

DUBAI WORLD CUP A TRULY INTERNATIONAL GATHERING

Ushba Tesoro is ready to become the second two-time Dubai World Cup winner | Dubai Racing Club/Liesl King

by Alan Carasso

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES -- Meydan Racecourse is the centre of the racing universe Saturday, as it stages the 28th renewal of the G1 Dubai World Cup. The dozen horses that have been entered represent ownership interests from Japan, America, Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, Kazakhstan and even Libya, putting the 'World' in World Cup. DERBY WINNER MAKES 2024 BOW IN OSAKA HAI by Heather Anderson

Despite an ever-growing Japanese presence at the Dubai World Cup meeting in the UAE, Sunday's 2000-metre G1 Osaka Hai at Hanshin still boasts five Group 1 winners, four of them Classic scorers and several other progressive types hunting for their first Group 1 ring.

One of the top picks in the 16-strong field is last year's G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner, Tastiera (Jpn) (Satono Crown {Jpn}), who ran second in both the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas)--to Sol Oriens (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn})--and the G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St Leger) on either side of his Derby win from May to October, and lines up for his 2024 bow. Sixth with traffic trouble behind G1 Dubai Turf hope Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) in the G1 Arima Kinen in December, he will break from gate three.

Trainer Noriyuki Hori said, "His appetite has been good, and better than it was before the Arima Kinen, so he's healthy and in good condition overall. He's been training solo and running well, with some power still in reserve. We've been careful not to overwork him, getting him just to stretch out at the finish in training. His breathing is good as well. While his footwork is still a little heavy, I have a good image of him going into this race."

RACE PREVIEWS

Dubai World Cup Night Previews Cont. from p1

Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) is back to defend the title he grabbed in 2023 and will attempt to join Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) as two-time World Cup winners. The 7-year-old has made a tremendous impression as one of the first horses to grace the Meydan dirt track each morning, his bright yellow tack announcing his arrival. The only difference between this year and last is that he is a known commodity this time around.

He was mugged on the wire by Senor Buscador (Mineshaft) in last month's G1 Saudi Cup, but Saturday's two-turn configuration in addition to the added distance could tip the scales in his favour. He will sit a trip worse than midfield and will come after them late beneath Yuga Kawada.

"The gate doesn't matter for him as he will race from behind anyway," said trainer Noboru Takagi. "He has recovered well from the Saudi Cup and is in good form."

Senor Buscador is the main American chance as he tries to become the first to complete the Saudi Cup/World Cup double. A hard-charging second in the G1 Pegasus World Cup Invitational in January prior to his Saudi Cup surprise, the 6-year-old will also save his best for last and hope there is ample pace up ahead. Senor Buscador breaks from gate 10 with Junior Alvarado back in the saddle.

"Very happy," said owner Joe Peacock Jnr after Wednesday's barrier draw. "We wanted outside and we got outside."

Kazakh-owned Kabirkhan is the spitting image of his sire California Chrome, who won this in 2016, and has been the story in world horse racing in 2024. Eight for nine at home and subsequently in Russia, the $12,000 Keeneland September yearling dominated his rivals in two starts at the Carnival, including the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Jan. 26.

"He's got to step it up, but we think he can," said trainer Doug Watson. "He has shown that he likes the track. He stays the trip, but he has the pace to keep him competitive in the race early and hopefully he can finish it off."

Last year's G2 UAE Derby winner Derma Sotogake (Jpn), a son of dual G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen hero Mind Your Biscuits, was runner-up in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic off a five-month absence, but got a World Cup tightener when a sound fifth in the Saudi Cup. Look for him to be positively ridden by Christophe Lemaire and in position to get the first crack at them when push comes to shove. Cont. p5

Two sons of the mighty Into Mischief line up for the World Cup. GI Santa Anita H. winner Newgate can give both trainer Bob Baffert and jockey Frankie Dettori their fifth World Cups, while towering last-out G3 Burj Nahaar (1600m) winner Laurel River will see how far he can carry his speed from gate 12 in this first go at the 2000 metres.

Stars Align For Dubai Sheema Classic

The $6-million G1 Longines Dubai Sheema Classic was undoubtedly one of the strongest races run on the international stage in 2023. Not only did it produce an outstanding winner in Equinox (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn})--later named the Longines World's Best Racehorse--but those who chased the Japanese champion home were a decorated bunch in their own right, including Juddmonte's G1 Irish Derby winner Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Shadwell's Mostahdaf (GB) (Frankel), who later won the G1 Prince Of Wales's S. and G1 Juddmonte International back on home soil.

Among those finished down the field were the 2022 hero Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Godolphin's 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), both of whom are back for more on Saturday. However, if their connections were hoping for a soft touch this year, then they're likely to be disappointed as the Dubai Sheema Classic has once again brought together a collection of the finest thoroughbreds on the planet, featuring no fewer than 10 individual top-level winners.

Hideaki Fujiwara's Shahryar is one of four Japanese-trained runners in the field, with the others including last year's Triple Tiara heroine Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}), who was last seen filling the runner-up spot behind Equinox in the G1 Japan Cup at Tokyo in November. Like Shahryar, Liberty Island sports the familiar colours of Sunday Racing Co. Ltd., the ownership group which memorably won this race with Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact) in 2014.

Japanese champion jockey Yuga Kawada, who takes the mount on Liberty Island, said of Mitsumasa Nakauchida's filly, "This is her first time travelling internationally and all has gone well so far. It is an honour to represent Japan with a filly like her and I hope she can show fans all over the world just how good she is."

Stars On Earth (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) and Justin Palace (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) complete the Japanese contingent as they return after finishing second and fourth, respectively, behind G1 Dubai Turf contender Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) in the G1 Arima Kinen at Nakayama in December. Stars On Earth had previously won the first two legs of the Triple Tiara in 2022 and finished just a length behind Liberty Island when third in the latest running of the Japan Cup, while Justin Palace gained the sole Group 1 success of his career thus far when winning the Tenno Sho (Spring) at Kyoto last April.

"We believe that the flat track at Meydan will suit him," said Justin Palace's trainer Haruki Sugiyama. "Hopefully, this might be the first step on a journey around the world this year."

Rebel's Romance is as well travelled as any horse in the field and he had three runners from the Far East immediately behind him when winning last month's $2.5-million G3 H.H. The Amir Trophy in Qatar.

However, perhaps the biggest threat to the Japanese team in this contest is the horse who claimed Rebel's Romance's Breeders' Cup Turf crown at Santa Anita in November, namely Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), the blue-blooded colt from Ballydoyle who also won the G1 Derby, G1 Irish Derby and G1 Irish Champion S. in an exceptional three-year-old campaign. Incidentally, this will be the first time that two winners of the Breeders' Cup Turf have clashed since Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Talismanic (GB) (Medaglia d'Oro) both ran in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in 2017. Cont. p5

Auguste Rodin | Erika Rasmussen

Trainer Aidan O'Brien said of Auguste Rodin, "We feel he has matured well from three to four and it goes without saying that we are very excited to get him going again. The horse did all his own talking on the track last year, but we really do think that he is a very important horse for the thoroughbred breed. It is a huge thrill to have him back and we can't wait to see him race."

Andre Fabre's Junko (GB) (Intello {Ger}) won the latest edition of the Hong Kong Vase in December and is better judged on that form having been beaten at short odds in a conditions event on the all-weather at Chantilly last time, while British raiders Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and Spirit Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}) both merit consideration, too.

G2 Bahrain International Trophy and G2 Neom Turf Cup winner Spirit Dancer has race fitness on his side following a productive winter in the Middle East for Richard Fahey and owner/breeder Sir Alex Ferguson, the former Manchester United manager. Emily Upjohn, on the other hand, has an eight-month absence to contend with, but she's in good hands with John and Thady Gosden and her class isn't in question if she returns in the same sort of form she was in when winning last year's G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom.

The first two from the G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin at Hoppegarten last August, Simca Mille (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and

Sisfahan (Fr) (Isfahan {Ger}), complete the field together with Auguste Rodin's stablemate Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia {GB}). Former Stephane Wattel trainee Simca Mille is now based in Qatar with Alban de Mieulle and was last seen finishing sixth in the H.H. The Amir Trophy where Point Lonsdale was last of the 11 runners. --Adam Houghton

Lord North Goes for Historic Four-Peat, but Plenty of Obstacles in His Path

Remarkably, the three-time defending winner of the $5-million G1 Dubai Turf--the venerable Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--is not the sole story going in to the 1800-metre event this year. In a testament to the quality attracted by this race and Dubai's World Cup card overall, the John and Thady Gosden trainee is one of several who will fetch the attention of punters the world over in the Turf. The 8-year-old bay gelding has annually made the trip to Dubai, enjoyed the spoils of the desert, and returned to England with mixed results back home. Between his 2021 and 2022 Turf wins, Lord North had only one start--a runner-up finish in the G3 Winter Derby over Lingfield's all-weather surface, a pattern he has repeated to the letter coming in to Saturday's race: a 2023 Dubai Turf win and a second in the Feb. 24 Winter Derby, this time at Southwell. Cont. p6

Lord North and Frankie Dettori training at Meydan earlier this week | Dubai Racing Club

A win in any race four years running is nearly unheard of; if Lord North is able to do it in this storied Group 1 event, he will surely go down in racing's annals as a legend. His usual Meydan partner Frankie Dettori will be aboard.

"After his win in the race last year we decided to give him a proper break, so he went to Godolphin and had a lovely time in a paddock," said John Gosden. "He's training well and we're confident he'll put up a very bold show."

However, Lord North does not have an easy task, starting with his own barn. Three-time Group 1 winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Nashwa (GB) (Frankel {GB}) has given her own gender all they could handle and has switched to facing the boys, where she held her own against the likes of superstar Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), in her last three starts to close out 2023. She gets a five-pound break in the weights here.

Japanese horses, so often in starring roles internationally over the last few years, will be tough here, led by last-out G1 Arima Kinen Grand Prix victor Do Deuce (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Trainer Yasuo Tomomichi thinks enough of his charge—who defeated the aforementioned Equinox in the G1 Japanese Derby two years back—that they tackled the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in 2022 only to run into soft ground, a handicap that won't be a risk in Dubai.

Charlie Appleby sends five-for-six Measured Time (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a half-brother to Breeders' Cup winner Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) who has been part of his Meydan string over the winter and flourished with wins over this surface including the G1 Jebel Hatta Jan. 26, while American conditioner Michael Stidham has shipped over last-out G1 Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational third Catnip (Kitten's Joy), a longshot here who has caught the eye during morning training. Hong Kong is also well represented with two-back G1 Stewards' Cup winner Voyage Bubble (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}), a Sha Tin specialist who has honed his talent against the best in that locality.

Sibelius Follows Tried And True Path To Shaheen

Jun Park and Delia Nash's Sibelius (Not This Time) has looked very much at home at Meydan this week, and the popular chestnut has charted the identical course into the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen as he did when sneaking through at the fence to score in 2023.

The chestnut went off form after returning home last summer, but it appears that it is at this time of the year that he comes good. Cont. p7

Like last year, Sibelius won the GIII Mr. Prospector S. at Gulfstream Park in December and followed that up with a hard-fought and wide-trip victory in the Feb. 10 Pelican S. at Tampa Bay Downs. Ryan Moore has the call once again.

"If anything, I'm more confident coming in this year as we know he handles things here," said trainer Jerry O'Dwyer. "We've tried to keep things like last year as much as possible."

Remake (Jpn) is another of Saturday's entrants produced by a World Cup night-winning stallion, in this case the 2016 G2 UAE Derby scorer Lani. A homebred for the Maeda family's North Hills Farm, the chestnut was a slow-starting, but fast-finishing fifth in this last year and bounced back from a defeat at the hooves of Igniter (Jpn) (Espoir City {Jpn}) in the Listed JBC Sprint in November to take out last month's G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint with a fair bit of authority. Successful though they have been at this meeting and in Saudi, Japan has never gone home with the Golden Shaheen hardware.

American-based sprinters number five in this year's Golden Shaheen, and Run Classic (Runhappy) is in with longshot claims. A three-time winner from 11 starts for trainer Bret Calhoun, the $475,000 OBS March breezer was first-up for over nine months in the Feb. 24 Gulfstream Park Sprint and he produced a terrific late kick down the centre of the track to win in his first run for trainer Jose D'Angelo. Also representing the U.S. are Hopkins (Quality Road), a pacesetter fourth last year; and Nakatomi (Firing Line), third in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint before finishing a troubled third in the Pelican.

The local challenge includes G3 Al Shindagha Sprint romper Mouheeb (Flatter) and Leading Spirit (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), who beat Freedom Fighter (Violence) in the G3 Mahab al Shimaal on Super Saturday. --Alan Carasso

Hong Kong's Spangle To Add Al Quoz To Haul?

Versatile sprinters are not a rare commodity in Hong Kong, and California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) is aiming to become the first winner of the $1.5-million 1200-metre G1 Al Quoz Sprint from that locality since Amber Sky (Aus) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) set a still-standing record of :56.21 when the Al Quoz Sprint was held over the minimum trip back in 2014.

Trained by Tony Cruz, the gelding proved triumphant in the G1 Hong Kong Mile back in 2022, and doubled his top-level tally with a one-length win in the G1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin earlier this month.

"I believe this horse is a sprinter-miler, I believe he can run the 1200 metres," said Cruz of California Spangle, who will break from stall five. "We've been lucky at a mile many times, because that's where the big races are in Hong Kong, but I think with a strong pace he can do the 1200 metres here."

American Hall of Famer Bill Mott will saddle four-time Grade I winner Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed), who is also cutting back in trip after a third in the 2024 GI Breeders' Cup Mile. A two-time winner of the GI Jaipur S. over this trip, the 7-year-old entire will be ridden by Luis Saez and leave from gate six in the 12-horse field.

"He's really been a sound horse and he's always had the desire to do it," Mott assistant Neil Poznansky said of the 8-year-old Casa Creed. "He always runs well fresh and I think the cutback to six furlongs should not be an issue."

No horse has ever won the Al Quoz twice, regardless of the distance, and the 2023 victor, Danyah (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), shocked the field at 33-1, with Sight Success (Aus) (Magnus {Aus}) fourth. Now seven, the Shadwell gelding has been specially prepared with this race in mind and enters off a third-place finish in the G2 Al Fahidi Fort over 1400 metres on Jan. 26. Cont. p8

"This has been the aim all season and we have brought him on slowly with this in mind," trainer Musabbeh Al Mheiri said. "He surprised everyone last season and I think he has a good chance of repeating last year's success."

A pair of 3-year-old fillies take on males and receive a 13-pound pull in the weights in Abdulla Al Mansoori's Frost At Dawn (Frosted), successful with a record-breaking effort in the G3 Nad Al Sheba Turf Sprint over 1000 metres on Super Saturday, and her Turf Sprint runner-up, Godolphin's Star Of Mystery (GB) (Kodiac {GB}). The latter, who was second in the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. last July, won the G2 Blue Point Sprint, defeating Czechoslovakian Horse of the Year Ponntos (Ire) (Power {GB}), for trainer Charlie Appleby in January.

William Knight, who trains Frost At Dawn, said, "To go into a Group 1 with a real chance is quite exciting. Her win on Super Saturday was no fluke and that she broke the track record gives me a bit of confidence. Mickael [Barzalona] is going to ride her, which is great, as they obviously get on well."

Japan's Forever Young the Horse to Beat in UAE Derby

The lone GI Kentucky Derby prep race off U.S. shores worth 100 points to the winner--essentially guaranteeing a spot in the starting gate on the first Saturday in May--the G2 UAE Derby has an overwhelming favorite this year in Susumu Fujita's Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}). All eyes will be on the undefeated Yoshito Yahagi trainee, who blew through three Japanese dirt starts by open daylight last fall before bursting onto the world stage with a dramatic last-stride head win over Book 'em Danno (Bucchero) in the G3 Saudi Derby on Feb. 24 in his sophomore debut. Yahagi indicated after the Saudi Derby that the Kentucky Derby was very much on the 2022 JRHA yearling sale graduate's dance card. On a race day loaded with top Japanese threats, Forever Young--on paper, anyway--looks to have the easiest assignment of his countrymen.

Forever Young will have to get by America's Pandagate (Arrogate), who shipped to Dubai after a blowout win against New York-breds Feb. 25 in Aqueduct's Gander S. The grey has turned heads this week as the spitting image of his sire, whose own performance in Dubai in 2017 remains the stuff of legends. Christophe Clement aims to become only the second U.S.-based trainer to use a Meydan win for an American horse's launching pad to Kentucky following Brendan Walsh's victory with Plus Que Parfait (Point of Entry) in 2019.

Mendelssohn Bay (Mendelssohn) from the Bhupat Seemar barn has to rank as the top local hope with a keen win in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas over this surface Jan. 26, while his stablemate Guns And Glory (Gun Runner) may not yet be as accomplished, but is in sharp form with a geared-down 12-length blowout Mar. 8 over this surface.

Earlier this week, Seemar called Guns And Glory "a bit of a playboy, [but] he is a very-high class horse." He also said the two months since Mendelssohn Bay's last start has benefitted that runner.

"I think it was a very good decision to miss Super Saturday and come directly to the Derby. He has filled out and he looks different with a nice coat on him. He has got plenty of stamina in his pedigree. We don't know how good he is but we'll find out on Saturday."

Aidan O'Brien looks to win the UAE Derby for the fourth time since 2012 and brings Irish Group 3 winner Henry Adams (Ire) (No Nay Never), who will be making his first start since October and will have his first go on the dirt.

"Henry Adams is a lovely, big, uncomplicated horse," said O'Brien. "He's a No Nay Never horse so he could be interesting on the dirt. We will be guided by how he goes there in Dubai as to what he does afterwards."

O'Brien will also saddle Navy Seal (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Saudi Crown Clashes with Isolate in Godolphin Mile

A pair of 2024 G1 Saudi Cup runners will lock horns once again in the $1-million G2 Godolphin Mile to kickstart the Thoroughbred action at Meydan on Saturday. FMQ Stables' Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming), just got caught in the final few jumps when third after setting the pace in that February affair over 1800 metres in Riyadh, and will be cutting back to the metric mile for the first time since running second in the GIII Dwyer S. in July of 2023. Cont. p9

He leaves from stall nine and Florent Geroux is at the controls.

“He’s doing very well, he arrived on Feb. 26, settled in, and he’s had three works over the track,” said trainer Brad Cox of the grey. “He ran well [in Saudi], but I love the way he’s bounced out of it and he continues to improve.”

Defending champion and G2 Al Maktoum Mile winner Isolate (Mark Valeski) is one of five 2023 winners returning to attempt and retain their DWC crowns, and UAE multiple champion trainer Doug Watson has the 6-year-old primed for this assignment. Sixth in the Saudi Cup to G1 Dubai World Cup entrant Senor Buscador (Mineshaft), he is paired with Luis Saez and they will leave from gate 11.

“He came off the track on his hind legs this morning, so we were all excited about that,” said Watson. “The draw isn’t great but Saudi Crown is stall nine and they’re the true speed in the race. The others might try to go but I think from out there it will be those two vying for the lead. He’s in great form and he loves this track.”

Rabbah Racing’s Swing Vote (GB) (Shamardal), who landed the G3 Jebel Ali Mile on Feb. 10, is booked in gate five. The gelding turned in a strong piece of work on Tuesday, and was last seen running fifth to Laurel River (Into Mischief) and Qareeb (Speightstown) in the G3 Burj Nahaar on Super Saturday.

“He’s doing well. He looked great on the track and Ross [Atkinson, work rider] was very happy with him,” said co-trainer Ed Crisford. “That should put him spot on for Saturday.”

Cup night and it features a rematch between the three horses who dominated last month's G3 Red Sea Turf H. in Riyadh.

Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was the narrow victor on that occasion, staying on strongly under a never-say-die ride from Ryan Moore to beat Enemy (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) by a head, with Giavellotto (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire})--who was conceding weight to that pair--not far behind in third. The British-based trainers of the placed horses, Ian Williams and Marco Botti, respectively, will be optimistic of reversing the form with the winner, though the four-year-old Tower Of London remains relatively unexposed at the 3200-metre distance and could have more to offer for Aidan O'Brien.

Trawlerman (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}), who took the scalp of O'Brien's star stayer Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) when winning the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup at Ascot in October, is another leading contender from Britain for John and Thady Gosden. He carries the first colours of Godolphin, with the white cap being sported by Charlie Appleby's Siskany (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), last year's runner-up who won the G3 Nad Al Sheba Trophy for the second year in succession on his most recent outing.

The Andrew Balding-trained Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) finished down the field behind Trawlerman when making his final start of last season in the Long Distance Cup, but he'd been a model of consistency prior to that with wins in the G3 Sagaro S. and G2 Lonsdale Cup--plus a runner-up finish in the G1 Gold Cup--to show for his efforts. A below-par seventh in the Gold Cup was Eldar Eldarov (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), but he bounced back later in the campaign when landing the G1 Irish St Leger at the Curragh, his second Classic success having also won the English equivalent in 2022. Introduced over six furlongs at Southwell in early January, Cuban Tiger showed battling qualities to get off the mark before succumbing to Godolphin's Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Kempton's European Road To The Kentucky Derby Conditions S. over a mile the following month. Covered up early behind the leaders, the enthusiastic traveller stayed on best to overhaul Sayedaty Sadaty in the final half furlong and register the first black-type breakthrough.

"He is an honest horse, very kind, and has a great temperament," trainer Karl Burke said. "He loves that surface, he's a good-moving horse and I don't think he'd want soft ground. He might get more than a mile as he does have stamina on the dam side, but I don't think he really needs to stay more than a mile. I think we were beaten by a really good horse of Charlie Appleby's at Kempton--I know William Buick really likes him. We will sit and wait now, and have a word with his owner Sheikh Mohammed Obaid about where we go next. We have a big team of three-year-olds and there is some really nice stuff there. Hopefully, they will all stay in one piece."

The dam, who was second for the Ramseys in the G3 Premio Mario Incisa and third in the G3 Premio Dormello, is a half to the dual stakes winner Picou (With Approval). Her 2-year-old filly Storm Kitty (GB) is by Outstrip (GB), while she also has a yearling filly by U S Navy Flag named Bushido (GB).

ELEGANT MAN (c, 4, Arrogate--Her Smile {GISW, $462,314}, by Include), second to Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Kempton's Listed Wild Flower S. in December before staging a winning return at Dundalk in January, tanked his way to the lead soon after the start of this feature All-Weather Easter Classic Middle Distance Handicap. Cont. p12

Taken over to the stand's rail after turning in, the 11-4 favourite stayed on strongly to score by 1 1/4 lengths from Penzance (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) (Dansili). "Elegant Man is a class horse. It was a huge performance," trainer Adrian Murray said. "He came with a very high reputation. He is still quite unexposed and is improving all the time. We had a bad draw today, but we still thought we had the horse to do it. We will aim at a Group 2 or Group 3 and we can even step him up to a mile and a half. He has plenty of stamina and, going forward, I think there is even more improvement in him." Jockey David Egan added, "He's a horse having his fourth start and carried top weight in a £200,000 handicap and he's won like that. He is a very classy horse. Whether he is a group horse or not I don't know, but he definitely looks one, that's for sure. I have never ridden a horse who had so many compliments at the start by other jockeys, so that's always a good sign. A good horse always looks good." The dam, who captured the GI Prioress S. and was third in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint and GI Acorn S., has produced the GII Inside Information S. and GIII Rampart S. winner Pink Sands (Tapit), the GIII Robert B. Lewis S.-placed Wharton (Candy Ride {Arg}) and the stakes-placed Value Area (More Than Ready). Bred to Tapit last year, she is kin to the dam of Tricks to Doo (Into Mischief) who took the Inaugural S. and was third in the GIII Hutcheson S. Sales history: $115,000 Ylg '21 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 4-3-1-0, $160,391. O-Amo Racing Limited; B-KatieRich Farms (KY); T-Adrian Murray.

3rd-Newcastle, £150,000, Hcp, 3-29, 3yo, 6f (AWT), 1:11.27, st.

FIRE DEMON (GB) (c, 3, Dark Angel {Ire}--Lilyfire, by First Defence), who took a handicap over this trip at Kempton last month, travelled strongly towards the rear throughout the early stages of this All-Weather 3 Year Old Championships Handicap. Making ground steadily under pressure inside the final two furlongs, the 9-4 favourite stayed on to head Cross The Tracks (GB) (Rajasinghe {Ire}) with 50 yards remaining en route to a length success. "A stiff six furlongs probably does suit him. If he was on a different continent, you'd imagine that he would get a mile going two turns in America," jockey Oisin Murphy said. "He is really straightforward to ride now. We ran him over seven furlongs a few times early on, where he led and didn't quite finish, but this sort of test really suits him."

The dam's first three foals were the G2 Duchess Of Cambridge S. third Chaleur (GB) (Dansili {GB}), the G3 Ballysax S. third Dalvey (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and the G2 Linlithgow S. winner Old Flame (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). She is a daughter of the GII Dahlia H. winner Didina (GB) (Nashwan), who is also the second dam of Juddmonte's bigwigs Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) and Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Also related to the G2 Gimcrack S.-winning sire Ajaya (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the G3 Rose of Lancaster S. winner Extra Elusive (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), her 2-year-old filly Tabiti (GB) is by Kingman (GB), while she also has a yearling filly by New Bay (GB). CLOUD COVER (IRE) (f, 4, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Hokkaido {GB}, by Street Cry {Ire}), who had won three of her last five starts on the all-weather, was keen early anchored in rear in this Fillies' And Mares' Championships H. Making smooth progress between rivals passing the furlong pole, the 10-1 shot was coaxed to Just A Spark (GB) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) 50 yards out and eased clear from there to score comfortably by a length. Philip Robinson, representing owner Saeed Manana, said of the winner, "She has to come late and when Clifford came into the paddock and asked what his orders are, I said, 'ride as if you want to be placed and then try to win the race, just don't get there too soon'. Clifford got it absolutely perfect." The unraced dam is a half to the G1 Prix Saint-Alary and G1 Prix de la Nonette winner Sobetsu (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is in turn the dam of the G2 Balanchine scorer English Rose (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). This is the family of Generous (Ire) and Imagine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Lifetime Record: 11-5-2-0, $139,078.

Favoured for Sunday's test is filly-on-the-up Harper (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Ninth in the Arima Kinen after a midpack trip, that effort does not reflect her true merits, as the 2023 G3 Daily Hai Nisai Queen victress ran fourth in the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas), second in the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) and third in the G1 Shuka Sho (Japanese Fillies' St Leger), all to turf superstar Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}), who is competing in arguably the race-of-the-year at Meydan on Saturday, the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic.

Tastiera | Japan Racing Association

"She had a break at Northern Farm Shigaraki, with this next race in mind," said trainer Yasuo Tomomichi. "She's handled her workload in training well, and her reactions at the finish have been good. The weather on the day is an issue, but I'm not particularly worried about soft ground for her."

Although left with too much to do when too far back to be eighth contesting the G1 Hong Kong Cup during the Longines Hong Kong International Races, Sunday Racing's Rousham Park (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) won both the G3 Hakodate Kinen and G2 Sankei Sho All Comers S. in succession in July and September of 2023.

"He's still a horse that's improving, and since before, I've seen him filling out and getting into better shape," said trainer Hiroyasu Tanaka. "His appetite's been better on his return to the stable this time. I've been pleased with him physically so far this year, but there's just a bit more for him to improve on mentally."

Fourth choice Pradaria (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) defeated Bellagio Opera (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) in the G2 Kyoto Kinen, and will be shortening up 200 metres. He will break from gate eight.

Said conditioner Manabu Ikezoe, "He's had the same training pattern as before his last race. His rider has been pleased with his work, and says his footwork is good. His times have been fine, including a final furlong time of :11.3 seconds, and he's improving going into this race. Soft ground wouldn't be a worry, and it's mostly about how he'll handle the flow of things in the race itself. He has another good chance to win."

A winner of the 2022 edition of the Fillies' St Leger, Stunning Rose (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) is aiming for redemption, as are fellow Group 1 winners Geoglyph (Jpn) (Drefong) and Killer Ability (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}). The last-named horse won the G1 Hopeful S. back in 2021, and is making his first start back in Japan after running with credit when second to Spirit Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 Neom Turf Cup in Saudi Arabia on February.

Rail-drawn Mikki Gorgeous (Jpn) (Mikki Rocket {Jpn}) is a live longshot, and, although she is 17-1 in the ante-post betting, she has compiled a three-straight winning streak, including the G3 Aichi Hai over this trip at Kokura on Jan. 13.

SENIOR BUSCADOR LEADS AMERICAN CHALLENGE ON DUBAI WORLD CUP NIGHT

Senior Buscador | Erika Rasmussen

by Alan Carasso

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES -- The 28th running of the $12-million G1 Dubai World Cup is set for Saturday at sprawling Meydan Racecourse and has attracted an internationally flavored field of 12, a third of which are based in various parts of the U.S.

Senior Buscador (Mineshaft) will attempt to make history as the first to sweep the 'Desert Double,' having caused a surprise when just touching off the re-opposing World Cup champion Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) 600 miles to the west of here in the G1 Saudi Cup five weeks ago.

Newgate (Into Mischief), one of two in the race for his all-conquering sire alongside Juddmonte's stretching-out Laurel River, exits a victory in the GI Santa Anita H. and goes out for the team of trainer Bob Baffert and jockey Frankie Dettori, successful with Country Grammer (Tonalist) in 2022. The progressive Crupi, a son of 2008 World Cup hero Curlin, and Grade II winner Clapton (Brethren) round out the quartet.

American horses have won 13 of the 27 previous runnings of the World Cup.

THE TWO TOWERS OF GRADED STAKES, OAKLAWN AND GULFSTREAM, ALIGN SATURDAY by J.N. Campbell

If you do not happen to be a Lord of the Rings devotee, then as a horse racing fan you might assume that Gandalf, Frodo, Saruman and Sauron were just names some eccentric owners concocted to toy with The Jockey Club.

Well, for true disciples of Tolkein, you understand the 'Two Towers' reference is a major theme in the trilogy, but for our purposes it simply denotes coverage.

This Saturday, both Oaklawn Park and Gulfstream Park are those poles of power when it comes to authoring graded stakes. Their cards feature Kentucky Derby and Oaks points races.

So, get your palantir ready--alright, alright--here is the slate for Saturday.

“Everybody knows Gulfstream two-turn races are tricky and I think that’s why the start is so important, getting away cleanly. I think what happens in a lot of these two-turn races is the jockeys are so conscious of having to get to the first turn in good position that it can get a little rough leaving the gate sometimes. ... The horse gives you a lot of confidence watching him breeze. It seems like he’s in really good form, so we’re expecting a good performance from him.”

Among the other challengers who are chasing the 100-point Churchill Downs offering is another 'Rising Star'. Conquest Warrior (City of Light) garnered honors from the paper when he won by five lengths going nine furlongs against optional claimers in Hallandale Mar. 1.

“I feel good,” said Hall of Fame trainer Shug McGaughey about Conquest Warrior. “We’ve had two good races here and I still have a pretty fresh horse. He’s trained good over it. He’s had a race going a mile and an eighth here, which he handled, obviously, very easily. He came out of it good. I don’t think we took anything out of him.”

In the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks--the local 100-point Kentucky Oaks feeder--'TDN Rising Star' Ways and Means (Practical Joke) gets back on track for trainer Chad Brown. The Klaravich homebred debuted a winner by 12 3/4 lengths at Saratoga last summer and was last seen running second in the GI Spinaway S. upstate.

Standing in her way is the heroine of the GII Davona Dale S., Fiona's Magic (St Patrick's Day), and Power Squeeze (Union Rags), who returns to South Florida after raiding the Suncoast S. at Tampa Bay Downs.

The Gulfstream Park undercard has three other graded races as part of the program, including the GII Pan American S., the GIII Ghostzapper S. and the GIII Orchid S.

HIWU HITS DIODORO WITH PROVISIONAL SUSPENSION by Bill Finley

Top trainer Robertino Diodoro has been provisionally suspended by the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) after he was allegedly found to possess the banned substance Levothyroxine.

Levothyroxine is a thyroid medication. According to the National Library of Medicine the use of thyroid hormones for doping to enhance performance in human sports has long been controversial. There have been claims of abuse of these drugs, but they have not been prohibited by the World Anti-Doping Agency.

Diodoro declined to comment and referred questions to his lawyer, John Holleman. At deadline for this story, Holleman had not returned a phone call from the TDN seeking comment.

Horses that were entered by Diodoro before he was notified of the suspension are being allowed to run, but he will not be allowed to enter horses thereafter.

Diodoro will not be allowed to saddle those horses or visit the paddock.

Diodoro's upcoming entries include the GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn, a prep for the GI Kentucky Oaks. His stable will send out longshot Midshipman's Dance (Midshipman).

In the cases where a horse tests positive for a banned medication, HIWU has put off enforcing the suspension until the results of the B sample have been returned. But since Diodoro's suspension does not involve a failed drug test, his suspension will go into effect after his horses that have already been entered have run.

According to the HIWU website, investigators found the drug to be in Diodoro's possession on March 13. The notice of his suspension was posted to the HIWU website Friday. HIWU spokesperson Alexa Ravit said she could not disclose why HIWU investigators undertook a search that allegedly led to the finding of the drug.

Diodoro faces a suspension of up to two years.

Diodoro was the leading trainer in 2023 at Oaklawn Park and is currently in second in this year's Oaklawn standings. Training since 1995, Diodoro has 3,184 career wins and a winning rate of 21%.

Diodoro was suspended for the first 15 days of the current Oaklawn meet after a horse he ran at the 2022-2023 meet had a carbon dioxide (TCO2) finding above the permitted limit.

PLETCHER WINS ROUND IN SUPREME COURT OVER FORTE DQ by T.D. Thornton

The New York Supreme Court for the County of Schenectady on Friday granted trainer Todd Pletcher a preliminary injunction precluding the New York State Gaming Commission (NYSGC) from enforcing penalties related to the disqualification of Forte (Violence) from his win in the 2022 GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga Race Course, meaning that the sanctions are halted until the court decides issues of the case related to due process and rules interpretations.

Todd Pletcher | Lauren King

According to the Mar. 29 court order, the NYSGC had found that "based upon blood and urine samples taken after the race, that Pletcher was responsible for the positive finding of the drug Meloxicam in Forte.

As a result of the disqualification, the owners of Forte were stripped of the first-place portion of the purse and, as a result of the drug administration finding, Pletcher's license to train horses was suspended for 10 days and he was fined $1,000." Cont.

But, the court order explained, "Pletcher's Petition asserts that the Commission Order must be annulled and vacated because (1) Pletcher was found to have violated a rule that doesn't exist; (2) Pletcher was found liable based upon a standard outside of the Commission's rules; (3) that the subject rule is impermissibly vague; (4) the Commission fails to show that the finding against Pletcher was supported by substantial evidence; (5) the Commission Order inexplicably departs from precedent so as to make it arbitrary and capricious; (6) it adopts a Hearing Officer's report based upon an unlawful hearing wherein the Hearing Officer acted in excess of authority by permitting the owner representative of the second place horse to intervene in the hearing and to act in a prosecutorial role, despite not being admitted to the practice of law in the State of New York."

The NYSGC, represented by the New York Attorney General, had opposed the motion for a preliminary injunction, asserting that since Pletcher raised the substantial evidence question, the entire proceeding, including any request for a preliminary injunction, must be transferred to and determined by the Appellate Division.

Supreme Court Justice Michael Cuevas disagreed, writing in the Mar. 29 order that the case must remain at the Supreme Court level.

"[T]his Court can only conclude that Petitioner has demonstrated a reasonable likelihood of success on the alleged due process violations and the alleged misinterpretation of existing rules or application of a non-existent rule," Cuevas wrote.

"We are very pleased that the Supreme Court has decided to review what we believe are serious due process issues in this case," Pletcher's attorney, Drew Mollica, told TDN. "We are also elated that the Supreme Court has taken the position that they will review the standard by which the Gaming Commission saw fit to disqualify Forte and sanction Mr. Pletcher.

"While it's early, the issues raised, including the participation of an unlicensed attorney to assist in prosecuting this matter, is something we look forward to litigating," Mollica continued.

"Judge Cuevas has flagged these procedural legal issues that must be addressed before any appellate review. The procedural and legal issues will prove that not only should Forte not have been disqualified, but that any sanction of Mr. Pletcher is a miscarriage of justice," Mollica said.

The finding of Meloxicam, a non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drug, in Forte's system wasn't the entirety of the controversy when it was first made public nearly 11 months ago.

A more concerning aspect was that the 2022 juvenile champion's positive test result was kept from the public for more than nine months, and wasn't revealed until May 9, 2023, when the New York Times first broke the story, citing as sources "two people who are familiar with the matter but are not authorized to speak about it."

Two days later, the NYSGC formally announced Forte's disqualification from the Hopeful S. while imposing the fine and suspension upon Pletcher.

Pletcher promptly appealed his penalties, and Mike Repole, Forte's owner, appealed the colt's DQ.

The commission then stayed the penalties while the appeals process played out, and, as the Mar. 29, 2024, court order stated, "The commission also invited each other owner representative of a horse that received a share of the purse in the disputed race to appear in the joint hearing as an intervenor."

Prior to the hearing, Pletcher had objected to the permitting of intervenors and their roles in the hearing.

At the July 20, 2023, hearing, eight witnesses testified and 44 exhibits were received into evidence. Cont.

The hearing officer then issued a report on Sept. 30, and on Dec. 4 the NYSGC adopted the report's findings of fact and conclusions of law in levying the penalties against Pletcher and in disqualifying Forte.

The 2022 Hopeful winner's circle presentation | Sarah Andrew

Mollica won a temporary restraining order for Pletcher on Dec. 21 by filing an Article 78 appeal. Article 78 appeals are lawsuits mainly used to challenge an action, or inaction, by agencies of New York State and local governments. The parties were in court to argue their points on Jan. 8, 2024.

TDN emailed a spokesperson for the NYSGC seeking comment on Friday's ruling but has not yet received a reply.

The next steps in the process are for the NYSGC to answer or otherwise move with respect to the petition within 20 days of the Mar. 29 order. Then Pletcher may reply to any counterclaim or new matter asserted in NYSGC's answer by May 10, when a status conference has been scheduled.

BILL TO ESTABLISH INDEPENDENT KENTUCKY GAMING COMMISSION PASSES HOUSE by Bill Finley

In a vote late Thursday night, the Kentucky General Assembly passed a bill to establish an independent Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation, according to a press release from Senate Majority Floor Leader Damon Thayer (R-Georgetown), the primary sponsor of the legislation.

Senate Bill (SB) 299 revises Thayer's original proposal to attach the commission to the Kentucky Department of Agriculture administratively.

The legislative effort was revised following further conversations with stakeholders and House Speaker David Osborne (R-Prospect), which would now establish an independent Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation.

In his support of the bill, Osborne drew comparisons to the Kentucky Lottery Corporation and the Public Service Commission.

A Senate Committee Substitute was adopted to outline the corporation's formation and set forth a robust framework for its operations. Subsequently, the Senate committee approved SB 299 on Tuesday and with passage in the House was delivered to the Governor on Wednesday. Cont.

Currently, the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission oversees all aspects of horse racing in the state, including venues housing historic horse racing (HHR) machines. SB 299 seeks to create the Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation as an independent entity that regulates horse racing, sports wagering and charitable gaming in the commonwealth, effective July of this year.

“Things have changed here a lot over the last several years,” Thayer said. “The Horse Racing Commission oversees not only live racing, simulcasting and the ADWs, but also HHR and sports betting.

“We just think that a higher level of scrutiny and more independence will lead to more integrity on the regulation of all three forms of legalized wagering in Kentucky, pari-mutuel, sports betting and charitable gaming.

“Initially, I went public with my idea a few weeks ago to attach the racing commission, for administrative purposes only, to the Agriculture Department. That was really just a way to get it out in the public domain and the speaker called me to his office and said he wanted to super-size this idea and he told me what his idea was, an independent agency, still appointed by the governor, but with membership confirmed by the Senate.”

Thayer continued: "That Senate confirmation step is a really big deal because when the Senate has to confirm a gubernatorial nominee there is a lot more scrutiny on their background."

Under SB 299, the existing racing commission members would transition to become the initial board of the newly formed corporation, serving two-year terms. Future board members would continue to be appointed by the governor but would require approval from the Kentucky Senate and oversight from the Executive Branch Ethics Commission.

The bill must still be signed by Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear.

"I like to think he's for good governance and I think this is an example of good governance and regulation of our signature industry," Thayer said.

The bill will also allocate money toward aftercare and toward a program designed to prepare individuals for careers in the racing and breeding industries.

"We have added a perpetual funding source from HHR proceeds to put $250,000 a year toward aftercare in Kentucky," Thayer said.

"Then there is another program called Kentucky Equine Management Internship, which is a work force development program in Kentucky. I put $250,000 in there to support their efforts. We have work force issues across the spectrum.

"This is a really good program that helps create farm managers, broodmare managers and all sorts of jobs across the spectrum."

CLAPTON RETURNS SUMMERS TO SCENE OF HIS FINEST HOURS by Alan Carasso

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES -- RRR Racing's Clapton (Brethren) may be one of the rank outsiders in international markets for Saturday's G1 Dubai World Cup, but trainer Chad Summers, who won the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen with Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) in 2017 and 2018, is embracing the underdog role against the likes of Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}) and Kabirkhan (California Chrome).

"We're not here for the accommodations. We're not here for the badges and the passes and the parties," Summers said.

“We’re here because we want to have a chance to hold that trophy up and put our name in the lore of the horses that have won it in the past.

“We’re 60-1 and everyone says we have no shot. And we like being there. We like being the one that everybody counts out. It’s a comfortable place for us and we’re used to it.”

Clapton, last year’s GII Lukas Classic winner, made a pair of starts during the Dubai Racing Carnival, finishing third to Kabirkhan in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge in January and again to Military Law (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge on Super Saturday, Mar. 2.

After some internal debate, Clapton--whose owner also campaigns defending G2 Godolphin Mile champion Isolate (Mark Valeski) with trainer Doug Watson--has been green-lighted for the World Cup and he’ll leave from gate seven with Dylan Davis taking the ride. Summers and team have made some subtle tweaks and he believes he has the chestnut ready for the test.

“We have some working theories now as to what happened,” he explained. “For the last two months, he’d come out of the stall at 4 a.m. and we’re waking him up at 2:30. He’s not used to that. By the time he goes back in the stall at 7 a.m. he’s been out of the stall for three hours. That’s a lot of walking.” Cont.

They have other tracks in the back and he seems just more like the old Clapton that we needed to see, because to be honest with you, we have too much respect for this race to run just to run."

It's a bit of a full-circle moment for Summers this weekend, as Mind Your Biscuits is ironically the sire of one of Clapton's main World Cup foes in the form of G2 UAE Derby winner and GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up Derma Sotogake (Jpn).

"To watch him pop out of the gate and go on with it and just utterly dominate and then go on to the Kentucky Derby and the Breeders' Cup was amazing," Summers said of Derma Sotogake's run in last year's UAE Derby. Cont.

But the gloves come off this weekend, make no mistake.

"Hopefully Biscuits can look down on me one more time and tell Christophe Lemaire to ride him like he rode him in the UAE Derby, go to the lead and battle Laurel River (Into Mischief) and go fast enough to help set things up for Clapton."

It's a webinar on the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA): Its Impact on Equine Welfare, NYS Racing and Regulation, and Federal Administrative and Constitutional Law. Cont.

The webinar will be held Thursday, April 18 from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. EDT. Attorneys who attend are eligible for up to three NYS MCLE credit hours. These credit hours are valid in almost every U.S. jurisdiction. Non-attorneys are welcome to attend.

The Committee on Animals and the Law (COAL) of the New York State Bar Association has organized this excellent event. Speakers will explain the legal structure created by HISA, HISA's impact and future; the legal ramifications of HISA on state, federal and private actors; and HISA's effect on equine welfare. We expect to wrap up with a lively and informative discussion panel among the speakers. We hope attendees will leave the webinar with a greater understanding of HISA and the state of the State of New York's regulated racing industry.

What our roster of speakers will have to say promises real value to legal practitioners and others involved in racing. If you have any particular questions or comments you think would make good fodder for the discussion panel, please don't hesitate to let Fiona Farrell know in advance at ffarrell@nycap.rr.com.

Our program faculty includes:

- Prof. Lucinda Finley, University of Buffalo Law School
- Joi Garner, General Counsel, SVP, and Secretary, New York Racing Association
- Lisa Lazarus, CEO, Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority
- Robert Williams, Executive Director, New York State Gaming Commission

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: DEEP FIELD OF SOPHOMORE MAIDENS ON DISPLAY ON FLORIDA DERBY UNDERCARD

Mindframe (outside) | Susie Raisher

5th-GP, $89K, Msw, 3yo, 7f, 1:26 p.m. ET

IDONEO (Uncle Mo), the first foal out of SW and GII Mother Goose S. runner-up Classic Fit (Bernardini), has been working smartly for this debut run for Bill Mott. The Godolphin homebred has posted six bullet workouts at Payson Park since January, including a three-furlong move in :36 3/5 (1/11) Mar. 25. The 'Boys in Blue' will also be represented by fellow debuting homebred Six Kings (Nyquist), who was produced by a half-sister to GISW Film Maker (Dynaformer). He is trained by Brendan Walsh. The deep field of 11 also includes the Todd Pletcher-trained first-time starter Mindframe (Constitution), a $600,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Repole Stable and St. Elias Stables. TJCS PPS

NEOM BEACH (f, 3, Omaha Beach--Giant's Causey, by Giant's Causeway) won at third asking when her first route race was taken off the grass at Churchill Downs Nov. 16. The chestnut's next three attempts were all Oaklawn stakes, including third-place finishes in the Year's End Dec. 31 and Martha Washington Feb. 3. She was fourth in the GIII Honeybee Feb. 24. Racing with Lasix for the first time, the 9-5 choice nestled in third into the first turn. On hold up the backstretch, the filly was boxed in around the far turn. She tipped outside the leader into the two path with a furlong left and rolled to get the money by 3/4 of a length. Out of an extended female family which includes GISW Sadler's Joy (Kitten's Joy), the winner's dam has also produced 2-year-old colt Summer of George (Authentic) and a colt last year by Rock Your World. She was bred to Authentic for this term. Sales History: $210,000 2yo '23 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: MSP, 7-2-1-2, $243,700. DONEGAL SURGES (c, 4, Candy Ride {Arg}--Solar Surge, by Bernardini), multiple stakes placed versus New York-breds at two, broke through with a powerful, first-level state-bred allowance win Feb. 24. Favored at even-money here, he found a good spot in an outside fourth, revved up three wide on the far turn and reported home a half-length winner over Locke and Key (Mr. Z). Donegal Surges is a half to Surge of Pride (Kantharos), SW & GSP, $203,179. Solar Surge produced a colt by Gun Runner in 2022 and a filly by Into Mischief last year. TWEETSTER (f, 3, Practical Joke--Tweeterdini, by Bernardini) debuted with Lasix as the heavily backed 3-2 choice here. The homebred started slowly, but with the rail open, was able to skim to lead the second pack up the backstretch. Rolling around the turn, the filly chased longshot Hurricane Fire (Can the Man), who appeared to be getting away. Moving from the rail towards the center of the course at the eighth pole, Tweetster closed like a freight train and won going away by 6 1/4 lengths. Out of an extended female family which includes champion 3-year-old filly Bird Town (Cape Town) and MGISW Birdstone (Grindstone), the winner's unraced dam is responsible for 2-year-old colt Spenard (Spun to Run). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

MOON SPUN (f, 3, Hard Spun--Moonlit Bay, by Malibu Moon)

just came up a neck short on debut over the synthetic here Mar. 8. Giving the grass course a shot this time, the rail-drawn, 8-5 favorite was ridden along in fifth and awaited racing room on the turn for home. She was tipped out three wide at the top of the stretch and blitzed home to run down Haley's Honor (Honor Code) by a neck. The winner's dam has also produced the 2-year-old filly Map to the Moon (Liam's Map) and a yearling filly by Silver State. She was bred to McKinzie for 2024. Sales history: $80,000 Ylg '22 FTKOCT. YUMA'S SHADOW (f, 3, Outwork--Nitta Yuma, by Quality Road), off at 7-1 in this unveiling, was off to a very slow start and raced in 10th through an opening quarter in :21.92. She began to launch with a sweeping move heading to three-eighths marker, set her sights on the leaders at the top of the stretch and came with a sustained rally in the stretch to outbox Classy'n Connected (Connect) by a neck. The winner's dam is also responsible for the 2-year-old filly Don't Miss Out (Gormley) and a yearling colt by Elnaawi. She was bred to Shagaf for 2024. Sales history: $11,000 Ylg '22 KEEJAN; $10,000 Ylg '22 FTKOCT; $45,000 2yo '23 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $17,261.

FAIRE PLAISIR (f, 3, Distorted Humor--Excuses Begone, by Medaglia d'Oro), a well-beaten fifth in her debut over the local grass Jan. 20, was a main-track only entrant here. Adding blinkers for this washed-off affair, the 3-2 favorite tracked the leaders in an outside third, made her move while racing in between horses on the turn for home and pulled clear late to graduate by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner's dam has also produced the 2-year-old colt Earned Not Given (War of Will) ($380,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase by Muir Hut Stables) and the yearling colt Restless Fairwell (Caravaggio). She was bred to Tourist for 2024. Sales history: $240,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $19,520. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Hanshin Racecourse:

Saturday, March 30, 2024

1st-HSN, ¥10,480,000 ($69k), Maiden, 3yo, 1800m
CRITICAL HIT (c, 3, American Pharoah--Mythical Mission, by Giant's Causeway) is out of a stakes-winning full-sister to MGSW/GISP and two-time Canadian champion Irish Mission who was purchased by Shimokobe Farm for $575,000 with this colt in utero at the 2021 Keeneland January Sale. Also a half-sister to GSW French Beret (Broad Brush) and to the dam of Mission of Joy (Kitten's Joy), a dual Grade III winner and third in last year's GI QE II Challenge Cup, Mythical Mission foaled a Justify filly in Japan in February 2022, her last listed produce.
