BREEDERS' CUP IN LEADING CHANGE'S FUTURE, BUT MAYBE NOT UNTIL 2027

Saratoga Notebook, Presented by NYRA Bets

Leading Change at his stall Sunday morning | Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - Early Sunday morning, just after 6, trainer Brad Cox pulled up to his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track. He walked the shedrow, then checked on his horses along with his son--and assistant--Blake before departing for Albany International Airport and a flight home to Louisville, Ky.

Cox also did his obligations with a quartet of writers who were waiting for him before the sun came up. They wanted to talk to Cox about his newest sensation, a 3-year-old colt named Leading Change (Gun Runner), who won the $1.25-million GI Travers Stakes about 12 hours earlier at Saratoga Race Course.

Leading Change, bred by WinStar Farm and owned by Wathnan Racing, won the Midsummer Derby in just his third start. He is now undefeated in three starts and might be on the fast track to the $7-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

Or maybe not.

"I don't know if we have to go to the Breeders' Cup," Cox said. "Who says we have to? We'll talk that over with the Wathnan team. We are looking at the Breeders' Cup Classic, but it very well could be the 2027 Classic." Cont. p3

IN '27, WILL THE TRAVERS WINNER SAY, 'SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER?'

The Week in Review by T.D. Thornton

If Churchill Downs, Inc. (CDI) and the New York Racing Association (NYRA) are to be believed, at this time next year, part of the deep-season drama will be whether the GI Travers Stakes winner will be targeting the grand finale of the new May-through-September "Thoroughbred Championship Series" for 3-year-olds those two entities are planning to unveil in 2027.

The date, name and distance of that series-culminating stakes in September at Churchill Downs has yet to be disclosed. Nor is the points structure known for the six races that will be run exclusively at Churchill, Belmont Park and Saratoga Race Course.

Even without those details, based on the results of the Churchill and NYRA stakes already run this year that are scheduled to be in the series next year, you can imagine what some of the storylines might look like. Cont. p7

9 | CHAMPAGNE COULD BE NEXT FOR CLUB REIGN

Club Reign (Core Beliefs), tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star presented by Hagyard' following his impressive debut win at Saratoga Saturday, could make his next start in the GI Champagne Stakes.

10 | IRON MAN CAL, TEST SCORE COULD TRAIN UP TO BREEDERS' CUP

After earning automatic berths in the upcoming Breeders' Cup championship weekend at Keeneland with wins at Del Mar Saturday, Iron Man Cal (Collected) and Test Score (Lookin at Lucky) could train up to their Oct. 31 engagements.

11 | RABEEBA STAYS PERFECT IN TORREY PINES

Michael Lund Petersen's Rabeeba (Curlin) took her record to a perfect three-for-three with a win in the GIII Torrey Pines Stakes at Del Mar Sunday.

Leading Change's Breeders' Cup Could Come in '27

The lightly raced colt will be pointed to the 2027 $12-million G1 Dubai World Cup in March. Wathnan Racing is owned by Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani, emir of Qatar, and Cox's Hit Show (Candy Ride {Arg}), also owned by Wathnan Racing, won that race in 2025.

While the connections mull what to do with Leading Change, they will bask in the Travers glow. Ridden by Manny Franco, Leading Change beat the game Napoleon Solo (Liam's Map) by a half-length in the Travers to give Cox his second Midsummer Derby (Essential Quality in 2021).

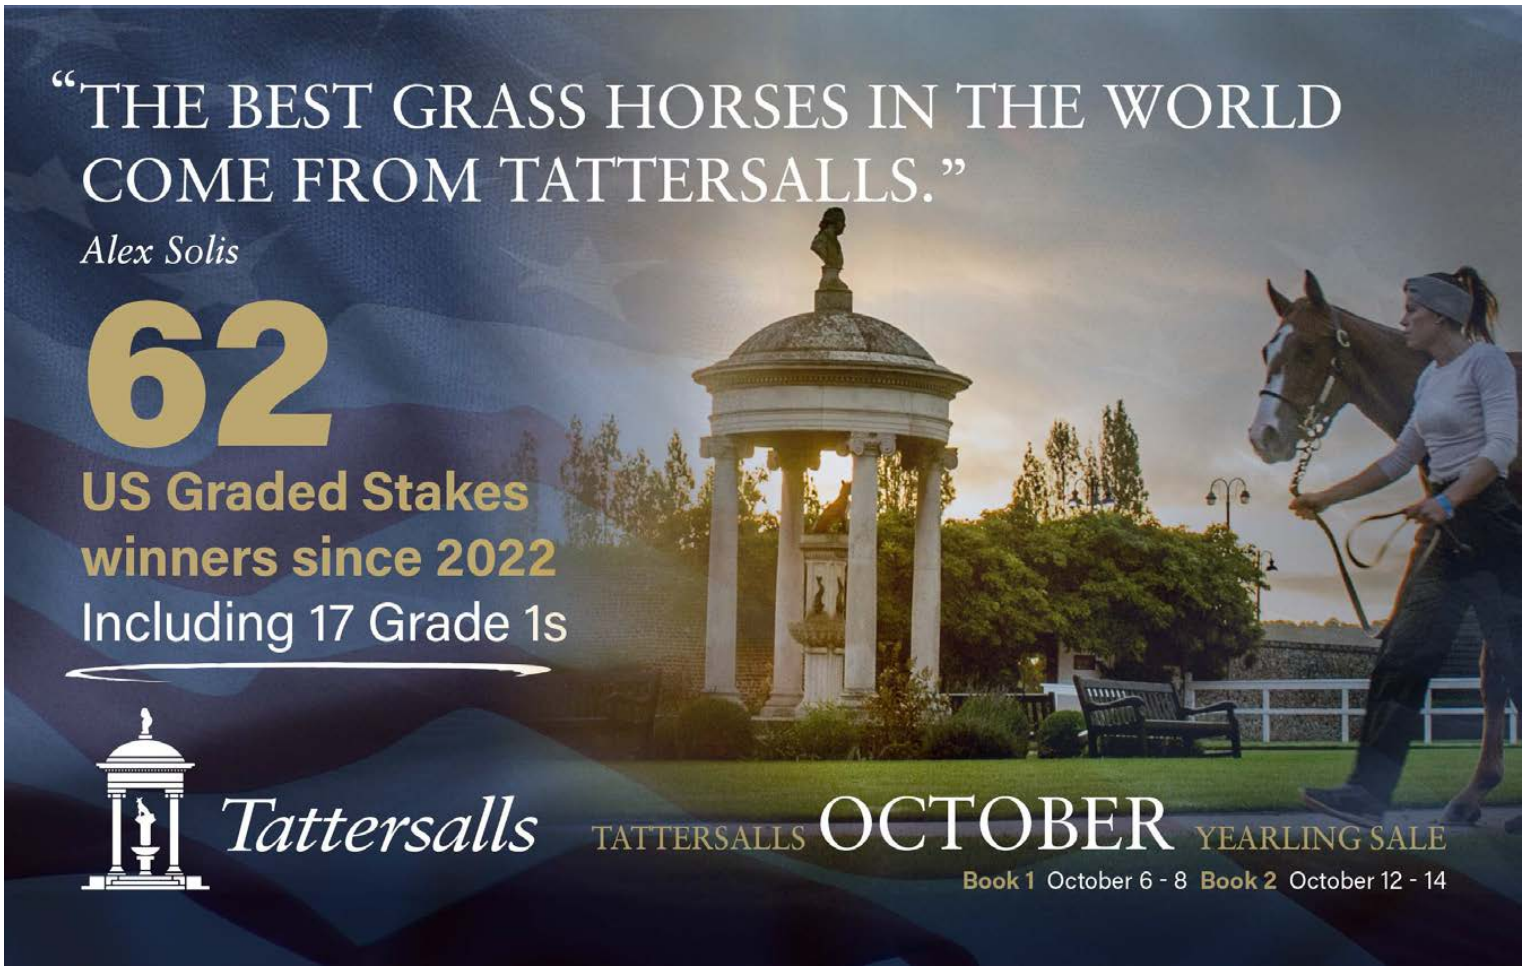

"I was confident he would run well," Cox said. "This is no knock on the other 3-year-olds, but there is just no one to be scared of in this group. I thought my horse was the fastest horse based on what little he had done."

Leading Change will ship back to Cox's Churchill Downs base sometime this week. One of his other 3-year-olds, Further Ado (Gun Runner) is being pointed to the $1-million GI Pennsylvania Derby at Parx Racing on Sept. 19.

Another of his sophomores, Walthnan Racing's Commandment (Into Mischief), was originally going that way, too, but the GI Belmont Stakes and GII Jim Dandy runner-up, has been taken out of training after a recent setback. Cox said he won't run again this year.

Napoleon Solo | Sarah Andrew

Napoleon Solo Valiant in Narrow Travers Loss

Trainer Chad Summers said Napoleon Solo (Liam's Map), who got beat by half a length in the $1.25-million GI Travers, was mad Saturday night.

"He was kicking and jumping," Summers said outside his barn on the Saratoga backstretch Sunday morning. "He was not happy."

Summers was glum, too, but proud of his grey speedster, who set the pace in the Travers under Hall of Fame jockey Johnny Velazquez, only to get nailed in the shadow of the wire by 10-1 Leading Change (Gun Runner).

In six career starts, Napoleon Solo has three wins and a pair of seconds. He won the GI Preakness Stakes and was second in the GII Haskell. A year ago, he sizzled as a 2-year-old, winning both starts, including the GI Champagne Stakes.

Despite his success, he has never been favored in a race. He was fourth choice in the Travers.

"I am proud of him," Summers said. "I know odds don't mean anything, but it has been frustrating to me that he was [third] choice in the Haskell and fourth in the Travers. After yesterday, maybe he will finally start to earn some of the respect that I feel he was deserving of."

Espoir USA's Napoleon Solo will depart Saratoga Monday and head for Belmont Park. What comes next is still to be determined. It will be either the $7-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic at 1 1/4 miles or the $1-million GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile at Keeneland Oct. 31. Napoleon Solo answered the question about the 1 1/4 miles in the Travers.

Long range, Napoleon Solo could be on his way to Saudi Arabia in February for the $20-million G1 Saudi Cup.

"He ran hard yesterday," Summers said. "You are at the eighth pole, or the sixteenth pole, even, and you think you are going to hold on... you can't ask for anything else."

DeVaux Still Thinks Golden Tempo is No. 1

The summer is over for Golden Tempo (Curlin). And, despite a third-place finish in the GI Travers Stakes, his trainer Cherie DeVaux still puts him atop the 3-year-old colt division.

Can't argue with her about that.

Golden Tempo owns wins in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont Stakes. The only other 3-year-old colt with multiple Grade I wins this year is his stablemate Englishman (Maxfield), who took the Woody Stephens at Saratoga in June and then was brilliant again on Saturday when he won the H. Allen Jerkens by 3 3/4 lengths.

"I know everyone is hyper focused on it," DeVaux said outside her Oklahoma Training Track barn when asked about the 3-year-old title Sunday morning. "We don't set out not to be champion. It's not something I am worrying about. That is in control of the voters and that is something I have no control over. I think [Golden Tempo] deserves it. He has done plenty this year."

Golden Tempo has three wins and three third-place finishes in six starts this year. He, along with Englishman, will ship to DeVaux's home base at Keeneland Monday and prepare for the Breeders' Cup.

C R K Stable's Englishman is likely to train up to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint; it has yet to be decided whether Golden Tempo, owned by Phipps Stable and St. Elias Stable will have a prep.

Englishman | Tod Marks

Englishman has won four of five career starts by 24 1/4 lengths.

Golden Tempo went off as the 2-1 favorite in the Travers, was stuck up inside for his rally with jockey Jose Ortiz and finished 2 1/4 lengths behind the winner, Leading Change (Gun Runner). He had won the Kentucky Derby and Belmont with outside rallies.

"He is a horse that needs things to go his way," DeVaux said. "Unfortunately, he got stuck down on the inside and got stopped a few times. It obviously takes a little wind out of your sails, but you can't be disappointed."

Rough Start Didn't Help Renegade

Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher had the right to be the most frustrated of any who saddled a horse in the GI Travers. His Renegade (Into Mischief), the 3-1 second choice, finished eighth, 10 3/4 lengths behind Leading Charge (Gun Runner).

From the start, it was going to be a bad Midsummer Derby for the colt, owned by Mike Repole's Repole Stable and Robert and Lawana Low.

"He was fractious in the gate, which he has never done before," Pletcher said outside his barn office at the Oklahoma Training Track Sunday morning. "I was hoping they would back him out and let him catch his breath."

When the gates opened, things didn't get any better.

"The six [Ocelli] creamed him and he got further back and was never able to recover from that," Pletcher said. "Never put in the same kind of run like he did last time [when winning the GII Jim Dandy]."

Renegade | Sarah Andrew

Pletcher was not going to put any blame on jockey Tyler Gaffalione, who was riding Renegade for the first time in place of the injured Irad Ortiz Jr.

"The horse acting up was not Tyler's fault," Pletcher said. "Look, we know it was not what we were hoping. Tyler had never ridden the horse before and Irad was very familiar with him."

Pletcher said it was too soon to say what might be next for Renegade, who has three wins in six starts this year. The Travers was the first time he had ever finished off the board in nine races.

For example, if the series were active this year, would the connections of this past Saturday's Travers winner, the 3-for-3 'TDN Rising Star presented by Hagyard,' Leading Change (Gun Runner), be incentivized to run in September at Churchill if the late-developing colt was suddenly in the hunt to take down the $5-million points-based prize pool?

Or would fellow 'Rising Star' Golden Tempo (Curlin) have already locked up enough points to capture the five-month series by winning the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont Stakes and then running third in the Travers, allowing him to bypass the new Churchill race and train up to the GI Breeders' Cup Classic?

Churchill and NYRA have baked into the equation more than a little “if you build it, they will come” wishfulness.

Perhaps their thinking is more along the lines of “if you dangle enough bonus money, it will be irresistible.”

But for Churchill and NYRA to accomplish the goal of a successful series, it might mean de-legitimizing a deeply entrenched tradition like the Triple Crown while undercutting the premier races at smaller tracks. It could also have unintended implications for the Breeders' Cup Classic.

Manny Franco aboard Leading Change | Sarah Andrew

When the formation of the series was announced four weeks ago, critics challenged the logic of (and motives for) Churchill and NYRA leaving the second jewel of the Triple Crown, the GI Preakness Stakes, off the schedule.

Detractors also sounded off with concerns over the potentially detrimental effects the series could have on well-established, Grade I sophomore stakes in July and September, specifically the Haskell at Monmouth Park and the Pennsylvania Derby at Parx.

While some proponents did welcome the new idea, the overall response was decidedly unfavorable.

That's based, in part, on readers' reactions to TDN's initial coverage of the concept.

An Aug. 3 article titled "Churchill, NYRA Launch 'Thoroughbred Championship Series' for 3-Year-Olds" and a next-day column by Bill Finley headlined "The Triple Crown Passes Away at 107" drew a combined 83 online comments.

Only two were outright supportive of the series. Two others basically said “give it a chance.”

Whatever your opinion, the August-to-autumn time window bookended by the Travers and the Breeders' Cup Classic has the potential to be the most intriguing aspect of the Thoroughbred Championship Series.

Churchill and NYRA are likely envisioning that the spacing of the fifth and sixth events (after the Derby, Belmont, GIII Matt Winn Stakes and GII Jim Dandy Stakes) will allow for a 3-year-old to run in the Travers, then contest the September race at Churchill and still have six or seven weeks to get ready for the Breeders' Cup Classic.

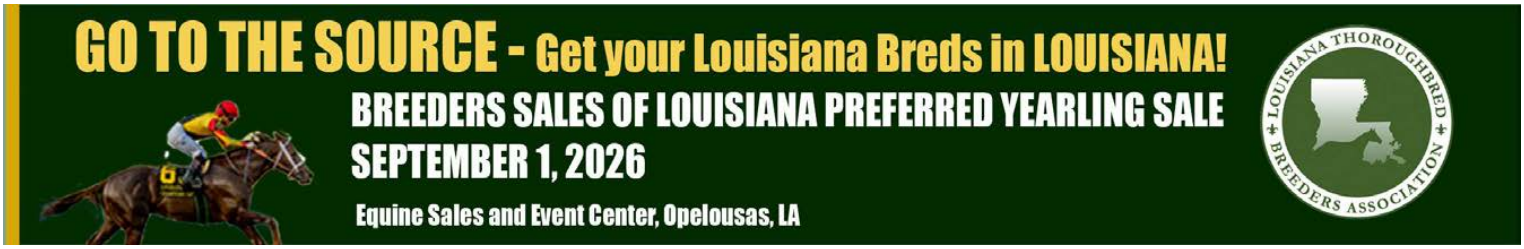

The $5-million question will be whether the prospect of a potentially lucrative stakes in September will be enough to lure next year's Travers winner out of the current seven-year streak of not racing in September or the early part of October.

You have to go back to 2019 to find the last Travers winner whose connections opted for a race between the Travers and Classic. That was Code of Honor, who won the Sept. 28 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Stakes at Belmont Park before finishing seventh in the Classic at Santa Anita Nov. 2.

The five winners of the Travers between 2021 and 2025 were all pointed toward the Classic without a September or October prep race, a gap that in most years equals 10 weeks.

Last year, 10-length Travers winner Sovereignty trained up to the Breeders' Cup. He was the 6-5 morning-line favorite, but was scratched three days before the Classic after spiking a fever.

In 2024, Fierceness won the Travers, went straight to the Classic, and finished second.

Arcangelo, capping a four-race win streak with a 2023 Travers win, was the second favorite on the morning-line for the Classic coming off a 10-week break when he developed an issue with his left hind foot and was retired four days before the Breeders' Cup.

Epicenter won the Travers in 2022, trained up to the Classic, and sustained right foreleg fractures during the running of the race. He was pulled up, vanned off and retired.

Essential Quality, training up to the 2021 Breeders' Cup off his Travers win, was third as the beaten favorite in the Classic.

(Not counted in this list is the wacky pandemic-altered scheduling of the 2020 season, in which Tiz the Law won the Aug. 8 Travers, then finished second as the beaten favorite in the Sept. 5 Kentucky Derby.)

Widening the lens, between 2000 and 2025, 12 of the last 26 Travers winners (counting twice for the 2012 dead heat) made starts in September or early October, while 14 of them did not.

Of the 26 Travers winners, the top next-race choice was going straight to the Breeders' Cup Classic, which happened nine times.

Among the other horses aimed for the Classic after making a start in the early fall, the most popular option was the Jockey Club Gold Cup, which drew six Travers winners. Beyond the aforementioned Code of Honor, Summer Bird (2009) and Bernardini (2006) won both stakes.

But when NYRA in 2021 switched the Jockey Club Gold Cup from being at Belmont Park in the fall to a closing-weekend feature at Saratoga around Labor Day, it ceased being a feasible target for Travers winners.

The Pennsylvania Derby attracted four Travers winners since 2000, usually as a prep for the Classic. Two of them completed the Saratoga-Parx double--West Coast in 2017 and Will Take Charge in 2013.

Two other then-Grade II stakes, the Kentucky Cup Classic Stakes at Turfway (run in September prior to 2011) and the Super Derby at Louisiana Downs (won by Travers winner Ten Most Wanted in 2003), also each once served as next starts for Travers winners over the last 25 years.

Rounding out the list of 26, three Travers winners retired after winning that stakes and two made their next starts the following year.

Out of curiosity, I searched far enough back on Equibase to see when the last Travers winners were tasked with two prep races between their victories at Saratoga and starts in the Breeders' Cup.

Thunder Rumble in 1992 and Easy Goer in 1989 each had two Grade I starts at Belmont Park in September and October prior to their unsuccessful bids to win the Classic off three- and four-week layoffs, respectively.

Thunder Rumble and Easy Goer both ran in the GI Woodward Stakes and then the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Thunder Rumble was fifth and seventh in those stakes prior to running seventh in the Classic. Easy Goer won both New York stakes and finished second, beaten a neck, as the 1-2 favorite in the Classic at Gulfstream Park.

Then there was Chief's Crown in 1985, the only Travers winner to have--brace yourself!--three races after the Travers in prep for the Breeders' Cup.

Forty-one years ago, Chief's Crown won the Aug. 17 Travers, ran third in the Aug. 31 Woodward, won the Sept. 14 GI Marlboro Cup, won an Oct. 13 overnight handicap at Belmont, then finished fourth as the beaten 9-5 favorite in the Nov. 2 Breeders' Cup Classic at Aqueduct.

Regardless of which path Travers winners pursue--a prep race in early fall or train straight up to the Classic--actually winning both career-defining 10-furlong Grade I stakes is perplexingly elusive.

Only one horse has done it: Arrogate in 2016, over the course of a nine-month, seven-race win streak that included a stakes- and track-record victory by 13 1/2 lengths in the Travers.

Arrogate then won, in succession, the Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita, the GI Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream, and the G1 Dubai World Cup at Meydan.

That was 10 years ago. Some pretty nice horses, with and without interim races, have attempted the Travers-Classic double, both before and after Arrogate's accomplishment.

Oddly enough, in this “less is more” era of training, and with NYRA hosting the Breeders' Cup in 2027, there is a chance that by this time next year, the winner of the Travers could be pointed to the Thoroughbred Championship Series finale in September at Churchill--not in addition to, but instead of running in the Classic at Belmont Park.

CHAMPAGNE COULD BE NEXT FOR IMPRESSIVE MAIDEN WINNER CLUB REIGN

Club Reign (Core Beliefs), tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star presented by Hagyard' following his impressive debut victory at Saratoga Saturday, could make his next start in the GI Champagne Stakes, according to trainer Whit Beckman.

“My thoughts go back to another horse I was around a lot that broke his maiden on Travers Day and the next race he won was the Champagne,” Beckman said, with a nod to the Todd Pletcher-trained Uncle Mo, who followed the Champagne victory with a GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile score when Beckman worked as an assistant to the Hall of Fame trainer. “It seems like a good progression and nice timing. If that's the case, good. If he needs more time, we'll give him more time.”

Club Reign utilized a prominent trip and drew clear from his six rivals comfortably down the lane to win in a final time of 1:11.27 and earn a 73 Beyer Speed Figure.

"He's always been a special horse. He's extremely talented in the morning and to do that in the afternoon, he lived up to the billing," Beckman said.

Club Reign is owned by Ribble Farms, Three Brand Racing and Walmac Farm. Three Brand Racing is the nom de course of Super Bowl-winning quarterback Russell Wilson, who was at the track Saturday with his Grammy Award-winning wife Ciara and their family. Wilson's interest in horse racing was sparked, in part, by his brother Harry, who lives in Louisville, Kentucky.

Club Reign | Sarah Andrew

"I've known Russell's brother for 10 years and he lives down the street from me," Beckman said. "We're happy that they could come and share it with us and see what we do here. We have an amazing outlet for competition, getting together with family and friends and being part of something big. It's a lot of fun. I'm grateful he's chosen to go down this road with us. I'm hoping we can reproduce that with many more peak moments."

Beckman, who also trains horses for former Major League Baseball star Jayson Werth, acknowledged his barn does seem to be aligning with a number of professional athletes.

"Two of them…we don't have enough to field a team yet," he said, with a laugh. "I'm working on it."

IRON MAN CAL, TEST SCORE EXPECTED TO TRAIN UP TO BREEDERS' CUP

Iron Man Cal (Collected), who earned an automatic berth in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile with his win in the GII Pat O'Brien Stakes at Del Mar Saturday, will train up to the Oct. 31 championship at Keeneland, trainer Phil D'Amato said Sunday.

"I think that's the safest bet," D'Amato said. "Just keep him happy and healthy. He ran two races here, so we'll have him fresh and ready to run his best race at Keeneland."

Iron Man Cal was runner-up in the 2024 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Del Mar, but has made his last two starts over the main track, finishing third behind Journalism in the GII San Diego Stakes before shortening up to seven furlongs for his half-length win in the Pat O'Brien.

"I think his style of running fits the dirt better and it's worked out," D'Amato said. "He has steady speed and he doesn't have to quicken as much on the dirt. When you're on the grass, you have to show more of a turn of foot."

Also earning an automatic Breeders' Cup berth at Del Mar Saturday was Test Score (Lookin at Lucky), who secured a start in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf with his victory in the GII Del Mar Handicap.

"He's doing great," Alice Clapham, assistant to trainer Graham Motion, said of the Amerman homebred Sunday. "I'm very happy with him."

Test Score will ship out of Del Mar Tuesday and head back to Motion's home base at Fair Hill in Maryland and will likely train up to the Breeders' Cup.

"That wasn't necessarily the reason why we brought him out there," Motion said. "Obviously the "Win and You're In" is a good incentive and I think we will definitely consider it. The biggest thing for me was to answer the question of whether or not he could handle the distance, which he had never done before. So, no I wouldn't run him again and I expect we will run [in the Breeders' Cup], if he's doing well."

Motion has won all three of the races he's entered at Del Mar this summer. He won the GII Yellow Ribbon Stakes with Warming (Global Campaign), the CTT & TOC with Vronti (GB) (Night of Thunder {Ire}), and now the Del Mar Handicap with Test Score.

"I think we sent out some nice horses who were well suited for the spots," Motion said. "I'm so lucky to have Alice who can travel with them, and honestly, the Brook Ledge team do a great job getting them there. We had a layover in Memphis on these last two trips, so it's getting comfortable with the system and having the confidence in the people that are doing it."

Michael Lund Petersen's Rabeeba kicked into gear late to win the GIII Torrey Pines Stakes going away and take her lifetime record to a perfect three-for-three at Del Mar Sunday. The even-money favorite sat just behind a wall of three pacesetters in a bunched up field through fractions of :23.39 and :46.96. Tipped out three wide for running room approaching the stretch, Rabeeba was niggled on by jockey Juan Hernandez, but looked to be idling as She's No Quant asserted control in upper stretch. Rabeeba eventually found her best stride inside the final furlong and sailed on by to win by 2 1/4 lengths.

"She's never been behind horses and she didn't break that well, so [Hernandez] didn't want to send her out there and go too fast," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "She's learning. We've been taking baby steps with her. She's a big filly and Juan said he had to get her in gear again, so it shows the class is there. She was running against an experienced, nice group of fillies here."

Hernandez added, “This filly was a little green. She got dirt in her face for the first time and I don't think she liked it. She's a big filly and she wanted to go today. I had to work with her to get here in the right spots, but in the end it was OK.”

A debut winner going 6 1/2 furlongs at Los Alamitos June 19, Rabeeba was most recently a front-running winner of a July 26 optional claimer over the Torrey Pine's track and distance.

Rabeeba | Benoit

Pedigree Notes:

Rabeeba, a half-sister to Group 1 winner Air Force Blue (War Front), was purchased for $750,000 at the 2024 Keeneland September sale. Her dam, Chatham, who was purchased by Arthur Hancock as a 5-year-old for $190,000 at the 2009 Keeneland November sale, produced a colt by Good Magic in 2025, had no foal in 2026, and was bred back to Twirling Candy.

Juddmonte purchased Rabeeba's 2-year-old full-brother for $450,000 at this year's OBS April sale. Named Stone Aged, the chestnut was sixth in his 6 1/2-furlong debut at Saratoga Aug. 8.

The winner's third dam, Starlet Storm (Storm Bird), produced champion Flanders (Seeking the Gold), the dam of champion Surfside.

CACTUS CLOSER NOT TO BE DENIED IN SPA OPENER by Alan Carasso

Cactus Closer (inside) | Sarah Andrew

Dismissed as the 8-1 second-longest price in a scratched-down field of six for the Sunday opener at Saratoga, Cactus Closer (c, 2, Practical Joke--Star Cactus, by Uncle Mo) refused to lie down at the fence in the final stages and became an overdue first winner for the Dale Romans barn at the meet with a narrow victory in the 5 1/2-furlong turf dash.

Quickly into stride from an outside gate, the bay colt showed the best early foot, but had some early company from 2-1 second pick Lou's Room (Epicenter) through a quarter in :22.37.

Roused left-handed by Junior Alvarado in upper stretch, Cactus Closer was confronted and perhaps headed by Lou's Room, but he fought on bravely inside and went on to take it by a neck to get Romans 'off the duck.'

"He's a tough little horse, he finally got me to the winner's circle. Little man came through," a relieved Romans told NYRA Live's Maggie Wolfendale.

Cactus Closer, a distant seventh of eight on dirt debut July 25, hinted at some affinity for the grass with a half-mile move over the Oklahoma turf training track in :48 flat on Aug. 21 and that breeze instilled a fair bit of confidence into the conditioner.

"We took him over there and worked him, we knew he was fast. It's good to get out of here with a win," Romans added.

The opening event on DraftKings Travers Day was annexed by 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Club Reign (Core Beliefs), part-owned by former Super Bowl-winning quarterback Russell Wilson. Cactus Closer also has a connection to the world of sports, as his co-owner Charles Monfort is the principal owner and managing general partner of Major League Baseball's Colorado Rockies.

A $37,000 Keeneland January short-yearling and sold on for $65,000 at Keeneland September, Cactus Closer most recently fetched $175,000 at this year's OBS April Sale.

The winner's dam, a daughter of 2013 GII Lexus Raven Run Stakes heroine Madame Cactus (Cactus Ridge), is also represented by a yearling Independence Hall colt and was most recently covered by Corniche.

KIPROS FLASHES HOME TO TAKE TURF MAIDEN by Alan Carasso

Kipros | Sarah Andrew

Well backed at 33-10 to improve for a better-than-it-seemed fourth on career debut over this course and distance July 26, Kipros (c, 2, Oscar Performance--Balance, by Thunder Gulch) was awkward in a few spots in this second go, but absolutely leaped out of the ground with less than a sixteenth of a mile to race and was up on the line to graduate in flashy style Sunday at Saratoga.

The $150,000 Keeneland September yearling drew the inside stall for that career debut last month and shied and cost himself several lengths through the opening exchanges, but he began to figure things out and finished well to be an educational fourth.

The chestnut--whose multiple Grade I-winning dam was a half-sister to the great Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire})--came in at the break yet again and was settled in the second half of the field as longshot Arequipe (Candy Ride {Arg}) went winging up front and built up a sizeable advantage down the backstretch.

For his part, Kipros traveled nicely into the race for Kendrick Carmouche--subbing in for the travel-delayed Dylan Davis--tugging his way into contention approaching the entrance to the stretch, but he took yet another strange step, bothering a rival in behind, and needed a few strides to re-balance. But once that mission was accomplished, Kipros split horses and whooshed home to just reel in a very game Arequipe. The debuting Ticket to Fame (Oscar Performance) looked to have dead aim on the leader with time ticking away, but was outfinished and settled for third.

"He uncorked a massive rally," winning trainer Ray Handal told Maggie Wolfendale. "[Kendrick] said he had a ton of horse, kind of lost his footing there, but he really exploded the last 50 yards."

Handal also calls the shots on the career of the sire's 3-year-old son Heeere's Johnny, victorious in the Saranac Stakes here in July, and has only good things to say about the progeny of Oscar Performance

"[Kipros] is smaller, more compact [than Heeere's Johnny], but they all have big strides. If I could have a barn full of them, I'd be happy," he said.

A three-time winner at the highest level in the mid-2000s for Amerman Racing and the late David Hofmans, Balance was purchased by this breeder for $130,000 at Keeneland November in 2020. The foal she was carrying at the time became Kipros's full-brother Zverev, SW, $386,599, while another half-sister--Out of Balance (Kitten's Joy)--is responsible for the Amermans' Counterbalance (Caravaggio), victorious in Santa Anita's Listed China Doll Stakes this past March.

In addition to Zenyatta, Balance is a half-sister to SW Where's Bailey (Aljabr) and to 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Eblouissante (Bernardini), the dam of 2023 GII Rebel Stakes hero Confidence Game (Candy Ride {Arg}) and GSP The Process (More Than Ready).

Having not produced a foal in 2025 or 2026, Balance was bred to both Il Miracolo (Gun Runner) and Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) this past season.

OLYMPIAD'S JADED COMES FROM THE CLOUDS FOR 'RISING STAR' HONORS

by Alan Carasso

Olympiad | Sarah Andrew

D J Stable LLC's Jaded (c, 2, Olympiad--Lady Pewitt, by Orientate) came with a sustained rally and bridged a double-digit deficit in the Sunday finale at Kentucky Downs, getting his nose down right on the money to defeat the well-regarded 4-5 favorite Roosevelt (Golden Pal) to earn 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard honors.

A $250,000 Keeneland September acquisition, the chestnut--a half-brother to the same ownership's Eclipse Award-winning 2-year-old filly Jaywalk (Cross Traffic)--found himself a country mile behind through the early exchanges and raced with only two of his rivals behind him as 12-1 Job (Life Is Good) took up the running after the opening quarter of a mile. Roosevelt, looking to become a third new winner for his sire on the afternoon, was set a similarly tall task while racing a few lengths ahead of the quietly ridden Jaded and considerably wider on the course passing midway.

Job was maintaining the gallop through a half-mile in :46.02 and took the field into the final two furlongs, but both Jaded closer to the fence, and Roosevelt deep out, were making eye-catching headway with an eighth of a mile to the wire. Roosevelt looked as if he was going to seal the deal and appeared to have all the momentum to reel in the long-time leader, but Alex Concepcion angled Jaded into the clear and off the heels of Job with only yards remaining and he sliced through in the nick of time in a photo that took the judges several minutes to decipher.

Jaded is the eighth winner from the first crop of Olympiad (by Speightstown).

In addition to Jaywalk (MGISW, $1,668,500), champion of her generation in 2018 and now a winner producer in Japan, Jaded is a half-brother to Danzatrice (Dunkirk), MSW & GSP, $312,145, the dam of Grade I-winning 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Tapit Trice (Tapit) and to the dams of SW Jupiter (Upstart) and SP Abdul (Tapit). The third dam includes MGSW/MGISP sire Mission Impazible (Unbridled's Song) and the graded winners Spanish Empire (Pleasant Colony) and Forest Camp (Deputy Minister).

Lady Pewitt, a daughter of the late Gainesway stalwart Orientate, is the dam of Jaded's yearling full-brother and was most recently covered by Seize the Grey.

Sent off as the 9-5 chalk to build on a smart debut success sprinting over the Ellis Park turf course Aug. 7, Holy Cow Stable's Seneca Park got just the better of an enervating final-furlong battle to defeat Luminous Beauty in Sunday's $750,000 Untapable Stakes at Kentucky Downs. She is the first black-type winner for her successful young stallion (by Uncle Mo), who is already responsible for 21 first-crop winners, including new winners at Saratoga and Gulfstream Park earlier in the afternoon (see below).

Drawn inside, the dark bay filly hit the ground running and was eased back to sit third as Severely Overpayin made the running in advance of of Luminous Beauty.

Always going nicely in the hands of Brian Hernandez, Jr., Seneca Park came out three wide to deliver her challenge and was the deepest in a line of three passing the quarter pole. She linked up in earnest with Luminous Beauty, a latest second in the GIII Adirondack Stakes, passing the eighth pole and neither was willing to give an inch, with Seneca Park getting her head in front in the final few strides.

The winner is kin to a yearling colt by Up to the Mark and a son of Charge It foaled this term. Wendy Wow was bred back to Corniche for her 2027 produce. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

It's safe to say Plensa loves Kentucky Downs. The dark bay, who won Sunday's Tapit Stakes at the Franklin course, got his last win at last year's Kentucky Downs meet when he captured the Exacta Systems Gun Runner Stakes over Giocoso (Not This TIme), whom he faced again and was well outfinished by in the GIII Bryan Station Stakes and GIII Commonwealth Stakes last fall. After more than six months on the sidelines, Plensa reemerged with consecutive off-the-board optional allowances at Churchill and Saratoga on June 4 and July 11, respectively. But he's a different horse at Kentucky Downs.

In the Tapit, Plensa brushed the gate from his extreme outside post before settling one from the rear as Smokey Mandate (Strong Mandate) cooked up top through :23.75 and :46.63 splits. Plensa swept to the front in an eye-catching move from the middle of the course with two furlongs to go and held sway, turning back a late challenge from Vote No.

Plensa is one of three stakes performers for his dam, who hails from the same family as GISW and sire Stroll (Pulpit). The mare's 2-year-old filly, Jus Oscar Worthy (Oscar Performance), was a $200,000 buy at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old sale by Patrick Lawley-Wakelin. Her yearling colt is by Liam's Map and she was bred back to that same sire for next term. Proximity Bias also has a 2026 filly by Life Is Good. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Sweet Bordeaux | Michael Burns

A maiden no more, Sweet Bordeaux got her first win Sunday in the Muskoka Stakes at Woodbine. Off at 9-2, the chestnut broke like a rocket from the extreme outside. She angled over to the rail and led her 11 opponents through a :22.38 first quarter and a :45.23 half. Still on top entering the stretch, Sweet Borbeaux repelled a challenge from 42-1 Zahari and kicked for home 5 3/4 lengths on top. Cont. p6

"Once she [broke on top], it was over," said winning rider Pietro Moran. "We knew she had a lot of talent, and, you know, she overcame everything today.

"She broke out there running, and that was it. I knew it was over. She was traveling so easy, and when I asked her, she quickened very nicely."

Sweet Bordeaux's previous two tries resulted in placings this summer going 5 1/2 furlongs at Woodbine, including her last out Aug. 1.

Never dangerous when a debut sixth over five furlongs May 31, King's Counsel was a much-improved second over a touch further June 28 and was most recently beaten just over three lengths to next-out Soaring Free Stakes winner De la Renta (Oscar Performance) in a six-furlong contest July 19.

The 7-4 second choice in the wagering behind wide-margin first-out winner Souper Survivor, King's Counsel was content to drop back to sit behind midfield down the back of the track. Advancing wide, but with cover on the swing for home, the C$82,000 Canadian-Bred Yearling Sale graduate switched out widest for the drive and inched away late for the victory.

"[Owner/trainer] Barb [Minshall] told me just 'clean trip', so I just went on the outside and just sat behind the horse. Then said go and he just ran," said jockey Daisuke Fukomoto, who was aboard for both previous runner up placings.

Minshall added that King's Counsel is hampered to some degree by being an av-geek.

"I was worried about the planes, because he looks up at the planes, but I just told Daisuke hang on and be ready," said the veteran Woodbine conditioner, who picked King's Counsel out of last year's CTHS Premier Yearling Sale.

"I just thought he was just the best-looking horse at the sale. I had to pay for him, but I got him," she said.

The 2026 Premier Yearling Sale is scheduled for this coming Wednesday, Sept. 2.

The first stakes winner for his second-crop stallion (by Goldencents), King's Counsel is the half-brother to 2021 Breeders' Stakes winner British Royalty (English Channel), who was also placed three times in graded company over marathon turf trips. A half-sister to the talented U.S. turf mare Clearly A Queen (Lucky North), Queen Martha is also the dam of the yearling colt Northern Mystic (Mystic Guide). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Brandy and Me remained perfect in two starts Sunday when she added a victory in the Algoma Stakes at Woodbine to her growing CV. Breaking from the rail and devoid of early speed after hopping awkwardly out of the gate, she found traffic early before inching up steadily to find a joint spot in third by the time leader Souper Diva (Souper Speedy) recorded a half in :45.33. Setting her sights on Souper Diva, Brandy and Me tipped out and wore down the pacesetter, accelerating late as Hawberry chased her home. With Jason Hoyte in the irons, the bay crossed the line 2 1/2 lengths the best.

Brandy and Me | Michael Burns

Brandy and Me's only previous start resulted in a 5 1/2-length win Aug. 1 going 5 1/2 furlongs over the same surface.

"We weren't too surprised by her maiden race," said trainer Evette Chartrand-Hoek. "We didn't think it would be as grand as it was when she broke her maiden. There's been a lot of funny things with this horse, so we kind of nicknamed her Bucky the Wonder Horse, and now it's like, wow."

Brandy and Me is the last reported foal for her dam, who placed in a trio of black-type events at Monmouth and Pimlico in 2014-15. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Hometown hero Paramount Prince, always a formidable foe, was sent at 2-5 Sunday in the non-black-type Caledon Stakes at Woodbine. With only three challengers, he gave a masterclass front-running performance, keeping all challengers at bay as he showed the way through sensible :24.93 and :49.25 fractions. Every time a rival looked to threaten, Paramount Prince let out another notch. Wicked Django tried to make a race of it leaving the turn, but Paramount Prince had plenty left and crossed the wire 2 3/4 lengths to the good with reserve in the tank.

“I kind of figured somebody would try and go with us a little bit, but I wasn’t sure which one,” said winning rider Fraser Aebly. “But he handles it so well. He is truly an amazing horse. He carries his speed so wonderfully. He’s a pleasure to ride. He’s always got another gear waiting for you.”

With a long and illustrious record at Woodbine, where he's made all but two of his career starts, Paramount Prince won the King's Plate in 2023, the GIII Seagram Cup Aug. 1 (for the second time), and a number of other top contests in Canada. He was named Canada's champion 3-year-old colt in 2023 and champion older dirt male in 2024. Cont. p8

In addition to producing two other listed stakes winners, Paramount Prince's dam has an unraced 2-year-old colt named Piranha Pool (Silent Name {Jpn}), who sold at last September's CTHS Ontario yearling sale to Sean Fitzhenry for C$112,000, and she produced a filly by Curlin this year. NEW PURPOSE (f, 2, American Pharoah--Full Focus, by Medaglia d'Oro) legged up for this first trip to the races over the Turfway synthetic and was sent off as the 21-10 chalk to open her account at first asking. Drawn deepest in a field of seven, the bay filly was only fairly into stride, but was ridden forward by Flavien Prat and ultimately settled for a chasing role from second as Lady Carmen (War Front) made play up front. Asked to come after the front-runner with a bit more than a quarter-mile to travel, New Purpose overhauled that rival with ease and quickened up nicely to put 3 3/4 lengths on the rallying first-timer Dovetail (Greatest Honour) at the line. The Mar. 6 foal is the first produce out of a daughter of SW and GSP Divided Attention (A.P. Making her first career start at 4-1, Golden Maiden sprinted to the front from her assigned post in the 11th spot. The bay led through a :23.18 initial quarter as Manny Franco sat like a statue. After slowing the tempo considerably to register a half in :50.48, Golden Maiden cut the corner and blasted clear of the rest for a facile 2 3/4-length win over Fave (Golden Pal) and J'ray's Jewel (Oscar Performance), who were separated by a head for the second- and third-place spots. Golden Maiden's dam has a yearling Up to the Mark colt, who was a $60,000 RNA at last year's Keeneland November sale, and produced a Kingsbarns filly this spring. She was bred back to Yaupon. - Maiden Claiming: purses of $18,000/up & a minimum claiming price of $40,000

10th-Saratoga, $115,000, Msw, 8-30, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:37.10, fm, 4 lengths.

PEPPERMINT TWIST (f, 3, Not This Time--Twisted Kitty, by Twirling Candy), sent at 8-1 for this debut, left the gate sharply, but settled nicely along the hedge in third as 76-1 One Bad Habit (Don Six) showed the way by five lengths through a :23.88 first quarter. Not one to dally, Peppermint Twist declined the invitation to leave the longshot loose on the lead and joined her on the backstretch, then backed off slightly to chase within a length. One Bad Habit continued to lead as Peppermint Twist continued to chase until the top of the stretch. Given her cue by Junior Alvarado, Peppermint Twist rushed to the front and drove clear as Majestic Moonlight (McKinzie) chased her home, four lengths in arrears. From the same extended family as 2005 Canadian champion 2-year-old filly Knights Templar (Exploit), Peppermint Twist is the last reported foal for her dam. Sales History: $85,000 Ylg '24 FTKOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $63,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

5th-Saratoga, $115,000, (S), Msw, 8-30, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05.40, ft, 5 1/2 lengths.

SUN KISSED BLISS (f, 2, Mind Control--Kiska, by Into Mischief), a homebred firster for Torie Gladwell, broke on top at 9-1 and stayed there. Repulsing her early challengers, she showed the way through a :22.67 first quarter and a :46.62 half, widening with every stride. Sun Kissed Bliss crossed the line 5 1/2 lengths ahead of favored D'muehl (Army Mule). The filly is the fifth winner for her New York-based first-crop sire (by Stay Thirsty).

A half to Bam's Bliss Kiss (Solomini), SW, $409,390; Sun Kissed Bliss also has a yearling half-brother by Solomini. Her dam was bred to Drain the Clock for next term. 1st-Kentucky Downs, $110,800, Msw, 8-30, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:37.97, fm, 3 1/4 lengths.

QUIBBLER (f, 2, Epicenter--Hassler {Ire}, by War Front), dismissed at 22-1, bounded home an easy winner of her debut at Kentucky Downs Sunday. The filly became the sixth winner for her freshman sire (by Not This Time). Unhurried early, Quibbler was patiently handled and settled well back in the field up the hill. Tipped to the center of the course at the top of the straight, the filly unleashed a powerful kick with a furlong to run and burst clear under a motionless Jaime Torres to win by more than three lengths. Fifth Peg (Cairo Prince) was second and Sock Monkey (Greatest Honour) was third. The time for the mile over the undulating turf course was 1:37.97.

Quibbler, a $20,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, is a half-sister to stakes winner multiple Rich City Girl (City of Light). Her dam Hassler (Ire) is a daughter of multiple Grade I winner Turbulent Descent (Congrats). Hassler delivered a Liam's Map filly this year and has been bred back to Girvin. Sales History: $20,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $60,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

5th-Woodbine, C$89,086, Msw, 8-30, 2yo, 5 1/2f (AWT), 1:04.31, ft, 1/2 length.

TRACTION PARK (f, 2, Vekoma--Wildcat Gold, by Forest Wildcat), racing with blinkers on after failing to impact on debut Apr. 29 in the slop at 4 1/2 furlongs at Churchill, returned from a freshening a different horse. Adding a furlong and switching to Woodbine's all-weather surface, Traction Park shot out of the gate at 8-1 to lead the field through :22.53 and :45.53 fractions. Dispensing of her 3-2 stablemate Winchester Road (Quality Road), who had been glued to her flank, Traction Park kicked clear on the turn and held off firster Secured Assets (Maximum Security) by a half-length. The winner's dam--who has also produced Blinkers (Stay Thirsty), MSP, $203,903--is a granddaughter of 1981 GII Flower Bowl winner Rokeby Rose (Tom Rolfe), dam of multiple U.S. champion Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy). Wildcat Gold was bred to Maxfield for next term. Sales History: $175,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP. 1st-Gulfstream, $41,800, Msw, 8-30, 2yo, 1m 70y (AWT) (off turf), 1:44.77, ft, 3 1/2 lengths.

PALINGO (c, 2, Golden Pal--Three Flamingos, by English Channel) opened his career with two third-place efforts going 7 1/2 furlongs of the Gulfstream turf July 4 and Aug. 2. Stretching out and moving to the Tapeta for this third effort, the 5-2 shot broke sharply, but was taken in hand and angled to the rail in mid-pack heading into the first turn. He rolled up three wide to challenge for the lead into the far turn and took charge midway on the bend before sailing clear down the lane to graduate by 3 1/2 lengths.

Cid Campeador (Liam's Map) was second. Palingo, a $100,000 KEESEP purchase, is the 20th winner for his freshman sire (by Uncle Mo). He has a yearling half-sister by Oscar Performance and a weanling half-sister by National Treasure. Three Flamingos, a half-sister to graded winner Senior Investment (Discreetly Mine), was bred back to Omaha Beach this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-2, $32,800.

KHOLULU (f, 2, Khozan--Lu Lu Laura {SP, $109,310}, by Circular Quay), let go at 9-1, was outsprinted early and settled well off a pair of dueling leaders. He rallied three wide into the stretch and inhaled pacesetting Queen of Promise (Drain the Clock) at midstretch and drew away to score by 3 3/4 lengths. “I was cautiously optimistic about Kholulu going in because with babies you never know,” said winning trainer Kathleen O'Connell. “But she seemed like she had a chance to be special. I had high expectations for her.”

O'Connell's only disappointment was not getting to see the race live.

“After all the waiting I did for this filly, it just so happens I have some appointments in Tampa tomorrow and the only flight I could get takes off when they’re running,” she said. “And--this is no lie--the streaming stopped at the eighth pole. I had to text my assistant find out what happened.”

Kholulu is a full-sister to This Run's for You, SP, $181,240. Lu Lu Laura, a half to graded winner and Grade I-placed Uncle Vinny (Uncle Mo), produced full-brothers to the winner in 2025 and 2026 and was bred back to Khozan this year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600.

EPIC VENTURE (c, 2, Epicenter--Tiz an Edventure {SW, $198,000}, by Tiznow) became his freshman sire's seventh winner and second of the afternoon when he went last to first for a last-gasp victory at 20-1. The bay colt soon found himself in last as his rivals sprung away from the gate and was at the back of a strung-out field through a quarter in :22.73. He closed steadily down the center of the track and just got his head in front of favored Crypto Master (Mastery) on the line. Epic Venture RNA'd for $85,000 at Keeneland last September and sold for $17,000 at OBS March and for $30,000 at OBS June. Tiz an Edventure has a yearling colt by Honor A. P. and a weanling colt by Complexity. She was bred back to Mindframe. The mare, with the winner in utero, was purchased by Parks Investment Group for $310,000 at the 2024 Keeneland January sale. She sold again at Keeneland that November for $90,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $13,800.

WATHNAN'S BIG WEEKEND CAPPED BY LIGHT OF DAWN'S PRESTIGE

Light Of Dawn | racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

Stepping up to seven furlongs on Sunday, Wathnan's Light Of Dawn (Showcasing) showed that stamina is her strong suit in Goodwood's G3 Prestige Stakes.

Third in the Albany and Prix de Cabourg over six, the Karl Burke-trained €625,000 Arqana May Breeze-Up sensation was committed by James Doyle inside the final quarter mile and stayed on powerfully in the soft ground to score by 1 1/4 lengths from the Eve Johnson Houghton-trained Eabha (Space Blues). A further half length behind in third was the Gosdens' blueblood Coaxed to provide her first-season sire Baaeed with his first black-type.

"She's done very little in her short career, we took her over to Deauville and the ground was very quick and we were keen to get her on a slower surface," Doyle said. "She was in good company in the Albany and hopefully she can mix it with those again. She's a big girl so I'm sure she'll train on, she should be better as a three-year-old."

Reflecting on the operation's run of success over the course of Saturday and Sunday's action, the number one rider added, "It's been a big weekend for Wathnan, with Diego Ventura in France, Holguin winning in Germany and Leading Change in the Travers at Saratoga last night."

AL AASY SWOOPS LATE FOR GRAND PRIX DE DEAUVILLE TRIUMPH by Sean Cronin

Shadwell's veteran eight-time Group 3 winner Al Aasy (Sea The Stars) looked booked for the minor placings in the closing stages Sunday's G2 Lucien Barriere Grand Prix de Deauville, but found the necessary impetus to secure a first Group 2 triumph in dank conditions.

"He is nine, but he still has that desire to win, even in difficult conditions like this," said William Haggas. "He showed great courage, he is a lovely horse and, when conditions suit, is capable of doing some very good things. The ground has been too fast for him in England this year, but he likes a bit of give and showed that again today. If you look after horses when they are young, with a bit of luck, they repay you as they get older. Of course, you have to choose their races carefully and not ask too much of them, but he was terrific today. At the moment, I do not have a specific race in mind and we will look at the different options."

The 2021 G1 Coronation Cup runner-up and 31-10 chance occupied a position off the pace in sixth for most of the 12 1/2-furlong stamina test. Responding to pressure in the straight to go fifth entering the final furlong, he found plenty under continued rousting to collar Chestnut Rocket (Intello) by a neck on the line in a bunch finish.

The Jean-Claude Rouget-conditioned G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Arrow Eagle (Gleneagles) was a half-length away in third, a short-neck in front of the hitherto undefeated Mazzala (Frankel).

Pedigree Notes

Al Aasy, one of his sire's 90 Group winners, is the first of eight foals and one of three black-type performers out of a winning half-sister to the dual stakes-winning G2 Prix Noailles runner-up Kapour (Toylsome).

The winner is a full-brother to Listed Pretty Polly Stakes runner-up Sea Karats, Listed Further Flight Stakes third Align The Stars, the unraced two-year-old filly Kalypsa and a yearling filly.

His second dam, the dual Listed-winning dual Group 3-placed Kitcat (Monsun), is a full-sister to the Group 3-winning G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Karavel and G3 Prix Minerve victrix Kalla. Karavel, in turn, is the dam of the stakes-winning G3 Grosser Preis von Lotto Hamburg second Kerosin (Tertullian).

Al Aasy hails from the family Group 1-winning sires Shirley Heights (Mill Reef), Pentire (Be My Guest) and Konigstiger (Tiger Hill).

MAGNY COURS ON TOP IN THE FAIRY BRIDGE by Tom Frary

Fresh from a three-month break, Ecurie Ama.Zing Team's Magny Cours (Awtaad) produced a career-best to make up for lost time in Sunday's G3 Coolmore Stud Little Big Bear Fairy Bridge Stakes.

Runner-up in the Chantilly's Prix Miesque in October, the Daniel McLoughlin-trained three-year-old had returned in the same vein to fill that spot behind True Love in Leopardstown's Ballylinch Stud Priory Belle Stakes before failing to fire in the Irish 1,000 Guineas.

Travelling with ease throughout in mid-pack, the 9-1 shot was delivered by Ben Coen to take command inside the final furlong and surged to the line for an emphatic 2 1/2-length success from Dancing Saxon (Saxon Warrior).

"She showed what she's capable of in Leopardstown when she's able to get her toe in and it's been a long wait on the weather," McLoughlin said. "Ben gave her an excellent ride, sat on her the whole way. Sometimes when she gets there she doesn't really go away as well as she did there today--she put that to bed very professionally."

"She's really strengthened up and is a good-sized filly now," he added. "I'd say she's really coming into herself and Ben thinks seven is her trip. She holds an entry in the Prix de la Foret. She's been to France and she enjoys the style of racing over there. The owner enjoys runners in France, so it ticks a lot of boxes and it could be worth taking a chance--it could be an exciting end to the year with a bit of luck."

Pedigree Notes

Magny Cours's Listed-placed dam Ares Choix (Choisir), who is also responsible for the Premio Regina Elena winner Beenham (Havana Grey), is a daughter of the Listed scorer and Group 3-placed Ares Vallis (Caerleon) and half to the Chartwell Fillies' Stakes winner Emerald Star (Mount Nelson). From the dynasty of the high-class producer Trillion (Hail To Reason), her two-year-old filly La Cala (King Of Change) was a €55,000 purchase by Outsider Bloodstock at Tattersalls Ireland September. She also has a filly foal by Mill Stream.

GREAT WISH STAMPS HIS CLASS ON THE MEAUTRY by Tom Frary

Transformed this year, Scandinavia's sprinting sensation Great Wish (Night Of Thunder) turned his attention to Deauville on Sunday to take apart the G3 Barriere Prix de Meautry.

Great Wish winning in Deauville on Sunday | ScoopDyga

Stepping up a gear since his spell at Meydan which included success in the Dubai Sprint in January, the five-year-old had re-emerged in Europe at the deep end but managed to surprise with a close-up sixth in Royal Ascot's Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes. Coming here off a subsequent win in Klampenborg's Zawawi Sprint Cup on home soil at the start of the month, the 3-1 favourite was sent forward by Mickael Barzalona approaching the furlong pole and responded with enthusiasm to open up for a resounding 4 1/2-length success from Zzodiac (Kodiac).

"We only have two Group races in Scandinavia, so it's not easy to win races like today because we don't have the horses to do it," trainer Bent Olsen said. "It was beautiful to have the owners with us--they feel like they're experiencing something special. The horse's former owner passed away in 2024 and it's very special to do this with this horse she loved so much. Maybe we'll come back to France for the Prix de la Foret and then we'll go back to Dubai this winter."

Bought initially by Joseph O'Brien as a yearling, Great Wish who was resold at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up is out of the Queen Mary and Lacken Stakes winner Anthem Alexander (Starspangledbanner) who was also placed in the Cheveley Park Stakes and Commonwealth Cup. She is a daughter of the Molecomb and Anglesey Stakes winner Lady Alexander (Night Shift), responsible for Mozart's established sire Dandy Man (Mozart) and second dam of Night Of Thunder's Marble Hill runner-up Noche Magica and the Abernant winner and Prix de l'Abbaye-placed Hamza (Amadeus Wolf).

Also connected to the 1,000 Guineas and Prix Rothschild heroine Mother Earth (Zoffany) and Night Of Thunder's Premio Dormello winner Night Colours, she has the once-placed two-year-old filly Chanter Le Blues (Blue Point) and a yearling filly by Mehmas due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 2.

DIEGO VENTURA PREVAILS IN QUINCEY THRILLER by Sean Cronin

Diego Ventura collects his first group win in the Prix Quincey
ScoopDyga

Wathnan Racing's Diego Ventura (Mehmas) had hit the board three times in Group-race company prior to Sunday's G3 Barriere Prix Quincey at Deauville and collected a career high in a three-way photo to provide connections with the first leg of an afternoon Group 3 treble.

"He likes this tacky ground and we were always well-placed to be ready when the pace quickened," said Christophe Soumillon. "I was taken by surprise at the very moment they did quicken, but he was very courageous in the closing stages."

The 9-5 favourite, with Soumillon replacing James Doyle in the saddle, broke well and led early, but surrendered his advantage approaching halfway. Coming under pressure with a quarter-mile remaining, he engaged in a three-way tussle with Half Half (Anodin) and Colin The Brave (Inns Of Court) inside the final furlong and was ridden out to prevail by a pair of heads in a thrilling finish.

Pedigree Notes

Diego Ventura, who becomes his sire's 31st Group winner, is the third of six foals and leading performer produced by a winning granddaughter of G1 Prix du Cadran heroine Mercalle (Kaldoun).

Mercalle is the dam of G3 Hessen Pokal victrix Lady Deauville (Fasliyev) and Japanese champion and G1 Japan Cup second Fabulous La Fouine (Fabulous Dancer).

Lady Deauville produced the Group 3-placed duo Les Planches (Deep Impact) and Port Vendres (Daiwa Major) and Fabulous La Fouine is the dam of G2 Hanshin Daishoten victor Gustave Cry (Heart's Cry).

Cont.

Descendants of Mercalle also include the Group 2-winning G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Zamrud (Samum) and her G2 Union Rennen-winning son Zuckerhut (Almanzor).

Holguin is kin to the unraced two-year-old filly Double Right (Churchill) and a yearling colt by Little Big Bear.

MORE GROUP 3 SUCCESS FOR WATHNAN AS HOLGUIN SNAGS BADEN-BADEN'S GOLDENE PEITSCHE by Sean Cronin

Just minutes after Diego Ventura (Mehmas) notched a pattern-race success at Deauville, Wathnan Racing's Holguin (Havana Grey) completed a Group 3 double for connections in Sunday's G3 156th Casino Baden-Baden Goldene Peitsche, Germany's premier sprint, at Baden-Baden. Light Of Dawn (Showcasing) bolstered the operation's afternoon tally in Goodwood's G3 Prestige Stakes.

"It was a great night in Saratoga last night and I said to the team out there that maybe the European division can add a little cherry on top today," said Richard Brown. "Hamad [Al Jehani] is in rich form and has formed a great team. He's great to work with and I speak with him many times a day. His team and my team work incredibly hard to get these results and it's tremendous to see. I'm delighted for Hamad and for the whole Wathnan team. Faleh [Bughenaim] is a huge part of Hamad's team and rides a lot of the difficult horses in the morning. It is difficult to give him too many chances as we've got James [Doyle], but it was a busy day today and this opportunity arose. It was great to give him this chance, he works very hard, rides very well and I'm delighted to see him win another big race for us."

Bugenhaim, who won this for connections aboard The Strikin Viking (Inns Of Court) last year, added, "We were a little worried about the distance, but he handled it well and did a good job today. He followed the others so easily, I gave him plenty of time and he produced a nice turn of foot in the final 300 metres. I think maybe we should come here every year!"

The 16-5 pick was on his hind legs as the gates opened and was chased along in rear early. Making his way into mid-division at halfway, he was stoked up to go fourth off the home turn and kept on strongly for three flicks of Faleh Bughenaim's persuader inside the final furlong to deny Bacarda (Areion) and Lamborghini Bf (Holy Roman Emperor) by 1 3/4 lengths and a short-head in ultimately comfortable fashion.

Pedigree Notes

Holguin, who becomes the 20th Group winner for his sire, is the second of seven live foals out a dual-winning half-sister to Listed Kilboy Estate Stakes third Hovering (In The Wings).

His second dam Orlena (Gone West) is a half-sister to Listed-winning G1 1000 Guineas runner-up Vista Bella (Diktat) and her descendants include Listed Prix des Reves d'Or victrix Second Generation (Dawn Approach) and the Group/Grade 3-placed duo El Manati (Iffraaj) and Rijeka (Roderic O'Connor).

The winner is a full-brother to the winning two-year-old filly Roxelina and a yearling filly. He is also kin to a weanling colt by Dragon Symbol.

GEORGE CROSS (FR) (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Astrologia {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), runner-up going seven furlongs at Ffos Las in his Aug. 4 debut last time, broke well and asserted for an early lead here. Holding sway thereafter, the 6-4 favourite was rowed along approaching the quarter-mile pole and kept on resolutely under a drive inside the final furlong to hold the unlucky-in-running Flight Tracker (Sea The Stars) by 3/4-of-a-length.

George Cross, half-brother to a yearling twin filly by Kingman, is the first foal produced by an unraced daughter of G3 Musidora-winning G1 Prix de l'Opera third So I Dar (Dubawi).

So Mi Dar, a daughter of G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Pretty Polly heroine Dar Re Mi (Singspiel), is a full-sister to multiple Group 1-winning sire Too Darn Hot and G2 Middleton-winning G1 St Leger runner-up Lah Ti Dar. Sales history: €200,000 Ylg '25 ARAUG. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,330.

PIVOTAL VOYAGE (IRE) (f, 2, Space Traveller {GB}--Portico {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}) was squeezed for room on both sides exiting the stalls and chased the leaders in sixth after the initial strides of this debut. Urged closer once past halfway, the 4-1 chance went second approaching the final furlong and was ridden out inside the final furlong to prevail by a neck from Floral Maid (Calyx), becoming the ninth winner for her freshman sire (by Bated Breath).

Runner-up in the Woodlands Stakes and Midsummer Sprint Stakes before winning a conditions race at Naas earlier this month, Likedbymybike made it count this time to open her black-type account in style. Recovering from a tardy break to stalk the early leaders, she was in command passing the furlong pole and firmly on top at the line.

"That's unbelievable. It means everything really," trainer Michael Byrne said. "She deserved that, she's been knocking on the door and obviously loves it here. She got great confidence from winning in Naas, we've only two horses to run and we ran the two of them today."

Likedbymike by Inns Of Court | racingfotos.com

Byrne added, "There is a fillies' Listed race at The Curragh at the start of next month so that's probably where we'll go next."

The dam is a daughter of the Nell Gwyn third Hiddendale (Indian Ridge) from the family of the Premio Parioli and Gran Criterium-winning sire Candy Glen. She has a once raced two-year-old colt by Starman named World Star.

BAMAKO BEACH (IRE) (c, 3, Sands Of Mali {Fr}--Joyous {GB}, by Assertive {GB}), off the mark at Fairyhouse last month after a failed swing at the Irish 2,000 Guineas, tracked the leaders early. Subduing the long-time leader Benevento (Wootton Bassett) approaching the furlong pole, the 11-8 favourite asserted despite drifting left to record a 2 3/4-length success.
"He's a horse that we've obviously thought a lot of, given where we've run him," trainer Michael O'Callaghan said. "We have the Foret in our head for him and there is the Prix de Pin in three weeks, so we may go for that or go straight to the Foret."
"He's still a big baby. He only had one run as a two-year-old and he finds things very easy," he added. "He's a bit over-enthusiastic and sometimes they can be a bit slow to learn. Today is a conditions race, but there were no hiding places on paper, taking on older horses. He's gone and done it well with a bit in hand."

The dam is a daughter of the Listed-winning sprinter Ivory's Joy (Tina's Pet). She has a two-year-old full-brother to the winner named Wherewecanboogie in training with Kevin Ryan, who was sold for £55,000 at the Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale, and a yearling full-sister catalogued in the upcoming Goffs Orby Book 2. MAHASTI (GER) (f, 2, Rubaiyat {Fr}--Magic {Ger}, by Adlerflug {Ger}), an Aug. 16 debut second at Hannover last time, broke well and raced in a handy fourth through the initial fractions of this valuable Iffezheimer BBAG-Auktionsrennen. Launching her challenge going well at the top of the straight, the 8-5 favourite gained an advantage approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to assert by 2 1/2 lengths from Nyela (Rubaiyat), becoming the third winner for her freshman sire (by Areion).

Mahasti is the fourth of five foals and first scorer produced by an unraced full-sister to Listed Prix Michel Houyvet third Manoucheer (Adlerflug).

Her second dam is the Listed-placed Madonna (Lando), herself a half-sister to the dual Graded-winning GI Northern Dancer Turf Stakes third Messi (New Approach), G2 Champagne Stakes victor McCartney (In The Wings) and G3 Albert von Metzler-Rennen third Mano Diao (Authorized).

Both Not My Type and Rogue Jewel boast two-for-two records and Pure Mint is unbeaten in one. The undefeated trio encounter Goffs Orby millionaire Silent Beauty, who was off the radar in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany and is better judged on her four-length TDN Rising Star display at Yarmouth in May. She is joined by her Amo Racing-owned stablemate Napa, who has not been seen since finishing last of eight in May's Listed National Stakes at Sandown, while Clash Of Hearts, the highest-rated contender on official rankings, is another worthy of consideration and makes a swift comeback returning off a fifth in this month's G3 Acomb at York. Baden-Baden's 'Grosse Woche' continues apace and, with Baarberini scratched, Green Team Racing relies on Listed Pat Eddery ninth Gymbaazy, who is the lone international challenger in Germany's first juvenile pattern race of the year. The home defence includes Eckhard Sauren's one-for-one Western and the Bohumil Nedorostek-trained duo Bozok, a debut winner at Hannover just over two weeks ago, and the twice-raced maiden Taylor Made. Indigo Sun and Tango Dancer, who have a win apiece in the books, complete the line-up.
