Three Chimneys Farm homebred Gun Pilot (Gun Runner) punched through from in between horses in the final furlong after sitting a midfield trip and skipped clear at odds of 5-1 to give his sire a sweep of the afternoon's seven-furlong Grade I contests in the Churchill Downs S. "This is so special," winning trainer Steve Asmussen said.

MYSTIK DAN MAKES HISTORY IN KENTUCKY

DERBY 150 by Christina Bossinakis

Mystik Dan | Coady Media

Trainer Ken McPeck told anyone who would listen after Friday's GI Kentucky Oaks victory with Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) that his GI Kentucky Derby aspirant, Mystik Dan (Goldencents), could very well jump up and win, too. It seemed a bit far fetched given the last time a trainer had won the Kentucky Derby and Oaks in the same year was back in 1952 when Ben Jones accomplished the feat with Real Delight and Hill Gail. Defying the odds, and history, the Kentucky horseman completed the double Saturday when the Kentucky-bred colt nosed out 9-2 second choice Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) by a whisker.

"For three weeks, I felt like we were going to win both races. I can't tell you why," said McPeck, who recorded his previous best finish in the Derby with Tejano Run in 1995. "Both horses have been so easy to deal with. The team has done such a great job every day."

He continued, "There's been no drama. [Co-owners] Lance and Sharilyn [Gasaway] have been wonderful people to have involved here. They came in and decided to absorb it all and enjoy it. I just believe in mojo. I believe in positive energy. And we had a lot of that. And, you know, we had two really, really good horses. Brian [Hernandez] did an amazing job today. Just really honored and proud to be here."

Also making history, Hernandez snagged the double, the first since Calvin Borel accomplished the feat in 2009 with Rachel Alexandra and Mine That Bird.

"It still hasn't sunk in. It's unbelievable," gushed Hernandez. "We came into the weekend thinking we had good chances, really big chances, both Friday and Saturday. And then to just have the horses pull it off for us, we really have to thank all the guys back in the barn. They put so much work into this to have these horses ready on days like today and yesterday. It's like I said, I don't know how long it's going to take to sink in, but it's definitely a surreal moment right now."

Going According to Script

Derby Day began shrouded in gloom and humidity, admittedly not very fan (and hair) friendly. However, despite some suspect moments early on, the sun eventually came out, giving the Derby day crowd a glorious canvas for the Triple Crown's first jewel. In the paddock, Mystik Dan--labeled an Old Soul by McPeck--remained calm, cool and collected throughout the process and on the way to the gate.

Breaking from post three at odds of 18-1, Mystik Dan had enough speed to get himself into contention, hovering a few lengths off the pace as Track Phantom (Quality Road), Just Steel (Justify) and Epic Ride (Blame) rushed up to lead heading into the first turn. Meanwhile, 3-1 choice Fierceness (City of Light) broke crisply from the 17 slot, and joined the leading flank with relative ease, getting the first call with an opening quarter in :22.97 three wide off the rail. Track Phantom soon assumed control over Just Steel and Fierceness through a half in :46.63 as Mystik Dan continued to survey the pace in a rail-skimming fourth, just a couple of lengths behind the pace. Track Phantom remained in front as Just Steel retreated and Fierceness began to pick up the tempo up front.

Meanwhile, Sierra Leone, who had been camped out near the back, began to pick up horses quickly approaching the quarter pole and the Japanese invader Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}), installed the 7-1 third choice, hooked onto the $2.3 million purchase's flank and followed him into the stretch. Itching for his cue from Hernandez, Mystik Dan found a sliver of daylight inside, and scraped his way through and cut the corner like a seasoned pro as Fierceness started to look leg weary. Far on the outside, Sierra Leone continued to close despite repeatedly bouncing off the oncoming Forever Young, who was mounting a challenge of his own. Mystik Dan sprinted away, getting the jump on his rivals by three to four lengths, and giving the closers all they could handle to catch up. The late leader finally started to feel the burn in deep stretch, while the duo of Sierra Leone and Forever Young continued to gobble up real-estate. Despite their best efforts, Mystik Dan had just enough left to get his nose in front of Sierra Leone with the Forever Young another nostril back in third. Catching Freedom (Constitution), another stone-cold closer, was 1 3/4 lengths back in fourth while the 'other' Japanese horse, T O Password (Jpn) (Copano Rickey {Jpn}), was 4 3/4 lengths adrift in fifth. Fierceness faded in the stretch to finish 15th.

"Mystik Dan went through [a tight spot] with no problem," said Hernandez. "So once I went through that spot, I was like, okay, now I know he's going to go through tight spots...they went :46.3 in front of us. But my horse was just cruising along so nicely and so comfortable, it never felt like we were going that quickly. Once we got to the second turn, everybody outside of Track Phantom started piling up. I had a nice little pocket there. I was like, 'we will just sit here and let them pile up'. Once Track Phantom just kind of moved off the rail just half a step, we were able to kind of get through there. We might have took out a little bit of the inside fence, but that's okay."

Asked what the key to victory was?

"Once he cut the corner, he got a little separation on the closers that were forced to kind of go around the horses that were tiring, and he was able to hold them off," he said.

According to Hernandez, it may have seemed to spectators that he had won his very first Kentucky Derby, however, it wasn't nearly as obvious to him.

"When we got to the 1/8 pole and he was still running, I just kind of had my head down riding and three jumps before the wire, I didn't see them at all," he explained. "And then right at the wire, they surged late, and I was like, 'Oh, God, did we win the Kentucky Derby?' And I was asking the outrider that, and he said he thought we won but they haven't said it officially yet."

"It took about two minutes, and then finally when they said, Yeah, you've just won the Kentucky Derby. That was the longest two minutes in sports--from the fastest two minutes to the longest, by far," he quipped.

Of the beaten GI Blue Grass S. winner, a visibly emotional Brown said, "It's just so hard to get here, so many things have to go right and you have to have the right horse. It's disappointing the result but I'm so proud of the horse. He ran his race. When you have a deep closer like that, you have to go through some traffic and go wide. I'll have to look at his trip a little bit closer. But it doesn't really matter, he got beat a nose."

As for the beaten favorite, trainer Todd Pletcher said, "[John] Velazquez said he hopped a little at the start. Then got wound up in all the company around him trying to make the lead. He couldn't shake loose like he did [in the Florida Derby]. Just one of those races."

Timing is Everything

Mystik Dan | Coady Media

Campaigned by breeders 4 G Racing, Lance Gasaway, Daniel Hamby III in addition to Valley View Farm, Mystik Dan was runner up first time out at Keeneland last October but rebounded in style, winning by 7 3/4 lengths at Churchill Downs Nov. 12. Fifth against allowance foes stretching to a mile Nov. 25, he was given a month off and resurfaced with a fifth in the Smarty Jones S. at Oaklawn Jan. 1. Locked and loaded for a muddy renewal of the Feb. 3 GIII Southwest S., he ran away to win by eight lengths over Just Steel before rounding out his Derby preparation with a third behind Muth and Just Steel in the GI Arkansas Derby Mar. 30.

“The backstory on that is I ran this colt back too quick in November,” admitted McPeck. “He won really easy in his maiden race and I wanted to stretch him out and it was the end of the season. I ran him back in an allowance race going a mile, and he coughed up a lung infection on me. Learned a little lesson there with him. I feel like if a horse is doing good and we can win a race, let's give him a run. That one backfired.”

He continued, “So we were a little bit behind the eight ball, because we had to get him over the lung infection. We brought him back in the Smarty Jones, and he got a little tired in that race, because we were one work shy and we didn't have him completely ready... We came back up for the Southwest and he ran huge that day.”

According to McPeck, the goal was to run the horse back in the Feb. 24 GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn, but rescheduling cause those plans to be thrown out.

“They shifted the schedule on us because of the weather. And when they shifted the schedule, we were going to have to come back in three weeks to run in the Rebel. Lance [Gasaway] and I talked about it. We both agreed: Let's skip the Rebel. We will put all our eggs in the GI Arkansas Derby basket. We got to get points that day."

"We felt like if we did that, we would have a really fresh horse for the Kentucky Derby. And so we actually wanted to win the Arkansas Derby and the Kentucky Derby. But, you know, you can't get greedy, right?"

With this weekend's Derby score, McPeek has now collected all three Triple Crown races, having also won the GI Preakness S. with Swiss Skydiver in 2020 and the GI Belmont S. with Sarava in 2002. Does that mean a trip to the Hall of Fame might be in the offing? "It gives me goosebumps," an emotional McPeek said. "A lot of [the people in the Hall of Fame] are friends of mine, Allen Jerkens and Wayne Lukas. I could give you a long list of them. I have ridden a lot of them. Pat Day is among them. I could go on and on."

He continued, "When you work around horsemen that I have worked around and you idolize them, you try to emulate them. You learn to pay attention. One of them would be Carl Nafzger, not only a great trainer, a wonderful human. Yeah, it gives me goosebumps."

Pedigree Notes:

Mystik Dan | Coady Media

Spendthrift Farm's Goldencents initially helped put his super sire, Into Mischief, on the map. Now, the two-time Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner has shown he can hold his own at stud as the first son of Into Mischief to sire a Derby winner. In addition to Mystik Dan, Goldencents has another 26 black-type winners. A half-dozen of those additional 26 are also graded winners, including Going to Vegas, a dual winner at the highest level going 1 1/4 miles on the lawn. Three Grade I wins at 10 furlongs as a sire—including the biggest of all, the Kentucky Derby—are a tremendous checkmark in the versatility department for a stallion whose progeny's average winning distance at Derby post time was 6.39 furlongs.

Goldencents was 17th in Orb's 2013 Derby after winning that year's GI Santa Anita Derby, while Mystik Dan's damsire, Colonel John, was sixth in Big Brown's 2008 Derby after also winning that year's Santa Anita Derby. Colonel John, a former WinStar stallion, was purchased by the Korea Thoroughbred Breeders Association in advance of the 2017 breeding season. His daughters have produced 10 stakes winners to date. Mystik Dan is the second of Goldencents's seven graded winners out of a Tiznow-line mare, as his millionaire MGSW & GISP son Mr. Money is bred on the same cross.

Mystik Dan's dam, Ma'am, was bred by the late Lucy Bassett, wife of long-time Keeneland President and Chairman James "Ted" Bassett III. Now 102 and retired, Bassett remains a Trustee Emeritus for Keeneland. Mystik Dan's connections bought Ma'am in a private transaction after she was a $9,500 RNA at the 2014 Keeneland September sale. They originally campaigned her with McPeck until moving her to Brad Cox for her final six starts. She is out of a winning full-sister to 2001 GI Hollywood Futurity and GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity winner Siphonic

PROGRAM TRADING DENIES NAVAL POWER IN TURF CLASSIC NAILBITER by Alan Carasso

Program Trading (inside) just holds off Naval Power | Horsephotos

Program Trading (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) gave Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables and trainer Chad Brown a fourth winner of the GI Old Forester Turf Classic S. in the last six years, fighting his way past Godolphin's Naval Power (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the shadow of the winning post for a dramatic victory.

A 4-1 chance making his 4-year-old debut and first start since narrowly defeating Webslinger (Constitution) in last year's GI Hollywood Derby, Program Trading left there running, and when Never Surprised (Constitution) rolled up to lead and when Naval Power set up shop just outside the pacesetter, that left Flavien Prat and Program Trading in what has been the ideal spot on this course over the past few days, snugly at the fence with cover behind the pacesetter.

Handy enough to the tepid early sections of :24.48 and :49.51 laid down by Never Surprised, Program Trading continued to ride the rails into and around the turn, but it was Naval Power who got first run on a tiring Never Surprised cornering into the stretch, as Webslinger was in the midst of a sweep that nearly carried him into a share of the lead. The Godolphin runner certainly wasn't stopping and took them headlong into the final furlong, but Frankie Dettori had left the rail open, and Prat took full advantage, knifing through before prevailing by a short-head. Webslinger was there to win the race, but couldn't quite quicken with the top two and ultimately won a photo for third with Integration (Quality Road), who sat a good inside trip, but was left with too much to do in the final quarter mile.

Champion Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway) gave Brown and Klaravich their first Turf Classic in 2019, followed by Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the COVID-delayed running in 2020. Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman {GB}) dead-heated in 2021 with Colonel Liam (Liam's Map). Each of the European-bred winners, like Program Trading, was acquired at Tattersalls October.

A debut winner at Monmouth last May, Program Trading followed up in Belmont allowance company the following month before defeating Webslinger and Far Bridge (English Channel) in the GI Saratoga Derby Invitational in yielding ground Aug. 5. Beaten on the square by Integration in the GIII Virginia Derby Sept. 9, Program Trading had a neck on Webslinger, with Godolphin's well-traveled Silver Knott (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) third, when last seen at Del Mar. He was charting a similar course into the Turf Classic as Domestic Spending.

"The horse had been training super," Brown commented. "He's done great all winter. The only thing I told [jockey] Flavien [Prat] in the paddock was just to keep in mind that he's off the layoff and he's against horses that are definitely race-fit in the middle of their campaigns, so you're going to have to save a little ground somewhere. What a masterful ride. He got right to the rail early and then I thought he's got a good chance then. The layoff might not be as big of an issue now that he's saved a little ground. This horse is nearly undefeated on the turf, which is very hard to do. He's versatile, a real exciting horse."

Pedigree Notes:

Luca and Sara Cumani's Fittocks Stud acquired Program Trading's second dam So Silk for 480,000gns ($747,230) at the 2008 Tattersalls December Mares Sale, a sum hefty enough for an unraced mare, and with good reason. Her champion and dual Group 1-winning dam Gossamer was a full-sister to champion and GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Baratheia (Ire), and her seven winners from eight runners includes Group 1 winner Ibn Khaldun (Dubai Destination) and the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), third in Saturday's GII TwinSpires Turf Sprint at Churchill.

A half-sister to G2 Park Hill S. winner and G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. runner-up Silk Sari (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) and a full to Riskaverse S. placegetter Fashion Fund (GB), Dreamlike is also the dam of the 3-year-old filly Alabama Anna (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), a Pinatubo (Ire) filly that was acquired by Mike Ryan for 260,000gns ($329,693) at Tattersalls last October and a yearling colt by Too Darn Hot (GB).

VAHVA GETS HER GRADE I IN THE DERBY CITY DISTAFF

Vahva | Coady Media

A running-on second to Alva Starr (Lord Nelson) when making her seasonal return in Keeneland's GI Resolute Racing Madison S. Apr. 6, Vahva (Gun Runner) was the 8-5 favorite to reverse form with that rival in Saturday's GI Derby City Distaff S. at Churchill Downs and clawed past late for her first win at the elite level.

Quickest into stride from an outside barrier, the $280,000 Keeneland September graduate came back nicely into the hands of Irad Ortiz, Jr. and was content to stalk the pace from third as Alva Starr hounded the pacesetting Spirit Wind (Bahamian Squall). Alva Starr, looking to continue a productive weekend for Louisiana-breds, appeared to be going best of all as she struck to the lead a furlong and a half out while Vahva was up and down for a stride or two. Alva Starr was clinging on grimly as they entered the final furlong, but Vahva found her second wind, overtook her rival at the sixteenth pole and edged clear to win by two lengths.

Vahva closed out her sophomore season with back-to-back wins in the GIII Charles Town Oaks Aug. 25 and GII Lexus Raven Run S. Oct. 21.

"That was an unbelievable performance to win a Grade I on this type of stage is so special," winning trainer Cherie DeVaux said. "It's really hard to describe. I'm just so happy with everyone involved with this horse and our team."

Pedigree Notes:

Vahva becomes the ninth Grade I winner for leading young sire Gun Runner. She is bred similarly to Gun Runner's ill-fated champion and 'TDN Rising Star' Echo Zulu. Vahva's stakes-winning dam Holiday Soiree, who also finished third in the GI

Humana Distaff, brought $300,000 from Wimberley Bloodstock at the 2023 KEENOV sale. Holiday Soiree is also represented by the 2-year-old filly Ahavah (City of Light) ($400,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Belladonna Racing/Cherie DeVaux), a yearling filly by Nyquist and a filly by City of Light of this year.

GUN PILOT CAPS GRADE I DOUBLE FOR GUN RUNNER IN CHURCHILL DOWNS

Gun Pilot | Coady Media

Three Chimneys Farm homebred Gun Pilot (Gun Runner) punched through from in between horses in the final furlong after sitting a midfield trip and skipped clear at odds of 5-1 to give his sire a sweep of the afternoon's seven-furlong Grade I contests in the Churchill Downs S.

Here Mi Song (Cross Traffic) duelled heads apart for the early lead with 'TDN Rising Star' Zozos (Munnings) and battled back inside of that one to complete the exacta.

Briefly on the Triple Crown trail in 2023 and fifth in the GII Pat Day Mile S. on this same program, Gun Pilot had made three starts over six furlongs this term, winning allowance races at the Fair Grounds in January and in March at Oaklawn before finishing runner-up as the favorite in the Apr. 7 Eclipse S. in Hot Springs.

"This is so special," winning trainer Steve Asmussen said. "It is very special for Mr. (Goncalo) Torrealba (of Three Chimneys Farm). This is a special horse. I really believe in him. Cristian (Torres) believes in him, too. Seven-eighths is a good distance for him. We wanted to make it simple for him today. Nothing special in the way of tactics. Get him out in the middle of the track and then let him do his close. It worked out perfectly."

Torres, winning his first Grade I race, added, "I don't know what to say. I'm really excited, I've been looking for this Grade I for a long time. I just come to ride. I study my races, I do my homework. I just come out here to do the best job that I can. I'm very happy that I finally got one. Gun Pilot is a great horse. The Asmussen team spotted him very well. He's an easy horse to ride."

Pedigree Notes:

Gun Pilot becomes the 10th Grade I winner, and second on the card, for leading young sire Gun Runner. He is now responsible for 21 graded/group winners worldwide. The late Smart Strike was being represented by his second graded winner on the program as a broodmare sire (Seize the Grey). He is now the sire of 15 Grade I winners as a broodmare sire, including GI Kentucky Derby winners Mine That Bird (Birdstone) and Rich Strike (Keen Ice). The unraced Bush Pilot, purchased by Three Chimneys Farm for $425,000 in foal to More Than Ready at the 2018 KEENOV sale, had a colt by Volatile in 2023. Bush Pilot is a half-sister to MGSW Global View (Galileo {Ire}).

LUKAS SEIZING THE DAY IN PAT DAY MILE

by Christina Bossinakis

Seize the Grey | Horsephotos

To say that the connections of Seize the Grey (Arrogate) were disappointed that the 3-year-old wouldn't be making it into the starting gate for the GI Kentucky Derby is an understatement. D. Wayne Lukas, who had Just Steel (Justify) tabbed to run later in the day, felt that the MyRacehorse runner could have also been competitive in the Run For the Roses. While things didn't pan out for the grey to make it into the big dance, he still came away a winner Saturday, taking the GII Pat Day Mile S. earlier on the Derby card.

"I can't remember the last time I was in the winner's circle with Pat Day," said Lukas, who partnered with Day to win five American Classics. "This horse is a very special horse who is owned by so many happy people. He ran the race of his life this afternoon and it's such a great way to kick off our Derby Day."

Vlahos (Kantharos) led through fractions of :22.12 and :44.59 as Otto the Conqueror (Street Sense) and 'TDN Rising Star' Nash (Medaglia d'Oro) loomed. Vlahos continued to lead the field turning for home, but his advantage began to dwindle as the rest closed in. Seize the Grey, who sat just behind the early pace, move to the inside to mount his run. Poking his head in front at the sixteenth pole, the 9-1 shot spurred clear late en route to his first black-type victory. Nash was up for second, out gaming Vlahos at the wire.

"I could tell I was loaded around the three-eighths pole," said winning rider Jaime Torres. "He went back into the bridle really strong and never gave in. What an amazing atmosphere and race to win."

A winner second time out in the Saratoga slop last July, the colt finished third in two of three of his final juvenile starts, including a 1 1/16-mile Keeneland optional claimer Oct. 14. Returning at three to win an Oaklawn optional claimer Feb. 24, the grey was third over the synthetic in Turfway's GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks Mar. 23 before failing to fire and coming home seventh in Keeneland's GI Blue Grass S. Apr. 6.

Lukas said that the GI Preakness S. in two weeks will be next for the colt.

Pedigree Notes:

Seize the Grey is the 13th graded winner for his deceased sire Arrogate, who is also the sire of Lukas's latest Classic winner, 2022 GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Secret Oath. The winner's dam, Smart Shopping, is also responsible for SP Shoppingforpharoah (American Pharoah), in addition to an unraced 4-year-old filly by Uncle Mo. Most recently, she produced a Justify filly in 2022 followed by a filly by Life Is Good this term. This represents the family of Grade I winners Power Broker (Pulpit) and Miss Shop (Deputy Minister) as well as GSW and MGISP Trappe Shot (Tapit).

TRIKARI TRIGGERS MASSIVE MUTUELS IN AMERICAN TURF by Alan Carasso

Trikari | Coady Media

California-based Umberto Rispoli was set to ride Amerman Racing's Endlessly (Oscar Performance) in the GI Kentucky Derby about three hours later, and he got the partnership off to a fortuitous beginning on the Derby undercard, guiding Trikari (Oscar Performance) to a massive upset of the $600,000 GII American Turf S.

A whopping 47-1 while making his first foray into graded competition, the $27,500 OBS October yearling scratched down into the inside stall and immediately secured the box seat, as 24-1 Formidable Man (City of Light) came across from the four hole to set the pace from a tugging and visibly lathered-up 6-5 chalk Legend Of Time (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) to the backstretch.

Going well while slipstreaming the pacesetter passing the half-mile peg, Trikari was patiently ridden into the final three furlongs by Rispoli before popping away from the fence and into the three path to deliver his challenge in upper stretch. Formidable Man proved an exceptionally stubborn foe up front and held grimly into the final furlong, but Trikari grabbed him at the sixteenth pole and inched away to lite up the tote. Lagynos (Kantharos) ran into a bit of traffic trouble inside the three-furlong pole, was switched out late and flashed home for third at 36-1.

The $1 exacta returned better than $662, the trifecta nearly $6,000 for a buck and the dollar superfecta, with 7-1 Cugino (Twirling Candy) filling the fourth spot, over $69,000.

A veteran of just four career starts, Trikari took some nibbles on Keeneland turf debut last October, but was one of the first beaten, then turned it around with a 26-1 upset in a two-turn maiden over the Gulfstream Tapeta Dec. 28. Beaten on the post when making nearly every yard in a 7 1/2-furlong turf allowance in Hallandale Feb. 10, Trikari most recently gave Rispoli a landmark victory in the Mar. 23 Rushaway S. on the Turfway synth.

"This horse is a very special horse in my career," the Italian reinsman said. "I won my 2,000th race aboard him and I can't thank his connections enough for keeping me aboard."

Pedigree Notes:

The fifth graded winner from two full crops to race for his outstanding young sire--campaigned by the Amermans--Trikari hails from a classy George Strawbridge family and is out of a winner of the grassy Herecomesthebride S., who was purchased by Michael Slezak for $14,000 with this colt in utero at the 2021 Fasig-Tipton February Sale. Trikari's stakes-winning second dam was responsible for eight winners from nine runners, of those four full black-type winners, including GSWs Lift Up (Ghostzapper) and Varenka (Ghostzapper), SW/MGSP Appealing Cat (Successful Appeal) and SW Cat's Holiday (Harlan's Holiday). Third dam Silent Cat was a half-sister to Augustin Stable's talented Crowd Pleaser (A.P. Indy). Dynamic Holiday is represented by a New York-bred 2-year-old Jimmy Creed filly and a yearling colt by Beau Liam. She was sold for $3,000 in foal to Mind Control during the Fasig-Tipton Digital October Sale. Trikari was the second graded winner on the afternoon as a broodmare sire for the late Harlan's Holiday, whose daughter Vahva (Gun Runner) took the GI Derby City Distaff.

COGBURN MOTORS TO TURF SPRINT WIN

by Christina Bossinakis

Cogburn | Horsephotos

LOUISVILLE, KY--Sharp as a razor exiting the outside gate, Clark Brewster and William and Corinne Heiligbrodt's Cogburn (Not This Time) wasted no time dusting off the cobwebs, coming home a 2 1/4-length winner in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. early on Saturday's Derby Day card.

Given an 8-1 chance while making his 2024 debut, the 5-year-old broke in front, but allowed Coppola (Into Mischief) and Mo Stash (Mo Town) to show the way through a :22.61 opening quarter over a course labeled 'good.' Taking a slight edge from the outside exiting the far turn, Cogburn lost some ground as Coppola cut the corner in front turning for home. However, the Steve Asmussen trainee was clearly best on the day, drawing clear to score comfortably over Filo Di Arianna (Brz) (Drosselmeyer). Mischief Magic (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) closed to grab third.

"He was sharp, [Asmussen] had him ready today," said winning rider Irad Ortiz, Jr. "The way he broke, Steve told me he was ready. He was running so good, there was no stopping him."

Graded placed on the dirt, Cogburn took four of seven starts last season, highlighted by three consecutive wins when switching to the turf--Lone Star's Chamberlain Bridge S., the Gulfstream Park Turf Sprint and GIII Troy S. in Saratoga. Making one more start at four, he finished fifth in the GII Turf Sprint at Kentucky Downs Sept. 9 and was packed away for the remainder of the season.

"He has [found a home on turf]," said Asmussen. "Obviously, his turf races are beyond excellent and we're very fortunate to have him. That is typical of him [to break that well]. I was so concerned about the outside draw and he took care of that in one jump."

When asked if there were any concerns coming off a seven-month respite, the Hall of Famer said, "We thought he was doing extremely well coming into the race, this was a very big race coming off the layoff. We were concerned when he drew the 14 hole, that's a lot to overcome. But his break cleared that problem. That's what he's capable of and that's what we'll be getting to campaign the rest of the year."

Pedigree Notes:

Cogburn is one of three foals out of In a Jif to race, and all three have found the winner's circle. He also has a 4-year-old sister by Classic Empire named Empire of My Own and an unnamed 3-year-old sister by Tapiture. In a Jif produced a full-brother to Cogburn last term and was bred back to Epicenter.

'CHILI' RUNNING HOT IN DISTAFF TURF

MILE by Christina Bossinakis

Chili Flag | Horsephotos

LOUISVILLE, KY--Madaket Stables, Michael Dubb and Michael Kisber's Chili Flag (Fr) (Cityscape {GB}) led home a 1-2-3 procession of Chad Brown runners in Saturday's GII Longines Churchill Distaff Turf Mile.

"She's great, she knows what she has to do," said winning rider Irad Ortiz, Jr. "I took her inside and let her sit. I let her feel comfortable and find her stride. I was able to roll with her when I had to. Every time that I've ridden her, she's given me that confidence to come running late."

Consistent if not sparkling earlier in her career, the 5-year-old picked up her initial stakes victory in Aqueduct's 1 1/16-mile Forever Together S. Nov. 19. Given a freshener, she returned with a sixth in the GII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Invitational at Gulfstream Jan. 27 and bounced back with a score in Hallandale in the GIII Honey Fox S. Mar. 2.

"[Chili Flag] is a rapidly improving horse, I was so impressed with her last start in the Honey Fox," said Brown. "I thought this race made a lot of sense and she showed that late kick again. She's a real player in the division. Sometimes these horses, you give them enough time and they start to improve. She's just had a great winter of development and rest and since the Honey Fox, she's really moved forward."

Breaking well from post three, Chili Flag was content to take back off the fleet-footed Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy), who broke quickly from the inside, while Not So Close (Empire Maker) and Evvie Jets (Twirling Candy) vied for the early lead. Lingering in last as Ag Bullet cut out a quarter in :23.40 and a :47.20 half, Chili Flag started to make her move, while swinging out several paths wide turning for home. Set down for the drive by Ortiz Jr., the French-bred mare began picking off horses down the center of the course and got up in time to hand stablemate Coppice (GB) (Kingman {GB}) a narrow defeat. Delahaye (Medaglia d'Oro) was a clear third.

"I didn't mind her going inside in the final turn," added Brown of Coppice. "I didn't want to be too wide. I'm still getting to know her, but I love this filly. I knew she had an electric turn of foot. Running inside of horses that entire stretch against a really formidable foe, that's not easy. Her having to run down to the wire and having to look at a horse to her right, I think she was at a little disadvantage there."

Pedigree Notes:

Chili Flag is out of Flag Day, also responsible for Flers (Fr) (Dream Ahead), herself stakes placed in France. The unraced mare foaled her latest recorded foal--a filly by Olympic Glory (Ire)--in 2022. Second dam, European champion 2-year-old filly Blue Duster (Danzig), is out of European champion sophomore filly Blue Note (Fr) (Habitat), also responsible for Group 1 scorer Zieten (Danzig).

Soul of an Angel pulled off a massive upset while making her first attempt for trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr., blowing past last year's GI Alabama S. winner and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff runner-up Randomized in the stretch in Saturday's GII Ruffian S. at the Big A.

The 24-1 shot, last seen finishing sixth for owner/trainer Gerald James and Hall Performance in the GII Azeri S. at Oaklawn Mar. 9, bided her time while saving ground as Randomized showed the way. Fourth, and on the move on the far turn, Soul of an Angel set her sights on Randomized at the top of the stretch and ran right on by in a stunner.

The 2023 Mari Hulman George Memorial H. winner was second in this term's GIII Royal Delta S. at Gulfstream Feb. 17.

"I got a great trip," winning jockey Trevor McCarthy said. "I was able to get a good break and get a good position. She got into a really great rhythm for me. She ranged up in behind the favorite going into the turn and I was able to angle her out, save all the ground, tip out, and she finished so strong for me. I was just super delighted with her and all credit to the barn really."

Pedigree Notes:

Soul of an Angel, a $3,000 RNA at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling Sale, is the first graded winner for Atreides. She also becomes the first graded winner for broodmare sire The Factor. The winner's dam Factor One, a maiden of six career starts, had a filly by Basin in 2023 and was bred back to Army Mule. Factor One brought $2,500 from Watershed Bloodstock at the 2017 KEENOV sale.

Master Piece holds off Ottoman Fleet | Coglianesi

Master Piece (Chi) was away cleanly from the GII Fort Marcy S. inside at Belmont at the Big A Saturday, but the veteran was in no hurry and comfortably tucked into the third spot just to the inside of Olympic Dreams (Medaglia d'Oro) as MSW & GISP Pioneering Spirit recorded a first quarter in :25.02. The easy pace continued through a :50.16 half with positions remaining unchanged until Pioneering Spirit upped the tempo turning for home. Last year's Fort Marcy winner Ottoman Fleet (GB) ranged up on the outside and drifted just as Master Piece made his own move. The winner split horses and had the momentum to poke his neck in front, then stay there. Pioneering Spirit was left behind as Master Piece and Ottoman Fleet battled down the lane. The tenacious winner had gotten to the front first, digging in resolutely while he refused to let Ottoman Fleet by. Pioneering Spirit held third.

"I knew with the short field that they would slow it down pretty good, so I was happy with the position I got," said winning rider Dylan Davis. "I knew the favorite was behind me so I was just trying to make sure I got a good spot, turning for home. They got good momentum on me, I thought we were in trouble there, but once he switched to the right lead, he was super game... I loved the fight in him down the stretch."

Although last seen third in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 6, the Fort Marcy winner has a long list of graded stakes performances on his CV. Among his U.S. wins are last November's GII Red Smith S. and the 2022 GII Eddie Read S., while he also sports a G2 Gran Clasico Coronacion Pablo Baraona U. victory in Chile, as well as a third in the G1 El Derby in that country. He has changed barns multiple times in his six seasons on the track and is currently conditioned by Rick Dutrow.

Pedigree Notes:

The late Mastercraftsman (Ire), who died of a suspected heart attack at Castlehyde Stud in 2021, is the sire of 102 black-type winners worldwide, with 69 of those in the graded/group category. Master Piece, also one of 39 stakes winner for his late broodmare sire, Proud Citizen, is the result of one of his sire's shuttle trips from Ireland to the Southern Hemisphere. Dam Torre Laguna (Chi) was named the champion older mare in Chile in 2012.

With trainer Phil D'Amato at Churchill Downs Saturday to saddle Stronghold (Ghostzapper) to a seventh-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby, the barn at home stepped in with a win by Gold Phoenix (Ire) in Santa Anita's GII Charles Whittingham S. Forwardly placed early, the veteran Gold Phoenix took back to settle on the inside just off the first flight behind :24.14 and :48.31 fractions. The chestnut loomed on the rail with a confident Kyle Frey, who periodically checked the competition behind him, in the irons. When he gave Gold Phoenix the cue off the turn, the two tipped off the rail, went around pacesetter Balladeer (Distorted Humor), and were quickly joined by three closing rivals to their outside. Gold Phoenix held sway, tripping the photo-finish camera by a head over a last-to-second Prince Abama (Ire), who was a nose in front of favored Planetario (Brz) with Offlee Naughty (Flashback) just another neck back in fourth.

"When I rode him for the first time, he was pretty green and was trying to figure stuff out," said Frey, who has not ridden Gold Phoenix in a race since July, 2022. "He just has his off days where he just kind of clunks down and you have to be ready for it. Today I was ready for it. He broke good and I wanted to make sure I got him on his toes and I tried to keep his attention... I timed it out and I used everything I had that last eighth. I was really just able to hang on. It was pretty darn close there."

After a GII Del Mar H. win in 2022, Gold Phoenix had a stellar 2023, winning the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile S., the Del Mar H. for the second time, and the GII Eddie Read S. He closed his year with a 102 Beyer Speed Figure and an excellent fourth to Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. After kicking off his 2024 campaign with a no-impact ninth in the GIII American S. Apr. 4, Gold Phoenix was trying the Whittingham for the third straight year Saturday. His best previous finish in the race was a third under Frey in 2022.

Pedigree Notes:

The Lope de Vega (Ire) stallion Belardo (Ire) is the sire of Gold Phoenix and eight other black-type winners worldwide. Standing at Bearstone Stud in the U.K., Belardo has sired seven graded/group winners, including Gold Phoenix's stablemate, fellow 2024 GSW Bellabel (Ire), who is also trained by D'Amato. Gold Phoenix is also one of 38 black-type winners out of daughters of Mizzen Mast, who last stood in 2021 at Juddmonte in Kentucky and is now pensioned. Gold Phoenix's dam, Magnifica, is a full-sister to G1SW-HK Sea Defence and to MGSW & GISP-U.S. Jibboom. She has a 2-year-old full-brother to Gold Phoenix, who was a 115,000gns RNA at Tattersalls October in Book 1, and a yearling half-sister to the Whittingham winner by Lucky Vega (Ire).

Play the Music | Michael Burns

Play the Music marched to her own beat down the lane as she took home her first graded stakes hardware in the GIII Whimsical S. at Woodbine on Saturday afternoon.

A regular this past year on the American turf sprint circuit at the allowance and optional claiming levels, the 4-year-old won the Leinster Lightning City S. at Tampa Bay in late February before finishing sixth in the GIII Giant's Causeway S. at Keeneland Apr. 13.

Bet down from 8-1 on the morning-line to 3-1 here, the bay settled along the rail mid-pack as a longshot carved out the opening fractions up the backstretch. Tipping to the two path around the far turn, Play the Music began to find her best stride entering the stretch. The filly shot through a gap between runners at the eighth pole, cleared and got her picture taken.

"Handicapping this race, I didn't know who to follow," said jockey Patrick Husbands, who was recently elected to the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. "I had no clue. She broke sharp, I tried to follow this horse then that horse. I got stuck behind a horse in the turn and I tried not to push her. I tried to give her a nice trip and I got lucky with that trip."

Pedigree Notes:

The sire of three crops of racing age, Mo Town (by Uncle Mo) collected his fifth worldwide graded stakes winner as Play the Music joins the likes of Key of Life and Mo Stash. A half-sister to MSW Smoke It Right (Smoke Glacken), the filly's unraced dam is responsible for 2-year-old colt Purse Thief (Caracaro). She was bred back-to-back to the winner's sire starting in 2022.

MCPEEK WEIGHS PREAKNESS FOR THORPEDO ANNA

Thorpedo Anna | Horsephotos

Trainer Ken McPeek is considering the GI Preakness S. for Friday's GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), who came out of the race in fine shape.

"She left a little bit of grain last night, about half a scoop, but it's nothing to be worried about," McPeek said. "It's something we watch regularly, and she typically eats up every night. She's tired. She ran hard."

He continued, "We're gonna look at the Preakness, but she's gonna have to show us in the next three or four days. We'll get some clarity. There are some fees ($150,000) involved. Probably, at this point, it's less than 50 percent."

McPeek added that he is looking forward to some stakes possibilities in New York.

"I'll see what the calendar says for 3-year-old fillies," McPeek said. "You don't want to run her back in the Black-Eyed Susan. Where do you find Grade I races for 3-year-old fillies? I definitely want to get her in the Coaching Club Oaks, Alabama, the Acorn, races like that. The Acorn is a 1 1/8 at Saratoga, so that seems like an ideal spot. There's a lot of math to do."

Trainer Bill Mott reported that all appeared to be good with reigning juvenile filly champion Just F Y I (Justify) following her runner-up effort in the Kentucky Oaks.

"We haven't had her out this morning, but initially she looks good," said Mott. "I thought everything looked fine. She'll go to Saratoga next, I don't know what we're going to run her in next, but that's where she's going. She was in position to win (in the Oaks) and didn't win."

KENTUCKY DERBY ON NBC THROUGH 2032

Horsephotos

NBC Sports will continue to present the GI Kentucky Derby on NBC and Peacock through 2032, Churchill Downs and NBC Sports announced Saturday.

The extension of the NBC Sports-Churchill Downs relationship--which began with the 2001 Kentucky Derby--makes NBC the longest-running home of the Derby, and NBCUniversal the first media company to present the Kentucky

Derby over three decades.

"As we celebrate the 150th running of the Kentucky Derby, Churchill Downs is proud to extend the relationship with NBC Sports," said Churchill Downs CEO Bill Carstanjen. "As our media partner for the last 23 years, NBC has artfully captured the most exciting two minutes in sports and the spectacle of the senses that surrounds it."

"Telling the rich stories surrounding the Kentucky Derby on the first Saturday in May is part of the fabric of NBC Sports, and we are thrilled to continue that tradition with Churchill Downs," said Rick Cordella, President, NBC Sports. "We look forward to surrounding the Kentucky Oaks and Kentucky Derby with wall-to-wall coverage and extensive promotion on the platforms of NBCUniversal."

The extension includes multiplatform rights to the Kentucky Derby, Kentucky Oaks, and Derby and Oaks Day programming, which will be presented on NBC, Peacock, USA Network and additional NBCU platforms.

The Kentucky Derby is America's oldest continuously held major sporting event, with the 150th running in 2024.

Back on the main track for the first time since December, Strong Quality continued his run of consistent form with a win in the Knick's Go Overnight S. to open the stakes action on Saturday's Derby card. Despite having spent the last three starts on the grass in Louisiana with a win in the Colonel E. R. Bradley S. and a placing in the GIII Fair Grounds S. two back, the 5-year-old had also shown good form on the dirt with a 9 1/4-length roll on a fast main track facing allowance horses at Churchill Nov. 18. Let go at 5-1 Saturday on the cutback to the flat mile, Strong Quality was intent on the front but took heat from Five Star General through the early fractions of :22.36 and :44.64.

Unwilling to be headed off the turn, he dug in to keep a charging Kupuna at bay and lasted for the half-length win.

"[Co-owner Gary Barber] was really excited about this spot," said winning trainer Mark Casse. "Strong Quality does like this track [won last November by 9 1/4 lengths]. He especially likes it when there's some moisture in it."

One of 81 stakes winner for Quality Road, Strong Quality was a $500,000 weanling at FKTNOV in 2019. Entered off a dead-heat win over the local turf at 1 1/16 miles Apr. 6, De Regreso earned her first stakes win Saturday on the cutback to the mile in the Honey Ryder S. at Gulfstream. The 5-1 shot was rated back behind the speed of Mojave Desert (Munnings) but had plenty of run when called upon for a wide bid around the far turn. Up to lead with a furlong to run, De Regreso came home without any major challenges to take the win going away ahead of Stormcast. The fifth stakes winner for second-crop sire Audible, De Regreso has a 2-year-old Yoshida (Jpn) half-sister and her dam reported a filly by Independence Hall this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Freedom Principle won the Armed Forces S. in Hallandale last November, but was unable to hit the board this past spring in the Gill Kitten's Joy S. and the Colonel Liam S. over the Gulfstream turf. Overlooked at 21-1 here, the chestnut trailed from the outset, but the 3-year-old had plenty of pace to run into with the first half mile clocking at :45.36. Around the far turn, Freedom Principle took the overland route and came driving down the lane. Under a full head of steam, the colt was up in time over In a Jam (Preservationist). SCYLLA (f, 4, Tapit--Close Hatches {Ch. Older Mare, MGISW, $2,707,300}, by First Defence) rose to 'TDN Rising Stardom' when she won by 2 1/2 on debut at Keeneland in April 2023.

The homebred cleared the optional claiming ranks with a stellar 8 1/4-length performance at Churchill Downs in early June. Not seen until she reemerged to miss by a neck against older female company at Gulfstream Park Mar. 17, the bay was third in the Gill Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland Apr. 19. Well-backed as the 1-2 choice here, the filly was squeezed right after the bell, but she tracked the leaders up the backstretch. Scylla ranged up on the pacesetters with a three-wide move around the far turn and set down for a drive she took home the money with a convincing seven length score over Secret Statement (Runhappy). The winner is a full-sister to Tacitus, MGSW & MGISP, $3,767,350. Close Hatches is herself a full-sister to SW/GISP Lockdown, who produced champion older dirt female Idiomatic (Curlin). Scylla's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly Resurge (Constitution), a RAGING TORRENT (c, 3, Maximus Mischief--Violent Wave, by Violence) shipped in from California and got back on the main track after a pair of starts over the turf at Santa Anita including a placing in the John Shear S. last out Apr. 7. Third as a juvenile behind 'TDN Rising Star' Prince of Monaco (Speightstown) in the Gill Best Pal S., Saturday's 8-1 shot broke with good early speed and took command from the jump. Chased throughout by 'Rising Star' Discreet Mischief (Into Mischief), Raging Torrent kept that rival behind him and drew off with authority to win by 8 1/4 lengths. Violent Wave has a 2-year-old Honor A.P. colt and foaled a filly by Collected last year. Sales History: $27,000 RNA Ylg '22 KEESEP; $75,000 2yo '23 OBSAPR. While unchallenged for the lead, he set :23.72 and :46.67 early fractions, accelerated off the turn, and dug in to hold sway, winning by a length. Drake's Passage (Tonalist) chased throughout to secure the runner-up spot. A full to Mundaye Call, SW, $285,717; Cascais has one younger half-sibling, a 2-year-old colt by Gun Runner, who went for $675,000 to Talla Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds at Keeneland September. The winner hails from the stellar family of GI Kentucky Oaks winner Blush with Pride (Blushing Groom {Fr}), making Cascais's granddam, MGSW-Fr & G1SP-Eng Smolensk (Danzig), a half to 2007 Broodmare of the Year and $14-million Fasig-Tipton buy Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister). MINDFRAME (c, 3, Constitution--Walk of Stars {SW, $154,944}, by Street Sense), a dominating 13 3/4-length winner of his seven-furlong debut on the Florida Derby undercard at Gulfstream Park Mar. 30 en route to 'TDN Rising Star' honors, handled his first two-turn assignment with aplomb, cruising home the easiest of winners in Churchill allowance company Saturday morning. Drawn the outside in a field of eight, the $600,000 Keeneland September yearling bounced away so well that he was able to clear all the inside traffic and drop down onto the fence already entering the first turn. Able to slow things down up front through a half-mile in :49.18, Mindframe--carrying the St. Elias colors--took some token pressure on the turn, but was always traveling well within himself and when Irad

Ortiz, Jr. said go in upper stretch, it was all over. Mindframe went clear with every stride entering the final furlong and was taken in hand a good 70 yards from the wire, scoring by a very easy 7 1/2 lengths as the 2-5 chalk. It was the second win on the program for Constitution, whose son Catching Freedom is a live chance in the GI Kentucky Derby later on in the afternoon. A half-brother to Hollywood Walk (Animal Kingdom), SP, $224,031, the Maryland-bred Mindframe is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to MSW & MGSP Strike the Moon (Malibu Moon) and to MSP What Time It Is (Partner's Hero), the dam of MSW Never Enough Time (Munnings). AUTUMN EVENING (f, 3, Malibu Moon--Lucky Long, by Lookin At Lucky) was fifth in her first start under trainer Daniel Damen at Tampa Bay in December before she was transferred to Rick Dutrow's care. Next out the filly broke her maiden at Aqueduct Mar. 9. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice here, the bay shot out of the gate with gusto. Taken back into third up the backstretch, the 3-year-old was given her cue to the outside around the far turn and she got her picture taken by 5 1/4 lengths over Camera (Curlin). GUN PARTY (c, 3, Curlin--Carina Mia {GISW, $1,403,520}, by Malibu Moon) debuted a well-beaten runner-up to GISW Just a Touch (Justify) in the slop at Fair Grounds in late January. The bay stretched out in New Orleans Mar. 16 and ran second again. The $1.7 million Keeneland September grad who tied for the third highest return at that auction went off as the 5-2 second choice here. Coming out of the chute, the 3-year-old was shuffled back to the middle of the field as favorite Dive Bomber (Omaha Beach) and Banned for Life (Maximus Mischief) slugged it out on the front end up the backstretch. The Steve Asmussen trainee moved into third place around the far turn and after finally switching leads past the eighth pole the colt went right on by Banned for Life to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Grass Mare, MGISW-USA, GSP-Can, $2,288,892}, by City Zip) debuted third over the grass at Gulfstream Park in mid-February and then showed again--this time at Keeneland--Apr. 13. The 3-2 second choice here was content to settle at the rear of the field as a longshot tried to sprint away into the first turn and up the backstretch. As the pacesetter began to tire around the far turn, the filly was stuck behind a wall of horses who all vied for the front into the lane. The 3-year-old dashed to the outside, geared up and gunned it past the sixteenth pole to win by 1 1/2 lengths over favorite Positive Carry (Ire) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). The winner is a half-sister to Tenbury Wells (Medaglia d'Oro),

BOXED WINE (f, 3, Vino Rosso--Temper Mint Patty {MSW & GSP, $415,916}, by Congrats) hit the board twice over course and distance last year but went to the sidelines following her Nov. 2. runner-up effort. Back racing at 5-2 and with Lasix Saturday, she tracked from mid pack and was able to save ground against the fence from an inner gate before making her move off the far turn to win going away by 4 1/4 lengths. Addagirl Addie (Destin) closed for second. Temper Mint Patty has a 2-year-old Outwork colt and foaled a filly by Cyberknife this year. Sales History: $25,000 Ylg '22 SARAUG. 8th-Laurel, $47,000, Msw, 5-4, 3yo, f, 7f, 1:26.68, my, 6 lengths. STRIKER HAS DIAL (f, 3, Dialed In--Lotta Lolly, by Smart Strike) left the gate intent on the lead, opening up early to record the first quarter in :23.08. Briefly challenged before the :46.94 half, the first timer repelled the threat, skipped clear in the mud, and sailed under the wire an eased-up six lengths clear. The debuting Striker Has Dial was sent as the 7-2 second choice after posting six steady works over the surface in the last two months. Shining Spirt (Mor Spirit) got up in the stretch for second. The winner's dam, a full-sister to GISW and sire Square Eddie, has a 2-year-old Union Rags filly ($17,000 Keeneland September buy by Black Dog Racing) and a yearling Take Charge Indy filly ($13,500 purchase by Ashley Quartarolo at Keeneland January). GUINEAS GLORY FOR TDN RISING STAR NOTABLE SPEECH

Notable Speech | PA Media

by Tom Frary

Saturday's G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas went to an unbeaten colt with TDN Rising Star status, but instead of the bitterly disappointing City Of Troy (Justify) it was Godolphin's Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}--Swift Rose {Ire}), by Invincible Spirit {Ire} who stepped up to conquer the Newmarket Classic. Sent off at 16-1 on his first start on turf, the Charlie Appleby-trained homebred who unusually had not raced at two and had only been to Kempton so far in his career, was kept sprung-loaded in last by a confident William Buick content to let it all play out ahead. QUESTIONS TO ANSWER IN THE 1000 GUINEAS by Tom Frary

Even if Saturday's Newmarket Classic had a major twist in store, it was all about one horse beforehand whereas Sunday's G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas is open season especially given the way the Spring has gone for the Classic fillies. How will the likes of TDN Rising Star Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) have fared during the wet and cold weeks leading up to this test? Many starlets have come here in the past with impeccable form credentials only to be lost in the crowd and the truth is we will only know when the contest is decided.

Ylang Ylang already has one flop on her record, having overdone it in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. but two starts later she was redeemed with a win in the G1 Fillies' Mile over this course and distance. It is hard not to feel that the absent Opera Singer (Justify) would have been Ballydoyle's first choice and there is the chance that this will represent too much of a speed test for her. "We think she'll stay further having won over a mile last year, but this was always where she was going to start," Aidan O'Brien said. "She stayed on well, so we think she'll be staying on strongly."

Strolling by Ballydoyle’s already-struggling 4-6 favourite two out, he surged away from last year’s G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) from the furlong pole to score by 1 1/2 lengths, with Rosallion’s stablemate Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}) 1 3/4 lengths away in third. City Of Troy wound up ninth, making it back-to-back flops for a short-priced Ballydoyle favourite after Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) last year.

“I hadn’t known him for that long—I only rode him in February but I haven’t believed in a horse as much as this guy,” Buick said. “I kept going home thinking ‘have I lost the plot altogether?’ as he has an incredible change of gear and does things so easily. The race couldn’t have worked out any better and I’ve gone close a couple of times in this, so it’s nice to win it. He’s an out-and-out miler and all about speed—he has a great mindset and is going to keep on improving as well.”

 “City Of Troy was in trouble a long way out and I was conscious of not getting there too early with my horse, but I couldn’t help it,” the winning rider added. “He just dragged me into the race in the hottest part of the race, which is what he did at Kempton in his previous runs, and then he’s pricking his ears at the line—every time you ride him you always feel like there’s more in the tank.”

The first colt of the modern era—actually the first since 1938—to win this without having raced at two, Notable Speech was able to take advantage of the thriving all-weather scene from Jan. 27 when he made a fast start to his career rattling off a final three-furlong flourish in :33.77. Back at Kempton for the Feb. 21

Like the bad luck that comes in threes, Notable Speech served his next warning to prospective rivals in the mile conditions race that used to hold listed status and be known as the Easter S. Apr. 6. As if the visual impression wasn't enough, the figures told the full story as he cut down his peers with a closing act of :10.81 and :10.98 to ensure he would take part in a Guineas of some sort. Charlie Appleby admitted in his post-race interview here that the Poule d'Essai des Poulains was the initial focus after that final Kempton appearance, but once the Newbury and Newmarket trials went by without fireworks the decision was cast to take on City Of Troy et al on home soil.

Buried early behind the five runners intent on keeping Ryan Moore at no more than arm's length, he was able to draft as Rosallion proved a touch buzzy before creeping up the wing three out with City Of Troy already unable to go with Haatem or Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal), who had also been ultra-impressive on the clock in his all-weather prep. Sean Levey must have thought the race was in safe keeping as he loomed up the centre two out on the smooth-travelling Rosallion, but that feeling lasted no more than a furlong as Buick uncoiled his Royal blue threat. Powerful to the line, Notable Speech brought up a foursome of 2000 Guineas winners for his sire, who 19 years previously had ironically joined the growing list of juvenile champions so sensationally downed in this.

"You don't see too many come off an all-weather success to a Guineas success and we've given him all the time he needed, thinking he was a good horse," Appleby said. "He was still far too weak to do anything with last summer, but as always I'm in the very privileged position to be allowed to give the horses the time that they need with no pressure."

"In that last start on the all-weather, he put a bit of a 'wow factor' into it with his acceleration and William did say at the time that he thought he was a French Guineas horse because he's so quick. We were waiting for the Craven to see how the Guineas picture would formulate and after that we decided to put him in the Guineas and brought him here for a racecourse gallop where he put that 'wow factor' back in."

"I worked him with a good horse and told William I was going to put some speed into the dip and he needed to fire him into it and he flew in and out of it--Will said he didn't even know the dip was there," he reflected. "We came here after that with confidence that we had the right horse to be here. All credit to Ady McCarthy who has ridden him throughout the winter. He hasn't been able to ride him for the last week or so, as he's gone to America with Nations Pride but Paul Eddery sat on him last week in a piece of work and said 'all I can say is if he gets a mile the favourite will have to be very good to beat him'. I wasn't saying he was going to win a Guineas off the back of what City Of Troy had done as a two-year-old, but I just felt we had the right horse to be competitive."

There will be no Guineas-Derby double in 2024, with Appleby looking at Royal Ascot now. "I'd be surprised if we went beyond a mile and I'd imagine it will be the St James's Palace next, but as always we'll let the dust settle and let everyone enjoy themselves and speak to all connections," he concluded.

Excuse For Troy?

Aidan O'Brien revealed afterwards that Ryan Moore had been unhappy with his mount in the starting gates prior to his deflating effort. "He got upset in the stalls, which he has never done before, then he jumped and Ryan just said the pace was on and he was in the middle of it and just flattened on his first run," he said. "We'll see, it was unusual he got upset in the stalls because he was very happy before. He wasn't over-blowing. Obviously it's not his run and we'll see what happened and why it happened." Cont. p5

Charlie Appleby | PA Media

“Everything was always straightforward with him, so we’ll try to find out what happened and try to not let it happen again,” a shell-shocked O’Brien added. “We wouldn’t have been here if we thought he was going to do that. We’ll get him home and see. That’s the way it is, we’ll try and find out why and try not to let it happen again. Sorry about that, everyone.”

Bittersweet For Hannon...

Richard Hannon saddled the second and third, which as ever provides a level of delight and disappointment in equal measure. “Both my horses ran great races, I’m disappointed to get beaten but you can’t be disappointed by how they ran,” he said. “Rosallion travelled so well and ran a huge race. I’m not going to lie, when I saw City Of Troy fading out of it I thought ‘there’s the main one gone’. It’s probably one of the best Guineas there’s been for 10 years and both of my horses have shown they’re Group 1 horses--one has won a Group 1 and the other one will, so there’s a lot to look forward to.”

Pedigree Notes

Notable Speech, who was becoming the second of Dubawi’s 39 ‘TDN Rising Star’s to win a Classic after the St Leger hero Eldar Eldarov (GB), is the first foal out of the G3 UAE Oaks runner-up Swift Rose. A daughter of the ill-fated Listed Prix Ceres winner and G3 Prix du Palais-Royal and G3 Prix de Meautry runner-up Tulips (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), she is therefore a half-sister to Dubawi’s G3 Burj Nahaar winner Desert Wisdom (GB) and to the GI Natalma S. and G3 Fred Darling S. scorer Wild Beauty (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

The fourth dam is the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G1 Haydock Park Sprint Cup heroine Cherokee Rose (Ire) (Dancing Brave), responsible for Bowman (Irish River {Fr}) who was placed in his “Guineas” when third in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains. This is also the family of the operation’s G1 St Leger and G1 Hong Kong Vase winner Mastery (GB) (Sulamani {Ire}), the G1 Gran Criterium winner Kirklees (Ire) (Jade Robbery) and Invincible Spirit’s G2 Challenge S.-winning sire Cable Bay (Ire). Swift Rose’s second offering is a yearling daughter of Pinatubo (Ire).

NO PRESSURE FOR APPLEBY ON A NOTABLE RETURN TO THE TOP By Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK -- They came for a coronation and perhaps, when we look back at the end of the season, that’s what those packed into the stands and around Newmarket’s vast parade ring will have seen. The crown now just rests on a different head to the one we were expecting.

Those who don’t appreciate the blustery open swathes of the Rowley Mile are quick to knock the course, but over that same strip last October there had been a truly stellar performance in the Dewhurst by City Of Troy (Justify), who duly hogged the top of the betting market all winter. His reappearance, up until the second he was visibly struggling at around halfway, undoubtedly added to the numbers through the gates and a vibrancy on course for the most anticipated running of the 2,000 Guineas since Frankel’s year. The buzz abounded, though City Of Troy himself was apparently unfazed as he wandered quietly, first one in, round and round the pre-parade ring as gradually his rivals arrived to be saddled.

There were days when the all-weather racing through the winter was for the lesser Flat runners and a diversion for those fans who don’t love the jumps, while the more exalted horses ‘wintered well’ in anticipation of the Classic trials. Fifteen years ago Ghanaati (Giant’s Causeway) poured scorn on the idea that Guineas winners must have had a prep run on turf, but her two prior wins, both at Kempton on the Polytrack, had come during her two-year-old season. Cont. p6

William Buick and Charlie Appleby on the podium with the trainer's children Erin, Edith, Emily and Sean | PA Media

Notable Speech (GB), who ripped through the field to give his sire Dubawi (Ire) a fourth winner of the 2,000 Guineas, had done all his winning before Saturday at Kempton too, but he hadn't even been seen in public until January 27, then again a month later, before completing his all-weather hat-trick in early April. Primed to the minute with recent match practice under his belt, including a crucial racecourse gallop at Newmarket, he is a colt for whom the two-year-old races came too early. Now having very much filled his frame, the burly chestnut colt has not just caught up with his contemporaries but has left them wondering which way he went.

Once the horses had filed into the parade ring, Aisling Appleby, wife of the soon-to-be winning trainer, positioned herself just outside with their four children. The smallest, Sean, had to be propped up on the rail to see the runners filing past and loyally proclaimed that 'Jockey William' was his favourite rider. William Buick is indeed the reigning champion but he wasn't on the favourite. Notable Speech, at 16/1, had not figured in many conversations coming into the race beyond the walls of Godolphin. While Sean wriggled and turned his attention towards a visit to the on-course sweet shop, Aisling said that she had been planning to bring the children racing on Sunday. "Bring them today," her husband Charlie had insisted. The sweets would have to wait: there were family photos on the winner's podium to be taken first.

Who knows what private mental turmoil trainers endure when things aren't going quite to plan, but Appleby's breezy demeanour seems never to falter. He was champion trainer in Britain in 2021 and 2022 but there followed, by his standards, a more lacklustre season last year. As the sun finally deigned to shine on Newmarket Heath this, then, was just the kind of reboot he was seeking, following Group 1 success in Dubai with Rebel's Romance (Ire) and two trial victories courtesy of Derby hopeful Arabian Crown (Fr) and Romantic Style (Ire).

"I'm very lucky to be in the position I am. I have no pressure," he said as he was engulfed by the press before his second winner of the 2,000 Guineas had even returned to the enclosure. "We're just asked to do the best we can and sometimes you can't turn a sow's ear into a silk purse, but with the horses we've got now we've got a great chance of getting back to the top table."

Of his colt, the sole locally-trained representative in the 11-strong field, he continued, "You don't very often see Classic winners come off the all-weather. I recall back in August one of the lads sat on him and said he was a nice horse but then he went weak and he wasn't ready to pull out and run. Thankfully he's done what he was supposed to do through the course of the winter and we brought him out in the new year and he hasn't looked back since."

Recalling a recent gallop for Notable Speech under 60-year-old former jockey Paul Eddery, Appleby added, "He got off him and said, 'He stays a mile and the favourite will have to be good to beat him.' From that moment on, I've just been trying to keep a lid on it."

He's been sprung now, and Appleby will doubtless spend most of the rest of the season answering queries about his latest Classic winner, who brings his tally in Britain to five.

He has a long way to go to catch the man who earlier in the afternoon had been inducted into the British Champions Series Hall of Fame. Aidan O'Brien had said in an interview last week in TDN that he stays up late on the good days and heads to bed early on the bad ones. This is one result he will want to forget, and he doubtless felt similar on this day last year after Auguste Rodin (Ire) posted a disappointing return in the Guineas. Twenty-eight days later that same horse won the Derby. Saturday belonged to Godolphin, Charlie Appleby and Jockey William, but don't bet against there being plenty of late nights this season for the master of Ballydoyle.

KODIAC'S SEVEN QUESTIONS POUNCES FOR PALACE HOUSE TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

George Scott trainee Seven Questions (Ire) (Kodiac {GB})--Get Up And Dance {GB}, by Makfi {GB}) parted company with rider Callum Shepherd on the way to post for Saturday's G3 William Hill Palace House S. at Newmarket and, reunited with his rider, the 33-1 outsider found plenty in the closing stages of the five-furlong dash to register a first black-type triumph. Cont. p7

Seven Questions experienced a nine-race juvenile campaign, hitting the board in three pattern-race sprints, and placed once in three starts at Meydan earlier this year. Last term's G2 Mill Reef S. and G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte third was last seen running seventh in the Feb. 9 Dubai Trophy.

The eventual winner dipped low leaving the stands' side stall and recovered to stalk the pace in second after the initial strides. Held together for the most part, he was shaken up to launch his challenge approaching the final furlong and kept on in game fashion under a drive up the hill to defeat Vadream (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) by a head in a blanket finish.

Seven Questions (right) | PA Media

“It’s been a big team effort with this horse as he’s as quirky as they come,” commented Scott. “I’m a Newmarket boy and to have winners at our flagship meeting is very special. He spent the night as the racecourse last night as we know when he gets on the horsebox, he gets very stirred up. So, he had an away night about a half-mile from his stable. We saddled him about an hour ago and brought him down and he was trying to kick everyone. He’s a talented horse on his day and got a brilliant ride. He’s too much for me to handle, so I went to watch City Of Troy warm up instead, but often those horses are the most talented. It’s been great this season and we’ve got some great owners, those we’ve had a long time and some new ones. It’s a long season and we won’t be resting on our laurels, but it’s lovely to get a winner like this. We’ll have to re-evaluate where we go now as he was very much at a crossroads. I’ll have to speak to the owners and we’ll see whether he is a Royal Ascot horse, or not.”

Pedigree Notes

Seven Questions becomes the 45th pattern-race winner for his sire and the first for Get Up And Dance (GB) (Makfi {GB}), herself a winning half-sister to G2 Temple S. victor and G1 King’s Stand S. third Pearl Secret (GB) (Compton Place {GB}) and to the dams of Listed St. Hugh’s S. victrix Cuban Mistress (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) and G3 Pavilion S. third Ehrasz (GB) (Showcasing {GB}). The January-foaled bay’s stakes-winning second dam Our Little Secret (Ire) (Rossini) is a half-sister to three black-type winners headed by G3 Premio Omenoni victrix Palacegate Episode (Ire) (Drumalis {Ire}), herself the dam of three stakes performers headed by G3 Polar Cup-winning Scandinavian champion King Quantas (Ire) (Danehill). Palacegate Episode’s descendants also include G1 Middle Park S. and G1 Prix Morny hero Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Get Up And Dance has the unraced 2-year-old colt Force And Valour (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) and a yearling filly by Starman (GB) to come.

Angel Ready For Flight...

Fallen Angel had the subsequent G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio) well beaten in the Moyglare and is the chief Karl Burke representative despite the credentials of Newtown Anner Stud Farm’s G2 May Hill S. and G3 Prestige S. winner Darnation (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}). Cont. p8

Fallen Angel | Emma Berry

“The mile holds no qualms, she should improve for the mile,” Burke said of Fallen Angel. “She’ll probably stay further, to be honest. We think we’re going to arrive there in good form. We’ve been lucky enough to win the French Oaks, we’ve been second in the English Derby and second in the 1000 Guineas with Laurens, so it would be fantastic to add a British Classic to the CV.”

Fallen Angel’s jockey Danny Tudhope added, “I rode her in a racecourse gallop at the Craven meeting and she impressed me. She galloped with a sprinter and we went quick, but she picked him up very easily and then dosed when we got half a length up, which is just her.”

Two To The Dance...

Charlie Appleby has yet to win this, but following Saturday’s action will arrive with confidence high in his pair of solid chances. The G3 Oh So Sharp S. winner and G3 Nell Gwyn S. runner-up Dance Sequence (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is the clear number one ahead of the Listed Jumeirah 1000 Guineas scorer Cinderella’s Dream (GB) (Shamardal), but she has to turn around a neck defeat by Pretty Crystal (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) from her seven-furlong prep. “Dance Sequence had a nice trial in the Nell Gwyn, where she still showed her rawness,” her trainer said. “With the step up to a mile and the experience she gained there I’m very confident she’s going to be running a big race. Cinderella’s Dream is four from four and gave us some entertainment at Meydan in the winter, where William had to take his feet out of the irons for half of the race but she showed her class in what she achieved. She’s a tough little filly and she definitely deserves to be in the line-up.”

Burgeoning Star?

Julie Wood is a longstanding owner for the Hannons and a win for her live outsider Star Style (GB) (Zoustar {Aus}) would be well received. With only an impressive win in a seven-furlong debutantes affair at Newbury to her name, she will have it tough here but her trainer is expecting a bold show. “We are throwing her in at the deep end, without question, but whenever her owner Julie Wood has a chance of winning a big race she’ll take it with both hands,” he said. “How she’ll handle the track is unknown, but if she does she’ll run a big race. She is a monster. She’s massive, but she’s quite elegant and quite adaptable.”

The Support Acts...

Newmarket’s card also features the G2 Dahlia S., where the 2023 Listed Pretty Polly S. winner Running Lion (GB) (Roaring Lion) is tackled by Godolphin’s G2 Cape Verdi scorer Silver Lady (GB) (Sea The Stars (Ire)). This year’s Pretty Polly, which is an important Oaks trial, features Juddmonte’s 10-length course-and-distance handicap winner Kalpna (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}) and a clutch of unexposed Epsom hopefuls including Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum’s Lunar Eclipse (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). Off the mark on debut over seven furlongs here, the David Simcock-trained relative of Shamardal’s sire Puissance De Lune (Ire) is one of the more interesting Classic prospects from the stable.

THE LOWDOWN: QIPCO 1000 GUINEAS

by Heather Anderson

The first British fillies’ Classic of the season sees a fairly even split of homebreds versus sales graduates. The latter group features a seven-figure filly--Ylang Ylang--all the way down to a €20,000 purchase in Tamfana. Several of these are also related to noteworthy Classic winners, but Guineas form is few and far between. May the best filly win. For the full Guineas field, please click here.

CINDERELLA’S DREAM (GB)

Shamardal--Espadrille (GB) (Dubawi {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: The Godolphin homebred and second foal out of her winning dam is undefeated in four starts, split evenly between England at two and the United Arab Emirates at three. Last seen taking the Listed Jumeirah 1000 Guineas, the granddaughter of G3 St. Simon S. heroine and G1 Oaks/G1 Coronation Cup-placed High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) will attempt to follow in the footsteps of fellow Godolphin filly Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in parlaying desert form to a victory in the 1000 Guineas. Cont. p9

DANCE SEQUENCE (GB)

Dubawi (Ire)--Tearless (GB) (Street Cry {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: Another homebred for the boys in blue, the half-sister to German stakes winner Romantic Song (Ire) (Shamardal) already has a win in the G3 Oh So Sharp to her name and she warmed up for this with a runner-up performance in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. this season. Her second dam Playful Act (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) won the G1 Fillies' Mile, and played bridesmaid in the G1 Irish Oaks.

DARNATION (IRE)

Too Darn Hot (GB)--Monday Monday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire})

Sales info: The first foal of her dam, the duo did not meet their reserve when €195,000 buy-backs at the Goffs November Sale, with Darnation in utero when offered by The Castlebridge Consignment.

Pedigree/form notes: Racing for breeder Newtown Anner Stud, the Karl Burke trainee won the G2 May Hill S. and G3 Prestige Fillies' S. at two. Yet to be seen this season, but connections hold her in high esteem, as she also has entries for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Oaks, and the Irish equivalent. Burke yard has been hot this year.

ELMALKA (GB)

Kingman (GB)--Nahrain (GB) (Selkirk)

Pedigree/form notes: Her half-brother is the well-traveled multiple Group 1 winner Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), while her dam scored in the G1 Flower Bowl Invitational S. Bahr (GB) (Generous {Ire}), Elmalka's granddam, won both the G2 Ribblesdale S. and the G3 Musidora S., and also earned placings in both the Oaks/Irish Oaks and the Flower Bowl. Placed in the G3 Dubai Duty Free S. this year, the Godolphin-bred has a few lengths to find with this bunch, and might be a better autumn prospect.

FALLEN ANGEL (GB)

Too Darn Hot (GB)--Agnes Stewart (Ire) (Lawman {Fr})

Pedigree/form notes: Agnes Stewart won the May Hill S. and was also second in the G1 Fillies' Mile, with Fallen Angel being her most recent produce. Farther back in the family is Group 1 winner Definite Article (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). The Branton Court Stud-bred will be making her 3-year-old bow on Sunday, but sports solid credentials for this test, as the winners of the G3 Sweet Solera S. on home soil and a victory in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in Ireland.

Cinderella's Dream | Dubai Racing Club

PORTA FORTUNA (IRE)

Caravaggio--Too Precious (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: Another first produce, the Whisperview Trading-bred was kept busy at two, and won the G3 Fillies Sprint S. and G3 Albany S. prior to hitting the board in the G1 Phoenix S. and G1 Moyglare Stud S. However, the relation of Australian Group 2 winner and multiple Group 1-placed Numerian (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) progressed to take the G1 Cheveley Park S. in England, and was also a good second at the end of the year in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. The distance is a question mark, as the Rowley Mile is a much different test than on a flat American course. A talented filly.

The distance is a question mark, as the Rowley Mile is a much different test than on a flat American course. A talented filly.

Porta Fortuna | Horsephotos

PRETTY CRYSTAL (IRE)

Dubawi (Ire)--Pretty Baby (Ire) (Orpen)

Pedigree/form notes: A progressive type out of the Rabbah Bloodstock breeding programme, Pretty Crystal is rounding into form at the right time and is the winner of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. Her dam, the G3

Oak Tree S. heroine Pretty Baby, is kin to group winners Prairie Star (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), Pacific Rim (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) and that pair's dam, Prairie Runner (Ire) (Arazi). Cont. p10

Connections supplemented the chestnut to this race. The last to complete the Nell Gwyn/1000 Guineas double was Cachet (Ire) (Aclain {Ire}) in 2022.

RAMATUELLE

Justify--Raven's Lady (Raven's Pass)

Sales info: Consigned by Haras de l'Hotellerie, agent, the February-born filly was purchased for €100,000 by Arthur Hoyeau acting on behalf of MyRacehorse, Ecurie des Monceaux, Hollymount Stud and partners out of the Arqana August Yearling Sale in 2022.

Pedigree/form notes: Twice a winner at group level, Raven's Lady delivered Ramatuelle as her first offspring. Yeguada Centurion bred the G3 Prix du Bois and G2 Prix Robert Papin heroine, who went on to run Vandeeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) to a short neck in the G1 Prix Morny. Second to Romantic Style (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire})--who holds entries in the G1 Commonwealth Cup and G1 Coronation S.--in the G3 Prix Imprudence, the Guineas will be her first start at a mile.

REGAL JUBILEE (GB)

Frankel (GB)--Regal Realm (GB) (Medicean {GB})

Pedigree/form notes: Cheveley Park Stud bred both Regal Jubilee, and three generations of her damline. Sunday's entrant is already a half-sister to the decorated group winner Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}), who was third in the Coral-Eclipse, while their dam won a brace of Group 3s. Under the care of John and Thady Gosden, Regal Jubilee won the Listed Montrose Fillies' S. over this course and distance in heavy going in November, and was only a neck behind Folgaria (Ire) (Due Diligence) in the G3 Dubai Duty Free S. last month. A live chance.

ROLICA (IRE)

Lope De Vega (Ire)--Moteo (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire})

Sales info: Offered by her breeder Ballylinch Stud, which stands her sire, Rolica was a 320,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 yearling purchase by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock.

Pedigree/form notes: Another first foal, this time for the Listed Navigation S. heroine Moteo who placed twice in Irish Group 3s, Rolica is from the same family as dual Group 1 winner and sire Belardo (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). A winner over seven furlongs at Newmarket in April, Rolica is making her stakes debut in this Classic. Cont. p11

Ramatuelle | Scoop Dyga

The Lowdown Cont.SACRED ANGEL (IRE)*Dark Angel (Ire)--Sacred Aspect (Ire) (Haatef)

Sales info: A £52,000 yearling out of the Goffs Premier Sale from Yeomanstown House Stud, the grey was picked up by Manor House Farm.

Pedigree/form notes: This is the best foal of seven produce for Listed Tipperary S. heroine Sacred Aspect, who shares a common ancestor with G1 Prix de l'Abbaye winner The Platinum Queen (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}). Bred by Yeomanstown Stud, the grey won the G3 Princess Margaret S. at two and was third in the Cheveley Park S. to Porta Fortuna, but has never been beyond six furlongs.

SEE THE FIRE (GB)Sea The Stars (Ire)--Arabian Queen (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: Owner Jeff Smith's Littleton Stud bred this daughter of Arabian Queen, who upset Golden Horn (GB) at 50-1 in the 2015 G1 International S. She has already earned black-type when second in the G2 May Hill S. and third in the G1 Fillies' Mile. Her granddam Barshiba (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) won the G2 Lancashire Oaks twice. Would be a triumph for a smaller owner/breeder, and she can only improve.

STAR MUSIC (GB)Zoustar (Aus)--Fast Lily (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus})

Sales info: This filly blossomed from an 18,000gns buy-back from breeder Plantation Stud as a Tattersalls December foal to 160,000gns Tattersalls Somerville yearling when selected by Richard Hughes Racing.

Pedigree/form notes: Her older half-brother Unanimous Consent (GB) (Almanzor {Fr}) won a stakes race on the tough New York circuit in the U.S., and this filly was third to Dance Sequence in the Oh So Sharp S. In the Dubai Duty Free, the relative of group winners Silk Blossom (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and Mashoorah (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) led in the early stages, but faltered late, and that run should have brought her forward.

STAR STYLE (GB)Zoustar (Aus)--Sweet Cecily (Ire) (Kodiac {GB})

Sales info: Byerley Stud offered this filly at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale, where she caught the eye of owner Julie Wood for 47,000gns.

Pedigree/form notes: Bred by Mrs. S Clifford, the half-sister to the stakes-placed Sweet Dragon Fly (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) won her only start to date, a seven-furlong Newbury affair. Cont. p12

Her dam claimed the Listed Bosra Sham Fillies' S., while third dam Sweet Roberta (Robert) was successful in the GII Selima S. and second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. This is a very steep class hike.

TAMFANA (GER)

Soldier Hollow (GB)--Tres Magnifique (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire})

Sales info: Jeremy Brummitt snapped up this filly for a mere snip at €20,000 out of the BBAG September Yearling Sale from co-breeders Gestut Etzean and Hans-Helmut Rodenburg.

Pedigree/form notes: The fourth foal out of her dam, she is from the same family as the smart Grade I winner Sea Calisi (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}). A winner of the G3 Prix Miesque in 2023, the Quantum Leap Racing VIII & Friends-owned filly was a close third in the G3 Prix Imprudence.

YLANG YLANG (GB)

Frankel (GB)--Shambolic (Ire) (Shamardal)

Sales info: The priciest filly in the 1000 Guineas at 1.5 million gns when bought by MV Magnier and Peter Brant's White Birch Farm out of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1, Ylang Ylang was offered by Newsells Park Stud.

Pedigree/form notes: Her dam was placed three times at stakes level and Ylang Ylang is her first foal. Shambolic is a half-sister to the high class Hong Kong runner Comic Strip (GB) (Marju {Ire}), and dual Grade I winner Laughing (Ire) (Dansili {GB}). Ylang Ylang entered winter quarters after a win in the G1 Fillies' Mile, so the course and distance hold no fears. One of the top choices.

IRISH NH CHAMPIONS CROWNED AT PUNCHESTOWN

The 2023/2024 Irish National Hunt champions were crowned at Punchestown on Saturday, Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) announced.

After a close tussle, Jack Kennedy earned his first Irish Champion Jockey title, just edging out Paul Townend, who was aiming for his seventh year-end award. The full list of champions for the 2023/2024 National Hunt season are as follows:

- Champion Owner: JP McManus
- Champion Trainer: Willie Mullins
- Champion Jockey: Jack Kennedy
- Champion Conditional: Danny Gilligan
- Champion Amateur: Patrick Mullins
- Champion Lady Amateur: Jody Townend

HRI chief executive, Suzanne Eade, said, "It has come down to the final day of the season but we now have our six champions confirmed and many congratulations to JP, Willie, Jack, Danny, Patrick and Jody. Jack and Paul served up a thrilling finale to the jockeys' championship and their tussle certainly added to the excitement of the concluding weeks of the season. I recognise that there are many thousands working behind the scenes and away from the limelight, and I thank them so much for their efforts that keeps the show on the road."

Kennedy said, "It's an unbelievable feeling to have won the championship. Paul got close enough in recent weeks to give me loads of sleepless nights but I'm delighted to have hung on. I've had a great 12 months, leading the championship for much of the way and riding over 100 winners in a season for the first time in my career." Cont. p13

BROSAY LEADS FOUR TATTERSALLS ONLINE WILDCARDS

Brosay (GB) (Tasleet {GB}), a winner at Goodwood on Friday, is one of four wildcards added to the Tattersalls Online May Sale, the sales company announced on Saturday.

Currently rated 80+ by Timeform, the colt (lot 87) was a 25,000gns purchase by Star Bloodstock, Byron Rogers and Diego Dias. His dam Hattytown (GB) (Ivawood {Ire}) is a half-sister to the Group 3-placed Blood Moon (GB) (Equiano {Fr}).

The other lots are the placed hurdler Shengai Enki (Fr) (Buck's Boum {Fr}) (lot 84), a 2-year-old colt by Advertise (GB) (lot 85), and the winning mare Peebles Place (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) (lot 86), who is sold with her Profitable (Ire) colt foal at foot.

Added Mullins, "It's fair to say that this has been our best season at home and abroad, and it is a credit to our hardworking and dedicated team that we are celebrating again today. Congratulations to all champions today, especially Jack on winning his first champion jockey title."

McManus said, "It's such a great honour to win this title and I feel so lucky. My sincere thanks to all the trainers, jockeys, stable staff and all who contributed so much to my success. I have had wonderful days out with my family, grandchildren and friends and the season has given me memories which I will greatly treasure."

Unequal Love, untested as a juvenile, harvested four of seven sophomore outings last term and lined up for this rescheduled event returning off a fourth behind the reopposing Funny Story in October's Listed Boadicea S. over this course and distance. Positioned on the heels of the leaders in a handy fourth after the initial exchanges, she was stirred into action soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on strongly under continued rousing on the ascent to assert superiority for a career high.

"Tom [Marquand] could have waited a bit longer, but Rossa [Ryan aboard Funny Story] looked like he was trying to box him in and that forced Tom to go on a bit earlier than he would have liked, but she stayed on well," said William Haggas. "She has improved physically since last year, but I don't think she wants the ground too firm or too soft. She will go to the Curragh now for the [May 25 G2] Greenlands on Irish 2000 Guineas day. It is against the boys, but there is no point putting her in there and then not running. She has won a Listed race and has black type now, so hopefully it's onwards and upwards."

Unequal Love, who becomes the 45th stakes winner for her sire, is the latest of seven foals and one of three scorers from as many runners out of Listed Dick Hern Fillies' S. third Heavenly Dawn (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), herself a full-sister to dual Grade I-winning distaffer Megahertz (GB) and two-time G2 Dahlia S. victrix Heaven Sent (GB). Also Ran: Choisy (GB), Marcella (Ger), Orchid Bloom (GB), Secret Solace (GB), Our Town (Fr).

Royal Dress was successful in two of 11 starts for the Richard Hannon stable and, coming back off a Sept. 30 handicap seventh at Haydock, snagged a career best in this first outing for James Tate. Held up at the tail of the eight-runner field after breaking from the outside gate in this seasonal bow, she made continued headway into contention approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to deny Novus and Breege by a pair of short-heads in a three-way bobbing finish.

Royal Dress becomes the 43rd stakes winner for her sire and the first for Wadaa (Dynaformer), whose tally of three winners includes G2 Cape Verdi and G3 Prix Six Perfections placegetter Wedding Dance (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Cont. p15

The March-foaled homebred's second dam, G3 Nell Gwyn S. victrix and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Cloud Castle (GB) (In The Wings {GB}), produced three black-type winners headed by G3 Winter Hill S. winner Queen's Best (GB) (King's Best) and Listed River Eden S. victrix Urban Castle (Street Cry {Ire}). Queen's Best is the dam of GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf Heroine Queen's Trust (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Urban Castle is the dam of GI Hollywood Derby and GI Manhattan S. hero Domestic Spending (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Cloud Castle is kin to the multiple Group 1-winning globetrotters Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon) and Luso (GB) (Salse) and her descendants also include G1 Pretty Polly S. winner Thundering Nights (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). Royal Dress is full to a 2-year-old colt and half to a yearling colt by Kingman (GB).

Also Ran: There's The Door (Ire), Madame Ambassador (GB), Ching Shih (Ire), Sumo Sam (GB).

Earning TDN Rising Star status with a 9 1/2-length success on her debut at Newbury last April, Gather Ye Rosebuds was entitled to a Classic tilt but failed to beat a rival in York's G3 Musidora S. and the Classic dream was dead in the water. After the filly that she had trounced on her racecourse bow, Maman Joon (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), went on to finish fourth in the Oaks, hope was restored that she was not a flash in the pan but she was restricted to just two more starts last term with ambition restrained.

Back on track with a win in a Hamilton novice contest in August, she was fourth in the Listed Bluebell S. at Naas in October before returning to be fifth in the Listed Prix Zarkava at ParisLongchamp last month. Taking a tow in third early, the chestnut arrived on the front end travelling strongly passing the two-furlong pole and stayed on to register a black-type breakthrough.

Gather Ye Rosebuds is a half-sister to the stable's money-spinner Certain Lad, who captured the G3 Strensall S. and was placed in the G2 Huxley S. and G2 Railway S. for Jack's father Mick. The second dam Lady Lahar (GB) (Fraam {GB}) captured the G2 Futurity S. and was placed in the G2 Falmouth S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. before producing the G3 Prix du Pin winner and G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua runner-up Jallota (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), the Listed Montrose Fillies' S. winner Classic Legend (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the G1 Nassau S. third Rawdaa (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}).

MOON OVER MIAMI (FR) (g, 3, Sea The Moon {Ger}--Wiesenlerche {Ire}, by Adlerflug {Ger}), off the mark at Doncaster in March, was anchored with one behind early. Taking longer than expected to pick up in the straight, the 5-6 favourite hit the front a furlong out and stayed on to secure a 1 1/4-length success from Steel Tiger (Ire) (Almanzor {Fr}). The dam is a daughter of the multiple group winner Wurfscheibe (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}) from the prestigious family of Galileo's Arch hero Waldgeist (GB). Her 2-year-old colt by Wooded (Ire) was a €40,000 purchase by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock for Tom Ward at Arqana Deauville October. Sales history: €130,000 Ylg '22 ARQDOY. DORNEY LAKE (GB) (c, 3, Ardad {Ire}--Dora's Sister {Ire}, by Dark Angel {Ire}), who had undergone wind surgery since finishing fifth on his sole start at the Goodwood Festival in August, tanked along in a clear lead from the outset. Strong to the line, the 13-8 favourite was impressive as he registered a commanding 3 3/4-length success from Mono River (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}). The dam, whose family includes the G2 Queen Mary S. and G3 Princess Margaret S.-placed Caroline Dale (GB) (Lethal Force {Ire}), has a 2-year-old full-sister to the winner named Perfect Dark (GB) who was a 42,000gns purchase by Brownsbarn Thoroughbreds and Moore's Racing at the Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale. BENEVENTO (IRE) (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Pollyana {Ire} {GSW & G1SP-Fr, $503,184}, by Whipper) was the sharpest of six into stride and seized an immediate lead in this debut. Untroubled through halfway, the 4-1 chance came under pressure passing the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out to defeat Bolo Neighs (Ire) (Coulsty {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths. Benevento is the fourth of five foals and third scorer from as many runners produced by G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein victrix and G1 Prix d'Ispahan third Pollyana (Ire) (Whipper), herself a half-sister to the dam of Listed Prix Volterra third Gaazaal (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). AUTUMN'S COCO REIGNS SUPREME IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA DERBY

by Keely Mckitterick

Coco Sun (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}) delivered a popular result for the locals in the G1 South Australian Derby. The daughter of The Autumn Sun-trained by the proud South Australian Tony McEvoy and his son Calvin McEvoy and ridden by Jamie Kah, who was also born in the state ran out a sensational winner of the Derby.

McEvoy shut down his South Australian-based stable in 2022 after being crowned Adelaide's Champion Trainer six times. Meanwhile, Kah celebrated her first Group 1 success in her home state.

Coco Sun came close to Group 1 glory last-start when third in the G1 Australasian Oaks, a race that saw a trifecta by daughters of Arrowfield's The Autumn Sun.

On Saturday, Coco Sun was strong to the line to hold off a charging Warmonger (NZ) (War Decree) and fought off a gallant Air Assault (Aus) (Justify).

"These are the races we really like to win," enthused Tony McEvoy to Racing.com. "Coco Sun is a really good filly. Cal (Calvin McEvoy) was here last week when she ran third and he and Jamie (Kah) were so bullish about backing her on in the South Australian Derby.

"I spoke to Terry Jarvis (owner), who is in New Zealand and he didn't come over but backed us. So, it was very special."

McEvoy added, "She ran really well in the spring but just didn't have much luck. She actually ran really well in the G1 VRC Oaks but actually didn't quite get the 2500 metres on that occasion. However, she developed beautifully and she's the most gorgeous filly; I'm really proud of her.

"I think we will look at the G1 Queensland Oaks in about five weeks time for her."

Coco Sun showed her talent as a juvenile winning the Listed Oaklands Plate at Morphettville. The G1 South Australian Derby brings her record to five victories from 11 starts.

Pedigree Notes

She is one of four stakes winners for The Autumn Sun, who has sired three individual Group 1 winners this spring--all coming in the Classics. Autumn Angel (Aus) provided him with his maiden elite-level winner in the G1 Australian Oaks in the autumn and she was swiftly followed by Vibrant Sun (Aus) in the G1 Australasian Oaks and Coco Sun in the G1 South Australian Derby.

The Autumn Sun is recovering from a pelvic injury but is expected to cover this season. He will stand the 2024 season for $66,000 (inc GST).

Coco Sun's dam Miss Hufflepuff (Aus) (Encosta De Lago {Aus}) will be offered at the 2024 Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale as Lot 232 by Tyreel Stud served by The Autumn Sun.

Bred by Wallings Bloodstock, she was sold by Tyreel Stud to McEvoy Mitchell Racing and Belmont Bloodstock for $250,000 at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. Her city winning dam has also produced this season's stakes placed 2-year-old Nymphadora (Aus) (Yes Yes Yes {Aus}) as well as the city winner Queen Of Wizardry (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}).

Miss Hufflepuff had her So You Think (NZ) yearling sell for A$240,000 to First Light Racing, Tony and Calvin McEvoy and Belmont Bloodstock at this year's Inglis Classic Sale.

Miss Hufflepuff is one of the five winners (from as many to race) for the imported Listed winner Miss Helga (Ire) (Alzao) whose son Liberator (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) earned the title of Hong Kong Champion Stayer.

The 21st Group 1 winner for Encosta de Lago as a broodmare sire, Coco Sun has strong female line-breeding with duplications of Natalma (Native Dancer), Fairy Bridge (Bold Reason), Lalun (Djeddah {Fr}), Rough Shod (GB) (Gold Bridge {Fr}) and Flower Bowl (Alibhai {GB}).
