LEADING CHANGE CAPS MONSTER SUMMER FOR FRANCO IN DRAFTKINGS TRAVERS

Sarah Andrew

by Alan Carasso

A little less than a decade ago, Puerto Rican native Manuel Franco guided Joking (Distorted Humor) to a victory in the Vosburgh Stakes for the first Grade I of his career. A week later he won another. Franco has done things very much the old-fashioned way since, working his way through the ranks riding against some of the most gifted riders in one of the deepest colonies in the country while methodically gaining the confidence of some of the top outfits that call New York home.

With the Saturday sun beginning to set on Saratoga Race Course, the 'Summer of Manny' reached its pinnacle when Wathnan Racing's 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Leading Change (Gun Runner--Starship Warpspeed, by Congrats) knuckled down with time ticking away in the $1.25-million GI DraftKings Travers Stakes and--belying his relative inexperience--clawed his way past GI Preakness Stakes hero Napoleon Solo (Liam's Map) for a half-length success. Back in third was fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Golden Tempo (Curlin), who gradually worked his way into the race to be a final-furlong threat before settling for third. Cont. p3

'RISING STAR' ENGLISHMAN TURNS JERKENS INTO ONE-HORSE AFFAIR by Alan Carasso

C R K Stable's 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Englishman (c, 3, Maxfield--In It for the Gold, by Speightstown) was always going to be the long odds-on choice for Saturday's $500,000 GI H. Allen Jerkens Stakes at Saratoga on the back of his utterly impressive tour-de-force in the GI Woody Stephens Stakes on the Belmont Stakes undercard on the first Saturday in June.

In the end the price was--remarkably--not quite as skinny as imagined.

Off at a generous 2-5 all the same on the final Saturday of August, the bay colt once again made every pole a winning one, more or less unextended, looking every bit the favorite for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint two months down the road at Keeneland.

As the gates open on Travers Stakes day, Saratoga racegoers run to their favorite picnic table spots. | Tod Marks

11-14 | KLARAVICH PACKS 1-2 PUNCH IN 'WAYI' QUALIFIERS

It was a most productive afternoon Saturday at Saratoga for mares campaigned by Seth Klarman's Klaravich Stables, as Fully Subscribed (Tiz the Law) and 'TDN Rising Star' Ways and Means (Practical Joke) posted wide-margin victories in the GI Personal Ensign S. and GI Ballerina S., respectively.

20 | IN OUR TIME TOPS NOT THIS TIME 1-2 AT KENTUCKY DOWNS

In Our Time (Not This Time) went gate to wire in the GI Ladies' Turf Sprint at Kentucky Downs, while Time to Dazzle completed the exacta for the supersire.

To win races at a 20% clip is a lofty achievement at any track that hosts Thoroughbred racing. To do so at Saratoga is on a different level altogether. Entering Saturday's action, Franco had amassed a healthy 58 winners to sit just behind Jose Ortiz and Flavien Prat in the jockeys' standings and well clear of fourth. Had the meet ended already, it would have been one to remember, given his victories in the GI Christophe Clement Turf (Survie {Ire}) for Miguel Clement and last weekend's GI Alabama Stakes for Chad Brown.

Off and racing in the Travers! | Tod Marks

And now this, a second win in the marquee race on the summer calendar, having scooped the race in 2020 with Tiz the Law (Constitution).

"All I can say is wow," Franco told FOX Sports' Maggie Wolfendale as they jogged past the seven-furlong pole on the way back to the winner's circle. "Thanks to [trainer] Brad Cox, the owners and to John Panagot, my agent."

Named a 'Rising Star' off a smashing 6 1/2-length debut success going seven furlongs at Churchill Downs June 7, the $800,000 Keeneland September yearling--whose half-sister Shedaresthedevil (Daredevil) upset the 2020 GI Kentucky Oaks--was tested for class straightaway in the GIII Indiana Derby July 11. While it wasn't the most rigorous examination of what the colt might have under the hood, he passed the test on several levels with flying colors, withstanding a strong late bid from the much more experienced Our Moneyman (Mr. Money) while trying a distance of ground for the first time to score by a neck. Cont. p4

'Big-Time Talent' Up To The Task

Sent off a 10-1 chance by the Saratoga faithful in the race in which his superstar sire was beaten some 15 lengths into third by Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in 2016, Leading Change bounced beautifully from gate two and led them under the line for the first time, but Preakness winner Napoleon Solo took over rounding the first turn and Franco was content to allow Leading Change to enjoy the run of the race from third on the tail of the pacesetter. 'Rising Star' Sea Strike (Midshipman), so impressive in winning the restricted Curlin Stakes last time that he was made the 7-2 third betting choice, prompted the tempo from the outside.

The pace, which mapped well above-par on paper, was not that demanding in actual fact, as Napoleon Solo held the call after modest fractions of :47.95 for the half-mile and six panels in a very manageable 1:12.62. Sea Strike looked poised to pounce beneath the red-hot Flavien Prat nearing the stretch, but Franco had been able to keep his powder dry behind the front-runners on Leading Change and the pair popped out three deep to deliver their challenge at the head of the lane.

In the meantime, Golden Tempo, the GI Kentucky Derby winner and making his first start since taking the GI Belmont Stakes over this course and distance 12 weeks ago, had made steady progress after racing with only GII Jim Dandy Stakes winner and second pick Renegade (Into Mischief) behind him down the backstretch and was spying a gap one off the fence between the rail-riding Napoleon Solo and the weakening Sea Strike inside the final eighth of a mile. But Leading Change had all the answers and surged past a game Napoleon Solo in the dying strides for a famous victory, with Franco triumphantly waving his stick under the line.

"I had the trip that we expected," Franco said. "We wanted to be forward, behind Napoleon Solo and Sea Strike, I just sit on the rail the whole way around. Going to the five-sixteenths, my horse was going forward, and I felt that I got horse under me. We turned for home, I put him on the outside and he just leveled out. He was digging in. I was happy with the way he finished up."

Added Cox: "We've always thought he was a big-time talent. He showed it before today in his first two starts and he was able to get it done today. I said coming into it that he's light on seasoning, but we were hoping he could make up for it with talent, and he was able to do it."

Trainer Chad Summers was full of pride with the performance of Napoleon Solo.

"He ran so hard. We toyed with running in the [Grade I] Pennsylvania Derby off of this. There's no chance," he said. "So, we'll get back to the barn. We are going to get him back to Belmont on Monday, give him a few days to get over this. We'll nominate to the [Breeders' Cup] Dirt Mile and Classic. We'll see where it goes, how each race kind of shapes up. We'll make a plan with the ownership group."

Of the beaten favorite Golden Tempo, trainer Cherie DeVaux was seeing the glass as half-full.

"He was far back. It just didn't work out with the lack of pace. He had too much to do. He came back fine and that's what is important," she said. Cont. p6

Another Big-Race Rosette For Team Wathnan

The Travers is hardly the first major race won together by Wathnan Racing--the worldwide racing operation of the Emir of Qatar, Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad al Thani--and trainer Brad Cox.

The Wathnan colors have been carried to victory by the likes of the privately acquired Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}), who claimed the scalp of future GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) in the 2025 G1 Dubai World Cup, while fellow KEESEP purchase Commandment (Into Mischief) won this year's GI Curlin Florida Derby before finishing second to Golden Tempo in the GI Belmont Stakes and to Renegade in the Jim Dandy.

Sarah Andrew

Leading Change was nearing a debut during last year's Keeneland fall meeting, but according to Wathan's U.S. Racing Manager Case Clay, came up with some bone bruising, necessitating his scratching.

“Just going back to September last year before Leading Change had to scratch at Keeneland, I remember Brad coming up to me at the September Sale and saying, 'This is the horse you want,'” Clay said. “So, I knew he had a lot of confidence, and he gave him a lot of time after.

"If he was going to win today, it was going to be on talent,” he continued. “Yes, physically he is a stretchy, two-turn, big, good-looking horse that looks like he could have gotten 10 furlongs, so, the day after the Belmont, he won the seven-furlong race at Churchill Downs, then Brad thought, 'let's go Indiana Derby, first time around two turns, see if that works, and then 10 furlongs,' so he won on talent over seasoning today." Cont. p7

Pedigree Notes:

Leading Change is the 16th top-level winner for Gun Runner and is bred on the exact same cross at My Gun's Loaded. A.P. Indy-line mares are responsible for an additional six of the stallion's Grade I winners--three out of mares by Malibu Moon (Sierra Leone, Locked, Always A Runner, all 'TDN Rising Stars'); and one each by Flatter ('Rising Star' Taiba); Tapit (Society); and Sky Mesa ('Rising Star' Further Ado).

The late Congrats was being represented by his ninth elite-level scorer as a broodmare sire, a list that includes the aforementioned Forever Young and his compatriot, the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner Danon Decile (Jpn) (Epiphaneia {Jpn}).

Mandy Pope bought out her partners in Shedaresthedevil when securing the mare for $5 million at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton November Sale and the mare's first foal, a now-juvenile filly named Tinker Taylor (Gun Runner), was sold to Erdenheim Farm for $1.475 million at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale. Shedaresthedevil produced another Gun Runner filly this past season.

Leading Change is the last listed produce for Starship Warpspeed.

H. Allen Jerkens S. cont. from p1

The athletic bay colt was given the better part of a month to recover from the 115 Beyer he achieved when turning the tables on fellow 'Rising Star' Crude Velocity (Beau Liam) in no uncertain terms by nearly a half-dozen lengths in the Stephens. Englishman returned to the worktab at trainer Cherie DeVaux's Keeneland base on July 12 and breezed six times, capping it all off with a strong half-mile in :47 4/5 (6/31) on Aug. 21 before returning to the Spa.

Englishman | Tod Marks

Offering a hint of value largely due to the presence of Juddmonte's Deep Flame (Into Mischief), impressive winner of Churchill's GIII Maxfield Stakes when last seen June 28, Englishman was kicked straight into the lead by Jose Ortiz, but was not forced to overdo it early, as he got the opening quarter in :23.01 hasslefree seconds.

For all intents and purposes, the Jerkens was done and dusted from there.

Deep Flame did his best to keep up the chase into the second turn and began to make some sort of inroads nearing the stretch after the half-mile was posted in :45.50. But Ortiz was once again sitting quietly atop a loaded cannon and though he drifted out into the lane the same as he did before stamping his authority on the Woody Stephens, Englishman ran up the score from there to take it decisively. Cont. p9

The final time of 1:20.71 was the fastest since 2015, when Runhappy clocked 1:20.54.

For all the success this season, DeVaux almost feels the need to pinch herself at what her charge is capable of producing.

"It's not that we doubt--sometimes when horses are as fast as he is, you just kind of get a little nervous [laughs]; especially when you have a target on your back," she said. "He breaks so fast and clears the field, and it's hard for anyone to get up there and challenge him, and I think that's the key.

"Jose [Ortiz] has been key in developing him, especially in his races, because training, he's so straightforward. Jose has done a great job with him, just developing him to be an elite-level horse."

The conditioner has left the door open for a final Breeders' Cup prep, but is in no hurry to commit.

"We really talked about that [ahead of the race], and we just want to see how both horses--Golden Tempo and Englishman--how they run today and how they came out of it," she said. "If they act like they need another race, then that's what we'll do, but we were really just keyed on this weekend."

FULLY SUBSCRIBED IS FULLY SENSATIONAL IN THE PERSONAL ENSIGN by Jill Williams

The only filly to finish in front of Fully Subscribed (Tiz the Law) in her two previous starts this summer at Saratoga was Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro), the undisputed leader of the older filly and mare division. Last year's 3-year-old filly champ, Nitrogen sat out the GI Personal Ensign Stakes at Saratoga Saturday after running instead in the Aug. 8 GI Whitney Stakes, finishing a fantastic second over the heavy hitters of the older male division to reigning Horse of the Year Sovereignty (Into Mischief).

An improving Fully Subscribed, a colorbearer for Klaravich Stables, took full advantage of Nitrogen's absence Saturday in the Personal Ensign, turning in an electric performance that left many believing the 4-year-old will be a worthy adversary for Nitrogen in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff at Keeneland in two months. The Personal Ensign is a 'Win and You're In' race, awarding a fees-paid berth to the Distaff for Fully Subscribed.

In the Personal Ensign, Fully Subscribed, no secret at 4-5, broke on top before taking back to sit a joint third along the rail with last-out GII Molly Pitcher third Nerazurri (Protonico) just to her outside as 20-1 Snowyte (Good Magic) set the :24.11 and :47.64 pace.

Fully Subscribed | Sarah Andrew

Second choice and last year's powerhouse GI CCA Oaks winner Scottish Lassie (McKinzie), who finished just a half-length behind Fully Subscribed in the July 24 GII Shuvee Stakes, tracked in second. Rounding the turn, Scottish Lassie drew alongside Snowyte as Fully Subscribed tipped off the rail. For a fleeting moment, it looked as if it might be a three-horse race to the wire, but Fully Subscribed collared Scottish Lassie and went by in the blink of an eye, blowing by much the best as an 9 3/4-length victress as rider Flavien Prat wrapped up late. Scottish Lassie held second, while Nerazurri outfinished Snowyte by a head for third.

"Very gratifying," said winning trainer Chad Brown, who also won the Personal Ensign in 2024 with Raging Sea (Curlin), also with Prat in the irons. "She's always trained super, like a Grade I-quality filly. Came up a little bit short to start the season, but she's kept improving slowly and steadily, and she's a high-quality race mare. I'm so happy. Heck of a crowd here today at Saratoga. She got to show her stuff and show what she can really do."

The Personal Ensign marked the first Grade I score for Fully Subscribed, who was last seen winning the aforementioned Shuvee over both Scottish Lassie and Snowyte. She finished second in a dead heat behind Nitrogen in the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes June 5. Never off the board in her nine career starts, Fully Subscribed won the GII Mother Goose Stakes and GIII Comely Stakes last fall at Aqueduct, then kicked off her 4-year-old campaign with a runner-up finish to 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Shred the Gnar (Into Mischief) in the GI La Troienne Stakes May 1 at Churchill Downs.

The flashy chestnut is a three-time sales graduate, who was picked up by Klaravich for $300,000 at the 2024 OBS Spring sale of 2-year-olds in training. Brown said Fully Subscribed may be pointed to either the Sept. 25 GII Beldame Stakes at Belmont Park or the Oct. 4. GI Spinster Stakes at Keeneland.

"She's possible for the Beldame or the Spinster," said Brown. "The Spinster of course is over at the same track that they're going to run the Breeders' Cup. [We'll] survey what is going on in the division, who's doing what, what the potential field looks like and go from there."

The Klaravich/Brown/Prat team had a super Saturday at Saratoga, also winning the GI Resorts World Casino Ballerina Stakes with their 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Ways and Means (Practical Joke), a Klaravich homebred.

Pedigree Notes:

Coolmore America's Tiz the Law, a four-time Grade I winner who was the star of the show on Travers Day six years ago when he won the Midsummer Derby, got his third career North American Grade I winner with Fully Subscribed on Travers Day 2026. With his third crop of 2-year-olds racing now, Tiz the Law, a son of Constitution, has 18 worldwide graded winners and 28 black-type winners.

Bred by Payson Stud, Fully Subscribed is a four-generation Payson-bred, tracing back to GSP Adoryphar (Lyphard), whom the late Virginia Kraft Payson purchased for $110,000 as a Keeneland July yearling in 1990. Fully Subscribed's dam, the winning Candy Ride (Arg) mare Sweetbaby, is a daughter of Payson's GI Del Mar Oaks winner Rutherienne (Pulpit). She was sold for $25,000 at the 2022 Keeneland November sale to Rusty Roberts and has a 2-year-old filly named Severely Overpayin (Highly Motivated), who romped in her debut July 25 at Gulfstream for Michael Dubb and Andrew Rosen. The mare produced a yearling full-brother to Fully Subscribed, who brought $1 million from MyRacehorse at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale earlier this month, and a 2026 Maxfield colt. She was covered by Constitution for 2027.

'THIS IS HER HOUSE': WAYS AND MEANS WALTZES TO BALLERINA WIN by Jill Williams

Ways and Means | Sarah Andrew

The team of Klaravich Stables, Chad Brown, and Flavien Prat, who won the GI Personal Ensign Stakes earlier on Saratoga's Travers Day card with Fully Subscribed (Tiz the Law), was back at it in the GI Resorts World Casino Ballerina Stakes as their 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Ways and Means (Practical Joke) romped to a facile 5 1/2-length score. The Ballerina offers a fees-paid 'Win and You're In' berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint at Keeneland Oct. 31.

A Klaravich homebred, Ways and Means settled comfortably in fourth early as 23-1 July 26 GII Honorable Miss Stakes winner Maida (Improbable) showed the way through :21.91 and :44.33 early fractions while GSW Echo Sound (Echo Town) and last-out GI Derby City Distaff winner R Disaster (Awesome Slew) chased. Ways and Means let the leading trio have their way while giving them plenty of space--keeping about three lengths of daylight behind them--then began revving up entering the turn. She stormed up alongside the frontrunners at the top of the lane and didn't take a deep breath, leaving them in her wake and romping home in a sparkling display, prompting track announcer Frank Mirahmadi to proclaim, "Ways and Means in another spectacular performance. This is her house! Ways and Means absolutely crushes them in the Ballerina."

Although the official margin of victory was 5 1/2 lengths, Ways and Means did it so easily the margin may as well have been double that. Last season's Test winner Kilwin (Twirling Candy) closed from far back for second while 12-1 Beauty Reigns (Into Mischief) got up for third. Ways and Means got the seven furlongs in 1:22.05.

“I was traveling well behind the pace, and when I got to the turn I didn't want to move too soon, but she naturally came with me and was wanting to go, so I kind of let her creep up to the pace,” said Prat.

"I think she has always shown how good she is. I think before it was more of a raw talent, but [now] she has the ability to be a bit more push-button."

In seven starts at the Spa, Ways and Means has six victories, including a last-out GII Bed o' Roses Stakes win June 5 when she recorded a 107 Beyer Speed Figure. She got a 111 Beyer in her win in that same race in 2025. Ways and Means also won Saratoga's GI Test Stakes in 2024, with her only career loss at Saratoga a second in the GI Spinaway Stakes at two.

“She's had an amazing career,” said Brown after the Ballerina, “and she was able to come through once again and shine on one of the biggest days of the year up here in Saratoga.”

Ways and Means has won at least one race at Saratoga for each of the last four years.

Brown continued: “"I think from here on to the Breeders' Cup, I wouldn't plan on running her [again]. She runs so well fresh. A long career, you can see I rested her between that last race she had, which she was fully extended there, and after the last time, a little tired afterwards. I let her refill her tank and gave her plenty of time. I'm inclined to do the same thing now, final career start being the Breeders' Cup, if she tells me."

Pedigree Notes:

Woodbine's Jammed Lovely Stakes winner Strong Incentive (Warrior's Reward) is the dam of Ways and Means, GISW Surge Capacity (Flintshire {GB}), and GSW Highly Motivated (Into Mischief). The mare has been through the ring a number of times, most recently at the 2024 Fasig-Tipton November sale, when she brought $2.75 million to the bid of M.V. Magnier and White Birch Farm. Her 2024 Alpha Delta Stables-bred filly, Alpe d'Huez (Good Magic), is working toward her first start and went four furlongs Saturday morning at Saratoga in :48.75 (32/89). The mare has a yearling colt by Into Mischief and was bred back to that same stallion for 2027.

Strong Incentive's current yearling and current cover harkens back to the identical cross that produced her son Highly Motivated, but is also responsible for Ways and Means, as the Ballerina winner is by one of Into Mischief's top sire sons in Practical Joke. One of Practical Joke's earliest top runners--his first-crop MGSW & MGISP Wit--is also bred similarly, as he's out of a Medaglia d'Oro mare. Warrior's Reward, Ways and Means's broodmare sire, is a son of Medaglia d'Oro.

Practical Joke is a Coolmore America stallion and himself a two-time Grade I winner at Saratoga. He has 32 graded winners and 48 black-type winners worldwide among his progeny.

HYMN STRIKES THE RIGHT CHORD IN FOREGO by Jill Williams

Hymn | Sarah Andrew

The complexion of Saturday's GI Forego Stakes at Saratoga took an about-face when reigning champion sprinter and Saratoga powerhouse Book'em Danno (Bucchero) was scratched Saturday morning after getting cast in his stall Friday night. Hymn (McKinzie), whose transformation to a serious racehorse after gelding was detailed in an edition of Saratoga Notebook this week, stepped up to the plate and captured the Forego, earning a 'Win and You're In' berth to the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Keeneland in two months.

Trainer Ron Moquett said Hymn, who apparently would have rather fought his rivals than passed them on the racetrack before the ultimate equipment change, has learned to focus on his job. And focus, he has, transforming a previously unremarkable career into four wins and a second since the procedure. Hymn had exactly one win before he was gelded, a debut victory in February, 2025 at Oaklawn. After he was gelded, he has marched through his conditions with aplomb, capturing an allowance at Oaklawn this past April, an optional allowance at Churchill Downs in May, and Laurel's Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash in June. Moquett sent him to the July 25 GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt Stakes at Saratoga for his first graded try. He was second to Built (Hard Spun) that day while notching a 100 Beyer Speed Figure--the first triple-digit Beyer of his career. The best was yet to come, finding fruition Saturday in the Forego.

Sarah Andrew

"That was a wonderful effort," said Moquett after the race. "We had a plan, and in this game the plans don't always go as you draw them up, but how cool is it for a plan to actually come together? That's great."

Moquett continued: "I thought he was a beautiful, wonderful horse from day one. And I hated having to geld him. And when I did, I said, 'Let's just make him a racehorse and go try to win the Breeders' Cup.' So, we're good."

As expected, favored 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Tip Top Thomas (Volatile)--also a GSW & GISP--set the Forego's pace from the inside while Hymn stuck to his flank through :22.61 and :45.03 splits. With GSW Crazy Mason (Coat Front), who was third in last year's Forego to Book'em Danno, bringing up the rear, about eight lengths off of Tip Top Thomas, the field strung out going into the turn. As Hymn collared Tip Top Thomas on the turn and then went on by at the top of the stretch with Ricardo Santana, Jr. staying busy keeping Hymn's focus, there was a mad scramble for runner-up honors. There was no doubt about the winner--Hymn crossed the line three-quarters of length the best--but longshot T Kraft (Connect), three-in-a-row winner Senior Officer (Into Mischief), and Crazy Mason couldn't be separated by the naked eye. The photo showed a deadheat between T Kraft and Senior Officer, with Crazy Mason just inches back in fourth.

"His last work when I worked him," said Santana, "I told Moquett, 'This horse is a different horse. I think we've got more power this time.' You know, that was the first time I rode him [in the Vanderbilt]. Today, I got more confident in the horse. I was working with him. He broke so sharp, I didn't even grab him. He put me there with [Tip Top Thomas]."

While the Forego awards Hymn with entry to the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, Moquett said after the race he might prefer the GI Sprint for his charge.

"My plan is right now is to get him back and to look at the [Oct. 2 GII] Phoenix [at Keeneland]. I keep telling everybody I can't do him like I did Whitmore. He's not Whitmore. He's his own horse. But we've done this same trek with Whitmore, so we're trying to see what's his trek now."

The popular Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) won the 2018 Forego for Moquett. He won the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland two years later, in 2020, and was named champion male sprinter that year.

Bred by Fleur de Lis Stables, Hymn was a $140,000 RNA at the 2023 Keeneland September yearling sale. Fleur de Lis now races the Forego winner in partnership with William S. Sparks and Bret Jones.

Pedigree Notes:

Gainesway stallion McKinzie gets his fourth Grade I winner as a sire with Hymn's Forego victory. With his third crop of 2-year-olds running this year, the son of Street Sense has five graded winners overall and 11 black-type winners. In addition to Hymn's score Saturday, McKinzie's dual Grade I winner Scottish Lassie finished second in the GI Personal Ensign Stakes.

The late Paynter, a son of Awesome Again, is having an excellent Saratoga meet as broodmare sire. Although it's early to have much influence out of his daughters, his six stakes winners as a damsire include both Hymn and this season's two-time Grade I Spa winner Counting Stars (Honor A. P.).

Hymn's dam hails from the same extended family as Breeders' Cup winner Tourist (Tiznow), dual European Group 1 winner Agnes World (Danzig), G1 Queen Anne Stakes winner Dubai Destination (Kingmambo), and Japanese champion Hishi Akebono (Woodman). Purchased by Hymn's co-owner William Sparks for $40,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale, she has a 2-year-old colt named Coeur d'Or (Early Voting) and a yearling colt by Gunite.

NAOMIS ROCKETS HOME IN NORTH AMERICAN DEBUT TO WIN THE LAKE PLACID

by Stefanie Grimm

Naomis whooshes home in the Lake Placid | Tod Marks

From last to first!

European shipper Naomis (Fr) (City Light {Fr}) hit the gas from the back of the field Saturday, rocketing up the center of the Saratoga turf course to take down the GII Lake Placid Stakes for Chad Brown.

A three-time winner in her native France, including a last-out win in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly in May for owner Michael Dubb who purchased her before that race, the 6-5 favorite was coaxed from the gate and in absolutely no rush early as jockey Flavien Prat settled his filly down at the hedge while last into the first turn.

A several-length gap opened up between her and the field as the fractions went in :25.02 and :49.44 but Prat clearly knew what he had, sitting chilly as Naomis began to inch her back into touch with the rest of the runners.

Still last but now tipped outside, the favorite began to overtake runners, turning for home with plenty of work still to do but yet to find her highest gear. With all the focus on East Jabip (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) and Ultimate Love (Curlin) down along the rail, Naomis took them all by surprise, gobbling up the ground to nail Ultimate Love in the final strides.

Her win is Chad Brown's record-extending seventh in the Lake Placid and his first win in the race since 2024.

"She shipped over to our barn and we momentarily thought about the Lake George with her, I was on the fence, and she spiked a temperature and made my mind up for me that way," Brown said. "So, we pointed her to this and obviously her form going a mile in her last two was good, so it made a lot of sense to start her at a mile. She had trained like she could be a potential GI Queen Elizabeth horse [October 10 at Keeneland] and it sure looks like that off one run." Cont. p17

DRAFTKINGS TRAVERS DAY ATTRACTS MORE THAN $60M IN WAGERING

Edited Press Release

The end of the line for fans waiting to get in to Saratoga for Saturday's DraftKings Travers card | Tod Marks

Saturday's 14-race DraftKings Travers Day card at Saratoga Race Course, highlighted by Leading Change's victory in the 157th running of the $1.25-million GI DraftKings Travers Stakes, generated all-sources wagering handle of $60,863,320.

This year's DraftKings Travers Day handle figure is the second highest in history, behind only the 2024 all-time record of $63,023,405.

Paid attendance on Saturday was 47,659 with on-track handle of $11,197,855.

The DraftKings Travers was the centerpiece of a card featuring five Grade I events including the $500,000 Personal Ensign, the $500,000 H. Allen Jerkens Memorial, the $500,000 Resorts World Casino Ballerina and the $500,000 Forego.

The summer meet will conclude with Fan Appreciation Week featuring special offers on tickets, hospitality, food and beverages starting Wednesday, Sept. 2, through Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 7. Saturday-Monday of Labor Day Weekend will feature a special first post time of 12:05 p.m.

BOOK'EM DANNO GETS CAST IN STALL, OUT OF FOREGO by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Book'em Danno (Bucchero), the even-money morning line favorite for Saturday's $500,000 GI Forego Stakes, cast himself in his stall sometime Friday night and was withdrawn from his title defense, trainer Derek Ryan said.

"What are you going to do?" Ryan said by phone. "That is the racing game for you. He was tearing the barn down like a madman. He will probably be fine tomorrow, but we don't race tomorrow."

Book'em Danno was going for his sixth graded stakes race win at the Spa. He had won two of his three starts this year and had won five of his last six races. The only loss came by a neck in the GII Carter Stakes at Aqueduct on April 4.

He had arrived in Saratoga on Friday from Ryan's base at Monmouth Park.

Ryan said that when he arrived at the barn on Saturday, Book'em Danno just didn't seem right.

Book'em Danno and trainer Derek Ryan at Saratoga on Aug. 28
Sarah Andrew

"We jogged him, gave him a bath and he just seemed off," Ryan said, "He is not 100% right and we can't run them if he is not 100% right."

The ultimate goal for this year is the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland on Oct. 31. Ryan said he will have to figure out the best way to get him there. He expects there will be another race before the Breeders' Cup.

He mentioned the $250,000, seven-furlong GIII Vosburgh Stakes at Belmont Park on Sept. 26 as a possible target.

Book'em Danno has won 12 of 19 career races. His five prior stakes wins at Saratoga are the GII True North Stakes twice (in 2025 and 2026), the GII Vanderbilt Stakes last year, the Forego last year and the GI Woody Stephens Stakes in 2024.

"He's out here standing and eating grass, the big dummy," Ryan said. "He was perfect yesterday, this morning he was not. We will get him back (to Monmouth)} in the next day or two and see where we are at."

With Book'em Danno out, Ryan said he would not be watching the Forego.

"For what?" he said. "I might go to a river and go rafting."

FRANCO HOPING HE'LL BE ABLE TO CATCH ORTIZ By Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, NY--The chase continues for jockey Manny Franco.

For just about all of the summer at Saratoga, Franco, along with everyone else in the jockey colony, has been on the hunt, trying to catch Jose Ortiz. Ortiz has held the top spot in the Spa riding standings for much of the meet.

Now, with days dwindling down to a precious few, Ortiz is not a sure thing.

Franco, like a huge tidal wave, is coming.

Heading into Saturday's Travers Day card, Franco had cut Ortiz's lead to eight, 64-56. At one time, Ortiz had opened up a 14-race advantage.

And here' s the rub: after Saturday, Ortiz is heading to Kentucky Downs to ride. He is only scheduled to ride one more day at the Spa, that being on Sept 4.

Franco is staying put and setting his sights on his first-ever Saratoga riding title.

"That is the plan," Franco said on the Saratoga backstretch. "(Ortiz) has a good lead; let's see how it goes. I love the challenge; that's what it is all about." Cont. p19

Manny Franco celebrates after guiding Survie to a fast-finishing victory in the GI Christophe Clement Turf | Sarah Andrew

Franco has been winning Saratoga races in bunches. He had a six-win day. He has won three races in one day on four different occasions.

Things could get very interesting in the final week of the Saratoga meet.

"If we get the right horses for the last week--and I think we have a solid book to finish here--he'll have a chance," John Panagot, Franco's agent, said. "We are staying the course and trying to keep the momentum going."

Panagot said he expects Franco to get quality mounts from trainers such as Chad Brown, Brad Cox, Miguel Clement and Linda Rice.

"I am going to have a good amount of horses to ride when the other riders leave," Franco said. "I think I have a chance."

Next Saturday, for example, besides Ortiz, Saratoga regulars Tyler Gaffalione, Luis Saez, Javier Castellano and Johnny Velazquez will also be riding at Kentucky Downs.

Casse Toying With Idea of Running Measure Vs Boys

Hall of Fame trainer Mark Casse has never been one to shy away from a challenge. The next one could come in three weeks when Parx Racing has the biggest day of its racing season.

Casse is thinking about possibly running 3-year-old filly Measure (Essential Quality) against the boys in the $1-million GI Pennsylvania Derby on Sept. 19. When last seen, Measure was just a neck behind My Gun's Loaded (Gun Runner) in the GI Alabama Stakes.

Measure (right) | Sarah Andrew

"We will see," Casse said outside his barn on the Saratoga backstretch.

He was also looking at the $1-million GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx on the same day. The Cotillion, for 3-year-old fillies, is 1 1/16 miles; the Pennsylvania Derby is 1 1/8 miles.

"I hate to cut her back," Casse said. "Going from 1 1/4 miles (Alabama) back to 1 1/16 … the only reason the Derby would appeal to me is the 1 1/8 miles. I would not rule it out."

Owned by Gary Barber, Bridlewood Farm and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Measure is winless in four starts this year, but has two seconds and a third. She rounded out the trifecta in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and was second in an allowance race, also at Saratoga.

If Casse decides to skip Parx, Measure could be seen in the $250,000 GII Beldame Stakes at 1 1/8 miles. That race is around one turn at Belmont Park.

"Not crazy about that," Casse said.

One other option is to put Measure in against her stablemate Counting Stars (Honor A.P.), the favorite in the Alabama, who finished third, in the $650,000 GI Juddmonte Spinster Stakes for 3-year-olds and up on Oct. 4 at Keeneland.

"We have a lot of options," Casse said. "I want to be careful. Both these fillies can have superstar 4-year-old years."

Pletcher Looking Forward to Start of 'New' Belmont

Todd Pletcher | Sarah Andrew

As the days of summer dwindle down to a precious few, soon the eyes of New York racing will shift from Saratoga to the sparkling, brand new Belmont Park on Long Island.

The much-anticipated opening of the New York Racing Association's Belmont Park is set for Friday, Sept. 18 with the $1-million Jockey Club Gold Cup as the first feature race. And what a feature that could be with a potential matchup between 2025 Horse of the Year Sovereignty (Into Mischief) and Japanese superstar Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}).

There certainly figures to be plenty of pomp and circumstance as NYRA unveils the new Belmont, a project that cost $455 million and took three years to complete.

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher, a mainstay on the New York circuit, is looking forward to getting back home. Pletcher has always had a presence in New York and will be back when it opens up.

"It looks like it's a tremendous facility," Pletcher said.

He is anxious to see the new digs, but, also a little sad to see the old Belmont Park go.

"Oh yeah," he said. "There was something cool about it. Always have mixed feelings about these major changes."

IN OUR TIME TOPS NOT THIS TIME 1-2 IN LADIES' TURF SPRINT by Alan Carasso

A debut maiden winner on the dirt when pitched in against $12,500 claimers back in March 2024, In Our Time (m, 5, Not This Time--Laura's Pleasure, by Cactus Ridge) scaled the heights Saturday afternoon at Kentucky Downs, wiring the $1.75-million GI Ladies' Turf Sprint to become the newest elite-level scorer for her exceptional stallion.

Off at odds of 27-5--the minimum wager at Kentucky Downs this season has been raised from $2 to $5--the Saffie Joseph, Jr. runner made a fairly easy lead from her outside draw with fellow Barbadian Micah Husbands at the controls and made the running down the hill and into the turn as two-time defending champion Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) prompted to her outside.

With little between the two for the run into the false stretch, In Our Time responded when set down, quickly opened up on the field and was punched out to join Franklin-Simpson Stakes hero Troubleshooting as Grade I winners for her Taylor Made-based stallion at the European-style oval. Time To Dazzle ran on the complete the Not This Time exacta and Jody's Pride (American Pharoah) was third. Ag Bullet retreated to finish out of the money.

In Our Time | Coady Media

Originally purchased for $325,000 at Keeneland September in 2022, In Our Time was bought back on a bid of just $9,000 at Keeneland January a little more than a year later and made a winning debut for Jack Sisterson at Gulfstream in March 2024. Sold to Miller Racing after her third career start, In Our Time took the Cellars Shiraz Stakes in late 2024 and by the time she finished third in the GII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf in January 2025, John Stewart's Resolute Racing had joined the ownership team.

An allowance winner and second in the GI Matriarch Stakes in 2025, In Our Time was only ninth as the favorite in this year's Pegasus FM Turf, but dropped back in trip for a 5-1 tally in Keeneland's GII Giant's Causeway Stakes Apr. 12. An even fifth in Saratoga's GII Intercontinental Stakes June, the dark bay was a latest third to Movin' On Up (Accelerate) and Zeitlos (Curlin) in the GII Caress Stakes at the Spa July 11.

Pedigree Notes:

In Our Time is the 14th elite-level winner for Not This Time, whose son Troubleshooting took out last year's GI Franklin-Simpson Stakes and has drawn the fence for next Saturday's GII Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint. Like Troubleshooting, whose dam is by Into Mischief, In Our Time also hails from a Storm Cat female line.

A half-sister to UAE listed winner and Group 3-placed Important Mission (More Than Ready) and to the dam of the juvenile stakes-placed Miss Call (Silver State), In Our Time is out of a half-sister to GII Ruffian Handicap heroine Withgreatpleasure (Hold That Tiger) and SW Sea of Pleasure (Sea of Secrets).

Laura's Pleasure is also represented by the 2-year-old filly Golden Pleasure (Golden Pal), a yearling Oscar Performance colt and a full-sister to In Our Time produced this past Apr. 30. The mare was bred to Life Is Good for her 2027 mating.

TEST SCORE PUNCHES BREEDERS' CUP TICKET IN DEL MAR HANDICAP by Alan Carasso

As a 2-year-old back in 2024, Amerman Racing homebred Test Score (Lookin At Lucky) made the trans-continental journey on Breeders' Cup weekend and charged home to just miss in the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Stakes on the championship Friday undercard.

Now four, this year's GI Pegasus World Cup Turf hero earned the right to take on some of the world's heaviest hitters in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf on championship Saturday after surging home to narrowly best Atitlan (The Factor) in Saturday's GII Del Mar Handicap. Favored Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}), attempting to win the 11-furlong feature for a remarkable fifth time in succession, endured a checkered passage and did well to be fourth.

First to break the line for Juan Hernandez, Test Score was grabbed hold of and took up a position just ahead of midfield as a pair of longshots matched motors up front. Content to ride the rails through the middle furlongs and into the last of the three turns, Test Score was given his cue with a bit more than a quarter mile to travel, but had some traffic of his own to negotiate in upper stretch. Pulled across the heels of Mondego (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who was roused to the lead at the furlong grounds, Test Score kicked it in when it mattered most and found the line a short neck to the good of Atitlan.

"He's a little horse that will not give up. He'll fight," said Alice Clapham, assistant to trainer Graham Motion. "He's a true racehorse. I was a little worried around the bend when he had a lot of horses around him because when he gets going you don't want him to get stopped; but once he got clear and changed his lead he just kept going."

Test Score was a three-time winner at three in 2025, taking out the GI Belmont Derby and the GII Twilight Derby up at Santa Anita ahead of a close third as the odds-on favorite in the GI Hollywood Derby at the seaside last November.

The bay led home a Motion 1-2 in the Pegasus Jan. 24, defeating One Stripe (SAf) (One World {SAf}), but he never picked up his feet when beating just one home in the GI Turf Classic at Churchill May 2. A bounce-back second to Deterministic (Liam's Map) and just ahead of One Stripe in the GI Manhattan Stakes on June 6 at Saratoga, Test Score was exiting an even sixth to Burhnam Square (Liam's Map) in the GI Arlington Million at Colonial Aug. 1.

IRON MAN CAL CAN'T BE CAUGHT IN 'WAYI' PAT O'BRIEN by Jill Williams

After the race was delayed by about 10 minutes when Little Red Feather Racing and Madaket Stables's Iron Man Cal (Collected) needed a shoe repair in the paddock, he proved he was worth the wait. The bay set all the pace in Saturday's GII Pat O'Brien Stakes at Del Mar and was not for catching. The Pat O'Brien is a 'Win and You're In' race for the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, giving the Phil D'Amato pupil a fees-paid berth to the championship race, which will be held at Keeneland Oct. 31.

"Phil [D'Amato] just told me we wanted to be near the front," said winning rider Joel Rosario. "We were there for most of the trip. He ran good this horse; he was game. And he must have liked those new shoes!"

Iron Man Cal avoided most of the hard bumping that occurred out of the gate when the two horses directly to his inside, Gold Sweep (Speightstown) and Bartholdy (Mendelssohn), made significant contact. Unbothered, Iron Man Cal emerged from the fray to show the way through a :22.51 first quarter and a :45.11 half as most of the field bunched up right behind him. Iron Man Cal stayed straight and true to the wire, holding sway over a closing Moonlight (Audible), the recent GI Bing Crosby third-place finisher, who nabbed second by a half-length over Big City Lights (Mr. Big), with Stronghold (Ghostzapper) another half-length back in fourth.

"I told Joel [Rosario] break him like you're going to come running," said trainer Phil D'Amato after the Pat O'Brien. "If you're on the lead and no one wants it go with it; otherwise sit second or third or fourth. He broke running and went with it."

The Pat O'Brien marked just the second start on dirt for Iron Man Cal, who finished third last out in the July 18 GII San Diego Handicap behind Journalism (Curlin) in his first try on the main track. On turf, he won the GIII Zuma Beach Stakes via disqualification in 2024, parlaying that into a runner-up finish that year in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. His 3-year-old season was abbreviated to just two starts, including an Oceanside Stakes runner-up finish on the lawn, while his 2026 turf campaign yielded one win--an optional allowance at Santa Anita June 7. Cont. p23

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

Pedigree Notes:

New California sire Collected, who moved to Rancho San Miguel prior to the 2026 breeding season, continues to flaunt his prowess in his new digs. Iron Man Cal joins GI Gamely Stakes and GII Buena Vista Stakes winner Thought Process, as well as GIII Poker Stakes winner Pass the Hat, with graded wins for their sire since the move. The son of City Zip, whose five graded wins of his own included the 2017 GI Pacific Classic, has nine graded winners and 24 black-type winners in his five crops to the races.

The late Brereton C. Jones, who bred Iron Man Cal and originally stood Collected at his Airdrie Stud, bought the unraced Joyful Dreams for $60,000 at the 2019 Keeneland November sale. In addition to Iron Man Cal, she has an unraced 2-year-old Cairo Prince colt named Animal Spirits, who was a $100,000 Miguel Clement purchase at last year's Keeneland September sale. The mare has also produced a yearling Happy Saver colt, a 2026 filly by City of Light, and was covered by Upstart for 2027.

Willy D's | Coady Media

Willy D's got to the winner's circle after taking the lead shortly after the bell and the 5-year-old never relinquished it, which netted him the 18th running of the GII Charles Town Classic on Friday evening.

After beginning his career under the tutelage of trainer Greg Compton, the bay made the switch to Michael Maker's care when he was claimed for $50,000 at Oaklawn early in 2025. The gelding established himself as a mark of consistency thereafter.

Willy D's was the runner-up in this race to Banishing a year ago and since then earned the first higher-level win of his career in the GIII TwinSpires Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Park Mar. 21. Willy D's took the Lake Ouachita Stakes in Hot Springs May 2, but failed to hit the board against the big guns over the slop in the GI Stephen Foster Stakes at Churchill Downs June 27.

Ready for some bull ring action as a 7-1 shot here, Willy D's hustled to hold a short lead over his old foe Banishing before the pair hit the initial turn.

Willy D's continued to hold sway passing the grandstand for the first time, but the winner from a year ago dogged his track through the far turn. Still, the Maker trainee proved stubborn, found more strength for the final push and refused to lose.

Pedigree Notes:

With Willy D's victory, the expatriated Lookin At Lucky (by Smart Strike) is represented by some 115 worldwide winners at the group/graded level.

His dam's second foal, Willy D's has a 3-year-old half-brother in-training named Saint of War (Volatile) and a 2-year-old half-sister by Volatile.

Herself a half-sister to Puerto Rican dual champion Pure Lemon (Eskendereya), Boston Mine produced a filly by Vekoma last year and she was bred to Sierra Leone.

Upset-minded Niche got the better of hometown girl At a Premium Friday night, turning back that rival in a stretch-length duel to take the GII Charles Town Oaks.

Making her West Virginia debut under the lights for Rob Atras, the 14-1 shot came in with good recent form, breaking her maiden three back at Laurel in April then returning to score against winners in New York in open company at 6 1/2 furlongs in May. Her stakes debut came on the Tapeta in Presque Isle's Lady Erie Stakes July 20 where was run down late and came up 1 3/4-lengths short in second.

Drawn inside here, Niche was happy to assume the pacesetter's role once again but she was taken on right away by the undefeated At a Premium who was looking to stretch her four-race Charles Town win streak to five for David Walters.

Niche (inside) | Coady Media

Jockey Dylan Davis, in town as the regular pilot for Niche, had his filly nice and relaxed on the lead though At a Premium never let her get more than a length at best in front. That pair came together on even terms around the far turn as they separated themselves with a big gap back to Tessellate who was just attempting to hang on for third. Head and head down the stretch, Niche was able to fight on, gutting out the gate-to-wire upset win.

Pedigree Notes:

Niche is the fifth graded stakes winner for leading second crop sire Yaupon, who stands at Spendthrift Farm in Kentucky. Etarip Stables purchased Stormbeforethecalm from the OBS Winter Mixed Sale this year for $47,000 after co-breeding this filly in partnership with the mare's previous owner, Sumemrfield Sales. She has four winners from six to race with Niche joining stakes-winning half-siblings Proven Strategies (Sky Mesa) and Corona Bolt (Bolt d'Oro). The mare herself is a half to Prince of Wales Stakes winner Cool Catomine (Spring At Last).

Niche has a 2-year-old half-brother by Olympiad who also went through the OBS Sales ring this year in June for $15,000 to SVREL. She also has a yearling half-sister by Mage who was a $60,000 Keeneland November weanling last fall.

She's No Quant (Pavel) loses J.J. Hernandez, but that's understandable since he's opted to ride for Bob Baffert on Rabeeba (Curlin). The Cal-bred filly tries open company for the first time, but this is far from a tough spot. She ran a bang-up race in the seven-furlong Fleet Treat Stakes, which was her first try on dirt. She now has to prove she can handle two turns and a mile, but is a horse who has won three straight and should provide some value in this race. Rabeeba figures to be over bet because of the Baffert factor. That doesn't mean she can't win. Daughter of Curlin is undefeated and had no problem with this distance when winning a Del Mar allowance on July 26. On paper, it doesn't look like Bank Shot (Game Winner) is in good form, but she has been facing much better. Might have a chance, but both jockey and trainer are ice cold at this meet. --Bill Finley

CLUB REIGN GETS CO-OWNER RUSSELL WILSON ON THE BOARD WITH 'RISING STAR' DEBUT AT SARATOGA

Club Reign | Tod Marks

by Stefanie Grimm

First-time starter Club Reign (Core Beliefs--Bag of Tricks, by Bernardini), a colt co-owned by former Seahawks quarterback and Super Bowl champion Russell Wilson, kicked off DraftKings Travers Day strong, blitzing a maiden field in the opener to become a new 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard'.

A $475,000 OBS April grad, the 8-1 shot drew wide in this debut but flashed strong early speed from the gate to race two-wide up the backstretch outside of rail-drawn Roll Wave (Into Mischief) who broke a step slow but rushed up to stick a head in front.

Happy to let that rival lead him into the far turn, Club Reign stalked off that one's flank, drew even as the pair hit the quarter pole and hit high gear once straightened away under jockey Edgard Zayas, opening up through the final sixteenth to win with authority by six lengths.

A tight photo for the minor placings went to Subjugation (Bee Jersey). 'Insighted' runner Beau Valor (Beau Liam) filled out the trifecta while Up to the Task (Nashville) was fourth and Roll Wave drifted back sixth.

"We have always been very high on this horse," trainer Whit Beckman told the TDN after the race. "He trained all along like he had a ton of ability. He advertised himself well in the [morning]. We'll figure [his next start out] in the next few days but the [GI] Champagne would be my first thought."

The GI Champagne Stakes, held Oct. 3 at the new Belmont Park, is a 'Win and You're In' race for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. It also offers the winner 10 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby.

Club Reign is the first racing venture for Wilson, who co-owns the colt under the name Three Brand Racing. He was purchased in Ocala by Legion Bloodstock who also sourced Saturday's GI Travers entry Ocelli (Connect) for trainer Whit Beckman.

Second-crop sire Core Beliefs is honored with his first 'TDN Rising Star' here. Breeder Walmac Farms, who stands the stallion, purchased Bag of Tricks from the Fasig-Tipton Digital Platform in December 2022 for $34,000.

"[Club Reign] was always nice," added Walmac Farm Manager Dawn Carr. "He was put in a late book at Keeneland and we ended up pulling him out because we liked him. We ended up keeping him, took him down to [consignor] Julie Davis, and she fell in love with him. She's our 2-year-old trainer in Florida. She wanted him in the 2-year-old sale and said she wanted everyone to see what Core Beliefs could do."

Walmac stayed in for a piece of the horse along with Three Brand Racing and Ribble Farms. Cont.

"[We stayed in] beacuse we always loved him and we're also trying to the Core Beliefs babies out there with different trainers. We wanted to give him every chance and opportunity because we believe in Core Beliefs and his babies. He didn't get that many mares in his first year so for his second crop, we decided to breed not just more mares but good mares to him because we believed in him. His second crop seems to be coming out stronger and hopefully they keep going."

Walmac trainer Scott Hansen, who scouted Club Reign's sire, added, "I only have about four or five [Core Beliefs babies] but they all look like they want to run long. This horse has a lot more speed, but all of them that I've had have shown talent. It looks like this horse will want to stretch out."

Bag of Tricks has three winners from six to race with a yearling Pappacap colt and a weanling Muth filly both still to represent her. Walmac sent her to Good Magic for 2027.

And as for sharing a co-owner's role with Wilson?

"It's been great," Carr said, with Hansen adding, "Hopefully he's hooked and he'll [want to] buy some more!"

FILLY VIRABHADRASANA STRIKES 'WARRIOR POSE' FOR POLITI IN MAIDEN AT THE SPA

by J.N. Campbell

Dr. Joel Politi's red-checkered colors came flying down the lane in a maiden special weight at the Spa on Saturday as Virabhadrasana (Jackie's Warrior--Montana Native, by Yes It's True) struck a 'warrior pose' all the way to the winner's circle.

The 2025 Keeneland September grad made her first start upstate Aug. 1 and belatedly showed interest to finish fourth behind fellow firster Life Changing (Life Is Good).

Overlooked as a 10-1 shot here, Virabhadrasana flashed speed out of the blocks to be in the mix early, but it was Quella (Good Magic) who showed the way up the backstretch. The Kinnon LaRose trainee navigated to one of the outside paths entering the far turn and began to get a good sweat going to match her speed. Taking over the lead at the quarter pole, Virabhadrasana switched to a higher gear, added to her margin and graduated by 2 1/2 lengths over Psalm Beauty (Jackie's Warrior) to complete the Exacta for the first-crop stallion. Cont.

Finishing third was LNJ Foxwoods's Foxiest (Gun Runner). The filly is out of dual champion Covfefe (Into Mischief) who incidently bested the Politi-owned Serengeti Empress (Alternation) in the 2019 edition of the GI Test Stakes at Saratoga.

"You know I've been going to the sales for about 10 years now with Tom Amoss, and we always look at the physicals first, then we find pedigrees that match what we're looking for," owner Dr. Joel Politi told TDN by phone. "This filly was very physically impressive and just gorgeous.

"She's a May foal that was a really big filly," he said. "She's out of a Grade III winner and had the looks. I feel we got really lucky because at the sale Jackie's Warrior was really hot. Sometimes they slip through the cracks and it just all works out. I think Jackie's Warrior will continue to pick up steam and the year's not done yet."

Before performing the yoga 'warrior pose' for Maggie Wolfendale on the FOX Sports 'Day at the Races' broadcast, trainer Kinnon LaRose said of the winner, "She took a lot out of that first race and really matured mentally. Ricardo [Santana] worked her before she ever ran and he liked her right away."

A $150,000 purchase by Chad Schumer out of the 2022 Keeneland November Sale, Montana Native (Yes It's True) has yet to produce a foal since the winner, but she was bred to Barnes for 2027.

Virabhadrasana is the ninth winner for her freshman sire (by Maclean's Music).

Olympiad Firster Looks Primed For Saratoga Bow

Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings. Summer Breezes, sponsored by OBS Sales, highlights debuting and stakes-entered 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, including links to their under-tack previews. Here are the entries for Sunday at Saratoga. Information gathered by Alan Carasso.

Mid American earned the first black-type for freshman sire Epicenter (by Not This Time) when he sailed home a winner in the Kentucky Downs Juvenile Turf Sprint on Saturday.

The Jimmy DiVito trainee was well-beaten on the dirt at Ellis July 17, but in his second start--which came on the grass at the Pea Patch Aug. 9--the chestnut found his footing and won by 3 1/4 lengths.

As a 5-1 shot here, Mid American came firing at the bell, but was taken in hand as the field headed for the far turn. The colt worked his way through some traffic and dove towards the rail which was a solid move for the stretch drive. Cont.

The juvenile had plenty of speed left in reserve and he scampered to the wire to deliver the score.

The winner is his dam's last recorded foal on record, but she was entered in Barnes's book for next season. Wampum Girl is a half-sister to GISW Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}) and MSW Miss Empire (Empire Maker). Under Mid American's third dam we find the dam of Horse of the Year Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway).

Bravaro debuted a winner in late September and won the Sleepy Hollow Stakes a month later--both at Aqueduct versus New York-breds. The Saffie Joseph trainee went to Gulfstream Park and was the runner-up in the GIII Holy Bull Stakes, then finished a well-beaten fourth in the GII Fountain of Youth Stakes.

The 3-year-old was fourth in the final Apr. 4 running of the Wood Memorial at the Big A and finished in that same spot in the Mike Lee Stakes at the Spa June 3. Last seen missing by a neck in the Petramalo Mile Stakes at Colonial Downs Aug. 1, Bravaro was installed as a 7-1 shot here.

The bay colt tracked the pace from the outside as the field rounded the first turn. Bravaro was given his cue around the far turn, drove to the front entering the lane and earned his prize.

The second foal for his dam, the winner has unraced 2-year-old full-brother named Selak and a yearling half-brother by Practical Joke. A half-sister to the dam of Canadian stakes winner Artemus Citylimits (Temple City), Opera Star was once again entered in Upstart's ledger for next season.

After a runner-up ending in the Matron Stakes Mar. 27, the bay shipped to Churchill Downs and was a close third in the GIII Winning Colors Stakes, then a close second GII Chicago Stakes June 20.

The 6-5 choice here nestled into a tracking spot after the break and waited to pounce on the pace. Firing to the outside as the field headed around the far turn, Foie Gras proved up to the task as she seized the lead and finished with a flourish.

Table Manners handed the winner a full-brother earlier this year and was bred to Maclean's Music for next term.

Sharons Beach has hit the board in all of his races during 2026. The gelding competed in maiden optional claimers at Santa Anita, then was the runner-up in a pair of starter allowances at Keeneland Apr. 8 and Churchill Downs Apr. 29.

After running second against allowance types at Horseshoe Indy June 25, the 3-year-old cleared an optional claimer by a nose at the Spa Aug. 5.

As a 9-1 shot here, Sharons Beach was forwardly placed in the early stages of the race and waited for his cue through the far turn. Saving his best moves for the final push, the Jonathan Thomas trainee struck the front in the straightaway and went on to take the trophy at Fairmount Park over Wonder Mist and Blackout Time.

A half-sister to MGSW Bonny South (Munnings), the winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Code West and she was bred back to that same sire for 2027. Under Sharons Beach's third dam we find French Group 1 winner Etoile Montante (Miswaki), herself the dam of MGSW Starformer (Dynaformer).

Perfect in the two races he finished thus far, Chaos Agent added his first stakes win Saturday in Woodbine's Toronto Cup.

After breaking his maiden at Gulfstream in February, the Josie Carroll runner pulled up in the GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks in March and didn't resurface for five months, coming back to win at Woodbine facing optional claimers at seven furlongs Aug. 2.

Making his turf debut Saturday, the 3-1 shot was comfortable at the rear of the field as Powell River led for much of the early running. Still seventh and wide off the far turn, he had to navigate traffic trouble into the stretch but had plenty of fight in him to get up. Stewards took a look at the stretch run as the jockeys aboard the second and fourth-place runners both claimed foul but the result was allowed to stand.

The fourth stakes winner for Independence Hall, Chaos Agent has a 2-year-old Greatest Honour half-sister, a yearling half-sister by Jimmy Creed and a weanling half-sister by Two Phil's. Into Oblivion visited Jackie's Warrior for 2027.

Also Ran: Costa Linda, Cakey, Cyber Spy.

Royal Companion faced restricted maiden company in her first race and finished fourth at Colonial Downs June 26, but broke through trying the turf at the Virginia track July 16.

The 6-5 choice here kept close watch on Cyber Spy (Cyberknife) up the backstretch as the leader tried to run the others off their feet. Royal Companion needed running room around the far turn and got her opening as the field hit the final furlong marker. Gunning her engine, the 2-year-old went right by Gypsy Lullaby and got the money.

The winner's dam produced a colt named Bold Dominion (Domestic Product) in the spring, and she was bred to Epicenter and City of Light for next term. Not My Money is a half-sister to MGSW Repo Rocks (Tapiture).

Pennsylvania-bred Emphatic (Nyquist), a brilliant debut winner at Colonial Downs July 25, backed that up with authority Saturday in the two-turn Sorority Stakes at Monmouth Park.

Quick from the gate despite a wide draw into the short run for the first turn, the 3-2 shot cornered three wide but still hung around in the top flight, sitting third and making steady forward progress past the half-mile pole.

Still three wide and now pressuring for the lead, Emphatic had no issue drawing past pacesetter Witchy Vibes (Epicenter) and hit the stretch with a clear lead, opening up at will for the win.

First-time starter Revenge of the Sis (Girvin), the full-sister to MGISW Dorth Vader, ran on well after missing the break and wound up third while Spectacular Sam (Cyberknife) was second.

"She couldn't have been more impressive," said winning trainer Brendan Walsh. "I thought she had a great trip even though she got hung a little wide early on. But she had a nice smooth trip after that. I liked the way she cruised around there and then picked it up again in the stretch. It looks like she could be a pretty nice filly. She was sharp. She showed speed her first race so I wasn't surprised that she was right up with the early speed. She's a Pennsylvania-bred so we decided to try her in Virginia (at Colonial Downs) first time out instead of Ellis. So we decided to ship her out of state. I think it has proven to be the right thing right now. I think we have to try (graded stakes company next) with a 2-year-old that is 2-for-2 and has done it the way she has. You have to give her a chance. She's a stakes winner now so the pressure is off to an extent. So we'll probably take a graded stakes shot with her. I want to see how she comes back from this since she had to ship again and then I'll talk to the owners and we will make a decision about what is next for her."

A $260,000 Keeneland September grad, Emphatic is one of four winners from five to race for her unraced Tiznow first dam. Second dam Tap of the Day is a full-sister to GISW and perennial leading sire Tapit (Pulpit). That mare has a yearling colt by Gunite who is her last reported foal. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

DUTY BOUND (f, 2, Jack Christopher--Turbulent Descent {MGISW, $1,211,640}, by Congrats), a half-length winner in her Colonial Downs unveiling going a furlong shorter July 26, added the extra distance against winners Saturday at Kentucky Downs. The 9-2 second choice was content to sit in the back half of the field for much of the early running, saving her speed through a half in :45.85. Advancing up as the fillies came into the long stretch, she took on late leader Elegante Miz (Golden Pal) and dueled that rival to the wire, getting the bob to win by a head. One of nine winners for Jack Christopher, Duty Bound is a beautifully-bred daughter of MGISW Turbulent Descent and last RNA'd through the Fasig-Tipton ring at $2.45 million in 2014. As a broodmare, she has two winners from five to race including Spanish Steps (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), GSW-Ire. She reported a weanling Munnings filly this spring. DR. KAPUR (c, 3, McKinzie--Ava's Kitten {SW & GSP, $279,771}, by Kitten's Joy) broke his maiden at second asking at Keeneland last October, but was well-beaten in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes at Churchill Downs in late November. Heading to the sidelines, the colt finished a distant eighth in the Sam F. Davis Stakes at Tampa Bay Downs Feb. 7 and was last seen running sixth against allowance company over the slop at the Spa July 18. As a 10-1 shot here, Dr. Kapur rated in fifth for most of the race. As favorite Sculcos Folly (Redesdale) began to be passed by Anyway (candy Ride {Arg}) inside the final furlong, the Ken Ramsey homebred rallied along the rail and scooped up the victory in the final jump. Bred and raced by the Ramseys, the winner's dam is responsible for unraced $400,000 2-year-old colt in-training Mapped (Not This Time), who is entered Sunday at the Spa for trainer Todd Pletcher. PRINT (c, 3, Munnings--Promotional {GSP, $196,693}, by Artie Schiller) finally broke his maiden on his fifth try at the Big A on Apr. 12. The chestnut was the runner-up versus optional claimers over the Aqueduct turf May 9 and finished third over the same surface June 12. After running fifth in the restricted Saranac Stakes at the Spa July 3, the colt was a close fourth in the GII Hall of Fame Stakes upstate Aug. 7. As a 6-1 shot here, the homebred settled in seventh and bided his time until it was time to strike entering the lane. Powering forward with some nice turn of foot, Print closed impressively and cleared the condition by a length over Instability (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). The winner is a half-brother to Daunt (Nyquist), SP, $418,171 and to current 2-year-old filly Critiquer (Justify). SUCCEED®

"Feeding SUCCEED® daily has made a huge difference in my horses' digestion, overall health, performance, and recovery."

Richard Hughes
Trainer | Lambourn, England

Daily, Long-Term Support:
Designed for daily use to maintain the health of the entire digestive tract, including the stomach and hindgut.

Natural Ingredients:
Made with natural, nutritional ingredients that help fortify the digestive system.

Improved Behavior:
Total digestive health can transform how a horse handles itself in a stable, traveling, on the ground, and under saddle.

Balanced Weight & Condition
Maintain a health appetite, good nutrition, proper weight and muscle, and quick recovery.

Stronger Immunity & Resilience
Digestive tract health impacts strong immunity as well as the horse's ability to handle travel and performance stress well.

QEII-BOUND ZAVATERI BACK WITH A BANG IN THE CELEBRATION MILE

Eve Johnson Houghton on Zavateri: "He is a machine when it comes to it." | Racingfotos.com

By Tom Frary

Without a win since last year's Vincent O'Brien National Stakes, Zavateri (Without Parole) returned to winning ways with a vengeance on Saturday as he dominated Goodwood's G2 Celebration Mile.

Eye-catching when fifth in the Sussex here off a break, Mick and Janice Mariscotti's flagbearer was in that position again in the City of York earlier this month, but this represented a more significant class drop than the status suggests and he was in no mood to miss out again.

Always travelling powerfully for Charlie Bishop as Qirat (Showcasing) set the tempo, the well-backed 11-10 favourite picked up last year's Sussex hero with ease approaching the furlong pole and drew away to score with real authority by 3 1/2 lengths. There was another 2 1/4 lengths back to Fast Tracker (Churchill) in third.

"He showed the turn of foot which we know he had--it's taken him a bit of time to find it this year but I said beforehand that, if he goes on the ground, he wins," Eve Johnson Houghton said of the winner, who had also won the Vintage Stakes here and the July Stakes at Newmarket at two.

PUSH THE BOAT OUT DOWNS GREAT BARRIER REEF IN THE ROUND TOWER

By Sean Cronin

Michael O'Callaghan trainee Push The Boat Out (Kodi Bear), who annexed a six-furlong Curragh maiden on debut earlier this month, returned over the same course and distance to upset the hitherto undefeated Great Barrier Reef (No Nay Never) in Saturday's G3 Heider Family Stables Round Tower Stakes.

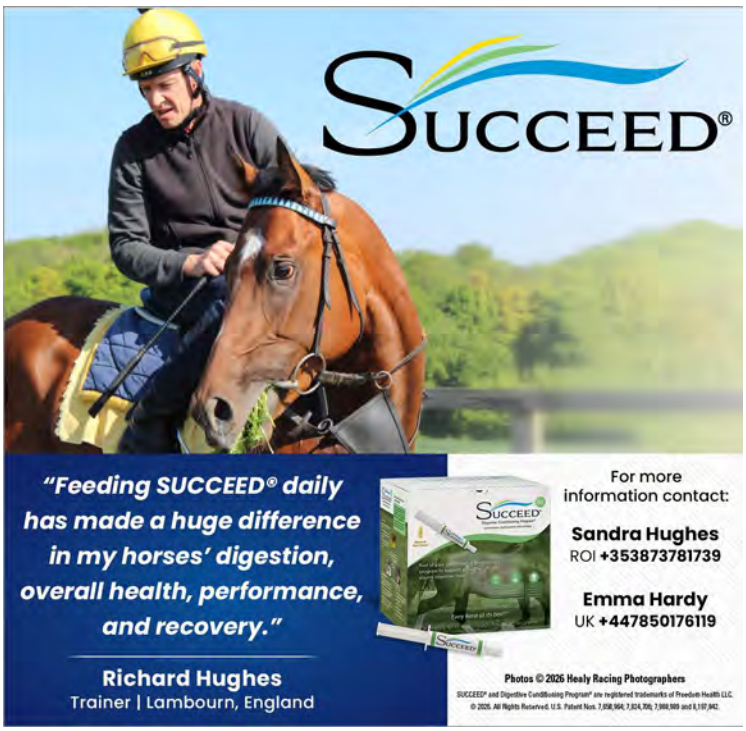

"When they win a maiden first time out, they have to jump up to this level," explained O'Callaghan. "There was a little bit of greenness there during the middle part of the race and he came off the bridle early, but Seamie [Heffernan] got him rolling from halfway. Seamie said he feels like a miler next year and was very complimentary of him, but he said he's still a little bit weak. He's unbeaten, he's won his Group race and he's beaten the Coventry winner."

Johnson Houghton continued, "He travels with his own teddy bear, because that's what he loves and it's his comfort blanket, but he is a machine when it comes to it. The QEII is where we're going--end of conversation!"

Pedigree Notes

Zavateri is the first foal out of the unraced Zeroua (Siyouni), a half-sister to the dual Group 3 winner Zeyrek (Sea The Stars) and, more importantly, a granddaughter of the mighty Zarkava (Zamindar) whose victories at the highest level included a Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. She is now also the producer of Dubawi's up-and-coming sire son Zarak and the second dam of Siyouni's fellow Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Zarigana. Zeroua's two-year-old filly Zaire (Ghaiyyath) was a 400,000gns purchase by David Redvers Bloodstock at Tattersalls October Book 1, while she also has a yearling colt by Baaeed and a foal full-brother to Zavateri to come.

"Seamie mentioned Newmarket [for the G1 Dewhurst], so we'll get him home and let the dust settle. We'll enjoy today," O'Callaghan added.

The 17-2 chance was positioned in third from the outset of this black-type bow. Coming under pressure approaching the quarter-mile marker, he went second entering the final furlong and was ridden out to collar Great Barrier Reef, who was conceding five pounds all round, by a neck nearing the line.

This month's G1 Phoenix Stakes third Velozee (Sioux Nation) kept on well to finish 1 3/4 lengths adrift in third.

Pedigree Notes

Push The Boat Out, who becomes the sixth Group-race winner for his sire, is the second of four registered foals and leading performer produced by a half-sister to Listed Cork Sprint winner and G3 Greenlands third An Saighdiur (Acclamation) and to the dam of Listed Pontefract Castle third Only Orsenfoolsies (Trade Fair).

The winner, who is from the family of the G1 Racing Post Trophy-winning sire Dilshaan (Darshaan), is full to yearling and weanling fillies.

'SHE'S MY OAKS FILLY FOR NEXT YEAR' - BOLGER HIGH ON NAVAL CROWN'S FIRST STAKES WINNER SEA OF RAIN By Tom Frary

Dubawi's Kildangan Stud-based Naval Crown was the latest first-crop sire with a breakthrough stakes winner on Saturday as Jim Bolger's Sea Of Rain toughed it out in the Curragh's G3 Newtownanner Stud Irish EBF Stakes.

Off the mark at Leopardstown at the fifth attempt before finishing fourth in the Churchill Stakes at Gowran, the homebred raced close to the early pace before cruising to the fore passing halfway. Having to battle to the line, the 18-1 shot answered every call from Colin Keane to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from Ballyskeagh (Gleneagles), with a neck separating that Joseph O'Brien-trained Leopardstown maiden winner and the Daniel McLoughlin-trained Damsel In Distress (Minzaal).

"It's no surprise. All she needed was the mile and a gallop," Bolger said of the winner of this prestigious affair, better known as the Flame of Tara.

ALFRED WALLACE TOO STRONG IN THE SOLARIO By Tom Frary

Alfred Wallace | Racingfotos.com

Saturday's G3 BetMGM Solario Stakes lost two key actors in Rock Montreal and Sergei Diaghilev after the rain fell on Sandown, leaving the admirable Alfred Wallace (Dubawi) to pick up the pieces in the seven-furlong feature.

Highly tried so far, Rockcliffe Stud's homebred son of their Falmouth heroine Snow Lantern (Frankel) had won Ascot's Pat Eddery Stakes and been fourth in the Acomb at York before encountering this easier surface that was always going to bring out more improvement.

Placed on the flanks of the early leader by Kieran Shoemark from the outset, the 11-4 second favourite took over passing the two pole and kept producing to pull out a decisive advantage soon after. At the line, he had two half-length margins to spare over last week's Convivial Maiden runner-up Dover Street (Persian Force) from the Richard Hannon stable and the well-touted Salisbury maiden winner Breacher (Cracksman), representing the Muir and Grassick set-up.

"He's a really tough, loveable horse and a dream for any trainer," Ed Walker said. "He has surprised us and surprised us. He just tries his heart out every day and eats and sleeps. What he lacks in size, he makes up for in heart and determination. I was kicking myself for running at York. I talked myself into running there which was a mistake and, thankfully, he came out of that race really well. Temperament is key and he takes his races so well. We wanted to make his experience tell today, as it was an inexperienced field and it had some notable non-runners." Cont. p8

Walker added, "I've not trained many by Dubawi, but they tell me they can be workmanlike at home but are gritty and tough on the racetrack and this guy sums that up. He's very important to Rockcliffe Stud and we'll be entered in the Group 1 races."

Pedigree Notes

As mentioned above, Alfred Wallace's dam Snow Lantern was a Group 1 winner, like her own dam Sky Lantern (Red Clubs), who captured four at that level including the 1,000 Guineas. The second foal out of Snow Lantern, Alfred Wallace is also related to the Group winners Shanty Star (Hector Protector), Arctic (Shamardal), Songlark (Singspiel) and Blatant (Machiavellian). Snow Lantern's colt foal is by Kingman.

LOVE DYNASTY CAUSES UPSET IN THE ATALANTA By Tom Frary

As soon as the rain came to end the European summer drought, Dubawi's progeny visibly moved up a gear and an afternoon stakes double for the sire at Sandown was initiated by Love Dynasty in the G3 BetMGM Atalanta Stakes.

Listed-placed in France last autumn and a well-beaten second in Epsom's Princess Elizabeth Stakes when last seen on Derby day, the lightly-raced five-year-old carrying the Clipper colours was understandably 33-1 taking on a clutch of exciting fillies in this competitive affair.

With all of the big favourites losing their summer momentum on the rain-eased ground, Neil Callan was able to conjure a strong staying effort from the mare inside the final furlong and found the line in time to prevail by a neck from the similarly unfancied Noche Clasica (Night Of Thunder).

So often, this race acts as a springboard to the Sun Chariot and Kevin Ryan has Newmarket's feature in mind. "It wasn't a shock to me. The most important thing for her is the ground. She needs it soft and that's why she's so lightly-raced," he explained. "She's a very consistent filly who leaves everything out on the track. It's great for Steve Parkin. He has a nice broodmare band, all he wants to do is add quality to them, and she will hopefully."

He added, "In fairness to William Haggas, when she came to me, he said he always thought a lot of her and she just had to have some soft in the ground. I've made an entry at Newmarket for her in the Group 1 and, if I didn't think a lot of her, I wouldn't have done that. As long as the ground is suitable, she'll probably go there next." Cont. p9

Pedigree Notes

Love Dynasty's unraced dam Geisha Girl (Galileo) is a half to the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine and stakes producer Elusive Wave (Elusive City) and to the dam of Elusive City's Empress Stakes winner City Image. She is a granddaughter of the Prix Minerve scorer Echoes (Niniski), who is also the second dam of the Queen Mary Stakes winner Langs Lash (Noverre), in turn the dam of the Listed winner Waipu Cove (Equiano). Geisha Girl's two-year-old colt by Invincible Army is named Imperial Artist, while she also has a filly foal by Henry Longfellow.

NIGHT OF THUNDER'S MISS SCOTT IMPRESSES IN THE SNOW FAIRY

By Sean Cronin

The Thoroughbred Corporation's 650,000gns Book 1 yearling Miss Scott (Night Of Thunder) justified her supplementary entry in Saturday's G3 Snow Fairy Fillies Stakes and made a black-type breakthrough with a decisive victory in the nine-furlong contest at the Curragh.

"It was not easy from that draw [in stall 15] to get a better position and I was three-wide without any cover all the way," explained Christophe Soumillon. "She was really relaxed all the time and, when I asked her to pick up quite early, she just responded so well.

"When I hit the front inside the last furlong, she was just pointing her heels in the front and stopping a bit, so I needed to get her concentrated until the line. She loved the [yielding] ground and she's a very easy ride, so I didn't have to do much with her."

The 3-1 joint-favourite broke well from the outside stall and raced sixth early before improving into fifth at halfway. Urged closer off the home turn, she was ridden to challenge Faiyum (Frankel) entering the final furlong and pushed out in the closing stages to defeat that long-time leader by an impressive 3 3/4 lengths.

Sindria (Kodiac) fared best of the remainder and ran on well to finish a half-length shy of the runner-up.

Pedigree Notes

Miss Scott is the fourth of five foals and one of three scorers out of an unraced half to the Group 3-winning G1 Oaks and G1 Coronation Cup third High Heeled (High Chaparral) and Listed Cairn Rouge victrix Bella Estrella (High Chaparral)

High Heeled's descendants include GI Belmont Oaks Invitational and G1 Falmouth heroine Cinderella's Dream (Shamardal), while Bella Estrella is the dam of the G2 Champagne victor Iberian (Lope De Vega).

The winner, whose second dam is dual Grade II winner Uncharted Haven (Turtle Island), is a half-sister to the stakes-winning G1 Prix Jean Romanet third Grand Stars (Sea The Stars), G2 Ribblesdale and G3 Salsabil placegetter Catalina Delcarpio (Lope De Vega) and the unraced two-year-old colt Bay River (New Bay).

STINGRAY PREVAILS IN SPRETI-RENNEN THRILLER By Sean Cronin

Marcel Weiss trainee Stingray (Zarak), who had previously placed twice at Group 3 level, stepped forward to secure a career high in a thrilling renewal of Saturday's G3 71st Preis der Sparkassen-Finanzgruppe (Spreti-Rennen) on the opening day of Baden-Baden's "Grosse Woche". Cont. p11

The 26-5 chance was settled off the tempo, set by Delgardo (Best Solution), through halfway. Caught in a pocket when attempting to move forward in the home straight, he angled into an open lane to go third entering the final furlong and was ridden out to deny Delgardo and Soft Winds (Night Of Thunder) by a neck and the same in a ding-dong three-way tussle.

"I had a good run in behind the others for most of the race and I didn't have much room in the straight, but I knew I could rely on his speed," Leon Wolff told GaloppOnline.

Pedigree Notes

Stingray, who becomes his sire's 26th Group winner, is out of an unraced half to four black-type performers, namely the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Sarandia (Dansili), G3 Bavarian Classic victor Saphir (Black Sam Bellamy), stakes-winning G3 Prix des Chenes second Saint Pellerin (Konigstiger) and the dual stakes-placed Salontanzerin (Black Sam Bellamy).

His dam Santa Luz (Campanologist) is also kin to the dam of this year's Diana heroine Soreanga (Siyouni), while the winner's third dam is G2 German 1,000 Guineas third Salonrolle (Tirol).

Hailing from the dam line of the storied champion Schwarzgold (Alchimist), Stingray is a half-brother to the unraced two-year-old filly Verdandi (Alson) and a yearling filly by Erevann. The latter is entered in Friday's BBAG Yearling Sale as lot 73.

'HE'S A CAMELOT WITH A LOT OF CLASS' - O'BRIEN IMPRESSED BY NEW TDN RISING STAR DARKNESS FALLS By Tom Frary

Saturday's opening mile maiden at the Curragh has been a key race for Aidan O'Brien and Darkness Falls (Camelot) followed some smart predecessors with a seven-length success to become the stable's latest TDN Rising Star, Presented by Hagyard.

Having won the John Ormonde Wexford Sand Irish EBF Maiden nine times out of the last 10 renewals, including with Hawk Mountain, Mogul and Saxon Warrior, the Ballydoyle handler put forward a strong trio of Camelot-sired 2027 Derby hopefuls with Ryan Moore on the 4-6 favourite. Third on debut behind the subsequent Futurity Stakes third Green Dreamer and winning stablemate Shakespeare in Leopardstown's Frank Conroy Maiden over seven furlongs last month, Darkness Falls was bounced out of the stalls to lead and it was fairly straightforward from there.

Turning the screw three out, the grandson of the 1999 Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Hula Angel (Woodman) stayed on powerfully to stretch away from stable companion Albany County, who had shown such promise when third here on debut days earlier. There was half a length between that half-brother to the 1,000 Guineas and Prix Rothschild winner Mother Earth (Zoffany) and the newcomer Cluster (Frankel), one of Joseph O'Brien's Juddmonte projects who is a close relative of Midday (Oasis Dream). Ballydoyle's third runner and only newcomer Kingdom Of Camelot, a €1.2 million Arqana Deauville August purchase, was 1 1/4 lengths away in fourth in a race that is certain to resound as the months go on.

"He had a lovely run the first day and is a Camelot with a lot of class," O'Brien said of the winner, Camelot's eighth TDN Rising Star, with the past cast including the luminaries Bluestocking and Sir Dragonet. "He's a beautiful mover, so ground won't matter to him. When Ryan said 'go', it was over very quick. We thought he was good."

O'Brien continued, "The maiden he ran in at Leopardstown was a very good race--we thought the second was very good and the winner was just beaten in the Futurity last week. He's in the mix for the Golden Fleece [Champions Juvenile] at Leopardstown. That's why he ran again today."

Pedigree Notes

Darkness Falls is the second foal out of the Listed-placed sprinter You'resobeautiful (No Nay Never), one of two black-type performers out of the aforementioned Hula Angel alongside the stouter-bred The Fist Of God (Sadler's Wells), who was runner-up in the Eyrefield at two. Her daughter Promise Me by Camelot's sire Montjeu produced the star stayer Coltrane (Mastercraftsman), whose career tally included wins in the Lonsdale Cup, Doncaster Cup and two renewals of the Sagaro and placings in the Gold Cup, Goodwood Cup and two editions of the Prix du Cadran.

From the family of the celebrated Kentucky Derby-winning champion Spend A Buck, You'resobeautiful's 2025 and 2026 colts are also by Camelot.

NINA CARBERRY MEP WINS PAT SMULLEN CHARITY RACE ON RETURN TO THE SADDLE

Irish Grand National-winning jockey Nina Carberry barely had to move a muscle as she made a successful return to the saddle aboard Ndaawi in the Pat Smullen Cancer Trials Ireland Charity Race at the Curragh on Saturday.

The 42-year-old Carberry, who is now a member of the European Parliament with Fine Gael, retired from riding in 2018 after partnering Josies Orders to victory at the Punchestown Festival, bringing the curtain down on an amateur career which yielded 412 winners.

Racingfotos.com

A seven-time winner at the Cheltenham Festival, Carberry will have enjoyed few more straightforward triumphs than that of the Gordon Elliott-trained Ndaawi, who powered away in the closing stages to leave his 18 rivals trailing in his wake, ultimately winning by six lengths.

"He's a very good horse," Carberry said of the former Galway Hurdle winner. "When you're on a good one, you can be wherever you want to be. He was lovely to ride and Gordon produced him lovely for today. He's a great supporter of the race.

"It was lovely to have my mum here and all the family and relations. It's absolutely brilliant. My girls wouldn't know me as a rider at all, so it was nice for them to see a little glimpse of what I had for 17 years.

"You can't get away from the fact of why we are all here today. It's remembering Pat [Smullen] and what he has achieved outside of racing. It's amazing."

The Pat Smullen Race Day at the Curragh unites two major fundraising efforts in aid of Cancer Trials Ireland.

This year's Pat Smullen Cancer Trials Ireland Charity Race saw 19 riders take to the track in tribute to the legendary champion jockey and in memory of loved ones affected by cancer. Meanwhile, the Curragh to Curragh Charity Cycle, conceived by Gavin Lynch in memory of his late mother Olive, who passed away from pancreatic cancer, once again drew a bumper turnout.

In 2025, the Pat Smullen Race Day and the Curragh to Curragh Charity Cycle raised €351,631 for Cancer Trials Ireland, bringing the total funds generated since the initiative began in 2022 to over €1.2 million.

Runner-up in Ascot's Cumberland Lodge Stakes last term and third in Newbury's John Porter on his return, Tenability upstaged his stable's beloved Hamish in Goodwood's Tapster Stakes before running third to Sunday's Grand Prix de Deauville contender Mazzala in Deauville's Prix de Reux earlier this month.

Able to maintain a solid rhythm in the easy ground, he was able to gain the advantage approaching the two pole and deny the top-level performers Silawi and White Birch.

Making smooth headway in the straight to challenge with a quarter-mile remaining, the 14-1 chance hooked up with Rhythm Of The Night (Lope Y Fernandez) approaching the final furlong and was pushed out in the closing stages to assert by 1 1/2 lengths from that rival. Cont. p16

Coming under pressure with a quarter-mile remaining, the 10-11 favourite gained an edge approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to defeat Wolf Bay (Lope Y Fernandez) by 2 1/2 lengths.

Crown And Two is the fourth of six foals and lone scorer produced by an unraced half-sister to G2 Richmond victor Saayerr (Acclamation) and the multiple Group 2-placed G2 Flying Childers runner-up Ornate (Bahamian Bounty).

Hailing from the family of multiple Group 1-winning sire Advertise (Showcasing) and GI United Nations hero Acaroid (Big Spruce), the winner is kin to a yearling colt by Triple Time and a weanling filly by Perfect Power. BEIWACHT BRILLIANT AT THE 1,400 METRES AGAIN IN THE MEMSIE By Dane McLeod/TTR AusNZ

It would have been a difficult call to make after the autumn for Beiwacht's (Bivouac) owners Godolphin on whether to retire their dual Group 1-winning son of Bivouac to stud duties or race on like his sire did.

Cont. p18

After Saturday's racing Godolphin will be smiling as their exciting prospect and dominant horse Beiwacht has now added the G1 Memsie Stakes to his record as a four- year-old, to go with his wins in the G1 Golden Rose and the G1 All Aged Stakes as a three-year-old.

The race was never really in doubt as Nash Rawiller sent Beiwacht straight to the front, with the evergreen nine-year-old Mr Brightside (Bullbars) sitting on the outer and Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) also handy. The well-favoured Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) settled about sixth on the outer, while William Pike settled Cosmic Crusader (Maurice) well back. Beiwacht then kicked hard and always had the race in his keeping, scoring by three lengths with ease from Mr Brightside, who was great having his first race since last November, and Cosmic Crusader, who ran on strongly after not having the cleanest of runs throughout in third.

Only a week earlier, Beiwacht was scratched from the G1 Winx Stakes with a raised temperature, but by Monday morning everything was clear and the push was towards the G1 Memsie Stakes.

"We didn't panic," winning trainer Chris Waller said. "It came up enough to say he didn't need to leave the stable and remarkably his blood on Monday was perfect. We galloped him at Rosehill on Tuesday. He was fine on Wednesday, and everything has been good since, so whatever it was, it didn't last long."

Beiwacht is now a three-time Group 1 winner over the 1,400-metre journey and Waller said he would speak to the Godolphin group to determine plans, although he did suggest that international travel was not beyond Beiwacht.

"We said last year we were keen to take him internationally, but he's not a real straight horse," said Waller. "He was out of his comfort zone in the Lightning and it dented our confidence a little bit. He's a specialist 1400-metre type horse, so there are some international thoughts there."

Pedigree Notes

Godolphin homebred Beiwacht is one of two stakes winners out of the Listed Chairman's Stakes winner Metastasio (Street Cry) who, alongside the three-time Group 1 winner, has left the Listed winner Gravina (Sebring).

Beiwacht's third dam is the blue hen Truly Special (Caerleon), whose descendants include Hong Kong champion sprinter Wellington (All Too Hard) and multiple Group 1 winner Ceolwulf (Tavistock).

Metastasio in recent times has left a three-year-old filly named Cafe Reine (Bivouac) and a two-year-old filly by Microphone. She is due to deliver a foal by Bivouac in September.

The progressive Mazzala is undefeated in four career starts and is the lone sophomore pitched in against battle-hardened opposition. He will head postward returning off wins in July's Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange and over course and distance in this month's G3 Prix de Reux. Likely dangers include Arrow Eagle, whose last four outings have all been in Group 1 company, including a win in October's G1 Prix Royal-Oak, and he comes back off a seventh in May's G1 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier. Threats also include the Group 1-placed veteran Al Aasy, last seen running third in Goodwood's G3 Glorious Stakes, and G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin fifth Global Health, who had previously bagged Hamburg's G3 Grosser Hansa-Preis. Aperoll and Bayside View re-oppose, having been first and second in Sandown's Star Stakes last month, and set the standard. Baaeed's first winner Coaxed has to improve off her Kempton debut but, coming from Clarehaven with a pedigree like hers, it is almost a given. The Leopardstown Auction Series Race winner Apollo's Comet is an intriguing prospect from the Jessica Harrington stable, while the Salisbury novice scorer Siena Storm was big news at the Arqana May Breeze-up and comes from a family almost guaranteeing improvement with experience. [Tom Frary].

Both Not My Type and Rogue Jewel boast two-for-two records and Pure Mint is unbeaten in one. The undefeated trio encounter Goffs Orby millionaire Silent Beauty, who was off the radar in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany and is better judged on her four-length TDN Rising Star display at Yarmouth in May. She is joined by her Amo Racing-owned stablemate Napa, who has not been seen since finishing last of eight in May's Listed National Stakes at Sandown, while Clash Of Hearts, the highest-rated contender on official rankings, is another worthy of consideration and makes a swift comeback returning off a fifth in this month's G3 Acomb at York.
