

ENCINO TAKES TO DIRT, WIRES STONESTREET LEXINGTON

Encino | Coady

Godolphin homebred Encino (Nyquist) took to dirt with aplomb, delivering a 3/4-length, wire-to-wire victory over favored The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso) in Saturday's Gill Stonestreet Lexington S. at Keeneland. With the win, good for 20 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby, Encino is currently ranked 21st on the leaderboard with 40 points.

"Ultimately (whether he starts in the Kentucky Derby) will be up to the Godolphin team--Dan Pride, Michael Banahan, Sheikh Mohammed--and if it's something they want to do, we'll prepare him," winning trainer Brad Cox said. "We'll ship him over to Churchill in a few days regardless. I'll tell you it will either be the Derby or the Preakness. He's sitting at 21st on the list right now and some things would have to happen (to make the Kentucky Derby field). But we'll watch him. Hopefully, he comes out of (the Stonestreet Lexington) in good shape and we'll march forward."

The 3-1 chance cleared the field of nine beneath Florent Geroux from his outside draw and led through fractions of :23.55 and :47.28. He kicked for home as the one to catch and gamely turned back a challenge from The Wine Steward in the stretch to get the money. Cont. p3

TAMARA BACK ON WORKTAB, 'EAGER TO DO MORE' FOR MANDELLA by Steve Sherack

Spendthrift Farm homebred and 'TDN Rising Star' Tamara (Bolt d'Oro), sidelined with a fractured splint bone in her left hind leg after fading to seventh as the 4-5 favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, has begun to gear up for her sophomore campaign.

The talented daughter of Hall of Famer Beholder (Henny Hughes) has posted a pair of two-furlong breezes for trainer Richard Mandella over Santa Anita's all-weather surface this month, most recently stopping the timer in :23.80 (1/1) Apr. 10.

How are the initial reports so far?

"Really good," Spendthrift Farm's General Manager Ned Toffey replied. "You know Richard. We certainly weren't gonna put any pressure and Richard is a guy who's gonna give them all the time they need. She's gotten a chance to heal up. She just needed time." Cont. p4

Encino made all three of his previous starts over the synthetic at Turfway Park, led by a win in the John Battaglia Memorial S. last time Mar. 2.

“There was a little bit of a question mark about whether he would like the dirt, but he handled it today,” Cox said. “He had a few works at Keeneland leading up to this race and showed his hand. He seemed like he liked the surface, and he put it all together today.”

Geroux added, “He broke like a shot. It was pretty much all him to the first turn; he pretty much controlled the race from there. He was cruising around there, and when he felt The Wine Steward outside of him, it gave him a little extra push. I think that’s what he needed because he was getting a little lost out there on his own. But he had plenty left in the tank, the dirt felt great, and it looks like added distance shouldn’t be a problem for him.”

Pedigree Notes:

Encino becomes the 13th graded stakes winner for Nyquist. The winning Bernardini mare Glittering Jewel, a half-sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner and Darley stallion Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}), produced fillies by Street Boss in 2022-23. She was bred to Good Magic for 2024. The Nyquist x Bernardini cross is also responsible for GISW Gretzky the Great and unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' Nysos.

Tracks Down Top Horses on the Sidelines

Tamara | Benoit

“There was a fracture of the splint bone on the hind leg,”

Toffey said. “It wasn't anything too dramatic, but just needed plenty of time. She got that and hopefully is ready to move forward now.”

He continued, “He's breezed her twice now and has been very happy with what he's seen so far. He simply said that, 'she's eager to do more,' which I think is a great sign. Obviously, it will be a bit before she's ready to run, but we know she's in good hands. It's enough to be excited about her 3-year-old year.”

Tamara overcame a stumble at the start from her rail draw to launch her career in style with a 'Rising Star' performance at Del Mar Aug. 19. She ran to the billing as the 6-5 favorite with a 6 3/4-length tour de force over 11 rivals in the GI FanDuel Racing Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 9, good for a 91 Beyer Speed Figure. She set the pace and tired to finish a disappointing seventh, beaten 8 1/4 lengths, behind champion Just F Y I (Justify) while making her two-turn debut in the Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita Nov. 3.

“We're still at a point where we're gonna just continue to let her dictate to us,” Toffey said. “She's certainly a filly who's shown enough that she can be anything. Obviously, we'd love to see her land in the Breeders' Cup at the end of the year, she's the kind of filly that could put you there. Richard will listen to her and let her tell us when she's ready to roll. Hopefully, she stays sound and we can have the kind of year that you would

Tamara is the fourth foal from the aforementioned four-time champion and three-time Breeders' Cup winner Beholder. Beholder's colt by Curlin, now two, brought a sale-topping $4 million from Zedan Racing at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga Sale last summer. Beholder has also produced 2023 GIII Seniorita S. heroine Teena Ella (War Front). She had a filly by Jackie's Warrior Feb. 13, and, according to Toffey, is currently in foal to Gun Runner for the 2025 season.

BEAUTE CACHEE DELIVERS FOR CHAD BROWN IN JENNY WILEY UPSET

Beaute Cachee | Coady

Trainer Chad Brown had four starters in Saturday's GI Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland, and, of the four, it was the longest shot that delivered his seventh win in the race with the 25-1 Beaute Cachee (Fr) (Literato {Fr}).

Beaute Cachee spent all of 2021 and 2022 overseas before joining Brown in New York in May of last year. The narrowest of winners in her American debut at Belmont, she posted solid results at nearly every track in the area, winning the Violet S. at Monmouth and hitting the board at Saratoga and at Belmont's Aqueduct meet last October before shipping west to try her luck in the GI Matriarch S. Dec. 3. A respectable third in that last start, notably behind a pair of rivals she re-opposed Saturday, Beaute Cachee looked to turn the tables on Matriarch winner and Brown-trained stablemate Surge Capacity (Flintshire {GB}).

Drawn widest of the field in gate 10 and in the expert hands of Frankie Dettori, Beaute Cachee utilized a good break to work her way over, leading the field just two wide past the wire for the first time. Godolphin runner English Rose (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), off as the 8-5 favorite, chose to take back and settled just off the early pace as Beaute Cachee was now alone up front through fractions of :24.18 and :48.65. Chased by GII Pegasus World Cup Filly and Mare Turf Invitational winner Didia (Arg) (Orpen) around the turn, the leader never looked to be in trouble, striding out under Dettori even as English Rose got by Didia late for a closing second.

“She didn’t surprise me that she was able to win; she surprised me that she went wire to wire,” Brown said. “Leaving the paddock, Frankie [Dettori] said, ‘You know, I plan on being very forward in here.’ I thought about it for a minute, and then I thought, ‘I’m not going to tell him what to do.’ It’s such an important win to share; I’ve never won a Grade I with Frankie, so obviously anything can happen with those magic hands of his. I want to thank the [owners] who weren’t able to be here today: Sol Kumin [of Madaket Stables] and his partners, Michael Dubb and Louis Lazzinnaro. They couldn’t make it, but it’s a huge win for them. This is our seventh Jenny Wiley, and like I said after [winning] the [Toyota] Blue Grass, many, many of the same team members were with us for the first one. The horses may change, but the people working and making it happen haven’t, so it’s really their win. They did all the work.”

Pedigree Notes:

One of seven stakes winner and the second graded-stakes winner for G1SW Literato, who was also ridden by Frankie Dettori, Beaute Cachee was just a €1,500 purchase at the 2020 Arqana Autumn Flat-Bred Yearling Sale by owner and trainer Gael Barbedette who raced her until she was sold to her current connections upon her move to the United States. She is the third foal out of an unraced dam who has produced one other winner from three to make the races. This is the extended family of MG1SW Indian Ink (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), GSW Feel Like Dancing (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). Sign And Seal (Ire) has produced just one foal since Beaute Cachee, reporting a Zanzibari colt in 2021 who went through the Arqana November Yearling Sale in 2022 for €15,000 to Pegasus Bloodstock but has yet to race.

EASY WIN FOR CALIFORNIA SHIPPER ADARE MANOR IN APPLE BLOSSOM

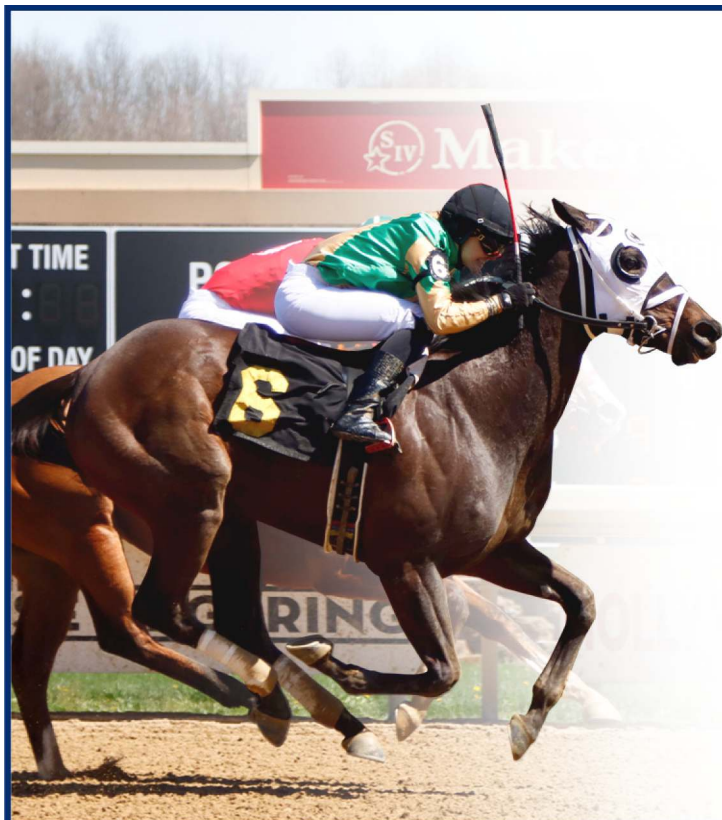

Adare Manor | Coady

Michael Lund Petersen's Adare Manor (Uncle Mo), who so often shows her best on the front end, took her California tactics on the road with a 5 1/2-length score in Oaklawn's $1.25-million GI Apple Blossom S. Saturday while conceding between one and six pounds to her rivals. Flying Connection (Nyquist), who shipped in from Sunland Park after three straight stakes wins in New Mexico for the red-hot Todd Fincher barn, closed late to nab second over Mar. 24 Shantel Lanerie S. winner Free Like a Girl (El Deal). Last year's GI CCA Oaks winner Wet Paint (Blame), previously unbeaten in three stakes at Oaklawn, never got involved and finished sixth.

The 3-5 choice, Adare Manor showed old habits die hard as she went clear early under Juan Hernandez, running comfortably with her ears flicking back and forth, and set fractions of :23.68 and :46.95 while Honor D Lady (Honor Code) applied pressure to her outside. Even while Honor D Lady loomed and last summer's GIII Molly Pitcher S. winner Shotgun Hottie (Gun Runner) threw her hat into the mix, Adare Manor never looked seriously threatened. She quickened on the turn, kicked clear with ease and opened up by daylight to hasten home an authoritative winner while Hernandez took a peek under his right arm as the pair's distance on the field remained intact. She got the 1 1/16 miles in 1:42.48.

A $375,000 Donato Lanni purchase at the 2021 OBS June sale after working a furlong in :10 1/5, Adare Manor won the GIII Las Virgenes S. at three by 13 lengths, had a five-win streak going at four that included the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. and three other graded races, and kickstarted her 5-year-old campaign with a 102 Beyer as the runner-up in the GI Beholder Mile S. at Santa Anita Mar. 9. Seven of her eight career wins have been on the front end, with the lone exception being a stalking trip in last summer's Clement L. Hirsch.

Pedigree Notes:

Adare Manor is one of 49 graded winners and 100 black-type winners overall for exceptional Coolmore America stallion Uncle Mo, a regular among North America's leading sires. She is the second of her sire's progeny to win the Apple Blossom following Unbridled Mo's victory in 2018. She is, however, the lone stakes winner to date out of a Giant Gizmo mare. The latter was relocated to Panama following the 2019 breeding season after standing at Canada's Gardiner Farm. Uncle Mo does have four stakes winners out of mares by Giant Gizmo's sire, the late Giant's Causeway, who was a fellow Coolmore sire, as well as Mar. 30 GI Florida Derby third Grand Mo the First.

Stock in Brooklynsway has risen dramatically since Adare Manor's ascent up the stakes ranks. Winner of the 2016 GIII Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland, she was a $170,000 RNA at Fasig-Tipton's November sale in 2017, then went through the same ring in 2020 at the Winter Mixed Sale, where Town & Country picked her up in foal to Into Mischief for $95,000. Adare Manor, then a short yearling, sold at the same sale to Walmac Farms and Gary Board for $180,000 before being pinhooked the next year. Brooklynsway has a 2-year-old filly by Ghostzapper named Nosleptilbrooklyn, who went to Boardshorts Stables at Keeneland September for $500,000, and a yearling full-brother to Adare Manor. The mare was a $1.2-million RNA at last year's Fasig-Tipton November sale; she has aborted her 2024 Tapit foal.

Skelly looked right at home back in Hot Springs as he netted his second consecutive GIII Count Fleet Sprint S. Saturday.

Since last April, the gelding won the Lake Hamilton S. in gate-to-wire fashion at Oaklawn in early May and then used the same tactics to take home the Speightstown Sprint S. at Lone Star at the end of that month.

Off until December, the Steve Asmussen trainee banished optional claimers with a warm-up at Oaklawn late that month, then turned the page to kick off his 5-year-old campaign with a victory by 3 1/4 lengths in the King Cotton S. Feb. 3 over the same--albeit sloppy--surface.

In late February, the sprint specialist turned his attention to international competition and shipped into the King Abdulaziz Racecourse for the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint on the Saudi Cup undercard. The dark bay turned for home after running three wide for most of the race and looked to be in control. However, he was caught with a sixteenth left by Remake (Jpn) (Lani) and was the runner-up.

Well-backed as the 3-5 choice here, Skelly did not exit the gate cleanly, but made up ground to take over the lead before the far turn. Shifting to higher gears, the 5-year-old accelerated and proved his class en route to a three-length score.

Roses for Debra, winner of last summer's GIII Caress S. and Smart N Fancy S. at Saratoga, kicked off her 5-year-old campaign in style here.

The 8-5 favorite chased from an inside fourth through an opening quarter in :21.28, tipped to the outside at the top of the stretch and came rolling down the center of the course to get the money.

Roses for Debra faced males in her final two starts of 2023, finishing third as the favorite over very soggy going in the GIII Turf Monster S. at Parx Sept. 23 and ninth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita Nov. 4.

"She's just a lovely mare," said Christophe Lorieul, assistant to winning trainer Christophe Clement. "To do that (win today) off her layoff, it's amazing, she ran great today. A touch rusty at the three-sixteenth pole and I got a bit worried, but then from the eighth pole on she overtook the leaders and won going away."

Pedigree Notes:

Roses for Debra represents one of 11 graded/group stakes winners for Liam's Map. Out of the unraced Bernardini mare Essential Rose, Roses for Debra is a half-sister to SW Rose's Vision (Artie Schiller) and SP Rosie's Alibi (Justify). Purchased by Black Stone Farm for $32,000 at the 2015 KEENOV sale, Essential Rose is also responsible for the 2-year-old filly Park of Roses (American Pharoah). Essential Rose was bred to Curlin for 2024. The Liam's Map x Bernardini cross is also responsible for GISWs Colonel Liam and Wicked Whisper.

Soon after the track opened at 5:30 a.m., GII TwinSpires.com Louisiana Derby winner Catching Freedom was the first Derby contender to work when he went a solo half-mile in :48 (14/123).

Brad Cox said. “We’ve worked him solo the last couple times and he’s done very well. I’d say the track this morning was a bit heavy but he still got over it fine. His last two works have been fairly easy and we’ll see how things shake out over the next two weeks with what we’ll do before the Derby.”

A few minutes later, GIII Southwest S. winner and GI Arkansas Derby third Mystik Dan cruised a half-mile in :48 (14/123) with jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. in the saddle.

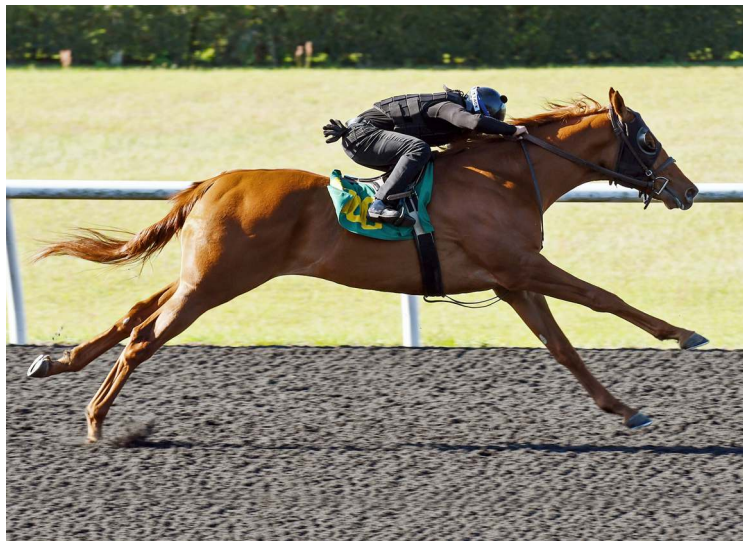

“He ran a credible third last time in the Arkansas Derby,” trainer Ken McPeck said. “I think he got a lot out of that race and has shown he handled it well in his training after.”

Following the 7:30 a.m. track renovation break, GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks winner Endlessly breezed a half-mile in :49 (54/123) inside of his Michael McCarthy-trained stablemate Yellow Card (Lost Treasure {Ire}). Endlessly could compete in either the Kentucky Derby or the grassy GII American Turf S.

Common Defense, runner-up in the GII Rebel S., worked an easy half-mile for McPeck in :49.40 (65/123). Common Defense currently needs two defections to make the field of 20.

MORE FAVORABLE CONDITIONS LEAD TO FASTER OBS SATURDAY

Hip 1006 | Judit Seipert

by Stefanie Grimm

Weather conditions continued to improve on the penultimate day of the 2024 Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training under-tack show and, while works failed to reach the peak set earlier in the week, the headwind that hampered Friday's show let up in time for a plethora of runners to hit the :9 4/5 mark Saturday. A total of 11 juveniles matched that mark with five of those 11 coming from sires who have their first 2-year-olds this year.

1006), a colt with whom his experience in the family dates back to his time as manager with Hobeau Farm.

“It always means a little more when you've had them since they were born,” said Wheeler. “It's a family that I've had a lot of success with. We bred the good ones, like [Grade I-winner] Miss Shop and so it's a super family and it doesn't surprise us that another hopeful superstar will come out of it.”

Second dam Shopping, owned by Hobeau Farm of which Wheeler managed for over 30 years, not only produced millionaire Miss Shop (Deputy Minister) but also GSW/MGISP Trappe Shot (Tapit), SW/GSP Bought In Dixie (Dixieland Band) and Shop Again (Wild Again), who would in turn produce GISW Power Broker (Pulpit). Wheeler noted that his colt's sharp work Saturday was completely par for the course.

“We were expecting it, for sure. He's been training lights out for us and we're tickled. He's so straightforward and light on his feet, and he galloped out good as well.”

With first-season sires continuing to be in demand, Vekoma was an obvious choice for Wheeler to pair with his homebred mare Blakely's Smile.

“He [Vekoma] was always on our radar,” continued Wheeler. “Watching him and all of his great races--he showed a ton of talent.”

And while the wind let up enough for a pack of horses to hit :9 4/5, conditions weren't quite as favorable as they were earlier in the week before Thursday's storms. Wheeler noted that while there were plenty of fast horses Saturday morning, it wasn't quite as good as Wednesday's tail wind. His other juvenile, a colt by Khozan named Micanopy (hip 722), was one caught breezing into the wind Friday.

“He still galloped out nice but we knew it wouldn't be blistering fast. He's getting plenty of looks [Friday] and I think it's because of how he was moving over the track. That attracts the lookers.”

Micanopy, bred by Brent & Crystal Fernung, was a $30,000 purchase by Wheeler at the OBS Yearling Sale last fall and, while the breeze may not have gone to plan Friday, Wheeler remembers what drew him to the colt in the first place.

“His walk. He has a tremendous walk with a huge overstep. I got him from my friend Brent who does a great job raising horses and so I was really confident in buying from him. And he's been training great so we're hoping to get lucky there too.”

10 other juveniles matched the :9 4/5 time including three by first-crop sire Honest Mischief (hip 870, hip 938 and hip 1011) along with a filly from the first crop by Tiz the Law (hip 928). Speightster (hip 871), Nyquist (hip 902 and hip 915), Mitole (hip 907), Twirling Candy (hip 1005) and Midnight Lute (hip 981) were also represented by Saturday's bullet.

Three hips matched the fastest quarter-mile work Saturday at

:20 3/5 including a pair by Ocala Stud's Win Win Win (hip 881 and hip 1025) and a third by Frosted (hip 926).

Optimism continues to abound looking forward to next week's auction.

"This is the sale that everybody shows up for," continued Wheeler. "There's something for everybody--top end, middle and the bottom. There's a lot of nice horses going back and forth to the track so I think that will draw people in. I'm expecting it to be good."

The under-tack show will conclude with a makeup session Sunday. The OBS Spring sale will be held Tuesday through Friday with bidding starting each day at 10:30 a.m.

JOHN HENNEGAN, LONGTIME NYRA RACING OFFICIAL, DIES AT 84

By Brooke, Brad, and John Hennegan

Editors' Note: Longtime NYRA Racing official died April 11 at the age of 84. His family prepared the following obituary, which we are sharing.

It is with great sadness that we share the news of the passing of our father John Hennegan after a brave battle with aggressive glioblastoma, a form of brain cancer. He died nine days shy of his 85th birthday.

Our dad began his NYRA career in 1965. Our parents were married in the shadow of Belmont Park at Our Lady of Victory Parish in Floral Park, N.Y. that same year. He worked as a NYRA racing official for nearly 40 years, spanning five decades. His positions included patrol judge, assistant clerk of scales, clerk of scales and placing judge during that time.

As a teenager growing up in Baltimore, MD, he served as a ballboy for the NBA's Baltimore Bullets and operated the clubhouse elevator at Pimlico Race Course. He graduated from Calvert Hall College High School and attended LaSalle College in Philadelphia where he briefly played basketball.

His affiliation with horse racing began with his father who served as secretary for the now defunct American Trainers Association in Maryland. Legendary horseman Alfred Vanderbilt helped young John get connected with NYRA to launch his long career as a racing official. Once in New York, he was fortunate to be mentored by the late horseman and television personality Frank Wright.

His roles as a racing official made him witness to countless historic races. He served as a patrol judge for the legendary Ruffian-Foolish Pleasure match race. He also worked in various capacities at all three Triple Crown clinching Belmont Stakes of the 1970's.

As exciting as these moments were, it was everyday racetrack life that he loved best and enjoyed sharing with us. He eagerly introduced us to all his wonderful coworkers and friends in his racing universe. Dr. Tang. Willie Bananas. Earl the shoeshine guy. These were the folks we looked forward to seeing at "the office" and our exposure at an early age to this eclectic world helped shape our paths in life.

In addition to horse racing, our father loved to travel--especially to beach destinations in order to work on his signature tan. For him and our mother, the British and US Virgin Islands were particular favorites. Ocean City, MD, Hutchinson Island, FL and the Outer Banks of North Carolina were also beaches they enjoyed in their retirement. The wonderful people they met in all of these places have become lifelong family friends.

He loved the Baltimore Colts, Johnny Unitas, the Baltimore Orioles and Brooks Robinson.

He loved watching his daughter Brooke's high school soccer and lacrosse teams win the New York State Championships in the same year.

He loved watching his son Brad play college lacrosse at Roanoke College and play for a national championship.

He loved watching all UVA sports and visiting his son John in Charlottesville during his time in college.

He loved Otis Redding, Bob Seger and the Rolling Stones

He loved August in Saratoga, crabcakes and relaxing in the sun.

He loved his four grandchildren Brooklyn, Marin, Elsie and Gus. And they loved their "Ranger"--his nickname since college.

And most of all, he loved his widow Nancy--his devoted wife of 58 years.

We want to thank our father for introducing us to the wonderful world of thoroughbred horse racing. What a gift you gave us Ranger--one we can never repay. We are better people for it. We will miss you terribly.

Love,
Brooke, Brad and John

"I first met John Hennegan in 1977, when I started my career in racing with the National Steeplechase Association. We were based at Belmont Park and had a close relationship with all of the NYRA officials. John was one that was always helpful and willing to guide young professionals that wanted to learn about the game. I was lucky to get to know him and spend valuable time with him, especially when he volunteered to work for the NSA as a steward, and joined us on the road at several of our race meets."

--Bill Gallo, Director of Racing, National Steeplechase Association

"John Hennegan was a hard worker, friend to all horsemen and a loyal NYRA employee for nearly 40 years. He was everybody's friend, including mine. He will be greatly missed."

--Angel Cordero Jr.

"Mr Hennegan--I would never have dared to call him John--was a welcoming face in the intimidating racing offices at NYRA. My frequent visits there for lowly responsibilities at Fasig-Tipton required many favors. He never hesitated to offer assistance or advice to wet-behind-the-ears juniors like me or titans of the track like Elliott Burch or Woody Stephens. Immaculate in all seasons, never without a tie, Mr Hennegan was the consummate gentleman. I was surprised to read from his son, my friend John, that he was a "Stones" fan. I pictured Mozart and Leonard Bernstein--perhaps even Benny Goodman. Mr Hennegan--an enigma in the rough and tumble life at the racetrack. It was an honor to know him."

No immediate plans have been made for a memorial but something will be held to honor his life in the coming months.

READY FOR SHIRL ANOTHER 'TDN RISING STAR' FOR FIPKE FAMILY by Alan Carasso

Ready for Shirl | Coady

Ready for Shirl (More Than Ready), a daughter of GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf upsetter Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}) from a wildly productive female family beautifully nurtured over the last 20 years by Charles Fipke and his team, jumped at odds of nearly 8-1 in a two-turn maiden over the Keeneland turf course Saturday afternoon.

8-1? 'Shirl'-y you must be joking, but the March-foaled bay rewarded her backers in becoming the second 'TDN Rising Star' out of the mare and the fourth from the first two dams with a spectacular effort on career debut.

A half-step slow to begin from gate nine and a detached last passing the stands for the first time, Ready for Shirl was allowed to find her feet by Florent Geroux and she had some pace up ahead of her, as Tempting Lady (Enticed) went the opening quarter in a swift :22.64 over a course which as recently as Friday still had plenty of ease in it. The homebred had passed a couple of rivals by the time they reached the backstretch, and Ready for Shirl was asked to commence a rally with the better part of 5 1/2 furlongs to go, improving her position with a two-path run before angling down towards the inside at the half-mile pole.

Forced to take evasive action around a weakening rival three furlongs from home, Ready for Shirl was consigned to a very wide run around the second turn, but nevertheless made ominous headway, circling up into contention nearing the stretch. Some six wide at the top of the lane, Ready for Shirl surged to a narrow lead at the furlong grounds and bounded clear late to an eye-catching victory. Pin Up Betty (Constitution) sat a perfect inside trip and narrowly outfinished odds-on Spaliday (More Than Ready--Dayatthespa) for second.

The late Jack Werk acquired then 18-year-old Illinois-bred Grade I winner Lady Shirl for $485,000 on behalf of Fipke at the 2005 Keeneland November sale, and the Theatrical (Ire) filly she was carrying at the time got her new owner off to a flying start. Lady Shakespeare, whose full-brother Shakespeare won the GI Woodbine Mile a year after her birth, would go on to a pair of graded wins--including Keeneland's GIII Bewitch S.

Lady Shirl's first Fipke-planned mating was a date with his 2004 GI Maker's Mark Mile hero Perfect Soul and the result was Perfect Shirl, upset winner of the 2010 GII Lake George S. and whose lone victory in nine subsequent trips to the post was a 27-1 upset of the 2011 Filly and Mare Turf. In her first two years at stud, Perfect Shirl was covered by More Than Ready, but neither of those produce managed a victory. A switch to More Than Ready's barnmate Speightstown seemed to do the trick, as Shirl's Speight, GISW-US, GSW & GISP-Can, $1,408,033, became a 'TDN Rising Star' on Woodbine debut in 2020 and recorded his biggest victory to date in the 2022 Maker's Mark. He was fourth to Master of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Friday's renewal.

Owner and breeder Charles Fipke | Horsephotos

Perfect Shirl's half-sister Fantastic Shirl (Fantastic Light), a homebred for Dell Ridge Farm, was accorded 'Rising Star' status on Gulfstream debut in 2006, while Lady Shakespeare was responsible for 'TDN Rising Star' Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown), winner of the GI Natalma S. at two and later third in the 2022 GI Jenny Wiley S. and Filly and Mare Turf at Keeneland. The latter's half-sister Ready Lady (More Than Ready) scored at 7-1 on her seven-furlong debut at Woodbine in 2021 before going on to finish third in last year's GII Dance Smartly S.

Perfect Shirl is also the dam of Speightstown Shirl (Speightstown), GSP, $119,038, the 2-year-old filly Perfectshirlstown (Speightstown) and is due to the late WinStar sire this year.

Ready for Shirl is the 17th 'TDN Rising Star' for her sadly departed stallion.

SUNDAY INSIGHTS: WHISPER HILL LOOKING TO STRIKE TWICE WITH SIBLING TO 'TRICE'

by Alan Carasso

3rd-GP, $60k, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, post time: 2:14 p.m. ET

In the name of her Whisper Hill Farm, Mandy Pope went to $1.3 million for a son of Tapit out of MSW & GSP Danzatrice (Dunkirk) at the 2021 Keeneland September, and that looked like money well spent when Tapit Trice went on to a victory in the 2023 GI Toyota Blue Grass S. while placing in the GI Belmont S. and GI Travers S. Pope was so enamored of her purchase that she went back to the well at the 2022 September sale, giving $1.1 million for the colt's full-sister, DANZIT, who makes her first trip to the races Sunday. Also trained by Todd Pletcher, the March foal is out of a close relative to champion and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies victress Jaywalk (Cross Traffic) and the deeper female family includes the sires Mission Impazible and Forest Camp. Among the competition is Silver Moonlight (Liam's Map), a half-brother to the Grade III-placed juvenile Man Child (Creative Cause), who was a $150,000 KEESEP yearling before doubling that hammer price at last year's OBS March Sale. TJCS PPs

The oversized mare Intrepid Dream, older full-sister to 2023 Maryland-bred sprint champion Intrepid Daydream and whose own career has been interrupted several times by injuries, made her long-awaited stakes debut a successful one after a prolonged bid under the persistent urging of Jevian Toledo in Laurel's Heavenly Cause S. Saturday. She stretched her winning streak to five following a Mar. 2 seasonal debut by daylight over track and trip.

Intrepid Dream | MJC/Jim McCue

In a field reduced to four after a pair of defections, the 1-2 favorite stalked 9-5 second-choice Sweet Shild O Mine (Mineshaft)'s steady pace of :24.21 and :47.04 before Toledo asked her to pick it up nearing the three-eighths pole. She responded gradually, wore down the pacesetter and edged clear late. Doctor Abbie staged a mild four-wide rally to snare the runner-up spot.

Like her accomplished younger sister, Intrepid Dream is a homebred for Paul L. Fowler, Jr., who sold Intrepid Daydream privately to Miller Racing LLC after she won the Politely S. here Nov. 24. Alwaysintomischief, who made three starts over the winter over Turfway Park's Tapeta surface including a Jan. 26 maiden win by a nose and a last-out optional allowance third Mar. 8, romped in his dirt debut in Mahoning Valley's Howard B. Noonan S.

Sent off at 5-2 in a field of 10, Alwaysintomischief shared the early lead outside of eventual runner-up Gunner Gabriel through fractions of :22.73 and :46.30. When given his cue by jockey Abel Cedillo, the colt readily kicked clear and cruised home to an eight-length victory.

Representing the connections responsible for GI Kentucky Oaks contender Everland (Arrogate), winner of the Mar. 23 Bourbonette Oaks at Turfway, Alwaysintomischief is a half-brother to SP Dare Day. MAGICAL LUTE (f, 4, Maclean's Music--Street Song, by Flatter), without a win since this meeting last year, picked up a stakes placing two back in the Wayward Lass S. at Tampa to begin her year Jan. 13. Overmatched last out in the GIII Royal Delta S. at Gulfstream, she shipped to Kentucky for Ian Wilkes and Whitham Thoroughbreds. The 7-1 shot broke last of the six-horse field and took her time getting into top gear, making up ground on late leader Julia Shining (Curlin) into the stretch. Splitting rivals to make a bid, she came through a gap inside to get the half-length win over Musical Mischief (Into Mischief) with an excuse-free Julia Shining a further length back in third. Magical Lute has a 2-year-old Daredevil half-sister and Street Song is due to Vekoma this year. ROYAL MAJESTY (GB) (c, 3, Frankel {GB}--Crown Queen {GISW, $593,000}, by Smart Strike) debuted a well-beaten fifth under the care of Roger Varian at Newmarket last October before being transferred by December to Bill Mott's shedrow where the colt began to prepare for his U.S. unveiling. Breaking his maiden by a neck over Gulfstream Park's grass Jan. 20, the bay was last seen finishing fifth in the Colonel Liam S. over the same surface Mar. 2. As a tepid 3-1 favorite here, the homebred made his way to the rail to settle midfield into the first turn. Royal Majesty faced an honest pace up the backstretch and when a gap opened up, the 3-year-old tipped to the three path around the far turn. That move proved decisive because he was able to clear by two lengths over Moonlight (Audible). The winner's dam is responsible for a 2-year-old filly by Kingman (GB), who last year was sent from England to U.S., and she was bred to Flightline for this term. Besilu Stables purchased GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Crown Queen for $1.6 million at the 2011 Keeneland November Sale, which was the same auction where they made her half-sister, multiple champion Royal Delta (Empire), the sales-topper at $8.5 million. DISCREET OPS (f, 3, Army Mule--Seams Discreet, by Discreet Cat) belied debut odds of nearly 21-1 to graduate by 7 3/4 lengths going six panels here Nov. 16 and was a warm item to pick up where she left off. In the mix right from the start, the bay enjoyed the run of the race around the turn and pushed out into the two path with 2 1/2 furlongs to race. Up to claim the lead passing the eighth pole, Discreet Ops was kept to her task to take it by a comfortable 1 1/4-length margin. Unlike his six-furlong debut during which he was hampered at the outset, Corporal broke without incident and chased World Fair (Tapiture)'s torrid pace of :22.50 and :46.05 in this one-mile maiden. BOOMCCHERO (c, 3, Buccherò--Something Casual, by Unbridled's Song) fired a best-of-17 half-mile bullet in :46 3/5 over this surface Mar. 23 and blew out three furlongs from the gate in :35 4/5 (4/17) on the main track Mar. 29 in advance of this debut. Sent off at 43-5 as the best-backed of three firsters, the bay jumped alertly and raced inside within striking distance of pacesetter Fastest (Buccherò). Pulled out in upper stretch, Boomcchero came after the front-runner entering the final sixteenth of a mile and pulled clear in good time. Even-money Star of the Best (The Big Beast) was another 5 3/4 lengths back in third. A $9,000 short yearling at the 2022 OBS January Sale, Boomcchero breezed a furlong in :10 flat, but was bought back on a bid of $45,000 at last year's OBS June Sale. The winner is out of a daughter of three-time stakes winner and 2000 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up Platinum Tiara (Cozzene) and has a 2-year-old full-brother named Forgotten Silver, who was purchased in utero for $5,000 at OBS in January 2022. TIME SONG (c, 3, Not This Time--New Song, by Smart Strike), racing for the first time under the care of trainer George Weaver, made his 2024 debut a successful one when winning his first foray over the Gulfstream Park turf course. Switched from Todd Pletcher's stable since finishing fourth in an Oct. 28 Keeneland turf maiden over this trip, Time Song, the 2-1 favorite in a field of 12, was forwardly placed under his new rider Emisael Jaramillo. He advanced on the far turn and forged clear into stretch before prevailing by 1 3/4 lengths over De La Cruz (Divisidero)'s three-wide rally. He has an unnamed 2-year-old half-sister by Mitole and his yearling half-sister, also by Mitole, was hammered to Calumet Farm for $65,000 at the 2024 Keeneland January sale. His unraced dam was bred to Yaupon for this term. Time Song's granddam, GSW Emerald Beech (Maria's Mon), is out of 2019 Broodmare of the Year Beyond the Waves (Ocean Crest), making her a half to 2019 Horse of the Year Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway). Sales History: $375,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, $41,712. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

'THE DREAM IS TO PRODUCE A CHAMPION' - FARRELL SET FOR BREEZE-UP SEASON

Making headlines at a sale with big-figure results is all well and good, but any breeze-up consignor with their eye on the future understands that a more significant indicator of sustainable success is how those graduates go on to perform on the racetrack. Cont. p3

CLASSIC HOPES ON THE LINE IN PARISLONGCHAMP TRIALS by Tom Frary

France's key mile Classic trials take place on Sunday, with ParisLongchamp hosting the G3 Prix de la Grotte and G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over the same course and distance of next month's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and Poulains. The Grotte sees some major names among the generation's fillies making their seasonal return, led by China Horse Club International's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac runner-up Rose Bloom (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Alain Jathiere's G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Tulipa Chope (Fr) (Born To Sea {Ire}). The Aga Khan's four-length Chantilly conditions winner Candala (Fr) (Frankel {GB}) adds spice from Francis-Henri Graffard's Aiglemont base. With ample stamina in her pedigree, the latter will have to prove sharp enough to deal with speed-tested peers here but it is intriguing that Graffard opts for a mile to restart her.

In the Fontainebleau, the Poulains contenders include Philippe Allaire and Haras d'Etreham's G3 Prix la Rochette-winning TDN Rising Star Beauvatier (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) who lost his unbeaten record but effectively nothing in defeat when third from a compromising draw in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere.

Cormac Farrell, a trainer and a trader of both breeze-up and point-to-point horses, is a firm believer in the concept. After launching CF Bloodstock in 2023, the horseman has ambitious goals in mind for his fledgling operation's future.

"I want to produce horses that go on and become good racehorses," Farrell said. "The dream is to produce a champion. You see these guys like Willie Browne, Con Marnane, Norman Williamson and Eddie O'Leary. I can't name them all, but they've produced Group 1 winners. You want to see your horses go on and fulfill their potential at whatever level, but if we could produce a couple of champions along the way, that would be the dream."

Farrell's new operation could hardly have gotten off to a better start last year when CF Bloodstock co-topped the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up Sale with a €55,000 Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale pinhook. The Zoffany (Ire) colt sold for 200,000gns to Richard Hughes and Ted Durcan. Now named Bracken's Laugh (Ire) and campaigned by Bernadine and Sean Mulryan, he was an auspicious debut maiden winner last September for Hughes and in his 3-year-old debut last week, claimed the Cardinal Conditions Stakes by 2 3/4 lengths.

Farrell said that he was always a believer in the colt and admitted that he had been a bit relieved when the horse got the job done in his first start last year.

"I had sort of built him up enough that if he wasn't any good, I was going to look a bit silly really because I was pretty bullish about him from the word go," he said. "He was a big, raw horse and we did very little with him the whole way through because we were allowing him just to fill into his frame. We were rewarded with our patience because he came to hand in time to do a lovely breeze. Hopefully Richard has an unbelievable year with him and it'll be great for everybody."

But Farrell is no rookie to consigning big-ticket horses. He previously formed half of Leamore Horses, which he ran in partnership with his ex-wife Anna Calder. Dancing City (Fr) (Feel Like Dancing {GB}) is the latest high-profile graduate from that consignment, having just won a second Grade 1 novice hurdle at Aintree on Friday.

Bracken's Laugh sells for 200,000gns | Tattersalls

Since last year's breeze-ups, Farrell has been active not only in buying his next crop of pinhooks, but he also acquired a yard for his operation. Partnering up with his longtime associate, owner and breeder Douglas Taylor, Farrell took over the prolific Copper Beech Stables from trainer Michael Halford. The property located just a few minutes from the heart of the Curragh grounds has provided an optimal setup for Farrell to get the business off and running.

"I pinch myself every day with the excitement," said Farrell. "I never thought I'd be in a place like this. Never. So for Douglas to be as supportive as he's been throughout it all and for the success we've had and everything, to be here right now is so exciting. Hopefully it's just going to keep going in the right direction. It's a lot of pressure. This place wasn't cheap and it all has to be paid for, but I think we've got an incredible bunch of horses this year."

Farrell was represented by just over a dozen breeze-up horses last year and that number has grown to 30 for 2024. In addition to a handful of horses pointing for the racetrack, point-to-point trainees round out the roster. Cont. p4

But Farrell said that the breeze-up sales are where he hopes to concentrate his focus.

“I won't completely get away from the point-to-pointers because Douglas stands a couple of very nice National Hunt stallions and there is a lot of nice young stock coming through the ranks here,” he explained. “I'd be happy to train them because he's gone out and bought some fantastic mares and he's got some very good jumps stallions, but I prefer the global market of the breeze-ups. It's such a vast market and it seems to be very strong at the moment. Hopefully that relays into the breeze-up sales.”

CF Bloodstock will be sending seven juveniles through the ring at next week's Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale. Among the group, Farrell pointed out a Kameko colt (lot 121) out of stakes winner Miss Sugars (GB) (Harbour Watch {Ire}) as well as a Sioux Nation colt (lot 123) out of the Street Cry (Ire) mare Mo Chara.

“I think they're a solid bunch,” he reported. “They're all very sound. They all X-ray clean and the scopes are excellent. Until they breeze and we get that out of the way, you don't know where you're going to land. All the homework is done now and I hope they all do themselves justice.”

Farrell's pinhook shopping takes him everywhere from Goffs and Tattersalls to Arqana and Keeneland. No matter where he's buying, Farrell considers conformation to be non-negotiable for his breeze-up prospects.

“If I had any amount of money to spend, I'd go for a gorgeous horse that is well put together before anything else,” he explained. “Then I think in terms of the breeze-ups, you need a bit of stallion power and then the pedigree nearly comes last. The Sioux Nation that goes to Craven is huge. I just felt that as a yearling last year he screamed 'racehorse' to me. He was a very mature yearling and now he looks like a 3-year-old. Funnily enough, last year Bracken's Laugh was also a very big horse and people probably didn't think he would be ready.”

“You have to think outside the box a little bit buying breeze-up horses because if everybody wants to buy the same horse, none of us would be able to buy a horse,” he added. “There's a lot of luck involved. We buy a lot of horses and some go right and some go wrong, but I look for a horse that catches my eye, that sort of tells me that he wants to be a racehorse.”

Of course the purchasing of the horse is oftentimes the easy part. The training is where the real work begins. Farrell, who has a background in eventing, cited that this area in particular is where he hopes his business garners a positive reputation.

“The way the horses are produced and their performance at the sale and going forward beyond the sale is a reflection on how we produce them,” he explained. Cont. p5

Farrell added, “We do a lot of flatwork with them and they all ride very nicely. If you get them to clock fast and they turn out that they've been drilled to clock fast, that's not good for everybody. There is no point in getting a horse to breeze and then a trainer gets them and says that the horse is so rank that he's unrideable. That would be no good for business.”

Farrell applauded the many consignors he has known over the years who have had a hand in developing the breeze-up sales' track record for producing effective athletes.

“The people producing the breeze-ups horses are doing an incredible job,” he said. “The horses are all coming out and winning within weeks of the sale. It used to be months, but it's weeks after the sale now and they're super sound. They're conditioning them to race and they're standing up to training a lot better. Their longevity is a lot better. The breeze-ups are proven to be an unbelievable source of good horses and let's hope it continues to be that way. I'm excited to be a part of it and I hope I can live up to some of the people that have come before me and do as well as they have.”

MULLINS FAVOURITE FOR BRITISH TITLE AFTER GRAND NATIONAL TRIUMPH

I Am Maximus (Fr) (Authorized {Ire}) produced one of the most impressive Grand National-winning performances in some time to propel Willie Mullins to the head of the British Trainers' Championship.

Owned by JP McManus and ridden by Paul Townend, last year's Irish Grand National hero represented winner number two in the Aintree showpiece for Mullins, who sent out Hedgehunter (Ire) (Montelimar) to success in 2005.

Returned the 7-1 co-favourite, I Am Maximus stormed clear of Delta Work (Fr) (Network {Ger}) in second with former Gold Cup winner Minella Indo (Ire) (Beat Hollow {GB}) back in third.

Betfair reacted to the victory by making Ireland's dominant jumps trainer an 8-15 favourite to clinch a breakthrough British Championship ahead of Paul Nicholls and Dan Skelton at 2-1 and 5-1, respectively.

Mullins said, "I thought Paul was super on him as I'm not sure the horse was giving him a lot of help on the way round and I could see him just minding him the whole way round.

"We saw that last year in the Irish National and he has supreme confidence in the horse and he always has that bit in the tank. When he was cut off going to the second last or the last, you saw him coming out around and just biding his time waiting for his challenge to deliver.

"I could see Paul's body language and he was happy, so I was happy then. I don't think I said anything until he got over the last and then I let go (and gave him a cheer).

"I'm buzzing here now at the moment and it's huge. As far as I know our team is back in full order with no injuries or anything and I'm happy that we have a full complement of horses and riders coming back in."

Mullins was winning the race for a second time but it was a first Aintree National victory for Townend.

The rider said, "I ended up being first down to the first to give him a look and as he got to the Melling Road he started backing off so it wasn't a great start, but the volume of horses pushed him down over the first three and he got a bit careful on the second circuit but I was trying to conserve as much as I could as well." He added, "He didn't get the clearest run from the second last to the last, but it kind of helped me and I had a feeling when I got him out he was going to start motoring in the clear air and he did."

Townend added, "The ones in front of me, I'm sure they weren't looking for me but I had them well in my sights. I was hoping he would respond like I thought he would."

"Gold Cups are Gold Cups and Grade 1s are hard to win. But Grand Nationals are just a bit different. You just need so much luck and I can't believe it, I'm a lucky boy."

Saturday's Results:

1st-Chelmsford City, £15,000, Mdn, 4-13, 3yo/up, f, 10f (AWT), 2:07.11, st.

WINTER SNOWFALL (GB) (f, 3, Galileo {Ire}--Winter Lightning {Ire} {SW & GSP-UAE, GSP-Eng, $249,076}, by Shamardal), who ran second over 11 furlongs in her Apr. 3 debut last time, broke well and stalked the tempo in second for most of this one. Urged along rounding the home turn, the 11-4 second choice tackled Danielle (GB) (Cracksman {GB}) approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to deny that rival by a half-length nearing the line. Winter Snowfall, the second foal and scorer out of dual Group 3-placed Listed UAE 1000 Guineas winner Winter Lightning (Ire) (Shamardal), is a half-sister to Listed Prix Casimir Delamarre victrix Dancing Goddess (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and kin to a yearling colt by Frankel (GB). Cont. p7

The April-foaled homebred bay's dam, one of five black-type winners produced by Eastern Joy (GB) (Dubai Destination), is a full-sister to MG1SP G2 May Hill S. victrix Ihtimal (Ire). She is also a half-sister to MG1SW sire Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}), stakes-winning G1 Falmouth S. and G1 Sun Chariot S.

placegetter Always Smile (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), G3 Mahab Al Shimaal winner Eastern World (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and G3 Oh So Sharp S. victrix First Victory (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). SWEET CAROLINA (GB) (f, 3, Zoustar {Aus}--Carolinae {GB} {SW-Eng, $211,368}, by Makfi {GB}), sent off the 6-5 favourite, missed the break and was shuffled back to rear early. Switched around rivals at the top of the straight, the newcomer rolled to the front passing the furlong pole and was coaxed clear to score comfortably by 1 1/4 lengths from Caribbean Wind (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}). The winner is the first runner for the dam, who captured the Listed Queen Charlotte S. on the all-weather, hails from the Meon Valley family of the G1 Juddmonte International heroine One So Wonderful (GB) (Nashwan). 7th-Dundalk, €25,000, Mdn, 4-13, 3yo, 10f 150y (AWT), 2:17.63, st.

PORT FAIRY (IRE) (f, 3, Australia {GB}--Fabulae {Ire}, by Fastnet Rock {Aus}), seventh on debut in the Gowran Park maiden in October in which the subsequent impressive winner Galileo Dame (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) was second, quickly assumed the lead with Ryan Moore intent on taking no prisoners. Hard at work from the top of the straight, the 7-2 second favourite held on to score by a neck from Lady Doris (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). "She had one run last year and has come on mentally and physically," Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong said. "She's a filly that's going to stay well, she was just ready to start here tonight and she'll come on fitness-wise. She'll probably go for an Oaks trial now and she'll be able to step up in trip. I'd say she wants nice ground, probably no extremes, as she's a good mover." The winner is the first runner for the dam, a half-sister to the G2 Champions Juvenile S.-placed Alder (Ire) (Australia {GB}), the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial-placed Radiantly (GB) (Aussie Rules) and to the dam of Wednesday's impressive Leopardstown maiden winner Galileo Dame (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}). From the Niarchos family of the high-class Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector), her foal is a full-sister to the winner. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $15,961.

Holding sway throughout, the 7-2 second choice came under pressure when tackled by California Dreamer (GB) (Mehmas {Ire}) soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and was driven out inside the final furlong to bravely hold that persistent rival by a head. "She jumped smart and had to do all the donkey work herself," said rider Gavin Ryan. "She's tough, hardy and a very fast filly. There is a strong headwind up the straight, but she showed a real good willing attitude. It's a long way up the straight, there is plenty for them to look at first time out and the headwind is just adding to that." Usdi Atohi is the second foal and scorer produced by a full-sister to G3 Gallinule S. third Sherpa (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Listed Knockaire S. runner-up Emporio (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}). The March-foaled bay, who hails from the family of G1 Dewhurst S. hero Beethoven (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), is a full-sister to Listed Curragh S. victrix Asean (Ire) and a weanling filly. HEART OF DARKNESS (GB) (f, 3, Mehmas {Ire}--One Kiss {GB}, by Sayif {Ire}), fourth on debut over five furlongs at Cork last month, tracked the leader from the outset. In front at the top of the straight, the 6-4 second favourite stuck to her guns to prevail by a neck from Ojw Legacy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). The dam is a daughter of the G3 Molecomb S. winner Inya Lake (GB) (Whittingham {Ire}) and half to the G3 Prix de Meautry scorer Jimmy Styles (GB) (Inchior {GB}). Sent forward to overhaul that daughter of Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) with a furlong remaining, the newcomer stayed on to score by a length. "She has a lovely pedigree, obviously being related to Zarinsk. If she can be half as good as her we'll be happy," jockey Colin Keane said. "She couldn't have made a better start. Aidan's filly had a couple of good runs and I think our filly can only improve." The winner is a half-sister to the stable's talented Zarinsk (GB) (Kodiac {GB}), who also scored on her debut before going on to success in the G2 Minstrel S., G3 Brownstown S. and G3 Cornelscourt S. The listed-winning dam, who was also a winner first time out, is kin to the G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio winner and G1 Gran Premio di Milano-placed Exhibit One (Silver Hawk). From the family of Zafonic, her 2-year-old filly Babouche (GB) is a full-sister to Zarinsk while she also has a yearling filly by Expert Eye (GB). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $7,661. LONDON CITY (c, 3, Justify--Winter {Ire} {MG1SW-Eng, G1SW-Ire, $1,424,358}, by Galileo {Ire}), sixth when last seen in a nine-furlong Tipperary maiden in September, shadowed the early leader. Committed passing two out, the 11-10 favourite stayed on strongly to record a 1 1/2-length verdict over Ozark Daze (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). "He had a good run the first day in the Curragh and then things just didn't go right for him in Tipperary," Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong said. "He's a massive horse and he's still a baby mentally, he's going to come on mentally and physically. He's a horse that we'll take baby steps with and towards the end of the year he could turn into a nice horse. He's a typical Justify, he has a great mind on him, a great action and he gets a trip very well." The winner is the third foal out of the G1 1000 Guineas, G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Coronation S. and G1 Nassau S. heroine Winter, with the second being the ultimately disappointing TDN Rising Star Beginnings (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). A daughter of the Wokingham H. winner Laddies Poker Two (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}), whose other notable performer was Galileo's listed scorer and G2 Kilboy Estate S. runner-up Lovelier (Ire), her 2-year-old is a full-sister to the winner while she was bred to Into Mischief for 2024. ## PRIDE OF JENNI DEMOLISHES QUEEN

ELIZABETH FIELD by Oz Wedmore & Keely Mckitterick

You could be forgiven for wiping your eyes in disbelief as Pride Of Jenni (Aus) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) pulled further and further clear in the running of the 2024 G1 Queen Elizabeth--in a performance that will last long in the racing nation's collective memory.

Travelling some 30l clear of the field at one point down the back straight under Declan Bates, the 6-year-old mare clocked sub-12-second fractions for much of the running of the 2000-metre contest, and her advantage was still an incredible 6.54l at the line, despite slowing somewhat in the home stretch.

Her nearest pursuer was last-start G1 Ranvet S. winner and odds-on favourite Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), whilst Mr Brightside (NZ) (Bullbars) filled third spot.

Asked if he'd ever seen or ridden in a race like this before, Bates said, "I don't think many people have, to be honest.

"Anytime I ride her I've felt I've got her into a nice rhythm and I was quite happy--today I was never happy, I just felt she was doing it her way, and she knows best I think."

Speaking in a state of disbelief, and having just notched a quick-fire Group 1 double following the Sydney Cup, winning trainer Ciaran Maher said, "I've never seen anything like that, ever.

"That's the biggest win I've ever seen, let alone had anything to do with."

Pride Of Jenni streaks clear | Bronwen Healy

Following a breakthrough spring in which she won her first two Group 1s, the Empire Rose S. and Cantala S., Pride Of Jenni was a convincing winner of the All-Star Mile at her latest start, but few could have predicted such a performance on Saturday from the Trelawney Stud-bred mare, who was a AU$100,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase in 2019 by Cape Schanck Stud.

Pedigree Notes

One of the 23 stakes winners for her Coolmore Stud based G1 Blue Diamond S. and ATC Sires Produce S. winning sire, she was bred by Trelawney Stud and the Taylor Family Trust and sold by Segenhoe Stud to Cape Schanck Stud for $100,000 at the 2019 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

Her dam is the four times winner Sancerre (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) whose dam is the G1 Queensland Oaks heroine Vouvray (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}).

Vouvray is also the granddam of the Listed Calaway S. winner Champ Elect (Aus) (Choisir {Aus}) and her dam is the triple group winner Real Success (Aus) (Success Express) who also produced the Listed Victoria Cup winner Bolton (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}) as well as the dam of the G1 Thorndon Mile winner A Touch Of Ruby (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) and the G1 NZ 1000 Guineas winner Loire (NZ) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}).

Ancestress of this family is the influential broodmare Pocahontas (Roman).

Served last spring by Hello Youmzain (Fr) having missed the previous season, Sancerre foaled a Per Incanto filly in 2022--and her 3-year-old son Awatere (NZ) by that same stallion won his maiden at Matamata in January.

CIRCLE OF FIRE A SECOND GROUP 1 FOR ALMANZOR IN EMOTIONAL SYDNEY CUP

by Oz Wedmore & Keely Mckitterick

Circle Of Fire (GB) (Almanzor {Fr}) landed with a bang on his third start in Australia, taking out the G2 Chairman's Quality a week ago, and found no problems in backing up in Saturday's G1 Sydney Cup for Ciaran Maher.

In a masterfully simple ride, visiting jockey Andrea Atzeni sat just off the pace, reeled in Major Beel (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) as he entered the home straight, and kicked clear in the closing stages to finish 2.07l clear of Athabasca (Fr)--who is also by Almanzor (Fr).

Circle Of Fire | Bronwen Healy

Flying in for the ride from Hong Kong, Atzeni had been in Australia twice recently to visit his close friend and compatriot Stefano Cherchi, and post-race turned his attention to the late jockey's family who were on-course at Randwick.

"It's my first time riding in Sydney," Atzeni said. "I've been here twice in the last few weeks... unfortunately not for a good reason.

"You think you're prepared for something like this but, when it comes to it, you're never prepared."

Bred and raced in the UK by The Queen, Circle Of Fire becomes a second Group 1 winner for Almanzor--who shuttles between Haras d'Etremham in France and Cambridge Stud--following G1 Victoria Derby winner Manzoice (Aus), who himself finished a distant 14th in this race.

Fourth over a similar trip at last year's Royal Ascot in the G2 Queen's Vase, Circle Of Fire had just six starts in the UK, joining the Maher stable as a 4-year-old this year.

"It's unbelievable, isn't it?" Maher said. "I met Andrea after Royal Ascot last year in Sienna, in Italy, and he said he was going to Hong Kong and if I could find him a ride.

"He said I took my time," Maher laughed. "But, it's funny how things work out... with what's happened in the past fortnight, the fact that he could come out here and ride the horse (is) phenomenal."

Pedigree Notes

One of 15 stakes winners for his sire, he is a half-brother to the G3 San Francisco S. winner Evening Sun (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) out of the winner Fiery Sunset (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) whose half-brother Absolutely Win (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) is a Listed winner in Macau.

Fiery Sunset's dam is the G3 Prix Corrida winner Diese (Diesis {GB}) whose three stakes winners include the dual Group 1 winner Senure. Diese's granddam is the famed matriarch Best In Show (Traffic Judge) who has had such great influence in this part of the world as ancestress of Redoute's Choice (Aus)--and of whom Circle Of Fire's granddam boasts another strain in El Gran Senor.

Circle Of Fire is yet another nice horse boasting a cross of the great mare Special (Forli {Arg}), Circle Of Fire via Nureyev and Sadler's Wells.

ANGEL PROVIDES AUTUMN WITH MAIDEN GROUP 1

by Oz Wedmore & Keely Mckitterick

Three star fillies fanned the famous Randwick turf, battling to the line to secure success in the G1 Australian Oaks. Two of them--Orchestral (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) and Zardozi (Aus) (Kingman {GB}) had already tasted Group 1 glory, while the third Autumn Angel (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}) was lining up in a Group 1 for the first time.

Orchestral looked to have the G1 Australian Oaks in the bag as they raced towards the finishing line but finishing strongly together was the G1 VRC Oaks victress and Autumn Angel. The latter on the seven-day backup dug deep to deny Orchestral, who was denied second place by Zardozi.

Autumn Angel, ridden by Mark Zahra, was placed in the G3 Adrian Knox S. last Saturday on a Heavy 9. She was narrowly beaten by Good Banter (NZ) (Tavistock {Aus}) giving her an 8kg advantage.

It was the second Group 1 success in seven days for Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman, who also tasted victory with the smart 2-year-old Eneza (Aus) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in the G2 Percy Sykes earlier on the Randwick program.

Co-trainer Moody told 7HorseRacing, "Autumn Angel has done that well all week, she's been bucking around, and I was terrified I hadn't done enough with her.

"Well done to Mark (Zahra), brilliant ride. Also, well done to my whole team and Wylie Dalziel. I've bought Wylie, a Group 1 winner, owned a Group 1 winner together but never trained a Group 1 winner for him until now.

"She's taken us on a wonderful ride. It is nice to be rewarded because we could have gone to the G1 VRC Oaks in the spring where she would have been the logical favourite, but we felt she wasn't ready."

Pedigree Notes

Autumn Angel is the fifth foal from the Hussonet mare Angel Of Mercy (Aus), who won six races, including the G3 Lord Mayor's Cup and the Listed James HB Carr S.

Angel Of Mercy is from the family of the brilliant Divine Madonna (Aus) (Hurricane Sky {Aus}), a victress of the G1 Emirates S., the G1 Myer Classic, the G1 Queen of the Turf and the G1 Toorak H.

The filly is the first Group 1 winner for The Autumn Sun, a son of Redoute's Choice, who won five Group 1 races. He retired to Arrowfield Stud and to date has been represented by four stakes winners. Additionally, The Autumn Sun's Listed-winning daughter Coco Sun (Aus) won at Bendigo, putting together two consecutive victories.

The G1 Australian Oaks is the fourth career victory for Autumn Angel, who claimed the G2 Kewney S. and the G3 Ethereal S. earlier in her career. The filly was a AU$230,000 purchase by Dalziel Bloodstock and Moody Racing from the draft of Arrowfield Stud at the 2022 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

Autumn Angel | Bronwen Healy

Bred by Arrowfield and Jungle Pocket, Autumn Angel is a granddaughter of Pieta (Aus) (Clay Hero {Aus}). Stakes winners Maternal (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) and Live To Tell (Aus) (Territories {Ire}) also hail from this family.

The dam of another two winners, Angel Of Mercy was served last spring by Hitotsu (Aus) having foaled a colt by his sire Maurice (Jpn) in October. Cont. p13

Her 2022 foal is a full sister to Autumn Angel whilst her 2-year-old Stolen Summer (Aus) (also by The Autumn Sun) has been retained by Arrowfield and Jungle Pocket and is a member of the Paul Messara and Leah Gavranich stable.

ZOUGOTCHA HOLDS ON IN FIERCELY RUN QUEEN OF THE TURF

by Oz Wedmore & Keely Mckitterick

Chris Waller was assured of victory in the AU$1 million G1 Queen of the Turf S., even if it took a moment to split marginal favourite Zougotcha (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) from the diving Atishu (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}).

Zougotcha had enjoyed a smooth run in third behind 3-year-old filly Tropical Squall (Aus) (Prized Icon {Aus}), and made a seemingly unchallenged move up the rail. However, as Atishu charged from behind, just 0.04l separated the Waller-trained pair at the line, with familiar opponent Semana (Aus) (Winning Rupert {Aus}) 1.24l back in third.

Now a triple Group 1 winner, the 4-year-old Zougotcha's (relatively) lean spell in the spring was down to trying her at sprint distances erroneously, Waller has previously admitted. However, she's now three-from-three in 2024, and is building an impressive resume having taken out the G1 Coolmore Classic a month ago.

"We gave her a decent break after she didn't come up in the spring and put her in the right races and she's just gone bang, bang, bang," Waller said, having now notched 161 Group 1s.

"Atishu, she's tough, another stride and it might have been different celebrations," he added.

"A mile is probably a stretch, especially here at Randwick," winning jockey James McDonald said. "But, her will to win is phenomenal and that's what gets her over the line."

Zougotcha was picked out from co-breeder Widden Stud's draft by Chris Waller and Guy Mulcaster Bloodstock at the 2021 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, where she cost Chris Waller Racing and Mulcaster Bloodstock AU$500,000.

With Widden retaining a share in the mare, she is owned in a partnership led by Noel Greenhalgh, for whom she has now won close to AU$2.5 million.

Pedigree Notes

Zougotcha was bred by Widden Stud (home to her sire who has been well represented by 53 stakes winners) with the Rma Bloodstock Trust.

She is one of three stakes winners for her dam, the stakes placed triple city winner Fast Talker (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) whose dam is the listed winner Crystal Wit (Aus) (Distorted Humor). Also dam of the listed winners Persuader (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) and The Actuary (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) as well as the city winner Campaign (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}), Fast Talker was again served last spring by Zoustar having missed to him the previous year. Cont. p14

Her yearling--a son of Written Tycoon (Aus)--was purchased by MG Price Racing and Breeding and Dermot Farrington for AU$500,000 at Easter last week.

Fast Talker is a half-sister to the G3 Heath S. winner Crystal Dreamer (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}) from the family of the G1 Golden Slipper S. winner Crystal Lily (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}) and the stakes winners Amaethon (Aus) (Al Maher {Aus}), Crystal Web (Aus) (Hard Spun) and Carrara (Aus).
