

“THE BEST WE’VE EVER HAD.” CITY OF TROY IS THE DERBY WINNER

City Of Troy | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

After all the speculation leading up to Saturday's G1 Betfred Derby, TDN Rising Star City Of Troy (Justify--Together Forever {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}) gave an emphatic and euphoric answer to grace Epsom's Blue Riband with one of its finest displays. In huge contrast to Newmarket, where Ryan Moore became embroiled in a half-mile drag race, the champion juvenile of 2023 was in a hack-canter from stall one so often a disadvantage but which for this talented colt turned out a blessing. Able to let the pace play out in front and tuck in on the rail a little worse than mid-division, the 3-1 favourite needed racing room heading to Tattenham Corner and with it at a premium his rider had to go all Calvin Borel which is such a risky tactic here.

Diving through the inner from three out, Aidan O'Brien's 10th Derby hero was in front a furlong later with only the loose Voyage (GB) (Golden Horn {GB})--who had unshipped his rider exiting the stalls--up ahead. Using his ground-devouring stride to power on from the smooth-travelling Ambiente Friendly (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}), he was able to open up a 2 3/4-length margin on that Listed Lingfield Derby Trial winner at the line, with Ballydoyle second-string Los Angeles (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) a further 3 1/4 lengths away in third. VINDICATION FOR O'BRIEN WITH A PERFECT TEN

By Paul Hayward

EPSOM, UK -- This is what vindication looks like: a usually composed superstar trainer with a hint of tears in his eyes, his chest heaving, the emotion a bit too much.

City Of Troy was Aidan O'Brien's 10th Derby winner - but this one felt different. It would be ludicrous to say his credibility was on the line, but his words certainly were, and perhaps his judgment, at least in relation to last year's No 1 two-year-old, whose balloon had popped three furlongs out in the 2,000 Guineas.

O'Brien has built such a wall of success around himself that critics rarely try to climb it. His talent is beyond dispute. Yet the eulogies around City Of Troy over the winter and spring exposed him to scorn when the 4-6 favourite traipsed home nearly 17 lengths behind Notable Speech at Newmarket. Guess who had the last laugh.

The Auguste Rodin-City of Troy sequence of 2,000 Guineas flops and Derby triumphs is one of the oddest in the Derby's 244-year history.

Last year, and again on this day of reckoning for "our Frankel," as part-owner Michael Tabor called City of Troy, O'Brien dispatched a horse to Epsom with a battered reputation. Both had been portrayed as Triple Crown contenders, only to fail in that mission on day one. Cont. p6

"I can't pretend that we knew it would happen, but we do know that he has a big engine and he was a brilliant two-year-old--it was a combination of little things the last day, but Aidan never lost belief in him and it all worked out beautifully," Moore said after steering his fourth Derby winner. "We knew if he turned up, he was the best horse in the race and it's great that he could come back today. He was a level above all the horses, so he just had to put it all together and he did. He's still a little bit immature, that's the first time he's run around a bend and he still actually felt a little bit green in front over the last two furlongs--I never really got him organised and he was changing leads, so hopefully there's plenty more to work with."

For all that City Of Troy had wowed with his sectionals as a 2-year-old, in hindsight we can now determine that they were impressive in the context of him being a mile-and-a-quarter or mile-and-a-half horse in the making. Closer inspection of the speed with which he covered the first half of the 2,000 Guineas shows that for a colt built as he is, it was unsustainable and while the Derby by no means represents a less serious test than that mile Classic, it was at least going to allow him to go through the motions in a more suitably prolonged and casual manner.

Casual was the watchword from the outset, with Moore notably easy and cool as he allowed the favourite to cruise on to the tail of the field already one down due to the misadventure of Voyage. That runner's instantaneous misfortune was a reminder of the harsh nature of the fates, especially around here with all its complexities to navigate and by the time the field started the descent to Tattenham Corner luck seemed to be the key factor in this year's Derby.

All the visual signs from an early stage was that there was not going to be a repeat of his Newmarket nightmare for City Of Troy, so strongly was he travelling in Moore's hands, but for it to happen he was going to need to get out of the pocket he had ended up in. On the heels of Ambiente Friendly near the bottom of the hill, he was forced to momentarily take back and lost some momentum there as Los Angeles still moved with comfort on the front end. Crossing the road at the top of the straight, Robert Havlin was motionless on the Gredleys' runner with Moore getting going in the saddle and a few strides later it was apparent who the main players were going to be this year.

As Los Angeles plugged on, Havlin had him covered but while he chose to sit and wait straightening for home, City Of Troy was up into his big paces and the length the runner-up subsequently lost in momentum three out was never coming back. Cont. p4

BRITISH CLASSIC WINNERS ARE BRED IN KENTUCKY

Kentucky-bred
CITY OF TROY (USA),

last year's European Champion 2-Year-Old Colt, followed up his brilliance as an undefeated juvenile with an emphatic victory in the 245th running of the BETFRED EPSOM DERBY (G1) on Saturday, annexing the second G1 win of his career and becoming the first Kentucky-bred to win the Derby since Kris Kin in 2003.

Owners: Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, and Derrick Smith

"No doubt."

– AIDAN O'BRIEN

when asked if City of Troy is the best of the 10 Derby winners he has trained.

As he had in his three juvenile starts, the winner was stretching out with gusto as the line neared as if the horror story of four weeks earlier had been only imagined. This was the City Of Troy that had prompted comparison with a certain Juddmonte great that was never asked to go this far. This was a Derby winner to rate among the race's past celebrities. Now the 2024 Flat season is truly alight.

"He was going to win very easily ,but with the loose horse in front of him he was still a bit unsure before he galloped out strong," his rider continued. "He quickened well and went to the front very easily and very quickly and then kind of waited--he was pricking his ears, then he changed his leads near the line and went on again. It was never going to be 100% smooth with a field that size, where we were, but I was able to pick a path and he took me there early and easily and the race was over and he was in control of it a fair way out."

If possible, Aidan O'Brien can now relax a touch after a torrid post-Guineas spell and he was keen to stress the significance of the outcome for Coolmore and its faith in the winner's sire. In the forty years that have passed by since Secreto became the last son of Northern Dancer to conquer this, there have been only two Derby winners by dirt runners and none from a deliberate, systematic breeding approach. The investment in Justify is large-scale and this was a considerable early pay-off. The biggest pay-off.

"The exciting thing for us is Justify--for us, Justify is the most incredible horse we have had," the master of Ballydoyle declared. "He has looked very special all the way and the class that they have, speed as well as stamina, is amazing. The great stallion we had was Galileo. Justifys are Galileos with more class, which is a very hard thing to say, but we see it every day. The stride, the minds, the movement of them, they are quicker than Galileos, which makes them unbelievably exciting for us."

Turning his attention to the winner, he said, "Ryan gave him an incredible ride and I'm so grateful to everyone for the work they have done. We knew the Guineas was totally wrong and I made mistakes training him, that's the bottom line. There were stones I didn't look under, he was too fresh, he was unprepared, he blew up, that's the reality. But we learned from it and knew the ability he had and since then everything has been beautiful. I'd say no doubt he's the best Derby winner we've had, because he has the cruise, the balance, he quickens and he stays."

Originally Travers-bound, City Of Troy might be changing course if O'Brien's immediate thinking is a guide. "We had a plan, his first three races were the Guineas, the Derby and then Saratoga on dirt over 10 furlongs [in the Travers]," he said. "The lads will talk about that and talk to Ryan and decide what they want to do. The only thing I'm not sure about is Ryan said he was very babyish today, so whether he would be able to deal with a race like that straightaway I'm not sure, but the lads will all talk and make that decision. It will be a hard decision for the lads. If he doesn't go, there are races like the Eclipse and the King George to think of and later on the Arc, as we know he stays very well."

Michael Tabor was the one who called City Of Troy "our Frankel", so this was a big pressure release for the longstanding partner of Coolmore. "It means everything," he said. "Going forward, with all the options we have with this horse, it's just something to enjoy, that's the main thing. Aidan said this is the best we've ever had and everything has come true."

"The great stallion we had was Galileo. Justifys are Galileos with more class, which is a very hard thing to say, but we see it every day. The stride, the minds, the movement of them, they are quicker than Galileos, which makes them unbelievably exciting for us."

So Close For Havlin...

Ambiente Friendly's jockey "Rab" Havlin was only able to bask in the prospective glory of riding a winner of the Derby for a few fleeting seconds coming off Tattenham Hill and reflected on his stolen moment afterwards. "I've ridden the race many times in my head the last week and it nearly worked like clockwork," he said. "I thought I would still be travelling at the two pole and he was travelling good, then I saw my worst nightmare coming up my left! He found plenty, but the winner found that bit extra."

"I thought my only chance of beating Ryan was to go round the loose horse--he could have taken the two of us out if I went on his inside. He's been beaten by a better horse on the day and his best days are yet to come. He's still got some growing up to do mentally."

Trainer James Fanshawe, who was saddling only a second Derby runner, added, "I'm really thrilled with his run, I thought coming to the two pole we had a real chance, but City Of Troy came back to his best. I still hope there's more to come from Ambiente Friendly, because he's not yet the complete article. His racing is going so much better and he stayed the trip so well. We had a lovely run round, Rab had him in a good position, he travelled and as an immature horse he will hopefully keep on improving."

Ahmad In The Shaikh-Up Again...

Yet again, the Derby's lucky owner Ahmad Al Shaikh was in the mix with Deira Mile (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and Sayedaty Sadaty (Ire) (Anodin {Ire}) in fourth and fifth respectively. The former's trainer Owen Burrows said, "We felt he acted well round here, but unfortunately he was a step slower out of the gates and we were a bit further back than planned, but he made up a heck of a lot of ground. The standout horses have finished one-two-three. Jim [Crowley] said his last furlong was his best, so the Leger would be the plan, it's been in my mind all along."

Pedigree Notes

City Of Troy's Derby victory was the second in an Epsom Classic for the family within six years, with his dam's full-sister Forever Together (Ire) prevailing in a soft-ground Oaks for the stable. The dam Together Forever, who never made it to the Oaks despite winning the G1 Fillies' Mile at two, has five black-type performers from her first five foals with the first three by Way Front headed by the G3 Tyros S. winner Military Style. Her 2020 foal Bertinelli by Justify, who was third in the G3 Queen Mother Memorial Cup in Hong Kong, is almost a prototype for the outstanding creation that followed a year later by the same sire.

Along with Forever Together, Together Forever is also kin to Speightstown's G1 Prix Jean Prat, G2 Lennox S. and G2 Mill Reef

S.-winning sire Lord Shanakill (Speightstown) while the third dam Chain Fern (Blushing Groom {Fr}) is a full-sister to the G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Al Bahathri who produced the G1 Yellow Ribbon Invitational winner Spanish Fern (El Gran Senor) and is the ancestress of the G1 Santa Anita H. hero Heartseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway). This is also the family of the 2,000 Guineas and G1 Champion S. hero Haafhd (GB) (Alharth {Ire}). Together Forever's unraced 2-year-old filly by Uncle Mo is named Takemetothemoon (Ire), while she also has a yearling filly by Dubawi (Ire) and a filly foal by Into Mischief.

Auguste Rodin finished 12th in the Guineas, 20 lengths behind Chaldean. City Of Troy's nosedive 12 months later was equally perplexing; embarrassing even, for O'Brien, who rummaged for explanations. He had shown "the best two-year-old I've trained" too much respect on the gallops. City Of Troy had been too fizzy in the stalls. Punters listened to this growing list of mitigations without being fully convinced by any of them.

But the Auguste Rodin story also offered a route out of trouble - a redemptive precedent. His three-quarter-length win at Epsom righted the wrong of Newmarket and obliged us to consider that horses are flesh and blood who have good days and bad. And Auguste Rodin's boom-and-bust pattern continued throughout a campaign that was thrilling one minute and baffling the next.

O'Brien had sampled salvation once, but could he do it again? Was City of Troy too small? Had he trained on? Would the Epsom stalls be his undoing? No, yes, and no were the answers, as the Big Hope of this Flat season quickened away from Ambiente Friendly, restoring his reputation, along with the hope that 2024 has unearthed a champion.

O'Brien called him his best Derby winner yet. City Of Troy also caused him more angst than the other nine. You could see it as he struggled to catch his breath in the winner's enclosure. No matter how 'great' people are in sport, they are only one calamity away from self-doubt. All the triumphs of the past can be stripped away by misplaced faith, or hyperbole that falls flat, or the murmured inference that they mucked it up.

O'Brien was brave enough to admit minor errors in the build-up to the Guineas. But you could tell, too, that his defences had been pierced. "There's always a stick to beat you with," he said here. Stepping down from the trophy presentation dais, he considered a question about the power of vindication in sport. It struck a chord.

"I feel relieved, really," he said. "Every opinion that everybody has, everyone is entitled to it, totally. And you have to take it on board. Sometimes you don't always agree with it. You feel like trying to explain it to people. But that's not the way. Everybody has to have an opinion and everyone has to voice it.

"And all that you do is - you hope the faith you had in the horse, or the person, comes through. We felt he was the most special horse that we had, last year. He only had three runs. I focused hard on him through the winter. We had to look under a few stones we haven't had to look under before - and they were the ones that came and got us."

It helps when your pilot is the supreme Flat race jockey of his generation. On a retrieval mission, Ryan Moore is the rider you would send in to recover the goods. "Ryan was very cool on him," O'Brien agreed. "After the Guineas he didn't have to be that cool, a lot of stuff could have happened, but he stayed cool and calm."

Moore paid his own tribute to a trainer who has elevated two consecutive Guineas duds to the stars. He said: "Aidan knew what he had, he didn't lose faith in him."

Sometimes promising horses flop - and keep flopping. Epsom is the resting place of many big reputations. Not City Of Troy's. A bad day doesn't have to be terminal. A defeat isn't always a disaster.

O'Brien said it better than anybody: "It just goes to show that in horseracing, in sport, in life, nobody knows what's round the corner, or what can happen."

MAGNIER: 'IT'S SOMETHING WE COULDN'T HAVE IMAGINED'

By Emma Berry

EPSOM, UK -- Ryan Moore wouldn't admit to sleepless nights ahead of the Derby despite some intense speculation regarding his mount but he did concede, "It's the one race of the year that you want to win."

Moore kept the faith, kept his head, and just like that Coolmore has another enticing stallion prospect.

The legend of Galileo still stalks the Epsom Downs some three years after the horse's death, and there he was again, as the broodmare sire of this year's Derby winner City Of Troy, just as he was last year with Auguste Rodin (Ire). Far more important, however, for the world's most dominant stallion operation, is the identity of the winner's sire.

A Triple Crown winner on the dirt - and one who, unusually, was unraced at two - Justify is now the sire of a Derby winner. A gulf has been narrowed.

"We're trying to make the world a smaller place," joked Coolmore's MV Magnier as he stood in the winner's circle, the relief palpable, but more on behalf of the operation's chief ally, Aidan O'Brien.

"There has been a huge amount of pressure on that man, undeservedly so, and I am just pleased that the horse has shown how good he is. It's a huge relief," he continued.

"They are not machines. Horses can put in a bad run. Things can go wrong, and we're not really sure what did go wrong. But he justified it today - excuse the pun."

Such was the anticipation of seeing a potential superstar in City Of Troy that the disappointment ran deep following the 2,000 Guineas to the point where it was hard for those outside the camps of Ballydoyle and Coolmore to approach Epsom with anything other than caution. While the world of social media was preoccupied by the horse's height, his trainer stood firm in his belief that City Of Troy's reputation, at least, was in for a sudden growth spurt.

"I can't explain to you how confident Aidan was," Magnier said. "Last year he told me that he was happy with Auguste Rodin before the horse ran and this year he was just as confident."

A handful of classy juveniles by Justify were sprinkled around the world last season: City Of Troy and Opera Singer were the top-rated colt and filly in Europe, Ramatuelle the top-rated two-year-old in France, and Just F Y I and Hard To Justify each landed a Grade I at the Breeders' Cup. So far so good, but what really matters for any stallion is what their offspring can do at three. Of those named, Ramatuelle and Opera Singer managed a third-place finish in the 1,000 Guineas in England and Ireland respectively, while Just F Y I was second in the Kentucky Oaks. But Saturday's result is what really mattered.

"It's huge," Magnier said. "It's something we couldn't have imagined, but Dad was always keen on Justify and he always thought he would be the perfect outcross for our operation. To be fair to the lads, they put their neck on the line and they ended up being offered him.

"When a horse can do it on both [dirt and turf] - he could hopefully be something we haven't seen before."

He continued, "All that stuff on Twitter about whether or not he was a small horse. It's crazy. Fair enough, maybe he is a small horse but there's one thing for sure, he's bigger than Northern Dancer.

"All that stuff on Twitter about whether or not he was a small horse. It's crazy. Fair enough, maybe he is a small horse but there's one thing for sure, he's bigger than Northern Dancer."

--MV Magnier on City Of Troy

"Everyone was a bit gutted after the Guineas but we've seen the way he has worked since, and Aidan was full of confidence. Ryan said he was just different gravy today and that there's a lot more to come from him. When Aidan O'Brien and Ryan Moore are confident that's enough for me."

With the Derby horses home but barely hosed, thoughts inevitably turn with almost indecent haste to what comes next. Anyone watching as City Of Troy took hold of his bit again after the line, as is his wont, may well think that the St Leger would be within his grasp. It seems unlikely that he will be aimed at that particular Classic, but one over on America's west coast on the first weekend of November will certainly be given serious consideration.

"That would be the biggest dream we could have," Magnier said of the Breeders' Cup Classic. "We've tried it before and we'll try it again, and that's what the sport wants. They want these horses competing with the best; that's what the people want to see. It would be great for European racing and great for worldwide racing."

Great for the Derby, too. And on this day a proper winner is what matters most.

ROYAL SCOTSMAN BOUNCES BACK IN THE DIOMED by Tom Frary

Living without the limelight for some time, Fitri Hay's Royal Scotsman (Ire) (Gleneagles {Ire}) picked Derby day to relight his fire when dominating Epsom's G3 Betfred Diomed S. from the front. Allowed to stride on from the outset of the extended-mile contest by Jamie Spencer, the Paul and Oliver Cole-trained 17-2 shot who had been out of the frame three times since finishing third in the G1 2,000 Guineas last May kept rolling to record an emphatic 2 1/4-length success from Royal Dubai (Fr) (Seahenge).

For Oliver Cole, the return of the real Royal Scotsman who had won the G2 Richmond S. and finished runner-up in the G1 Dewhurst S. at two was greeted with a mixture of relief and joy.

“Last year he had bone bruising and on his last run in the Lockinge he cocked his jaw when he came out and we’ve done a lot of stalls work,” he explained. “He’s done it very well and the plan was always to go forward today so he can relax in front.”

“We won three group races from the front last year and it just settles them down, especially these Gleneagles, who are quite highly-strung,” he added. “If you get in a tussle early on, it costs you at the end and he proved that at the end of his two-year-old career and as a three-year-old. He’s done it very well and we couldn’t be happier.”

Spencer added, “He’s always been a good horse, but he’s quite a difficult ride as he’s quite strong and aggressive. We decided to let him go today, let him use his stride and it’s worked. He’s got an entry in the July Cup and I think he’d go well in a sprint race on soft ground--on proper soft where you need to stay.”

Pedigree Notes

Royal Scotsman, whose dual listed-placed dam Enrol (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is also responsible for the Hong Kong Group 3 winner Encountered (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}), hails from the family of Danzig’s G2 Lockinge S.-winning sire Emperor Jones and The Minstrel’s G1 Futurity-winning sire Bakharoff. Her yearling colt is a full-brother to Encountered.

BREEGE BEST IN THE PRINCESS ELIZABETH

by Tom Frary

Confirming her liking for undulating tracks, Chasemore Farm’s homebred Breege (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) came of age in Saturday’s G3 Princess Elizabeth S. at Epsom. With three of her best efforts coming at the similarly rolling Goodwood when runner-up in the G3 Prestige S. at two, in the G3 Oak Tree S. at three and third in the Listed Conqueror S. last month, the John and Sean Quinn trainee took to this circuit like a duck to water giving Jason Hart an armchair ride en route to a personal best. Always travelling comfortably tracking the leading pair, the 5-1 shot edged ahead passing two out and hung tough to score by a neck from Chic Colombine (Fr) (Seahenge).

“She ran well all last year and ran really well on her comeback this season at Goodwood, beaten two short heads, but people have started suggesting she didn’t want to win,” John Quinn said. “We didn’t think that, we thought she was just unlucky and today she gritted it out. She really battled and she’s got her head in front again. As long as she is okay, she will run in the group two fillies’ race at Royal Ascot, the Duke of Cambridge, all being well.”

George Boughey said of Chic Colombine, “I was delighted with her and it was what I expected, she was very unlucky and William [Buick] said he just couldn’t get the gap. She’s a filly who did very well through the spring and the performance didn’t surprise me. The [G1] Coronation S. is on the cards for her. She won’t want fast ground and conditions today were perfect for her--we know she handles very soft ground.” Cont. p9

Wowcha, who is also related to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Ta Rib (Mr. Prospector), has the unraced 3-year-old full-brother to Breege named Circuit Champion (GB), a 550,000gns purchase by the Hong Kong Jockey Club at Tattersalls October Book 2.

AUGUSTUS EDGES WILKO IN BADEN-BADEN DERBY-TRIAL THRILLER

by Sean Cronin

Last term's Listed Premio Campobello victor Augustus (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}--Andraxt {Ger}, by Lord Of England {Ger}) encountered a clutch of familiar rivals when fifth on sophomore return in Munich's G3 Bavarian Classic earlier this month and dipped into deep reserves for a career best in a thrilling edition of Saturday's G3 Japan Racing Association Derby-Trial at Baden-Baden. Last season's contest went the way of subsequent G1 Deutsches Derby hero Fantastic Moon (Ger) (Sea The Moon {Ger}).

Augustus broke sharply for an early advantage and was reined back to accept a tow, racing five lengths off the tempo in third, until beyond halfway in this 10-furlong stepping stone to the July 7 G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg. Nudged along to take closer order with three furlongs remaining, the 9-2 chance came under sterner rousting in the straight and ran on in relentless fashion to overpower Bavarian Classic victor Wilko (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) by a half-length in the dying strides. The duo pulled clear of G3 Dr Busch Memorial second New Emerald (Ger) (Protectionist {Ger}), who finished 10 lengths and a parish adrift in third.

"I thought all hope was lost 400 meters from the finish, but I had the perfect position throughout the race and Leon [Wolff aboard Wilko] accelerated early," rider Michal Abik told GaloppOnline after collecting a third pattern-race rosette. "It is possible he committed a little too early, which would not have been ideal on this [heavy] ground. Augustus is a super horse, he can handle this ground well and he hit the line strong." Trainer Waldemar Hickst added, "I said beforehand that he had worked superbly in preparation for this race. The ground suited him and Michal Abik gave him a superb ride."

Augustus, who becomes the 31st pattern-race winner for his late sire, is the latest of four foals and one of two scorers from as many runners thrown by a winning full-sister to Listed Oppenheim-Rennen winner Acadius (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}). Cont. p10

Adjani, from the family of Group 1-winning blue hen Urban Sea (Miswaki), produced G1 Deutsches Derby placegetter Acamani (Ger) (Winged Love {Ire}) and her descendants include dual Grade I-winning distaffer A Raving Beauty (Ger) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}).

TWAFEEG A TDN RISING STAR FOR FAR

After the excitement of the Derby, there was a moment of futurity at the start of Doncaster's evening meeting on Saturday as Twafeeg (Ire) (Far Above {Ire}--Disko {Ire}, by Kodiak {GB}) became the latest TDN Rising Star with her impressive success in the 6 1/2-furlong maiden. Sent off at 18-1, the Archie Watson-trained newcomer from the first crop of Starfield Stud's resident tanked her way to the front soon after the start under Connor Beasley.

Sent clear passing the two-furlong pole, Sheikh Hamed Dalmook Al Maktoum's 65,000gns Tattersalls Book 3 bargain was notably green in front en route to a 1 1/2-length defeat of the 525,000gns Tattersalls Craven Breeze-Up purchase and 9-4 favourite Arabian Dusk (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}). Adding real substance to the form 3 1/4 lengths further back in third was Ripple Effect (GB) (Kameko), who had previously finished closer to TDN Riding Star Mountain Breeze (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}), while the sixth-placed Never Forget You (Ire) (No Nay Never) was also beaten further than she had been by another TDN Rising Star in Spherical (GB) (Blue Point {Ire}).

Twafeeg is the third winner for Disko, with the chief progeny being her G3 Prix d'Arenberg-winning daughter Corazon (Ire) (Markaz {Ire}) who was also third in the G2 Flying Childers S. The second dam Dissonance (Ire) (Rossini) is a full-sister to the G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Golden Legacy (Ire), in turn the dam of the G3 Prix de Meautry runner-up Stake Acclaim (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). Disko's yearling colt is by Dark Angel (Ire).

RACE PREVIEWS

ON THE LOOK-OUT FOR THE JOCKEY CLUB

WINNER by Tom Frary

While it is true that there is only one Derby, and what a Derby that was on Saturday, 24 hours after the Epsom jamboree there is a Classic of a different kind to help ease the comedown. Chantilly hosts the 184th renewal of the G1 Qatar Prix du Jockey Club, which is a special if idiosyncratic monument in its own right staged over the rare trip of 10 1/2 furlongs. Therefore offering a contrasting test to the Blue Riband, the old “French Derby” is losing no ground on its counterpart if recent results are anything to go by. Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) was the fifth straight winner out of the very top drawer 12 months ago, while the 2016 hero Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) was another to make his mark on the elite stage following his exploits here.

At this stage, it is difficult to pinpoint a colt that could belong in that bracket, but there is always the prospect that one might spring forth, particularly among the unexposed. One who fits that bill and could be on a steep ascent is Haras de la Morsangliere’s unbeaten Look De Vega (GB) by the 2010 winner Lope De Vega (Ire) whose own sire Shamardal won the first Jockey Club after the shift from its past mile-and-a-half distance. Steadily brought to a peak by Carlos and Yann Lerner, the relative of another winner of the race in its current guise in Lawman (Fr) gave some indication as to his raw material when winning ParisLongchamp’s Prix de Croissy conditions event last month.

There is very little to go on in terms of form as to how he measures up, but he just looks a bit special. Yann Lerner took him to Chantilly for a recent gallop and said, “He adapted very well to the course and he proved inch-perfect when it came to negotiating the final uphill section of the course. We’re aware of his considerable potential. My father was lucky enough to train Anabaa Blue and Volvoretta and I think he’s in that league.”

“He shows a propensity for getting away well from the gates, has an excellent mindset and Ronan Thomas knows everything there is to know about the colt,” he added. “My father took a great liking to the colt at the sales and was very surprised to learn that he was a buy-back, so we made enquiries with the colt’s breeders Joëlle Mestrallet and Lucien Urano. They retained a 50% stake in the colt, but we acquired a share and invited several of our owners to do the same.”

The Power Of The Guineas...

Not that City Of Troy was a big factor in the 2,000 Guineas, but his win on Saturday only adds to the growing sense that it was an above-average renewal of the Classic. Jeff Smith’s Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was fourth at Newmarket and his trainer Clive Cox is relishing the opportunity of saddling a rare middle-distance Classic contender who is particularly favourably drawn in two. “We don’t have to worry about being out wide now, so thank goodness,” he said. “He’s only performed on a quicker surface, so that’s a territory we’re just going to have to find out about, but I’m confident with the way he moves that he’ll handle himself on softer ground.

Without a shadow of a doubt, the form of the Guineas is already showing how strong a Guineas it was. You have the first and second in the Irish Guineas and then the sixth horse winning the Sandy Lane.”

Ballydoyle have finally emerged front-and-centre and are represented here by Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who is up to a more suitable trip having caught the eye when fourth in the G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains. “We felt a mile is as short as he wanted to go and we thought a mile and a quarter might be his ideal trip,” Aidan O’Brien said. “Obviously he could get further, but we always viewed him as a French Derby horse more than anything else. We thought and hoped Chantilly would suit. He stays and he’s uncomplicated. We definitely think he has plenty of class, especially for a mile-and-a-quarter horse.”

Fast Track To Glory?

Wathnan Racing’s Fast Tracker (GB) (Churchill {Ire}) is another well draw in five and one for the shortlist following his seven-length success in the track’s Listed Prix de Suresnes which Ace Impact had won en route to glory here in 2023. Trainer Henri-Alex Pantall is happy that his colt is at his prime and suggested that he will need to be prominent from the outset on Sunday. Cont. p12

“He has now reached maturity, he is a straightforward ride, races handily and doesn’t pull,” he explained. “He exhibits just one flaw in his racing style, as he takes time to pick up when the pace quickens. He is pretty quick leaving the gates, but ideally we’d like to have two or three leaders in the race. He won’t mind if the ground dries out, even if it that isn’t expected to be the case.”

Will Menuisier Get His Day In The Sun?

Andre Fabre has a trio engaged, with the form choice undoubtedly Baron Edouard De Rothschild’s TDN Rising Star Alcantor (Fr) (New Bay {GB}) who was ahead of Diego Velazquez when third in the Poulains. He was second to Guy Pariente, Thomas Lines and Qatar Racing’s Sunway (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) in the G1 Criterium International and to say that the latter’s trainer David Menuisier has been knocking on the door in the 2024 Classics is an understatement. “He’s a machine. One day, he’ll show the same class in the afternoon as he does in the morning,” Menuisier said. “Sunway proved last year that he was a very good horse and has a big race in him. In my opinion, Sunway is a bit like a gifted child. Sometimes it’s the brightest kids who flunk their exams. In his two outings this year, he was ridden aggressively and maybe it wasn’t the right thing to do—maybe he’ll be better being held up rather than racing from the front.”

Lordano | Marc Ruhl/Baden-Baden

The Support Acts...

Chantilly’s black-type action begins with the Listed Prix la Fleche for the 2-year-olds, where Haras d’Etreham’s first-crop sire Hello Youmzain (Fr) is represented by the course-and-distance winner Allee De Bercy (Fr), continues with the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene where the super-charged Ponntos (Ire) (Power {GB}) takes centre stage, while the three other pattern races include an open-looking G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly boasting the dual Group 1 winner Dubai Honour (Ire) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}). At Baden-Baden, the G2 Grosser Preis der Badischen Wirtschaft sees TDN Rising Star Mr Hollywood (Ire) (Iquitos {Ger}) look to bounce back from his abject seasonal bow when a distant fourth to the re-opposing Lordano (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) in Cologne’s G2 Carl Jaspers Preis.

Hope And Believe registered a half-length tally in her Apr. 28 unveiling over one mile at Hoppegarten last time and stepped forward to collect a career high in this springboard to August's G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Dusseldorf. Tucking in to find cover at the tail of the eight-runner field after a slow break from an outer gate, the 13-2 chance powered forward onto the heels of the leaders approaching the quarter-mile marker and lengthened clear of toiling rivals once gaining an edge inside the final furlong to claim a first stakes rosette in impressive fashion.

"She always needs a little time to find her feet, so I left her alone for as long as I was able," jockey Eduardo Pedroza told GaloppOnline. Trainer Andreas Wohler added, "She has continued to improve brilliantly and I had no concerns about the [heavy] ground. We will now discuss her route from here and question of distance certainly comes into the equation."

WARMONGER HUGE IN QUEENSLAND

DERBY by Keely Mckitterick

The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Warmonger (NZ) (War Decree), like I Wish I Win (NZ) in the previous Group 1 on the Eagle Farm card, carried the New Zealand suffix to victory in the G1 Queensland Derby.

Jumping from barrier 18, with Blake Shinn the saddle, Warmonger, carrying the colours of OTI Racing, found a trail behind the runaway leader Navy King (NZ) (U S Navy Flag). Upon entering the home straight, with Navy King finding little, Warmonger put the afterburners on and seemingly the further they went, the further in front he got.

Crossing the line 10l adrift of Moonlight Magic (NZ) (Almanzor {Fr}), with Felix The Scat (Mendelssohn) running into third. The favoured Autumn Angel (Aus) (The Autumn Sun {Aus}) finished ninth, while Tannhauser (Aus) (Dundeel {NZ}) was 11th.

With co-trainer Mick Price enjoying a holiday, Michael Kent Jnr was left in charge, he told 7HorseRacing, “I think he was getting faster past the post. Blake (Shinn) said to us before the race, the thing with Warmonger is he never ends on his run. I agreed, and he informed us he didn’t want to be found wanting at the finish; the only query were the track conditions.

“During the run, I was thinking what are you doing here Blake? He kept poking forward and three-wide most of the journey but it was the right call because the leader got away so far, you had to be near the front as nothing was making ground.”

Describing the feeling of winning a Group 1 by 10l, Kent Jnr said, “It’s probably the best feeling I’ve had in racing when you’re that far in front you can actually sit back and enjoy it.

“He’s just kept getting better and better this horse. He’s rapidly improving and obviously has a good engine. The stable has won an Oaks (Australasian Oaks: Vibrant Sun {Aus}) and now a Derby; it has capped off a good season.”

Pedigree Notes

Warmonger bred by K J Hickman Onzm, is from the Savabeel (Aus) mare Princess Sapphire (NZ). She won twice and is also the dam of the G1 New Zealand 1000 Guineas-placed Blue Solitaire (NZ) (Almanzor {Fr}). Princess Sapphire is a half-sister to Merion (NZ) (O’Reilly {NZ}), a Listed winner and Group 2-placed twice in the Queensland Guineas and the Tulloch S.

The son of War Decree won the Listed TAB Trophy during the spring last year, and was placed in the G1 South Australian Derby and the Listed Port Adelaide Guineas this preparation. He was sold for NZ$75,000 to Bevan Bloodstock through the draft of Valachi Downs at the 2022 New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale. Warmonger was reoffered by Prima Park at the 2022 New Zealand Ready To Run Sale to SJ Kennedy for

Warmonger is the first Group 1 winner for War Decree, a son of War Front, who will stand the 2024 season at Inglewood Stud in New Zealand for NZ$7000 (plus GST).

I WISH I WIN REVERSES PLACINGS IN KINGSFORD-SMITH CUP

by Keely Mckitterick

I Wish I Win (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) exacted his revenge over his G1 Doomben 10,000 vanquisher Bella Nipotina (Aus) (Pride Of Dubai {Aus}) in the G1 Kingsford-Smith Cup at Eagle Farm on Saturday.

Sporting the blinkers for the first time since August 2022, I Wish I Win with Luke Nolen back in the saddle, was able to overcome the gallant mare. Meanwhile, In Secret (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) first-up since November ran into third ahead of the locally trained Freedom Rally (Aus) (Rubick {Aus}).

Joseph Pride's The Everest hero Think About It (Aus) (So You Think {NZ}) faded to finish fifth, after enjoying a seemingly comfortable run. He narrowly held off a charging Antino (NZ) (Redwood {GB}), who was finishing late after settling towards the back of the field in the 1300-metre feature.

The victory of I Wish I Win marked the continued rise of the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman partnership. Only 30 minutes prior the stable celebrated the success of Roll On High (Aus) (Shamus Award {Aus}) in the G3 Fred Best Classic, earning a golden ticket into the G1 Stradbroke H.

Speaking to 7HorseRacing post-race, co-trainer Katherine Coleman said, "It's pretty incredible; I'm so thrilled for the whole time. He is an incredible horse, he's got such a will to win.

"We've got our whole crew here today (Saturday), including the Moody family and our racing manager Jeff O'Connor. It makes it so special. We just try and keep I Wish I Win happy, healthy and enjoying his racing.

"You see it (will to win) in races like that (Kingsford-Smith Cup) when he really has to tough it out."

Coleman indicated that I Wish I Win will be searching for an The Everest slot, with the spring sprint high on the agenda, "It definitely sounds like a plan (to get a Everest slot)."

Ciaran Maher, trainer of Bella Nipotina shared his tough as teak mare may extend her winter preparation in Queensland, "If she's bright, well and the weather keeps coming... she didn't get a lot of weight in the Straddy (Stradbroke H.)," he told 7HorseRacing.

"The Tatts Tiara was always the plan but I was surprised she didn't get that much weight in the Stradbroke, really. She only got around 55.5kg, which is a winnable weight, I thought."

Pedigree Notes

I Wish I Win has won seven races, including the G1 TJ Smith S. and the Golden Eagle. He is from the Pins (Aus) mare Make A Wish (NZ), who won twice, and is also the dam of the classy Another Dollar (NZ) (Ocean Park {NZ}), a victress of the G3 Premier's Cup, and placegetter in the G1 Queensland Oaks.

The son of Savabeel was bred by Waikato Stud and raced by Mark Chittick and Peter Moody. Waikato Stud's eight-time champion sire Savabeel will stand the 2024 breeding season for NZ$100,000 (plus GST).

MYSTIK DAN GOING IN RIGHT DIRECTION FOR START IN BELMONT

Mystik Dan works outside of Gould's Gold Saturday

Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin and Editorial Staff

For the first time since before the GI Kentucky Derby, Mystik Dan (Goldencents) had a workout.

And trainer Kenny McPeek is getting more and more confident that his colt, winner of the Derby and second in the GI Preakness, will be in the starting gate at Saratoga Race Course for the GI Belmont S. on June 8.

Mystik Dan, with exercise rider Danny Ramsey aboard, went five furlongs in 1:01.59 (2/5) on the Oklahoma Training Track Saturday morning. He worked in company with Gould's Gold (Goldencents).

McPeek has kept the promise that he would take his time deciding whether or not Mystik Dan would run in the Belmont. The deadline is quickly approaching as the draw for the race is Monday.

A final answer should come Sunday.

"This was a nice, solid breeze," McPeek said after the 5:30 a.m. work. "His gallop out was impressive; he kept on going. He is actually acting like his energy level is getting higher from the Derby-to-Preakness-to-Belmont, which you have to have."

THE BLAME GOES TO GODOLPHIN'S HIGHLAND FALLS

He may not have had a black-type win to his name coming into Saturday's GIII Blame S. at Churchill Downs, but some strong efforts and a 104 Beyer figure in his last out, a runner-up performance in the Apr. 20 GII Oaklawn H., were enough to convince the betting public Highland Falls (Curlin) belonged. They were right. The 4-5 choice got rolling late to catch last-out Keeneland allowance winner Cagliostro (Upstart) just before the wire, while former $975,000 Keeneland yearling and GI Pennsylvania Derby runner-up Dreamlike (Gun Runner) settled for third.

Thorpedo Anna to the outside of Midnight Concerto | Sarah Andrew

As long as Mystik Dan, owned by Lance Gasaway, 4 G Racing LLC, Daniel Hamby III and Valley View Farm LLC, continues to gobble up his feed at night and his bloodwork is good, he will become the first horse since War of Will (War Front) in 2019 to run in all three legs of the Triple Crown (Max Player {Honor Code} did it in 2020, but that series was spread out over four months because of COVID).

“If everything goes good the next day or two, he will run there {Belmont},” McPeek said. “And she’ll run in the other one.”

She is Thorpedo Anna (Fast Anna), his fast 3-year-old filly who was last seen winning the GI Kentucky Oaks. McPeek has thought about running her against the boys in the Belmont, but if Mystik Dan goes there, she will head to the GI Acorn against fillies on Friday at Saratoga.

Thorpedo Anna, owned by Brookdale Racing Inc., Mark Edwards, Judy B. Hicks and Magdalena Racing (Sherri McPeek), worked five furlongs in 1:02.09 (4/5) in company with Midnight Concerto (Mendelssohn).

“She just needed a nice little stretch out,” McPeek said. “She keeps herself fit; she’s a natural athlete.”

Brown Getting Closer to Running Two in Belmont

It looks more and more likely that the Chad Brown barn will have two runners in the Belmont S. at Saratoga. One is the expected morning-line favorite in Sierra Leone (Gun Runner), who has been pointed to this race since losing the Kentucky Derby by a gut-wrenching nose on the first Saturday in May.

Brown is hopeful that Tuscan Gold (Medaglia d’Oro) will join Sierra Leone in the starting gate on June 8. Both horses turned in their final works for the race on Saturday.

Sierra Leone, owned by Peter M. Brant, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Westerberg and Brook T. Smith, worked four furlongs in :49.32 (13/51) on the Oklahoma Training Track in company with Domestic Product (Practical Joke).

Just over an hour later, at 8:45 a.m., William H. Lawrence, Walmac Farm and Stonestreet Stables LLC's Tuscan Gold went four furlongs in :48.38 (6/18) on the main track. He worked with the unraced Clever Mischief (Into Mischief).

"I am leaning towards running him," Brown said outside his barn on the Oklahoma.

Sierra Leone inside Domestic Product | Sarah Andrew

Brown said he was excited about Tuscan Gold's chances in the Preakness two weeks ago, but the colt did not like the muddy track and was never a factor, finishing fourth.

"He was fresh, he was training great, and I really liked his chances going into that race," Brown said. "I felt terrible going into the first turn; he was clearly not handling the track. He was trying to lose contact with the field and the jockey (Tyler Gaffalione) was doing the best he could to stay after him and keep him in the game, but it just wasn't for him. I am actually surprised he ran fourth with as little effort as he showed."

If Tuscan Gold does run in the Belmont, he'll have a new jockey in Joel Rosario. Brown also took Gaffalione off Sierra Leone and replaced him with Flavien Prat.

Pletcher Full of Cliches

When the work was done Saturday morning, Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher said all the right things about the three horses he is pointing to the Belmont: Antiquarian (Preservationist), Mindframe (Constitution) and Protective (Medaglia d'Oro).

Mindframe outside of Protective | Sarah Andrew

“I thought they all went great ... well-executed breezes ... the horses seemed to be moving well ... finished out strongly ...galloped out well,” Pletcher said as he stood outside his office on the Oklahoma Training Track.

Then he smiled.

“All the cliches every trainer will give you,” he said and then got serious. “I was pleased with all of them.”

Centennial Farms’ Antiquarian worked four furlongs in :49.99 (25/51) in company with 3-year-old Be You (Curlin). Repole Stable and St. Elias Stables LLC’s Mindframe worked four furlongs in company with Repole Stable’s Protective and they were timed in :50.26 (35/51).

“I think all three of them will appreciate the mile and a quarter (Belmont distance),” Pletcher said.

Antiquarian, who will be ridden by Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez, won the Gill Peter Pan S. in his last start.

Mindframe has been ultra impressive in his first two starts, winning by a combined 21 1/4 lengths and Pletcher has confidence he can run with the big boys. He will be ridden by Irad Ortiz, Jr.

Protective has yet to win a race but the maiden was third in the Gil Wood Memorial S. and third in the Peter Pan. Pletcher said he will “most likely” have Tyler Gaffalione riding Protective.

Mott Needs to Know

On Sunday morning, Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott plans on working Resilience (Into Mischief) on the Oklahoma Training Track. If he likes how he goes, Resilience will get another chance to run 1 1/4 miles, this time in the Belmont S.

The first time he ran the distance, it didn't go so good as Resilience ran sixth in the Kentucky Derby, beaten five lengths by Mystik Dan (Goldencents). Mott isn't convinced his colt doesn't want to go that far.

"We want to give him another shot to make sure," Mott said outside his office on the Oklahoma Saturday morning. "If he were to run well, then, ok, you can consider the (GI) Travers. If you don't run well, you have to start thinking about other stuff. He is doing good; if he wasn't, we would not even consider this."

Owned by Emily Bushnell and Ric Waldman, Resilience has won two of four starts this year, including the Wood Memorial. He made a bid in the Derby but faded, giving the indication he might not like the distance.

Mott said that if the Belmont were being run at its traditional distance of 1 1/2 miles, Resilience would be sitting it out.

"He had a good trip (in the Derby). He made a run. He flattened out," Mott said. "Is he going to flatten out again at a mile and a quarter? If he does, then we'll know."

Honor Marie Preps At Churchill

Honor Marie (Honor Code), a troubled eighth to Mystik Dan in the GI Kentucky Derby, tuned up for the Belmont with a half-mile breeze Saturday morning under the watchful eye of trainer Whit Beckman at Churchill Downs.

Runner-up to Catching Freedom (Constitution) in the GII Louisiana Derby, last year's GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. hero covered the distance in :48.40 (48/166) outside of his stablemate Anthem King (Bolt d'Oro), a maiden winner at Turfway Mar. 8 and a latest fourth to Belmont-bound 'TDN Rising Star' Mindframe (Constitution) in a Derby Day allowance beneath the Twin Spires. The duo went the opening quarter-mile in :24.20, according to clocker Adam Wallace.

"He bounced out of the Derby in great shape," Beckman told the Churchill Downs notes team. "We toyed for a little bit about running back in the Preakness but thought he'd do better with a little more time between starts. He had a really rough trip in the Derby and still finished up well."

Florent Geroux takes over from the injured Ben Curtis for the Belmont.

BOTH ASMUSSEN JOCKEY SONS INJURED SATURDAY

Young jockeys Keith and Erik Asmussen, both sons of Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen, were each injured Saturday in separate races at Churchill Downs and Lone Star Park, respectively.

Keith Asmussen was injured at about 12:47 p.m. ET in the 1st race at Churchill, a $10,000 claimer for fillies and mares three and up. The Equibase chart said his mount, Singsational (Audible) "was jostled between horses and squeezed back at the start, clipped a rival's hind heels and fell at the eleven sixteenths pole, then walked off." Singsational, who was caught by outriders and widely reported as uninjured, is trained by Steve Asmussen.

Keith Asmussen was transported to the hospital with extensive injuries, including a fractured right femur and three broken ribs, and is scheduled to have surgery Sunday morning. Cont.

He updated his X account Saturday evening, saying: “Singsational and I clipped heels and fell this afternoon at CD. I fractured my left femur, 3 ribs, and have right lower lung contusions + hemopneumothorax. Surgery scheduled for tomorrow morning, thank you to everyone that has reached out with love and well wishes!”

Just under three hours later, Erik Asmussen was involved in an incident just past the wire in the 1st race at Lone Star. He had the early lead in the $10,000 starter optional claiming race, but gave way late to finish sixth and had crossed the wire when his mount, Good Heart (Good Samaritan) fell. Mary Ramellini of Daily Racing Form later reported on X, “Apprentice jockey Erik #Asmussen is being evaluated at a local hospital after being thrown past the wire in the first race Saturday at #LoneStarPark and appears to have escaped serious injury, according to his agent, Travis Church.”

Good Heart, trained by Steve Roubion, was vanned off.

According to official statistics, Keith Asmussen has been riding since 2020 and has 131 wins from 946 starts. He got his first graded stakes win earlier this year aboard Lemon Muffin (Collected) for trainer D. Wayne Lukas in the GIII Honeybee S. at Oaklawn Park. He had his first GI Kentucky Derby mount last month with the Lukas-trained Just Steel (Justify), who finished 17th.

Erik Asmussen has been riding since 2023 and has 42 wins from 307 mounts. He won his first black-type race earlier this year in the San Jacinto Turf S. with No Mas Tequila (Northern Afleet).

John Gallagher/Coady Media

Highland Falls settled on the inside in fourth as Frosted Departure registered quarter- and half-mile fractions of :23.31 and :47.72. The tempo quickened on the turn as Cagliostro emerged with the lead at the top of the lane. Meanwhile, Highland Falls tipped out with dead aim on Cagliostro. Just as it appeared he would run out of room, Highland Falls found another gear to run down the late leader and prevail by a length in a visually powerful performance and a strong gallop out. The winner got the nine furlongs in 1:48.51.

“He seems to need a little bit of encouragement to keep focused and not level off,” said Geroux. “He kept finding more late down the lane and did some of his best running inside the eighth pole.”

Trainer Brad Cox added: “I think this is a breakthrough performance for him. He needed to win a race like this and I think it can really kick start his campaign. He’s regally bred and can run all day long. A mile-and-a-quarter race down the road shouldn’t be a problem for him.”

The Blame served as the local prep for the GI Stephen Foster S., which will be held over the Louisville oval June 29. However, Cox indicated another Godolphin runner, ‘TDN Rising Star’ First Mission (Street Sense), has that race in his targets and Highland Falls will likely seek other laurels. First Mission has won his last two: the GII Alysheba S. May 3 at Churchill and Oaklawn’s GIII Essex H. in March.

Highland Falls debuted with a win last August at Ellis Park, added wins at Churchill and Fair Grounds in November and January, and dipped his toes into stakes company in March with a fourth in the GI Santa Anita H. His 104 Beyer and second at Oaklawn was his last out prior to the Blame. Cont.

Pedigree Notes:

Highland Falls | Renee Torbit/Coady Media

Highland Falls becomes the third stakes winner for his dam, 2006 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner and $5.75-million Fasig-Tipton Kentucky broodmare Round Pond. In addition to producing Dubai G1SW and U.S. MSW & GISP Long River (A.P. Indy), SW & GSP Lake Lucerne (Dubawi {Ire}), and now Highland Falls, she is also the granddam of GISW and young Darley sire Speaker's Corner (Street Sense), whose first foals arrived this year. The Blame winner was her final live foal.

Hill 'n Dale's two-time Horse of the Year Curlin is the sire of 105 black-type winners and 58 graded winners. One of North America's elite sires, he has three stakes winners out of Awesome Again mares, including 2015 GI Travers S. winner Keen Ice. Awesome Again, who passed away in 2020 and has 104 stakes winners out of his daughters, is by Deputy Minister, as is Curlin's dam. That makes Godolphin's Highland Falls inbred 3x3 to that excellent sire and Canadian Hall of Famer.

TAPIT'S 'RISING STAR' SCYLLA SIZZLES IN SHAWNEE FOR JUDDMONTE

Juddmonte homebred Scylla (Tapit) gave notice she'll be one to watch in the older mare division this year with a facile score in Churchill's GIII Shawnee S. Saturday. It marked the first stakes victory for the 'TDN Rising Star' following a seven-length blowout and 93 Beyer figure in a one-mile optional allowance over the surface on GI Kentucky Derby day. Last year's GII Mother Goose S. and GIII Falls City S. winner Xigera (Nyquist), fifth behind Juddmonte's champion Idiomatic (Curlin) in the May 3 La Troienne S. in her seasonal debut, was second, while last year's GI CCA Oaks winner Wet Paint (Blame) was third). Cont.

Favored at 6-5, Scylla broke cleanly and immediately settled into a tracking spot just off the hip of pacesetter Xigera. Javier Castellano kept her under wraps as Xigera, second choice at 5-2, ticked off early fractions in :24.06 and :48.33. Scylla ran out of patience on the far turn and collared Xigera with enthusiasm. She shifted in down the lane, causing Xigera to shift out, but the race was no longer a contest and Scylla coasted home a 3 1/4-length victress. Xigera was a clear-cut second over Wet Paint, who had dropped back a few spots a half-mile in and closed late to swipe third from GSW Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) by a neck.

“We always knew her talent was there and the way she’s opened up late in her last two starts she’s really shown that,” said Castellano, who has been aboard Scylla in all of the filly’s six career starts. “I thought adding blinkers would keep her a little bit more sharp and focused going two turns. [Trainer] Bill [Mott] agreed and we added them for today’s start and it really worked out.”

Scylla wore blinkers Saturday off that seven-length May 4 win. The 'Rising Star' is undefeated in three starts at Churchill, all by open daylight. After two wins at three, she sat on the sidelines for nine months, returning with a neck second at Gulfstream in March and a third in the Apr. 19 GIII Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland in her first stakes foray.

“She’s been very impressive in her time we’ve had her at Churchill,” said Mott assistant Kenny McCarthy. “I think bigger and better things are definitely in her future.”

Pedigree Notes:

Gainesway’s three-time leading sire Tapit added his 164th black-type winner and 103rd graded winner with Scylla’s Shawnee victory. Tapit, who sends his 17th crop of 2-year-olds to the races this year, has been a remarkable source of quality with six U.S. champions to his credit, including Horse of the Year Flightline. Also among Tapit’s graded winners is MGSW & MGISP Tacitus, a full-brother to Scylla and a young Taylor Made stallion whose first foals are yearlings of 2024.

In addition to Tacitus and Scylla, dam Close Hatches, the champion older mare of 2014, also has a 3-year-old full-brother to the pair named Batten Down. The Apr. 30 maiden winner was a GI Belmont S. possible, but will point to the June 22 GIII Ohio Derby instead. The mare’s most recent foals include a 2022 filly by Constitution named Resurge, a 2023 filly by Uncle Mo, and a 2024 filly by Gun Runner.

Close Hatches is a full-sister to the dam of 2023 champion older female Idiomatic.

It took Pin Up Betty considerably fewer tries at the graded level to find success than it did to break her maiden. The daughter of Constitution, who just found the winner's circle for the first time in eight attempts last out over course and distance May 9, doubled right up with another breakthrough win in Saturday's GIII Regret S.

Tried on all three surfaces and at four different tracks dating back to last fall, Pin Up Betty finally struck gold when stretched out to 1 1/8 miles, winning by five lengths as the favorite in her second try on the grass and on Lasix. Near the back of the field into the first turn despite a sharp break, the 6-1 shot stayed well off the rail as a pair of leaders broke away up front paced by Way to Be Marie (Not This Time). Still having to come wide for room, Pin Up Betty circled the field through a mild half in :49.10 and ranged up to be on level terms with the leaders off the turn. Out in the center of the track and on her left lead at the furlong marker, she finally swapped and kicked clear, finishing well ahead of Buchu who closed down the inside for second.

"We've tried to get her to the turf a couple of times last year but got excluded from some races," said winning trainer Mike Maker. "Her dam, I'm Betty G, was a really nice turf mare for us. So, I think once we switched her to the turf she's really improved for us. Being a homebred for Three Diamonds Farm, it's really special to win with her."

Pedigree Note:

The 35th graded stakes winner for Constitution, Pin Up Betty is out MSW/MGSP I'm Betty G who was a $275,000 buy for Stoneriggs Farm out of Keeneland November in 2021. The Improbable colt that she carried in utero at that sale is now Governor Sam who debuted in last month's Royal Palm Juvenile S. at Gulfstream. Godolphin's Ottoman Fleet continues to thrive on these shores and added a relatively straight-forward victory in Saturday's GIII Arlington S. to last year's GII Fort Marcy S.

The complexion of the 8 1/2-furlong contest was altered materially right at the break, when the typically forwardly placed 'TDN Rising Star' Emmanuel (More Than Ready) was pinched back and forced to sit last. Northern Invader (Collected) was the chief beneficiary of his rival's poor start and set the pace with light pressure to his outside from longshot Irish Aces.

Ottoman Fleet was a fraction keen beneath Flavien Prat, but switched off well enough in the trail and was poised to pounce on the swing for home. Produced three wide in upper stretch, Ottoman Fleet easily claimed the pacesetters and was never truly in danger as Chasing the Crown closed in late.

Ottoman Fleet was third to champion Up to The Mark (Not This Time) in last year's GI Manhattan S., but with the team's Group 1 winner Measured Time (GB) (Frankel {GB}) set to fly the flag in that event at Saratoga next weekend, Godolphin has the luxury of shopping their horses around for winnable spots.

Ottoman Fleet has certainly done his part to give the Dubai form of Measured Time a timely boost. Third to his stablemate in the G2 Al Rashidiya S. at Meydan Dec. 22, the gelding improved to be second to the same rival in the Jan. 26 G1 Jebel Hatta, but was a disappointing eighth in the G2 Singpiel S. Feb. 23 and his Carnival was over.

He instead returned to England, successfully defending his title in the Apr. 17 G3 Earl of Sefton S. during the Craven meeting at Newmarket, and just failed to overcome a slow start when missing by a neck in search of back-to-back wins in the Fort Marcy May 4.

Winner of the 2013 GI Preakness S. and runner-up in that year's GI Belmont S., Calumet Farm's Oxbow continues to make a name for himself as a sire of horses that can excel over shorter trips, the latest example being Happy Jack, who took three rivals gate-to-wire in Saturday's seven-furlong GII Triple Bend S. at Santa Anita.

Happy Jack | Benoit

A distant third to Taiba (Gun Runner) in the 2022 GI Santa Anita Derby, Happy Jack was 14th in the GI Kentucky Derby and eighth in the Preakness and has been relegated to one-turn races since. Victorious in Churchill allowance company going this distance in June 22, he had struck out in five starts since, but popped a career-best 101 Beyer when finishing runner-up to Cal-bred superstar The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) in the Apr. 27 Kona Gold S. going 6 1/2 panels.

Still just the third favorite in this field of four, Happy Jack was kicked straight into the lead by Edwin Maldonado and was tracked to his outside by Tahoe Sunrise (American Pharoah) and Big City Lights. Favored Dr. Venkman, having his first start of the season, allowed things to unfold from the tail.

Going great guns up front, Happy Jack turned for home firmly in front, and although Dr. Venkman had dead aim on him for the length of the stretch, the Calumet homebred kept finding, albeit on his incorrect lead, for a first stakes win of any variety.

"He's been working great," said Maldonado, who rode G2

Godolphin Mile winner Two Rivers Over (Tamarkuz) for trainer Doug O'Neill this past March. "I had a lot of horse. When we passed the three-eighths pole, I smooched at him a little bit to see how much I had and he kind of took off. That's when I said, 'Okay, I have a ton left.' When he turned for home and I asked him, he responded really well."

Added the winning conditioner: "We gave him some time and he has come back as good as ever. He's always shown that he has talent. We ran him in the [Kentucky] Derby, so that tells you something. Just the time off and the maturity...he is a one-turn top-notch dirt horse. We are very excited."

Pedigree Notes:

Happy Jack is the 16th stakes winner for Oxbow, his sixth at the graded/group level, while Tapit is now the broodmare sire of 105 stakes winners, some 53 of those at the graded or group level.

Flying the flag for Oxbow this season is Tuz, who won the G3 Dubawi S. in January before tearing away from an international field to become his sire's second top-level scorer in the Dubai Golden Shaheen on Dubai World Cup night Mar. 30. Tuz is out of a mare by Pulpit, sire of Tapit. The 3-year-old filly Youalmosthadme was a three-time stakes winner as a juvenile and has added a third-place finish in this year's GIII Beaumont S. and more recently a runner-up effort in the GIII Miss Preakness S.

Brad Kelley's operation acquired Tapitstry for $100,000 in foal to Tizway at the 2015 Keeneland November Sale, and Happy Jack is the best of the mare's three winners from as many to race. The Ontario-bred Tapitstry was not mated in 2022 and was purchased by Lena Hedberg for $27,000 at the Keeneland November Sale. She foaled a colt by Audible Feb. 29.

Circle of Trust | Benoit

After breaking her maiden in March and skipping her allowance conditions, Circle of Trust made the leap straight into graded stakes winner with victory in Saturday's GIII Honeymoon S. at Santa Anita. As Mar. 24 allowance winner Sea Dancer (Mastery) set the pace up front with last-out GIII Seniorita S. winner Visually (Enticed) stalking, Circle of Trust raced in the clear and on the outside while midpack. The pace unfolded with :23.21 and :47.04 fractions as the eventual winner bided her time. Tipped out on the final turn, she swept around the field while four or five wide, unfurled her long legs, and kicked clear to prevail by 1 1/4 lengths.

"She relaxed pretty well behind the speed," said reinsman Antonio Fresu. "She is just steady and one paced, so at the three-eighths, I started to put her on the outside to give her a clear run, and she responded so well. I think she is an improving filly.

"Maybe last time she was a little unlucky, but you know today, I think she moved a step forward and I think she won impressively. I liked the way she galloped out. She still had plenty underneath, so let's see what she does next time."

The unlucky trip Fresu mentioned took place in the Apr. 20 GIII Providencia S., where she had to check hard early on but finished willingly late for third. Circle of Trust had only just officially visited the winner's circle for the first time Mar. 15--over the course and distance of the Honeymoon--after she was disqualified for interference from her initial win last October.

"It has all been by trial and error, trying to find her style and I think that was the most important part," said winning trainer Phil D'Amato. "Flavien [Prat] did a great job of breaking her maiden and once he did that the light bulb really kicked on and we have just kind of followed along the way. She likes that long, prolonged run, getting her to the outside."

Pedigree Notes:

Union Rags, winner of the GI Belmont S. a dozen years ago, has sired 17 graded winners and 33 black-type winners during his tenure at Lane's End in Central Kentucky. While Circle of Trust is his first stakes winner out of a daughter of Tapit, he has three additional stakes performers, including 2021 GI Champagne S. second Commandperformance and 2020 GII Rebel S. runner-up Excession, out of Tapit mares. Tapit, who also sired GIII Shawnee S. winner Scylla Saturday, has 105 stakes winners out of his daughters.

Circle of Trust and her dam were both bred by Gary and Mary West. The mare was sold at last November's Keeneland sale to Gerry Owen Bloodstock for $25,000 and has since produced a filly by Game Winner, another Lane's End stallion who also raced for the Wests. Open House, who was unraced herself, is a half-sister to 2023 GI Stephen Foster S. winner and West homebred West Will Power (Bernardini). The Wests have Open House's 2-year-old unraced Munnings colt and yearling Maximum Security filly.

Trainer Mark Casse sent out three of the seven runners for Saturday's GII Eclipse S. at Woodbine, and it was the least-fancied, of the trio, Gary Barber's Palazzi, who raced over the top to cause a mild upset.

Stablemate Get Smokin (Get Stormy), making his first start since winning last year's GII Turf Cup at Kentucky Downs in gate-to-wire fashion and easy in the market in the final few minutes, was kicked straight into the lead as expected by Fernando de la Cruz and the chestnut was allowed a reasonably soft time of things on the engine. Reigning King's Plate hero Paramount Prince was content to do the chasing, while Sahin Civaci dropped Palazzi--off at 13-2 from a 20-1 morning line--out the back to save his best for a sprint to the wire.

Racing detached from his six rivals into the final half-mile, Palazzi began to tack on with three furlongs to travel, but Get Smokin was still going easily in advance of Paramount Prince at the quarter pole. Steered out six or seven wide into the stretch, Palazzi cocked his head toward the stands for a stride or two, but put his mind on business and was home first. Tyson speared through from between rivals to grab second ahead of Paramount Prince, with Get Smokin not far away in fourth.

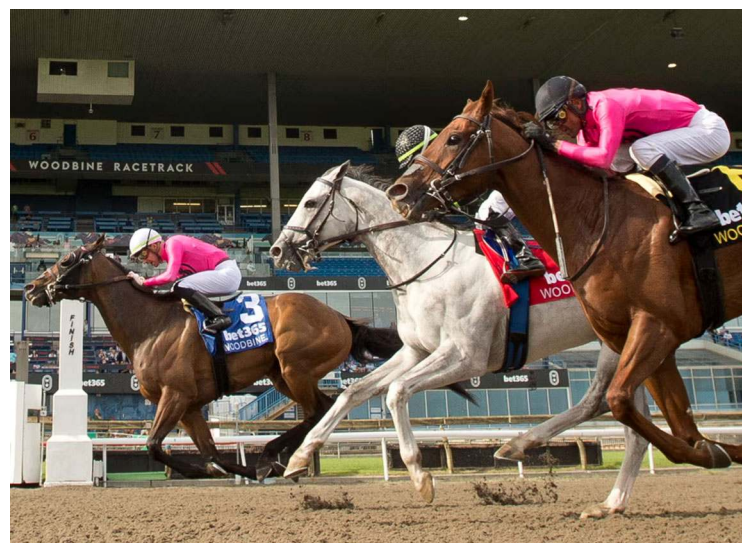

"I did want to be coming off the pace," said Civaci. "There were a few speed horses here and I thought that's the only chance we have. Staying mid-pack, he won't fire as well as he would. That was the plan and it worked out."

Winner of a nine-furlong allowance over this track last summer, Palazzi took out the grassy GIII Singpiel S. in September, but was a well-beaten fourth in the GI Canadian International S. before filling the same spot in the 14-furlong GIII Valedictory S. back on the synth in December. Favored, but only fourth as the favorite in a yielding-turf renewal of the GIII John B. Connally S. at Sam Houston Jan. 27, he finished a distant last of 11 in the GIII Fair Grounds S. Feb. 17 and was a latest ninth in the GII Muniz Memorial S. in New Orleans Mar. 23.

Pedigree Notes:

Palazzi is one of three winners from four to the races for his dam, a $50,000 Keeneland September purchase by HnR Nothhaft Horseracing who became a two-time stakes winner and placed no fewer than four times at Grade II and Grade III level while under the care of trainer Gary Mandella.

A half-brother to Made In America, whose lone black-type success came in the Forego S. over the Turfway synthetic, Palazzi has a yearling half-sister named Fire (Authentic) and a colt half-brother by Justify foaled Apr. 12. @EquinealTDN

Fashionably Fab | Michael Burns

Fashionably Fab picked up right where she left off last year, winning her fifth straight and her first graded race Saturday in the GIII Belle Mahone S. at Woodbine. The win was also the first stakes ride and victory for young apprentice rider Pietro Moran who picked up the mount from Patrick Husbands for trainer Kevin Attard.

The now 4-year-old filly had a brilliant end to her 2023 campaign, reeling off four straight stakes wins in Ontario-bred company and racing exclusively at the stakes level the entire year, winning over both turf and synthetic. Jumping up in class to the graded level for her 2024 season, Fashionably Fab was perhaps a tad overlooked on the board at 7-1 seeing as regular rider Patrick Husbands had opted for 5-2 choice Forever Dixie. Fastest from the middle of the gate, she was quickly matched into stride by Solo Album to her inside and happy to sit second to that rival around the clubhouse turn. Racing in company briefly with Metaphysical (American Freedom) to her outside, Fashionably Fab watched that runner surge past to pressure the leader as the opening quarter went in :24.79. A solo third on the backstretch, she had a clear shot at the front and began to make up steady ground past the quarter pole, splitting the leaders with a strong move into the final furlong. Solo Album was game to her inside but was always second best as Fashionably Fab kept a head in front for the win.

"Obviously, she's a nice filly," said Attard. "I wouldn't say it's a surprise because she's worked really well, but it was a big step up in company for her, leaving Ontario-sired horses and going to Grade III company. Fortunately for us, Pietro gave her a dream of a ride."

Moran, who was clearly emotional in the aftermath, added: "She's a special filly. I've been on her, I've worked her since before she ever ran her first race, I've worked her from the gate. We always knew she was special and I'm thankful to the owners and Kevin for giving me this opportunity. I had a good horse under me."

Pedigree Note:

The ninth graded-stakes winner for Silent Name (Jpn), Fashionably Fab is the second foal, and second stakes runner, for Flashy's Legacy--the first being MSP Souper Flashy (Souper Speedy). The dam herself, while unplaced in her own racing career, is a half to Canadian champion 3-year-old colt and Queen's Plate S. winner Big Red Mike (Tenpins). Fashionably Fab has a 2-year-old Instagrاند half-brother who is on the work tab at Woodbine and her dam reported a Mendelssohn filly this spring.

Play the Music began her 4-year-old campaign by clearing the optional claiming ranks on her third attempt at Gulfstream Park in late January. She then won the Leinster Lightning City S. at Tampa a month later, but was unable to hit the board shipping in for the GIII Giant's Causeway S. at Keeneland Apr. 13. However, the filly issued a strong rally and won by 4 1/4 lengths in the GIII Whimsical S. over the Toronto Tapeta May 4.

Returning to the grass, the 2-1 choice here raced in the second flight behind a pair of pacesetters up the backstretch. Waiting for her cue around the far turn, a gaping hole along the fence opened with a furlong left and she motored home to garner her second consecutive graded stakes victory.

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's dam, a half-sister to MSW Smoke It Right (Smoke Glacken), is responsible for 3-year-old colt Where Ya At Vince (Paynter), who won on debut at Keeneland Apr. 26. Hey Little Sister also produced a colt in-training named Purse Thief (Caracaro), who is now a juvenile, and she was bred back-to-back to Play the Music's sire starting in 2022.

Flag Of Honour | Michael Burns

After beginning his career in Australia where he was fourth in the GIII Ming Dynasty Quality at Rosehill two years ago, the gelding came north of the border last fall and won by a nose the GII Kennedy Road S. in Toronto. The bay was last seen running second to Candy Overload (Reload) in the Thornccliffe S. over the same surface to kick off his 2024 campaign in early May.

Installed as the 9-5 choice here, Flag Of Honour duelled briefly with Step Forward (Speightstown) up the backstretch. Raring to go, the 5-year-old geared up around the far turn and took the lead heading into the lane. The Julia Carey trainee rewarded his backers with a solid performance and another graded score.

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's dam last registered foal is a filly by Maurice (Jpn) who is now a yearling. Flag Of Honour is one of 46 stakes winners worldwide for his Coolmore-based sire.

Cugino has been knocking on the door of a stakes win for Shug McGaughey since breaking his maiden on first asking at Aqueduct last November. In three starts earlier this year, he's been beaten by a length, a neck and a nose to take second in the Colonel Liam S. at Gulfstream in March and the GIII Transylvania S. at Keeneland in April. Caught way back last time out, he still rallied to be fourth in the GII American Turf S. on Derby Day last month. Adding just a touch of extra distance Saturday, the 5-2 second choice was ridden hard from the gate by Flavien Prat and was never truly challenged, maintaining a sizable gap on the field through fractions of :23.83 and :48.17 before dashing home alone on the wire.

"I think the blinkers have helped him keep focus and has really made him step up his game," said assistant trainer Reeve McGaughey. "We put them on him last time and he ran a good race but I think the inside post today helped him a little more."

The half-brother to a pair of stakes runners including MGSP Battle of Normandy (City of Light), Cugino has a 2-year-old War of Will half-brother and a yearling Essential Quality half-brother. Adorable Miss was reported as bred to Speightstown for 2024.

At home on seemingly any surface, Closethegame Sugar pulled the 18-1 upset to take home the Aristides S.

With Skelly claiming the overwhelming action on the toteboard, to the tune of 1-5 favoritism, the eventual winner was something of an afterthought with only one other horse going off at higher odds than him. As that heavy favorite put up :21.73 and :44.19 splits, Closethegame Sugar tracked him from midpack and was four wide swinging through the turn. With that longtime leader in his sights and the distance between them shortening, the Rice runner surged in the closing stages to clear Skelly by a length in the end.

Closethegame Sugar was last seen running second in a main track dash at this venue May 2, which served as his seasonal bow, and before that had wrapped his 2023 campaign winning a handicap on the synthetic at Presque Isle Downs. He was a stakes winner over the turf at Saratoga last summer when he won the Mahony S., and ran fourth at Kentucky Downs in the Gil Franklin Simpson S.

"He came off a pretty long layoff last time here at Churchill running in the allowance race on Derby Day. I thought he may have needed that race and he came back really strong today," said trainer Adam Rice. "Irad [Ortiz Jr.] gave him a great ride and is a difference maker. We won a stakes last year on turf but having him show another dimension today on dirt was very impressive."

The victor has a winning 3-year-old half-sister Status Seeker (Upstart) as well as a 2-year-old half-brother Cocktailsnkringle (Preservationist). With a hot-handed Frankie Dettori aboard, Twirling Point came running late to get the money and his first black type win of his career in the Jersey Derby at Monmouth on Saturday afternoon.

The gelding finished third in the Eddie Logan S. at Santa Anita in late December and then he won against optional claimers with Dettori in the irons over the same turf course Feb. 24.

Dettori dismount of Twirling Point | Bill Denver/EquiPhoto

The international star met his mount at Turfway Park and the pair were third in the Rushaway S. last out Mar. 23.

Backed at the windows by the public as the 8-5 choice here, the blinkered 3-year-old settled into the third position passing the grandstand for the first time. On the chase up the backstretch, Twirling Point fanned three wide around the far turn, and with some strong encouragement, hit the wire just in the nick of time.

“He always hinted at being a stakes winner,” said trainer Jonathan Thomas. “Mind you, the 3-year-old turf division for males and females is really deep, so thankfully there are a myriad of options and he’s kept some nice company. He’s trained like a nice horse that should be a stakes winner. It’s nice that it is done.”

“He is very versatile,” said Dettori, who won two stakes races at Penn National on Friday and is listed to ride at Churchill Downs on Sunday. “I pushed on him and he jumped good [at the start] for once. Thank goodness for that. He’s just a big baby. When he gets there, he kind of waits for the others. When Vincent [Cheminaud, aboard runner-up Move to Gold] came next to me, he kind of got me started again.”

Out of an extended female family which includes MGSW Five Star Day (Carson City), the winner's dam is responsible for unraced 2-year-old filly Onehotmess (English Channel) and a yearling colt by Caravaggio. Kitten's Point foaled a full-brother to Twirling Point May 22. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV .

Miuccia defied her 14-1 odds and picked up her first stakes win in the Game Face S.

A winner two back Mar. 17 to break her maiden at track and trip, she was last seen Apr. 14 running fifth against an optional claiming field after being fractious in the gate. With no such troubles here, she stalked the early duel as Haulin Ice and Marshmallow Queen went at it through a half in :45.83. Five wide and advancing on that pair, the eventual victress had a narrow advantage entering the lane and edged away to a 3 3/4-length margin late.

The first to the races for Bay Harbor, Miuccia has a 2-year-old half-sister by McKinzie as well as a 2024 half-brother by Maclean's Music. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

In a field of maidens, and with only one rival with a start under her belt, Tequila Kiss toasted the start of her racing career with a stalk and pounce effort in the Texas Stallion Pan Zareta Division S.

As one of three in the race for her sire, and all right next to one another in the gate, Tequila Kiss went best of that group as she vied for the lead two off the rail. Game as they come entering the stretch, Ticket to Broadway was the looming danger but the eventual victress would not be overtaken, winning by two lengths in the end. A half-sister to SP Miss Bitters (Old Fashioned), Tequila Kiss has a 2024 half-sister by Shoplifted. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

Stylish Style opened her account nicely at first asking with a 4 1/2-length defeat of state-bred maidens May 10 and was the clear alternative to odds-on Won Happy Mama in this non black-type contest. Allowed to find her feet through the opening exchanges, Stylish Style raced in about fifth position and in the clear down the back as the heavy chalk showed the way under confident handling. Stylish Style worked her way nicely into the race four wide at the entrance to the straight, confronted Won Happy Mama and got the better of a final-furlong duel. Top regional breeder Allen Poindexter bred the first- and third-place finishers and has an ownership interest in each of the top three.

The winner's dam is also responsible for an Indiana-bred yearling colt by Isotherm. Click for the Equibase.com chart and VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

Swapped to the Todd Pletcher barn, she was fourth in her 3-year-old unveiling at Gulfstream Park March 15. Turning that rival back off the turn, Miss Justify opened a gap in upper stretch and held it to the line, coming home 2 1/2 lengths in front of Simply Enchanting who just lasted to hold second. Back on the turf for her 4-year-old debut, the 5-2 favorite had to tuck in behind pacesetter The Niigon Factor (The Factor) who went forward from the rail to lead. BELLS BEACH (f, 3, Curlin--Luminance {GISP, $218,858}, by Tale of the Cat), last seen running fourth against a maiden field at Keeneland Apr. 5, gained another furlong here and found the added real estate to her liking. The 2-1 chance recovered well from an outward break to track from fifth early, and had put herself in range of the leaders with a bold rally, entering the lane in command. Pouring it on, it was 5 1/2 lengths back to Soundbite (Audible) on the line. Hailing from the female family of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero George Vancouver (Henrythenavigator)--who was Group 1-placed in two other countries--and GSW & GISP Saarland (Unbridled), Bells Beach has a 2-year-old half-sister Lady Chic (Tapit) as well as two half-brothers by Gun Runner--a yearling and a 2024 foal. Luminance was the runner-up in the GI Santa Anita Oaks and set a new track record at Del Mar in her time at the races. Donning first-time blinkers for this jump, she took control from her rail spot and put her rivals to sleep through :25.23 and :50.27 fractions which went uncontested. In command entering the homestretch and never under any threat, My Girl Della coasted in by 2 1/4 lengths over Saccharine (Noble Mission {GB}).
