

SEVEN DAYS: LOOKING BACK TO LOOK FORWARD

MV Magnier and Fred Done with Aidan, Ana and Annemarie O'Brien celebrating a 10th Derby win | Racingfotos.com

by Emma Berry

On the 15th anniversary of the passing of Vincent O'Brien, his successor at Ballydoyle, Aidan O'Brien, extended his record at Epsom to 10 wins in the Derby. Vincent O'Brien's daughter and son-in-law Sue and John Magnier were not at Epsom on Saturday but several of the late, great trainer's grandchildren were in the winner's circle to greet City Of Troy. Their own family is now so strongly enmeshed with the man who shares their grandfather's surname but is no relation to the creator of Ballydoyle.

Just like City Of Troy, five of Vincent O'Brien's six Derby winners emanated from North America, with Nijinsky and The Minstrel both being sons of Northern Dancer, and his final winner, Golden Fleece in 1982, a son of Nijinsky. From a European perspective, it is impossible to think of Northern Dancer without considering the great faith placed in him by O'Brien on his forays to the Keeneland yearling sales with Robert Sangster, John Magnier and co.

These annual pilgrimages changed the face of the bloodstock world. Half a century later Northern Dancer's influence has firmly taken root here chiefly through Sadler's Wells and more recently the latter's son Galileo, as well as through grandsons Danehill and Green Desert, both by Danzig. Cont., p3

FUN WITH FLAGS TO BE SOLD AT ARQANA POP-UP

Listed winner and Group 3-placed Fun With Flags (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), who boasts an entry in the Prix de Diane, will add major intrigue at the Arqana pop-up sale next Monday.

Trained by Jerome Reynier, Fun With Flags has won three of her four starts, and was only beaten a little over two lengths in the G3 Prix Cleopatre at Saint-Cloud last time.

Sold by Airlie Stud as a yearling at the Goffs Orby Sale for €50,000 to Kingsfield Stud, Fun With Flags was then knocked down to Erika Gilliar for €62,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale in 2023.

She is out of Galileo (Ire) mare Marie Celeste, a sister to Listed winner and black-type producer Gemstone, and from the family of Irish 2,000 Guineas winner Bachelor Duke and Irish St Leger scorer Sonnyboyliston.

Seven Days

So it is nothing new to consider what influence American bloodlines have in Europe. They have long dominated and been adapted. The difference now is the shifting of power between sirelines - or branches thereof.

At Epsom on Friday, the Aga Khan's Ezeliya (Fr) became a first Oaks winner for Dubawi (Ire), giving a rattle for the Mr. Prospector line. Then, through Justify, City Of Troy increased the posthumous reputation of Scat Daddy (Storm Cat), himself a fifth-generation descendant of Northern Dancer.

At Chantilly, the Prix du Jockey Club was won by Look De Vega (Fr), a second French Classic winner for Lope De Vega (Ire) this year following Rouhiya (Fr) in the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. Emulating both his sire and grandsire Shamardal by winning the Prix du Jockey Club, Look De Vega's male-line ancestry traces to a different son of Storm Cat in Giant's Causeway, who of course made his name known in no uncertain terms on these shores at the turn of this century.

Go back far enough up the line, however, and behind all of these American influences we find the name Phalaris (GB), the 17th Earl of Derby's supremely dominant stallion whose success took root between the wars, predominantly through his sons Pharos (GB) and Sickie (GB), ancestors respectively of City Of Troy, Look De Vega, Rouhiya (Fr), Rosallion (Ire) and Elmalka (GB); and Notable Speech (GB), Ezeliya, Metropolitan (Fr), and Fallen Angel (GB). What goes around comes around.

A Trojan Effort

Within the Coolmore operation, the phasing out of Galileo's close-up influence needs to coincide with the phasing in of a different blend, and that looks to be happening most firmly through Scat Daddy, who died in 2015 at the age of only 11. His sons and grandsons are now spread across North and South America as well as Europe, with at least one in Japan.

Scat Daddy's son No Nay Never, winner of the G1 Prix Morny and G2 Norfolk S., has come to the fore in Ireland, with his sons on the Coolmore roster now including Blackbeard (Ire), Little Big Bear (Ire), Ten Sovereigns (Ire) and Arizona (Ire).

Ezeliya was a second Classic winner this season for the Aga Khan
Racingfotos.com

In America, Justify, born in the year that Scat Daddy died, holds sway. How much his having sired a Derby winner on turf increases his appeal to American breeders is hard to quantify but City Of Troy is now the top-rated three-year-old colt in Europe, where he was also champion two-year-old, and Justify's ability to produce top-class runners on turf and dirt makes him a stallion that top breeders from around the world simply cannot ignore.

Shamardal vs Dubawi

While Coolmore has two forks of the Scat Daddy line reinforcing its operations on either side of the Atlantic, Darley has the increasingly prolific influences of the late Shamardal and the veteran Dubawi to fall back on. Those two stallions, both Classic winners of 2005, have already played a major role in this year's Classics. Shamardal's son Lope De Vega has two winners to his name in the aforementioned Rouhiya and Look De Vega, while another, the younger Blue Point (Ire), has produced Rosallion from his first crop.

In the Dubawi corner, step forward Notable Speech and Ezeliya, while his sons Zarak (Fr) and Too Darn Hot (GB) are responsible for Metropolitan and Fallen Angel. Too Darn Hot is also the sire of the G2 German 1,000 Guineas winner Darnation (Ire).

Honours Spread

There has been a reasonably egalitarian feel to the winners of this year's Classics in Britain, Ireland and France, certainly by the spread of stables represented. So far, nine have been run and they have been won by nine different trainers or training partnerships: Charlie Appleby, Roger Varian, Mario Barrati, Francis-Henri Graffard, Richard Hannon, Karl Burke, Dermot Weld, Aidan O'Brien, and Carlos and Yann Lerner. Cont.

Carlos Lerner hugs his son Yann | Scoop Dyga

We may sometimes rue the demise of the owner-breeder, and it is true that there are fewer individuals operating in that manner these days, but the major breeding operations remain dominant. Only one of the Classics, the Poule d'Essai des Poulains, has been won by a horse sold outright at the sales: Metropolitan at Arqana October for €78,000.

Look De Vega was the subject of a private sale at Arqana's August Sale of two years ago but he still races for his co-breeders Joelle Mestrallet of Haras de la Morsangliere and Lucien Urano's Ecurie des Charmes, along with partners Patrick Madar and her trainers, the Lerner's. The father-and-son training team had a day to remember at Chantilly, landing their first Group 1 winner since their partnership began, and 23 years after the Spanish-born Carlos Lerner won the same Classic with Anabaa Blue (GB). Later in the day they also won the Listed Prix Marchand d'Or with Jasna's Secret (Fr) (Galiway {GB}) for Wathnan Racing, whose colours are becoming increasingly conspicuous on racecourses around the world.

David Menuisier won the G2 German 2,000 Guineas with Devil's Point (Ire) (New Bay {GB}) and continues to put a number of much larger stables to shame by his runners' participation in the Classics. On Friday, the Menuisier-trained War Chimes (Fr) (Summer Front) was a running-on third in the Oaks at 50/1, while Tamfana (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) was beaten only a length when fourth in the 1,000 Guineas at 33/1. Both fillies hold an entry for the Prix de Diane.

Aventure Seeker

Whether or not the Prix de Diane in a fortnight's time comes too soon for Aventure (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) remains to be seen, but the Wertheimer homebred laid down an emphatic marker as to her potential on Sunday in the G3 Prix de Royaumont, which she won by seven lengths. A half-sister to Prix Vermeille winner and Prix de Diane runner-up Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), Aventure was awarded a TDN Rising Star when winning on debut at Chantilly last September, and she boasts a pedigree of international reach.

The filly was one of three winners on the Prix du Jockey Club card for Alain and Gerard Wertheimer. The leading breeders in France this season, the brothers were in attendance at the races and also enjoyed seeing the dependable Junko (GB) (Intello {Ger}) land the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, while Sosie (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) was third in the big race.

Hot Darling | Scoop Dyga

A Listed winner after claiming the Prix des Reves d'Or at Vichy over heavy ground in her second start May 15, she entered that stakes off a determined unveiling Apr. 26 at Chantilly. Consigned by Amy Murphy Racing, she is being offered with an entry in the G3 Prix du Bois on June 16 but could also be aimed at the G2 Queen Mary S. on June 19.

Hailing from the female family of G1 Emirates Poule d'Esai des Poulains hero Metropolitan (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}), Hot Darling has a winning half-brother Verdansk (GB) (No Nay Never). Their dam Boater (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) was Listed-placed as a racehorse, and is herself out of a full-sister to Listed-winning Royal Tigress (Storm Cat), who produced Grade I-placed Tiger Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}) as well as Graded-placed Ol Donyo (Curlin) in the States. Second dam Cercle d'Amour (Storm Cat) is also a half-sister to French Group 1-placed Warm Heart (Diesis {GB}).

"She's a fast filly out of a filly who was placed in the Listed Marygate S. and is by Too Darn Hot, the sire on fire who has had two Guineas winners in the last two weeks," said Murphy. "Hot Darling is a filly that will only keep improving, has an extremely good temperament and we definitely have not seen the best of her."

She added, "[Hot Darling] has been entered for the G3 Prix du Bois on Oaks day at Chantilly but also has the [G2] Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot as an option. We are only going to see her improve from here on in and we are very much looking forward to lining her up wherever she runs next."

Bidding will take place from 10:00a.m. to 12:00p.m. on June 12 via the Tattersalls Online website.

NO CATCHING GALILEO, HIGH CHAPARRAL AND CO. FOR CITY OF TROY ON RATINGS

City Of Troy (Justify) has been handed a Timeform rating of 127p following his Derby romp on Saturday.

That figure places him 2lbs clear of his 2,000 Guineas conqueror Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) while emphatic Dante scorer Economics (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), whose connections opted against supplementing for the Derby, is next best in the three-year-old brigade on 121p.

A Timeform rating of 127p places City Of Troy as the fourth-highest rated of Aidan O'Brien's 10 Derby winners. Galileo (Ire) achieved the highest Timeform figure of 132 in 2001 while 2002 winner High Chaparral (Ire) [130] and Camelot (GB) [128] were also rated higher.

Meanwhile, Irish 2,000 Guineas scorer Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) has been handed a mark of 121, the Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) 117 and Oaks winner Ezeliya (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) 118p.

DEIRA MILE CAMP EYE POTENTIAL REMATCH WITH CITY OF TROY IN THE IRISH DERBY

Deira Mile (Ire) could be pointed towards the Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby after his fourth-placed effort in the Epsom Classic. The Owen Burrows-trained Camelot (GB) colt was fourth in the Futurity Trophy last season and began this year with a taking four-length victory in a Windsor novice.

At Epsom he stepped up to a-mile-and-a-half for the first time and started at 28-1 for the Betfred-sponsored Derby, where he was ridden by Jim Crowley and drawn in stall 14 of 16.

Though the running of the race did not favour the Ahmad Al Shaikh-owned three-year-old, Burrows was still pleased with the performance and connections are now considering taking him to the Curragh for the Irish Derby at the end of the month.

"I'm not saying we were unlucky in any way, but it wasn't the plan to be that far back," Burrows said. "We had to sit in mid-div, he just stepped a bit slow and that was where Jim unfortunately found himself."

"It was a big run down the outside, we did have a nice clear run in doing that. But the winner had a nice trip down the inner, the second and third had a nice trip, I thought it was a big run."

"We'll see how he is through this week but the Irish Derby could suit him, the nature of the track at the Curragh I think would suit him a lot better. We'll play it by ear, he's a Leger horse and that's what Jim felt as well so that will be the ultimate aim. It's about a month away, the Irish Derby, so he'll have a bit of time. It's not definite he'll go, but we'll have a look." Cont.

Deira Mile | PA Media

Burrows' stable is also home to another Group 1 performer in Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}), who took the Prix d'Isphahan when last seen around a year ago.

Injury interrupted his season in the run up to the Eclipse following that and has kept him off the track since, but he has returned to training and is expected to make a comeback later in the summer.

Burrows said, "He's with me, he's been back for a little while now. He won't be going to Ascot as he won't be ready until the end of July, probably. Fingers crossed, he's busy but we've no plans as such.

"I've given him an Irish Champion S. entry and we hope he'll come to hand at the end of July. He had quite a complex foot injury when we were prepping him for the Eclipse and that was a pain, but, touch wood, he's had plenty of time to rehab back at Shadwell.

"He looks well, he's moving well but like myself, he's carrying that bit of extra condition that he could do with shifting! We'll get busy over the next couple of month and all being well he should be ready by the end of July."

Burrows has also outlined plans for classy sorts Alflaila (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}), (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and War Rooms (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}). Alflaila has an entry for the Prince of Wales's S. over a-mile-and-a-quarter, but the Listed Wolferton S. over the same trip will also be considered.

"He's on the march so to speak, so I've left him in the Prince of Wales's at Royal Ascot," said Burrows. "He did a nice bit of work on Saturday and he's got a couple of important bits this week, we might go for the Prince of Wales's or we might lower our sights a bit and go for the Wolferton. This will be his first run for quite a while, but hopefully you'll see him in one of those races."

Also aiming for the big meeting is Alyanaabi, whose fifth-placed 2,000 Guineas run has looked increasingly useful as the second- and third-placed horses--Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) and Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire})--filled the first two places in that order in the Irish equivalent.

"All being well he is going to go for the St James's Palace, the Guineas form is stacking up pretty strongly," Burrows said of the colt.

"We've got a few lengths to make up on the winner, on the second and on the third, to be fair, but we're on another day and another track."

"It's different, the old mile, I think it'll suit him better so we're rolling the dice and we're going to go there."

War Rooms is another Burrows inmate with Royal Ascot in his agenda with the trainer concluding, "He'll have an entry in the Hampton Court and I left him in the King Edward VII as well. We'll take a look at both races and speak to the owners to see which is the best option for him--all being well he'll be there."

JUDDMONTE TEAM LOOKING AHEAD TO ROYAL ASCOT WITH LIGHTLY-RACED LAUREL

The high-class but lightly-raced Laurel (GB) (Kingman {GB}) could bid to get her season underway in the Duke of Cambridge S. at Royal Ascot, according to Barry Mahon, Juddmonte's European racing manager.

Laurel has not been seen since disappointing when well-fancied for last year's Lockinge at Newbury. As a three-year-old, she was beaten less than a length in the Sun Chariot S., on what was just her third ever run, and connections are keen to see what she is capable of given the chance.

"Laurel is on target for Ascot when I was talking to John [Gosden] on Friday," said Mahon. "Unfortunately she didn't get to have a prep run, but John and Thady just felt there was nothing suitable in the last few weeks so they decided they were happy to go straight to Ascot. Cont.

Barry Mahon | Tattersalls

“She’s very lightly-raced, but we always felt she had high-class ability. She’s been off a long time so it’s going to be a remarkable training feat to turn up at Ascot and win after over 12 months off, but they have done it before.”

On Friday at Doncaster the famous colours filled the first two places in what looked a hot novice race, with a Shamardal filly out of Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), the Ralph Beckett-trained Indellible (Ire), beating Amphius (GB) (Kingman {GB}).

On those promising youngsters, Mahon said, “I suppose we’ll see what handicap mark she [Indellible] gets and she could be a possible for the Sandringham at Ascot. If not she could step up in class if she doesn’t get a normal handicap mark. You could see her getting 10 furlongs definitely, 12 I’m not so sure.”

He added, “She’s a nice filly, she’s won two of her three and she can progress as the year goes on, her work at home has always been of a nice level so hopefully she keeps going forward.

“She was in the Guineas and the Irish Guineas but she’s just taken an age to come to hand, she’s had no setbacks or anything, she still had her winter coat on about a week ago and the wet spring took its toll on her.

“It looked a good race, we like the second horse Amphius with Harry Charlton, I think he’s a nice colt.”

Meanwhile on Sunday Kassaya (GB) (Kingman {GB}), a half-sister to last year’s Guineas winner Chaldean (GB), easily went one better than on debut and booked her Royal Ascot ticket.

“Kassaya has a load of ability, she shows plenty of speed at home and Andrew [Balding] has been excited by her for the last couple of weeks,” said Mahon.

“She ran well on debut when the ground was on the soft side and she hit the front plenty early before getting mugged late on.

“She’d come forward nicely from that, I thought she still looked green and she can take another jump forward. All being well we’ll have a look at something at Ascot for her.

“I think we’ll stick at five for the minute, the way she hit the line yesterday suggests she could go up to six after that.”

CORAL-ECLIPSE COULD BE NEXT FOR DERBY SIXTH DANCING GEMINI

Roger Teal is eyeing up a crack at the Coral-Eclipse for Dancing Gemini (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) who ran with credit to finish sixth in the Derby on Saturday.

Having already run a huge race this season to be an unlucky second in the Poule d’Essai des Poulains, Dancing Gemini was stepping up to a mile-and-a-half for the first time at Epsom.

Drawn in stall 15, Dylan Browne McMonagle had to take his medicine and found himself at the back of the pack before working his way into contention with a furlong to run, only to fade in the final 100 yards behind impressive winner City Of Troy (Justify).

“He seems fine, all is good with him,” said Teal. “He made up a lot of ground but we were just in the wrong position on the track and he had to use up a lot of horse to get into a position and then he weakened close home.

“He’d made a big effort to get among the placings but it didn’t go as smooth as we would have liked. It was a big field and there was a lot of congestion around Tattenham Corner, he ended up going wider than he would have liked.

“What he has shown is that he belongs in those races, he hasn’t disgraced us at all and he ran with credit. With a clearer run he might have been placed.”

Looking towards the future, Teal added, “Timing-wise, I think the Eclipse looks the favourable race to go for. We had him in the St James’s Palace but we took him out as we thought he’d probably have a hard race in the Derby and it would come too quick. The Eclipse gives us time to freshen him up so as we stand, that’s his target at the moment.

“I’m not sure where the winner will go, possibly the Irish Derby. I just thought he had a bad day at Newmarket, I never bought into the fact he hadn’t trained on. Had he won the Guineas ironically there might have only been eight runners in the Derby which would have suited us but because he got beat a few more threw their hat in the ring.”

Rob Burrow: died at the age of 41 on Sunday | Racingfotos.com

TRAINER CRAIG LIDSTER PAYS TRIBUTE TO "INSPIRATIONAL" ROB BURROW

Trainer Craig Lidster has paid tribute to the "inspirational" Rob Burrow as the racing industry came together to pay tribute to the former rugby star who died on Sunday.

Burrow, an England international rugby league player who spent his whole career with Leeds Rhinos, was diagnosed with motor neurone disease in 2019 after retiring two years prior.

After his diagnosis he threw himself into charity work, dedicating his final years to raising over £20 million to benefit those with MND in the future.

A part of this effort was the Rob Burrow Racing Club, a syndicate overseen by the Good Racing Company that donated all of its profits to Burrow's cause.

The syndicate owned Burrow Seven and Beep Beep Burrow, trained by Jedd O'Keeffe, and more recently Macarone, who is based with Lidster in York.

Lidster trained the horse to two victories last year, including a nursery handicap at Beverley when Burrow and his family were present.

Leeds Rhinos announced Burrow's death aged 41 on Sunday evening, triggering widespread messages of condolence to his friends, former teammates and his family; wife Lindsey and children Macy, Maya and Jackson.

"It's a devastating news, my thoughts are with his family, he was just an inspirational man and an inspirational father-it's a sad loss to the sporting world," said Lidster.

"He stayed in the public eye after his diagnosis and him and Doddie Weir brought the disease to the forefront of people's minds. Without them plenty of people would be none the wiser.

"That was a very emotional day at Beverley, his kids picked up the trophy and it was bittersweet, that memory will be with me forever now. Our thoughts are with his family and friends, we're just gutted for them. It's very, very tough."

NEWBURY RACECOURSE TO OFFER RACING STAFF FREE TICKETS

As part of a new initiative at Newbury, those working within racing may claim a complimentary ticket for themselves and a guest at two upcoming racedays, according to a presser released Monday.

The Racecourse's first evening of the Summer Evening Series with Hits Radio on July 4 and the BetVictor Flat Finale with Oktoberfest on Oct. 26 will both offer the complimentary tickets. They may be requested here after completing a short form.

"We are all acutely aware of the hard working and dedicated racing staff who form the backbone of the racing industry. Without those who work tirelessly up and down the country, we would not be able to enjoy a day at the races," said Mark Leigh, interim chief executive offer at Newbury Racecourse. "We are committed to supporting those working within the sport in any way we can. The complimentary tickets we're making available are a gesture of thanks from all of us here at Newbury Racecourse to recognise the dedication of racing staff, while also forming part of our strategy to make our racing experiences as accessible as possible."

BROTHER TO ELITE STATUS DEBUTS AT LINGFIELD

18.45 Lingfield, Novice, £6,300, 2yo, 6f (AWT)
SOLDIER'S HEART (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}), a full-brother to the G3 Prix de Cabourg winner Elite Status (GB) who was the joint-highest-priced colt at Tattersalls Book 2 when selling for 425,000gns, debuts for Victorious Racing and Simon and Ed Crisford. Among his rivals is the similarly unraced Brandywine Falls (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), a Roger Varian-trained homebred of John Deer's who is a full-brother to the stable's G2 Rockfel S. winner and G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf runner-up Daahyeh (GB) and half-brother to last year's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest third Saint Lawrence (Ire) (Al Kazeem {GB}).

14.30 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €30,000, 2yo, c/g, 7fT
SILIUS (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}) bids to continue the weekend momentum of the Wertheimers and Christophe Ferland in this intriguing affair which has attracted 2-year-olds with more of a Classic pedigree. A son of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Silasol (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), he meets Ecurie Jean-Louis Bouchard's Burn To Shine (GB) (Hello Youmzain {Fr}), a Pascal Bary-trained €180,000 Arqana Deauville August purchase whose half-siblings include the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero National Defense (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}).

RAJEKO (IRE) (c, 2, Kameko--Rajar {GB} {SP-Eng, SP-Fr, SP-UAE, $114,481}, by Archipenko), sent off at 10-1, played catch-up early in mid-division. Working hard all the way, the newcomer subdued Cayman Tai (Ire) (Earthlight {Ire}) inside the final half a furlong en route to a neck success. In doing so, he was providing Tweenhills' first-crop sire (by Kitten's Joy) with his third winner. Rajeko is the third of three current foals out of the dam, a half to two other black-type performers who was listed-placed three times including in the UAE 1000 Guineas. FLEUR DE CHINE (GB) (f, 3, Study Of Man {Ire}--Chinoiseries {GB}, by Archipenko) shed maiden status at the fourth attempt, over seven furlongs at Limerick last month, and broke swiftly to race in a prominent second from the outset of this inaugural edition of the Gowran Classic, which furnishes the winner free entry to the June 30 G1 Irish Derby. Hugging the rail throughout, the 9-1 chance inched ahead approaching the quarter-mile pole and stayed on strongly to prevail by 2 3/4 lengths from Galileo Dame (Ire) (Galileo Gold {GB}) in ultimately comfortable fashion.

"She's stayed every yard of that and will probably step up to a mile-and-a-half," said Jessica Harrington. "I'm not sure what happened at the Curragh [on seasonal debut in March] and Shane [Foley] thought she'd gone wrong. She was very good in Limerick and then we thought she could come here if there was some ease in the ground."

"She's not very big, but has a great attitude and Shane gave her a great ride. It's a nice pot to win and wherever she goes now it will be about black type. Kirsten [Rausing] doesn't think we should go the Irish Derby route, but I'd still put her in it and see what happens. If we have a free entry we might as well."

Fleur De Chine, kin to a yearling filly by Kingman (GB), is the third of five foals and one of two scorers out of a winning full-sister to G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares heroine Madame Chiang (GB) (Archipenko), the other being G3 Prix de Psyche third Empress Wu (GB) (Sea The Moon {Ger}). BELMONT DRAWS 10; BROWN'S SIERRA LEONE MORNING-LINE FAVORITE

Sierra Leone | Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin

The GI Kentucky Derby winner is here. So is the champ of the GI Preakness S.

Neither of them--Mystik Dan (Goldencents) or Seize the Grey (Arrogate)--were installed as the morning-line favorite for the 156th running of the $2 million GI Belmont S. which will be run at Saratoga Race Course on Saturday. Post time is scheduled for 6:41 p.m.

That honor went to Sierra Leone (Gun Runner) at the draw, which was held Monday evening at Universal Preservation Hall in downtown Saratoga Springs.

Sierra Leone was made the 9-5 morning-line favorite by New York Racing Association linemaker David Aragona when the field of 10 was unveiled.

Sierra Leone will start from post position nine.

"It's fine," trainer Chad Brown said. "He has drawn outside versus being a little further inside (two post) than I wanted in the Kentucky Derby. I like that for a horse that's favored. Flavien (jockey Prat, who is riding Sierra Leone for the first time) should be able to survey the inside into that first turn and, hopefully, pick his spot. It will come down to whether he has a clean trip and runs his 'A' race on Saturday." Cont. Pg. 3

AFTER A DRAMATIC DERBY, BECKMAN LOOKS TO BELMONT WITH HONOR MARIE

by Katie Petrunyak

Whit Beckman was watching from behind the Churchill Downs winner's circle as the horses loaded into the gates for the GI Kentucky Derby. Honor Marie (Honor Code) was the trainer's first Derby starter and as the colt's odds dropped to 14-1 before the start of the race, Beckman liked their chances.

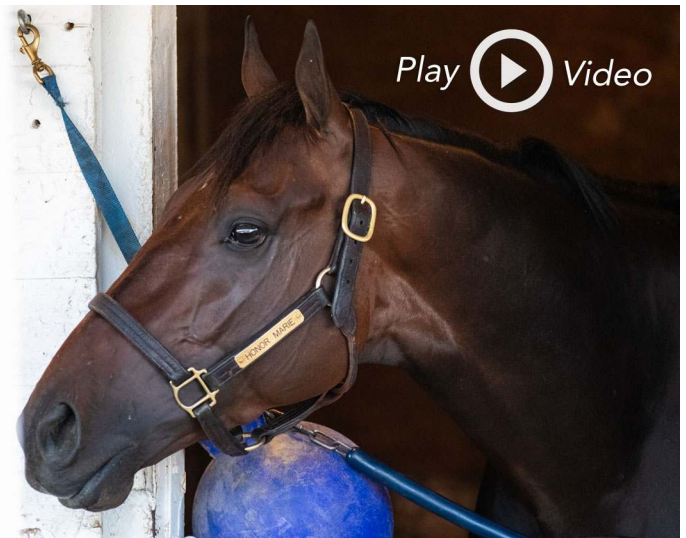

But as many a veteran Kentucky Derby trainer can attest, a lot can happen when it's a 20-horse field. Only a few moments after the gates sprang open and Honor Marie jumped out of the seventh stall, Beckman knew his horse had lost just about any chance of winning.

"From the four horse over to him and then from the 12, they all just kind of crashed right into him," Beckman recounted. "He couldn't really get out of it. From the first three strides, he was getting jostled around so bad. He never really wanted to be all the way out in the back but at that point, it was kind of where we just ended up by default." Cont. Pg. 5

Brown trains Sierra Leone for Peter M. Brant, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Westerberg and Brook T. Smith. This will be the fourth Belmont Brown has been a part of. Previously, his best finish came in 2018 when Gronkowski (Lonhro {AUS}) finished second.

Brown is from nearby Mechanicville, which is 16 miles away from Saratoga Springs.

NYRA moved the historic Belmont to the Spa City for the first time because Belmont Park is under construction. The Belmont is also scheduled to be run in Saratoga next year.

The historic implications and the fact the race will be held at his hometown track are not lost on Brown.

“It is very special; there is a lot of excitement in the city,” Brown said. “For me, personally, growing up in the area, I’m just thrilled to have one of the favorites. When I first started training, I never thought winning the Belmont at Saratoga would be in the realm of possibility, but here we are. It’s a very unique situation for the next couple years. Winning the first one ever in Saratoga would really be the highlight of my career.”

Because of the track configuration at Saratoga, the Belmont will be run at 1 1/4 miles, not the traditional 1 1/2 miles.

Sierra Leone earned favoritism after a valiant effort in the Kentucky Derby. He lost to Mystik Dan by a nose, leaving him with three wins and two seconds in five career starts.

His other loss, also by a nose, came in the Gil Renssen S. last year.

Sierra Leone was a $2.3 million purchase at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale.

“This horse has everything you are looking for,” Brown said. “He has a beautiful pedigree. You could literally breed thousands of horses and not get one that looks like this one. Going through the many horses in my 17-year career, he would be on a very small list of horses that check all the boxes.”

Brown also had Tuscan Gold (Medaglia d’Oro) pointed to the Belmont, but did not enter him.

Mystik Dan, trained by Kenny McPeek and owned by Lance Gasaway, 4G Racing, LLC, Daniel Hamby III and Valley View Farm, LLC, is the 5-1 third choice on the morning line and will start from post position three.

McPeek said the post was perfect; it’s the same hole Mystik Dan had when he won the Kentucky Derby.

“This is a good race,” McPeek said. “It will be interesting to see how it sets up. If you give Wayne’s (Lukas) horse (Seize the Grey) another easy lead he will be hard to catch. You have Chad’s horse sitting back there and Todd (Pletcher) is throwing three bullets at you. Good race.”

Brian Hernandez returns to ride Mystik Dan, who was second in the Preakness. He would be the first horse to run in all three legs of the Triple Crown since War of Will in 2019 (Max Player ran in all three in 2020, but those races were spaced out over four months due to COVID).

Hall of Fame trainer Lukas arrived in Saratoga with Seize the Grey on Saturday and the Preakness winner is 8-1 on the morning-line. He will start from the rail with jockey Jaime Torres for owner MyRacehorse.

Seize the Grey won the Preakness on a muddy track at Pimlico going gate-to-wire.

After deciding to pass on the Belmont with 'TDN Rising Star' Fierceness (City of Light), Hall of Famer Pletcher still will have three Belmont runners.

Mike Repole, who owns Fierceness, will still have two Belmont starters. The lightly-raced Mindframe (Constitution), winner of his first two starts by a combined 21 1/4 lengths, takes a big step up, starts in post position 10 and is the 7-2 second choice on the morning line. He is also owned by St. Elias Stables LLC and will be ridden by Irad Ortiz, Jr.

"It's a lot to ask," Pletcher said of making Mindframe's third start the Belmont. "But we wouldn't ask him if we didn't think he was talented enough."

Centennial Farms' GIII Peter Pan winner Antiquarian

(Preservationist) is 12-1 on the morning line and starts from post position five with Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez.

Pletcher is also running maiden Protective (Medaglia d'Oro), who finished third in the GII Wood Memorial and Peter Pan. He will be ridden by Tyler Gaffalione from post position seven and is 20-1 on the morning line.

Resilience (Into Mischief), trained by Hall of Famer Bill Mott and owned by Emily Bushnell and Ric Waldman, drew post position two and has 10-1 odds. The Wood Memorial winner and sixth place finisher in the Kentucky Derby will be ridden by Junior Alvarado.

Trainer Whit Beckman will have his first Belmont starter in Honor Marie (Honor Code). The eighth-place finisher in the Kentucky Derby gets a new rider in Florent Geroux, who replaces the injured Ben Curtis. Owned by Ribble Farms, LLC, Michael H. Eiserman, Earl I. Silver, Kenneth Fishbein and Dave Fishbein, Honor Marie is 12-1 on the morning line and has the eight post.

Dornoch (Good Magic) is 15-1 on the morning line and starts in post position six for trainer Danny Gargan and owners West Paces Racing LLC, R.A. Hill Stable, Belmar Racing and Breeding, LLC, Two Eight Racing, LLC and Pine Racing Stables. He is coming off a 10th place finish in the Kentucky Derby and will be ridden by Luis Saez.

Trainer Mike Maker returns to the Belmont for the first time since 2014 with The Wine Steward (Vino Rosso). He was second as the favorite in the Peter Pan in his last start for owners Paradise Farms Corp. and David Staudacher.

Manny Franco will ride the Wine Steward, who gets post four and is 15-1 on the morning line.

Featured earlier in the card in the GI Hill 'n' Dale Metropolitan H. is the return of both last year's GI Longines Breeders' Cup Classic winner White Abarrio (Race Day) and this year's GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational winner National Treasure (Quality Road). Both horses enter off a trip back from the G1 Saudi Cup where National Treasure was fourth while White Abarrio was 10th.

White Abarrio | Jockey Club of Saudi Arabia

“He looks tremendous, to tell you the truth,” said trainer Rick Dutrow, Jr. of White Abarrio. “He really does. It’s so fun to watch him train and race. He just looks great. I think he might have gotten a little bit bigger since he first came to us. I don’t know how much he’s developed since he was pretty well-developed by the time he got to us, but just little things here and there that have made him better.”

National Treasure, who shipped in from California for trainer Bob Baffert, arrived at Saratoga Sunday after one final work at Santa Anita June 1.

“We got him back from Saudi and freshened him up a little bit,” said Baffert. “He’s been doing really well. This race was on the radar a little bit but after his [May 25] work I liked what I saw. He was back to himself. He worked really well again [June 1]. I liked the way he went and he’s up for it. It’s going to be a tough race, but he’s a good horse when he shows up. I like what I’m seeing.”

Completing the field for the Met Mile is Blazing Sevens (Good Magic) for trainer Chad Brown, Hoist the Gold (Mineshaft), Post Time (Frosted) and Castle Chaos (Palace Malice).

The trip didn't get much better from there. Going into the first turn T O Password (Jpn) (Copano Rickey {Jpn}) swung out in front of Honor Marie, forcing jockey Ben Curtis to check and lose any hope of gaining a better position early.

“Even a couple times down the backside, Ben had to steady him,” said Beckman. “Just at no point in the race did he ever get 100 clear yards to run. Down the lane there were a couple of horses tiring in front of him, so he was weaving around them.”

As Honor Marie crossed the wire in eighth, it was a moment where all Beckman could do was throw up his hands, celebrate what they had achieved to get into the race and appreciate the heart their colt had shown in the face of adversity.

“Honestly the moments after the race were probably the best moments I had all week,” Beckman admitted. “We were really proud of him. He’s a horse that always puts in maximum effort. Despite not really getting any room to run, I was really happy with it. Just being in that spot was incredible. We walked back to the barn and had a really nice evening. I was grateful for the experience.”

Honor Marie didn’t officially turn three years old until Derby Day and in the weeks following the first leg of the Triple Crown, Beckman said the colt has matured by leaps and bounds physically as he prepares for the GI Belmont S.

Beckman explained that he would have been confident sending Honor Marie to the Belmont at a mile-and-a-half distance, but at a mile and a quarter, he believes it’s the perfect spot for his trainee to put in a big performance.

“At this mile and a quarter, I think he’s among the top 3-year-olds,” Beckman said. “I believe he’s got a great shot to turn it around. If he gets a clean trip, he’ll show up on the day. He’s been training so well since the Derby and we’re really excited to take him up.”

Honor Marie’s ownership group includes Ribble Farms, Michael Eiserman, Earl Silver and Kenneth and Dave Fishbein. Kerry and Alan Ribble (profiled here) were partners in Legion Racing when Honor Marie broke his maiden on debut last September and they eventually purchased a majority share in his ownership.

“The Ribbles are great people--just real salt-of-the-earth, loyal people,” explained Beckman. “Having this experience with them has been great. They appreciate everything that’s been going on and this is their first big horse.”

Honor Marie has put in three works since his Derby performance. In his final tune-up on Saturday with jockey Florent Geroux aboard, he worked four furlongs in :48.40 at Churchill Downs. Geroux will replace jockey Ben Curtis, who was sidelined by a broken collarbone in May, for Saturday’s Belmont.

Honor Marie arrived at Saratoga on Monday morning. The Belmont will be Beckman’s first time starting a horse in New York, but the horseman has spent plenty of time in Saratoga from his days working as an assistant to Todd Pletcher.

“I spent the bulk of my time in Saratoga with the babies,” Beckman recalled. “We would bring all the 2-year-olds up early in the spring and you would get so much experience with different levels and types of horses. Just being up there, everything is geared towards the racetrack. The community is totally integrated with the horses. With all the years I spent up there, it kind of feels like I’m going home in a sense because so many of my early days on the racetrack were spent in Saratoga. I’m excited to head back up.”

Beckman also worked for trainers Eoin Harty and Chad Brown and was a head trainer in Saudi Arabia before going out on his own in 2021.

While the stable gained steady moment, Beckman’s operation was still in its early stages of development prior to this year. Beckman enjoyed early success with the likes of 2022 GII Jessamine S. third-place finisher Sabalenka (Good Samaritan), Grade III-placed Music Street (Street Sense) and 2023 Tapit S. winner Harlan Estate (Kantharos). But Honor Marie’s win in last year’s GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. and his subsequent performances on the Kentucky Derby trail, including a runner-up effort in the GII Louisiana Derby, helped Beckman burst onto the scene of rising trainers in Kentucky.

“He’s been a huge horse for me,” Beckman said. “We just started less than three years ago and [at first] we kind of struggled. At the end of the day, one horse can make the difference between one level to the next. We feel like he’s always been that type horse. I think he’s waiting on his day to really put himself in the big spots, but I know it’s coming. He’s so talented and one of the things you can’t really train is a trier. He’ll put everything on the line and that’s all I can ask for. I’m lucky to have him.”

LA STATE RACING COMMISSION TO HOLD EMERGENCY MEETING JUNE 4

Just days after announcing plans to loosen drug restrictions, the Louisiana State Racing Commission will hold an emergency meeting Tuesday, June 4 to discuss "Corrupt and Prohibited Practices". In a notice sent late Monday, the LSRC noted the following items as topics of discussion:

- Discussion of Clenbuterol
- Discussion of Depo-Medrol
- Safeguards will be in the place during transition time for going back to increased withdrawal periods.

The state of Louisiana, which does not fall under HISA's control, passed a set of emergency rules set to go into effect June 8 that would allow shortened withdrawal times for several medications. The announcement of the changes on May 29 was met with concern amongst trainers who race in the state.

Tuesday's emergency meeting will begin at 4 p.m. and is open to the public via Zoom or phone.

FINGER LAKES JOCK NAVARRO PENALIZED FOR ALLEGED BETTING VIOLATIONS IN 2023

by T.D. Thornton

Finger Lakes-based jockey Christian J. Navarro has been suspended 30 days and fined $1,000 for alleged violations of a New York State Gaming Commission (NYSGC) rule that prohibits jockeys from betting on races unless they wager "through the owner of and on the horse that such jockey rides."

Beyond stating that Navarro's alleged offenses occurred Nov. 22, 2023, (the closing date of last year's Finger Lakes season) details were scant on the NYSGC's online rulings portal.

TDN sent a Monday afternoon email to Brad Maione, the NYSGC's communications director, asking for some context about the case and wanting to know if there were any public-document reports from the Finger Lakes stewards or the commission about what took place more than six months ago that led to the May 31, 2024, ruling. That query did not yield a reply by 5:45 p.m. Eastern.

TDN's ongoing efforts to reach Navarro for his side of the story, to find out if he has legal representation, or if he plans to appeal the ruling were unsuccessful prior to deadline for this article.

Navarro rode five mounts on that Nov. 22 card at Finger Lakes. In race order, he finished second with a 6-1 shot, rallying behind the 3-5 favorite; second with a 6-5 favorite while beaten half a length by a 10-1 shot (chart comment for Navarro's mount: "finished well"); seventh on a 34-1 shot; seventh with a 15-1 shot, then fourth with a 7-2 mount while checking at the quarter pole behind a 9-5 winner.

If the Finger Lakes stewards saw anything amiss in Navarro's riding or had reason to suspect he had committed a betting offense, they didn't write about it in their daily reports that are posted on the Finger Lakes website under the "Stewards Corner 2023" heading.

In fact, the stewards wrote "Nothing to report" for the entire five-day period covering Nov. 20-25, 2023.

Navarro hasn't ridden at the 2024 Finger Lakes meet. His only mount since that final day of the last season came at Aqueduct on May 24, 2024, when he finished sixth aboard a 25-1 first-timer in a New York-bred maiden race.

Navarro has been licensed since 2015, first competing at Camarero in Puerto Rico before continuing his apprenticeship at Aqueduct. After going winless in his first month in New York, he switched his tack to Charles Town. Over the past decade he has since been licensed in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and New Jersey in addition to periodically going back to Camarero to ride.

Navarro's career win-place-show stats on Equibase are 209-219-200 from 1,733 starts with $2,702,946 in earnings.

The NYSGC rule that was cited in the ruling against Navarro is titled "4040.1(a) Prohibitions: betting, interest in horses."

That subsection reads: "No jockey shall bet on any race except through the owner of and on the horse that such jockey rides, and any jockey who shall have any interest in any race or horse or to have been engaged in any betting transaction except as permitted by this section, or to have received presents from persons other than the owner, may be punished as provided by sections 4022.12 through 4022.15 of this Article."

Navarro's suspension has been imposed for June 17-July 16.

BET365 TO GO LIVE WITH FIXED-ODDS WAGERING IN NEW JERSEY, COLORADO

BetMakers has signed two-year market access and content agreements with the betting platform bet365 relating to fixed-odds wagering in New Jersey and Colorado, the Melbourne, Australia-based company said in a release.

Bet365 will be licensed by BetMakers to offer fixed-odds bets on Thoroughbred racing to bet365 customers in the state of

New Jersey and will also be licensed to distribute BetMakers' Thoroughbred racing content to bet365 customers in New Jersey and both Thoroughbred and Standardbred racing in Colorado. Bet365 will also be licensed to distribute BetMakers' Thoroughbred racing content to bet365 customers in New Jersey and both Thoroughbred and harness racing in Colorado. Bet365 will pay BetMakers a 'Market Access Fee' based on a percentage of all fixed odds bets placed in New Jersey on all Thoroughbred racing events it offers to its customers and a 'Content Fee' based on a percentage of all fixed odds bets placed in New Jersey and Colorado on applicable BetMakers Global Racing Network content.

Monmouth Park | Sarah Andrew

The structure of the market access agreement allows bet365 to seek BetMakers' approval to offer fixed-odds wagering on third party global Thoroughbred racing content to its New Jersey customers from the many rights holders globally. Bet365 will be required to pay BetMakers the Market Access Fee in respect of online fixed-odds wagering in New Jersey on all Thoroughbred racing content, regardless of whether that content is provided by BetMakers or a third party.

"We are very excited to be launching fixed-odds betting on Thoroughbreds in partnership with a leading sportsbook in the US," said BetMakers' CEO Jake Henson. "This is a significant milestone for BetMakers and aligns with our strategy for fixed-odds betting on thoroughbreds in the US. "The sports betting market in the US is starting to mature and the interest from operators in horse racing as a product is expected to become even stronger. The high frequency of horse racing can deliver high engagement and high margin returns to operators. We believe the opportunity for both BetMakers and the racing industry more broadly to be significant in the long term."

RICK GOLD TO RECEIVE TOC CHAIRMAN'S AWARD

Rick Gold is the recipient of the Ed Friendly Industry Service Award, also known as the TOC Chairman's Award, the Thoroughbred Owners of California announced Monday morning.

Following eight years of service to the TOC and other industry boards, Gold is retiring this year. He served as the chairman of the TOC's Integrity & Safety Committee and he played a key role in helping to safeguard California and industry interests during the formation of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA), according to a release.

Gold has campaigned the likes of GI F. E. Kilroe Mile winner Hit the Road and also has overseas interests, including Athabaskan (Fr), recent runner-up in the G1 Sydney Cup and a leading chance for the G1 Melbourne Cup in November.

"When I reflect on the distinguished individuals who have received this award in the past, I believe Rick belongs among their ranks," said TOC Chairman Gary Fenton. "His unwavering dedication, leadership, and compassion exemplify the spirit of the Chairman's Award and embody the best of California racing."

The award is presented annually to recognize outstanding contributions and service to the Thoroughbred racing industry. Former recipients include some of the most prominent names in California racing, including Mace Siegel, John Harris, Bob and Beverly Lewis, Jerry and Ann Moss, and, most recently, Mike Pegram.

Gold will be recognized at the TOC's Southern California Annual Meeting at Del Mar Aug. 10.

RETOOLED THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER AMBASSADOR AWARD OPEN FOR NOMINATIONS

Sarah Andrew

Nominations for the reimagined Thoroughbred Makeover Ambassador Award for 2024 are now open, the Retired Racehorse Project (RRP) said Monday.

Any Thoroughbred Makeover graduate, regardless of whether the registered horse actually competed, is eligible for the award, regardless of its current owner. Nominations will be submitted via an online form at TheRRP.org, which includes fields to describe the horse's post-Makeover competitive career, achievements and general updates.

“The RRP has identified tracking and recognizing the accomplishments of Thoroughbred sport horses in a comprehensive way as being crucial to furthering our mission to increase demand for the breed, so we’re starting in earnest with Makeover graduates,” said RRP Executive Director Kirsten Green. “We know Makeover graduates have gone on to compete at the upper levels of sport, contribute to sport horse breeding programs, serve as faithful trail mounts, and everything in between – and it’s time to better capture and celebrate those accomplishments.

The Ambassador Award has been tweaked many times since 2015, but since 2022, it has served as an award to honor chief steward Bill Kraatz, recognizing exceptional horsemanship exhibited by a trainer during Thoroughbred Makeover week. The award will continue as the Bill Kraatz Thoroughbred Makeover Ambassador Award, and is now designed to recognize a Thoroughbred Makeover graduate horse which has gone on to serve as an ambassador for the athleticism and trainability of the retired racehorse in its career beyond racing.

Nominations will remain open through July 1. The winning horse will be announced in September and will be honored at the Awards Party Friday, Oct. 11 at the Kentucky Horse Park.

HRRN TO CELEBRATE 'A.P. INDY WEEK' IN BELMONT LEAD UP

Horse Racing Radio Network (HRRN) will celebrate 'A.P. Indy Week' in the lead up to Saturday's GI Belmont S. Announced via release Monday, HRRN noted that 'A.P. Indy Week' will run Monday, June 3 through Saturday, June 8 and feature tributes to the 1992 Belmont winner and late Lanes End stallion. Listeners will also hear replays of some of his biggest wins and interviews with some of his connections looking back on his racing career. A Keeneland September Sale topper at $2.9m, A.P. Indy (Seattle Slew) was consigned by Lanes End who would ultimately buy back into the colt as a 3-year-old. Following his victory in the 1992 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, A.P. Indy was named Horse of the Year and Champion 3-Year-Old Colt and retired to Lanes End where he lived until his death in early 2020. HRRN can be heard on Sirius 162/XM 207 and on their website.

FINGER LAKES HALL OF FAME TO INDUCT WANDA POLISSENI

Wanda Polisseni, owner of My Purple Haze Stables, will become the 30th member inducted into the Finger Lakes Hall of Fame the track announced Monday. The ceremony, which will take place as part of the Finger Lakes HBPA annual dinner meeting, will take place Thursday, June 6. In her focus on aftercare, Polisseni is a founding supporting of the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program while also ensuring homes for more than 700 horses through the Purple Haze Center, the nation's first Thoroughbred aftercare program housed at a track.

“Wanda Polisseni has been a wonderful mentor to me and the Finger Lakes Thoroughbred Adoption Program,” said FLTAP President Kim DeLong. “Without her mentorship in fundraising ideas and events, this program would not be as successful as it is. Her caring for the horses, both Thoroughbred and Standardbred, in regard to aftercare is the true heart of this woman.”

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

7th-Thistledown, $38,000, Alw, 6-3, (NW1X), 3yo/up, f/m, 5 1/2f, 1:05.00, ft, 5 lengths.

CITY SCENE (f, 3, Dominus--Nava, by Even the Score), who romped to a 16-length victory in the Jim Morgan Memorial Tah Dah S. at Belterra Park last July, opened 2024 with back-to-back allowance tallies against state-bred foes at this track and distance Apr. 24 and May 14. The prohibitive 1-9 favorite, on the lead in the early strides, was taken in hand and was racing keenly while pressing the pace through an opening quarter in :23.44. She pulled her way to the lead into the far turn and was clear as the half went up in :47.04 and she extended her advantage down the lane to win by five lengths. City Scene is a full-sister to Candlelight Hours, MSW, $562,710; and a half to Timeless Bounty (Elusive Hour), SW, $269,164. She has an unraced 2-year-old full-sister and her dam produced a filly by Tom's d'Etat last year before being bred back to Vekoma. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. Lifetime Record: SW, 8-5-3-0, $183,580. O/B-Elkhorn Oaks Inc. (OH); T-James R. Jackson.
