

ANOTHER CRAVEN CRACKER FOR KAVANAGH AS GALILEO COLT MAKES A MILLION

Roderic Kavanagh consigned the seven-figure top lot | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

The cliché of the difficult second album is very real. You have just recorded your greatest hit so, in many ways, you could feel destined to fail in attempting to follow up on something so special.

Roderic Kavanagh set the bar pretty high in consigning Vandeeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale last year. The colt, bought by Anthony Stroud on behalf of KHK Racing, has turned out to be a dual Group 1-winning superstar who has yet to taste defeat. That's what you call a hit single.

It was going to take more magic from Kavanagh to conjure up something as good and only a fool could think it possible for him to better such a result. However, the gifted young breeze-up handler showed he is far from a one-hit wonder when his Galileo (Ire) colt became the third-highest breeze-up horse sold at public auction in Europe at 1 million gns.

Once again, it was Stroud who did the buying, this time on behalf of Godolphin with Kia Joorabchian of Amo Racing filling the role of underbidder. Cont. p3

PRETTY CRYSTAL LEADS DUBAWI ONE TWO IN THE NELL GWYN

by Tom Frary

One of the more exposed fillies in the line-up for Wednesday's G3 Lanwades Stud Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket, Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum's Pretty Crystal (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) emerged on top of a battle with Dubawi's other runner Dance Sequence (GB). Sent off at 18-1, the homebred daughter of Pretty Baby (Ire) (Orpen) counts a second in the G3 Princess Margaret S. among her five juvenile efforts and raced prominently under Oisin Orr throughout the early stages.

"I used to love you Stroudy....not anymore," Joorabchian joked with the sale's leading buyer shortly after the hammer fell. But Amo's role in the tussle shouldn't be underestimated and nobody was more keenly aware of that than an emotional Kavanagh.

"It just aligned, didn't it? For Amo to go that far, I wasn't expecting that," he said. "We were concerned that Godolphin and KHK Racing wouldn't bid against each other but, the fact that they relaid, it shows what they thought it would take to buy him. It's beyond our dreams. But you do dream occasionally that something like that could happen when you have one of the last Galileos in your yard. He's just a natural athlete. The last month has been tense because we knew we had something special. It's incredible."

Lot 112, Wednesday's leader and the overall sale topper | Tattersalls

Asked if he felt much pressure to follow up on last year's achievements with Vandeeck, Kavanagh responded, "We were quite disciplined all year and didn't lose the run of ourselves at all. Then that horse came up and you could feel there was a possibility to get something that was unique. But I didn't think that would happen. I have other horses who I really liked coming here and it didn't happen for them. Maybe that's just the attributes of this horse--he just doesn't disappoint, and hopefully he won't disappoint."

It is probably fair to describe lot 112 as not your typical breeze-up horse. Bought by Kavanagh's Glending Stables for 125,000gns from The Castlebridge Consignment at the Tattersalls December Yearling Sale, the colt from the last crop of his legendary stallion's two-year-olds repaid the young consignor's vision.

Darley

NOW IS THE TIME...

Since Easter, there's been any number of Darley-sired Group winners and Stakes horses – many of them, including undefeated Classic trial winners A Lilac Rolla (by Harry Angel) and Lazzat (Territories), the result of May covers. And Farhh's French Derby prospect Atlas wasn't even foaled until 31 May.

The moral of the story? It's never too late to breed a top-class Darley-sired horse. Call to discuss your options...

Kavanagh continued, "I thought there was a chance that he would make half of what he did. But there are no blemishes with that horse and hopefully he's as good as the last fella!"

He added, "We were really lucky to get him. You start looking around and wondering, 'what's missing here?' I'd say that's why we were able to buy him--people thought there might have been something missing in the puzzle but there wasn't.

"When the vet came back and gave us the green light we said, 'wow, this is a unique opportunity.' It's a lot of money for us to give but you're thinking and dreaming of the bigger picture. If it hadn't been for Vandeeek, maybe we wouldn't have gone out and spent that money on the Galileo. Vandeeek has been a life-changing horse for us."

The Galileo was the highlight of what proved a strong evening's buying for Stroud on behalf of Godolphin and others.

On the Galileo, he commented, "We all thought he is a very nice horse and is the last horse by Galileo to go through public auction. He came from the same hotel as Vandeeek. The colt deserved to do well and he did well. When two people really want a horse then it can make any price. It is great for the breeze up sale."

"Selectivity To The Trade"

Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony acknowledged the extreme weather conditions that wreaked havoc during breeze day at this year's sale and pointed to the "selectivity to the trade" in his post-sale statement.

Of the 147 lots offered, 106 were sold at a clearance rate of 72% [down 4% on last year]. The aggregate was down 5% to 14,584,500gns while the median stayed the same at 80,000gns and the average climbed 13% to 137,590gns.

Anthony Stroud purchased the six top lots over the two-day stand for a gross of 4.25 million gns for various clients. | Tattersalls

Mahony said, "Above all we would like to congratulate every single consignor and all associated with the way in which they coped with the extreme weather conditions which we encountered on the morning of the breeze. The professionalism, both human and equine, shone through the persistent wind and rain and it has been wonderful to see some memorable pinhooking triumphs despite the adversity.

"The Craven Breeze-Up Sale has produced the best British two-year-olds of their generation in two of the last three years as well as two Guineas winners and the global participation this week reflects the sale's reputation as a prolific source of Group 1 performers. Domestic British and Irish buyers have been joined by a strong contingent from throughout the Gulf region, with Saudi connections particularly prominent, and American participation, which has been such a feature of Book 1 of the October Yearling Sale in recent years, has also been notable."

He added, "Obviously the outstanding Galileo colt selling for one million guineas, the second-highest price ever for a Craven Breeze-Up two-year-old and the third-highest in Europe, was the highlight of the sale and the second consecutive year that Roderic Kavanagh's Glending Stables has topped the sale which is a remarkable achievement."

Mahony added, "As a 125,000 gns yearling purchase only five months ago the colt was a truly spectacular pinhooking achievement and there were numerous other notable successes which reflect the outstanding professionalism of the consignors. It should be noted, however, that while the key metrics of average and median compare well with last year's record-breaking sale, the clearance rate has fallen short and there has been a selectivity to the trade which should not be overlooked.

"There has been no shortage of competition, both domestic and international, at the top of the market and a record number of lots selling for 500,000 gns or more, but the lower levels of the market have not matched the robust demand at the higher end.

"Nevertheless, we are confident that this year's Craven Breeze Up Sale will prove to be an abundant source of high-class racehorses to follow in the illustrious footsteps of Cachet (Ire), Native Trail (GB) and Vandeeck."

Poste Delivers A Dream Debut Performance

Ex-jumps jockey Charlie Poste spoke to TDN Europe at the beginning of the year about the reasoning behind branching out from solely consigning point-to-point horses to dipping his toe into the waters of the breeze-up business.

The international clientele on the Flat was put forward as one of the main lures for the man whose roots are entrenched in National Hunt racing.

That bold move to diversify paid off in spades as Poste marked his dream debut with a Blue Point (Ire) colt (lot 147) and filly (lot 132) selling for close to 1 million gns.

It was the Blue Point colt who stole the show at 800,000gns to Godolphin.

Fran & Charlie Poste | Tattersalls

Eddie O'Leary | Tattersalls

Bought by Blandford Bloodstock's Tom Biggs and Poste's Station Yard at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale, he brought in a multitude of that initial €78,000 outlay.

Poste said, "It is far more of a kick than I ever got riding a winner! We have to thank the syndicate who backed us, especially as we have not got the pedigree for doing this. Tom Biggs helped buy him and mates such as Mark Grant helped us through the whole process.

"I was nervous before they breezed as I did not want to be embarrassed. Francesca [Poste's wife] and I pride ourselves on doing these horses well, and the fact that he pitched up and he galloped as straight as a gun barrel and was seriously quick--he backed up what we had seen at home.

"But the truth of the matter is that we are used to training point-to-pointers and, me thinking he is fast, might not mean a whole heap. It has been a long time since I was riding at Richard Fahey's as an apprentice! But he came and showed us that we were spot on."

Poste added, "We had been interested in breezing for a while but lacked the capital. We have loved the process and a change is as good as a rest. It has been seriously exciting for us. I didn't think in my wildest dreams it would end up like this at our first go."

Talking Points

- If at first you don't succeed, try, try and try again. Eddie O'Leary might have been left cursing his luck when he failed to sell his Kingman (GB) colt out of proven broodmare Pure Excellence (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) (lot 150) at Book 1. Bought as a foal from Hazelwood Bloodstock for 230,000gns, he was led out unsold at 140,000gns last year, with O'Leary left with few options other than to breeze the colt. Cont. p6

Well, it turned out to be for luck, with the brother to Group 3 and Listed winner Parent's Prayer (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) rocking into 800,000gns to Godolphin. "He was very, very popular--he's a very nice horse with a temperament that you could not fault," O'Leary said afterwards. Asked how the transaction compared to having a Grade 1 win at Aintree last week with exciting novice hurdler Brighterdaysahead (Fr), he replied, "I hope he can run faster than her."

- Katie Walsh won't be forgetting this week in a hurry. Less than 24 hours after selling her New Bay (GB) colt to Godolphin for 525,000gns, Walsh's Greenhills Farm secured the same sum from the same buyer for a Havana Grey (GB) filly [98]. Shortly after getting off the phone to her father Ted, she said, "I am emotional tonight--it is unbelievable. It has been a great couple of days and it has been really special. I understand how hard it is. For the last couple of weeks I have been saying, 'Jesus, I can't have two of them!' It is so hard to get one, let alone two. I didn't really say it out loud, but quietly thought it at home, as we all did." Walsh added, "I ride a lot of them at home but all the lads in the yard have prepared them so well and the pair of these seemed to have something special. Her sire is on fire and the whole thing worked." The Havana Grey represented another fine pinhooking profit having been bought by Mags O'Toole and Norman Williamson for 80,000gns at the Somerville Yearling Sale.
- You've got to hand it to Anthony Stroud. He was the dominant buyer this week and accounted for the six top lots through either Godolphin or Stroud Coleman Bloodstock.

- It won't come as a surprise to many to see Blue Point and Havana Grey ending the Craven Sale high on the sires' podium. Obviously propped up by Station Yard's 800,000gns colt, but Blue Point had another big sale with nine lots selling for a combined 2,070,000gns. The Havana Grey train does not look like it will be slowing down any time soon, either, with eight lots making just shy of 1.5 million gns.
- Tally-Ho Stud ended the sale as the leading consignors with seven lots sold for 1,602,000gns, headed by a 600,000gns Persian King (Ire) colt (lot 154) bought by Anthony Stroud to go into training with Richard Fahey for KHK Racing. Roger O'Callaghan said afterwards, "We really like Persian King as a sire. We tried to buy him ourselves but they would not sell. This is a cracking horse." The half-brother to Group 3-placed Ritournelle (Fr) (Camelot {GB}) was sourced by Tally-Ho at Arqana in December for €80,000.
- Michael O'Callaghan's commitment to the breeze-up sales continued with the Kildare-based trainer coming home from Newmarket with four new additions to the tune of 755,000gns.
- One of the more interesting names to pop up on the buyers sheet was Mike Repole. It was Jacob West, signing under his West Bloodstock, who bought Tally-Ho's Blue Point colt (lot 133) for 280,000gns on behalf of the leading American owner. Cont. p7

Lot 98, a daughter of Havana Grey, was the highest priced filly at 525,000gns | Tattersalls

- Mick Donohoe explained on Tuesday how a lot of his business this week would be done on behalf of Saudi Arabian interests. The BBA Ireland agent went on to snap up an American Pharoah colt (lot 175) consigned by Longways Stables to fulfill that criteria at 285,000gns.

Thought For The Day

Much like last year, day two of the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale proved to be much stronger than the opening session. Eight of the top 10 lots were sold on Wednesday.

Share this story

It may be blindingly obvious but how can you give this award to any other horse other than the top lot? Okay, okay, 125,000gns is hardly a small sum of money to part with when snapping up breeze-up prospects at the yearling sales, but the Galileo colt made that initial outlay seem tiny when breaking the seven-figure marker. Hats off to everyone associated with the colt. A job well done.

Getting to Kathmandu (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) a furlong out, the Richard Fahey-trained chestnut kept Godolphin's 10-11 favourite at bay for a neck success, with Kathmandu tiring to be two lengths away in third.

Pretty Crystal, who was also fourth in Goodwood's G3 Prestige Fillies' S. and Ayr's G3 Firth of Clyde S., is not entered in the 1000 Guineas for which this race acts as one of the key preps.

"She is a sweet filly, had been working well and was fairly fit--I was a fraction disappointed she didn't win a black-type race last year but she always ran solidly and was a little bit unlucky in some of her races," Fahey said.

"These Dubawis get better with age--I think this is the first one I've been sent--and she had a good go at it and put her head down there. I'm probably going to regret not putting her in the Guineas, but it's tough when they get beaten two or three times. I wouldn't say there is no chance of supplementing her, as it's tough to find a race with a Group 3 penalty, but it may be the [G2] German Guineas, that springs to mind--I'll speak to connections." Cont. p9

Charlie Appleby was far from downcast after the narrow eclipse of Dance Sequence. “Without winning, we are delighted with the run and that is very much what the trials are there for,” he said. “I spoke to William [Buick] and said ‘we are going to have to ride her a bit closer to the pace, because the twice she ran last year she just got through the line and was learning on the job’. Today there were pacier fillies in there and I thought he might just have to ask her a bit more to get to them and I think we saw all of that develop throughout the race.

“Even going to the line, William thought he had won and she ducks out towards the rail so it’s just all about learning and I think you will see a different filly in two and a half weeks’ time. That extra furlong will suit and just the experience of this itself. Needless to say, we hope there is a little bit more there hopefully.”

Pedigree Notes

She was a granddaughter of the G3 Prix Minerve winner Prairie Runner (Ire) (Arazi), whose son Prairie Star (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) took the G2 Prix Hocquart and was placed in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and whose daughter Pacific Rim (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) captured the G2 Prix de Malleret before throwing the G3 JRA Plate winner Paths Of Glory (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}).

OTTOMAN FLEET NOTCHES EARL OF SEFTON REPEAT ON EUROPEAN RETURN By Sean Cronin

Godolphin’s Ottoman Fleet (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) had won one of five overseas starts since annexing last term’s G3 bet365 Earl Of Sefton S. at Newmarket and made a winning European return thread with back-to-back victories in Wednesday’s latest renewal of the nine-furlong test.

The gelded 5-year-old backed up last term’s success with a win in Belmont’s GII Fort Marcy S. before hitting the board in June’s GI Manhattan S. back in New York. The son of Innevera \(Fr\) (Motivator {GB}) then returned off a sabbatical to place in Meydan’s G2 Al Rashidiya and G1 Jebel Hatta, but dropped to eighth in February’s G2 Singspiel S. last time.

Ottoman Fleet inched forward to stalk the leading duo in a handy third after the initial strides, but slipped one spot with three furlongs remaining. Making smooth headway on the bridle once inside the quarter-mile pole, he seized control entering the final furlong and was ridden out in the latter stages to assert superiority by a length from last year’s Cambridgeshire H. victor Astro King \(Ire\) (Kingman {GB}).

“He just took a bit of a tug, but I thought there was going to be more pace on to be honest,” said Charlie Appleby. Cont. p10

“He’s been a very consistent horse and has run well in Dubai,” Appleby said. “Unfortunately, his last race was a bit disappointing, but I think he was just getting the hang of Meydan again. Kieren Fallon rides him at home and said he is as well as he’d ever felt him, so we came knowing that he was in good order and we know the track suits him. Now he has a penalty it makes him harder to place and we have a team in America, so there is a possibility he could go out there and join them.”

Pedigree Notes

Ottoman Fleet is the first of five foals and one of two winners from as many runners produced by the dual-winning Innevera (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), who has a 2-year-old filly by Pinatubo (Ire) and a yearling filly by Zarak (Fr) to come. The February-foaled bay’s dam is a half-sister to five black-type winners, namely G1 Lockinge S.-winning sire Keltos (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}), MG1SP G2 Prix du Muguet victor Krataios (Fr) (Sabrehill), GSW G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud third Loxias (Fr) (Saumarez {GB}), G3 Prix Quincey-winning sire Kavafi (Ire) (Zafonic) and MSW G3 Prix de la Jonchere and G3 Prix Edmond Blanc runner-up Iridanos (GB) (Sabrehill). Descendants of his third dam Northshiel (GB) (Northfields), herself a winning half to MGSW sire Waajib (Ire) (Try My Best), include stakes-winning GII American Derby and GII San Luis Obispo H. second Californian (GB) (Zafonic) and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere and G1 Coronation Cup runner-up Salouen (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}).

RACE PREVIEWS

COLTS GATHER FOR CRAVEN PUZZLE

By Tom Frary

With no standout member of the line-up, Thursday’s G3 Craven S. at Newmarket may offer more clues as to the 2000 Guineas prospects of those in absentia who share the stables of the main contenders. Ballydoyle are perhaps scouting the local opposition to City Of Troy with Cambridge (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), while Godolphin saddle Native Approach (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) possibly with a view to weighing up where their Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) sits. Andre Fabre is here again with Baron Edouard De Rothschild’s TDN Rising Star Alcantor (Fr) (New Bay {GB}), but he was found slightly wanting at the highest level last term as was Prince Faisal Bin Khaled & Najd Stud’s fellow TDN Rising Star Eben Shaddad (Calyx {GB}) representing the Gosdens. Eben Shaddad currently occupies favouritism and will provide more evidence as to the merit of City Of Troy who galloped him and others into the ground in the G1 Dewhurst S. here in October. Cont. p11

Alcantor | Scoop Dyga

Cautious Approach...

Charlie Appleby galloped his two main Guineas contenders at the track on Wednesday, but that is not to say that the Kempton winner Native Approach could not join them on the first Saturday in May. "He looks great at home, but he's got to go and switch it on on the turf now," he said. "I'm always one who would rather just sit before I get too bolshy over what they have achieved or what they could achieve--like Notable Speech, he's doing it at a different level at the moment. At the end of the day, from the outside looking in, the only way you can beat City Of Troy is by an unexposed three-year-old, because what he beat last year, I don't see anything reversing the form myself."

Is There More From Alcantor?

Fabre looked to have a serious Classic contender on his hands in Alcantor last term, but despite winning Saint-Cloud's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon he was unable to impose himself on the G1 Criterium International which has taken a few knocks already this season. Whatever the outcome on Thursday, his trainer has no intention of returning next month. "He has no plan to come for the English Guineas, the French is a possible option," he revealed.

Of the remainder, Jane Chapple-Hyam has two intriguing runners in the dual all-weather winner Champagne Prince (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and Hugo Morriss and Kirsten Rausing's Sons And Lovers (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}) who overcame greenness to win on his sole start over seven furlongs in October.

APPLEBY HONING CLASSIC TEAM AS ARABIAN CROWN HAS RACECOURSE GALLOP

By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--Charlie Appleby, who takes aim at a fourth victory in the Bet365 Craven S. on Thursday with Native Approach (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}), took advantage of the Rowley Mile early on Wednesday morning to give one of his Derby prospects, Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), a racecourse gallop. The winner of the G3 Zetland S. at the course last October, Arabian Crown, ridden by William Buick, worked over seven furlongs alongside his older stable-mate King Of Conquest (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and James Doyle.

"He was always going to pick up as soon as he met the rising ground. I was pleased with that," said the trainer, who is aiming to start Arabian Crown in the Classic Trial at Sandown on April 26.

"Those mile-and-a-quarter, mile-and-a-half horses can be sleepers during the winter. We only really work them at home over five furlongs and a horse like this is only just getting warmed up over that distance."

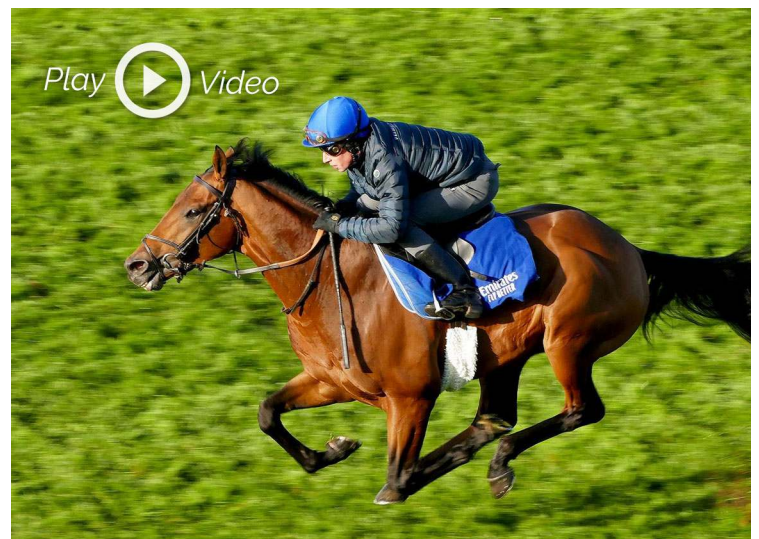

As for the colt's potential route to Epsom, he added, "It will depend what we see at Sandown. If he goes and wins by three or four lengths we'd probably say that was enough to go straight to the Derby. If he just wins or is placed you might feel you'd have to go again. As an example, Adayar went from there to Lingfield and then on the Derby. There are options."

Appleby had been intending to gallop G1 Kameko Futurity Trophy winner Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) at the track on Wednesday but changed his plans owing to the drying ground, which may also mean the colt misses the Qipco 2,000 Guineas.

He said, "He's going to want cut in the ground so therefore I don't want to start his season off on quick ground in the Guineas. We might have to wait for the French or the Irish Guineas. He's in great order and I'm not under pressure to get a racecourse gallop into him because he's generous at home anyway."

"On pedigree I would say he'd get further than a mile. His stamina came into play in the Futurity and I would say he'd get a mile and a quarter, probably a mile and a half as well."

Looking ahead to the season, Appleby said of his juvenile team, "We've got a sharper bunch this year. We didn't have any two-year-old runners this early last season. We're intending to bring a few more out in the coming weeks and have a few runners at the Guineas meeting." Cont. p12

Arabian Crown | Emma Berry

He continued, "We're coming into this season with better momentum. We managed to have a winner on Dubai World Cup night which we hadn't had for a couple of years. We've campaigned a bit more on the all-weather than we would have done in previous years as well so there's more momentum in the stable first and foremost, but secondly we are starting the season off with some proven two-year-olds [from last year]. I feel like we have a better division: some sharper two-year-olds and some nice three-year-olds."

Appleby, who has enjoyed notable success with his runners in America over the last decade, currently has a team of 12 horses stabled at Keeneland, where he won last weekend's Maker's Mark Mile with Master Of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who won the Craven S. back in 2021 before being beaten a short-head in the 2,000 Guineas by Poetic Flare (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}).

"'Master' winning last weekend was great," he said. "He'll carry on campaigning through the summer, and Rebel's Romance winning in Qatar and Derby has been great. They're two six-year-olds and this is going to be potentially their last season in training. 'Rebel' might go to Hong Kong yet, we're not sure, but if he doesn't go there then the target will be the Sword Dancer at Saratoga in the hope of then going back to the Breeders' Cup Turf. It would be nice to have Rebel's Romance and Master Of The Seas, both past winners, at the Breeders' Cup again at the end of the season."

GALLOPERS APLENTY AS CLASSIC HOPEFULS SWERVE TRIALS By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK--The action on the Rowley Mile on Wednesday wasn't restricted to the seven scheduled races on the card, with a host of potential Classic runners taking part in racecourse gallops just before the first race of the day.

The headline act was the Karl Burke-trained Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}), who is currently co-favourite for the Qipco 1,000 Guineas on May 5. She was put through her paces by Danny Tudhope.

"I was very happy with her and Danny was delighted," said Burke of Steve Parkin's homebred G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner who galloped shortly after the same owner's Night Raider (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). The unbeaten colt is being aimed at the 2,000 Guineas.

"We've got two and a half weeks and she has time for at least one more good piece of work at home. This was always the plan and she needed the gallop for fitness, whereas Night Raider, we brought him here for experience.

"After watching that and what we saw last year, I think [Fallen

Angel] has a good chance of staying at least a mile and a quarter. She is in the Oaks but we don't need to worry about that just yet and we will concentrate on the Guineas for now.

"She's a filly who saves her best for when she is really asked and, as you saw in the Moyglare last year, she looked beaten and then was doing her best work crossing the line. I think that will be the same in the Guineas."

Burke added of Night Raider, who worked well alongside stable-mate and Group 2-winning miler Flight Plan (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), "The colt is a very good horse, but inexperience could count against him. He's a lovely horse going forward and physically and mentally he will improve through the year.

"He will have learned loads today and that was his first proper gallop on grass."

Fallen Angel & Danny Tudhope | Emma Berry

Burke noted that Flight Plan, who is also owned by Parkin's Clipper Logistics, will run in next week's G3 Bet365 Mile at Sandown ahead of a possible tilt at the G1 Lockinge S.

Alyanaabi (Ire), trained by Owen Burrows for Shadwell, also undertook a racecourse gallop ahead of his potential appearance in the 2,000 Guineas. Another from the first crop of Too Darn Hot, he was second to 2,000 Guineas favourite City Of Troy (Justify) in the G1 Dewhurst S. last October.

"Jim [Crowley, jockey] said he settled well, which was good because he can be a little keen at home," Burrows said. "Mentally, it will do him the world of good and hopefully he can step forward from it in two and a half weeks.

"Originally, I didn't think I needed to bring him up here, but we were quite keen to get him on some nice ground and there's not a lot of that around at the moment.

"Physically, he has done well and we have a bit to find [with City Of Troy], so we will just have to see." Cont. p13

Iberian (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), winner of the G2 Champagne S. for Teme Valley and Ballylinch Stud, was another in action before racing and, ridden by Tom Marquand, he forged clear of his workmate smartly out of the dip in an easy gallop.

"His work on fast ground is completely different to that on soft at home and he never really had the chance to show his full potential last year," said Iberian's trainer Charlie Hills.

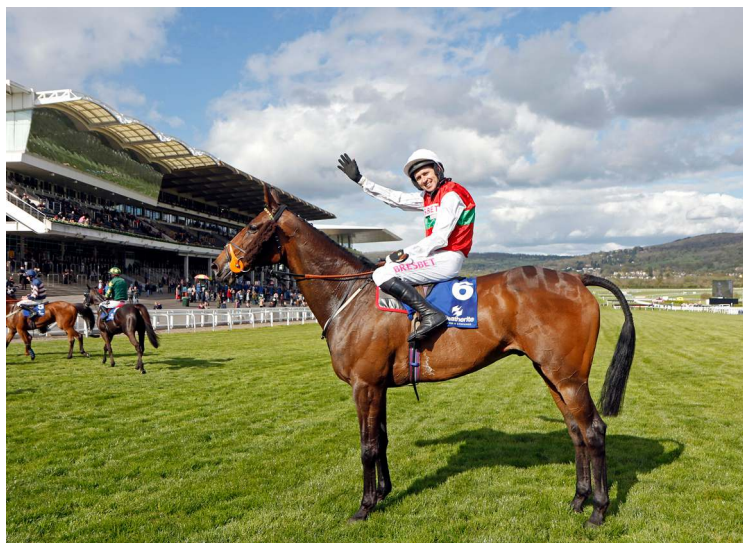

"Every time he ran, it was soft ground, and at Goodwood in his second race, he probably should have won. The Champagne was soft as well and he's gone and beaten two Group 1 winners in that."

He added, "The way he is bred, he should certainly get the mile but you just have to be careful with who he works with in the morning, as he just destroys them in two or three strides, he has so much natural speed.

"He just cantered the first furlong and I just wanted Tom to get a nice rhythm into him, he could be pretty special."

'I'VE LEFT MY MARK IN THE WEIGHING ROOM' - PADDY BRENNAN RETIRES

Paddy Brennan and Manothepeople pose for the cameras
Racingfotos.com

Fergal O'Brien and Colin Tizzard were among those to pay tribute to Paddy Brennan, the Cheltenham Gold Cup-winning rider who retired at the age of 43 after partnering Manothepeople (Ire) (Mahler {GB}) to victory at Prestbury Park on Wednesday.

Brennan recorded over 1,500 winners in a career as a National Hunt jockey spanning more than two decades, notably landing the 2010 Gold Cup on Imperial Commander. His other high-profile victories at the Cheltenham Festival included the 2007 World Hurdle on Inglis Drever, while he'll also be remembered for his association with the popular Cue Card on whom he won six races, including the 2015 King George VI Chase at Kempton.

After returning aboard Manothepeople to a rapturous reception, Brennan told Racing TV, "It's been a rollercoaster, so many ups, so many downs, but I feel like I've got to the end of the ocean and walked onto the beach.

"It's been on my mind a few weeks, I've been asking opinions, but I went for a coffee with my wife this morning and I felt certain. It's time for the next generation of jockeys. I've worked with the best in the game, there are young lads in the weighing room now, but I've worked with them all. It's a tough gig, it's constant.

"I've left my mark in the weighing room. I've been a strict kind of lad, done plenty of shouting, but I love them all. Being a jockey is 95 per cent disappointment. I've had some enjoyment, but I'm ready for the next chapter."

Reflecting on his most memorable days in the saddle, Brennan added, "Imperial Commander has to be the highlight, winning a Gold Cup, but I'll never forget Cue Card winning the King George, beating Ruby Walsh on Vautour. You're taking on the best and getting him up that day was something I was really proud of."

Tizzard, who entrusted Brennan with the ride on Cue Card, said, "I'm not great at texting, but I've just texted Paddy to say it was an absolute pleasure working with him and Cue Card. I'm sure Paddy remembers the Gold Cup [fall when in contention in 2016] more than anything, but that's racing and he was fantastic on him for the time he rode him. He was a brilliant horse and Paddy was brilliant on him.

"I remember watching the King George and I was stood on the lawn there at Kempton in a crowd of people and they were all taller than me! I couldn't see whether he got up or not, but as soon as I walked round, everyone was patting me on the back. We had some brilliant times and Paddy is a good man."

Long-time ally O'Brien was similarly effusive in his praise, adding, "We loaded today up for this reason and it was important that Paddy got that winner. He's been a phenomenal ally for me. I remember listening to Philip Hobbs when Richard Johnson retired and he said they'd never had a cross word--the same can't be said for me and Paddy!

"It's always been done in the best of interests though and he'll be a huge loss, but I'm pretty sure it won't be the end of Fergal O'Brien and Paddy Brennan. I'm very proud to call him a friend. We've had so many highlights, so many great days, from things like Accidental Legend winning at Uttoxeter, which was a 0-100, to some great days here, like Bonttay and The Govaness.

"I'm so grateful that he was on our team--he's been a great servant to us."

CATHAL BEALE TO CONTINUE AS INS CEO FOR ANOTHER THREE-YEAR TERM

Cathal Beale | Irish National Stud

Cathal Beale, the current CEO of the Irish National Stud (INS), will serve in the role for another three years, the Board of the INS announced on Wednesday.

"The Board of the Irish National Stud is pleased to announce that our chief executive, Cathal Beale, has accepted an offer of a contract extension for a further final three-year period, following consultation with the Minister of Agriculture, Food and Marine and the Minister of Public Expenditure, NDP Delivery and Reform," the INS said in a statement.

Beale became the INS CEO in July of 2017. He is a graduate of both the INS Stud Management Programme and Godolphin Flying Start.

Dan Flinter, chairman of the INS added, "We are delighted that Cathal has committed himself to lead the delivery of our strategic plan for a further term."

Jayarebe | Racingfotos.com

Iraj Parvizi's Jayarebe backed up an Aug. 25 debut win at Newmarket's summer venue with a sixth in ParisLongchamp's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere last time and stepped forward to notch an impressive success on sophomore return in Wednesday's Listed bet365 Feilden S. back at HQ.

The 11-1 chance raced on the front end after an alert getaway and settled into a rhythm stalking the pace in close-up second for the most part. Shaken up to regain an edge passing the quarter-mile marker, he quickened clear approaching the final furlong and kept on powerfully up the hill to easily defeat Whip Cracker by 3 1/4 lengths for a career best.

"He's seen that out really well and, pedigree-wise, you would imagine a mile-and-a-quarter would be the limit of his stamina, but he looked very good there," said trainer Brian Meehan. "I liked the way he did it today, especially the way he came up the hill. He was always impressive last year and he has been doing well throughout the spring. He's a lovely horse and I think, if he would have been over a mile in the Lagardere, he would have probably run a bit better, but the form is really good. He was only six lengths behind Rosallion and that was seven furlongs, whereas today was a mile and one [furlong] and, as always, there is natural improvement over the winter with these two to three-year-olds. The bare form is pretty good for a Listed race.

The owner is away and back next week, so I'll go and meet him and see what we're going to do. He's possibly a French Derby type, but he's also a horse that might benefit for a bit more of a subtle touch for a while. There is a whole summer ahead of us and there's plenty of time."

Jayarebe is the fourth of six foals and one of three scorers from as many runners produced by Listed Prix Joubert victrix and G3 Grand Prix des Provinces third Alakhana (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), herself the leading performer out of Listed Henkel Trial third Dubai (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Dubai, in turn, is a half-sister to G2 Preis des Bankhaus Salem Oppenheim winner Denaro (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), G3 Dr Busch-Memorial victor Davidoff (Ger) (Montjeu {Ire}) and multiple Group-placed Listed Mulheim Derby Trial winner Duellant (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}). In front before three out, the 11-2 shot drew away to win by 10 lengths from the well-regarded Align The Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). "She has had two very good runs and the horse who beat her the last day of Kevin Ryan's could be potentially a very, very good horse," Juddmonte's European racing manager Barry Mahon said. "We were a bit disappointed that day, but today's performance shows we probably bumped into a very good horse. Andrew [Balding] has liked her all the time and we thought a step up to 10 furlongs might bring about improvement and Ryan just said there, she might be a filly who could get 12 furlongs later in the season. We will maybe look at the [Listed] Pretty Polly. She handled the track well and Ryan thought she would be versatile enough ground-wise, so we will look at that if she comes out of this one well. We'll take small steps and if she showed up well in the Pretty Polly, we could consider the Oaks, but we'll go small steps and see how we go." $1.9M TIZ THE LAW FILLY STARS AS ACTION PICKS UP AT OBS DAY TWO

by Jessica Martini & Stefanie Grimm

OCALA, FL - The action picked up noticeably during the second session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training and, with the auction's first seven-figure offering leading the way, figures concluded above 2023 levels Wednesday evening.

"It was an excellent day," OBS Director of Sales Tod Wojciechowski said at the close of business Wednesday. "As I said yesterday, there are plenty of good horses left to be sold and obviously that was borne out today. Quality horses sell well and we're fortunate to have a high-quality group of horses here. It was a good day and hopefully we can continue on the next two days."

During Wednesday's session, 171 horses sold for $25,841,500. The session average was $151,120 and the median was $75,000.

Through two sessions, 324 horses have grossed $46,428,500. Halfway through the four-day auction, the average of $143,298 is up 9.6% from the same point a year ago and the median of $80,000 is up 14.3%.

A filly by Tiz the Law brought the auction's top price so far when selling for $1.9 million to Donato Lanni, bidding on behalf of Michael Lund Petersen.

AFTER CLARITY FROM ATTY. GENERAL, KY JUDGE SAYS HE'LL RULE ON DERBY LAWSUIT BY END OF WEEK by T.D. Thornton

The Kentucky judge overseeing the lawsuit initiated by Amr Zedan's incorporated racing stable against Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI) to try and get Bob Baffert-trained horses unbarred from the GI Kentucky Derby told both parties Wednesday he now has a clearer understanding of a relatively new "meritless lawsuit" law to be able to issue a written opinion by the end of the week.

That opinion is unlikely to decide the Apr. 3 civil lawsuit in full, but it is expected to address Zedan's motion for an injunction that could pave the way for his 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic) to be able to race in the Derby. It could also address CDI's motion to dismiss.

The seven-figure purchase was part of a frenzied day of bidding for Lanni, who signed for six of Wednesday's top 10 purchases for various clients for a total of $5,675,000.

The largely domestic buying bench at the top of the market was interrupted late in the day when Naohiro Sakaguchi went to $925,000 to acquire a colt by Into Mischief from the Scanlon Training & Sales consignment.

"Mr. Sakaguchi is new--that's the first horse he's ever bought," Wojciechowski said. "So it will be his first racehorse in Japan. We're excited to have them here."

Despite the lively bidding throughout the day, there was still some polarization in the market, according to consignor David Scanlon.

"It's been a little difficult in spots," Scanlon said. "You will sell one good and you'll start to feel a little good and then you'll come back and it will humble you a little bit. But we've done good. We bought a couple back, but we sold them after the sale. We sold quite a few just over the reserve, so you have to be pretty decent with the reserves, you can't get too aggressive. For the horses at the upper end, it's very good. At the other end, we still continue to struggle a bit in the lower and middle market. But we are still getting horses sold, so I am happy with it."

The OBS Spring sale continues through Friday with sessions beginning daily at 10:30 a.m.

$1.9M Tiz the Law Filly to Petersen

Tiz the Law | Coolmore

A filly from the first crop of GI Belmont S. winner Tiz the Law (hip 365) lived up to the pre-sale hype when bringing a final bid of $1.9 million from bloodstock agent Donato Lanni, who was acting on behalf of Michael Lund Petersen. She will be trained by Bob Baffert.

Among his star fillies--all purchased at 2-year-olds in training sales--Petersen campaigned champion Gamine (Into Mischief), a $1.8-million purchase at the 2019 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale; and Adare Manor (Uncle Mo), a $375,000 purchase at the 2021 OBS June Sale who captured Saturday's GI Apple Blossom H.; as well as Grade I winner Faiza (Girvin) ($725,000 '22 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May) and multiple graded winner Kinza (Carpe Diem) ($350,000 at '23 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May).

The session topper capped a frenetic few minutes for Lanni, who warmed up for the seven-figure purchase with hip 342, a colt by Nyquist acquired for $675,000 for Frank Fletcher; and hip 351, a colt by Bolt d'Oro for $800,000 acquired for Three Amigos. He concluded his morning buying frenzy with a $925,000 colt by American Pharoah (hip 371) for Fletcher and came back a little later to acquire a colt by Vekoma (hip 411) for $800,000 for Zedan Racing Stable and a colt by Curlin (hip 417) for $575,000 for Fletcher.

Hip 365 worked the co-fastest quarter-mile of the auction's under-tack show when she covered the distance in :20 1/5 last Wednesday. She is out of Moonlight Sky (Sky Mesa), a half-sister to champion Abel Tasman (Quality Road) and the dam of Grade I-placed Urban (Quality Road).

Tom McCrocklin purchased the filly on behalf of Jim Tilton for $170,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

"She's a special, special filly," McCrocklin said. "She showed it in her breeze. We bought her off of her physical conformation. She is out of a half to Abel Tasman, so she has a lot of quality in her pedigree. When we bought her, I didn't know, like all of us. And when she got here, it was effortless. She's very sound with clean vet work. She was amazing in her breeze with a strong gallop-out and she attracted the attention of all the buyers." Cont.

Asked how the filly had changed since he purchased her for $170,000 last fall, McCrocklin said, "She didn't change a lot. She was a beautiful yearling and a beautiful 2-year-old. Just a little bigger and a little taller. But she really didn't change very much."

McCrocklin has been working with Tilton for several years now and the partnership started out with a bang.

"We've done several horses together, but nothing like this," McCrocklin said. "He actually owned a part of Ruby Nell (Bolt d'Oro) and that's when I was introduced to him. He owned a quarter of her when we sold her at Gulfstream for $1.2 million, so he got a little taste of blood and came back for more. He loves the action and loves the game. He races and now he pinhooks."

McCrocklin was typically non-plussed by the big sale Wednesday. Asked how his client had reacted, McCrocklin said with a straight face, "He's probably more stoic than me. So it was a standoff of who would smile first."

McCrocklin was also responsible for the $800,000 Bolt d'Oro colt, who was purchased for $160,000 on behalf of Michael Sucher's Champion Equine at last year's Fasig-Tipton July sale.

Lanni A Busy Man Wednesday

Agent Donato Lanni, working the pavilion on behalf of several top-end clients Wednesday, kicked things off early and kept the momentum rolling throughout the afternoon during the second session of OBS April. In addition to the $1.9-million session-topping Tiz the Law filly (hip 365) for Michael Lund Petersen, Lanni signed tickets on behalf of Frank Fletcher, Zedan Racing Stable and the Three Amigos.

Fletcher got the action started shortly after the sale began, pairing up a $675,000 Nyquist colt (hip 342) with a colt by American Pharoah (hip 371) for $925,000 and a Curlin colt (hip 417) for $575,000. Cont.

Hip 371, consigned by de Meric Sales, Agent XVIII, worked in :10 and was sold as a yearling at FTKOCT last year for $115,000. He is out of a half to the dam of GSW/GISP Merneith (American Pharoah). Breeder D.C. Goff purchased that dam, More Roses, carrying hip 371 in utero for $475,000 at KEENOV in 2021

Lanni, who secured all three colts for Fletcher, expressed his gratitude for the opportunity after signing for hip 371.

"He's a cool horse, we're very happy," said Lanni. "I'm just fortunate to buy good horses for good people."

Around the same time, the Three Amigos secured a Bolt d'Oro colt (hip 351), who breezed a quarter-mile in :20.3, for $800,000 from the Tom McCrocklin, Agent XV consignment with Lanni signing the ticket.

Of that purchase, Lanni said: "He's beautiful and he looks like a racehorse. And the sire has done really well."

Responsible for two of the top three highest-priced colts during Tuesday's opening session, Nyquist continued to be in demand Wednesday when Fletcher went to $675,000 early for hip 342. The colt, a half to GSP Sonic Brees (Maclean's Music), was consigned by Wavertree Stables (Ciaran Dunne). Fletcher and Donato indicated that the trio of colts would wind up in training with Bill Mott.

"He just looked good to us," said Fletcher after signing the ticket for hip 342. "We like the sire and we're excited to get him. He'll go to Eddie [Woods] for a rest and then to Bill Mott."

Hip 342, who worked in :10, brought $300,000 as a yearling at Keeneland last September.

"We're excited to get him at that price," Fletcher continued. "We'll see him [with Mott] hopefully in Kentucky and in New York."

Later in the afternoon, Sequel Bloodstock, acting as agent for Chester and Mary Broman, sold the colt Rookie Racer (Vekoma) (hip 411) to Lanni (who signed on behalf of Zedan Racing Stable) for $800,000 after he worked in :9.4. Speaking from the back ring, Becky Thomas and Carlos Manresa joined Mr. Broman to celebrate the sale.

"Through the winter, he was a farm favorite," said Manresa of the colt. "We had a lot of trainers out to the farm and we had nothing but good remarks about him. He's always been a beautiful mover, loves the dirt and we got him in front of pretty much everyone.

"He's got a beautiful body, beautiful paces and we're really happy with the result. We've got a really good gut feeling about Vekoma." @SGrimmTDN

Into Mischief Colt Provides Late Bang at OBS

A flashily bred colt by Into Mischief out of multiple Grade I winner Separationofpowers (Candy Ride {Arg}) (hip 603) caused late fireworks when selling for $925,000 to Naohiro Sakaguchi. Sakaguchi, making his first-ever racehorse purchase, did his bidding on the colt, the second-to-last horse through the ring Wednesday, alongside trainer Makoto Saito. Through an interpreter, he credited Saito with picking the juvenile out and Saito confirmed the horse will be heading to Japan.

Separationofpowers in the 2018 Test | Sarah Andrew

The bay, who worked a furlong during last week's under-tack show in :9 4/5, was consigned by Scanlon Training & Sales. He was purchased by that operation for $350,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

"He's just been a real straightforward colt all winter," David Scanlon said. "At the yearling sale, he was just a little immature, but he had a great hip and a great walk. He looked like a speedy horse, a real 2-year-old. We were really happy to get him."

Of the colt's progression since last August, Scanlon said, "He came to the farm and he did really well. We took our time with him and he really matured. He is a really level-headed colt who has done everything right. We pointed him to this sale rather than March just to give him a little more time. He breezed great. He's a real honest horse. He gets really low and tries really hard. And he has a super pedigree." Cont.

Saito trained 2014 G1 Japanese Oaks winner Nuovo Record (Jpn) (Hearts Cry {Jpn}) and saddled that filly to an 11th-place finish in the 2016 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf before winning the GIII Red Carpet H. a few weeks later.

Oscar Performance Colt to Speedway

Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's Speedway Stables added a colt by Oscar Performance to its roster when going to $725,000 to acquire hip 477 from the Wavertree Stables consignment Wednesday in Ocala.

"[Bloodstock advisor] Marette [Farrell] did wonderful research on the pedigree and we liked everything on both sides," said Weiner. "And the speed obviously was important."

The bay colt, a $180,000 Keeneland September purchase, is out of Post Script (Quality Road) and is a full-brother to stakes winner Act a Fool. He is from the family of graded winners Coffee Clique and Admission Office and worked a furlong last week in :9 4/5.

Hip 477 was the third purchase so far for Speedway at the OBS Spring sale. The operation also purchased a filly by Good Magic (hip 16) for $300,000 and a colt by Collected (hip 63) for $310,000.

It was a homecoming for hip 63, who is out of Golden Orb (Orb) and was bred by Speedway. The chestnut sold for $12,000 at last year's Keeneland January sale and again to Tom McCrocklin for $42,000 at the Fasig-Tipton October sale.

"He reminds us of Collected," Weiner said of the colt. "It's a re-collect," he added with a laugh.

“They do sell their yearlings,” Farrell said. “Peter and K.C. have a mandate that, to be open and honest, every yearling is sold. So it's fair for everyone.”

CDI has banished Baffert from its properties since just after the 2021 Derby, which the now-disqualified Zedan-owned and Baffert-trained Medina Spirit won while testing positive for betamethasone.

The ban was initially just supposed to last for two Derbies. But in July 2023 CDI extended the penalty through 2024.

Zedan is claiming that he spent millions in buying horses at auction prior to the extension of the ban because he understood that Baffert would be allowed to train those horses for the 150th Derby in 2024.

Judge Mitchell Perry of Jefferson Circuit Court needed only a bit more than 20 minutes of testimony from all parties Apr. 17 to declare that he now had a better idea of how CDI's invocation of an "Anti-SLAPP" law (Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation)--which carries an automatic pause in some related legal proceedings--might affect his forthcoming written opinion.

"Obviously, I deal with injunctions all the time in various [contexts]," Perry said. "So that part is obviously well known to the court. This new statute is not."

CDI on Apr. 8 moved to dismiss Zedan's lawsuit, citing, in part, that the complaint runs contrary to Kentucky's Anti-SLAPP law that provides protections in certain cases based on a person's exercise of speech.

In April 2022, Kentucky became the second state to enact a version of the Uniform Public Expression Protection Act (UPEPA), a model anti-SLAPP law drafted by the Uniform Law Commission. Cont.

In arguing against the application of that statute, Zedan had articulated concerns that CDI's legal invocation of UPEPA/Anti-SLAPP was "not only meritless, but perverse."

More importantly, in terms of timing, an Anti-SLAPP claim, if allowed to proceed by a judge, would take at least 30 days, if not several months, to legally unfold.

At a previous hearing on Monday, no one seemed to know for sure if that law's invocation, if allowed by Perry, would mean a mandatory halting of all other legal proceedings, including Zedan's pending motion for the temporary injunction. Thus, Perry asked for representatives of the Kentucky State Attorney General to appear in court Apr. 17 with their interpretation.

At Wednesday's hearing, Lindsey Keiser, a Kentucky assistant attorney general, told the judge that under a subsection of the state's law, "UPEPA does not cut off judicial decisions or judicial discretions with respect to motions seeking a temporary injunction."

Keiser continued: "Our interpretation is that under [a subsection of the law] you could proceed simultaneously [with deciding on CDI's motion invoking UPEPA and Zedan's injunction request].

"Officially there's no stay with respect to a temporary injunction motion."

Derek Shaffer, an attorney for Zedan, urged the judge to use that explanation from the attorney general's office to go ahead and rule on the temporary injunction. Horses declared for the Derby need to be on the grounds at Churchill by Apr. 27.

Regardless of larger questions concerning the UPEPA claim and the underlying lawsuit itself, "you ought to be resolving the temporary injunction motion on merits," Shaffer said. Cont.

Thomas Dupree, Jr., an attorney for CDI, wanted to make it clear that the injunction relief sought by Zedan wasn't being requested to preserve well-documented rules established by CDI regarding the Derby, but rather, to upend them.

"I did want to underscore the nature of the temporary injunction they're seeking here is, of course, not a 'status quo' injunction," Dupree said. "It is an injunction that would affirmatively disrupt the status quo substantially."

Although it was not spoken of during Wednesday's hearing, a ruling allowing Muth into the race would have myriad downstream implications. It is unknown if an injunction in favor of Zedan would allow other Baffert trainees owned by different entities to also participate in the Derby, or if any lifting of the ban would also permit Baffert's trainees to enter the GI Kentucky Oaks or any other Derby undercard stakes.

The Kentucky news website WAVE3 reported on Tuesday that one of the partners who co-owns the Baffert-trained Imagination (Into Mischief) had filed an amicus brief with the court seeking similar eligibility-via-injunction for that colt, who on Apr. 6 ran second in the GI Santa Anita Derby.

Also unclear is what such a ruling would mean for Derby aspirants owned by other connections, specifically already-qualified horses that might get knocked below the points cutoff limit that CDI has been using to determine Derby eligibility if Muth (and potentially other Baffert trainees) are suddenly ordered into the race by the injunction.

CDI generally takes entries for 24 horses in the Derby, with 20 being allowed to start.

Perry said there would be no press conference or media announcement pertaining to his ruling, which would be delivered in the form of an opinion posted electronically to the court's filing system.

"And you'll know sometime before the end of the week," Perry said.

BREEDING DIGEST: THE REAL DAZZLE BEHIND ENCINO by Chris McGrath

His contentious prohibition from Churchill penalizes many others besides Bob Baffert and his loyal patrons. A shot at the GI Kentucky Derby, once-in-a-lifetime for most, is also being denied to everyone else with a stake in his horses' development, from those on duty at the foaling shed to the pre-trainer to the feed company. And, of course, there's nothing like a Derby winner to market a stallion.

As things have turned out, a setback means that Nyquist would have lost the services of Nysos even had he moved to another barn. But now Nyquist has come up with a proxy in Encino, who switched surface to harvest the last available starting points in the GIII Stonestreet Lexington S.

Encino | Coady Photography

Those whose solution to the puzzles of breeding is to elevate the dam sire above an entire female family will cherish the fact that Encino, just like Nysos and indeed Nyquist's other scintillating prospect Knightsbridge, is out of a Bernardini mare. We'll leave them to make their millions, as they doubtless will from another magic "cross" that has allowed daughters of Bernardini to give Street Sense sons as accomplished as Speaker's Corner, Maxfield and last weekend's nine-length Keeneland maiden winner Jefferson Street.

Knightsbridge, remember, is a half-brother to Speaker's Corner. In our aversion to "systems," we'll merely note that Bernardini bequeathed his reputation as an outstanding distaff influence through various sire lines; and that Nyquist and Street Sense happen to belong to the same lavish program that bred, raced and stood Bernardini himself. Plenty of stallions out there would love to meet some Bernardini mares, but few have as many of his best daughters in their home herd as Nyquist and Street Sense. Cont.

But wait: Encino is out of a half-sister to none other Street Sense! So instead of twisting sire lines into alchemical brands, let's just settle for acknowledging some kind of assonance between Bernardini and Bedazzle (Dixieland Band), dam of both Street Sense and Encino's mother Glittering Jewel?

The latter started her career in Britain, winning only an uncompetitive maiden, before placing on both dirt and turf over here. As such she barely amended Bedazzle's bleakly unproductive record after Street Sense, her very first foal. Three further foals by Street Cry (Ire) mustered a single racecourse appearance between them, and Bedazzle fared little better from the best opportunities in-house (Dubawi {Ire}, Shamardal) or elsewhere (Into Mischief). Only her second foal, a filly by Elusive Quality, managed either stakes success (by a head at Prairie Meadows) or stakes production (a gelding in Australia, unsurprisingly by Street Cry {Ire}). Yet here's Glittering Jewel coming up with a Derby colt at the first attempt.

That's far less surprising than the collective failure of Street Sense's other siblings, because his excellence--between racetrack and stud--always appeared to have obvious foundations. For Bedazzle is out of a stakes-winning His Majesty half-sister to that fast racehorse and versatile sire Mr. Greeley (Gone West); and next dam Long Legend (Reviewer), lately celebrated as the third dam of Vekoma, is out of Lianga (Dancer's Image), an elite winner in France from five furlongs to eight. Lianga is in turn third dam of the rags-to-riches (3,500 Irish guineas to €115,000) Coolmore sire Danehill Dancer (Ire).

Fear not, I'm not going to repeat my usual sermon on versatility--but will just note how slickly Encino has now adapted from one surface to another.

As for the other part of the equation, Nyquist has regrouped impressively after a brief flat spot. Last year he produced his third and fourth Grade I winners, and was only denied a fifth by the tragedy of New York Thunder. Moreover his incoming juveniles were sired at $75,000, up from $40,000 in response to his 2020 freshman laurels.

He subsequently had to be throttled back to $55,000 after a solitary graded stakes winner in 2021, but that has proved an aberration and he's now up to $85,000 with Encino, Nysos and Knightsbridge all later-developing talents in the same crop as last summer's precocious Royal Ascot winner Crimson Advocate. The 4-year-old Flying Connection, already a six-time stakes winner, meanwhile finished second in the GI Apple Blossom H. last Saturday. Nyquist has packed in a lot already, for a horse still only 11 years old, yet it feels as though he's only just getting started.

1-2 Punchline Completes Joke's Warm-Up

Quite apart from his other prowess, Into Mischief's historic achievements also owe much to the libido and fertility that have maximized the industrial model operated by his farm. He has maintained output against a soaring fee, even a hike from $175,000 to $225,000 eroding his 2021 book only from 250 to 216 mares. But that was also the year that the three busiest stallions in the land were his more affordable sons Practical Joke, Goldencents and Authentic, with 231, 230 and 229 respectively.

Of that trio, only Practical Joke maintained quite such giddy demand last year, when a couple of farms seemed to be making rather a point about the mare cap, with his 252 partners notoriously exceeded by rookies Golden Pal (293: gosh, still hurts your eyes) and Epicenter (262). Practical Joke has sufficiently converted all this opportunity into results to hoist his fee this spring to $65,000, from $25,000, and the challenge now is to emulate his sire by reflecting the upgrading of his mares in the range of his stock's performance.

For now, however, we can salute his 1-2 in the GIII Count Fleet H. as a perfect signature to the opening phase of his career. The prolific winner Skelly and runner-up Tejano Twist are both millionaire sprinters from his debut crop and both, as geldings, look set to keep thriving with maturity.

Practical Joke did get a breakout Classic candidate from his second crop, albeit Practical Move was palpably at the bottom of the tank when just holding out over the ninth furlong of the GI Santa Anita Derby, duly targeting the GI Dirt Mile when suffering that tragic breakdown at the Breeders' Cup. Practical Move was scratched from the Kentucky Derby with an elevated temperature, but his sire's competence to stretch speed for that race will be tested this year by Domestic Product, who broke his maiden over nine furlongs at two and definitely has more talent than generally appreciated.

In the meantime, Practical Joke's real poster girl remains Becky's Joker, who won the GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga last summer--on debut! For it is primarily precocity and speed that have driven all this fervent commercial support. After two Grade I scores as a juvenile, Practical Joke himself flattened out for fifth in the Derby before reverting to a single turn for his sophomore Grade I success. His own dam was a talented sprinter by Distorted Humor out of a Gilded Time mare, so we'll have to see whether Practical Joke can match a degree of success over longer distances among his Chilean stock.

Skelly himself was bred by Allen Poindexter and prepared by his frequent partners at Wynnstay Farm to bring $250,000 in the difficult yearling market of 2020. (Fortunately for purchasers Red Lane Thoroughbreds, they retained him at $350,000 at the 2-year-old sales.) His unraced dam Adande (Bwana Charlie) almost shared a remarkable Saturday with half-sister Call to Service (To Honor and Serve), whose son The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso) was meanwhile thwarted only narrowly by Encino.

Poindexter acquired Adande in utero with his dam Game for More (More Than Ready) for just $8,000 in a Heiligbrodt dispersal at Fasig-Tipton 12 years ago. That proved an inspired purchase, as from that mare Poindexter also bred three Grade I performers in Isotherm (Lonhro {Aus}), Giant Game (Giant's Causeway) and Gio Game (Gio Ponti).

If Practical Joke's overall ratios are solid sooner than earth-shaking, that goes with the territory when you throw so much volume at a horse. Cont.

There's no question that he is the one rival to have slipstreamed Gun Runner with least embarrassment in what is otherwise proving, certainly since the loss of Arrogate, anything but a vintage intake overall.

Grief Calls For Resilience

How poignant, for our community to lose Marty Wygod even as Resilience (Into Mischief)--a colt donated to his daughter and a longtime friend--closes on a Derby challenge. Only last week we were celebrating how the GII Wood Memorial winner is preserving a fragile legacy for his dam, the solitary filly delivered by Tranquility Lake (Rahy). Now those grieving Wygod must ask themselves whether the apparently haphazard fortunes of the Turf may yet align in a way that gives some solace and meaning to life without him.

Resilience | Sarah Andrew

Wygod himself was clear about the process. "The business side of my life, that's a matter of skill and luck," he once told DRF. "The racing and breeding side is all luck. It's the racing and breeding gods that have smiled on me."

Let's hope that they may still have a parting glass to raise.

DENNIS ALBAUGH JOINS TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST

When it comes to getting horses to the GI Kentucky Derby few have done more with less. Dennis Albaugh's Albaugh Family Stable doesn't have nearly the numbers of a Mike Repole or the partnership of SF Racing, Starlight Racing, and Madaket Stables, but he keeps coming up with Derby starters. This year he has Catching Freedom (Constitution), the winner of the GII Louisiana

Derby, who will be his 10th starter under the Twin Spires over the last seven years. The goal this time around is not to simply make into the field but to win the race.

Albaugh joined the TDN Writers' Room podcast Presented by Keeneland to talk about Catching Freedom, his super sire Not This Time (Giant's Causeway), his case of Derby Fever and more. Albaugh was this week's Green Group Guest of the Week.

Finding Derby horses at the sales takes a top team of advisers for Albaugh, who focuses on colts who have the right stuff when it comes to making it to America's greatest horse race.

"We've got a team of guys that helped me pick out horses," he said. "Every year I go over to the Keeneland September Sale and there are thousands of horses for sale. I say every year, we're going to pick at least one that is going to go to the Derby. I take my hat off to the team. We've done it and this year in Catching Freedom we have a really good contender."

The Derby is still more than two weeks away, but Albaugh is already having restless nights.

"I don't sleep a lot at night," he said. "I think about the Derby all the time. This horse has got a lot of speed, but in his races he just seems to slow down right off the bat. With 19 other horses out there, it's hard to get through that field. Our horse last year, Angel of Empire, proved that. So we kind of want an outside post. Not clear outside. Ideally, I'd like to draw somewhere between a six and 15. That way he won't get trapped in behind a whole bunch of horses and have to go completely wide around them."

Albaugh owned Not This Time, the promising colt who never ran again after finishing second in the 2016 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile for trainer Dale Romans. With such a small sample size to go on as far as his racing career went, Not This Time was hardly a sure thing as a stallion. But Albaugh stayed in and owns the majority share in the horse who has gone on to be one of the sport's top sires. Cont.

"I wish I had kept all of him," he said. "Sometimes you just have to take some money off the table. I really didn't want to sell him.

"But when you go to the auctions now you see that it is very expensive to buy Thoroughbreds. There's a lot of teaming up going on, and I mainly buy by myself. With Not This Time we decided that it was time to recoup some of the money that I'd spent through the years. So that's why we put just half of him up for sale."

In our breeding spotlight section we examined the WinStar stallion Two Phil's. Podcast team member Randy Moss insists he was the best 3-year-old to race in 2023. We also spotlighted the Coolmore stallion Corniche.

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders' Association, Coolmore, West Point Thoroughbreds, WinStar, Pleasant Acres Farm and XBTV.com, the team of Moss, Bill Finley and Zoe Cadman discussed the latest battle between Churchill Downs and Amr Zedan, who is hoping that a court will grant a temporary injunction that would force the track to allow Muth (Good Magic) to race in the Derby.

The trio also talked about HIWU's case against George Weaver. The trainer is dealing with a positive for Metformin, which is used in humans to combat Type II diabetes.

CHARLIE APPLEBY OUTLINES PLANS FOR U.S.

TEAM by Emma Berry

NEWMARKET,UK--Charlie Appleby, who is aiming for a fourth victory in the first of the major British Classic trials, Thursday's G3 Craven S., has outlined plans for his team of Godolphin horses currently stabled at Keeneland.

One of those, Master of The Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), landed the Craven back in 2021 before being beaten a short-head when second in the 2,000 Guineas. Now six, he claimed the Maker's Mark Mile Saturday to notch his third Grade I strike in North America, including last season's Breeders' Cup Mile.

"Master winning last weekend was great," said Appleby at Newmarket Wednesday morning. "He'll carry on campaigning through the summer."

Another of Appleby's Breeders' Cup winners, Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), won the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at the end of March after his victory in the HH The Amir Trophy in Qatar.

The trainer continued, "They're two 6-year-olds and this is going to be potentially their last season in training. Rebel's might go to Hong Kong yet, we're not sure, but if he doesn't go there then the target will be the Sword Dancer at Saratoga in the hope of then going back to the Breeders' Cup Turf. It would be nice to have Rebel's Romance and Master of The Seas, both past winners, at the Breeders' Cup again at the end of the season."

He added, "Master of The Seas goes to the Fourstardave at Saratoga, and he could then potentially look at the Coolmore Turf Mile, which he just got touched off in last year, then the Breeders' Cup."

Appleby said of his select satellite stable in America, which includes the GI Canadian International S. and GI Saratoga Derby winner Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), "We have 10 or 12 horses out there. They are at Keeneland at the moment and we will hopefully have three runners on Kentucky Derby day and then Nations Pride will run the following week at Aqueduct. Then the whole team will ship to Saratoga, because Belmont is obviously closed, so Saratoga will be opening up early.

"The racing suits some of those horses who have been running in Dubai, and you want to go there with quick-ground horses, but it suits some of them. [Assistant trainer] Alex Merriam will go out there for a week for Churchill and Aqueduct and I will try to get to Saratoga."

SIXTH ANNUAL PDJF TELETHON SCHEDULED FOR APR. 21 Edited Press Release

FanDuel TV, the New York Racing Association (NYRA), Keeneland and Santa Anita will team up with Hall of Fame jockeys along with some of the top active riders in the country and other prominent racing personalities on Sunday, Apr. 21 for the sixth annual telethon presented by Lane's End to raise money for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund (PDJF).

The event will be broadcast on both FanDuel TV and America's Day at the Races on the Fox Sports family of networks as well as streamed on TVG.com. Fans can participate in the telethon by calling 1-844-884-7353 between 12:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. ET or they can donate directly by clicking here.

Jockeys of today and years past will be live at call centers from Santa Anita and Keeneland.

Since the inaugural event in 2018, the telethon has raised in excess of $1.5 million in support of the PDJF.

LIMESTONE S.: In accord with American Graded Stakes Committee policy, the Apr. 12, 2024 renewal of the Listed FanDuel Limestone S., scheduled for the Keeneland turf course but switched to the main track, was automatically downgraded to non-Listed Black Type (NLBT) status and was conducted as a NLBT stakes race. The American Graded Stakes Committee has reviewed the off-the-turf renewal and has determined that the original Listed status will not be reinstated for this renewal.

ARROGATE'S NEON ICON ROLLS TO RISING STARDOM AT KEENELAND

Neon Icon | Coady

by Christina Bossinakis

Glen Bromagen II and Michael Dahir's Neon Icon (Arrogate) was given a 5-1 chance for an operation not typically known for its firsters, however, that price seemed like an overlay after the sophomore rattled across the wire an uncontested 4 1/4-length winner at Keeneland Wednesday, earning TDN Rising Star distinction in the process.

Breaking from the inside stall, the $220,000 Keeneland September grad settled in a ground-saving fourth as a pair of 4-year-olds--Kara and Colleen (Bolt d'Oro) and Dynamism (Uncle Mo)--led through a :23.55 opening quarter. Finding herself behind a wall of horses and searching for a slip of daylight to open straightening for home, the grey cut her way through rivals in the lane, popped to the front midstretch and drew off under a hand ride to post the impressive win. Fellow 3-year-old Foreseen (Uncle Mo) was up for second, while Dynamism rounded out the trifecta. Final time for the 1 1/16-mile test was 1:47.08.

Neon Icon is the fourth foal out of Mademoiselle Coco, who is a half-sister to Horse of the Year and Ch. Older Mare Havre de Grace, who realized $10-million at the Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed sale in 2010. The 11-year-old mare is also responsible for Mademoisellejackie (American Pharoah), a $200,000 KEESEP yearling purchase who went on to become a minor winner. Last term, she produced a colt by Essential Quality and was bred back to that Darley sire.

This also represents the family of MGISW Risaverse and Classic winner Tonalist.

MOLLY'S TOWN (g, 3, Mo Town--Molly Slew, by Curlin) won his first four starts, including the Circle City S. and Indiana Futurity. Off the board in his final two starts of 2023, he was installed the even-money choice to get back on track in this return. Sent to the front early, the gelding cruised home a 7 3/4-length winner over Five o' Somewhere (Munnings). Lifetime Record: MSW, 7-5-0-0, $201,803. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

JET SWEEP JOE (c, 2, Frosted--Sister Blues {SW, $213,547}, by Pioneerof the Nile) broke forwardly from the inside and assumed a narrow advantage through an initial quarter of :22.45. Still in front but with Fortheloveofrun (Runhappy) breathing down his neck in early stretch, the 8-5 choice fought to maintain his advantage late and had enough left to fend off Fortheloveofrun by 1 1/4 lengths at the wire. Second-time starter Strummin (Flameaway) closed well to finish a half-length back in third. Stakes-winning Sister Blues, a $50,000 Keeneland November purchase in 2021, foaled a colt by Authentic last term and was bred back to Raging Bull (Fr). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $47,740. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

1st-Keeneland, $69,785, Msw, 4-17, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:47.23, ft, 3 lengths.

LOW COUNTRY MAGIC (f, 3, Good Magic--Marsh Harbour, by Malibu Moon), sent off at 5-2 for this unveiling, was allowed to saunter through an opening quarter in :24.2 followed by an equally sedate half in :49.9. With her nearest pursuer Sanctify (Audible) in close pursuit on her outside hip while appearing to have every chance to go by turning for home, it was Low Country Magic who had the most in reserve late and scooted off to a three-length victory. The Haymarket homebred is out of the Phipps family-bred Marsh Harbour, a daughter of dual graded stakes winning Abaco (Giant's Causeway). Ortiz, aboard this filly, also served as a partner to the winner's first two dams. Marsh Harbour, who brought $60,000 carrying this foal at Keeneland November in 2020, produced a filly by Corniche this season. Sales history: $50,000 RNA Ylg '22 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $42,858. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS (g, 3, Street Boss--Sweet Delight, by Candy Ride {Arg}) was unhurried in the early going, and his jockey Daniel Centeno tried to hustle the gelding along as the leaders carved out a :22.57 quarter. Still a long way back following a half in :46.24, the 9-2 chance cornered into the stretch as green as grass, but once in stride, powered past his rivals with authority and got up just in time to graduate by a neck over fellow Chad Brown runner John the Baptist (More Than Ready), who dead heated with Red Roadster (Lord Nelson) for second. SWEET MISS MAGGIE (f, 3, Omaha Beach--Grand Sofia, by Giant's Causeway), a well-beaten 11th going 1 1/16 miles over the Fair Grounds turf Dec. 31, was given a 5-1 chance while cutting back on the dirt here. Settled in a stalking position early, the chestnut closed on early pacesetter Need a Bit of Luck (Arrogate) down the lane and was up in time to best the favorite by 3/4 of a length. Out of a half-sister to Grade I winner Rail Trip (Jump Start), the winner is half to Chop Chop (City of Light), MSW & GISP, $696,477. Grand Sofia produced a filly by Constitution in 2022 and most recently, dropped a Flightline colt this season. Sales history: $92,000 RNA Ylg '22 FTKJUL; $120,000 RNA Ylg '22 FTKOCT.
