

'I LIVED OUT MY DREAM' - KING LOOKING FORWARD TO NEW CHAPTER AS A TRAINER

Connor King | Racingphotos.com

By Brian Sheerin

Do you want to feel old? It's over a decade since a baby-faced Connor King burst onto the scene in Ireland and landed Champion Flat Apprentice titles in 2013 and 2015.

King rode winners for some of the biggest names in the sport but his career on the Flat was cruelly cut short when he started to fill into his massive frame. In short, nature took its course. Cont. p3

KING OF STEEL RULED OUT OF SUMMER TARGETS DUE TO TRAINING SETBACK

King Of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}) is set for a spell on the sidelines having been found to be lame after his routine exercise in Newmarket on Tuesday morning.

Trained by Roger Varian, King Of Steel enjoyed a productive three-year-old campaign in 2023 when his victories included the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and the G1 Champion S. at the same course. He also filled the runner-up spot behind Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G1 Derby at Epsom.

His connections had held high hopes that the imposing colt would be contending for top honours again this season as a four-year-old, with the G1 Prince Of Wales's S. back at the Royal meeting being identified as his primary target in the first part of the year. However, all plans are now said to be on hold following Tuesday's setback.

"It's very disappointing for everyone concerned, both for the owner and his team and also the whole of my team," said Varian. "He's had a training setback which is going to rule him out for the main part of the season and it is disappointing."

In a statement on X, formerly Twitter, owners Amo Racing Ltd added, "King Of Steel has sustained an injury during his routine exercise on Tuesday morning in Newmarket." Cont. p8

After a spell riding under National Hunt rules, King is now concentrating fully on training winners rather than riding them, and sent out his first runner at Killarney this week.

Oscars Brother (Ire) (Malinas {Ger}), the sole horse the young man has to go to war with on the track, ran a respectable race under his own brother and promising young National Hunt pilot, Daniel, in a novice hurdle at the Kerry track.

That horse should have days in him over fences, according to King, but more pressingly, there is a certain Make Believe (GB) colt that the Tipperary-based handler is getting excited about ahead of the Tattersalls Ireland Breeze-Up Sale.

King said, "The Make Believe is a lovely horse and I'm very happy with him. I'm very excited to be going to the sales with him actually. He seems to be going very well. I spent €12,000 on him at Part 2 of the Orby Sale at Goffs. He has a decent pedigree and is a half-brother to Impact Warrior (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), who was a decent filly for Paddy Twomey--she was actually third in a Grade I in America last year. The mare got black-type and is by Lope De Vega (Ire) so I am lucky to have gotten my lad for the price that I did."

He added, "I had worked for Paddy and was obviously keeping an eye on all of his horses at the time. I was familiar with the filly so, when I saw her name on the page, it jumped out at me straight away. When I was looking at the pedigree at the sales, I thought to myself that I probably wouldn't have been able to afford the colt. Luckily enough, I did."

One of the stories of last year's Tattersalls Ireland Breeze-Up Sale was the touch the Shinnick brothers secured with a filly by Make Believe. It was Johnny Shinnick who came out with the memorable line, "she looks quick going past thistles," after selling the filly for €170,000. A similar result would do nicely for King.

"That was brilliant," he recalled. "If we got even half as good a result as that it would be great. The lads did very well with their filly last year and the sire is going well. He has a couple of nice horses on the go, so fingers crossed. He's probably a value sire at €10,000."

On his career change, he added, "I'll be 28 in August so it's coming up on 12 years since I had my first ride. I don't know where the time has gone, to be honest. It took me a while to realise what I wanted to do after I was finished riding on the Flat. I rode over jumps for a while but it wasn't easy, especially when I had no claim. But I did enjoy that and got plenty of experience. It just wasn't for me, though. That's why I decided to go down this route. I had my first runner the other night. I took out my restricted National Hunt licence and he's the only horse I have in training at the moment. But it did take me a while to figure out what I wanted to do."

King was the prime example of what an unstoppable force a talented young apprentice can be. He went from sitting his Leaving Certificate to being to most in-demand young jockeys in Ireland and rode high-profile horses at some of the biggest meetings there is.

But the harsh reality is that it was never going to last. His body was better suited to playing in the NBA than guiding thoroughbreds to victory but he was bloody good at the latter which made letting go and allowing nature to take over all the more difficult.

“At the time, I thought it was going to last forever. People were telling me that I needed to mind my claim but one high-profile jockey told me to just make hay while the sun shined and to ride as many winners as I could while I was able to. Looking back now, that person was right because my height meant I was never going to make a long-term career at it. When I was going well, I did try to convince myself that it would last, but it didn’t take long for reality to kick in.”

King added, “I feel like I had a good run and lived my dream for a good few years when I was younger. You know, all I wanted to do when I was younger was to race-ride and I did it. I looked up to Pat Smullen, Billy Lee, Wayne Lordan and Joseph O’Brien when I was kid. What felt like five minutes later, I was sitting in the car with those lads heading to the races and sitting beside them in the weighroom. It was brilliant.”

The dream has changed insofar that he now has designs on training winners rather than riding them. Working with the youngsters and setting up a breeze-up arm to his business is another avenue that he is keen to pursue. That’s not to say that King will be diving in head first after what has proved to be a tricky few weeks for his fellow breeze-up consignor.

He said, “I breezed one horse last year and he won twice for Ed Dunlop. It was brilliant watching him go on. He ended up being called Hint Of The Jungle (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}). We bought him for €20,000 and sold him for 30,000gns but watching his entries and seeing him run--it was like we still owned him.”

King added, “If you were just reading the sales reports and looking at the big-money sales, you could get sucked in, but you have to be realistic. A lot of people seemed to be coming home with horses from the sales. But the fact that I am operating at such a small scale for the moment, it’s not going to affect me too much. Going forward, you’d certainly be cautious. At the moment, I’m just taking things one step at a time and we will see where we end up.

“Hopefully we can get on well with this fella first and I can’t wait to get him up to Fairyhouse for him to show people what he can do. I think he’s very nice so hopefully he proves me right. I’d be fairly confident that, wherever he goes, he’ll be a fairly good horse.”

SECRET SATIRE HAS THE LAST LAUGH IN THE MUSIDORA by Tom Frary

One of the least-likely candidates on paper for Wednesday’s G3 Tattersalls Musidora S. at York, Guy Brook’s Secret Satire (GB) (Advertise {GB}--Secret Pursuit {Ire}, by Lawman {Fr}) defied formbook logic to run out a clear-cut winner of one of the premier Oaks trials. Only third in a Sandown novice last month, the Andrew Balding-trained 22-1 shot raced freely early before being found cover by Oisin Murphy behind the leader. Staying on strongly to gain the advantage a furlong out, the homebred drew away late to score by two lengths from Francophone (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}), with Classical Song (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) half a length away in third. The 8-11 favourite Friendly Soul (GB) (Kingman {GB}) hung right throughout and finished last.

Whether the winner is a true mile-and-a-half prospect is not clear, both on pedigree and the way this race panned out. “We were going very slow early and I couldn’t get cover because the leaders stayed off the rail,” Murphy explained. “It wasn’t a true test of stamina, so we don’t really know whether she’s going to stay at Epsom, but on that performance she didn’t do a lot in front and she deserves maybe to go there if Andrew decides.”

Making an inauspicious start to her career when a well-beaten sixth in a seven-furlong Salisbury novice in early October, Secret Satire upped her game considerably later that month to shed her maiden tag at a mile on Lingfield's Polytrack before convincing connections that she could have Classic potential over the winter. Sent to the Sandown novice that guarantees entry into the Oaks, she was beaten by the Gosdens' duo Siyola (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Beeley (GB) (Camelot {GB}) trying to give away a penalty to both and arrived here under the radar.

Anna-Lisa Balding was not immediately ruling out a tilt at the Epsom Classic. "Oisin was confident actually when we legged him up and he's come back in and been very complimentary, so we'll see how she is but I think the last Friday in May could be an option," she said. "They didn't go very quick early and she was over-racing a little bit for the first half a mile, but she's a gorgeous filly who really covers the ground."

"I'm so delighted for Guy Brook, it's his first group winner, he's a big supporter and I'm absolutely thrilled. It's 21 years since we won the Oaks and it's just lovely to have runners in those big races. It's the time of year when all the geese are swans and all the smiles in the mornings can turn the wrong way round, but that one will really put a smile on Andrew's face."

Francophone's trainer Charlie Johnston said, "I always thought she'd be a filly comfortable in Pattern company, that's why she went to the May Hill last year and Southwell sort of served its purpose as a starting point for the year. It looked a strange race to me, slowly run. Two and a half out I thought we'd won so it's one of those, if you'd offered me this beforehand I'd have bitten your hand off but watching it live, two out I thought we were going to win as the favourite had pulled its chance away and the stars seemed to be aligning."

"She's run well and showed she's at home in this sort of company but the way she travelled there, I'm not sure she wants a mile and a half yet. She's in the [G2] Ribblesdale but I'd be inclined to maybe stay at this trip for the foreseeable. Obviously for this owner [Kirsten Rausing] and this family, with black-type secured, that is the first tick in the box."

Ralph Beckett said of the third Classical Song and fourth La Pasionaria (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), "I thought it was a good effort from both our fillies. We'll see how they come out of it, Classical Song might wait for the [G2] Ribblesdale, I think she'll get a mile and a half looking at that. The other filly, I'll work it out, we've others to think about but I was really pleased with her. Both our trial winners [Forest Fairy and You Got To Me] will go for the Oaks and I'll work out what we do with these two, something else."

Pedigree Notes

Brook purchased the dam Secret Pursuit for €140,000 at the 2013 Arqana Saint-Cloud May Breeze Up and despite finishing second in the Listed Cheshire Oaks, was not taken to Epsom and instead dropped in trip. Enjoying her finest hour when winning the Listed Prix Solitude, she has produced the Listed Height of Fashion S. third Secret Solace (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}). A daughter of the G3 Oppenheim-Stuten-Meile scorer Secret Melody (Fr) (Inchinor {GB}), who also produced the G3 Prix des Chenes and G3 Prix du Palais-Royal winner and G1 Gran Criterium-placed Pearl Flute (Ire) (Piccolo {GB}), her 2-year-old filly by Advertise's sire Showcasing (GB) was certainly missed at Tattersalls October Book 2 when bought back for 65,000gns. She also has a colt foal by Gleneagles (Ire).

MILL STREAM CLAIMS NARROW VICTORY IN DRAMATIC DUKE OF YORK by Sean Cronin

Peter Harris's 4-year-old Mill Stream (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}--Swirral Edge {GB}, by Hellvelyn {GB}), who ran second to the reopposing Washington Heights (GB) (Washington DC {Ire}) in last month's G3 Abernant S. at Newmarket on seasonal return, stepped forward to claim a last-gasp victory in a dramatic renewal of Wednesday's G2 1895 Duke of York Clipper S. at York. The Jane Chapple-Hyam trainee annexed Deauville's G3 Prix de Meautry and Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud in seven sophomore starts before undergoing a wind operation at the end of last year.

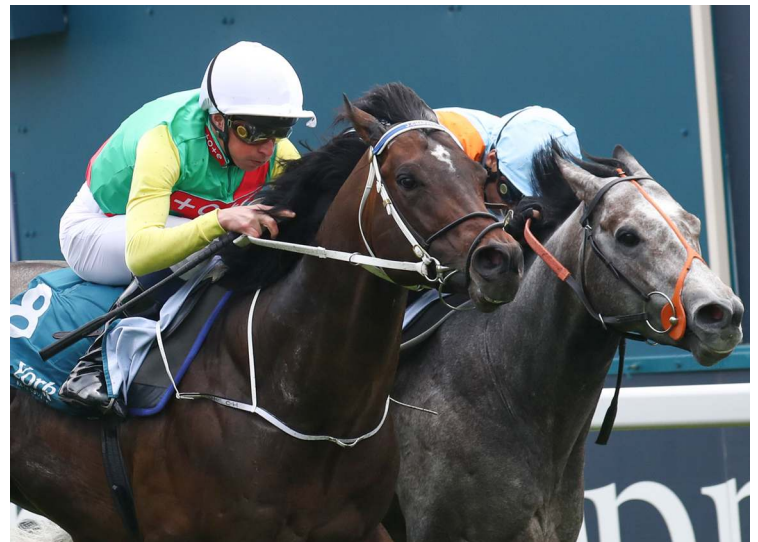

Mill Stream tracked the leaders in sixth, after an alert getaway, from the outset of this straight six-furlong dash. Rowed along soon after passing halfway, the 4-1 joint-favourite came under sterner urging inside the final quarter-mile and was driven out in the latter stages to nail Shouldvebeenaring (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) by a nose on the line, in a thrilling three-way photograph, for a career high. There was a heart-stopping moment approaching the final furlong where William Haggas representative Tiber Flow (Ire) (Caravaggio) parted company with rider Tom Marquand in an horrific-looking fall. Both escaped relatively unscathed after being assessed.

"I wasn't sure if we'd won and I appreciate they couldn't show the replay because of the faller, but thankfully Tom [Marquand] and the horse look okay," said Chapple-Hyam. "Mill Stream is a tough, brave horse and he's come on a lot since the Abernant, but he's only just won. I think he's pretty versatile and he goes on any ground. It was soft when he won in France last year, but quick in the Abernant. I'd like to go to Ascot on the Saturday [for the G1 Platinum Jubilee], but I'll see what Mr Harris wants to do. He has landed me with some nice horses and I'm in a lucky position, so it's nice to win a big race for him. I think Mill Stream is good enough to run in the Jubilee and I'd like to see the splits as it's on the slow side of good today, but he's against older horses."

bit, but he really put his head out and I was delighted he got the verdict. He's been knocking on the door a few times, hopefully this is his year and he could have a big year ahead of him."

Middleham Park Racing's Tim Palin, reflecting on the performance of runner-up Shouldvebeenaring, commented, "Mill Stream was a worthy winner on the day, it was obviously close in the photo, and we're just delighted with how our horse ran because we couldn't really explain what happened last time. Maybe there was a slightly bounce factor going into the Abernant from the Lady Wulfruna. We've got our horse back, a horse who was running well in Group 1s at the backend of last year, in the Haydock Sprint Cup and the Prix de la Foret, and we'll continue to ply our trade in Group 1s and Group 2s. He's in a Group 3 over seven furlongs at ParisLongchamp a week on Sunday [May 26 G3 Prix du Palias-Royal] and he's also in the [May 25] G2 Greenlands at the Curragh, so he could go into one of those."

The latter went on to win the Listed Ascendant S. and finish runner-up in the G2 Royal Lodge S. and trainer Roger Varian said, "He's a solid horse, he's wintered well and we've been patient with him. This has always been his target and we think 10 furlongs at a track like York will suit him. I think how he runs will point us in a direction. He's in the French Derby, he's in at Epsom and he will have Royal Ascot options. I think he's a nice colt, with a good profile, who should run a good race."

Karl Burke's Guineas contenders failed to fire earlier this month, but there is still hope that Spigot Lodge can have an English Classic winner in 2024. Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's impressive Listed Newmarket S. winner Caviar Heights (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) is worthy of respect here and his trainer commented, "I wouldn't want it too fast for him, but good ground will be ideal for him. He was good at Newmarket and his form was given a little bit of a boost at the weekend by the horse that won the Lingfield Derby Trial [Ambiente Friendly], that finished behind him first time out in the Feilden. He goes there with a fighting chance and it's a different challenge again, but hopefully he comes through it."

Also over the Dante's extended 10-furlong trip is the G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Middleton Fillies' S., where George Strawbridge's Free Wind (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) defends her title against a quintet including the TDN Rising Stars Bluestocking (GB) (Camelot {GB}) and Infinite Cosmos (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). While the latter only raced once after finishing third in this meeting's G3 Musidora S. last May, when third to the re-opposing Sapphire Seas (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in Yarmouth's Listed John Musker Fillies' S. in September, Juddmonte's Bluestocking took part in a trio of top-level contests. They resulted in second placings in the Irish Oaks and British Champions Fillies & Mares S., but Infinite Cosmos was always going to be a long-term project. Cont. p8

RACE PREVIEWS

WISDOM NEEDS RAIN FOR DANTE DATE

by Tom Frary

Charlie Appleby is hoping for another break in the weather ahead of the reappearance of TDN Rising Star Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) in York's G2 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai Dante S. on Thursday. Last year's G1 Futurity Trophy and G3 Autumn S. winner is a key member of the Derby cast at present, but his obvious preference for softer conditions leads connections into a quandary ahead of this trial. "The ground will be a question mark and we will want the rain to come," Appleby said. "We know that he is a better horse with ease in the ground, so we will be on weather watch slightly. If it's on the easy side of good, then we will look forward to seeing him run. He has wintered well and we are very happy with him."

Interestingly, Ancient Wisdom was third on ground similar to that prevalent on the Knavesmire on Wednesday in Ascot's Listed Pat Eddery S. last July, where Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) and Al Musmak (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) were ahead.

Ryan Moore rides Infinite Cosmos and he said, "Free Wind and Bluestocking are obviously the form fillies, but the boss [Sir Michael Stoute] has his horses in good form and hopefully there is plenty more to come from Infinite Cosmos as a four-year-old. You'd hope there is progression in her after just the four starts and she comes into this in good form at home. I think the track will suit her, as will the recent rain."

OPULENCE LADIES SYNDICATE LAUNCHED WITH BREEZE-UP FILLY

The latest all-female racing syndicate has been launched by Opulence Thoroughbreds, which purchased a Calyx (GB) filly at the recent breeze-up sale at Doncaster. Named Impatiently (Ire), the filly, who was consigned by Charlie Poste of Station Yard, has gone into training with Jane Chapple-Hyam and will race for Opulence Ladies. She is an intended runner in the Class 2 five-furlong maiden at Yarmouth on May 22.

Courtney Wyatt, Racing and Communications Manager for Opulence Thoroughbreds, said, "A huge percentage of our owners are men and that number reflects the general population of racegoers too. As a syndicate, one of our objectives is to bring new audiences into the sport, and this is a great opportunity to promote women in all aspects of racing, including ownership. The syndicate will be run by women, for women, and we are keen to support our fellow ladies in the industry. For instance, there are no female trainers in the top 20 of the Flat Trainers' Championship and we want to see more female jockeys rising the ranks too."

"We are really excited to see where we can go with this filly, who we felt went under the radar at the breeze-ups. She looks very quick and has a great mind, [and is] by Calyx, who made a great start to his first season last year. We would love to see her do well, not only for our owners but to encourage more women to enjoy horse racing."

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

KINGMAN HALF TO CHALDEAN STARTS AT SALISBURY

15.00 Salisbury, Novice, £10,000, 2yo, 5fT

KESSAYA (GB) (Kingman {GB}) debuts for Juddmonte and Andrew Balding, who enjoyed that big day last May with her half-brother Chaldean (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Also a half to the G2 Mill Reef S.-winning sire Alkumait (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), the 1million gns Tattersalls December Foal Sale topper encounters TBT Racing's fellow newcomer Blinky (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), a 120,000gns half-brother to the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges winner and G1 Prix de l'Abbaye runner-up White Lavender (Ire) (Heeraat {Ire}).

16.45 York, Novice, £30,000, 2yo, 6fT

SEATTLE (FR) (Siyouni {Fr}) is a rare early juvenile runner in Britain for Ballydoyle, but he is some prospect as the top-priced colt at last year's Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale. Out of a half-sister to Shamardal, the €2.2-million sensation encounters another pedigree notable in Clipper Logistics' Andesite (GB) (Pinatubo {Ire}), a Karl Burke-trained half-brother to the G2 Queen Mary S. and G2 Temple S. winner Dramatised (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}).

Wednesday's Results:

6th-York, £40,000, Nov, 5-15, 2yo, c/g, 5fT, :59.21, gd.

SHADOW ARMY (GB) (c, 2, Showcasing {GB})--Marie Of Lyon {GB} {MSP-Eng}, by Royal Applause {GB}) was off the tempo towards the rear after a tardy getaway in this debut. Powering into contention once past halfway, the 9-2 joint-favourite went sixth entering the final furlong and quickened smartly under a late drive to deny Francisco's Piece (GB) (Mayson {GB}) by a short-head in a bobbing finish. "He's a pretty smart horse and I know he made hard work of it, but I always find the better ones get beat," said Richard Fahey. "If he'd have fallen out of the back of the TV we'd have been in trouble. He's a gent of a horse, he does everything easily and we haven't really got to him yet. He'll improve a tonne and I'm definitely thinking of [Royal] Ascot, but I'd love to get another run into him. I wouldn't be afraid to go six furlongs, but I was quite happy to run him over five as well."

Shadow Army is the third of four foals and first scorer produced by Listed Empress S., Listed Boadicea S. and Listed Queen Charlotte S. placegetter Marie Of Lyon (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}). The March-foaled bay's dam is a half-sister to Listed Premio Botticelli third Spygate (GB) (Brazen Beau {Aus}) out of stakes-winning G3 Prix du Calvados runner-up Virginia Hall (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Shadow Army is half to a yearling filly by Pinatubo (Ire). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,960. O-Bronte Collection 1; B-Branton Court Stud LLP (GB); T-Richard Fahey.

3rd-Bath, £7,300, Mdn, 5-15, 3yo/up, f/m, 8fT, 1:42.13, gd.

MISS KUBELIK (IRE) (f, 3, Holy Roman Emperor {Ire})--Lucy Lou {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), who was beaten just a length by the subsequent 1000 Guineas heroine Elmalka (GB) (Kingman {GB}) when runner-up on debut at Southwell in November, was bidding to bounce back from a return sixth in a decent maiden at Newmarket's Craven meeting and led at a steady early gallop. Happy throughout, the 11-2 shot stayed on to hold Islanova (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by a neck. The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of the impressive Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial winner Baraka (Ire) (Danehill) from the family of the multiple Group 1-winning champion Pilsudski (Ire) (Polish Precedent). Her unraced 2-year-old filly Just Queen High (Ire) is by Calyx (GB), while she also has a yearling colt by Ten Sovereigns (Ire). British contender Hot Darling made a winning debut over this trip at Chantilly last month and maintained her perfect record with a career high in Europe's first juvenile stakes contest of the year here. Racing in a prominent fourth after a slick break from the outside gate, she came under pressure to seize control with 300 metres remaining and was driven out in the closing stages to register a half-length verdict from Herrenchiemsee.

Hot Darling is the second foal and scorer produced by Listed Marygate S. runner-up Boater (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}), herself out of an unraced sibling of four stakes performers including G3 Norfolk S. victor and G1 Prix Morny second Warm Heart (Diesis {GB}) and Listed Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial victrix Royal Tigress (Storm Cat). The latter is the dam of Grade III-winning G1 Beldame S. runner-up Tiger Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}). Boater is also a half-sister to the dam of Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}). Hot Darling, an April-foaled bay, is half to a yearling colt by Night Of Thunder (Ire). Video, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Shaken up to launch her challenge with 300 metres remaining, the 4-5 favourite gained an edge soon after passing the furlong pole and was ridden out to defeat Dalenda (Fr) (Zelzal {Fr}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Imparable is the latest of four foals and third scorer from as many runners produced by G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein and G2 Prix de Sandringham victrix Imparable (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who is a daughter of G3 Prix du Bois winner Gwenseb (Fr) (Green Tune). The March-foaled homebred chestnut's dam is a full-sister to stakes-winning G3 Prix de Lieurey runner-up Foreign Tune (GB), herself the dam of GI United Nations S. hero Adhamo (Ire) (Intello {Ger}), the dual stakes-placed Angelissima (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and Listed Prix Roland de Chambure third Neversay (Fr) (No Nay Never). Impassable is also a half-sister to G1 Criterium International third and multiple Group-winning sire Attendu (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}), G3 Dubai Millennium S.-winning G1 Jebel Hatta third Spotify (Fr) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) and the dual stakes-placed Gwendola (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). MUTH WITHDRAWN FROM PREAKNESS

Zedan Racing Stables' 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic) has been withdrawn from Saturday's GI Preakness S. after spiking a temperature following his arrival into Pimlico late Tuesday.

"We are sick about this. The horse had been doing really well," trainer Bob Baffert told the Pimlico media office. "But we have to do what's right by the horse."

Runner-up to fellow 'Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light) in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, the $190,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $2-million OBS March topper came off the bench to win the GII San Vicente S. over seven furlongs in February and gave his trainer Bob Baffert a record-equaling fifth victory in the GI Arkansas Derby Mar. 30.

He was unable to contest the GI Kentucky Derby owing to the ban that remains in place against Baffert at Churchill Downs.

Muth was the 8-5 morning-line favorite in a field of nine and was to be ridden by Juan Hernandez.

Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents), third to Muth at Oaklawn prior to his 18-1 upset two weeks back, is the 5-2 morning-line second favorite.

AFTER "B SAMPLE" COMES BACK POSITIVE, WEAVER FACES 2-YEAR SUSPENSION

by Bill Finley

The attorney representing trainer George Weaver has been informed by the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) that a split sample taken from the horse Anna's Wish (Dialed In) has confirmed the earlier finding that the horse raced with the banned substance metformin during the Mar. 16 Cicada S. at Aqueduct.

Trainers whose horses have tested positive for what HIWU considers banned substances face suspensions of up to two years.

Weaver will be allowed to run horses that have already been entered, but cannot continue to enter horses and his stable must be disbanded.

Metformin is used to treat Type II diabetes in people.

With more than 20 million patients taking it, metformin ranks as the nation's third-most-prescribed human medicine, according to the consumer healthcare website Healthgrades.

That the drug is so widely used has raised the possibility that horses are testing positive for it because they have come into contact with individuals taking the drug. According to attorney Drew Mollica, the groom who was caring for Anna's Wish takes metformin.

Weaver is the seventh trainer to be hit with a metformin positive since HIWU took over drug testing and enforcement for most of the industry on May 22, 2023.

"It is unfathomable to me that we as an industry can allow this organization to simply take an axe to a man's career and his life and with the swing of that axe destroy it in a minute," Mollica said. "It's beyond belief. Metformin should not be a banned substance and the groom is on metformin."

Mollica said he will continue to fight the charges and that the first step will be his request for a provisional hearing with HIWU. However, even with Weaver having the right to an appeal, he cannot continue to train and his horses must go to other trainers.

"We got no heads up, no anything," Mollica said. "You'd think that if the B sample came back positive they would call and say 'listen we're going to do this, but you have three days to take care of everything.' You'd think that's the way human beings would act. I have never dealt with a system like this before. There are 75 horses that George has that are spread around the country that need care. It would seem prudent to give us notice beforehand that this was about to happen. To the zealots that run this organization the well-being of those horses should be more paramount than a 'gotcha' letter." Cont.

Alexa Ravit, HIWU's Director of Communications and Outreach, addressed that point via email. "When a trainer is Provisionally Suspended, they can still oversee the care of the Covered Horses they train," Ravit wrote. "Additionally, those horses are still permitted to jog and gallop. However, they cannot breeze or race unless they have been transferred to a different trainer. More information about restrictions under Provisional Suspensions can be found here:

www.hiwu.org/education-and-resources/provisional-suspension-guidance. It should be noted that Weaver was notified of the metformin finding in the A Sample more than a month ago and that a Provisional Suspension would be imposed on him if B Sample analysis confirmed the A Sample finding."

Ravit said that 'oversee' meant that "a Provisionally Suspended trainer is permitted to go to the barn where their Covered Horses reside to care for them and/or direct their staff to care for them."

Mollica said that HIWU has yet to give him an opportunity to discuss mitigating circumstances.

"I'm going to talk to George about that and we'll try to lift the suspension," Mollica said. "This case is everything that's wrong with this system. They're just taking an axe to a guy and have just decided to destroy him."

Weaver, a former assistant to Todd Pletcher, has had two other positive tests during his 22-year training career, for acepromazine and for promazine sulfoxide. In each instance, he was fined $300.

"George Weaver is not a cheater," Mollica said.

Alex Bregman, the third baseman for the Houston Astros and for whom Weaver trains, defended his trainer on X.

"Complete BS! All you trainers on HISA's board should be ashamed of yourselves. Contaminations could happen to anyone. Keep that same silence when it happens to you. SMH. Oh by the way, you'd have to be a complete idiot to give a horse metformin and all you 'trainers' know this. This is a clear case of a contamination. George is a great trainer and a better human being."

BY WAY OF KAZAKHSTAN, GROUP 1-WINNING SON OF CALIFORNIA CHROME SENT TO BRAD COX by Bill Finley

Kabirkhan | Dubai Racing Club

Kabirkhan (California Chrome), who won his first three starts in Kazakhstan on his way to winning the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge in Dubai, has been sent to the U.S. and will be trained by Brad Cox.

Kabirkhan was purchased at the 2021 Keeneland September sale for $12,000 by agent Nadir Khassanov and was then shipped to Kazakhstan, which has just one racetrack and a horse population of about 300. Running at Almaty Hippodrome, he broke his maiden in a three-horse race after breaking slowly.

For owner Tlek Mukanbetkaliyev, the chestnut won his next two starts in Kazakhstan, winning so easily that it was clear that no horse in that country could compete with him. He was living up to his name, Kabir is Arabic for mighty or great and Khan is Kazakh for King. Yet, his total earnings after those three races in Kazakhstan were the equivalent of $3,458.

Looking for bigger purses and greater challenges, the connections sent the colt to Russia. There he won five straight races, but his winning streak ended when he was second in the Russian Derby behind Hero Mo (Mo Town).

The next stop was Dubai, where he was trained by Doug Watson. In his first start there, he won a handicap race over the same Hero Mo--also conditioned in Dubai by Watson--who had defeated him in Russia. He followed that with a win in the $1-million Al Maktoum Challenge.

"He might be the best mile-and-a-quarter horse I've ever trained," said Watson. "We'll see what the owners want to do next, but I'm glad he's in our yard. I'm delighted for our team, [jockey] Pat [Dobbs] and of course everybody in Kazakhstan."

After the World Cup, Kabirkhan was shipped to the U.S. and sent to WinStar Farm to get acclimated to the U.S. Cox said he arrived at his barn at Churchill Downs last Sunday.

"I just got him," he said. "He's a big, good-looking horse. All we've done with him so far is to gallop him a couple of days. I've had a couple of conversations with the owner, who seems like a nice fellow. I am looking forward to getting this horse up and going."

Cox said he hasn't decided when to give Kabirkhan his first breeze or where he will kick off his U.S. campaign.

"I just want to see how he moves forward over the next week or so," the trainer said. "It's like a big puzzle. You're hoping you can put it together. Based off what we have in our barn in the division, I think we'll have a pretty good idea of what we have before we run him. Obviously, I have to get to know the horse and what his tendencies are and how he is as a work horse. We can work him with some of the better older horses we have and that will give us a good line on where he stacks up. It will be interesting."

AMERICAN PETER BRADLEY'S 'MAGICAL' FRENCH CLASSIC VICTORY WITH METROPOLITAN by Sue Finley

Anyone who knows Pete Bradley even a little bit knows that he's a devoted Francophile. You almost can't travel in France without running into Pete somewhere or another. Arc de Triomphe? 'Hey, Pete.' December sale? 'Hi again, Pete!' Dinner at a friend's house in rural Normandy? 'Seriously, Pete?'

So it's only fitting that the most recent American owner to win a French Classic is one who would appreciate it so much.

When Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}) exploded up the rail in the final stages of Sunday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp, it was the culmination of years of study and interest in the French racing product, said Bradley, who regularly watches racing on the France-Galop website.

Metropolitan's debut Aug. 12 at Deauville caught Bradley's eye.

"He ran a big race, and I called and talked to a friend over there about him," recalled Bradley from the Fasig-Tipton

Metropolitan takes the lead in the Poulains | Scoop-Dyga

Timonium Sale this week. "I always go over form with him on horses because he's a really good judge. And he said, 'the horse was amazing.'"

Bradley reached out to Alessandro Marconi, who represents the Scuderia Scolari, owned by Hrand Aladjian and his wife, Monique. "I got in touch with Marco Barrati, and with Alessandro Marconi, made an offer which they thought was going to be acceptable for half of the horse. And then, all of a sudden, the Qataris and everybody else started making significantly larger offers. However, everybody else wanted the whole horse. And I told them I wanted 60 percent but I'd take a little bit less, which is what we settled on. And because he didn't want to sell the whole horse, I don't want to say we got a discount, but he could have made more if he wanted to sell one hundred percent of the horse. And he decided he wanted to stay in, which was obviously the smart thing to do."

Bradley didn't get the chance to go see Metropolitan before he committed, but from the notes he got and the videos he watched, "he is gorgeous," he said. "He's an A physical. I mean, he's absolutely beautiful. So I actually didn't see him until I went over for the October sale last year and for the Arc. He ran in his second race, and won exceptionally well. And the idea was always, at least in Marco's mind, to put him away for the winter. He wasn't going to make the Group 1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, and other potential races didn't value-add. The horse needed a little time to grow up. And we gave it to him." Cont.

Metropolitan made his 2024 debut in April's G3 Fontainebleau at the mile distance at Longchamp, finishing fifth, beaten two-and-a-quarter lengths. His team said they thought he needed the work, and would improve off the race.

While the fillies' Classic, the Pouliches, went off without a hitch, after the horses for the Poulains were in the paddock, the skies opened up with thunderstorms and hail.

"And then the deluge comes," said Bradley. "I guess their radar isn't that good over there because they already had the horses in the central paddock in an already-starting downpour. And then the monsoon hit, and they decided at that point to turn them around and bring them back inside. Metropolitan was so chill. He gets back to his stall, they take the saddle off. And by this time, horses usually understand there's a race going on. They're getting pretty hyped. He stuck his head down, halfway closed his eyes, and Mario was rubbing on his neck, and he was liking the attention."

Barrati also took a minute to give jockey Alexis Pouchin instructions.

"Mario is very good about communicating," said Bradley. "Before the race, he said that he had spoken with Alexis, and he said, 'I told Alexis to get the horse out of the gate and put him into the race immediately.' He said, 'I want him lying within a couple of lengths of the leader, and he should settle.'"

And that's exactly what Pouchin did. Breaking on top, he settled the horse into third on the rail and when they entered the open stretch, he made his move. "I was a little worried he had moved too early," said Bradley. "He certainly had enough horse and got to the lead, but I think Metropolitan thought the race was almost over, and the other horses came to him. He took a hold of the bit, dug in, and he was much the best." Cont.

JOHNSON HOMEBRED VIES FOR HOMETOWN GLORY by Sara Gordon

While all eyes turn to Maryland this weekend for Saturday's 149th running of the GI Preakness S. at Pimlico Race Course, Virginia-based owner/breeder Larry Johnson has his sights set strictly on the GII George E. Mitchell Black-Eyed Susan S., Friday's featured race, where his filly Call Another Play (Audible) is the lone Maryland-bred entered in the eight-horse field.

The 3-year-old filly is a fourth-generation homebred for Johnson, who owns Legacy Farm in Bluemont, Va., but is a decades-long supporter of the Maryland breeding program.

"I've gone to Preakness weekend for years and frankly, I never really imagined I'd be running in one of the feature races. So, in that respect, it's the culmination of some remarkable success I've had with this family," said Johnson.

That family began when Johnson purchased Ran's Chick (The Big Boss) for $2,400 at Timonium in 1978. Though at the time it might have been considered a poor investment, Johnson now looks back in awe at the supremely successful family his matriarch mare has established since.

"I started with a mare that no one should have bred. I bought her unraced and she bowed, I didn't know what I was doing. But I bred her, and I think there are over 40 stakes horses that have come out of that family," he said.

Call Another Play is the latest stakes winner to join the ranks following her performance in the

Apr. 20 Weber City Miss S. at Laurel Park, going 1 1/16 miles, where the chestnut filly made a sweeping move around the final turn before taking over down the stretch to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Cont.

The fifth foal out of Past as Prelude (Bernardini), she extended her win streak to three while earning an automatic berth to the $300,000 Black-Eyed Susan.

Her latest winning performance stands as a testament to the progress the filly has made since her debut season as a 2-year-old last year, where she went 1-for-5, and clearly shows her affinity for two turns.

"She started off good at the beginning of her career and we were real happy with her, and then things kind of slowed down a bit. She just wasn't putting it together when the competition got a little better," said Mike Trombetta, the filly's trainer. "She's done much better since we started making her go two turns. I think in the sprint races, as the horses got a little faster, she was just kind of being chased off her feet and she couldn't keep pace. But the two turn races have been helpful."

Among her four starts this year, the filly has yet to finish worse than third, with a natural progression in talent and success evident as she's risen from the claiming ranks to the allowance optional claiming level and, most recently, a listed stakes victory.

Though Call Another Play will be taking quite the leap forward in her career when she enters the starting gate for the Black-Eyed Susan Friday, her connections remain optimistic.

"Truthfully, it's a big step and we know that, but we're willing to give it a try. There aren't a ton of other options right at the moment, so if we're ever going to do it, I guess this is as good of a time as any," said Trombetta.

Call Another Play's affinity for going the longer distance also marks a new chapter in the family Johnson has developed, which traditionally has been a rich source of sprinters.

"If you look at the track record of my breeding, they tend to be sprinters. For a long time, I probably bred that way because I'm a big believer in speed. But then I started taking a longer approach and going to horses like Constitution and Audible with a goal of perhaps putting a little more distance in the family," said Johnson. "Most of what I breed still, they're speed-oriented kinds of horses. But [Call Another Play] seems to relish the distance."

Johnson purchased a share in Audible, the sire of Call Another Play, when the Grade I winner first went to stud. He also continues to support many of the stallions that stand at WinStar Farm, whose team he's had a longstanding relationship with.

"Every day in the TDN, I'm looking at the second-crop sires and stakes winners so far this year and Audible is high up on all of those lists. I think he's showing what he's capable of getting and I hope Call Another Play is just one more example of that," he said.

The filly is the latest success story for Johnson and Trombetta, who have built quite a steadfast partnership as owner/breeder and trainer over the years.

Trombetta has trained much of the Ran's Chick family, including GIII winner and sire Street Magician (Street Cry {Ire}).

"I've been with Mike since he was training in the morning and working construction in the afternoon with his brother. There are several horses I own in partnership with Mike's family. I speak to him, he would probably say too much, but I think we're generally on the same page. You know, there's occasions where I probably say, 'Yeah, we'll be 10-1, but let's give it a try.' But he's always appreciative of what I'm trying to do, which is to breed higher quality and kick some black-type along the way," said Johnson.

Trombetta echoes the sentiment.

"Nobody deserves it any more than Larry does. He puts in a lot of time and patience into this and it's nice to see him come up with a couple of good ones now and again."

And to top it all off, Call Another Play's stakes-placed siblings Continentalcongres (Constitution) and Future Is Now (Great Notion), both homebreds trained by Trombetta, will take to the turf on Friday in the seventh race, an allowance optional claimer, and the The Very One S., the 11th race on the card, respectively.

"I'm on my fourth or fifth generation. [Ran's Chick] has been the gift that keeps on giving," said Johnson.

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC UNDER-TACK SHOW POSTPONED

The second session of the under-tack show for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale, which had been scheduled to begin Wednesday morning at 8 a.m., has been postponed after a night of rain in the Timonium area. The under-tack show will resume Thursday morning at 8 a.m. and will continue with a third session Friday.

"Based upon the recommendation of our track superintendent this morning, we have decided to push back our remaining under-tack show sessions by one day to Thursday and Friday," said Midlantic Director of Sales Paget Bennett. "This will ensure that we have the best conditions possible for horses to breeze over."

The Midlantic May sale will be held next Monday and Tuesday.

PREAKNESS UPDATE: ALL CONTENDERS ON PIMLICO GROUNDS

Mystik Dan gallops under Robby Albarado Wednesday
Maryland Jockey Club

With the scratch of GISW and 'TDN Rising Star' Muth (Good Magic) from Saturday's GI Preakness S. due to a temperature, Lance Gasaway, 4 G Racing, Daniel Hamby III, and Valley View Farm LLC's Mystik Dan (Goldencents) is expected to be the favorite. The GI Kentucky Derby winner galloped 1 3/16 miles on a sloppy, sealed surface Wednesday morning under retired jockey Robby Albarado at Pimlico after the renovation break.

"I'm doing a rain dance all this week," said Albarado. "I'm not saying he has to take a racetrack with him, but we know he gets over it well."

He added: "He felt really good this morning. He was very responsive when I needed him at the sixteenth-pole. I squeezed him a little but just to see if he was there, and he was there. He feels good on all tracks, but there's something about this that he just gets over it easy."

With the withdrawal of Muth, Mystik Dan will now face seven rivals. The final Preakness horse arrived at Pimlico Wednesday morning at 4 a.m. when Mugatu (Blofeld) shipped in from Belterra Park. Expected to arrive around midnight, he endured some travel delays and walked Wednesday morning rather than jogging as scheduled.

Uncle Heavy (Social Inclusion) shipped from Parx Tuesday and had a routine gallop Wednesday; Tuscan Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) vanned from Belmont Park Tuesday and galloped about 1 3/8 miles Wednesday; and Imagination (Into Mischief) walked the shedrow Wednesday after shipping the day prior with Muth from California. Thursday will mark his first visit to the Pimlico oval.

Catching Freedom (Constitution), Seize the Grey (Arrogate), and Just Steel (Justify) all had routine gallops Wednesday.

PETER CALLAHAN, OWNER OF 2020 PREAKNESS CHAMP SWISS SKYDIVER, DIES AT 82

by T.D. Thornton

Peter J. Callahan, a magazine publisher and decades-long Thoroughbred owner and breeder who campaigned the 2020 champion 3-year-old filly and GI Preakness S. victress Swiss Skydiver (Daredevil), died May 9 in a New York City hospital in the company of family members. He was 82.

The cause of death was a brain tumor, his daughter, Carolyn Callahan, confirmed to TDN on May 15. A celebration of his life will be planned at a later date, she added.

"Horse racing really was his passion," Carolyn Callahan said. "He was very practical about how challenging it was to be successful in breeding and racing. He used to joke that he had a really good racehorse only once every 10 years. He had so many health problems over the last several years, but having that Swiss Skydiver experience really just breathed new life into him—it was like a reboot."

Callahan was especially enamored of Swiss Skydiver because he had named the filly after the exploits of one of his granddaughters, Callie, who was then a 20-year-old college student studying aboard.

Bidding on Callahan's behalf, trainer Kenny McPeck had acquired the Daredevil-sired filly at the 2018 Keeneland September yearling sale for a relatively bargain price of $35,000.

Two months later, Callahan awoke on a Sunday morning to a video message from Callie showing her jumping out of an airplane strapped to a parachute over the Swiss Alps. Cont.

"I thought it was pretty daredevilish of her," Callahan told the St. Francis College alumni newsletter in 2020. "When I saw Daredevil, I thought, 'That's my granddaughter jumping out of planes.' I said, 'Let's name the Daredevil filly Skydiver.' That was taken, so I added the prefix 'Swiss.' That's the story of Swiss Skydiver."

Swiss Skydiver became only the sixth filly ever to win the Preakness, doing so in the pandemic-altered 2020 season when the second jewel of the Triple Crown was conducted in October. She also scored that year in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga and the GI Beholder Mile S. at Santa Anita.

"Just a wonderful man, and very much a father figure to me," McPeck said via phone from Pimlico on Wednesday. "I had a world of respect for him, and just enjoyed being around him. I was very close to Peter, not only professionally, but also personally. He had struggled with health issues for years, and fought and fought and fought. With Swiss Skydiver, it was really just a great period for all of us, and I'm glad we were able to contribute to him reaching the pinnacle of the sport."

Callahan was a lifelong New Yorker who spent time in Florida later in life. According to a 2020 profile in The Tablet, a newspaper of the Roman Catholic Diocese in Brooklyn and Queens, Callahan was raised in Astoria and attended St. Francis Prep in Williamsburg, where he starred on the football and baseball teams. As a shortstop, he played alongside eventual major-league Hall of Famer Joe Torre. Callahan would later honor his alma mater's red-and-blue color scheme on his racing silks.

Callahan went on to continue his baseball career at St. Francis College in Brooklyn Heights. He then attended the Columbia University Graduate School of Business before embarking on a long career in the publishing and broadcasting industries.

Callahan helmed a variety of consumer and trade publications, including Photoplay, Us and the National Enquirer. For a time, he was part-owner of Daily Racing Form.

In the mid-1980s, Callahan got a taste of the Thoroughbred world as a part-owner. Over the next four decades, he branched out on his own and in other partnerships, including in racing and bloodstock ventures with the Clay family of Runnymede Farm in Paris, Kentucky.

"In every sense of the word, he was the best partner you could possibly have," said Brutus Clay III, Runnymede's chief executive officer. "His family has been partners with Runnymede for over 35 years, and he was really instrumental for us as we were moving from one generation to another. Not only was he a good partner, but he was a friend and mentor. He was a shrewd businessman, and had a really uncanny ability to evaluate opportunities and assess them. He applied that same type of rigor to investing in the equine market, which is a challenging thing to do."

Peter Callahan | Sarah Andrew

Callahan and Runnymede co-bred Collected (City Zip), who finished second in the 2017 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Stakes winners raced by Callahan included Bevo (Prospectors Gamble), Beautician (Dehere), Scotus (Successful Appeal) and Fistfite (Two Punch).

Callahan will be represented in Friday's GI Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico by Ringy Dingy (Dialed In), whom he owned in partnership with James Reiley McDonald.

"The Bible says that the trophy doesn't always go to the fastest or the strongest," Callahan told The Tablet in 2020. "It goes to the competitor with the most amount of persistence. That's certainly true in Thoroughbred racing. You can't be in the game for instant gratification, you've got to wait your turn and pay your dues."

ROGER W. SCHIPKE, RACED GRADE I WINNER OPS SMILE, PASSES AWAY

Sarah Andrew

Roger W. Schipke, who campaigned 1997 GI Manhattan H. winner Ops Smile (Caveat) in partnership, passed away peacefully on Apr. 27 in the presence of his family. He was 87 years old.

Born and raised in St. Louis, Schipke was offered a minor league baseball contract after his high school graduation, but declined and went on to earn his undergraduate degree from Washington University, an MBA from New York University and an honorary Doctor of Law degree from Spalding University. He served for a time as a visiting professor at the University of Kentucky and as executive in Residence at the University of Louisville.

After serving as a US Navy Officer, Schipke began a 28-year career with General Electric, retiring as Senior Vice President and CEO of Worldwide Appliances. Recruited by Sunbeam Corporation in 1993 as CEO and Chairman, he was also a 25-year director of Legg Mason and Brunswick Corporation. He served on international boards in Canada, England and the Philippines.

Schipke committed himself to social and public service, sitting on the board of the Federal Reserve Board of St. Louis, the Greater Baltimore Development Board, the Louisville Fund for the arts, the Kentucky Racing Commission and was president of the Maryland Million Ltd.

It was a Maryland-bred roan that gave Schipke and partners their finest hour as Thoroughbred owners. Ryehill Farm-bred Ops Smile blossomed into one of the Midlantic region's top turf horses at five in 1997, winning that year's GI Dixie S. on the Preakness undercard before causing a 21-1 upset over Flag Down in the Manhattan one race before Touch Gold denied Silver Charm the Triple Crown in the GI Belmont S. Schipke was a client of Hermitage Farm in Kentucky and of the Boniface family's Bonita Farm in Maryland.

According to an online obituary, Schipke's love for horses was matched by his devotion to and affection for dogs.

Schipke was preceded in death by his parents and his wife Jacquelyn Boyden Schipke, who was also among the Ops Smile owners. He is survived by his wife, Joyce Stone Schipke, two children, three stepchildren and 10 grandchildren.

Schipke was laid to rest at Cave Hill Cemetery in Louisville May 7.

RAIN WASHES OUT STAKES-LADEN PROGRAM AT HORSESHOE INDIANAPOLIS

Live racing at Horseshoe Indianapolis was canceled Wednesday as a result of rains that passed through the area.

"Out of concern for the safety of our equine and human athletes the races for Wednesday, May 15, have been canceled," Horseshoe Indianapolis Vice President and General Manager Eric Halstrom said on the track's X feed.

Rachel McLaughlin, the on-air racing analyst and production manager for the track, posted images on X showing widespread flooding on and around the racetrack.

Nine Thoroughbred races were carded for Wednesday, including the first open stakes of the 2024 meet, the $150,000 Horseshoe Indianapolis H. for 3-year-old turf fillies, and the colts' counterpart, the $150,000 Caesars H., each carded for a mile on the grass. The $100,000 Swifty Sired Fillies' H. and $100,000 Sagamore Sired H. were also scheduled to be run.

According to a post from Daily Racing Form's Marcus Hersh, the two Indiana-sired stakes will be brought back May 22. The status of the Caesars and Horseshoe Indianapolis Handicaps was to be determined.
