1000 GUINEAS WINNER MAWJ TRIUMPHANT IN QE II CHALLENGE CUP

Flight delays kept one of Europe's leading jockeys, Oisin Murphy, from piloting Aspen Grove (Ire) (Justify) in last weekend's Woodbine's G1 E. P. Taylor S. Thankfully for the connections of 'TDN Rising Star' Mawj (Ire) (Exceed and Excel (Aus)), he experienced no such issues this weekend--arriving in time to guide the G1 Qipco 1000 Guineas S. winner to victory in Keeneland's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S.

Making her first start across the pond, the Irish-bred filly entered on a three-race win streak, having crossed the wire first in every start this calendar year culminating with her half-length win over Newmarket's straight mile in May's 1000 Guineas S. Despite being unraced since that spring effort, Mawj did little to dissuade the wagering public who dispatched her as the 6-5 favorite.

Away evenly, Mawj was guided out several paths off the rail over a turf course labeled as good and quickly had a neck in front of a pair of rivals to her inside passing the wire for the first time. Murphy left the rail open around the turn but guided his filly down in time to slam the door on Mission of Joy (Kitten's Joy) and gain a clear lead as the 3-year-old fillies began the backstretch run.

BLACKER ISSUES STATEMENT, ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY FOR NOT FOLLOWING RULES REGARDING PRE-WORKOUT EXAMINATIONS

Trainer Dan Blacker, who has been charged by the California Horse Racing Board with failing to comply with regulations that require that a horse undergoes a veterinary exam within 72 hours of a workout and that the work is entered into a CHRB database, has issued a statement in which he said he takes “full responsibility” for not following the rules.

The issue came to light when an unraced Blacker-trainee named Animae (Speightstown) suffered a fatal injury after a July 1 workout at Santa Anita. The CHRB investigated and found that no pre-workout report on Animae had been filed within three days of the work and that veterinary reports were also not filed for two of three workouts by the filly prior to the July 1 work. Mawj Cont. From Pg. 1

5-2 second choice Elusive Princess (Fr) (Martinborough {Jpn}) rated off the leader's heels in a group that stayed mostly intact through opening fractions in :23.26 and :47.72. Mawj maintained her advantage around the far turn but Elusive Princess made a run at her as the top flight straightened for the final furlong. Mission of Joy, undeterred and still with plenty of run, again made a move on the leader but was put away as the 'Rising Star' stretched out to secure the win over a fast-closing Lindy (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}). The victory secured a historic 500th group win for trainer Godolphin trainer Saeed bin Suroor.

"Thank God," said the winning trainer when asked about his result. "This is great (for me) to win 500 (grade and) group (races) and a Group 1 with the filly Mawj, a classic winner. To come to America, to Keeneland, to win is a great result for everybody."

When asked about a next start in either the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile against males or the GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf at 1 1/4 miles, Suroor said: "It looks to me she has plenty of speed as a miler and she made it today nine furlongs. But we'll see. The mile might be the best for her, sure, but I want to decide closer to the race."

"(Trainer) Saeed (bin Suroor) was delighted with her work at home and he asked me to sit on her last week just before she flew (to the U.S.) and she felt brilliant," added Murphy. "She felt back to her best. We did quite quick sections (fractions) in the first half of the race, but she is a superstar filly. She found plenty. She’s got a great heart and mind. I’m delighted to win for (owner) Godolphin and Saeed here; it’s his 500th group winner, so for me to ride it for him means the world."

The 2-year-old suffered a fatal musculoskeletal injury to her pelvis and vertebrae.

“During a horse-fatality investigation for the horse Animae,” the CHRB complaint read, “it was found the horse did not have an examination by his attending veterinarian entered into EquiTAPS database during the 72 hours immediately preceding an official workout. Three out of the four official workouts listed for Animae did not have a veterinarian exam listed, including the official workout when the horse suffered the fatality."

Blacker wrote that Animae is the only horse under his care to suffer a fatal injury. He has been training since 2011.

After a further investigation, the CHRB discovered that from Jan. 1, 2002, when the rule requiring horses to undergo a vet’s inspection prior to a workout went into effect, to July 1, 2023, Blacker-trained horses worked 789 times but veterinary reports were not filed for 527 of those workouts.

On Saturday, Blacker posted a statement to his X account, writing that he had always been careful to make sure his horses were properly examined before working out.

“I want to make it clear that I am in contact with my veterinary team daily,” he wrote. “We jog up every horse, every day before they go to the track. The horses in training are thoroughly evaluated by myself, my team and my veterinarian on a daily basis.”

He wrote that after Animae broke down, he learned that his pre-work procedures did not comply with CHRB rules.

“Subsequently, I learned that our long-established procedures, while complying with Santa Anita workout rules were not always in line with the California Horse Racing Board rule regarding pre-workout inspection and reporting,” he wrote. “As soon as I was made aware, we immediately began to operate in compliance with the rule.”

Despite implying that he thought he was doing everything by the book, Blacker admitted that he now understands that he may have been in violation of CHRB rules.

“I take full responsibility for this matter and the consequences it will bring forth,” he said in the statement. “I stand firm in saying that all the horses in my program have always received the highest level of care.”

CHRB spokesman Mike Marten told the Paulick Report that the regulators have filed 18 complaints regarding workout and pre-race veterinary checks since the rule went into effect. According to Paulick, stewards have primarily opted to fine violators of the rule, with amounts ranging from $100 up to $1,000 for multiple violations.

Blacker, 41, has 120 career wins from 840 starters. His biggest win came in the 2021 GI Kilroe Mile S. with Hit The Road (More Than Ready).

According to the Daily Racing Form, a hearing into the Blacker matter was originally scheduled for Oct. 13 but has been postponed.

FISKE: ECHO ZULU SURGERY 'WENT AS WELL AS COULD BE EXPECTED'

by Dan Ross

Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) had successful surgery today to repair her two broken sesamoids in her left front leg and the surgery “went as well as could be expected” said David Fiske, racing manager to co-owner Ron Winchell.

The surgery was performed at the Southern California Equine Foundation’s hospital on the grounds of Santa Anita Park.

The 4-year-old filly suffered an injury Friday morning at Santa Anita, working in company with stablemate Gunite (Gun Runner) in preparation for the Breeders’ Cup.

“She’s out of surgery,” said Fiske. “Out of recovery. (It) went as well as could be expected. Prognosis guarded. A lot depends on sufficient blood supply to the surgery site and how well she can take care of herself.”

The surgery was performed by veterinarian Ryan Carpenter.

“The surgery went very good,” said Carpenter. “She’s up and headed back to the barn. From this point on, we take it day by day. These cases are not out of the woods for the next four to six weeks but every good day is a day closer to a successful outcome.”

In 2023, Echo Zulu won the GI Ballerina H., GII Honorable Miss H., GIII Winning Colors S. Her overall racing record was 11 starts, with nine wins and earnings of $2,640,375.
TURF CHAMPION CHANNEL MAKER RETIRED

MGISW and 2020's Eclipse Champion Turf Male Channel Maker (English Channel) has been retired from racing, his connections said Saturday.

The announcement came one day after the 9-year-old gelding finished next to last in the GIII Sycamore at Keeneland.

Channel Maker ran a record six times in the Breeders' Cup.

“I’ve never had a horse that’s run at the highest level against the toughest competition from 2 through 9,” Wachtel said. “I love what Bill had to say about him after the Bowling Green; he said he’s the happiest horse in the barn.”

Channel Maker ended his career with a record of 10-6-5 from 56 starts and career earnings of $3,915,983.

Wachtel said it is hoped that Channel Maker will take up residence at the Kentucky Horse Park’s Hall of Champions in Lexington.

race at Presque Isle Downs. The horse, Chasing After You (Speightstown), won the race, a $25,000 claiming event.

Provisional suspensions can result in suspensions of up to two years. The suspension has been postponed because Brion has yet to either request a split sample or inform HIWU that she has waived her right to have a split sample tested. Brion had one starter Saturday, sending out Crabs N Beer (Blofeld) to a fifth-place finish in the Maryland Million Turf S. at Laurel.

Brion took to X Friday to proclaim her innocence.

“For those of you who know me know that this is not an accurate depiction of my operation,” she tweeted. “I have retained a lawyer & we will fight to the end to clear my name. She came back w/a lvl under 200 PICOgrams--clear contamination. I’m hopeful facts/common sense will prevail.”

Brion has hired attorney Drew Mollica.

“We are in the process of evaluating the evidence and will have more to say next week,” Mollica said. “We intend a vigorous defense of the case.”

The Brion matter was posted to the HIWU website Friday. Mollica said he was under the impression that HIWU suspensions would not be made public until after the results of a split sample had been received.

“I am surprised that before any B sample came back this became a public issue,” Mollica said.

Brion is the second trainer to be provisionally suspended for a cocaine positive in little more than a month. HIWU has charged that the R. McLane Hendriks-trainee Princess Javoncia (Animal Kingdom) tested positive for cocaine after an Aug. 16 race at Penn National.

Brion was a long-time assistant to Hall of Fame trainer Jonathan Sheppard before going out on her own in 2021 when Sheppard retired. She has won 73 races from 585 career starters. Her accomplishments include finishing one-two-three in the 2021 Jonathan Sheppard S., named for her mentor.

'COLD' GETS HOT: $75 LONG SHOT PUT UP VIA DQ TO WIN MARYLAND MILLION CLASSIC

by T.D. Thornton

The longest shot on the board got elevated to victory via disqualification of the 5-1 rival who beat him by a neck in the featured $150,000 Classic S. on the 38th annual Jim McKay Maryland Million program Saturday at Laurel Park.

Ain't Da Beer Cold (Freedom Child), dismissed by the betting public at 36-1, led the field until the quarter pole under Jevian Toledo when Market Maven (Super Ninety Nine) seemingly put him away. But Ain't Da Beer Cold refused to quit, digging in and reclaiming the lead a half-furlong later.

Just after the dueling duo crested the eighth pole, Market Maven slanted inward after Carlos Lopez delivered two stern right-handed cracks of the whip. Then that gelding dropped farther toward the inside, bumping the rail-running Ain't Da Beer Cold once. The two continued in lockstep, bobbing noses as the line loomed, with Ain't Da Beer Cold refusing to relinquish a slim advantage until the all-out Market Maven wore him down in the final six jumps to the wire.

The stewards never lit the inquiry sign but Toledo claimed foul, leading to the reversal of the finish positions and a jubilant trip to the winner’s circle for the breeders/owners Matt Spencer and Kelly Jo Cox, plus co-owner Bonuccelli Racing and trainer Kenny Cox. Cont.
Ain't Da Beer Cold was a difficult horse to figure on paper. The 5-year-old had been beaten an aggregate 99 1/4 lengths in his last five starts. He had finished eighth in two previous editions of the Maryland Million Classic and hadn't won a race since the summer of 2022 at the Timonium fair.

"We just went in there hoping he would show up," Cox said. "He's had terrible form. We've had a bunch of excuses, and I don't like making excuses."

But after conferring with the owners, Cox decided to give Ain't Da Beer Cold one more shot in the Classic prior to a winter turnout.

"This is better than the [GI] Preakness [S.]," Spencer said post-win. "It's a dream come true. This horse is all heart. Toledo says he's going to the lead and let's see what happens. Let's see how far he can go. Thankfully we got put up. I didn't think it was going to happen. The racing gods were good to us today."

The victory was Toledo's fourth on the Oct. 14 Maryland Million card and his third in that afternoon's eight stakes.

Timed in 1:52.39 over a dirt track that had been downgraded to "good" by rain after first being rated as "wet fast" and then "fast," it was the slowest Maryland Million Classic since that stakes began being carded at 1 1/8 miles in 2009.

Yet the rain showers weren't enough to water down the turf course condition from "firm," nor did the moisture dampen the chances of front-runners, who swept the two grass route stakes.

The $125,000 Turf over nine furlongs produced a deja-vu result. Last year Wicked Prankster (Mosler) cleared the field, looked certain to be swallowed up late, then resurfaced to win this same stakes by three-quarters of a length. Wicked Prankster had been 0-for-5 since, but the betting public backed him to second choice in the wagering (2.8-1) to repeat.

Jockey Yomar Ortiz, riding the 5-year-old for the first time for owner/trainer Sam Davis, sent his gelding to the lead and made sure he stayed on under pressure, again winning by three-quarters of a length, stopping the timer in 1:48.28.

"Sam told me to break good and get to the front, take it easy and relax," said Ortiz. "I had a lot of horse left at the quarter pole. Turning for home, I knew I had it."

Country Life Farm & Broken Trust Fund bred Wicked Prankster. It was the same running style and same three-quarters winning margin in the $125,000 Ladies S. at nine furlongs on the lawn. Precious Avary (Divining Rod) shot straight to the front and never looked back in 1:49.53, extending her lifetime mark on the turf to 3-for-3 for owner/breeder Smith Farm & Stable, trainer Tim Shaw, and jockey Silvestre Gonzalez.

Off at 3.3-1 odds, the 3-year-old filly is a New Jersey-bred with a Maryland sire, so that gives her dual access to Maryland Million conditions and New Jersey-bred opportunities. Over the summer, Precious Avary won two restricted allowances and a "J-bred" stakes at Monmouth Park.

"I knew if she ran similar on the lead at Monmouth she would be tough today," Gonzalez said. "She broke sharp with her ears perked and was happy. I was thinking she'd sit second as there might be speed from the outside, but she went on. Around the turn I asked her for run and she went about her business."

The two juvenile stakes, both carded at six furlongs, produced clockings only one-hundredth of a second apart, with the fillies (track "fast") fractionally edging the boys (track "good").

The $100,000 Lassie S. for 2-year-old-fililies stood out from a "bombs away" perspective, with Miss Harriett (Blofeld), the lone first-time-starter in a field of 13, igniting the tote board at 62-1.

Piloted by Jean Briceno, Miss Harriett forced the pacemaker from post 12, took over at the quarter pole, braced for the challenge of the dead-aim favorite, lost the lead at the sixteenth pole, then determinedly clawed it back in the shadow of the wire to score by a neck in 1:12.23.

The win represented the third straight Maryland Million juvenile stakes score for Blofeld, whose progeny swept both 2-year-old events in 2022. Miss Harriett was bred by David

The companion $100,000 Nursery S. for 2-year-old males featured a polished performance by Catahoula Moon (Golden Lad) that belied his relative inexperience and 4-1 odds.

Locked and blocked but full of run behind a wall of five horses at the head of the stretch, Xavier Perez deftly guided Catahoula Moon’s distinctively jagged-blazed head off of heels of the frontrunners, then knifed the colt through an opening to pulse on past, leaving the field (and Perez’s dropped crop) 4 3/4 lengths behind in 1:12.24.

Bred by Angela Coombs, Catahoula Moon is owned by Super C Racing and trained by John Robb.

In the $100,000 Distaff S. at seven furlongs, even-money Intrepid Daydream (Jess’s Dream) seized the lead at the top of the stretch and sprinted clear to run her lifetime record to 6-3-1 from 12 starts. The three-length triumph in 1:24.62 was her third straight win for breeder/owner Paul Fowler Jr. and trainer Gary Capuano. Toledo rode.

The 4-year-old filly might have had a more difficult time drawing into the race than she did winning it, requiring scratches to get in.

"I didn’t know we were going to be in. I was rushing around trying to get here and see the race," Fowler said. "She ran like we expected. She usually shows speed and today she took back a little bit, relaxed and went on with it. It’s pretty amazing, because it’s a long road."

In the $100,000 Sprint S. at six furlongs, Seven’s Eleven (Bandbox) pressured the pacemaker, then brushed and bumped with that rival in upper stretch before strong-arming him into submission and widening a winning margin to five lengths in 1:10.49.

The 3-year-old gelding is a homebred for Cottonwood Stable. Carlos Mancilla trains, and Angel Cruz rode. The gray was... coming off an 8 1/2-length allowance romp over seven furlongs and had little trouble shortening to three-quarters of a mile at 4.9-1 odds.

In the $100,000 Turf Sprint S. over 5 1/2 furlongs, Witty (Great Notion), a 4-year-old half-brother to last year’s GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint victress Caravel (Mizzen Mast), pounced from last at the quarter pole and barreled up a wide-open rail, blasting past four contenders at the sixteenth marker to run his record to 6-7-0 record from 18 starts. The winning time was 1:02.64.

Bred, owned, and trained by Elizabeth Merryman, Toledo was aboard for the 1 1/4-length score at 7-10 odds.

Witty’s victory represented the continuance of an impressive 14-year streak set by Great Notion, the state’s leading stallion by progeny earnings every year since 2018 (and the runaway leader so far this season). His offspring have now won at least one Maryland Million Day stakes in every running of the event since 2010.

Witty’s older sister, Caravel, will try to complete a sibling stakes double at Keeneland on Sunday. She’s the 9-5 morning line favorite in the GII Franklin S.

ETERNAL HOPE TAKES SOGGY EDITION OF SANDS POINT

Stop me if you’ve heard this one before. A rain-soaked Saturday at a New York racetrack with a scratched-down field tackling a less-than-firm turf course. In this edition of NYRA’s Groundhog Day, Eternal Hope (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) repeated her performance in last month’s GIII Jockey Club Oaks with another win over Neecie Marie (Cross Traffic) in the GII Sands Point S.

Saturday’s victory, her second in the United States after a quintet of starts in Europe, also marked her 1 1/8-mile debut in a career of thus-far longer distances. Favoried once more at 3-2 over the nine furlongs, the Godolphin runner broke from an outer draw and was quickly outrun by Alpha Bella (Justify) to her outside and Leave No Trace (Outwork) against the fence. Comfortably midpack as the field passed the wire with a lap remaining, Eternal Hope was two wide with GI Del Mar Oaks runner up Be Your Best (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) to her inside. The pair raced together behind a pair of leading longshots as the fractions ticked by in :24.42 and :49.59. Neecie Marie, denied by a just a neck in that Jockey Club Oaks, made an early move to the favorite’s outside, forcing a response into the far turn. Leave No Trace still held the lead with a quarter mile to run but Eternal Hope found a gap and again bested her rival through a stretch-long duel to come out on top for the second race in a row. It was a second stateside graded win in two days for Spencer, who put an outstanding ride on the Appleby-trained 3-year-old colt Bold Act (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in Friday’s GIII Sycamore S. at Keeneland.

“She’s very genuine,” said winning jockey Jamie Spencer. “She had a better break today and obviously a shorter trip, so I had to maximize her stamina. She was very brave from the half-mile pole because I was just lacking a little bit of speed and I was getting pressure from the outside. She fought her corner on the turn and in the straight, I always knew I was going to win because [she’s an] English turf horse and horses [were] starting...

Pedigree Note:
In addition to Eternal Hope, Teofilo also sired 2022 GI Caesars Saratoga Derby and GII Caesars Jockey Club Derby winner Nations Pride (Ire). Voice of Truth (Ire), the winner’s dam, was a €35,000 purchase at the 2021 Goffs November sale while carrying a full-sister to Eternal Hope, who was a yearling at the time. Godolphin purchased that full-sister for €190,000 at this year’s Goffs Orby Sale out of Book One. The mare delivered an Australia (GB) colt Feb. 24. Her 2-year-old filly, Word’s Out (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), has not been sold publicly by Godolphin. Angelou appeared well on her way to a pillar-to-post victory in Saturday’s GIII Ontario Matron S. at Woodbine, only to be chinned on the money by the fast-finishing Ontario-bred Millie Girl.

Angelou jumped straight into the bridle and took the field along through even sectionals as Millie Girl was allowed to settle nearer the back of the pack by jockey Rafael Hernandez. The dark bay was tracking Mouffy (Uncle Mo) for the run around the second turn, and when the 9-4 favorite advanced to launch her bid three wide at the quarter pole, Millie Girl slid forward to take that spot and was steered out four deep into the lane. Angelou was still going great guns up front and looked all over the winner after holding off a late rail bid from Il Malocchio, but Millie Girl saved her best for last and dove across the line first.

“I thought when she got into the clear she would run them down but they weren’t coming back to her very quickly and I thought uh-oh, we might be in trouble here but she still found a way to get there”, remarked winning trainer Catherine Day Phillips.

A two-time winner from four starts last season, having been purchased for $67,000 as a horse of racing age at Keeneland November in 2021, Millie Girl won her seven-furlong comebacker over the synthetic track May 12 ahead of a running-on third in the June 3 GII Royal North S. sprinting on the turf. Third to the Breeders’ Cup-bound Fero Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan [Ire]) in the one-mile GII Nassau S. on the grass July 1, she returned from a freshening to be second in the seven-furlong GIII Seaway S. back on the Tapeta Sept. 17.

2015 DIRT MILE WINNER LIAM'S MAP

Liam's Map (2011 gray or roan horse, Unbridled's Song--Miss Macy Sue, by Trippi)

Lifetime record: MGISW, 8-6-2-0, $1,358,940

Breeders' Cup connections: B-Albaugh Family Stable LLC (KY); O-Teresa Viola Racing Stables and West Point Thoroughbreds; T-Todd Pletcher; J-Javier Castellano.

Current location: Lane's End Farm, Versailles, Ky.

It's not often one is surprised when a 1-2 favorite wins, but Liam's Map had such a tumultuous trip in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile after a history of front-running scores that he had every right to lose.

"I like the way he did it," said Javier Castellano, who also had won the GI Woodward with the horse the month before. "He had missed the break. [Todd] Pletcher told me, 'Make sure he breaks good and get a good position,' but when the gate opened, he missed the break. He had to find the best spot and show he was an amazing horse the way he did it behind horses. It was in the way he did it that was very special. When I asked a little bit, he took off, and I just hand rode him. So amazing, very professional. He was very unique. I don't have any words to say how happy I was. He was just the right horse." --Jill Williams

To celebrate the 40th running of the Breeders' Cup, the TDN will share a photo and catch up with a past winner in each of the 40 days leading up to the event. Today, we have 2015 Dirt Mile winner Liam's Map. | Sarah Andrew

Spun Glass | Michael Burns

A Maryland-bred 6-year-old daughter of Hard Spun who hadn't seen the winner's circle since Sept. 2022 scored a major upset Saturday in Woodbine's six-furlong Ontario Fashion S., Spun Glass racked up the travel miles this year, racing at a different track nearly every month from Gulfstream to Saratoga and nearly every track in between. Second last time out in a state-certified stake at Colonial Downs Sept. 2, the Michael Trombetta trainee has more than made a living in the turf sprint division, never racing further than six furlongs in her 27-race career but trying the Tapeta for the first time Saturday.

Dismissed on the board at 27-1, Spun Glass got shut out shortly after the start and took back to have only one rival beat into the opening two furlongs. Paced by the dueling pair of Hard Edge (Hard Spun) and Loyalty (Hard Spun), the field sped through an opening quarter in :22.54. Spun Glass, still next to last around the far turn, began to pick up the bridle passing the quarter pole but had to spin outside of the leaders as Loyalty looked to have things wrapped up inside the final furlong. Once in the clear with less than a sixteen to race, Spun Glass was gaining easily and picked off the leader in the final jumps to earn a graded-stakes score.

“She broke really good so I just let her go at whatever speed she was comfortable”, said jockey Luis Contreras of his first time on the mare. “Once I was in the post parade I got a good feeling of her and just went from there”.

Pedigree Note:

Spun Glass is one of four winners from as many to make the races for her multiple stakes-placed dam. Allwewantforxmas is also responsible for SP Xmas Surprise (More Than Ready). The dam is a half to GSW Hard Enough (Hard Spun). Her 2022 Gun Runner filly brought a final bid of $325,000 at last month’s Keeneland September Sale and she reported a Caravaggio colt this Spring. The win also gives Hard Spun his 50th worldwide graded-stakes winner and second on the afternoon.

EAST COAST BROWN RUNNERS TOP SATURDAY WORK TAB

Trainer Chad Brown breezed several Breeders’ Cup prospects Saturday at Belmont Park, including Jeff Drown’s Zandon (Upstart), who registered his first move since capturing the GII Woodward S. October 1 at Belmont at the Big A.

Under overcast skies and temperatures in the 50s, Zandon, who is targeting the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic, went a half-mile in 48.87 seconds over the Belmont main track.

“He went great, he worked super,” Brown said. “His energy level is good coming out of the Woodward. He’s doing well and it was just what we wanted to see.”

Other Breeders’ Cup aspirants on the work tab for Brown include Klaravich Stables’ Search Results (Flatter), who covered a half-mile in 49.66 seconds and is pointing towards the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff.

First Row Partners and Team Hanley’s reigning GI Breeders’ Cup Filly and Mare sprint winner Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) breezed a solo half-mile in 49.44 seconds.

“They both went well—a solo work to stretch their legs a little bit,” Brown said of Search Results and Goodnight Olive. “We got all of our works in ahead of the rain which was good.”

Mawj (Exceed and Excel (Aus)) wins her first North American GI (click to watch)
In Kentucky, Lael Stables’ undefeated She Feels Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) worked a half-mile over the fast main track in :48.40 as she continued her preparations for a possible run in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

Among the Breeders’ Cup workers at Santa Anita was a trio of horses pointed to the GI Breeders’ Cup Sprint. The Chosen Vron (Vronsky), winner of the GI Bing Crosby S. last out July 29, drilled five furlongs on the training track in 1:00.20 for trainer Eric Kruljac. Dr. Schivel (Violence), winner of the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship Sept. 30, and GII Pat O’Brien winner Anarchist (Distorted Humor) both worked on the main track.

Dr. Schivel went three furlongs in 36.60 seconds while Anarchist went five furlongs in 1:01.80 for trainer Doug O’Neill.

Working towards the GI Breeders’ Cup Distaff was Clairiere (Curlin), who went five furlongs in 1:00.40. Also drilling four furlongs in :48 was Desert Dawn (Cupid), who trainer Phil D’Amato after the work said is possible for the Distaff.

Firing a bullet towards the GI Breeders’ Cup Mile was Exaulted (Twirling Candy) for trainer Peter Eurton. Winner of the GI Shoemaker Mile and most recently second in the GI Del Mar Mile Sept. 2, Exaulted went four furlongs on the main track in 47.20 seconds. Also working towards a possible start in the Breeders’ Cup Mile was Astronomer (Air Force Blue) for trainer Simon Callaghan who worked four furlongs in 48.60 seconds.

Two horses pointed to the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf Sprint Nov. 4, Mortorius (Muhaarar {GB}) and Private Creed (Jimmy Creed), also worked. Mortorius drilled four furlongs on the training track in 48.60 seconds while Private Creed worked four furlongs in 50.40 seconds for Asmussen.

A potential starter for the GI Breeders’ Cup Fill & Mare Sprint, Clearly Unhinged (Into Mischief), worked a half-mile in 47.80 seconds for trainer Michael McCarthy.

On Sunday, leading Breeders’ Cup Classic contender Arcangelo (Arrogate) is scheduled to work for trainer Jena Antonucci at about 9 a.m. Pacific. Antonucci is in town from New York to observe the drill.

Knockemdown (American Pharoah), an unraced 4-year-old gelding, earned a trip to the “winner’s circle” Saturday with his win in the 2023 Thoroughbred Makeover. The winner in the dressage division, he bested ten other discipline’s top scorers to take the honors.

BERNARDINI HOMEBRED DEBUTS AT KEENELAND

6th-KEE, $90K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 3:40 p.m. ET

In a wide-open maiden special weight at Keeneland, Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider homebred GRINNING (Bernardini) makes her debut for trainer Riley Mott. The first foal out of Tickle (Distorted Humor), her second dam is a full-sister to champion older horse and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic hero Blame and a half to the dam of GSW Carve (First Samurai).

The Stoneway Farm-bred Shiloh’s Mistress (Vino Rosso) also makes her first start. A $235,000 Keeneland September buy, the Michael McCarthy trainee’s dam is a half-sister to three-time GIII Arlington H. victor Rahystrada (Rahy) and is responsible for GII Falls City H. heroine Ahh Chocolate (Candy Ride {Arg}).

The D. Wayne Lukas-trained firster Happy Talk (Arrogate) was purchased for $175,000 during Keeneland September. The gray filly is a half-sister to GII Jim Dandy S. winner Laoban (Uncle Mo) and her extended female family includes MGISW I’m a Chatterbox (Munnings). TJCIS PPS Margins: 4 1/4, 2 1/4, 2HF. Odds: 0.20, 25.80, 9.90.

My Boy Prince won by six lengths in his second career race June 18 in Toronto before crushing the Simcoe S. field over the same Tapeta surface Aug. 27 by 14 lengths. Second as the favorite behind Carson’s Run (Cupid) in the Sept. 16 GI Summer S. in his first attempt over turf, the gray colt was well-supported at the windows as the 1-5 choice here. He set the pace down the backstretch as longshot Arashi tracked him from second. Rounding the far turn with the field at his heels, My Boy Prince saved his best for the stretch and won for fun. The winner’s dam is responsible for a yearling colt by Kitten’s Joy, who was purchased last month for $585,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale by CHC/Qatar Racing, and she was bred to Classic Empire for 2024. Copper Tax made it four straight victories—all sprinting at Delaware Park, including a pair of restricted allowances Sept. 1 and 27—while becoming the first stakes winner for his freshman sire. The heavy favorite in this stakes and two-turn debut shot out to the front and wasn’t for catching. After producing a colt by Global Campaign, the winner’s dam was bred back to both Higher Power and Copper Bullet for 2024.

“He passed the test with flying colors and he finished pretty nice and quick,” said winning trainer Gary Capuano. “He is a pretty special horse. We are going to give him a little bit of a breather for now, but we will see how he comes out of this race and what comes up. But we are going to just enjoy this one for a little bit. He will run on anything and anytime we ask. He came into this race really good. We gave him a couple of nice long steady workouts around two turns and it did not seem to bother him. He is a pretty cool horse.” Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

First Mission guts it out | Coady

Aboughazale's International Equities Holding for $105,000 in foal to Street Sense at Keeneland January in 2022 and that full-brother to First Mission was hammered down to Richard Santulli's Colts Neck Stable for $500,000 at Keeneland September last month. Elude produced a colt by Protonico in 2023 and was bred to Life Is Good.

O/B-Godolphin (KY); T-Brad H Cox.

STRETCH RIDE (c, 2, Street Sense--Q Go Girl (SP), by Quality Road) handled his first two-turn attempt with aplomb, drawing away to win clear Saturday at Keeneland. Off at 9-1 having graduated with a late-running victory over six furlongs at Churchill Downs Sept. 17, the bay colt took up a position from between rivals as Astronomico (Frosted) set a quick early pace at the fence while odds-on Lightline (City of Light) was trapped out three deep through a half in :47.56. Stretch Ride was allowed to nose in front by Martin Chuan at the three-eighths marker and was scrubbed along, but was doing the better work inside of the chalk, who was doing his best to keep pace. Despite hanging on his incorrect lead for the length of the short stretch, Stretch Ride went away with each stride and had 5 3/4 lengths on Lightline--a big-figure debut winner at Horseshoe Indianapolis--at the wire. Seize the Grey (Arrogate), a latest fourth in the Gill Iroquis S., plugged on at one pace to be a non-threatening third. Purchased for just $5,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton October sale, Stretch Ride made for a nice profit.

when hammering for €100,000 at this year’s Arqana May breeze-up sale (breeze video). Jackpot Ranch acquired Stretch Ride’s dam for $147,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Horses of Racing Age sale in 2019 a short time after she finished third in the Panthers S. at Prairie Meadows. Stretch Ride is her first foal and is followed by a weanling colt by Yaupon. She was most recently covered by Street Sense’s Grade I-winning son Speaker’s Corner. ACCEDE (f, 3, Into Mischief--Jibboom {MGSW & GISP, $487,600}, by Mizzen Mast) broke her maiden at first asking back in March at Gulfstream Park before running third in the GI Eight Belles S. on the Derby undercard. A well-beaten fifth behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ and MGISP Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) in the GI Acorn S. on Belmont Day and fourth to G1SW Randomized (Nyquist) in the Wilton S. at Saratoga July 14, the bay filly then finished ninth in her grass debut in the GIII Music City S. Sept. 2 at Kentucky Downs. Off as the 5-2 choice getting back on dirt here, she raced in mid-pack up the backstretch, began to make up ground around the far turn and cleared past the sixteenth pole to return to the winner’s circle by 1 1/2 lengths over Zeitlos (Curlin). The winner is a half-sister to Flying Jib (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)), GSW-Ire, $135,114. Her dam, a full-sister to Hong Kong G1 Stewards' Cup hero Sea Defence (Mizzen Mast) and a half to the dam of GI Kilroe Mile S. victor Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo (Ire)), foaled a colt by Tacitus Feb. 10 and visited Mandaloun for next year. SMOOCWINWITHCINDY (f, 3, Accelerate--True Kiss (SW, $115,418), by Is It True) easily accounted for a field of Charles Town maidens on belated career debut Aug. 11 and was last seen weakening out to finish third in Timonium allowance company Aug. 26. Beaten for speed and forced to do the chasing from the two path, the bay came after pacesetting Delta Charm (Khozan) approaching the stretch, drifted out a bit shortly thereafter and edged away in the final furlong to take it by three lengths. The winner is half-sister to the fleet Shancelot (Shanghai Bobby), GSW & MGISP, $624,300; and to One True Kiss (Warrior’s Reward), MGISP, $231,459, whose daughter Streaming Now (Into Mischief) was third in this year’s GSP. DORNCH (c, 2, Good Magic--Puca {SW & GSP, $299,406}, by Big Brown) had run well in each of his first two career starts, including a runner-up effort in the Sapling S. in his most recent trip to the races Aug. 26, and made good on a promise of 1-2 favoritism to break his maiden in style Saturday at Keeneland.
The full-brother to GI Kentucky Derby hero Mage, GISW, $2,507,450; and half to Gunning (Gun Runner), MSP, $278,835, was away in good order from gate two and led into the first turn as they stacked up six deep to his outside. Pressed along by Lat Long (Liam’s Map) as they raced into the backstretch, the $325,000 Keeneland September grad was past the half-mile in :47.70 for Luis Saez and was quietly and confidently ridden into the second bend. Asked to stretch passing the three-sixteenths marker, Dornoch raced a touch greenly and a bit awkwardly on his left lead, but pulled readily clear despite wandering about to score by a widening 6 1/2 lengths. The final time was 1.34 seconds faster than what was recorded by Stretch Ride in the first division of this two-turn maiden in race three. Former ‘TDN Rising Star’ Puca was a stakes winner and runner-up in the 2015 Gil Gazelle S. and was purchased by Robert Clay’s Grandview Equine for $475,000 carrying the filly that would become Gunning at Fasig-Tipton November in 2018. A half-sister to GISW Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt [GB]), Puca is also the dam of a yearling McKinzie colt that sold to Mayberry Farm for $1.2 million at last month’s Keeneland September sale and the mare sprints at the upcoming Keeneland November Sale carrying a full-sibling to Mage and Dornoch through Case Clay Thoroughbred Management as hip 191. ZIPADOO (f, 3, Ghostzapper--Sarach {GSW, $248,562}, by Arch) debuted second last October at Laurel while routing on the grass and finished her juvenile year with a well-beaten eighth over the Tapeta Dec. 26 at Gulfstream Park. Returning from the bench and back on the turf at Colonial Downs, the bay filly was second as the favorite Aug. 25 before being installed as the tepid 3-1 choice here. She settled mid-pack between horses into the first turn, tipped to the outside at the top of the lane and took over the lead and reported home a 1 1/2-length winner over King’s Secret (GB) (Kingman [GB]). The winner’s dam, who is a half-sister MGISP All Included (Include), foaled a filly named Oakville Feb. 11 and visited Happy Saver for 2024. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, $82,000. PURLOIN (f, 2, Arrogate--Smooth Path, by Scat Daddy), a $200,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $400,000 OBS April breezer, was bet down to 6-5 favoritism in a race scratched down to just four entrants when it was washed onto the sloppy main track. Content to trail, but always in touch beneath Kendrick Carmouche, the gray filly raced two wide around the turn, came out and around rivals into the lane and pulled clear in the final eighth of a mile to open her account by 1 1/2 lengths at first asking and become the 100th individual winner for her late sire (by Unbridled’s Song). Grantley Acres purchased the unraced Smooth Path, a half-sister to the ill-fated MSW Taraz (Into Mischief), for $160,000 with this filly in utero at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. The mare’s foal of 2022, a filly by Authentic, was a $250,000 purchase out of last year’s FTKNOV sale and was hammered down to FMQ Stables for $400,000 at KEESAP last month. Smooth Path produced a Candy Ride (Arg) filly this season and was bred to Nyquist and Speightstown. NOTHING LIKE YOU (f, 2, Malibu Moon--Miss Derek (MSW-Can, SP-USA, $159,610), by Brother Derek) ran second in her debut over dirt Aug. 6 at Del Mar, was a well-beaten eighth over that same surface Sept. 10 and finished fourth Oct. 1 at Santa Anita. Off as the even-money favorite here, the bay filly made the lead just before the first turn. She continued to set the pace up the backstretch and increased the margin around the far turn. BEASTLY SPEED (g, 3, The Big Beast--Unanimity, by Union Rags), favored at 13-10 for this first go, took a bump at the break and was consigned to a five-path run and tracked deep around the turn as well. Sent into the lead a quarter-mile out, he did his best work in the final furlong and went on to take it by 4 1/4 lengths. Unanimity is also responsible for a 2-year-old Girvin colt, a yearling filly by Win Win Win and a weanling colt by the same stallion. She was most recently bred to Gretzky the Great. “WE’VE NEVER HAD A HORSE LIKE THIS.” CITY OF TROY SEALS CHAMPION STATUS IN THE DEWHURST

by Tom Frary

The horse that doesn’t get tired. The most unusual of all the Rosegreen “unusuals”. By the time TDN Rising Star City Of Troy (Justify--Together Forever {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) hit the line with his trademark force in Saturday’s G1 Native Trail’s Dewhurst S., we were dealing with a colt who prompts exciting talk. The kind not heard in these parts since 2010, when a certain local legend continued his irresistible trajectory in this very prize. After Frankel (GB) put an unreachable star in racing’s heavens, here we have one who can at least feed the impossible dream during a winter of longing. Cont. p3

TRACES OF FRANKEL AS CITY OF TROY RULES OLD ROWLEY By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK—Friday’s biblical rains had cleared by the early hours of Saturday to ensure City Of Troy’s coronation was brightly lit against the big East Anglian sky. And make no mistake, however good Vandeek had been across most of the same turf just a fortnight earlier, this was the two-year-old performance of the year.

Across the Devil’s Dyke, City Of Troy had already stormed the July Course to take the Superlative S. in imperious fashion, with braking the only problem for Ryan Moore as he attempted to pull up the young son of Justify. More superlatives were needed after the Dewhurst, and co-owner Michael Tabor perhaps had the most enticing of them when he said, “I really think he is our Frankel.” No pressure then.

City Of Troy did actually win the Dewhurst by a wider margin than Frankel did 13 years ago, and though not physically imposing in stature, he has that ease and length of stride that sets him apart from other decent colts in his class. As if to emphasise his athleticism, he delivered a flying change just shy of the winning line, but that was really his only nod towards flamboyance. In the parade rings, and walking in to greet his public, City Of Troy was a model, almost meek, pupil. A professional mindset to match his moves.

He is of course by a Triple Crown winner of the American variety and, let’s face it, it’s high time we had another one of our own on these shores. Cont. p6

The facts? An all-the-way 3 1/2-length defeat of Shadwell’s undoubtedly classy Alyanaabi (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}), with fellow TDN Rising Star Eben Shaddad (Calyx {GB}) another length behind in third and a Mill Reef and an Acomb winner beaten more than a dozen lengths. Six sub-12-second sectionals from the winner on ground that Aidan O’Brien reflected horses needed “tractor tyres” to plough through. Satisfyingly, we now have an unbeaten champion who is as versatile as he is brilliant. Facts are becoming monotonously impressive where Susan Magnier’s colour-bearer is concerned and that is where the magic kicks in.

Is he as flawless as Sir Henry Cecil’s parting gift? O’Brien, who was marking the unique occasion by recording an eighth victory in this prestigious juvenile endgame to join the 19th and 20th Century legends John Porter and Frank Butters, was not far off suggesting so. “You always see the bottom somewhere, but we’ve not seen it with this fellow,” he remarked with the kind of almost breathless excitement that all who were present on one of Newmarket’s true glorious autumn afternoons understand.

Ryan Moore, who got to feel the remorseless power of his very own tremendous machine once again at first hand, came as close to raw enthusiasm as he is capable of during one of his always-measured post-race assessments. “For me, Frankel was the best racehorse I ever saw and stupidly I said privately on the July Course that I hadn’t seen another horse do what this horse had since. That was a silly comparison to make, but he’s a very rare horse,” he stated. “He is as exciting a 2-year-old as I have ever ridden.” In the next few moments, he was to say “very, very good” twice. You get the picture. Cont. p4

"Ryan said it was deep, tacky ground and completely not what he wants, but he has great power in his stride. You need tractor tyres for that ground and he has Grand Prix tyres, but he has the jet engine to push through."

Very quickly gaining a reputation for flouting the established rules of competition with what O’Brien now refers to as his “jet engine”, City Of Troy gave the internationally-renowned Moore the fright of his riding life on his Curragh debut where his performance past the winning post was even more notable than that leading to it. Preparing the metaphorical runway in advance the next time, Coolmore’s steadfast pilot still needed the July Course’s pull-up to stop the G2 Superlative S. winner from continuing on to The Links Golf Course.

Anchored by the sinking nature of 20mm of rain on ground that was already soft for Friday’s action, City Of Troy was nevertheless still able to express himself and when he met that rising ground the propulsion that sets him apart was as visually striking as it had been in July.

“Ryan said it was deep, tacky ground and completely not what he wants, but he has great power in his stride,” his trainer said. “You need tractor tyres for that ground and he has Grand Prix tyres, but he has the jet engine to push through and that gives us great insight for his training next year. He’s not ground-dependent and we know he stays as well as having plenty of pace for the mile.”

When quizzed as to whether one of Justify’s early offerings ranks above the yard’s past 2-year-old giants Fasliyev, Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire), Hawk Wing, Churchill (Ire), Air Force Blue and Little Big Bear (Ire) the master of Ballydoyle had no hesitation. “No doubt,” he simply said. “We’ve never had a horse like this. He’s always finishing and running out across the line and over the hill. He’s all there. He has plenty of size and is so well-proportioned--I would imagine there are no real boundaries to his stamina. He has a beautiful mind, he’s clear-winded, genuine and a good mover. He wasn’t blowing much there, it is obviously part of his make-up. That is just the way it is. Thank goodness we ran him.” Amen to that.

The second chapter of the race was how well Alyanaabi performed, with the recurring story being the form of the Pat Eddery that again raised its head on this fixture. “Jim [Crowley] said he wasn’t in love with the ground, but I don’t think Aidan’s horse was either,” trainer Owen Burrows said. “I’m very pleased and it was a good solid run. We said it was perhaps the ground [when fourth] at Ascot, but it might have been that he went a bit weak on us and he wasn’t quite himself that day.”

“It is a long time until the 2000 Guineas and hopefully it will be faster ground, but it looks like Aidan’s horse will be better on faster ground,” he added. “However, you can’t run away from one horse. It hasn’t dented my faith in him--he still remains a good horse and is up there as one of the best two-year-olds in this country.”

Shadwell’s Angus Gold was also taken aback by City Of Troy. “I was incredibly impressed by the winner. He looked an absolutely gorgeous horse with a lovely attitude beforehand and I couldn’t believe how well he moved on the ground,” he said. “Jim said he could see the winner and he looked like he was struggling on the ground and he thought he had a chance and then he just went away again.” Cont. p5
Pedigree Notes

It is now nine years since Together Forever saw off the future dams of Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and Earthlight (Ire) (Shamardal) in the G1 Fillies’ Mile at this meeting and she was always going to be one of the operation’s premier broodmares. As if offering teasers with three useful sons of War Front and a smart initial Justify, the full-sister to the Oaks heroine Forever Together (Ire) and half-sister to the G1 Prix Jean Prat, G2 Lennox S. and G2 Mill Reef S.-winning sire Lord Shanakill (Speightstown) has certainly produced the goods with this colt.

Her first foal King Of Athens was second in the Listed Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial, her second Military Style collected the G3 Tyros S. and her third Absolute Ruler was third in the G2 Champions Juvenile, before City Of Troy’s year-old London Gold Cup-winning full-brother Bertinelli bettered them all in terms of performance when third in this year’s King George V H. This is the family of Shadwell’s G1 Irish 1000 Guineas-winning luminary Al Bahathri, whose son Haafhd (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}) was such an impressive winner of the 2000 Guineas and Champion S. at this venue. Her yearling filly is by Uncle Mo, while she also has a filly foal by Dubawi (Ire) and was bred to Into Mischief this year.

MV Magnier wasted no time in uttering the words that some of us still want to hear. With the 2,000 Guineas already being regarded as a shoo-in for City Of Troy, and most bookmakers offering evens about his chances back in Newmarket next May, talk turned to the Derby.

"It's what everyone wants to do," said Magnier. "It's all about the Derby, it's all about the Triple Crown."

He went on to outline the positive pedigree elements that point towards City Of Troy at least being able to get the trip at Epsom: his sire won the Belmont over 1m4f, while his dam, Together Forever, boasting that rather special Derby winner Galileo as her sire, and a winner of the G1 Fillies' Mile herself, is also a sister to the Oaks winner Forever Together.

He added, "Put it this way, we won't stop trying to win the Triple Crown."

These are not empty words. There is little doubt that had Auguste Rodin not flopped in the Guineas he would have made an assault on the St Leger after winning the Derby. Instead Aidan O'Brien won the latter with Continuous, while Auguste Rodin's season consisted of a different triple of the Derby, Irish Derby and Irish Champion S.

Before we get too carried away, the Derby is still more than seven months in the future. Cont. p7

And there were other pretensions made towards that race at Newmarket on Saturday with two impressive performances from runners trained by Charlie Appleby, whose stable appears to be returning to the form we have become accustomed to seeing. Both sons of Dubawi, Ancient Wisdom took the G3 Autumn S., followed by a third victory this season for Arabian Crown, in the G3 Zetland S.

Overlooking the anomaly that was a 10-year-old hurdler winning the Cesarewitch on Dubai Future Champions Day, Saturday really did feel all about next spring, which is a heartening prospect as the wind starts to blow colder across Newmarket Heath.

For three wonderful years in Newmarket we had Frankel to warm the cockles. It is scarcely believable that he's already been gone for more than a decade, though his prowess at stud means that he will never be forgotten.

What now for City Of Troy?

"Let's hope he is as popular as Frankel was," said Tabor. "He will only get that popularity as time goes on. And hopefully, as time goes on, he will win all those big races and get those accolades given to him. It is easy to talk. But I like to talk before they achieve and that is what we believe.

"Maybe down the line we will have egg on our face. But I really believe it: this horse could be anything."

The frailties of the Thoroughbred have indeed left many a bold predictor looking foolish. But for now at least, the eyes don't deceive, and we too can believe.

ARABIAN CROWNS MEMORABLE DAY FOR DUBAWI WITH ZETLAND ROUT by Tom Frary

While it is entirely excusable that everybody's favourite subject on Saturday was City Of Troy (Justify), there was a notable subplot to Newmarket’s Future Champions Day with the town’s triple threat of Godolphin, Charlie Appleby and Dubawi (Ire) doubling up in the fixture’s next-best prizes. After the stable's Ancient Wisdom (Fr) had registered an impressive success in the G3 Autumn S., Arabian Crown (Fr) followed suit with his own masterclass in the manner of his sire's Ghaiyyath (Ire) whose name graced the 10-furlong G3 Zetland S.

Last seen capturing Salisbury’s Listed Stonehenge S. at a mile in August, the €600,000 Arqana August-bought son of Dubai Rose (GB) (Dubai Destination) was the sharpest away of the quartet with another of Ballydoyle's Justifs in Gaspar De Lemos (Ire) keeping him company for the first six furlongs. Always travelling better than that rival, the 10-11 favourite powered away from three out to win, eased down by William Buick, by 5 1/2 lengths. Cont. p8
It was a big weekend for us in respects that the three horses we were confident about were the filly Dance Sequence yesterday and the two today and they have all gone and won impressively," Appleby said of his third straight winner of this Derby pointer. “This horse, as it stands, on what he has achieved and on his pedigree has more of a Derby profile. We will be going down more of that route and he could be a Dante horse or one for one of the other Derby trials.”

“He is a very hard horse to assess, as he is not a work horse and we have always said that,” Appleby said. “James [Doyle] rode him in work last week and he was out at the back of the gallop, whereas Ancient Wisdom does travel and he has a bit more natural pace. To be fair, this horse picked up and quickened. I will put him away now for the year. He has a pedigree that suggests stepping up to the mile and a half as a three-year-old will suit him. He is an exciting horse—there is no doubt about it.”

Pedigree Notes

Arabian Crown’s aforementioned dam Dubai Rose, who captured the Listed Kolner Stuten-Trophy as well as the Swiss Derby over a mile and a half, is also responsible for the dual G2 Prix de Royallieu winner and G1 Prix Vermeille third The Juliet Rose (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), Dubawi’s listed-winning Everest Rose (GB) and the dual listed-placed Pocketfullofdreams (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). She is kin to the G2 Pretty Polly S. winner Hanami (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), whose progeny include the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial and G3 Ballysax S.-placed Regent Street (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Among Dubai Rose’s other half-siblings is another German listed scorer in Hernando’s Soho Rose (Ire), who produced last year’s G1 Prix de Royallieu heroine Sea La Rosa (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and her G2 Great Voltiguer S. and G3 Bahrain Trophy-winning full-brother Deauville Legend (Ire), as well as the Group 3-placed Dean Street Doll (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Her yearling colt by Night Of Thunder (Ire) managed to outdo his half-brother when making €660,000 at this year’s Deauville August Sale, with Blandford Bloodstock the winning bidders.

DUBAWI’S ANCIENT WISDOM POWERS TO AUTUMN TRIUMPH

by Sean Cronin

Godolphin’s €2-million Arqana August ‘TDN Rising Star’ Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}--Golden Valentine {Fr}, by Dalakhani {Ire}), who ran third to subsequent G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere victor Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) in July’s Listed Pat Eddery S., came back off a 77-day sabbatical to trounce his six-strong opposition in Saturday’s Emirates Autumn S. at Newmarket. Cont. p9
Ancient Wisdom, full to a weanling colt and half to a yearling colt by Lope De Vega (Ire), is the third of five foals and one of two scorers produced by G3 Prix Minerve winner Golden Valentine (Fr) (Dalakhani (Ire)), herself one of seven stakes performers out of G3 Prix Cleopatre victrix Gold Round (Ire) (Caerleon). Golden Valentine’s siblings include her G3 Prix du Lys-winning full-brother Goldwaki (Ger), Gill Robert J Frankel S. victrix and GI Rodeo Drive S. runner-up Luck (Kitten’s Joy) and the dam of G3 Prix Vanteaux winner and GI E P Taylor S. third Platane (GB) (Le Havre (Ire)). Gold Round, in turn, is a half-sister to storied multiple champion and three-time GI Breeders’ Cup Mile heroine Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), G1 Prix Vermeille victrix Galikova (Fr) (Galileo (Ire)) and multiple Group 1-placed sire Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa). Golden Valentine was a €520,000 purchase at Arqana’s 2012 December Broodmare sale.

Positioned off the clear leader in third until taking closer order once past halfway, the 2-1 joint-favourite seized control approaching the final furlong and powered clear of toiling rivals up the hill to easily outpoint Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) by an impressive 3 3/4 lengths. Ancient Wisdom had previously followed up a taking debut performance at Haydock in June with a second triumph, under a six-pound penalty, at Newmarket on July track.

“We were disappointed that we were beat at Ascot, but that race worked out so well you couldn’t really be disappointed in it,” commented Charlie Appleby. “I’ve probably mismanaged him running him back at Newmarket. He broke his maiden at Haydock Park and I went to Newmarket thinking I could try and get a bit more experience. He is a Dubawi and I was probably forcing him a bit too much so, after Ascot, we said collectively we will give him a break and we toyed with this and the Zetland. I told William [Buick] he is a horse that will travel for fun stepping up a furlong and also the conditions out there were going to suit him. I said to ride him with mega confidence, to sit up there and travel in the van as he will pick up for you, and he has duly obliged. He is a horse next year that will be a middle-distance type. He is a horse that I do feel a mile-and-a-quarter will be well within his compass and I personally think he will appreciate going a mile-and-a-half. He is a Dubawi and, as we know with those middle-distance Dubawis, you can’t force them too much in the spring of their 3-year-old career, so therefore something like the [G2] Dante might be a target for him. We will see where we are in the spring, but we have a long winter ahead of us now. It is nice to be able to put these horses to bed on the back of an impressive victory.”

MORE DUBAWI MAGIC IN THE DARLEY
by Tom Frary

As if the exploits of Ancient Wisdom (Fr) and Arabian Crown (Fr) were not enough, another son of Dubawi (Ire) stepped up later at Newmarket on Saturday to cap a satisfying afternoon for Godolphin’s Charlie Appleby operation. While the card’s G3 Earthlight Darley S. winner Highland Avenue (Ire) is way past the days of early promise that characterise the profile of his 2-year-old stablemates and prone to the unglamorous label of stalwart, this was a welcome pattern-race breakthrough for the homebred whose 5-year-old campaign has been his best.

Third behind Adayar (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) in the G3 Gordon Richards S. rescheduled here in May and runner-up in the G3 Diomed S. on Epsom’s Derby card the following month, the 2021 course-and-distance Listed Feilden S. winner arrived here fresh and that was apparent as he raced with enthusiasm keeping close tabs on the leader Raadobarg (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) throughout the early stages. In front two out, the 11-4 favourite took William Buick into the clear with the minimum of urging to score by four lengths from Silver Sword (GB) (Charm Spirit {Ire}).

“A fair play to him, as he led all those good horses like Adayar and Hurricane Lane earlier in the year and he deserved to win one himself,” Appleby said after completing a Group 3 treble. “He is bred to be a good horse, but after the Feilden we sort of lost our way slightly. This year he has been a hell of a lead horse for us and William said he has still got plenty of life in him, as he dragged him to the two and he never felt like he was going to get beaten. He will probably just stay around here and we will see him in the spring back on the Limekilns!”

Pedigree Notes
Highland Avenue is the first foal out of the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Lumiere (GB) (Shamardal), who has also produced the stable’s listed-placed Silver Lady (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). She is a full-sister to the G1 E.P. Taylor S. heroine Sheikha Reika (Fr), whose TDN Rising Star son Arabian Legend (Ire) also by Dubawi was such a disappointment earlier on the card in the G3 Autumn S. having been second in the Listed Stonehenge S. Descended from the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies’ and G1 Hollywood Starlet S. heroine Outstandingly (Exclusive Native), Lumiere has the winner’s once-raced 2-year-old full-sister Dazzling Jewel (Fr) and a colt foal by Siyouni (Fr) and a colt foal again by Dubawi.

PARISLONGCHAMP: IRESINE BACK IN THE CONSEIL DE PARIS
by Tom Frary

The Arc’s missing piece Iresine (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}) returns to action in that feature’s hosting venue on Sunday, with the far-lesser spoils on offer of the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris scant consolation for messrs Milliere, Gauvin and Velon. Denied an entry in his country’s finest race due to his gelded status, the reigning G1 Prix Royal Oak and G1 Prix Ganay winner may have had place claims there given his love of this circuit at which he has also won and been second in a G2 Prix Foy and been runner-up in a G2 Prix d’Harcourt.

Andre Fabre offers the main opposition to Iresine courtesy of the Wertheimers’ G3 Prix de Reux winner Junko (GB) (Intello (Ger)) and Godolphin’s unbeaten Marquisat (Ire) (Zarak (Fr)), with the latter the real unknown of the 11-furlong contest as a 3-year-old on the rise after confidence-building wins at Deauville and here in recent weeks. Baden-Baden’s G3 Preis der Winterkonigin is the other race of intrigue on Sunday, with the Listed Koln-Winterkonigin Trial second and third Shagara (Ire) (Zarak (Fr)) and Lady Mary (Ger) (Lawman (Fr)) met by Gestut Brummerhof’s promising Hannover debut winner Anna Riva (Ger) (Sea The Stars (Ire)).

Nations Pride Adds Another Graded Win To His Resume

Autumn in North America is a rich seasonal hunting ground for Godolphin’s European raiders, particularly those trained by Charlie Appleby, and Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo (Ire)) scooped Woodbine’s G1 Canadian International S. recently (video). The royal blue homebreds had landed the G1 Saratoga Derby Invitational S. and GII Jockey Club Derby Invitational S. last year.

Also a top-level winner in Germany, the 4-year-old colt is a half-brother to Crystal Of Time (Ire) (Dark Angel (Ire)), a weanling colt by Ghaith (Ire), and he has a yearling full-sister. Their dam, the Oasis Dream (GB) mare Important Time (Ire), won at the listed level in Germany and is a daughter of Satwa Queen (Fr) (Muhtathir (GB)), who won the G1 Prix de l’Opera. Australian standout Militarize (NZ) (Dundeel (NZ)) and G1 Phoenix S. hero Lucky Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega (Ire)) are also in the family.

The best North American runner by Darley veteran Teofilo, Nations Pride is one of four stakes winners in that jurisdiction for the 19-year-old. Seventeen of his 27 runners have won in America (63%), including dual Grade II winner Amira’s Prince (Ire).

Bold Act Another Graded Winner In The Royal Blue

Just a few days after Nations Pride won in Canada, Godolphin and Charlie Appleby celebrated another homebred graded winner, this time with New Approach (Ire) gelding Bold Act (Ire) in the GIII Sycamore S. at Keeneland (video).

Successful in the Listed Prix Nureyev in August, the multiple group-placed 3-year-old is out of the listed winner Dancing Sands (Ire) (Dubawi (Ire)), who placed three times at the group level. Cont. p12

PURPLE PATCH FOR GODOLPHIN

In this series, the TDN takes a look at notable successes of European-based sires in North America. This week’s column is highlighted by the victory of Nations Pride in the Canadian International at Woodbine and two other graded wins for Godolphin colourbearers.

His year-younger half-sister Dazzling Star (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}) was third in the GI Natalma S., while Dancing Sands’s latest pair are colts by Cracksman (GB) and Frankel (GB), respectively. G1 Futurity S. hero and sire Bakharoff (The Minstrel) is under the third dam.

The 13th winner from 23 runners (56%) in the U.S. for his Darley sire, Bold Act is New Approach’s fourth black-type winner there. Both Ceisteach (Ire) and Messi (Ger) are Grade III scorers.

Lucky Girl Returns A Winner At Santa Anita

Already a dual American stakes winner, Lucky Girl (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) made it a hat trick for Panic Stable, LLC and trainer Phil D’Amato in the Swingtime S. at Santa Anita a few days ago (video).

Bred by Paul Hyland, the 4-year-old filly was originally a £19,000 yearling buy out of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale by Meadowview Stables. She did not meet her reserve when a £24,000 buy-back at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale in 2021, and duly made one start at Gowran Park for Helen Slattery and trainer Andrew Slattery, where she finished third. The four-time winning dam Abbey Angel (Ire) (Arcano {Ire})’s latest produce is a yearling colt by Kodi Bear (Ire) whose latest trip through the ring resulted in a 110,000gns buy-back during the Tattersall October Yearling Sale.

Former reverse shuttle stallion Exceed And Excel has sired an even 10 black-type winners from his 41 U.S. runners (24%). Of those 41, 22 have earned at least one victory (54%). The Darley stallion’s American best are GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile winner Outstrip (GB) and GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Mischief Magic (Ire).

Brant’s No Nay Never Filly a New York Winner

Peter Brant and Chad Brown’s Notinamillionyears (Ire) (No Nay Never) won at second asking during the Belmont at the Big A meeting earlier this week (video).

Bred by Lynch-Bages & Rhinestone Bloodstock, the daughter of Dancing Shoes (Ire) (Danehill) was acquired by BSW/Crow for $450,000 out of the 2021 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. The winner is a half-sister to GII La Canada S. winner Striking Dancer (Smart Strike) and G2 Gran Premio del Jockey Club hero Raymond Tusk (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}). Emmaline (Affirmed), the winner’s second dam, is a half-sister to American champion Bates Motel (Sir Ivor).

Sea The Stars Filly Graduates In California

Red Baron’s Barn, LLC and Rancho Temescal Thoroughbred Partners’ Star Of The Night (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) won at Santa Anita this month (video). The Sunderland Holding-bred 3-year-old was making her second start for trainer Mark Glatt after a runner-up finish at Del Mar.

Out of the winning Simple Elegance (Street Cry {Ire}), Star Of The Night has juvenile half-brother by Gleneagles (Ire) and a yearling half-brother by the late Le Havre (Ire) who was picked up by Ross Doyle and Ciaran Murphy for €37,000 out of the recent Goffs Orby Book 2 Sale. Lackendarra Stables and Eddie Linehan bought the dark bay for €40,000 out of the 2021 Goffs Orby Sale, and sent her back through the ring at the 2022 Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale where she made 140,000gns on the bid of her current owners. Her dam is one of six winners out of the Pulpit mare Rutherienne, who landed the GI Del Mar Oaks.

The Aga Khan’s Studs’ Sea The Stars has 17 winners from 37 runners (46%) in the U.S. His sextet of stakes winners are led by GII Fort Marcy S. winner and GI Manhattan S. third Ottoman Fleet (GB). Cont. p13
Repeat Winners

Repeat Making Waves alumni have been in outstanding form in recent weeks, and the GI Beverly D. S. heroine Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) doubled her Grade I tally with a stalking score in the E. P. Taylor S. at Woodbine on Oct. 8 (video). Raced by Tracy Farmer, the Mark Casse pupil is pointing toward the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Santa Anita in November.

Eternal Hope (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) was the latest Making Waves alum to display her abundant talent in the GII Sands Point S. as the Belmont at the Big A meeting continued on Saturday (video). The Godolphin homebred was winning her second graded race in a row for Charlie Appleby, after taking the GII Jockey Club Oaks Invitational S. last month.

Klaravich Stables’ McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}), best known as the winner of the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. in 2022, also claimed her second graded victory of the year in the GII Waya S. earlier in October (video). The Chad Brown trainee won the GII Glens Falls S. at the Saratoga meeting in August.

Golden Horde colt leads final day of October Yearling Sale at Tattersalls

A Golden Horde (Ire) colt topped Book 3 of the October Yearling Sale at 35,000gns bringing the two-week selling bonanza to a close on Saturday.

The top lot was sourced by Middleham Park and was described as "a standout" on the day by the operation’s Tom Palin.

"We loved him, we thought he was a standout," said Palin of lot 1919. "He walked around there with a bit of presence. He goes to Eve Johnson Houghton, he’s our first horse with her and he’s a strong, racy, 2-year-old sort and looks to be the type that she’ll do well with. Golden Horde was such an impressive racehorse and his stock looks racy. We’re delighted to get him."

Of this week’s business Palin added, "We’ve got stuck in, we got eight since the start of Book 1. It’s been competitive for the better lots and we’ve had to stretch a bit on some of them but it hasn’t been silly. It’s been sensible but strong. We’re delighted with what we’ve bought."

Golden Horde is best known for scorching to G1 Commonwealth Cup glory for Clive Cox in 2020. He stands for €8,000 at Montfort et Preaux and his first yearlings have been well received by the market.

Of the 1,862 yearlings offered across Book 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1,531 were sold at a clearance rate of 82%. That represented a drop of 4% on last year.

The aggregate was down 20% to 158,567,500gns while the median fell 10% to 52,000gns and the average by 18% to 103,571gns.

Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony commented, “More than 165 million guineas has been spent on yearlings at Tattersalls in the past few weeks which, although some way below last year’s runaway record-breaking returns, is a substantial sum that has only been bettered once.

“There have been some memorable highlights in amongst those impressive sums, including the 2 million gns October Book 1 sale-topping Frankel (GB) colt, who is the highest-priced yearling to be sold in Europe this year, the 725,000gns Dubawi (Ire) filly, who headed Book 2 and is the second highest-priced filly ever sold at Europe’s largest yearling sale, and some astounding pinhooking triumphs throughout the past two weeks which, as ever, reflect the professionalism and commitment of the consignors.

“The pre-eminent status of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales owes everything to the support of the breeders and consignors, primarily from Britain and Ireland, but also from France, Germany and Italy, who entrust us with the cream of the European yearling crop year after year.

"Evidence of this support and the peerless quality of the yearlings is to be seen on racecourses around the world with Tattersalls yearlings consistently winning at the highest level on the global stage. To date in 2023 Tattersalls yearlings bought for as little as 5,000gns have won Group 1 races in Britain, Ireland and France, as well as Australia, Hong Kong and the US. It is this unrivalled level of achievement which brings buyers to yearling sales at Tattersalls from throughout the world, alongside the domestic British and Irish buyers for whom the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales are unmissable." Cont. p14
While the total 2023 yearling spend at Tattersalls has been the second highest ever, we should recognise that there has been a recalibration from the dizzy heights of last year and we should pay heed to this.

"With specific regard to Books 3 and 4 it has not been ideal to have coincided with the top-class racing at Newmarket, but this will not be the case again for the foreseeable future. With a wider perspective, our industry faces challenges which we all acknowledge.

"Nevertheless we should not lose sight of the fact that we have an outstanding internationally admired product, much of which has been showcased over the past two weeks at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales and which we will continue to work tirelessly to promote."

KENDARGENT’S LOVERA TOPS FIRST AUCTION FLAT SALE

Near the end of the first edition of the Auctav Flat Sale at Haras de Bois Roussel, the Kendargent (Fr) mare Lovera (Fr) (lot 84), in foal to Haras d’Etremh resident Hello Youmzain (Fr), became the sales topper with a €100,000 bid by Trotting Bloodstock’s Florent Fonteyne.
Auctav Cont.

Consigned by Roc Let Stud, the grey 5-year-old is a half-sister to the stakes winner and group placed Lova (Fr) (Goken {Fr}), as well as G3 Prix Eclipse third Lovamour (Fr) (Goken {Fr}), and a full-sister to Kenlova (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}), who was third in the G3 Prix Six Perfections. Her first foal is a yearling by Earthlight (Ire).

"It's a strong maternal family with many black-type fillies like Kenlova, Lovamour, Lova," explained Fonteyne. "I've purchased a good filly by Hello Youmzain for whom I have high expectations. I believe in this stallion, which motivated my purchase today.

"Lovera's yearling filly by Earthlight is doing well in training. There's a lot of potential for a strong prospect for next year's sales or the one after, depending on whether we sell it as a foal or yearling. The buyer is a new investor who already made purchases in Deauville last December. He has both trotters and thoroughbreds."

Trotting Bloodstock also purchased lot 24, Si Maman Si (Fr) (Goken {Fr}), for €33,000 online. The yearling filly, offered by Haras d'Ellon, is a granddaughter of G3 Prix Miesque heroine Lacarolina (Fr) (Charge d'Affaires [GB]), who is kin to the Classic-placed graded winner Speak Of The Devil (Fr) (Wootton Bassett [GB]).

Midway through proceedings, a dark bay filly by Dabirsim (Fr) and out of High Ambition (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) (lot 41) caught the eye of Fonteyne at €37,000. The yearling, presented by Coulonces Sales, is the first foal of her dam, herself a daughter of the G3 St Simon S. winner High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral [Ire]), who was third in the G1 Oaks.

Hubert Guy was in action for lot 32 after the yearling colt by Siyouni (Fr) had left the ring, and paid €40,000 privately. A member of the Haras des Rouges Terres draft, the colt is out of the G3 Give Thanks S. second Demurely (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a half-sister to G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner Cerulean Sky (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), and G1 Irish Oaks victress Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}).

A yearling by Hot Streak (Ire) (lot 7) brought a winning bid of €34,000 from Paul Nataf. Part of the Jedburgh Stud consignment, the chestnut daughter of Repechage (Fr) (Gold Away {Ire}) is from the same family as G3 Prix de Fontainebleau winner The Summit (Fr) (Wootton Bassett [GB]), who ran second in both the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains.

Ascending stallion Galway (GB) was represented by lot 64, a colt foal out of Steel Woman (Ire) (Anabaa), who made €41,000 on the bid of TJ Bloodstock. He is a half-brother to young sire, multiple group winner and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest third Jimmy Two Times (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}).

Of the 89 lots catalogued, 71 were offered and 47 found new homes (64%) for a gross of €1,015,000. The average was €15,615 and the median came in at €10,000.

Having made an instant impact with a debut win at last year’s July Festival over this trip, Funny Story only really started to make headway towards this breakthrough this summer and was second in the Listed Flying Fillies’ S. at Pontefract on her penultimate outing. Delivered with her effort from rear by Rossa Ryan, the grey wore down Sophia’s Starlight in game fashion close home to suggest that a step up to seven is within her compass.

The winner, who is a half to the listed scorer and G3 Prix de Meatrau runner-up Laugh A Minute (GB) (Mayson (GB)) and the G3 Firth of Clyde S.-placed Endless Joy (GB) (Showcasing (GB)), is related to another listed winner in Oasis Dancer (GB) (Oasis Dream (GB)) who also landed this track’s Tattersalls Timeform Million. Also from the family of the listed-winning and group 3-placed Scandinavian champion miler Smart Enough (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux (GB)) and the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Seazun (Ire) (Zieten), Funny Enough has the unraced 2-year-old filly Melon Twist (GB) (Showcasing (GB)) and yearling and foal colts again by that sire. THINK ABOUT IT CLAIMS A$20 MILLION THE EVEREST

by Keely McKitterick & Oz Wedmore/TTR AusNZ

The steady rise of Joe Pride’s near-unbeaten Think About It (Aus) (So You Think (NZ)) culminated in claiming the seventh running of the A$20 million The Everest on Saturday [video]. In the adjusted Proven Thoroughbreds colours—Sam Clipperton’s red cap on Saturday reflecting Newgate Farm’s Everest slot—the son of So You Think has now won 11 of his 12 starts, the A$7 million haul tipping his lifetime earnings into eight figures.

After finishing off last season with a duet of devastating Queensland Group 1 wins in the Kingsford-Smith Cup and Stradbroke H., Think About It only got the better of Hawaii Five Oh (Aus) (I Am Invincible (Aus)) by 0.16l in his Everest prep race, the G2 Premiere S. However, punters’ judgement that he had plenty left in the tank that day saw him edge out I Wish I Win (NZ) (Savabeel (Aus)) for favouritism ahead of post time.

Finding a dream run three back, he was given plenty of room in the straight to make his charge, and was chased home by a surging I Wish I Win, the toast of New Zealand running for owner/breeder Waikato Stud.

In a remarkable feat for Joe Pride and Jamie Walter’s Proven Thoroughbreds, diving home for third was their Private Eye (Aus) (Al Maher (Aus)). One of three ‘returners’ from last year’s renewal—alongside Overpass (Aus) (Vancouver (Aus)) and Mazu (Aus) (Maurice (Jpn))—he was denied only by Giga Kick (Aus) (Scissor Kick (Aus)) last year and will have done his syndicate no harm in netting the A$2 million third-place prize this time round.

“That is unbelievable,” Pride said. “They both ran terrific. I was pretty confident coming into the race that not only my two would run well but Moody’s was the only danger.

“It is going to be a really interesting journey with Think About It and where we go from here. I am a bit lost for words but it’s an incredible performance for him to win at 1200 metres, because after the Stradbroke win if it wasn’t for The Everest being what it is, I would have never aimed him at a 1200-metre race.

“I’m glad I did. I honestly love training for Jamie Walter, he takes all the pressure off me. We buy horses from various budgets, these two are some cheaper ones but we buy more expensive ones too.”

Saturday’s result was also a strong statement for Proven Thoroughbreds’ business model. Cont. p22

As a A$70,000 2020 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale purchase for his trainer/syndicator duo, it’s hard to say that Think About It was expensive, and nor was Private Eye, himself an A$62,500 2019 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale purchase for the same combination.

If there’s a theme emerging in the short history of the world’s richest race on turf, it’s the success of older males in the race. Think About It is now the third 5-year-old gelding to win the race, following the first of Redzel (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus})’s two wins in the inaugural running of the race and Classique Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) in 2020. Chris Waller’s Yes Yes Yes (Aus) remains the only non-gelding to win the race, his win in 2019 duly launching a stallion career at Coolmore Stud.

NEW GUN GRIFF IN GUINEAS ROMP

by TTR AusNZ

It was a dramatic finish to the G1 Caulfield Guineas as long-time leader Griff (Aus) (Trapeze Artist (Aus)) veered violently right with just a few strides to run, impeding his closest pursuer, Veight (Aus) (Grunt {NZ}), who was at his heels. After a short delay, Veight’s co-trainer Calvin McEvoy revealed that he and connections had elected not to protest, feeling that the interference occurred too close to the line to be decisive.

With the order unchanged, it was a 1.75l margin between Griff and Veight, whilst Steparty (Aus) (Artie Schiller) was 1l further away in third. It was a huge result for Widden Stud’s second-season sire Trapeze Artist, who, by holding off his contemporary Grunt (NZ) in such a rich 3-year-old feature, is now the highest-earning sire in his category.

A promising first crop of juveniles last year included not only Griff—a debut winner in June—but three stakes performers. However, it was Griff himself who broke the black-type duck for the young sire with victory in the Listed Exford Plate last month, and came to Caulfield having backed that up by winning the G2 Stutt S.

Griff, running in the emerging colours of Sean Griffiths, was unfancied at A$31, reflecting a hot renewal with the likes of G1 Golden Rose winner Militarize (NZ) (Dundeel {NZ}) and the formerly unbeaten Steparty leading the market.

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Widden Stud Australia and Mr. A Goonan, Griff was sold by Widden to Kavanagh Racing Stables for A$80,000 at the 2022 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale. The winner of half of his eight starts, the bay is the second foal for the Group 3 Blue Diamond Preview placed Chateau Griffo (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}), whose first foal is the city placed three times winner Social Conscience (Aus) (Capitalist {Aus}). Last month foaling a colt by I Am Immortal (Aus) after producing a colt by North Pacific (Aus) last spring, Chateau Griffo is out of the stakes placed Moulin Rouge (Aus) (Commands {Aus}), in turn, daughter of the stakes placed Dance Class (NZ) (Bin Ajwaad {Ire}) whose grandam is the Listed Maribyrnong Trial S. winner Western Music (NZ) (Western Symphony).

JEWEL FAILS TO SHINE, ATTRITION WINS

TOORAK by TTR AusNZ

Churchill (Ire) landed his first Southern Hemisphere Group 1 winner courtesy of Attrition (Aus) to close the card on a brilliant day of racing in the Toorak H. at Caulfield. The 4-year-old entire was mighty tough as he picked off Amanable (Aus) (Lonrho (Aus)) with 100 metres to run before holding back the challenge of Antino (NZ) (Redwood [GB]), who finished just a nose behind. Beaten only a handful of times in her career, star of the west Amelia’s Jewel (Aus) (Siyouni (Fr)) left her connections searching for answers after she posted the first below-par run of her career, throwing into doubt her high-profile choice of targets in the Golden Eagle and G1 Cox Plate.

The 143rd running of the Toorak provided landmark wins for trainer Mitchell Freedman and jockey Beau Mertens, with each claiming their first Group 1 title thanks to Attrition.

Pedigree Notes

Attrition was bred by Harry Perks's The Toorak Thoroughbred Breeding Trust, who also enjoyed stakes success today with Air Assault (Aus) (Justify) in Adelaide. Sold by Mill Park Stud to Mitch Freedman for $180,000 at the 2021 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, Attrition is out of the triple city winner Queen's Kiss (Aus) (French Deputy). Another five of her foals are winners, including the Listed C.S Hayes Memorial Cup winner Royal Rumble (Aus) (New Approach {Ire}) and the city winners Goodfun Girl (Aus) (Starcraft [NZ]), Stately Star (Aus) (Rebel Raider [Aus]) and Danger Deal (Aus) (Rebel Raider [Aus]). A granddaughter of the triple Listed winner Loving Cup (Aus) (Bluebird), Queen’s Kiss was served last spring by Earthlight (Ire), having foaled a full-brother to Attrition. She’d had the previous season off, with her most recent named foal being the 3-year-old Mount Mumukai (Aus) (Kermadec [NZ]), who was third in a Flemington jump-out just yesterday for the Danny O'Brien stable.

MCDONALD AND WALLER GET THE KING'S CROWN by TTR AusNZ

After a sensational victory aboard the Chris Waller-trained Fangirl (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) in the A$5-million G1 King Charles III S., Champion Jockey James McDonald was joyful.

“I wanted The King's crown (trophy),” a pleased McDonald told 7HorseRacing. “She’s been trialling with those Everest horses, and she’s been going that well she could have probably got a slot; that’s how good she’s been going.

“Her ears were pricked, and she had an eagle eye on her. She’s been such a good horse; she’s very hard to beat when she gets the conditions.”

The inaugural running of The King Charles III, under a new moniker and time slot, provided a worthy albeit upset victress when Fangirl streaked away from the hugely popular Mr Brightside (NZ) (Bullbars {Aus}), while My Oberon (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) ran third.

Pedigree Notes

One of her late sire's 82 stakes winners (and eight Group 1 winners), the Ingham racing home-bred is one of five winners for her triple listed winning dam Little Surfer Girl (Aus) (an A$1.5 million yearling by Encosta De Lago {Aus}), daughter of the wonderful mare Special Harmony (Aus) (Spinning World) who won 10 races, three of those at Group 1 level.

Recently foaling a Home Affairs (Aus) colt, Little Surfer Girl had a Woottton Bassett (GB) filly last year, having missed the season before with her previous foal being the yet-to -race 3-year-old Wipeout (Aus) (Pariah {Aus}); also a member of the Waller stable, Little Surfer Girl has also produced the city winners Dancing Gidget (Aus) (Al Maher {Aus}) and Palamateer (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), with the latter being the dam of the stakes placed 3-year-old Cigar Flick (Aus) (Churchill {Ire}).

ALLIGATOR BLOOD IN A CLASS OF HIS OWN by TTR AusNZ

Alligator Blood (Aus) (All Too Hard {Aus}) silenced his doubters when running out a strong 2000 metres with a dominant victory in Saturday's G1 Might And Power S. The 7-year-old gelding, trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, was winning at the elite level for the seventh time.

Deny Knowledge (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) set a strong pace, as she often does, bowling out in front before tiring with Tim Clark in the saddle of Alligator Blood, ready to pounce. Cont. p25

There was 2l spare on the line between the son of All Too Hard and the 2019 Melbourne Cup hero Vow And Declare (Aus) (Declaration Of War) in second, while Duais (Aus) (Shamus Award {Aus}) ran into third.

“Alligator just said, ‘See you later, Alligator’,” a jubilant Waterhouse said.

“He just did it so easy; he’s joyous. Alligator Blood is special and tough; we are very privileged to witness a horse like him.”

Pedigree Notes

Successful at Group 1 level for the seventh time, the tough (remember he has returned from kissing spine surgery!) 7-year-old has now won over A$7.4 million in stakes. Purchased by the Ezybonds No 1 Syndicate for A$55,000 at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, the popular gelding was bred by Gerry Harvey and prepared for the sale by his Baramul Stud. One of the 23 stakes winners for his Vinery Stud based four times Group 1 winner, Alligator Blood is out of the unraced Lake Superior (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) who sadly died young, having had only four live foals, Alligator Blood the last of those.

LADIES MAN TAKES OUT THE LIVAMOL CLASSIC by TTR AusNZ

The Allan Sharrock-trained Ladies Man (NZ) provided Zed (NZ), the sire of the superstar Verry Elleegant (NZ), with his third individual Group 1 winner when the 6-year-old gelding won the G1 Livamol Classic at Hastings on Saturday.

The gelding was ridden by Ryan Elliott, Ladies Man won by 0.8l from Platinum Invador (NZ) (Redwood {GB}) and Pearl Of Alsace (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}), while the race favourite Mustang Valley (NZ) (Vanburgh {Aus}) was fourth over 3l away.

Ladies Man, albeit not winning at the Group 1 level until Saturday, has been a consistent performer for Zed, winning the G3 Trentham S. The gelding is a half-brother to the G1 Auckland Cup winner Ladies First (NZ) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}).

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Grangewilliam Stud and sold by them to S A Sharrock for NZ$60,000 at the 2019 New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale (Book 2), Ladies Man is one of his regally bred sire’s 17 stakes winners. He is one of two for G3 Kingston Town S. winner Just Polite (Dehere) whose daughter Ladies First (NZ) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) won the 2018 G1 Auckland Cup. Last spring served by The Bold One (Aus), Just Polite foaled a full-brother to Ladies Man last year, and her 3-year-old is also by Zed--the Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young trained Zediquette (NZ).
