NOT THIS TIME ON TOP AGAIN AS KEENELAND MARCHES INTO BOOK 3

HIP 1275, the session topper who sold to Tagermeen Racing on the opening day of Book 3 | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale resumed after a dark day Friday and picked up right where it left off as its Book 3 section opened with an additional four seven-figure yearlings and competitive bidding from start to finish Saturday in Lexington.

During Saturday's first Book 3 session, 255 yearlings grossed $61,072,000. The session average of $239,498 was up 7.74% from last year's comparable session, and the median of $200,000 was up 11.11% from a year ago.

The 2025 Book 3 cumulative average was $201,804 and the median was $160,000. Cont. p3

THE PUMA HOLDS OFF FURTHER ADO, CLAWS OUT PENNSYLVANIA DERBY WIN

by Steve Sherack

BENSALEM, PA. -- The Puma (Essential Quality) had to wait for the third Saturday in September for his Derby victory.

Scratched from the GI Kentucky Derby with swelling in his leg due to a skin infection, The Puma dug down gamely to fend off favored 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Further Ado (Gun Runner) by a half-length in a thrilling renewal of the $1-million GI Pennsylvania Derby on a beautiful, late summer afternoon at Parx Racing Saturday. It was another 1 1/2 lengths back to Sassmaster (Curlin) in third.

The Puma and Further Ado were also one-two in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 7, the first career victory for the former.

“You always want to win the Grade I,” winning trainer Gustavo Delgado said. “For all the people, the family, it’s very good. The best race for me is right now. Very happy and very exciting. Right now, we will wait before thinking about the Breeders’ Cup. We will go back to Saratoga, and we will meet with my partners and my son (assistant trainer Gustavo, Jr.) and then decide.”

Off as the 5-2 second choice, The Puma raced in eighth with Further Ado placed in a stalking, inside fourth as longshots Talk to Me Jimmy (Modernist) and Ponder and Dream (Uncle Lino) showed the way through fractions of :23.27 and :47.69.

Not This Time | Taylor Made Stallions

A colt by Not This Time topped Saturday's session when selling for $1.5 million to RTM Racing from the Gainesway consignment. A daughter of the Taylor Made Sale stallion from the Eaton Sales consignment was the second-highest priced lot of the session, selling for $1.4 million to bloodstock agent Lauren Carlisle.

The four million-dollar yearlings sold Saturday bettered the three to hit that mark during last year's entire Book 3 section. Twenty horses sold for $500,000 or more on the day. That figure was 19 on the first day of last year's Book 3.

Gainesway sold two of the day's seven-figure yearlings and was the session's leading consignor with 39 sold for $12,685,000.

"I think it's a trickle down," Gainesway's Brian Graves said of the competitive session. "People look for quality horses regardless of the book, and when they find them, they are willing to go hard for them. There is a line and if you get across it, you're good."

Graves continued, "I thought if there was any soft spot it was in Book 2, when a pretty solid horse seemed a little sticky. And now in Book 3, it's very obvious when you come across a good horse that there is plenty of money for him. And I hope that will just trickle into books four and five. People who are buying horses to trade and pinhook, they can get a lot of work done there."

Fergus Galvin made a seven-figure bid to acquire a colt by Into Mischief on behalf Sheikh Fahad's Qatar Racing, while his Hunter Valley Farm consignment sold 11 yearlings Saturday for $1,915,000.

"It's a deep bench of buyers," Galvin said. "It's the same story. If you have the goods, there are plenty of people for them."

FOUR STAR SALES

Mahmud Mouni | Keeneland

"That doesn't mean, necessarily, if you bring any horse up, you're going to get paid. You've got to have the goods. But there are plenty of buyers and plenty of money for the right horse."

Carlisle was the session's leading buyer with five purchased for $2,825,000.

The Keeneland September Yearling sale continues through Saturday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

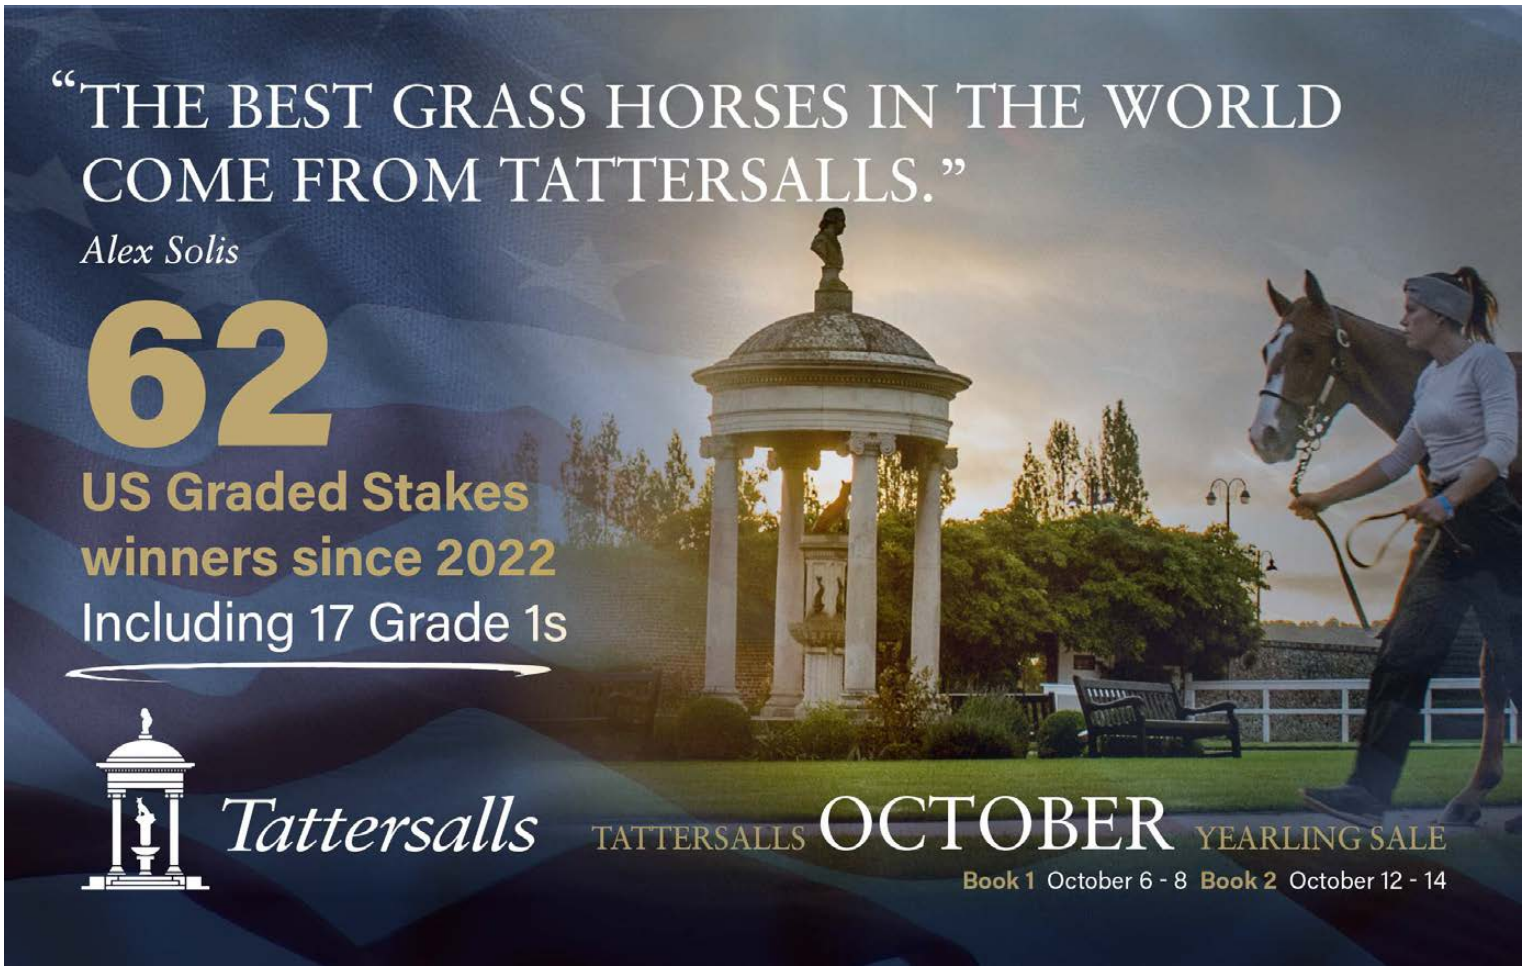

Tagermeen Buying Spree Continues with $1.5-Million Not This Time Colt

Tagermeen Racing continued to be busy buying during Saturday's fifth session of the Keeneland September sale, going to $1.5 million to acquire a colt by Not This Time (hip 1275) from the Gainesway consignment. The yearling, bred Three Chimneys Farm, is out of Ana's Gun (Gun Runner). The mare is a half-sister to graded-placed Always Carina (Malibu Moon), who produced GI Kentucky Oaks winner Always a Runner (Gun Runner), and to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Structor (Palace Malice). Under the third dam is GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner More Than Real.

"We loved this colt," Tagermeen's Mahmud Mouni said after signing the ticket on the colt. "He has an amazing pedigree. We did not expect to have to pay that much, but when you look at the horses for the next few days--even the next few hours--it will be very tough to find horses like him. He is amazing, a gorgeous colt."

Mouni continued, "Everybody wants the good horse, it doesn't matter what book they are in. I think the horse deserved that price. He could have been in Book 1 or 2."

Mouni said a trainer had yet to be chosen for the colt, who will head to Ocala to be broke by Randy Miles. Cont.

Mouni has been signing for the Tagermeen partnership as RTM Racing. RTM Racing has purchased 19 horses for $14 million, with an 20th yearling purchased in partnership with Whisper Hill Farm for an additional $1.6 million. Leading the group is a $2.8-million son of Gun Runner who topped Monday's first session of the auction.

Hip 1275 was the 12th seven-figure yearling of the auction for Not This Time. The Taylor Made stallion was represented by a $2.1-million colt Monday and a pair of colts who sold for $2 million Thursday.

'Waiting All Day for Her': $1.4-Million Not This Time Filly to Carlisle

Just over an hour after Not This Time registered his latest Grade I winner when the filly Bodacious Bay captured the GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx, bloodstock agent Lauren Carlisle fended off Donato Lanni to acquire a yearling daughter of the stallion (hip 1523) for $1.4 million at Keeneland Saturday. It was the fourth seven-figure yearling of the session and the second of the day by Not This Time, who now as 12 over the auction's first five days.

"We were waiting for her all day," Carlisle said. "We knew it wasn't going to be easy. I didn't know it was going to be that hard, but that's the sale right now."

"Mark Casse is going to train her and he told me before he left today to buy this filly."

Hip 1523, consigned by Eaton Sales and bred by Jumping Jack Racing, is out of stakes-placed O'Maggie (Paddy O'Prado), a half-sister to Grade I winner Dream Tree (Uncle Mo).

Carlisle signed for five yearlings Saturday for a gross of $2,835,000. In addition to the Not This Time filly, the agent also acquired a daughter of Life is Good (hip 1328) for $625,000. Cnt.

HIP 1412, the $1.25-million Life Is Good colt | Keeneland

Carlisle did admit the team had missed out on a colt earlier in the session.

"We tried to buy the [$1.25-million] Life is Good colt, we were the underbidders on him," she said. "So that hurt. People are so in the bridle to buy. And that's a good thing for our industry. But it is frustrating when you are bidding. I have had every emotion you could think of here: blood, sweat and tears. But it's good for the health of our industry. It's encouraging for that, but it can be frustrating when you get outbid constantly."

Through five sessions, Carlisle has signed for 11 horses for a total of $7,860,000.

Another Graves Success Story, $1.25-Million Life is Good Colt to St. Elias & Partners

The partnership of St. Elias Stables, West Point Thoroughbreds, Lane's End Racing, and Belladonna Racing added another seven-figure yearling to its roster--and added more pinhooking success to Brian Graves's resume--when paying $1.25 million for a colt (hip 1412) from the Gainesway consignment Saturday at Keeneland. It was the group's seventh million-dollar purchase. Through five sessions, the partners have purchased 17 yearlings for $15,175,000.

Hip 1412 is out of Graceful Fancy (Liam's Map), a daughter of Icon Project (Empire Maker) and a half-sister to graded winner Fashion Business (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

The result was the second seven-figure pinhook result of the week for Graves, who acquired the colt for $285,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

"He was a perfectly balanced individual," Graves said of the colt's appeal last fall. "He wasn't the biggest horse I've ever bought, but he had everything in the right spot. He had a lot of definition to his shoulder and withers, something I am really fond of in a horse." Cont.

Life Is Good at WinStar | Sarah Andrew

"I thought he would grow a little more than he did and there was a time that I was maybe a little apprehensive about that, but there was a lot of quality about him."

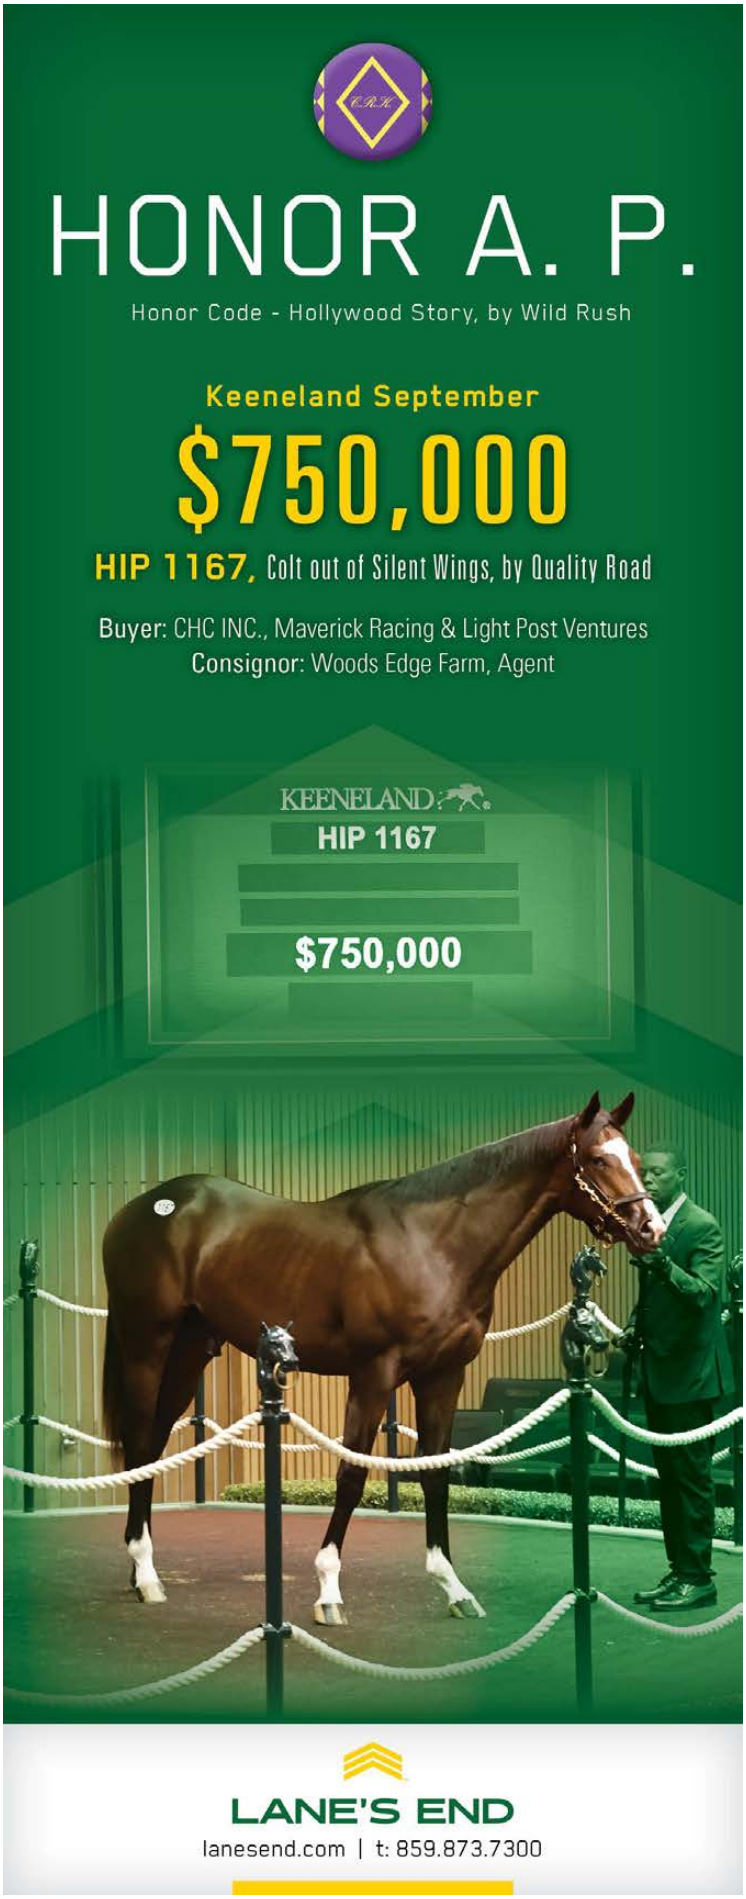

Graves said the colt's biggest attribute heading back through the ring Saturday was likely his young sire, who has gotten off to a flyer with his first crop of 2-year-olds on the track this year. In addition to recent GI Hopeful Stakes winner The Good Life, Life is Good has been represented by stakes winner Waggley and multiple graded-placed Scarlett Begonia.

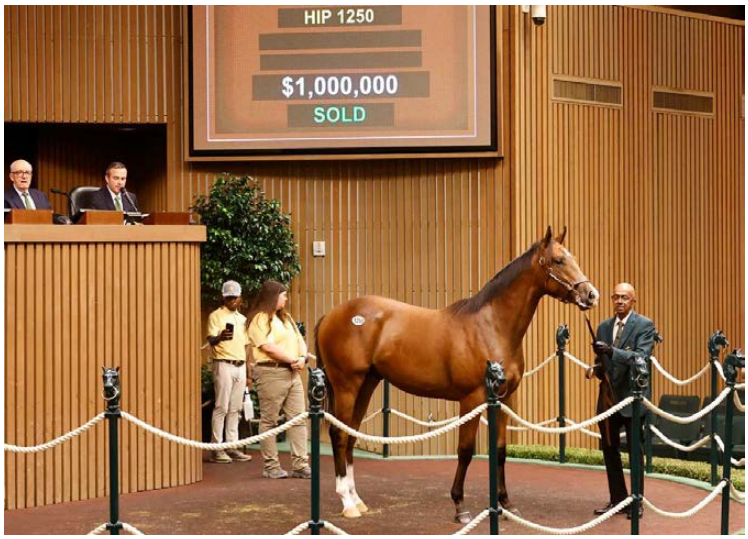

"Life is Good really took off and is clearly doing a great job as a stallion," Graves said. "I think that probably helped more than anything. When he got a Grade I winner last week, I think it cemented in everyone's mind that he is a serious stallion prospect. And I think what you see now is that these horses are in high demand."

Hip 1412 was just the biggest of three scores with sons of Life is Good that Graves enjoyed Saturday. Gainesway's general manager also sold hip 1344--acquired for $275,000 at Keeneland last November--for $675,000 to Colt Pike, as agent for Highlander; and hip 1215--acquired in utero in partnership with Gainesway and Sheerwater Stables for $150,000 at the 2025 Keeneland January sale--for $450,000 to Hartley/DeRenzo, as agent for Tom Durant.

During Monday's first session of the auction, Graves sold a colt by Nyquist (hip 39) for $1.2 million to St. Elias and partners. That colt had been purchased by Graves's En Fuego pinhooking partnership for $525,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale.

HIP 1250, the Into Mischief colt | Keeneland

'Love at First Sight': Galvin Gets his Into Mischief Colt

"We had been trying all week on these high-end Into Mischiefs," Fergus Galvin admitted after signing the $1-million ticket on a colt by Spendthrift's super sire (hip 1250) Saturday at Keeneland on behalf of Qatar Racing's Sheikh Fahad.

"I had only seen him for the first time this morning and I called Sheikh Fahad right away and said this is the one. Taking my memory back to earlier in the week about the good Into Mischiefs and certainly he stacked up very well to them."

The colt was Into Mischief's 11th million-dollar yearling of the auction. The stallion is the sire of the auction's $3.7-million top-priced lot.

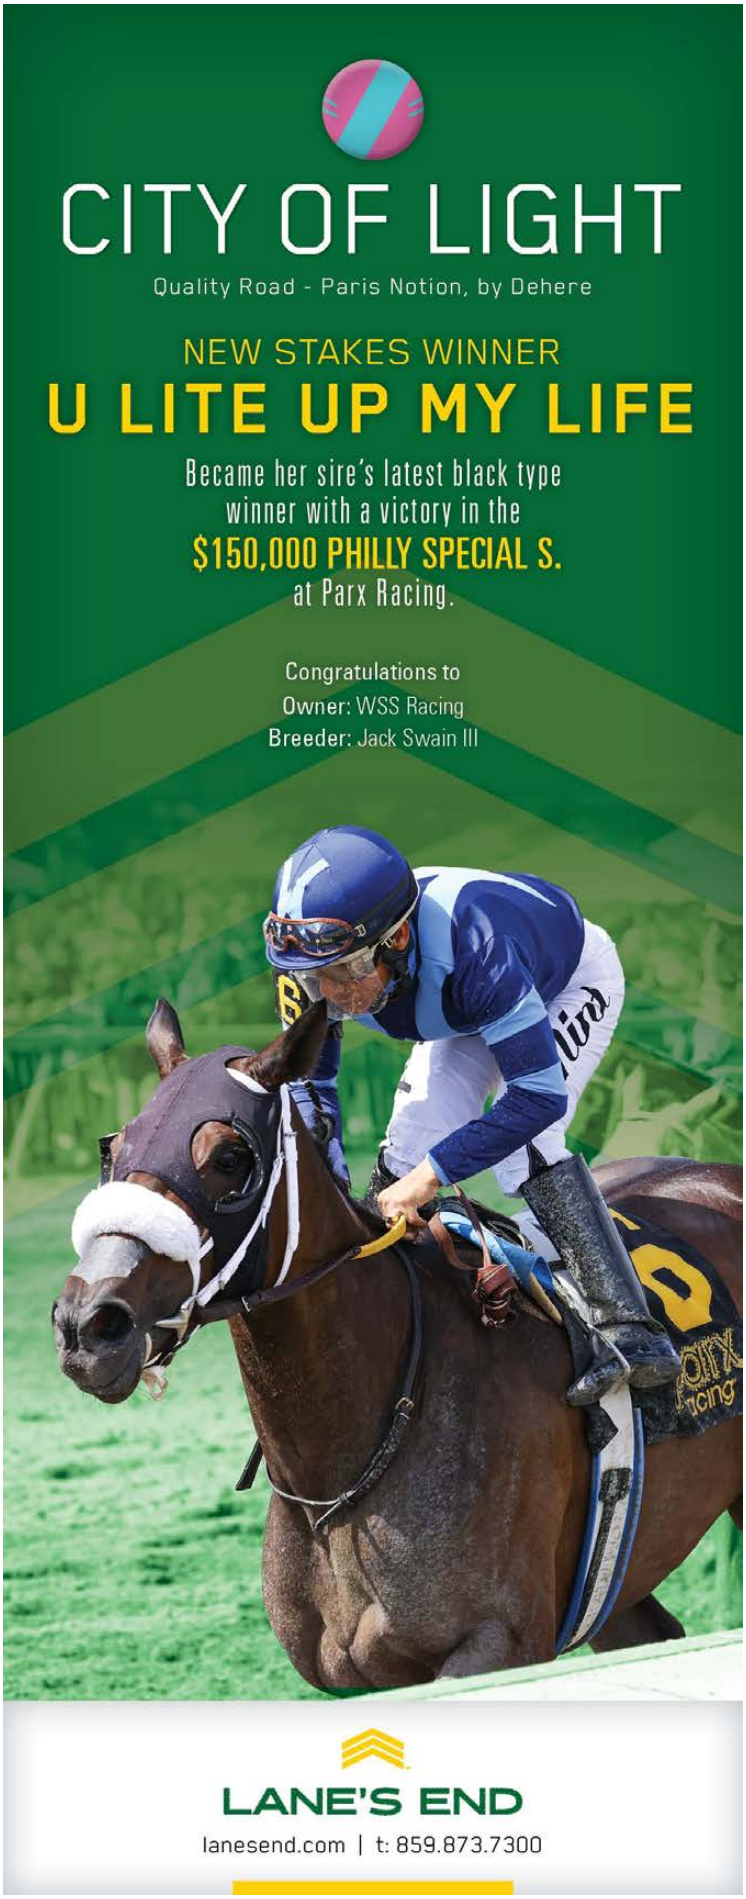

Hip 1250, consigned by Claiborne Farm, is out of Weather Delay (Curlin), a daughter of multiple Grade I winner American Gal (Concord Point). He was bred by Repole Stable and his dam was purchased by Mike Repole for $500,000 at the 2022 Keeneland September sale.

"He's a beautiful horse," said Claiborne's Jacob West, who signed the ticket on Weather Delay on behalf of Repole in 2022. "He's bred the right way. He comes from a deep family. We are just happy to sell a horse like that."

It was the second seven-figure yearling of the week for Repole's breeding operation, which sold a colt by Not This Time (hip 115) for $1 million during the first session of the auction.

Of the colt's final price tag, Galvin said, "We were pretty sure we would have to stretch to the seven-figure mark for him, as you have to with all of these good Into Mischiefs. We are happy to get him at that price."

Eisamans Score with Candy Ride Filly

Barry and Shari Eisaman discontinued their 2-year-old consignment two years ago, but the couple still enjoys success in the sales ring. Through the Gainesway consignment they sold a filly by Candy Ride (Arg) (hip 1143) for $700,000 to Courtlandt Farm Saturday at Keeneland. Their breeding operation Eico Ventures purchased the mare Re Entry (Malibu Moon), with the filly in utero, for $170,000 at the 2025 Keeneland January sale. The mare was already the dam of graded stakes winner Shotgun Hottie (Gun Runner), who had sold for $1.5 million just two months earlier at the Keeneland November sale and her colt by Candy Ride sold seven months later for $775,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.

"We bought a few mares in that sale," Barry Eisaman recalled of the January auction. "We were just taking an opportunity to pick up three or four mares."

Candy Ride | Lane's End

"We thought she was in a very acceptable price range and carrying a Candy Ride. And she is a pretty, big mare."

Asked if he was surprised by the price tag for the then 13-year-old mare, given her daughter's seven-figure sale.

"We were pleasantly surprised, not shocked," he said. "Once in a while things work out in your favor. It goes against you a lot, but the price was fine." Cont.

"The sale is quite strong, but we didn't have any etched-in-stone expectations," he said. "But she ended up being extremely popular. The veterinarian exams, with the repository and scoping, she had 26 or 27 exams. So it was apparent she was quite popular. We had hopes when you see so much activity, but this exceeded even our hopes."

From a high of some 20-plus mares, the Eisamans broodmare band is down to five mares, with a plan to sell the foals as yearlings.

"We used to have 20-plus," Eisaman said. "In that era, those mares were little stakes winners or stakes producers and we could raise a young horse out of those mares and sell well at OBS at the 2-year-old market. As the years went by, that kind of mare became less popular, even at the 2-year-old market, so we shrunk from 20-plus to five-ish mares and had the same amount of investment in them that we had in the 20, but we are breeding to Flightline, Gun Runner, Uncle Mo sort seasons, rather than a $20,000 season."

Re Entry, who is a half-sister to Grade I winner Sky Diva (Sky Mesa) and multiple Grade I-placed Quick Little Miss (Freud), produced a filly by Twirling Candy this year and was bred back to Shotgun Hottie's sire Gun Runner.

The Puma (inside) defeats Further Ado | Sarah Andrew

Hall of Fame rider Javier Castellano took the overland route beneath The Puma and caught the eye with a powerful, sweeping move on the far turn while Flavien Prat waited for racing room with Further Ado. The Puma struck the front at the top of the stretch and Further Ado was tipped out and the Tampa Bay Derby rematch was on.

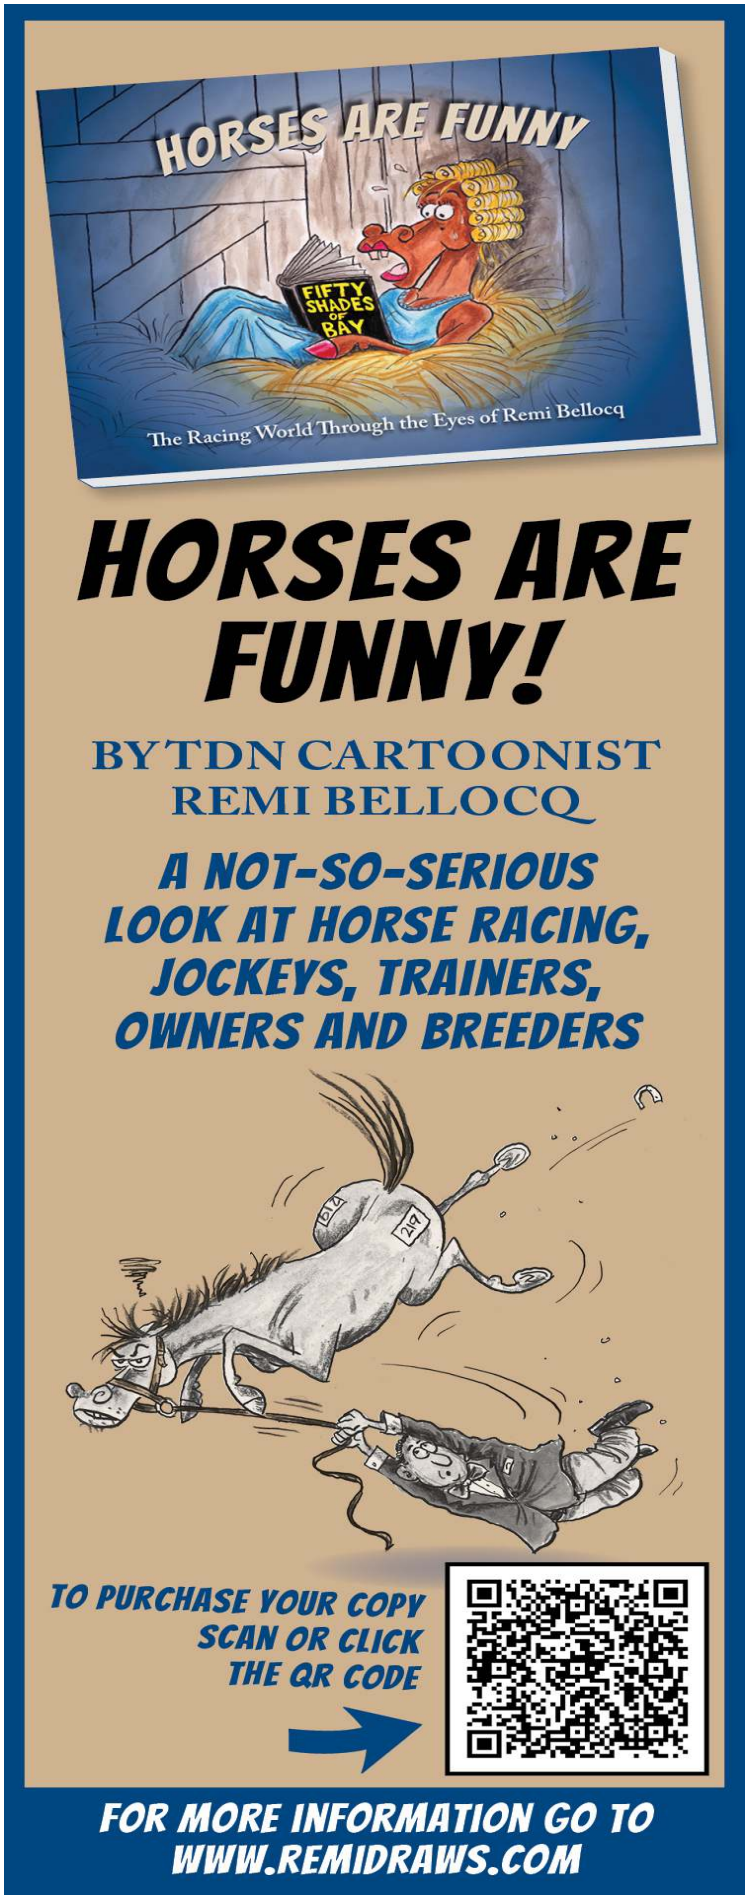

The Puma had the jump, however, and opened up a three-length advantage at the stretch call. Further Ado kept on coming in the stretch with massive strides, but fell just short in a race that didn't deserve a loser.

The Puma is campaigned by a large partnership group, led by the Delgado Family's OGMA Investments, High Step Racing (Randy Guy, Joe Noble, Kevin Avera, Jim Ferreira and former Chicago Bears and Miami Dolphins offensive lineman Todd Perry), TCC Stables, YNG Stables and Jose Aguirre's JR Ranch.

"We are excited," Guy said. "It's been a long ride. We scratched on the day of the (Kentucky) Derby, and it was frustrating. But it was the best thing. I was not overconfident coming here, but I knew he had that performance in him. We will let the boss (Gustavo Delgado) decide his future. He is the original Puma, before the horse came. What Gustavo is great about is letting the horse tell him what he wants to do. We knew he was happy coming into this race and it showed."

The Puma, also a painful second, beaten only a nose in the GI Curlin Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park Mar. 28, rolled a pair of fours earlier this summer in the GI NYRA Bets Haskell S. at a sloppy Monmouth Park July 18 and the GI DraftKings Travers S. at Saratoga last time Aug. 29. He raced in first-time blinkers in the Pennsylvania Derby.

"With the blinkers, focused," Castellano said. "I moved, when I asked he gave it to me right away. At some point I said, 'Oh my God, you moved too early Javier.' But he felt good, he was happy and it was a great performance." Cont.

Pedigree Notes:*

The Puma, a $95,000 RNA as a Keeneland September yearling turned $150,000 OBS April purchase by Ramiro Restrepo's Marquee Bloodstock, is one of eight black-type winners and the lone graded winner for sophomore sire Essential Quality. He is the first Grade I winner for the two-time champion and Darley stallion.

The Puma, bred in partnership by Hidden Brook Farm and Brian Kahn, is the first foal out of Eve of War (Declaration of War), a runaway debut winner for owner/breeder Jeff Treadway and trainer Todd Pletcher at Gulfstream Park back in 2020. She finished a career-best third in that term's GIII Monmouth Oaks.

Eve of War also has a yearling colt by Nyquist (scratched out of Keeneland September) and a Practical Joke colt of this year in the pipeline. She was bred back to Sierra Leone.

Eve of War RNA'd for $245,000 carrying The Puma at the 2022 Keeneland November sale.

LEADING LADY: BODACIOUS BAY CONFIRMS ALL THE GOSSIP IN THE COTILLION

Bodacious Bay | Walter Wlodarczyk

by Patrycja Szpyra

It was her big unveiling in elite company and it couldn't have been a better result for a debuting lady.

Fresh off a private purchase, a trainer change, and heading right into Grade I competition proved to be no problem for Bodacious Bay (Not This Time) as she comfortably held off Always a Runner (Gun Runner) to win the GI Cotillion Stakes at Parx.

Last seen running second to My Miss Mo (Uncle Mo) in the GIII Monmouth Oaks July 25, that effort ended up being her final start for trainer Rodolphe Brisset before being moved to Saffie Joseph Jr.. Before that she'd broken her maiden two back June 26 against Churchill Downs maidens by four lengths on a sloppy track and had two runner-up finishes May 22 and Apr. 26--this latter contest being on unveiling at Oaklawn.

The field jumped well at the break here and stablemate My Miss Mo was intent on controlling the pace right from the bell. Strolling along through an opening quarter in :23.81 with Bodacious Bay never far behind, the leading pair posted a half-mile in :47.99 and six panels in 1:11.94. Positions became a contested issue on the far bend as GSW & GISP Zany (American Pharoah) tried to rally from along the rail and Ms Sophistication (Into Mischief) also came calling, but the eventual winner had already made her move.

Taking command from the overland route while the pacesetter tired to her inside, Bodacious Bay kicked away from the battle for the minors even as GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Always a Runner seemed to be mounting a menacing late rally. The 4-5 favorite never managed to seriously cut into the margin as the victress came in with air to spare as a 5-1 upset. GI Alabama Stakes runner-up Measure (Essential Quality) came on late to miss second by a head and Tap to Open (Tapit) was fourth.

"I was loaded the whole way," said winning rider Micah Husbands. "I was just sitting there on a lot of horse. By the half-mile pole, she wanted to go a little earlier than I thought, and I didn't want to get in her way, so I just let her cruise up and tried to bide my time. She finished it off like a monster."

"I thought there was going to be more speed, and I thought I would be covered up more, but it didn't work out that way. So, I just tried to keep clear and not go after my stablemate [My Miss Mo], and she did it proper."

Joseph Jr. minced no words about his charge's talent after the race, but wasn't prepared to plan out a path to the World Championships at Keeneland in October, saying, "This was a huge win, and I think next year we could have the best filly in the country. A lot of good fillies are going to retire, and our filly is just now getting good. The owners will talk it over and make a decision, but we feel like we have a filly that is hard to find these days. She is special."

"I don't know [if Bodacious Bay will go to the Breeders' Cup]," Joseph Jr. continued. "Nitrogen is super. After that you would say it's wide open. We will enjoy this and give it a couple weeks and then decide. She will go back to Saratoga [Sunday morning] and we will stay there until the Breeders' Cup."

Jose Ortiz, who was aboard the beaten favorite, had no excuses for Always a Runner. "I had a very good trip. The winner was the best today, she sat in a good spot in second and kept going. I never got close to them, maybe a few lengths. She gave me a good run and finished well, just couldn't catch the winner."

Pedigree Notes:

Grade I success could hardly come as a surprise for Bodacious Bay as she is out of a graded winning half-sister to GI Spinaway victress Sippican Harbor (Orb).

That sister later replicated her success on the track in the form of her son, GI Florida Derby hero Commandment (Into Mischief).

The winner is the third stakes runner for Bodacious Babe (Mineshaft) behind MGSW Royal Spa (Violence) and 2-year-old half-brother GSP-Eng & SP-Fr Social Symbol (Violence), but is the first Grade I winner for the broodmare. After the juvenile, their dam produced a yearling filly by Curlin as well as a 2026 colt by Justify. Bodacious Babe was bred back to Elite Power for 2027.

Not This Time's sustained meteoric rise into stallion superstardom saw no speed bumps with this performance as Bodacious Bay became his 15th elite-level offspring and the fifth individual Grade I winner of 2026. Like many great stallions, his offspring can run on anything and everything with his heaviest hitters including the likes of MGISW Up to the Mark, multiple Group/Grade I winner Magnitude, GI Travers winner Epicenter, and world-record setter Cogburn--four of whom have since joined the breeding ranks.

Talented fillies and mares like Breeders' Cup champion Cy Fair, the late Claret Beret, Sacred Wish, Princess Noor, and In Our Time, among others, claimed their Grade I rosettes on both surfaces and at a variety of distances. In this family reunion, Bodacious Bay fits in just fine.

STRADALE MOTORS HOME FOR SECOND STRAIGHT GRADED SUCCESS IN GALLANT BOB by Steve Sherack

BENSALEM, PA. -- Kaleem Shah's Stradale (Yaupon) went from turf to dirt to register his second straight graded stakes victory in Saturday's GII Gallant Bob S. at Parx Racing.

The 8-5 favorite raced in between rivals in fifth beneath Jose Ortiz just behind a hotly contested opening quarter in :21.78. On the move approaching the quarter pole, Stradale hit the gas with a five-wide bid at the top of the stretch. He struck the front while getting out some an eighth of a mile from home and was never seriously threatened by the fast-finishing 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Dr. Kapur (McKinzie), who flew home from far back in a field-best :12.28 to cut the final margin to 1 1/4 lengths.

Stradale, just a neck short of annexing Oaklawn's Bachelor S. May 1, was a distant sixth behind the out-of-this-world 'Rising Star' Englishman (Maxfield) in the GI Woody Stephens S. June 6. He switched to turf for Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen in his last two, led by a narrow victory in the 5 1/2-furlong GIII Mahony S. at Saratoga Aug. 16.

“Steve (Asmussen) always thought very highly of this horse, and I guess really the distance is the key--for him 5 1/2 to six furlongs,” Shah said. “That’s the reason why Steve ran him in those shorter turf races. But he’s really meant to be a good dirt horse. Hopefully, he’ll be one of the very good sprinters. From Day 1, ever since we bought this horse, Steve and (assistant trainer) Scott (Blasi) both have been very, very high on this horse, and I’m glad he came through today.”

The Perryville S. at Keeneland Oct. 17 could be next for Stradale.

Both Stradale and runner-up Dr. Kapur were profiled in our 'Second Chances' series following their respective debuts at the Spa last summer.

Pedigree Notes:*

Stradale, a $285,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling turned $1.3-million OBS April breezer (:9 4/5*), was already one of six graded stakes winners for sophomore sire Yaupon.

He was produced by the maiden of five career starts Twitterpated (Stormy Atlantic), a full-sister to GI Matriarch S. winner Stormy Lucy. Twitterpated brought just $10,000 from Stradale's co-breeder Richard Bremer at the 2021 Keeneland January sale.

She is also responsible for the unraced 2-year-old gelding Empire Penguin (Classic Empire), a $70,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase by trainer Jeff Runco, agent for David Raim. The 9-year-old was bred to Jackie's Warrior for 2027.

CONCEIT RUNS DOWN EXPLORA, MOVIE NIGHT TO CLAIM DOGWOOD by Patrycja Szpyra

It was a thriller under the lights in the GIII Dogwood Stakes, but Juddmonte's Conceit (Not This Time) came out as the ultimate beneficiary of the throwdown on the lead when she ran down the dueling leaders to win the photo.

The Brad Cox pupil broke her maiden on the swap from the lawn to the main track in her second career start as a juvenile, defeating the Horseshoe Indianapolis maiden field by 9 1/2 lengths, but did not find the winner's enclosure in her two following jumps before going on a layoff after her Jan. 9 effort at Turfway.

Conceit | Coady Media

She resurfaced June 26 at Churchill Downs with a nearly seven-month layoff to overcome, but didn't show rust in the slightest. Seemingly a new filly, she dominated that first-level allowance by 10 1/4 lengths and garnered a 94 Beyer figure for the effort. She was last seen winning the Audubon Oaks at Ellis Aug. 9 over returning rival A Fine Chardonnay (Maclean's Music).

The betting public had to make a choice for this jump, and they gave her a 5-1 chance to beat a 1-5 favorite from the Bob Baffert barn who was building a winstreak. The field broke well with 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Explora (Blame) stepping out to set the tempo through an opening quarter in :23.13 with fellow 'Rising Star' Movie Night (Speightstown) glued to her flank. The pair rolled through a half-mile in :45.12 while Conceit watched the action unfold from well off that pace in fourth.

Swinging four-wide turning for home, the top two were still locked in battle, but the Juddmonte colorbearer was building up a full head of steam and had become the looming danger deep in the stretch. Closing the gap with every stride, Conceit overhauled Explora and Movie Night in the shadow of the wire. The former bravely held on to second while the latter had to settle for third.

With her Dogwood success, in addition to collecting her career first graded black type, Conceit became Not This Time's second graded winner on the day behind GI Cotillion heroine Bodacious Bay, and his 42nd overall.

“She’s a lightly raced filly and starting to really figure things out on the dirt,” said Cox after the race. “We know she tries hard and was going to come with a big run. We're very thankful for Juddmonte for sending us another talented homebred of theirs and the future is very bright.”

Cont.

Flavien Prat, aboard runner-up Explora, said his filly might not have seen Conceit until it was too late. “She took a lot of pressure but was fighting back the whole way. I think being on the inside she might not have seen the filly coming three wide at us late.”

Pedigree Notes:

The victress is a full-sister to GSW Final Gambit and a half to SP-KSA Havildar (Arrogate). Their dam, Pachinko (Tapit), has a juvenile named Buscada (Justify) in the wings as well as a yearling filly by Mage and a 2026 Elite Power filly. She went back to that stallion for 2027.

Pachinko claims a fleet of accomplished racemares turned broodmares as half-sisters, namely French Group 1 victress Announce (GB) (Selkirk), the mother of SP Maquette (Tapit); French group winner Mexican Gold (Medaglia d'Oro), dam of 'Rising Star' SW & GSP Touch of Fire (Constitution); and MGSP-Fr Straight Thinking (Mizzen Mast), who claims Group-placed Straight Answer (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) to her broodmare tally.

This is the immediate female family of European champion juvenile colt Zafonic (Gone West) and his full-brother GSW & MG1SP-Fr Zamindar.

FOREVER YOUNG IN GOOD FORM AFTER JCGC, 'RISING STAR' U.S.S. VALOR WORKS FOR CHAMPAGNE

Globetrotting superstar Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) was brought out for a graze in front of appreciative fans and members of the media Saturday morning by assistant trainer Yuki Araki, and has reportedly emerged from his sterling GI Jockey Club Gold Cup victory tired, but in fine form.

Araki, who also gallops Forever Young, had glowing praise for Japan's greatest dirt horse and wasn't shy about expressing it, saying, “I'm proud of him. 100 percent, no doubt, he is a Champion horse. I was really, really pleased with the result and also his performance. I'm very happy.”

“He's good this morning, a little bit tired, I can tell, but he is doing well.”

Forever Young is expected to return to training early next week, and will likely utilize both the training dirt track and the pony track after previously training over the Tapeta and main track in his prep for the Gold Cup. Thus far, he remains on target for a title defense in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland next month.

“I really want to thank Belmont Park and all the American fans,” said Araki. “It was a real special moment. I realize he is not just a horse for Japan, but a horse for everyone.”

In the Bill Mott barn, second and third-place finishers Stars and Stripes (Not This Time) and Baeza (McKinzie) have also emerged from their effort no worse for wear.

"They look good," said the Hall of Famer. "All looks pretty good for running a mile and a quarter race."

Stars and Stripes entered the race off a cutback in distance from the marathon Birdstone Stakes and was the longest shot on the board for his elite-level debut.

"I was really pleased with his race," Mott said. "I think he showed up big time yesterday. No way he was going to outrun Forever Young, but he showed up. He beat the other ones in the race and had to run hard to do that. He had a good payday, a second in the Jockey Club Gold Cup, I guess that's no disgrace."

As for Baeza, Mott included that the colt came back well with no big issues, but he'd need to speak to the connections to see what the path forward would be after it was announced Friday that the son of McKinzie would stand at Spendthrift for 2027.

U.S.S. Valor Posts First Breeze in Prep for Champagne

In his first move since his sensational 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' victory Sept. 5, Team Valor's U. S. S. Valor (War of Will) cruised a half-mile over the Belmont main track in preparation for the GI Champagne Stakes set for Oct. 3 at the newly built venue.

The clockers timed the colt in :48.66, which was the fifth fastest on the morning of 82 works. It was everything trainer Shug McGaughey wanted to see.

"He went solo, an exercise rider was on him and he was just going along easy. I thought he worked really well."

The Hall of Fame trainer also provided updates for his Opening Day exacta fillies Lisa Joy (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and Davidson (American Pharoah), and included a potential target for his daughter of American Pharoah. The latter defeated fellow New York-bred juvenile fillies and will likely be pointed toward the Listed Maid of the Mist Oct. 24 on Empire Showcase Day.

"I thought she ran good," McGaughey said. "She got a little bit late in the last part of it, but I thought she laid where she needed to lay and ran by pretty easily. I thought she ran fine."

Sophomore Lisa Joy graduated on her sixth try, her third in his barn after previously making three jumps in Europe for conditioner Ralph Beckett, over a grass track McGaughey was thrilled with, saying, "I think the turf courses look great and that was fun. I thought the kid [Antonio Fresu] rode her really well, too, so I was pleased. It was a pretty fun opening day."

'WAYI' Flower Bowl Hopeful Works on Belmont Turf

EGL-One Racing's MGSP Storm Miami (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) took to the Belmont turf course Saturday morning in company with MSW Ivy Girl (Maxfield) to turn in her final prep for a potential start in the 'Win and You're In' GII Flower Bowl Stakes Sept. 26.

Storm Miami cruised four furlongs in :50.66 (1/4) and easily left her workmate behind passing the wire to post an equally strong gallop out.

"Storm Miami put in a good work--she loves the turf and that was a good work for her," Green said.

The Irish-bred is nominated for the 10-furlong contest that offers an automatic berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf as well as to the All Along Stakes set to run that same day at Laurel Park. Green says she hasn't committed one way or another and that a final decision would be made closer to race day.

Ivy Girl, also posting that co-bullet :50.66 time, is nominated to the GIII Winter Memories Stakes Sept. 27 at Belmont.

Storm Miami's fellow EGL-One Racing colorbearer and Amelia Green stablemate GSW West Hollywood (Uncle Mo) also went to the track to work five-eighths in company with GSP Gunmetal (Gun Runner). Both were clocked in 1:02.68. West Hollywood is nominated to the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic set for Sept. 26 while the latter is nominated for the GIII Belmont Turf Sprint the day after.

Michael Lay's William T broke from the inside post in the GIII Durham Cup Stakes at Woodbine and stayed along the fence as 1-5 Maycocks Bay showed the way through a :23.57 first quarter and a :47.86 half. William T tracked while covered up in third and under a hold, threading inside of Sedburys Ghost on the turn before angling out in the lane with Maycocks Bay in his sights. Maycocks Bay, who won the GII Eclipse Stakes earlier this season over this surface and distance, sprinted down the lane to a two-length advantage and looked home free, but a relentless William T kept coming and caught him in the shadow of the wire to score by a half-length. Sedburys Ghost, last year's Plate Trial Stakes winner and this year's GIII Seagram Cup Stakes third, held for third. Supplemented to the race by his connections, William T got his first stakes win in the Durham Cup.

"This horse is a fighter," said regular rider Fraser Aebly. "He digs in every time I ride. I mean, he just fights for you every time."

Now a winner of two straight after he captured an optional allowance Aug. 23 over track and trip--registering an 89 Beyer Speed Figure in his 5 1/4-length victory that day--William T had only once previously tried stakes company, finishing off the board in last year's King's Plate.

"There was a bit of jostling into the first turn [in the King's Plate]," said trainer Don MacRae. "He whacked his sesamoid, the bone on the inside of his ankle, and he came back, and it was blown up. And [when] I got back to the barn, I was in tears."

William T spent nine months on the bench after the King's Plate and hasn't finished out of the top two since. All of his lifetime career starts have been at Woodbine, ranging in distances from six furlongs to 1 1/4 miles. He's become somewhat of a 1 1/16-mile specialist, as all three of his career wins have been at the distance.

Pedigree Notes:

William T is the 15th graded winner and 38th black-type winner for the late Frosted, a son of Tapit. The fastest-ever GI Met Mile winner and a Godolphin homebred, the Darley stallion succumbed to an acute case of laminitis earlier this year. William T is Frosted's second 2026 black-type winner out of a Hard Spun mare. The 22-year-old Hard Spun also stands at Darley and has 70 stakes winners out of his daughters, including champion Good Magic (Curlin).

Upper Brass, William T's unraced dam, hails from the extended family of two-time champion sprinter Housebuster (Mr. Livermore). Her most recently reported foal is Glenorchy (Midshipman), a 2-year-old filly who made her first start for William T's owner Aug. 8 at Woodbine and finished off the board. Lay purchased both William T and Glenorchy at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October yearling sale, spending $45,000 for the Durham Cup winner and $60,000 for the filly.

Reagan's Flame was made the race favorite in the GII Masters Stakes at Presque Isle Downs on Friday night based on a strong resume. The mare won the GIII Whimsical Stakes at Woodbine May 2, was third in the GIII Hendrie Stakes over the same surface July 25 and then won the Aug. 22 running of the GIII Seaway Stakes in Toronto.

The Saffie Joseph trainee kept close watch on the pace from the fourth position up the backstretch. Ready to fire her best shot around the far turn, Reagan's Flame shifted to an outside lane at the eighth pole, seized the lead with a giant spurt of speed and got the money with room to spare.

RACE 2 ON CHURCHILL'S SATURDAY CARD DECLARED NO CONTEST AFTER SIX-HORSE INCIDENT

Race 2 on the Downs After Dark Saturday card at Churchill Downs was declared a no contest after a spill brought down several horses and riders with three jockeys taken to the hospital. Of the six afflicted horses, three were loaded onto an equine ambulance, according to the chart notes.

The second contest on the card was a juvenile maiden special weight with a field of 10 lining up. Several runners were later involved in a spill that left six without a jockey, namely Lutkenhaus (Cristian Torres), who was injured in the fall, and later loaded onto an ambulance; Ritornello (Francisco Arrieta), who fell; Midnight Rumble (Axel Concepcion) who fell and walked off; Shacklebolt (Walter Rodriguez) who fell and was transported off by ambulance; Steve Wood (Martin Garcia) who fell; and Industrious (Keith Asmussen) who fell and was loaded onto an ambulance.

Martin Garcia, Walter Rodriguez, and Cristian Torres were transported to UofL Hospital. Keith Asmussen opted to take off his mounts for the remainder of the card while Francisco Arrieta took off his mount in the third, but was expected to return for the rest. Axel Concepcion returned to the saddle in the third race.

Keith Asmussen later posted to his X account, “Thank you for all the messages I received. Thankfully, I am ok.”

The story will be updated as more information comes in.

SEPT. 20 INSIGHTS: WELL-RELATED FIRSTERS SHOWCASED AT CHURCHILL, BELMONT

Upstart | Sarah Andrew

by Patrycja Szpyra

6th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 3:18p.m. ET

Rocksie Girl (Upstart) will go to post here for Mo Speed Racing as the highest-priced juvenile purchase for her sire this year after changing hands during OBS March for $800,000. She's a half-sister to GSW & MGISP Favorable Outcome (Flatter); SW & GSP Beguine (Gun Runner); MGSW-UAE Mouheeb (Flatter); and to SW & MGSP Bellamentary (Bellamy Road) while a placed half-sister is the dam of GSW Alogon (California Chrome).

Upstart claims a duo of promising juvenile fillies of late with Manuka Honey winning the GIII Pocahontas Stakes at this track and High Speed Reed becoming his newest 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' at Churchill as well.

Sent to the barn of Will Walden, Rocksie Girl has a healthy worktab to her credit over this main track and will have Axel Concepcion in the irons.

To her inside, and eyeballing each other in the gate, are Maitresse (Curlin) and Razor Rockette (Life Is Good). The former is out of MSW & GSP Secret Someone (S.P. Indy), a half-sister to MGSW Private Mission (Into Mischief) and to the mother of GI Alabama Stakes heroine Dunbar Road (Quality Road). The second dam is a half-sister to multiple Grade I winner Secret Status (A.P. Indy), herself the dam of MGISP Dunkirk (Unbridled's Song) and the granddam of GISW Fair Maiden (Street Boss). Maitresse, a $460,000 Keeneland September purchase last year, is trained by Cherie DeVaux and will have Jose Ortiz in the irons.

Razor Rockette is a $375,000 September buy, and is out of a full-sister to MGISW Gunite (Gun Runner) and GSW Spice Runner. The second dam is herself a half-sister to the mother of champion juvenile filly GISW Super Corredora (Gun Runner). The daughter of Life Is Good is trained by Brad Cox and Luis Saez gets the call. TJCIS PPs

8th-CD, $120k, Msw, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 4:22p.m. ET

Top Selection (Life Is Good) leads this field as the most expensive auction purchase at $750,000 from OBS April. Out of an unraced half-sister to the late, great Pioneerof the Nile, the Brad Cox trainee is a half-sibling to GSP Harlocap (Justify). Luan Machado is in the irons here.

To the far outside is Dream Street (Street Sense), a $600,000 Keeneland September purchase who is out of a winning full-sister to GISW Mastery (Candy Ride {Arg}). The second dam claims GISP Jump Start (A.P. Indy) as a half-brother. Dream Street is trained by Brendan Walsh and will have Tyler Gaffalione aboard.

Between those two are Let It Go (Blame), a $400,000 OBS March purchase in training with Rodolphe Brisset, and Rockie Rockie (Mo Donegal), the third highest-priced juvenile to sell for her freshman sire this year. In training with Bob Baffert, the $370,000 OBS June grad is a half-sister to SP Expect the Boss (Danza) and hails from the immediate female family of GI Spinster victress Try Something New (Hail the Pirates). TJCIS PPs

2nd-BEL, $150k, Msw, 2yo, 1mT, 1:47p.m. ET

Minority Interest (Charlatan), a $250,000 Keeneland September purchase by Klaravich Stables last year, is out of an unraced Medaglia d'Oro half-sister to two-time champion male sprinter MGISW Elite Power (Curlin). His second dam, MGSW & GISP Broadway's Alibi (Vindication), is herself a half to MGSW Golden Lad (Medaglia d'Oro) and MSW & GISP R Gypsy Gold (Bernardini). Minority Interest is trained by Chad Brown.

Hold'em (Scalding) is the third horse to the races for his freshman sire, and the second to be bred/owned by Pin Oak Stud. Hailing from the immediate female family of MGSW Eskenformoney (Eskendereya) and GISW My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat), Hold'em looks to join GISP Induction as the newest Scalding winner (from 15 first-crop foals) to carry the Pin Oak banner. TJCIS PPs

Doubecents earned the first black-type win of his career at Churchill Downs on Saturday night.

The 3-year-old broke his maiden at second asking by an eye-catching 11 1/2 lengths at Oaklawn May 2, then was third facing optional claimers at Churchill Downs May 29.

After finishing a well-beaten eighth under the Twin Spires June 25, the colt cleared an allowance condition at Remington Park Aug. 22.

As a 6-1 shot here, Doublecents exited the outside gate and kept close watch on Creole Chrome who was making the pace up the backstretch. The Brett Creighton trainee waited for an opportunity to pass the leader around the far turn and the chance came as the field entered the lane. Doublecents shifted gears on the outside, found more speed and sailed home a winner with Tagermeen on his heels.

A half-sister to GISP State of Honor (To Honor and Serve), the winner's dam foaled a colt by Drain the Clock last year and was bred to Bayerd for next term.

Last seen racing midpack before fading in the GI Ladies Turf Sprint Stakes Aug. 29 at Kentucky Downs, Love Cervere headed back north to capture the Floral Park Stakes Saturday at the new Belmont. Lacking early speed, she broke from the inside post to trail the field a good half-dozen or more lengths behind pacesetting Highway Harmony (Mo Town). Following a first quarter in 22.15 and a half in :44.73, Love Cervere drew closer on the turn, swung out to the middle of the course, and came wide, absolutely flying late to mow down all opponents and win going away by 1 1/2 lengths while on her wrong lead. Leslie's Humor, who had a tremendous kick of her own, finished second.

"She did not like Kentucky Downs and I thought we were too forwardly placed [there]," said trainer Miguel Clement. "She's a filly that does her best running with one late kick even if she breaks well. I told Joel [Rosario], 'No matter what, dawdle, wait at the back.' It's kind of his forte or specialty because he loves doing that, so the two of them are a dynamic duo."

Love Cervere's most recent previous score was at the Belmont at Aqueduct meet May 3, when she captured the License Fee Stakes. The accomplished mare also won the GIII Glen Cove Stakes, the Alywow Stakes, and the Take The A Train Stakes last year. She began her career in Christophe Clement's barn before the Hall of Famer passed away.

The winner's dam is a granddaughter of 1995 Canadian champion grass mare and older mare Bold Ruritana (Bold Ruckus) and a half-sister to GSWs Sky Treasure (Sky Mesa) and Surgical Strike (Red Giant). Her 2-year-old colt, P V Panther Pride (Vino Rosso), has not yet started. She produced a filly by Take Charge Indy in 2025 and a colt by that same sire this year. She was bred back to Rogueish.

Epic Style rewarded her backers with a come-from-behind win in the Sweet Briar Too Stakes at Woodbine on Saturday.

The Michael Stidham trainee bounced around the optional claiming ranks for the majority of 2026, which included a couple of close calls at Laurel Park Apr. 12 and May 16. The filly finally cleared the condition at Kentucky Downs Aug. 30.

Shipping to Woodbine for the first time, Epic Style settled nicely and waited for the opportunity to strike, as she ran fifth up the backstretch and around the far turn. The 4-year-old unleashed a furious rally towards the center of the course and was in time to earn the first black-type of her career.

The winner's dam is responsible for 3-year-old gelding Final Trial (Daredevil), which is her last registered foal on record. Final Mesa was entered in Marking's book for next spring.

Slewperstitus stepped back up into stakes company Saturday, winning the Weather Vane Stakes at Laurel Park after running second in each of her last three attempts, including two stakes.

The 7-2 third choice broke from the outer half of the gate and was wide up the backstretch, splitting the field through the opening quarter in :22.84. Circling up with plenty of momentum off the far turn, she had a good closing kick lined up, powering to the front down the stretch for a 2 1/4-length win, her second at the stakes level.

One of 48 stakes winners for Great Notion, Slewperstitus is the second to last foal out of Slew of Bullets who passed in 2025 after producing this runner's now-yearling full-sister named Nancymaeormaynot.

LIFE'S DYNAMIC (f, 3, Practical Joke--Amber Isle, by First Defence) broke her maiden in her first career race in the mud at Colonial Downs June 28, and cleared an allowance over the turf at the track July 31. A 6-1 shot here, the bay had the lead from the bell, but allowed Boston's Phinest (Honest Mischief) to show the way up the backstretch. Life's Dynamic went to work past the half-mile marker and held a short lead around the far turn. Looking to increase her advantage down the lane, the Arnaud Delacour trainee found more streaking to the wire and kept her perfect record intact. Queen Martina (Ire) (Ardad {Ire}) was the runner-up. Favorite Heat Missile (Aus) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) was pulled up around the far turn and sadly had to be euthanized on the course. A full-sister to English group stakes winner Dundonnell, the winner's dam is responsible for a 2-year-old colt by Girvin and a yearling colt by Flameaway. Amber Isle visited Maximus Mischief for next spring. Life's Dynamic claims as her second dam the unraced Family (Danzig), who herself is a full-sister to globetrotting leading sire Danehill. FOND FAREWELL (g, 4, Caravaggio--County Clare, by Uncle Mo) came off a layoff dating back to a win at Turfway Park going six furlongs on the Tapeta in early March. Getting back on the grass for the first time in over a year, the 5-2 second choice had more than enough speed contest the pace, leading narrowly ahead of Ice Chocolat (Brz) (Goldikovic {Ire}). Able to keep going as that rival faded around the turn, Fond Farewell kept on down the lane, coming home under wraps close to the wire for a 5 1/4-length win over Attfield (Vekoma). County Clare, after three years with no reported foals, finally produced a Taiba filly this spring and went back to Life Is Good next spring. AMERICATHEGREAT (f, 3, Curlin--America {GSW & MGISP, $580,532}, by A.P. Indy) made her first start of 2026 against optional claimers at Woodbine and finished as the runner-up. Looking to clear the condition, the chestnut switched surfaces to the turf Aug. 1 and the result was the same. The 8-5 choice here was towards the rear of the field as Nanina (Ger) (No Nay Never) showed the way into the first turn. Nestled midpack through the backstretch, Americathegreat started to fire her engines around the far turn. The 3-year-old tipped to an outside lane for the drive home, found her best stride past the eighth pole and scored by 2 3/4 lengths over Celebrity Warrior (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}). The winner is a full-sister to First Captain, MGSW & GISP, $662,100, and a half-sister to unraced 2-year-old colt in-training War Wolf (Gun Runner)--taken home for $2.7-million by Winchell Thoroughbreds as a 2025 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select yearling. After foaling a Gun Runner filly back in the spring, America was sent back to that same sire for next season. Americathegreat's dam is herself a half-sister to $1.95-

Evans homebred, broke her maiden at Monmouth going 1 1/16 miles in a maiden special weight Aug. 16 and moved up the ranks Saturday at Laurel. The slight second choice at 2-1, Run Wild broke inward but recovered quickly to travel a joint third throughout the :24.67 quarter and :48.84 half. In tight traffic, she found a seam into the lane, where she pulled clear by 3 1/2 lengths over Scarlett's Halo (Practical Joke) despite swapping to her wrong lead for much of the stretch drive. A half-sister to Drake's Passage (Tonalist), MSW & GSP, $499,363; Run Wild hails from the extended family of Overbrook champion Surfside (Seattle Slew). Her dam has a yearling filly by Uncle Mo, who sold to Baccari Bloodstock for $625,000 at last month's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale, and produced a filly by Not This Time this spring. 5th-Churchill Downs, $118,908, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:18.44, ft, 1 1/4 lengths.
JUST FOR PIPA (c, 2, Justify--Arya'slightnbolt, by Bolt d'Oro), one of the longer shots on the board at 19-1, raced a close-up fourth up the backstretch, tracking just off the lead as Union Star (Practical Joke) got loose up front. Advancing into the far turn, he came wide for a stretch run and managed to just out-finish Better Quality (Essential Quality), holding that rival off by 1 1/4 lengths. The first foal out of an unraced Bolt d'Oro mare, Just for Pipa has a yearling half-sister by Proxy and a weanling half-brother by Midshipman. His dam went to current leading first-crop sire Golden Pal for the spring. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $69,088. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

3rd-Parx Racing, $103,280, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:17.67, ft, 1 3/4 lengths.
MCCOY (c, 2, Vekoma--Fat Kat {SW, $423,318}, by Weigelia), one of a majority of first-time starters in the field, broke quickly from the middle of the gate and loomed just wide of the pace from the front flight through the opening quarter in :21.91. Picking things up outside of the pacesetter, the 8-5 favorite pushed past to lead into the final furlong and stayed safely away from the more-experienced Midnight Ride (Independence Hall) to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Fat Kat, purchased for $50,000 at the 2025 Keeneland January Sale, is a full-sister to several classy PA-bred stakes winners. She has a Loggins yearling and is due in the spring to Speaker's Corner. 1st-Parx Racing, $100,820, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 1:18.15, ft, 7 lengths.

TURNING TO GOLD (f, 2, Munnings--White Hot Gold, by Candy Ride {Arg}) missed by a head on debut at Parx July 20 and was a well-beaten runner-up over the same main track Aug. 25. Fitted with blinkers and as a 9-1 shot here, the filly chased a trio of pacesetters up the backstretch and was ready to pounce around the far turn. The 2-year-old hugged the rail, sped right on by her competitors at the top of the lane and went on to graduate by seven lengths. First Site (Early Voting) was the runner-up. Turning to Gold is White Hot Gold's first foal. A half-sister to MGISW and current sire Mind Control (Stay Thirsty), MGSP Goddess of Fire (Mineshaft) and the dam of MSW Wendelssohn (Mendelssohn), the winner's dam is responsible for a yearling filly by Golden Pal and a weanling filly by Domestic Product. She was bred back to that same sire for 2027. Sales History: $110,000 Ylg '25 FTKFEB; $45,000 Ylg '25 FTKOCT; $50,000 2yo '26 OBSAPR. 5th-Belmont, $100,000, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, 6 1/2fT, 1:15.35, fm, 4 lengths.

TITAN READY (c, 2, Title Ready--Speighty Shirl, by Speightstown) was easily the most accomplished maiden in the field having placed on both Tapeta and grass in the Victora Stakes and the Skidmore Stakes in his first start for Brad Cox Aug. 27. Named the 7-5 favorite of those efforts, Titan Ready went right to the front here, clearing down the inside while rated nicely through fractions of :22.36 and :45.31. Given his head into the final quarter-mile, he showed his class down the lane, opening up on River of Deceit (Hard Spun) to win by four lengths. The second winner for his freshman sire (by More Than Ready), Titan Ready traces back to the family of GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf winner Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}) and her offspring, Canadian champion female turf horse Ready for Shirl (More Than Ready) and GISW Shirl's Speight (Speightstown). Other notable names include MGISW Shakespeare (Theatrical {Ire}) and three-time Canadian champion Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown). Titan Ready has a yearling half-brother by Bee Jersey while Speighty Shirl is due to Tale of Ekati in 2027. Sales History: $12,000 Ylg '25 FTKOCT. Hip 3738 - Half bro sells at KEESEP with Hunter Valley Farm 6th-Belmont, $100,000, (S), Msw, 9-19, 2yo, 1mT, 1:36.16, fm, 1 1/2 lengths.

CAPTAIN GEORGE (c, 2, War of Will--Twofortea, by Temple City) left the stalls running, rocketing out on top before taking back as 76-1 Rapidly Royal (Waiting) proved intent on the lead. A length or two off the :24.25 and :47.92 pace throughout, Captain George bided his time on the rail until he collared the frontrunner into the lane from the inside. The bay, sent at 5-2, burst clear and held sway for a 1 1/2-length score as Raise the Roof (Tourist) emerged from the trailing spot for a scintillating second. From the same extended family as champion Pleasant Stage (Pleasant Colony) and GISWs A Phenomenon (Tentam) and Seattle Meteor (Seattle Slew), Captain George has a yearling half-sister by Proxy who sold at the recent Fasig-Tipton New York-bred sale for $25,000 to Clay Brown. Their dam has a 2026 colt by Annapolis and was bred back to Jackie's Warrior. Sales History: $35,000 Ylg '25 SARAUG. 1st-Belmont, $93,000, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:37.79, ft, 2 3/4 lengths.

WHARFIE (f, 2, Essential Quality--Waterside, by Medaglia d'Oro) made her first start upstate Aug. 29 and finished fifth. A 5-2 shot here, the 2-year-old flashed speed out of the blocks, but raced in third up the backstretch. The filly waited patiently, then started to make her move with a three-wide move around the far turn. With a firm grip on the wheel, the new leader held sway down the lane and got her picture taken by 2 3/4 lengths over Gun Broker (Gun Runner). The winner's dam foaled a filly by Proxy last year and was entered in Midshipman's book for next season. Waterside is the half-sister of GI Central Bank Ashland Stakes winner Little Belle (A.P. Indy), who is the dam of GI Coolmore Jenny Wiley Stakes winner Dickinson (Medaglia d'Oro). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $59,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

TOSSING (f, 3, Cairo Prince--Navy Ribbon {MSW, $157,469}, by Pure Prize), whose only previous start was a runner-up finish sprinting five furlongs over Gulfstream's Tapeta almost 10 months ago, left the gate Saturday at Woodbine as the even-money favorite. The sophomore filly broke sharply to settle in second just off the flank of her Mark Casse-trained stablemate Borika (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) as the latter showed the way through :23.11 and :46.60 fractions. Tossing took command at the top of the stretch and kept going, powering home a 4 1/2-length victress over Poetic Dawn (Mo Town). A half to Candidate (Exaggerator), SW & GSP, $173,930; Tossing has a juvenile half-sister by Early Voting named Early Morning, who was exported to Russia last year after Oracle Bloodstock purchased her for $140,000 at Keeneland September. Their dam produced a colt by Proxy this spring and was bred back to First Mission. Sales History: $160,000 Ylg '24 KEESEP. TRINITY (f, 2, Happy Saver--More for Me {SW}, by More Than Ready) finished fifth in both her starts at Colonial Downs July 5 and July 25. Tabbed as an 8-1 shot here, the chestnut raced in fourth up the backstretch and by the top of the lane started to make some headway. The filly collared Epic Warrior (Jackie's Warrior) at the sixteenth marker and graduated by 1 3/4 lengths. Her dam's last registered foal on record, the winner is a half-sister to Bishop's Pond (Curlin), MSW & GSP, $373,372 and to the stakes placed dam of MGSW Never Explain (Street Sense). More for Me was not reported as bred for 2027. Trinity is the fourth winner for her freshman sire (by Super Saver). FIRST WINNER FOR FRESHMAN SIRE

1st-Gulfstream, $43,000, Msw, 9-19, 2yo, 5f (AWT) (off turf), :56.75, ft, 8 lengths.
REZA (g, 2, Tale of Silence--Pleasant Orb {GISP, $122,865}, by Orb) became his freshman sire's (by Tale of the Cat) first winner Saturday, taking an off-the-turf race at Gulfstream. Trailing early as the 7-1 longest shot on the board, he waited for his move until the field was well into the turn, then circled around the outside and came roaring down the center of the Tapeta course, drawing off in style to romp by eight lengths over Coralline (Corniche). Out of GI Acorn Stakes runner up Pleasant Orb, herself a half to the dam of both MGISW Guarana (Ghostzapper) and MGSW Cornucopian (Into Mischief), Reza has a pair of full-siblings born in '25 and '26 with Pleasant Orb due back to Bee Jersey for 2027. SCOTTISH LASS (f, 2, McKinzie--Tapicat {GSW, $272,668}, by Tapit) debuted as the even-money choice here. The filly raced between runners up the backstretch and looked ready to take over the lead around the far turn. The homebred was full of run as she entered the lane in control. Despite being a touch green inside the final furlong, Scottish Lass sealed the deal and got her picture taken with 1 3/4 lengths to spare over Lucky Lollipop (Instagrand). The winner has a 3-year-old full-sister named McKintap and Tapicat handed her another who is currently a yearling filly. Scottish Lass's dam was not reported as bred for next term. Tapicat was a acquired by Jane Lyon for $2.2-million during the 2016 Keeneland November sale. Sales History: $185,000 RNA Ylg '25 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $25,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Exceptional Farms in The Bluegrass

EXPERTISE MATTERS

NO ONE UNDERSTANDS CENTRAL KENTUCKY'S FARM REAL ESTATE QUITE LIKE JUSTICE REAL ESTATE

Since 1980, JUSTICE REAL ESTATE has established itself as the most respected and knowledgeable brokerage in the Bluegrass. JUSTICE REAL ESTATE has sold more farms than anyone, year after year, for four decades, due in large part to our agents' active involvement in the horse industry.

MEADOWFIELD FARM

Meadowfield Farm offers 85± meticulously maintained acres in a prime Lexington location, just minutes from Hamburg, I-75/I-64 and downtown. The property features a five-bedroom, 4.5-bath main residence overlooking a handmade pond with fountain, plus a manager's home and detached garage with loft apartment. Farm improvements include a seven-stall horse barn with office, three additional barns easily converted for horses, a 30' x 70' shop with overhead doors and an outdoor pavilion overlooking a large, well-stocked pond.

CAVE HILL PLACE

Cave Hill Place is an extraordinary 17± acre historic estate surrounded by world-renowned Mill Ridge Farm. The 7,950± SF antebellum mansion, once serving as the Kentucky Governor's Mansion and featured in Architectural Digest, offers five bedrooms, 5.5 baths and exceptional architectural details. The estate includes a guest house, renowned formal gardens, pool and pool house, tennis court, putting green, and two-stall horse barn. A rare combination of history, elegance, privacy, and an exceptional Lexington setting, at the end of a long tree-lined driveway.

MARYLOU WHITNEY FARM

This 72-acre estate, with the Elkhorn Creek meandering through it, is bordered by the world renowned Gainesway Farm. The magnificent main residence offers over 8,400 square feet of gracious living space, complemented by a formal rose garden. Adjacent to the main residence is its infamous pool house featuring an Olympic-size pool. Additional improvements include a historic two-story guest house, a manager's home, an art studio, a log cabin chapel, and former staff quarters—now used as offices. Horse improvements include two horse barns with 16 stalls, and two equipment sheds.

MOTIVATED SELLER!

OAK LODGE FARM

Located adjacent to the world-renowned Adena Springs and just across the road from prestigious Brandywine Farm, this exceptional 82-acre property boasts a rich history of producing top-tier stakes horses, including the notable Medaglia d' Oro. The charming 2,185 sq. ft. story-and-a-half main residence offers a refined yet comfortable living space, featuring 3 bedrooms and 2.5 baths. The first-floor primary suite adds convenience, while ash hardwood floors, cherry cabinetry, and crown molding throughout the home elevate the interior with classic elegance. Horse Improvements include 4 barns featuring a total of 48 stalls, 2 large run-in sheds, and a nice office with full bath.

LEGADO FARM KENTUCKY

Professionally developed 268-acre horse farm on desirable Mt. Horeb Pike adjoining historic Castleton Lyons, minutes from the Kentucky Horse Park, with over 1/4 mile of frontage on Elkhorn Creek. Recent upgrades include two 150' x 250' ebb and flow arenas, two 70' round pens, new barn roofs and siding on four barns, extensive fencing, and a custom security gate. The refurbished owner's residence overlooks the creek and offers 4 bedrooms, 3.5 baths, plus a lower level with 5 rooms, 1.5 baths, and a private entrance. The farm features 78 stalls in 6 barns, a Kraft walker, equipment building, large fields, a 2-bedroom employee house, and a 1-bedroom cottage.

1378 BRENSTVILLE

This remarkable 106± acre Paris, Kentucky farm blends historic character with exceptional equestrian improvements. The 2,700± SF residence incorporates original stone construction dating to 1795, later additions, exposed beams, hardwood floors, fireplaces, and an updated kitchen. The farm features five fields and five paddocks with automatic waterers, five ponds, multiple barns and sheds, stalls, wash and tack areas, hay storage, and an insulated office. Expansive pastures and picturesque views complete this distinctive Bluegrass property.

NABATI PREVAILS IN MILL REEF THRILLER

By Tom Frary

Charlie Appleby's runners can do no wrong at present and Nabati (Night Of Thunder) continued the winning streak in Saturday's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef Stakes at Newbury.

Better off at the weights with Arapaho Gold (Bayside Boy) from their encounter in the Rose Bowl over this track and six-furlong trip in July, Godolphin's 850,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 purchase made that tell with a late show. In between the winner and that penalised Gimcrack scorer was the Juddmonte filly Jolivette (Wootton Bassett), so close to making every yard for Kingsclere in this contest staged in honour of Ian Balding.

"He was tough there," William Buick said of the 7-4 second favourite, who had been third in the Flying Scotsman eight days previously. "It was quite smooth and a good performance, as we had intended to be further forward."

Charlie Appleby added, "Dropping back to six furlongs helped Nabati and they went a nice, sensible gallop. He stuck at it well and it was a good ride from William. I would imagine that we might have a look at the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint for him next."

Andrew Balding said of Jolivette, "I was delighted with the run. She put it all in but just couldn't quite get the job done. She's a lovely filly and it's great to get her Group 2-placed. She's a talented filly and goes on any ground and she's a bit of a star."

SHOWTIME FOR PRIMETIME IN CHANTILLY'S PRIX ECLIPSE By Sean Cronin

Australian-bred 'TDN Rising Star' Primetime Emmy (Extreme Choice) bounced back off a first defeat in Deauville's G3 Prix de Cabourg seven weeks ago to register a career best with a last-gasp victory in Saturday's G3 Prix Eclipse - Tattersalls - Fonds Europeen de l'Elevage at Chantilly.

"It's quite some journey to come to Europe from Australia, but I love racing and watching the horses in France," said Hollymount Stud's Matthew Sandblom. "I like that the horses aren't over-trained here, which can sometimes happen in Australia. I told Francis [Graffard] that the one thing Australian horses have is that quality acceleration and she showed that today. Extreme Choice makes me look like an excellent breeder when it's simply the sire who is exceptional. At the moment, I'm focusing on broodmares capable of producing two-year-old winners." Cont. p4

Balding continued, "I'm very grateful to Newbury and Dubai Duty Free for giving dad the honour of having his name attached to this race. It was almost the perfect result, but at least Will won it--he's a Kingsclere boy."

Pedigree Notes

Nabati is out of the Ballyogan Stakes runner-up Pronouncement (Declaration Of War), who is also responsible for the Listed-placed and G2 Richmond Stakes fourth Chicago Call (Oasis Dream). The family includes the graded stakes winners Gaff (Maria's Mon) and Durante (Distorted Humor) and the multiple graded stakes winner and Test Stakes runner-up Ifyoucouldseemenow (Tunerup). Pronouncement's filly foal is by Mehmas.

MISS YECHANCE UPS HER GAME AT NEWBURY By Tom Frary

Now at her third stable despite being only three, Miss Yechance (Cotai Glory) showed that she is a filly going places with a win in Saturday's G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy at Newbury.

Arriving at Karl Burke's yard from Antonio Cintra and Julio Olascoaga's Meydan-based operation this spring, the Al Leith Racing Club colour-bearer, who started her career with Jack Morland in Newmarket, had been third to the smart Naana's Shadow at Goodwood before winning at the York Ebor Festival prior to this test. Enthusiastic from the outset, the 12-1 shot gave her all for Jack Nicholls on the front end and fended off the persistent threat of Shagraan (Sioux Nation) to prevail by a neck.

"She's very small but has the biggest heart and tries so hard," the winning rider said. "She's the filly of a lifetime. She's so quick in the early part and is hard to get back." Cont. p6

Pedigree Notes

Miss Yechance is the first foal out of Rosie Bassett (Wootton Bassett), a half-sister to the stakes-winning Yellow Ribbon runner-up Fuente Ovejuna (Lope De Vega), from the family of the Hollywood Gold Cup hero Mast Track (Mizzen Mast). Also connected to Lope De Vega's Prix Saint-Alary heroine Jemayel and Mizzen Mast's Wise Dan Stakes winner Stitched, she has the winning two-year-old colt Barnaby Rudge (Inns Of Court) and a colt foal by Starman.

SILENT BEAUTY TAKES THE FIRTH OF CLYDE

By Tom Frary

Amo Racing's Silent Beauty (Night Of Thunder) might not have delivered at Royal Ascot, but otherwise she has done nothing but produce the goods and came through her biggest test on Saturday in Ayr's G3 Firth of Clyde Stakes.

Having to prove her ability to handle heavy ground with the card narrowly surviving a second track inspection, the €1-million Goffs Orby sensation had four less rivals to deal with as a result of the heavy rain.

Travelling with gusto under David Egan, the 8-11 favourite was in front after halfway and kept finding to score by 1 3/4 lengths from Ruby Moon (No Nay Never).

"She's a lovely filly. She'll be nice next year and that was a tough performance," Egan said of the Kevin Philippart de Foy trainee, who had earned TDN Rising Star status on debut at Yarmouth and taken the Ripon Champion Two Yrs Old Trophy either side of her Albany flop.

"She won her first race very impressively and we went to Royal Ascot really excited, but she disappointed there. It takes a lot out of a horse when they get their confidence knocked back like that. We came back, gathered her together, and she won very well at Ripon. It was a step up in grade today and to do that was really important."

He added, "She's by Night Of Thunder, so there is scope in the pedigree to get further, but she's got so much speed. Well done to Kevin and everyone at home. They do a terrific job and work so hard. Having these big days for Amo and everyone at Freemason is really important, so I'm delighted."

Pedigree Notes

Silent Beauty, who completed a Group-race double on the afternoon for her sire, is the second foal out of the Matron Stakes heroine No Speak Alexander (Shalaa), whose Listed-winning dam Rapacity Alexander (Dandy Man) is a full-sister to the Hong Kong Sprint-winning champion Peniaphobia. Her yearling filly by Wootton Bassett sells at the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 1, while she also has a filly foal by Blue Point.

SYZYGY CAUSES UPSET IN GOWRAN FEATURE By Tom Frary

Syzygy (nearest the camera) | Racingfotos.com

There were some valid candidates in the line-up for Saturday's G3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies' Stakes at Gowran, but there was only the sound of the form book being torn up as the 80-1 outsider Syzygy (Cable Bay) narrowly denied the 50-1 shot Pollenca (Oasis Dream) to land the spoils.

Without a win since completing a three-timer last autumn, Andrew Davis's homebred had looked to be treading water since her Listed second at Navan in June, but there was something in the air which brought about a result to cause consternation from the assembled handicappers. Delivered by Scott McCullagh to overhaul Pollenca in the final stride, the winner was rewarding the risk taken by trainer Daniel McLoughlin.

"She was entered in France today in a mile-and-a-quarter fillies' race, but I said to the owners that we'd rather take a chance that our own country will pay us back with a bit of rain and luckily it did," he explained.

"Having one stakes winner was top of the bucket list this year, so to have a third Group 3 and a Listed is madness. Scott is my best friend and, when he's on them, it's all the better. He's someone I rate very highly as a rider, but he just doesn't get the chances."

Pedigree Notes

Syzygy's dam Solfilia (Teofilo), who is also responsible for the Yellow Ribbon Handicap winner and the dual Gamely Stakes-placed Bodhicitta (Showcasing), has the unraced two-year-old filly No Easy Way Out (Blue Point), who was a €260,000 purchase by Avenue Bloodstock at the Goffs Orby Book 1. The family includes the Group 2 winner and Rheinland-Pokal runner-up Fracas (In The Wings) and the Matron Stakes and Phoenix Stakes heroine La Collina (Strategic Prince).

ZAKKAN MAKES BREAKTHROUGH AT CHANTILLY By Sean Cronin

Francis Graffard trainee Zakkan (Siyouni) was unsuccessful in four prior starts heading into Saturday's G3 Prix des Chenes Tattersalls at Chantilly and added to his third in last month's G3 Prix Francois Boutin with a first win of any kind in the one-mile test.

"He was a little bit green in the finish and I'd suggest he's still somewhat immature," said Mickael Barzalona of the Oct. 25 G1 Criterium International entry.

Zakkan | Scoop Dyga

"He is improving step by step and still learning on the job. He has been a little slow on the uptake, but today showed more of what is expected of him. He is gaining experience with every race and has plenty of scope going forward. He would be better suited by softer ground, which is a bonus heading into the final part of the season."

Positioned fourth until slipping back one spot to race last of the five runners turning for home, the 31-10 chance was scrubbed along inside the quarter-mile marker and kept on relentlessly in the closing stages to chin Ciceron (Lope De Vega) by a head on the line.

British raider Rosberg (Palace Pier), who was scratched from last week's G2 Champagne Stakes, was a short-neck adrift in third.

Pedigree Notes

Zakkan, who becomes his sire's 52nd Group winner, is the first of three foals produced by a full-sister to the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud-winning sire Zarak (Dubawi). His dam Zarka (Dubawi) is also kin to stakes-winning G1 Prix Vermeille victrix Zarkamiya (Frankel), who is the dam of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Zarigana (Siyouni); and Listed Prix Charles Laffitte winner Zaykava (Siyouni), herself the dam of G3 Grand Prix de Vichy victor Zaydann (Dubawi) and Listed Prix Finlande victrix Zayida (Frankel).

The winner, whose second dam is the undefeated champion Zarkava (Zamindar), is half to a yearling filly by Frankel and a weanling colt by Blue Point. Zarkava is also the ancestress of the G1 National Stakes winner Zavateri (Without Parole). Cont. p9

ANAKOVA ON TOP IN THE BERTRAND DE TARRAGON By Sean Cronin

Chantilly's trio of afternoon Group 3 contests concluded with a win for the Andre and Lavinia Fabre stable's Anakova (Dubawi), who made good on a breakthrough score in May's Listed Prix Esoterique with a first Pattern-race triumph in the Paris venue's G3 Prix Bertrand de Tarragon.

"The plan was to use hold-up tactics because we had concerns about her staying the nine-furlong distance," explained Maxime Guyon. "The doubts were there, despite her having previously won over one mile on much softer ground. We didn't want to force her early and were fortunate that there was a strong pace up front. She was very relaxed during the race, which allowed her to finish well in the straight."

The 59-5 chance, who failed to beat any of her seven rivals in Deauville's G1 Prix Rothschild seven weeks ago, adopted patient tactics until straightening for home in the nine-furlong contest.

Angled outside for an open route home with a quarter-mile remaining, she was bustled into contention approaching the final furlong and her persistent effort under continued rousting paid dividends in the closing stages as she hit the line with 3/4-of-a-length and a length to spare from Pierchic (Palace Pier) and old foe Gaga Girl (The Grey Gatsby).

Pedigree Notes

Anakova, who becomes her sire's 212th Group-race winner, is the fourth foal and black-type performer produced by G3 Prix Cleopatre victrix and G1 Prix de Diane third Terrakova (Galileo), herself out of the storied multiple champion Goldikova (Anabaa).

The winner is a full-sister to Listed Prix Millkom victor Babakool and Listed Prix Pelleas third Kovanof. She is also a half-sister to last term's G3 Prix Eclipse runner-up Ceramic (Lope De Vega).

Terrakova, who was bred to Justify this year, has the unraced two-year-old filly Vegakova (Lope De Vega) and a weanling filly by Justify to come.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE RELATIONSHIP WE FORGOT TO EXPLAIN

By Suzi Prichard-Jones

Three recent contributions to the debate around racing's future made me wonder whether we are beginning to join some dots.

Dr Eliot Forbes, Chief Executive of New Zealand's Racing Integrity Board and Chair of the International Forum for the Aftercare of Racehorses (IFAR), recently argued for greater systems thinking within racing. Welfare, economics, regulation, aftercare and social licence cannot sensibly be considered in isolation.

Then came TripAdvisor's decision to stop selling tickets and experiences associated with horse racing, applying an animal-welfare disclaimer to racecourses around the world.

On Monday, the Countryside Alliance launched its 'Campaign for the Countryside', backed by racing figures including Sir Mark Prescott, John Gosden and Dido Harding.

The Countryside Alliance launched its 'Campaign for the Countryside' on Monday | Getty Images

Its chair, Lord Herbert, observed, "At the root of the problem, I fear, is a lack of understanding about the countryside, including racing, and how it works."

There is something significant in racing personalities crossing traditional boundaries and aligning with others for the greater good. Racing is beginning to look beyond its own boundaries and recognise that apparently separate communities may share a common challenge.

Perhaps we need to take that thinking one step further. What if society's changing relationship with the horse itself is part of the problem? For thousands of years there was little need to explain why that relationship mattered. Horses helped create civilisation. They transformed how we travelled, farmed, traded, communicated and fought. Eventually technology removed much of our practical dependence upon them. And yet we kept them.

We continued to ride them, race them, breed them, compete with them and seek their company. Today horses are part of everything from racing and international equestrian sport to recreation, education, rehabilitation, equine-assisted services and companionship. Perhaps we haven't thought enough about why.

Meanwhile, urban populations have less everyday contact with horses, livestock, agriculture and animal husbandry. Relationships once understood through experience increasingly have to be explained to people who have never experienced them.

Yet when challenged, we still defend those relationships in fragments. Racing defends racing. Hunting defends hunting. Equestrian sport defends equestrian sport. Perhaps the fragmentation itself has become part of our problem.

All these very different worlds depend upon the same fundamental proposition: that interaction between horses and human beings has value.

Perhaps what we are missing is a catch-all: Horse-Human Interaction. Not another organisation, governing body or accreditation scheme. A field. Think of Conservation: a simple umbrella under which very different interests and philosophies can coexist without surrendering their identities.

The value of giving something a name is that we begin to see its scale.

This October, Horses for Mental Health launches its inaugural month-long online campaign, HorseTober - The Braid Challenge, encouraging people around the world to share stories of the horses in their lives. Perhaps HorseTober offers an opportunity to see what Horse-Human Interaction actually looks like.

The child with their first pony. The breeder foaling a mare. The jockey trusting a Thoroughbred at nearly 40 miles an hour. The polo player. The Olympic rider. The groom. A prison inmate discovering responsibility and trust. Someone experiencing freedom or rehabilitation through a horse. The retired racehorse beginning another life. Individually they are stories. Collectively they describe a relationship.

And perhaps this is where racing's responsibility for aftercare becomes something more than an obligation. It becomes a bridge. A Thoroughbred leaving racing for eventing, companionship or equine-assisted services connects our industry to entirely different parts of society. The horse's role changes. The relationship continues.

Our relationship with horses must continue to evolve as our knowledge and understanding improve. But alongside asking how we interact with horses, perhaps we need to ask something more fundamental: What is the value of the relationship itself? For most of our shared history, the answer was obvious. We needed the horse.

We no longer need horses to plough our fields, carry our armies or deliver our post. But perhaps that doesn't mean we need them less. Perhaps we need them differently. And before we spend the next 50 years defending our individual corners of the horse world, perhaps everyone connected to horses should be asking one question together:

What happens to both of us if we lose the relationship?

IMPROVED TRADE AT SGA YEARLING SALE HEADLINED BY €90,000 MEHMAS FILLY

Mehmas: the sire of the top lot at Friday's SGA Yearling Sale

Alice Fitzgerald

Milan's Ippodromo La Maura played host to the SGA Yearling Sale on Friday, with a Mehmas filly consigned by Le.Gi. leading the way when knocked down to Emanuele Grimaldi for €90,000.

The top lot is out of the Raven's Pass mare Ravensbelle, a half-sister to three black-type winners, most notably the G3 Jockey Club Cup scorer and G1 Prix Royal-Oak third Veracity (Lomitas).

Lot 7 was one of five purchases made by Grimaldi for a total of €281,000, with the others including lot 18, a Space Blues filly who fetched €70,000, and lot 31, a Bayside Boy filly bought for €62,000. Both fillies belonged to the seven-strong consignment from Rosati Colarieti.

The second top lot was a Nathaniel filly offered by Vedano, a half-sister to the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli hero Atom Hearth Mother (Rock Of Gibraltar) and Listed Premio Gino e Luciano Mantovani scorer Al Siq (Acclamation). Lot 13 was bought by John Kalmanson for €87,000.

Of the 83 lots offered, 68 sold at a clearance rate of 82%, up from 79% 12 months ago. The aggregate of €1,182,500 represented a 7% increase compared to last year, despite three fewer lots being offered, while the average was also up by 7% at €17,390 and the median up by 5% at €10,500.

JOHN FLEMING'S LEGACY CONTINUES WITH IRISH RACING YEARBOOK 2027 UNDER PRODUCTION

John Fleming | HRI

The Irish Racing Yearbook 2027 is currently under production, with the much-missed John Fleming, the man responsible for the popular publication for over two decades, being succeeded in the role of publisher by his son, Danny.

The Irish Racing Yearbook, which is heading into its 50th year, is the definitive annual chronicle of horse racing in Ireland. It also covers the achievements of Irish people on foreign soil, providing interviews, profiles, analysis and much more from all sectors of the thoroughbred racing and breeding industries.

Following engagement between the Irish Racing Yearbook team and the family of John Fleming--who died in a tragic accident at Dublin Airport in April this year--the decision was made to go ahead with the 2027 edition.

The Irish Racing Yearbook 2027 will also come with 'Go Racing' vouchers, kindly provided in conjunction with the racecourses of Ireland, offering free admission to just shy of 100 race days throughout the year at a total value exceeding €3,000.

All purchasers who avail of pre-publication ordering will be able to pick up their yearbooks at selected racecourses during one of their December fixtures. Full details of how to purchase the Irish Racing Yearbook 2027 will be announced in the coming weeks.

For further information, contact Kerry Ryan (+353 87 1335319) or Danny Fleming (+44 7708 112716).

IRISH NATIONAL STUD TO HOST EUROPEAN EQUINE CONFERENCE

The European Horse Network (EHN), with the support of Horse Racing Ireland (HRI) and the European Federation of Thoroughbred Breeders' Associations (EFTBA), will host the European Equine Conference at the Irish National Stud on Tuesday, September 22.

The event has the support of Nina Carberry and Hilde Vautmans, Members of the European Parliament and co-chairs of the MEP Horse Group, and the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine, Martin Heydon TD.

The conference will focus on:

- EU legislative proposals under the Irish Presidency, such as the Welfare Transport regulation and the future CAP;
- The importance of the Irish breeding and racing sector and its economic impact at national and European level;
- The preliminary findings of the European Equine Statistical Study 2026;
- The digital traceability system in place in Ireland.

A round table, moderated by Richard Pugh, head of racing and insights at HRI, will discuss the importance of the Irish breeding and racing sector to Ireland and internationally.

The conference aims to bring together Members of the European Parliament, Irish Government representatives and stakeholders from across the European equine sector, for an afternoon of open and constructive dialogue.

The full programme is available to view here.

PELLITORY (GB) (g, 4, Sergei Prokofiev--Daphinia {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Kuroshio {Aus}) failed to make the podium in five prior starts at stakes level and, kept exclusively to handicap company in six outings this year, went postward for this Ayr Gold Cup returning off a win carrying 141 pounds at Haydock and a third under 132 pounds at Goodwood last month.

Racing towards the rear of the far-side group, the 12-1 chance tanked forward from halfway to seize control entering the final furlong and ran on strongly under a late drive for a half-length verdict from Tuco Salamanca (Belardo).

"Dandy Nicholls has won it six times, and Kevin Ryan five, so we're a long way off," said David O'Meara after collecting a third rosette in the six-furlong dash. "I was a bit concerned about the [16] draw after the Silver Cup [earlier on the card], but we knew a few were going far side so decided to go with them. We thought he'd like the [heavy] ground and the lad who rides him at home said a tongue strap might help. You needed to stay well in that ground to win today. He's been running over seven for us, so we knew he'd stay, and he'd even run over a mile for previous connections, which was a big help today. Evan [Sutherland] and I were chatting about a month ago and I said to him, 'If I'm going to win the Ayr Gold Cup, it will be with your horse.' He'd won it before and he's won it twice now. This was the target and we haven't thought beyond this."

Pellitory is the second of five foals and one of three winners produced by Listed Marygate runner-up Daphinia (Kuroshio), herself out of a half-sister to Listed Golden Fleece third Glisten (Oasis Dream) and to the dam of G3 Somerville Tattersall third Nezar (Mastercraftsman).

The winner's fourth dam is G1 Prix de Diane heroine Escaline (Arctic Tern) and he is half to a yearling filly by Dragon Symbol and a weanling colt by Havana Grey.

His winning two-year-old half-brother Terminology (Havana Grey) was a €360,000 Arqana Breeze-Up graduate in May. Sales history: 40,000gns Wlg '22 TADEWE; 32,000gns Ylg '23 TATOCT; 52,000gns 3yo '25 TATAHI. Lifetime Record: 21-5-2-2, $238,314. O-Evan M Sutherland; B-Whitsbury Manor Stud; T-David O'Meara.

Inching closer with a quarter-mile remaining, the well-backed 9-2 chance went second approaching the furlong marker and quickened smartly under late urging to nab the pacesetting Amir Lehbab (No Nay Never) by a head on the line.

Tyrrhenian Thunder is the first of three foals out of an unraced half-sister to G2 Lancashire Oaks winner Horseplay (Cape Cross), Listed Hoppings victrix More Mischief (Azamour) and to the dam of Listed Silver Tankard third Daydreama (Dream Ahead).

His second dam, Listed River Eden victrix and G3 Sagaro runner-up Mischief Making (Lemon Drop Kid), is a half-sister to two dual Listed winners out of GI E. P. Taylor heroine Fraulein (Acatenango).

The winner is kin to a yearling colt by Kingman, who is slated to sell at next month's Tattersalls October Book 2 sale, and a weanling colt by Zarak. Sales history: 165,000gns Ylg '25 TATOCT; €300,000 2yo '26 TATBRU. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,042.

Strong in the final two furlongs, the 5-2 favourite had 2 1/4 lengths to spare over Iron Stone Lad (Cracksman) at the line.

The winner is the first foal out of the dam, a relative of the Arlington Million hero Debussy (Diesis) and the Group 3 winner Laugh Aloud (Dubawi). Delivered entering the dip, the 2-5 favourite was in front approaching the furlong marker before surging to a two-length success from that long-time leader.

"I thought she might travel a bit better for longer, but once she hit the rising ground she picked up well," Charlie Appleby said of the homebred, who follows the likes of the yard's Romantic Symphony, Magic Lily and Beautiful Love in winning this. "Billy [Loughnane] said she was clueless when she hit the front, so there is a bit of improvement there. We won't make any lofty assignments just yet." Cont. p15

Reliving Speciosa's 1000 Guineas Victory

Appleby continued, "I don't see any reason to be stepping up in trip as I think she will get quicker when she gets sharper mentally. She is a filly for next year, as she is a filly with a bit of scope."

The winner is the third foal out of the high-class dam, who captured the Queen Mary and Duchess of Cambridge and was runner-up in the Prix Morny and Cheveley Park. A daughter of the Oak Tree Stakes winner and Celebration Mile third Summer Fete (Pivotal), her yearling filly is by Dubawi's son Space Blues, while she also has a filly foal by Frankel. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $15,519.

IRELAND

Saturday's Results:

3rd-Gowran, €25,000, Mdn, 9-19, 2yo, c/g, 8fT, 1:45.69, y/s.
ALBANY COUNTY (IRE) (c, 2, Camelot {GB}--Many Colours {GB} {SW & GSP-Ire, MSP-UAE}, by Green Desert), seven-lengths second to the stable's leading juvenile colt Darkness Falls at the Curragh last month, raced towards the fore early. In front two out, the 8-15 favourite stayed on to score by 3/4-of-a-length from Mount Meru (Baaeed).

"He had two nice runs coming here but was still very babyish," said Ballydoyle representative Chris Armstrong. "The run around here on a turning track, coming down the hill, will be good experience for him. He's a horse you'll probably see the best of once he goes up in trip on a big galloping track. We'll probably get one more run into him and he'll be a lovely middle-distance horse for next year."

The Listed-winning and Group-placed dam is responsible for the stable's 1,000 Guineas and Prix Rothschild heroine Mother Earth (Zoffany), the Premio Dormello winner Night Colours (Night Of Thunder) and the Lanwades Stud Stakes and Ballycorus Stakes scorer Ocean Jewel (Sioux Nation). From the family of Mozart's sire Dandy Man, her yearling is a full-sister to Ocean Jewel.

ISLE OF CAPRI (IRE) (f, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Only {Jpn}, by Deep Impact {Jpn}), third over seven furlongs at Leopardstown last month, was on the front end with Nevermindtherain (No Nay Never) from the break. Stronger in the final yards, the 13-8 favourite had half a length to spare over that Silver Flash third.

The winner is the first foal out of the dam, a daughter of the four-time Group 1-winning 1,000 Guineas and Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Winter (Galileo). Her yearling full-sister to the winner was a $325,000 purchase by Sean Fitzhenry at this week's Keeneland September Sale, while she also has a colt foal by Justify.

IPANEMA ROSE (IRE) (f, 2, Hello Youmzain {Fr}--Grey Hyppy {Ire} by Kendargent {Fr}) broke well from the outside stall and raced under a firm hold in second through halfway in this debut. Pressing the leader throughout, the 131-10 chance gained a slender advantage entering the final furlong and was pushed out to prevail by a half-length from Keith (Wootton Bassett).

Ipanema Rose is the third of four foals and second scorer out of a half-sister to G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero and G1 Prix du Jockey Club second Morandi (Holy Roman Emperor), stakes-winning G1 Prix de Royallieu third Ottilien (Holy Roman Emperor) and the stakes-placed Vita (Elusive City).

Descendants of her third dam Marie De Vez (Crystal Palace) include the elite-level performers Ana Marie (Anabaa), Ana Americana (American Post), Charmo (Charnwood Forest) and Open Your Heart (Samum).

The winner is half to a yearling colt by St Mark's Basilica, who was knocked down for €67,000 at Arqana's Deauville v2 sale last month. Sales history: €82,000 Ylg '25 ARQOCT. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,700.
