

'IT MEANS A LOT - BUT IT'S A HUGE PLUS WHEN YOU SELL A HORSE TO JOHN MAGNIER'

Paul McCartan: "The word coming out of Ballydoyle about Fairy Godmother was very strong from early on this year." | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

They say it's the hope that kills you. And in the case of Paul McCartan, he had been holding his breath that Fairy Godmother (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) would do something special since as far back as January when he heard his Ballyphilip Stud graduate was burning up the gallops at Ballydoyle.

The annoying thing about hype is that it very rarely carries through to the track. However, the vibes on Fairy Godmother were clearly on the money judging by how the Aidan O'Brien-trained filly entered the Royal Ascot picture with a stunning display in the G3 Coolmore Stud Irish EBF Fillies Sprint S at Naas on Sunday.

Considered a key trial for the royal meeting, the race was won 12 months ago by subsequent G3 Albany S. winner Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio), and to McCartan's delight, Fairy Godmother looks destined to go down a similar path.

The breeder said, "It means a lot. But, I tell ya, it's a huge plus when you sell a horse to John Magnier and it goes on to be trained by Aidan O'Brien and ridden by Ryan Moore. It makes some difference, doesn't it?" Cont. p3

SUCCESSFUL LACKEN RETURN FOR BUCANERO FUERTE By Tom Frary

Showing that he retains all his ability, AMO Racing and Giselle De Aguiar's G1 Phoenix S. and G2 Railway S. winner Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}--Frida La Blonde {Fr}, by Elusive City) made virtually all on his seasonal bow in Sunday's G3 Goffs Lacken S. at Naas. Last seen finishing third in the seven-furlong G1 Vincent O'Brien National S. at The Curragh in September, the 2-1 second favourite who was racing under a three-pound penalty demonstrated his early speed to take control under David Egan and stayed on strongly to deny the 5-4 market-leader Givemethebeatboys (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) by a head.

"He's a nice horse and is going to improve a lot, because we were not hard on him and he will get fit from the race," Robson Aguiar said. "He will go over six furlongs at Ascot. He has great speed and he stays well, so that is the plan for him now." Cont. p4 McCartan added, "As a breeder, you hear plenty of stuff early in the year about how the horses you've sold are getting on. When you get a positive bulletin, you're almost afraid to hear it. The word coming out of Ballydoyle about Fairy Godmother was very strong from early on this year.

"Obviously that made it very exciting and all that but, to tell you the truth, I didn't even go and see her on debut and I stayed at home again today for fear of jinxing her! It's a huge thing for us. We've only ever sold Coolmore two horses--the first was The Antarctic (Ire) and now this filly looks potentially very good as well. They're very good at buying and it's just very special for a breeder that such high-class people can continue on all the hard work that we've put into them."

Just the second foal out of Scintilating (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}), a black-type producer already through Sketch (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}), Fairy Godmother was knocked down to MV Magnier at the Book 1 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale for 425,000gns. Getting big sums of money in the ring is nothing new to McCartan and of course it's a necessity in order to sustain a thriving stud farm. But it's results on the track, according to the breeder, that really drives business.

He explained, "It's great when you get money in the ring but you won't continue to get money if you don't produce good racehorses. Thankfully we've produced a few nice horses down through the years but there's always a pressure to go and repeat the trick and keep the buyers coming back.

"I've often said that, even if we got one stakes winner a year, that would nearly be enough to sustain the size of an operation that we have. We've had a few nice runners so far this year--we pinhooked the Marygate Stakes runner-up Miss Lamai (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire})--and now this filly looks like she could be very smart."

He added, "It's a great result for the mare. Her first foal was Sketch and he won first time out and got black-type before being sold to America so hopefully he can do a bit more out there. Then Fairy Godmother is the second foal. She has a very nice filly foal by Havana Grey (GB) as a well. She hasn't been covered yet so we have something to think about now!"

Bookmakers were suitably impressed by Fairy Godmother on Sunday with many firms slashing her odds for the Albany from as big as 10-1 in places to a general 5-1. Cont. p4

McCartan concluded, "She's a monster. She was actually a monster as a foal as well. She has always been an outstanding filly. I can remember looking at the foals in the field one day and my phone rang. It was Joe Murphy on the other end of the line. I said to him, 'Joe, I'm looking at a filly foal and, do you know what, I think she's going to go on and win the Queen Mary in a couple of years' time'. Now, the only part I got wrong there was that I said the Queen Mary, but I'll happily take the Albany instead!"

FAIRY GODMOTHER EXHIBITS AN ARRAY OF GEARS IN THE FILLIES SPRINT AT NAAS

Fairy Godmother (near side) | PA Media

By Sean Cronin

Aidan O’Brien trainee Fairy Godmother (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Scintilating {GB}, by Siyouni {Fr}) was usurped by Sparkling Sea (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) on debut at Naas last month and returned over the same six-furlong strip to exact revenge on that reopposing rival in Sunday’s G3 Coolmore Stud Irish EBF Fillies Sprint.

Ryan Moore was keen to settle the 6-5 favourite into a smooth rhythm and anchored his mount at the tail of the six-runner field through the initial exchanges of this straight dash. Easing closer onto the heels of the leaders approaching the furlong pole, Fairy Godmother angled outside for her challenge and unleashed an array of gears under late rousing to deny familiar foe Sparkling Sea by an ultimately comfortable neck in the shadow of the post. Amo Racing’s California Dreamer (GB) (Mehmas {Ire}) finished 3/4-of-a-length adrift in third.

“We thought that she would win the first day, but she was very green and obviously with a first-time-out 2-year-old anything can happen,” the winning trainer said. “The filly that beat her [first time] is obviously a very good filly. Even though they went slow today, the plan was to drop her in and teach her and we needed to find out what way to ride her in [Royal] Ascot. Ryan [Moore] said she’s very classy and gets six [furlongs] very well. I’d say she’s an Albany filly and she will have learned a lot from today.” Cont. p6

TEOFILO'S ALESSIO SWOOPS LATE TO GARNER BERLIN FEATURE By Sean Cronin

With the late scratching of Germany's leading marathoner and morning line favourite Lordano (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}), jockey Rene Piechulek made the switch to Gestut Ittlingen's alternate Alessio (Ger) (Teofilo {Ire}--Alandia {Ire}, by Adlerflug {Ger}) and made the most of that ownermate's absence to register a career high in Sunday's G2 Comer Group International 53rd Oleander-Rennen at Hoppegarten.

Alessio, who ran sixth in 2022's G1 Deutsches Derby, notched a first pattern-race win in October's G3 The Land Trophy at Baden-Baden and brought the curtain down on 2023 with a runner-up finish in November's G3 St Leger Italiano at the San Siro in Milan when last seen. He occupied a stalking role in second for most of this two-mile stamina test. Bustled along at the top of the home straight, the 17-5 second choice slipped to third with 300 metres remaining and rallied gamely under a final-furlong drive to collar old rival Waldadler (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) by a head on the line. Last term's third Nastaria (GB) (Outstrip {GB}) hit the board once more and finished 3/4-of-a-length adrift of the front two.

In a strange turn of events, Lordano's 11th-hour withdrawal provided Piechulek with the opportunity of replacing rider Sybille Vogt aboard Alessio. Vogt suffered an arm injury during the preliminaries of the first race on the card. "Of course I'm a little sorry for Sibylle [Vogt] that she couldn't make the ride," the winning jockey told GaloppOnline. "Alessio was very brave today and fought really well to prevail."

Pedigree Notes

Alessio, one of his sire's 65 pattern-race winners, is the third of seven foals and one of two black-type performers produced by a dual-winning half-sister to three stakes winners headed by G1 Prix du Cadran hero and three-time winner of this contest Altano (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}). The March-foaled homebred bay's third dam is G3 Deutscher Stutenpreis-winning G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Arastou (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}), who threw G2 Prix de Pomone winner Abitara (Ire) (Rainbow Quest). SAXON WARRIOR'S BORNA PROVES TOO STRONG IN ITALIAN DERBY

By Adam Houghton

German raider Borna (Fr) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) ran out a comfortable winner of Sunday's G2 Premio 141 Derby Italiano at Capannelle Racecourse in Rome, his third win from five career starts for Markus Klug.

Stepping up to the 2,200-metre trip for the first time, Borna proved well suited by the extra emphasis on stamina in a race run on soft ground. He was soon in a prominent position on the outer in the hands of Andreas Starke, with Amonet (Ity) (Faydhan) leading the 15-strong field until he was passed with 600 metres to run. Despite hanging right, Borna produced a strong run which took him to the front inside the final 400 metres and from there he quickly forged clear to secure the lion's share of the €640,200 prize fund at odds of 87-20. At the line, he was two and a half lengths clear of Andrew Balding's Royal Supremacy (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}), with Caos Calmo (Ity) (Affaire Solitaire {Ire}) faring best of the locally-trained runners in third.

Offered by Haras des Capucines at the Arqana October Yearling Sale, Borna sold to the HFTB Racing Agency for €20,000 and later made the perfect start to his career when winning a conditions race at Baden-Baden in August last year. He was then fourth in Germany's premier two-year-old race, the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne, before filling the runner-up spot in the G2 Premio Gran Criterium at San Siro. Returning from six months off in a conditions race back at San Siro in April, Borna relished the step up to 2,000 metres as he stayed on strongly to head Caos Calmo in the final strides.

Saxon Warrior | Coolmore

Pedigree Notes

Borna is the fifth Group winner for Coolmore Stud resident Saxon Warrior and the first from his second crop of three-year-olds. The standout performers from his first crop included the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Victoria Road (Ire), G2 Blandford S. winner Lumiere Rock (Ire) and G3 Prix Greffulhe victor Greenland (Ire).

Bred by Haras D'Ecouvies, Borna is the second winner from four runners out of the King's Best mare Kingdom Come (Fr). She ran 18 times in France without managing to win a race, but there is nothing wrong with her pedigree as a half-sister to the G2 Prix Hocquart winner Top Trip (GB) (Dubai Destination) and the multiple G3 winner Believe In Love (Ire) (Make Believe {GB}). Their dam, Topka (Fr) (Kahyasi {Ire}), was a black-type performer who finished third in the G2 Prix de Malleret as a three-year-old.

40TH TDN RISING STAR FOR DUBAWI AS ANCIENT TRUTH FIRES

By Tom Frary

Newmarket bore witness to a new TDN Rising Star on Sunday as Godolphin's Ancient Truth (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}--Beyond Reason {Ire}), by Australia (GB) got his career off to the perfect start in the opening six-furlong novice on the card. A full-brother to last year's TDN Rising Star Great Truth (Ire) and second foal out of the G2 Prix du Calvados winner Beyond Reason (Ire) (Australia (GB)), the Charlie Appleby-trained 5-2 favourite broke smartly to track the early pace in second before taking command two out.

Pushed out by William Buick to assert his superiority from there, the homebred had a comfortable 1 1/2-length margin to spare over the Hannon trainee Principality (Ire) (Calyx (GB)), with the Ralph Beckett-trained fellow newcomer Bold Impact (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) 1 3/4 lengths further away in third. "He did everything right and you couldn't ask for better on a debut," the winning rider said. "He has a lovely pedigree. He was alone for a long way in front, so I just let him drift a bit late."

Appleby's assistant trainer Alex Merriam added, "We were pretty confident at home with him, but Charlie never pushes them so you are never quite sure what you have got until you get to the track and a few of ours have improved for their first run this year. He did drift a little bit, but that was nothing too sinister. He was in front for quite a long time, as nothing really carried him into the race so he had to do what he had to do."

"He doesn't qualify for the [Listed] Chesham Stakes at Royal Ascot, so Charlie said we will look at giving him one more run then look at the [G2] Superlative with him. It is a race Charlie has used for nice horses and we will go there and work away from there. Will said he would get seven furlongs, so it is probably the ideal race for him."

Pedigree Notes

The winner is a landmark 40th TDN Rising Star for Dubawi, whose others in the category include Too Darn Hot (GB), In Italian (GB), Space Blues (Ire), Zarak (Fr) and the yard's current luminary Notable Speech (GB). Beyond Reason, who also took the G3 Prix Six Perfections as a juvenile, is the leading performer out of the GIII Gallorette H. winner No Explaining (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) from the family of the GII American H. winner and GI Eddie Read H. runner-up Bayamo (Ire) and the champion Key To The Mint. Beyond Reason also has a yearling colt by Lope De Vega (Ire).

GERMAN 2000 GUINEAS CENTRE STAGE ON MONDAY By Tom Frary

Ten Bob Tony | PA Media

Cologne is the focal point of the next European Classic action on Monday, with the G2 Coolmore St Mark's Basilica German 2000 Guineas hosting the unbeaten Maigret (Ger) (Counterattack {Aus}) and a pair of British raiders in Devil's Point (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) and Ten Bob Tony (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). While the former looked the best of his generation at around this trip when winning Krefeld's 8 1/2-furlong G3 Dr Busch-Memorial last month, the foreign contingent have been mixing it in the big time with Ten Bob Tony taking part in the G1 2000 Guineas.

Darker prospects are the course-and-distance Hein Bollow-Memorial first and second Iron Man (Ger) (Tai Chi {Ger}) and Penalty (Ger) (Frankel {GB}), with the latter two kilos better off for a 1 1/4-length defeat.

At Saint-Cloud, the G2 Prix Corrida sees last year's G2 Prix de Pomone winner and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Melo Melo (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}) tackle the Wertheimers' TDN Rising Star Pensee Du Jour (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) who was runner-up in ParisLongchamp's G3 Prix Allez France last month.

OPERA SINGER COULD BE SET FOR BELATED RETURN IN IRISH 1,000 GUINEAS

Opera Singer | Scoop Dyga

Group 1-winning filly Opera Singer (Justify) could be on course to make her eagerly anticipated return in the Irish 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh.

Last year's leading juvenile filly ended her campaign with a five-length win in the Prix Marcel Boussac, a performance that placed her at the head of the ante-post market for the 1,000 Guineas at Newmarket.

However, Opera Singer met with a setback which delayed her return but she is now all set to lead Aidan O'Brien's team at the Curragh.

"At the moment for the 1,000 Guineas it's the two Kingman (GB) fillies, Buttons (Ire) and Everlasting (Ire), who will need to be supplemented, and Opera Singer. Pearls And Rubies (No Nay Never) could also start there," O'Brien said.

"In the 2,000 Guineas we have River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)), Unquestionable (Fr) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) and Mountain Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) might run, but he's only starting back. River Tiber is the most forward of the three at the moment. The ones that haven't run will improve from their races."

O'Brien has also decided to stay closer to home with the well-travelled Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who will bypass the Coronation Cup at Epsom in favour of the Tattersalls Gold Cup.

He said, "Auguste Rodin will go for the Tattersalls Gold Cup, that is the plan and we're very happy with him. He's doing everything good so far. Hopefully we will run something along with him to make it an even pace."

MENUISIER SAYS SUNWAY WILL BE READY TO SHINE IN THE FRENCH DERBY

Sunway | Scoop Dyga

David Menuisier says he has full confidence in star colt Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) showing his true colours in the Prix du Jockey Club. Always held in the highest regard by connections, Sunway finished ahead of 2,000 Guineas runner-up Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) when second in the Champagne S. at Doncaster last year before going on to end his two-year-old campaign with a Group 1 triumph in the Criterium International at Saint-Cloud.

Having blown away the cobwebs at ParisLongchamp in the early part of the 2024 season, the three-year-old returned to the scene of his finest hour for the Prix Greffulhe.

Although beaten a neck in what is regarded a key French Derby trial, Sunway's handler has confirmed the colt remains on track to compete in the 10-furlong contest on June 2.

"He has come out of his race at Saint-Cloud really well and we are going to prepare him for the Prix du Jockey Club now and hopefully he can keep improving. Chantilly is still the plan," said Menuisier.

Menuisier is also keen to see if he can register a Group victory with Sirona (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) this term, having seen the four-year-old finish a close-up third on her stable bow in Lingfield's Chartwell Fillies' S.

"I was delighted with her," the trainer reflected. "She ran a bit fresh and was a bit keen but she showed her true potential and it was great. Hopefully we can secure a Group race with her and see how much improvement we can get out of her.

"She's not easy to place because I would like to stay against fillies but it is not always that easy. She could possibly go to Haydock for the John of Gaunt against the colts and that is one option amongst several really."

VARIAN HAS ROYAL ASCOT PLAN FOR BRILLIANT 1,000 GUINEAS WINNER ELMALKA

Roger Varian | Dubai Racing Club

Roger Varian has confirmed that Elmalka (GB) (Kingman (GB)) will be given the chance to join the select band of fillies to claim the 1,000 Guineas and Coronation S. when she heads to Royal Ascot for her next start.

The daughter of Kingman provided the Carlburg Stables handler with his first triumph in the fillies' Classic when coming home strongly in the hands of Silvestre de Sousa earlier this month and Varian has been delighted with how she has responded since her big-race triumph at Newmarket.

With no rush to stretch out to 10 furlongs, Varian now plans to remain at a mile and see if Elmalka can emulate the likes of Russian Rhythm, Attraction and Sky Lantern, who are just some to follow up Classic success on the Rowley Mile at the Royal meeting.

Varian said, "She's doing great and is in good form, she's come out of her race very well and we couldn't be more pleased with her to be honest.

"I think she will probably go to Royal Ascot for the Coronation Stakes next. I think she will sharpen up for her run in the Guineas. I have no doubt she will stay 10 furlongs, but I don't think we have to rush up to 10." Cont. p11

Aidan O'Brien's Winter was the last filly to complete the Newmarket/Ascot double in 2017 and Elmalka's trainer is confident her best days could still be ahead of her, with her Guineas triumph coming on just her third career start.

He added, "She is entitled to be a bit more streetwise at Ascot than she was at Newmarket and hopefully, even though she has won a Guineas, we will be able to see her best is still to come. The Guineas was only her third start and I thought she was a bit green in stages, so I think she will improve for the run."

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN ANNOUNCED AS PATRON OF THE TBA

Her Majesty The Queen | FocusOnRacing

Ahead of the 10th anniversary of the TBA National Hunt Breeders' Awards, which takes on Monday May 20, The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association announced the appointment of Her Majesty The Queen as its Patron, succeeding the late Queen Elizabeth II who was Patron for 68 years from 1954 until her death in September 2022.

Her Majesty The Queen has held a longstanding interest in the breeding and owning of thoroughbreds across both National Hunt and Flat codes, enjoying her first home-bred winner with Royal Superlative in 2009, then as the Duchess of Cornwall, which she co-owned and bred with her husband King Charles III.

She also takes a great interest in a host of other equestrian sports and works with a wide number of organisations that help to promote racing education and welfare and is notably the patron of the National Stud in Newmarket along with recently announced, York Racecourse.

Claire Sheppard, Chief Executive of the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association said, "We are deeply honoured that Her Majesty The Queen has agreed to take up the Patronage of the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association. Her enthusiasm and support for thoroughbred breeding over many years will be a great asset as we continue to deliver vital initiatives to ensure a sustainable future for the breed."

on the European racing scene

DAUGHTER OF FALLEN FOR YOU ON DECK FOR WINDSOR DEBUT

18.10 Windsor, Mdn, £40,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 8f 31yT
 Normandie Stud's hitherto unraced FIGHT FOR YOU (IRE) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), a John and Thady Gosden trainee, is a half-sister to three black-type performers produced by connections' G1 Coronation S. heroine Fallen For You (GB) (Dansili {GB}). She is the lone debutante in a fully-subscribed field of 14 and her rivals include stablemate Cat Ninja (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}), who is a George Strawbridge-owned 350,000gns Tattersalls Book 1 half-sister to G1 1000 Guineas heroine Cachet (Ire) (Aclaim {Ire}); Godolphin's 600,000gns Tattersalls Book 1 acquisition Aurora's Beauty (Ire) (Bated Breath {GB}), who is a half-sister to dual G1 Lockinge S. placegetter Chindit (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), from the Charlie Appleby nursery; and Hughie Morrison trainee Samoon Star (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is a daughter of G1 Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks runner-up Shirocco Star (GB) (Shirocco Ger) and thus a full-sister to dual Group 2-winning G1 Jebel Hatta and G1 Al Quoz Sprint third Al Suhail (GB).

14.33 Saint-Cloud, Mdn, €30,000, unraced 2yo, f, 6fT

Christopher Head trainee ANGEAL (IRE) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), a daughter of G1 E. P Taylor S. victrix and G1 Irish Oaks third Curvy (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), makes her debut in a contest won in 2021 by subsequent G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine and G1 1000 Guineas fourth Zellie (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). The €110,000 Goffs Orby graduate is set to face seven rivals in this newcomers' heat.

16.25 Saint-Cloud, Mdn, €27,000, unraced 3yo, c/g, 12fT

Alain and Gerard Wertheimer's CREATIF (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}), representing the Carlos Laffon-Parias stable, is a homebred son of G3 Prix d'Aumale victrix and G1 Prix Saint-Alary placegetter Soustraction (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}). His nine rivals include Manigod (Fr) (American Devil {Fr}), who is a gelded half-brother to multiple Grade 1-winning hurdler and recent G2 Yorkshire Cup second Vauban (Fr) (Galiway {GB}), from the Philippe Decouz stable; and Princess Zahra Aga Khan's Darajbal (Fr) (Iffraaj {GB}), who is a Mikel Delzangles-trained relative of multiple Group 1-winning G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar). Last year's renewal was won by recent G3 Prix d'Hedouville victor Goliath (Ger) (Adlerflug {GB}).

HOW THEY FARED15.45 Newmarket, Novice, £21,000, 2yo, 6fT

Ancient Truth (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), the son of the G2 Prix du Calvados winner Beyond Reason (Ire) (Australia {GB}), earned TDN Rising Star status with a smooth win on debut and is bound for the G2 Superlative S. that so many of the Charlie Appleby stable's luminaries have ended up in.

WOODHAY WONDER (GB) (f, 3, Tamayuz {GB})--Luang Prabang {Ire}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}, last year's £100,000 Tattersalls Somerville Auction S. and £150,000 Tattersalls October Auction S. winner and G3 Duchess of Cambridge S. third who had returned in winning form over this course and distance at the Craven meeting, enjoyed a lead throughout the early stages. Edging ahead passing two out, the 2-1 favourite had to fight to stave off the challenge of Completely Random (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) but had what it took to prevail by a neck. "She has been a star for the yard and she is as tough as they come," trainer Tom Ward said. "She loves this track, but she is as tough as nails and you could run her anywhere you wanted. The owners aren't there to get black-type. They just want to have a horse running in fun races on big days. There is a £100,000 handicap at York in about a month's time and that could be a good option. The only race at Royal Ascot for her is the Palace of Holyroodhouse Handicap which is over a stiff five furlongs. I'm sure her owners would love the day out and she would deserve a place in it, but it is whether she would be sharp enough for it. She has taken over £200,000 now in prize money and she was a 26,000 guineas purchase, so she doesn't need to do anything else in her career." The dam, who also has the unraced 2-year-old colt Harryella (GB) (Postponed {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Saxon Warrior (Jpn), is a daughter of the GII Sheepshead Bay H. winner Sauvage (Fr) (Sri Pekan). SUBSTITUTE (IRE) (f, 2, Bungle Inthejungle {GB})--Secret Existence {Ire} {MSP-Fr}, by Sakhee's Secret {GB} broke a shade tardily and chased the leaders in a fourth after the initial strides of this debut. Caught in a pocket approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 14-1 chance was shaken up to seize an opening with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and ran on well under mild urging in the closing stages to defeat Titan Blue (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) by 1 1/4 lengths in ultimately snug fashion. Substitute is the latest of four foals and third scorer from as many runners produced by Listed Prix Isonomy and Listed Prix Melisande third Secret Existence (Ire) (Sakhee's Secret {GB}), herself a granddaughter of multiple black-type winner Hanzala (Fr) (Akarad {Fr}). Taking over after two furlongs, the 5-6 favourite held sway for the remainder of this sophomore bow and stayed on relentlessly under whipless urging inside the final three furlongs to hold Winter Life (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) by a comfortable 3/4-of-a-length margin. Sea Regal is the fourth foal and scorer out of a winning full-sister to G2 Coventry S. victor and G1 Phoenix S. and G1 Middle Park S. placegetter Buratino (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}). Her stakes-winning third dam Adonesque (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) ran third in the G3 Meld S. and is kin to three black-type winners headed by dual Group 1-winning sire Danehill Dancer (Ire) (Danehill). Labelled a TDN Rising Star at two, Aesop's Fables looked one of his stable's leading lights when taking the G2 Futurity S. before his fortunes dipped slightly. Winless in his next eight starts prior to registering a personal best when third in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October, he filled the same spot in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint before finishing last in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint. Seventh in his warm-up in the Listed

Woodlands S. here last month, the half-brother to Washington DC took time to build into this from mid-division but worked his way to the front inside the last half a furlong to deny Twilight Jet.

"He came really good last year and was only just beaten in an Abbaye and a Breeders Cup Sprint," Aidan O'Brien said. "He usually takes a few runs to get right. We ran him the last day in blinkers on soft ground and he ran very keen and just didn't finish out, so we left them off him today. We thought that it mightn't happen today, but he might be ready for Ascot so it's lovely that he did that and Ryan said he could have done with a bit more cover as he likes to be buried and produced late. He's a big, powerful fast horse. He's hardy and a real sprinter. Probably five is his trip and six stretches him. We are thinking of the five at Ascot."

The winner is the last foal out of the Listed Land O'Burns Fillies' S. winner How's She Cuttin' (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}), whose aforementioned son Washington DC took the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. and was second in the Abbaye. She was also responsible for Ballydoyle's G3 Chester Vase runner-up Sandhurst (Ire) (Gaileo {Ire}), while the family also features the G1 St James's Palace S.-winning sire Grand Lodge.

Solid at this level, Mutassarref already boasted wins in the 2022 Listed Platinum S. and the Listed Knockaire S. last October and a third in the G3 Desmond S. in August. Third on his seasonal return in the Listed Gladness S. at The Curragh last month, the Ger Lyons stable stalwart tracked the early pace before grinding his way to the front inside the last 100 yards. "The more trouble he gets into in a race, the more he seems to like it," Lyons said. "That's his grade and trip--a mile is just a tad beyond him. He's like Power Under Me. This fella handles this ground and Power doesn't, but they are the same type of horse."

The dam, who is kin to the triple group winner and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas third Mustajeeb (GB) (Nayef), is connected to the G3 Hotham S. winner Great House (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the G3 Prix Miesque winner Aboulie (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and this stable's Listed Ingabelle S. winner Panama Red (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}). TREASURE ISLE (IRE) (c, 2, No Nay Never--Newton's Night {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), who registered an Apr. 21 debut second going five furlongs at the Curragh last time, broke sharply and poached an immediate two-length lead in a contest won last year by subsequent dual Group 1-placed G2 Coventry S. victor River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}). Holding sway throughout, the 8-13 favourite came under pressure approaching the final furlong and was driven out in the closing stages to withstand the persistent threat of Saratoga Special (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) by a half-length. "Ryan [Moore] said he was very green and was surprised how green he was as he was swapping and changing and looking," commented Aidan O'Brien. "He felt that he had plenty still to learn, but has a lot of speed. We thought he was going to be one for Royal Ascot and hopefully he knows enough. He certainly has the speed for it and we'll see how he takes the run and how much he comes on from it. River Tiber won this last year and went on to win the Coventry, but this horse will be very happy staying at five [furlongs]." Treasure Isle is the latest of seven live foals and fourth scorer out of a winning full-sister to Gill Orchid S. victrix Dress Rehearsal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Dress Rehearsal, in turn, is the dam of stakes-winning G3 Stanerra S. second Traisha (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Listed Oyster S. victrix Baby Pink (Ire)

CERVINIA CLAIMS SECOND JEWEL OF JAPANESE TRIPLE TIARA

In a gutsy bounce back to form after only managing 13th place in the G1 Oka Sho, Cervinia (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) found redemption in the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) on Sunday at Tokyo Racecourse when she ran down said Japanese 1,000 Guineas winner Stellenbosch (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}).

Cervinia | Horsephotos

Having made her debut in June of her juvenile season, Cervinia graduated from the maiden condition at second-asking in August 2023 and claimed her first Group victory two months later in the G3 Artemis S. Slated for the year-end championship-making G1 Hanshin Juvenile Fillies after qualifying through her Artemis victory, she was withdrawn after developing what was described as a 'minor problem in her hind leg'. She made her seasonal bow in the Oka Sho on Apr. 7.

Leaving the gate well and in no rush early, Cervinia settled comfortably among cover inside the back flight of runners as Windstille (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) and Shonan Manuela (Jpn) (Just a Way {Jpn}) took up the mantle of setting the pace. By the 1800 metre marker, the leading pair had built up a five length advantage and were trying to widen their margin as Windstille took over coming up the back part of the course. The trailing pack was closing ranks as the final bend approached and by the 600 metre mark, positions were dynamically changing when the last of the early pacesetters threw out a white flag, and was inhaled by her rivals.

Cervinia in the meanwhile had inched closer to the front and was sent wide entering the home straight with runners fanning out deep into the course. Stellenbosch stuck to the inner lanes and had a path open up in front of her for clear sailing, providing her a narrow lead. With the wire rapidly approaching, Cervinia had lengths to make up on the favorite, but was closing fast, and produced enough in the final strides to deny Stellenbosch by a half-length. Light Back (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) too closed from the rear of the field, 15th at one point, to claim the last of the trifecta positions.

"I'm back," said jockey Christophe Lemaire in a post-race interview. It was his fourth victory in the contest following Soul Stirring (Jpn) in 2017, Almond Eye (Jpn) in 2018, and Stars on Earth (Jpn) in 2022; the most by a currently active jockey. Lemaire returned to action in early May after being hospitalized from a fall on Dubai World Cup night.

"It's a wonderful feeling. The filly didn't do well in the Oka Sho but I know how high her potential is and was very confident today. I tried not to let her make an early bid--let her find her stride after turning into the straight--and she just stretched beautifully from there."

Pedigree Notes

It's a family affair in the G1 Yushun Himba for Cervinia's female line as her dam Cecchino (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) was herself a runner-up in 2016. Lemaire finished 10th in that edition aboard Angel Face (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) before his first victory the year following. The Oaks was Cecchino's last race before a two-year hiatus, one from which she returned not quite the same filly she left.

Retired to a broodmare career, the redemption arc completed for both mother and daughter here, but Cervinia is not her only accomplished offspring. The mare also claims G3 Niigata Kinen victor Nocking Point (Jpn) (Maurice {Jpn}) to her tally from two to the races. Her third on the ground is a now 2-year-old named Arlecchino (Jpn) (Bricks and Mortar), who has not started yet, and she's since produced a yearling colt by Epiphaneia (Jpn). Cecchino was bred to Efforia (Jpn) for this season.

Beneath the second dam Happy Path (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), a multimillionaire racehorse in her own right, the Group 1 performances further dot the catalogue page as Cecchino's full-brother Codino (Jpn) ran second in the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity S. and third in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2,000 Guineas) in addition to being a multiple Group winner. Half-sister Pastophoria (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S) produced last year's G2 Sankei Sports Hai Hanshin Himba S. runner-up Sublime Anthem (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}), who made a return appearance in the contest last month to run ninth.

This is the immediate family of Japanese champion older mare Shinko Lovely (Caerleon).

SURFACE, LOCATION PROVIDE THE DRAW AS FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC MAY SALE OPENS MONDAY

Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sales grounds | Fasig-Tipton

by Jessica Martini

TIMONIUM, MD - The juvenile sales season makes its annual stopover in Maryland when the two-day Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training opens Monday morning at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium.

After a rain-interrupted under-tack show last week, skies were still overcast but there was no rain during a busy day of showing for consignors Sunday.

“We have had so much foot traffic up to this point so far,” said consignor Randy Miles. “Even yesterday, early in the morning in the rain, they were still coming. So far, I think it's great.”

Consignor Jesse Hoppel had similar observations over at his barn Sunday morning.

“It's been busy,” Hoppel said. “This morning we haven't stopped showing horses. And it's been multiple shows at one time all morning long. We are already getting repository activity, lots of looking, hopefully it will be a good sale.”

The Midlantic May sale is the only major 2-year-old auction which features horses working over a dirt track.

LUKAS BASKS IN PREAKNESS AFTERGLOW

by Christina Bossinakis

Baltimore, MD--The journey from the First Saturday in May through the Preakness can be an arduous one, fraught with activity and often times challenges that can try the most steady nerves. Young and old alike could be heard complaining about exhaustion by the time they made it through Preakness day, however, for some, it provided enough buoyancy to raise the Titanic. Such was the case with D. Wayne Lukas Sunday morning, the day after his colt Seize the Grey (Arrogate) wired the second jewel in the Triple Crown. Despite the haul, in addition to launching his day at 3 a.m., the 88-year-old was in good form, accommodating the periodic wave of visitors passing by the barn. And there was a definite twinkle in his eye. Something only a seventh Preakness win, and the 15th Classic overall, can inspire. Cont. Pg. 4

“I think this surface gives buyers a really good opportunity to sort through the massive number of horses and find what they are looking for,” said Carlos Manresa of Sequel Bloodstock. “I think the horses separate themselves out here better than anywhere else. It gives the buyers a lot of confidence when they go to raise their hand.”

Sequel Bloodstock's 2022 consignment to the Midlantic May sale included the $3.55-million Hejazi (Bernardini), as well as future GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage (Good Magic). The consignment targets the Maryland sale to take advantage of its location at the crossroads of several racing jurisdictions.

“Every year, we like coming here,” Manresa said. “We have a pile of New York-breds and every New York trainer ends up at this sale looking for exactly that. They want to win the Stallion Stakes, they want to win maiden special weights at Saratoga.”

The sale's Midlantic location should help build a stronger middle market, according to Hoppel.

“I think, this time of the year for these trainers, especially middle-market guys, they are so hands on, to have a sale right in their backyard, it is really convenient for them to step over and take a peak at what we have,” Hoppel said.

Along with the usual array of trainers and bloodstock agents shopping the grounds Sunday morning, Wavertree Stable's

Ciaran Dunne said he was seeing a larger than normal number of overseas buyers.

“I'm really impressed by the number of international buyers that Fasig have attracted to the sale--more so than in years past,” Dunne said. “It's a little bittersweet in terms of some of our bigger horses that we'd like to see stay here and run, but it looks like a lot of the better horses will be going abroad.”

A total of 585 juveniles were catalogued for the Midlantic May sale, but Miles thinks this is an auction that should become more of a target for his fellow consignors.

“We as consignors need to think about bringing even more horses here,” Miles said. “Year after year, it gets so much support. We love to come here because of the weather--even though it rains, it's cool. The horses are relaxed. It's a good climate for them this time of year. The sand seems to really help them after the breeze, they seem to recover faster off the sand. It's just a good scenario. I think the buyers like it. I think they can see more of what they want to see.

“Not everything is perfect, but I do like coming up here instead of asking people to come to Ocala in the summertime, because I know what the temperature is right now in Ocala. So coming up here, more people are more likely to come from New York. And you get the middle market coming from Delaware, Pennsylvania. It's just so much easier for everyone.” Cont.

Last year's Midlantic May sale, topped by a $1-million daughter of Arrogate, produced strong results that were within striking distance of the auction's record-setting 2022 renewal. Overall, 375 horses sold for $34,795,500. The average was $92,788--down just 2.7% from the sale record--and the median was $50,000, up 6.4% from 2022.

Bidding at the Maryland State Fairgrounds begins both Monday and Tuesday at 11 a.m.

"He looked really good [this morning]," enthused Lukas, seated in his customary spot outside the track room. "He was the first one out. He looked very sharp. I think he knew he won."

According to Lukas, both the Preakness winner, and Just Steel (Justify), would ship out of Baltimore Monday. Just Steel, fifth behind his stablemate, sustained a condylar fracture to his right foreleg during the race. Lukas indicated that the GI Belmont S., which will be held at Saratoga this year, was a likely target for Seize the Grey.

"I would have to see a good energy level and that soundness, we would go," he said. "If I had to make a decision today, we would go. But I'll give it a couple of days. That's just common sense."

He added, "He'll go back to Churchill before heading to New York, should it be decided to run in the Belmont. I'm sure that Todd [Pletcher] and Chad [Brown], with the depth they've got in their stables, will be involved. And that's their own backyard. Given the fact that it's a mile and a quarter, I think it makes it more enticing."

Later in the morning, Kenny McPeek, seated on a tackbox with new-found celebrity Sonny afoot, was clearly a bit deflated following Kentucky Derby winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents)'s runner-up finish the day before. Despite the disappointment of having a possible Triple Crown run dashed, the trainer gave all the credit to the man who beat him.

"He is amazing. He is super human," he said of Lukas. "I don't see myself, at 88, doing what he is doing. No shot. He is fearless, and I think that is why he wins races like this. He has done it many times because he is so fearless. I have done it a few times myself, but not at the level he has done it."

Also making an appearance later in the morning (needless to say it was much later than Wayne's appearance Sunday), Bob Baffert arrived with his wife Jill to get a look at his own team, including Imagination (Into Mischief), who finished seventh at odds of 4-1. The colt was ridden by Frankie Dettori.

"I talked to Frankie after the race. He broke really well. He said, 'In hindsight, I probably should have just gone.' It didn't work out. We'll just have to get him back home. But he came out of it well."

"I think I've finally figured out what he wants to do. I have been thinking about taking the blinkers off because he's been working so well sitting off a horse. We had that in our mind. He's still pretty immature. He just broke so well. I think if Frankie had to do it again, he would have just let him run. You live and learn. I don't know if we would have beat the winner, he was very good. But this horse still needs to catch up."

Baffert confirmed that Muth (Good Magic), who was scratched Wednesday after spiking a temperature, would remain a bit longer at Pimlico before shipping home.

"He was supposed to leave Tuesday, but I am going to keep him here until Saturday, so I can make sure he's completely recovered," said Baffert.

During the course of the interview, Seize the Grey was pulled out of his stall so Spendthrift's Ned Toffey and Mark Toothaker could have a look at the Preakness winner.

Without missing a beat, Baffert quipped, "Let me see why I didn't buy this horse."

The Wayne and Bob show had begun.

Where Racing Matters

“Let’s get [bloodstock agent] Donato Lanni on the one so I can find out why we didn’t buy this horse,” he said to ripples of laughter.

Baffert trained the colt’s ill-fated sire Arrogate, who was named Champion 3-year-old Colt following wins in the GI Travers S. and GI Breeders’ Cup Classic in 2016.

Lukas has enjoyed success already with the sire, having most recently led Arrogate’s initial Classic winner, Secret Oath, to victory in the 2022 GI Kentucky Oaks.

Seize the Grey was purchased by Roderick Wachman on behalf of MyRacehorse for $300,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

To that point, Lukas said, “I have had so much luck with Arrogate. I probably would have endorsed the purchase because I’ve done so well with him.”

He added, “He’s really a well-conformed horse. He’s a lovely horse that has a lot of balance to him.”

After plenty of playful banter among the group, the two Hall of Famers often broke off into shop talk, unable to resist the chance to catch up.

Baffert, who has been under plenty of fire since the disqualification of Medina Spirit from the 2021 Kentucky Derby, had been muted, largely avoiding speaking to the press, ever since. While not winning the Preakness Saturday, the trainer appeared in a notably lighter mood Sunday morning, enjoying the moment with a good friend while regaling the group with the trademark wit and sharp tongue that may have appeared to have been casualties of the past two years.

However, both trainers appeared to take in the moment all morning, with Lukas summing things up with a playful jab at the media.

“All of you came by here first today, but next time, none of you will,” he said.

As one of his longtime fans, there was no mincing words.

“Wayne, some of us will always stop by your barn first.”

SEIZE THE GREY WON THE PREAKNESS; HIS TRAINER'S GLOW ILLUMINATES THE SPORT

The Week in Review by T.D. Thornton

In terms of positive momentum, the best result in the aftermath of every year’s GI Preakness S. is for the GI Kentucky Derby winner to triumph again in Baltimore, setting up a potential Triple Crown bid that infuses the sport with a three-week burst of buoyancy leading up to the GI Belmont S.

In the majority of years that doesn’t happen, which is why the elusive Triple Crown is so special. So the next-best result is an exciting race with a compelling storyline.

Saturday’s 149th Preakness didn’t quite deliver on the “exciting race” wish, either. Tactically, the middle jewel of the Triple Crown unfolded like a lot of eight-horse routes conducted over muddy conditions at any level of the game over any track in America: A 9-1 speed horse who relished the “off” going went straight to the front, contenders who were expected to press him either weren’t up to the task or couldn’t get good footing, and the hard-trying favorite, despite enjoying a no-excuse stalking trip, simply had too much work to do at the top of the stretch to reel in the mudlark.

But the “compelling storyline” angle? The Preakness slammed this one out of the park.

It’s difficult not to crack a smile at the witticisms of 88-year-old Hall-of-Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas while feeling an appreciative glow for how, in the autumn years of a storied career, he’s honed the overachieving Seize the Grey (Arrogate) into a Classics winner, mentored and motivated 25-year-old rookie rider Jaime Torres, and taken 2,570 MyRacehorse micro-share owners for the ride of a lifetime by orchestrating an upset for his seventh lifetime Preakness win, second-most by a trainer behind only Bob Baffert’s eight. Cont.

"The last one is always the sweetest," is how Lukas led off his post-victory media conference. "The last girl you dance with is the one you take home."

Derby Bypass Pays Off...

Lukas, whose throwback style includes racing his stock more often than contemporary trainers, laid the foundation for Seize the Grey's Preakness score by uncharacteristically passing on entering the Derby. Seize the Grey only had 27 qualifying points, and he would have been parked down on the also-eligible list as the likely third-preference to get into the race.

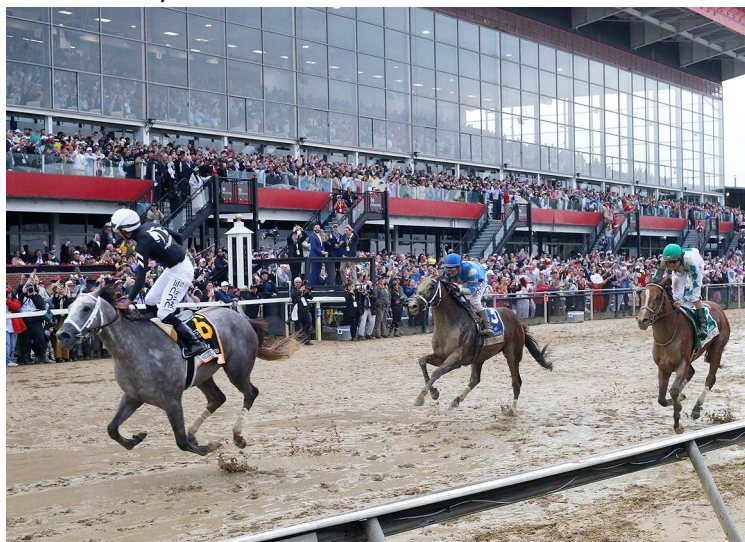

"We'd have been running in the Derby if we'd have had the points," Lukas explained. "It would give that many [micro-share owners] a chance to have a Derby entry. But if we'd have entered, we can't double-enter in Kentucky. So if we'd have entered the Derby and ended up [on the also-eligible list], which we would have, we wouldn't have been able to run in the [GII] Pat Day Mile [S]."

"So [MyRacehorse founder] Mike [Behrens] and I had to make a decision to skip the Derby, go to the Pat Day Mile, or we wouldn't have run anywhere. We'd have had to sit the whole Saturday out. I firmly believe that the Pat Day Mile put us in position to win the Preakness," Lukas said.

In that May 4 stakes on the Derby undercard, Seize the Grey stalked in a tight pack behind quick fractions under Torres, came with a four-wide bid, survived some bumping and split foes to win the Pat Day Mile at 9-1 odds.

But was that win an outlier? In the lead-up to the Triple Crown series, Seize the Grey was a no-impact seventh in the GI Blue Grass S. at Keeneland and had run third with a wide bid over Tapeta in the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks S. at Turfway.

With Preakness mounts at a premium, Lukas was inundated with offers from more seasoned riders shortly after he declared Seize the Grey would be Baltimore-bound.

"I had phone calls from about six agents that after he won the Pat Day Mile," Lukas said. "It's a tough business, because they said, 'Well, you know, you're going to change riders for the big one, aren't you?'"

But Lukas remained loyal to Torres, believing that the jockey, who had only been riding since August of 2022, deserved a shot at a Triple Crown race based on his raw talent and willingness to learn.

"I said, 'Not a chance, he's staying right there,'" Lukas recollected.

Coaching, Not Over-Coaching...

Back on July 29, 2023, Torres, who had graduated from a jockey school in his native Puerto Rico before breaking in at Gulfstream, had been trying to make his mark as an apprentice at the ultra-competitive Saratoga meet. He was mired in a 1-for-22 slump when "The Coach" first named him to ride. The mount was a second-time starter shipping in from Ellis Park who looked overmatched on paper at 16-1 odds.

That maiden colt was Seize the Grey, who wired a 6 1/2-furlong sprint in the slop. The win kick-started an upward arc for Torres, who ended 2023 as the leading apprentice rider on the New York circuit before giving Churchill Downs and Fair Grounds a go over the winter. Cont.

Seize the Grey wintered at Oaklawn with Lukas, who had moved on to a different jockey. But when the Derby meet opened at Churchill, Lukas shipped there and began riding Torres again. The results weren't spectacular, but Lukas believed Torres had what it takes to compete at that demanding level.

"He rode a few horses for me at Churchill and rode a few just general horses, nothing real special," Lukas said. "I thought he had a lot of talent and I loved working with him, but I really feel good about taking him to this level.

"A couple of weeks ago he rode one not so pretty, and I followed him all the way through the tunnel, all the way up the steps to the jocks' room, and I chewed him out," Lukas said.

"I said, 'You'll be back in Puerto Rico picking oranges if you're going to ride like that,'" Lukas recalled, adding that he believes Torres remembered those words when he rode Seize the Grey with purpose in the Preakness.

"I know that when he turned for home, that was echoing in his ears, that he'd better get down and scrubbing because I think it really hit home," Lukas said.

Lukas, over the years, has proven to be an effective coach primarily because he does not over-coach.

"I don't get into the mechanics of riding so much, but I get into I want them to dedicate themselves beyond [their expectations]," Lukas said. "I want him to be better than he thinks he can be. I always push that to him: 'I'm going to push you. I want you to do more than you actually think you can do and I want you to be better than you think you can be. I want you to really, really dedicate yourself.'"

"If you don't do that, get a job bagging groceries at the grocery store, because this is a tough, tough business and very competitive," Lukas said. "I have to represent a number of owners, so when I put him on, I'm making a commitment that he's okay."

Late-Career Resurgence...

The last time Lukas won the Preakness was in 2013 with the 15-1 Oxbow. One of the horses he beat that day was Goldencents, the sire of the 2024 beaten Preakness favorite, Mystik Dan.

In the 11-year interim, it looked for a time like Lukas was fading off the Thoroughbred grid. In 2019, his stable managed only 15 wins. In the pandemic-altered 2020, Lukas barely earned $1 million in purses.

Both figures paled in comparison to his gravy years of the 1980's and early 90s, when 200-300 trips to the winner's circle were common, and Lukas's annual purse earnings in the $10-to-17-million range routinely topped the sport. describe Lukas's mastery for shipping in to win major stakes races in bunches.

"Now, what happened to me in that 11-year span?" Lukas asked rhetorically on Saturday. "I lost [owner] Bill Young of Overbrook. I lost Gene Klein of the San Diego Chargers. I lost Bob Lewis, and you can't replace those kind of people..."

"You're only as good as your clientele," Lukas continued. "If the clientele will back you, give you a chance to get in that yearling market. That's where we've always built our stable, in the yearling market..."

"The thing about it is every time we've been lucky to win [the Preakness], it's been with a different client, and so that is what makes it special," Lukas said. "That's what makes this one special, 2,000-plus [micro-share owners]."

"That's what I get paid for, to let them live the dream," Lukas said.

Not only did the large MyRacehorse ownership group comprise a crowded winner's circle, but the phalanx of well-wishers wanting to make contact with Lukas made it difficult for him to reach the Preakness podium.

"Boy, I'll tell you what. I didn't think we'd get up there," Lukas said. "They really turned them loose. I've been in some cattle drives that were more organized than that. It was really chaotic..."

"One of the things that was very significant to me today--and maybe it's because I'm getting a little bit older--but as I came out of the grandstand and out across the racetrack, every one of the guys that were in that race stopped and hugged me and give me a handshake," Lukas said.

"That meant more to me than any single thing. Baffert, Kenny McPeck, right down the line."

On Sunday morning, Lukas confirmed that Seize the Grey (100 Beyer Speed Figure) exited the Preakness in decent shape and would be pointed for the June 8 Belmont S., which because of a two-year reconstruction project at Belmont Park, will be conducted in 2024 and 2025 at Saratoga at the abbreviated distance of 10 furlongs instead of 12.

There shouldn't have been much doubt about whether Lukas would be aiming for the third leg of the Triple Crown. All six of his previous Preakness winners entered the Belmont S., although Timber Country, who scratched the day before the 1995 edition with a fever, was the only one who didn't start.

Tabasco Cat in 1994 was Lukas's only Preakness/Belmont doubler. Oxbow in 2013 ran second; Charismatic in 1999 was third; Winning Colors in 1988 finished sixth; Codex in 1980 was seventh.

"It's a whole different deal," Lukas said Sunday, speaking about the venue and distance change for the Belmont S. Cont.

THE NYRA FOUNDATION, INC.

establishes a pathway for businesses, individuals and organizations to contribute to a variety of worthy endeavors connected to thoroughbred racing in New York State and across the country.

To highlight the expansion of NYRA's charitable efforts, the NYRA Foundation will host a gala event on Friday, June 7 in Saratoga Springs, NY to benefit a selection of non-profit organizations active in backstretch services, thoroughbred aftercare and more.

For information on sponsorship opportunities at the inaugural Belmont Ball, or to donate to the NYRA Foundation, visit <https://nyraf.org/>.

"I want to get a hold of the [New York Racing Association] race secretary and see how this thing will shake out and what the deal is. We'll get new faces. There are some guys sitting in the wings. I'm sure that Todd [Pletcher] and Chad [Brown], with the depth they've got in their stables, will be involved. The fact that it's a mile and a quarter, I think it makes it more enticing."

DERBY WINNER MYSTIK DAN TO SHIP TO SARATOGA, DECISION ON BELMONT AWAITS

GI Kentucky Derby winner and GI Preakness S. runner up Mystik Dan (Goldencents) will ship to Saratoga but trainer Kenny McPeek has yet to make a decision on whether the colt will contest the third leg of the Triple Crown, the GI Belmont S.

"It's impossible to be disappointed about being involved with these kind of races and be competitive," McPeek told assembled media at Pimlico Sunday morning. "One, they are hard races to get into, but to be competitive in them is a big deal. You just do your job and hope it's your turn."

McPeek noted that, while his Derby winner will make the trip to Saratoga Monday, he would wait "a week, 10 days, two weeks" before thinking about the Belmont.

Meanwhile, Saturday's eighth-place finisher Mugatu (Blofeld) was reported to have displaced his pallet according to a social media post from trainer Jeff Engler. The full post reads: "Update on Mugatu. He obviously hates the slop and displaced his pallet and lost his air. So [Joe Bravo] did the right thing and protected him for us. Much thanks to Joe. He will be back soon and hopefully on a fast track with no slop!! Thank you [Preakness] for everything."

JUST STEEL EXITS PREAKNESS WITH INJURY, TO HEAD TO ROOD AND RIDDLE

by Christina Bossinakis

Baltimore, MD--Just Steel (Justify), who finished fifth behind stablemate Seize the Grey (Arrogate) in Saturday's GI Preakness S., exited the race with a condylar fracture of the right front leg, and will require further evaluation before a full diagnosis can be given, according to D. Wayne Lukas Sunday morning.

"That will fall to Dr. Larry Bramlage down in Lexington," said Lukas when asked of the colt's status. "He has seen it already, and at first blush, his reaction is that it will be ok. Obviously, it's nothing life threatening. But how far he goes as a racehorse will need to be determined."

Reflecting back on Saturday's race, Lukas explained, "I thought for a moment, at the top of the stretch, we might run 1-2. He really caught my eye. I don't really know where [the injury] happened. He started checking and gearing down so I knew something wasn't right."

According to Lukas, the colt will be dropped off at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital in Lexington.

"He looked fine initially. He got tender like they do. But boy, he was tough to keep in the stall this morning. He's not very stressed about it at all."

CHERIE DEVAUX TOPS PREAKNESS WEEKEND TRAINER STANDINGS

Trainer Cherie DeVaux, who won three stakes races on Black-Eyed Susan day Friday, took home the top prize of $50,000 in the Maryland Jockey Club's $100,000 trainer bonus competition held over the weekend at Pimlico. The first female trainer to earn the top honor, DeVaux took wins in the GIII Pimlico Special S, the Hilltop S. and the Allaire du Pont Distaff on Friday and finished with 34 total points over the two days of racing, four more than runner up Steve Asmussen. Mike Trombetta finished third with 28 points and leading Maryland trainer Brittany Russell was fourth with 23 points. Bonus money was also awarded to trainers having the most points in non-stakes races on Friday and Saturday with Brittany Russell taking the top prize of $25,000 with 48 points ahead of Kieron Magee.

Smokey Smokey broke his maiden at fifth asking by a neck at Turfway Park in early December. Though the 3-year-old finished a well-beaten sixth against optional claimers Mar. 8, he returned to Florence to dead heat for second in the Animal Kingdom S. Mar. 23.

As a 6-1 shot here, the bay shadowed Mattingly up the backstretch and the pair locked in a battle that continued into the lane. Past the eighth pole, the Mike Maker trainee gained the upper hand over his rival and sealed the deal.

"I was very confident the whole way," said jockey Ramon Vazquez. "I just waited for the moment to ask him. You can see right when I asked, he responds right away."

The winner's unraced dam produced a filly by Frosted last year and she foaled another one--by Nashville--Mar. 10. Under Smokey Smokey's third dam we find current sire Eskendereya

My Boy Prince, Canada's champion 2-year-old colt of 2023 and a leading King's Plate fancy, returned to the winner's circle with an authoritative victory in the King Corrie S. at Woodbine Sunday.

Second in last year's GI Summer S. and third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, the heavy favorite was returning to the synthetic surface for the first time since dominating in the Simcoe S. at Woodbine last August. He attended the pace of Maximus Magic (Maximus Mischief) through fractions of :24.38 and :47.82, took charge approaching the stretch and easily strode clear down the lane.

"He's an easy horse," jockey Sahin Civaci said of the winner. "Raffie [jockey Rafael Hernandez] did break sharper than my horse, but he is very versatile. He can sit off the pace and can be in the front. We had an easy pace up front and when it's time to kick, he sure does kick on.

"I made sure I slept early to have energy for this race. It's great being back on him, I was looking forward to it. I've worked him a couple of times in the morning. I'm very pleased with him."

My Boy Prince, the C$115,000 sale-topper at the 2022 CTHS Canadian Premier Yearling Sale, broke his maiden over Woodbine's Tapeta surface last June before romping to a 14-length victory in the Aug. 27 Simcoe S. He was second in his first outing on turf in the Sept. 16 Summer S. and set a course record while winning the 1 1/16-mile Cup and Saucer S. in October before concluding his juvenile season with a third-place effort in the Breeders' Cup.

In his first start of 2024, the gray colt was eighth in the 5 1/2-furlong Palisades S. at Keeneland Apr. 7.

Canadian stakes winner Hopping Not Hoping produced a filly by Classic Empire this year. Her now 2-year-old, Athlete (Kitten's Joy), was exported to Great Britain after selling for $585,000 to China Horse Club and Qatar Racing at last year's Keeneland September sale. The 3-5 favorite strolled up to press All That Glory through fractions of :22.28 and :44.26. The two turned for home in lockstep and went eyeball to eyeball down the lane before King of Gosford put his game foe away in the final strides.

A maiden winner in six starts in Ireland, King of Gosford transferred stateside to the barn of Phil D'Amato and took a six-furlong optional claimer over the Santa Anita turf Mar. 10. He added a one-length victory down the hill in Arcadia in the John Shear S. Apr. 7 last time out.

Miss Sugars, winner of the 2016 Blue Norther S. over the Santa Anita turf, has a yearling filly by Kameko who sold for 32,000gns at Tattersalls last December. The mare herself sold in foal to Mohaather (GB) for 20,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December sale and her 2-year-old General Admission (GB) (Kameko) sold for 145,000gns at last month's Tattersalls April sale. JUSTIFIABLE BELLE (f, 4, Justify--Bow Bells {SW}, by Giant's Causeway), a maiden winner at Tampa for trainer Eoin Harty in April of 2023, sold for $57,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale. Returning from an eight-month layoff while making her first start for the new connections, she captured a one-mile turf allowance at Keeneland last time out Apr. 7. The 5-2 favorite stalked the pace through fractions of :24.86 and :49.69. She took charge in upper stretch and sailed home a 1 1/2-length winner. Zawish (Mshawish) edged Glittering Lights (GB) (Kingman {GB}) for second. Bow Bells, a daughter of Grade I winner Marylebone (Unbridled's Song), has a 2-year-old colt by American Pharoah. She sold in foal to Tiz the Law for $45,000 at the Fasig-Tipton February sale last year and produced a colt by the GI Belmont S. winner before being bred back to that stallion. 3rd-Belmont The Big A, $100,000, Alw, 5-19, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:35.85, fm, neck.

NO SHOW SAMMY JO (GB) (f, 4, Lope de Vega {Ire}--Shomaria {Fr}, by Exceed And Excel {Aus}) broke her maiden at second asking with a 2 1/4-length score over the grass at Belmont Park last summer. Back to work in March and as a 4-1 shot here, the bay settled towards the rear of the field under a snug hold into the first turn. The 4-year-old let out the throttle towards the end of the backstretch and at the top of the lane she was in full flight. Taking aim at pacesetter Lady Beth (Hard Spun), No Show Sammy Jo was up just in time by a neck. Out of French multiple group stakes winner Shemima (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}), the winner's dam is responsible for a 3-year-old colt by Dark Angel (Ire) and a yearling filly by Palace Pier (GB). Sales History: 150,000gns Ylg '21 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $109,900.

ARTORIUS (h, 5, Arrogate--Paulassilverlining {MGSW, $1,516,230}, by Ghostzapper), winner of the 2022 Curlin S. at Saratoga, made just two appearances in 2023 and returned to the races with a solid third-place effort over this track and trip Apr. 20. The 2-5 favorite was unrushed out of the gate and settled just in behind the early leaders. Waiting for racing room turning for home, the 'TDN Rising Star' found a seam along the rail in upper stretch and powered to the lead before drawing away to score by two lengths. Power Seeker (Distorted Humor) was second. Multiple Grade I winner Paulassilverlining has a 2-year-old filly by Tapit, a yearling colt by Constitution and produced a colt by Flightline this year. MAJESTIC VENEZUELA (f, 3, Mendelssohn--Downtown Diva, by Giant's Causeway), always in the money as she attempted to break her maiden, finally broke through at fifth asking over the Tapeta in Hallandale Apr. 7. Backed as a 7-2 shot here, the homebred settled mid-pack along the rail into the first turn.

After the favorite seized the lead up the backstretch, the filly took the overland route around the far turn and began to uncork down the lane. In a brief duel with In Our Time (Not This Time) with a sixteenth left, the 3-year-old cleared the condition by half a length. Her dam's last registered foal, the winner is a half-sister to Venezuelan Hug (Constitution), GSW, $252,830. HOUSE UNITED (c, 3, Constitution--Blip n' Th Bye {GSP, $167,003}, by Tale of Ekati) was fourth in his six-furlong unveiling at Fair Grounds Mar. 23 and was fifth going 6 1/2 furlongs at Churchill May 4. Sent off at 10-1 in this stretch-out, the chestnut colt broke on top and settled into a stalking second as 3-1 shot Carnitine (Uncle Mo) took the field through fractions of :23.49 and :47.52. Carnitine scampered clear in upper stretch, but House United closed with a powerful late flourish to just get his head in front on the line. The winner was a $335,000 KEESEP yearling. Graded stakes-placed Blip n' Th Bye produced a colt by Hard Spun this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $77,100.

JOHN THE BEER MAN (c, 3, More Than Ready--Trophy Wife, by Giant's Causeway) was the runner-up at second asking over Keeneland's grass course Apr. 24, and was once again the favorite as the 8-5 choice here. The blinkered chestnut took up a position in the middle of the field heading into the first turn. On hold off the rail until the far turn, the colt tipped to the four path at the top of the lane. Revving up his engine, the 3-year-old unleashed a strong kick and got his picture taken with a 3/4-length score over Storm Ready (City of Light). The winner's dam was purchased by Gainesway Farm for $340,000 at the 2021 Keeneland November Sale while a colt by Mastery was in-utero. Trophy Wife is also responsible for a yearling colt by Twirling Candy and she visited Candy Ride (Arg) for this term.
