FROM FINAL 20 HIPS OF KEESEP, WEST SARATOGA TAKES ON BREEDERS' FUTURITY

by Katie Petrunyk

Veteran trainer Larry Demeritte stayed vigilant through the very end of last year’s Keeneland September Sale, taking a close look at every yearling going through the ring during the final session. With less than 20 hips to go, when most buyers were long gone and many consignments were already packed up, he raised his hand on Hip 4146. Coming in with a winning bid of $11,000 for the son of Exaggerator, Demeritte signed the ticket for his longtime client Harry Veruchi.

SECRET OATH RETIRED, WILL SELL AT FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER by Bill Finley

Secret Oath (Arrogate--Absinthe Minded, by Quiet American), whose accomplishments include a win in the 2022 GI Kentucky Oaks, has been retired due to a minor problem with her right front ankle, reports trainer Wayne Lukas.

She will sell at the Fasig-Tipton November sale.

The story was first reported by Ron Flatter of Horse Racing Nation.

Owned by Rob and Stacy Mitchell, Secret Oath came down with the injury after working five furlongs in :58.60 on Sept. 28 at Churchill Downs. Lukas said that the injury caused him to keep her out of Sunday’s GI Spinster S. at Keeneland and with her missing that race he did not think she could make the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff.

“She’s fine and she’s sound,” he said. “But she was not going to make the Spinster. Rather than try to get her back together we decided to just go ahead and sell her.”

Secret Oath, a homebred, flourished as a 3-year-old. After she won the GIII Honeybee S., Lukas ran her against males in the GI Arkansas Derby, where she finished third. The Oaks was up next and she won that race by two lengths over eventual Eclipse Award winner Nest (Curlin). Cont. p5

While checking in on his mares at Stone Farm in Paris, Kentucky Friday, Aron Wellman sat down to talk to the TDN’s Katie Petrunyak for an upcoming TDN feature on Nest, with Lynn Hancock’s puppy Arlo supervising. Nest runs in the Spinster at Keeneland on Sunday.

“I stay at the sale and look at every horse that goes through the ring because I only have so much money that I can spend,” Demeritte explained. “There was not much not to like about this horse. When you look at him he’s a well-balanced horse, not too much defect to him at all. When I saw him I said, ‘Well, if he has the heart to go with everything else he’s got going for him, he could be a nice one.’"

The colt was named West Saratoga—not after the racing town in upstate New York, but for the street in Colorado that Veruchi grew up on—and it soon became apparent that the young grey had as much potential as Demeritte had initially hoped. With the help of his longtime exercise rider and mentee Dante, Demeritte broke West Saratoga at his base at the Thoroughbred Center off Paris Pike.

“From day one I told Dante that this guy was smart,” Demeritte recalled. “That’s what you like to see in a good racehorse is that intelligence. Sometimes you get on one and they get timid around other horses, but he always wanted to be the leader of the pack.”

Demeritte was undeterred when West Saratoga drew post 1 in three of his first four starts this year and still had yet to find the winner’s circle. He finally got the trip he was looking for on Aug. 5 going a mile at Ellis Park when he claimed the lead early and stayed there, defeating next-out winner Generous Tipper (Street Sense).

From there it was on to the GIII Iroquois S., where this time the juvenile came from off the pace to draw clear in the stretch, besting favored Risk It (Gun Runner) by just under two lengths. “All week long we were saying that they had to run really well to beat this horse because he come out of the race he won so good and was ready to move forward,” Demeritte said. “We had all the confidence in the world. A lot of times--and I think most trainers do this—we size up the horses in the paddock and see how they act. He was so much more mature and he showed a lot of class about him.”

While it was a monumental victory in Demeritte’s career, this wasn’t his first graded stakes win. He proudly points out how his old trainee Memorial Maniac (Lear Fan) holds a track record at Arlington Park from his win in the 2010 GIII Stars and Stripes Turf S. Even so, the Iroquois score might be the horseman’s most notable career win as West Saratoga became the first point earner on the road to the 2024 GI Kentucky Derby.

This Saturday, West Saratoga returns to the starting gate for the GI Claiborne Breeders’ Futurity. With a nine-horse field that features ‘TDN Rising Star’ Locked (Gun Runner) and GI Hopeful S. runner-up Timberlake (Into Mischief), West Saratoga drew post 5.

Despite 20-1 morning line odds, West Saratoga’s conditioner could not be more confident as he makes a rare Grade I race appearance at his home track.

“I love my horse a lot,” Demeritte said. “I wouldn’t trade him for any horse in the race. There’s a horse [Timberlake] in there that beat him before and that horse could be moving forward also. We’re not worrying about who else is there. Once we take our horse into the race, if we do the best we can do at this stage of the game—win, lose or draw—I could handle it.”

“I like training this horse because he doesn’t have too many bad days,” he continued. “When we breeze him in the mornings, he’s excited and feels good about himself. He eats a lot and that’s what you like to see because when a horse is getting to their peak they back off the tub a little bit, so he’s showing that he still has some room for improvement.”

Demeritte learned many tricks of the training trade from his father, who was a trainer in the Bahamas. From a young age, Demeritte showed a passion for horses and he soon followed in his father’s footsteps. He was a leading trainer in the Bahamas for two years before moving to the U.S. with the goal of someday making it to the GI Kentucky Derby.

Decades after saddling his first starter here and with a stable of less than a dozen horses, Demeritte might just be on his way to overcoming his long odds.

“I still might not get there because it’s a long way off, but I’m a praying kind of person and the Lord controls our footsteps so whatever He blesses me with, I’m comfortable with my career in the horse game,” he explained. “Hopefully I’ll be blessed enough to go on to the Derby.”

Demeritte has had to overcome more than his share of challenges. Over 20 years ago he was diagnosed with cancer and was given five years to live. Six years ago, he again was diagnosed with cancer in the form of multiple myeloma and given six months to live.

“I’m still here,” he said with a wide grin. “I’m just going day by day, trying to do what God asks me to do. Sometimes you go through hardships. I remember I would get so frustrated because I don’t see people have the love for the horses like I have. I never get bored, even for as long as I’ve been in the game, so I try to encourage young people in the game to love it.”

The idea of earning a Grade I at Keeneland, a track that has been like his second home for decades, brings yet another bright smile to Demeritte's face.

“It would mean so, so much, you know? But it’s not the end of the world. You know what’s more important to me? I thought it was so cool after I won the Iroquois, I had people like Pat Day, Jacinto Vasquez and Jean Cruguet call me. These guys rode for me over the years and I think a lot of them. Besides, I have so many friends that it’s like I’m doing it for a whole group of people, not just me. They were so happy for me and that made it all worth the while.”

After the Oaks, Secret Oath lost five straight but rebounded with a decisive win in the GII Azeri S. to kick off this year’s campaign. She ran four more times, a stretch that included

“She was a picture of consistency,” Lukas said. “She showed up every time. Whenever I ran her she was right there. Secret Oath was good every time we started her. She always hit the board.”

A year ago, the Mitchells announced that Secret Oath would be sold in the Fasig-Tipton November sale, but they changed their minds and withdrew her so that they could race her one more year.

“She’s going to bring some serious money,” Lukas said. “They still own the mother and a half-sister to Secret Oath. They are a small breeding operation so she has been a real blessing for them.”

A GRADED STAKES SATURDAY WE NEVER WANT TO END

by J.N. Campbell

The parade of graded stakes races this Saturday is like a Christmas tree laden with presents. Towards the end of the celebration, as the wadded paper congregates, there will be a customary wistfulness that slowly sets in. We never want it to end.

With 17, yes 17, graded races on the docket--nine of those have Breeders’ Cup ‘Win and You’re In’ status--it is going to be a splendid day to receive as Belmont at the Big A, Keeneland Race Course, Woodbine Racetrack, Gulfstream Park, Hastings Racecourse and Santa Anita Park hustle to apply the Scotch tape. Cue the carols, please.

Heading to the venerable Big A in Ozone Park, the graded menu expanded when last weekend’s GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic S. was added to Saturday’s slate. The 12-furlong grass test includes the reigning GI Breeders’ Cup Turf winner Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is looking for some New York redemption after unseating his rider around the far turn in the late-July running of the GII Bowling Green S. at Saratoga. The Charlie Appleby trainee is set to face the queen of the blades in MGISW War Like Goddess (English Channel), who still has plenty of fight in her as she faces the boys again for Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott.

If one Grade I wasn't enough for you on this card, then we are going to add two more just for good measure. The GI Frizette S. is a passageway to the GI Breeders' Cup NetJets Juvenile Fillies and Repole Stable has the 9-5 morning-line favorite in Life Talk (Gun Runner), who broke her maiden at second asking Aug. 31 at Saratoga by 6 1/2 lengths. The Todd Pletcher trainee will have to contend with Stonestreet's Emery (More Than Ready), who scratched out of Friday's GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland to run here for trainer Brad Cox. Also present is Godolphin homebred Central Avenue (Street Sense), who debuted a winner at Colonial Downs, and will try to stretch out for trainer Michael Stidham.

“She [Central Avenue] started going seven-eighths and we thought that might be a little short for her, but she got up anyways,” Stidham said. “She always looked in the mornings like she would come running late and she would [run like that]. The mile is going to be even more helpful for her style.”

The other top race of the day at ‘Belmont West’ is the GI Champagne S., which offers a ticket straight to the GI Breeders' Cup FanDuel Juvenile. Once again, Repole Stable held David Aragona's attention with 6-5 morning-line favorite Fierceness (City of Light). The ‘TDN Rising Star’ had his own way in the Saratoga mud Aug. 25 when the bay colt won that debut by 11 1/4 lengths. His main rival could be fellow ‘TDN Rising Star’ Timberlake (Into Mischief), who is also entered in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland.

Rounding out the action at Aqueduct is a trio of Grade III turf events, which include the Waya S. with GISW McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the Belmont Turf Sprint with GSW Big Invasion (Declaration of War) and finally, English import Measured Time (GB) (Frankel {GB}) is up against GISP Webslinger (Constitution) in the Jockey Club Derby Invitational.

The Keeneland Association, which just kicked off its October meet on Friday, has its own take on Christmas come early. Taking to the Haggin Turf Course, the GI First Lady S. for older females sports a rematch of the July running of the GI Diana S. between Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) and MGISW In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The former bested the latter at Saratoga and the Chad Brown stablemates are set to do battle again. Not to be overlooked is the Joseph O'Brien trainee Jumbly (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}), who returns to the U.S. after finishing fifth in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown Sept. 9.

Moving right along to some more Grade I festivities, the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity offers the winner a shot in the GI Breeders' Cup FanDuel Juvenile. "TDN Rising Star' Locked (Gun Runner) won at second asking by 7 1/4 lengths at Saratoga Sept. 1 with a 96 Beyer Speed Figure. The Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Walmac Farm-owned chestnut colt for trainer Todd Pletcher will take on undefeated New York-bred The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso) and possibly the aforementioned Timberlake.

“[Locked] was impressive the time he went two turns at Saratoga," said Pletcher. “One reason he came here and Fierceness stayed in New York for the Champagne is that I thought the Champagne suited him better with the one start. It worked well that we could find a Grade I for both of them.”

The capstone to Keeneland’s Super Saturday is the GI Coolmore Turf Mile, which allows access to the GI Breeders’ Cup FanDuel Mile. Fresh off his 3 3/4-length first North American score in the GI Woodbine Mile, Master of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) will challenge Up to the Mark (Not This Time), who was last seen winning GI Manhattan S. at Belmont. Lane’s End recently announced that the 4-year-old colt would head their way for stud duty at the conclusion of his racing career.

A pair of Grade II races will complete the Keeneland Saturday graded offering. First, the Woodford S. welcomes turf sprint specialist and G1 Nuthorpe S. at York victor Live In The Dream (Ire) (Prince of Lir {Ire}) from the yard of Adam West. Meanwhile, MGSW and MGISP Wicked Halo (Gun Runner) tries to secure her spot in the GI Breeders' Cup PNC Bank Filly & Mare Sprint when she sets sail against six others in the Thoroughbred Club of America S.

Before heading west, both Gulfstream Park and Woodbine Racetrack card a graded race each. GSP Maryquitecontrary
(First Dude) switches from Shug McGaughey’s barn to David Fawkes, as she returns to her home track in the GIII Princess Rooney S, a race which also feeds into the Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint. Up at Woodbine, the GIII Durham Cup S. finds G1 Dubai World Cup runner-up Algiers (Ire) (Shamardal {Ire}) making his first start in North America after trainer Simon Crisford scratched him from the GII Woodward S. last weekend.

Staying put in Canada, Hastings Racecourse cards the GIII BC Premier’s H. for 3-year-olds and up. The race includes Accidental Hero (Mo Town), who bested his rival Sunbird (Orb) in the GIII BC Derby last month.

It would not be a graded Saturday without ‘The Great Race Place’ and Santa Anita Park has its share. Of course, the GI American Pharoah S., which TDN covered in a special edition on Friday, is a ‘Win and You’re In’ event for the GI Breeders’ Cup FanDuel Juvenile S. "TDN Rising Star’ Muth (Good Magic) will square off against seven others in the feature, which includes stablemate Wine Me Up (Vino Rosso).

Speaking of juveniles, the fillies get their chance to shine in the GII Chandelier S. On the line is the opportunity to make the starting gate in the GI Breeders’ Cup NetJets Juvenile Fillies. One of the top contenders is Laurent (Practical Joke). The Peter Eurton trainee was second Sept. 9 in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. The dark bay filly is in the blocks right next to the Zedan Racing’s Dua (Arrogate). The Bob Baffert trainee was third in the GIII Sorrento S. at Del Mar Aug. 12.

In the race before the American Pharoah S., turf routers will load at the mouth of the downhill course for the GII Rodeo Drive S. Looking for a chance to return for the GI Breeders’ Cup Maker’s Mark Filly & Mare Turf is the undefeated Anisette (GB) (Awtaad {Ire}). The 3-year-old will take on older females for the first time. After coming over from England last spring, the Leonard Powell trainee won three in a row, including the GI Del Mar Oaks by 2 3/4 lengths.

Anisette is going to have to try and get past the 9-5 morning-line favorite Didia (Arg) (Orpen) though. She was the runner-up in the GI New York S. at Belmont Park June 9 and has a history of winning from off the bench for trainer Ignacio Correas. Add in some seasoned Southern California stayers like MGSW Closing Remarks (Vronsky) and MGSW Neige Blache (FR) (Anodin {Ire}), and the Rodeo Drive is going to be quite the shopping spree at the windows.

Here’s to a Saturday of graded racing that never ends.
SWEET RESULT: CANDIED STAYS PERFECT IN DARLEY ALCIBIADES

Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners’ Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}), a 3/4-length, come-from-behind debut winner sprinting at Saratoga Aug. 20, stayed perfect while stretching to two turns in Friday's 'Win and You're In' GI Darley Alcibiades at Keeneland.

The 4-1 chance raced in between horses rounding the clubhouse turn in fifth. She advanced into fourth approaching the quarter pole, made a flashy, sweeping move at the top of the stretch, and, despite hanging on her left lead down the lane, went on to defeat favored runaway GIII Pocahontas S. heroine and 'TDN Rising Star' V V's Dream (Mitole) by a length. Alys Beach (Omaha Beach) was third.

Previously unbeaten GI Spinaway S. heroine Brightwork (Outwork), off as the 9-5 second choice, tired to finish a well-beaten fifth after pressing the pace while making her two-turn debut here.

"That was my biggest concern," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said of Candied diving into the deep end at just second asking here. "I thought the filly had the talent to do it. I was just concerned about the seasoning. Several of the fillies in here that we had to beat today had good, solid campaigns and she was just making her second start."

Pletcher continued, "But I'll tell you, she trained impressively before her debut and she then just kept getting better afterwards. She was finishing her works and galloping out like she wanted more ground. Luis (Saez) has been pretty high on her since he first worked her at Saratoga, so we're happy to see her meet expectations."

Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Pletcher will also be well-represented by 'TDN Rising Star' Locked (Gun Runner) in Saturday's GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity S. at Keeneland.

Pedigree Notes:
Candied becomes the 115th stakes/56th graded stakes/19th Grade I winner worldwide for leading sire Candy Ride. The stakes-winning New York-bred Toni Tools, a $15,000 purchase by McMahon & Hill Bloodstock at the 2022 KEEJAN sale, produced a colt by Solomini this year and was bred back to Mind Control.

2015 JUVENILE WINNER NYQUIST

Nyquist (2013 bay horse, Uncle Mo--Seeking Gabrielle, by Forestry)

Lifetime record: Ch. 2yo colt, MGISW, 11-8-0-1, $5,189,200

Breeders' Cup connections: B-Summerhill Farm (KY); O-Reddam Racing LLC; T-Doug O'Neill; J-Mario Gutierrez.

Current location: Darley America, Lexington, Ky.

Nyquist capped an undefeated 2-year-old season with a win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, then added the GI Kentucky Derby the next spring, becoming just the second colt to complete the Juvenile-Derby double. His fellow Darley stallion, Street Sense, was the first. Nyquist got his sire career off to a bang with his first crop including a Breeders' Cup winner of his own in 2020 Juvenile Fillies star Vequist.

“From his first season in 2017 until now, hands down the most fertile horse I’ve ever worked with anywhere in the world,” said Graham Lovatt, who has worked at Darley stallion divisions in England and Australia and is now the stallion manager at Darley in the U.S. “Very professional in his second career. And excellent showman. We installed a new aqua tread and he absolutely loves it. He is a very observant horse and he’ll always let you know when there is something out of place.” --Jill Williams
JUSTIFY ADDS ANOTHER GRADED-STAKES WINNER AS BUCHU TAKES 'WAYI' JESSAMINE

Already a proven winner over the 1 1/16-mile trip, Buchu (Justify) made the jump from maiden winner to graded-stakes winner Friday with an eye-catching, come-from-behind performance in the 'Win and You’re In' GII Jessamine S. on Keeneland's opening day.

Trying her fifth different surface in as many starts, the dark bay kicked off her career with a pair of thirds on the dirt--first at Ellis Park June 16 then at Saratoga in a rained-off event July 30. Sixth once she finally got on the turf in upstate New York Aug. 20, Buchu broke through by a clear 4 3/4 lengths when shipped back to Kentucky under the Twin Spires less than two weeks ago Sept. 23.

Showcasing her preferred off-the-pace style again here, Buchu, who broke from the middle of the gate, let the majority of the field pass her in the opening furlong and wound up contesting ninth outside of Smooth Waves (English Channel) with only 41-1 shot Moonlight Gambler (Malibu Moon) behind her. Paced up front by Bella Haze (Flameaway) and Asternia (Astern {Aus}), the field spaced themselves out through an opening quarter in :22.84. Buchu, now in ninth by herself, dropped all the way back to last as she was initially outsprinted into the far turn. Angled out widest of all with a quarter of a mile to run, the 5-1 shot unleashed a furious rally inside the final furlong to pass the entire field and win going away by 3 3/4 lengths over Pharoah's Wine (American Pharoah).

“I think sometimes horses for courses, so maybe riders for horses,” said winning trainer Phil Bauer on his filly's relationship with jockey Martin Garcia. “He really gets a lot of credit for developing this filly. He got her from three-eighths all the way forward and he decided to keep his tack in Kentucky, so when we went to New York, [jockey] Tyler [Gaffalione] jumped aboard. Mother Nature got in our way with the first start and then a troubled trip in the second one up there with Tyler. He didn’t do anything wrong, but he was out of town when she ran back and we knew Martin loved her, so he hopped back aboard for her last breeze before her maiden win [at Churchill Downs Sept. 23], and we were confident going into that, as we were a few others, but in racing you need some luck to go with you. I’m just overwhelmed and really happy for Mr. Rigney, now with one that he bred. Cue the Mamas and the Papas, we’re ‘California Dreamin.’”

Pedigree Note:
A $275,000 RNA out of Keeneland September last year, Buchu was retained by her breeder and became the 19th graded/group winner worldwide for her Triple Crown-winning sire. She is the first foal out of a winning Galileo (Ire) mare, who is herself a daughter of MGWS Naples Bay (Giant’s Causeway) and a full-sister to GSW First Minister (Ire). Third dam Cappucino Bay is the dam of MGISW and perennial leading sire Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}). Flowering Peach reported an Uncle Mo filly this spring and was covered by Golden Pal for 2024.

HOIST THE GOLD RISES TO THE OCCASION IN THE PHOENIX

Hoist the Gold (Mineshaft) punched his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint with an overdue first graded stakes win in Friday's 'Win and You're In' GII Stoll Keenon Odgen Phoenix S. at Keeneland.

He finished third in the GI Runhappy Malibu S. at Santa Anita last December and second in this year's GI Churchill Downs S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard. He fell just a neck short in this spring's GIII Commonwealth S. in Lexington. Last seen finishing a well-beaten sixth in the GII Pat O'Brien S. Aug. 26 at Del Mar, the Dream Team One Racing homebred was installed as a 6-1 shot here.

Riding the rail, the hooded colt backed off along the backstretch as G1SW Sibelius (Not This Time) and MSW Doctor Oscar (Shackleford) battled for the lead. Fanned three wide around the far turn, the Dallas Stewart trainee took over past the eighth pole and held off his pursuers to take home his first graded stakes win by 3/4 of a length. Nakatomi (Firing Line) was second.

“When you show up with a nice horse and a jock [John Velazquez] that’s won five Grade Ones for you, you got a lot of confidence,” Stewart said. “I didn't worry about a thing down the backside. It played out perfect. He got him out. The horse loves this track.”

Pedigree Notes: Mineshaft, sire of 17 crops of racing age, now has 61 stakes winners and 24 graded stakes winners to his credit. Hoist the Gold is the second to race out of Tacit Approval, who is also responsible for a yearling filly named Anakarina (Vekoma). She foaled a colt by Mucho Macho Man this year. Second dam Punch Appeal (Successful Appeal) is a multiple stakes winner.

SECOND STAB AT SYNTHETICS IN CALIFORNIA? THE TRAINERS' VIEW

by Dan Ross

Under the toughest of spotlights, the industry's collective eyes often turn to the stuff under foot. At least, that's what trainer Mark Casse did in a widely-shared TDN Q&A.

"I think we really, seriously, need to look at more synthetic tracks," Casse said, triggering yet another cavalcade of commentary on the conceived benefits and blights of synthetic surfaces. "I believe in them. I believe they've got plenty of data to back that up."

Former TDN writer Lucas Marquardt followed it up with an analysis of race-day fatality data through The Jockey Club's Equine Injury database.

Marquardt calculated how from 2009 through 2022, there were 6,036 fatal injuries from 3,242,505 starts on dirt in North America. That's a rate of 1.86 fatalities per 1000 starts.

On synthetics, there were 534 fatal injuries from 482,169 starts, a rate of 1.11. That's a 68% difference.

"Put another way, had dirt tracks matched the safety of synthetic tracks during that stretch, there would have been 2,437 fewer fatalities," Marquardt wrote.

The state with arguably the deepest-albeit most contentious-relationship with synthetic surfaces is California, which mandated in 2006 the switch from dirt to synthetic surfaces at its four major tracks.

The state reversed course a few years later in the face of broad dissatisfaction with the decision. It's no easy story to tell, riven by tales of cost-cutting and skirted corners, ill-chosen materials and drainage problems.

Some point the finger, at least in part, at the failure of industry leaders to adequately study the efficacy of different materials before putting the new surfaces down.
Since then, California's relationship with synthetic surfaces has grown even more complicated, thanks to Del Mar's dirt track consistently proving among the most statistically safe nationwide-dirt or synthetic. Nevertheless, Del Mar's experiences haven't been replicated state-wide.

In 2021, California's fatality rate on the dirt (1.51) was more than twice the synthetic rate (0.73), according to Marquardt's calculations. In 2022, it was more than three times larger (1.44 vs. 0.41).

This issue promises to remain a prominent one for the near future. The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority recently announced that it is establishing a blue-ribbon committee to "work toward the study and ultimate introduction of more synthetic surface options in Thoroughbred racing."

Among a fleet of promises, The Stronach Group (TSG) announced that it intends to replace the dirt training track at Santa Anita with a synthetic alternative.

Given the state's flip-flopping history with different surfaces, the TDN asked several long-time California-based trainers this question: Given the re-ignited debate on synthetics and all its accompanying arguments, should California mandate once again the replacement of its dirt surfaces with synthetics?

Eoin Harty

"Of course. I don't think they should even have to mandate it. I should think that somebody should show some f*%#ing leadership for a change and do the right thing. Instead of looking down, looking up, looking sideways and dancing around the issue, we need to address the elephant in the room: That we're in a position basically brought on by ourselves."

"I think the time for hand-wringing and regurgitating old cliches about needing more data, more science, blah, blah, blah-that time has come and gone. No more committees, just do the right thing and put down synthetics. It's time to get on the right side of history. There won't be a Mulligan on this one."

Note: Harty later explained the curse reflected the gravity of the situation.

John Shirreffs

"I like to tell the story of Tiago, who had won the Santa Anita Derby. In his 4-year-old year at Del Mar, I had his exercise rider work him a half [mile]. He breaks off the half-mile pole, the horse goes a 16th of a mile and pulls himself up, doesn't want to work."

"I tell the rider, 'don't worry, Mike Smith will be here tomorrow. He gets along with him really well.' Break Tiago off again, goes about a 16th of a mile, pulls himself up and refused to work on that synthetic track."

"After Zenyatta won the GI Clement Hirsch S., she refused to gallop around the [Del Mar] racetrack. She'd go about two thirds of the way around then just stop and refuse to go. The only thing we could do is walk her to the nearest gap and take her off the track."

"Zenyatta and Tiago were both big, strong horses that really ran hard. Those type of horses really did not like synthetic tracks. I think that if you just look at how long it takes horses to adjust to the synthetic tracks when they first go in, all you do is find horseshoes on the outside of the track because they're all grabbing themselves. Their feet stop so quickly in it. Synthetic tracks only get bearable as they get older. When they first go in, they're really sticky and tough on horses."

"As you've seen in the statistics in California, our breakdowns are really reduced. So, I don't think synthetics are the answer. Synthetics are a nice alternative. I mean, it'd be great to have a synthetic track here on the training track because you can't use the main track when it's wet. So, maybe they'd let us use a synthetic track when it was wet."

Richard Mandella

"I think Santa Anita has the right idea to put it on the training track here to learn more about it, and hopefully it will be waterproof to train through the winter. I would take one step at a time."

Leonard Powell

"I think the option of having a synthetic track to train on is very good. But to mandate to have all racing on synthetic, I don't think that's a necessity."

"The notion of a bad step has been proven incorrect. We've found out through a lot of studies, when it comes to injuries, it's not a one-day, one-time thing. It's an accumulation of the pounding from the training, day-in, day-out. So, having the option to have a synthetic to train on would help that, and would lessen the number of catastrophic injuries on dirt on race-day. And it could be very useful on rainy days."

"However, synthetics are always called all-weather tracks. But they're not really all-weather tracks. They're bad-weather tracks—they're good tracks in bad weather. In Europe, they've had problems with them in the summer months, like we had here. When it's hot and sunny, those tracks are not that good."

John Sadler

"If you put synthetic tracks back in here, you have to have all the tracks in the country on synthetics. You can't go half and half. That doesn't work. You can't train on synthetic and expect to do well on dirt. You can't train on dirt and expect to do well on synthetic."

"If you go back to when we had synthetics in California, I did very well on it. I could live with one surface nationwide. But because I can train on what you give me, it doesn't mean I prefer that. Not necessarily."

"I would prefer good dirt. I think it's preferable for these horses. Why? Well, for one, they need a lot of upkeep. They need to be replaced. They need to be refreshed. They're expensive to maintain. And anybody that tells you they're not expensive to maintain is—I don't think they're being truthful."

"There are other arguments. Are there really fewer fatalities [on synthetics]? Stats probably show that. But is that the real number, if you also look at [career-ending] injuries? You don't know, right? It's hard for me to just take one study number and say, 'okay, that's all there is.' It doesn't work like that."

"What I'm trying to say it's very nuanced. You'd have to give time for the breeders to adjust. You'd have to give time for people to purchase the right horses to adjust. A lot of what we did here wasn't well planned out. We did it and then lived with the consequences."

Carla Gaines

"Let me start by saying I am not that well-educated on the various types of synthetic tracks. I know there have been improvements on them since they were mandated here in California in 2006."

"Santa Anita is installing a synthetic surface here on our training track this fall and with the expected increase in rainfall this winter that would give us an alternative place to train the horses when the main track is sealed. It would also be a nice option for our grass horses as we do not have grass workouts here."

"But for racing, I would have no interest in it. We as trainers are held responsible for every single injury. The spotlight is on us—rarely the surfaces we train on and race over. Instead of getting rid of dirt tracks, let's keep a closer eye on them, and try very hard to improve them. As one old timer told me once, 'we can put a man on the moon, why can't we figure out dirt?'"

Doug O'Neill

"I love the fact they're putting it on the training track. At Santa Anita you'll have all three surfaces. And when we get the rainy weather, you can train on a synthetic. If we had weeks of crazy weather, you could potentially run on synthetic."

"But to replace the main track dirt for synthetic, I would be anti that. Just wouldn't want to replace the dirt."

"We've had a pretty good sampling with Hollywood Park and Santa Anita and Del Mar all being synthetic at one time. It had its little perks during rainy season. But all in all, not a good experience for me."

"They're really good in inclement weather, which a lot of the world has, as opposed to Southern California. So, I just don't think they're good for Southern California tracks."

FIFTY YEARS AGO, WITH EDDIE MAPLE ABOARD, SECRETARIAT WRAPPED UP HIS CAREER IN THE CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL

by Bill Finley

It was 50 years ago, a Wednesday in late October and Eddie Maple was spending his day riding at Aqueduct. It was supposed to be just another routine day at the track. But then the seventh race happened. The stewards disqualified Ron Turcotte's mount and handed him a five-day suspension for careless riding. In those days, there were no appeals, no dragging things through court. The suspension started immediately, which meant that Secretariat would need a rider for what would be his final career race, the 1973 Gil Canadian International at Woodbine.

Eddie Maple was just 24 at the time and was light on experience when it came to riding in major races, but he thought he had a chance to get the mount on Secretariat. Trainer Lucien Laurin had called on him to ride Riva Ridge when he faced Secretariat in the Marlboro Cup Invitational H. and he retained the mount for the GII Stuyvesant H., which Riva Ridge won.

“I had had some luck with other horses in the stable,” Maple said. “But to ride this horse? I didn’t know. There were a lot of hats in the ring.”

He was a bit nervous, but he didn’t have to wait long. Within a day of Turcotte’s suspension, Laurin announced that Maple would have the ride in the Canadian International.

“Eddie has done extremely well with our Riva Ridge,” said Laurin. “We’ve been pleased with his work. So we decided that after he rides Riva Ridge in New York on Saturday (in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup H.) that he fly to Toronto to appear with Secretariat.”

“When I found out I was so delighted,” Maple said. “I couldn’t believe I was going to get the opportunity to ride what was maybe the greatest horse of all time. It was very exciting.”

He was already a big fan.

“I watched this horse his whole career,” Maple, now 74, said. “As a 2-year-old he was the perfect horse and he improved on that every step of the rest of his career. By that I mean, you start with a well-bred horse with good conformation. After he won the Derby, that race to me was the knockout punch. He let everyone know they were going to be in a tussle any time they raced him the rest of the year. He just seemed to build on his pedigree, his conformation. He got bigger, stronger. Mentally, he didn’t waste any energy. I had only been riding seven years at the time but you could just watch him run and say this is some horse.”

Maple caught a flight to Toronto after finishing sixth on Riva Ridge in the Gold Cup and hunkered down to prepare for the International, to be run on a Sunday. Then he got a call from Turcotte, who was already in Toronto and preparing to work with Eddie Arcaro on the television broadcast of the race.

“The night before, I landed in Toronto and went to the hotel,” Maple said. “Ronnie called me up and said why don’t you come down to my room and we could talk. He told me don’t worry. This horse will get you a position, he won’t be rank. If he does get rank that would be the time to let him do a little something. But try to lay second or third. He was nothing but encouraging.”

Maple was in a no-win situation. If he won it would be because anybody could have won aboard one of the greatest horses ever. If he lost it only could have only been because Maple screwed it up. But he said he was confident he was up for the job.

“I really didn’t feel a lot of pressure,” he said. “I was always meant to handle that kind of stuff. I’m not saying I wasn’t excited and I didn’t get some goose bumps in the time leading up to the race. I had already ridden in a couple of Kentucky Derbies. I just felt I didn’t have to be the greatest jockey in the world to give this horse a good ride because he was that good.”

On a miserable day in which it was cold and sleeting, the race unfolded much like Turcotte had predicted it would. Canadian star Kennedy Road took the lead under Avelino Gomez with Secretariat tracking him in second. Midway down the backstretch, Kennedy Road was starting to tire and Maple knew it was time to see what Secretariat had.

“I had one horse in front of me,” Maple said. “I knew I was on Secretariat and could let the party begin whenever I wanted to. I had it in my mind to keep that horse on the front in front of me. as long as I could. At about the five-eighths pole that horse started to drift out. We started making up ground. Gomez attempted to bring that horse back to the inside, but he started stopping and Secretariat started to get rolling. At the half-mile pole, I let him sneak on a little bit. Like Ronnie said, if he gets a little too strong let him get into his stride. We had a half-mile left and Kennedy Road was done. It was just a matter of who was going to show up and run the race of their lives to beat this horse. But I knew at the half-mile pole it was pretty much all over.”

Secretariat kept pulling farther and farther away from the competition. He was 12 lengths in front at the eighth pole but Maple let him cruise through the final furlongs. He won by 6 1/2 lengths.

“I felt a certain amount of pressure,” Maple told reporters after the race. “I mean I’ve ridden in big races before, but this horse here, he’s a little special. It was his last race and everything. But, heck, the race was as easy as pie. I noticed when we were warming up that the turf was kind of slippery, and that was the only worry I had. But he got hold of it real good.”

Maple, a Hall of Famer, retired in 1998. He won 2,896 races, including 217 graded stakes, captured a pair of GI Belmont S. and was for years, the go-to rider for Woody Stephens. He says winning the Canadian International is among his top three accomplishments in racing.

Today, he is enjoying retirement in Bluffton, S.C. and caring for two corgis and a cat. His family was dealt a setback when his wife Kate suffered a stroke in 2019.

“She’s doing alright,” he said. “She doesn’t have use of the right side of her body but she gets around on a cane.”

The Woodbine Entertainment Group has invited Maple to be its guest at this year’s edition of the International, which will be held on Sunday. It’s been 50 years, but the memories are still fresh in Maple’s mind. Even if it’s just for one race, when you ride maybe the greatest horse who ever lived in his final career start, that’s something you never forget.

CHAMPION SPRINTER ELITE POWER TO RETIRE TO JUDDMONTE AFTER BREEDERS’ CUP

Defending Eclipse Champion Elite Power (Curlin), winner of last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint, will take up stud duty upon retirement after defending his title at Santa Anita next month, Juddmonte Farm said in a press release Friday morning.

Bred by Alpha Delta Stables, the chestnut colt consigned by Lane’s End was sold to Juddmonte for $900,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Out of MGSW Broadway’s Alibi (Vindication), his dam was runner-up in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Sold as a broodmare for $2.15 million, she hails from the family of champion 2-year-old filly Eliza (Mt. Livermore).

Elite Power’s stakes debut came in the GII Vosburgh S. last year when he won by 5 3/4 lengths. After his win in the Breeders’ Cup, his 2023 campaign started in Saudi Arabia where he annexed the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint. Back stateside for his next start, he won the GI True North S. and followed that up with a victory in the GI Vanderbilt H.

To date, the Juddmonte colorbearer has amassed earnings of $2,735,711.

SHARP AZTECA TO JAPAN FOR STUD DUTY

Three Chimneys’s Sharp Azteca (Freud), winner of the GI Cigar Mile at Aqueduct and one of the top freshman sires of 2022, has been sold to Japan to stand stud at Shizunai Stallion Station in 2024, the Japanese Racing Association announced Friday. The move is subject to his passing quarantine restrictions.

A leading sire of 2-year-olds last year, Sharp Azteca is responsible for progeny like Tyler’s Tribe and Sharp Aza Tack.

CHAMPION ECHO ZULU LEADS ASMUSSEN WORKERS

A trio of Breeders’ Cup-bound horses trained by Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen had their first works at Santa Anita Friday.

Drilling easy half miles under the watchful eye of assistant Scott Blasi were Echo Zulu (Gun Runner), who went the distance in :50.80 and Society (Gun Runner), who completed her move in :50.20.

Also working for Asmussen was Private Creed (Jimmy Creed), who was officially clocked going three furlongs in :37.40.

“This was their first work on the racetrack so we didn’t want to do a whole lot,” Blasi said. “It was just a maintenance breeze to get them used to the surface.”

Echo Zulu, the champion 2-year-old filly of 2021, is a perfect three-for-three this campaign including a win in the GI Ballerina S. most recently Aug. 26 at Saratoga. She is being pointed to either the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint going six furlongs against males or the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at seven furlongs. Both races are slated for Nov. 4 at Santa Anita.

Society is headed to the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff at 1 1/8 miles the same day at Santa Anita. Private Creed is targeting the five-furlong GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 4.

Asmussen and Blasi plan to work two more Breeders’ Cup hopefuls on Saturday at Santa Anita: Clairiere (Curlin), who will also go in the Distaff; and Gunite (Gun Runner), who is possible for either the Sprint or Dirt Mile, both also Nov. 4.

HIWU ISSUES SUSPENSIONS FOR BISPHOSPHONATES POSSESSION by Dan Ross

Two veterinarians have been provisionally suspended by the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) for possession of bisphosphonates, the controversial drug for treatment of bone degeneration issues that has long bedeviled horse racing regulators due to its ability to stay in the system for years, and its propensity to potentially weaken bones if misused.

It is understood these are the first such actions HIWU has taken for possession of bisphosphonates. No post-race or out-of-competition samples have as yet returned positive for bisphosphonates, according to the HIWU rulings webpage.

HIWU is the drug enforcement arm of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA).

In an action dated Sept. 28, the two veterinarians, Scott Shell and Barbara Hippie, have been accused of violating HISA Rule 3214(a), possession of banned substances. Formal hearings on the accusations are pending.

Aside from bisphosphonates, Shell is accused of possessing two other banned substances. One is Gamma Aminobutyric Acid (GABA), an amino acid that can be used as a calming agent. The other is the vasodilator Isoxsuprine, which can be used to treat laminitis and navicular disease.

Hippie is also accused of possessing Sarapin, a pitcher plant extract that can be used in pain relief, Isoxsuprine, and Levothyroxine, a thyroid treatment. All three are banned at all times under HISA.

The TDN emailed both Shell and Hippie Friday afternoon for comment. The story will be updated as necessary. An online search suggests the veterinarians are Ohio-based.

The TDN also contacted HIWU for further details of the complaint. Spokesperson Alexa Ravit wrote in response that the organization is unable to provide any further information regarding the alleged violations beyond what is listed on the website.

Ravit confirmed, however, that the violations were the result of each individual being in possession of the listed banned substances on Sept. 28. “Possession charges may result from searches of locations such as barns, offices, and veterinary trucks,” she wrote.

With brand names like Tildren and Osphos, bisphosphonates are used in older horses to tackle issues like navicular disease.

In other Breeders’ Cup news, top-rated Classic contender Arcangelo (Arrogate) walked the shedrow and appeared to be doing well the morning after having his first work at Santa Anita. On Thursday, the GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. winner drilled five furlongs in 1:02.20 for trainer Jena Antonucci.
They have also historically been used off-label to treat issues like sore shins in younger horses. A problematic feature of bisphosphonates is that they can remain in a horse’s system for many years after administration, making this a potentially tricky drug to track as horses pass through multiple hands. Further complicating matters is how a horse administered a bisphosphonate won’t necessarily test positive for the drug consistently over time. Considering the severity of the sanctions for a banned substance positive finding, the slippery issue of bisphosphonates has made many industry stakeholders jittery. Under HISA’s rules, any “Covered Horse” proven to have been administered bisphosphonates will be subject to lifetime ineligibility, and the responsible individual could incur an anti-doping violation sanction.

Prior to HISA’s anti-doping and medication control program (ADMC) going into effect earlier this year, HIWU chief of science, Mary Scollay, warned stakeholders to be vigilant about purchasing horses from aboard especially. “As a condition of sale, I would have the seller attest that the horse has never been treated [with a bisphosphonate] so you have got the ability to turn that horse back and get your money back,” Scollay told an assembled crowd of stakeholders at Santa Anita in March. “It’s a civil legal situation, but I think there are ways to protect yourself if needs be.” Horses already in the racing pipeline may have been administered bisphosphonates in the past without their current connections’ knowledge. With that in mind, one stakeholder asked Scollay if HISA’s investigative body has the authority to go back over the horse’s full medical history, in the event of a positive bisphosphonate test.

Though a young racehorse remains beyond HISA’s legal purview until the time of its first official workout, HISA does have subpoena authority, explained Scollay. Ultimately though, as the HISA law is written, the burden of responsibility, she stressed, is placed on the trainer and owners’ shoulders.

ARCI QUESTIONS HISA’S EFFECTIVENESS IN NEW REPORT; HISA CLAIMS REPORT ‘FACTUALLY INACCURATE’

A staff report from the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI) was issued Friday providing “data and a programmatic analysis HISA Programs after its first year,” with the conclusion that HISA has done little to deter the doping of racehorses or effect the catastrophic breakdown rate, according to a press release from the ARCI. HISA responded to the report, saying it was “riddled with factual inaccuracies and mischaracterizations.”

ARCI claims that after one year of being responsible for equine and racetrack safety in thoroughbred racing and six months responsibility for anti-doping and medication control, that HISA’s "biggest success lies in common rules and drug testing." Moreover, they claim, "HISA/HIWU Testing Labs have not found any new drugs that had not been found under the previous state based programs," and "based on HIWU statements as to the extent of testing and HIWU website postings, it appears the rate of adverse analytical findings triggering regulatory review or action is roughly the same as the previous state-based program."

The ARCI went so far as to say that, "the equine fatality rate remains small and results are mixed as to whether HISA has had any effect, either way."

"HISA has just been made aware of the Association of Racing Commissioner International (ARCI) report released publicly today," said a HISA spokesperson. "The report is riddled with factual inaccuracies and mischaracterizations as evidenced by data and information that is publicly available on the HIWU website. HISA remains focused on enforcing and improving upon its Racetrack Safety and Anti-Doping and Medication Control Programs to advance safety and integrity in the sport."

ARCI said that the prepared the report in anticipation of being asked for it by state racing commissions. They also said that "HISA receives considerable help from State Racing Commissioners who are expected to provide almost $18 million in funding or services in the coming year, and that "HISA's almost $81 million proposed budget for next year relies on the thoroughbred racing industry paying almost $60 million in assessments."
NYS GAMING COMMISSION CHAIR CALLS FOR TRAINER ACCOUNTABILITY ON EMPLOYEE WAGE ISSUES

At a public meeting Oct. 3 of the New York State Gaming Commission, Chairman Brian O’Dwyer addressed concerns regarding wage issues involving prominent horse trainers and highlighted a partnership with the New York State Department of Labor to readily identify any licensees that are subjects of labor wage-related investigations, the commission said in a press release early Friday morning.

New York State Department of Labor Commissioner Roberta Reardon said, “We remain dedicated to ensuring that hardworking New Yorkers receive wages they rightfully earned. I thank the New York Gaming Commission for helping to protect workers by holding horse trainers accountable and ensuring a level playing field for all.”

Chairman O’Dwyer’s prepared comments included:

“Last month, I directed our Horse Racing & Pari-Mutuel Wagering Division to examine the matter of licensed trainers owing significant back-pay to workers, including hundreds of thousands of dollars in H2-B back wages. Most trainers and workers at New York State’s racetracks comply with the law. But when we learn of trainers not paying workers, we hold them accountable.”

“For example, a trainer was recently ordered by the U.S. District Court to pay hundreds of thousands of dollars in back wages, fines and penalties. This is not the first time that this trainer and his stable have been ordered to pay back wages, damages and fines due to federal labor law violations. Accordingly, the Commission requested the trainer provide appropriate employment records as part of its review. The Commission also requested the trainer explain why he believes he continues to meet New York State’s standards for licensure. We are reviewing his response.”

“To promptly identify any licensees engaging in bad labor practices, we’ve forged a partnership with the NYS Department of Labor so that the Commission is notified when complaints regarding a trainer’s business practices spur an investigation. This bridges the regulatory gap so that when we learn of trainers engaged in practices that shortchange their employees, we can consider action regarding the trainers’ licensure.”

“This should be fair warning to all. Just as we expect equine athletes to be treated with dignity and respect, so too we expect all who work in the industry to be treated with dignity and respect.”

“I thank the Department of Labor and Commissioner Roberta Reardon for continuing to partner with us to protect the thousands of workers who take care of racehorses.”

Chairman O’Dwyer concluded with: “I can assure you and the general public that the Commission does not take those types of violations lightly.”

NY RACETRACK CHAPLAINCY CELEBRATES OPENING OF NEW CENTER

The New York Race Track Chaplaincy hosted a ribbon-cutting ceremony Friday and opened the doors to its new Chaplaincy Center at Belmont Park in Elmont, NY. The 3,500-foot multi-purpose building and chapel, designed by Frost Hurff Architects of Saratoga Springs, NY, is located just inside the Gate 6 entrance to Belmont Park on Hempstead Avenue in Elmont, NY.

“The creation and the opening of this facility is something we have worked for and dreamed about for many years and it is absolutely thrilling to see it become a reality,” said Ramon Dominguez, president of the Board of the New York Racetrack Chaplaincy. “It will serve the wide-ranging needs of countless individuals from the backstretch community.”

The chaplaincy ministers to the needs of the backstretch community at the NYRA racetracks (Aqueduct Racetrack, Belmont Park, and Saratoga Race Course) as well as surrounding farms through a wide variety of programs. They include enrichment programs for children, teen mentoring, women’s enrichment, social service and recreational programs, as well as educational opportunities, and non-denominational religious services.
HORSESHOE INDIANAPOLIS MAKES DONATION TO GRAYSON JOCKEY CLUB EQUINE RESEARCH

Horseshoe Indianapolis hosted the fourth annual Grayson Grass Challenge throughout the month of August to benefit Grayson-Jockey Club Equine Research and made a $9.6k donation as a result.

“We just completed our fourth year hosting this event and the handicappers involved raised a record amount for Grayson,” said Eric Halstrom, Vice President and General Manager of Racing. “Grayson came to us a few years ago about partnering on a promotion and this special contest emerged as a result. We are elated to donate a total of $9,674.60 to Grayson this year and truly thank all the handicappers who donated their time for this promotion.”

Eight handicappers were given a $500 bankroll to spread out over five weeks of turf racing at Horseshoe Indianapolis. The individuals lent their expertise on various wagers and raised a total of $3,174.60, adding to the $6,500 donation from Horseshoe Indianapolis that included the bankrolls. Scott Ehlers, representing Daily Racing Form, earned the most money with a total of $785.20 followed by Rachel McLaughlin of Horseshoe Indianapolis with a tally of $646.80. Dan Tordjman of America’s Best Racing was a close third with $633.20. Other handicappers who contributed to the cause included Ellis Starr (Equibase), Brian Arrigoni (Horseshoe Indianapolis), Jenna Otten (Caesars Entertainment Racing-Scioto Downs), and Nick Luck (NBC).

“We recognize the health and well-being of horses is so important, and anything we can do to assist is vital to the racing industry,” said Jamie Haydon, President of Grayson Jockey Club Research Foundation. “We currently have 40 projects at 16 universities working to better understand the health of horses and allow horses of all breeds to live healthier lives. We are very appreciative of this partnership with Horseshoe Indianapolis, and this would not be possible without the commitment from management to host this event annually.”

Grayson-Jockey Club Equine Research is the leading source of private funding for equine medical research, assisting all disciplines of equine performance and wellness since 1940. More than $40 million has been assigned so far through more than 426 projects at 45 universities internationally.

GERRY DILGER EQUINE AWARDS PAIR OF SCHOLARSHIPS

The Gerry Dilger Equine Scholarship Foundation would like to express its gratitude and appreciation to all its supporters that have contributed to the charity that assists young people starting off in the bloodstock business.

Based in Lexington, Kentucky, the foundation commenced its activities just three years ago in memory of County Clare native Gerry Dilger whose Dromoland Farm specialized in successful sales pinhooks and an elite breeding operation with great partners that produced consecutive Kentucky Derby winners Nyquist (Uncle Mo) and Always Dreaming (Bodemeister). However, Gerry was equally renowned as a nurturer of young people who found their way to Dromoland and gained so much life and work experience. The foundation was established by the Dilger family and friends to continue his teaching for the next generation and in a short period of time has awarded eighteen scholarships and three bursaries to students from around the world. Our partner schools in Ireland include University College Dublin, University of Limerick, CAFRE, Kildalton College and the Irish National Stud.

HORSESHOE INDIANAPOLIS DONATES $10,000 TO ECHO EFFECT ARTS CAMPUS

Horseshoe Indianapolis has partnered with Echo Effect Arts Campus on a few projects in 2023. The casino and racetrack, in a joint effort, took another step this week to elevate their support for the organization with a $10,000 donation to the overall operations of the multi-faceted property.
We were delighted to recently announce that Luis Ettedgui and Grace Hamilton were awarded scholarships to the Irish National Stud. Luis, a Venezuelan native, and a graduate from the University of Kentucky’s Equine Science and Management program has experience working at Stonerside, Juddmonte, with Brad Cox and is currently working in Australia with Godolphin. Grace, originally from South Carolina is a University of Kentucky senior majoring in Equine Science and Management and minoring in Business. She has worked in many areas of the business including Coldwater Farm, Blandford Stud, Godolphin at Jonabell Farm and Marette Farrell, agent.

The board was very encouraged this year with the quality of applications for its various programs and will be announcing soon other award winners including the recipients of the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Experience Scholarship. In a change of format for this particular scholarship, the awardees will be placed for one year with Springhouse Farm in Lexington and Hunter Valley Farm in Versailles.

The board also extends its thanks to all participants and organizers of the second foundation golf tournament which takes place Tuesday, Oct. 10 at Houston Oaks in Paris. Our first year was such a success that we will once again have a full turnout of twenty-nine teams of four. Further details of the charity’s work and programs can be found here.

UNCLE MO'S ROYAL SLIPPER FITS AS A NEW 'TDN RISING STAR' AT KEENELAND

by J.N. Campbell

No matter whether it is April or October, if it's Keeneland, then you know a Wesley Ward 2-year-old who sets sail for a maiden voyage has a chance to sparkle. Royal Slipper (Uncle Mo) certainly did that on opening day Friday afternoon when the juvenile filly won impressively to become a newly-minted 'TDN Rising Star'.

Breaking along the fence, Royal Slipper shot to the lead from the opening jumps and quickly opened up a distinct advantage up the backstretch. As fellow firster Loveland (Munnings) gave chase into the far turn, the Ward trainee continued to dictate the pace and, moving effortlessly into the lane, motored home under a hand ride to win convincingly by 4 3/4 lengths.

Out of an extended female family which includes GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. victress Fioretti (Bernardini), Street Sense S. hero South Bend (Algorithms) and GI Santa Margarita S. heroine Fault (Blame), the winner is a full to Bast, MGISW, $852,200. Her dam Laffina (Arch) has continued to visit Uncle Mo, producing a yearling colt, foaling another colt this Spring and visiting the Coolmore legend for next year.

Royal Slipper is Uncle Mo's 15th named 'TDN Rising Star'.

2nd-Keeneland, $99,588, Msw, 10-6, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10.58, ft, 4 3/4 lengths.

OCT. 7 INSIGHTS: WELL-RELATED JUVENILES DEBUT ON BOTH COASTS by Patrycja Szpyra

GALLANT MISCHIEF (Into Mischief), a $480,000 KEENOV purchase in 2021, will put his best foot forward in this first juvenile maiden on a packed Keeneland card for conditioner Mark Casse and owner Tracy Farmer. A half-brother to MGISW Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid), he comes into this contest with a string of very strong works at Ellis Park including three successive bullets starting Aug. 17 (1/12), Aug. 30 (1/17) and Sept. 10 (1/22). Gallant Mischief is out of a half-sister to a host of accomplished 'Berties' including MGSW Hurricane Bertie; MGSW & GISP Allamerican Bertie--dam of MSW Homerun Berti and graddam of multiple course-record setter MSW & GSP Believe in Bertie. TJCIS PPs.
11th-KEE, $100k, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 6:18p.m. ET

Booth (Mitole), a $225,000 OBSMAR procurement this past spring, will take to the track after a Super Saturday of racing at Keeneland with an eye on breaking his maiden for trainer Steve Asmussen and the Heiligbrots. Half-brother to GI Jockey Club Gold Cup hero Bright Future (Curlin), the colt can also count GI Hopeful S. winner Nutella Fella (Runhappy) in his extended family.

To his inside and unveiling for the powerhouse WinStar and Siena Farms partnership is Rapport (Constitution), who hails from the young broodmare Tiz Breathtaking (Tiznow), winner of the GIII Mazarine S. in Canada. This is the female family of the venerable Shared Account, dam of fellow Breeders’ Cup champion Sharing, and of GSW Sparkle Blue (Hard Spun). The half-brother to GSP Sara Street (Street Sense) will break from the rail for Brad Cox. TJCIS PPs.

6th-SA, $61k, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 6:39p.m. ET

A princely $1.7 million KEESEP acquisition for Zedan Racing, Coach Prime (Quality Road) will debut from the far outside of a packed maiden for Bob Baffert. A half-brother to MSP Dr Oseran (Kitten’s Joy), he hails most notably from the female line of Spunoutacontrol, who accounts for MGSW & MGISP Fed Biz; SW Spun Silk--dam of GISW Joking (Distorted Humor) and granddam of MGSW Red Carpet Ready (Oscar Performance); and the dam of three stakes winners on the New York circuit. This is the extended family of noted stallions Tale of the Cat and Johannesburg. TJCIS PPs.

1st Dam: Androeah, by Arch
2nd Dam: Woodman’s Dancer, by Woodman
3rd Dam: Pattern Step, by Nureyev
($65,000 Wlg ’20 KEENOV; $160,000 Ylg ’21 FTKJUL; $310,000 2yo ’22 OBSMAR). 1ST BLACK TYPE WIN. O-West Point Thoroughbreds and David Ingordo; B-Anderson Farms Ont. Inc. & Peter A. Berglar Racing Interests, LLC. (ON); T-Cherie DeVaux; J-Jose L. Ortiz. $74,250. Lifetime Record: 5-2-2-0, $168,600.

2--Ohana Honor, 120, c, 3, Honor Code–Spacy Tracy, by Awesome Again. ($430,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP). 1ST BLACK TYPE. O-West Point Thoroughbreds, Woodford Racing, LLC and Edward J. Hudson, Jr.; B-Daniel J. Burke (KY); T-Todd A. McLaughley III. $27,000.

3--Bat Flip, 120, c, 3, Good Magic–Krazy Kathy, by Harlan’s Holiday. ($350,000 Ylg ’21 FTSAUG). O-Harrell Ventures, LLC and Starlight Racing; B-Fifth Avenue Bloodstock (KY); T-Todd A. Pletcher. $16,200.

Also Ran: City Fever, Appraise (Ire). Scratched: Army Times. Racing in the same silks, but not quite stablesmates, Northern Invader and Ohana Honor broke side-by-side and finished first and second respectively in a dreary edition of the Gio Ponti S.

Northern Invader was last seen trying his fortunes in graded company when taking on the GII Secretariat at Colonial Downs, and could only manage fifth as the favorite. He’d garnered favoritism in that race after a lofty eight-length maiden-breaking effort in a one-turn mile at Belmont Park in July on the surface change, where he’d been given a 94 Beyer for that effort.

Back in New York, Northern Invader bobbed at the break but got his feet under him well enough to be forwardly placed heading into the first bend as City Fever (City of Lights) kept him company up top. Taking over after two furlongs sailed by, he costed along comfortably on the front, two off the fence, as Jose Ortiz patiently waited until upper stretch to ask for a homeward kick. Edging clear under a steady drive, Northern Invader had enough wind left to comfortably hold off a fast-closing Ohana Honor and it was a long way back to Bat Flip, who held third by a nose. Heavy 4-5 favorite GISP Appraise (Ire) (Kodiac [GB]) finished last of the tightly-bunched trailing group.

“It took him quite a bit to mature into himself and now that we finally have him going, he’s proving that all the waiting was worth it,” said Adrianne DeVaux, assistant to trainer Cherie DeVaux. “This is awesome. Everyone’s been really high on this horse, especially after he ran decent, big numbers on dirt and then the number he did on turf. Doing it the way he did and to have that backed up with this is really great.”
On a potential next start for Northern Invader, Tom Bellhouse, executive vice-president for West Point said: “Cherie [DeVaux] will make that decision. I think she’s been really brilliant in managing the horse. He lightened up a little bit after the race in Virginia and he wasn’t himself. Now, she’s got him back in good form. I know there’s a few spots left that we’ll take a swing at.”

The first black-type runner for his dam, Northern Invader has a 2-year-old full-brother T D Twelve, who has not started yet. Androeah went to Sky Mesa for 2024. With his score here, the victor also become Collected’s sixth stakes winner. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

3–City Man, 126, h, 6, Mucho Macho Man--City Scamper, by City Zip. ($20,000 Wlg ’17 FTNMI; $185,000 2yo ’19 OBSAPR). O-Reeves Thoroughbred Racing, Peter and Patty Searles; B-Moonstar Farm (NY); T-Christophe Clement. $15,000. Margins: 1 1/4, NK, 2 3/4. Odds: 1.45, 4.80, 0.95. Also Ran: Barrage, Kingdom On Paws, Un Ojo. Scratched: Born Dancer.

As game as ever, and never off the board in his career, Spirit of St Louis picked up his first career black-type win in the statebred restricted Ashley T. Cole S.

After winning at first asking by over eight in February over this venue’s main track and then running second against allowance company in early April for Peter Brant, he went through the Keeneland April Horses of Racing Age Sale to change hands for $280,000 to Michael Dubb. With additional partners buying in later, the gelding returned to Chad Brown and was swapped to the turf for the first showing in his new colors. He would pick up back-to-back open victories over the summer on the grass before begrudgingly yielding late to finish second at Saratoga in the Aug. 27 West Point S. last out.

Setting up in midpack after the jump here, he came under light encouragement passing the half and was fully set down from the four lane coming into the upper stretch. Rallying to take command through the straight, he inchéd away from a game Jerry the Nipper to best that seasoned rival by 1 1/4 lengths. The 4-5 favorite City Man would come on late to round out the trifecta.

“He was traveling so comfortable. It was just a matter of time. I had a good position, clean break. He took me to where I wanted to be—close,” said Manny Franco. "By the five-sixteenths pole, I took a peek back because I wanted to know where City Man [No. 3] was because I knew he was outside me. At the quarter-pole, I went all in and he responded to the wire."

A full-brother to GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare Sprint shocker Bar of Gold--herself dam of GSW Coinage (Tapit)--Spirit of St Louis is also a half-brother to SP Land Mine (Mineshaft) and to SP Homeland (American Pharoah). His 3-year-old half-sister, Im Just Kiddin (Justify), is a winner and they have a pair of siblings in the wings--an Uncle Mo yearling filly and a 2023 Medaglia d’Oro colt. BLING (f, 3, American Pharoah--Blonde Bomber {SW & GISP, $293,540}, by Fort Larned) picked up her third lifetime victory here as the narrow 3-1 favorite. Scoring graded black-type marks in her last two jumps at Ellis Park in the GII Pucker Up S. and at Kentucky Downs in the GIII Big Ass Fans Music City S., placing second and third respectively, the grey was unhurried early in eighth as the pack traveled into the bend. Rolling four wide and under a full head of steam, she was five off the fence in upper stretch but closing quickly and nailed clear leader SW Sassy Nature (Straight Fire) in the shadow of the wire to win by a neck. Bling has a 2-year-old half-sister Musical Note (Mendelssohn) as well as a yearling half-sister by Not This Time and a 2023 half-brother by Nyquist. Blonde Bomber, a granddaughter of champion 2-year-old filly MGISW Yanks Music (Air Forbes Won), and out of a half-sister to the dam of MSW Zealous Vision and MSP Holy Missile, showed plenty of juvenile talent herself when running third in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies. She visited Authentic for 2024. Sales history: $160,000 Ylg ’21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 9-3-2-2, $391,620. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

TWO ITEM SAVER (f, 3, Super Saver--Two Item Limit {MGSW & MGISP, $1,060,585}, by Twining) debuted in the same Churchill Downs maiden as a juvenile which yielded GSW Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) and SP Baby Got Backspin (Kantharos), finishing fourth for Dallas Stewart before being put on the bench until August of this year. Now in the barn of Ignacio Correas, she graduated from the maiden ranks in a Colonial Downs dash and shipped to Keeneland for this contest, scratched down to a party of four, leaving the blocks as the 3-2 second choice. Never in any hurry as the caboose in the short field, she picked up her stride after splitting runners from the three path and was closing fast passing the five sixteenths marker. Driving clear despite hanging on the wrong lead, she caught her second wind when swapping to the right one and was 13 1/2 lengths ahead of Yes Day (Classic Empire) on the wire. Hailing from a deep and international female family which includes the likes of Arena Elvira (Ghostzapper), MGSW, $497,396, herself dam of SP Americana (Tapit); and the dam of SW Electo Red (Master Command) and an ever growing list of winners, Two Item Saver is the most recent addition to this collective. XTREME SMOKE SHOW (f, 2, Frosted--Imposing Grace {GSW, $326,743}, by Empire Maker) broke her maiden at first asking by a neck Aug. 12 at Canterbury before coming to Keeneland as a 12-1 longshot. Cont.
The gray filly dropped towards the rear of the field up the backstretch, refused to quit into the far turn and, launching her bid to the outside at the top of the lane, rallied to win by 1 1/2 lengths over Our Keepsake (Cinco Charlie). Her dam's last record of produce, the winner is a half-sister to Guns n' Graces (Gun Runner), GSP, $105,295. Imposing Grace counts GIII Kentucky Cup Sprint S. victor Level Playingfield (Level Sands) as a half-brother. Sales History: $55,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $81,843.

PRACTICAL MOVE (c, 3, Practical Joke—Ack Naughty (MSP, $310,450), by Afleet Alex) has never been off the board in his career and after almost six months away since winning the GI Santa Anita Derby by the slimmest of noses over Mandarin Hero (Jpn) (Shanghai Bobby), he returned to the races here like he never left. Enthusiastically hammered down to 2-5 favoritism at the windows and on Lasix for the first time in his career, he left the blocks well against a short, albeit quality, field. Comfortably rated from the jump as Newgrange (Violence) and Tripoli (Kitten's Joy) disputed the early pace, he followed them up the backstretch and into the far turn where he challenged passing the quarter pole. Inhaling Tripoli coming off the bend, he kicked home when asked for more and coasted home much the best by four lengths.

“We were hoping for this,” said Yakteen. “Very happy with the way he ran, he'd been training very well but you never know until you run 'em...Things set up well for us today and he replicated what he's been doing in the morning.”

When asked about a potential next start, the conditioner declined to speculate: "We're going to take a day or two, think about where we'll go next and we'll figure it out.”

Ack Naugty's first offspring to the races and to garner black-type, Practical Move has a yearling half-brother by Complexity. Their 2023 Upstart half-sibling was stillborn and the dam went to the venerable Into Mischief for 2024. Sales history: $90,000 RNA Ylg '21 KEESEP; $230,000 2yo '22 OBSAPR. BOURBON BREEZE (f, 2, Omaha Beach—Malibu Pride, by Malibu Moon) became her sire (by War Front)'s 14th winner in impressive fashion here, saving early ground as a 4-1 shot from behind the leading bunch heading into the straight. Losing a few positions as the field closed ranks, she next had to contend with a wall of runners in front of her and finally found a seam in the final furlong as she muscled between rivals for an opening.

Cont.
Driving past even-money favorite Tammy Lynn (Distorted Humor) at the sixteenth marker, Bourbon Breeze opened up a 3 1/4-length margin on the wire to score at first-asking. The most recent winner to the races for her dam, the victress has a 2023 half-sister by Liam's Map. Malibu Pride was bred to Cyberknife for 2024. This is the immediate female family of MSW By the Light (Malibu Moon), the dam of MGISW By the Moon, who was in turn responsible for GSP Full Moon Madness (Into Mischief). DRUM ROLL PLEASE (c, 2, Hard Spun--Imply {MSW, $772,728}, by E Dubai) put two races under his belt at Saratoga including a last-out second to ‘TDN Rising Star’ Locked (Gun Runner) Sept. 1. Running over the same mile distance as the even-money choice Friday, the Brad Cox trainee settled behind the dueling pair of Enlighten (City of Light) and Pentathlon (Speightstown) through a :22.79 opening quarter. Despite being caught wide throughout, Drum Roll Please began to gain on those early leaders into the far turn and stuck a head in front as the field swung into the lane. Hunt Ball (Into Mischief) was game to the outside but had to settle for second again as Drum Roll Please got by to win by two lengths. Pentathlon hung around for third at long odds while Enlighten, Digital Ops (Nyquist) and Unique Insight (Gun Runner) ran fifth, sixth and seventh respectively. CANDY RIDE’S CANDIED STAYS PERFECT IN ALCIBIADES

INSPIRAL READY FOR MARQUISE SUN CHARIOT SHOWDOWN

by Tom Frary

Four-times Group 1 winners who boast two editions of Deauville’s G1 Prix Jacques le Marois are rare commodities, so Saturday’s G1 Sun Chariot S. is all the richer for the presence of Cheveley Park Stud’s Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) who could be Frankie’s 500th Newmarket winner if all goes to plan. First, they will have to master one of those big improvers that Andre Fabre has aimed at his favourite track, and Baron Edouard De Rothschild’s Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) showed distinct appetite for battle in both Deauville’s race named in honour of the owner-breeder’s family and the G1 Prix Jean Romanet.

Fortunately for Inspiral, the autumn damp has been delayed and the Gosdens’ filly has ideal conditions as she returns to the course and distance of her Fillies’ Mile success two years ago. “She’s in good form and the ground will suit. Softer ground can dampen her finish, but I think the ground on Saturday will be perfect,” Cheveley Park’s managing director Chris Richardson said. “I think the French filly is the one we’ve got to be worried about, but if you’re not in you can’t win, so let’s hope Frankie can work some more magic.”

This is unlikely to be Inspiral’s grand finale, however. Cont. p3

AMMERLAND DISPERSAL TO FEATURE AT ARQANA DECEMBER

Germany’s Gestut Ammerland, famed as the nursery which produced the Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe winner Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and dual French Classic winner Lope De Vega (Ire) (Shamardal), is to disperse all of its breeding stock at the forthcoming Arqana December Sale, which starts its four-day run on Saturday, Dec. 9.

Owned by Dietrich and Annabel von Boetticher and founded in 1989, the farm, based just outside Munich, has been widely represented on the global stage by the winners of 17 Group or Grade 1 races in Germany, France, Britain, Ireland, America and Hong Kong, including Borgia (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) and Boreal (Ger) (Java Gold). Ammerland was also the co-breeder and owner with Newells Park Stud of another Arc winner, Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who is now in the early stages of his stud career alongside Lope De Vega at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland. CANDY RIDE’S CANDIED STAYS PERFECT IN ALCIBIADES

Candied (Candy Ride {Arg}) won the G1 Darley Alcibiades at Keeneland on Friday.
CHURCHILL FILLY TO SKIP BC & RETURN NEXT YEAR

The outstanding Blue Rose Cen (Ire) has ended her season and will return as a 4-year-old.

A GUINEAS NEXT FOR FALLEN ANGEL

There will be no G1 Fillies' Mile for Fallen Angel (GB), as the Too Darn Hot (GB) filly as entered winter quarters with an eye to the G1 1000 Guineas.

Arrowfield Stud has bought into star colt Militarize (NZ) (Dundeel {NZ}). The Thoroughbred Report AusNZ spoke with Arrowfield’s John Messara to find out more about the three-time Group 1-winning 3-year-old. Click here for more.

The Image Is Everything

“She’s obviously lightly-raced, so we can see after Saturday whether Mrs. Thompson will consider the Breeders’ Cup option as her swansong, or indeed whether she might stay in training next year, which hasn’t been decided yet,” Richardson added.

Andre Fabre said of Mqse De Sevigne, “I don’t think the ground is too much of a concern, maybe over this distance it might be a bit sharp for her but she has done well over this distance before. She will go for the Breeders’ Cup [Filly And Mare Turf] after this.”

With two 16-1 winners in the last four years, this is never an open-and-shut case and St Albans Bloodstock’s Heredia (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) is exactly the kind of progressive type which this late-season race favours. Her wins in the Listed Dick Hern S. at Haydock in August and G3 Atalanta S. at Sandown last month saw her back to the form of her success in Royal Ascot’s Sandringham H. last year and she showed she handled faster ground there.

“Richard Hannon has been really pleased with her since Sandown, she has bounced out of that race,” the owners’s racing manager Richard Brown said. “We took our time and said we would only do it if you were completely happy and Richard says she has never been better, so we’re happy to take a chance.”

Lupini Waits On Ground For Kitty Rose

Staffordstown Bid

One of Irish racing’s big stories of 2023, the Natalia Lupini-trained unbeaten filly Kitty Rose (GB) (Invincible Army {Ire}) is one of the main attractions on Saturday’s Curragh card. Impressive when stamping her class on an up-to-scratch renewal of Leopardstown’s Listed Ingabelle S. last month, she will line up for the G3 Staffordstown Stud S. if the ground is suitable according to her handler.

“She has been in good form and she’s ready to run, the only thing is we’re monitoring the ground as we had a lot of rain yesterday and today,” Lupini said of the revelation, who is set to be re-opposed in the mile contest by the Ingabelle runner-up Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Newtown Anner Stud Farm’s Cork maiden winner Unreasonable (Ire) (No Nay Never). “We’ll just have to keep a close eye on the ground as she probably doesn’t want it too soft, so we’re not going to run her on very soft ground. She seems to have stepped up a gear in her work since Leopardstown and everything looks good apart from the weather, unfortunately! The current owners are thinking this will be her last run of the year. She’s a big filly and she will definitely benefit from a winter break.”

The dispersal of eight mares, four fillies out of training, and two foals will include Waldgeist's full-sister Wildfeder (GB), who will be offered in foal to Siyouni (Fr), and Lady Frankel (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the Group 1-placed half-sister to Lope de Vega whose two most recent yearlings have been bought by Godolphin for €1,600,000 and €850,000.

"After 35 years, Dietrich and I have decided it is time to close Gestut Ammerland's thoroughbred stud," said Annabel von Boetticher. "We will of course remain at Ammerland and it is always possible that at some point in the future when our children are older we may decide to start again. We would like to thank everybody who has played a part in the wonderful adventure of Ammerland and we hope that other breeders will be able to enjoy success at the highest level with our families."

Ammerland's breeding is represented on the track this year by one of Germany's leading 3-year-olds, Mr Hollywood (Ger) (Iquitos {Ger}), who was runner up in the G1 Deutsches Derby and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, as well as Godolphin's British Listed winner Chesspiece (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}).

Ludovic Cornuel, Bloodstock Director of Arqana said,"We feel extremely honoured to be entrusted with the dispersal of such a prestigious stud farm as Gestut Ammerland. The record of the von Boettichers' entity on the track speaks for itself and is all the more impressive as it has been achieved through a very boutique operation." Cont. p5

He added, “These remarkable bloodlines on offer represent a unique opportunity for buyers from across the globe and we are looking forward to welcoming them to Deauville for our December Vente d’Elevage.”

BLUE ROSE CEN WILL SKIP THE BREEDERS’ CUP IN FAVOUR OF A WINTER BREAK

Multiple Group 1 winner Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), who won the G1 Prix de l’Opera and booked her ticket to the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf as a result, will skip that engagement and is being freshened prior to being prepared for a 4-year-old campaign, Jour de Galop reported on Friday.

The Yeguada Centurion homebred is trained by Christopher Head. In 2022, she won the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, and then completed a rare triple when adding the G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane. After two unplaced runs at the highest level, she won the Opera by a neck and is currently on break at Haras de l’Hotellerie according to Head.

“Blue Rose Cen achieved a magnificent season,” he told the JDG. “You have to know how to respect the horses and, moreover, she will be seen again on the track as a 4-year-old. She went to take a month-and-a-half vacation, with the idea that it would be profitable for next year.

“We had thought about running in the Breeders’ Cup last year and we skipped it because she had walked on a rock. Finally, when we see what she achieved this year, it was perhaps a blessing in disguise. We do not have a set programme for next year for her.”

FALLEN ANGEL HEADED “STRAIGHT FOR A GUINEAS”, AS SHE BYPASSES FILLIES’ MILE

Clipper Logistics’ Group 1 winner Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) will not be seen on a racecourse again this season and instead will target a Guineas next spring, according to Joe Foley, racing manager for the owners.

The imposing three-for-four Karl Burke trainee won her Haydock debut in May, ran second at listed level at Sandown in July and then rattled off victories in August’s G3 Sweet Solera S. and the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at the Curragh in September. She was under consideration for next week’s G1 Fillies’ Mile.

“I’d say she is unlikely to run again this year and will just head straight for a Guineas next year,” said Foley.

“We were always planning to give her just four runs this year. If she hadn’t won the Moyglare we would have targeted the Fillies’ Mile, but she’s already a Group 1 winner at two now and she’s a big filly with lots of scope for next year, so we don’t want to interfere with that.

“We’ve decided to let her off and give her a break, so she’s not going to run in the Fillies’ Mile and she was never going to a Breeders’ Cup this year.”

Burke will be in charge of determining if the filly will have a prep run before the 1000 Guineas.

Foley added, “We’ll see how she goes [for a prep] and leave that to Karl. Going straight to the Newmarket Guineas was the original plan, but that could change.”

CONOR NORRIS JOINS DARLEY NOMINATIONS TEAM

Conor Norris has joined the Darley stallions nominations team at Dalham Hall Stud as nominations sales executive.

Norris has most recently worked as assistant trainer to Marco Botti in Newmarket and has gained international experience of the breeding industry during his time working with the yearlings at Arrowfield Stud in Australia, and a season of foal prep at Whitsbury Manor Stud.

Having completed the BHA Graduate Development Programme, he has also worked with his family’s Norris Bloodstock breeding and consigning operation, and served stints with GBRI, Jockey Club Estates and Britbet.

“I consider it a huge privilege to have been given the opportunity to work for Darley in the Nominations team, working with the highest-profile, quality stallions on offer in Europe,” Norris said.

JULIAN RICHMOND WATSON STEPS DOWN AS CHAIRMAN OF TBA

Long-term Thoroughbred Breeders’ Association chairman Julian Richmond Watson will step down following eight years at the helm. He announced the news during the TBA’s Annual General Meeting at the Jockey Club Rooms in Newmarket on Friday.

Philip Newton will become chairman of the TBA with immediate effect, while Kate Sigsworth will become deputy chairman. Newton has been on the board since 2012, while Sigsworth joined in 2020. James Crowhurst will continue as a co-opted trustee for a second term to support the TBA’s work on equine health and welfare. In addition, Will Kinsey was named to the board of trustees and Tom Blain will return to the board for a second term, the duo having filled vacant positions determined by an election.

“Bold decision-making intended to arrest the decline in racing’s fortunes is essential if we are to move forward,” Richmond Watson said when addressing members and trustees, both past and present. “The TBA is a member of the Thoroughbred Group and will work wherever possible to advance the position of those involved with horses, their ownership and welfare.”

He added, “Of course, prize-money is the key to unlocking so many of these issues. Prize-money is not high enough in this country, and the obvious discrepancy between what the betting industry pays to the sport and how much the participants receive must be addressed, so that the income coming into racing is fairly shared.”

Richmond Watson is the longest-serving chairman since the office was introduced in 1962, and he has also served as a trustee for 12 years. On the specific issues facing breeders he added, “We have to focus on these ourselves. There is very little understanding of breeding within racing and the supply of racehorses is taken far too much for granted. It is up to the TBA to make sure our issues are constantly brought to the fore.

“There is an enormous amount of work that goes on behind the scenes and, as shown by Brexit and Covid, contacts developed along the way are vital when we need to be in touch with the important decision-makers.

“The carry-over from Brexit continues, and while we have had successes with the Treasury on VAT for temporary imports into this country, our trading partners in Ireland and France have still to sort this issue, so that transport and inspection-post issues, as well as increased costs, are still to be resolved.

“We have also seen recent positive steps made with the Migration Advisory Committee adding three stud roles to the Shortage Occupation List in their recent report and we must now continue to lobby government for this to be formally sanctioned.”

The Annual General Meeting also included the approval of the minutes of the previous AGM, re-election of the auditors, and the confirmation of membership fees for 2024. The 2022 Annual Report was formally launched and can be viewed here with highlights including:

- Commissioning of the Economic Impact Study, the findings of which were published in January 2023.
- Ongoing positive impact of the Great British Bonus scheme (GBB) managed by the TBA on behalf of the industry with a 16.3% increase in median value of British bred fillies reported since scheme launched in 2020.
- Continued development of TB-ED, the TBA’s online platform, and on the recruitment and retention of employees on stud farms with 67% of students enrolled in the E2SE programme remaining employed in the industry.
- Launch of TBA Access membership.

Richmond-Watson said, “Evidence-based strategies have been at the heart of the TBA’s work since the initial study in 2014, providing a sound basis for areas of focus in our work to support breeders and the industry as a whole. The results of this study will lead to some re-alignment of plans to ensure we continue to work on activities that deliver the greatest positive impact to our sector.”

Other presentations during the AGM included one by incoming chairman Philip Newton on implications from the Economic Impact Study and next steps, as well as an introduction to the TBA’s Stud Farm Carbon Calculator by Victoria Murrell, the TBA’s Equine Health and Welfare Manager and Sarah Wynn and Sola Samuel from ADAS who are developing the software, and which is due to launch in November 2023.

Richmond-Watson said, “We have been through some interesting times but hopefully I leave you in good order, but of course with plenty to do. And Philip Newton, thank you for being such a supportive and challenging deputy chairman. "We have worked incredibly well together, and I wish you all the best as you take the TBA forward."

ARC, DONCASTER RACECOURSE, QATAR RACING PARTNER ON FUTURITY TROPHY SPONSORSHIP

Arena Racing Company (ARC), Doncaster Racecourse and Qatar Racing have partnered this year to sponsor the G1 Kameko Futurity Trophy, the organisations announced in a joint statement on Friday.

The one-mile event, worth £200,000, is the final Group 1 of the British Flat season and is set to be contested on Saturday, Oct. 28. A total of 66 entries remain, including Aidan O’Brien’s unbeaten G1 National S. winner Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

“We are delighted to be able to support the 2023 Kameko Futurity Trophy, a race that consistently provides one of the highlights of the Flat season by whetting the appetite for the following year’s Classics,” David Redvers, Qatar Racing’s bloodstock and racing manager and owner of Tweenhills, said.

Recent Futurity Trophy winners Kameko (Kitten’s Joy) and Magna Grecia (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) both went on to victories in the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, and this year’s G1 Betfred Derby, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion winner Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) is the Futurity Trophy’s reigning champion.

“Qatar Racing continue to be tremendous supporters of British Racing and we are delighted to secure their support of what is one of the highlights of the season at Doncaster,” David Leyden Dunbar, group director of commercial strategy and partnerships at ARC, said. “Kameko will always have a special connection with the race as 2019’s renewal, run at Newcastle Racecourse and won by Kameko, remains the only British Group 1 race to be run on an artificial surface. Our thanks go to them and the entire team at Qatar Racing for their support.”

For tickets to the Kameko Futurity, visit the Doncaster website.

ASCOT RACECOURSE TO HOST TIEA AWARDS, CHAMBERLIN RETURNS TO HOST

Ascot Racecourse will host the 20th anniversary celebration of the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards, set to be held on Monday, Feb. 26, 2024. ITV Racing’s Ed Chamberlin will host the festivities for the first time since 2020.

The awards, sponsored by the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) and by Godolphin, honours and celebrates the skill, passion and dedication of the remarkable individuals who care for the horses. There are six award categories--Leadership Award, Dedication Award, Rider/Racing Groom Award, Stud Staff Award, Community Award (in recognition of Rory MacDonald), and David Nicholson Newcomer Award.

“We are delighted that the 2024 Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards ceremony will be held at Ascot Racecourse and that Ed Chamberlin has again agreed to host the celebrations,” BHA chief executive Julie Harrington said. “Ascot is an iconic venue, renowned for quality both on and off the track—it’s the ideal setting for our 20th anniversary and we are proud and very grateful that Ascot Racecourse Supports joins us as a formal partner.”

Nick Smith, director of racing and public affairs at Ascot Racecourse, commented, “It’s a privilege for Ascot Racecourse to host the 2024 Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards and celebrate the 20th anniversary. People are the heart and soul of this industry and we are very lucky to have so many talented, dedicated, hard-working and enthusiastic employees that help keep this industry thriving, so it is only right we celebrate the best our industry has to offer.”
ES QUE LOVE GELDING SHINES IN ARCADIA

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week’s column is highlighted by the victory of Hong Kong Harry at Santa Anita last week.

Hong Kong Harry Returns
A Winner In City Of Hope

Prolific graded winner Hong Kong Harry (Ire) (Es Que Love (Ire)) returned to winning ways in Santa Anita’s GI City of Hope Mile S. for trainer Phil D’Amato and owners Scott Anastasi, Jimmy Ukegawa and Tony Valazza at the end of September (video). It was his fourth win at the graded level since being transferred to the U.S. in March of 2022.

Bred by Amarath Business Management out of the multiple stakes-placed Vital Body (Fr) (Gold Away (Ire)), the 6-year-old gelding won multiple handicaps in the UK, and was a £185,000 Goffs London Sale buy-back during his time with owner/trainer Richard Fahey in 2021. When he was reoffered by the trainer later that year at the 2021 Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale, he made 85,000gns from Craig Rounsefell’s Boomer Bloodstock. Vital Body has also thrown the stakes-placed Body Sculpt (Fr) to the cover of Kendargent (Fr) and her latest is a weanling filly by Starman (GB). This is the same clan as G2 Prix du Gros-Chene hero Pradaro (Fr) (Penny’s Picnic (Ire)) and Australian Group 1 winner Offer (Ire) (Montjeu (Ire)).

One of just 80 foals for his sire who was last reported to be standing in France, Hong Kong Harry is his only graded winner and one of two stakes winners besides listed winner Que Amoro (Ire). Es Que Love has two winners from two runners in the U.S.

Gavea Remains Undefeated At Churchill

Bal Mar Equine, LLC’s Gavea (Ger) (Gleneagles (Ire)), a debut winner at Chantilly for Christoph Berglar and trainer Waldemar Hickst in July, marked her U.S. unveiling with another victory, this time at Churchill Downs on Sept. 29 (video).

Now trained by Al Stall, Jr., the 2-year-old filly was bred by Stiftung Gestut Fahrhof and was bought back by her vendor for €36,000 out of the BBAG September Yearling Sale after not meeting her reserve. She is a half-sister to a pair of winners and is the last reported foal of her German listed-winning dam, the Oasis Dream (GB) mare Goiania (GB). Goiania is a half-sister to two stakes winners, the trio all produced by German Group 3 heroine Goathemala (Ger) (Black Sam Bellamy (Ire)).

Gleneagles is quietly accumulating a solid stallion resume with his progeny worldwide, and he is responsible for 13 winners from 19 runners (68%) in the U.S. His American brigade is led by GI Man o’War S. hero Highland Chief (Ire), while Jumbly (GB) was third in the GII Ballston Spa S. and Eylara (Ire) was listed placed in California.

Gold To The North East In California

CYBT, Marc Lantzman, Michael Nentwig and Ray Pagano’s North East Star (Ire) (Galileo Gold (GB)) graduated in her fifth start at Santa Anita on Sept. 30 (video). One of two European-sired winners on the card for trainer Phil D’Amato, the filly was bred by McCracken Farms.

A £17,000 Tattersalls Ireland yearling buy by subsequent owner/trainer Kate McGivern, the April foal is out of Northeast Moon (Ire) (Sea The Moon (Ger)), herself a half-sister to G1 Dubai World Cup hero Prince Bishop (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)). Her only European appearance was a fifth at Dundalk over the all-weather before she changed hands. Her dam’s 2-year-old filly, Circe (Ire) (Kodiac (GB)) has already won this term, while her yearling filly by Ghaiyyath (Ire) caught the eye of Alex Elliott for 140,000gns during Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. A weanling filly by Sottsass (Fr) is her latest foal.

Group 1 sire Galileo Gold has a 75% strike rate with his four American runners. Among his three winners in that jurisdiction is Listed Baffle S. winner Maglev (Ire).

Middle Earth backed up a July 28 novice success at Newmarket with victory in York’s Aug. 26 Melrose H. and went postward for this second stakes start returning off a never-dangerous seventh in the Sept. 16 G1 St Leger at Doncaster. Poisition in fourth for the most part, the 9-4 second choice powered forward in the straight to hit the front approaching the furlong pole and stayed on strongly under a late drive to deny St Leger sixth Chesspiece by a length for a career best.

“Middle Earth found the ground a little bit soft at Doncaster and, when I knew I couldn’t run well, I looked after him,” said rider Oisin Murphy. “Fortunately he trained well between then and now, John [Gosden] was very happy. Thady [Gosden] felt like his work was good, so he was allowed to take his chance and I’m delighted. It’s a nice way to finish his season, [owner] Sheikh Fahad will be over the moon and we’ll look forward to next year. He’s a beautiful horse, easy to ride and he seems to stay well.”

Bought for just 3,200gns at the Tatts August Online Sale, the winner is a fraction of the 310,000gns expense to which Mike Ryan went to at this week’s Book 1 Sale when acquiring his half-brother by Blue Point (Ire) for Klaravich Stables. The dam is a half-sister to the enduring stalwart Gabrial (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who managed two listed wins and 14 group placings including the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and two renewals of the G1 Sussex S. Fast away from the widest stall and onto the pace with Colin Keane keen to exploit her blend of speed and stamina shortening up in trip, she proved admirably tough as well as classy as she readily saw off Ballydoyle’s Alabama for another authoritative success.

“She’s only getting going at the back-end and I’m trying to get at least two runs into most of them,” trainer Ger Lyons said. “We knew after Cork that we had bumped into one and he proved that afterwards. I liked what she did at the Curragh and she’s pretty straightforward at home. Dropping down from group company, Ballydoyle’s Mountain Bear gained the reward for his consistency with a first black-type success on his initial foray onto the Polytrack. Third in Goodwood’s G2 Vintage S. before fourth placings in The Curragh’s G3 Round Tower S. and the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster, he was anchored towards the rear early with Seamie Heffernan keen to reserve all the power for the straight. Staying on to collar stablemate Battle Cry inside the final half furlong, he readily asserted from there to lead home a one-two for the yard which has dominated so much of the 2-year-old scene this year.

“They went a good gallop, it rode a good race and we’ve always liked him,” Heffernan said. “He hasn’t got to the top level yet, but I liked that performance. From a wide draw I didn’t think I had much choice but to ride him for a turn of foot and he showed a big turn of foot. He put his head down and ran hard for the last two furlongs, which is a good trait. Some of the No Nay Nevers mature at different stages; a lot show plenty and don’t develop, mature or are not up for it, but I liked the way he quickened.”

“I’d say he has grown up--he has gone past the teenager style now and is going to be a man,” his rider added. “He ran very straight and hard to the line, he wasn’t looking for a way out so he could have a future when he’s mature. I’m sure Aidan has plenty lined up for the Breeders’ Cup, but I don’t see why he wouldn’t go.”

The dam, who is also responsible for the G3 Irish St Leger Trial-placed Moon Daisy (Ire) [Australia {GB}], is kin to the G3 Jersey S. scorer and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas runner-up Ishvana (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). She also has a colt foal by Churchill (Ire).
