

PRAT TO REPLACE GAFFALIONE ON SIERRA LEONE IN BELMONT

Sierra Leone | Tim Wilkin

By Tim Wilkin

'TDN Rising Star' Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) will have a new running mate in the GI Belmont S. at Saratoga Race Course on June 8.

After watching the GI Kentucky Derby runner-up work five furlongs in 1:02.64 (5/6) on the Oklahoma Training Track Saturday morning, Brown said he was making a rider change.

Tyler Gaffalione is out; Flavien Prat is in.

Sierra Leone lost the Derby by a nose to Mystik Dan (Goldencents) and finished a nose ahead of Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}). Sierra Leone is owned by Peter M. Brant, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Westerberg and Brook T. Smith.

In the rugged run in the stretch of the Derby, Sierra Leone bumped several times with Forever Young as Gaffalione was unable to keep his mount from lugging in.

It appeared that Gaffalione was trying to keep Sierra Leone from Forever Young and used his hand to push off.

Brown felt that his rider should have had his riding stick in his left hand, not the right, earlier in the drive down the Churchill Downs stretch. Cont. p3

SADLER 'EXCITED' ABOUT DEBUT OF FLIGHTLINE'S HALF-BROTHER by Bill Finley

There are three graded stakes races on Monday's card at Santa Anita, but the most anticipated race of the day may be the eighth, a $54,000 maiden race run at six furlongs. That's because it features the debut of Eagles Flight (Curlin) a 3-year-old half-brother to Flightline (Tapit).

Like Flightline, Eagles Flight is trained by John Sadler.

"I am excited," Sadler said. "We've been working closely with him and he's showing good run and he's worked well in company. We've got 48 hours to go and we're anxious to get him out there and see it happen."

Like Flightline, Eagles Flight was bred by Jane Lyon's Summer Wind Equine and was originally entered in the 2022 Keeneland September sale. Cont. p6

“He didn’t have his stick in his left hand until the eighth pole, and it cost him,” Brown said. “This is not a punishment; the understanding is that’s the way this horse likes to travel and you have to be prepared for this horse. We knew that.

“[Gaffalione] was prepared for the first two races [GII Risen Star S.] and GI Toyota Blue Grass S., both wins] and I was a little disappointed he wasn’t really prepared until the eighth pole (in the Derby). With a horse that’s lugging in, you can’t have your stick in your right hand and slapping him on his right shoulder until the eighth pole. I’m going to move forward with the change and see how it goes.”

Flavien Prat | Coady Media

Exercise rider Kriss Bon was on Sierra Leone for Saturday's five-furlong move, accomplished inside of stablemate Domestic Product (Practical Joke), who was 13th in the Kentucky Derby after winning the GIII Lambholm South Tampa Bay Derby. Domestic Product could run in the GI Woody Stephens S. at seven furlongs on Belmont Day.

This was the second Saratoga work for Sierra Leone, who will be one of the favorites in the 1 1/4-mile Belmont.

“He looked super,” Brown said. “I just wanted a steady five-eighths work to just keep him where he’s at. He’s very fit. I was thrilled with how he was moving.”

Brown also said he is still thinking about running 'TDN Rising Star' Tuscan Gold (Medaglia d’Oro) in the Belmont. He was a non-threatening fourth behind Seize the Grey (Arrogate) in the GI Preakness S. after not caring for the muddy surface at Pimlico Race Course.

Brown said he will make a decision after the horse works next weekend. Cont. p4

Honor Marie Works at Churchill

If the weather stays right in Kentucky, Honor Marie (Honor Code) will spend another week in Louisville before shipping to Saratoga for the Belmont.

Honor Marie | Coady Media

The eighth-place finisher in the Kentucky Derby had his second work since the Run for the Roses when he went five furlongs in 1:01.40 (27/51) Saturday morning at Churchill Downs.

“I liked the whole thing,” trainer Whit Beckman said from Louisville. “Since the Derby, he has shown good energy. He popped out of that race--despite a real tough trip--in fantastic shape. Last week, we had a nice easy half and, this week, we just wanted a solid five-eighths, something well within himself. He looked good throughout.”

Maurilio Garcia, Beckman’s assistant and the regular exercise rider for Honor Marie, was aboard.

If the forecast is right, weather in Louisville next week will be sunny with temperatures ranging from the high 70s to low 80s. That would keep Honor Marie in the Bluegrass State for another work either Friday or Saturday.

Then, the tentative plan would be to van to Saratoga on Sunday, June 1.

One thing Beckman will have to do is find a new rider for Honor Marie, who is owned by Ribble Farms LLC, Michael H. Eiserman, Earl I. Silver, Kenneth E. Fishbein and Dave Fishbein.

Ben Curtis, who rode Honor Marie in the Derby and to a second-place finish in the Gil Louisiana Derby, broke his collarbone last weekend and is out for five to six weeks.

Rafael Bejarano rode Honor Marie in his first four career starts.

“You would like to have consistency carry through from race to race,” Beckman said. “There are a couple guys we are considering, but we have not made any final decisions. There are jockeys that ride [Saratoga] very well and some guys down here.” Cont. p5

McPeek Will Take His Time...Again

Trainer Kenny McPeek isn't going to rush anything when it comes to a decision on whether or not Derby winner Mystik Dan (Goldencents) runs in the Belmont.

Sound familiar? Of course it does. McPeek took his time before announcing the colt would compete in the Preakness. That news came out a week before the middle jewel of the Triple Crown.

"He is doing good," McPeek, accompanied with his sidekick, Sonny the dog, said Saturday morning while watching horses train at the Oklahoma Training Track.

Mystik Dan, owned by Lance Gasaway, 4 G Racing LLC, Daniel Hamby III and Valley View Farm LLC, galloped down the Oklahoma and into the turn, just stretching his legs. He will do more in a work next weekend and then a decision would likely be made.

"He needs to be eating good, doing good," McPeek said. "And I want to see who is out there, who is going, who is not going. We will take our time."

McPeek also said the Belmont is still on the table for his GI Kentucky Oaks winner Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), owned by Brookdale Racing, Inc., Mark Edwards, Judy B. Hicks and Magdalena Racing (Sherri McPeek). Winner of four of five career starts by a combined 26 1/4 lengths, Thorpedo Anna galloped on the Oklahoma Saturday morning.

McPeek did say he will not run both horses in the Belmont. When asked if there was a possibility he doesn't have any entrants in the Belmont, he said, "I don't think so."

If Mystik Dan runs in the Belmont, he would become the first horse to compete in all three legs of the Triple Crown since War of Will did it in 2019. Twenty-four fillies have run in the Belmont and three have won, the most recent being Rags to Riches in 2007.

The last filly to run in the Belmont was Nest, who was second in 2022.

If Thorpedo Anna does not run in the Belmont, she will stay with the fillies and run in the GI Acorn S. at Saratoga on June 7.

But Lyon changed her mind, withdrew the horse from the sale and decided to campaign him herself. Hronis Racing LLC, which also owned a part of Flightline, has since come aboard as a co-owner.

Sadler said the reason the horse did not run earlier is that there were some small problems that needed to be addressed.

“He had some immaturity issues last year at two,” Sadler said. “He also had a little shin problem. We had to wait for that to resolve itself. Now he’s trained up for his 3-year-old start.”

Eagles Flight had his first published workout on Mar. 27 and has been working steadily since. In his most recent work, on May 19, he breezed five furlongs in 58.80. Sadler has been impressed.

Eagles Flight | Christie DeBernardis

“We’re looking forward to getting started on Monday,” he said. “The pedigree speaks for itself. There are no secrets there. He’s a good-looking prospect and we’re expecting a good race from him first time out. He drew inside with the two post, so he’s got to get away cleanly. He had good training the last five, six weeks with no interruptions. There was some weather issues earlier in the meet, but he’s good to go.”

When asked to compare Eagles Flight to Flightline, Sadler wouldn’t bite.

“He looks like a good prospect,” he said. “But I don’t really do the comparison thing because obviously that wouldn’t be fair to any horse. He looks like he can run and we can’t wait for Monday. I wish it was tomorrow.”

In town to ride in the three stakes, Flavien Prat has the call on Eagles Flight. He also rode Flightline.

Outside of Flightline, the dam Feathered (Indian Charlie) has not had a lot of success. There is the 5-year-old Voron (Pioneerof the Nile) who has been sent to Russia.

Next in line was a full brother Olivier (Tapit), who did not hit the board in three starts and was returned to Summer Wind last month, where he will live out his days.

LEGEND OF TIME YET ANOTHER BIG APPLE GRADED WINNER FOR GODOLPHIN

by Alan Carasso

Looking to atone for a disappointing fifth-place effort as the favorite in the GII American Turf S. on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard May 4, Godolphin's Legend of Time (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) left it for late in Saturday's GII Pennine Ridge S., but produced a stinging late turn of speed and attacked the wire to earn his first victory at the graded/group level.

Favored at 9-10, the 150,000gns Tattersalls October purchase looked to bobble at the break and was therefore settled at the rear of the field by Joel Rosario as the rail-drawn White Palomino (Kitten's Joy) took a well-bunched sextet through sensible fractions. Unhurried at the back of the field and ground-saving throughout, Legend of Time was popped the question in earnest nearing the stretch, but was flat-footed for a stride or two with a furlong and a half to race. Asked to split rivals with time ticking away, he was along in the final couple of jumps. Royal Majesty (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the son of former Grade I-winning 'TDN Rising Star' Crown Queen (Smart Strike), rode the rails every step of the opening seven furlongs, but exchanged bumps with Triple Espresso (Omaha Beach) in upper stretch and flashed home for third once into the clear.

It was a second graded win at the meet for Godolphin and trainer Charlie Appleby, who teamed with Silver Knott (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) to take out the GII Man O'War S. May 11.

Having overcome trouble to win his Haydock debut over a mile last September, Legend of Time was fifth of 12 in the G3 Tattersall S. at Newmarket three weeks later and was part of the Appleby team at this year's Dubai World Cup Carnival. Perfect in three starts at Meydan, including the Listed Jumeirah Classic Mar. 2, he raced freely and without cover in the American Turf and weakened in the final furlong to finish five lengths adrift of the victorious Trihari (Oscar Performance).

“Joel [Rosario] had him in a nice rhythm and he was nice and relaxed compared to his last run at Churchill,” said traveling assistant trainer Chris Connett. “That's what Charlie was hoping for--to get him in a good and relaxed rhythm. We know he's a horse that always finishes off his races really strongly, so we had every confidence in Joel.”

Pedigree Notes:

Legend of Time is a 72nd worldwide graded/group winner for the outstanding Sea The Stars and his fourth such winner in this country, joining Godolphin's Ottoman Fleet (GB), second in defense of his title in the GII Fort Marcy S. earlier this month, Star Fortress (Ire) and Casual Smile (GB).

Legend of Time is one of six winners from as many to race from his dam, third in the 2010 G1 Moyglare Stud S. for Lady O'Reilly and Kevin Prendergast before winning the Waya S. and finishing third in the GIII Glens Falls S. in 2012 for Three Chimneys Racing and Trevor Harris and trainer Roger Attfield. Returned to Europe, Kissable was sold to Lordship Stud and Kern Lillingston Association for 180,000gns at the 2013 Tattersalls December Mares Sale and she has produced two stakes horses in addition to Legend of Time--the G1 Prix de Royallieu (3000m) winner Loving Dream (GB) (Gleneagles {Ire}), a paternal granddaughter of Sea The Stars's half-brother Galileo (Ire); and Amandine (GB) (Shamardal), winner in this country of the Lady of Shamrock S. and third in the 2018 GI American Oaks.

Should connections opt for longer trips for Legend of Time, they would be encouraged by his champion third dam Eva Luna (Alleged), a Group 3 winner over an extended 14-furlong trip whose son Brian Boru (GB) (Sadler's Wells) won the G1 St Leger

S. in 2003. The latter's half-brother Sea Moon (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) was a winner of the Leger prep, the G2 Great Voltigeur S., and was third in the Leger while also finishing runner-up to St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the 2011 GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

'THE GOAL IS TO WIN THE BREEDERS' CUP AGAIN' – BC TURF SPRINT WINNER NOBALS GEARING UP FOR RETURN by Steve Sherack

Nobals upsets the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint | Benoit

With a long-term eye on a title defense in this fall's GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar, Patricia's Hope LLC's Nobals (Noble Mission {GB}) has begun gearing up for his 2024 campaign.

The gelded 5-year-old has posted four breezes at trainer Larry Rivelli's Hawthorne base this spring, most recently stopping the timer for four furlongs in :52.60 (50/51) May 19.

"He's doing good, real good," Rivelli said. "I gave him time just for no reason. I haven't really picked out anything yet (for his return); within his next couple of works, we'll probably start dialing in on something. They got those races (turf sprints) everywhere. It could be at Colonial, Churchill, Ellis, Indiana for his comeback race. The goal is to win the Breeders' Cup (Turf Sprint) again, so we'll just try to get a couple of preps in before that race."

Nobals won four of seven starts during his 2023 season, capped by a narrow decision in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita Nov. 4. A front-running, upset winner at odds of 38-1 in the GII Twin Spires Turf Sprint S. on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard, Nobals showed a different dimension at the Championships, rallying from seventh following a masterful ride from Gerardo Corrales to light up the tote board once again at odds of 12-1. Both wins earned Nobals matching 102 Beyer Speed Figures.

Nobals, just a $3,500 FTKOCT yearling, was purchased privately by Vinnie Foglia's Patricia's Hope and transferred to Rivelli following a debut win as a 2-year-old for owner/trainer Leland Hayes at Presque Isle Downs. One of eight graded winners for Frankel (GB)'s full-brother Noble Mission, Nobals was produced by the Dr. John A Chandler homebred and two-time winner Pearly Blue (Empire Maker).

"It's good because you just let him run his own race, and if he's where he's at, he fires either way," Rivelli said of his charge's versatility. "That was not the plan obviously, they just got away from him (at the Breeders' Cup). He plain and simple wasn't fast enough. The trip was perfect. Everything had to work out--the rail opened up just enough and we got through and held on."

Larry Rivelli & Gerardo Corrales celebrate at the Championships
 Benoit

Rivelli continued, "A lot of those guys that were in that race last year kinda fell off the map. I'm hoping that we made the right move by just giving him a break. Hopefully, those horses are all (worn) out by that time of the year and we're just coming back with a pretty nice fresh horse." Cont. p9

It was a career year for Rivelli in 2023. In addition to saddling his first Breeders' Cup winner, he also came within a length of capturing the GI Kentucky Derby with three-time graded winner and young WinStar stallion Two Phil's (Hard Spun). The Chicago native posted a record of 276-85-59-30 and a personal-best $4,992,862 in earnings last season.

"It was the best year we've had in my career," Rivelli said. "Almost winning the Derby with Two Phil's, then winning the Breeders' Cup all in the same year, it was great. Two Phil's is doing good at WinStar now, I think his book is full. Everything is going good, knock on wood."

Rivelli concluded, "I got a bunch of babies--a bunch of 'em--that aren't named yet that are just getting to the point where the light bulb is going off. There's a lot of could be's right now, which is good."

Who knows? There 'could be' a repeat Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint winner in Rivelli's barn as well.

ADARE MANOR LOOMS LARGE IN SANTA MARGARITA

Two-time Grade I winner Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) will be heavily favored to successfully defend her title in Sunday's GII Santa Margarita S. at Santa Anita.

The Michael Lund Petersen colorbearer posted triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures in her two prior attempts for Bob Baffert this season, finishing second in the GI Beholder Mile S. Mar. 9 and capturing the GI Apple Blossom H. Apr. 13.

Drawn widest of all in post five, Adare Manor is the 3-5 morning-line favorite.

The field also includes Coffee in Bed (Curlin) and Super Shine (Arg) (Super Saver), separated by just a neck while finishing one-two in the local GII Santa Maria S. Apr. 21.

LIBERTY ISLAND

PRIDES CROSSING DAZZLES IN 'TDN RISING STAR' DEBUT AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

Prides Crossing | Coady Media

A seven-digit yearling turned new 'TDN Rising Star', Prides Crossing (Quality Road) left her rivals in her wake en route to a stylish unveiling at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The newest 'Rising Star' came into this contest riding a three-strong string of bullet five-furlong works at The Thoroughbred Center with her last four of five being the fastest on the morning. The most recent was a May 17 move clocked in 1:01.00.

Stalking the pace from third as She's It (Omaha Beach) put up :22.63 and :46.30 early splits, the 3-1 second choice took the three path through the turn as that frontrunner gradually started to fade. Finding her best strides rolling into the lane, Prides Crossing kicked away from Genetics (Tapit) under a strong hand ride and was 4 3/4 lengths best on the wire. The victress is Quality Road's 19th 'TDN Rising Star'.

The third to the races for her dam, Prides Crossing is the second winner and has a fleet of siblings waiting in the wings--a 2-year-old half-sister by American Pharoah, a yearling colt by Uncle Mo, and a 2024 filly by Flightline.

Bred by Summer Wind Equine, Prides Crossing brought a pretty $1.3-million at the 2022 Keeneland September sale from OXO Equine in order to acquire a branch of the Carson Jen female line. This family includes the 'Warrior' siblings: GSW & GISP E Z Warrior (Exploit); MSW J Z Warrior (Harlan's Holiday); MGSW & GISP Jojo Warrior (Pioneerof the Nile); and the second dam, GISW A Z Warrior (Bernardini), who went on to produce Key To My Heart (Ire). All four earned the 'Rising Star' stamp of approval from TDN. This is also the family of MSW & GISP Sayaad (Street Sense).

THINK INDIAN CREEK

Also Ran: Heavenly Appointed, Holy Foley, Sand and Sea.
Scratched: Tower Bridge.

It was a GIII Bewitch S. rematch late in the Keertana S., and Atomic Blonde (Ger) managed to find enough to turn the tables on Chop Chop, securing her first North American stakes victory in the process.

A Listed winner and Group-placed in Italy, the grey has consistently shown up in graded contests up and down the East Coast, including last out where she ran second to Chop Chop in the aforementioned GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 26. Of her eight starts in the U.S., Atomic Blonde has only missed the board twice--in the GI E. P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 8 and two back in the GIII Long Island S. last November, where she bled and was vanned off.

Content to watch as Sand and Sea (Liam's Map) ran off, the 5-2 second choice was in no hurry from sixth as that rank frontrunner put up :23.47, :47.01, and 1:11.43 early splits while distancing herself by as much as 22 lengths at one point in call. Gradually, that early sprint started to catch up to Sand and Sea, and she was inhaled by her rivals midway on the final bend. In the meanwhile, Atomic Blonde had moved off the fence and was launching her bid to catch Chop Chop, who once again had gotten the jump on her. Closing relentlessly, the familiar foes locked eyes briefly before the grey found enough to score by a half-length.

"I just let [Atomic Blonde] relax early and everything worked to plan," Tyler Gaffalione said. "She was able to relax nicely and turning for home, I could feel like I was starting to get my best run out of her. She really dug in late to catch [Chop Chop] and continued to gallop out well around the turn even after that."

Atomic Blonde's dam hails from the direct line of German champion juvenile filly Alte Zeit (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}). Alwina's most recent offspring include a 2-year-old All I Ever Wanted (Ger) (Isfahan {Ger}) and a yearling colt by Counterattack (Aus).

Also Ran: Size Does Matter, Final Storm, Takes Three, Curlin's Kaos, Tamarando Star, Keep Movin' On, Stay On the Fence.

Shady Tiger needed two starts to break his maiden but has been golden ever since, winning his last three including the Echo Eddie S. Apr. 6. In his first try beyond 6 1/2 furlongs, the 2-1 second choice sat behind only Stolen Treasure who set a contested lead through a half in :47.94. Engaged with that rival to his outside, Shady Tiger was game into the stretch, holding a narrow advantage even as Two by Four joined the duo late to make for a driving three-way finish.

"He answered the [distance] question," said winning trainer Phil D'Amato. "He's a gutsy horse. He had that horse attached to him and he was able to kick free in the stretch and get home. "

One of 12 stakes winners for Smiling Tiger, Shady Tiger is his dam's last reported offspring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Never finishing worse than a runner-up in six career starts, Grand Slam Smile was last seen winning the Leigh Ann Howard California Cup Oaks going a mile over the Santa Anita turf course Jan. 13. Off since then, the chestnut returned to garner favoritism as the 1-1 choice switching to the main track here. From the bell, the chalk tussled to the outside of Only One America (Marking) heading into the first turn and the pair continued their battle up the backstretch. The filly was given her cue just before the far turn and made quick work of her rival. Under a drive down the lane and with no one able to catch her, the 3-year-old turned in a strong performance to secure her fourth stakes score. Out of an extended female family which include GISW Startac (Theatrical {Ire}), the winner is her dam's last registered foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Dataman began his 4-year-old campaign with a win in the Henry Clark S. over the Laurel Park grass course Apr. 20.

Installed as a 5-2 shot here, the gray bumped the gate at the break, which put him at the rear of the field heading into the first turn. Chasing the pace up the backstretch, the gelding hugged the rail around the far turn, but tipped outside to four path entering the lane. As There Are No Words tried to win gate-to-wire, Dataman charged home and got up in time to nail the leader just before the wire.

"He's just very sharp right now," said Ian Wilson, assistant to Graham Motion. "We're pretty happy with him. He's two-for-two with stakes wins. We'll see where we go from here. I'm sure a graded stakes race will be on the horizon."

The winner's dam produced a filly named Software (Munnings), who is now a 2-year-old, and she foaled Thula, a filly by Into Mischief last year. Soldata is a full-sister to MGSW Exhi, and counts as a half-sister dam of GIII Miss Preakness S. heroine Lady Scarlet. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

An ultra-consistent stakes runner in California, Kings River Knight has won or hit the board in 14 of 15 prior starts including five stakes wins in six races all happening last year. Coming in off a gate-to-wire victory which saw him post a career best 100 Beyer Speed Figure, Kings River Knight went off favored at 1-5, his eighth-straight start in which he was the post-time favorite. Again sent to the lead under Juan Hernandez, Kings River Knight handled the tempo throughout and was never in any serious danger, winning handily by a safe margin.

"Kings River Knight won the race out of the gate because he broke so sharp, two lengths in front of everyone," said Hernandez. "You don't do that very often. Then, he took an easy lead. That's his style. He loves running on the lead, so I just let him go. He was traveling really well throughout. I was just waiting for the quarter pole to switch leads. He switched leads, took off again and won the race."

One of six stakes winners for Acclamation, Kings River Knight has a 2-year-old Vronksy half-brother and a yearling full-sister both still to race. Seasantoperfection returned to Acclamation for 2024. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

The picture of consistency throughout her career, Stay and Scam picked up another stakes to her credit in the Fran's Valentine S. at Santa Anita Park.

Last seen in back-to-back efforts at the graded level, namely the Gill Wilshire S. Apr. 4 and the Gill Royal Heroine S. last out Apr. 27, the heavy 1-2 favorite returned to the Listed rankings here and found her way to the winner's enclosure. Stalking the frontrunner early, she pressed the issue up the backstretch before drawing on even terms with that rival on the final bend. Accelerating well under right-hand urging, she took command and kicked away from a closing Moment's Pleasure to win by a length. Cornelia Fort came from even further back to claim third.

"All of us in our little inner circle thought maybe only one turn was kind of where [Stay and Scam] wanted to be, but she has proven us wrong," Doug O'Neill said. "They say pace makes the race on the grass. The last time she ran [in the Royal Heroine], she got in behind horses and ended up third. Today it was a different story."

The second stakes horse for her dam behind full-sister Square Peggy, Stay and Scam has a 3-year-old unplaced half-brother Pavel Puff (Pavel), a 2-year-old half-brother Palmier (I'll Have Another), and a 2024 half-sister by Listing. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Octane, who scored his first graded win in the Oaklawn Park's GIII Razorback H. at Oaklawn Feb. 24, made a triumphant return home with a resounding win under jockey Emisael Jaramillo. Carrying highweight of 124 pounds in this featured handicap event, he had no problem giving four to six pounds to his five rivals.

Breaking sharply, Octane comfortably stalked Chilean-bred Viva Con Alegria (Flyer {Chi})'s sensible pace for this seven-furlong trip set in :22.61 and :45.51. Given his cue by Jaramillo at the three-eighths pole, the athletic bay seized command and traveled four-wide into the stretch. From there, the 4-5 favorite increased his advantage and prevailed by daylight over fellow Florida-bred Loco Abarrio.

Octane was winning for the seventh time in 16 races at Gulfstream Park. His older full-brother Gatsby was victorious in the 2022 Sunshine Sprint S. here, while his younger full-sister Jellybean finished third in the 2022 Sharp Susan S. here as a 2-year-old. Octane's dam Star Recruit, an eight-race winner herself and half-sister to Z Humor (Distorted Humor), was bred to Colonel Liam for this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Dropping into the state stakes ranks, The Chosen Vron proved once again why he is one of the all-time greats when it comes to Cal bred sprinters as he won the Thor's Echo S. for the second year in a row.

The venerable gelding during his latest form cycle took home the GIII San Carlos S. at 'The Great Race Place' in mid-March, then captured the Kona Gold S. over the same surface in late April.

The short priced 1-9 favorite here waited patiently off longshot speed horse Sawadee who was attempting to steal the show up the backstretch. The Chosen Vron waited for his moment to pounce--which came at the sixteenth pole--and he rolled home for his 11th career win in Arcadia.

"We are very lucky," said co-owner John Sondereker. "It is pure luck to have a horse that can win 18 races. It is almost unheard of. This consistency is almost unheard of."

Out of an extended female family which includes Canadian champion 2-year-old filly Delightful Mary (Limehouse) and Japanese multiple group one stakes runner-up Wilson Tesoro (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}), the winner's dam is responsible for 2-year-old filly Clubhouse Cutie (Clubhouse Ride) and her yearling full-sister. Tiz Molly was once again bred back to that same sire for this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

ROSALLION LEADS HANNON ONE-TWO IN THE GUINEAS

by Tom Frary

Confirming the serious nature of the G1 2,000 Guineas form, Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's Newmarket runner-up Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}--Rosaline {Ire}, by New Approach {Ire}) went one better to lead a Richard Hannon one-two in Saturday's G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh. Held up in mid-division by Sean Levey with the pace steady, the 10-11 favourite began his delivery two out as the stable's Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}) took control and his wilting run proved perfectly-timed.

Getting the yard's bragging rights only in the final yards, last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero asserted for a head success, with Ballydoyle's TDN Rising Star River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) running big on his 3-year-old bow 1 1/4 lengths further away.

"Rosallion was a bit keen early and Haatem is such a brave horse, he's run such a lovely race and I've never known a horse to have as many supporters as he has," Hannon said. "He probably didn't deserve to get beat, but his day will come."

On the afternoon that the 2,000 Guineas form had already been boosted by the G2 Sandy Lane S. win of the winner's relative Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal), Rosallion and Haatem underlined the strength of this year's renewal in no uncertain terms. Cont. p3

ALL EYES ON OPERA SINGER IN THE IRISH 1,000 by Tom Frary

This year's G1 1,000 Guineas took place without Ballydoyle's Opera Singer (Justify), so there is a sense of unfinished business when it comes to the pecking order of the 3-year-old fillies at present. Sunday's Tattersalls Irish 1,000 Guineas at The Curragh should answer some questions, none more so than that concerning how straight she is for a tough reintroduction having suffered that setback. So good in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, some will tell you that she may not have to be at 100% to win this but when it comes to these Classics there is never a quarter given.

Most of Opera Singer's rivals have runs under their belts in 2024, including the Paddy Twomey pair A Lilac Rolla (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) and Purple Lily (Ire) (Calyx (GB)), while the track's Group 1 winner Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) is hardened by her experience at Newmarket three weeks ago and Vespertilio (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) has been in Classic action in France. G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas Cont. from p1

The winner had already proven himself at this level when showing the same acceleration at ParisLongchamp on Arc day and will be Royal Ascot-bound now according to his trainer.

“He took a bit of time to pick them up. He’s such a hyped horse and he’s not going to please everybody,” Hannon added. “He proved he got the trip today and that was the pleasing thing. We’ll go to the [G1] St James’s Palace S. and try our best to beat the horse that beat us last time. It will be hard.”

Levey gave the lowdown on the way the race unfolded. “I thought Haatem would be hard beat today and he has dragged me to the line, so my horse has had to work hard to get by him. My lad can get a bit generous if you put him in a position where he has to be competitive, so the only thing I could do was take him out of it.”

Of Haatem, Hannon said, “I love the second horse, he’s such a smashing horse and it’s a pleasure to have him. I think he’ll get further and will discuss it with the Sheikh and the team and see where we go, but there are a lot of lovely days in him.”

Aidan O’Brien might be thinking of doing a “Mozart” with River Tiber. “I would probably have preferred if it was a more end-to-end gallop, we’d have learned about the mile better,” he said. “We still don’t know if he really gets a mile or not. We have a choice to make now in Ascot, do we go back to six, do we go seven or do we go St James’s Palace. Ryan wants to go to the Jersey because he wants Henry [Longfellow] for the St James’s Palace, he’s trying to divide them all!

“He probably has loads of speed, which we knew he had. He never ran beyond six before and it was hard to ride him any more forward. He did what we thought, he was better than Unquestionable.”

SALE TOPPER, AND THE TOP TWO FILLIES AT FAIRYHOUSE!

Sold by Greenhills Farm to Avenue Bloodstock/ Paddy Twomey

Paddy and myself found a colt by the sire last year from Katie at this sale - the ill-fated Letsbefrankaboutit- who won the Gr.3 Round Tower Stakes on his second start. This filly did an outstanding breeze.

MARK McSTAY OF AVENUE BLOODSTOCK

Sold by Lacka House Stables to Stroud Coleman Bloodstock

She is a very smart filly and breezed in one of the quickest times of the day.... In my opinion, Sioux Nation is upgrading his mares.

He added, “Unquestionable will improve plenty because he got tired, which we thought he would as well. It’s going to be interesting if they all meet in the St James’s Palace, it’s whether he goes to that or the Jersey.”

Pedigree Notes

Providing his second-season sire sensation with a first Classic, Rosallion is out of the unraced Rosaline (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) who is a full-sister to the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein winner Ostilio (GB). Their dam is the listed-placed Reem Three (GB) (Mark Of Esteem {Ire}), a remarkable producer for the owner-breeder with six black-type winners headed by last year’s G1 Queen Anne S. hero Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and the G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Ajman Princess (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) whose aforementioned son Inisherin by Blue Point’s sire Shamardal captured the day’s G2 Sandy Lane S.

Also responsible for Shamardal’s G3 Bengough S. winner Cape Byron (GB), Reem Three is a half to the G2 Celebration Mile and G3 Sovereign S. winner Afsare (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Rosaline’s 2-year-old colt by Make Believe (GB) is named Lord Capulet (Ire).

INISHERIN DOMINATES THE SANDY LANE

by Tom Frary

Bouncing out of an increasingly-strong looking edition of the 2,000 Guineas, Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum’s Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal--Ajman Princess {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}) converted instantly and successfully to leading sprinter of his generation by taking Haydock’s G2 Betfred Supports Jack Berry House Sandy Lane S. on Saturday. Producing sensational splits when beating the smart filly Kalpana (GB) (Study Of Man {Ire}) in a mile novice at Newcastle in March before acquitting himself with credit when sixth in the Newmarket Classic three weeks ago, the Kevin Ryan-trained blueblood travelled strongly in the front line under Tom Eaves.

In command from two out, the 9-2 second favourite stretched to an impressive 3 3/4-length success from Orne (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), with the penalised G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S. hero and 8-11 favourite Vandeek (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) surrendering his unbeaten record a neck away in third.

“I was always in my comfort zone,” Eaves said. “He’s run really well in the Guineas, that was a solid run, and you always think dropping back to sprinting will he be quick enough, but Kevin was always very confident he was. He’s only had four starts, so we’re only just getting to know him and he’s only finding his feet.” Cont. p5

Kevin Ryan’s daughter Amy added, “He’s got a great mind on him and that opens up so many more options. He’d have to be supplemented for the Commonwealth Cup, but I haven’t spoken to anyone yet so I don’t know what the plan is. We just need to get him home and make sure he’s okay and see how he comes out of the race. We’ve always thought loads of him, but he’s just so laid-back. We could have started him off over seven earlier in the year and he ran a blinder in the Guineas, but he’s just got so much natural speed and having gone and done that today, he’s got options. Physically I thought he stood out today and he’s got such a fantastic attitude.”

Ed Crisford said of Vandeeek, “It looked like he was a bit fresh early on. He travelled super in the race, but he just got tired in the last furlong in the ground. All these horses had already run, the winner had run well in the Guineas so was super-fit but on that ground, James [Doyle] just felt the last furlong was a long way home. But, we’ve got him out now, we’ll keep going with the plan, see how he is and as long as he’s okay, we’ll head for Ascot.”

Inisherin | Racingfotos.com

“It was a shame he’s been beaten obviously, but these things happen and we’ll keep on pointing towards Ascot and I’m sure he’ll come on a hell of a lot for the race today. It’s testing, sticky ground and even if you’ve gone on it before, it was his first run of the year and James didn’t want to give him a very hard race.”

Pedigree Notes

Inisherin, who becomes the 85th group winner for his remarkable sire, is the second foal out of the G1 Prix Jean Romanet heroine Ajman Princess whose five other black-type-winning half-siblings include the G1 Queen Anne S. hero Triple Time (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and Shamardal’s G3 Bengough S. scorer Cape Byron (GB). Cont. p6

KERDOS IN TEMPLE UPSET

by Tom Frary

Springing a surprise in the G2 Temple S. at Haydock on Saturday, John Connolly and Alan Spence's Kerdos (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}) became the latest from the never-ending Clive Cox manufacturing line to garner one of Britain's big sprints. Boasting just one black-type success so far in his career, having mastered the Listed Bullet Sprint S. in September, the 4-year-old had caught the eye when staying on into fifth in Newmarket's G3 Palace House S. three weeks ago but still had a jump to make to get to this level. Using Live In The Dream (Ire) (Prince Of Lir {Ire}) as a lead horse for the first half of the five-furlong contest, the 12-1 shot was sent after last year's G1 Nunthorpe S. hero by Richard Kingscote passing the two pole and edged ahead from the furlong pole for a half-length success.

"We thought he'd improved from last year and we also thought he was better than he'd shown this year," Kingscote said. "I got a nice lead into it, through the first furlong I wanted a bit of cover but once I did he dropped his head nicely. There are still things we can work with on him, but he's a nice horse going forward. He's the type of horse Clive does really well with."

Part-owner Alan Spence added, "It's the third time we've won this race as we won with his sire, Profitable and also with Priceless so we've had three Temple S. winners, all with Clive which takes a bit of doing. The faster they are, the better Clive likes them! We were a bit worried about the ground today, but they haven't used the straight course and it's not as heavy, if anything it's only soft. Royal Ascot is the plan, it was before today."

Adam West said of Live In The Dream, "That couldn't have gone better. He missed the break by half a beat today and I think that was because the horse next to him was playing up. He's done everything I wanted to see today and he's having a nice blow--I think he's going to be a superstar this year. All the others had had runs, fair play the winner is nice and has been produced brilliantly but knowing what he has left in the tank for next time, we've avoided a penalty so we couldn't have asked for more."

"We're not going to Ascot, it's too stiff a track for him, so we're going for the [G3] Coral Charge at Sandown--that's always been the plan and it's our home track," West added. "He can get some confidence there before he heads for bigger things but I'm absolutely delighted."

Pedigree Notes

Kerdos is the first foal out The Mums (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), whose second is the dual stakes-placed Dark Vintage (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Kin to the Listed Roses S. winner Inquisitively (GB) (Ten Sovereigns {Ire}) and the listed-placed Pixieleen (GB) (Pastoral Pursuits {GB}), she hails from the family of the aforementioned Temple winner Priceless (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) and the G3 Chipchase S. scorer Aeolus (GB) (Araafa (Ire)). Also connected to the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup heroine Rebelline (Ire) (Robellino), her unnamed 2-year-old colt is also by Dark Angel.

GROUP DOUBLE FOR PROFITABLE, AS MITBAAHY TAKES GREENLANDS STAKES

by Heather Anderson

When the dust settled, jockey Jamie Spencer received a two-day ban for using the whip above shoulder height aboard Mitbaahy (Ire) (Profitable {Ire}), but the duo had eked out a narrow victory in the G2 Weatherbys Greenlands S. by three-parts of a length at the Curragh. Forty minutes earlier, Profitable's Kerdos (Ire) had triumphed at Haydock in the G2 Betfred Temple S. Cont. p8

Tabbed a 9-1 chance on Saturday, the 5-year-old entire was held up in rear for much of this contest, and began to weave his way toward the front inside the final quarter mile. Charging up in between horses at the furlong grounds, Spencer steered Mitbaahy toward the stands' side, and he unleashed a brilliant turn of foot to subdue his rivals three jumps from the wire and win going away. Pacesetter Regional (GB) (Territories {Ire}) held on for second, a short head in front of Ano Syra (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in third.

"It would have been a lot easier if Shane [Foley]'s horse [Ocean Quest (Ire) (Sioux Nation)] progressed when he got past David Egan [aboard Magical Sunset (Ire) (Kodiac {GB})] and he just took me out of the race for a few strides," the winning rider explained. "The leaders got a length or two on me and I think he's done well to run them down.

"He's obviously an improving horse and you'd be looking forward to [Royal] Ascot now. There is a strong headwind and everything was in his favour today. I thought he had a good chance because he'd been running at Newmarket where it's notoriously hard to come from behind, especially with all the ridges. I felt, when you're running at a track where the ground meets you, he was always going to find his acceleration again."

A winner of the Listed Queensferry S. last August for Roger Varian, Mitbaahy made his first start for Charlie Hills when fourth in the G3 Abernant S. at Newmarket in April. Left at the break, similar to Saturday, he was seventh in the G3 Palace House S. there on May 4.

Pedigree Notes

Former Darley stallion Profitable, who is currently plying his trade in Turkey, has nine stakes winners to his name.

Sold for £50,000 to Oliver St Lawrence from The Castlebridge Consignment at the 2020 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale, the bay, who won the 2022 G3 World Trophy S., is one of two stakes winners for his two-time winning dam Wwood (Invasor {Aus}). The mare's first foal, the G3 Royal Whip S. third Finans Bay (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), was succeeded by GI Del Mar Oaks heroine Going Global (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), and Mitbaahy is her third produce. Wwood has unraced juvenile colt War Hawk (Ire), a 180,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 full-brother to Going Global, who was purchased by Stroud Coleman Bloodstock and a yearling filly by New Bay (GB). G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) is in the extended family.

FIRST GROUP WINNER FOR SERGEI PROKOFIEV AS ARIZONA BLAZE TAKES THE MARBLE HILL by Tom Frary

Continuing the stellar start to his stud career of Sergei Prokofiev, Amo Racing and Giselle De Aguiar's Arizona Blaze (GB) outstayed Ballydoyle's TDN Rising Star Camille Pissarro (Ire) (Wootton Bassett (GB)) at the close of The Curragh's G3 GAIN Marble Hill S. run in memory of Theresa Marnane on Saturday.

Second to the runner-up's stablemate Whistlejacket (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the five-furlong Listed First Flier S. here earlier this month, the £82,000 Goffs UK Premier graduate, who was his sire's first winner also at this venue in March, set off in front under David Egan. Tackled and passed by Ballydoyle's 4-6 favourite inside the final furlong, the 7-1 shot looked booked for second again but battled tenaciously to get back in front close home and score by a head.

"The plan was to drop him out and come from behind, but there was no pace early on and he had choice but to go on," trainer Adrian Murray said. "He stuck at it very well. He's still not the finished article, there is more improvement in him between now and the Coventry. He was an early horse, but we gave him an easy time of it after that to give him time to grow into himself. The last day he got beat here, he wouldn't have been 110%. He had a right little bit of a blow after that race, so he'll come on again."

Pedigree Notes

Arizona Blaze's dam Liberisque (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) is a daughter of the Listed Finale S. winner Jane Austen (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself a full-sister to the listed-placed Acapulco (Ire) from the family of the G3 Prix des Chenes-winning sire Evasive's First (Fr) (Evasive {GB}) and the G1 Derby Italiano winner Houmayoun (Fr) (Shernazar {Ire}). Liberisque also has a yearling colt by Harry Angel (Ire).

TERM OF ENDEARMENT GIVES BLACKMORE BRONTE CUP AT YORK by Heather Anderson

Rachael Blackmore made her first ride at the Knavesmire a winning one as she guided Term Of Endearment (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}) to victory in the G3 William Hill Bronte Cup Fillies' S. at York on Saturday for Henry de Bromhead. The 1 3/4-mile race is Blackmore's greatest achievement on the Flat, having already scooped the Grand National, Cheltenham Gold Cup and Champion Hurdle in the jumping sphere.

The 4-1 shot was content to track the leaders, as Ermesinde (Ire) (Golden Horn {GB}) cut out the early running from River Of Stars (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), last year's winner and the 2-1 pick, keeping her honest along with Night Sparkle (Ire) (Postponed {Ire}) in the mix. In the final furlong, Term Of Endearment brushed with eventual second-place finisher Night Sparkle who had briefly taken command, and went on to win by three-quarters of a length. The stewards, after looking into the incident in the stretch, did not change the finishing order.

Blackmore told Racing TV, "It's very cool to be asked to ride in the first place and a race of this calibre, it's very special to be able to win it. I'm delighted.

"I was hopeful in the middle of the week that if I got to ride her she would have a right chance because there was so much rain, but it really dried up. After walking the track I wondered if the best of her would come out on that ground.

"She produced a really good run and seemed to be able to do it on that ground as well. That was her first time stepping up to that trip and maybe the nicer ground on that trip suited her fine. It's just very cool to get a ride in Group 3 race and even better to win."

Term of Endearment earned a career high with a 4 1/4-length win in the G3 Give Thanks S. over 1 1/2 miles at Cork last August, but she managed only 10th in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies and Mares S. at Ascot in October. The Bronte Cup was her first run back.

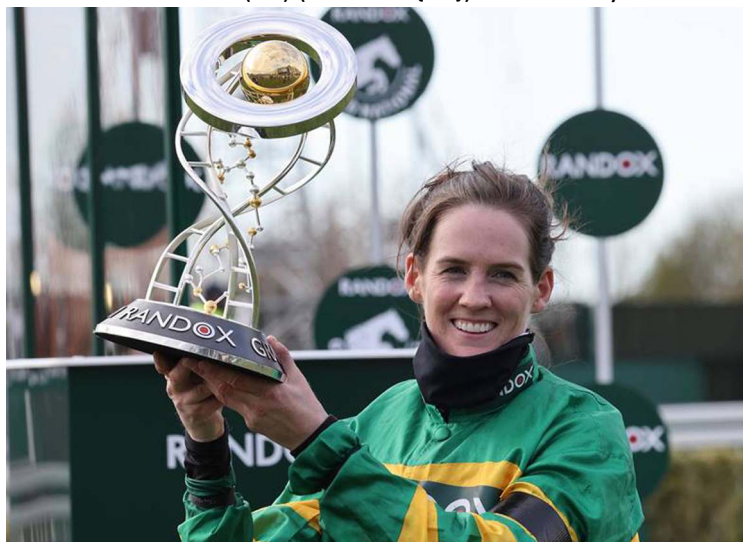

Pedigree Notes

Lanwades Stud stallion Sea The Moon (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) has 33 stakes winners to his name internationally, and the winner is one of 19 at the group/graded level. Group 3 winner Favorite Moon (Ger) is also out of a Montjeu mare. Sea The Moon, who covered 140 mares in 2023, stands for £32,500.

Consigned by Hillwood Stud to the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Term Of Endearment caught the eye of Alex Elliott, who shelled out 50,000gns for the bay. Having his first run since leaving Ballydoyle, Greenland, who was successful in last year's G3 Prix Greffulhe and had been third in The Curragh's G2 Mooresbridge S. earlier this month, got his Scandinavian career off to the perfect start with a clear-cut win. Held up towards the rear early, he was produced to take command a furlong out and stretched clear from there for an emphatic score.

TDN  RISING STAR

GALILEO'S JAN BRUEGHEL IMPRESSES WITH 'TDN RISING STAR' DISPLAY AT THE

CURRAGH by Sean Cronin

Day two of the Curragh's Irish Guineas Festival concluded with a bang when Coolmore and Westerberg's hitherto unraced 3-year-old colt Jan Brueghel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}--Devoted To You {Ire}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) outclassed nine rivals in imperious fashion to garner the €20,000 McDonnells Bar Newbridge Irish EBF Maiden and a 'TDN Rising Star' rosette. He becomes the 43rd Rising Star for the Coolmore icon.

The June 21 G2 King Edward VII and June 30 G1 Irish Derby entry was swiftly away and raced in a close-up second through halfway in this 10-furlong test. Inching forward to match strides with Ozark Daze (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) at the entrance to the straight, the 7-2 third favourite assumed control passing the quarter-mile marker and bounded clear in taking fashion to defeat the long-time leader by a highly impressive eight lengths.

"He just wasn't straight forward to train, he's a big horse and took a bit of time," commented Aidan O'Brien. "Ryan [Moore] loved him, but said he mightn't be ready, mentally, for [Royal] Ascot as he doesn't know enough and he'd never been at a track before. He said to go to a winners' race with him and then go to the [G3] Gordon S. in Goodwood. I asked him if he'd stay further than a mile-and-a-half and he said he will, but don't go further yet, so that's all positive. Ryan also said he didn't come on the bridle until he joined the leader and then he said he came alive. He's probably a fair horse and he has the pedigree to be a mile-and-a-half horse."

Jan Brueghel is the ninth of 10 foals and eighth scorer for G2 Debutante S. and G3 Park Express S. placegetter Devoted To You (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), herself kin to a sextet of black-type performers headed by GIII Honeybee S. victrix Humble Eight (Seattle Battle). His second dam Alleged Devotion (Alleged) is a half-sister to G1 Oaks and G1 Irish Derby heroine Balanchine (Storm Bird). The May-foaled bay is a full-brother to G1 Irish Derby hero Sovereign (Ire) and G1 Irish St Leger third Dawn Rising (Ire). He is also kin to a yearling filly by St Mark's Basilica (Fr).

Ryan Moore knows the task in hand. "She really came in to herself as the season progressed last year and she was clearly very, very impressive when running away with the Boussac," he said. "That makes her the form horse here, but she meets dangerous race-fit rivals in Fallen Angel and Vespertilio, so this is a tough return for her. You can easily see a lot of the others in here stepping forward a good deal as well, with maybe Juddmonte's Skellet chief among them. It's a tough race, as I said, but my filly is very good."

Opera Singer | Scoop Dyga

Aidan O'Brien added, "She'll run a nice race, hopefully. She has done very well physically, but she did have a setback in the spring which cost us three weeks and if you get cost three weeks, it usually costs you two months, so that's where we are with her." Cont. p13

Auguste Rodin | Horsephotos

Skellet (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), who received the special mention from Moore, is one of two TDN Rising Stars in the line-up alongside Purple Lily, and Juddmonte's acquisition has not been seen since finishing second to Dance Sequence (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G3 Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket in October. That form is not good enough, but it is interesting that Ralph Beckett sees fit to launch the season of the half-sister to Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy) here.

Karl Burke is hoping for a turnaround from Newmarket with last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Fallen Angel, who holds the subsequent G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Vespertilio on that form. "She came out of Newmarket really well, she's in great shape and I'm very happy with her, so fingers crossed she can run a bit better for us on Sunday," he said. "She just wasn't good enough on the day in the Guineas, it's as simple as that, but she looks in really good form and she's obviously proven on the track."

Auguste Rodin Returns To Europe

Also at The Curragh on Sunday is the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, where the dual Derby, G1 Irish Champion S. and GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) bids to get back on track following his lacklustre start to the campaign in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. Remarkably, that was the colt's third big blow-out and at this point it is hard to predict what will come from such an all-or-nothing performer. Particularly vulnerable given that Ballydoyle's horses seem slightly behind in their readiness so far this term, he could be vulnerable to Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez's race-toughened White Birch (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}), who has hijacked Aidan O'Brien's tried-and-trusted G3 Alleged S.-G2 Mooresbridge S. route to this. Amo Racing's unexposed Easter Classic winner Elegant Man

(Arrogate) also cannot be excluded from the argument and it is possible that Coolmore would be happy just to see Auguste Rodin ran a stand-up race with big targets ahead.

The Marquise And The Rose

At ParisLongchamp, the G1 Prix d'Ispahan over its "funny" distance of nine furlongs and 55 yards looks filly-bound, with Baron Edouard De Rothschild's G1 Prix Rothschild and G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Mqse De Sevigne (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) clashing with Yeguada Centurion's four-time Group 1 heroine Blue Rose Cen (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). The latter, who was last seen winning the G1 Prix de l'Opera at this venue on Arc day, is another project that Maurizio Guarnieri has to get to grips with fast.

MEET THE US OWNER BEHIND A LILAC ROLLA WHO IS FULL OF ADMIRATION FOR TWOMEY

By Brian Sheerin

Who are the people behind the Mutual Admiration Society? The group of owners have enjoyed a whirlwind success with the unbeaten A Lilac Rolla (Ire) (Harry Angel {Ire}) and are gunning for Irish 1,000 Guineas glory.

Trained by Paddy Twomey, A Lilac Rolla has gone from strength to strength and is by no means a back number in Sunday's Classic at general odds of 10-1. She has already accounted for the market leader Opera Singer (Justify) in a conditions race at the Curragh last year and American owner Amy King sees no reason why her star filly cannot uphold the form.

King, who will be making the trip from Texas to see A Lilac Rolla strut her stuff at Irish racing's HQ, said, "My friend Nicholas Varney, who is a partner in the Mutual Admiration Society, has been involved with horses in Ireland for many years--he has owned plenty of racehorses. About eight years ago we decided to go in on a horse together and we've had six or seven since. Blue Uluru (Ire) (Choirir {Aus}), who was one of our first horses together, is in foal to Space Blues (Ire) and now we have been really lucky with A Lilac Rolla. It's just a dream."

King added, "We bought her for €40,000 and have been so lucky. It's funny, we thought she was expensive at the time. If she were to win on Sunday it would be a dream come true. She didn't really prove herself last year so much but she did beat Opera Singer. We're just so excited."

King is something of a rarity in the world of ownership in that she chooses to have her horses based halfway across the world rather than in her home country. In Twomey, she says she has found a trainer who is aligned with her own views on how a horse is campaigned. Cont. p14

She explained, "Nicholas has a house in Shannon and, when I was visiting him about eight years ago, I just got the bug. I love travelling back and forth to Ireland and I think the racing is much more pure in Ireland compared to America. It's all about finding a trainer who cares for the horses as much as we do. That is something really special."

King added, "We are so lucky to have our horses trained by Paddy. He cares so much about the horses and is not going to run her unless they are ready, which is very important to Nicholas and I. He is very excited about A Lilac Rolla. He is really honest in his appraisal of his horses but I think he is really happy with her."

YLANG YLANG ANCHORS 15 LEFT IN THE BETFRED OAKS

The Coolmore partners' Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel (GB)) is one of five Ballydoyle fillies remaining in the G1 Betfred Oaks on May 31 after the latest entry stage.

The Group 1 winner of the Fillies' Mile last October, the bay was fifth in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas for Aidan O'Brien. She could be joined by the stakes-placed Rubies Are Red (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)), as well as Sunday's G1 Tattersalls Irish 1000 Guineas runners Opera Singer (Justify), who won the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac, the dual group-placed Buttons (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), and Everlasting (Ire) (Kingman (GB)), who was third in the G3 Salsabil S.

Ralph Beckett will saddle as many as four, including Listed Cheshire Oaks heroine Forest Fairy (Ire) (Waldgeist (GB)), the stakes-placed Seaward (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire)), Treasure (GB) (Mastercraftsman (Ire)), and Listed Oaks Trial Fillies' S. victress You Got To Me (GB) (Nathaniel (Ire)).

Karl Burke has G3 Prix Penelope winner Making Dreams (Ire) (Make Believe (GB)) entered, while Group 3 scorer Dance Sequence (GB) (Dubawi (Ire)) represents Charlie Appleby, and G3 Musidora S. heroine Secret Satire (GB) (Advertise (GB)) is signed on for Andrew Balding.

Rounding out the field are Group 3 winners Caught U Looking (Ire) (Harzand (Ire)) for Noel Meade and Dermot Weld's Ezeliya (Fr) (Dubawi (Ire)), and listed heroine War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front) for David Menuisier.

JEAN-CLAUDE ROUGET UNDERGOING TREATMENT FOR LYMPHOMA

French champion trainer Jean-Claude Rouget is undergoing treatment for lymphoma and is taking a two-month break from training, Paris Turf reported on Saturday. He is 70.

Rouget and his family released a statement to the publication which read, "Jean-Claude Rouget will finally be absent from the racecourses for the next two months. Medical examinations led to the diagnosis of lymphoma. Perfectly supported medically, he was immediately taken care of with an adapted care protocol. He is optimistic and hopes that this salary will allow him to resume his public duties as soon as possible. His two assistants, Jean-René Dubosc (Pau), Jean-Bernard Roth (Deauville) and the whole team are mobilized to ensure the smooth running of the stables. Jean-Claude Rouget aspires to the strictest respect for this period of rest which will keep him away from his public life. He will not respond to any calls and thanks everyone for the signs of sympathy shown to him."

JAKARTA (GB) (f, 2, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Pink Symphony {GB} {GSW-Ire & MSP-Eng, $186,684}, by Montjeu {Ire}), a slow-starting seventh behind the 'TDN Rising Star' display of Mountain Breeze (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in her May 5 debut over five furlongs at Newmarket last time, broke sharply and seized an immediate lead here. Holding sway throughout, the 3-1 second choice was nudged along passing the quarter-mile marker and ridden out inside the final furlong to hold the late threat of Royal Equerry (GB) (Kingman {GB}) by 3/4-of-a-length. Jakarta is the latest of eight foals and seventh scorer produced by G3 Give Thanks S. victress Pink Symphony (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself kin to MGISP G3 Prestige S., G3 Nell Gwyn S. and GIII Modesty H. winner Fantasia (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and to the dam of multiple pattern-race winner Western Hymn (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}). The May-foaled bay's third dam is Group 1-winning European champion Blue Duster (Danzig), herself a full-sister to Group 1-winning sire Zieten. A 16-5 proposition in this return, the colt was among the first flight and avoided the traffic issues that forced Neversay (Ire) (No Nay Never) into the rail and resulted in Joe Leavy being dislodged from the Fitriani Hay runner. Still green, he passed leader Northfield Lake (Fr) (Hunter's Light {Ire}) at the quarter pole, and, although he drifted right in the final stages, went on to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Offered by Ballylinch Stud at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale (Book 2), he was purchased by Yeomanstown Stud for 72,000gns, and later made 160,000gns at last year's Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up Sale on the bid of SackvilleDonald. His dam, who ran second in the Listed Midsummer Sprint S., has maintained her 100% strike rate, as her first three foals--of which Noel Fox is her third--have all won.

Her latest is a yearling filly by Make Believe (GB). Listed Prix Coronation winner Kart Star (Ire) (Soviet Star) is a half-sister to stakes winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches bridesmaid Karmifira (Fr) (Always Fair) and is Noel Fox's third dam. Coming of age during his last campaign with a win in the Listed August S. at Windsor and second to Bay Bridge (GB) (New Bay {GB}) in Kempton's G3 September S., one-time hold-up merchant Candleford showed here he is mature enough to make his own running and impose himself on a race and not be the hostage to fortune he so often has been.

Always in control under Ryan Moore, the Haggas raider maintained the gallop to deny Sumiha and William's wife Maureen was on hand to say, "He wants fast ground and hopefully we're coming into a period of time where we might get some fast ground now."

"Barnane Stud are really top-class breeders and these are the type of people that you like to have horses for. They have very nice mares and go to the best stallions, you then get a chance of breeding a nice horse and that's obviously what we're all trying to get a hold of."

Candleford's dam is the Listed Pretty Polly S. winner and G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Dorcas Lane, whose first foal was the listed-placed fellow Royal Ascot handicap winner Atty Perrse

(Ire) (Frankel {GB}). This is the family of the G1 1000 Guineas heroine Harayir (Gulch) and the G2 Falmouth S. winner Alshakr (GB) (Bahri) and her G1 Irish Oaks-winning dam Give Thanks (GB). a son of the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois heroine Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and half-brother to the G1 Cheveley Park S. and G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Tenebrism (Caravaggio), raced in mid-pack early. Coaxed into contention inside the final two furlongs, the 11-8 favourite kept trying to the line and got his reward in the final lunge by inching out Cadogan (GB) (Farhh {GB}) by a short head. "He's a lovely-bred horse, I think Joseph liked his horse as well," Aidan O'Brien said. "He'll improve a lot. He was babyish at home, mentally. Ryan nursed him as much as he could and gave him a lovely ride. He'll be very happy if he wants to step up to seven too, he's a lovely horse I'd say." Ruminating on a potential visit to Royal Ascot for the much-coveted G2 Coventry S., he added, "He could, it depends on how much he's going to come on. Obviously, if he was going, he'd have to have another run as he was very babyish. Through the race he was very green, everything was happening slow. It was a lovely introduction. Ryan loved him, though, he said he was lovely but he was babyish and green. When he really wanted him, he said he stuck his head out. He has a fast pedigree, but what is unusual about Wootton Bassett is that he can get a fast horse as well as a middle-distance horse. They can do everything really, it will be interesting." Cont. p20

NEASHAM'S BOIS MAKES ALL IN DOOMBEN

CUP by Keely Mckitterick

After hoisting the G1 Doomben Cup trophy up back in 2021 with Zaaki (GB) (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), the Warwick Farm-based horsewoman, Annabel Neasham, returned to town with the classy Bois d'Argent (GB) (Toronado {Ire}), who made all to give Neasham her 12th Group 1 success as a trainer.

The grey, ridden by Blake Shinn, prevailed in a photo finish over the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained New Endeavour (Ire) (New Bay {GB}), while Bois d'Argent's stablemate Fawkner Park (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) finished third.

Neasham spoke to 7HorseRacing post-race, "I said to Blake Shinn, "Do you ever get tired of winning these (Group 1s), and he said, "No, never," but it was a great ride and we try to get Blake on whenever we can.

"Obviously, Bois D'argent was there to be run down, and it was a very small margin, but it was there and thankfully he clung on. It's so exciting, mid-race I didn't think they were going that quick and it was very comfortable where all our runners were positioned. I actually think Numerian got a bit of a check, and I actually thought Fawkner Park was the run of the race."

Pedigree Notes

Bois d'Argent is the sixth individual Group 1 winner for Toronado (Ire), who stands at Swettenham Stud in Victoria. The son of High Chaparral (Ire) will serve the upcoming season at a fee of $88,000 (inc GST). He has 33 stakes winners worldwide.

The G1 Doomben Cup is the sixth career victory for Bois d'Argent, who also counts the Listed Lord Mayor's Cup and the Listed Prix du Ranelagh among his successes. Additionally, since his importation to Australia, Bois d'Argent has ran fourth in the G1 Caulfield Cup and placed in the G3 Premier's Cup.

His dam, the Daylami (Ire) mare Madonna Lily (Ire), retired a non-winner but was placed as a 2- and 3-year-old. She has proven herself as a producer, with Bois d'Argent's sister Grand Glory (GB) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) crowned the Champion Older Female in Europe in 2022, and the French Champion Older Female in 2021.

She won eight races, including the G1 Prix Jean Romanet and the G3 Prix de Flore. There is an Australian flair to Bois d'Argent's pedigree, down the page is the G1 VRC Oaks victress Arapaho Miss (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), and her Oaks-winning daughter Miami Bound (NZ) (Reliable Man {GB}).

Madonna Lily is a daughter of the stakes placed Maria De La Luz (GB) (Machiavellian who also produced the G2 Canadian S. winner Minakshi (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand {GB})).

Bois D'Argent's sire and dam sire are bred on the same Mill Reef/Mr. Prospector cross and he boasts duplications of the terrific mares Natalma (Native Dancer), Almahmoud (Mahmoud {Fr}), Lalun (Djeddah {Fr}) and Somethingroyal (Princequillo {Ire}).
