REPOLE: IT'S TIME NOW THAT THE OWNERS TAKE BACK THIS GAME

In an interview with Nick Luck on Sunday's Spinster broadcast on NBC, Mike Repole called for the creation of a national owners' association that would "take back this game," from the entities that now control it.

Repole indicated that he had started discussions with other interested owners and trainers, and expressed his discontent with the current state of the sport and how it is run, stressing that every other major sport is controlled at the ownership level.

"The frustration level..." he said. "I mean, this year, even though our success has been amazing, there isn’t anything in this sport that is good right now."

A WEEKEND REPORT CARD

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

The next best thing to the Breeders’ Cup is a weekend filled with Breeders’ Cup preps. That was the story last week as 31 graded stakes races were contested, many of them races that would help shape the fields for the Breeders’ Cup races. Who were the big winners? Who were the big losers? Here's our reports card:

Up to the Mark: A+

It had been a depressing year for North American-based turf horses, who lost race after race to European shippers, including some whose credentials were rather modest. Saturday’s GI Coolmore Turf Mile at Keeneland looked like it might be a case of more of the same as the favorite was the Charles Appleby-trained Master of The Seas (Dubawi {Ire}), who was coming off an impressive in the GI Woodbine Mile S. But in Up to the Mark (Not This Time), he was facing the best turf horse in the U.S. Had he been able to beat him handily that would have reaffirmed the message that the European turf horses are light years ahead of the ones based in the U.S. and that the Breeders’ Cup turf races would certainly be dominated by shippers from the other side of the Atlantic. It was hardly a dominant performance as Up to the Mark beat Master of The Seas by a nose, but it showed that our very best turf horses can compete with Europe's best. This was the third straight Grade I win for Up to the Mark. If the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic is won by an outsider and if Up to the Mark wins his Breeders’ Cup race he could be Horse of the Year.

AMY MOORE BIDS QUEEN CAROLINE FAREWELL
Soon, the final chapter of Moore’s fairytale story with Queen Caroline will come to a close when the Grade I-producing mare goes through the ring at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale.

OBS OCTOBER YEARLING SALE BEGINS
A total of 713 yearlings have been cataloged for the OBS October Sale, which kicks off a two-day run Tuesday morning in Central Florida.

SIX SUPPLEMENTED TO FT'S NOVEMBER SALE
Fasig-Tipton has catalogued six initial supplemental entries to its 2023 edition of The November Sale.

“We need to make this sport better, so I want to start an association with the biggest owners and the biggest trainers. I think it’s our responsibility. People say, ‘whose fault is it? Why is racing this bad?’ I blame myself. I blame the owners. In other sports, like the NFL or the NBA, the owners are very involved. They run the sport. and here, we let everyone else run it for us, so I think owners and trainers taking care of the horses, the jockeys, the fans, the bettors, the tracks, working with the tracks, working with the other groups—it’s time now that the owners take back this game.”

Luck pointed out that Repole had spent millions on yearlings at the Keeneland September sale just a few weeks prior.

“You just said there’s nothing good about this sport, but a couple of weeks ago, just down the hill, you spent $14 million,” Luck said.

“Because I’m a big idiot, just like every owner in this game,” said Repole. “We take this. We take this from Churchill. We take this from other tracks. We take this from other associations. It can’t happen any more.”

Last week, in a TDN survey about the Kentucky purse, Is The Derby Purse Fair? Repole expressed a strong opinion that the $3 million Derby purse, largely funded by nomination, entry and starting fees, was not fair.

“It’s beyond embarrassing,” he said. “But not only do we put up a third of the purse with fees, but the way the owners get treated is an embarrassment. And the more I reflect, the more I’m starting to really realize that the blame of this lies with the owners and the trainers. As long as we keep letting tracks make the rules...and be ruled by the ineffective associations that represent owners, trainers, and jockeys in the sport without really having done them justice, the more we have to look ourselves in the mirror.”

He expressed a similar sentiment to Luck on the telecast.

“If we want to move forward, the only way is that the owners take over the control,” he said. “I spoke to a lot of owners. I spoke to a lot of trainers. We’re going to work with the tracks, we’re going to work with the other associations, we’re going to work with HISA. We’re going to work with horse rescue. We’re going to work with vets. We’re going to work with track surfaces. We’re the ones that are putting money in this game. I spent $14 million dollars in this game (at Keeneland September) because I want (daughter) Gioia to be in it for a long, long time, and I care about this sport.”

Watch the interview here.

Monday afternoon, Repole added some details in a post on X, formerly known as Twitter. The post, in its entirety, reads:
Star filly Randomized adds the G2 Beldame to her resume. She’s by Nyquist as is G1 filly Xigera – they are the three-year-old fillies with the season’s equal-top Beyers over a mile or more. Just imagine.
15 career G1 winners, four Kentucky stallion sons, and 2023 yearlings sold for $450k, $435k, $400k. Hard Spun, always in demand. Just imagine...
“It’s time!!!!! Racing needs change NOW. We need a NEW association led by the owners and trainers of this game that we all love and are passionate about. We need to turn selfish into SELFLESS and each do our part for the future of this great sport that is in poor health. The goal of this association will be to make all facets of racing better. We need to make it better and safer for horses, fans, gamblers, jockeys, trainers, owners, breeders, backstretch, tracks, etc, etc. This association will not just be focused on the top 10%, the goal is to make positive change for EVERYONE involved in the game. This seismic change doesn’t happen overnight but it has to start now if it is ever going to happen. The plan is to unite and work together with the tracks, HISA, other racing associations, and the sales companies. We all want a better sport and it’s about time we unite and leave the competition inside the racetrack not outside.

Non cooperative tracks remember the owners and trainers control the entry box. I’m asking all owners and all trainers to help lead this mission!!!!!! I’m asking you all to stop talking and let’s unite for progress. Walk the talk!!!!! Here’s a sneak peak into some of the focus items we will address: Working with HISA to improve horse safety with an advisory committee of the most experienced Thoroughbred Vets with the #1 goal to protect these amazing & loving equine athletes. Working with tracks on having three surfaces if possible, turf, dirt and synthetic. If not possible push for a synthetic training track. Stand up and back 99% of the trainers who devote their lives and work extremely hard. There are cheaters, crooks, in every industry and facet of life, they make up a small percentage. Significantly increase the purses for older horses. Having it make sense for owners and trainers to bring back these older horses. Long term this will lead to breeding older and more durable horses that will strengthen the breed. Have every consignment owner, bloodstock agent, jockey agent, veterinarian, etc. licensed with not only rules and regulations but fines, suspensions and penalties for everyone involved. Fix two year old sales. Horses will be tested when entered, weeks prior to the breeze and tested post breeze. We will also ban the stupidity of a 1 furlong 9.3 breeze. I would suggest they work go 3f or just gallop only before the auction. Promote ownership through reputable racing syndicates to get more owners in the game and at the same time educate them on horse ownership. Work with both Gen Z & Millennials with national programs focusing on the future of racing that includes future trainers, fans, grooms, gamblers, owners, media, etc. We need the next generation involved if racing has a future.

Educate, upgrade and innovate the gambling of this sport. Be creative, let’s think out of the box. Openly share your thoughts, comments and ideas with the industry and me. Do not hide or be afraid to speak up and share your true opinion to make the game better. If you get fired I will hire you for the new association!!!! (Unless your name is Joe Drape) Are you willing to unite for progress??? #uniteforprogress LFG!!!!!

Muth:

Muth (Good Magic), a $2 million purchase at the OBS March sale, didn’t beat the toughest group of horses in Saturday’s GI American Pharoah S. at Santa Anita, but the way he pulled off the victory was impressive and bodes well for his future. In his first two starts, he looked a lot like a precocious, fast horse who would fit best in sprint races. In the mile-and-a-sixteenth American Pharoah, he was relaxed and settled into fourth before launching his bid at the top of the stretch. If Muth is that good, how good is his stablemate, Prince of Monaco (Speightstown)? He beat him decisively when winning the Gill Best Pal S by 4 1/4 lengths.

Idiomatic: A

Yes, Idiomatic (Curlin) had a dream trip in the GI Spinster S. Sunday at Keeneland. And that’s the only reason she doesn’t get an A+. Florent Geroux managed to get her to the front by 1 1/2 lengths after an opening quarter was run in 24.49. At that point, the race was already over. The lineup that awaits her in the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff is tough one, but after the Spinster Idiomatic has to be considered the one to beat. She’s won four straight, all stakes and two Grade I’s in a row.

Gina Romantica: A-

All that stands between an undefeated season for the Chad Brown-trained In Italian (GB) is Chad Brown. For the second straight race, In Italian went off as a heavy favorite in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland only to be beaten by a stablemate. This time it was Gina Romantica (Into Mischief). She nailed In Italian by a head at the wire, not an easy thing to do considering that In Italian got the trip she needs, controlling the pace. This race came out of nowhere for Gina Romantica, who increased her best lifetime Beyer by 13 points, from a 92 to a 105. But if she can duplicate the effort in the Breeders’ Cup she’ll be a horse to watch.

War Like Goddess: A-

What a cool horse. War Like Goddess (English Channel) beat the boys for the second straight year in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational at Aqueduct. She RNA’d for $1,000 at the 2018 Keeneland September sale before selling for $30,000 the following year at OBS June. She’s now earned $2,495,184 and has won three Grade I’s. The competition will get tougher in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf, but this was one of the better efforts of her career and showed that she’s still at the top of her game at age 6 and more than capable of beating males.

Didia: A-

Few horses have flown under the radar more this year than Didia (Arg) (Orpen). Since arriving here last year from Argentina, she had been beaten only once in five tries and that was when she couldn’t catch a loose on the lead Marketsegmentation (American Pharaoh) in the GI New York S. Trainer Ignacio Correas IV gave her four months off after that race and brought her back for Saturday’s GII Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita. Facing a tough foe in the 3-year-old Anisette (GB) (Atwaad {Ire}), who was undefeated in three U.S. starts, she proved to be clearly the better of the two, winning by 1 3/4 lengths. Correas may not be a household name in the U.S., but he proved what he can do when he won the 2019 GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff with Blue Prize (Arg) (Pure Prize).

Locked: B+

At first glance, the win by Locked Gun Runner) in the GI Breeders’ Futurity at Keeneland doesn’t look that impressive. As the 3-5 favorite, he won by just a half length and had to survive a stiff stretch battle from The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso). His Beyer was an 87, a drop off of nine points from his last race. But, breaking from the eight post, he was wide on both turns and lost a ton of ground while The Wine Steward was never more than two paths off the rail.

Timberlake: B+

Brad Cox had Timberlake (Into Mischief) entered in both the GI Champagne S. at Aqueduct and the GI Breeders’ Futurity at Keeneland and it certainly looks like he made the right call sending the 2-year-old to New York for the Champagne. He was last seen running second in the GI Hopeful S., where the winner, Nutella Fella (Runhappy) got a Beyer figure of only 72. But with Timberlake winning the Champagne by 4 1/4 lengths, that race looks a lot better now. Timberlake probably won’t be any better than the fourth choice in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile, but he proved in the Champagne that he belongs.
Nations Pride: B
No, Charles Appleby isn’t perfect. The first three horses he ran over the weekend all got beat. That meant that Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilio {Ire}) was his last hope. Sent to Woodbine for Sunday’s GI Canadian International S., he came through with a 2 1/4-length win as the 2-5 favorite. He’ll now return to the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf, where he finished fifth last year at the 5-2 favorite. Didn’t beat much in this race, thus his grade.

In Italian: C
In Italian didn’t run terribly in the First Lady when beaten by stablemate Gina Romantica, but that’s two straight races she has lost as an odds favorite in which she had no real excuse.

Nest: C-
When Nest (Curlin) kicked off her 2023 campaign with a 2 1/4-length win over Clairiere in the GII Shuvee S. it looked like she was well on her way to a possible Eclipse Award. Nothing has gone right since. She was third in the GII Personal Ensign S. and followed that up with a fourth-place finish in the Spinster in which she was beaten 11 1/4 lengths. A terrific filly who, for whatever reason, didn’t have it in her last two starts.

Rebel’s Romance: D
Rebel’s Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) won last year’s Breeders’ Cup Turf, but nothing has gone right for him since. He returned to New York for the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic after clipping heels and losing his rider in the GII Bowling Green S. Sent off at 1-2, he showed nothing, finishing fourth.

Fierceness: Incomplete
Considered one of the most impressive maiden winners at Saratoga, where he won by 11 1/4 lengths in the slop, Fierceness (City of Light) was pounded down to 1-2 in the Champagne. This time he didn’t show up, losing by 20 1/4 lengths. He had all sorts of problems at the start, where he lunged and then got bumped, and maybe that explains the poor performance. We’ll probably see him next at Gulfstream, where he’ll have every chance to regroup.

AHEAD OF FASIG NOVEMBER, AMY MOORE BIDS QUEEN CAROLINE A HEARTFELT FAREWELL
by Katie Petrunyak

The chances might be one in a million. The odds of campaigning a multiple stakes winner from the first yearling you ever purchase are certainly pretty long. But to have that horse go on and produce a champion as her first foal, what are the chances?

Amy Moore, the owner of South Gate Farm in Millwood, Virginia, knows better than to take this experience for granted. Besides her childhood family pony, the first horse she ever owned was Queen Caroline. Purchased by Moore for $170,000 as a yearling in 2014, the daughter of Blame out of Queens Plaza (Forestry) was cleverly named after the episode in British history when the wife of King George IV was “blamed” for adultery and put on trial in the House of Lords. Queen Caroline would go on to earn over $400,000, claiming five stakes victories for Michael Matz. Cont.

BREED THEM, RAISE THEM, RACE THEM, WE ALL WIN.
After she retired to Moore's small Virginia farm, the mare's first foal—and the first horse that Moore ever bred—was Forte. The son of Violence went on to be a Breeders' Cup and Eclipse Award-winning juvenile and one of the top sophomores of 2023.

"It has really been a thrill," Moore reflected. "My sister, niece and I all came to Lexington for the Breeders' Cup last year, so we were there to see him win the Juvenile. Forte definitely has the mare's personality. Queen Caroline is a mare that knows who she is and she's number one in any field that she's ever been in. I think he has that too and it shows in these incredible victories where it looks like he's beaten at the top of the stretch and he gets up to win."

Soon, the final chapter of Moore's fairytale story with Queen Caroline will come to a close when the Grade I-producing mare goes through the ring on Nov. 7 at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. The sale of Moore's once-in-a-lifetime mare will make it possible for the breeder to further her boutique broodmare band for many years to come.

"It's definitely bittersweet," Moore admitted. "She's done as much for me as any horse could possibly do. I'm running a business so I have to make decisions with those considerations in mind and she's really become too valuable to keep her in Virginia on my little farm."

Offered in foal to Flightline, Queen Caroline will sell as Hip 171 with Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services. The mare has spent the last year with consignor John Stuart at his Chanteclair Farm in Versailles. Stuart reiterated that the mare has the attitude of racing royalty.

"She's definitely the queen," he said. "She was really competitive on the racetrack and now she bosses everybody around in the pasture. She's a really pretty mare—16'1 1/2 inches, a strong body, correct. She's got a really nice eye and head to her and just a lot of class." Cont.
Stuart said that Queen Caroline's second foal shares the same confident air as his dam and half brother. A son of Uncle Mo, the colt now named Dr. Park sold for $850,000 last year to Mayberry Farm. Now in training with John Shirreffs, the juvenile is putting in regular works at Santa Anita ahead of his debut.

Meanwhile Queen Caroline had a stretch of bad luck when her third foal was born dead last year and she then ended up losing her foal this year due to the effects of the setback in 2022. Stuart attested to the 10-year-old mare's capability as a broodmare going forward.

"I'm confident that she's good to go and is going to have a lot of foals in a row because she's young and she's fertile," he said. "Every year that she's been bred, she's been bred one time except for the second year when she had the Uncle Mo, when she was bred twice."

Bred on an early Feb. 24 cover date, Queen Caroline will be one of the first mares at public auction to be offered in foal to undefeated Flightline. Last year's Horse of the Year, the new Lane's End stallion holds an esteemed place at Fasig-Tipton as a $1 million graduate of their Saratoga Sale.

"Flightline is a very special horse to everybody in the industry," said Fasig-Tipton's president and CEO Boyd Browning. "He captivated our imagination like no other horse has in my 35 years of being involved in the Thoroughbred industry. I think everybody around the world is excited to see the potential that Flightline possesses as a stallion."

Another important component of Queen Caroline's resume, Browning said, is her pedigree. The mare's family includes Essential Quality and Contrail (Jpn), both champions at two and three in their native countries who are now embarking on their stud careers.

"The sky is the limit in terms of what could be happening within this pedigree," Browning said. "It's already an exceptional pedigree. She's by Blame, who is emerging as one of the best broodmare sires in the world, and you've got Seattle Slew in the pedigree. But we could look up in 10 years and say the pedigree has exploded. Forte has become a great stallion or Contrail has become a great stallion. And who knows what else is going to happen with her own produce with the potential she possesses. It's a power-packed pedigree and the future is very bright for Queen Caroline."

"I think anybody in the world could buy Queen Caroline," he continued. "I would be hesitant to predict who the buyer would be or where they'll be from. She has truly international appeal. Her first foal is one of the best horses of the 3-year-old crop and a champion 2-year-old last year and her second foal brought $850,000, so she's the complete package of what you're looking for in terms of a commercial broodmare. She's going to be coveted by virtually every major breeder in the world."
BOOK ‘EM DANNO remained undefeated with a resounding 6 ½-length victory in Sunday’s $150,000 Futurity S. at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet, his second consecutive stakes score.

OBS OCTOBER YEARLING SALE BEGINS

A total of 713 yearlings have been cataloged for the OBS October Sale, which kicks off a two-day run Tuesday morning in Central Florida.

Based on the foot traffic on the grounds over the last few days, OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski is confident there will be plenty of demand for what is on offer.

“We were very busy Sunday and by Monday afternoon we were busy again, so I feel pretty good about what we’ve seen traffic-wise,” he said.

October graduates don’t get much important than Crimson Advocate (Nyquist), who was purchased by Dew Sweeper II from the consignment of Beth Bayer, agent, for $100,000 last fall and has won two of her three starts to date. A debut third to future GISW Brightwork (Outwork) at Keeneland this past April, the chestnut earned a trip to the Royal Ascot meeting when taking out the Royal Palm Juvenile Fillies in May and made the most of the opportunity by posting a 9-1 upset in the G2 Queen Mary S.

As recently as this past weekend, the October Sale was represented by Time Passage (Tunwoo), an $85,000 purchase by trainer Eddie Plesa for his clients Karl and Cathi Glassman, who prevailed in the Miss Gracie S. at Gulfstream Park this past Saturday.

Nothing inspires confidence in a sale than success at the races, said Wojciechowski.

“Absolutely. When you have those sorts of results, it certainly entices a buyer to come in and maybe they can find one like that,” he said.

The October catalog features a diverse cross-section of stallions from Florida, Kentucky and New York, and should have something for everyone, Wojciechowski said.

“More and more we see a better mix of and we also have some of the sire power that has been in favor as of late,” he said. “We have some Mitoles, Complexities sold well at the previous sales, so the quality of sire continues to grow for us here.

The October Sale comes on the heels of regional events over the past few weeks which posted mixed results year-over-year. At the Fasig-Tipton California sale, which also included a Horses of Racing Age Section, the average was fractionally higher, but the median took a significant dip while one of every three horses was bought back. The average was down slightly during last week’s Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale, and there remained an uneasiness in the middle market while buybacks also trended a bit higher.

“From the sales standpoint, I think we’re going to see what we’ve seen at the yearling sales this year,” Wojciechowski offered. “The perceived upper end will sell very well and it might get a little thin in some of the middle spots. But there’s no reason we should expect something totally different.”

With sessions beginning at 10 a.m. ET, hips 1-338 and supplemental entries hips 339-359 are set to go under the hammer Tuesday, followed by hips 401-739 and supplements 740-755 on Wednesday. Some 37 yearlings were added to the sale after the catalogs were printed.

The Green family’s D. J. Stable acquired last year’s joint $210,000 toppers, a colt by Mitole and a Filly by The Factor, each bred in Florida.

2017 JUVENILE WINNER GOOD MAGIC

Good Magic (2015 chestnut horse, Curlin--Glinda the Good, by Hard Spun)

Lifetime record: Ch. 2yo colt, MGISW, 9-3-3-1, $2,945,000

Breeders’ Cup connections: B-Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC (KY); O-e Five Racing Thoroughbreds & Stonestreet Stables LLC; T-Chad Brown; J-Jose Ortiz.

Current location: Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa, Paris, Ky.

Good Magic entered the GI Juvenile a maiden; he came out a Breeders' Cup winner. He's making an even bigger splash at stud.

A little more than six weeks before his first crop turned up GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage, he had this year's priciest OBSMAR 2-year-old. That $2-million colt is now GISW Muth and will be one of the favorites for this year's Juvenile.

“The odds are rare to buy a horse and have it become an important stallion,” said Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura of Good Magic. “Intuitively you like what you like and hope it works out. The progeny will do it or they won't. You can only drive as many good mares to him as you can to give him the opportunity. Obviously we have a vested interest so we believe he had a strong potential, but the multiplicity of stakes winners, colts and... fillies, early and late, a Derby winner... He's been in demand every year, but this year he will breed the highest quality of mares. He'll have the best opportunities. We're hoping the success then will be multiplied." --Jill Williams

BREEDERS’ CUP OPTION FOR LEMON POP FOLLOWING COMEBACK WIN by Alan Carasso

The GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile is one of three options for Godolphin’s Lemon Pop (Lemon Drop Kid) following a barnstorming gate-to-wire victory in Monday’s $823,000 Listed Mile Championship Nambu Hai at Morioka Racecourse on the National Association of Racing circuit in Japan.

Having already secured a Breeders’ Cup berth courtesy of his biggest win to date in the G1 February S. at Tokyo this past February, the 5-year-old was having his first run since finishing an outpaced 10th, beaten six lengths, in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen over six furlongs in late March.

Favored at 1-2, the $70,000 Keeneland November weanling purchase hit the ground running from gate three and was soon at the head of affairs for jockey Ryusei Sakai. Always traveling strongly on the front end, Lemon Pop began to get away from his rivals approaching the 400-meter marker and turned it into a one-horse show in the final stages. He had a margin of two full seconds, or approximately a dozen lengths, on Igniter (Jpn) (Espoir City (Jpn)) at the wire, with the mare Ladybug (Jpn) (Hokko Tarumae (Jpn)) third. Two-time February S. hero Cafe Pharoah (American Pharoah) was fifth, while 2022 G1 Satsuki Sho winner Geoglyph (Jpn) (Drefong) finished ninth.

"It’s impossible to be anything other than thrilled with a performance like that," said Godolphin Japan President Harry Sweeney. “Lemon Pop was outstanding today. We hadn’t really expected him to make the running and there was a very audible murmur from the crowd as he took the lead, somewhat in disbelief. The jockey rode a brilliant race and pulled away easily to win very, very comfortably at the finish.

“It’s not easy to win a Jpn G1 race by a distance, so credit to the horse and the trainer. A special thanks must go to our own team in Castle Park, where Lemon Pop has been for about five months since he came back from Dubai.”

Sweeney said that instead of the Dirt Mile, Lemon Pop could remain at home for the valuable Listed JBC Sprint (1200m) Nov. 3 and/or the G1 Champions Cup in December, which would mark his first start past a mile.

“Lemon Pop’s trainer was never really in favour of running him over a mile, even though he has now won two top competitions over the distance, and he certainly showed today that he has no problem with the trip,” said Sweeney. “Certainly, we will be looking at the Champions Cup, with one run beforehand. We will be discussing it intently over the next few days.”

APPRENTICE SUSPENDED 30 DAYS FOR 2ND TIME IN WEEK AFTER ANOTHER SPILL-MARRED DELAWARE RACE

Eighteen-year-old jockey Axel Concepcion, who is currently Maryland’s top apprentice and is on the cusp of a planned move to Kentucky that could launch him into contention for a rookie rider Eclipse Award, has again been suspended 30 days by the Delaware Park stewards for “careless riding” that caused a rival horse to crash to the track. "This is Apprentice Jockey Axel Concepcion's second incident within a week of causing interference that resulted in a horse falling and a rider to be unseated," stated the Oct. 6 stewards' ruling.

Delaware stewards Joelyn Rigione, Robert Colton and William Troilo cited Concepcion's actions aboard Speargun (Khozan) in the sixth race at Delaware Oct. 4 as the cause of a spill that dropped Golden Gulley (Goldencents) and jockey Jeiron Barbosa as the midpack horses raced in tight formation around the far turn. Both the fallen horse and its jockey appeared to escape serious injury, according to the stewards.

Concepcion's agent in Maryland, Tom Stift, confirmed to TDN that Concepcion plans to lodge an appeal and is in the process of hiring an attorney to contest his most recent 30-day suspension.

Concepcion had elected not to appeal the first 30-day suspension for "extremely careless" riding that stemmed from a Sept. 21 incident at Delaware that resulted in the euthanization of a horse that had fallen, plus an emergency decision by the stewards to halt the race and declare it a "no contest" for wagering purposes.

"Both of them weren't intentional if you watch them," Stift said. "The end result was bad in the first one, but it was just something that could have happened to anybody because the horse was lugging in so hard. It wasn't like he was trying to come down on people. I can't really say it was as bad as [the stewards] said, but we took the days without appealing."

Under Delaware rules, not lodging that appeal cut the suspension from 30 to 21 days.

The ruling for that first Sept. 21 incident stated that Concepcion failed "to control and guide his mount, Backwoods Boogie (Red Rocks [IRE]), leaving the starting gate, impeding several horses, and causing the horse Trumpence (Eskendereya) to fall, which resulted in a fatal injury to Trumpence."

The Sept. 21 report for race seven submitted by the Delaware stewards stated that Trumpence, ridden by Kevin Gomez, "clipped heels past the finish the first time" and that "horse and rider were down and not moving."

The warning lights and siren were activated, and "The gate crew was out on the track also, diverting the field to the outside. Horse was euthanized on the track when he couldn't get up, Jockey Kevin Gomez after some time was able to stand and be escorted to the ambulance," the report stated. (Gomez resumed riding the next afternoon at Delaware, winning with his first mount.)

Concepcion's suspension for the Sept. 21 incident didn't go into effect until Oct. 7.

In the interim, he was involved in another spill-marred race Oct. 4 in which the stewards alleged he was again at fault.

"The second one, it's mitigating circumstances," Stift said. "It could have been caused by somebody on the inside, so that's why we're appealing that one."

The Delaware stewards described the sixth race Oct. 4 like this in their daily report:

"Golden Gulley (Barbosa) clipped heels around the 3/8 pole and fell. Stewards reviewed the incident and determined that #5 Speargun (Concepcion) ran into a tight spot as #8 It's Sizzling Time (Gomez) was running by appearing to come in slightly as #7 was pushed out slightly causing him to clip heels. #7 Golden Gulley was captured by the Outrider, no report on his condition but appeared not injured. Jockey Barbosa was off the rest of his mounts complaining of soreness."

(Barbosa resumed riding Oct. 6 at Laurel and won three races.)

The ruling suspending Concepcion for a second time stated that, "After reviewing the race, the Stewards found Mr. Concepcion to use poor judgment in riding his horse (Speargun) into a very tight spot in the middle of the far turn causing his horse to push a rival over heels resulting in the rival to fall and unseating the rider."

Beyond the spill, the sixth race at Delaware Oct. 4 was also fraught with technical difficulties.

According to the Equibase chart, "There was no head on replay so notes are from pan view."

The stewards' report also stated that, "There was a Tote delay, Stewards board locked up and could not remove the inquiry sign, placing Judge's computer board also locked up."

Concepcion turned pro Jan. 1 in his native Puerto Rico. He won 21 races there before earning his first mainland U.S. victory Feb. 19 at Fair Grounds. He shifted his tack to Laurel a week later, and has since been among the leaders at the Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course meets while also picking up victories at other mid-Atlantic region tracks.

Asked how Concepcion was taking the suspension, Stift said, "He's upset, because he was going to go to Kentucky. So now that's on delay. He's still going, but not right away. He has an opportunity to ride [trainer] Brad Cox, and Brad's son [Bryson] is going to be his agent. I'm actually in Puerto Rico with his family right now. We're out on a boat. Even though he's leaving me, we're still all really good friends and I hope the best for him."

Bryson Cox told TDN that Concepcion's starting date for riding in Kentucky after serving his 21-day reduced first suspension was supposed to dovetail with the Oct. 29 opening day of the Churchill Downs meet. Cox said he now must wait and see how the appeal turns out before he can start booking Concepcion on mounts.

"We'll come up with a game plan. I would definitely like to get him into a rotation with some Kentucky-based trainers in November, and the plan is to go on to Turfway from there," Cox said.

Cox, who has been a jockey agent for one year, also represents Chris Landeros.

Cox said he and Concepcion became acquainted when the rider followed him on Twitter earlier this year. Cox had been perusing the Puerto Rican races and noticed Concepcion was winning races in bunches. A few weeks later, he saw Concepcion win with a 10-pound allowance in New Orleans, and he wished him well on his planned move to Maryland in the spring. They stayed in touch over the summer.

"As time went on, I kept watching him, and obviously his success and stats speak for themselves," Cox said. "He seems to be a pretty talented rider for an apprentice. I asked him what his plans were this winter, what he wanted to do, and he told me he wanted to branch out from Maryland and Delaware, the mid-Atlantic. And I said, 'I think Turfway would be a great spot for you. You could get in with some Kentucky-based people and see how it goes and roll from there,' And he was all for it."

Cox continued, touching on specific trainers who might offer opportunities: "I've had my Dad and Joe Sharp watch him some. Chris Hartman. I know Axel is 1-for-1 with Mike Maker; he won a Maryland-bred stakes with Field Pass (Lemon Drop Kid) at Laurel" in the $75,000 Find S. on Aug. 18.

"Here it's one of those circuits where you're going to get on as many horses you work in the morning it seems like," Cox said. "So it's dependent on how hard he wants to work in the mornings, and I know he's got a great work ethic to build business over time."

Six Supplemented to Fasig-Tipton's The November Sale

Fasig-Tipton has catalogued six initial supplemental entries to its 2023 The November Sale, the auction company announced on Monday.

The late entries, catalogued as hips 247-252, include G3 Pocohontas S. winner Fun and Fiesty (Midshipman); the unraced Al Ula Princess (Tapwrit), a half-sister to Grade I winner Princess Noor (Not This Time) and in foal to Epicenter; Susie's Baby (Giant's Causeway), a half-sister to Group 1 winner and standout sire Caravaggio; 2016 GI Frizette S. winner Nickname (Scat Daddy) in foal to Uncle Mo; recent Iowa Sorority S. winner Won Happy Mama (Runhappy) offered as a racing or broodmare prospect; and Defining Hope (Strong Hope) carrying a full sibling to GI Ashland S. winner Defining Purpose (Cross Traffic).

These entries may now be viewed online and will also be available in the equineline sales catalogue app. Print versions of all supplemental entries will be available on-site at Fasig-Tipton at sale time. Fasig-Tipton will continue to accept approved supplemental entries through the Breeders' Cup.

The November Sale will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 7, in Lexington beginning at 2:00 p.m. EST.

“This transfer from Coolmore’s Ashford Stud in Kentucky to our prestigious and historic facility marks an exciting new chapter for both Cupid and Atlanta Hall Farm,” Garrett Murray, stallion manager and owner of Atlanta Hall, said. “We are honored to welcome Cupid to our esteemed stallion roster, and we look forward to working with breeders to bring his exceptional genetics to the next generation of champions.”

Trained by Bob Baffert, Cupid won the GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita, GII Rebel S., GII West Virginia Derby and GII Indiana Derby and amassed a career line of 13-6-1-0, $1,701,873. The third-crop stallion has been represented by seven stakes winners and four graded stakes winners overall and is the sire of this year’s GI Summer S. winner and leading GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf candidate Carson’s Run, and GIII West Virginia Governor’s S. winner Duke of Love.

Cupid will stand his initial season in the Mid-Atlantic region for a fee of $8,000, S&N.

Mike rode him and said he went well. We’ll go with that.”

The official Santa Anita Park Workout Tab for Monday notes “dense fog from 7:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.”

White Abarrio’s work was his third since arriving at Santa Anita from New York. Jockey Emily Ellingwood was in the irons.

“He did his business,” said Chip Dutrow, Rick Dutrow’s brother and assistant. “He does everything so easy. Just a very smart, classy horse. We thought he nailed it and Emily was happy. It looked like he got just enough out of the breeze.”

Also working Monday towards a potential start in the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint was Speed Boat Beach (Bayern) for trainer Bob Baffert. He went three furlongs in 36.40 seconds.

WHITE ABARRIO, GEAUX ROCKET RIDE LEAD MONDAY WORKERS

Two contenders for the Breeders’ Classic worked Monday but, due to foggy conditions, only one received an official time.

With trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. in from New York to observe, White Abarrio (Race Day) worked five furlongs in 1:00.20. About an hour later, Geaux Rocket Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) went to the track to work with Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith up. Due to the fog, Equibase clockers were unable to determine a final time and distance.

Geaux Rocket Ride’s trainer, Richard Mandella, said the Candy Ride colt worked six furlongs.

“We’d liked to have seen it,” the Hall of Famer said. “I saw him come through the finish line, that was it. He worked six furlongs.

Churchill’s ‘UNPRECEDENTED’ SUSPENSION OF BAFFERT

My wife and I recently started working on our travel plans for next year’s Triple Crown races. Unfortunately, that will likely not include the 2024 Kentucky Derby as our trainer, Mr. Bob Baffert, for the 3rd year in a row still won’t be allowed to race our horses at Churchill Downs, should our horses be so qualified. We have had to deal with this for the past few years with multiple horses, where Churchill Downs, a public entity, has deemed itself to be a higher power than the various state horse racing commissions and arbitrarily and capriciously chose to exact its own extended punishment on Mr. Baffert for, what now really appears to be, personal and vindictive reasons.

It’s disappointing that Churchill Downs has decided to use its private property exclusion rights in the manner it has. Not only has Churchill Downs initially applied these rights to suspend Mr.
Baffert for a period eight times as long as that imposed by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (the body responsible for implementing the rules of racing), Churchill Downs decided in July 2023 to apply these rights indefinitely to a validly licensed trainer with no regulatory violations since his initial suspension. Extending the suspension and leaving it open to review at the end of 2024 is unprecedented.

I am not aware of other sports where the tracks, arenas or stadiums can dictate what athletes, coaches or owners are allowed to compete in their facilities. When NASCAR penalizes drivers, crews or other team members for infractions, does Daytona Speedway, Bristol or other tracks randomly ban those same drivers and crews for additional length of times? Imagine if Jerry Jones, who owns Texas Stadium, was allowed to ban a specific athlete, coach or team from competing at Texas Stadium because he wasn’t happy with punishment the NFL governing committees meted out for a late hit, a personal foul or Deflategate. What if MLB, NHL, NBA/WNBA, MLS or any other competitive sport league allowed for arena owners to do this for petty offenses under the guise of specific conduct being detrimental to the sport? It’s ludicrous and unimaginable!

With the advent of HISA we now have a national governing body in place that is developing consistent standards across all states. The Kentucky state rules that existed at the time of the original suspension with respect to betamethasone, a controlled substance, have been superseded by HISA regulations. Mr. Baffert was suspended for 21 picograms (or .021 nanograms) of betamethasone in Medina Spirit. The most recent HISA regulations now use a screening limit of .20 nanograms of betamethasone in horses before any action would be taken. It’s ridiculous to me for Churchill Downs to extend Mr. Baffert’s suspension given that 21 picograms is almost 90% below the threshold!

I have had the opportunity to work with many world class public and private companies during my career as a partner at a large global firm, having worked closely with C suites and boards on over 500 transactions. I have never seen behavior like this from a board in my career. The allegations around the false narrative that the Churchill Downs board has used to defend this action indicate to me there is something deeper and more personal. It appears that Churchill Downs is sending a message to all horsemen and horsewomen not to cross Churchill Downs or proffer alternative points of view lest similar suspensions, far in excess of what is deserved, will be meted out to them. This bullying and abuse of power is not in the best interests of the sport.

It’s not just the trainer that suffers either. By extending the suspension, Churchill Downs is not just punishing Mr. Baffert, but Churchill Downs is punishing me. There is significant value that has been lost. Similarly, Churchill Downs is punishing my partners. Churchill Downs is punishing other owners with horses with Mr. Baffert. Churchill Downs also is punishing Mr. Baffert’s employees and their families. Churchill Downs is punishing fans, old and new, many of whom are drawn to the sport because of Mr. Baffert.

The bigger issue at play here is the upside down relationship between Churchill Downs and the athletes/horses, the coaches/trainers/breeders and owners. Churchill Downs is nothing without them. I am not alone in this opinion. It would be a shame to see the history of Churchill Downs diminished because of the bullheadedness of a few.

With the upcoming 150th anniversary, the story isn’t going to be just about who’s there, but who’s not and why.

RMTC PROMOTES HARDY TO FULL-TIME EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Racing Medication & Testing Consortium (RMTC)’s part-time Executive Director, Dr. Michael Hardy, has been promoted to full-time Executive Director of the RMTC, the organization announced Monday.

In his new position, Hardy will be responsible for the management of the RMTC’s Laboratory Accreditation and External Quality Assurance Program in conjunction with the new Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit and will also administer the RMTC’s Scientific Advisory Committee process, manage the organization’s monitoring of emerging threats to the integrity of racing, and oversee the process of reviewing applications received for all RMTC-funded post-doctoral fellowships and research proposals.

“We are very pleased to have Dr. Hardy on board in a full-time capacity,” RMTC Chair Alex Waldrop said. “The Board of Directors has determined that the work of the RMTC and its scientific advisory committee continue to be uniquely relevant to the horseracing industry’s efforts to fairly and safely regulate the use of therapeutic medications and aggressively detect and deter the use of prohibited substances. In this regard, Dr. Hardy is the right person to lead these important efforts going forward.”

Also during the recent meeting, the RMTC Board approved the development, organization, and financial support of a Racing Industry Veterinary Student Externship Program in response to the supply and demand concerns associated with available equine-specific veterinarians to meet the racing industry needs. This program will provide a shared experience for veterinary students with racetrack practitioners and regulatory veterinarians with the objective to promote and provide exposure to and networking opportunities in equine veterinary medicine within the racing industry to prospective veterinarians.

10th-Santa Anita, $69,780, Alw (NW1$X), Opt. Clm ($50,000), 10-9, 3yo/up, 1 1/8mT, 1:47.05, fm, 1/2 length.

SEAL TEAM (GB) (c, 3, War Front--Mrs McDougal {MGSW & GISP, $496,736}, by Medaglia d'Oro), a debut second sprinting on the turf at Del Mar last November, returned from a nine-month absence to graduate over this distance Aug. 19 and was an allowance third with a bit of traffic trouble when last seen Sept. 9. The 27-10 second choice jumped well and raced outside a rival in the second flight of horses to the backstretch. Felt for by Umberto Rispoli three wide approaching the quarter pole, the homebred sprinted when asked and was never in serious danger as the vastly more experienced Aligato (Kitten’s Joy) cut the winning margin to a half-length on the wire. On behalf of the Basses, Steve Young paid a sales-topping $1.6 million for the talented Mrs McDougal at the 2018 Keeneland January Sale and this is her second foal. The mare was covered by Frankel (GB) in 2020 and returned to the U.S. and that colt, Gun Barrel City, is in training at WinStar Farm. Her yearling colt by Curlin was bought back on a bid of $175,000 at Keeneland September last month and she produced a Connect colt this year before visiting Charlatan. Mrs McDougal’s dam Distorted Passion was a treble SW and twice placed at Grade II level. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-1, $110,960.

2nd-Santa Anita, $63,878, Alw (NW1$X), Opt. Clm ($50,000), 10-9, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m, 1:37.24, ft, 3 1/4 lengths.

COFFEE IN BED (f, 3, Curlin--Sumptuous {MSP, $105,245}, by Hennessy), dropping out of an unplaced effort in the GIII Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar early last month, flexed her ‘mussels’ to dominate this first-level allowance at odds-on. Void of any gate speed for Juan Hernandez, the $500,000 Keeneland September graduate traveled strongly on the back of the leaders in a tightly bunched group down the back. Full of run and just awaiting her cue, Coffee In Bed ‘squeezed’ through at the inside turning for home and ‘pulled’ clear to score by daylight.

A half-sister to Great Stuff (Quality Road), GSW & GISP, $478,902, Coffee In Bed is out of a multiple stakes-placed daughter of Grade II winner Belle of Perintown (Dehere), also the dam of SW Ari Oakley (Gun Runner); MSW/MGSP Tomlin (Distorted Humor); GSW Strike It Rich (Unbridled’s Song), herself responsible for MSW Sea Foam (Medaglia d’Oro); and GSP and ‘TDN Rising Star’ young sire Beau Liam (Liam’s Map). Sumptuous has a 2-year-old filly named Rainy Night (City of Light), a yearling filly by Liam’s Map that sold for $100,000 at KEESEP and a weanling filly by Good Magic. She was covered by Maclean’s Music this past season. Sales history: Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-1, $111,360. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

DEBOISBLANC (f, 2, Munnings--Tensas Cowgirl, by Cowboy Cal), a slow-starting third when favored on Churchill debut May 19, posted an 82 Beyer when graduating by a nose at Ellis Park July 7 and was exiting a no-factor and well-beaten sixth at 9-5 in the Aug. 25 Prairie Meadows Debutante. Bet into 4-5 for a favorite against decidedly easier company here, the $90,000 KEESEP yearling turned $290,000 OBS March juvenile was in front soon after the break and never gave any of her eight rivals a chance, lengthening clear to score by an imposing margin.

THERMAL (f, 2, Nyquist--Full Tap, by Tapit) was a debut fourth behind Saturday's GII Chandelier S. heroine Chatalas (Gun Runner) sprinting at Del Mar July 30, and set the pace in a one-mile test at the seaside Aug. 27 before dropping away to finish third at 3-5. Favorable for this first turf spin while cutting back in trip, the $625,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling bounced beautifully and soon led, took the field along at a moderate gallop and had plenty left in the final furlong to score convincingly. Uffda (Jack Milton) and Avoir (More Than Ready) were second and third the whole way around. Anderson Farms acquired Full Tap for $375,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale and the in-utero produce became the Grade II-placed Cafe Society (Empire Maker), $247,810. Full Tap did not produce foals in 2022 or 2023 and was most recently covered by Uncle Mo. Sales history: $625,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $51,360. DRAMATIC TURNDOWN: DUBAWI FILLY PROVES BOOK 2 WILDCARD STAR

All's well that ends well: the Dubawi filly who topped Book 2 day one as a wildcard | Laura Green/Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

Lodge Park Stud produced one of the most unlikely of turnarounds to top Monday’s Book 2 session at Tattersalls with their Dubawi (Ire) filly selling to Godolphin for 725,000gns. Not because the price wasn’t expected as the quality of their offering was never in doubt. But when the filly gave herself a nasty cut en route to Book 1 and was forced to miss that engagement, plans B, C and D whirled through the head of her breeder Damien Burns.

GROUP 1 WINNER VIA SISTINA ADDED TO TATTERSALLS DECEMBER MARES SALE

Group 1 winner Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) is the latest high-class runner to be added to the Tattersalls December Mares Sale.

Trained by George Boughey, the five-year-old landed the G1 Pretty Polly S. at the Curragh in the colours of Becky Hillen and is sure to add plenty of intrigue to the second edition of the Sceptre Sessions.

Boughey commented, "Via Sistina has been a star for us, very easy to train and an ultra consistent mare who has shown to be very versatile. She won the Group 1 Pretty Polly Stakes at the Curragh on good ground and was outstanding prior to that in the Group 2 Dahlia Stakes."

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony commented, "Via Sistina is another high class Group 1 winning filly coming to the Tattersalls December Mares Sale and anyone who saw her emphatic victories in the Pretty Polly Stakes and Dahlia Stakes could not fail to have been impressed."

"Her performances this season have marked her out as a racemare of the highest calibre and she is another wonderful addition to the Sceptre Sessions, which will showcase some outstanding fillies and mares at this year’s December Mares Sale."

Fev Rover leads home an Irish-bred exacta in the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine on Sunday. Her dam will be offered at the Goffs November Sale. | Michael Burns
To the delight of Burns, his Dubawi filly out of Galileo (Ire) mare Park Bloom (Ire) proved a model patient and made a swift enough recovery to sell as the sole wildcard on Monday and, in doing so, ended what was a tumultuous few days on a high note.

Burns explained, "She got on the lorry and she was doing a little bit of jumping round, nothing unusual for any yearling, but the video from the next door stall and our best guess is that her headcollar got caught and she cut her jaw. This happened as they were going down the driveway! She came off the lorry and went back to her stable. She was fine but had a laceration on her jaw."

"We took her down to Fethard [equine hospital], they stitched her up, kept her overnight and she ate up fine. She got back home, and she was back out in her paddock. The Friday before Book 1 we got in touch with Tattersalls and the transporters and said, 'look we think this filly will be okay.'"

He added, "The wheels were set in motion to come here for today. A lot of thanks goes to the guys at home. We were over here with Book 1 horses and they did a great job. Thanks also to Tattersalls for accommodating this. I think it helped being a week in front so we had time.

"We discussed everything and waiting for the December Sale was the original thought. It might have also meant us putting a saddle on her, but usually we don't keep them out of young mares as we are a commercial stud. We try to let them get a few foals sold--they are easier to look at when they have paid for themselves!"

Godolphin spent 2.675 million gns on four yearlings by Dubawi during Book 1 and, according to Anthony Stroud, who buys on behalf of the powerful operation among others, Monday's sale-topper stacked up with the best that was on offer here at Tattersalls last week. Cont.

Stroud said, "She moved very well and has a good outlook. Obviously she's by Dubawi, who's an unbelievable stallion. She's bred on a good cross and comes from a very good farm, so we're very lucky to receive her. She compares very favourably with the stock on offer at Book 1, she's a lovely filly. She's very classy."

He added, "They did very well to get her here this week--there's a scar under her jaw but the vets have clearly done a very good job. She's behaved incredibly well, especially considering she's been through a lot."

Park Bloom boasts a Book 1 pedigree being a sister to Was, Amhran Na Bhfiann and Douglas MacArthur. She is from a deep family that goes back to Park Express (GB) and New Approach (Ire).

Burns concluded, "She is quite typical of Dubawi, but with a bit more action than some, which she gets from her dam line--that bit of quality. She vetted very well--the family does tend to vet well, I don't know why, those hidden genetics you can't see! "

"The family has been very good to us. The Night Of Thunder [Lot 129 in Book 1] who sold for 400,000gns is from another branch. We have Park Bloom, Stellar Glow and a Dark Angel four-year-old filly called Express Way who won her sole start. She is in foal to Night Of Thunder. Park Bloom has a Wootton Bassett on the ground and is in foal to Baaeed."

'We'd Be Delighted To See Her At Royal Ascot' - That Would Be Amazing

Peter and Michelle Morgan were left thanking their lucky stars for the heavy helping of good fortune involved in selling their homebred Showcasing (GB) filly to Ben McElroy on behalf of Stonestreet Stables for 325,000gns.

It was at this sale in 2017 where Carmel Stud put So Brave (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), the dam of the Showcasing filly, on the market. However, the sales experience proved a bit much for So Brave and, after getting herself into a bit of a tizzy, she picked up a minor injury and was led out unsold at 30,000gns.

The husband-and-wife team at Carmel Stud may not have viewed it as such at the time, but So Brave failing to sell six years ago has worked out to be the best thing for the operation.

Peter said after Monday's sale, "I've only just stopped shaking! This is the classic case of getting lucky as we brought the dam to the sales a few years ago but she just lost the plot and got injured so we had to withdraw her."

"We ended up racing her and she won a couple of races. Now, she has turned out to be a beautiful broodmare. If things hadn't gone wrong on that day, and it was a complete disaster at the time, we wouldn't now be in this position. It's a great day. You need luck at times."
Tattersalls, cont.

So Brave has already produced the goods for Carmel Stud. Her Havana Grey (GB) filly Queen's Guard (GB) looks a high-class prospect for Michael Bell having been sourced by Joe Foley on behalf of Clipper Logistics for 125,000gns at Book 3 last year.

Peter continued, "The mare has already produced Queen's Guard, who is in training with Michael Bell. Unfortunately she didn't run in the Lowther because of the ground but she looks a very nice filly for next year. The mare has a lovely Pinatubo (Ire) colt foal at foot and is in foal to Blue Point (Ire)."

Asked if he expected the Showcasing filly to rock into 325,000gns, he replied, "No, absolutely not. She had 15 vets and over 180 shows. She was incredibly busy. She is a lovely model and lots of people liked her but, we're a bit like trainers approaching a race, as the closer we get to a sale, the less confident we are! We thought that she'd make one hundred thousand-plus, but it was certainly a good result."

"Plenty of really good judges liked her. Ben McElroy bought her on behalf of Stronestreet so we'd be delighted to see her run at Royal Ascot next year—that would be amazing."

Monday's result represented one of the biggest Carmel Stud have achieved in the ring and Peter paid special tribute to local stud director Ed Harper of Whitsbury Manor, where Showcasing is based.

He said, "Whitsbury Manor is our local stud. They are only fifty minutes away. Ed [Harper] has been a great help to us and, without his help, this probably wouldn't have happened today."

Talking Points

- One of the main takeaways from Book 1 was the strength of the top tier of the market and the patchiness of the middle tiers. With that in mind, there was some justifiable caution leading into the trade at Tattersalls this week but the early signs were positive. Granted the average was bolstered by the Dubawi filly who was initially placed in Book 1, but an aggregate of 18,530,500gns, average of 88,240gns and median of 69,000 bodes well for the rest of the week. A clearance rate of 84% compared to 86% on day one last year provides further encouragement for the week ahead.

- Anthony Oppenheimer carried on the momentum of a strong Book 1 sale for his Hascombe & Valiant Stud Ltd operation by accounting for the second-highest lot of the day, a Too Darn Hot (GB) colt, who sold to Stroud Coleman Bloodstock 350,000gns. Hascombe & Valiant Stud Ltd sold four horses on Monday for 830,000gns.
There is no stopping Alex Elliott. The bloodstock agent spent more than 6 million gns on behalf of some of the biggest names in the game during Book 1. Elliott was busy again on Monday when signing for seven yearlings to the tune of 895,000gns and ended the day as the second busiest buyer.

Pinatubo continues to impress. Once again, his yearlings were very well received by the market with Justin Casse, Najd Stud, Ed Sackville, Robson Aguiar and Ben McElroy some of the notable names on the list of buyers of the stallion's progeny. All told, Pinatubo averaged 186,333gns for six yearlings sold on Monday.

Book 2 may have been billed as something of 'a bread and butter sale' by Tattersalls' Jason Singh when interviewed on Racing TV over the weekend and, while that is true, there was still plenty of international interest on day one. Along with Najd Stud and Ben McElroy getting in on the action, Nicolas De Watrigant of Mandore International Agency was another interesting buyer. The French-based De Watrigant spent 385,000gns on three yearlings headed by a No Nay Never filly from Watership Down Stud for 260,000gns.

Shadwell’s Angus Gold hinted after signing for a 1.6 million gns Frankel (GB) filly at Book 1 that Sheikha Hissa may continue her shopping into this week.

Well, we didn't have to wait long to find out whether that would come to fruition or not, with Shadwell signing for four yearlings for 665,000gns on day one of Book 2.

Yes, he's made the best start at stud of any first-crop sire ever. And he leads all stallions – No Nay Never and Havana Grey included – by 2023 juvenile winners and wins. Second-crop yearlings average €356k at Book 1 with the sale’s third top lot at 1,500,000gns.

More yearlings to see now and watch out for the Breeding Right selling on darleystallions.com next week.
Willie Carson and Sheikha Hissa (centre) | Tattersalls

The haul was headed by a 230,000gns Night Of Thunder colt who, interestingly, is out of a mare that was dispersed by Shadwell in 2021 for 135,000gns to Blandford Bloodstock.

"We bought three today, which is great," Gold said. "We bought an elegant Mohaather (GB) colt for 75,000gns early in the day. Obviously, nobody knows yet about the stallion but I just thought this was a very elegant horse with a lot of scope to him. I don't think he'll be terribly early but I like the look of him."

He added, "We bought a very nice Galiway (GB) filly that Sheikha Hissa liked very much. We haven't had one of those before but she seemed to have a great attitude. The Night Of Thunder colt is out of Ridaa (Ire) (New Approach (Ire)), who we sold during our dispersal. He's a nice solid horse and looks like a runner."

It was well-bred fillies that were placed at the top of Shadwell's wish list for Book 1 but the modus operandi on Monday was a simple one; buy racehorses, be that colts or fillies.

Explaining the brief, Gold continued, "We're mainly buying fillies but, for interest, as Sheikha Hissa is here, we have been showing her a few colts. We bought one colt here last year. He hasn't run yet but Sheikha Hissa said that she'd like to come and look at a few colts this year as well as the fillies. We'll try to cherry pick a few for her to see and she likes to see what the offspring of particular stallions look like. It's fun for her."

Gold added, "We've had plenty of success from Book 2 and found plenty of good racehorses here. It's not the sort of thing where one can say, 'we'll only buy in Book 1 and leave Book 2 and 3,' because an awful amount of good horses have come out of here. There's a thousand-odd horses so I think this week is much more of a buyers' market. You get to see a good cross-section. It's a good sale to work."

The Night Of Thunder was consigned by Greyridge Bloodstock, who were getting off to a dream start at Tattersalls.
The new consignment is run from Denis and Clare Barry’s Wiltshire-based Glebe Farm Stud and is managed by Carwyn Johns.

"It has gone full circle and this colt has gone home," Johns said. "He was the big one for us for the year. We bought the mare with Tom Biggs of Blandford Bloodstock."

By Georgia Cox

Out of the Listed winner and Group 3-placed One Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)), who is already the dam of Group 3 winner One For Bobby (Ire) Frankel (GB), this Earthlight colt proved to be well-bought as a foal by Johnny McKeever and Ballyhimikin Stud at the Goffs November Foal Sale.

The pair turned their initial outlay of €90,000 into 200,000gns on Monday with David Redvers, the China Horse Club and David Howden the winning bidders.

These same connections have been busy snapping up well-bred colts at the premier yearling sales this year. After a strong Orby Sale, where Redvers revealed that the group were on the hunt for well-bred colts that could one day go to stud depending on what they achieved on the race track, they went on to spend over 1.1 million on three colts at Book 1.

From the same family as Diktat (GB) and Cape Cross (Ire), the Earthlight colt fits that sort of criteria and was clearly well bought by McKeever and Ballyhimikin Stud as a foal given they more than doubled their money here.

Buy of the day

Mark and Charlie Johnston are famous for bagging bargains at the yearling sales and they may well have found one in the shape of lot 584, a Saxon Warrior (Jpn) colt out of champion older mare in France, Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre).

Consigned by Ballyhimikin Stud, the Saxon Warrior is a half-brother to six winners, including the smart One Foot In Heaven and Queen.

He looks the type that could develop into a nice three-year-old and has plenty of scope.

Older mares are not for everyone, and the fact that Pride was 22 when she produced this colt may have resulted in him being a bit of value in the ring. He looks well bought at 100,000gns.

Thought for the day

How early is too early to start blowing up a first season sire? Darley knocked it out of the park with Blue Point this season and the early signs are that Pinatubo is cut from the same cloth. An outstanding racehorse, Pinatubo seems to have really stamped his stock and a lot of the top judges have declared themselves a fan. He could be the real deal.

2nd-Marseille-Borely, €23,000, Cond, 10-9, 2yo, f, 10FT, 2:07.41, gd. WIKENDA (FR) (f, 2, Panis--Wikita (Fr), by Desert Style (IRE)), runner-up on debut at Salon-de-Provence last month, was soon in front. Applying the pressure inside the last two furlongs, the 7-10 favourite hit the line strong with 2 1/2 lengths to spare over Sokna (Fr) (Hunter's Light (IRE)). The winner is the first foal out of the dam, whose second is a yearling colt by Gutaifan (IRE) named Garris (Fr). The family features the black-type-winning half-siblings Blue Soave (Fr) (Soave (GER)) and Blue Panis (Fr). As the name suggests, the latter who was second in the GI Oak Tree Derby and G3 Prix Paul de Moussac and third in the G2 Oettingen-Rennen, is by Wickenda’s sire Panis. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €16,100. Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.
