

HISTORY MIGHT HOLD THE ANSWER TO LUKAS'S CLASSIC DREAMS

D. Wayne Lukas | Coady

by Christina Bossinakis

LOUISVILLE, KY--To most people, 88 is just a number. But to Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas, it already holds special meaning. It was the year he famously collected his first Kentucky Derby win, with a filly no less. The amazon Winning Colors became only the third filly in history to accomplish the feat. Armed with B C Stable's Just Steel (Justify) for the latest renewal, a win would also earn the 88-year-old Lukas the distinction of becoming the oldest trainer to win the Classic in its 150-year history.

Since that exalted first Derby win, however, a lot has transpired. Showing his dominance at the tail-end of the last century--and in the span of only 10 years--Lukas added three more Derbies with Thunder Gulch (1995), Grindstone (1996) and Charismatic (1999). Well known for his golden touch with the fillies, Lukas also collected four renewals of the Kentucky Oaks late in the last century, headed by Blush With Pride in 1982 and followed by Lucky Lucky Lucky two years later, Open Mind in 1989 and Seaside Attraction in 1990. Following a three-decade gap, he proved that he was far from done when he took another renewal of the 2022 Oaks with Secret Oath, tying him with the legendary Woody Stephens for the most victories in the "Lillies for the Fillies".

THE MORE THINGS CHANGE, THE MORE THEY STAY THE SAME by Christina Bossinakis

LOUISVILLE, KY--Having not attended the Kentucky Derby since American Pharoah won in 2015, I was reminded of why it's really worth the trip. Yes, one has to deal with the logistics. Limited parking, long walks to get to your destination, excessively priced hotels and car rentals, in addition to the singular hope that a Kentucky Derby Day ticket might miraculously have fallen into your hands.

It's probably hard for some to understand just how many people converge in Louisville at the same time, creating something of a controlled chaos. The bustle, which gradually increases before reaching a fever pitch Saturday, is something that has always gone hand-in-hand with the Derby. That's nothing new. But when you decide to come to the Derby, be prepared to play (and pay!).

This year, Lukas will try to earn a record-breaking sixth Oaks with Aaron Sones's Lemon Muffin (Collected).

Bullish on his chances in both sophomore Classics, Lukas will saddle a duo that can provide him with something that even he hasn't done, a win in the Oaks and Derby in the same year.

"We feel real comfortable with where they are both at," affirmed Lukas. "They have done everything we have asked of them. With [Just Steel], we are coming into this off a strong effort. As for the filly, she seems to have bounced back from that last race pretty strong. So we are looking good right now."

Wayne Lukas and Winning Colors in 1988 | Horsephotos

Third in the wet going at Churchill Downs in October, he bounced back to take the 6 1/2-panel Ed Brown S. in Louisville the following month. Runner up in both the Smarty Jones S. and GIII Southwest S. at Oaklawn early this winter, he was seventh in the GII Rebel S. but bounced back to be a much-improved second, beaten only two lengths, by the highly regarded Muth in the GI Arkansas Derby.

"He's a little bit different than the other Derby horses I've had," explained Lukas. "He's a very professional horse. He does everything so easy. He doesn't cause any concern when you're saddling him, in the paddock or anything like that. I can't really say he is anything like the previous Derby winners we've had, but he really is a joy to train given the way he has behaved in any of the situations he's faced."

He added, "It's great to have a horse like this for B C Stables--John Bellinger and Brian Coelho." Cont.

“They have really stepped up and made a big commitment with us. So I'd love to win it with them.”

Taking a beat to prove her mettle, Lemon Muffin, winless in four starts during her juvenile season, needed six starts to get off the mark, but finally broke through while routing for the first time and trying graded stakes company in the 1 1/16-mile GIII Honey Bee S. Feb. 24.

She seemingly took a step backward in her latest, a seventh in the Mar. 30 GII Fantasy S. However, Lukas admits she had an excuse.

Lukas's 50th Derby starter, Just Steel | Coady Media

“It turned out she was a little under the weather,” he said. “She showed it the next day--she spiked a temperature. She wasn't right and was flat. You can throw that one out. She's back now.”

And according to Lukas, the filly has been giving all the right signs in the mornings.

“She's a good work horse. She puts a lot into her gallops, a lot into her mornings. Her work [at Churchill, 5 furlongs, :58.20, Apr. 27, 1/58], that really tipped her hand. She's very strong right now.”

The Times They Are A-Changin'

When Lukas stepped onto the Kentucky Derby stage for the very first time in 1981 with a horse named Partez, he was a brash up-and-comer in the Thoroughbred game.

Fast forward 40 years, Lukas returns with his 50th career starter as a seasoned veteran who has seen and done it all. And while he admits that the game has undergone an evolution in many ways, his training approach to the Classic is not really one of them.

“Honestly, I don't think there is a lot of difference in the way I prepare them,” he said. Cont.

And the reason for that, Lukas explains, is that despite all the transmutations in racing, one of the constants appears to be the way a Derby is won, or lost.

"In a perfect world, I'd like to have my horse lay in the first six or seven, not too far off the early pace," he said.

"The race always seems to be won or lost in the first turn here. You want your horse to have some tactical speed. I want them to be as trouble free as possible. When they turn up that back side, then an adjustment can be made. Every one of our horses that have won the Derby were in great position going up the back side. They were all relatively close and in perfect position to run when they were called on."

In contrast, several other key factors have undergone great change in the blueprint of a Classic contender.

"I do think the breeders are emphasizing speed more in the horses they produce," he explained.

"By that I mean horses that look like they're quick. They are breeding more for speed, because speed sells.

"We probably don't have as many pure route horses as we used to. A horse that can run a mile and a quarter or beyond. A lot of breeders have gotten away from that."

He continued, "Another big change we have seen over time is in the ownership of horses. In recent years, we have seen multiple ownership groups flourish. The sales are often dominated by a partnership of four or five groups, and probably any one of those can buy the horse individually, but they like to team up. It's changed the landscape both in the sale's ring and on the racetrack significantly." Cont.

And while Lukas is happy to be back at the Derby with a horse that he believes has a chance to make some noise, he addresses the pink elephant in the room, the absence of his good friend, Bob Baffert, who was banned from competing in the initial jewel in the Triple Crown for two years and later had that suspension extended through this season. Mighty adversaries on the track in earlier years, Lukas and Baffert are more apt to be seen kicking back and having a chat amidst all the hubbub leading up to the Classics.

"I speak to Bob a lot but we really don't try to solve anything. Unfortunately, Bob became the poster boy for what was happening. He was put front and center," Lukas offers. "And he served his time and it was later extended. I really thought that whole situation got out of hand. It got to rolling and it just mushroomed."

He added, "My personal feeling is that I think [the establishment] wanted the 150th Derby to have a positive and strong approach and, if Bob had run this year, he would have been a lot of the story. [The press] would be all over him trying to find out how he felt. That would have become the main story and I don't think management felt that should be the case for the 150th. But he really should be here."

While the overnight rain may have kept some of the crowd at bay Tuesday morning, enough turned up to offer some early morning action on the backstretch at Churchill Downs. It appeared that most of that activity, however, was reserved for the Todd Pletcher barn, where morning line favorite Fierceness (City of Light) drew the largest crowd of the morning following his easy maintenance exertions during the Derby/Oaks training session at 7:30 a.m.

Surrounded by the eager media and general public hoping to get a close-up look at the early favorite, Fierceness was soon joined by his owner, Mike Repole, who looked far more interested in the photo opportunity than his horse was.

The D. Wayne Lukas barn also enjoyed a fair bit of activity, too. Lukas saddles his 50th lifetime Derby starter with Just Steel (Justify).

Interestingly, and somewhat unusual for the backstretch of a racetrack, several babies ended up outside the Hall of Famer's barn offering a poetic counterpoint to the legend's manicured shedrow. Full disclosure, one of said babies was actually a Lukas grandbaby, little Johnny, accompanied by mom Kelly (Jeff Lukas's daughter) and his dad, David Roy.

Secured from the converging crowds, Lukas had his pony strategically placed, thus barring the way into his office. Cont.

Having determined that was a surmountable obstacle, I was undeterred, scooting through to grab a few comments before heading on my way.

While much of the activity appeared to be revolving around the Pletcher barn and his former boss, a barn that appeared to be oddly sedate considering one of the Derby favorites is stabled there was that of Chad Brown.

Both on the track and back at the barn, GI Blue Grass S. winner Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) looked every bit the $2.3-million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga purchase that he is--a bonafide Adonis. Looking at the two Derby favorites back-to-back, it's like comparing Muhammad Ali and Prince (yes, the singer). Not in the least comparable, physically at least, but definitely both oozing class.

Given the lack of frenzy at the Brown barn, I decided to take a moment and stop for a chat, and the conversation invariably turned to Brown's former boss and mentor, Bobby Frankel. Still clearly emotionally affected by the departed Hall of Famer,

Brown recounted stories about Frankel and Empire Maker, a horse that Brown was blessed to have observed up close through the 2003 Triple Crown. While a Derby win would elude the Juddmonte homebred (Brown recalls that Frankel thought the colt was more than capable of winning that year's Triple Crown), he would go on to win the GI Belmont S. after finishing second to Funny Cide in Kentucky.

It's clear that a Derby win for Brown would fulfill a long-cherished dream as a horseman, however, winning it in honor of a remarkable trainer would seemingly be life-altering for the Mechanicville, New York native.

Bath time for Sierra Leone | Christina Bossinakis

News of the defection of GIII Lexington S. winner Encino (Nyquist) also broke Tuesday, offering a fortuitous berth in the starting gate for Epic Ride (Blame).

The winner in Turfway's Leonatus S. in February and most recently third in the GI Blue Grass S., the John Ennis-trained colt looked the picture of health, showing up many of his contemporaries during Tuesday's Derby training session. Definitely a longshot come race day, but maybe a nice exotics addition. Cont.

With most of the final major works already in the bag, the Japanese were out in force Tuesday to watch Forever Young (Jpn) (Reel Steel {Jpn}) and T O Password (Jpn) (Copano Rickey {Jpn}) put in their final pieces of work ahead of a Derby tilt. The pair hit the track, which had been sealed earlier in the morning, following the first harrow break.

A Wayne Lukas pony shares a moment with a friend on the backside Tuesday morning | Christina Bossinakis

Working on his own under training assistant Yusaku Oka, Forever Young worked five furlongs in 1:03, carving out internal splits of :14, :27, :39.60, galloping out six furlongs in 1:16.80.

T O Password, working in tandem with GII Alysheba S. entrant T O Saint Denis (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}), worked a half-mile in :46.80 under jockey Kazushi Kimura with internal fractions of :23.80 followed by a five-furlong gallop out in :59.60.

"[Forever Young] handled it well and moved well over the track," Oka said through a translator. "I think we did a good for job for the final breeze."

Both colts seemed to take everything in stride, and those making up their entourage had some pretty happy faces afterward to suggest that they thought the colts did exactly what they had to do heading into Saturday's big dance.

TDN WRITERS' ROOM TEAM TAKES A DEEP DIVE INTO THE KENTUCKY DERBY

In a special edition of the TDN Writers' Room presented by Keeneland, the team of Bill Finley, Zoe Cadman and Randy Moss discussed all 20 horses entered in this year's GI Kentucky Derby, focusing on the strengths and weaknesses of each one.

The consensus pick was Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), the winner of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. He was picked on top by both Cadman and Finley.

"He's in great form, seems to be improving and should love the 1 1/4 miles," Finley said. "He'll need a fast pace up front, but there's enough speed in this race that I think he will get it."

Moss did not agree, picking Fierceness (City of Light).

"I'm not going to over think this," he said. "If all the horses in the race run to their maximum potential, he will win," he said. "He is solidly the best horse in the field."

Fierceness | Horsephotos

Asked for their sleeper pick, Finley went with Just a Touch (Justify), Moss chose Honor Marie (Honor Code) and Cadman selected Domestic Product (Practical Joke).

"Domestic Product is super live," Cadman said. "If he gets into trouble, he should be ok. He's nimble. He's cat-like. He gets better every time."

In the GI Kentucky Oaks, Cadman selected Just F Y I (Justify) and Finley took Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna). Cont.

HORSE OWNERS SUE CAMARERO, PUERTO RICO COMMISSION OVER 'NEGLIGENT, INTENTIONAL' INDIFFERENCE TO TRACK SAFETY

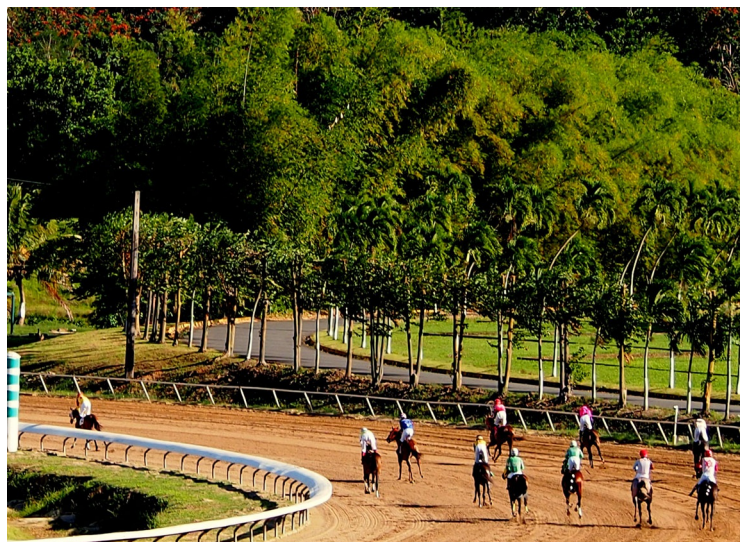

by T.D. Thornton

The non-profit Puerto Rico Horse Owners Association, Inc. (PRHOA) has sued the Gaming Commission of the Government of Puerto Rico and the corporate owners of Camarero Race Track in United States federal court, seeking $500,000 in horse-injury damages because of allegedly unsafe track conditions that the PRHOA is claiming have persisted at Puerto Rico's only Thoroughbred venue for nearly a decade.

The PRHOA also claimed in its Apr. 26 lawsuit in United States District Court (District of Puerto Rico) that despite several years of official complaints lodged to address the alleged safety issues, the gaming commission and track management have purportedly ignored the horse owners' repeated calls for safety upgrades.

In addition, the PRHOA wants a federal judge to compel Camarero and the commission "to immediately grant access" to John Passero, the noted track-safety consultant who years ago served as the track superintendent at Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course. Passero was recently retained by the Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association as a consultant when problems emerged at those two tracks.

The PRHOA is asking for Passero to be furnished with whatever historical track safety study and maintenance data the commission and Camarero have compiled, "as well as all expert reports on the Racetrack by experts issued during the years 2019 to 2024," so that Passero can "submit a report with his recommendations on the condition of the Racetrack."

Neither the commission nor Camarero management could be reached for comment prior to deadline for this story. The defendants have several weeks to file a legal response.

The PRHOA's suit alleges that Camarero, "since 2016 suffers from dangerous conditions...in particular [in] its final stretch in the mile and one sixteenth area...due to having consistency problems, unevenness, problems of humidity, lack of compaction and lack of effective maintenance, among others."

The complaint cited Camarero's need to cancel after one race on a dry track Mar. 16, after two races on a muddy track Apr. 21, and the loss of training hours Apr. 22 as all being related to the unresolved safety issues.

The complaint stated that, "On Feb. 18, 2022, (over twenty-six months ago), PRHOA filed an official complaint with the Executive Director regarding the conditions of the Racetrack, which was assigned to administrative judge José Martínez Ramos, who after some administrative proceedings improperly determined that he lacked jurisdiction to consider the First Complaint, because allegedly the Executive Director had commenced a parallel investigation on the Racetrack and that he understood that the results of that so-called investigation should be completed first.

"With no results from the alleged secret investigation by the Executive Director on the Racetrack and its condition continuing to deteriorate due to its improper maintenance and conditioning, and the lack of the proper equipment to do so, further placing in jeopardy the safety of the riders and Thoroughbreds working out and racing thereat, and in view of Camarero's lackadaisical attitude and hands down modus operandi...almost two years from the First Complaint, PRHOA on Jan. 12, 2024, filed a second complaint with the Commission as to the condition of the Racetrack," the filing stated.

"In the Second Complaint, PRHOA underscored that, almost two years after the First Complaint, the results of the purported investigation by the Executive Director had not been revealed, understanding that the same had not been concluded or conducted," the complaint stated.

In order to fix the alleged problems, the PRHOA wants "a soil study, inspection of the Racetrack's base, the composition of the sand serving as cushion over its base and its depth, the Racetrack's drainage system and the use of the proper equipment."

On Apr. 2, 2024, the PRHOA filed an "urgent petition" with the gaming commission asking for Passero to be allowed to commence that sort of investigatory work, the complaint stated.

But, according to the court filing, "To make things worse on Apr. 22, 2024, making evident its obstinacy and disregard for the well-being of the riders and Thoroughbreds in use of the Racetrack, Camarero answered the Urgent Petition [by] sustaining that since it is a private entity it doesn't have any legal obligation compelling it to share the requested information with third parties and that the revealing reports are confidential in nature and their disclosure is not supported by any legal provision requiring its submittal to PRHOA."

The cancelled races, "coupled with the injuries suffered by the Thoroughbreds owned by the members of PRHOA, have caused them substantial damages, estimated [at] not less than $500,000 due to the resulting loss of purse money and of their investment in the purchase of their racing stock," the PRHOA complaint stated.

"The acts and omissions of the Commission and Camarero [allegedly constitute] illegal violations of PRHOA and its members, civil rights, all in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States and 42 USC section 1983," the PRHOA's complaint stated.

"Said acts and omissions are negligent or intentional, grossly negligent or intentional and taken in reckless disregard and deliberate indifference for the rights of PRHOA and its members," the complaint stated.

COACH CLINT NAME AND AUCTION TO HONOR LONGTIME STARLIGHT PARTNER

Coach Clint | Photos by Z

Starlight Racing has named a 2-year-old colt Coach Clint (Laoban) in honor of the late Clinton Glasscock, a longtime member of the partnership and a tennis coach at St. Xavier High School. Coach Clint is in training at Keeneland with Brendan Walsh and will be moving over to Churchill Downs in May.

Starlight Racing is hosting an auction to allow individuals to bid on and acquire 10% of the horse's net earnings for the entire duration of the operation's ownership of the colt, with proceeds from the auction benefitting the Davenport Family Scholarship at Bellarmine University and the Bellarmine Men's Basketball Program, both passions of Glasscock.

The 10% owner of Coach Clint will be entitled to racing privileges associated with the actual ownership experience provided by Starlight Racing. This unique opportunity not only celebrates Glasscock's passion for horse racing, but also honors his enduring commitment to philanthropy and community service.

The auction will take place at the Davenport Derby Dash, to be held Wednesday at Audubon Country Club at 6 p.m.

Scott Davenport, the head men's basketball coach at Bellarmine University said, "Clint's passion was infectious. His efforts in creating the Knight Club helped launch us to Division 1 and showed how devoted he was to Bellarmine Basketball and his time spent mentoring our players away from the court showed how much he cared about the future success of our young men after graduation." Cont.

COMPETITION DATES SET FOR '24 REAL RIDER CUP

The 2024 dates for two competition legs of the Real Rider Cup, a charity show jumping event featuring members of the racing industry competing on off-track Thoroughbreds, were announced Tuesday. The Kentucky leg will take place July 13 at New Vocations at Mereworth Farm in Lexington, and the Maryland leg will once again kick off the Fair Hill Thoroughbred Show in Elkton Sept. 13. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Fair Hill Thoroughbred Show, New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program, and the Retired Racehorse Project. Riders will compete both individually and as part of a team; riders are encouraged to form their own teams to ride for a particular farm, stable, organization or branch of the industry. All riders pledge to raise a minimum of $1,000, either through donations or sponsorships. Participation will be capped at 30 riders per event. Terence Collier will once again serve as the master of ceremonies at the Kentucky leg, and Scott Wykoff is returning to announce at Maryland. "As we gear up for Real Rider Cup 2024, I'm looking forward to what could be our best year yet," said Real Rider Cup founder Anita Motion. "Each year, we make adjustments and improvements to the flow of the event. Since the inaugural Real Rider Cup in 2017, we've raised much-needed funds for three Thoroughbred charities while also producing a truly enjoyable spectator event. I look forward to seeing you ringside on July 13 in Lexington and Sept. 13 in Fair Hill!"

8th-Churchill Downs, $130,085, Alw (NW2$X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 4-30, 3yo/up, f/m, 5f (off turf), :56.78, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.

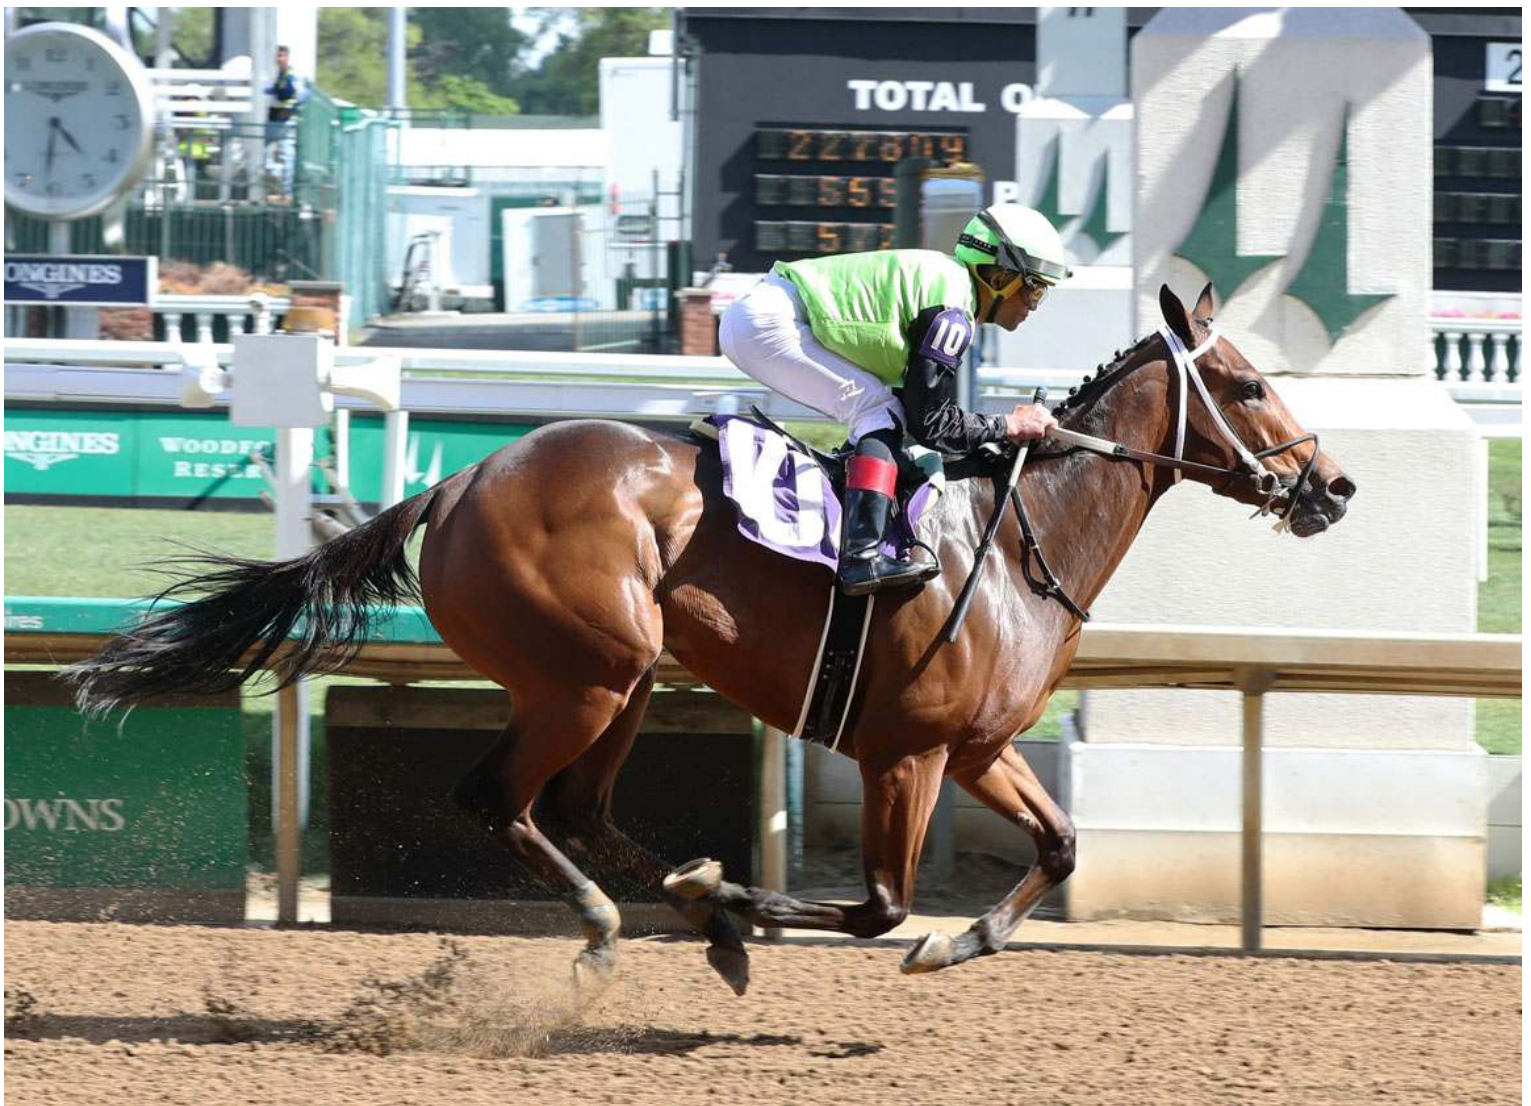

CLEARLY UNHINGED (f, 4, Into Mischief--Smart Win, by Smart Strike), entered for main-track only here, was a narrowly beaten second behind champion Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) in the GI Test S. last summer for trainer Michael McCarthy and was making her first start for Steve Asmussen--and her first outing since finishing third in the Dec. 26 GI La Brea S.--Tuesday.

Sent off the 4-5 favorite, the bay filly rushed up to press pacesetter Filly Crystal (Uncle Mo) into the far turn. Those two rivals turned for home together, but Clearly Unhinged surged to the lead with a furlong to run and easily drew clear to score by 2 3/4 lengths. Pistol (Gun Runner) closed to be second and Filly Crystal was third. Smart Win has a 2-year-old colt by Violence, who sold for $400,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, and a yearling colt by Justify. The winner's third dam is Win Crafty Lady (Crafty Prospector), who produced Graeme Hall and Harmony Lodge. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: MGISP, 8-3-2-1, $354,920.

7th-Finger Lakes, $27,118, Alw, 4-30, (C), 3yo/up, f/m, 4 1/2f, :52.55, ft, 2 lengths.

LITTLE MS SUNSHINE (f, 4, Army Mule--Sound Ofthe Storm, by Freud) sailed through her three-race sophomore campaign unbeaten at this oval and was making her first start since a one-length tally going six furlongs last August. The 1-2 favorite was quickly in control and was pressed by Curl Talk (Ride On Curlin) through an opening quarter in :22.27. She put that foe away at the top of the lane and strode home an easy two-length winner. Lincolnville Beach (Keen Ice) closed strongly to be second, while Curl Talk faded to sixth. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Lifetime Record: 4-4-0-0, $66,660.

4th-Churchill Downs, $117,750, Msw, 4-30, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m, 2:02.49, ft, 8 3/4 lengths.

BATTEN DOWN (c, 3, Tapit--Close Hatches {Ch. Older Mare, MGSW, $2,707,300}, by First Defence), a full-brother to Tacitus (MGSW & MGISP, $3,767,350), romped home the easiest of winners when stretched to 10 furlongs at Churchill Downs Tuesday. A distant sixth in his seven-furlong unveiling Jan. 27, the gray missed by just a neck when second after setting the pace going nine furlongs at Gulfstream Feb. 24 and was beaten a half-length when third going 1 1/16 miles at Keeneland last time out Apr. 6.

Batten Down | Coady Media

The 3-5 favorite broke on top and was tugging under a strong hold through fractions of :23.57 and :48.08. He pulled further clear without being asked turning for home, hit the top of the stretch in front by some five lengths and effortlessly extended his advantage down the lane before finishing under wraps and 8 3/4 lengths in front of Daily Grind (Medaglia d'Oro) in second.

In addition to Tacitus, Batten Down is also a full to 'TDN Rising Star' Scylla (GSP, $174,115), who was third in the Apr. 19 Gill Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland. Champion Close Hatches has a 2-year-old filly by Constitution, a yearling filly by Uncle Mo and she produced a filly by Gun Runner this year. The mare is a full-sister to the late GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up Lockdown, who produced champion Idiomatic (Curlin). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

TESIO: TITAN OF THE TURF WHO DID THINGS HIS WAY

Federico Tesio, 1869-1954

By John Berry

Today, May 1, marks the 70th anniversary of the death of Federico Tesio, who will always be remembered for his massive contribution to the development of the Thoroughbred. 'Breeder of Nearco and Ribot' is probably the description most frequently applied to him, but in truth that hardly scratches the surface of the life of a true titan of the turf.

Facts and dates are an important part of any historical record. The facts of Tesio's racing life as breeder, owner and trainer are written boldly in the form book, and indeed in the books he wrote on the subject himself. We can read of his 21 victories in the Derby Italiano, followed by a further posthumous triumph as breeder courtesy of the 1954 winner Botticelli (Ity) (Blue Peter {GB}) who went on to even greater glory when taking the following year's Ascot Gold Cup; of his 22 wins in the Gran Premio di Milano. We can see the names of Nearco and Ribot, of Cavaliere D'Arpino, Donatello, Nicolo Dell'Arca and Tenerani.

(Correctly Tesio only owned 20 of the 21 Derby Italiano winners whom he trained because Torbido (Ity), successful in 1944, was raced by his wife. Furthermore, from 1932 onwards, his horses were raced, and then bred and raced, in partnership with Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta).

Alongside the the record books, anecdotal history can be invaluable. Personal recollections put flesh on the bones of the facts. Cont. p3

OVER 50 HORSES CONNECTED TO JOHN DANCE TO SELL AT TATTERSALLS GUINEAS SALE

Over 50 horses connected to John Dance's Coverdale Stud and Titanium Racing Club will provide an extra smattering of interest to the horses-in-training section of the two-day Tattersalls Guineas Sale, which kicks off on Wednesday.

First Ambition (GB) (lot 151), an Invincible Spirit colt out of Dance's six-time Group 1 winner Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), will spearhead the draft that is being offered by The Castlebridge Consignment.

Dance was arrested almost a year ago and is involved in an ongoing Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) investigation into allegations of fraud and money laundering involving his company WealthTek LLP. Under the name of an associated company, Vertem Asset Management, Dance sponsored the G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy at Doncaster between 2018 and 2022.

As an insight into Tesio the human being, as well as the racing man, The Tesios as I knew them, by Mario Incisa della Rocchetta (published in 1979, four years before the author's death) is a treasure trove.

An orphan at the age of six, Tesio was sent by his guardian to Moncalieri, one of Italy's best boarding schools whence he moved on to university in Florence. Tesio as a young man would have fitted perfectly into an Italian version of the Oxford of Brideshead Revisited, helped by the 500,000 lire which he inherited when he attained his majority. He rode fearlessly in amateur races, painted and enjoyed racing with his friend Stefano Flori, whose filly Elena (Ity) won the Derby Italiano in 1899, a triumph which must surely have inspired Tesio to reach for the stars himself.

Service as a cavalry officer topped things off nicely, but in time Tesio came to realise that his vocation was a quest for the perfect Thoroughbred. Once he had taken up this challenge, he became single-minded in his devotion to his calling, although his love of art, as both connoisseur and painter, never waned. The names of many of his horses hint strongly at this passion.

Tesio was a perfectionist who, as perfectionists tend to do, subscribed to the school of thought that if one wants something done well, ideally one should do it oneself. When he set about the business of raising and racing horses, he decided that he and he alone should control every stage of the horses' creation and development. He would do things his way.

In Incisa's words, "Tesio decided to breed and train his horses himself. He was convinced that if the work was undertaken in a professional manner, even a fool would be able to beat the horses of that era whose gentleman owners were non-professionals and amateurs. He knew that he was not a fool."

While Tesio was not in any way suited to delegation, not even he could be in two places at once. During the racing season he was mostly in Milan training the horses. Consequently, he entrusted to his wife Lydia the day-to-day running of the stud which he had established at Dormello on the shore of Lake Maggiore in the foothills of the Southern Alps, as Incisa explained.

"All that Tesio achieved was possible because Donna Lydia was there to help him...He had to all intents and purposes delegated to her the actual running of the stud. He trusted her completely to interpret and carry out his instructions at Dormello. Surrounded, as he felt himself to be, by hostility and bearers of ill fortune, his wife was the only person in whose loyalty he had complete confidence. Donna Lydia was an indispensable complement to Tesio." Cont. p4

Even so, "It is certain that he took no account of Donna Lydia's opinions concerning the matings."

Although Tesio was a wealthy man, creating and maintaining a world-class breeding and racing operation generally requires massive investment. He could not afford just to throw money at the project. He could only succeed by being smarter than his competitors, in the sale-ring, at the stud and on the training track. From the early days, he was a regular visitor to Tattersalls' December Sale in Newmarket to buy the fillies and mares who would form the bedrock of his stud, but these had to be bargains. A classic example was Catnip (GB), a daughter of the 1906 Derby winner Spearmint (GB) whom he bought for 75 guineas at the December Sale in 1915. From her he bred Italy's champion filly of 1931, Nogara (Ity), a daughter of the locally-based Havresac (Fr). In turn, Nogara would prove even more invaluable as a broodmare.

Tesio's financial constraints were eased, though, in 1932 (by which time he had already won the Derby Italiano 11 times) when he took on Incisa, who was 30 years his junior, as his partner.

Incisa had first met Tesio in the Hotel Plaza in Rome in the early 1920s when he was introduced to the great man by his friend Giorgio Ugolino della Gherardesca, whose parents were long-standing friends of the Tesios. Incisa was a student at the time; Tesio was in his 50s, already established as one of the most distinguished and successful figures in Italian racing.

That introduction was just a passing social encounter, but Incisa came to know Tesio much better after he married Giorgio's cousin Clarice della Gherardesca in 1930, a match in the making of which Lydia Tesio had taken a close interest. The newly-weds were invited to join the Tesios on their visit to Newmarket at the end of that year, where they stayed, as usual, in Severals House with their friend Mrs Clayton, whose son Jack had bought the adjacent Bedford House stable the previous year. Cont. p5

SUCCESS

During the following year, Incisa endured another disappointing season with his racing operation. He was dissatisfied with his trainers and was getting disheartened by his lack of success. Tesio scented an opportunity and in the spring of 1932 he offered his young friend the chance to become his partner in the horses on the stud and in the stable (for a huge price, of course).

Henceforth, the horses who had been racing under the ownership of Federico Tesio were registered as owned by 'Tesio-Incisa', and new foals were registered as thus bred. Less than three weeks after the partnership was agreed and sealed with a handshake, Clarice led in Jacopa Del Sellaio (Ity) (Coronach {GB}) after her victory in the Derby Italiano.

One major and immediate consequence of Incisa's investment was that Tesio was now able to send more mares overseas to be mated with more expensive stallions, including some of the Derby winners whom he famously revered. In 1933 he sent Delleana (Ity), a great-granddaughter of Pretty Polly, to France to be covered by the Aga Khan's 1930 Derby winner Blenheim (GB). The result was Donatello (Fr), Italy's outstanding three-year-old of 1937 and subsequently the sire of two horses who were champions both on the track and at stud, Alycidon (GB) and Crepello (GB).

Aside from the injection of funds, a further boon was that Tesio now had access to more land. Henceforth, the foals, after weaning, would be sent south to grow at Incisa's family estate at Olgiate, near Rome. In later years, the 'Tesio-Incisa' registration was changed to 'Razza Dormello Olgiate'.

In practice, the new arrangement changed nothing. Tesio remained the sole decision-maker. Incisa later reflected, "Our association with Tesio did not in any way alter the running of the stud or the racing stable. As always, I was welcomed with open arms by Donna Lydia and now with new warmth by Tesio, but the presence of the 'Lady' of Dormello was too dominant and that of the 'Lord' of the stables too awesome for any intrusion of mine to be even thinkable.

"After a brief period of oppressive and monotonous apprenticeship when, encouraged by Donna Lydia, I believed it possible to learn from Tesio how to train horses, I gave up the illusion; and with it the hope that I might one day become his assistant.

"Tesio made it clear that, if I wished to see for myself how the training was carried out, if I wished to inspect the condition of the horses or see the running of the yard, I had, as his associate, every right to do so and I would be welcome at any time. It was equally clear that he did not need my assistance and that he had neither the time nor the inclination to teach me." Cont. p6

Tesio's self-belief was sky-high. At one point, when he had some spare money, he was advised to invest some of it outside the breeding/racing business. He brushed that suggestion aside: "Certainly not! I have no reason to believe that Pirelli makes tyres, or Agnelli cars, any better than I make horses." Even so, he, like everyone else, needed a bit of luck from time to time. The breeding of Nearco was a case in point.

In 1934 Tesio planned to send Nogara, whom he adored, to England, to be covered by Lord Derby's 1928 Eclipse, St Leger and Champion Stakes winner Fairway (GB) (Phalaris {GB}). However, Lord Derby had a new stud manager. The old one, Mr Alston, knew Tesio well, liked and respected him, and would have allocated a nomination to him as a matter of course. The new one, Captain Paine, had no idea who he was, so no nomination was available. Frustrated, Tesio directed that Nogara should be re-routed to France to visit Fairway's (at that time) less-heralded full-brother Pharos at Haras d'Ouilly. Thus, fortuitously, was Nearco conceived, which is just as well as otherwise we wouldn't have the Bold Ruler, Northern Dancer or Sunday Silence sire-lines. No Secretariat; no Frankel; no Deep Impact.

Nearco, unbeaten in 14 races, not only made up for the luckless defeat of Donatello in the previous year's Grand Prix de Paris but also, by winning that race, established himself as a champion by international, rather than merely local, standards. This led to his sale to stud in England, the country which his grandmother had left in 1915 with her 75-guineas price-tag, for £60,000. This surpassed the £47,500 for which Tesio had sold Donatello the previous year. Donatello's Irish-bred granddam had, incidentally, cost him 210 guineas as a yearling in 1921.

One remarkable footnote to Nearco's story is that curiously (although one might say 'predictably', bearing in mind that with Tesio one always had to expect the unexpected) Tesio sent only one mare to him.

It is often said that the tragedy of Tesio was that he did not live to witness the majesty of Ribot, who made his debut two months after his creator died at the age of 85. Tesio will not, though, have departed feeling that he was missing out. It is not just that he didn't have a particularly high opinion of the young Ribot, whom he had chosen not to enter in the following year's Derby Italiano. More pertinently, by this time he already felt that his life's work was complete, as Incisa explained.

"I stood with Tesio on the stands at Longchamp for the Grand Prix 1938. He stood motionless and silent watching Nearco's every stride as though spurring him on with his eyes. As Nearco sailed effortlessly past the winning post, Tesio let go and, giving me a great thump on the back, he let out a cry of triumph. It was not an 'Oh!' of satisfaction but the full-throated and terrible 'Aah!' of Atilla the Hun when, having raped, pillaged and plundered, he decapitated with one stroke of his scimitar the bishop who knelt begging him to spare the cathedral!

"Tesio's great dream had come true and, thank God, he had lived to see it."

Following his arrest and the subsequent freezing of his assets, Dance's horses were initially not allowed to be entered for races, but in May the British Horseracing Authority granted permission for them to run under the name of Coverdale Stud or Titanium Racing. Some of the horses offered on Wednesday have not been in full training and are essentially blank canvases.

Andrew Mead, director of Castlebridge, commented, "Castlebridge has approximately fifty horses selling over Wednesday and Thursday on behalf of John Dance. None of them have raced over the past few months and the majority are unexposed and represent genuine untapped potential.

Most people will be aware of the circumstances behind the sale of these horses and we have received a lot of enquiries, including prior to the start of showing at Tattersalls."

The Guineas Sale features some interesting horses | Tattersalls

The record number of lots in the horses-in-training section means that the auction will get underway on Wednesday evening at 5pm. The breeze takes place on Wednesday morning at 9am.

Tribal Rhythm (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) (lot 118), a half-brother to Group 1-winning sprinter Bradsell (GB), and the 107-rated Asjad (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) (lot 190) are other notable horses in the draft.

The horses-in-training section of the sale gets underway on Wednesday evening and follows through to Thursday morning at 9.30. Some top-notch horses have been sold at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-Up Sale, including leading stayer Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}) and Prix de l'Abbaye winner The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}). The breeze-up horses begin selling at 12:30p on Thursday afternoon.

RACE PREVIEWS

ACTION HEATS UP AT ASCOT by Tom Frary

Trueshan | Scoop Dyga

It may not feel like the first day of May, but despite the gloom and the cold Royal Ascot Trials Day is upon us on Wednesday with the G3 Longines Sagaro S. the feature. Most of the big Gold Cup hopefuls are back in play, with the popular veterans Trueshan (Fr) (Planteur {Ire}), Coltrane (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and Quickthorn (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) set to renew rivalry once again on the Berkshire terrain.

In the G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial S. which is registered as the Pavilion S., the list of budding sprinting stars is headed by Opulence Thoroughbreds and Teme Valley's TDN Rising Star Purosangue (GB) (Aclaim {Ire}) who beat the subsequent G3 Greenham S. winner Esquire (GB) (Harry Angel {Ire}) when last seen in York's Listed Rockingham S. in October. Second in the Greenham, Peter Harris's El Bodon (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) reverts to six furlongs in a quick turnaround from that Newbury Guineas prep.

Also on the card is the Listed Paradise S., a trial for the G1 Queen Anne S., where Sheikh Ahmed Al Maktoum's 2022 G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen winner and desperately unlucky G1 St James's Palace S. fourth Maljoom (Ire) (Caravaggio) bids to get back on track for William Haggas joined by the same owner's unbeaten dual novice scorer Quddwah (GB) (Kingman {GB}) from the Simon and Ed Crisford stable.

Intrigue At Munich And Saint-Cloud

At Munich, the G3 WETTSTAR.de Bavarian Classic is an early G1 Deutsches Derby trial in which Stall Lucky Owner's impressive G2 Gran Criterium winner Wintertraum (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) meets Gestut Ittlingen's authoritative

Hoppegarten maiden winner Alleno (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in one of the initial domestic tussles among the chief 3-year-old prospects. At Saint-Cloud, the bank holiday fayre sees the G2 Prix du Muguet where Godolphin's Tribalist (GB) (Farhh {GB}) bid to repeat his dominant display in the course-and-distance G3 Prix Edmond Blanc re-opposed by last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Marhaba Ya Sanafi (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) who was well adrift in second there. The Aga Khan's gelded Dolayli (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) is a dark horse to continue the stable's fine form stepping up from an impressive win in Chantilly's Prix Darshaan conditions event in March.

Golden Gate Veteran Earns Career High In San Fran

Ronald Charles and Samuel Gordon's Lammas (GB) (Heeraat {Ire}), a regular for many years at Golden Gate, earned another graded win when taking Saturday's GIII San Francisco Mile S. (video).

Trained by Manuel Badilla, the Peter Onslow-bred 7-year-old gelding was an 10,000gns buy-back as a weanling from the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, did not meet his reserve when an £1,800 Goffs UK Autumn yearling, and finally changed hands for 42,000gns out of the 2022 Tattersalls HIT Sale. Also a winner of the GIII Berkeley H., Lammas is the only winner for his unraced dam, Spate Rise (GB) (Speightstown). Group 1 winner and sire Jade Robbery (Mr. Prospector) is related to the third dam, the stakes-placed Add (Spectacular Bid).

Dark Angel (Ire) son Heeraat has just Lammas to run for him in America to date.

Luck Be A Lady At Aqueduct

Madaket Stables, Steven Rocco and West Point Thoroughbreds' Lady Mia (Fr) (Outstrip {GB}) landed an Aqueduct contest on Saturday for trainer Christophe Clement (video). Bred by Daniel Cole, Valerie Dubos and Kleber, the 4-year-old placed in the G3 Prix Miesque in her native land prior to arriving in America last September.

Originally raced by Michele Cazaubon and Rana Khaddam, the filly was third in the Listed Prix Saraca and second in the Miesque for trainers Alessandro and Giuseppe Botti. Sent through the ring during Arqana's Arc Sale, she was an €110,000 buy-back, before making €280,000 in the same ring during the Vente d'Élevage when bought by Clement and his brother Nicolas. Her dam, Mrs Micawber (GB) (Nayef), won once at three, and Lady Mia is her last known foal. Luncies (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), a half-brother to her dam, won the G3 Tattersalls Cup, while their mother landed the Listed Zetland S. and was placed twice at group level.

Outstrip has sired 80% winners to runners in the U.S. with four winners from five runners. His two stakes winners there include Grade III winners Nadette (Fr) and Outburst (GB).

Onyx Roars At Woodbine

Lady Onyx (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), who is a silksbearer for Team Valor International and Steven Rocco, earned her second career victory, this time at Woodbine on Saturday (video). Trained initially by Johnny Murtagh, she is now in the barn of dual Hall of Famer Mark Casse.

Bred by P Gallagher, the daughter of dual winner Nuala Tagula (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) won a maiden at Gowan in May of last year, and managed two stakes-placings from five 3-year-old starts in Ireland. Murtagh and Eddie Linehan paid €52,000 out of the Goffs Sportsman's Yearling Sale for Lady Onyx. Her latest siblings include 3-year-old colt Chief Of State (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}), 2-year-old filly Lift Lady (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}), and a yearling half-sister by Kessaar (Ire). Lady Onyx is kin to G3 Brownstown S., G3 Fairy Bridge S., and G3 Sceptre S. heroine Realtra (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

Rathbarry Stud's Kodi Bear has enjoyed good results with his American-based progeny, and Lady Onyx is his third runner and second winner after the multiple stakes-placed Helens Well (Ire). His Go Bears Go (Ire) was second in the GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint and third in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint.

Kingman Filly Wins At Tampa

Klaravich Stables, Inc.'s Peak Earnings (GB) (Kingman {GB}) won a Tampa Bay Downs affair in stalking fashion for trainer Chad Brown this past weekend (video).

Bred by Sun Bloodstock SARL, the daughter of dual French group winner Sans Equivoque (Ger) (Stormy River {Fr}) joined Seth Klarman's bloodstock portfolio for 200,000gns out of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1 when selected by Mike Ryan. She has a 2-year-old Dubawi (Ire) half-sister, and a yearling half-brother by Palace Pier (GB). This is the extended family of G1 Metropolitan winner and sire Seville (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}).

Juddmonte's Kingman is a regular in this column as the sire of 39 winners from 66 runners (59%) in North America. His eight stakes winners in the U.S. include GI Manhattan S. winner Domestic Spending (GB), who won another two Grade Is, as well as Grade II winners Technical Analysis (Ire), Public Sector (GB), and Serve The King (GB). Glory For All At Santa Anita Mike McCarthy runner Sunset Glory (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) put it all together to take the Santa Anita nightcap on Saturday (video). Representing Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Bruce Treitman, the chestnut was bred by Ringfort Stud.

An 5,000gns Book 3 yearling out of the Tattersalls October Sale, Sunset Glory ran fourth at first asking for jockey/trainer Andrew Slattery in the colours of Seamus McGrath. Changing hands privately, she was second in her American debut in October. Out of the unraced Giant Dancer (Giant's Causeway), Sunset Glory is a granddaughter of G3 Fillies' Sprint S. third A Mind Of Her Own (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), herself a full-sister to G2 Superlative S. second Birdman (Ire).

Tally-Ho resident Cotai Glory has four winners from 10 runners (40%) in America. His first stakes winner in that jurisdiction is Spirit And Glory (Ire), who was second in the GII Yellow Ribbon H.

AIDAN O'BRIEN TO JOIN BRITISH HORSERACING HALL OF FAME

Aidan O'Brien is to be inducted into the QIPCO British Champions Series Hall of Fame during the QIPCO Guineas Festival at Newmarket on Saturday.

The 54-year-old Irishman follows his Ballydoyle predecessor Vincent O'Brien, along with Sir Michael Stoute and Sir Henry Cecil, as the fourth trainer to be nominated for inclusion in the official Hall of Fame for British Flat racing, which was launched in 2021.

He said, "It is incredible, and a privilege for us, as it is something we would never have expected.

"The people, and horses, that have gone before us I feel very privileged to have worked with. I can't say how delighted, and honoured, I feel."

Having been chosen for induction by unanimous decision from the eight-strong panel, O'Brien will be presented with his Hall of Fame medal before racing on the day he is set to saddle the odds-on QIPCO 2,000 Guineas favourite City Of Troy. The Justify colt will be bidding to become his trainer's eleventh winner of the first British Classic of the season.

O'Brien set the tone from the off in his training career. On his first day as a trainer, June 7, 1993, he sent out Wandering Thoughts (Ire) to win at Tralee. He made his name initially as a trainer of jumpers, having taken over the licence from his wife Annemarie, who followed her father Joe Crowley in training successfully from her family's farm in Owing, Co Kilkenny. Annemarie made history when becoming the first woman to land the National Hunt trainers' championship in 1992/93 and her husband went on to be crowned champion Irish jumps trainer for five consecutive seasons from 1993/94.

The O'Briens moved to Ballydoyle in 1996, the year before Aidan became the youngest person, at the age of 26, to win the Irish Flat Trainers' Championship. He won it for a second time in 1999 and has held the title in every subsequent year, training an elite string of horses for John Magnier and his partners in the Coolmore operation, which include Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Georg von Opel and Peter Brant.

O'Brien has also been champion trainer on six occasions in Britain, where he has won the Derby a record nine times, beginning with Galileo (Ire) in 2001. He also holds the record for the most number of wins in the 2,000 Guineas, with 10 victories, the same as his tally for the Oaks, while he has won the 1,000 Guineas seven times and the St Leger six times.

In 2017, he set a training world record of 28 Group/Grade 1 winners in a calendar year, beating the record of 25 held by American trainer Bobby Frankel. Last year, Henry Longfellow (Ire) became the 4,000th winner of O'Brien's illustrious career when winning the G1 National S. on the trainer's home turf at the Curragh.

Aidan and Annemarie O'Brien's two sons, Joseph and Donnacha, are now trainers in their own right, having each been champion jockey in Ireland on two occasions. Cont. p11

Paying tribute to his father in a video to mark the occasion, Joseph said, "There have been lots of contributing factors to Dad's success. His work ethic is second to none. Seeing that first hand for several years has been inspiring.

"Having access to top-class horses, and achieving the very best, better than anyone could have expected, is another factor towards his success."

He added, "I've learned everything I know about horses from my Mum and Dad. Dad works by setting an example of the dedication he puts towards his way of life. I was incredibly lucky, as have all my siblings been, to grow up in the incredible environment at Ballydoyle, and to be able to ride for Dad."

BIG ROCK AND INSPIRAL HEADLINE 15 LOCKINGE ENTRIES

Big Rock | Scoop Dyga

Following the latest scratching stage, last year's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) is one of 15 horses who have stood their ground for the £400,000 G1 Al Shaqab Lockinge S. at Newbury on Saturday, May 18, potentially his first start for Maurizio Guarnieri having left Christopher Head's Chantilly yard last week.

A French-trained horse hasn't won the Lockinge since Keltos (Fr) struck for Carlos Laffon-Parias in 2002, but Big Rock will certainly bring leading form claims to the table if taking his chance at Newbury. He could be joined by Andre Fabre's Tribalist (GB) (Farhh {GB}), who won the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc for the second year in succession at Saint-Cloud last time.

John and Thady Gosden won the 2021 edition of the Lockinge with Palace Pier (GB) and they could saddle up to three runners this year, including the six-time Group 1 winner Inspirial (GB) (Frankel {GB}), last seen winning the GI Breeders' Cup Filly &

Mare Turf at Santa Anita in November.

The potential challenge from Clarehaven Stables is completed by G3 Criterion S. winner Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) and the veteran Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who ran his usual sound race when finishing third in last week's G2 Sandown Mile, behind Charyn (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Poker Face (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), both of whom are also entered in the Lockinge.

Other entries of note include the placed horses from last year's G1 2,000 Guineas, Hi Royal (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Royal Scotsman (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), plus Elegant Man (Arrogate), who showed Group-class potential when winning defying top weight in a competitive handicap on All-Weather Finals Day at Newcastle.

The next confirmation stage is on Monday, May 13, when supplementary entries can also be made for a fee of £20,000.

INTERNATIONAL CAST ASSEMBLING FOR ROYAL ASCOT

At least seven countries are set to be represented for the Group 1 races and early-closing Group 2 contests for Royal Ascot, the racecourse announced on Tuesday. Worth a record £10 million in prize-money this year, the meeting boasts purses of at least £650,000 for the Group 1 races, and all races are worth at least £110,000.

Aussie sprinter Chain Of Lightning (Aus) (Fighting Sun {Aus}) is one of the leading lights for the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee S., and her co-trainer, Peter Moody, won the race in 2012 with Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}). The G1 T J Smith S. victress, who is co-trained by Katherine Coleman, later ran sixth in the G1 All-Aged S. this month.

Moody said, "Chain Of Lightning is in good order. She ran at Randwick 10 days ago on a very heavy track and did not handle it, but she has come through the race well. She will have her next and probably only lead up run between now and Ascot in the G1 Doomben 10,000 on May 18. Then she will head to the broodmare sale on May 24, so it depends on who owns her after that but, if she is still in my care, it would be my intention to travel her over for Royal Ascot on June 5."

Fellow Aussie sprinter Asfoora (Aus) (Flying Artie {Aus}) has already arrived in Newmarket as of last week, with an eye to the G1 King Charles III S. Trained by Henry Dwyer, the mare will prep in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock Park on May 25. She is a two-time Group 2 winner, and has placed multiple times at the highest level.

Dwyer said, "Asfoora had a quiet weekend after arriving on Thursday night, but she had a saddle on her back on Monday and all went well." Cont. p12

He added, “She had another canter this morning and I would imagine we will do a bit of pace work with her on Wednesday. To have a runner there has long been an ambition of mine and hopefully Asfoora can tick that box well.”

Big name French invaders Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) and Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}) are also possible for the five-day meeting. The latter, trained by Jerome Reynier, won the G1 Dubai Turf at the end of March. He was previously placed behind Big Rock in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. on British Champions Day.

Reynier said, “I have been very happy with Facteur Cheval since he returned from Dubai and it will be interesting to see him back at Ascot, especially now he has proven himself at the highest level on good ground.

“The Queen Anne Stakes is the target as he travels well and likes plenty of pace in the race. We feel that he is a pure miler, who was able to stretch out to nine furlongs in Dubai, and the programme in Europe is very good for a horse like him.”

Last year’s G2 Queen Mary winner Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) is back, this time aiming toward the King Charles III S. for trainer George Weaver. If successful, the 3-year-old filly would complete the same double as Lady Aurelia (Scat Daddy) in 2016/2017.

Weaver said, “Crimson Advocate is doing well and we would like to be in a position to bring her back to Royal Ascot, given how she performed last year, most likely for the King Charles III S. against males. The next race we are looking at is the Mamzelle S. over 5 1/2 furlongs at Churchill Downs on May 11.”

Sunday’s Memories of Silver S. heroine Sweet Rebecca (American Pharoah) is another American raider set to ship to the royal meeting. The ‘TDN Rising Star’ has the G1 Coronation S. in her sights for trainer Chad Brown and new owner John Stewart of Resolute Racing.

Crimson Advocate (red) wins the 2023 Queen Mary | Ascot Racecourse

Brown told the NYRA notes team post-race, “It all worked out and I do think this filly might be my first Ascot starter. For right now, I’d say it’s likely her next start would be in the Coronation. She is a serious filly and trains with a lot of power.

“I want to thank Mr. John Stewart for purchasing her and transferring her to me and my team. I’m so happy for him. He is new in the game and building an impressive roster of both racehorses and broodmares, and he’s a real pleasure to deal with.”

Japan fields four entries, including North Bridge (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}), third in the G1 FWD QEII Cup on Sunday, as well as T O Royal (Jpn) (Leontes {Jpn}) and Blow The Horn (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}), the first two home in the G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) on Apr. 28.

WORLD POOL LAUNCHES £50,000 JOCKEYS' CHARITY PRIZE AT NEWMARKET

Chaldean winning last year's 2,000 Guineas under Frankie Dettori
Focus On Racing

The World Pool UK & Ireland Jockeys' Championship, a brand new £50,000 initiative, is being launched as World Pool makes its UK seasonal bow at Newmarket Racecourse on Saturday, May 4.

The initiative will see jockeys compete to accumulate points across World Pool fixtures in the UK and Ireland. For the winning jockey of every World Pool race in the UK and Ireland, points will be awarded based on the World Pool win dividend. The point system is designed to offer a level playing field for all jockeys.

Beginning with the G1 Qipco 2,000 Guineas, the competition will conclude on Qipco British Champions Day at Ascot on Saturday, October 19, with the winner receiving £50,000 to be donated to a charity of their choice. Cont. p13

The World Pool Moment of the Year will also be awarded again in 2024, covering all full World Pool meetings. Stable staff will have the opportunity to win cash prizes, as well as a VIP trip to Hong Kong for four people in 2025 to the overall winner. One World Pool Moment of the Day will be selected at each full World Pool meeting, with the winning groom receiving HK$40,000 (£4,000 in the UK and €4,000 in Ireland).

World Pool, the largest globally commingled horse racing pools, was created and is powered by the Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC). In January, it was announced that nine new race days had been added to the World Pool calendar in the first six months of 2024, including the Newmarket fixture on Sunday, May 5 which features the G1 Qipco 1,000 Guineas. The other additions to the schedule include the G1 Tattersalls Irish 1,000 Guineas and G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, both run at the Curragh on Sunday, May 26.

Michael Fitzsimons, executive director, Wagering Products, at the HKJC, said, "It's fantastic to be returning to the UK and Ireland with an extended World Pool fixture list this year now featuring the English and Irish 1,000 Guineas, and we look forward to making these historic fillies' Classics available to customers from around the world.

"In addition to the popular World Moment of the Day initiative, we're excited to announce the new World Pool UK & Ireland Jockeys' Championship, which will provide a different dimension and further competition to World Pool racedays right up until QIPCO British Champions Day in October.

"It's a unique competition, with a jockey's points being determined by World Pool win dividends, and a great initiative as there's £50,000 up for grabs for the leading rider to donate to a charity of their choice. We are committed to giving money back to racing and good causes, and this seemed the perfect way to do that."

HRI UNVEILS FIVE-YEAR STRATEGIC PLAN FOR RACING AND BREEDING INDUSTRY

A five-year strategic plan for the horse racing and breeding industry entitled 'Nurturing Success and Inspiring Participation', was unveiled by Horse Racing Ireland.

The Strategic Plan 2024-2028 was launched ahead of this week's Punchestown festival by HRI Chairman Nicky Hartery and Chief Executive Officer, Suzanne Eade.

Spanning the years through to the end of 2028, the strategy's mission is to protect, strengthen and sustain Ireland's global leading horse racing and breeding industry. The plan also focuses heavily on HRI's social responsibility to industry employees, the horses and the environment.

HRI Chairman Nicky Hartery, HRI CEO Suzanne Eade and Minister Martin Heydon | HRI

Eade said, "This strategic plan specifies two clear objectives--to nurture success and to inspire participation. The Irish racing and breeding industry is one of the country's biggest success stories. The horses owned, bred and trained in Ireland are the envy of the world, and that is a position that we can never take for granted."

She added, "The updated Deloitte report in 2023 demonstrated a 35-fold return to the economy on the annual Government investment. Our goal is to grow this return year-on-year and by the end of 2028 to have increased the industry's economic reach to €3 billion from the current €2.46 billion. Driving long-term financial sustainability for the industry will stimulate expenditure and achieving this €3-billion figure is very much within reach by maximising all revenue streams."

As its highest priority, HRI will ensure the racing and breeding industry meets expectations in relation to the safety and care of human and equine participants. The horse racing and breeding industry is renowned for impacting positively on the environment and HRI's strategy will continue to deliver on its responsibilities regarding climate change concerns.

"Within the lifetime of the plan, we aim to deliver on big capital projects like a people campus, which will service the needs of the wider thoroughbred industry, and providing a pipeline of future human talent. The plan will grow a sustainable workforce and develop Ireland as a global centre of excellence for industry education and training," said Eade.

"Furthermore, the exciting development of a new all-weather track at Tipperary Racecourse will create domestic opportunities at all levels of the industry as well as providing the marketplace for Irish racing to grow its annual foreign direct investment, currently estimated to be more than €550m per annum.

"We can expand opportunities for Irish thoroughbreds by growing national and international engagement, targeting new and existing markets." Cont. p14

She added, “Late last year, I was proud to launch HRI’s sustainability strategy - Racing Towards a Better World. Key goals, including enhancing safety and demonstrating in measurable terms a high quality of equine care at all stages of life and improving industry recruitment by raising standards of oversight, training and support, are a mainstay of this five-year strategy.”

DAUGHTER OF DANCING RAIN PRIMED FOR ASCOT DEBUT

16.35 Ascot, Nov, £40,000, 3yo, f, 7f 213yT
 Godolphin's hitherto unraced DIAMOND RAIN (GB) (Shamardal) is a daughter of G1 Oaks and G1 German Oaks heroine Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and thus a half-sister to dual Group 2-winning G1 Fillies' Mile and G1 Jebel Hatta placegetter Magic Lily (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) and stakes-winning G1 Grand Prix de Paris third Jalmoud (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). Seven-strong opposition to the Charlie Appleby trainee includes Juddmonte's Echo Lima (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who is a Ralph Beckett-trained half-sister to four black-type performers headed by GI Jenny Wiley S. heroine Juliet Foxtrot (GB) (Dansili {GB}); Shadwell homebred Fayqa (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is kin to a trio of black-type performers out of dual Group-winning G1 Oaks runner-up Tarfasha (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), from the Kevin Philippart de Foy stable; and The Thoroughbred Corporation's 280,000gns Book 1 graduate Shaha (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}), who is a John and Thady Gosden-trained daughter of the multiple Group 1-placed Board Meeting (Ire) (Anabaa) and thus kin to G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud third Big Blue (GB) (Galileo {Ire}).

HOW THEY FARED

14.30 Fontainebleau, Mdn, €27,000, 3yo, 6fT

Godolphin homebred Spring Beauty (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), an Alex Pantall-trained daughter of GI Natalma S. heroine La Pelosa (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), forfeited several lengths after standing still at the break and made some late headway to finish 7 1/2 lengths behind the winner in seventh.

15.15 Great Yarmouth, Mdn, ,8,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f 3yT

Run Away (Ire) (No Nay Never), the full-sister to the dual Group 1-winning sire Blackbeard (Ire) who was the Goffs Orby topper at €2.6 million, made a highly encouraging winning debut showing the same fight as her illustrious sibling.

Showing the same doggedness as her high-class sibling, the 7-1 shot held the challenge of Cat Ninja (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) to prevail by a neck. The winner is the dam's second foal after the aforementioned Blackbeard, who captured the G1 Prix Morny, G1 Middle Park S. and G2 Prix Robert Papin. A daughter of the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. winner Girouette (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) connected to the multiple group scorer Max Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), her 2-year-old colt Tunbridge Wells (Ire) is also by No Nay Never while she also has a yearling colt again by the same sire. WORLDWIDE NEWS

I AM INVINCIBLE & SNITZEL THE MOST EXPENSIVE STALLIONS IN OZ FOR 2024

I Am Invincible (Aus) and Snitzel (Aus) have been confirmed as the two most expensive stallions standing in Australia in 2024 after their covering fees for the Southern Hemisphere breeding season were announced on Tuesday.

The sire of multiple Group 1-winning sprinters such as Imperatriz (Aus), Brazen Beau (Aus) and Home Affairs (Aus), Yarraman Park Stud resident I Am Invincible remains the most expensive stallion standing in Australia, despite having had his fee reduced from A$302,500 (around €183,000) to A$275,000 (€167,000). Vinnie & Snitzel Cont.

I Am Invincible is on course to be crowned Australia's champion sire for the third year in succession following another excellent season in 2023/24, with the likes of the now-retired Imperatriz and the two-year-old Move To Strike (Aus), who recently won the G1 Manawatu Sires Produce S. at Trentham, leading the way.

A third champion sire crown would still leave I Am Invincible one behind Snitzel, who become just the sixth stallion in the history of the Australian Sires' Premiership to earn four or more consecutive champion sire titles when last successful during the 2019/20 season. Preparing to embark on his 19th season at Arrowfield Stud, Snitzel's fee remains at A$247,500 (€150,000) following another stellar campaign, both on the track and in the sales ring.

For the fifth time in the last eight years, Snitzel's yearlings have combined to sell for more than A$40 million at the sales, while he too has an outstanding juvenile in the shape of the A$1.5 million colt Switzerland (Aus), who won three of his first four starts, including the G2 Todman S. at Randwick.

Incidentally, the fees announced for I Am Invincible and Snitzel remain some way below those commanded by the most expensive stallions standing in Europe and the US. In Europe, Dubawi (Ire) and Frankel (GB) both stood for £350,000 (€409,000) in 2024--making them the joint-highest-priced stallions in the world--while Curlin, Gun Runner and Into Mischief shared top billing in the US at $250,000 (€234,000), with Justify currently standing at a private fee.

In Japan, Kitan Black (Jpn) and his son Equinox (Jpn), who is standing his first season at Shadai Stallion Station in 2024, were the most expensive stallions at a fee of ¥20,000,000 (€119,000).

EUROPEAN STARS ENTERED IN STANDARD CHARTERED CHAMPIONS & CHATER CUP

Rebel's Romance | Focus On Racing

Godolphin's Rebel's Romance (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the Coolmore partners' Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) have both been entered in the G1 Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup at Sha Tin in Hong Kong on Sunday, May 26, the Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC) revealed on Tuesday.

The pair are the only overseas entrants in the 2400-metre contest, which is the final Group 1 of the Hong Kong season with a purse of HK$13 million (£1.3 million). Both horses are also coming off of victories on Dubai World Cup night at the end of March. Rebel's Romance, a winner of the 2022 GI Breeders' Cup Turf, is riding a three-race winning streak including February's G3 H H The Amir Trophy in Qatar, and the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan for trainer Charlie Appleby. In the case of Aidan O'Brien trainee Tower Of London, he claimed the G3 Red Sea Turf H. in Saudi Arabia, and he was a handy winner of the 3200-metre G2 Dubai Gold Cup at the end of March.

If either horse prevails, they would be the first internationally trained winner of the Hong Kong showpiece.

ENGELBRECHT-BRESGES RECEIVES THE ORDER OF THE RISING SUN AWARD

The government of Japan conferred The Order of the Rising Sun, gold rays with neck ribbon, on the Hong Kong Jockey Club's CEO Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges on Apr. 29, the HKJC announced on Tuesday.

He received the award in recognition for his contributions in promoting the international development of Japanese horse racing and thoroughbred breeding. Cont. p18

The Order of the Rising Sun dates back to 1875, and is awarded to people who have rendered meritorious service to Japan.

Engelbrecht-Bresges said, "I would like to dedicate this decoration to the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA), the Asian Racing Federation (ARF) and the Hong Kong Jockey Club. All three have been at the forefront of global thoroughbred horse racing, helping to shape the future and lead the way for our industry.

"It has been my privilege to work alongside industry peers in Japan for many years. I look forward to joining with my friends in Japan, and all my colleagues around the world, as together we take forward our sport and enter a new era of world-class racing."
