

"I CAN'T GET OVER THE STANDARD OF HORSE HERE" - HIGH EXPECTATIONS FOR ARQANA

DEAUVILLE, France--The temperature is rising at Arqana and so, too, are the stakes. Breeze-up consignors young and old have made no secret about the fact that trade this year has been tricky, particularly at the middle to lower tiers. Cont. p3

ALCANTOR AIMING TO EXTEND MEAUTRY'S CLASSIC HISTORY By Emma Berry

Last year's dual Group 1 winner Mqse De Sevine (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) has already made her successful return to the racecourse this season in the Prix Jacques Laffitte and looks set to reappear in what could be a star-studded line-up for the G1 Prix d'Ispahan on May 26. In the meantime, her owner-breeder Baron Edouard de Rothschild will be represented in Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains by Alcantor (Fr) (New Bay {GB}), who was bought on the owner's behalf as a foal by Nick Bell, manager of the Rothschild family's Haras de Meautry.

"It started during Covid and we were slightly down on numbers of horses," says Bell of the decision to supplement the homebreds with a few foal purchases each year. "I went to Arqana and we bought two foals that year, a Galiway colt called Cte d'Escarbagnas, who is a half-brother to Alenquer, and a filly by Roaring Lion. The next year we bought Alcantor.

"It's quite a good way to compare your own stock. I take notes every month and we weigh all the horses, so it's quite interesting to compare yours with ones that you bought."

All duck or no dinner, feast or famine--whatever way you want to describe it, vendors have had to negotiate some choppy waters, meaning a lot is still on the line at Arqana when the sale gets underway at 11am on Saturday.

But, weirdly, the optimism is palpable. Maybe it's the baking heat, beautiful food or the steady flow of champagne. Or perhaps it's just the high-class bunch of horses that has attracted buyers from all over the world that has breeze-up consignors like Eddie O'Leary, Jim McCartan and Cormac O'Flynn confident about what Saturday might bring.

O'Leary said, "The market is tight but if you get it right it can be very good. They all seem to be landing on the same horses. If you have a horse with a pedigree and he qualifies for the main men, it's very good trade."

He added, "I found at some of the sales so far this year that the top 40 horses on the times made plenty of money. You would hope at Arqana that the times go out the window because you can't buy a horse for Royal Ascot here--you won't make it."

And plenty of people agree. There is an American flavour to this catalogue and O'Leary's filly and colt by Justify in particular are making waves. Through Lynn Lodge Stud, O'Leary has sold Donjuan Triumphant (Ire) (Dream Ahead), The Wow Signal (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) and Big Call (Animal Kingdom) at the breeze-up sales. In fact, four horses from last year's Arqana draft have all won races and achieved good ratings, highlighted by French 2,000 Guineas hopeful Eben Shaddad (Calyx {GB}).

On this year's draft, he commented, "We got in on Justify before the market went nuts last year. We are lucky to have two very, very good horses by him. They are natural talents and it's a credit to the sire that, when you have a horse as big and strong as the colt [lot 62] that he can breeze as well as he did. He could be a freak of nature--he's just an inch smaller than Gronkowski (Lonhro {Aus}). The filly [lot 187] is a natural talent as well."

McCartan is another man selling the American dream. California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), a horse who has won close to £8 million in Hong Kong, has put McCartan's Gaybrook Lodge in lights and the normally shy operator couldn't hide his enthusiasm for the Not This Time colt [lot 55].

He said, "We always try to buy a few in America but didn't buy as many last year because we couldn't seem to get them at the price we wanted them at. But I was lucky enough to buy the Not This Time and the Bernardini colts for in and around the same money [$62,000 apiece]. Both horses have been very easy to manage and breezed very well. Not This Time is top of the pops--he's a sire on the up. I actually rang a couple of pals of mine in America and they told me that Not This Time is the horse who really is on the way up. The stock from his better mares are coming through now and his stud fee has gone up to $150,000. He's getting into that bracket of Into Mischief, Curlin and those sorts of horses."

McCartan added, "I have clients who want dirt horses and grass horses. We try to buy a broad section of horses as we have lots of different clients. This year has been good so far but I have been down on numbers. That was by design to be honest. Now, I did have an interest in a couple of horses with Willie Browne at the Craven, and they went ok. There is a lot of emphasis on the clock at different sales. Is that a good thing? I don't think that it is. I certainly have no interest in breezing horses very fast. I think it's the wrong thing for them to be doing. We pre-train them and like them to be big and strong at the sales. If they do a nice, even breeze with a bit of style, we're happy. The Not This Time was up there on the times but he's one of those natural talents. Over here at Arqana, they appreciate a big horse with a pedigree so times are not necessarily as important as they are at the other sales. The footfall has been very good here this week. There is an extra day, so it's a bit more spread out, but a lot of the right people are here so it's great to see. I think it should be a very good sale."

A strong cast of international buyers have descended on Arqana for the sale | Zuzanna Lupa

O'Leary and McCartan are seasoned pros when it comes to the breeze-ups but O'Flynn is fast becoming a force to be reckoned with in this sphere. Through his association with Roderic Kavanagh of Glending Stables, O'Flynn famously sold the unbeaten Group 1 performer Vandeeck last year and the pair followed that unforgettable pinhook up with an emphatic result in the Craven when selling their 125,000gns yearling purchase by Galileo (Ire) for an eye-popping 1 million gns.

"The Galileo has been the flagship horse so far this year and it was great to hit with him but there were plenty of others who failed to hit the mark," O'Flynn said. "They still sold well, went to good homes and will hopefully go on to be good racehorses, but it's definitely been a sticky market to be operating in."

"The middle of the market has been very tough, particularly in the UK. Obviously coming over here, things are a little bit different and Arqana is a lovely place to bring a nice draft of horses, which hopefully we have. There is a little bit more of an emphasis on middle-distance horses over here. But we are happy, Arqana have done a great job and there has been plenty of footfall. We have been very busy all day." Cont. p5

Francis Graffard & Willie Browne | Brian Sheerin

But surely when you sell a horse for ten times his initial outlay in a year, the pressure is off?

"No, definitely not. You just take each sale as it comes. This game is a great leveler. While the highs are brilliant, you never know what is around the corner. We just try to do the best that we can with each horse and hopefully we have a nice group for tomorrow. We're looking forward to it."

O'Flynn added, "I got involved in pinhooking with Roger quite a while ago. We started off with a couple of foals and ended up breezing one of the fillies that we couldn't sell as a yearling. It has gradually built from there. I never thought we'd be operating to the level that we are now--I wouldn't have even dreamt of it."

Cormac O'Flynn & Roderic Kavanagh | Brian Sheerin

Without Vandeeck, the Galileo may not have been a goer for Glending. It goes back to that old saying that success breeds success and that saying certainly applies to the breeze-up sector as a whole. This sale has been the source of many top-notchers down through the years and, like O'Leary and McCartan, O'Flynn is expecting a string of strong results on Saturday.

He concluded, "I can't get over the standard of horses here. Everywhere you look, there are outstanding horses and the pedigrees in the catalogue speak for themselves. I'd be expecting it to be a very good sale.

"There are a lot of people in town and Arqana has done a great job. There is a lot of emphasis on those mile to mile-and-a-half horses and there is a lot of American interest, too. There is a diverse group of buyers here and there are a lot of horses here for people to shop."

Bell, who is soon to head off on an epic charity cycle ride to raise money for Au-Dela des Pistes, has managed Haras de Meautry for 17 years. The Normandy stud is closing in on its 150th anniversary.

"The Rothschild family bought the land in 1875," he notes. "At the time, Deauville was being developed as a holiday destination by the Duke of Morny among others."

Now, the bustling seaside town is easily visible from the high paddocks at Meautry, which is situated in the heart of the outlying medieval village of Touques. It was at Deauville last summer that the stud enjoyed the twin highlights of Mqse De Sevigne winning first the 'family race', the G1 Prix Rothschild, followed by the G1 Prix Jean Romanet. After some thought, her owner took the decision to keep her in training at the age of five.

"We had a long debate," Bell says. "If she hadn't stayed in training, she might have gone for the Breeders' Cup last year, but she would've had to take on Inspiral again. After the Prix d'Ispahan there could be a number of options. She could go to Royal Ascot, she could go to Newmarket for the Falmouth, or she could follow the same route and go to Rothschild-Romanet again."

Mqse De Sevigne's dam Penne (Fr) is now 21 and already has three of her daughters for company at Meautry. Both she and her dam, Une Pensee (Fr), are by Rothschild-bred stallions in Sevres Rose (Fr) and Kenmare (Fr). Sevres Rose, an unraced and lightly used son of Caerleon, died at the farm in March at the age of 31 with just 127 foals to his name. Cont. p6

"Penne, brilliantly, is in foal," says Bell, and his relief is well justified as it's not just Mqse De Sevigne who has advertised the mare's talents. Penne's first foal was the four-time Group 1 winner Meandre (Fr) (Slickly {Fr}).

"She went to St Mark's Basilica after three years of trying with Siyouni. She's 21 now and we wanted to go back to Siyouni and we tried and tried but she is a very tricky mare. She'll come into season and go out of season very quickly and just show for a day."

The Rothschild colours, or a variation of them, could also soon be seen back in England as Baron Edouard has struck up a partnership with his relation Nathaniel Rothschild, the 5th Baron Rothschild whose mother, the late Lady Serena Rothschild, raced the Irish Oaks winner Great Heavens (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) as well as that filly's full-brother and fellow Group 1 winner Nathaniel (Ire). Great Heavens is already the dam of three black-type performers among her six winners, and her three-year-old will represent the Anglo-French familial alliance.

"We have a partnership with Nat this year in a horse in William Haggas's called Greatest Heavens," Bell says. "She's by Kingman and she was going to go to Book 1 at Tattersalls but Nat asked Edouard if he wanted to take a half-share. She's yet to run but she's a very nice filly."

Another Kingman (GB) filly whose progress will be keenly monitored by all at Meautry is the yearling daughter of Esoterique (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), the mare who was her owner-breeder's previous Prix Rothschild winner a decade ago and who later added the G1 Sun Chariot and G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois to her record.

Now 14, Esoterique's stud career has been fraught with frustration and she had produced only two colt foals prior to her longed-for daughter last season. She is now back in foal to

Kingman and her two-year-old colt by the same sire, named King Esoteric (Fr), is, like Alcantor and Mqse De Sevigne, in training with Andre Fabre.

Bell, who has been at Haras de Meautry since 2007, is itching for the stud to be involved with another Classic winner.

"The thing that really gets to you about being here is the history," he says. "You're really only a caretaker for a while and you've got to make the most of it while you're here. But you look back at what they had here, when it was an awful lot bigger than it is now, and the number of Classic races they've won, with horses all bred on this land. That's the big thing for me now, that we have to win a Classic somewhere along the line. Esoterique was second in the Poule d'Essai."

He adds, "The one thing I've noticed since I've come to France is that you used to be able to win a maiden with quite a moderate horse, and certainly if you went out into the provinces, you could win. Now it's tough to win anywhere."

While Alcantor, who was bred by SCEA du Grand Chene, was not born at the farm, he has spent much of his early life there and takes his Classic chance this Sunday having won last season's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon - one of his three juvenile victories - and finishing second in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud behind Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}).

Bell recalls, "He was very impressive in the Thomas Bryon. Mickael Barzalona went up in his stirrups, practically waving to all his friends. From last to first, he was really impressive. In the Criterium, he was a bit unlucky because he had to come from behind and Sunway got the rail first and the ground was definitely better on the rail."

A less happy time in the long history of Haras de Meautry will doubtless be brought to mind for some as the 80th anniversary of D-Day is celebrated across Normandy this June. Cont. p7

During the Second World War, German soldiers were billeted at the farm, their graffiti still visible in the haylofts all these decades later. The Rothschilds' homebred stallion Brantome, whose 12 wins included the Poule d'Essai des Poulains and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, was among hundreds of Thoroughbreds seized during the German occupation of France.

"The Nazis stole all the horses, including Brantome. He'd won the Arc and started his stallion career and they took him and all the horses to Germany. After the war, [Edouard's father] Baron Guy and his father went and searched for the horses and repatriated them all," says Bell.

"Deauville was very lucky because it wasn't affected by the D-Day landings. But then you go to Caen and you go to Lisieux and places like that, they were just absolutely flattened."

Ninety years after Brantome's triumph in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp it would be fitting to see those distinctive Rothschild silks carried to glory once more.

"This time of year we're all hopes and dreams," says Bell.

PASSENGER STRIKES LATE TO SECURE EIGHTH HUXLEY FOR SIR MICHAEL STOUTE

by Sean Cronin

Last term's G1 Derby 12th Passenger (Ulysses {Ire}--Dilmun, by War Front) continued on his pathway back to the highest level when striking late to secure a record-extending eighth renewal for veteran maestro Sir Michael Stoute in Friday's G2 Huxley S. at Chester.

Flaxman Stables' homebred 4-year-old settled into a smooth rhythm, within range of the leaders, in fifth for most of the extended 10-furlong test. Making eye-catching headway on the bridle into contention rounding the home turn, the 7-4 second favourite swept by last term's G2 Princess Of Wales's S. victor

Israr (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) with 100 yards remaining and drew off from there to score by an ultimately comfortable 1 1/2-length margin in track-record time. The winner's slow-starting stablemate Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}) made late headway to finish 5 1/2 lengths adrift in third.

Passenger, untested as a juvenile, opened up last term with victory in Newmarket's famed "Wood Ditton" before hitting the board in York's May 18 G2 Dante S. and came back off a break after his Derby reversal to close his sophomore campaign with a stakes breakthrough in August's G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor when last seen.

Passenger | Getty Images

"I had a good chat with Ryan [Moore] yesterday, we wanted to use Israr for as long as possible really and it's nice when a race goes to plan," said Richard Kingscote. "This lad does battle, but obviously he's still lightly raced. We had to have a good battle at Windsor last year when I probably got to the front a little early. Today, when he went by, he didn't hesitate and he put the race to bed really nicely. The Dante was a mess, I overcomplicated things and that was always going to be how we rode the race today. It's nice when things go our way. I think I let the horse down a couple of times last year, this went better so hopefully we can keep going forward. Sir Michael doesn't like bigging them up, but he's a very likeable horse. The race was smooth for him, but you could just feel he was learning a bit on the job which is why I just feel Sir Michael loves coming here. He's one to look forward to. Sir Michael has been at the top table a very long time, there's a group of people who love him and are delighted to see him do well. Hopefully we've got another nice one."

The March-foaled bay's second dam, MGSW GI Spinster S. and G1 Personal Ensign Invitational runner-up Pachattack (Pulpit), is a daughter of Listed Chalice S. second El Laoob (Red Ransom) and thus kin to the stakes-winning La Mina (Mineshaft), G3 Thoroughbred Breeders S. runner-up El Sagrado (GB) (Azamour {Ire}) and the dual stakes-placed Absolute Crackers (Ire) (Giant's Causeway). Passenger's dam Dilmun (War Front), who was bred to McKinzie last year, has the unraced 2-year-old colt Proteus (Karakontie {Jpn}) and a yearling filly by Karakontie (Jpn) to come.

LINGFIELD TRIALS TAKE CENTRE STAGE ON SATURDAY

by Tom Frary

With Chester's Derby and Oaks pointers failing to unearth a dazzling candidate this week, it is the turn of Lingfield on Saturday to potentially provide a clearer picture of how the Epsom Classics will shape up. The Listed Derby Trial, which has produced one Blue Riband hero in recent times in Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), sees Ballydoyle bring across their G3 Ballysax S. second and third The Euphrates (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Illinois (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Ryan Moore keeping the faith in the latter.

All the evidence so far in 2024 points to Aidan O'Brien's runners badly needing their first run back, so it is probably wise to cut last year's G1 Criterion de Saint-Cloud third Illinois quite a bit of slack and this is traditionally the week that the stable first finds that irresistible form that can run deep into the year. With his Saint-Cloud conqueror Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) set for Sunday's G3 Derby Trial at Leopardstown, we should know a lot more prior to York's Dante Festival which forms the climax of the run of middle-distance Classic trials.

Away from Ballydoyle, the Lingfield prep also hands Highclere Thoroughbred Racing and Harry Herbert another chance to get excited as the Roger Varian-trained Defiance (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) bids to build on an eye-catching second in a renewal of Epsom's Blue Riband Trial possibly a shade deeper than is usually the case. Re-opposed by the fourth in that 10-furlong contest, Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's TDN Rising Star Arabic Legend (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), Defiance has the feel of a colt coming good at the right time to give him a squeak in the Derby.

"Right now I think he's a live contender," Herbert said. "He's a beautifully-balanced horse who has shown he can act around Epsom and he's going to stay well, so he's ticking some good boxes but first of all we've got to see if he can win a race like this. We'll know afterwards whether we'll be throwing our cards into the Derby ring or going elsewhere."

Does The King Have Hidden Classic Treasure?

It is 23 years since the Royal silks went close to winning an Epsom Classic and the pain of Flight Of Fancy (GB) (Sadler's Wells) finding one too good in the Oaks was in turn 24 years on from the success of Dunfermline (GB) for The Queen. Ralph Beckett, who has already uncovered an Oaks gem in midweek, saddles the current monarch's authoritative Nottingham maiden winner Treasure (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial that he tends to target with his better prospects.

“Ralph is very happy with Treasure, who has the size and scope to be a decent filly,” The King and Queen’s racing adviser John Warren said. “We are on a fact-finding mission and as she has been prepped specifically for this race, we will learn where we stand after this to plan her future.”

The Gosdens are waiting on the weather for Anthony Oppenheimer’s 12-length Wetherby novice winner Danielle (GB) (Cracksman {GB}), who made giant strides on soft ground there. “The plan is to go to Lingfield with Danielle at the moment and let’s hope that goes well,” John Gosden said. “She won well last time, but obviously I hope the ground stays good. If it dries up then I would be concerned about running her on quick ground.”

Rose Bloom | Scoop Dyga

Remarquee Returns...

Also at Lingfield is the seven-furlong G3 Chartwell Fillies’ S., where last year’s G3 Fred Darling S. winner and G1 Coronation S. and G1 Falmouth S. runner-up Remarquee (GB) (Kingman {GB}) is another for Ralph Beckett, while Chantilly’s G3 Prix de Guiche sees the Wertheimers’ G3 Prix la Force winner Atlant (Fr) (Farhh {GB}) pitched in against Jean-Etienne Dubois and Haras d’Etreham’s Darlinghurst (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) who beat the subsequent G3 Prix Greffulhe winner Wootton Verni (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) in the Listed Prix Maurice Caillault at Chantilly in March.

Draw Made For ParisLongchamp Classics...

Sunday’s swathe of European stakes action is headlined by ParisLongchamp’s Emirates-sponsored G1 Poule d’Essai des Pouliches and G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains and both Classics have attracted double-figure fields. Of the 15 fillies set for the Pouliches, connections of the G3 Prix Imprudence winner Romantic Style (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) has been dealt a blow with a wide draw in 14, while fellow overseas raiders Vespertilio (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), who was runner-up in the G1 Moyglare Stud S., and the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf fourth Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) are in 11 and eight, respectively. Of the home team, the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac second Rose Bloom (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) is in stall one, while the undefeated TDN Rising Star Louise Procter (Fr)

(Siyouni (Fr)) also fared favourably next door in two.

The €650,000 Poulains features a sextet of TDN Rising Stars headed by Ballydoyle’s G1 Vincent O’Brien National S. hero and likely favourite Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is set to be partnered by Ryan Moore and has drawn stall six. Stablemate Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), with Christophe Soumillon booked, will exit from gate 11 while France’s octet includes the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere third and fellow TDN Rising Star Beauvatier (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). The Yann Barberot trainee will be loaded next door to Diego Velazquez in stall 10, with his G3 Prix de Fontainebleau conqueror Ramadan (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) perfectly placed in stall five.

Ground conditions look set to dry out by Sunday, with track manager Charles De Cordon also revealing that the “open stretch” six metres out from the running rail will be utilised approximately 450 metres from the post. “Good-to-soft ground is forecast for Sunday, with a 50% chance of rain materialising on Sunday afternoon,” he said. “There will be no watering of the course between now and Sunday and the open stretch, redundant since the Qatar Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe Meeting, will again come into play.”

CAMBRIDGE SUPPLEMENTED TO THE DANTE, A DOZEN DECLARED

Aidan O’Brien’s late supplement Cambridge (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) is among 12 currently declared for the G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Dante S. at York next Thursday.

The Salisbury winner was second to G3 Chester Vase third Grosvenor Square (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Eyrefield S. at Leopardstown last October. He returned to run fourth in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket in April, and could be joined by the multiple group-placed Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who was third in the Listed Blue Riband Trial on Apr. 23.

Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), set to run in Sunday's G1 Emirates Poule d'Essai des Poulains, is also still entered.

That potential trio have to face the G1 Futurity Trophy winner Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) for Charlie Appleby and Futurity Trophy third and Listed Dee S. fourth God's Window (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for John and Thady Gosden. The Godolphin trainer already has hot G1 Derby prospect Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), who won Sandown's G3 Classic Trial on Apr. 26.

Listed winner Caviar Heights (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) for Karl Burke and William Haggas's maiden winner Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) have been entered as well. Another is the stakes-placed War Rooms (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) from the yard of Owen Burrows, while Paul and Oliver Cole will send out the Riding High Together H. winner Black Run (Fr) (Nathaniel {Ire}). Hugo Palmer trainee Under The Sun (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}), fifth to Arabian Crown in the Classic Trial, tries this prep, as does Roger Varian's Ghostwriter (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), a winner of the G2 Royal Lodge S. last September. The field is completed by Ed Walker runner Harper's Ferry (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

LOUISE NORMAN NEW INTERIM CEO OF RACEHORSE OWNERS' ASSOCIATION, REPLACES CHARLIE LIVERTON

Louise Norman, previously the head of ownership with the Racehorse Owner's Association (ROA) is the new interim CEO of the organisation, it announced on Friday. She replaces Charlie Liverton, who has resigned to pursue other opportunities.

ROA president Charlie Parker said, "The ROA Board would like to thank Charlie for his contributions over a number of years to both the ROA itself and the wider racing industry. The Board and I are delighted, and fully supportive of Louise stepping into the role of interim CEO. She brings a wealth of experience and knowledge of the industry with her, not just from her head of ownership role with the ROA, but from her previous roles."

Norman added, "I am very excited to take on this role and lead the ROA's efforts to ensure owners remain paramount in every decision made across the industry. I look forward to working closely with the excellent team at the ROA as we develop our strategy on behalf of our members, ensuring their voices are heard, amplified, and considered and that the value of owners is understood."

ECLIPSE STAKES ADDED TO WORLD POOL LINEUP

A World Pool race in 2021, but missing since, the 2024 G1 Eclipse S. is back in the World Pool lineup, the Hong Kong Jockey Club (HKJC) and World Pool announced on Friday.

The QIPCO Guineas meeting on May 4 and 5 featured the World Pool, with a full card of races on the Saturday, and the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas on the Sunday accumulating total turnover of HK$305,219,946 (approximately £31 million). Jockey Silvestre de Sousa, who rode Elmalka (GB) (Kingman {GB}) to victory in the fillies' Classic, currently leads the World Pool Jockeys' Championship, which sees the winning jockey of every World Pool race in the UK and Ireland accumulate points based on the World Pool dividend. Seven Questions (Ire) (Kodiac {GB})'s victory in the G3 Palace House S. earned the World Pool Moment of the Day award, with groom Darren Yellowlees being awarded a cheque for HK$40,000 (£4,000) and also gaining entry into the World Pool Moment of the Year competition for the opportunity to win a VIP trip to Hong Kong next year.

Michael Fitzsimons, executive director, wagering products, at the Hong Kong Jockey Club, said, "It was great to kick start World Pool's season in the UK with the first two British Classics of the season, and we're delighted to announce the reintroduction of the historic Eclipse S. from Sandown to our fixture list for this year.

"This year World Pool's global offering of races is stronger than ever and continues to grow with new fixtures from Ireland, Australia, South Africa and Germany added in the coming months, showing World Pool's commitment to delivering the world's best racing to customers across the globe."

The World Pool lineup over the next three months will offer a variety of betting opportunities with F standing for a full day's card, P is part of a meeting on selected races and S indicates a single race that day. Cont. p11

MISS RASCAL (GB) (f, 2, Havana Gold {Ire}--Litte Miss Rascal {GB}, by Zoffany {Ire}), an Apr. 17 debut sixth over this distance at Newmarket in her only prior start, broke sharply from the outside gate and seized an immediate lead here. In command throughout, the 5-6 favourite was shaken up passing the quarter-mile marker and lengthened clear under mild urging inside the final furlong to easily outpoint Naana's Diamond (Ire) (Invincible Army {Ire}) by an impressive three lengths. "She's a very, very good filly," insisted trainer Oliver Cole. "She hung slightly in that last furlong, but I believe they did the last furlong in 11-something seconds and she hit nearly 41 miles per hour. She's very quick. We thought it was a good opportunity to go to [Royal] Ascot and for her to see it. She behaved really well and it was the perfect prep run. I think she's exceptional and the [G2] Queen Mary will definitely be next, touch wood. Tom [Marquand] thought she was really smart." Miss Rascal is the lone reported foal out of an unraced half-sister to last term's G3 Ballysax S. and G3 Leopardstown Derby Trial runner-up Up And Under (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). The April-foaled bay's stakes-placed second dam Hibiscus (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is a full-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Line Of Duty (Ire) and dual Group 1-placed G3 Rathbride S. victrix Jackie Oh (Ire). Angled out for a clear passage off the home turn, the 7-1 chance was hustled along approaching the two pole and kept on strongly under continued rousing inside the final furlong to withstand the persistent threat of Queen Of Soldiers (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) by a head. Nakheel is the third of five foals and second scorer produced by stakes-winning GIII Megahertz S. third Into The Runner-up in the G2 Lowther S. at York and fourth in the G1 Cheveley Park S. last term, Cherry Blossom was reverting to sprinting having been seventh in Leopardstown's seven-furlong G3 Ballylinch Stud Priory Belle S. last month. Exuberant from the front, the €360,000 Goffs Orby yearling kicked decisively heading to the furlong pole and was not for catching from there.

Stable representative Chris Armstrong said, "She is a very quick filly, wants quick ground and five. It is great to get the listed win and with the sprint programme in Ireland being tricky, she might have to travel for group threes for fillies. It's onwards and upwards and that will be a nice confidence booster for her."

The winner is currently the last known foal out of the dam, a Juddmonte cast-off at the 2018 Tattersalls February Sale whose first was the G3 Prix la Rochette runner-up Lawmaking. She is a full-sister to the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and G1 Grand Prix de Paris-winning sire Rail Link (GB) and half to three other group scorers including Grand Lodge's G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte winner and G1 Prix Ganay third Chelsea Manor (GB).

ROCK N ROLL ROCKET (IRE) (c, 2, Far Above {Ire}--California Tee {GB}, by Kheleyf), was positioned in mid division after an alert getaway in this debut. Inching forward from halfway, the 16-1 chance came under pressure with a quarter-mile remaining and was ridden out inside the final furlong to deny Powerful Nation (Ire) (Sioux Nation) by a short-head nearing the line. "He was bred by Con [Marnane], which is great, and he'll now be nominated to head off to the [Listed] Windsor Castle or [G2] Norfolk [at Royal Ascot]," said trainer Jessica Harrington. "He absolutely loves that [good] ground and has to have it quick. He was professional today, but he'll definitely need another run before Ascot. I think he did it through ability rather than anything." Marnane added, "He is the first winner by the stallion and the first foal to run out of the mare as well, so if there are any more ones like this fella, we'll be delighted to have them. Far Above is a cheap stallion [€5,000], but was a very, very fast racehorse and was brilliant. Micheal Orlandi owns him and stands him [at Starfield Stud]." Rock N Roll Rocket is the second

ROMANTIC WARRIOR GETS GREEN LIGHT FOR YASUDA KINEN by Alan Carasso

Romantic Warrior | Horsephotos/Tomoya Moriuchi

Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who recently overcame a difficult trip and soggy underfoot conditions to win the G1 FWD QE II Cup (2000m) for the third consecutive year, will cut back to a mile for the June 2 G1 Yasuda Kinen at Tokyo Racecourse, trainer Danny Shum confirmed Friday.

"He will go to Japan," Shum told the Hong Kong Jockey Club's Leo Schlink. "He will leave around the 21st of May," and the conditioner is of the opinion that Romantic Warrior's recovery from the QE II Cup merits the decision.

"He should be okay--he can be better," Shum said.

A victory in the Yasuda Kinen, where he will be joined by G1 Stewards Cup winner Voyage Bubble (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}), would complete a season for the ages for Romantic Warrior. The 6-year-old began the campaign in Australia, finishing a useful fourth in the G1 Turnbull S. before prevailing in the G1 W. S. Cox Plate. He emerged from quarantine just in time to successfully defend his title in December's G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup, just holding out a resurgent Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), and defeated Voyage Bubble in the G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup in a battle of Hong Kong Derby heroes.

His margins of victory in his last four starts: nose, nose, neck, neck.

James McDonald, who has guided Romantic Warrior to seven wins from eight rides, will have the call in the Yasuda Kinen. Leading jockey Zac Purton takes the reins for trainer Ricky Yiu aboard Voyage Bubble.

In his most recent appearance over a mile, Romantic Warrior was beaten a length into second by Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) in the 2023 Stewards Cup. His only previous try over the distance resulted in a half-length defeat of California Spangle (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) in the 2022 Hong Kong Classic Mile.

The Japanese challenge for the Yasuda Kinen figures to include champion Jantar Mantar (Jpn) (Palace Malice), winner of the age-restricted G1 NHK Mile Cup over the course and distance May 5, and potentially Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}), a cracking second in the G1 Dubai Turf and the likely favourite in this weekend's G1 Victoria Mile at Japan racing headquarters.

The Yasuda Kinen is a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile at Del Mar this November.

ITBF CONFERENCE SET FOR TOKYO ON MAY 18-23

The International Thoroughbred Breeders' Federation (ITBF) biennial Conference will begin next weekend in Tokyo, Japan, the ITBF announced on Friday.

Lasting from May 18-23 and hosted by the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association (JBBA), the Conference will welcome roughly 70 delegates from 20 countries, plus organisations EFTBA and OSAF, as well as representatives from the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA). Significant breeding and racing industry issues will be raised during the general meeting, and reports given on ITBF's proactivity within both breeding and the wider Thoroughbred industries. There is also a veterinary conference, with one of the themes 'Biological Integrity of Thoroughbred Racehorses and Its Regulatory Challenges', presented by Dr. Teruaki Tozaki of the Japan Racing Association (JRA).

Delegates will be taken on a trip to Hokkaido to visit top stud farms, including Shadai Stallion Station, the Darley Japan Stallion Complex, and Shizunai Stallion Station. There will also be tours of the JRA Hidaka Training Farm and the Bloodhorse Training Centre. In addition, Tokyo's premier race meetings, the Japanese Oaks to begin the week, and the Japanese Derby after the meetings have ended, are also available to attend.

ITBF chairman, Kirsten Rausing said, "The ITBF much looks forward to its Conference in Japan. The location of our meeting is topical and relevant, as it highlights Japan's pivotal role in the contemporary Thoroughbred industry. The success of Japanese breeding and racing is a marvellous example to us all."

NAMUR RAZOR SHARP FOR VICTORIA MILE

The in-form Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) faces only 14 foes in the G1 Victoria Mile at Tokyo on Sunday, a "Win And You're In" qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Del Mar in November.

There won't be any safety nets for her rivals either, as the Carrot Farm runner has been extremely consistent of late, taking last October's G2 Fuji S. over her pet distance before showing her heels in open company in Kyoto's G1 Mile Championship a month later. A solid third to impressive yardstick Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile during the Hong Kong International Races in December, the now-5-year-old was only a desperate bob behind Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}) when second in the G1 Dubai Turf over 1800 metres at Meydan on Mar. 30.

Trainer Tomokazu Takano said, "Finishing second in the Dubai Turf was frustrating, but the race itself reminded me of her high potential and sense of presence. Her performance left no room for complaint whatsoever. I could feel from early on that this horse had a lot to offer, and everything has happened as I'd anticipated--the way she gains strength, the good condition when she goes into a race, thinking that if she would run at her own rhythm, she would be highly competitive in a Group 1.

"After returning to Japan and going through quarantine, she really had only the shortest number of days permitted (10) to train at the training center. I think she'll go to the gate in good shape." Cont. p17

Umbrail | Japan Racing Association

The other Group 1 winner in the field is Stunning Rose (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}), who took the 2022 edition of the Shuka Sho, but has been winless since. However, the Sunday Racing runner ran eighth in the G1 Osaka Hai on Mar. 31 versus males and was not beaten far.

“It [the Osaka Hai] wasn’t a big loss and I do think she showed her ability,” said Takano, who also trains Namur. “Last week, the jockey rode work and the emphasis was on the last furlong. With her last race as a sharpener, she showed improvement and is looking good physically and mentally. She should show ample improvement. I can’t say a mile suits her best, but I think she will do well at the wide-open Tokyo venue and this time it’s up against fillies and mares only. If she carries herself well-balanced and runs at her own rhythm, she should do fine.”

The progressive Masked Diva (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) is second choice in the markets so far, behind her rival, but has been knocking on the door of top company. A 4-year-old Shadai Race Horse representative, the filly won a Group 2 last September, before running superfilly Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) to a length in the G1 Shuka Sho, as that distaff luminary completed the Japanese Triple Tiara. Unplaced in the G3 Tokyo Shimbun Hai in February, Masked Diva was back in the winner’s circle after bulling her way through a tight spot in the G2 Hanshin Himba S. and fending off the menacing late charge of 2023 G1 NHK Mile Cup second Umbrail (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloo {Jpn}) with Moryana (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) third in early April.

Trainer Yasuyuki Tsujino said, “From the start of this year, she has continued to mature. She’s well filled out, looking sharp and I think she’s very near to her peak condition. Being a Group 1, the pace and the way the race unfolds is going to make for some tight running. I think it would be ideal if the race were to be just like her last one. It all comes down to whether she can break sharply.”

TYLER GAFFALIONE FINED $2,500 FOR DERBY RIDE ON SIERRA LEONE

by Bill Finley

Tyler Gaffalione has been fined $2,500 for his ride aboard Sierra Leone in Saturday's Kentucky Derby "for touching a rival with his left hand", according to a ruling issued by the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission (KHRC) Friday.

Gaffalione's agent Matt Muzikar declined to comment on the ruling and said Gaffalione has also decided to not comment on the situation.

FROM BROOKSTOWN FARM'S SOIL, AN OAK FLOURISHES by Katie Petrunyak

Judy Hicks will be the first to say that it's not the fanciest farm in Kentucky. The fences are not painted and the lawns are not perfectly manicured. But there is good soil at Brookstown Farm and there is plenty of it, enough to where no more than six of the 100 horses who reside there ever share the same pasture.

Hicks and her husband R.W. purchased the 600-acre property located just outside of Versailles in 1983 and since then, R.W. has been meticulous in fertilizing and re-seeding the pastures to ensure that the foals raised at Brookstown have the very best of the Bluegrass.

It's an idyllic place to raise a Thoroughbred. And it's now the birthplace of a Kentucky Oaks winner.

Hicks, the breeder of Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), liked the filly so well that she stayed in for a piece after Kenny McPeck bought her as a yearling for $40,000. Hicks joined the partnership of Brookdale Racing, Mark Edwards, and Magdalena Racing.

Last Friday was, to put it mildly, a day that Hicks will never forget as Thorpedo Anna took the lead early and never looked back to win the Kentucky Oaks. There was plenty of celebration and fanfare that evening, but by Saturday morning it was back to business as usual at Brookstown Farm. Cont., p3

"After a hearing before the board of stewards, Tyler Gaffalione is hereby fined $2,500 for touching a rival with his left hand nearing the finish line while aboard Sierra Leone in the 12th race at Churchill Downs on May 4, 2024," the stewards said Friday in their written ruling for the KHRC.

Sierra Leone bumped several times with the Japanese colt Forever Young (JPN) (Real Steel {JPN) in the stretch run as Gaffalione was unable to keep his mount from lugging in. Considering that there was only a nose separating the two at the wire, many believed that Sierra Leone could have been disqualified and placed third. However, the stewards failed to launch an inquiry and Ryusei Sakai, the rider of Forever Young did not claim foul. It has been reported that jockeys in Japan rarely place objections, believing that if there is an infraction in a race it will be caught by the stewards.

"He wanted to lean in today and made it a little difficult," Gaffalione said following the Derby. "I had a hard time keeping him straight and that definitely cost us. He gives you everything, very responsive but he loses concentration."

The Kentucky Horse Racing Commission issued a statement early in the week regarding the stretch run and the bumping.

"The stewards review every race in Kentucky live and by video replay before posting it official and they followed the same procedure for the 150th running of the Kentucky Derby," it read. "After conducting their standard review of the race, determining no further review or investigation was necessary to conclude there were no incidents that altered the finish of the race, and seeing there were no objections filed, the stewards posted the Kentucky Derby official."

"I had to take a mare to the breeding shed, so it was sort of like the reality hadn't sunk in yet even though I'm getting texts and phone calls and interviews and all this hurrah," Hicks explained.

Even by Wednesday, after she returned from yet another early morning trip to the breeding shed and sat down on her porch overlooking her farm's sprawling pastures to reflect on the weekend, Hicks was still at a loss for words.

"It has been surreal," she said. "I know it's a huge, huge deal and I am very excited."

A few months in, she realized the job was not for her when she came in one morning to find that the dog that had lived in one of the experimental cages had been reduced to various samples in jars and test tubes.

She moved on to an internship in Kentucky at Forest Retreat Farm and while she was there, she met Cecil Horne and Dr. Donald Applegate. They were looking for a farm manager for their Mint Springs Farm and Hicks quickly accepted the position.

"I started at the bottom of the ladder grooming yearlings and went on to become a farm manager in a matter of a year," Hicks recalled.

It was at Mint Springs Farm that Hicks met her husband, R.W.

When the pair purchased Brookstown Farm, they knew they had a lot of hard work ahead of them.

"It had nothing on it but a couple of old tobacco barns," said Hicks. "It had no water, no electric, no fencing, no pavement. R.W. and I put in three miles of water line by ourselves, built every fence and started raising horses."

Hicks started out focusing on boarding horses, but when one client did not pay their bills, she bought her first horse for $6 on the courthouse steps. Phoenix Sunshine (Encino) was raised at Brookstown and went on to become a four-time stakes winner and then a successful broodmare.

One of her daughters, Shining Victory (Victory Gallop), is the granddam of Grade I winner Newgate (Into Mischief) and Grade II victress Denim and Pearls (Into Mischief). Another one of Shining Victory's daughters produced My Majestic Rose (Majestic Warrior), who was one of the best fillies that Hicks campaigned herself. The homebred won the GII Summertime Oaks in 2019, but broke down in training shortly after.

When Hicks had another client who would not pay their bills, she purchased Miss Pink Diva (Dunkirk) for $10. The filly was runner-up in the 2016 Locust Grove S., but broke down in her next start in the GI Spinster S.

"So down at my pond there are two grave sites and they are growing some big, beautiful oak trees," said Hicks.

"I love the highs," she added. "But I hate the lows because the lows are very low."

But as Hicks has learned, with every crossroad comes an opportunity, and sometimes a seemingly impossible situation can turn into a beautiful story.

The Mare Who Was Never Supposed to Live

In January of 2015, a client's mare foaled an extremely premature filly by Uncle Mo. Hicks volunteered to take the feeble foal off the client's hands, not knowing if the youngster would even survive because her lungs were so underdeveloped that it was unclear if they could function properly.

Luckily Sataves, the dam of Thorpedo Anna, did survive. While her fight to live in those early days affected her conformational development and prevented her from ever becoming a racehorse, she turned out to be a pretty good broodmare.

"She took several years to grow up," said Hicks. "She's got the body of Uncle Mo, but the legs of a pony. She is not very big, but it doesn't seem to change or affect the genes."

Sataves's first foal Charlee O (Tourist) was a $5,000 yearling RNA in 2020. Hicks retained the filly, who won on debut at Belmont at 30-1 odds and earned over $100,000.

For Sataves's next mating, Hicks decided to send her to Fast Anna, who was standing at Three Chimneys for just $10,000.

"I like to pick stallions on their physical," Hicks explained. "I may use all the bookwork--the Goldmine, the TrueNicks--but that's just secondary. It was hard to think he would be a good physical for Sataves because Sataves is sort of out of whack [in her conformation]. But I thought she would cross very well with Fast Anna, a son of Medaglia d'Oro, and it worked." Cont.

Thorpedo Anna is from the final crop of Fast Anna, who succumbed to laminitis only a few days after Thorpedo Anna was foaled in late January. From her early days at Brookstown, the filly was a crackerjack.

“She had a mind of her own,” Hicks explained. “She didn’t want her feet trimmed. She didn’t want to have vaccinations. She was pretty opinionated. She didn’t get her way, so she did settle down after a while. My nightwatch person took her on and was very good with her. She calmed her down and made her behave.”

From the handful of her own foals that Hicks produces every year, she aims to sell them all but oftentimes ends up retaining or at least staying in for a piece of some of them. Thankfully Charlee O and Thorpedo Anna were two fillies she decided to keep and she has also retained a piece of Sataves’s third foal McAfee. The 2-year-old colt by Cloud Computing was bought for $40,000 by Maddie Mattmiller at the Keeneland September Sale.

Last year Sataves’s foal did not survive foaling due to a case of hydrops—a condition characterized by an over-accumulation of fluid in the placenta—but this year the mare produced a filly by Known Agenda.

The foal arrived in the middle of March when threats of tornados and wind storms were popping up across Central Kentucky. One night the wind was howling and Hicks was fighting to keep the barn from flooding, but when the storm finally stopped, Sataves laid down and foaled. Hicks does not normally name her foals, but she decided to call this one After the Storm.

An Oaks to Remember

The confidence McPeek had in his ‘TDN Rising Star’ Thorpedo Anna was no secret, with the news of his comment about bringing a grizzly to the Oaks spreading like wildfire in the days leading up to the big event.

Meanwhile Hicks was relieved when the last of the mares due to foal at Brookstown this year produced a healthy foal three days before the Oaks. The breeder was in the clear to make an unforgettable trip to Louisville on Friday and watch her filly cross the wire first just before the heavens opened up over Churchill Downs.

“Kenny was pretty sure she was going to win if she got a good start,” she said. “He knew she was going to win. And the way she ran, it was hard to contain myself. My tears were flowing. It was just unbelievable, but believable because we know how good she is.”

From a broodmare band of eight mares and off a $10,000 stud fee, Hicks produced a Classic winner.

“Everything just fell into place the right way,” she said with a shrug. “Now walking outside I have this feeling of fulfillment because of what I’ve done. But I don’t feel like it’s anything out of the ordinary. I mean, I’m still having to say, ‘Hey, get it in your head that this really happened!’ It’s special and it’ll be an occasion I will remember for the rest of my life.”

Hicks has a lot to look forward to in the coming months as McPeek has said that Thorpedo Anna will likely point toward the GI Acorn S. on June 7 before the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and the GI Alabama S. But the horsewoman is also just as excited about what she has going on at her farm.

Charlee O retired from racing this spring and has been bred to Bolt d’Oro. Meanwhile Sataves, who is only nine years old, has been bred to Gun Runner.

Besides upgrading the class of stallion that Sataves will be visiting in the coming years, Hicks won't be changing much about her own lifestyle or her breeding program. Life at Brookstown Farm doesn't slow down even after producing a Kentucky Oaks victress and Hicks wouldn't have it any other way.

"I live and breathe the horses and I have my dogs," she reflected. "I come in my front gate and I leave everything behind me because, as we all know, the Thoroughbred business can be tough. I just enjoy my life. I enjoy my animals. I work very hard. I foal everything and I take every mare to the breeding shed myself."

"I don't want to retire," she continued. "People say, 'When are you going to retire, Judy?' I say, 'What would I do then? I love what I do.' I feel that I run a good operation. It's not fancy, but it does seem to work."

PETER PAN HEADLINES SATURDAY'S STACKED BELMONT AT AQUEDUCT CARD

Last year's champion 3-year-old colt Arcangelo (Arrogate) captured the GIII Peter Pan S. before adding top-level victories in the GI Belmont S. and the GI Travers S.

A scratched-down field of six is expected to line up for Saturday's renewal of the Peter Pan at Aqueduct, which serves as the local prep for the final leg of the Triple Crown, which will be held at Saratoga and run at 1 1/4 miles June 8.

'TDN Rising Star' Deterministic (Liam's Map), a fantastic winner of the one-turn mile GIII Gotham S. Mar. 2 while making his first start since an eye-catching debut victory at Saratoga last summer, will look to make amends for a head-scratching eighth as the 4-5 favorite in the GII Wood Memorial S. Apr. 6.

Deterministic | Sarah Andrew

"We were a little bit puzzled," said Christophe Clement, who saddled Tonalist (Tapit) to wins in the 2014 Peter Pan and Belmont. "We did all sorts of tests. He came back and he's trained well. Saturday's work was a spectacular work. He's had three works since the Wood."

The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso), a game second in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland last fall, kicked off his sophomore season with a second-place finish in the GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. Apr. 13.

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher will be represented by Antiquarian (Preservationist), sixth in the GII Twinspires.com Louisiana Derby Mar. 23; and the maiden of three starts Protective (Medaglia d'Oro), a longshot third after early trouble in the Wood Memorial.

MyRacehorse's Straight No Chaser (Speightster), a smashing winner of last spring's GIII Maryland Sprint S., will make his highly anticipated return on the undercard in the GIII Runhappy S.

Trained by Juan Landeros, assistant to conditioner Dan Blacker who is currently serving a suspension, he's been working bullets at Santa Anita for his return, including a five-furlong move in :59 1/5 (1/40) Apr. 27.

"We're just trying to map out the best plan for him with a goal to make a run at the Breeders' Cup Sprint this year," said Joe Moran, Racing Manager of MyRacehorse. "That was our goal last year and his campaign got cut short. He seems fit and ready. We're expecting a pretty good effort off the layoff."

For more on Straight No Chaser's time away from the races, click here for a recent interview with Blacker.

Saturday's 11-race program at the Big A also includes the GII Man O' War S., featuring MGISW Nations Pride (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}); and the GIII Beaugay S.

MCPEEK TO MAKE PREAKNESS DECISION FOR MYSTIK DAN SATURDAY

Kenny McPeek's final decision on GI Kentucky Derby-winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents)'s Preakness appearance should come Saturday after training at Churchill Downs and post-discussion with the owners.

The Derby hero went through a second day of galloping beneath the Twin Spires Friday morning under Robby Albarado and will likely pick up the pace Saturday morning. Jockey Brian Hernandez Jr. will have other mounts Preakness weekend and will be riding at Pimlico regardless of the final choice.

"Another steady day, another good day. Robby was happy. [Mystik Dan] ate up. We'll discuss it in depth tomorrow [Saturday]," said McPeek.

"We usually walk Sundays. When I say more, just a nice gallop, maybe let him stretch a little down the lane. Nothing complicated. Only what he wants to do."

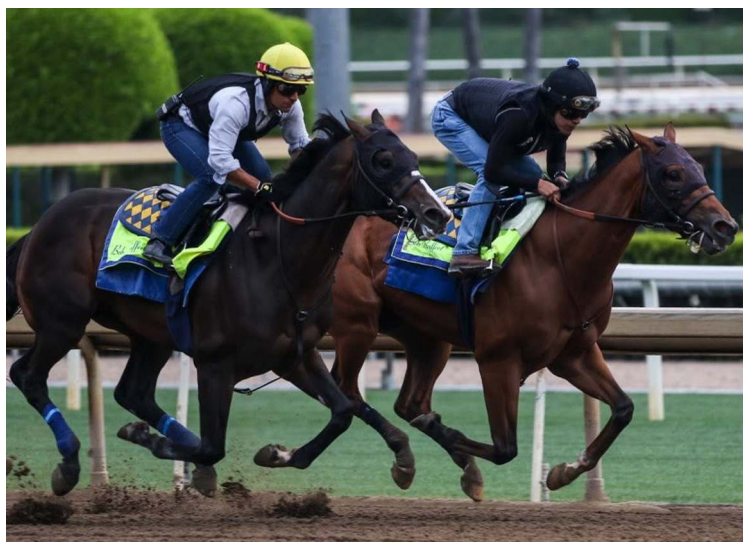

Albarado said, "Every day is a progression for [Mystik Dan]. He'll get back in his rhythm soon. He's so easy to predict. I knew after the first day that the second day's better, the third day. He felt really good. All his leads were on point. He enjoyed being out there."

MUTH, IMAGINATION HAVE FINAL PREAKNESS WORKS

Each slated for a tilt in Preakness 149 May 18, MGISW Muth (Good Magic) and GSW & GISP Imagination (Into Mischief) worked six furlongs in company Friday morning at Santa Anita.

Officially clocked in 1:11.90, Bob Baffert liked what he saw from the pair and mentioned he was still deciding if any other horses would join his Preakness hopefuls on the trip over to Pimlico, but that he'd wait until entry day to make a final decision. If everything goes to plan, both are scheduled to ship to Baltimore Tuesday, May 14.

Imagination and Muth (rail) | Benoit

"[Muth and Imagination] looked good. They stayed together like last week. It was a nice, workmanlike work. I was happy with it."

Said move May 4 was clocked in 1:11.40 and the co-fastest of five on the morning. Muth comes into the GI Preakness S. off a victory in the GI Arkansas Derby and was the 7-2 favorite for the second jewel in last weekend's Preakness Stakes Future Wager while Imagination closed at 17-1. The latter was beaten a neck in the GI Santa Anita Derby by GI Kentucky Derby-seventh GISW Stronghold (Ghostzapper).

The post position draw for the Preakness is Monday, May 13 at 2:30 p.m.

REPOLE STRIKES FOR ORFEVRE FILLY AT JAPANESE 2YO SALE

by Alan Carasso

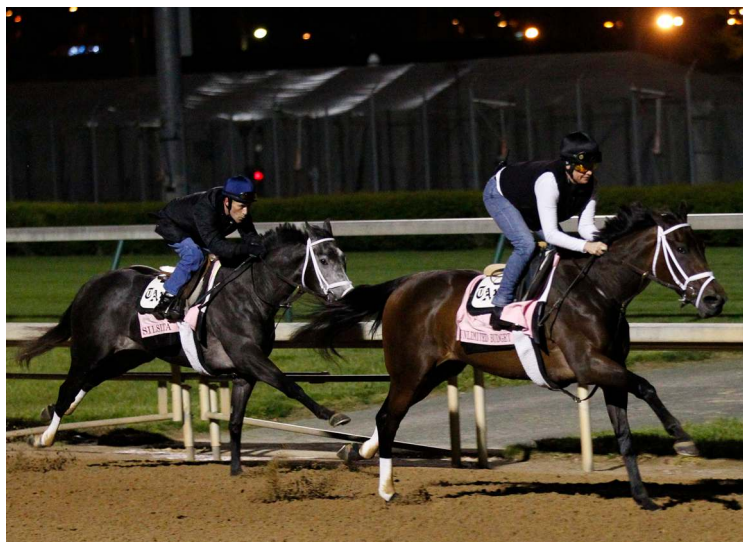

Prominent owner Mike Repole dipped a toe into Japanese public sales for the first time Friday, paying ¥33 million ($211,794) for a 2-year-old filly by the outstanding Orfevre (Jpn) at the Chiba Thoroughbred Sale.

Foaled on Valentine's Day in 2022, the bay was bred by Shadai Farm and is out of Unlimited Budget (Street Sense), making this something of a full-circle moment for the owner.

"We've been studying the Japanese pedigrees for months now. We recently purchased two Deep Impact (Jpn) mares," Repole explained. "This purchase was just another opportunity with more to come. I raced the mare Unlimited Budget. She was a multiple graded stakes horse."

Repole gave $475,000 for Unlimited Budget, a Florida-bred half-sister to GIII Schuylerville S. winner and GI Spinaway S. runner-up Jardin (Montbrook), at the 2012 OBS March Sale and she became a 'TDN Rising Star' with a 9 1/2-length debut romp at Aqueduct before adding that year's GII Demoiselle S.

The bay carried her juvenile form into the first half of her 3-year-old season, winning the GIII Rachel Alexandra S. and GII Fair Grounds Oaks ahead of a third to her upset-minded stablemate Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) and Beholder (Henny Hughes) in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Runner-up in the GIII Rampart S. in 2014, Unlimited Budget retired with earnings of better than $758,000 and was purchased by Shadai for $1.3 million at that year's Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Since her import, Unlimited Budget has produced three winners from five starters.

Unlimited Budget working with stablemate Silsita ahead of the 2013 Oaks | Reed Palmer

“The Japanese approach to building their bloodstock over the last three decades has been really strategic and now you see it paying dividends all over the world,” Repole said. “I’m really excited to get into their sales in the coming months and hopefully find some nice prospects. For now, we will have to bring them back to the U.S., but it would be awesome to race in Japan one day.”

Winner of the Japanese Triple Crown and the country's Horse of the Year in 2011, Orfevre is best remembered as a racehorse for the 2012 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, when he looked all but certain to give Japan a coveted first win in Europe's top weight-for-age contest before hanging in through the final stages and dropping a neck decision.

He is the sire to date of 27 black-type winners, 21 at the group/graded level and of those, four at the highest level.

Though one might expect his progeny to excel on the grass, the 16-year-old Orfevre has proved surprisingly--perhaps shockingly--successful with his dirt runners, including G1 Dubai World Cup hero Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) and Marche Lorraine (Jpn), longshot and landmark winner of the G1 Breeders' Cup Distaff in 2021. His additional dirt winners at group level include Justin (Jpn), whose dam was by Gone West; Lagom (Jpn), a son of 2014 GIII Fantasy S. victress Sugar Shock (Candy Ride {Arg}); and Gilded Mirror (Jpn), produced by an imported daughter of Tiznow.

The experience has been an eye-opener, Repole said.

“I loved the transparency--the reserve is public, all of the veterinary information and scans are available online, so it was very comfortable for us to participate,” he said. “The reserve being public is brilliant. I'd like to think we could learn from this and help build more confidence in our own sales processes going forward.”

The sale was led by a filly from the first crop of the expatriated undefeated 'TDN Rising Star' Nadal (Blame), who fetched a top price of ¥121 million ($776,941).

OAKLAWN'S 2024-2025 LIVE RACING SCHEDULE TO INCLUDE ADDITIONAL DATES

The Arkansas Racing Commission unanimously approved 65 dates for Oaklawn Park's 2024-2025 racing season Monday morning and three additional December dates as well as another holiday Monday highlight the schedule, Oaklawn Park officials announced via presser Friday.

Set to start Dec. 6 and run until May 3, the season will again be conducted primarily Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. It was tweaked from last season due to calendar changes and business trends including a dark day Apr. 20 in observance of Easter and Feb. 9 being dropped on account of the Super Bowl. Thursdays in March and April were also omitted and the Dec. 20-22 dates fall immediately before Christmas; Oaklawn had previously been dark on that race week.

“Arkansas and Oaklawn lead the nation in a lot of things innovative,” Oaklawn president Louis Cella said. “Our fans respond to weekend racing. When you look at other tracks, their non-weekend days are very slow. We're hearing many tracks are going to follow suit. Unfortunately, I think that's just horse racing. But that doesn't mean you can't have big, great race weekends, as you saw in our season this year.”

Oaklawn will also race Jan. 20 on the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday; Feb. 17 on Presidents' Day; and will not have racing on New Year's Eve or New Year's Day as they fall on Tuesday and Wednesday, which normally are dark days. Cont.

THANK YOU

Churchill Downs would like to thank the horsemen and horsewomen who participated in this year's Derby Week and made the 150th Kentucky Derby the most thrilling event in sports!

 CHURCHILL DOWNS

There had been cards exclusively for 2-year-olds on New Year's Eve for the last two years and the Smarty Jones S. had been contested New Year's Day for the last three.

While nothing has been set in stone, Cella did mention in the presser that making the Smarty Jones a Kentucky Derby points race for 2-year-olds was on the table.

"That's a possibility," Cella said. "You flip them. You have a 2-year-old day, but you just stack up the stakes."

GI Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents) finished fifth in the 2024 running of the Smart Jones S. before returning to win the Gill Southwest S. and run third in the GI Arkansas Derby en route to claiming his rose blanket. GI Kentucky Oaks victress Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) won the GII Fantasy S. on her way to the lilies in 2024.

NOLAN RAMSEY SADDLES FIRST WINNER FRIDAY AT GULFSTREAM PARK

Nolan Ramsey, the longtime assistant to Mike Maker who went out on his own in April, saddled his first winner as a trainer Friday at Gulfstream Park when the 3-year-old Marshamarshamarsha (Demarchelier {GB}) won a $16,000 claimer by 1 3/4 lengths.

Owned by his grandfather Ken Ramsey, the filly picked up her second career win with the effort after coming three-wide into the lane. The trainer has assembled a 30-strong stable in Hallandale, and has plans to train a small string in the mid-Atlantic.

"It's special. It's the first one. It's great to get off the duck. It's nice doing it for family too," said Ramsey, who was doused with water by a stable employee in celebration. He started hotwalking for Maker when he was 14-years-old.

"I wouldn't be here without him [Ken Ramsey]."

Nolan Ramsey | Ryan Thompson

"My love for the horses and horseracing all came from him. I remember watching the races when I was 5 or 6. He taught me how to handicap and started bringing me around the horses. Without my grandparents I wouldn't be here. To get where I've been and being able to knock off the first one for the family, that's really special."

Ramsey added of his time with Maker, "I was very grateful to work for Mike. The thing about Mike is he has all the horses. He has the Grade Is; he's got the starter allowances; he's got the 'nickel' claimers. You learn a lot from those horses."

SISTER TO MANAMA GOLD, OVA CHARGED ADDED TO FASIG-TIPTON MAY DIGITAL

Charged Temp (Star Guitar), a full-sister to 'TDN Rising Star' GSW Manama Gold and 13-time winner GSW Ova Charged, has been added to the Fasig-Tipton May Digital sale as HIP 42, announced the auction house via release Friday.

A four-time winner herself, Charged Temp is offered in foal with her first offspring by GISW Arabian Lion (Justify) on a 2024 cover. She hails from an active female line as her dam SW Charged Cotton (Dehere) is a half to MSW & GSP Walkwithapurpose (Candy Ride {Arg}), whose daughter Regulatory Risk (Omaha Beach) recently ran third in the GI Longines Kentucky Oaks. That mare has also produced SW Where Paradise Lay (Into Mischief) and SP Whispering Pines (Uncle Mo). This is also the family of MGISW Schossberg as well as Canadian champion juvenile colt MGSW Conquest Typhoon.

ROYAL BREEZE RACING REMAINS BULLISH ON MASSACHUSETTS BREEDING AND RACING

by Bill Finley

Royal Breeze Racing, a racing and breeding operation located in Harvard, Massachusetts, owns two Mass-breds, a yearling by Frosted and a weanling by Beau Liam. That may not seem like a lot but when you consider that only five horses were foaled in the state between 2021 and 2023, Royal Breeze has become a leader in an industry still trying to figure out how to stay afloat when there are no racetracks in the state. The last one left was Suffolk Downs, which has not raced since 2019.

"We'd rather be big fish in a small pond than a little fish in a big pond," said Royal Breeze's owner and farm manager Carol Casella.

While there are no longer any racetracks in Massachusetts, there are plenty of incentives to breed in the state as the Massachusetts Thoroughbred Breeders Association has put together a unique bonus system. A Massachusetts-bred is eligible for lucrative bonus payments.

The program offers bonuses payments to Massachusetts-breds when they compete at any racetrack in North America.

Here's how it works:

*A supplemental incentive of $10,000 is added to the purse of any unrestricted race in which a Mass-bred horse is entered at a licensed pari-mutuel race meeting authorized by the state racing commission.

*This supplemental incentive will be distributed as follows: 60%, 20%, 10%, 5%, 3% and 2% to the first six finishers.

*Additionally, breeders (25%), owners (10%), stallion owners (15%), and 'developers' (the horse's first owner of record, 20%) earn awards based on the race's purse, on top of any money they might win in the race. That developer award protects people who go through the trouble of breeding a Mass-bred only to see it claimed away because of the incentives.

Dr Blarney, even at age 11, is the pride of the Massachusetts breeding program. Still active, he has made $788,173 on the racetrack plus an additional $181,338 in Mass-bred bonuses.

Out of her 30 horses, including mares, yearlings, and foals, Casella is lucky to have two Mass-breds. The yearling by Frosted was a twin and veterinarians advised her to terminate the pregnancy.

Carol Casella of Royal Breeze Thoroughbreds

courtesy Carol Casella

"When we got the mare back from Kentucky they hadn't caught that it was a twin," she said. "They were identical twins on top of one another. My vet wanted to terminate the pregnancy and I said absolutely not--not after I've spent a fortune sending the mare down to Kentucky to breed. Then I found a vet at Tufts and he was able to save one of them."

Like most who have been around New England racing for a long time, Casella can remember when the sport thrived in the area, when there was Suffolk Downs, Rockingham Park, Lincoln Downs, Narragansett, Green Mountain, Scarborough Downs and several fair tracks in Massachusetts. She knows that the glory days will never return to New England, but she wants to do her part to keep a flicker of a flame alive. That's why she has been courting New England-based owners who walked away after Suffolk closed but might want to get back into the game.

Among the horses they have now on the farm are 2024 foals by Nashville, Beau Liam and Mind Control; yearlings by Frosted, Jimmy Creed, Catholic Boy, Daredevil and Tiz the Law; and two-year-olds by Keen Ice and Gift Box.

"We are putting all of our efforts into the Mass program to see it develop and grow," she said. "We are trying to get more Massachusetts people involved," she said. "I want to raise them, race them and the bring them home when their careers are over and make sure they get a good home. This is my home state. It will be great to participate with a Mass-bred and we'd love to do more. What happened to all the people from Suffolk Downs? Where did they all go? Even the bettors? We need to get these people back involved in the sport.

"There are a lot of people in Massachusetts who would like to be involved. That's why we're trying to reach out to people in Massachusetts. Some of the people don't know what's happening with the bonuses. It would be great to get them involved. We have to get the word out to people in Massachusetts and all over New England. We think there's a lot of people who would love to get involved again. We have some quality horses by good sires. We want to breed quality and enjoy it and want other people to enjoy it."

Her goal is to keep the partnerships small.

“We try to do small partnerships so people are real owners,” she said. “We don’t want it to be the type of situation you get with the microshares. We want two or three people in on a horse. That way they are real owners. They get their owner’s license, they get all the owner’s privileges.”

There is talk that Massachusetts may soon enter into a program similar to what they have in Delaware and Virginia, where horses born in other states can be accredited Massachusetts breds as long as they spend a minimum of three months in the state. That could provide a huge boost to the Massachusetts program. If so, virtually all of Royal Breeze Racing’s horses would be certified Mass. breds.

Royal Breeze is one of the few remaining thoroughbred farms anywhere in New England. Casella would welcome some competition, knowing what that would mean--that there is some life after all to the Massachusetts breeding program.

SUNRISE AT OLD HILLTOP HIGHLIGHTS PREAKNESS WEEK FESTIVITIES

Sunrise at Old Hilltop, an event which offers fans a chance to take a behind-the-scenes walking tour of Pimlico Race Course, will once again be part of the Preakness week lineup in 2024, it was announced via presser Friday.

Admission is free to the tours--which run on a first-come, first-served basis between 6:00 and 9:00 a.m. from Tuesday, May 14 through Friday, May 17--and patrons can sign up at the registration tent on the track apron. It will not be required to register ahead of time in order to take a tour. Cont.

Safety Net Foundation

In addition to enjoying the sunrise, fans will watch horses work on the track before meeting them up close; meet and greet horsemen; and learn some Preakness history. Tours begin with a jockey demonstration and stops along the way include the jockeys' room, the Pimlico stakes barn, and a visit to the track blacksmith, concluding inside the grandstand for a discussion on aftercare with representatives from Beyond The Wire, the Thoroughbred Makeover Project, and the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance.

Parking for the Sunrise at Old Hilltop tours is in the Rogers Avenue lot at the intersection of Northern Parkway and Woodcrest Avenue. Fans are encouraged to arrive early as spots fill up quickly. The lot will be closed and locked promptly at 10 a.m. More information can be found on the Preakness website.

AAEP PROJECT FOR WEARABLE BIOMETRIC SENSOR DEVELOPMENT ADVANCES Edited Press Release

The American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP) requests participation from Thoroughbred trainers and owners in the research phase of the AAEP's initiative to assist with the implementation of wearable biometric sensors to improve early detection of musculoskeletal injuries.

In November 2023, the AAEP Racing Committee released a Request for Proposal (RFP) soliciting proposals from applicants for a joint project involving the development and application of wearable biometric sensor technologies that would be employed on all Thoroughbreds for all races and recorded workouts in the U.S.

From 12 submissions received in response, six companies have been invited to submit a full-scale proposal detailing their implementation plan for meeting the AAEP's requirements for the "proof of principle," or validation phase, of the initiative.

At least 600 two-year-olds are needed for the study | Sarah Andrew

Each company moving forward in the process has been asked to recruit 100 two-year-old Thoroughbreds to wear their sensor from Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 2025. Data will be collected on each horse during this period and analyzed to determine accuracy of the sensor.

Due to the large number of two-year-olds in training and racing that will be required to successfully test six unique sensors, the AAEP encourages racing managers to consider participating in this effort as sensor manufacturers begin recruiting horses for the project.

"We are very excited for the next phase as it brings the sport much closer to utilizing this emerging technology as another important tool in injury detection and prevention," said Dr. Sara Langsam, AAEP Racing Committee chair. "This effort benefits the entire industry, and we hope trainers and owners will embrace the opportunity to participate."

For more information, contact Sally Baker, AAEP director of marketing and public relations, at sbaker@aaep.org.

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS:

by J.N. Campbell

Covfefe | Sarah Andrew

CHAMPION COVFEFE'S FIRST TO RACE UNVEILED AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

11th-CD, $120K, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2f, 5:58 p.m. ET.

LNJ Foxwoods campaigned champion female sprinter Covfefe (Into Mischief), whose first registered foal ELLEN JAY (Constitution)--also trained by Brad Cox--will bear the gold and royal blue colors for her unveiling under the Twin Spires.

A half-sister to Japanese multiple group stakes winner Albiano (Harlan's Holiday), Covfefe is also responsible for 2-year-old colt in-training Rothko (Tapit) and she has a new filly on the ground by Gun Runner. TJCS PPS

3rd-BAQ, $75K, Msw, (S), 3yo/up, 1m, 1:34 p.m. ET.

Gold Square went to $600,000 at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York Bred Yearling Sale--the second highest return at the auction--to acquire Forgone (Hard Spun). Out of an unraced dam, the colt is a half-brother to MGISP Wonder Gal (Tiz Wonderful), who produced champion 2-year-old filly Wonder Wheel (Into Mischief). The Chad Summers trainee is also from the family of MGSW Social Queen (Dynaformer) and her son GISW Force the Pass (Speightstown). TJCS PPS

3rd-MTH, $52K, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:52 p.m. ET.

Opening day at the Jersey Shore will include Colts Neck Stables homebred No Tricks (Into Mischief). The Jorge Duarte-trained filly is out of GI Ballerina S. heroine Dance to Bristol (Speightstown). TJCS PPS

CHASING THE CROWN (h, 5, Skipshot--La Belle Marquet, by Marquetry) won facing optional claimers over the turf in New Orleans Jan. 20, then was a close fifth in the Gill Fair Grounds S. Feb. 17. The even-money choice here broke alertly from the outside gate and was able to take up a spot in fourth into the first turn. On hold under an honest pace up the backstretch, the chestnut launched a three-wide bid around the far turn, flashed even more gears down the lane and won by 2 1/4 lengths over Camp Hope (Summer Front). The winner is a full-brother to Vasilika, MGISW, $1,882,595. La Belle Marquet produced a filly by Uncle Mo, who is now a 2-year-old. She gave Chasing Crown a full-brother last year and was once again bred to his sire for this spring. Sales History: $170,000 RNA Ylg '20 FTKSEL; $285,000 2yo '21 FTFMAR. Clm ($100,000), 5-10, 3yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:43.14, fm, 5 1/2 lengths. WHISKEY DECISION (f, 3, Into Mischief--Funny Song, by Distorted Humor) finished just off the board in her debut at Turfway Park in mid-February, but graduated with flying colors by 6 1/2 lengths over the same surface a month later. Looking to keep the momentum going as a 9-2 shot here, the homebred set up shop on the outside in mid-pack into the first turn. The 3-year-old waited patiently up the backstretch and got underway as the far turn arrived. Displaying some strong foot at the top of the lane, the filly zoomed to the front past the eighth pole and got her picture taken once again after a 5 1/2-length score over Ragtime Lady (Mendelssohn). The winner's dam produced the filly Bridgeport (More Than Read), who is now a 2-year-old, and she foaled a filly by Not This Time last year. A half-sister to the dam of SW/GISP Moon Over Miami (Malibu Moon), Funny Song was bred back to Not This Time for the spring. Whiskey Decision's third dam is responsible for MGISW Music Note (A.P. Indy), the dam of G1 Dubai World Cup hero and sire Mystic Guide (Ghostzapper). Sales History: $230,000 RNA Ylg '22 KEESEP; $150,000 RNA Ylg '22 FTKOCT. OCEAN GATEWAY (f, 4, Tonalist--Hantaloop, by Giant's Causeway) won her previous three races at the Big A while facing claiming, starter allowance and optional claiming company from January to March. As a 'main-track only' entry here, the filly faced only two others in a scratched-down field. The 3-5 choice grabbed the lead up the backstretch and she began to turn up the heat around the far turn. Running down the center of the course, the homebred cruised to a four-length score over Towhead (Malibu Moon). The winner's dam produced a filly named Perky (Kitten's Joy), who is now a 2-year-old, and she foaled a colt by Daredevil last year. Hantaloop was not bred for this spring. SOHANA (f, 3, Solomini--Passeporta, by Rockport Harbor), third in the local New York Stallion S. Apr. 14, took care of business as the 3-2 favorite here with a 2 1/2-length wire-to-wire tally. Tough Love Torres (Kantharos) was second. The winner's dam is also represented by a 2-year-old Solomini filly, a yearling filly by Instagram and a Solomini colt of this year. JUNIOR HOT SHOT (c, 3, Souper Speedy--Executive Dreamer, by Bold Executive) broke his maiden at first asking by 6 1/2 lengths facing open maiden claiming company in Toronto Oct. 1 and then was third there in the Frost King S. against Canadian bred at the end of the month. Coming off the six-month break heavily backed at the windows at 4-5, the dark bay broke on top, but was quickly taken back towards the rear of the field up the backstretch. The colt waited to make his move around the far turn, but it was not until the top of the lane that he began to let loose. Once the 3-year-old began to roll, he took the lead at the sixteenth pole and won by 1 1/4 lengths over Yacht Boy (Old Forester). A full-sister to GSW Blonde Executive and MSW Main Executive, the winner's unraced dam is responsible for 2-year-old colt Bennys Jets (Shaman Ghost) and a yearling full-brother to Junior Hot Shot. She was bred back to that same sire for this term. Lifetime Record: SP, 3-2-0-1, $59,899. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

5th-Churchill Downs, $121,125, Msw, 5-10, 3yo/up, 1 1/8mT, 1:50.43, fm, 4 lengths.

WEST HOLLYWOOD (c, 3, Uncle Mo--White Hot {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) began his career in Roger Varian's yard, where he debuted in fourth place over the all-weather at Kempton Park in early January. Making the switch stateside to Brad Cox, the dark bay raced with Lasix as a 7-2 shot here. The 3-year-old broke quickly and settled in behind the pacesetter heading into the first turn. Raring to take on the frontrunner, the colt was let loose around the far turn and sported a strong turn of foot down the lane, despite bumping briefly with the leader. In the end, West Hollywood spurred away to win by lengths over Fort Thomas (War Front). The winner is a half-brother to Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), GISW-USA, GISP-Can, $792,947, who was purchased last fall at the Fasig-Tipton Mixed Sale for $3 million by John Stewart.

AORAKI (f, 2, Dominus--Mountain Music, by Maclean's Music) was sent on her inaugural voyage as a 9-2 shot here. The chestnut hesitated at the start, but once she found her footing, the 2-year-old began to make headway up the backstretch. Fanning three wide around the turn, the Steve Asmussen trainee found her best stride past the eighth pole and motored home by 1 3/4 lengths over Flaming Glory (Flameaway). Her dam's first registered foal, the winner has a pair of younger half-sisters--one by Mor Spirit, now a yearling, and another by Idol, who was foaled Apr. 6. Mountain Music is a half-sister to the dam of MGSW A.P. Warrior (A.P. Indy). Sales History: $11,000 Ylg '23 KEEJAN. UNMATCHED WISDOM (c, 3, Cairo Prince--Glide On By, by Pure Prize), a $25,000 KEESEP yearling turned $450,000 OBSMAR breeder, kicked off his career with a sharp debut score going a one-turn mile in the Aqueduct mud. Overlooked at 6-1, he forced the issue from an outside second through early fractions of :23.26 and :46.53. He turned up the heat on the far turn, kicked for home as the one to catch and had 6 1/4 lengths over favored Military Road (Quality Road) at the wire. The winner's dam had a filly by Classic Empire in 2023 and was bred back to Cairo Prince. PHOEBEINWONDERLAND (f, 2, More Than Ready--Nominate, by Palace Malice) debuted against the boys as the heavy favorite here. The 4-5 shot tracked Out On Bail (Tiz the Law) up the backstretch and caught up to her target around the far turn. Finding more down the lane, the juvenile accelerated with less than a sixteenth left and won by 3/4 of a length. The winner is her unraced dam's first registered foal, but she does have a half-sister by Army Mule, who was born Apr. 17. Backed as the 7-2 choice here, the gelding missed the break, but he did not let that spoil the day. Rallying from the back around the far turn, the homebred hugged the rail, then suddenly tipped to the outside at the top of the lane. Final Denile skimmed through the mud and got the job done by 1 3/4 lengths over Z Dancer (War Dancer). The winner is his dam's second to race and last recorded foal. THE FIRST & ONLY
THE LIFE & CAREER OF D. WAYNE LUKAS

“Wayne Lukas’s attention to detail and his ability to manage the people in his employ as well as the horses in his care made it possible for him to successfully operate multiple divisions of his stable at many different racetracks across the country. That, along with the inherent instinct to see the positive in almost any situation enabled him to revolutionize Thoroughbred racing and set records that lasted for decades.” —Hall of Fame jockey Jerry Bailey
