ALL-WEATHER CHAMPIONSHIPS SET TO KICK OFF ON OCT. 17

Season XI of the All-Weather Championships is set to kick off on Tuesday, Oct. 17, and culminates back at the same venue with the £1-million All-Weather Championships Finals Day on Mar. 29, 2024, with the £395,000 All-Weather Championships Vase set for the same day at Lingfield Park.
All-Weather Championships Cont.

This year there are some notable changes to the structure of the All-Weather Championships, including removing the ‘Fast Track Qualifier’ status from races which previously earned horses a guaranteed entry to the Final in each category. The rule requiring three runs on an all-weather racing surface in Britain [at either Chelmsford City, Kempton Park, Lingfield Park, Newcastle, Southwell or Wolverhampton, Ireland or France to qualify for the Newcastle and Lingfield Park fixtures remains, and one of the three runs can take place in either Dubai or Saudi Arabia.

Prize-money values will remain unchanged with each Final continuing to offer £150,000, with the Middle-Distance Final set at £200,000.

New for Season XI will be two All-Weather Championships Trials Day fixtures, hosting a series of £45,000 open handicaps at Newcastle on Jan. 1 and Lingfield Park on Mar. 1. The winner of each race will be eligible for free entry to the corresponding Finals Day race at Newcastle and a £30,000 bonus should they go on to also win the finals. Any horse that wins at both All-Weather Trials Days in the same category and goes on to also win at Newcastle will be eligible for a total bonus of £75,000.

ARC also announced the return of the £1-million All-Weather Bonus Scheme earlier this year, which will once again offer monthly, and end of season, rewards to the most consistent performers across the groups four all-weather racecourses. The scheme runs in conjunction with the All-Weather Championships, starting on the same date, Oct. 17.

“The All-Weather Championships is a popular competition throughout the winter months,” Managing Director of ARC’s Racing Division, Mark Spincer, said. “We have, however, looked at the structure of the programme, in conjunction with the BHA, that ultimately leads horses to either Newcastle or Lingfield Park on Good Friday and made a few adjustments.”

FRANKEL BOOK 1 STAR DEBUTS AT KILLARNEY
13.55 Killarney, Mdn, €15,000, 2yo, 8f 30yT
THE EUPHRATES (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is one of two Ballydoyle representatives and the newcomer of the pair, with Seamie Heffernan on the 800,000gns Book 1 graduate who is a relative of Spectrum’s high-class brothers Golan (Ire) and Tartan Bearer (Ire). He is joined by the Curragh sixth Chantilly (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a half-brother to the group 2 winners Royal Dornoch (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) and Hawskmoor (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) who is ably assisted by the five-pound claimer Killian Hennessy.

HOW THEY FARED
16.10 Newmarket, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
Godolphin’s Symbol Of Power (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a full-brother to Gl Natalma S. heroine Wild Beauty (GB), was under pressure before halfway in this debut and finished just over 14 1/2 lengths behind the winner in sixth.

17.45 Dundalk, Mdn, €15,000, 2yo, f, 7fT
Juddmonte’s Quaduple (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the first foal out of G2 Sapphire S. and G3 Ballyogan S. victrix Soffia (GB) (Kyllachi {GB}), was scratched.

The US-bound Coppice who had caused such a stir on her impressive winning 2-year-old debut at Kempton and who had taken Royal Ascot’s ever-competitive Sandringham H. gave an indication as to her worth as a member of the Juddmonte crew across the Atlantic. Anchored in rear early by Frankie Dettori, the full-sister to Calyx (GB) was delivered with her trademark acceleration on the wing and kept finding despite not handling the undulations to deny the seasoned Potapova and a blanket of others close home. There was a sad postscript to the race after the useful Rothschild blueblood Crystal Caprice (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) was pulled up soon into the race with a serious injury.

“She has picked up in the last part, as a mile or a mile-one would be her trip,” John Gosden said of the winner. “She has won at Royal Ascot and she is back to her best here and she has now got the black-type. I think she won very well at Ascot. I know it was a handicap, but she was carrying plenty of weight. She was out early in the year and she got stuck in the mud if you remember, so plans for the Guineas went by the board, but she has held her form well through the year.”

“There is a very strong possibility she will go to America now,” he added. “We have discussed it before, as she is a filly that will fit the racing well there. She will win graded-stakes races there on fast ground around a turning track.”

The aforementioned G2 Coventry S.-winning sire Calyx was prior to this the sole black-type performer for Helleborine, a former TDN Rising Star who captured the G3 Prix d’Aumale and Listed Prix Six Perfections and was second in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. She is a full-sister to the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup heroine African Rose (GB) who was in turn responsible for the ill-fated G3 Princess Margaret S. scorer Fair Eva (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

Another daughter of Observatory is Needleleaf (GB), whose claim to fame comes as the dam of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, G1 Dewhurst S. and G1 Vincent O’Brien National S. hero Native Trail (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Also connected to another Dewhurst winner in Distant Music and to this month’s Listed Flying Scotsman S.-placed TDN Rising Star War Rooms (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), Helleborine has Kingman’s unraced 2-year-old colt Stanage (GB) and yearling filly to follow. Capping a memorable day for New Bay (GB) and two days for Dubawi (Ire) as a sire of sires, the progressive mare Tregony was in no mood for surrendering to last year’s G3 Gordon S. winner and promoted G1 St Leger second New London as they came clear of TDN Rising Star Lion’s Pride (GB) (Roaring Lion).

Progressing through the handicap ranks before finishing third in York’s Listed Galtres S. back at this trip tackling black-type company for the first time last month, the granddaughter of the star mare Timarida (Ire) (Kalaglow {Ire}) was where it was all happening on Friday in front under Saffie Osborne. Despite the game effort of Godolphin’s high-class campaigner, she kept digging deep to find the line just ahead for a breakthrough success.

“She is so tough. She has always been quite energetic in her races and Saffie has gelled from the first time she rode her,” trainer Clive Cox said. “We didn’t intend to make the running there, but she broke so quickly and settled and loved the ground. I’m very pleased for her owners Simon Hope and Stephen Barrow. We were pleased to get her listed-placed last time, but to win a listed race she is almost certainly now destined for the paddocks. It is a special moment when you have a horse that you have raised up through the ranks.”

The winner is the penultimate foal out of the dam, who captured the G3 Denny Cordell & Lanwades Stud Fillies S., is the best progeny out of the aforementioned Timarida who was successful in the GI Beverly D. S., G1 Irish Champion S. and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis among others. She is also connected to the G1 British Champions Sprint S., G1 July Cup, G1 Commonwealth Cup and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest-winning sire Muhaarar (GB). [VIDEO.]

Shalromy, second in Chantilly’s May 19 G3 Prix Texanita, was winless in four black-type starts since posting a career best in March’s Listed Prix Montenica at Deauville and went postward for this shot at redemption coming back off a fifth in La Teste’s Sept. 1 Listed Prix Millkom. Tanking forward to race third after the first three furlongs, she was rowed along with 300 metres remaining and was ridden out inside the final furlong to secure a second stakes victory on the line.

“She has had her ups and downs this season, we had some sick horses and the stable had a very dry spell this summer, but things are coming back to normal,” said trainer Christophe Ferland. “I am very happy she won with my long-time friend Christophe Lemaire aboard and I am delighted for her owners. Her next engagement is the Arc sale tomorrow night.”

Shalromy is the first of three foals produced by a winning half-sister to G3 JRA Cup victor Desert Icon (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), remaining and was ridden out inside the final furlong to secure a second stakes victory on the line.

Al Nayyir made a stakes breakthrough, at the fourth attempt, when notching a four-length triumph in Deauville’s July 30 Listed Prix du Carrousel and went postward for this marathon returning off a runner-up finish back there in the Aug. 27 G2 Grand Prix de Deauville. Positioned in second until inching ahead with five furlongs remaining, he was headed soon after turning for home and stayed on strongly once regaining the lead entering the final furlong to double his black-type tally in game fashion.

“That was an excellent performance, but making some of the running was not exactly the plan as he prefers to come at the other horses,” revealed trainer Romain Le Dren Doleuze. “Theo [Bachelot] gave him a great ride and I really liked how he quickened again one [furlong] out. He has a tendency to idle in front, so he timed the move very well. He is fresh and will come back at the end of the month in the [G1] Prix Royal-Oak [at ParisLongchamp].”

Minaccia's dynasty also features G1 United Nations S. and G1 Manhattan S. hero Tribhuvan (Fr) (Toronado (Ire)) and G1 Prix Ganay victor Mare Australis (Ire) (Australia (GB)).

That Piz Badile was able to win a G3 Ballysax S. and finish runner-up in an Irish Derby at three was almost a bonus given his physical scope for improvement, so this latest instalment of his ongoing story is a welcome one for connections. Third in The Curragh's G2 Mooresbridge S. and G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup in the spring, the homebred was able to move forward easily from his wide draw and race prominently throughout the early stages of this return to action. In front passing two out, he was joined shortly after by Sea The Casper and again proved his determination as he had at Leopardstown last April to see off that raider.

Piz Badile is the first foal out of the dam, who was successful in the Listed Prix Zarkava and runner-up in the G2 Prix Corrida. She is a daughter of Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector), who captured the aforementioned Tattersalls Gold Cup and was placed in the G1 Champion S. and G1 Eclipse S. and is the second dam of the G2 Gimcrack S. and G2 Champagne S. winner Threat (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand (GB)). Shiva is also a full-sister to the G2 Prix Foy winner Limnos (Jpn) and a half to the G1 Oaks heroine Light Shift (Kingmambo), who is in turn the dam of Piz Badile's G1 International S. and G1 Eclipse S.-winning sire Ulysses, which gives him a 3x3 inbreeding to Lingerie (GB) (Shirley Heights (GB)).

Also connected to the top-level winners Main Sequence (Aldebaran) and Cloth Of Stars (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), That Which Is Not also has last year’s G3 Anglesey S. runner-up Yosemite Valley (GB) (Shamardal), the unraced 2-year-old filly Tranquillitatis (GB) (Kingman {GB}), a yearling son of Frankel (GB) and a colt foal by Dubawi (Ire). 3rd-Dundalk, €15,000, Mdn, 9-29, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT), 1:26.57, st. MILLIAT (IRE) (f, 2, Kodiak (GB)--Silent Confession (Ire), by Mr. Greeley) tracked the leaders in fourth through halfway in this debut. Nudged along off the home turn, the 25-1 outsider went second entering the final furlong and was driven out in the latter stages to deny Grand Job (Justify) by a half-length nearing the line. “She won her barrier trial on the bridle and I was surprised that she started at 25-1,” said assistant trainer Brian Slattery. “We think she is very smart and she will probably be for sale, but I’m not sure what will happen next. If she doesn’t get sold, she will probably go for a Guineas Trial as it is all about next year with her. We will speak to the owners and I would imagine she is going to be highly desirable. She wants a mile all day and Andy [Slattery] would love to keep her.” Milliat, half to a yearling colt by Mehmas (Ire), is the seventh of eight foals and fourth scorer produced by an unraced daughter of stakes-winning GI Santa Maria H. runner-up Marzelline (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}), whose leading performer is G3 Yukan Fuji Sho Ocean S. third A Shin Spotter (Jpn) (A Shin Hikari {Jpn}). Marzelline is kin to three black-type performers headed by G3 Ballyroan S. victor and G1 Irish Derby third Stellar Mass (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Sales history: €30,000 Ylg ’22 GOAUYR. OZZIE KHEIR BUYS BREEDERS’ CUP WINNER & COX PLATE CONTENDER VICTORIA ROAD

Last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf hero Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) will contest the A$5-million G1 Cox Plate in the colours of Ozzie Kheir next month, Racing.com reported on Friday.

Bred by Trevor Stewart and trained by Aidan O’Brien for Westerberg, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith, the colt is currently traveling to Australia where he will spend his two-week quarantine in Melbourne. O’Brien will continue training the son of G3 Abernant S. and G3 Charge Sprint S. victress Tickled Pink (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) through his intended starts in the 2040-metre Cox Plate and the 2000-metre G1 Champion S. in the coming weeks. He will then change yards to Ciaron Maher and David Eustace. “We are extremely excited to have secured this very talented Northern Hemisphere 3-year-old with Japanese bloodlines,” Kheir told the publication. “Having already won a Grade I at the age of two and being lightly raced, it gave us confidence as a group to proceed with a deal to acquire Victoria Road from Coolmore. “The Coolmore family have always been a pleasure to deal with, our last significant acquisition being Sir Dragonet (Ire) in 2020. We have now traded together on some high-profile horses and there is a mutual respect for each other where we strike a fair price and terms to suit both. Recently Yes Yes Yes (Aus) and Coolangatta (Aus) have been sold to Coolmore.”

The 115,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 graduate also won the G3 Prix de Conde and the Listed Criterium du Fonds Europeen de l’Elevage at two. At three, he was third in the G2 Dullingham Park S. in two starts. From 10 starts, Victoria Road has won four times with earnings north of $680,000. His second dam is the hugely influential blue hen Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}).

Added Kheir, “Mathew Becker was instrumental in landing the deal on Victoria Road as I, personally, didn’t think we could buy him.

“So, when the opportunity come about on the terms and price, I believed it was really good buying for this loyal and fantastic group of owners we race with.

“We have a runner ready to go in the business end of the spring, provided he travels well, but more importantly, a colt for the future to race in Australia and continue to add to his value with most of, or potentially all, his downside covered by his previous Grade I win as a stallion prospect.

“He will be trained by Ciaron and Dave after his couple of runs in Australia with Aidan O’Brien. It gave us great confidence that Aidan was wanting to continue to travel Victoria Road for our group to compete in the Cox Plate. Victoria Road is currently in the air on route to Werribee [International Horse Centre].

“Our short-term plan post-spring is to target the All-Star Mile and Australia Cup before attacking the Sydney Autumn.”

Namura Clair drawn cosily for Sprinters’ as Group 1 racing returns to Japan by Alan Carasso

After a break of just over 100 days, elite-level racing returns to the Japanese racing scene, as a full field of 18 is set to face the starter in Sunday’s Sprinters’ S. at Nakayama Racecourse.

Five of the entrants are making a repeat appearance in the 1200-metre test, including Namura Clair (Jpn) (Mikki Isle {Jpn}), who was a sound fifth in last year’s running in what was her final appearance as a 3-year-old.

After besting First Force (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) in the G3 Silk Road S. in January, the filly was runner-up to that rival in a soggy-turf renewal of the G1 Takamatsunomiya Kinen Mar. 26. An even eighth to the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile-bound Songline (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) in the G1 Victoria Mile in May, she most recently overcame a wide trip from a double-digit barrier to take out the G3 Keeneland Cup at Sapporo Aug. 27. One of seven females in the field, she has drawn the inside stall for this return to Group 1 competition.

“She’s filled out a lot more and is able to concentrate better on what’s needed in a race, whether it’s speed or closing well at the finish,” said jockey Suguru Hamanaka. “She’s certainly in good condition, and she should run well if everything goes her way.”

Aguri (Jpn) (Caravaggio), a grandson of GISW Together (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), cost nearly $1 million at the 2020 JRHA Select Sale and is battle tested for a relatively lightly raced horse. Victorious in a Group 3 test over 1400 metres on seasonal debut Feb. 26, he weakened to seventh in the easy ground in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen and was fifth behind Lucky Swyness (NZ) (Swyness {Aus}) in the G1 Chairman’s Sprint Prize in Hong Kong Apr. 30. Resuming as a 3-1 chance in the G2 Centaur S. Sept. 10, he fell far behind, but whooshed home to be second to front-running T M Spada (Jpn) (Red Spada {Jpn}) while covering his final 600m in a race-fastest :32.4.

Jasper Krone (Frosted) looks to become the second American-bred winner of the Sprinters’ in succession after Gendarme (Kitten’s Joy) pulled off a 19-1 surprise last fall. Possessed of blistering speed, he’ll try to outfoot them from a high alley and go as far and as fast as he can. The 4-year-old has employed all-the-way tactics in consecutive Group 3 scores at this distance, including a half-length defeat of Sodashi (Jpn) (Kurofune)’s full-sister Mama Cocha (Jpn) in the Kitakyushu Kinen at the end of August.

Pixie Knight (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) won this as a 3-year-old in 2021 and was a sneaky good eighth in the Centaur, and All At Once (Jpn) (Makfi {GB}) also has longshot claims, as he weaved his way through traffic under deft handling to upset the G3 Ibis Summer Dash down the 1000-metre straight at Niigata first off a year layoff July 30.
Imperatriz Peerless in the Moir

by Keely Mckitterick/TTR AusNZ

Imperatriz (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus})–the queen in the tangerine–was once again breathtaking in claiming the G1 Moir S. with Opie Bosson in the saddle on Friday night in front of an excited Moonee Valley crowd.

In the process, the Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson-trained star broke her own track record, clocking :56.47s for the 1000-metre journey when she flew home to beat a very courageous Asfoora (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}) by 1.25l, while Uncommon James (Aus) (Cable Bay {Ire}) finished third.

It was the 15th overall victory and sixth at the elite level from 21 starts for the daughter of Australia’s reigning Champion Sire I Am Invincible, who is raced by Te Akau Racing.

“It’s just an amazing feeling when she lets down. It was sort of a worry today [Friday] as she was a bit up on her toes,” Bosson told Racing.com.

“I think it’s onwards and upwards for Imperatriz.”

Walker was in awe of the mare, “She’s very special to the whole stable. It was a great effort tonight [Friday]. She loves Melbourne, and I see no sense why I should put her on a float to Sydney; she’ll head to the Manikato and then the Champions S.”

Pedigree Notes

The most prolific stakes winner for her Yarraman Park-based, reigning Australian Champion Sire [whose stakes winner total sits at 98], Imperatriz has won 12 races at black-type level. She was bred by Raffles Dancers and purchased by David Ellis for A$360,000 from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft at the 2020 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Imperatriz is the second foal and first winner for Berimbau (Aus) (Shamardal) who earned her black type with a G3 Moonee Valley Fillies Classic third to Lumosty (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Also dam of the multiple city winner Cabaca (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), Berimbau paid a return visit to I Am Invincible last spring having foaled a Capitalist (Aus) colt–sadly losing her previous foal, a Press Statement (Aus) filly.
