

EZELIYA LEADS HOME DUBAWI ONE TWO IN THE OAKS

Ezeliya | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

Continuing a banner year for The Aga Khan, Ezeliya (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}--Eziyra {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}) led home a one-two for her sire in Friday's G1 Betfred Oaks and provided her owner-breeder with a first success in the Epsom Classic in the process. Booking her ticket with a win in the 10-furlong G3 Salsabil S. at Navan last month, the Dermot Weld-trained relative of the G1 Gold Cup-winning half-siblings Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) and Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) was always travelling with menace held up by Chris Hayes.

Admirably straightforward tackling the undulations and twists and turns, the 13-2 second favourite rolled by Godolphin's Dance Sequence (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and stayed on powerfully to beat that rival by three lengths. The 50-1 shot War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front) was 1 1/2 lengths behind in third, while the 11-8 favourite Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}) was sixth.

"She's a very professional, strong-travelling filly, gorgeous--she's a queen," Hayes said after steering home his first British Classic winner. "It was copybook, it was like a bit of work, she relaxed beautifully, did everything well and made me look good." Cont. p3

"THERE IS ONLY ONE PLACE TO FIND OUT." CAN CITY OF TROY GAIN DERBY REDEMPTION? by Tom Frary

In it seems no time at all, Coolmore's big horse City Of Troy (Justify) has gone from "our Frankel" to a colt carrying a huge symbolic question mark over a head that appeared poised to carry racing's crown. There have been few greater anti-climaxes in the history of Ballydoyle than that which accompanied his abject 2,000 Guineas performance and, following the roller-coaster experience of last year's Derby, we are unexpectedly back in familiar territory. What occurred at Epsom last June was heralded as a feat of training without equal as Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) pulled himself back from a tame effort at Newmarket, but 12 months on Aidan O'Brien has had to do it all over again. G1 Betfred Oaks Cont. from p1

While The Aga Khan had won the Oaks in 1989 with Aliysa (GB) (Darshaan {GB}), that filly was later disqualified so this was a welcome breakthrough for the operation. Typically patiently-campaigned to date, Ezeliya had built on a debut fourth behind Ballydoyle's Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) over seven furlongs at Leopardstown last August with a defeat of the useful Wendla (GB) (Ulysses {Ire}) in a Cork maiden the following month. Her Salsabil re-entry gave her every entitlement to line up as one of the leading lights here, with Weld quietly confident beforehand.

"She's a stayer with speed—I was never worried about the distance, as she's from a great staying family of the Aga Khan's," the trainer said after welcoming a 25th English and Irish Classic winner. "She's a beautiful filly to train. She's not a big filly, but has a lot of quality and Chris gave her a beautiful ride. That was the plan, to ride her the same as he rode her at Navan, where he dropped her out last. She loves to come from off the pace."

"She had the race won a long way out. She was cantering and she got a lovely run down the hill," Weld added. "It's a few years since I won the Oaks, but I haven't had many runners and generally it's been a lucky place for me—I won the Derby too with Harzand and I rode and trained an amateurs' Derby winner. Ezeliya is a very genuine, brave filly and her dam was a very good racemare I trained. She was a good group filly who went to the Breeders' Cup and Hong Kong, but this filly probably has a bit more speed and a bit more class."

This was not a strongly-run Oaks, with a finishing percentage of 111 over the final three furlongs, so the winner is clearly a pacey individual who was able to decide the contest with splits between the three and the one of :11.59 and :11.68. Dance Sequence registered the race's fastest from three out to two out, but she ultimately paid for her :11.43 injection and tired late as her pedigree suggested she might. With the ground on the dead side and the emphasis on speed, it was no surprise to see Dubawi emerge as the dominant force.

"She settled really well going down to the start, she settled that well the other jockeys were commenting on her going down to the start," Hayes explained. "She was the first horse loaded into the stalls and she was quiet, she jumped well, relaxed. I didn't want to light her up going up the hill and I was tracked out wider than ideal, but it was a fresh strip of ground and I was getting a lovely bit of cover from Hector [Crouch on You Got To Me]."

"She moved forward quicker than I thought she was going to, but I never had a moment's doubt," he added. "Once she got to the furlong pole, I knew there was nothing going to come and catch her at the finish. It took me right to the end of the pull-up area to pull-up and that is probably because I was celebrating as well, but she had a good bit of petrol left." Cont. p4

Weld is eyeing a possible Classic double now and also has a certain October race in mind. “We will look at the Irish Oaks or wait for an autumn campaign, which may involve the Arc,” he said. “She looks like an Irish Oaks filly, but we’ll see how she is.”

Charlie Appleby said of the runner-up, “Dance Sequence has run a great race. They have gone a nice gallop and William said he had to make his move when he did, as the race was coming back to him. William felt he got there to win his race and then got outstayed. I think coming back to a mile and a quarter will be the right trip for her, but it is great to get her back on track after the Guineas. We have no immediate targets in mind, although one thing to note from today is that she has appreciated cut in the ground again. You can quite confidently say that her best performances have been with ease, so she will have an autumn campaign pencilled in.”

David Menuisier has a talented crop of 3-year-olds in his stable and following the fourth of Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) in the 1,000 Guineas, has another classy filly to go to war with in War Chimes. “She will be better right-handed,” he said. “If we hadn’t had the rain, I would have waited for the Irish Oaks so she could go that way round, but when the rain fell I just thought it would give her a chance to handle Tattenham Corner. She did kind of handle it, but she did lose a fair few lengths by not handling it as well as some of the others really. But I’m thrilled.”

“She moved forward quicker than I thought she was going to, but I never had a moment's doubt. Once she got to the furlong pole, I knew there was nothing going to come and catch her at the finish. It took me right to the end of the pull-up area to pull-up and that is probably because I was celebrating as well, but she had a good bit of petrol left.”

“We’ve been placed in the Guineas, the Oaks, won the German Guineas and now we look forward to the French Oaks [with Tamfana],” he said. “I have a fantastic team of three-year-olds this year, I might have to retire at the end of the season as I don’t think I’ll get one like it again!”

Ryan Moore said of Ylang Ylang, “I don’t think she handled the track particularly well. We were following the winner and the second and she just didn’t ping into the straight in the way I would have expected her to. Maybe she had a hard race in the Guineas and maybe it’s come a bit too soon. She’ll be better than today. She didn’t finish off today, but I struggled before that.”

Pedigree Notes

As mentioned by Weld, the dam Eziyra was third in the G1 Irish Oaks, G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Hong Kong Vase as well as winning the G2 Blandford S. and four other group races including the G3 C L & M F Weld Park S. Ezeliya is her second foal, with her next being an unraced 2-year-old colt by Siyouni (Fr). A half-sister to three other black-type performers including the dam of the G2 Al Rashidiya runner-up Erzindjan (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), she is a granddaughter of the top producer and huge stamina influence Ebaziya (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}). Cont. p5

Ebaziya's best performers were the aforementioned marathon stars Enzeli and Estimate and also the G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Prix Royal-Oak heroine Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who was third in the G1 Coronation Cup here, as well as the G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Edabiya (Ire) (Rainbow Quest). Another notable in the family is the G2 Prix de Royallieu winner Ebiyza (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), whose daughters Ebaiyra (Distorted Humor) and Edisa (Kitten's Joy) also made waves with the former capturing the G2 Prix Corrida and G2 Prix de Pomone and the latter finishing runner-up in the Jockey Club Oaks Invitational, G2 Prix de Malleret and G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris.

AGA KHAN BLUEBLOOD WARMS THE EPSOM FAITHFUL By Emma Berry

EPSOM, UK--With squally showers and a freezing wind, it wasn't really the day for a 99, unless you're the Aga Khan.

Ezeliya (Fr), the bonny bay filly from a family replete with class and stamina, made the Oaks her own from a long way out, and in so doing broke the Epsom hoodoo of her sire Dubawi (Ire) in becoming the 99th individual Group 1 winner for her stalwart of a breeder.

The ears have it: Ezeliya with her winning team | Racingphotos.com

"Days like this are why we all do it," said a beaming Pat Downes, manager of the Aga Khan Studs in Ireland, who divulged that Princess Zahra Aga Khan had missed out on this latest Classic winner for her family's celebrated breeding operation owing to a badly timed technical hitch with her flight.

"She was on her way, but it's very frustrating," he said.

"Hopefully she'll be there for the next one."

And there surely will be more bright days ahead for Ezeliya, the owner of a stonking pair of ears with the talent and attitude to match. Her trainer Dermot Weld had won his first Classic at Epsom back in 1981, when Blue Wind (Ire) won the Oaks in the hands of Lester Piggott. More than 40 years later, Chris Hayes took his turn in the saddle. He's won a Classic at home in the last two seasons on Tahiyra (Ire) and Homeless Songs (Fr), and now has one in Britain to add to the collection. The mild-mannered Hayes couldn't hide his delight.

"I actually said if she wins, I'll be real cool, calm and collected like a Mick Kinane," he said of his celebration as he crossed the line. "But this is unique and it was just a surge of adrenaline in the last 50 yards - I had to do something."

From the balcony of the royal box, the King and Queen looked on as their own filly Treasure (GB) found the trickiness of Epsom beyond her. There was an upside, though, as within their own broodmare band resides Estimate (Ire), the Ascot Gold Cup winner gifted to the late Queen Elizabeth II by the Aga Khan as a foal and from the immediate family of Ezeliya. In the last few years Estimate has returned to the Aga Khan Studs for visits to Sea The Stars \(Ire\) and Siyouni \(Fr\).

Epsom hasn't always been a happy hunting ground for the Aga Khan. The disqualification of Oaks winner Aliysa in 1989 prompted the owner's exodus from Britain, but in the intervening 35 years Sinnandar (Ire) and Harzand (Ire) have significantly eased that woe with victories in the Derby to bring the tally of wins to five in that particular Classic for Aga Khan IV, matching the record of his grandfather, whose first Derby victory came in 1930 with Blenheim (GB).

Downes spoke of the enjoyment the perennially successful breeder derives from what he has memorably described as "a game of chess with nature".

"For him it's all about nurturing families and that's still the case today," Downes said. "He will get tremendous satisfaction from this. It's a family that's been in his family for so long, and here we have another top-notch filly from the family."

"Between His Highness and Princess Zahra that's now 99 individual Group 1 winners. That's quite a benchmark."

Indeed it is, and a benchmark of a similar kind was set by the admirable Luxembourg (Ire), who really does deserve a little more love. In days when the top colts are all too readily whisked off to stud, it is becoming rare to see a horse win Group 1 races in multiple seasons but Luxembourg has now done just that at two, three, four and five. A son of the 2012 Derby winner Camelot \(GB\), Luxembourg looked right at home at Epsom as he added the Coronation Cup to his Futurity Trophy, Irish Champion S., and Tattersalls Gold Cup. Epsom Colour Cont.

As Derby Day dawns it brings with it the month of June, and we can but hope that, if not flaming, it is a little less Arctic in conditions than Oaks Day. From the shivering racegoers, however, there was a truly warm welcome for King Charles III, who was back on a racecourse for the first time since watching Desert Hero (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) finish third in the St Leger last September.

The Sport of Kings it is once more.

LUXEMBOURG HANGS TOUGH IN THE CORONATION CUP by Tom Frary

As brave as they come, Ballydoyle's Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}--Attire {Ire}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) relished a supreme ride from the front by Ryan Moore to register a first mile-and-a-half career success in Friday's G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom. Having set steady fractions for the first half of the contest, the 9-4 second favourite was asked to stretch running to Tattenham Corner and was all heart in response to get to the line a length ahead of the beloved Haggas veteran Hamish (GB) (Motivator {GB}).

Denied the chance to run in the Derby over this course and distance two years ago, the stalwart got to Surrey at last to make it a Group 1 win in each campaign. TDN Rising Stars Feed The Flame (GB) (Kingman \(GB\)) and Emily Upjohn (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) finished third and fourth, beaten a further six and 3 1/2 lengths, respectively.

"We always thought he was a mile-and-a-half horse and we ran him a little bit short over the winter," Aidan O'Brien said. "The better the ground, the better he'll be and we think he'll hopefully be a King George horse."

Such a bright prospect in 2021 when extending an unbeaten run in the G1 Futurity Trophy, Luxembourg suffered a muscle injury during the 2,000 Guineas and later in the Arc but still mustered a victory in the G1 Irish Champion S. in between. Not always at his best last term, he still managed an all-the-way success in The Curragh's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, and gallant seconds to Auguste Rodin \(Ire\) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Romantic Warrior \(Ire\) (Acclamation {GB}) in defence of his Irish Champion title and in the G1 Hong Kong Cup.

Happy at the head of affairs here with ears flicking in all directions, he was visibly waiting for the command from Moore and when it finally came all the balled-up energy proved a fuel injection for the demanding run up the straight. Perfectly-balanced throughout the closing stages, where only Hamish emerged from a talented pack to put him in the red, Luxembourg was in no mood to relinquish as he delivered Coronation Cup number nine for his stable.

"Ryan gave him a brilliant ride," O'Brien added. "He had him in a lovely and relaxed rhythm early on, and when he started to quicken his fractions were brilliant. A horse like that in front, the way Ryan was riding him, was always going to be difficult to deal with if you were following him."

Maureen Haggas said of Hamish, "I'm absolutely thrilled to bits with him. We could have done with more rain and Ryan's ridden a brilliant race on the winner. The problem with him is that every time he runs you are just terrified it's going to be his last, in case he breaks down again. It's pathetic, but he's just like my pet. He's a bloody star, it's all you can say. I'll be very happy if it rains all summer, but nobody else will be!"

John Gosden said of the 7-4 favourite Emily Upjohn, who was too free attempting back-to-back wins, "I've been telling people she'll come on for the run. She's been very laid-back in her work and it was a steady pace and then a bit of a sprint. She'll come on a bundle for it. She could go to Royal Ascot for something like the Hardwicke. We need to get her on the racetrack."

and the stalls panic at Newmarket and heart-rate issues. O'Brien has railed against critics of the colt's physique, of which there are many, but at 4.30 on Saturday afternoon it is all out of his hands and up to City Of Troy and Ryan Moore who has given up a Derby ride on Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot (GB)) that any jockey would give his right arm for.

The rider in question is in no doubt he is on the best horse in the line-up, but also aware that there is some ground to make up after the Guineas. "We were clearly all a touch bemused by that performance at the time, but hopefully Aidan has got him back to somewhere near his brilliant two-year-old best at home and if he has then he will take all the beating," he said. "We always thought this trip would suit him at three, but he has to go out and prove it now and even more so after Newmarket. But there is only one place to find out and we are here."

Where there were valid reasons for believing that Auguste Rodin could turn around his fortunes 12 months ago, with more suitable ground conditions and a favourable draw to help as well as the obvious pedigree credentials and striding data, City Of Troy has many more factors against him. From stall one, Moore will have to use up energy from the outset which contributed to the colt's downfall at Newmarket, while the surface is also likely to ride on the dead side. What is in his favour is the fact that his dam's full-sister won a soft-ground Oaks and his full-brother Bertinelli was a mile-and-a-quarter and mile-and-a-half slogger. Oh, and the fact that up until the start of last month he looked a phenomenon in the making.

The Danger Within...

Where City Of Troy is a quandary wrapped up in an enigma, the yard's second-string Los Angeles is a case of what you see is what you get. Cont. p9

Studying the pioneer of Rosegreen over a seismic last four weeks, it is hard to recall him engaging in a more passionate defence of a reputation since he began there in the 90s. The colt that he describes as "vital" has come under an intense scrutiny from the media that is both understandable and reasonable given his blow-out in the Guineas and he has answered the probing with ardent faith. We have had the reasons for his eclipse; the winter preparation that was in hindsight too soft

Ideally positioned as a Derby prospect given his stats and form, the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud and G3 Leopardstown Derby Trial winner comes here via a tried-and-trusted route with Euphoric (GB) (Frankel {GB}) presumably here to aid his cause in front. As if he didn't have enough in his favour, his family features Urban Sea (Miswaki) so he has Epsom in the veins. If he is on City Of Troy's case in the closing stages, we could well be in for another High Chaparral-Hawk Wing scenario.

Best Of The Brits?

Given the forecast earlier this week, Charlie Appleby must have been thinking that the pieces were falling into place for last year's G1 Futurity Trophy hero Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) but the expected rain has failed to materialise as expected and his prospects have diminished as a result. There was a time, pre-Workforce when defeat in the Dante was the kiss of death here and, given he was beaten six lengths in York's time-honoured trial, it is hard to enthuse about the Godolphin runner. That cannot be said about the leading British contender Ambiente Friendly (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), who dominated a Listed Lingfield Derby Trial that has received a subsequent boost and he is charged with bringing more Epsom Classic glory to the Gredley Family who 32 years ago celebrated an Oaks victory courtesy of User Friendly (GB).

James Fanshawe will be a welcome sight in the paddock beforehand and he is keeping typically cool ahead of a big day for his longstanding Pegasus Stables. "Of course there is a real buzz in the yard about having a Derby contender. There seems to be a real interest in Ambiente Friendly and that's great," he said. "We've had plenty of Group 1 successes, but we haven't had too many runners in the Classics.

We've had a second in the 1,000 Guineas with Spacious and Soviet Song wasn't quite right when she was fourth, but the Derby is the Derby and a lot of things are judged on the result of it."

"All I can say is Ambiente Friendly has done it and won his trial in a good time and seems to have come out of the race in good shape," he added. "Over the winter and even since the Feilden S., he has grown up a lot. He was a little bit fresh at Newmarket, but at Lingfield he went round a bend as good as any horse went round there."

Ancient Wisdom | PA Media

Arabian Crown in last year's G3 Zetland S., but his comeback effort for Adrian Murray marked him as a middle-distance colt to take seriously.

Interestingly, Bellum Justum had the pace to beat a certain Inisherin (GB) (Shamardal) in his Newmarket maiden in September, while the Blue Riband Trial third Chief Little Rock (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) did much to enhance his credentials in Sunday's Gallinule. He also descends from the excellent producer Lucayan Princess (GB) (High Line {GB}), whose son Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon) captured two Coronation Cups and loved this place.

Other Parts Of The Puzzle...

There are genuine stamina doubts surrounding the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Dancing Gemini (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), despite his pedigree suggesting the step up to a mile and a half should suit, while a win for Juddmonte's Macduff (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) would serve to stir up a what-might-have-been moment for Charlie Appleby given how readily he was beaten by the sidelined Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G3 Sandown Classic Trial.

THE LOWDOWN: QATAR PRIX DU JOCKEY CLUB

CLUB by Emma Berry & Heather Anderson

Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix du Jockey Club is an enticing affair, with Group 1 winner Sunway appearing poised to return to his best form. There are several intriguing new shooters, including listed winner Fast Tracker, who will be making his debut in the Wathnan Racing colours. British raider and group winner Ghostwriter, who ran fourth in the 2000 Guineas, will be plying his trade in France for the first time. All in all, most of the field is in with a chance, with the potential wet weather definitely set to play a part.

WAHDAN (IRE)

Siyouni (Fr)--Lamorlaye (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})

Sales info: Offered by Haras de Castillon, this Khalifa al Attiyah-bred colt was a 140,000gns buy-back at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 1.

Pedigree/form notes: The sixth foal of his winning dam, Wahdan is a half-brother to the G3 Prix Imprudence third Talbah (GB) (Style Vendome {Fr}) and German listed winner Wasmya (Fr) (Toronado {Ire}). His granddam, Love To Dance (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), was third in the G2 Blandford S., and she, in turn, is a half-sister to six-time Group 1 winner and sire Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill), who won the Irish Derby and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe among other top-notch races. He is also related to the Classic winners Homecoming Queen (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), Serpentine (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Remember When (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). Never worse than third in three starts, this winner was fourth to the re-opposing Fast Tracker (GB) (Churchill {Ire}) and Dollar Index (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) in the Listed Prix de Suresnes over 2,000 metres in soft ground at Chantilly on May 2. Needs to find more to make an impact on Sunday.

RAMADAN (FR)

Le Havre (Ire)--Raushan (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: A homebred for Nurlan Bizakov's Sumbe operation, the half-brother to stakes winner and G3 Hopping S. second Rasima (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) won a soft-ground maiden at Chantilly and then ran fourth in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud at Saint-Cloud to end his juvenile year. Kin to G1 Pretty Polly S.

heroine Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), the sixth foal out of Raushan thumped the Listed Prix Omnium II field by five lengths this spring and added the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau next out in April before a solid fifth in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains this month. Ramadan should love the ground regardless of how much rain falls at Chantilly. A live chance.

GRECIAN STORM (GB)

Churchill (Ire)--Dalila (Ger) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire})

Pedigree/form notes: By the sire of 2022 Jockey Club winner Vadeni (Fr), Grecian Storm was bred by SCEA Marmion, Catherine Kairis and Nightchill, LLC. Already a winner of three races at two and three in ground ranging from good to soft to heavy, the son of Listed Premio Coolmore runner-up Dalila was third in the G3 Prix de Guiche. Kin to the three-time group-placed Drummer (Ger) (Duke Of Marmalade {Ire}), Grecian Storm must find more, as the waters are deeper in this test.

FIRST LOOK (IRE)

Lope De Vega (Ire)--Billissie (GB) (Dansili {GB})

Sales info: Part of breeder Haras de la Perelle's draft at the Arqana August Sale, he was purchased by BBA Ireland for €340,000.

Pedigree/form notes: A juvenile winner over the all-weather, First Look has shown marked improvement this year, with a third in the G3 Prix la Force in April before running second in the G3 Prix de Guiche on May 11. His dam won the Listed Prix Charles Laffitte, and he is her fourth foal and second winner. Second dam Balladeuse (Fr) (Singspiel {Ire}), who won the G2 Prix de Royallieu and is a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Plumania (GB) (Anabaa), produced G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) among other talented runners. No issues with soft ground, and could surprise at a price.

DOLLAR INDEX (FR)

Kendargent (Fr)--Kikinda (Fr) (Daliapour {Ire})

Sales info: A shrewd €36,000 buy by Chauvigny Global Equine from the Haras du Petit Tellier consignment at the Arqana October Yearling Sale.

Pedigree/form notes: Bred by Patrick Chedeville, Dollar Index sports a pair of wins over the all-weather (at two) and turf in heavy ground on April Fools' Day. Cont. p11

He was a distant second to seven-length Listed Prix de Suresnes winner Fast Tracker on May 2. Not yet the most talented offspring of his winning dam, the 11th foal of Kikinda is a half-brother to listed winner High Alpha (Fr) (Fuisse {Fr}), who was second in the G3 Prix des Chenes, while Stillman (Fr) (Vespone {Ire}) placed five times in France a group level and was also third in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas). Well-related, but has more to find on his own merits.

MONDO MAN (GB)

Mondialiste (Ire)--Moghrama (Ire) (Harbour Watch {Ire})

Sales info: Sent through the Arqana ring for the May Breeze-Up Sale by the Bloodstock Connection, the Elwick Stud-bred caught the eye of trainer Pia Brandt for €30,000.

Pedigree/form notes: He found the Deauville all-weather to his taste when a four-length winner over 1,800 metres making his 3-year-old bow in February. Third in the Listed Prix Maurice Caillault at Chantilly in March, Mondo Man was second in the G3 Prix la Force at ParisLongchamp in heavy ground on Apr. 7. His dam is a half-sister to the group winners Mythical Magic (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) and Esentepe (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}). It remains to be seen whether the long break will have served him well.

SUNWAY (FR)

Galiway (GB)--Kensea (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr})

Sales info: This full-brother to G1 Gran Criterium/G1 Champion S. hero and Jockey Club second Sealiway (Fr) was retained at €300,000 at the Arqana August Yearling Sale by his breeder Guy Pariente.

Pedigree/form notes: Second in the G2 Champagne S. and a winner of the G1 Criterium International at two, this son of Listed Prix Herod heroine Kensea appeared to be lacking fitness when fifth in the G3 Prix la Force on Apr. 7. He showed plenty of progression to be only a neck behind Wootton Verni (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G3 Prix Greffulhe at Saint-Cloud on May 6. Deservedly one of the favourites, especially as he has already shown he thrives on ground with plenty of cut.

LOOK DE VEGA (FR)

Lope De Vega (Ire)--Lucelle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire})

Sales info: Haras de la Morsangliere bought out breeding partner Ecurie des Charmes for €180,000 when the colt was offered at the Arqana August Yearling Sale.

All four of the mare's foals are now winners, and he is unbeaten in his two starts for Carlos and Yann Lerner. He made his debut over 1,800m at Fontainebleau last November before winning easily over 2,000m at Longchamp in early May. Takes a big step up here but is clearly progressive.

ALCANTOR (FR)

New Bay (GB)--Bianca De Medici (GB) (Medicean {GB})

Sales info: Bred by SCEA du Grand Chene, he was a €180,000 Arqana foal, bought by Nick Bell on behalf of Baron Edouard de Rothschild's Haras de Meautry.

Pedigree/form notes: A close third in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains, improving nicely on his sixth-place finish in the Craven S. at Newmarket. He was also runner-up in the G1 Criterium International at two. He is the sixth winner from as many runners out of his winning dam – a half-sister to the Hungarian champion Thunder Teddington (GB) (Halling) – with the others including the G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen victor Boscaccio (Ger) (Mount Nelson {GB}). The descendants of his third dam, Trevillari (Riverman) – a full-sister to the G1 Prix Saint-Alary victrix Treble – include the dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), while his fourth dam Trevilla (Lyphard) is an unraced half-sister to the great Triptych (Riverman).

GHOSTWRITER (IRE)

Invincible Spirit (Ire)--Moorside (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB})

Sales info: Offered by his breeders Norelands Stud and the Irish National Stud as a foal at Tattersalls, he was bought by David Bowe on behalf of Jeff Smith's Littleton Stud for 100,000gns.

Pedigree/form notes: His Juddmonte-bred granddam Marching West (Gone West) is a sister to the 1993 2,000 Guineas winner Zafonic and also to Zamindar, who ran fifth to Entrepreneur in that same race four years later. Moorside, who was second in the Cheshire Oaks, was her sole black-type performer. Ghostwriter won all three starts last year, including the G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S., and took fourth in the 2,000 Guineas, in what is already starting to look like a strong edition of that Classic. The second and third – Rosallion (Ire) and Haatem (Ire) – went on to finish first and second in the Irish 2,000 Guineas last weekend. He should cope with this step up in distance. Cont. p13

DIEGO VELAZQUEZ (IRE)

Frankel (GB)--Sweepstake (Ire) (Acclamation {GB})

Sales info: Bred by Denis Brosnan's Epona Bloodstock, he sold to MV Magnier and White Birch Farm for 2.4 million gns at Tattersalls October Book 1.

Pedigree/form notes: Earned a 'TDN Rising Star' on debut at two before following up in the G2 Champions Juvenile S. Ran a solid fourth in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains, only a length off the winner, and it would be no surprise to see him step forward again on only his second start this year.

He is a half-brother to the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Broome (Ire) (Australia {GB}) as well as Point Lonsdale (Ire) (Australia {GB}), who gained the sixth black-type victory of his career in this year's G3 Ormonde S. Their dam is a Listed winner out of the Suave Dancer mare Dust Flicker (GB), herself a full-sister to the G3 Prix de la Nonette victrix Dust Dancer (GB). Dust Dancer, in turn, is the granddam of the late sire and Group 1 winner Zoffany (Ire) (Dansili {GB}).

ARROW EAGLE (FR)

Gleneagles (Ire)--Absolutly Me (Fr) (Anabaa Blue {GB})

Pedigree/form notes: Owned and bred by Waltraut Spanner, this colt has plenty to live up to as a half-brother to last year's sensational winner Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}). He has made a similarly promising start to his career, winning twice at Cagnes-sur-Mer over the winter and more recently finishing second to fellow challenger Sosie in a conditions race at Longchamp.

Arrow Eagle will be bidding to become the fourth black-type performer for his dam, who was herself a winner over a mile as well as being Listed-placed.

FAST TRACKER (FR)

Churchill (Ire)--Emma Knows (Ire) (Anabaa)

Pedigree/form notes: Bred by Guy Heald, in whose colours he has run until his recent private sale to Wathnan Racing, Fast

Tracker only made his debut in late January but has had plenty of seasoning since then and now has five starts under his belt. He has won his last three races, at Cagnes-sur-Mer, Chantilly and Longchamp, progressing from 1,500m to 2,000m, with his most recent win coming in the Listed Prix de Suresnes. That contest was won last year by Ace Impact en route to Classic glory.

His dam Emma Knows, also bred by Heald, is an unraced half-sister to the stakes-placed Leader Writer (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) and King Of Camelot (Fr) (Camelot {GB}), and she has also produced the Listed-placed My Scholar (Fr) (Pour Moi {Ire}).

Fast Tracker is proven on the type of ground he is likely to encounter on Sunday and looks to have a major chance.

ATLAST (FR)

Farhh (GB)--Pitamore (More Than Ready)

Pedigree/form notes: His dam won over 7.5f and is a half-sister to the prolific stayer Funny Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), whose eight wins include the Prix de Barbeville.

A strapping individual, Atlast was a winner at two on the Chantilly all-weather and bounced out at three with an impressive win in the G3 Prix La Force in heavy ground. Keenness perhaps got the better of him when fading to last of five in the G3 Prix de Guiche on his most recent start. If he settles he could be a leading player and he is one of two in the race for owner-breeders Wertheimer & Frere.

Atlast | Scoop Dyga

Sea The Stars (Ire)--Sosia (Ger) (Shamardal)

Pedigree/form notes: The second of the Wertheimer duo, Sosie got the better of Arrow Eagle on his most recent start at Longchamp over 2,150m. Last year he won on debut at Chantilly on September and returned to that track to take second in October's Listed Prix Isonomy behind War Chimes, who was third in the Oaks on Friday.

He is a half-brother to three black-type performers, including dual Listed winner Anasia (GB) (Intello {Ger}), out of a winner from one of the best families in Germany. Granddam Sahel (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) is a full-sister to three German Classic winners in Samum (Ger), Schiaparelli (Ger) and Salve Regina (Ger), making Sosie similarly bred to the Deutsches Derby winner Sea The Moon (Ger).

SON OF SEA THE MOON TOPS BBAG SPRING SALE

A juvenile colt by Sea The Moon (Ger) (lot 5) brought €70,000 from Meridian International to lead the way during the one-day BBAG Spring Sale in Iffezheim, Germany on Friday.

Consigned by Ecurie Prevost-Baratte, the colt is a half-brother to four black-type horses--among them multiple stakes winner Anasia (GB) (Intello {Ger}), who was second in the G3 Prix Fille de l'Air and third in two more Group 3 contests, as well as listed winner Copie (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}).

Earthlight (Ire), who has his first runners this season, was also among those sires represented on the leaderboard, as his colt out of G3 Concorde S. third Crafty Madam (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) (lot 10) went to IAFX Weibmeier. Part of the Ranello Bloodstock Agency's draft, the grey brought €52,000. His Invincible Spirit (Ire) half-brother Crafty Spirit (Ire) won at Kempton on May 29 in the colours of Con Harrington for trainer Clive Cox.

The third and final lot to breach the €45,000 mark was lot 68, a filly by Galiway (GB) out of Tristesse (Broken Vow), who was signed for by Richard Venn for €46,000. The bay's dam won a listed race in France, and this is the family of Group 2 winner Seachange (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). Ecurie Prevost-Baratte sent the 2-year-old filly through the ring.

A strong clearance rate was one of the highlights of the mixed sale, with 58 sold from 69 horses offered (84%). The gross was €688,600. The average was €11,872 (-11.6%) and the median was €11,546 (-17.8%).

GOFFS AND PRIVAT 3 MONEY PARTNER ON 10TH LONDON SALE

Goffs will celebrate 10 years of the London Sale as the boutique auction is set to raise the curtain on Royal Ascot week once more, on Monday 17 June at Kensington Palace Gardens.

Luxury fintech company Privat 3 Money returns as title partner for the third consecutive year, whilst supporting brand partners include Ascot Racecourse, Château Léoube, Ampito Group, The International Yacht Company (IYC), Racing Post Bloodstock, and Hofmeister.

Privat 3 Money first partnered with Goffs in 2022, when Derby runner up Hoo Ya Mal (GB) (Territories {Ire}) sold for a sale-topping £1.2 million, while in 2023 Group winning two-year-old Givemethebeatboys (Ire) (Bungle Inthejungle {GB}) headlined trade at £1.1 million.

The world's first truly digital alternative for the private wealth sector, Privat 3 Money recognise that traditional players do not fully understand or appreciate the digital needs and demands of a new generation of high-net-worth individuals. The firm has reimaged access to deposits, payments, foreign exchange, and trading for the digital age, enabling financial transactions from anywhere in the world via smartphone whilst maintaining the personal customer service offering synonymous with traditional premier finance.

Murphy added, “I know the Oaks winner came from behind, but I think the track is suiting horses who are on the pace and it probably played to his advantage. He’s very difficult at home and Michael Murphy, the ex-jockey who won on Battaash at Bath, has done a great job on him.”

David Redvers added, “He’s a very talented horse, but there was some question about him running a bit free last year at the end of his two-year-old career. Sheikh Fahad decided he needed to come to England where there would be more pace on in the races. What he doesn’t enjoy is sitting in a typical French crawling sprint, so it was a very good call by the boss. Archie has done an outstanding job, he’s got the horse to settle and he’s got him fit and ready. I don’t think the ground is an issue, I think there will be plenty of improvement as well and he’ll go to the [G3] Jersey now.”

AIN’T NOBODY (IRE) (c, 2, Sands Of Mali {Fr}--Burmese Waltz {GB}, by Showcasing {GB}) was a shade slow from the traps and raced in fourth through the initial strides of this debut. Improving one spot before halfway, the 8-1 chance quickened to launch his bid passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on strongly under late rousting to assert by 1 3/4 lengths from Georgetandoit (GB) (Territories {Ire}), becoming the fourth winner for his freshman sire (by Panis). Ain’t Nobody is the first of two foals produced by a winning granddaughter of Nitya (Fr) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), herself an unraced full-sister to GI Breeders’ Cup Mile-winning sire Domedriver (Ire). The March-foaled bay is half to a yearling colt by Dandy Man (Ire). Sales history: £30,000 Ylg ‘23 GOFFUK. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $8,595. INDELIBLE (IRE) (f, 3, Shamardal--Midday {GB} {MG1SW-Eng, G1SW-Fr, GISW-US, MG1SP-Ire, $3,438,502}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), the eighth foal out of the six-times Group 1 and Grade I heroine Midday, was carrying a penalty for her success on Lingfield’s Polytrack in November and was fresh early behind the leaders. Seemingly beaten a furlong from home, the 9-1 shot found a second wind to collar fellow Juddmonte representative Amphius (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in the last 50 yards and assert for a half-length success. The illustrious dam has also proven a hit as a broodmare, producing the G3 Sandown Classic Trial and G3 Manion Cup winner Midterm (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), the Listed Height of Fashion S. winner and G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up Mori (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Listed Nottinghamshire Oaks scorer and G3 Musidora S. runner-up Noon Star (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p18

Also Ran: Serious Challenge (Ire), The Very Man (Ire), Prairie Dancer (Ire), Falcon Eight (Ire), La Hacienda (GB).

Countess Of Tyrone, who went unraced as a juvenile, annexed her lone sophomore start at Galway in August and returned this year to run ninth in Cork's Apr. 26 Listed Noblesse S. and second in Gowran's May 8 Listed Vintage Tipple S. last time. Stalking the leading duo in third until pulling her way to the front with three furlongs remaining, she was scrubbed along when eyeballed off the home turn and found extra under a late drive to register a career high by a neck in game fashion. Cont. p19

"I thought this race might suit her a couple of weeks ago, she handled the step up in trip well there today and I'm delighted with the way she did it," said trainer Paddy Twomey. "Her [full] brother [Earl Of Tyrone] was good and she's a nice filly. It's great to win a stakes race with her and, hopefully, she can continue in these stakes races."

Countess Of Tyrone is the eighth of 10 reported foals and one of six scorers produced by an unraced daughter of G1 Nassau S. heroine Favourable Terms (GB) (Selkirk), whose descendants include dual G3 Prix du Petit Couvert winner Berneuil (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and the stakes-placed Fighton (Ind) (U S Navy Flag). The April-foaled chestnut, who hails from the family of G1 Natalma S.-winning Canadian champion Victory To Victory (Exchange Rate), is a full-sister to Listed Martin Molony S. victor Earl Of Tyrone (Ire). She is also half to a 2-year-old filly and yearling filly by Saxon Warrior (Jpn).

Nails-tough in dropping his nose down on the wire first when second-up in the G1 W S Cox Plate in late October, the 6-year-old returned to Hong Kong to successfully defend his title in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup six weeks later. His two most recent appearances are emblematic of his will to win, as he narrowly outfought fellow BMW Hong Kong Derby winner Voyage Bubble (Aus) (Deep Field {Aus}) in the G1 Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup (2000m) in February and overcame a wide journey and wet underfoot conditions he clearly detested to become a three-time winner of the G1 FWD QE II Cup when last seen Apr. 28.

Romantic Warrior landed barrier seven at Friday's draw, much to the delight of trainer Danny Shum. James McDonald has a return call.

"We're happy with seven and the owner is also lucky with seven," Shum said. "It should be easier for James [McDonald] to hold a position from there--very happy.

"You can see he is happy from his eyes, from his appetite and how he responds to you. I'm very close to him and I can tell he's very happy."

Voyage Bubble, a latest third in the G1 FWD Champions Mile and winner earlier in the season of the G1 Stewards' Cup over this trip, is drawn in 15 with champion Zac Purton at the controls.

Carrot Farm's Namur (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) has shown she can more than hold her own against the boys, having upset last year's G1 Mile Championship S. ahead of a third to Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) in the G1 Longines Hong Kong. A cracking second to Facteur Cheval (Jpn) (Ribchester {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Turf (1800m) Mar. 30, she lost all chance at the start of the sex-restricted G1 Victoria Mile over this course and distance May 12, but closed off well to be eighth, but beaten just three lengths.

ROMANTIC WARRIOR LOOKS TO CAP FAIRY TALE SEASON IN YASUDA KINEN by Alan Carasso

Peter Lau's Hong Kong raider Romantic Warrior (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) can put the wraps on one of the most remarkable seasons in recent memory should he be able to take out Sunday's G1 Yasuda Kinen Sunday afternoon at Tokyo Racecourse. The one-turn, 1600-metre contest serves as a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at California's Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in early November.

Gaia Force (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) was an outstanding fourth to Songline (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}) in last year's Yasuda Kinen and tries a grassy mile for the first time since on Sunday. The likeable gray entire, to break from gate two, makes his first start since finishing runner-up in the G1 February S. going 1600 metres on the adjacent dirt surface Feb. 18.

The veteran Soul Rush (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) was just beaten on the line in the Mile Championship and also acquitted himself well in the Hong Kong Mile, finishing fourth. Spelled thereafter, he resumed with a smart defeat of the re-opposing Serifos (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}) in the G2 Yomiuri Milers Cup at Kyoto Apr. 21, his second win there in the last three years.

FIRST WORLD WAR GIVES DETTORI A STAKES DOUBLE IN PENN MILE

By Alan Carasso

Making his first trip to Penn National, Frankie Dettori completed a stakes double with a last-jump success aboard Qatar Racing and Hunter Valley Farm's First World War (War Front) in Friday's GIII Penn Mile.

Sent off as the 33-10 third betting favorite behind last-out GII American Turf S. upsetter Trikari (Oscar Performance) and the twice-raced New York shipper Good Lord Lorrie (Hard Spun), the $285,000 Fasig-Tipton November weanling took up a position just behind midfield as 6-1 Set (Oscar Performance) galloped his rivals along through enervating fractions of :23.09 and :46.31.

RESILIENCE POSSIBLE FOR BELMONT

Emily Bushnell and Ric Waldman's Resilience (Into Mischief), most recently sixth behind Mystik Dan (Goldencents) in the GI Kentucky Derby May 4, is under consideration for the June 8 GI Belmont S., trainer Bill Mott told the NYRA media office Friday.

The Hall of Famer said a decision would likely come this weekend after the GII Wood Memorial S. winner breezes at Saratoga.

"We've got some discussions to have with the owners, but we're giving it strong consideration," Mott said. "We're going to work on the weekend and once he breezes we'll know what we're going to do." Cont. p5

Slipstreaming Trihari down the backstretch and into the turn, First World War was given a dig leaving the three-furlong peg and was steered out four wide into the lane. When Set rolled away from the inside turning for home, Cristian Torres atop the rail-skimming and ground-saving 17-1 shot Aspenite (Constitution) took full advantage, sending his mount through to challenge Trihari, who had raced prominently throughout after departing from the widest gate. First World War wanted to hang on his incorrect lead into the final eighth of a mile, but once he switched over, he gobbled up the ground three off the inside and won the tightest of photos over Aspenite, with Trihari right there between them in third.

Dettori won the $150,000 Penn Oaks atop favored Poolside With Slim (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) one race before the Penn Mile.

A debut maiden winner going a mile at Kentucky Downs, First World War made best use of his each-way pedigree to finish second to 'TDN Rising Star' Parchment Party (Constitution) in a two-turn dirt allowance at Churchill Nov. 9 and was narrowly beaten in the Jan. 1 Mucho Macho Man S. at Gulfstream. The dark bay struck from close range at skinny odds in the grassy GIII Kitten's Joy S. in Hallandale Feb. 3 and was most recently ninth, but beaten just three lengths, in the GIII Transylvania S. at Keeneland Apr. 5.

Resilience had his first work since the Derby on May 27, going an easy half-mile in :50.45 (5/7) over the Oklahoma training track.

A pair of runners owned by George Krikorian recorded workouts Friday morning at Saratoga. Three-time Grade I winner War Like Goddess (English Channel) tuned up for her 7-year-old debut in the GII New York S. with a four-furlong move that was timed in :50.65 (41/53).

"I was happy with her work this morning," Mott said of War Like Goddess, who was a pace-disadvantaged sixth in last year's New York S. over a mile and a quarter. With the shift to Saratoga, this year's race will be contested over 9 1/2 furlongs.

Eclipse Award-winning juvenile filly Just F Y I (Justify) went a bullet five-eighths in 1:01.20 (1/11) at Oklahoma as she readies for a potential rematch with GI Kentucky Oaks winner Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna) in the GI Acorn S. June 8. The latter remains a possibility for the GI Belmont S., according to trainer Ken McPeck.

Grade I Turf Winners Go Around For Brown

A trio of top-level winning turf distaffers from the barn of Chad Brown prepped for Belmont Stakes Racing Festival engagements Friday morning.

Shortly after 10 a.m., Whitebeam (GB) (Caravaggio) covered five furlongs in 1:00 3/5, while Gina Romantica (Into Mischief) went a similar distance in 1:00 1/5. McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}) worked in the company of her Grade II-placed stablemate Coppice (GB) (Kingman {GB}) and the duo were timed in 1:00 4/5.

"Whitebeam went great, super," said Brown. "Then Gina Romantica went solo and I was very happy with her. It was a nice team with McKulick and Coppice, and they did just as I was looking for them to do. They've all been training excellent."

Whitebeam, Coppice and Gina Romantica are set to be joined by barnmates Chili Flag (Fr) (Cityscape {GB})--who defeated Coppice in the GII Distaff Turf Mile May 4--and Beaute Cachee (Fr) (Literato {Fr}), all-the-way winner of the GI Jenny Wiley S., in the GI Just A Game S. June 7.

Whitebeam | Sarah Andrew

Chili Flag and Beaute Cachee went four furlongs in :50.23 over the Oklahoma dirt surface Friday morning.

"Those two horses went great," said Brown. "I'm very happy. They've been doing very well breezing on the dirt, so I just wanted to keep them happy with what they're doing for the maintenance work. They seem happy each week doing that, and I'm pleased with how they've been exiting their works."

McKulick and GIII Sheepshead Bay S. winner Royalty Interest (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) will represent the stable in the New York S. There they could encounter Aspen Grove (Ire) (Justify), last year's GI Belmont Oaks upsetter who went a half in :48 2/5 over the Oklahoma turf training track for trainer Jack Siston.

FOUR GRADE THREES FEATURE ON FOSTER PREVIEW DAY

by Alan Carasso

Godolphin's progressive homebred Highland Falls (Curlin) has been made the 5-2 favorite in a field of 11 for Saturday's GIII Blame S. at Churchill Downs, one of four graded stakes that serve as an appetizer to corresponding races on Stephen Foster Saturday in a month's time beneath the Twin Spires.

The chestnut son of Round Pond (Awesome Again), upset winner of the 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at the Louisville oval, makes his third consecutive appearance in graded company, having run on to be a good fourth to Newgate (Into Mischief) in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 3 ahead of a strong runner-up effort to the talented Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) in the GII Oaklawn H. Cont. p6

“I thought he ran well in the Santa Anita H., where the pace didn’t really shape up all that fast,” trainer Brad Cox said. “I thought in the Oaklawn H. he ran a credible race and improved out of the Santa Anita H. We’re looking forward to Saturday’s race and hoping it kickstarts a big campaign for him.”

Highland Falls | Coady

Todd Pletcher is double-fisted for the Blame, with 'TDN Rising Star' Tapit Trice (Tapit) making his first start since finishing third in last year's GI Travers S., and the less-exposed GI Pennsylvania Derby runner-up Dreamlike (Gun Runner), who dropped a neck decision at the hooves of Cagliostro (Upstart) in Keeneland allowance company Apr. 19.

Can Buchu Bounce Back in Regret?

Rigney Racing's Buchu (Justi fy) will likely jump favored in Saturday's GIII Regret S. and is on a bit of a recovery mission after finishing only sixth at 5-2 in the GII Edgewood S. on the Kentucky Oaks undercard May 3. Victorious in Keeneland's GII Appalachian S. on seasonal return Apr. 6, the homebred was perhaps inconvenienced by easier-than-optimal underfoot conditions in the Edgewood and finished sixth, beaten just over two lengths.

“This will be a good test for her going nine furlongs for the first time,” trainer Phil Bauer said. “The plan is definitely to keep her reserved early to save some energy for her late kick.”

Way to Be Marie (Not This Time) has remained in Kentucky since her runner-up effort in the Edgewood, where she was just touched off by Dynamic Pricing (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) and had the re-opposing Dancing N Dixie (Neolithic) another length back in third.

Ottoman Fleet (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) figures tough from the fence in the GIII Arlington S., while Rigney's Xigera (Nyquist) will look to atone for a fifth in the GI La Troienne S. while facing Godolphin's Wet Paint (Blame) and 'TDN Rising Star' Scylla (Tapit) in the GIII Shawnee S.

'Mistress' Looks To Go All The Way in Honeymoon

Shiloh's Mistress (inside) just missed in the Providencia S. | Benoit

Umberto Rispoli will be on a red-eye back to California after riding the Friday evening program at Penn National, and he will team with Shiloh's Mistress (Vino Rosso) in Saturday's GIII Honeymoon S. at Santa Anita.

Owned by Resolute Racing, the bay won her maiden going long over the Tapeta track at Turfway Jan. 10, prompting John Stewart to acquire her in a private transaction, but she could do no better than fifth in the GIII Santa Ynez S. With Rispoli at the controls for the first time in the Apr. 20 GIII Providencia S., Shiloh's Mistress made all the running and was just run down on the wire by the undefeated 1-5 favorite Medoro (Honor Code).

If connections opt out of an appearance in the Regret, for which she is cross-entered, Faith Understood (Catholic Boy) could be a real fly in the ointment for Shiloh's Mistress. The Robert LaPenta homebred won her maiden at 13-1 in a Keeneland grass maiden two back and set the fractions in the Memories of Silver S. at Aqueduct Apr. 28, but was no match late for Resolute's 'TDN Rising Star' Sweet Rebecca (American Pharoah) and settled for second. A 15-1 chance in the Regret, Faith Understood is pegged as the 5-2 favorite on Jon White's morning line.

The GII Triple Bend S. has a field of four, including the once-beaten Venkman (Ghostzapper), narrowly second in last year's Perryville S. at Keeneland, making his 4-year-old debut against the best Cal-bred sprinter not named The Chosen Vron (Vronsky), Big City Lights (Mr. Big), last-out winner of the GIII Kona Gold S. Cont. p7

There is also a four graded-stakes program at Woodbine, featuring the GII Eclipse S., where Tyson (Tapit), a dual graded winner on synth and third in last year's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Saratoga, takes on the comebacking Get Smokin (Get Stormy), making his first start on the Tapeta off a strong worktab, and his King's Plate-winning stablemate Paramount Prince (Society's Chairman).

BULLET TO PASS ON ROYAL ASCOT

by Bill Finley

Bullet | Lauren King

Though she won the May 11 Royal Palm Juvenile Fillies S. at Gulfstream, which qualifies the winner for a trip to the Royal Ascot meeting, Bullet (War Front) will be staying in North America, reports D J Stable's General Manager Jon Green. Horses that win the Royal Palm Juvenile Fillies or the Royal Palm Juvenile S. are offered an automatic berth into a 2-year-old stakes at Royal Ascot plus a $25,000 travel allowance.

Gabaldon (Gone Astray), the winner of the Royal Palm division for colts, will make his next start at Royal Ascot for trainer Jose D'Angelo.

"The official word is that we are not sending her to Ascot," Green said. "She is already at Woodbine, where she will run in a three-race series, which finishes off with the GI Natalma S. It was a combination of a number of things. First and foremost was the schedule we want her to follow. The Canadian races enable us to put her on a schedule that we prefer. The races increase in distance every four weeks and we can keep her in one place, have her train in the cooler weather and then, if she has earned a spot, send her to the [GI] Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. That also allows us to train on the Tapeta course and the turf up there. I can see where running at Royal Ascot is a bucket-list event and, hopefully, someday we'll be in this position again and will be able to go. At this point in time, it just didn't make sense."

Last year, the George Weaver-trained Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) began her career with a win in the Royal Palm Juvenile Fillies and came right back to win the G2 Queen Mary S. at Ascot.

The schedule calls for Bullet to make her next start in the July 13 My Dear S. at 5 1/2 furlongs on the synthetic track, before switching back to the turf for the 6 1/2-furlong Catch a Glimpse S. Aug. 17 and then the one-mile GI Natalma S. on Sept. 14. All three races are at Woodbine. The Natalma is a "Win and You're In" race for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.

"We like the fact that these races are all four weeks apart," Green said. "If we're fortunate enough to do well in the Natalma, that gives us six weeks to get her from Canada to California."

Bullet was a $425,000 purchase at the 2023 Keeneland September sale. She won the Royal Palm Juvenile Fillies S. by 2 1/4 lengths despite breaking slowly.

SECOND PARX TRAINER THIS WEEK

PENALIZED FOR COBALT SALTS by T. D. Thornton

The Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) has penalized a second Parx-based trainer this week for multiple violations of the banned substance cobalt salts.

Two separate May 30 "final decision" summaries were posted on the HIWU website for trainer Patricia Farro, suspending her for a total of four years and fining her $50,000 after cobalt salts were detected in two Parx winners she trained earlier this year: Deplane (He's Had Enough) on Feb. 6 and Knockout Win (Winchill) on Feb. 28. Cont. p8

The cumulative penalties were the result of the pair of two-year suspensions/$25,000 fines being combined.

The case summary was listed as "resolved," but it was unclear at deadline for this story if Farro intends to appeal HIWU's final decision.

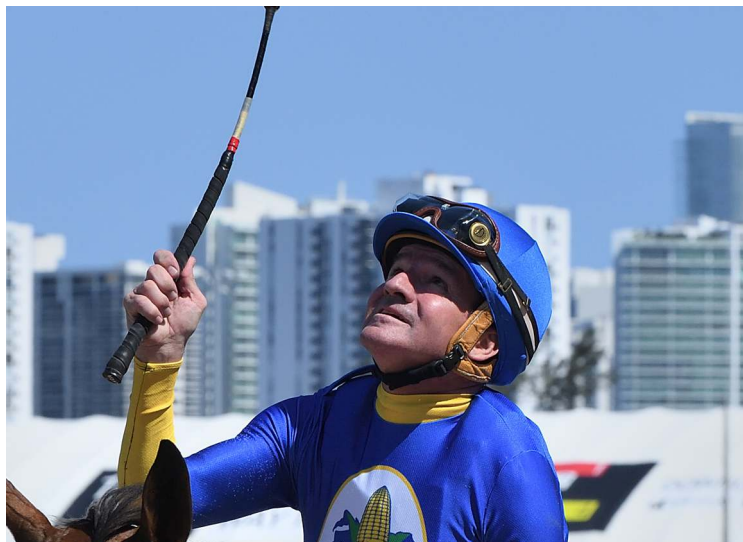

Farro's penalties followed those imposed one day earlier upon trainer Monte Gelrod, who was suspended for 18 months and fined $12,500 after his trainee, Ratified (Constitution), tested positive for cobalt salts after winning her fourth race in a row at Parx on Feb. 19 and again after running sixth there on Mar. 4.

Gelrod's lesser penalties for the same banned substance were the result of his having agreed to an "admission of rule violation and acceptance of consequences" settlement with HIWU.

As TDN's Dan Ross reported on Wednesday, cobalt has been proven to stimulate the production of red blood cells. Its use as a performance-enhancer has to do with greater blood cell production helping endurance and decreasing muscle fatigue.

The horses involved have all been disqualified and are in the process of sitting out a six-month ineligibility period.

DESORMEAUX RIDES GULFSTREAM WINNER

Kent Desormeaux | Ryan Thompson

Hall of Fame jockey Kent Desormeaux rode for the first time in a decade at Gulfstream Park on Friday, and made the trip worth his while when piloting Lady Cha Cha (Vino Rosso) to a victory for trainer Laura Cazares in the afternoon's featured seventh race.

"All credit to the horse. What a nice filly," the three-time Eclipse Award-winning jockey told the Gulfstream notes team. "Thank you to Laura. I've never met her, but she put me on her horses today. I appreciate the opportunity."

The 54-year-old rode two horses on the program as he awaits a June 7 meeting with California Horse Racing Board stewards.

"I'll make up my mind after that," said Desormeaux. "I have a protocol that I have to go through that prevents me from competing with my peers. I'll leave it at that."

The Louisiana native told the Gulfstream media office that should the 'situation with the CHRB go unresolved' that he would consider relocating to either Gulfstream or Colonial Downs.

Desormeaux, winner of the 2008 GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park aboard future dual Classic winner Big Brown (Boundary), is named on one horse on Saturday's program and another on Sunday before he returns to Southern California.

Friday's victory was the 6,171st of his career.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

After reading Dan Ross's Aftercare gaps article in the May 31 edition of the TDN, I have some suggestions.

Jeff Bloom (TAA president) hit the problem on the head: "One way or another we need a mandatory sustainable fundraising solution. So who's going to pay for that?"

As TAA's Founder and first President in 2012, I was a complete failure in attaining mandatory funding through our Industry. It continues to baffle me on how we could not raise $15-$20 million to help solve this problem. Maybe that's not enough either, but let's make that our goal.

Sales companies: Mandatory 1% fee for top 70% of horses purchased, 0.5 % for bottom 30% purchased. Consignors/Sales companies 0.5% on purchase price. If this had been implemented last year, that would have amounted to $3,280,000. If Mike Repole buys $15 million worth of stock, do you think he would care about designating 150,000 to Aftercare of choice? Starlight would be happy to commit 1% of our $4-5 million spend at the sales.

Tracks: Australia commits a decent percentage of purses to aftercare. I don't see why U.S. tracks can't do the same thing.

In 2012, Breeders' Cup, Keeneland and The Jockey Club committed $300,000 in seed money to get TAA off the ground. I had hoped that the industry would have continued to grow funds for aftercare. This has not happened to the level I had hoped. Registration fees need to have a mandatory level that makes a difference. I think Keeneland and Breeders Cup and The Jockey Club need to be the leaders in mandatory increase of significant amounts. I really thank the three organizations that helped to get us get started, but it's time for mandatory requirement from every level of the industry. We should make the $3-$5 million look like $15-$20 million and let the TAA worry about operations, which they are great at, and let the fundraising be the responsibility of the three organizations.

Looking at the Board of the TAA, they should have the ability to execute mandatory significant fees to get this up to the $15-$20 million level. If they choose not to do it, how can HISA help?

If you are going to play this game, you have to find a way to take care of our retired horses even if you are taking care of your own after retirement.

NYRA UPDATES FAN POLICIES FOR TRAINING DURING BELMONT STAKES WEEK

The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) has offered several updates to morning training policies for fans during the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival at Saratoga, the entity said in a Friday release.

Fans may attend morning training at the main track between the hours of 7 a.m. and 10 a.m. (all times Eastern) on Thursday, June 6 and Sunday, June 9, and can enter the venue only through Gates C and D. These gates are located at the intersection of Wright Street and Frank Sullivan Place, outside of the 1863 Club.

In an adjustment to the previously announced policy, fans who attend morning training on Thursday and Sunday may claim the free picnic tables in the backyard between the hours of 7 a.m. and 10 a.m. Similar to standard procedure during the Saratoga summer meet, fans will be required to exit the venue at 10 a.m. prior to the official opening of gates at 11 a.m.

There will be no access to morning training on the main track on Friday, June 7 and Saturday, June 8. Gates will open to the public at 10:30 a.m. on Friday and at 9 a.m. on Saturday, at which time fans may claim the free picnic tables in the backyard.

Morning training will be open to fans at the Oklahoma Training Track on Thursday, Friday and Sunday from 7 a.m. to 10 a.m.

On-site parking will not be available during morning training hours.

BELMONT CHILD CARE ASSOCIATION TO HOST 10TH ANNUAL SPRING FLING HAT LUNCHEON

The Belmont Child Care Association, Inc. (BCCA) will host its annual Spring Fling Hat Luncheon and Fashion Presentation on Thursday, June 6 at The Garden City Hotel, 45 7th St., Garden City, New York, the organization said in a release Friday.

The luncheon will begin at 11:30 a.m. ET with a cocktail reception featuring two-tiered raffles and a luxury silent auction, followed by a seated luncheon. This year's online silent auction will feature a 2025 Belmont Stakes package, which includes a private luxury box for five. Online bidding opens Monday, June 3 at 10 a.m. ET and will close Saturday, June 8 at 5 p.m. ET.

BCCA welcomes News 12 Long Island anchor Antoinette Biordi as the celebrity emcee. During the event, Emmy award-winning actress Susan Lucci will be recognized as the 2024 Community Honoree, and Cate Masterson, Director of the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame, is this year's Thoroughbred Industry Honoree.

TAKE 2 ADDS AWARDS FOR JUNIORS, AMATEURS

Edited Press Release

The TAKE2 Thoroughbred League announced today new 2024 awards worth a total of $6,000 in recognition of Junior and Amateur Riders who compete in the TAKE2 Thoroughbred Hunter and Jumper divisions nationwide. The high-point Amateur Rider in each division of the TAKE2 League standings will earn a $1,000 bonus, while the leading Junior Rider will earn a $500 bonus. In addition, the top-finishing Amateur and Junior in each division of the TAKE2 Finals will be awarded $1,000 and $500, respectively.

"Amateurs and Juniors ride head to head with Professionals in the TAKE2 League divisions," TAKE2 Executive Director Andy Belfiore said. "While they more than hold their own, we wanted to put the spotlight on their success, and encourage even more participation from the non-professionals. Our mission is to inspire all horsemen and women to consider a Thoroughbred for their next Hunter or Jumper, and this is one more way we hope to accomplish that."

The TAKE2 Second Career Thoroughbred Program was established in 2012 to highlight the talent of retired racehorses as Hunters and Jumpers. Nearly 500 horse shows in 25 states offer TAKE2 divisions, and more than 2,500 Thoroughbreds have competed in the classes to date. TAKE2 has distributed more than $1.1 million in prize money and awards since it was launched.

“Another generous and positive step towards heightening the non-racing career of our beloved Thoroughbreds,” said Amateur Rider Marty Nevins, who has been competing with 12-year-old Classic Brother in the TAKE2 League since 2019. “Congrats to TAKE2 on your new Amateur and Junior awards for the 2024/25 season!”

The $20,000 TAKE2 Hunter and Jumper Finals will be held Sept. 22, 2024, at the Kentucky National Horse Show in Lexington.

LUC BELAIRE RARE ROSE AUCTION TO BENEFIT TAA

Edited Press Release

An online auction featuring a large 6-liter bottle of Luc Belaire Rare Rose adorned with 2024 Santa Anita Derby Day artwork by artist Juliana Paige and autographed by Santa Anita jockeys is now underway. Proceeds from the auction will benefit the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance.

The auction will run through 8 p.m. ET on closing day of the Santa Anita Hollywood Meeting Sunday, June 16.

Crafted by fifth and sixth generation winemakers at a renowned French Maison founded in 1898, Luc Belaire Rare Rose holds a rich legacy of excellence and workmanship, according to a release. This one-of-a-kind Rose is praised for its astounding flavor and sophisticated appearance which carries on the founders' legacy by combining classic elegance with modern luxury, the release states.

In the words of guest announcer Larry Collmus, the 'Flying Dismount' has arrived at Penn National. In his first try over the regional oval, jockey Frankie Dettori picked up the win Friday night in the Penn Oaks aboard Poolside With Slim. The Irish-bred earned her first win over the grass, having broken her maiden two back over the Tapeta at Gulfstream Feb. 3. A pair of graded stakes, both on the turf, yielded no better result than fourth after leading late in the GIII Florida Oaks while she was fifth--again fading from the lead--last out in the GII Appalachian S. at Keeneland April 6. With Dettori picking up the mount for the first time Friday, the 9-5 shot, wearing saddle cloth #3, broke from the innermost gate with the scratch of the two runners to her inside and again showed early speed but was out-sprinted past the wire the first time by Pounce to her outside and a host of pursuers. Racing fourth along the rail, she showed a new dimension to wait as a pair of runners to her outside drew past through fractions of :23.14 and :47.21. Pounce continued to lead into the far turn but, as room opened with a quarter to run, Poolside With Slim was able to switch out and get first run, easily darting past inside the sixteenth pole and just holding off Nice as Pie in the shadow of the wire.

The 24th stakes winner for Coolmore's Ireland-based stallion Churchill, Poolside With Slim was a €110,000 purchase out of the 2022 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale. Dam Kissepal (Ire) is herself a half to MGSW/G1SP Besharah (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) who in turn produced GSW Perfect News (Frankel {GB}). Just her second foal of racing age and second winner, Poolside With Slim has a yearling half-sister by Mehmas (Ire) who sold for €80,000 as a weanling at Goffs November Foal Sale last year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

EXTRA ANEJO (c, 4, Into Mischief--Superioritycomplex {Ire}, by Hard Spun), unseen since a well-beaten fourth in last year's GI Haskell S., returned to the races with authority Thursday night for trainer Steve Asmussen and Winchell Thoroughbreds. Dubbed a 'TDN Rising Star' first out, the $1.35m Keeneland September yearling buy won two of his first three, yielding the win only once behind another Grade I-runner in Federal Judge (Constitution) in his 3-year-old unveiling at Churchill last May. Back at seven furlongs for the first time since that 'Rising Star'-worthy debut, the 2-1 second choice flashed early speed but was outfooted by Eyeing Clover (Lookin At Lucky) from the rail draw as the field came out of the chute and onto the backstretch. Content to track that leader from second, Extra Anejo, patiently handled by regular pilot Tyler Gaffalione, began to move up into the far turn until the pair was head and head past the quarter pole. Clearly the class of the group once straightened away, he came home 3 1/2 lengths in front of a calvary charge for second won by Call Me Fast (Dialed In). The 96 Beyer Speed Figure earned in this win was a career best by two points. Mt Brilliant, who bought into Extra Anejo's dam for 400,000gns at the 2017 Tattersalls December Mares Sale, bred Extra Anejo as her first foal. The mare herself is a daughter of Justlookdonttouch (Ire) who brought 1,200,000gns from the same sale and also produced GSW Francesco Clemente (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and MSW/MGSP Abingdon (Street Cry {Ire}). This is also the family of American champion grass mare Islington (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Extra Anejo has a 2-year-old Tapit half-brother who sold for $525,000 as a yearling at Keeneland last September and Superioritycomplex foaled a full-sister to the 'Rising Star' this year. EVERSO MISCHIEVOUS (c, 4, Into Mischief--Ever So Clever {GSW, $522,830}, by Medaglia d'Oro) took the GII Forty Niner S. at Aqueduct two starts back and finished out 2023 with a non-factor 11th in the GII Cigar Mile H. Dec. 2. Unraced since then, he came off the bench Friday for Brad Cox as the 3-5 heavy favorite and sat third off a pair of dueling leaders into the turn.

Switched out for his run, he got on even terms just outside the furlong marker, put Happy American (Runhappy) away and went on for the 1 1/4-length win. Runnin' Ray (Street Sense) just got by Happy American for the place. Ever So Clever saw her 2-year-old full-brother to the winner bring $1.1m to West Point Thoroughbreds as a yearling at Keeneland last September and she aborted her Jack Christopher foal for 2024. DEPICTION (c, 3, More Than Ready--Trensita, by Curlin), stakes placed in January's Dania Beach S. to kick off the season at Gulfstream, stepped down out of stakes company for the first time in three straight starts Friday off a seventh in the GIII Transylvania S. at Keeneland April 5. Running with Lasix for the first time, the 9-5 favorite was out of it early, beating just one rival through the opening half in :48.06. Tipped out for a stretch run, he get up just in time to nail Unleash the Power (Curlin) on the line by a neck in a tight three-way finish. Trensita, herself a half to MG1SW Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) and GISW Free Drop Billy (Union Rags), is also a half to the dam of MGSW/GISP Emmanuel (More Than Ready). She foaled back to back fillies by Daredevil in 2022 and 2023 respectively before reporting a colt by Charlatan this year. Sales History: $80,000 Ylg '22 KEESEP. HALINA'S FORTE (f, 3, Mitole--Lunarlady {SW}, by Yes It's True) debuted a winner by 4 1/2 lengths and then was the runner-up in the Fern Creek S.--both under the Twin Spires last fall. Shipping to the Big A to start her 3-year-old campaign, the filly won the Ruthless S. Feb. 17, then was a well-beaten eighth in the GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 5. She was last seen finishing just off the board in the Eight Belles S. on the Kentucky Oaks undercard. Sent off as the 1-1 choice here, the bay tracked Hot Beach (Omaha Beach) up the backstretch who posted a :21.63 for the first quarter mile. Ranging up on her target around the far turn, Halina's Forte grabbed the lead at the top of the lane and cruised home to win by two lengths over Tanya Showers (Runhappy). The winner is her dam's last registered foal. Lunarlady is a half-sister to Gili Iroquois S. hero Astrology (A.P. Indy) and the dam of Gili Alysheba S. victor Backyard Heaven (Tizway). LADY CHA CHA (f, 3, Vino Rosso--Peisinoe {SW & GSP, $179,363}, by Yes It's True) faced state bred company for the first time as a 7-2 shot here after winning a starter race over the Hallandale turf Apr. 18. The bay trailed heading into the first turn and continued to anchor the field up the backstretch. Finally getting going around the far turn, the filly tipped to the center of the course at the top of the lane and showcased her late foot with a 2 1/2-length score over Burnaway (Big Drama). The winner is a half-sister to Proverb (Flatter), GSP, $399,008. 1st-Churchill Downs, $116,625, Msw, 5-31, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:04.95, ft, 3 3/4 lengths.

ADEERA (f, 2, Authentic--Majestic Presence {GSP-USA, MSP-Can, $227,896}, by Majestic Warrior) became the first winner for her freshman sire (by Into Mischief) Friday. The second choice at 8-5 behind fellow first-timer Salted (Tapit) at 4-5, the half-sister to GISW Newgate (Into Mischief) took it right to the favorite from the jump and the top pair quickly opened up a sizeable gap back to the rest of the field. Neck and neck off the far turn, it was Adeera who had something left, kicking clear along the rail to win handily by 3 3/4 lengths as Salted held for second. Majestic Presence, graded stakes placed herself, went the way of Town & Country Horse Farms for $360,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. In addition to Newgate, who was a $850,000 KEESEP yearling and took the GI Santa Anita H. earlier this year, Majestic Presence has also produced GSW and $500k Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling buy Denim and Pearls (Into Mischief). The mare herself is a half to GSW Victress (Include) and reported a filly by Life Is Good this year after being barren to Essential Quality in 2023. GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic can be found at Spendthrift Farm where he stands for $50,000. Sales History: $300,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. YOUR VALENTINO (c, 2, Tapiture--Kiss Me Forever, by Broken Vow) debuted as a 9-1 shot here. The homebred fired like a rocket out of the gate and set the pace up the backstretch. Despite constant pressure heading into the far turn from the favorite Admiral Nelson (Lord Nelson), the colt stuck to his guns while hugging the rail and got to the wire by a head over the surging Dialing Aragorn (Dialed In). Out of an extended female family which includes MGISW Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet) and her half-brother GISW and sire Jimmy Creed (Distorted Humor), the winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Mitole. RUNNING RIO (f, 2, Street Boss--La Rignana, by Galileo {Ire}) made her first start as a 6-1 shot here. The juvenile was handed an easy lead and she took advantage up the backstretch. Fleet footed around the far turn, the pacesetter continued to hold sway entering the lane. The filly could not be caught as she won by 2 1/4 lengths over the heavily favored Lee's Baby Girl (Malibu Moon). A half-sister to MGSP Two Thirty Five (Stay Thirsty), the winner's dam produced colt by Bustin Stones last year and was not bred for this spring. HIT THE ROAD BRAT (f, 3, Quality Road--Ultra Brat {MGSW & GISP, $478,299}, by Uncle Mo), ready for her unveiling with Lasix as a 6-1 shot here, settled along the rail just off of favorite Hollywoodland (Quality Road) heading into the first turn. The homebred continued to sit in the pocket up the backstretch, but she was poised to pounce as the leader tried to seal the deal entering the lane. Taking aim at her target, the filly passed her rival with a sixteenth left and got the money by 1 1/2 lengths. A half-sister to GSW/GISP It's Tea Time (Dynaformer), Ultra Brat produced a filly last year by Gun Runner and visited City of Light for this term. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,200.
