GOLDEN TEMPO DRAWS POST NINE FOR TRAVERS, IS INSTALLED AS 5-2 MORNING LINE FAVORITE

Golden Tempo and Jose Ortiz | Sarah Andrew

by Bill Finley

Shooting to win his third straight Grade I race and cement his status as the top 3-year-old male in training, 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Golden Tempo (Curlin) will face nine rivals in Saturday's GI Travers Stakes at Saratoga. At Sunday's draw, the winner of the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont Stakes was assigned the nine post and was made the 5-2 morning line favorite. "My horse has no speed, so I don't worry about the post position," Golden Tempo's rider Jose Ortiz said. "We have a good post. My horse is doing great, and that's the main thing. I have been very happy with him. His last work was an easy maintenance half-mile and he did it the right way. I have confidence in him. He is a very nice horse. The horse changed a lot when we put the blinkers on him. He has proven that he is getting better and better."

Renegade (Into Mischief), who was second in the Derby, third in the Belmont and then won the GII Jim Dandy Stakes, drew post five and was made the second choice at 3-1. As expected, Tyler Gaffalione was named to ride him. He will replace Irad Ortiz Jr., who is still sidelined with a foot injury and will miss the remainder of the Saratoga meet. Cont. p3

SARATOGA NOTEBOOK, PRESENTED BY NYRA BETS: KNIGHTSBRIDGE MADE FOR SOME GREAT LATE NIGHT TV FOR MOTT CREW By Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott got comfy in his favorite chair in his living room Saturday night in the Spa City. Set the timer on his phone and shut his eyes.

His assistant, Neil Poznansky, had gone to sleep by 8 but made sure his clock would wake him around 9:30 p.m.

6 | WEEK IN REVIEW: CLASH OF GODOLPHIN TITANS IN BREEDERS' CUP
In the latest Week In Review, Bill Finley considers the possible match up of two of racing's biggest stars--stablemates Sovereignty (Into Mischief) and Knightsbridge (Nyquist)--in the Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland this fall.

8 | TAM TAM TO POINT TO QEII CUP
Saturday's GI Del Mar Oaks heroine Tam Tam (Medaglia d'Oro) will be pointed to Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup on Oct. 10.

9 | PROLETARIAT TAKES DEL MAR DERBY
Proletariat (Raging Bull {Fr}) went to the front and stayed there en route to a first graded score in Sunday's GII Del Mar Derby.

The two horses likely to vie for the early lead drew next to one another. 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Leading Change (Gun Runner), who prompted the pace in his win in the GIII Indiana Derby, will break from post two with Manny Franco aboard. The Indiana Derby was just the second career start for the Brad Cox-trained colt. GI Preakness Stakes winner Napoleon Solo (Liam's Map) drew post three. He was second early in the Preakness before winning by 1 1/4 lengths and led in the GI Haskell Stakes before finishing second. Paco Lopez, who rode Napoleon Solo in his Preakness win and was again the pilot in the GI Haskell Stakes, has been replaced by John Velazquez. Lopez will be aboard Haskell winner Baby Vino (Vino Rosso).

Trainer Chad Brown, who will be seeking his first winner in the Travers will send out two horses, GII Louisiana Derby winner 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Emerging Market (Candy Ride ({Arg}), who will be ridden by Ricardo Santana Jr. He may have a better chance with the improving 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Sea Strike (Midshipman). The colt is coming off an 8 1/4-length win in the Curlin Stakes. Flavien Part will ride and Sea Strike was made the third choice in the line at 5-1.

The morning after, Mott and his crew, back to work at the Oklahoma Training Track, were still marveling over the performance put in by Knightsbridge. The Mott barn is already home to one of the best horses in training in 2025 Horse of the Year Sovereignty (Into Mischief).

Sovereignty won the GI Whitney Stakes earlier this month, earning a “Win and You’re In” for the $7-million GI Breeders’ Cup Classic on Oct. 31. Knightsbridge got the same deal by winning the Pacific Classic.

"We want to do what is good for the racing world, but we want to do what is good for us, Godolphin, too," Mott said outside his office on the Oklahoma Sunday morning.

Sovereignty has a date on opening day at the new Belmont Park where he will face Forever Young (Jpn) {Real Steel {Jpn}) in the $1-million GI Jockey Club Gold Cup on Sept. 18.

Knightsbridge | Benoit

Mott wants to see what happens there before he starts thinking about the Breeders' Cup.

"We want to see what the options are," Mott said. "We will see how the Gold Cup turns out and then the team will make a decision. Look, we want to go to the Breeders' Cup with both, so their options are they both run in the Classic or one goes in the Classic and one goes in the [Dirt] Mile."

Alvarado rides both horses, so a decision would have to be made if both horses end up in the Classic.

Knightsbridge improved his record to four wins in six starts this year. Before the Pacific Classic, he won the 1 1/8-mile GIII Monmouth Cup on July 18 by 10 1/4 lengths in his first try around two turns.

In the Pacific Classic, Knightsbridge pressed with Full Serrano (Full Mast) and set some demanding fractions. The quarter went in :22.68 and the half in :45.45.

"I thought it could be too fast," Mott said. "Tina [his wife] and I were watching and, I said 'this isn't good, going 1 1/4 miles.' It was fast."

Knightsbridge didn't blink and now he is one of the top horses in the country. He just has to share that billing with a stablemate.

"It's a good problem to have, said Mott, who added that Knightsbridge is scheduled to be back at his Oklahoma barn on Wednesday. "Without a doubt, we are very lucky."

Brown Has Another Alabama Slammer

Even though it was gloomy and overcast on Sunday morning, it was all sunshine and rainbows at the barn of Chad Brown, the leading trainer at the Spa this summer.

He was welcoming well-wishers in his office at the Oklahoma Training Track the day after My Gun's Loaded (Gun Runner) won the GI Alabama Stakes at Saratoga. Making her third start for Brown (fourth overall)--and her first appearance in a stakes race--My Gun's Loaded defeated a pair from trainer Mark Casse in Measure (Essential Quality), who was second by a neck at odds of 10-1.

Casse's other runner, the 1-4 favorite Counting Stars (Honor A.P.) finished third.

"My team did an unbelievable job with this horse," Brown said, standing outside of My Gun's Loaded's stall. "So many people contributed in developing her. She is just a top filly."

Brown said My Gun's Loaded was tired the day after, which was to be expected. She had just run 1 1/4 miles for the first time after breaking her maiden on June 6 (at seven furlongs) and then wining a mile allowance on July 24.

"She is lightly raced, I like that fact," he said. "She has not been overly campaigned, but they are racehorses. We have to keep them healthy; anything can happen. Week to week, month to month. My job is to look after her and keep her healthy."

My Gun's Loaded is owned by Douglas Scharbauer and her next start could be in either the $250,000 GII Beldame Stakes at Belmont Park on Sept. 25 or the $650,000 GI Spinster Stakes at Keeneland on Oct. 4. Both would be races against older fillies.

Casse Not Disappointed in Counting Stars

Reynaldo Dumont and Counting Stars | Sarah Andrew

Losing a Grade I race with a 1-4 favorite can certainly sting, but Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse wasn't kicking garbage cans on the Saratoga backstretch Sunday morning.

West Point Thoroughbreds' Counting Stars, the beaten 1-4 favorite in Saturday's GI Alabama Stakes, came out of the race in good shape, but she was dog tired.

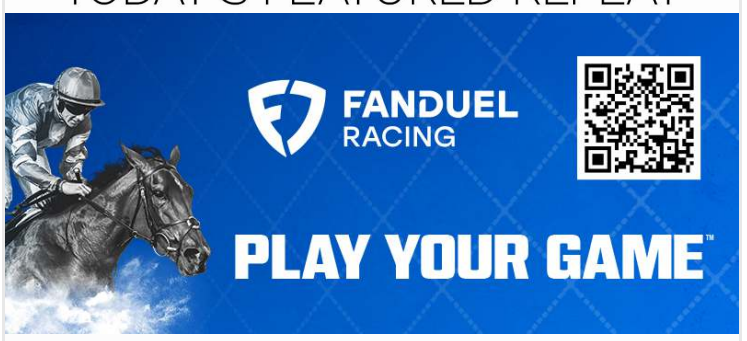

"She's zonked, she is out," Casse said, reporting that Counting Stars was sound asleep in her stall. "She is tired. I'm proud of her. She has fought a lot of fights, and she ran hard."

Counting Stars was making her fourth straight start in a Grade I race and she had won the last two, the Acorn Stakes and Coaching Club American Oaks, both at Saratoga. In the race before that, she was third in the GI Kentucky Oaks.

Gary Barber, Bridlewood Farm's and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Measure, Casse's other Alabama filly, finished second in the Alabama, a neck behind the winner, My Gun's Loaded.

"As a trainer, you want a fair shot and we got that," Casse said. "You want your horses to perform and we got that. And the number one thing, by far, is that they are all healthy."

Despite the loss, Casse still thinks that Counting Stars holds the lead in the 3-year-old filly division. Two Grade I wins, and two Grade I placings leave no doubt in his mind.

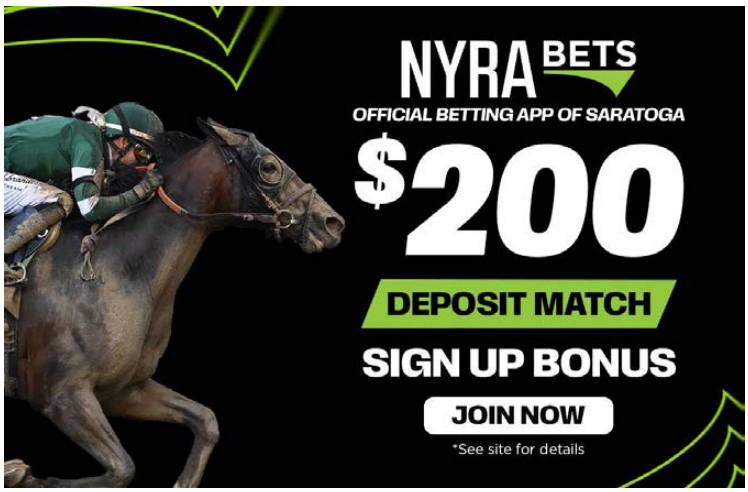

"She has danced every dance; it's not even close right now," he said. "Now, if the other filly (My Gun's Loaded) goes and wins the Breeders' Cup (Distaff), then you have a problem. Any 3-year-old filly that wins the Breeders' Cup is going to be champion."

Casse said the next step for Counting Stars could be the Spinster Stakes at Keeneland on Oct. 4 and a possible rematch with My Gun's Loaded should Brown pick that spot.

As for Measure, her next start could be at Parx Racing in either the $1-million GI Cotillion against 3-year-old fillies or the $1-million GI Pennsylvania Derby against the boys.

A BREEDERS' CUP CLASH OF THE GODOLPHIN TITANS IN THE CLASSIC WOULD BE THE RACE OF THE DECADE

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

GI Pacific Classic winner Knightsbridge (Nyquist) vs GI Whitney winner and 2025 Horse of the Year Sovereignty (Into Mischief). Oct. 31 at Keeneland. Horse of the Year and $7 million on the line in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Is it okay to dream?

For the dream race to become a dream race, at least one box is left to be checked. Sovereignty will need to win the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup on Sept. 18 at Belmont, not exactly an easy task considering the opposition is expected to include the Japanese superstar Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel ({Jpn}). But what if Sovereignty does win? What then? The Godolphin team will have a difficult decision to make.

Knightsbridge | Benoit

Every racing fan on the planet will be rooting for Godolphin to run both horses in the Classic. It would be the type of theater that would present horse racing at its best, two great horses going after one another in an electric showdown. When it is over, we would know who is truly the best older horse in the sport and who deserves to be crowned Horse of the Year. We don't get nearly enough of this.

It would be the sporting thing to do. And there's little doubt that Sheikh Mohammed badly wants to win the Classic, a race his Godolphin stable has never won. Running both horses obviously gives him his best shot. But it's not nearly that easy.

Would it be the prudent thing to do? Again, this involves difficult decisions.

No one wants to see their star horses lose, especially the ones that perform at the highest level. Either Knightsbridge or Sovereignty has to suffer defeat. Maybe both would lose.

Not only is the Classic field expected to include Forever Young, but the 3-year-old stars like GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont winner Golden Tempo (Curlin) and Renegade (Into Mischief) will be entering in the picture. And is it really a good idea to give up on Magnitude (Not This Time) after one off race?

One option is that Godolphin and trainer Bill Mott will choose to run Sovereignty in the Classic and Knightsbridge in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Knightsbridge is 3-for-5 at a mile, which includes a huge performance when winning the GIII Gulfstream Park Mile by 11 1/4 lengths. He'd be a huge favorite in that race and would appear to be all but unbeatable on paper.

Yet, it's only a $1-million race and it doesn't have nearly the cachet that the Classic has. It wouldn't add to his stud value the way a win in the Classic would. It's also fair to question whether or not a mile is actually his best distance. His career didn't truly take off until Mott gave him his first chance in a two-turn event. He ran what might have been the best race turned in by any horse this year when he won the mile-and-an-eighth GIII Monmouth Cup by 10 1/4 lengths, earning that whopping 122 Beyer. He backed that up by romping in the mile-and-a-quarter Pacific Classic by 6 1/4 lengths.

Here's still something else to consider: Which one is better?

Sovereignty is the more proven commodity, but he is just 1-for-3 this year after losing the GII Oaklawn Handicap and the GI Stephen Foster Stakes. Knightsbridge, the way he has run in his last two races, may be the more brilliant horse. Normally, a good way to compare horses it to look at their Beyer figures, but the numbers aren't easy to interpret. Many predicted that Knightsbridge would bounce off that huge effort at Monmouth--and he did. He ran a surprisingly low 104 in the Pacific Classic for a regression of 18 points. That's probably not going to get it done against Sovereignty, who ran a 112 in the Whitney and a 115 in the Travers.

It's a fascinating situation. Whatever Godolphin and Mott choose to do, the sport can't lose, and that's because these are two very special horses who, hopefully, will light things up on Breeders' Cup Day.

The Sad Situation at Monmouth Park

It's hard not to love Monmouth Park. It is a beautiful and historic track that sits just off the ocean and has an atmosphere that few tracks other than Del Mar can match. But times have never been worse for racing on the Jersey Shore.

While Monmouth does receive a $10-million purse supplement from the state of New Jersey, it's not enough when the competition up and down the Mid-Atlantic region is at tracks whose purses are fueled by casino money and there are not enough horses to go around due to the declining foal crop.

Monmouth has just 800 horses on its backstretch, down from 950 last year. Things are so thin that a normal card consists of just eight races and on each of the last four Fridays, Monmouth ran only six races. On the Aug. 21 card, only 26 horses started. There were two races with three-horse fields and another with just four. The total handle for the day didn't even top $1 million. It was $809,094.

Now, the one day that Monmouth has always been able to shine, the day of the GI Haskell Stakes, is in serious jeopardy. The Thoroughbred Championship Series, a collaboration between NYRA and Churchill Downs that will include six races for 3-year-old males does not include the Haskell, and that is a serious problem.

The top four leaders in last year's jockey standings--Paco Lopez, Samuel Marin, Samy Camacho, Sonny Leon--have all left town for Colonial Downs, where the racing product has never been better because of its outstanding purses that are fueled by Historical Horse Racing machines.

Don't blame the people who work there. Everyone on the team loves racing, which you don't find at many tracks, and if it weren't for the Herculean efforts of Monmouth's head honcho Dennis Drazin the track would have closed years ago.

The hope is that Monmouth will get a casino, which would change its fortunes dramatically. But that is not going to be easy. The New Jersey racing industry has had zero luck over the many years trying to get casinos because a powerful Atlantic City casino lobby is always standing in its way. Racing-friendly politicians are trying to change that and a bill is expected to be introduced next year that could mean casinos for both Monmouth and the Meadowlands.

But before it goes anywhere, the bill must pass by a three-fifths "supermajority" in the legislature. And even if that happens, all it will do is put the casino question on the ballot and let New Jersey voters decide. In 2016, there was a vote on expanding casinos outside of Atlantic City (it did not specify the racetracks) and went down to a huge defeat, losing by a 77-23 margin. Monmouth won't be going anywhere until the casino question is decided, but if it does not get gaming it's hard to see any scenario where it can survive. That would be tragic.

TAM TAM TO POINT TO QEII, SORRENTO SKY LIKELY NOMINATED TO BREEDERS' CUP

Tam Tam | Benoit

On the GI Pacific Classic undercard, several horses left their marks, including Tam Tam (Medaglia d'Oro), a 3-year old filly who added a Grade I to her resume with a gutsy win in the Del Mar Oaks.

"We felt like we had some fillies the last few years with Grade I talent and we just couldn't get it done," trainer Phil Bauer said. "Glad we could get the tag next her name."

She grabbed the lead midstretch and held on to beat 40-1 longshot Lookin At Diamond (Lookin At Lucky) by 1 1/4 lengths. Race favorite and pacesetter Kensington Lane (Ire) (Starspanglebanner {Aus}) faded to third followed by the other European invader Green Carrera (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}).

Bauer indicated Tam Tam will ship back to Kentucky on Tuesday and most likely point to the GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Keeneland Oct. 10.

Saturday's GII Green Flash winner Sorrento Sky (Ire) (Prince of Lir {Ire}), who got up late to the Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' test for the Turf Sprint at Keeneland this fall, will have to be nominated to the World Championships if his connections decide to run.

"He's not Breeders' Cup nominated," D'Amato confirmed. "But we're going to look at making him eligible. We'll come up with a game plan in the next week or so."

D'Amato is also weighing option for Motorious (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}), fourth as the favorite in the Green Flash. The 8-year-old gelding won the Green Flash on three prior occasions (2023-35) for D'Amato.

"He just took the worst at the gate," D'Amato explained. "He was the first to load in the gate then the horse broke through and he sat in there forever. He was the last horse they took out and he got anxious a little bit. Then he was the first to go back in on the reload. I think he just kind of unraveled a little bit in that situation and that cost him a little bit of the energy he needed."

According to D'Amato, the gelding may make another run at the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. Fifth in 2023 and 2025, he was a neck second in the 2024 renewal at Del Mar.

"We're going to give him one more chance to try to get in [to the Breeders' Cup], D'Amato stated. "There's a couple more "Win and You're In" options."

DEEP SATIN COULD TARGET FIRST LADY

John Gunther and Eurowest Bloodstock Services' Deep Satin (American Pharoah), who closed to within a half-length third in Saturday's GII Ballston Spa Stakes at Saratoga, is possible to step up to Grade I company for her next start, according to Cherie DeVaux.

"She came out of the race very good and looks great this morning," trainer Cherie DeVaux said on Sunday. "Maybe [Keeneland's GI] First Lady."

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

In last weekend's Ballston Spa, Deep Satin finished less than won by the pacesetting And One More Time (Omaha Beach), who finished a neck ahead of forwardly-placed Sunlit Uplands (Ire) (Sands of Mali (Fr).

"Jose rode a really great race," said DeVaux. "Looking at the head-on, it was hard for her to engage [late] because the other horses were so far away from her, but she ran a great race. We're really pleased with her."

Golden Tempo Baby Brother Nears Debut

DeVaux also provided an update regarding 2-year-old colt Imperial Tempo (Nyquist), a younger half-brother to dual Classic winner Golden Tempo, bred by Phipps Stable and St. Elias Stables.

The bay is approaching his debut following weekly works beginning in late June at Keeneland.

"He's coming along well," DeVaux said. "Probably a start at the upcoming Churchill [Downs] meet.

"I try not to compare them," DeVaux added while facing her GI Travers contender Golden Tempo. "They're two different horses, but he [Imperial Tempo] has the same personality: really professional. But I think it is fair to treat them as individuals, and not compare them."

PROLETARIAT ROLLS TO FRONT-RUNNING SCORE IN DEL MAR DERBY

In the lead up to Sunday's GII Del Mar Derby, the betting public felt confident that Dutch Girl Holdings and Irving Ventures' Proletariat (Raging Bull {Fr}) would earn his first graded stakes score in the nine-furlong test for 3-year-olds. The public once again proved right as the gelding streaked home a wire-to-wire winner of Bust Out (Complexity).

Sent immediately to the front by Kyle Frey, the bay rolled up front with longshot Pavlovian (Pavel) in hot pursuit through opening splits of :23.75 and :47.87. Still comfortably in front of his nearest rival Pavlovian turning for home, the Jeff Mullins trainee spurted clear, while having his robust advantage dwindle late, he had enough left in reserve to score by two lengths over the closing 7-1 chance Bust Out (Complexity).

Jordi Bear (Ire) (St Mark's Basilica {Fr}) held on to beat Unrivaled Time (Not This Time).

"Jeff and I talked before the race. He said use your 'Plan A', unless something comes up. Then go to 'Plan B', whatever that is," said Frey. "It was 'Plan A' all the way today. This is a nice horse; he's very generous. And he's getting better."

Proletariat | Benoit

A distant third behind Desert Gate sprinting five furlongs on the dirt at Santa Anita at two, Proletariat broke through with a win when trying a turf sprint at Del Mar in his next start last summer. He concluded his juvenile campaign finishing third in both the one-mile GIII Del Mar Juvenile Turf and Santa Anita's GIII Zuma Beach Stakes.

Cutting back to six panels facing optional claiming company in Arcadia on May 15, the bay ran off to score by an easy 5 3/4-length margin in Del Mar's one-mile Oceanside Handicap on July 17.

"It looked like a replay of the last race, just a little bit farther," said Mullins, winning his second Del Mar Derby. "I could tell around the turn that Pavlovian wasn't going anywhere. He was already pushing and Kyle was still sitting."

"Kyle's done a lot of work getting the horse to slow down in the mornings. Teaching him how to rate and settle and relax and go when it was time."

Pedigree Notes:

Sunday's Del Mar Derby victory earned Grade I-winner Raging Bull (Fr), who is represented by this first 3-year-olds in 2026, his first career group/graded score.

Stakes-placed Kodiak West, who is also responsible for MGSP Sun Never Sets (Karakontie {Jpn}), produced a filly by Up to the Mark in 2025 and followed up with a filly by Constitution earlier this season. She was bred back to Kentucky Derby winner Mage.

After having won at the graded level the past two seasons, King of Gosford made it three straight when winning Saturday's GII Del Mar Mile on the Pacific Classic undercard.

Sent off the 5-1 fourth choice, the chestnut was content to settle just off the early pace this time around as MGSW Cabo Spirit (Pioeneerof the Nile) and favored El Potente led the way through reasonable opening splits of :23.09 and :47.08. Inching closer on the far turn, the 5-year-old took aim at the errant pacesetter who drifted out significantly turning for home and while El Potente battled on along his inside, it was King of Gosford who got up in time to defeat that rival by a head. Detail closed to grab second while El Potente held third. The pacesetter rounded out the Super.

Umberto Rispoli wins three races on the Pacific Classic undercard: "I'm very happy to have won three races [on Saturday]. I have been working hard to get back after having to take some time off from my injury."-- Benoit Photo

"I had a very good trip; that was the type of trip I wanted to have before the race," said winning rider Umberto Rispoli, who was riding the English-bred for his second consecutive victory.

"I was not afraid because when he was going in between the two horses, he kind of hesitated a little bit and once it was more clear, this horse he gave me another push. He has a big heart and he always tries. He can give you something more every single time. I was very happy with my trip and what a nice beautiful day."

Victorious in Santa Anita's GII Mathis Mile and runner-up in the GI Hollywood Derby at three, the Phil D'Amato trainee added a score in last season's GI Shoemaker Mile. After kicking off 2026 with a fourth in the GIII American in Arcadia followed by a third while trying to defend his title in the Shoemaker in May, he returned to Del Mar last time out to take the Wickerr Stakes on July 19.

"I thought it was a great trip," said D'Amato, who was winning the Del Mar Mile for the fifth time.

"He saved every inch of ground. Umberto [Rispoli] saw that the race was fast and sat off of it until just the right time. I think the horse on the inside and outside really invigorated him to fight there late and we had the strong finish and Umberto got the job done."

As for what's next with the 5-year-old, D'Amato said, "We'll try to run in [Santa Anita's Sept. 26 GII] City of Hope," D'Amato said. "If he can win that race that's a "Win and You're In." I would say he's on the cusp. He needs to keep improving which we've seen in the recent race."

Pedigree Notes:

King of Gosford's dam, SW Miss Sugars, produced a colt by Kameko in 2022. Sold for 13,000gns carrying a filly by the sire at the 2022 Tattersalls November sale, she brought 20,000gns in foal to Mohaather (GB) at Tattersalls in 2023.

The mare was a $260,000 purchase at Keeneland November in 2019.

Searching for his first taste of black-type, former claimer Quarry broke through with a career-best score in Saturday's GIII Canadian Derby at Century Mile.

Retained in third through a pedestrian opening quarter in :24.43, Quarry was shuffled back to seventh following a quicker half in :47.41. Starting to make headway rounding the far turn, the gelding swept to the front turning for home and had to dig in to fend off closing Big Curl by a 1/2-length at the wire. Favored Western Warrior (Essential Quality) faded to last.

Winless in eight starts at two, Quarry finally graduated in his second start of 2026, winning a Churchill Downs maiden in May. Claimed for $80,000 out of a sixth-place finish in Louisville on June 20, he was eighth for in a seven-furlong Ellis allowance on July 6 before coming home third going a mile at Assiniboia on July 22. In his most recent start, the bay was a nose second to Western Warrior in the 9-furlong Manitoba Derby on Aug. 3.

Pedigree Notes:

Quarry is out of Black Dynamite, a half-sister to GISW Killer Graces (Congaree) and graded stakes winner Chocolate Ride (Candy Ride {Arg}). The daughter of More Than Ready produced a colt by Blame in 2024 followed by a colt by Olympiad last season. This term, she dropped a Prince of Monaco filly and was bred back to Sierra Leone.

Trainer David Jacobson is employing the same pattern he used last year with Banishing (Ghostzapper) when he won this race after a win in the Jeff Hall Memorial, a prep for this spot. He doesn't always show up, but when he does he is formidable. Is the winner of the rich GII Godolphin Mile. Willy D's (Lookin at Lucky) was second in this race last year and can be excused for getting trounced against better in the GI Stephen Foster. Barbadian Runner (Barbados) may come up a little short in the class department, but is a tough Mid-Atlantic runner who always shows up. Which Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) shows up, the one who won this race in 23 and 24 or the one who lost by 39 1/4 lengths in 25? Yes, he was beaten by Knightsbridge (Nyquist) in his last, but he was beaten a sixteenth of a mile and earned a lousy Beyer number.--Bill Finley

Can the West Virginia-bred sensation At a Premium (Great Notion) step up and win at this level? Yes. The filly is 4-for-4 over this track, winning those races by a combined margin of 41 1/4 lengths. Yes, she'll be facing much tougher foes in her first try against open company, but she's the only winner in the field that has won over the Charles Town bull ring and the Beyer numbers suggest she's as fast as anyone. And how about that 45 4/5 workout preparing for this? Only worry is that she could get caught up in a speed duel. The horse she has to fear is Luv Your Neighbor (Constitution), a classy filly from the Michael Stidham barn. She's run well all year in tough graded races and is the only graded stakes winner in the field. Tahlequah (Authentic) will try again after a horrible effort in June at Delaware. She's better than that and maybe the freshening will do her some good.--Bill Finley

MUNNINGS' CHIEF OF PEACE GETS THE BOB IN SARATOGA DEBUT

Bach Stables' Chief of Peace (Munnings), a 15-1 outsider, just got his head in front of 3-5 favorite And the Runner Is (Oscar Performance) and pacesetting Harbaugh (Not This Time) to graduate in his 1 1/16-mile debut over the lawn at Saratoga Sunday. The dark bay ridgling settled just off the pace in third as Harbaugh set a modest tempo up front with his Mark Casse stablemate And the Runner Is in close attendance. When Harbaugh drifted out into the lane, Chief of Peace had clear sailing along the rail, but And the Runner Is and Harbaugh inched away and looked to have the race between them, only to have Chief of Peace produce a furious late rally to get to the line first in a blanket finish.

"He had a classy look to him, great physical and a big walk," recalled Emily Dawson, trainer at the Steinbrenner family's Kinsman Farm, who selected the yearling along with the farm's vice president Kevin Adler. "He was very straightforward to break and get ready to go to [trainer] Miguel [Clement]. I really had no idea that he would end up on the turf, so well done to the Clement team. It sounds like he has been a barn favorite since joining them at Saratoga."

Chief of Peace is out of the stakes-placed Love Beach (Bernardini), who also has a yearling filly by Uncle Mo and a weanling colt by Liam's Map. She was bred back to Munnings this year. Love Beach is a daughter of Group 1-placed Famous (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who is a full-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Mastercraftsman (Ire).

Tricky Business went wire-to-wire to earn his first stakes victory Sunday at Saratoga. The 9-1 shot was hustled out of the gate as favored Talk to Me Jimmy was caught flat-footed at the break. Tricky Business was clear into the first turn and in control through fractions of :23.68 and :47.86. He splashed farther clear down the lane and was out of reach as Talk to Me Jimmy chased him home in second.

"I don't know what instructions the other riders got, but our instructions were to go at all costs--quarter-horse him out of there and make the lead," said winning trainer George Weaver. "Luckily, Flavien [Prat] was able to do that. The horse broke well enough, and he responded well enough--it's part jockey, part horse--but once he got where he was and got comfortable up the backside, I felt confident we would have a chance to win if he can handle the distance, and he did."

Tricky Business | Sarah Andrew

A debut winner at one mile against state-bred foes at Aqueduct in May, Tricky Business was fourth behind subsequent GI Haskell Stakes winner Baby Vino (Vino Rosso) in the June 13 Pegasus Stakes at Monmouth Park in just his second start. Back in state-bred company, he was 10th in a one-mile allowance July 11 and was a narrowly beaten second after setting the pace in a seven-furlong allowance last time out Aug. 9.

Super Marina has a 2-year-old filly by Authentic and a weanling colt by Constitution. She was bred back to Vekoma. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Totally Justified made it two in a row over the Ellis Park lawn and earned her first stakes win since the 2024 P.G. Johnson Stakes in Henderson Sunday. The 6-1 shot was well held while settling at midpack along the rail as favored Lush Lips set pedestrian splits up front. Totally Justified tipped out a path to split rivals in upper stretch and closed powerfully to edge past the favorite in the final strides.

Totally Justified | Cady Coulardot/Coady Media

"I was confident the entire way," said winning rider Joe Bealmear. "Before I could decide which path to take, she found it herself. She's such a nice horse. She's completely transformed and does everything you ask her to do. I trust her a lot, and it worked out today."

Bealmear added, "I really want to dedicate this win to Robby Albarado, who passed away a couple of weeks ago. He was my mentor and taught me everything I know about riding. I hope he's watching from above and is proud of this one."

Following her win the P.G. Johnson, Totally Justified was a nose short when second in the GII Jessamine Stakes. She was without a win in seven starts--all in graded company--at three last year, but she did claim second in the GIII Regret Stakes. She returned to the winner's circle in a nine-furlong allowance at Ellis last time out July 19.

Outstanding, a full-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Magician (Ire), has a yearling filly by Epicenter and a weanling colt by Justify. She was bred back to Justify this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

TENNESSEE BELLE (f, 3, Yaupon--Belle Gallantey {MGISW-USA, SP-Can, $1,134,270}, by After Market), a maiden winner over this track and distance last August for trainer John Ortiz, was making her first start for trainer Todd Pletcher in her first outing since last September.

Sent off at 5-1, the dark bay filly was unhurried and settled well off the pace through fractions of :21.90 and :44.79. Still with plenty to do at the top of the lane, she rallied steadily before spurting between rivals to take control and bound clear inside the final furlong to win by 4 1/4 lengths. Vekoma's Diva (Vekoma) was second. A $75,000 KEENOV weanling, Tennessee Belle was a $160,000 FTKFEB yearling and RNA'd for $385,000 at the 2024 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. Multiple Grade I winner Belle Gallantey was exported to Libya after selling for $120,000 while in foal to McKinzie at the 2024 Keeneland November sale. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing. TWILIGHT DELIGHT (c, 3, Twirling Candy--Midnight Soiree {SW, $217,976}, by Include) returned to the scene of his maiden win last August to add an allowance over course and distance. Sent off as the 4-5 choice Sunday, Twilight Delight blazed through a :21.97 first quarter and a :44.76 half on the front end, repelled challenges on the turn, and kicked clear for a 1 1/4-length score over Livehappy (Runhappy). Last seen finishing fifth in a sprint allowance at Colonial July 12, Twilight Delight also notched a third in the Speakeasy Stakes at Santa Anita last fall. Dam Midnight Soiree, winner of Gulfstream's Martha Washington Stakes in 2018 and a $500,000 Keeneland November purchase in 2021 by KatieRich Farms, has a yearling Constitution filly and a 2026 colt by Tapit. SWEETCITY (f, 3, City of Light--Sweetgrass {MGSP, $330,145}, by Street Sense) was twice runner-up over this surface this past winter before graduating at this distance by a front-running 4 3/4 lengths July 12. The 4-5 favorite sat just off her pacesetting stablemate Dominant Diva (Spun to Run) through an opening quarter in :22.26. She stormed past the pacesetter as the half went up in :46.04 and cruised home a much-the-best five-length winner. Dominant Diva was second. Sweetgrass, who was purchased with the winner in utero for $135,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November sale, was bred to Essential Quality this year. MORNY GLORY FOR VICTORIOUS FOREVER'S CHEVELEY PARK-BOUND SENORITA BONITA

Senorita Bonita | Scoop Dyga

By Sean Cronin

Presented with an opening after the scratching of Great Barrier Reef (No Nay Never) from Sunday's G1 Sumbe Prix Morny at Deauville, Victorious Forever's G2 Duke Of Cambridge victrix Senorita Bonita (Starspangledbanner)--who was the 900,000gns Craven Breeze-Up topper in April--delivered a stunning burst of acceleration to plunder the six-furlong contest in mightily impressive fashion.

"That was a fantastic performance and all roads lead to the [G1] Cheveley Park [at Newmarket] at the end of September," beamed Simon Crisford, who took this contest with Vandeek in 2023. "They set some very good fractions up front, she's shown a great turn of foot and she finished off super well. She was a little bit slow out of the gates and behind the bridle early, but they were going quick and the race set up for the closers. She was the best of the closers and galloped out strongly. At halfway I briefly thought we might have a mountain to climb here, but she's got such a good turn of foot that at the furlong pole you could see she was going to come home strong. It was a deep, deep renewal and any Group 1 is fantastic to win."

The Wertheimers' sensational Deauville August Festival continued apace on Sunday as their star mare Aventure (Sea The Stars) took the honours in the G1 Sumbe Prix Jean et Louis Romanet.

If the market was to be believed, the unbeaten Diamond Necklace (St Mark's Basilica) needed only to turn up to collect, but her flat finale paved the way for the five-year-old to capitalise. Enjoying a perfect ground-saving trip under cover, the 7-1 shot, who had captured last year's Prix Vermeille, was launched by Maxime Guyon approaching the final furlong and soon had the measure of Ballydoyle's 2-5 favourite en route to a comprehensive two-length success. Diamond Necklace held on to second by a head from the outsider Timeforshowcasing (Showcasing). Cont. p5

Crisford added, "It's a great testament to the staff back at home and everyone involved and it's great to win for Shaikh Nasser [bin Hamed Al Khalifa] and Shaikh Khalid [bin Hamed Al Khalifa]."

Oisin Murphy was equally ebullient in his praise for the winner. "She's got an awful lot of speed and her work leading into the race, at Newmarket about 10 days ago, was fantastic," he said. "The only time she's been beaten was in the Queen Mary and I thought her preparation for today was perfect. We'd planned to relax her wherever she was happy and allow the race to unfold because she has a very good turn of foot. To compare her to other good fillies I've ridden at two, she's certainly towards the level of Porta Fortuna and Alcohol Free. I've had three Group 1 winners for Victorious Racing this year, the owners and breeders are here and I'm delighted for them."

The 13-5 favourite employed patient tactics and raced several lengths off the clear leader Carry The Flag (No Nay Never) in sixth through the early fractions.

Stirred into action with 350 metres remaining, she quickened to go second entering the final furlong and unleashed an array of gears to sweep by Carry The Flag in the closing stages, en route to an eyecatching four-length career high.

Carry The Flag made a bold attempt off the front under Ronan Whelan and kept on in determined fashion to withstand the late charge of the hitherto undefeated Kosuma (Night Of Thunder) by a short-neck for second.

Reflecting on the performance of third home Kosuma, racing manager Pierre-Yves Bureau said, "Kosuma has run very well, but the winner is very, very good. They went really fast and it took her some time to make up the ground, but she finished very strongly. When you see something like that, you naturally start thinking that we might be able to step her up in trip. Her pedigree also suggests that, and we have always thought she could stay further. This race does not point us towards any particular target at this stage. She has already raced four times, so we really need to see how she comes out of this and discuss things again."

Pedigree Notes

Senorita Bonita, who had previously added a G2 Queen Mary second to a Nottingham debut win, was put through Tattersalls' Craven ring by Mark Flannery, on behalf of Churchtown House Stud's Anne and Michael Gaffney, and knocked down to Anthony Stroud.

Becoming her sire's 12th Group 1 winner here, she is the first of three foals produced by an unraced sibling of G3 Prix de Royaumont winner Sub Rose (Galileo), Listed Princess Royal victrix Astonishing (Galileo) and the stakes-placed Shore Break (Footstepsinthesand).

Sub Rose is the dam of the dual Group-winning G1 Champion Stakes third Subway Dancer (Shamardal) and Group 3 winner Secret Advisor (Dubawi), while Astonishing's quartet of black-type performers includes the Group 3 winner Dr Omran (Palace Pier) and the multiple Group-placed Gold Maze (Golden Horn).

Hailing from the family of the US Fillies' Triple Crown heroine Davona Dale (Best Turn), Senorita Bonita is kin to a yearling filly by Modern Games and a weanling filly by Sioux Nation.

"She really did something today, she was perfectly ridden," trainer Christophe Ferland said. "She loved that strong pace and 2,000 metres is really her thing now as she's got faster. We still have some stalls work to do, but she was impressive today, giving four kilos away, and is a real top mare now--the mare of a lifetime. There is always pressure when you bring horses like her to the races."

Aventure | Scoop Dyga

Even when Aventure was winning over a mile and a half as a three-year-old, she was showing potent acceleration and it may be that she was finding that trip a stretch even when runner-up to Bluestocking in the Vermeille and Arc of that season. She did land the Vermeille last September, beating the subsequent Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Gezora, but came unstuck on testing ground back in the Arc and had been overwhelmed by Calandagan in the last two runnings of the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud.

In the last two renewals of the 10 1/2-furlong Prix Corrida, the homebred had dealt with the star fillies Survie and Sunly with her killer kick and, whatever the betting market indicated beforehand, was plain and simple the fastest in this line-up. Her final three furlongs were completed in 35.27, with each sectional quicker than Diamond Necklace and no hint of fluke.

Ferland has no intention of trying the Arc for a third time. "She'll go to the Opera and then the Breeders' Cup [Filly & Mare Turf], with Hong Kong potentially bringing her season to a close, although nothing has been decided yet," he stated. "Seeing her confirm her ability at this level over 2,000 metres really opens up some exciting possibilities." Cont. p6

Ferland continued, "She is a fantastic mare and this success rewards a huge number of people. The whole team deserves congratulations--the breeder, the owners, but also everyone at the stud and the stable who works every day to breed, raise and prepare these horses. It is a genuine team effort."

He added, "The pedigrees of the horses I am now being sent are more geared towards stamina and are later-maturing, so I have fewer horses and therefore fewer runners. In fact, I only won my first race of the year with a two-year-old yesterday. It is probably the first time in my career that it has happened as late as August."

Aidan O'Brien said of Diamond Necklace, "She ran well, but the winner was better than her today. We were very happy with her going into the race and the ground was not a concern. We'll take her home now and see how she comes out of the race. She could be tried over 2,400 metres this autumn."

Jaber Abdullah's German 1,000 Guineas winner Timeforshowcasing managed to confound the punters and a few judges with her career-best effort, but she was coming off a painfully narrow defeat in the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis. Trainer Charlie Johnston admitted to an element of surprise himself.

"I'm absolutely over the moon, as she's danced plenty of dances this year and, to be honest, I thought we were biting off a bit more than we could chew here," he said. "She's stepped up to a new level today and I think the ground is key. Maybe she'll get a little more respect going forward and recognition that she is a quality filly in her own right."

He added, "Having been placed in two Group 1s now at ten, the weight of evidence is that this is her trip and the Opera could be a principal target now, with maybe the Blandford first. She's a phenomenal filly, we paid 15 grand for her and here she is competing with the best. She is a big, scopey girl and will be better at four. Hopefully we can keep her in training." Cont. p7

Aventure's Prix de Royallieu-winning dam Balladeuse (Singspiel) is also responsible for the fellow Vermeille heroine Left Hand (Dubawi) and the Listed scorer Blissie (Dansili), who is in turn the dam of the Prix Dollar winner and Prix du Jockey Club runner-up First Look (Lope De Vega). A half to the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Plumania (Anabaa), who in turn produced four stakes performers, including another smart Dubawi in the G2 Prix du Muguet victor Plumatic, she is also connected to the dual Prix Royal-Oak hero Double Major (Daiwa Major).

Aventure's Group-placed half-sister Romanciere (Dansili) is the dam of Saturday's TDN Rising Star Allela (Night Of Thunder), joining another from those ranks in the exciting three-year-old gelding Zaraki (Zarak), who showed in the recent Prix Nureyev that he could be Arc material in 2027.

WOOT WOOT HAS BREEDERS' CUP OPTION AFTER MAKING ALL FOR CALVADOS TRIUMPH AT DEAUVILLE By Sean Cronin

LNJ Foxwoods' €250,000 Arqana August graduate Woot Woot (Wootton Bassett) ran third in Deauville's G3 Prix Six Perfections three weeks ago and put herself in the mix for this year's Breeders' Cup meet after making all to secure a career high in Sunday's G2 Sumbe Prix du Calvados back at the Normandy venue.

"She's an incredible filly. Christophe [Soumillon] did a great job and it was a real pleasure to see her win in that fashion," said trainer Christopher Head.

"It is a very difficult task for a filly to win the Calvados from the front because most of the time they fade before the end, but she just kept going. Clearly, she is a real miler and she will do a fine job over that trip in the future.

"She obviously has a [G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac entry and we really want her to do the best she can at the end of the season. We will have a strong discussion regarding the rest of the year because it is important for her to go to the US."

The 16-5 second favourite, who had previously won one of two starts at Saint-Cloud, was the sharpest of six into stride, breaking from the inside stall, and seized immediate control of this seven-furlong distaffers' contest.

Comfortably clear of her rivals by halfway, she was shaken up with 300 metres remaining and maintained a relentless tempo under mild urging in the closing stages to easily overpower Le Bon Temps Roule (Sioux Nation) and Yuquot (Kingman) by 3 1/2-length and 2 1/2-length margins.

Pedigree Notes

Woot Woot, who becomes her sire's 63rd pattern-race winner, is the latest of six foals and first black-type scorer produced by stakes-winning G3 Prix Cleopatre third Penny Lane (Lord Of England), herself a full-sister to G1 Preis der Diana heroine Palmas.

Penny Lane is also kin to the dual Group 3 winner Peace Royale (Sholokhov), G3 Fahrhofer Stutenpreis scorer Peaceful Love (Dashing Blade) and G2 Park Hill runner-up Phiz (Galileo).

Peace Royale, in turn, produced Group 3-winning G2 German 2,000 Guineas runner-up Peace In Motion (Hat Trick) and the dual Listed winner Peace Society (Iffraaj), while Peaceful Love produced three black-type performers headed by G3 Prix La Force winner Pao Alto (Intello).

'THERE DOESN'T SEEM TO BE A BOTTOM TO HIM' - MCMONAGLE HAILS MELBOURNE-BOUND DEFIANTLY By Tom Frary

Not content with a Curragh five-timer on Saturday, Dylan Browne McMonagle carried over his streak to Deauville on Sunday when guiding Defiantly (Kameko) to a dominant win in the G2 Sumbe Prix Kergorlay.

Sent to the front from the break, Australia Bloodstock's impressive Goodwood Handicap winner kept it honest throughout the 15-furlong test and as a result took the high-class mare Santorini Star (Golden Horn) and the 2024 and 2025 winner Double Major (Daiwa Major) out of their comfort zones.

At the line, the margins were 5 1/2 and five lengths, with Joseph O'Brien's four-year-old now guaranteed a berth in the Melbourne Cup after winning this. "He's got better with every run this year and is a strong stayer who is always behind the bridle," the jockey sensation of 2026 said. Cont. p10

"He picked up well off the bend and kept finding," McMonagle continued. "There doesn't seem to be a bottom to him, he always keeps a bit in the locker and he killed them off one by one. He handles fast ground well, so the owners have a nice fun horse to go to Melbourne with."

The trainer, who is also enjoying a relative domination of his own at present, thinks that Flemington is a possibility.

"Dylan gave him a lovely ride and he's obviously a horse that's improving rapidly," he said. "I thought that when he hadn't gone for the stick by the time he got down to the 400-metre marker, it was going to be hard to pass him. I'd imagine it'll be the Melbourne Cup, but we'll speak to the ownership."

He added, "We came here to find out if that was going to be on the cards and it looks like it might be. Every horse is different, but he probably compares a little bit with Twilight Payment, who used to go to the lead and stayed very well. This is a very good trial for it and there are plenty of reasons to be positive."

Pedigree Notes

Defiantly, who becomes the fifth Group winner for his sire, is out of the strong-staying Listed winner Roheryn (Galileo) whose five Group placings included a third in the Blandford over 10 furlongs. She is also responsible for the high-class Buckaroo (Fastnet Rock), a smart horse for this stable before heading to Australia to win the Underwood Stakes and be second in the Cox Plate and Caulfield Cup, the dual Group 3 winner Middle Earth (Roaring Lion) and the Group 3-placed Siege Of Troy (Siyouni).

The second dam La Chunga (More Than Ready) was at the other end of the spectrum, taking the Albany and Summer Stakes over six furlongs, with the family also featuring the Hollwood Derby hero Steve's Friend. Roheryn's two-year-old colt by Siyouni is named Arrow River, while she also has a filly foal by Justify.

Chantez | Racingfotos.com

In the wilderness since her two-year-old days, Newtown Anner Stud Farm's Chantez (Wootton Bassett) roared back to prominence when producing a shock in Sunday's G3 Tally-Ho Stud Irish EBF Ballyogan Stakes at Naas.

Tried over seven furlongs and a mile after her win in the 2024 Ingabelle Stakes on Leopardstown's Irish Champions Day card, she was dropping to this trip for the first time when fourth behind Soul Love (Starman) and Dancing Saxon (Saxon Warrior) in the Yeomanstown Stud Irish EBF Stakes here last month and found the necessary improvement to reverse that form.

Always travelling comfortably tracking the leading group, the 28-1 shot was delivered by Gary Carroll to overhaul those peers in the final furlong and assert for a half-length success from Soul Love.

"That was great, because this could have been her last run," Newtown Anner's racing manager PJ Colville explained. "We'll probably keep her going now, we'll speak to Ger [Lyons]. She was running well over longer distances, but she wasn't showing as much as she did as a two-year-old, so we decided to throw the dice and come back in trip with a pair of blinkers. I think this set-up, a stiff six, suits her well. The last day she did everything right, but she just needs to get into the rhythm of the sprinting division. She was sharp today and got a good set-up." Cont. p13

Chantez's dam Lady Lara (Excellent Art) was successful five times in stakes company, including in the Honey Fox Stakes and My Charmer Handicap, before producing the Sydney Cup, King Edward VII Stakes and Chester Vase winner Changingtheguard (Galileo). She hails from the family of Giant's Causeway's 2,000 Guineas-winning sire Footstepsinthesand and the Irish Guineas hero Power (Oasis Dream), as well as the E. P. Taylor heroine Curvy (Galileo), who was in turn responsible for the Prix Six Perfections winner Angeal by Chantez's sire Wootton Bassett. Lady Lara's two-year-old colt Ziani (St Mark's Basilica) was a 240,000gns purchase by Badgers Bloodstock at Tattersalls October Book 1, while she also has a yearling filly by Churchill and a foal full-sister to Chantez.

SIOUX NATION'S TIMELESS TALE SCORCHES TO TDN RISING STARDOM AT NAAS

By Sean Cronin

Anne O'Callaghan's hitherto unraced Timeless Tale (Sioux Nation) had her share of supporters in the betting market for Sunday's Matchbook Exchange Irish EBF Fillies Maiden at Naas, but made a mockery of her 14-1 odds with a scintillating debut display worthy of TDN Rising Stardom, presented by Hagyard, becoming her sire's fifth recipient of the award.

"That was impressive and I'm delighted to have her," said trainer Willie McCreery after witnessing an 8 1/2-length rout. "She's a lovely big, strong filly and she's all natural. She's never been away from the place. I think she's a decent filly and everything she has done she's done nicely. I'm delighted to have one for Tally-Ho and her half-sister by Power [Wakanaka] was a very good filly, who went on to America and was rated around 110. This filly has natural ability and we'll see where the lads want to go now. It'll be a stakes race and she won't mind a bit of ease in the ground either. I think she would stick at six furlongs for the moment, it's all natural there and there is no reason not to."

The eventual winner recovered from a slightly hesitant break and raced in a prominent second after the initial strides. Cruising to the front hard on the steel at halfway, she was allowed an inch of rein approaching the final furlong and powered right away from toiling rivals to hit the line in a different parish to Ballydoyle's Film Set (Siyouni).

Timeless Tale is the latest of five registered foals and second winner produced by Storyline (Kodiac), whose first was the dual Group/Graded-winning dual GI Just A Game placegetter Wakanaka (Power).

Her dam is a daughter of Listed Marble Hill third Petite Histoire (Desert Story), herself a half-sister to G3 Molecomb winner Whitbarrow (Royal Abjar), Listed Sandy Lane third Green Park (Shinko Forest) and to the dam of the multiple stakes-winning GII San Clemente runner-up Lady Valeur (Multiplex).

MAEDA MATSU (IRE) (f, 2, Dubawi Legend {Ire}--Poole Belle {Ire}, by Canford Cliffs {Ire}), a 100-1 debut runner-up in the valuable Ballyhane Stakes over course and distance earlier this month, tracked the leaders in fifth through halfway. Making smooth headway in the straight, the 7-1 chance was shaken up to challenge passing the quarter-mile marker and ridden out inside the final furlong to assert by 3/4-of-length from Star Glory (Cotai Glory), becoming the first winner of the season for trainer Sheila Lavery and fourth for her freshman sire (by Dubawi).

"That is my first winner this year, which is a bit scary, and it's just pure relief and I'm thrilled," said Lavery. "She was very green in front and Rory [Cleary] wasn't hard on her. The horses have been running fantastic, but we've been touched off in a few big handicaps. We got a few calls about her, but John [Lavery] is very happy to hold on to her. It's great as you kind of need a flagship. She's not in any of the big races and I would think I'd be looking at the Ingabelle for her. That's why I stepped her up so quickly to seven [furlongs]. Hopefully, she'll be a stunning filly for next year." Cont. p16

ZOAR (c, 2, No Nay Never--Big Brothers Pride {Fr} {GSW-Fr}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}), runner-up to the subsequent Richmond winner Man's Best Friend (No Nay Never) on debut over this course and distance last month before switching from Josh Halley, was towards the fore of the group racing stands' side early. Edging ahead inside the last two furlongs, the 11-10 favourite asserted to score by 1 1/4 lengths from Capital Of Pride (Space Blues).

"I haven't had him that long and, in fairness to the Halleys, they did a great job with him," Donnacha O'Brien said. "He's a nice horse to get. I think he'll get another furlong, but I'm not convinced he's going to be a seven-furlong or mile horse. I'd say he'll probably get quicker as he gets older. I'd imagine we'll have a look at stakes company next time and see where he stands at that level."

The dam, who captured the Prix Sigy, is a half to the Prix Maurice de Gheest heroine Polydream (Oasis Dream), who is in turn the dam of the Listed winner and multiple Group-placed Polyvega (Lope De Vega). She is also kin to the dual Listed scorer and dual Group 2-placed Evaporation (Red Ransom), while the family includes Lope De Vega's Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere runner-up Gamestop.
