FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER CATALOGUE OFFERS CHAMPIONS, BREEDERS' CUP WINNERS, AND MORE

by Sue Finley

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 246 main-catalogue entries for The November Sale, the company's selected mixed sale to be held in Lexington, Kentucky on Tuesday, Nov. 7, following the Breeders' Cup. The single-session sale will begin at 2 p.m.

"The Fasig-Tipton November Sale annually offers a collection of the world's finest bloodstock," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "This year's catalogue is once again outstanding, offering 55 graded stakes winners or producers, 26 of which are Grade I."

Browning continued: "We have Eclipse Champions, international champions, multiple Breeders' Cup winners, and a Kentucky Oaks winner. On the producer side, buyers will find the dams of Eclipse Award winners, Breeders' Cup winners, and a Royal Ascot winner. This sale is one-stop shopping for those seeking the very best."

BC BERTHS IN PILGRIM AND MISS GRILLO

'TDN Rising Star' Agate Road (Quality Road) and Hard to Justify (Justify) win the rescheduled GII Pilgrim S. and GII Miss Grillo S., respectively, at Belmont’s Big A meet to earn “Win and You’re In” spots in next month’s Breeders’ Cup.

CEOF EQUINE FUND GAINS MOMENTUM IN KENTUCKY

"Weanlings have become a very important part of this sale, and this year, we tightened up our acceptance standards to ensure a high-quality group from top to bottom. It's a very good group of foals," Browning added. "The racing and breeding offerings are even deeper this year, as well. Buyers will find significant quality at all levels of the market."

The catalogue may now be viewed online, as may Fasig-Tipton's Enhanced Catalogue.

The Enhanced Catalogue provides up-to-date catalogue pages, Daily Racing Form past performances, and race replays; an Alan Porter pedigree analysis and five-cross pedigrees for all racing/broodmare prospects and broodmares; stallion register pages for all sires of weanlings and covering sires; as well as other tools to aid prospective buyers. All Grade I-winning females off the track or carrying their first foals will also be profiled with individual feature videos.

The catalogue includes 133 weanlings by established and young sires alike, including 2023 first-crop weanling sires Charlatan, Essential Quality, Independence Hall, Knicks Go, Lexitonian, Maxfield, Raging Bull, Rock Your World, Tacitus and Yaupon.

Those weanlings include:

- Hip 8, a Ghostzapper colt whose second dam, Salty Strike, produced champion Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper), also selling at Fasig later on the night;
- Hip 46, a Munnings colt who is a full-brother to Eda, the winner of the GI Starlet S. who sports eight wins in 10 starts; Cont.

- Hip 48, a colt by Into Mischief out of Grade I Spinaway S. winner Sippican Harbor (Orb), from Taylor Made;
- Hip 53, a colt by Maxfield who is a half-brother to GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Bright Future (Curlin), who is pointing to the Breeders' Cup Classic;
- Hip 95, a Gun Runner filly whose second dam, Baffled, produced leading sire Constitution;
- Hip 105, a colt by Constitution who is a half-brother to Grade I Preakness S. winner Rombauer (Twirling Candy);
- hip 213, a colt by Maxfield who is a half-brother to two-time Grade I winner Up To the Mark (Not This Time).

But it’s the mares’ section of the catalogue that really wows. Top mares include:

- Impazible Woman, the dam of Tyler’s Tribe, who won his first five starts in 2022 by a combined 60 lengths;
- Grade I Cotillion S. winner It Tiz Well, in foal to Into Mischief;
- Moira (Ghostzapper), the champion 3-year-old filly and Horse of the Year in Canada, being offered as a racing or broodmare prospect;
- Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}), the winner of this year's GI Beverly D. S. who was also placed in the G1 English 1000 Guineas;
- Needmore Flattery, whose second foal was the three-time GISW ’TDN Rising Star’ Taiba (Gun Runner), carrying a full-sibling to him;
- two-time GI Santa Monica S. winner Merneith, in foal to Flightline;
- Nest (Curlin), the winner of GI Ashland, Coaching Club American Oaks, and Alabama who was the Eclipse Award-winning 3-year-old filly of 2022, and who is expected to start in this Sunday's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. at Keeneland;
- GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Fillies winner Pizza Bianca, in foal to Into Mischief;
- Queen Caroline, the dam of Forte, in foal to Flightline;
- Grade I American Oaks winner Queen Goddess (Empire Maker), from an elite Phipps family;

- Grade I Acorn S. winner Search Results (Flatter);
- Grade I Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Oath (Arrogate);
Slow Down Andy wires the G1 Awesome Again on his way to the Breeders’ Cup Classic. His sire Nyquist also has star sophomore filly Randomized. Only Curlin, Into Mischief and Uncle Mo have more 2023 G1 winners on dirt. Just imagine!

Life Is Good (Into Mischief), who covered a first book 192 mares this past season, will stand his second year at WinStar for $85,000 S&N, while perennial leading sire Speightstown (Gone West) will cover mares at $80,000. Outwork (Uncle Mo), sire of leading juvenile filly and the GI Darley Alcibiades S.-bound Brightwork, will stand for $10,000.

New additions to the WinStar roster include G1 Dubai World Cup hero Country Grammer (Tonalist, $10,000) and GSW and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Two Phil's (Hard Spun, $12,500).

Stud fees for Audible and Always Dreaming, recently represented by GI Pennsylvania Derby winner Saudi Crown, will be determined based on the results of the coming months.

“We are very excited about our roster for 2024,” said Elliott Walden, president, CEO, and racing manager of WinStar Farm. “Constitution’s 2-year-olds have him exactly where we thought he would be, and Life Is Good is coming off a very promising start. We have four stallions--Improbable, Tom’s d’Etat, Global Campaign, and Promises Fulfilled--whose progeny hit the track next year, and give a breeder a very nice upside if they are willing to take a chance. I have had top horsemen tell me they think Two Phil’s is the best 3-year-old in the country, and he is priced right. Country Grammer’s record speaks for itself. Our team can’t wait to get started.”

2018 CLASSIC WINNER ACCELERATE

Accelerate (2013 chestnut horse, Lookin At Lucky--Issues, by Awesome Again)

Lifetime record: Ch. older male, MGISW, 23-10-5-6, $6,692,480

Breeders’ Cup connections: B-Mike Abraham (KY); O-Hronis Racing LLC; T-John Sadler; J-Joel Rosario.

Current location: Lane’s End Farm, Versailles, Ky.

One of the biggest stories going into the 2018 Breeders’ Cup was trainer John Sadler’s 0-41 record on racing’s championship day. Accelerate, whose five for six already on the year included four Grade Is in California, succinctly put all that babble to rest with his win in the biggest race on the card.

“What stands out to me with Accelerate was the year he had that culminated in the Breeders’ Cup Classic,” said Sadler. “He won, what, four or five Grade Is that year. So, he had just a fabulous year and he went to Churchill Downs as the favorite and he ran his race. It was just the thrill of one of the biggest days of my career. My first Breeders’ Cup win. They hashed me over the coals because I hadn’t, until then, hit the big one. It was a great day.” --Jill Williams

THE WAIT BEGINS: FIFTH CIRCUIT HEARS
HISA CONSTITUTIONALITY APPEAL
ARGUMENTS by T.D. Thornton

A 2 1/2-year-old legal fight led by the National Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA) to try and overturn the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) based on alleged constitutional flaws got distilled into one hour of oral arguments on Wednesday in the case’s second go-round before the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in New Orleans.

As expected, lawyers for the two sides stuck to the finer points of constitutionality law, and there were only several passing references related to horse racing. The arguments centered on the non-delegation doctrine, which is a legal principle that holds that Congress cannot delegate the power to legislate to executive agencies or private entities.

The panel of three judges—the same trio that declared a previous version of HISA unconstitutional last November, leading to an amended version of HISA that became law in December—did not overtly tip their hands as to which arguments they might be favoring based on the questions they asked of the attorneys. Nor did the judges conclude the session by declaring any timetable for issuing their decision.

The National NHBPA, 12 of its affiliates, and a number of Texas-based racetrack entities, plus the state of Texas itself and its racing commission, are the plaintiffs/appellants.

The HISA Authority, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), and officials from each organization are the defendants/appellees.

"Congress did not, with this meager amendment, fix the fatal non-delegation problems plaguing HISA," said William Cole, an attorney for the state of Texas who was among those who argued for the appellants.

"Again, there's at least three areas where the lawmaking power is not sufficiently subordinated, because, as we've mentioned time and again, the Authority's rules govern unless they can shove a rule through notice-and-comment rulemaking. The upshot is that for years, it's likely going to be the case that the Authority's rules govern, not the FTC's," Cole said.

Joseph Busa, an attorney for the FTC, argued that the appellees believe the Fifth Circuit already settled the outstanding non-delegation issues when the same panel identified the constitutional flaws that led to Congress's rewrite of HISA.

"What [the appellants] are presenting to you, is they are saying no private entity can wield this kind of power, regardless of how subordinate they are, regardless of the degree of supervision that the public agency has over them." Cont.
Coady

“That is squarely inconsistent with almost 100 years of Supreme Court precedent,” Busa said. The panel of judges referenced the "voluminous" number of pre-argument briefs filed by both sides in the case. The HBPA had written in a pre-argument brief that it has problems with the Authority allegedly portraying itself as both a governmental body or a private organization "depending on which suits its interests on any individual argument," according to an Aug. 25 court filing.

"Sometimes [the Authority] wants to be like a government entity, with the power to compel registration, collect mandatory fees, conduct searches, draw blood and urine samples, and impose sanctions with 'the force of federal law,'" the HBPA brief stated.

"Other times it wants to be a private business league, choosing its own board, running its own corporate affairs, and exempt from the Appointments and Appropriations clauses, the Freedom of Information Act, etc..." the brief continued.

This purported dual nature of the Authority, the HBPA alleged, "exposes the overall flaw" by which the 2022 rewrite of the HISA law should be struck down. "Nothing could be more unfair or inequitable than to have a regulator with all the powers of government but exempt from all the democratic accountability and safeguards for liberty imposed on government," the HBPA's filing stated.

The Authority defendants had asserted to the Fifth Circuit in their own pre-argument brief filed Aug. 4 that the HBPA's "feeble attempts" to contrast HISA with other statutes upheld against private non-delegation challenges rest on supposed differences that are either factually inaccurate or constitutionally irrelevant. Cont.

The Authority's brief put it this way: "Congress, the Executive, and all three federal courts that have considered the amended Act have reached the same conclusion: HISA is now constitutional. As every court to consider Congress’s amendment has held, HISA no longer violates the private-nondelegation doctrine because the Authority is now subordinate to the FTC," the filing stated.

The first time the HBPA plaintiffs attempted to challenge the original 2020 version of the HISA statute in federal court, on Mar. 15, 2021, the suit was dismissed, on March 31, 2022.

The HBPA plaintiffs then appealed, leading to the above-referenced Fifth Circuit Court reversal on Nov. 18, 2022, that remanded the case back to the lower court. In the interim, an amended version of HISA got passed by Congress and was signed into law by President Joe Biden on Dec. 29, 2022.

On May 4, 2023, the lower court deemed that the new version of HISA was constitutional because the rewrite of the law fixed the problems the Fifth Circuit had identified.

The HBPA plaintiffs then swiftly filed another appeal back to the Fifth Circuit, which led to an "expedited" scheduling of the Oct. 4 oral arguments.

The three judges on this Fifth Circuit panel are Stuart Kyle Duncan and Kurt D. Engelhardt (both nominated to their positions by President Donald Trump in 2018) and Carolyn Dineen King (who was nominated by President Jimmy Carter in 1979).

'TDN RISING STAR' AGATE ROAD EARN S BC BERTH IN PILGRIM by Alan Carasso

Repole Stable and St. Elias Stable’s ‘TDN Rising Star’ Agate Road (Quality Road) saved his best for last, as he found his best stride inside the final furlong and edged away to take Wednesday’s GII Pilgrim S., earning an all-expenses-paid trip to Santa Anita for the Nov. 3 GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf in the process.

Favored at a shade under 5-2, the $650,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase--carrying the St. Elias colors this time--was content to sit one from the tail as the outposted Spirit Prince (Cairo Prince)--a latest third in the GIII With Anticipation S. Aug. 31--crossed and cleared all the inside traffic to lead through an opening quarter in :23.51. Quietly ridden down the back by Irad Ortiz, Jr., Agate Road was asked for some acceleration at the midpoint turn with less than three furlongs to race, but was forced to concede ground in the process. Spun widest into the stretch, Agate Road was up into third and looking a bit one-paced at the eighth pole, but began to zero in on Spirit Prince a few strides thereafter and did his best work through the wire. Fulmineo (Bolt d’Oro) knifed through late for second ahead of the dead-heating Liam’s Journey (Liam’s Map) and Spirit Prince.

A claim of foul by Fulmineo’s jockey Flavien Prat against the winner was ultimately denied and the result allowed to stand. Owing to an apparent toteboard malfunction, the numbers of the third and fourth home flashed erroneously. Cont.

SELLING WEDNESDAY, NOV. 8
AT KEENELAND NOVEMBER

Agate Road was to make his career debut on the turf at Saratoga Aug. 5, stayed in when it was washed onto a fast main track and finished well to just miss. Getting his chance on the grass Sept. 2, the bay raced near the back of the pack in a paceless race, was seven deep into the lane, was forced out by a drifting rival in upper stretch and motored home to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat.

"Last time, he had too much to do and he still [got] there," the winning jockey commented. "That gave me a lot of confidence. It was a beautiful trip and I just lost a couple lengths in the last turn and I was comfortable with that. I trust the trainer [Todd Pletcher]—he told me the horse was ready."

The Pilgrim was originally scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 1, but when the rained-out Saturday program (minus the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic) was conducted Sunday, the Pilgrim was transferred to Wednesday, normally a dark day on the New York circuit.

Pedigree Notes:
The 78th worldwide black-type winner and 38th graded/group winner for Quality Road, Agate Road is one of three winners from three to race out of Yellow Agate, a $70,000 Keeneland November weanling turned $210,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by China Horse Club who validated 13-10 favoritism in the GI Frizette S. in 2016. The mare is also responsible for Agate Road’s year-older full-sister Plentitude, a maiden winner at first asking over the Tampa main track in April before taking an allowance sprinting over the Belmont turf course in June. She was most recently fourth in the Blue Sparkler S. at Monmouth July 8.

JUSTIFY'S HARD TO JUSTIFY PUNCHES BREEDERS' CUP TICKET IN MISS GRILLO

“She really engaged and switched gears. From there, I thought she got the job done,” understated journeyman Flavien Prat about his mount, 7-1 Hard to Justify (Justify), in Wednesday’s rescheduled ‘Win and You’re In' GI Miss Grillo S. at Belmont’s Big A meet. The win, her second from two starts, gives Hard to Justify a fees-paid berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf next month at Santa Anita.

A big, hearty-looking filly, Hard to Justify broke powerfully and cleanly from the inside to ease smoothly up to the front. She was swiftly joined by an intent-on-the-lead Camila T (Ire) (No Nay Never), who was fresh off a 13-length debut romp and field-best 90 Beyer Speed Figure at Monmouth Park Aug. 19. Hard to Justify let her go, tracking as a solo second through the :23.93 first quarter and :50 half. Pouncing on Camila T into the lane, Hard to Justify proved game as she put away a challenging Whimsically (Uncle Mo) and dug in to hold off a rallying Life’s an Audible (Audible). The race favorite, Bill Mott's GII With Anticipation S. winner Gala Brand (Violence), was fourth.

Hard to Justify is the ninth Miss Grillo winner for trainer Chad Brown, going back to 2008 with inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Maram (Sahm).

Wise Racing bought Hard to Justify out of last year's Keeneland September sale for $190,000. She debuted July 23 under Prat at the Spa in a determined effort. Her head win that day came after bumping, steadying, facing traffic, losing ground, and finally closing while six wide, making it a far more visually impressive effort than it may appear on paper. Cont.

“The first race, she broke OK and then I let her sit back,” said Prat. “After that, I had to check at the three-eighths, going into the last turn. I thought that race she had every right to get beat and she didn’t, so I thought it was impressive and I was expecting a good run today.”

Pedigree Notes:

Coolmore America stallion and 2018 Horse of the Year Justify is having a stellar year with his second-crop 2-year-olds, which include Sunday’s G1 Qatar Prix Marcel Boussac winner Opera Singer, this summer’s dual GSW Ramatuelle in France, English GSW City of Troy, and now Hard to Justify. Overall, Justify has 16 black-type winners bred in this hemisphere, as well as 11 graded winners in these initial two crops. A number of different broodmare sire lines are represented in those first stakes winners and Hard to Justify is the only one out of a mare by Quality Road. That Lane’s End sire, only 17, has 10 black-type winners out of his first daughters.

Yeguada Centurion bought the winner’s dam in foal to Arrogate for $300,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November sale and bred her the next year to Justify, resulting in the Miss Grillo winner. The mare has only had one reported foal since, an Uncle Mo colt that is now a yearling and was foaled in Ireland. Placed in the 2017 GII Senator Ken Maddy S., Instant Reflex hails from the same family as 2018 GII Pat Day Mile S. winner Funny Duck (Distorted Humor) and 2020 GII Tampa Bay Derby winner/GI Arkansas Derby runner-up King Guillermo (Uncle Mo).

CEO EQUINE FUND GAINS MOMENTUM IN CENTRAL KENTUCKY by Katie Petrunyak

English may be his second language, but it certainly would have been difficult to guess when 2nd grader Markus won his school’s spelling bee and went on to compete against kids several years his elder in a district-wide spelling tournament.

Markus moved with his family to the U.S. several years ago when his parents started jobs working on a horse farm in Paris, Kentucky. His family valued education and after receiving a partial scholarship, Markus was able to attend St. Mary School in his new hometown, where his principal Miranda Chaplin said he and his preschool-aged younger brother are model students.

Markus is one of the first young students to benefit from a newly formed fund dedicated to providing tuition assistance for children in Kindergarten through eighth grade whose parents or legal guardian work in the equine industry in Central Kentucky. The Catholic Education Opportunities Foundation (CEOF)'s Equine Fund began as an idea years ago from Father Chris Clay and the Clay family of Runnymede Farm. The fund officially launched this year and in its inaugural academic season, 10 children applied for funding and each one received tuition assistance of some kind.

CEOF is a non-profit that has been in existence since 2018, serving the 12 Catholic schools based in Lexington and the surrounding areas of Woodford and Bourbon counties, Frankfort, Richmond, Georgetown, Winchester and on into Eastern Kentucky, but the fund dedicated specifically for equine industry participants and their elementary-aged children is the first and only one of its kind.

Taylor Made Farm’s Mark Taylor and his wife Julia have been members of CEOF’s leadership council from the very beginning. Julia later became a member of its official Board and also now serves on its financial committee.

Taylor spoke of the impact she has witnessed over the years with families receiving tuition assistance.

“The families and the kids are so grateful,” she said. “We’ve seen firsthand the difference that it makes. There are a lot of hardworking, great people that would like to send their kids to Catholic schools but can’t quite afford it. We want to help these families bridge their financial gap and attend our wonderful schools.”

CEOF’s Executive Director Kim Thompson said that scholarships provided by their organization are partially-funded —aimed to make Catholic education more affordable for families—and that the amount given to each family is determined by a third-party agency called FACTS.

She also explained that the funding is for children of any faith background and that the advantages of Catholic education can impact a child spiritually, but in other ways as well.

“We feel that this type of education gives children a leg up academically and offers families different opportunities,” she said. “There’s a focus on values and service in their communities, so it’s more than just the tradition of strong academics.”

St. Mary School is in the heart of horse country in Paris and Chaplin confirmed that the students reflect its agrarian setting. The principal noted that a quarter of their attendees have parents connected to the equine industry in some way, including a range of socioeconomic representation from farm owners and farm managers to farm workers.

Chaplin said the equine fund has the potential to benefit a large number of families in their community.

“The goal of the equine fund is to create more accessibility so that families have the opportunity to provide their children with the best education choice for their family,” she explained. “For some of our families—thinking specifically about folks who are farm labor—they might not otherwise have access to a Catholic education if it was not for the help of scholarships and financial assistance.”

In recent years, Chaplin said, their numbers have increased thanks in part to the funding provided by the CEOF that has made education options more affordable.

“Since the start of the pandemic, our school has doubled in enrollment,” she said. “Because families are looking for more education opportunities for their families, the need for financial assistance has also grown.”

Godolphin’s Gerry Duffy is a member of the CEOF’s leadership council and is also on the Equine Fund’s committee. He said that funding from this project could have a lasting impact on the industry and its participants.

“If you want to change your environment or change your community, give people an education,” he said. “I think a lot of people realize that and are happy to give those opportunities to kids within the horse industry. It’s another way to add value to our employees. Helping their kids with their education is one of the best things you can do for someone. If we can make a difference and help out some of those families and give some of those kids an opportunity, we should.”

CEOF is now working to get the word out on their fledgling fund for the next academic year—both to families that may apply for funding and industry members that might be interested in getting involved. Cont.

In addition to Runnymede, Taylor Made and Godolphin, the project has already gained early support from the likes of Hallway Feeds, Fasig-Tipton and Old Colony Insurance.

“We’re still in the infancy stage of the CEOE Equine Fund and we’re really focusing on getting the word out to people in the horse industry,” Taylor said. “The ultimate goal is to build this fund up so that it will produce income every year that we will then distribute to families for tuition assistance to keep it going. We’re still in the building phase and we have big hopes for the future.”

Thompson shared that they have large goals for the coming years. They hope to double the number of children granted funding for the 2024-2025 school year and then continue to double that number for the next five years.

As the program’s notoriety continues to grow within the industry, they could be well on their way to achieving just that.

“It’s an exciting time for us,” Thompson said. “We really feel that this not only benefits the area’s parochial schools with additional enrollment, but it also gives opportunities to families that otherwise may not be afforded them. Central Kentucky is the hub of the equine industry, so creating the CEOE Equine Fund just makes sense and now we’re rapidly gaining momentum within the industry.”

PALMER: 'PET SCAN NOT APPROPRIATE AS INITIAL SCREENING TOOL'

New York State Equine Medical Director Dr. Scott Palmer has described Positron Emission Tomography (PET) scan as a “fantastic diagnostic tool” and that “it can play a very important role” in helping to identify and pinpoint subtle musculoskeletal injuries in horses, but that the scan is not the best initial screening tool in singling out horses at risk for catastrophic injuries.

Palmer addressed the issue during an equine health and safety briefing held at Tuesday's meeting of the New York State Gaming Commission and also offered some preliminary findings on the 17 equine fatalities recorded during this summer’s Saratoga meeting.

“Identification of horses at risk for catastrophic injury must begin with a screening protocol that can be scalable, practical, affordable, and can be used by every horse while training or racing without regard to any clinical indication of injury,” Palmer said in revised comments issued Wednesday. “Wearable biometric sensors are best suited to accomplish this first level of screening. These sensors detect subtle abnormalities in a horse’s gait that are not detectable with the human eye. They serve as a 'check engine' light that alerts us to the possibility that there is something wrong with the horse and that the horse should be examined by a veterinarian.

“The veterinary examination is the second level of screening for an abnormality that might predispose a horse to injury. The goal is to reach a diagnosis of musculoskeletal abnormalities and typically will include use of diagnostic nerve blocks and digital radiography. If lameness is detected in a limb during this examination and digital radiographs are inconclusive, then advanced imaging such as PET can be employed as a final screening step in this process. Cont.

“In summary, PET can play a very important role in the diagnosis of subtle musculoskeletal injuries in horses, but it is not useful at the initial screening level,” he concluded.

Palmer added that biometric sensors placed in horses' saddlecloths that can help identify at-risk animals, are “not quite ready for ‘prime time’ use” at this time.

In referencing the 17 Saratoga fatalities--a number that is approximately 1% of the 2,000 horses stabled at the track but three times higher than 2021 and 2022--Palmer noted that the incidents were clustered around Whitney and Travers weekends. He added that fetlock injuries, typically responsible for 48-50% of fatal musculoskeletal injuries in New York and California over the last decade, represented 92% of all the exercise-associated fatal musculoskeletal injuries at Saratoga, a “significant finding” in Palmer’s estimation.

Twelve of the 13 exercise-associated injuries occurred either during the final furlongs of the race or during the gallop out, suggesting that fatigue was also a contributing factor.

Palmer explained that the unprecedented 11 inches of rain that fell during the meet--compared to nine inches in 2021 and 8 inches in 2022--had a material impact on the consistency of the racing surfaces. During the meet, there were 65 surface changes (16%) compared to just 17 (4%) in 2022. With those facts in mind, “increased moisture in the Saratoga main dirt track and spatial and temporal variation of the moisture content of the track during the meet were likely contributing factors to the increase in the number of racing fatalities.”

A comprehensive report of the investigation will be made available to the public as soon as the investigation is complete.

IS THE DERBY PURSE FAIR? MORE OPINION FROM READERS by Sue Finley

In the Sept. 30 edition of the Thoroughbred Daily News, we ran an interview with John Sikura (Sikura: No Simple Solutions for a Fractured Sport, TDN, Sept. 27) in which he raised questions about the funding mechanism and purse of the Kentucky Derby. In Tuesday's TDN, industry insiders weighed in with their own commentary. Today, we publish additional opinions on the subject.

Scott Heider, Owner

It made me smile recently when I saw my friend John Sikura shared his opinions in the TDN. Similar to the ongoing discussions we have on the equine industry (and also plenty of non-industry topics), John has gained some real wisdom over the last few decades. But he's always open to new ideas and he's far from stuck in his ways, which is why he's succeeded and will continue to do so. John's opinions the other day contained some great nuggets including his view on Churchill Downs and The Derby. I will submit that money does not by itself fix problems and I know John very much agrees with this, too. It doesn't work this way in business (perhaps short term occasionally), and it certainly doesn't work this way in philanthropic endeavors. We'd have largely eradicated poverty and poor school systems in this country by now if it did. What it does take in the public and private sectors is leadership. Leadership that has vision and is willing to do whatever it takes to provide its clients with an experience and/or product that they want more of, not less. Leadership that inspires others, both within a company and within an industry, to raise their games and be better. It's largely what this country is built on. I think most of us either live this or at least fully understand and appreciate it.

Churchill Downs is a publicly traded company, and that, in and of itself, is not an issue. Churchill Downs is a very important player in the industry. They are stewards of two of the most important race days our sport offers each year. Two incredibly visible worldwide race days that can and absolutely should represent everything that makes this amazing sport what it is today. In some ways, they do shine a proper light on our sport for these 48 hours and should be commended for the constant reinvestment that takes place. In other ways, they fail pretty spectacularly for all the reasons we know all too well.

Churchill Downs, a storied brand in our industry and a high visibility player that should be setting the proper tone for the sport itself, is not playing long ball. Far from it, in my opinion. That is the real issue. Everything else, from purses to engagement with industry participants to fan experiences, follows. Can it change and what would it take to embrace a larger role as a high-profile industry leader? Cont.

That's unclear, but I do know we must have Churchill Downs in this role. Can you imagine for a moment if Augusta National adopted a similar mentality to Churchill for its presentation of The Masters? I can't, either.

Rick Dawson, Owner, Rich Strike

In the weeks leading up to Kentucky Derby #148 in 2022, and even after Rich Strike was fortunate enough to make it into the race at the last minute, the value of the purse never entered my mind. Not once.

Winning the most prestigious horse race in the world, in my opinion, was more gratifying than any purse amount.

As for Rich Strike, he's returning to full training with Bill Mott in the next couple of weeks. GO RICHIE!

Larry Kerr, Fan and Gambler, Miami, Florida

Why would anyone be surprised that Churchill Downs Inc. (CDI) has not raised the Kentucky Derby purse in years, that said purse is woefully inadequate and that CDI does not seem to really care, as they know they will get a full starting gate year after year?

After all, this is the same corporate entity that does not even allow the Daily Racing Form to be sold under the Twin Spires. CDI could care less about what is good for the game. They only care about themselves and their shareholders.

STAKES PURSES RAISED BY $1.2 MILLION AT FAIR GROUNDS

Louisiana’s Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots will host 73 black-type races worth a combined $9.7 million during the upcoming 76-day 2023-24 Thoroughbred meet, officials at the New Orleans oval announced Wednesday. The amount is up $1.2 million from last year, but does include $1 million in base purses offered Dec. 2 as Fair Grounds hosts the 25th annual Claiming Crown. That event returns to Fair Grounds for the first time since 2011 with purses ranging from $75,000 to $200,000. Another $25,000 in each race will be available in purse supplements for accredited Louisiana-bred horses.

Opening day is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 17, with six $75,000 Louisiana-bred stakes over the season’s first two days, while the Road to the Derby Kickoff Day happens Dec. 23 with eight stakes.

“Many deserve thanks for their dedication and efforts to make this happen,” said Fair Grounds Racing Secretary Scott Jones. “Along with our phenomenal Road to the Kentucky Derby series and thriving turf course, this is one more reason why there is no better winter destination for horse racing than New Orleans.”

The highlight of the season, the $1,000,000 GII Louisiana Derby, is set for Saturday, Mar. 23, with 100-50-25-15-10 points awarded to the top five finishers on the Road to the Kentucky Derby. Eight stakes worth a total of $2,625,000 will be carded for the day, including the $400,000 GII Fair Grounds Oaks Presented by Fasig-Tipton, which awards 100-50-25-15-10 points en route to the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks. Last year’s runner-up Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) rebounded from that defeat with a victory in the Oaks.

“The strong infusion of our sport’s top 3-year-olds training and racing at Fair Grounds has been very apparent these past few seasons,” Jones said. “Beginning with the Gun Runner and the Untapable for late-season juveniles, it’s proven that our progressive schedule of 3-year-old races for both the boys and girls gives horsemens the proper distances and spacing to prepare their runners for the first weekend in May and beyond.”

Closing day is Sunday, Mar. 24. Regular post time throughout the meet will be 12:45 p.m. CT, with an earlier noon CT first post on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 23), Road to the Derby Kickoff Day (Dec. 23), Road to the Derby Day (Jan. 20), Louisiana Derby Preview Day (Feb. 17), and Louisiana Derby Day (March 23).

Ice Cold was a non-factor sixth in her two previous starts at Saratoga--spurring on dirt July 30 and going two turns on grass Sept. 3. Heavily favored to earn her diploma versus stakes company in this first try versus state-breds, she tracked the early leaders from an inside fourth, was angled out four wide approaching the quarter pole and put on a show from there while becoming the second stakes winner for her freshman sire.

Corningstone (Kantharos), a multiple stakes-winning half-sister to Ice Cold and also trained by Ken McPeek, won this same race as a maiden last year. The winner’s dam had a colt by Omaha Beach in 2022 and a colt by Bolt d’Oro this year. She was bred back to Jackie’s Warrior.

“This filly is a half-sister to Corningstone, who won this stakes race last year,” winning jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. said. “Ken (McPeek) wanted to follow the same game plan. Corningstone came into this race last year and broke her maiden and this filly did the same today. We sat pretty comfortable and found something to finish with today.” Click for the Equibase.com chart.

TIZZY IN THE SKY (f, 4, Sky Kingdom--Tiz the Tide, by Tiznow), a back-to-back runaway winner for trainer Jose Camejo at this meet last fall, wrapped up her sophomore campaign with a fifth-place finish in the GIII Comely S. Nov. 25. She returned off the layoff for trainer Todd Pletcher with a well-beaten sixth-place finish at Saratoga Aug. 30, but got back on track in a big way here. The 7-2 chance broke on top from her rail draw and never looked back en route to a 9 3/4-length score over Fireline (Arrogate). After producing a filly by Instagram this year, the winner’s dam was bred back to War of Will. Lifetime Record: 7-3-2-0, $213,900. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

I'M VERY BUSY (c, 3, Cloud Computing--Two Kisses, by Kissin Kris), an impressive debut winner over the Saratoga turf last summer and runner-up in the GI Pilgrim S. in the fall, finished 10th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Keeneland Nov. 4. He made two previous starts at Saratoga this summer, most recently finishing third at the Spa Sept. 2. Taking the blinkers off for this, the 7-5 favorite raced in an inside fourth for most of the way, split horses at the top of the stretch and kicked on to score by a widening 4 1/2 lengths over Fredo (Nyquist). COOLMORE SNAPS UP FRANKEL COLT FOR 2 MILLION GNS

The Frankel colt who led the way on Wednesday
Laura Green/Tattersalls

By Emma Berry and Brian Sheerin
NEWMARKET, UK—From a muted opening, Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale picked up the pace on Wednesday with a further four seven-figure lots gracing the ring. These sparked some solid bidding wars between established superpowers such as Coolmore, Godolphin and Juddmonte, with a decent representation of newer players from Bahrain and other Gulf nations, and strong participation from American-based Mike Ryan and Chad Brown.

The ripples of Frankel (GB) combined with Hascombe & Valiant Stud were felt on the turf of Longchamp on Sunday when Ace Impact (Ire), a son of the Oppenheimer’s Frankel-sired star Cracksman (GB) waltzed off with the Arc. Cont. p3

CAUTHEN, PEBBLES TO BE INDUCTED INTO BRITISH HALL OF FAME

American jockey Steve Cauthen and the outstanding turf mare Pebbles (GB) (Sharpen Up {GB}) will be inducted into the QIPCO British Champions Series Hall of Fame, the official Hall of Fame for Flat racing in Britain. The newest inductees will be recognized on QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot on Oct. 21, with Cauthen making a rare trip over from the US.

Cauthen becomes just the fifth rider to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, while Pebbles becomes the first of her gender to be inducted alongside the likes of Frankel (GB) and his legendary late sire Galileo (Ire). Cauthen and Pebbles teamed to win the 1985 Eclipse S. at Sandown.

Now 63, Cauthen is the only jockey in history to have ridden the winners of both the Derby and Kentucky Derby and is the youngest to have ever won the US Triple Crown aboard Affirmed in 1978. He is the only jockey to appear on the cover of TIME magazine, which he did alongside the late boxer Muhammad Ali. Cauthen was Britain’s champion jockey on three occasions and rode the winners of 10 English Classics, all but one for trainer Sir Henry Cecil, including Derby winners Slip Anchor and Reference Point.

"I'm grateful to have had so many brilliant opportunities on both sides of the pond and to still be recognised for my achievements is really quite special to me," Cauthen said.

HARD TO JUSTIFY, bred by Yeguada Centurion, won yesterday’s Miss Grillo Stakes-Gr.2 for Chad Brown and Wise Racing to remain unbeaten.
Four horses and their grooms were honoured with the Arqana Series Best-Turned-Out Award on Wednesday.

A quintet of blueblooded races are spread across Thurles and Salisbury on Thursday in the latest round of Observations.

M.V. Magnier and Peter Brant’s White Birch Farm teamed up to buy a Frankel colt for 2 million gns to top Day 2.
This year, with Anthony Oppenheimer selling a large draft of colts at Tattersalls, his stud was represented by a star turn of a different kind with the Frankel colt out of Bizzaria (GB) (Lemon Drop Kid) heading Book 1 when sold for 2 million gns to Coolmore.

The dam of lot 266 hails from a different Hascombe & Valiant family to Cracksman but it is one which has nevertheless provided the stud with much success. Her full-brothers Cannock Chase and Pisco Sour are Grade I and Group 2 winners respectively, and they are both former winners of the G3 Tercentenary S. at Royal Ascot. Their half-sister Star Catcher (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) was better still, with her hat-trick of Group 1 victories including the Irish Oaks. With five of his seven-strong Book 1 draft having been sold already for a total of 2.9 million gns, Oppenheimer was naturally pleased with the week’s business.

"So far we have done quite well," he said. “I know [the Frankel colt] is a very nice horse. He’s refuelled the stud’s finances and it can’t do any harm.”

Oppenheimer’s biggest success in recent years came with the 2015 Derby and Arc winner Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), and he is also the breeder of this year’s Gold Cup winner, Courage Mon Ami (GB), who is yet another son of Frankel and was sold to Wathnan Racing just prior to Royal Ascot.

Over at Navan, another Frankel colt bought by Coolmore at Book 1 last year for 1.9 million gns, Euphoric (GB), broke his maiden on debut and, through various partnerships, the team, headed by MV Magnier, played a more prominent role at Tattersalls on Wednesday while stocking up on next year’s juvenile crop. SARACEN
HORSE FEEDS
After having the final say over Godolphin and Juddmonte for the session-topper, Magnier said, “They [Hascombe & Valiant Stud] are very good breeders and have bred some very nice horses in the past. Frankel is flying at the moment. He’ll go to Ballydoyle and let’s hope he’s good.”

Late in the session, lot 352 drew a crowd back into the gangway as Magnier batted away a strong challenge from outside the ring and finally prevailed at 1.25 million gns. From Clara Stud and bred by CN Farm, the Wootton Bassett (GB) colt is a half-brother to G1 Commonwealth Cup winner and Sumbe stallion Golden Horde (Ire) (Lethal Force {Ire}) as well as the Listed winners Exhort (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) and Line Of Departure (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}).

Further back, the strong black-type dynasty of champion filly Serena’s Song (Rahy) adds fortification to the page. His dam, Entreat (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), is one of 15 mares owned by Kilkenny native James Cloney in partnership with his father-in-law. Cloney, a pharmacist by trade, admitted to be living out a long-held dream by exceeding seven figures with a horse he’d bred.

“It’s once in a lifetime to have such a beautiful article,” he said. “Entreat is a special mare and she really produces top-quality stock. I had a dream about this. Thank God it came true for the family.”

Cloney acquired Entreat, a Cheveley Park Stud-bred mare, at the July Sale here in 2016 through BBA Ireland for just 14,000gns. Her son Golden Horde (Ire) put the pedigree in lights with a G1 Commonwealth Cup victory and Cloney revealed that he has wisely retained another filly from the family.

He explained, “She has a beautiful Dark Angel filly foal at home but is barren at the moment. We’re lucky enough to have another daughter at home, called Dutch Treaty (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), who has turned out to be a stakes producer herself. I’m lucky to have a nice daughter already.

“It’s a family-run operation. My father-in-law is Michael Nolan and Paddy Kelly, who led the horse around tonight, helps us as well. I am a pharmacist by trade but am from a farming background. The horses are what keep me right, looking out at them in the evening time.”

- Mike Ryan and Chad Brown have also been busy and have recruited 12 European yearlings to take back to America for a total of 2,740,000gns.

- While trade certainly had a more buoyant feel to it than on the opening day, the median of 195,000gns was actually lower than Tuesday’s 205,000gns, while the average, at 265,664gns, was up, thanks to a higher number of seven-figure lots. In comparison to last year’s second session, the figures were all down, but on that day, eight of the sale’s 16 seven-figure lots were sold. There have been six million-plus yearlings so far across the two days, and there had been 11 by this stage in 2022.

- Wednesday’s aggregate settled at 35,599,000gns (-28%), and the clearance rate was 84%, representing 134 horses sold from 160 offered.

- George Boughey cut his teeth as a trainer with small-money buys--Missed The Cut (Quality Road) and Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}) cost 100,000gns put together--but this week represented a breakout sale for the trainer. Boughey signed for three yearlings in his own name for a total of 865,000gns.

Fellow Darley stallion Pinatubo (Ire) was next best for the young guns. Six of his yearlings sold at an average of 237,500gns and aggregate of 1,425,000gns. Earthlight (Ire) also fared well with four selling for an average of 212,500gns, including a 240,000gns colt [lot 237] to Ben McElroy to Stonestreet Stables.

McCartan Lauds 1.5M Blue Point Showstopper

Renowned breeder Paul McCartan of Ballyphilip Stud heaped praise on his Blue Point (Ire) half-brother to multiple Group 1-winning sprinter Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by describing him as the best horse he has ever had anything to do with. That is saying something as, along with Battaash, McCartan has had Xtension (Ire), Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) and Harry Angel (Ire) through his hands. But he clearly wasn’t alone in his appraisal of lot 240, who drew a collected hush at a jam-packed auditorium during Book 1 with Godolphin seeing off Najd Stud at 1.5 million gns.

“Look, I haven’t said it to too many people, but I think he’s the nicest horse I have ever had anything to do with,” a delighted McCartan said moments after the sale. “I really think that. I have always put Battaash number one but, just when he [the Blue Point colt] got here and did everything right and everything came together--he’s an absolute belter.” Cont. p6

A belter is probably the best way of putting it. The Blue Point colt commanded the attention of some of the top judges in the game and even Joe Foley labelled him “the best horse in the sale” before bowing out at 800,000gns.

Mark McStay and Simon Mockridge of Juddmonte got a little closer to the magic 1.5-million mark but, in the end, it was Najd Stud, to the left of auctioneer Simon Kerins, and Anthony Stroud, bidding outside the sale ring on behalf of Godolphin, who draw away from the rest.

Godolphin weren’t for beating and once again threw their might behind a colt by one of their own bright young stallions. On Monday, it was a Ghaiyyath (Ire) half-brother to Breeders’ Cup hero Victoria Road (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) who piqued interest from Sheikh Mohammed’s powerful operation.

Just 24 hours later, it was the colt by Blue Point, who has made the most terrific start to his stallion career with Big Evs (Ire) and Rosallion (Ire) the most notable performers, who led the way.

McCartan continued, “I’m delighted that Godolphin have got him and I’m delighted that Charlie Appleby will be training him. Because, to me, he’s the image of his father and his grandfather. I think Charlie loved him as well, and Charlie could see that.”

Asked why he decided to send outstanding producer Anna Law (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) to Blue Point, McCartan said, “It was probably an act of lunacy to take such a risk with a mare who is so important to us. I probably should have taken a more conservative approach and gone with a proven horse but I was at Ascot the day Blue Point beat Battaash in the King’s Stand. I remember Blue Point coming into the parade ring and I took one look at him and one look at Charlie Appleby and I knew we weren’t going to be winning.” Cont. p7
He added, “It’s surreal because it’s out of your control but I want to pay particular thanks to the people who work for me. Sure everybody knows that they are one of the best teams around the sales ground. And also to my head man at home, Denis Lawlor, who never comes to the sales and Dinny McCarthy, who led him up. He’s a fantastic horseman and did a great job. They all did. It’s one of the most enjoyable parts for me, that they can all share it together. We are all great friends.”

Perhaps Anna Law deserves a little more love in this story. Bought by McCartan for just 14,000gns at a horses-in-training sale here in October 2012, she has proved an immensely important part of that Limerick farm in producing Battaash and fellow speedster The Antarctic (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who sold for 750,000gns at this sale in 2021. Reported to be happily in foal to Frankel (GB) by McCartan, Anna Law could have an even bigger role to play at Ballyphilip Stud in the years to come given she is still relatively young for a broodmare at just 13 years’ old.

McCartan, who runs Ballyphilip with his wife Marie, explained, “Anna Law has a filly foal at home by Dark Angel and is in foal to Frankel. It’s a bit of a different approach [going to Frankel] but he’s probably the best stallion of all time, so why not? We’ll give it a roll again.”

He added, “Anna Law has been an incredible mare for us. She started off by being a grumpy old girl but now every time she sees me out in the field she knows I have a fist full of nuts so we are the best of friends now!”

Sumbe On The Stallion Hunt

Ballylinch Stud had enjoyed a particularly noteworthy update for lot 260 since the catalogue was published with the G2 Champagne S. victory of the colt’s full-brother Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). Cont. p8

Nurlan Bizakov of Sumbe already has a select roster of stallions at his Normandy-based Haras de Montfort et Preaux and there will doubtless be high hopes for the 1.1 million gns son of Listed winner Bella Estrella (Ire) (High Chaparral [Ire]) to join the throng in due course.

“If he is good enough he is a potential stallion,” said Sumbe’s manager Tony Fry. “No-one needs a pat on the back now, that can come in two years' time – if it all works out.”

He added of the struggle to secure stallion prospects, “It's not easy to buy one and they are owned by people not keen to sell. And ideally you like to be involved in them from day one – to have bred them yourself, raced them and then stand them.”

A grandson of the Grade II winner Uncharted Haven (GB) (Turtle Island [Ire]), the colt’s family also includes the Irish 1,000 Guineas winner Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman [Fr]).

Lope De Vega’s excellent year extends beyond just his promising young son Iberian. He has also been represented by American Grade I winner Program Trading (GB) and Arapaho (Fr), winner of the G1 Tancred S. in Sydney. His 17 yearlings sold so far through Book 1 have returned an average of 374,118gns.

I Got You Babe

From one of the stars of the show on Tuesday to another early in the second session of the sale, the draft of Newsells Park Stud has continued to feature prominently, which is hardly surprising when one considers the pedigrees of the individuals involved.

Leading the early trade on Wednesday was lot 200, the Kingman (GB) half-brother to the Group 1 winner and young Newsells Park stallion Without Parole (GB) (Frankel [GB]), who was born and raised at the farm on behalf of his breeders John and Tanya Gunther of Kentucky’s Glennwood Farm. Cont. p9

With shades of the sale of the last foal of the mighty Shastye (Ire) on Tuesday, this too was tinged with sadness as the colt’s dam, Without You Babe (Lemon Drop Kid), who has also produced G1 Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile winner Tamarkuz (Speightstown) and the yearling colt’s full-sister, Listed winner She’s Got You (GB), died last year.

“It’s hard to talk about it,” said an emotional John Gunther after the hammer dropped at 900,000gns for the colt who will now race for Bahraini owners. “He was the mare’s last foal and he was very special to us. It was tough to sell him but he sold very well.

“The mare meant so much to us. Everyone at Newsells did a great job prepping him for the sale and he’s gone to some good owners. That’s very important.”

Without Parole returned to the stud where he was born to commence his stallion career in 2021. His first yearlings are now at the sales, including three in Book 1 at Tattersalls, where Ross Doyle and Anthony Bromley have signed for a filly and a colt so far.

Gunther continued, “We look forward to Without Parole’s two-year-olds and it all carries forward. We’re keeping quite a few of them to race ourselves. We want to make sure they go to the right trainers to give the horse his best chance. We will be racing at least half a dozen of them ourselves.”

In the year in which Without Parole won the G1 St. James’s Palace S. to give the Gunthers a memorable homebred Royal Ascot winner, another graduate of their breeding programme, Justify (Scat Daddy), remained unbeaten to win America’s Triple Crown. Subsequently sold to stand at Coolmore’s Ashford Stud in Kentucky, Justify has made an eye-catching start to his stud career, with his best progeny on this side of the Atlantic including Sunday’s G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Opera Singer, G1 Prix Morny runner-up and G2 Prix Robert Pain victrix Ramatuelle, and the G2 Superlative S. winner City Of Troy, who is currently favourite for the G1 Dewhurst S. He has also sired two Grade I winners in America, Arabian Lion and Aspen Grove (Ire).

“Justify looks like a supersire,” Gunther added. “He’s got the best two-year-old filly in the country and the best two-year-old colt, and it looks like he has some very good dirt runners in the US as well. We’re very excited about how Justify is coming along.”

Oliver St Lawrence, who signed for the yearling, said, “I loved the Kingman colt the first time I saw him. He’s a half-brother to two Grade I winners and hopefully he will take us to the Guineas and we can have a bit of fun. I was desperately keen to get him.”

St Lawrence had also signed for the preceding lot [199], a son of Dubawi (Ire) out of Wisdom Mind (Ire), a Dark Angel (Ire) half-sister to Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}). Bought at 500,000gns, the colt was bred by Sun Bloodstock and consigned by Adrian and Philippa O’Brien’s Hazelwood Bloodstock.

“They are both for Fawzi [Nass] and team,” St Lawrence said. “I knew we’d have to go strong on the Kingman. The only downside was that I had to be hugged by Julian Dollar afterwards. That took the shine off it a little bit.”

Well-Related Colts for Blandford

Another colt with obvious sire power should he prevail on the racecourse is Norelands Stud’s son of Kingman (GB) and Cabaret (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Offered as lot 278, the half-brother to Classic winners St Mark’s Basilica (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Magna Grecia (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was bought by Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for an unnamed client at 600,000gns.

“I didn’t expect to be able to buy him,” Brown said. “[His dam] must be one of the better broodmares on Planet Earth. The colt himself was physically a little but immature. He needs to strengthen up a little bit, and I think he will. There was a lot of Kingman about him and he put up a very classy show outside. With a pedigree like that I’m delighted to get him. It’s very rare to be able to buy that type of pedigree.”

Brown later signed for lot 336, a Cracksman (GB) half-brother to Givemethebeatboys (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}), whose win in the G3 Marble Hill S. in May helped to turn this 48,000gns foal purchase by Tally-Ho Stud into a highly profitable 410,000gns yearling.

Among Godolphin’s purchases for the day was lot 243, a 250,000gns December Foal Sale purchase by Philipp Stauffenberg, who was resold for 600,000gns.

The Havana Grey (GB) colt is a half-brother to the Group 1-placed Dragon Symbol (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}), who has recently been announced as joining the roster at Whitsbury Manor Stud, where he was bred.

Buy of the Day

Hughie Morrison may well have landed himself the value pick of day two in the shape of lot 328, a filly by first-season sire Mohaather (GB).

Consigned by Llety Farms, the Mohaather filly is out of an unraced Refuse To Bend (Ire) mare, who has produced two black-type performers by Kodiak (GB) and Stimulation (Ire).

At just 55,000gns, Morrison’s purchase comes in well below the sale average and time might prove her to have been very well-bought here. She appears to be a sweet filly who will be worth keeping an eye on for next year. Her pedigree suggests that she will be early enough to debut in the first half of the season.

Elsewhere, Ben McElroy added an interesting filly on behalf of Stonestreet Stables to his haul in lot 297. At first glance, this Oasis Dream (GB) filly wasn’t a snip at 335,000gns from Pier House Stud, but she ticks plenty of the right boxes for America.

Out of a black-type producing mare, she hails from a strong family and could do well on the turf in the States where the prize-money is significantly stronger than in Britain and Ireland. The McElroy-Stonestreet axis has had significant success with European purchases in recent years. She’s another interesting one to keep note of for next season.

Lot 341 Sex c Sire|Dam Teofilo (Ire)--Ejaazah (Ire)
Bred by Summerhill Bloodstock (Ire)
Consigned by Tradewinds Stud
Purchased by Federico Barberini

Out of the stakes-placed Ejaazah (Acclamation (GB)), this colt was purchased by Shane Power’s Tradewinds Stud for 68,000gns out of the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Sent back through the same ring on Wednesday, he caught the eye of Italian agent Federico Barberini for over 5.4 times his foal price. His granddam won the G3 Sweet Solera S., and she in turn, is a half-sister to G1 Prix de Diane heroine Star Of Seville (GB) (Duke Of Marmalade (Ire)) and the stakes-winning G1 St James’s Palace S. runner-up King Of Comedy (Ire) (Kingman (GB)).

The bay was the most expensive of four yearlings selected by Barberini during the second session for a total spend of 890,000gns and an average of 222,500gns.

Britain’s Hall of Fame, and I’m looking forward to marking this moment with family and friends on QIPCO British Champions Day at Ascot later this month."

Trained by Clive Brittain, Pebbles overcame quirkiness and a variety of setbacks and became the first British-conditioned winner of a Breeders’ Cup race when successful in the 1985 Turf at Aqueduct. She had previous won the G1 1000 Guineas and the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket prior to her American conquest.

Said Brittain, “I still think about her today and can see her fresh in my mind, particularly with her boyfriend, Come On The Blues. Theirs was a great love story and he accompanied her wherever she went—even travelling out to America with her for the Breeders’ Cup Turf. That day was the only time that I’ve been racing and felt nervous, but I just did the same as we’d have done at home and it all worked out.”
