BAFFERT BACK IN FORCE AT PIMLICO

Bob Baffert arrives with his posse at Pimlico Friday | C Boss

by Christina Bossinakis

BALTIMORE, MD -- He's baaack.

The truth of the matter, trainer Bob Baffert never really went away. The Hall of Famer's omnipresent influence--be it through his runners or the offspring of the stallions he helped mold--can be felt everywhere, regardless of whether the man shows up or not. Conspicuous in his absence at Churchill Downs two weeks ago, Baffert did make his first appearance on the Pimlico backstretch Friday morning, surrounded by a rockstar-caliber entourage, including his kids and his wife Jill, in addition to SF Bloodstock's Tom Ryan and Starlight Racing's Jack Wolf.

GUN SONG FIRES BEST SHOT IN THE BLACK-EYED SUSAN by Christina Bossinakis

BALTIMORE, MD -- On a day where the track was proving kind to front-runners, Gun Song (Gun Runner) benefitted from a textbook ride by Hall of Famer John Velazquez to give Mark Hennig a win for longtime client Lee Lewis in Pimlico's Friday feature, the Gil George E. Mitchell Black-Eyed Susan S. The 14-race card concluded with record handle of $28.4 million, up from $28.2 million one year ago.

Breaking slightly inward from post five, the chestnut cruised into contention, positioning herself on the flank of 18-1 shot Jeanne Marie (Speightster) while Corposo (Vino Rosso) and Call Another Play (Audible) were in close pursuit through an opening quarter in :24.20. Inching up on the pacesetter after an equally pokey half-mile in :49.47, the 23-10 favorite allowed Jeanne Marie to inch ahead momentarily as they exited the far turn. With Velazquez visibly clocking his competition heading to the quarter pole, he gave his filly the cue and she gained command in early stretch. Given a couple of reminders, although she didn't seem to need them, she coasted home an easy 3 1/4-length winner over Corposo with Call Another Play a head back in third. Whocouldaskformo (Uncle Mo) completed the superfecta.

"I was a little concerned of me taking too much hold of her," said Velazquez. "I didn't want to do that. But they were going so slow. She got relaxed on the backstretch and we were going so slow, so I was thinking that, hopefully, when I let her go, I didn't choke her down." Cont. p9

After the disappointing scratch of early GI Preakness S. favorite Muth (Good Magic), Baffert was on-hand to oversee his other runner, Imagination (Into Mischief), take to the track for a 1 3/8-mile gallop under exercise rider Humberto Gomez. Led to the track by assistant Jimmy Barnes aboard the barn's already famous pony Amarillo, the flashy bay looked far more chilled out on an overcast morning Friday than he did only a day before. Barely breaking a sweat, the colt completed his task with little fuss, suggesting he might be able to replicate the feat of last year's front-running Preakness winner National Treasure, campaigned by the same connections.

"He looks fine, I really don't have any excuses for him," Baffert said of Imagination, the 3-1 second choice on the revised Preakness morning line. "He should run well."

Of the GII San Felipe S. winner, Baffert added, He is going to have to step it up a level to be there with them," Baffert said. "I am hoping this will be his coming-out-party race. We need him now with Muth out. We really, really need him badly."

Embodying the same ease that ushered him through his Kentucky Derby victory two weeks ago, captain cool himself, Mystik Dan (Goldencents), continued to take everything in stride, neither wowing nor disappointing. On a loop since his first Derby win, trainer Kenny McPeek has been telling anyone that would listen that the colt's superpower is his intelligence and unflappable demeanor. Once again mobbed by the media Friday morning, Mystik Dan enjoyed nothing more than a light gallop under Robby Albarado, and has not turned a hair in the days leading up to the Preakness. The colt, who will be reunited with Brian Hernandez, Jr. in the second jewel of the Triple Crown, is the 8-5 favorite on the morning line.

"He didn't need anything complicated," McPeek said.

It should be noted, however, the true star of the stakes barn was Sonny, McPeek's robust yellow Labrador Retriever who made his first appearance Friday. Garnering the star status that has not been seen since the days of Bobby Frankel's Australian Shepard Happy, Sonny one-upped his predecessor by getting his own track-issued credential. The affable pooch was clearly enjoying all the attention, and all the dog biscuits, that went with it.

Imagination hits the track Friday | C Boss

Also getting his share of traffic at the barn Friday morning, trainer D. Wayne Lukas sent out Just Steel (Justify) and followed by GII Pat Day Mile scorer Seize the Grey (Arrogate) shortly after 7:30 a.m., in order to accommodate the 11:30 a.m. ET post time. He stationed himself atop his pony at the very end of the stretch to watch his horses go through their final paces, as far away from the ever-growing legion of media as he could comfortably post himself. An observation that was subsequently confirmed. However, it wasn't long before the press descended on the Hall of Famer's barn, and he obliged the numerous requests for a quote or a sound bite. But as an errant camera operator quickly found out, don't drift too far into the shedrow because The Coach won't hesitate to educate you.

Preakness Talking Horses

Beyond the week's most talked-about Preakness contenders, a few of the sophomores gave their connections some measure of quiet confidence heading into Saturday's Classic.

Chief among them, TDN Rising Star Tuscan Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), representing William Lawrence, Walmac Farm and Stonestreet Stables. Under exercise rider Janiel Rosado, the GII Louisiana Derby third-place finisher galloped 1 1/4 miles Friday morning.

Chad Brown's assistant Jose Hernandez, who has overseen the training of Tuscan Gold since he arrived at Pimlico Tuesday, said, "He has been handling the track really well. He did fine again today. We didn't ask him to do anything more than he has been doing. He is just very focused right now. I am really confident going into the race."

Making only his fourth career start, Tuscan Gold will use a similar path as Brown previously employed with 2017 Preakness winner Cloud Computing and Early Voting, victorious in 2022. Both horses won the Preakness off only three races.

According to Hernandez, Tuscan Gold will just walk the shedrow on Saturday morning. The colt will be ridden by Tyler Gaffalione, who has been aboard in two of Tuscan Gold's three career starts.

Having garnered plenty of pre-Derby hype, Catching Freedom (Constitution) continued to draw rave reviews during his time at Pimlico this week. Winner of Oaklawn's Smarty Jones S. Jan. 1, he was third in the Feb. 17 GII Risen Star S. before annexing the Louisiana Derby. The Brad Cox trainee was last seen finishing fourth in the Kentucky Derby.

Catching Freedom | Maryland Jockey Club

"He got here early Tuesday morning," said assistant Blake Cox. "He jogged a mile, Tuesday, late like 9 a.m. Very quiet track. He was very fresh coming home. [Wednesday] morning, we just galloped through a mile because the track was sealed. He looked very good and came back fresh again."

The colt was expected to school with Friday's first race.

"He looked very good," said Cox Friday morning. "He's been coming off the track bucking and squealing. He's as happy as he can be."

With the scratch of GI Arkansas Derby winner Muth, who would have likely installed himself on the front end come Saturday, several of the remaining participants continue to ponder where the early speed might come from. Cont. p6

“It might change the pace scenario,” said Cox when asked about the favorite’s defection. “And obviously, he was the favorite and it’s a big scratch, and he’s a very, very good horse, but we’ll see who goes. I mean we’re going to need to set up [off the pace] to be able to get the job done and we’re, hopefully, going to get it.”

Baffert echoed his concern with the lack of a legitimate target horse for Imagination, who will be ridden by Frankie Dettori, who was also aboard for a second-place effort in the Apr. 6 GI Santa Anita Derby.

“If he gets out there by himself, I don’t know what he would do and how he would react,” Baffert said. “I am going to leave it up to Frankie. He’s on his own.”

In addition to Derby winner Mystik Dan, who has already proven adept on winning over a soggy track, Friday and Saturday’s forecast for rain have also seemed to improve the chances of Michael Milam and LC Racing LLC’s Uncle Heavy (Social Inclusion). The winner of two of three starts at Parx at two, he earned his graded badge with a narrow score in a muddy renewal of the GIII Withers S. at the Big A Feb. 3. Trained by Butch Reid, Jr., the late May foal finished fifth last out in the GII Wood Memorial Apr. 6.

“Well, that’s what I’m hoping for, a little wet-fast,” Reid said. “He really likes that.”

“I’m hoping for a track similar [to earlier in the week] on Saturday because he loved it, really relished it,” Reid said. “Had a good, aggressive gallop and was getting over it really well.”

Uncle Heavy will attempt to become the first Pennsylvania-bred to win the historic Preakness since Smarty Jones in 2004.

Uncle Heavy, who went out to the track for routine morning exercise Friday, will be accompanied by Irad Ortiz, Jr. for the first time Saturday.

Undercard Action at Pimlico

A quartet of Grade III tests highlight Pimlico’s Saturday undercard, including the six-furlong GIII Chick Lang S. for 3-year-olds. The race is highlighted by Mr Skylight (Practical Joke), the winner of his two latest starts, including a Keeneland allowance optional claimer Apr. 20. Also on the undercard, the GIII Gallorette S. features morning-line choice MGSW Fluffy Socks (Slumber {GB}), who looks to get back on track following a sixth in the Apr. 13 GI Jenny Wiley S. The remaining graded races on Saturday’s card are the GIII Maryland Sprint S. and the GIII Dinner Party S. The 14-race card kicks off at 10:30 a.m.

PREAKNESS CONTENDER MUGATU BRINGS BLUE-COLLAR STABLE TO THE CLASSIC STAGE By Sara Gordon

When Mugatu (Blofeld) makes his way onto the track in the morning, it’s hard to look away. The imposing chestnut colt with the unique blaze that spans across his forehead before trickling down to just above his nostrils has a presence that makes you pay attention. And when he moves across the track, it’s easy to understand why he was the one that Dan Preiss sought out on the final day of the 2023 Ocala Breeders’ Sales Company’s Spring 2-Year-Olds in Training sale.

After receiving a call from trainer Jeff Engler halfway through the sale, Preiss had a new order to fill: finding a 2-year-old for a group of Kentucky and Ohio-based clients with a budget of $15,000. It was a feat that seemed nearly impossible as the horses continued to file through the ring until Preiss was directed to the Wavertree Stables consignment and met a Blofeld colt out of Union Way (Union Rags) (hip 1150).

“When I called Jeff, I told him, ‘I really like this horse,’ said Preiss. “He’s bigger than most horses that I would ever buy at a 2-year-old sale but that’s what I like about him because he went :10 3/5, which is why we could afford him. He’s not built like a 2-year-old in training sale horse, he’s a massive colt. Then I looked a little deeper and saw the gallop out, which was probably in the top 5% in the whole sale, and that’s when I got excited.”

Despite a brief bidding war with an internet bidder, Preiss came out on top at a final price of $14,000.

Mugatu and trainer Jeff Engler | Sara Gordon

Since then, he’s taken his connections on quite the ride over various parts of the country. Owned by Average Joe Racing and Dan Wells, the colt made his first three career starts as a 2-year-old at Ellis Park before heading out to Keeneland, and later closing out the year in Florida at Gulfstream Park and Tampa Bay. Though it took some time, which seems to be a given with a horse of his stature, Mugatu broke his maiden in his fifth career start, going a mile and 70 yards on the all-weather at Gulfstream and winning it by 3 1/4 lengths.

Engler has tried the colt at a variety of distances and surfaces, giving him the upper hand in terms of experience when compared to many other colts his age.

“He’s filled out tremendously [since last year]. He’s gotten a lot bigger, stronger, wider,” said Engler. “The nice thing about him is he runs good on everything, really. Tapeta he really liked, obviously he ran good in the [John] Battaglia [Memorial S.]. He ran a really big race in the Rushaway [S.] at Turfway. He ran eighth but got beat 2 1/2 lengths by Trikari (Oscar Performance) who came back to win [the GII American Turf] on Derby Day.

“He’s run against a lot of high-quality horses, obviously Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) and Dornoch (Good Magic), but he seems to prefer dirt. His best number was on the dirt and when we switched him over to the dirt, we moved him from Turfway to Belterra Park to train on it leading up to the [GI Kentucky] Derby.

“Initially we thought he was going to be an outstanding turf horse, but he just didn’t show that real big kick at the end. So, I’m thinking dirt and synthetic [for him].”

The colt’s fourth in the Battaglia, along with his run in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S., where he outran his 181-1 odds to close from last to finish fifth, earned him 14 qualifying points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby. The colt and his team were on the outside looking in on the also-eligible list leading up to the first Saturday in May, just one scratch away from drawing into the field, but unfortunately didn’t receive the call they had been hoping for.

Sara Gordon

Despite that disappointment, Engler has forged ahead with Mugatu, bringing him back to Belterra for one more work--breeding five furlongs in :59.80 on May 11--as the team switched their focus to Baltimore for Saturday's GI Preakness S.

“It was very disappointing not to draw in and obviously we needed someone to scratch, and we weren't wishing it on anybody,” said Engler. “We were there [at Churchill Downs] all week, just saying, 'if it happens, it happens.' It didn't happen, but the good thing is he handled that entire week like a professional. He loves the camera and he handled the crowds, the press, and all of the people by the rail. He never flinched.

“We feel like we have a horse that has the mind and talent to be in these races and it’s very exciting to be in this race. It’s a Triple Crown race and for a stable the size of mine to be in a race like this, it’s a lifelong dream. [The owners] are on cloud nine. They’re all great people and they’ve been with me for 15 years, through thick and thin. They’ve had a couple halfway decent horses but never a horse to run in a Triple Crown race. It’s like the blue-collar stable coming in to take on the white-collar stables.”

It seems only fitting that Mugatu, though a Kentucky-bred, would make his Classic debut in the state where his sire Blofeld (Quality Road) resides at Murmur Farm in Darlington. Despite his smaller crop sizes, success is a consistent factor among his offspring, including stakes winners Chickieness, Johnyz From Albany, Miss Harriett, Alpine Mist and Charming Way from four crops with 93 foals of racing age. Last year, he climbed into the top five on Maryland’s top 10 overall sires list.

“Since we [got Mugatu], I’ve learned a lot about Blofeld. He’s got a small sample out there but oh my gosh...I would love to have several more Blofelds,” said Engler.

Some would glance at Mugatu’s light record, with only one win, a second and two thirds from 12 career starts, and dismiss him as the underdog at the level he’s now running at. But according to his connections, he’s only just getting started, and a longer distance seems to be the key in unlocking his true potential on the dirt.

“One thing Joe Talamo said to me, several times is, ‘He’s still not giving us 100%.’ And he said, ‘When he gives us 100%, he’s a Grade I winner.’ So, that gives me hope that there’s still 20% in him and I think there is, so we’ll see,” said Engler. “I just really believe if we go on to get that mile-and-a-quarter distance, he’s going to flourish.”

The chestnut colt will break from post one with Joe Bravo aboard in Saturday’s 149th running of the second leg of the Triple Crown, with the field down to eight after the scratch of GISW and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Muth (Good Magic) due to a temperature.

For Engler and Preiss, it’s a culmination of the hard work they’ve put in day in and day out and the close friendship they’ve forged along the way. Cont. p9

“It’s pretty special because we’re a small stable. We don’t get the big budgets and the big horses. Dan is kind of in the same boat because he’s new to the [bloodstock] industry, so he’s not getting the big clients, and he’s got to work five times harder to buy a $50,000 horse than somebody who’s buying a $500,000 horse. But he does and he’s very passionate about it.

“Obviously we’re really good friends now and it’s nice to see that hard work does pay off. So, one of these days, and hopefully it’s soon with Mugatu, it pays off for both of us.”

He added, “But once I put my hands down at the three-eighths pole, she was relaxed. When I asked her at the quarter pole, she responded nicely.”

The victory marked the first win in the race for Hennig, while it was a record-setting fifth score for Velazquez, who also won with Added Gold (1998), Roar Emotion (2003), Spun Sugar (2005) and In Lingerie (2012).

“I was anticipating more pressure from the outside,” said Hennig. “We didn’t get it--when I saw the three-quarters in 1:13, I thought, that’s two seconds faster than they just stopped going a sixteenth of a mile [shorter in the previous race]. But I was pleased to see her go on. Turning for home, I could see she was pretty strong.”

He added, “Other than her last race, she always finishes very well. In my heart, I knew she was a good horse. I didn’t have any doubts that she was a good horse. I had a little doubt about the distance after that last race, but I didn’t have enough doubt to not try this.”

Gun Song winning Friday’s GII Black-Eyed Susan | Jim McCue

A debut winner going six furlongs at Aqueduct last October, Gun Song was third to next-out Letellier Memorial S. winner Leslie’s Loot (Fast Anna) in the slop at that venue while adding a furlong against allowance foes in December. She gave ‘TDN Rising Star’ and future GI Central Bank Ashland S. winner Leslie’s Rose (Into Mischief) all she could handle in a Gulfstream optional claimer Jan. 11 and went one better with an impressive 5 3/4-length win going a mile at the Hallandale oval Feb. 9, but could do no better than fourth when trying two turns for the first time in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Mar. 30.

“I think she got tired last time,” added Velazquez. “And then I worked her last week [5f, 1:00.30 at Belmont May 9], and I knew she was ready. I knew this time she was quite ready for it.”

Of the runner-up and second choice in the wagering, trainer Peter Eurton said, “I am very proud of her. I think she is still very green. I am taking nothing away from the winner. She ran huge.”

With the Black-Eyed Susan victory, Gun Song became the 30th black-type and 22nd graded stakes winner, for her sire Horse of the Year Gun Runner. The daughter of Mr. Greeley is also responsible for an unraced juvenile colt by War of Will, named Nicole's Will, and a colt, foaled this season, by Practical Joke.

Of his relationship with owner Lewis, Hennig explained, “[I've been with him] Forty years. I was an assistant for Wayne Lukas at the time. Lee and I just always had a good relationship from that day forward. Last year, I told him I had a bloodstock agent I wanted to team up with. We'd been trying to buy horses for [Lewis] without any help. It was hard because we just don't have the manpower between [wife] Rosemary and I to go and look at all the horses at Keeneland and all the 2-year-olds in training. Phil Hager of Taproot Bloodstock has done a good job. This was the first filly we bought. We're off to a good start.”

A well-backed 5-1 while making his stakes debut in Friday's GIII Pimlico Special S. over the Preakness S. course and distance, Blue Heaven Farm homebred Pyrenees was delivered in the nick of time by Kentucky Derby-winning jockey Brian Hernandez, Jr. to complete a memorable stakes three-timer for the Cherie DeVaux barn.

The beautifully bred 4-year-old, who capped a three-race winning streak--with Hernandez, Jr. aboard each time--courtesy of a three-length allowance victory over a sloppy Keeneland main track Apr. 12, was eased back and settled not far from a dawdling early pace set by the rail-drawn Harlocap and heavily favored Kingsbarns through an opening half-mile in :50.26. Racing in the two path around the turn, Pyrenees was niggled along to keep pace five-sixteenths of a mile from home and was pulled out four and five deep in upper stretch, with every conceivable chance if good enough. Kingsbarns edged in front for Luis Saez well off the inside with less than a furlong to run, but Pyrenees did slightly the better of the two and clawed his way home late for a narrow success. Harlocap held for third after laying down those soft splits.

DeVaux also took the Hilltop S. with the impressive She Looks Pretty (Karakontie {Jpn}) and the Allaire duPont Distaff S. with Shotgun Hottie (Gun Runner), both backed into odds-on favoritism.

"I've never won three races in a day, so we'll take this," DeVaux said. "We were just hoping the horses showed up. You just hope you come in here and the horses run their race, they come out sound, they come out healthy. That's the most important, the last part. It's great. This is my first time really running here on my own. So, I think I'll have to make this a yearly visit."

With the better-known 'Mystik' still in the barn, Mystic Lake went to the front end and never looked back, rolling home a 4 1/2-length winner over favored Youalmosthadme in Friday's Miss Preakness S. at Pimlico.

A second-out winner at Woodbine last fall, she was runner-up in that venue's Glorious Song S. on the synthetic in October before weakening late to be third in the GIII Mazarine S. in November. Kicking off 2024 with a win in Tampa's seven-panel Gasparilla S. on the dirt Jan. 13, the Florida-bred filly was fifth going a mile in Gulfstream's grassy GIII Herecomesthebride S. but rebounded to post a front-running victory facing state-bred rivals back on the dirt in the Sophomore Fillies S. at Tampa Mar. 24. Returning to Woodbine for her latest start, she finished second as the favorite in the Star Shoot S. over six furlongs Apr. 27.

half. Straightening for home, Mystic Lake showed no signs of letting up and spurted clear as the 2-1 favorite tried to reel the front-runner in, but couldn't make headway late. Discreet Ops closed to grab third over Cap Classique (Vino Rosso).

"She jumped very well and got an early good position, and she did the rest from there," said winning rider jockey Flavien Prat, accompanying the filly for the first time. "You've got to break well, but she did, and it turned out well."

"She is just a consistent filly and she ran big today," added trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. "She has run well on the dirt. She has won her last three on the dirt. The only blemish on her record was her first time on the dirt [in her career debut at Gulfstream when she ran ninth]. For some reason, she did not break that day and ran poorly."

Pedigree Notes:

Mystic Lake's Miss Preakness victory gives Mo Town (Uncle Mo) his sixth career graded winner. A $130,000 OBS March 2-year-old buy, Mystic Lake was previously purchased for $3,500 by Tom McCrocklin at the OBS yearling sale in 2022. Mystic Lake was consigned to the recently concluded Fasig-Tipton May Digital Sale, but was unsold on a final bid of $370,000, having already been entered for the Miss Preakness. The filly is the first foal out of Salty Soul, herself a $30,000 Keeneland November in 2017.

BOLT D'ORO FILLY, AUTHENTIC COLT WORK BULLETS IN TIMONIUM FRIDAY

by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - The under-tack show for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale concluded with a third session Friday at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium and after an initial session of headwinds and a second session punctuated by tailwinds, conditions were calm with overcast skies during the show's finale.

A filly by Bolt d'Oro (hip 401) had the fastest furlong work of Friday's session, covering the distance in :10 flat during the day's third set. Consigned by Wavertree Stables, the bay filly is out of Werewolf (Arch) and is a half-sister to stakes winner and graded-placed Howling Time (Not This Time).

"We thought she would work as good as one could work up here," Wavertree's Ciaran Dunne said. "We were nervous only because when you have such high expectations, usually it is tough to meet them. But I think she worked as good as one is going to work here today."

Hip 401 | Fasig-Tipton

The filly was purchased for $335,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

"She is a big, pretty filly," Dunne said of the juvenile's appeal last fall. "She's the type of horse we like. Physically, she's strong and she's balanced and she moves good. There is nothing to not like."

Of her progression over the winter, Dunne said, "She was right there with the best of what we had this year. She was supposed to go to the April sale, but she had a little setback. We gave her the time and she's never done anything other than advertise herself as top class."

A colt from the first crop of GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic (hip 565) set the bullet mark for a quarter-mile Friday when covering the distance in :21 2/5 during the session's second set. Consigned by Pick View, LLC, the dark bay is out of Jeannie S (Sky Mesa) and is a half-brother to multiple stakes-winner Shanghai Starlet (Shanghai Bobby).

The colt will be making a quick reappearance in the sales ring after bringing $150,000 at the OBS April sale last month. Veteran horseman Hoby Kight purchased the youngster, who worked a furlong in :10 flat at the Florida auction, on behalf of a group of partners. Cont. p14

"I was looking for a couple of horses to buy to bring up here that worked good, that were real horses that I thought would work well on the dirt," Kight said. "I do it every year. And it works out for me."

Asked what he looked for in horses to buy in Ocala to reoffer in Timonium, Kight said, "I like a horse with pedigree and work. And this horse worked good. He is a big stretchy horse, the kind I like."

Of the colt's work at OBS, Kight said, "There are so many horses who go :10 flat at OBS which are not real. This was real. There are a lot of horses there that work good that are real horses and there are some horses who work good where the synthetic just helps them a little bit. I don't want that horse."

Kight was impressed by the colt's bullet drill in Timonium Friday.

"I think it was awesome," he said. "A :21 2/5 on the dirt, seven times out of 10 is a stakes horse."

The juvenile's work was no surprise to consignor Joe Pickerrell. "He worked really good in April, so we expected him to work big," Pickerrell said. "He's a big, beautiful two-turn colt. He was up to the task today. [OBS April consignor] Top Line [Sales] did a great job with him."

Of Kight, Pickerrell added, "Hoby is one of the best that ever did it. He's always buying and selling and in parts of the market that people kind of forget about. That's why he is so successful because he thinks outside of the box. If something outworks him today, I am sure Hoby will be there to look at it because we like fast horses. We are thankful he chose us to offer a horse like him."

In addition to hip 565, Authentic was represented by two of the five juveniles to share the week's fastest quarter-mile work of :21 1/5.

The Pick View consignment was busy throughout the under-tack show, sending 25 juveniles to the track over the three days.

"The track has been great," Pickerrell said. "These guys do a phenomenal job of dealing with the weather on this track. We are lucky to have these track guys and Fasig does an excellent job. They made the right call by delaying the breeze show and I think it's been fair for everybody. A little bit of a headwind one day and a little tailwind the other day--I feel like the buyers will be able to sort that out. There is so much separation here with dirt horses. There is a lot more that goes into it here than just a fast work. I feel like people are here to buy good dirt horses and they are going to find them."

The Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale will be held next Monday and Tuesday with bidding beginning each day at 11 a.m.

BELMONT GOLD CUP TO SERVE AS INTERNATIONAL QUALIFIER FOR MELBOURNE CUP

Siskany | Chelsea Durand

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) and the Victoria Racing Club (VRC) have formed an agreement that the GII Belmont Gold Cup, slated for Thursday, June 6 at Saratoga Race Course, will be a 'Golden Ticket' event offering the winner an automatic berth into the G1 Lexus Melbourne Cup, NYRA said in a Friday release.

The new partnership will provide the winner of the Belmont Gold Cup, a two-mile test for older horses, a place in the starting gate for the Lexus Melbourne Cup on Nov. 5, 2024, at Flemington Racecourse in Victoria, Australia.

The Belmont Gold Cup headlines opening day of the four-day 2024 Belmont Stakes Racing Festival, which will be held at Saratoga Race Course from Thursday, June 6 through Sunday, June 9.

Flemington Racecourse announcer Matt Hill will travel to Saratoga to call the race and will bring the 2024 Lexus Melbourne Cup trophy along with him. The 18-carat (gold) trophy has its own travel documentation to ensure it is exempt from export laws and taxes, and will be available for photo opportunities with fans throughout the live racing program on Thursday, June 6. The Cup is created from 34 gold pieces with over 200 hours craftsmanship and is valued at AUD$600,000.

Godolphin's British homebred Siskany (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), trained by Lexus Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Charlie Appleby, won last year's Belmont Gold Cup and is slated to return to New York for the race.

"The Belmont Gold Cup has proven to be a strong race, attracting top marathon horses from North America and across Europe," said NYRA Senior Vice-President of Racing and Operations, Andrew Offerman. Cont. p15

"The addition of a 'Golden Ticket' to compete in one of the world's preeminent turf races only serves to heighten the profile of what is sure to be an exciting Festival in Saratoga."

VRC Executive General Manager Racing, Leigh Jordon, said, "The introduction of the Belmont Gold Cup as a golden ticket opens up another pathway for international staying horses to compete in the Lexus Melbourne Cup. The race is an already established international contest and we look forward to potentially welcoming this year's winner to Melbourne in the spring."

FIERCENESS POINTING TO BELMONT STAKES

Fierceness | Coady Media

by Bill Finley

Fierceness (City of Light), the beaten favorite in the GI Kentucky Derby, is scheduled to make his next start in the GI Belmont S. on June 8 in Saratoga.

"He has settled in well and we are pointing to the Belmont," trainer Todd Pletcher said in a text.

Sent off at 3-1, Fierceness finished 15th, beaten 24 1/2 lengths in the Derby.

When asked if his colt had any excuses in the Derby, Pletcher replied: "Perhaps too close to a fast pace? Stuck a little wide on both turns?"

Following the Derby, jockey John Velazquez told reporters: "His first jump was not very good. His second and third jump he was OK. He got pretty aggressive since I had to give him a nudge out of there. The horses on the outside put the pressure on and then he got into the bridle. I tried to keep him as settled as much without letting doing too much but he was already engaged. When I let him go, he just didn't have it."

Even though he ran poorly in the Derby, Fierceness figures to make his presence felt in the Belmont. Classy but inconsistent and enigmatic, he seems to run well every other race. After a spectacular maiden win, he was beaten 20 1/4 lengths in the GI Champagne S. But Pletcher had enough confidence in the Mike Repole-owned homebred to ship him to Santa Anita for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, which he won by 6 1/4 lengths.

But old habits seem to die hard with this horse. He kicked off his 3-year-old campaign with a lackluster third-place finish in the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream before demolishing his opponents in the GI Florida Derby, which he won by 13 1/2 lengths.

Pletcher has proven that he can take a horse that ran poorly in the Derby, freshen them up and then have them ready for a big effort in the Belmont. In 2013, Palace Malice (Curlin) won the Belmont for Pletcher after running 12th, beaten 13 1/2 lengths in the Derby. In 2017, Pletcher's Tapwrit (Tapit) won the Belmont after finishing sixth, beaten 10 1/4 lengths in the Derby. He has won the race four times.

Stellar Wind | Keeneland

SON OF MGISW STELLAR WIND MAKES FIRST START AT SANTA ANITA

8th-SA, $54K, Msw, 3-5yo, 1m, 8:09 p.m. ET.

MAGNIFY (Justify), a 3-year-old colt, makes his debut for the Bob Baffert barn on Saturday. Out of champion 3-year-old filly and MGISW Stellar Wind (Curlin), the Magnier homebred is her second to make the races, but she has since produced a filly named In the Stars (Into Mischief), who was a $300,000 buy for G. Watts Humphrey Jr. at last year's Keeneland September Sale. The 2017 Keeneland November sales topper when she was taken home by M.V. Magnier for the lofty sum of $6-million, Stellar Wind is also responsible for a yearling colt by Into Mischief and she foaled a filly by Gun Runner Apr. 29. TJCIS PPS

9th-GP, $60K, Msw, 3yo, 1mT, 5:18 p.m. ET.

In 2022, Repole and St. Elias bought for $700,000 Keeneland September grad Monopoly of Honor (Not This Time). Making his first start for trainer George Weaver, the colt is out of an unraced dam who counts as a half-brother SW Scotland (Good Magic) TJCIS PPS

11-BAQ, $90K, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m 1 1/16mT, 5:39 p.m. ET.

Chestnut filly Just So Pretty (Justify) makes her first start under the care of Danny Gargan. The 3-year-old sold for $475,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale when she went to Thorndale Farm. Her stakes-winning dam Battle Girl (Midshipman) is a half-sister to MGISW Sweet Reason (Street Sense). TJCIS PPS

4th-CD, $134K, OC80k/N2X, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 7:26 p.m. ET.

'TDN Rising Star' Disarm (Gun Runner) has steadily worked back into form since January for Winchell Thoroughbreds and trainer Steve Asmussen. Now, the 4-year-old homebred is ready to fire off the bench after serving as the runner-up to Archangelo (Arrogate) in the GI Travers S. last summer. As for Disarm's dam, Easy Tap (Tapit), she foaled another full-brother Mar. 15. TJCIS PPS

She Feels Pretty, who took last year's GI Natalma S. at Woodbine before finishing third beaten just a half-length by Hard to Justify (Justify) as the favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, returned to the races Friday with authority in the Hilltop S. at Pimlico. Bet down to 3-5 even off the layoff, the Lael Stables-owned filly--contesting her third straight one-mile race under John Velazquez--broke towards the outside and was happy to sit back off the early pace, letting Roanan Goddess (Leofric) handle the tempo from the rail. Cont.

She Feels Pretty | Jim McCue

Sitting a wide trip down the backstretch, she had plenty of momentum while just two-wide off the turn, took over from late leader Just Better past the quarter pole and was on cruise control late to secure the win.

“She had been training well and you hope they can come out fresh from [age] 2 to 3,” said winning trainer Cherie DeVaux. “There are a lot of unknowns coming out here [off layoff since Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Filly Turf]. I was really impressed with her. It was obviously an easier race than the Breeders’ Cup. You hope they come forward and now hope for an exciting year ahead. This race fit the calendar for her.”

One of 14 stakes winners for Karakontie (Jpn), She Feels Pretty hammered to Lael Stable for $240,000 as a yearling at Keeneland and is out of a half to SW Summer Breezing (Langfuhr), Sw/GSP Adirondack Summer (Thunder Gulch), and GISP Summer Solo (Arch), herself the dam of both GSP Maedean (Tapit) and GSW Solo Album (Curlin). Summer Sweet saw her 2-year-old Good Magic filly bring $600,000 from Boardshorts Stables as a yearling at Keeneland last September. She reported an American Pharoah filly last year and foaled a filly by Olympiad this spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Already proven over the course and the distance, Future Is Now returned to Pimlico for the first time since September and picked up right where she left out with a win in Friday's The Very One S.

Fifth facing the boys last time out in the King T. Leatherbury S. at Laurel, Friday's 6-5 favorite was keen to be on the lead but was outrun down the backstretch from a wide draw. Forced to settle behind Shoshanah in third, Future Is Now remained under a tight hold from third around the far turn but was able to tip outside of the pacesetter into the lane and struck the front inside the furlong marker to clear off for the win.

A half-sister to Friday's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. third-place finisher Call Another Play (Audible), Future Is Now is the 40th stakes winner for leading Maryland-based stallion Great Notion. She has a 2-year-old half-brother by McKinzie named Places in My Past but her dam has not produced another foal in the last two years since despite breeding to both Omaha Beach and Audible, respectively. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Also Ran: Julia Shining, Lacie Be Good, Western Lane, Intrepid Dream. Scratched: Cats Inthe Timber.

After recording her first graded victory in last summer's GIII Molly Pitcher at Monmouth Park, Shotgun Hottie took the rest of the year off. Returning to training, the 5-year-old missed the board in Oaklawn's Arkansas series for older females--GIII Bayakoa S., GII Azeri S. and GI Apple Blossom H. Set for a change of venue, the Cherie DeVaux trainee dropped in as the 4-5 choice here.

Shotgun Hottie raced in the third spot into the first turn and continued to track a longshot pacesetter up the backstretch. Ranging up three-wide around the far turn, the mare gunned her engine and began to duel with Musical Mischief down the lane. The chalk put away her rival past the eighth pole and rolled home.

The winner's unraced dam is responsible for 2-year-old colt in-training Commander Worsley (Echo Town) and a yearling filly by Irish Surf.

ANYWHO (f, 4, Bolt d'Oro--Fancy and Flashy {SP}, by Zensational) was fourth in the GII Summertime Oaks at Santa Anita last year, then missed by a neck against optional claimers at Del Mar in late July. A well-beaten seventh in the Gill Torrey Pines S. at the seaside oval in early September, the Hronis color bearer then was turned out. Back on the tab in mid-March and installed as the 5-1 shot here, the filly waited just to the outside of a pacesetter up the backstretch, but she was set to pounce around the far turn. Getting away from the rest of the field with a furlong left, Anywho splashed home a winner by eight lengths over Charriere (Congrats). TURF KING (IRE) (c, 4, Kingman {GB}--Sweet Acclaim {Ire} {SW & MGSP-USA, GSP-Eng, $195,276}, by Acclamation {GB}) was seen two back winning the GII Marine S. in July of 2023 at Woodbine before going on the shelf several months. Back this season in the GIII Canadian Turf S., where he'd finish eighth, the 5-1 shot rebounded from that effort here to find the winner's enclosure once again. Breaking inwardly but recovering to track from seventh early, Turf King came under a ride nearing the quarter marker and had taken command by the sixteenth pole. He edged away from GSW Grand Sonata (Medaglia d'Oro) to win by 1 3/4 lengths. The most accomplished for his dam, the victor has a 3-year-old unraced half-sister in Ireland Final Curtain (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) as well as a 2-year-old half-sister Greatest Drama (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) and a yearling half-brother by St Mark's Basilica (Fr). SACRED WISH (f, 4, Not This Time--Indian Wish, by Indian Charlie) had success on both dirt and turf last season, coming up a neck short of Wet Paint (Blame) in the GI Coaching Club Oaks at Saratoga and winning the Winter Memories S. over the local course in her turf debut. In her first start this year, she came in third beaten three-quarters of a length at Keeneland going a mile Apr. 20. Adding the extra distance Friday, the 4-5 favorite broke from the rail right into the lead, paced the field through fractions of :24.18 and :48.40 and drew off nicely into the lane to win by four lengths. Swoop to Finish (American Pharoah) came from last to nab second as the longest shot in the field at 13-1. Sacred Wish is out of a half to GSW Mint Lane (Maria's Mon); GISP Sister Girl Blues (Hold fro Gold)--herself the dam of GI Kentucky Derby runner up Firing Line (Line of David); So Sharp (Saint Liam), the dam of GISW and sire Sharp Azteca (Freud); and Remembered (Sky Mesa), dam of MGISW Bowies Hero (Artie Schiller) and MGSP Radio Days (Gun Runner). LIGHT MAN (g, 4, Central Banker--So N So {SW}, by Freud), a juvenile winner at first asking in July at Saratoga in 2022, was gone until Jan. 27 this year, where he resurfaced at Aqueduct against a first-level allowance group, finishing second. Able to gamely breakthrough the condition last out Feb. 29, Light Man still went off at chilly 8-1 odds against a short field here. Chasing the leaders from four wide after the jump, he came under steadier urging passing the three-eighths marker and his momentum carried him six wide into the upper stretch as Ten Cent Town (Redesdale) came forward to take on the longtime leader. Digging in to meet the challenge and closing steadily, Light Man was up in time to deny that rival by a neck on the wire in a close finish for the top three. A half to Absatootly (Mineshaft), MSW, $414,357, the victor has a 2-year-old half-brother Hello Newman (Lookin At Lucky) who is the last registered offspring for their dam. POINT DUME (g, 3, Into Mischief--Maya Malibu {MGISP, $177,500}, by Malibu Moon) was a $30,000 maiden claimer grab from the connections of Bob Baffert and Brittany Russell late last year and quickly made an impact at Laurel, placing in the Miracle Wood S. in February. Seventh over a sloppy track in the Private Term S. last out March 24, Friday's 2-1 favorite returned here as a first-time gelding and took the field gate to wire, just holding off a closing No Easy Days (American Freedom) to win by a half-length. Maya Malibu, herself multiple Grade I-placed and a $575,000 KEENOV broodmare buy in 2018, is a half to the dam of GI Belmont S. winner Mo Donegal and out of a Grade I-winner in Island Sand. Point Dume is her first foal and she has a 2-year-old Candy Ride (Arg) colt and a yearling Charlatan filly still to race. She was bred to Life Is Good for 2024. CASTLE ISLAND (c, 4, City of Light--Liszy's Union, by Dixie Union) took five tries to break his maiden but came through with a 13-length romp at Laurel facing maiden claimers Mar. 10. Claimed for $45,000 out of that start, he made his debut run for new trainer Kieron Magee Apr. 19 and was a game second against allowance runners. Trying the Pimlico oval for the first time Friday, the even-money favorite chose to sit off the speed of Patient Capital (Practical Joke) through a half in :47.91 but was always prominently placed and drew past that rival off the far turn. Goodafternoonoscar (Hoppertunity) gave chase down the lane but was always second best as Castle Island hit the wire 2 1/2 lengths ahead. A $440,000 yearling, Castle Island is out of a half-sister to GI Kentucky Oaks winner Plum Pretty (Medaglia d'Oro) who was purchased by this colt's breeder, Whisper Hill Farm, for $4.2-million out of KEENOV in 2012. Liszy's Union has a 2-year-old full-sister to this winner and was bred to Olympiad for this year after losing her 2023 Maclean's Music foal. Sales History: $440,000 Ylg '21 KESEEP. JANE AUSTEN (f, 3, Tapit--Shayjolie {SW & MGSP, $415,843}, by Indian Charlie) was a neck winner at graduation last out Apr. 21 over well-meant Spendthrift homebred Quick Brown Fox (Justify), and once again ran down a stubborn pacesetter here, employing a stalk-and-pounce trip to collar In Theory (Mendelssohn) by a half-length on the wire in this short field of four. A pricy acquisition at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale in 2022, Jane Austen's dam is herself a half-sister to the accomplished GISP & MGSW Mythical Power (Congaree). That mare has since produced 2-year-old Lady Liberty (Constitution), a yearling colt by Essential Quality and a 2024 filly by Into Mischief. Sales history: $750,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. MILA'S WISH COMES TRUE AT GULFSTREAM

by Jessica Martini

When Mila's Wish (Cajun Breeze) just held on for a debut victory--and then survived a claim of foul--at Gulfstream Park Friday, track announcer Pete Aiello clued the crowd into what a special moment it was when he said, "You've heard of Cody's Wish. Here's the Florida version. Here's Mila's Wish." Much like the 2023 Horse of the Year who was named after the late Cody Dorman, the 2-year-old colt was making the wish of another youngster come true.

Mila Spillone is a 4-year-old battling Aicardi syndrome, a rare genetic disorder that has left her blind in one eye and, with low muscle tone, she is unable to walk or talk. The lifespan of someone with Aicardi syndrome is roughly 18 years. Michael Yates was able to make Mila's wish of having a horse named after her come true and the colt duly delivered with a dramatic first win Friday.

"A really good friend of mine, [bloodstock agent] Sean Perl, reached out to me," explained Yates, who trains the colt and bred and owns him in the name of his Shadybrook Farm. "His sister Jackie is director of special events for Make a Wish Southern Florida. And so that is how the connection was made. They were trying to find somebody who would grant Mila's wish to name a horse after her and I accepted the challenge. I thought it was a wonderful thing."

Yates was originally hoping to find a homebred filly to name after the little girl with the big wish, but ultimately picked a son of the gritty Cajun Breeze, whom he co-owned and trained to three stakes-placings in Florida.

"I couldn't decide which filly that I own to name that," Yates said. "The horses were getting closer to running. And this horse was showing some talent. I thought it would be a good horse to name after her. It was also [one] I bred and Sean Perl had actually picked the mare out for me when I bought [her]." Cont.

In the winner's circle with Mila's Wish | Lauren King

The 9-5 favorite in his first trip to the post Friday, Mila's Wish led from the start and was some two lengths clear at midstretch before just holding off the resurgent Lou (Brethren) by a head while running greenly late.

"I expected he would run well, but as with any 2-year-old, you never really know," Yates said. "But I expected he would run well, he had worked well."

Yates met Mila and her family for the first time Friday at Gulfstream.

"They were over the top elated," Yates reported. "And very grateful for us naming the horse after their daughter. They had a wonderful day here at the races."

Looking ahead to a next start for Mila's Wish, Yates said, "It's pretty early, but he's a Florida-bred and we are based here at Gulfstream. We will probably point forward to the first next step for the 2-year-olds as it comes along, which would probably be a 2-year-old stakes, if that comes about prior to an allowance race being written."

As for the inspiration for the colt's name, Mila's mother said, "Mila has overcome many challenges and each day is a blessing. She truly is a miracle."

1st-Gulfstream, $63,600, Msw, 5-17, 2yo, 5f, :59.16, ft, head. MILA'S WISH (c, 2, Cajun Breeze--Little Red Frog, by Munnings) stepped up to lead from the jump on this debut and never looked back after setting :22.82 and :46.02 early splits. Despite getting leg weary late, the 9-5 favorite held on over Lou (Brethren) in a blanket finish to score by a head as the runner-up just held off Gangster (Street Sense) by a similar margin. The rider of the runner-up lodged an objection against the winner for interference in deep stretch but it was disallowed.

ARABIAN CROWN TO MISS THE DERBY - CITY OF TROY NOW CLEAR MARKET LEADER

Arabian Crown | Racingfotos.com

Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), who had been as short as 7-2 for Derby glory, will miss his intended engagement at Epsom after suffering a setback.

The news was announced on Friday morning by the official Godolphin account on X.

A statement read, "Unfortunately Arabian Crown will miss the @EpsomRacecourse Derby due to a setback. He will now be aimed at a late summer campaign."

Trained by Charlie Appleby, Arabian Crown has won four of his five starts, including a taking reappearance in the Bet365 Classic Trial at Sandown.

He had been vying for Derby favouritism in the ante-post market with City Of Troy but his defection from the June 1 showpiece means that Aidan O'Brien's charge has been shortened into a clear 2-1 favourite with most firms.

JOSEPH O'BRIEN'S BIG ROYAL ASCOT PLAYER SNAPPED UP BY STONESTREET STABLES By Brian Sheerin

Royal Ascot-bound Cowardofthecounty (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) has been snapped up by Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables and other American-based partners.

Cowardofthecounty made a scintillating start to his career when scoring on debut for Joseph O'Brien over 6f at the Curragh.

The form has since been franked with the runner-up, the Aidan O'Brien-rained Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never), landing the First Flier S. over 5f at the Curragh in similarly impressive fashion.

Cowardofthecounty is prominent in the betting for the Coventry S. at odds of 5-1 and, according to O'Brien, the colt will head straight to Ascot.

He said, "We were really happy with Cowardofthecounty's debut. He was working like a really smart colt and it was nice to see him go and do it on the track. The form of the race has worked out really well and he will go straight to the Coventry."

BACK TO BACK YORKSHIRE CUPS FOR GIAVELLOTTO by Tom Frary

Friday's G2 Boodles Yorkshire Cup was all about Giavellotto (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), as last year's winner returned in rude health to dominate for the repeat on York's Knavesmire. Readily reversing the form of his latest fifth to Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G2 Dubai Gold Cup, the Marco Botti-trained 5-year-old who started at 7-2 cruised to Vauban (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) two out and bounded into the clear for a 4 3/4-length success under Oisin Murphy. Gregory (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) was a further 3/4 of a length behind Vauban in third as the 7-4 favourite Tower Of London disappointed in fifth.

With a promoted third in the G1 St Leger as a 3-year-old to add to his win in an up-to-scratch renewal of this race 12 months ago, clearly a mile and three quarters on a flat track is Giavellotto's bag. Beaten in all four starts over further including third placings in the G2 Lonsdale Cup here last August and in Riyadh's G3 Red Sea Turf H. in February, it is no surprise to learn that Botti is not considering Royal Ascot's G1 Gold Cup. "We've tried several times over two miles and while I'm not saying he doesn't stay, because he has run well a few times, it does stretch him. The Gold Cup trip is too far for him," he explained.

"He loves the track—he always shows his best form at York," his trainer added. "The race went to plan, he got into a nice rhythm and while he got to the front a little sooner than we wanted, he galloped all the way to the line. I was a bit shocked he was in front so early, he made them look slow today. The Irish St Leger I know is in September and the ground could be softer, but it was a race we considered last year and we didn't go but I would say that could be his target."

Botti is also considering a drop in trip for the winner. "We have been thinking of running him over a mile and a half eventually, we wouldn't rule it out. Between a mile and a half and two miles, I think I'd rather run him over shorter than further. He's definitely got stronger."

Vauban, who was having his first start since a disappointing effort in the G1 Melbourne Cup, is Gold Cup-bound. "I was delighted, they'll be very happy with that," jockey William Buick said. "He's going to get further and he felt he was going to improve for that, so there are plenty of positives to take from it."

Royal Ascot is also on the agenda for last year's G2 Queen's Vase winner Gregory according to John Gosden. "I really liked the way he got his second wind and stayed on again," he said. "The plan is to go straight to the Gold Cup. He'll enjoy the distance."

Pedigree Notes

Giavellotto's dam Gerika (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), who also has the stable's twice-placed 3-year-old colt Calumet (Ire) (Calyx {GB}), hails from a family of Italian black-type performers with her three half-siblings Donoma (Ire) (Beat Hollow {GB}), Cromo (GB) (Grand Lodge) and Right Connection (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) all successful at listed level in the country. Under the third dam is the G3 St Leger Italiano hero Green Senor (El Gran Senor).

Monteille | Scoop Dyga

“The ground was too heavy When she ran in the [one-mile] Prix de la Grotte and it really tested her stamina,” explained trainer Pascal Bary. “It was on John Hammond’s advice that I decided to go shorter [in distance] and it was good advice, obviously. She is a lovely looking filly and I am delighted she has enriched her resume so nicely. There is not much now for sprinting 3-year-olds in France and she is not entered at [Royal] Ascot, so we will see how she comes out of this and formulate a plan in due course.”

Reflecting on the performance of runner-up Classic Flower, Pauline Chehboub said, “She didn’t have the best trip on the outside, but she looked a bit lazy and maybe she could do with a hood. Anyway we shall stick to the original plan and go to Royal Ascot for the [G1] Commonwealth Cup.”

Monteille, kin to a yearling colt by Zarak (Fr), is the first of two foals produced by G3 Prix des Reservoirs second Montviette (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), herself a full-sister to G3 Prix Messidor runner-up Longvillers (Fr) out of Listed Prix Ceres victrix Lady Meydan (Fr) (American Post {GB}). Cont. p5

CABLE BAY’S MONTEILLE PREVAILS IN CHANTILLY FEATURE by Sean Cronin

Last term’s G3 Prix Miesque third Monteille (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}--Montviette {Fr}, by Le Havre {Ire}) finished off the board in last month’s G3 Prix de la Grotte on seasonal debut and pounced late in Friday’s G3 Prix Texanita at Chantilly to register a career high.

Restrained to race behind the leaders in a handy sixth after an alert break in this straight six-furlong dash, the 227-10 outsider came under pressure to challenge out wide entering the final furlong and was ridden out to deny even-money favourite Classic Flower (GB) (Calyx {GB}) by a half-length in the dying strides.

JOB DONE FOR KYPRIOS IN THE SAVAL BEG

by Tom Frary

If Ballydoyle's Tower Of London (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was disappointing at York earlier on Friday, the stable was able to rely on Kyprios (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to make amends in the G3 Saval Beg Levmoos S. at Leopardstown. While the win was far from flashy, it at least confirmed the 2022 Gold Cup hero to be on track for a tilt at the Royal Ascot crown he was forced to give up through injury 12 months ago. Tracking the leading pair throughout the early stages, the 1-12 favourite was sent to the front a furlong out and asserted to complete the task by a length from stablemate Queenstown (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

Aidan O'Brien was happy, even if this was a long way short of the winner's 14-length romp in this two years ago before going on his streak of four Group 1 prizes. "We're delighted with him, he's a lovely horse," he said. "When he gets there he just waits, but Ryan was very happy with him. Ryan said he has plenty of speed left, all the speed is there, but he just pulls up when he gets there, he's just lazy. The plan was obviously the two runs and then go to Ascot, if everything is well with him then. It's amazing that he came back, it's great to have him back. He just has a lovely relaxed way of doing it."

Pedigree Notes

Kyprios is the last foal out of Moyglare's remarkable broodmare Polished Gem (Ire) (Danehill), whose 10 progeny include an astounding eight black-type winners including Galileo's dual G1 Irish St Leger heroine Search For A Song (Ire), High Chaparral 's G1 Prince of Wales's S.-winning sire Free Eagle (Ire), the G2 British Champions Fillies & Mares S. winner Sapphire (Ire) (Medicean {GB}) and multiple group scorer Custom Cut (Ire) (Notnowcato {GB}).

Polished Gem is a daughter of Affirmed's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Trusted Partner and a full-sister to the G1 Matriarch S. heroine Dress To Thrill (Ire) related to the Group 1-winning juveniles Thunder Moon (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Vert De Grece (Ire) (Verglas {Ire}). As if all that wasn't enough, the third dam is the champion 2-year-old filly Talking Picture (Speak John) who acts as ancestress to countless stakes winners including Forgotten Rules (Ire) (Nayef) who was third in the Gold Cup.

Big Rock | Scoop Dyga

Big Rock's biggest issue will be that the ground is going to ride a fair bit livelier than at Ascot, perhaps more in line with that he encountered when coming off second best in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp. His next biggest issue is the fact that the mare who beat him so convincingly in the former contest at last year's Deauville August festival is in the line-up.

It is fair to say that Cheveley Park Stud's Breeders' Cup heroine Inspiral (GB) (Frankel (GB)) takes some knowing, so the absence of Frankie Dettori could be her main problem regardless of the undisputed talent of Kieran Shoemark. Scintillating on her seasonal bow in 2022 but overturned on her first run of last term, it is hard to know what to expect from the queen of Clarehaven as she bids to become her owner-breeders' third female to beat the colts in this after Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) in 2004 and Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) in 2006.

Whereas Big Rock's connections would welcome rain, Cheveley Park Stud's Chris Richardson has fingers crossed it stays away. "We hope to run, we've declared, we'll just have to watch the forecast and see what happens," he said. "She didn't enjoy soft ground when she ran in the Sussex and it's still early in the year. We think she's in good form, but we don't want to risk her on ground which doesn't suit as she is unlikely to put her best foot forward."

"She seems to come good in June and maybe that is the way it will work out again. We'd like to get her out earlier if we can, but we'll see what happens between now and Saturday and see what John decides," he added, before pointing out that the G3 Criterion S. winner Audience (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}), a grandson of the aforementioned Peeress, is there to serve his illustrious stablemate. "The two of them have been working together for the last few weeks and he is in there to make sure there's pace in the race," he said. Cont. p7

RACE PREVIEWS

BACK IN THE BIG TIME

by Tom Frary

Saturday sees the return of the sensational G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. winner Big Rock (Fr) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) in Newbury's G1 Al Shaqab Lockinge S., where it is a case of in at the deep end for the trainer if not for the colt in question. While Yeguada Centurion's 4-year-old has obviously been there and has the t-shirt, new handler Maurizio Guarnieri is in maiden territory with the powerhouse who so memorably destroyed the subsequent G1 Dubai Turf winner Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}) by six lengths on British Champions Day at Ascot.

"I received the horse three weeks ago, so I am just starting to get to know him and he is just starting to get know me," Guarnieri explained. "He is a nice horse, like a nice man, he is quiet all the time and causes no problems, he is very easy. I did a canter with him on the racetrack at Chantilly with a lead horse and his rider Aurelien Lemaitre and he did the minimum, so I'm not sure if he is ready to run and what percent of his potential he is at or not. But his jockey said he is always this way and the horse is always quiet in the morning. A lot of good horses are this way."

Inspiral | Scoop Dyga

Should the big two miss a beat, Nurlan Bizakov's Charyn (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) will be poised to take advantage having cut an admirably professional figure on his two starts so far in 2024. A strong finisher at the trip, he holds Poker Face (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) on the form of last month's G2 Sandown Mile and the Gosdens will know what how Inspiral compares having saddled the third in that contest, Lord North (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

"The rain won't harm Charyn, but he's a versatile horse in terms of ground and we won't mind conditions on Saturday," trainer Roger Varian said. "It's a nice position to be in when you are not sweating on the weather and he is in good form. I was very impressed with him at Sandown and he was very powerful through the line. He will have to do more to win the Lockinge, but he goes there as one of the frontrunners in the market and deservedly so, and it is exciting."

Poker Face is one of the "darker" horses in the line-up alongside Clipper Logistics' G2 Dullingham Park S. winner Flight Plan (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), who always gave the impression he would be a better 4-year-old last term. Also at Newbury, The King and The Queen's G1 St Leger third Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) returns in the G3 Sky Sports Racing Aston Park S., while the Listed Haras de Bouquetot Fillies' Trial S. sees some Oaks prospects line up headed by Juddmonte's Sandown novice winner Siyola (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}). The form of that win was boosted this week by the third Secret Satire (GB) (Advertise {GB})

O'Brien added, "Really excited to have Mrs Banke, Mr [Tracy] Farmer and Mr [John] Oxley in the ownership group. He is our first horse for Stonestreet and Mr Farmer and obviously we've had success with Mr Oxley in the past. Hopefully it is a long-lasting partnership and Cowardofthecounty can be a special colt for us this season."

Cowardofthecounty carried the colours of ES Racing on his first and only start to date at the Curragh. Bred by Lismacue Stud, he was bought by Glenvale Stud for €98,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale before being knocked down to KR Bloodstock for 100,000gns at Book 2 at Tattersalls.

While Stonestreet Stables and Tracy Farmer are new additions to the O'Brien stable, Oxley has had plenty of success with the young trainer, headed by Group 1-winning filly Pretty Gorgeous (Fr) (Lawman {Fr}).

FIELD OF 25 REMAINS IN BETFRED OAKS CONTENTION

Following the latest scratching stage, 25 fillies remain in the G1 Betfred Oaks set for Epsom Downs on Friday, May 31.

The 1 1/2-mile race features 15 fillies trained in Britain, nine from Ireland one from France, with the Coolmore partners' Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in pole position and 5-2 in the wagering markets on Betfred. The G1 Fillies' Mile heroine ran fifth in the G1 1000 Guineas earlier this month. Cont. p8

She is one of seven Aidan O’Brien trainees, with the listed-placed Rubies Are Red (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and G1 Prix Marcel Bousac victress Opera Singer (Justify) also part of the septet.

Another Irish trainer represented is Dermot Weld, who will saddle His Highness The Aga Khan’s Ezeliya (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), successful in the G3 Salsabil S. near the end of April.

Ralph Beckett’s six entries are anchored by recent Listed Cheshire Oaks winner Forest Fairy (Ire) (Waldgeist {GB}), and You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) is also coming off a win in the Listed Oaks Trial Fillies’ S. at Lingfield over Rubies Are Red. Andrew Balding has entered G3 Musidora S. winner Secret Satire (GB) (Advertise {GB}).

Fourth in the 1000 Guineas was David Menuisier trainee Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), and the debut winner Siyola (Ire) (Siyouni (Fr)) hails from the barn of John and Thady Gosden.

OVER 45 ENTRIES FOR THE TATTERSALLS ONLINE BREEZE-UP SESSION

A total of 47 lots have been catalogued for the upcoming Tattersalls Online Breeze-Up Session during the Tattersalls Online June Sale from June 5-6.

The first ‘breeze’ will occur over the all-weather at Chelmsford City Racecourse on Tuesday, May 21 at 10 a.m., featuring an octet of breezers. The second breeze, featuring the remaining breeze-up horses, is scheduled for 10 a.m. at Dundalk Stadium on Tuesday, May 28. Both breeze footage and times will be recorded and published on the Tattersalls Online website on May 30. Spectators are welcome to attend both breeze-up sessions.

Among the 34 sires represented, Ardad (Ire) has a filly who is a half-sister to listed winner and Group 3-placed juvenile Graceful Thunder (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) (lot 19); while Cotai Glory (GB)’s half-sister to Group 3 winner Freedom (Ire) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) is lot 16. There is also a Profitable (Ire) half-brother to five black-type performers, among them Group 1-placed Sunny King (Ire) (Desert Sun {GB}) (lot 38); and finally a Mehmas (Ire) filly (lot 6) out of the listed-placed Sarshampla (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}).

BLACKBEARD'S BROTHER DEBUTS AT NAVAN

13.20 Navan, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, 5f 180yT
TUNBRIDGE WELLS (IRE) (No Nay Never) is a full-brother to last year's G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. hero Blackbeard (Ire) who bids to book his ticket to Royal Ascot among the Ballydoyle juvenile team. Interestingly, he encounters Dr Ali Al Mutairi's Dr Ali (Ire) (Invincible Army {Ire}) who was third to Tunbridge Wells' stablemate Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) over this course and distance last month.

13.30 Newmarket, Novice, £40,000, 2yo, f, 6fT
MOUNTAIN BREEZE (IRE) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) earned TDN Rising Star status over five furlongs at this track earlier this month and takes aim at another in the Tattersalls £40,000 EBF Fillies' Novice series. Godolphin's half-sister to the juvenile champion Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) has to defy a five-pound penalty against some potentially smart newcomers headed by Juddmonte's Flaming Stone (GB) (Kingman {GB}), an Andrew Balding-trained 425,000gns Tattersalls December Foal Sale purchase who is a half-sister to the G2 Premio Lydia Tesio winner Angel Power (GB) (Lope De Vega {Ire}).

HOW THEY FARED

Betty Clover backed up an Apr. 19 debut triumph at Bath with a runner-up finish at Salisbury earlier this month and stepped forward under an impressive Georgia Dobie ride to register a career high in Europe's second juvenile black-type contest of the season. Positioned off the pace in mid division through the initial fractions, the 12-1 chance inched forward once past halfway and kept on relentlessly under continued rousting in the latter stages to deny Miss Lamia by a half-length nearing the line.

"She was a little bit outpaced halfway through and I thought she might need six [furlongs], but she's really tough and the further she went the better." said Dobie. "She just got there in time and I think she'll be quite exciting over six. She's homebred and has blossomed into a lovely little filly. Everyone adores her [at home] and she's got no quirks and is so straightforward, which I think is the key really." Cont. p10

Owner-breeder-trainer Eve Johnson Houghton added, "I bred her and I'm so wildly excited. That was amazing and I just can't believe it. I thought she had a chance of a place and I thought she had a chance of turning the form round with Running Queen, who got first run on us last time. Georgia gave her the most beautiful ride and I'm very proud of my jockey. She doesn't get many chances, but bloody hell she's good and she should be saluted for that. We have to look at [Royal] Ascot, but I don't know which race. It's a very fast five furlongs at York and she travelled all right into it, but we'll have a think."

Betty Clover is the third of four foals and leading performer from two winners thrown by an unraced granddaughter of Marie Glitters (Fr) (Crystal Glitters), herself a half-sister to G3 Prix Fille de l'Air victrix Marie De Ken (Fr) Kendor {Fr}. Marie De Ken's quartet of stakes performers features the dual Group 1-placed G2 Prix d'Harcourt victrix Ana Marie (Fr) (Anabaa) and GI San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile-winning GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Charmo (Fr) (Charnwood Forest {Ire}). Godolphin homebred Devoted Queen registered victories over seven furlongs at Newmarket in October and over one mile at Kempton in April and maintained her unblemished record with a two-length tally in this black-type debut.

Employing patient tactics towards the rear through halfway, she made smooth headway into contention approaching the final quarter-mile and kept on powerfully under late urging to win, going away, by two lengths from Spiritual for a career high.

"She's really grown up, she was very professional and that was really nice," said assistant trainer Alex Merriam. "The hood definitely helped and Will [Buick] said she's really improved from her last run, so she's going the right way. I mentioned the [G1] Coronation to Charlie [Appleby] and he said 'see what Will thinks'. Will said it's definitely something to consider and we'll see how she comes out of it. He also mentioned that she could do with a bit of juice in the ground, so that might come into consideration as well. She's doing everything the right way round and, watching her there, you'd stick to the mile for now."

Devoted Queen is the fourth foal and scorer, and becomes the second stakes winner, out of the multiple Group-winning G1 Sun Chariot S. third Fintry (Ire) (Shamardal), herself a half-sister to G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein runner-up Lochinver (Kingmambo) and the dual stakes-placed Cross Fell (Cherokee Run). Fintry is the leading performer out of G3 Prix Vanteaux victrix and GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. third Campsie Fells (UAE) (Indian Ridge {Ire}). The February-foaled bay is a half-sister to G3 Autumn S. victor and G1 Futurity Trophy runner-up One Ruler (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and an unnamed 2-year-old filly by Masar (Ire).

Moving forward to take control two out, the 6-4 favourite who holds an entry in the G1 St James's Palace S. drew away to win by 4 3/4 lengths from Under Siege (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). "We couldn't run him last year, but he's come on from the Wood Ditton," explained John Gosden, who seems keen to look towards Royal Ascot. "Obviously the Wood Ditton winner was giving him weight today, but he's pulled nicely clear in the last furlong, that was his most impressive. I think a stiff mile is his game right now--when you look at him he looks like a powerful Dubawi, so I wouldn't want to stretch him out. Something has to take on the Guineas winner. Someone has to finish second and third!" The winner is the first foal out of the operation's G2 Prix de Sandringham winner and G1 Prix Rothschild third Obligate, who is also a granddaughter of the amazing producer Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}). Dubawi's involvement in this family has resulted in two top-level performers in Ironclad (GB) and Forge (GB). Sadly, Obligate's 2022 and 2023 foals by Siyouni (Fr) and No Nay Never both died. Coaxed forward into fourth with three furlongs remaining, the 11-1 chance came under pressure to launch her challenge approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly up the hill to prevail by a neck from Usuario Amigo (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). "They were a proper bunch on pedigrees, well-bred horses. I thought he was very impressive," trainer Joseph O'Brien said of the full-brother to the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte winner and G1 Prix de la Foret and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf runner-up Malavath (Ire) and to Knight (Ire) who was a 'TDN Rising Star' on debut before winning the G3 Horris Hill S. "Dylan said he was quite green early so he just took his time. When he got a bit of room, he said he opened up really well. He looks very smart. "A mile on good ground, around here, was ideal for him today and it all worked out well," Mick Halford said. "We'll see what the handicapper does with him and make a plan from there. He has plenty of size and scope. At home he wouldn't really show you that pace--he's quite lazy and is just a lovely big, long-striding, laid-back horse. STELLENBOSCH GUNNING FOR CLASSIC

DOUBLE IN YUSHUN HIMBA by Heather Anderson

Katsumi Yoshida's Stellenbosch (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}) is aiming to add a second Classic to her resume in Sunday's G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks).

Facing off against 17 other fillies, the daughter of the three-time winner Bloukrans (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) will leave from gate seven under Keita Tosaki. She defeated her G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies conqueress Ascoli Piceno (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) and Listed Elfin S. heroine Light Back (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) in the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) over 1600 metres back in April. If she prevails on Sunday, Stellenbosch would then be poised to become the eighth Japanese Fillies' Triple Crown winner and second in consecutive years after Liberty Island (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn})'s heroics in 2023.

Trainer Sakae Kunieda said, "She didn't get a good position from the start last time, but the jockey did a great job to get her into the race, and she finished well to win with a bit in hand. She's had her usual break at Northern Farm Tenei, and she's returned to the stable refreshed. She weighed a little less for her last race, but the warmer weather is the reason for that."

Fourth in the Oka Sho after closing from last to miss by less than 1 1/4 lengths for all the glory, G2 Tulip Sho winner Sweep Feet (Jpn) (Suave Richard {Jpn}) returns for another crack at Stellenbosch. Trainer Yasushi Shono said, "She went to the farm after her last race, and returned to the stable at the end of April. She recovered quickly from her last run, and she was seen at her best in the Tulip Sho. This next race is at Tokyo, and she'll have to transport over for it, so she won't need such strong work in training. We'll just monitor her condition as we see things."

A filly trying Group 1 waters for the first time is last out G2 Sankei Sports Sho Flora S. heroine Admire Belle (Jpn) (Suave Richard {Jpn}), who was an even length in front of Lavanda (Jpn) (Silver State {Jpn}) in that 2000-metre affair on Apr. 21.

"The race worked out perfectly for her last time, by getting a good position in behind the leaders and biding her time," said trainer Yukihiro Kato of the Junko Kondo colourbearer. "She found a good rhythm, and completed the first five furlongs in about 60 seconds, and was then able to finish off strongly. On that run, the Oaks looks good for her."

Sunday Racing's pair of Cervinia (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) and Queen's Walk (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) are both Group 3 winners that ran unplaced in the Japanese 1000 Guineas and are looking for redemption.

Assistant trainer Taku Fukunaga said of Queen's Walk, "With a tightly packed field in the Oka Sho, it was difficult for her to find a good rhythm. It didn't matter so much about the final result, and since her break at Northern Farm Shigaraki, she's returned to the stable, where we have been tuning her up for this next race. Hopefully, she'll be able to show her best this time."

The G3 Flower Cup one-two Mi Anhelio (Jpn) (Duramente {Jpn}) and Hohelied (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) are also in the line up and leave from gates one and eight, respectively.
