DRAKENSTEIN CHERISHING TRIPPI LEGACY

by Chris McGrath

The King is dead, long live the King. True, we must still wait a while to discover which of his heirs might actually accede to his crown. But those grieving the death in August of Trippi, foundation sire at Drakenstein Stud, can console themselves that his legacy seems guaranteed.

It already unites hemispheres. At the time Gaynor Rupert brought Trippi from Florida to her glorious farm in the Cape in 2008, his first crop were 5-year-olds.

Among them was a sprinter named Miss Macy Sue, winner of half a dozen stakes. Even as her sire emigrated to the Western Cape, Miss Macy Sue also ventured to pastures new--as a broodmare. Her second foal was Liam's Map, followed a couple of years later by Not This Time.

CURLIN TO RETURN TO SERVICE IN 2027, HILL 'N' DALE ANNOUNCES 2027 ROSTER

After an abbreviated 2026 breeding season, influential sire Curlin is scheduled to return to the breeding shed in 2027 to lead the roster at Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa. History's only stallion to have sired the winners of three Breeders' Cup races on the same day in consecutive years as well as the sire of this year's GI Kentucky Derby winner in Golden Tempo, Curlin will stand for a private fee.

"We are meticulously managing Curlin, affording him the respect he deserves as one of the most influential and preeminent sires in recent memory," said John Sikura. Cont. p7

8 | INTO MISCHIEF STEADY AT $250K ON SPENDTHRIFT ROSTER

Spendthrift Farm's perennial leading sire Into Mischief will continue to stand for $250,000 for the 2027 breeding season, while young sires Vekoma and Yaupon will each stand for $100,000 as the farm released fees for its 2027 roster.

9 | INTEREST IN PRIMETIME EMMY OFFERED AT CHAMPIONSHIP SALE

A 25% interest in French group winner Primetime Emmy (Aus) (Extreme Choice {Aus}) will be offered two days before her expected start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf during Keeneland's Championship Sale at Castleton.

9 | PAPPACAP SHINES AS OBS OCTOBER YEARLING SALE CONCLUDES

Trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. stretched to $140,000 Wednesday to secure a session-topping colt (hip 339) by Pappacap on the final day of the OBS October Yearling Sale. Walmac's Pappacap also sired the second highest-priced yearling during Tuesday's opening session.

So it turned out that Trippi had left a breed-shaping gift to his native land. And it may well prove, in now leaving us for good, that he has similarly made a bequest to South Africa that will only grow more precious in the years ahead.

That's because he waited until relatively late in his career to come up with two sons of blatant eligibility as potential successors. Both, indeed, have only lately joined the roster Trippi headed until pensioned in 2024. He was 19 when conceiving five-time Group 1 scorer Jet Dark (SAf); and 21 when coming up with the homebred Charles Dickens (SAf), likewise winner of the farm-sponsored G1 King's Plate.

Statue of Trippi at Drakenstein Stud | courtesy Drakenstein Stud

As a result, Trippi's final crop of 3-year-olds will be handing the baton almost directly to Jet Dark, whose first yearlings went through the roof at the sales; and then Charles Dickens, whose first foals evidently look equipped to do the same.

So while Rupert is naturally heartbroken by his loss, at 29, she can only be gratified to reflect on the momentous day she first set eyes on Trippi at Ocala Stud. She inspected around 30 possible recruits during that tour of Kentucky and Florida, but none matched his thunderbolt impact.

To Kevin Somerville, manager of Drakenstein Stud, Trippi is the ultimate example of South Africa's potential as a reciprocating resource for different gene pools.

"With Not This Time and also Liam's Map putting such a mark on American racing and breeding, there's now an opportunity to tap into probably Trippi's two best-ever racehorses," he says. "There's no doubt in my mind that both Charles Dickens and Jet Dark would have excelled if they'd raced in America--perhaps Charles Dickens in particular, with the natural speed he had. Jet Dark was a horse that built up into a race, whereas Charles had that turn of foot to quicken really well in sticky situations." Cont.

According to Rupert, it took local horsemen a little time to understand how to get the best from Trippi's stock, who responded best when not handled aggressively; and also how to draw out the speed he had himself best deployed round a single turn, notably in winning the GI Vosburgh Stakes. But he gradually worked his way to the pinnacle, as champion sire in 2015-16, and ultimately delivered 13 elite scorers. His global aggregates include 857 winners, 94 of them at stakes and 47 at graded/group level.

"If I had to choose one word to describe the progeny that he's left us, having obviously dealt with a lot of them, I would say 'brilliance' comes most easily to mind," Somerville reflects. "A very natural brilliance, which he certainly imparted to Jet Dark and Charles Dickens. And he was such a gorgeous horse, who left such beautiful stock.

Charles Dickens, son of Drakenstein's foundation stallion Trippi, is a three-time Group 1 winner | Chase Liebenberg

"I've worked in a lot of places and was very privileged to do the Darley 'Flying Start,' so I've seen lots of stallions and their progeny. And one thing for sure is that Trippi absolutely stamped his stock with those exceptional looks that appealed to Gaynor so much when she first saw him in Florida."

There is an equally specific satisfaction among the Drakenstein team in welcoming even fresher blood to the roster in Snow Pilot because he, too, is charged with a very special legacy. Lancaster Bomber, a Group 1 winner for Ballydoyle, had only just started his career here when dropping dead in 2021, aged just seven. Yet from his only two crops, he mustered five elite winners, including Drakenstein graduate Eight On Eighteen (SAf), who recently added the Champions Cup to his Group 1 collection. Snow Pilot, winner of the G1 Cape Guineas, was moreover homebred from Snowdance (SAf) (Captain Al {SAf}), herself a dual Group 1 winner. Cont.

"We're incredibly fortunate that Lancaster Bomber has the chance to leave a legacy," Somerville agrees. "He had fewer than 100 foals, so it was long odds against. But we really did give him a chance. We sent him some lovely mares and he delivered the goods for us, including Beach Bomb, who we sent to America to win a couple of graded races.

"Obviously it was a great loss to the farm, but now we get to stand this beautiful son of his and we should have a lot of fun with him. At our stallion day, Gai Waterhouse was really impressed by Snow Pilot, as a physical. She said he looked a horse that could get stock to get up and go early. His bloodlines will be a complete outcross for European mares."

And that, indeed, remains a potential springboard for the South African breeding industry, now that equine traffic has finally been unshackled by protocols regarding what was always considered highly marginal exposure to African Horse Sickness. The model, with a respectful sense of humility, is Japan, where drawing on different gene pools has produced such a potent hybrid.

"I mean, we're trying our best," Somerville says. "I do think we've a unique product, on the southern tip of Africa, something appealing to a lot of countries outside of us. Because it's sort of fresh blood, an outcross to everything else.

"We don't really push our horses to be early, either, and I think that plays out with the soundness and toughness. We don't have the issues of particular bloodlines dominating. We've kept some of the old ones going." Cont.

"Here on the farm, we have the Nijinsky sire-line, the Roberto sire-line, as well as obviously Mr. Prospector--Trippi was by End Sweep--and Northern Dancer."

The South African Thoroughbred has historically permitted no doubt of its ability to meet the highest international standards, from Epsom to Dubai. Beach Bomb picked up the thread even before restrictions were eased, while Gimme a Nother (SAf) (Gimmethegreenlight {Aus}) has meanwhile lit a path in recently winning a third consecutive graded stakes.

"From the 1930s to the 1960s, South Africa was able to import some really wonderful racehorses," Somerville reminds us. "Some of the highest rated horses in Timeform came here, because ours was quite a wealthy country. So the breed here was built on good bloodlines. But something more recent that could be really important is that we haven't been able to export many horses. If you look at Argentina or Brazil, for instance, a lot of their good race fillies are exported. And that can be quite destructive to your population. We haven't had that leakage here, during the years we haven't been able to get horses out. So actually how we cross this bridge, with exporting again, is going to be very important."

Trippi | courtesy Drakenstein Stud

He cites the example of Via Africa (SAf) (Var), who found her way to Australia and whose filly by The Autumn Sun (Aus) topped the 2023 Inglis Easter Sale at A$1.8 million before duly emerging as multiple Grade I winner Autumn Glow (Aus).

"For me, that's extraordinary," Somerville says. "One of the great highlights of South African breeding. We've got wonderful breeders here that have retained really good families."

Not least through the influence of Trippi, Somerville believes that stock thriving in the local racing environment displays a genetic affinity for the U.S. theater.

"We race on relatively tight tracks, relatively firm surfaces," he notes. "And if you speak to somebody like Graham Motion, I think he was thoroughly impressed with the stock that arrived, especially after the journeys they had to get there.

"But we're also realistic, in terms of where we are on the bigger stage. We're not naïve enough to think that we're breeding world champions. We just want to trade fairly, like the rest of the world; to have a fair shot and find out where our horses fit in. And then we can learn from that, and look to diversify our bloodlines further in areas that might be lacking."

Albeit he acknowledges the South African industry to be increasingly commercial, he does feel that breeders here remain less enslaved by fashion in keeping faith with the primary purpose of a Thoroughbred foal: to grow up as a runner. What luck, for instance, to import one of Danehill's most accomplished (and blue-blooded) performers, Duke of Marmalade (Ire), at a time he was losing commercial luster in Europe. As a result, the farm was able to breed and raise triple Group 1 winner Rain In Holland (SAf).

Unsurprisingly, given the impact of one of his daughters back home, Trippi himself also leaves an expanding footprint as a distaff influence. Trippi mares have lately delivered two elite winners, Gimme A Prince (SAf) and The Real Prince (SAf), to Gimmethegreenlight (Aus).

While they can hardly assist Charles Dickens and Jet Dark, both dimensions of Trippi's legacy give her a great sense of fulfilment. For there had long been that nagging doubt, whether the King would sire a Prince.

"He was breeding such wonderful racehorses, but just nothing that could quite go to stud," Somerville recalls. "And then, very late in the day, he came up with, not one, but two. So we're going to give his progeny the best chance, both his mares and now his sons as well. Because he has left such a huge mark on this farm, as the first stallion that ever came here. To come here as a relative unknown, and do everything he has, it's an incredible story, really. So we're going to give them the best chance we can."

Hill 'n' Dale's Sikura continued: "We will continue to test breed Curlin and determine his book size prior to the breeding season. It is very encouraging we tested two mares in foal this fall, which gives us great optimism he will return to service."

Standing alongside Curlin at Hill 'n' Dale is his champion son Good Magic, one of only three stallions to sire an American Classic winner in each of his first two crops. With five of his sons standing at stud in Kentucky, Good Magic will stand for a fee of $80,000 LFSN in 2027.

Maclean's Music, whose current runners are led by G1 Nunthorpe Stakes winner and GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint-bound Bacio, will remain at $30,000 LFSN in 2027.

Arabian Knight, a son of sire of sires Uncle Mo and the most popular horse ever to retire to Hill 'n' Dale when entering stud in 2025, will be represented by his first-crop weanlings in November. Arabian Knight's 2027 fee will remain at $30,000 LFSN. Cont.

INTO MISCHIEF STEADY AT $250K, YAUPON UP TO $100K ON SPENDTHRIFT ROSTER

Spendthrift Farm's perennial leading sire Into Mischief will continue to stand for $250,000 for the 2027 breeding season, while young sires Vekoma and Yaupon will each stand for $100,000, the farm said in a release announcing fees for its 2027 roster Wednesday.

"We are dedicated to being The Breeders' Farm, and a big part of that is giving breeders meaningful opportunities at every level," said Ned Toffey, general manager of Spendthrift Farm.

"Whether it's access to champion and leading sires, young stallions with exciting upside, or proven value sires that continue to get results, we want breeders to be able to find a horse on this roster that makes sense for their program."

Yaupon (Uncle Mo), who stood for $60,000 in 2026, joins the six-figure club just days after his 2-year-old daughter Brickyard Belle won the GIII Matron Stakes. From two crops to race, the stallion has 21 stakes winners--seven graded--and the earners of nearly $11 million.

The 10-year-old Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}) stands for $100,000 once again in 2027. He has 27 stakes winners--12 graded--and his son Forged Steel won the Sept. 26 GI Goodwood Stakes. From three crops to race, he has sired the earners of over $27 million.

New to the Spendthrift roster in 2027 are recently retired Grade I winner Baeza (McKinzie), who will stand his initial season at $25,000, and Grade I winner Further Ado (Gun Runner), whose fee is still to be announced.

Stallions whose fees will decline slightly in 2027 include Forte (Violence) and National Treasure (Quality Road), who will both go from $35,000 to $30,000; and Dornoch (Good Magic), who will go from $30,000 to $20,000. Cont.

INTEREST IN BREEDERS' CUP CONTENDER PRIMETIME EMMY TO BE OFFERED AT CHAMPIONSHIP SALE

A 25% interest in French group winner Primetime Emmy (Aus) (Extreme Choice {Aus}) will be offered two days before her expected start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf during Keeneland's Championship Sale at Castleton.

Bred in Australia by Matthew Sandblom of Kingstar Farm, Primetime Emmy was bred on Northern Hemisphere time with the intention to campaign her as a 2-year-old in France. Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, the filly won her July 12 debut at Deauville by 2 1/2 lengths, becoming the first European winner for her sire, Extreme Choice. After a fifth-place finish in the G3 Prix de Cabourg, she returned to the winner's circle Sept. 19 at Chantilly, where she captured the G3 Prix Eclipse Tattersalls by a head, becoming the first Northern Hemisphere group winner for the stallion.

Out of stakes winner Princess Emmy (NZ) (King's Chapel {Aus}), Primetime Emmy is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Thurlow (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}) and stakes winner Three Kings (Aus) (Sebring {Aus}).

Extreme Choice, who stands at Newgate Farm, is the world's leading sire of Group 1 winners to runners and has the highest stakes winners-to-runners ratio of any sire in the Southern Hemisphere. He is also the only Australian sire to have sired winners of both the G1 Golden Slipper and G1 Melbourne Cup.

"I have had so much faith in Extreme Choice from the very beginning, and to be able to race his progeny on the biggest stage globally brings my vision to fruition," Sandblom said. "I am so excited to have Primetime Emmy competing at Keeneland in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf and look forward to sharing the journey well into the future with her successful buyer at the Championship Sale."

The live auction for the Championship Sale will begin at 6:30 p.m. ET on Wednesday, Oct. 28. Attendance is by invitation only, with bidding available in person, online and by phone.

PAPPACAP SHINES AS OBS OCTOBER YEARLING SALE CONCLUDES by Stefanie Grimm

The session-topping Pappacap colt | OBS/Vidhorse

Trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. stretched to $140,000 Wednesday to secure a session-topping colt (hip 339) by Pappacap on the final day of the OBS October Yearling Sale.

On the second day of the two-day sale, OBS sold 129 horses for a total of $3,093,500 with an average of $23,981 and a median of $15,000. Last year, the same session saw 149 horses changes hands for $3,947,100 with an average of $26,491 and a median of $19,000. Cont.

"Before [hip 339] we bought some horses that were inexpensive," Joseph, Jr said. "We like those prices because you can never go wrong with those prices. This one we had to reach on. But it's all over the place. I always feel like this October sale is a good sale for the buyer. You walked away--this one we had to press on--but I feel like you walk away like it's on the buyers' side."

Bred and consigned in Florida by Summerfield Sales Agency (Francis and Barbara Vanlangendonck), he is the fourth foal out of a young winning Uncaptured half-sister to SW It's High Time (Gone Astray), a mare who produced a three-time Venezuelan champion in Special Element (Copper Bullet). Two more of the mare's half-siblings are stakes horses in Let Them Watch (Maximus Mischief) and Wiggle An' Wine (Awesome Slew).

"I buy them all and then sell them after," Joseph, Jr. said. "We had to reach for this one. This one is the most expensive one I've bought this sale. We liked him a lot, really wanted to get him and obviously there was competition to get him. Deservedly so because this horse is a really nice horse, very smooth, the way he carried himself. It seems like he's going to continue to get better."

Pappacap, who sold the day's second highest-priced yearling during Tuesday's opening session at $120,000, stood for $12,500 this year in Kentucky at Walmac Farm. He also sired the day's third-highest priced hip Wednesday with another colt who brought $80,000.

"Obviously Pappacap was precocious, he won at Del Mar (the Best Pal) and was second in the Juvenile and then he carried on to run in the Florida Derby against White Abarrio so we're very familiar with the horse," Joseph, Jr. continued. "He was a solid horse and you feel like he'll make a stallion. We're banking on it because we've bought a lot of them. We bought them because to the eye, they fit the look that we want."

The Vanlangendoncks, who breed and consign under their Summerfield name, were involved in this colt from the start.

"We knew that people liked him but you never know what people are going to pay," Francis Vanlangendonck said. "Obviously, we're very happy with what he brought. There were a lot of people interested in him and he looked just like his mother, and she could really run. We were going to sell him as a weanling but decided to wait and put him here, hoping he would stand out and that they would like the Pappacaps. I've seen a lot of (the Pappacaps). I did the breeding and bought the mare for Rustlewood Farm (which owned and bred Pappacap). Very involved with him, went to all his races with his owners. But people really like Pappacaps because they're all really athletic. I thought he could sell well. He brought more than we thought, which is fabulous. We're thrilled." Cont.

The day's top filly, a daughter of Oscar Performance (hip 311) who is a half-sister to SW/GSP Aspenite (Constitution) and out of a half-sister to MGSW/G1SP Keertana (Johar) and MGSW/G1SP Snow Top Mountain (Najran), also brought six figures from Gary Barber. Bred and consigned by Glen Hill Farm, Craig Bernick indicated that she would be sent to trainer Mark Case.

"I thought she was a nice filly," Bernick said. "Tom Proctor has trained most of the black type winners in the family, Snow Top Mountain, he trained Keertana …they were all different shape and sized horses. This horse, the mother couldn't run, but her first foal was good and then she picked up another winner at Belmont on Sunday in the 2-year-old race. It's a good family. I thought she was a nice horse. Other than the Uncle Mo, every horse we brought were by stallions we have shares in and Oscar Performance is a great stallion. I thought more people would want to see her.

Pappacap | Sarah Andrew

"Mark Casse saw her for the first time today and loved her. I told a few people the reserve was $100,000 and he bought her. I would have thought she would have made more but the main thing is she's going to a very good trainer and a very good owner. We still have the mother, we have the sister and a lot of the family.

"For us, the main thing is that they go and run. I know $100,000 is a lot for this sale, but I didn't think it was a lot for that horse. But they made a good buy and she's going to a good person."

Saffie Joseph, Jr finished as the day's leading buyer with eight secured for $384,000 while Abbie Road Farm (Lisa McGreevy) was the day's top consignor, selling 24 for $407,000.

NAJJA THOMPSON JOINS THE JOCKEY CLUB AS DIRECTOR OF STATE-BRED PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

Najja Thompson has been appointed to The Jockey Club's newly created position of Director of State Breeder and Provincial Programs. The role has been established to oversee and coordinate strategies aimed at strengthening and growing Thoroughbred breeding programs throughout North America, The Jockey Club announced in a press release Wednesday.

Cont.

Najja Thompson | Coglianese

Thompson will help lead The Jockey Club's efforts to identify opportunities for growth in state- and provincial-bred and regional breeding markets, foster collaboration among industry stakeholders, and support initiatives designed to enhance the long-term viability of the Thoroughbred breeding industry.

Thompson joins The Jockey Club after serving as executive director of New York Thoroughbred Breeders (NYTB) from December 2020 through October 2026, where he worked to strengthen New York's Thoroughbred breeding program, advance the interests of breeders, and promote the significant economic impact of Thoroughbred breeding and racing throughout the state. He also represented NYTB on the boards of the New York Racing Association (NYRA) and the New York State Thoroughbred Breeding & Development Fund.

"Najja brings a unique combination of leadership experience, industry knowledge, communications expertise, and a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities facing regional breeding programs," said Everett R. Dobson, chair of The Jockey Club. "His experience working with breeders, racetracks, industry organizations, and policymakers will be invaluable as we develop new strategies to support state-bred programs and strengthen the Thoroughbred breeding industry."

JOHN GRABOWSKI, TRAINER OF GI FRIZETTE WINNER DOTSY, JOINS THE TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST

Trainer John Grabowski dominated the Finger Lakes jockey standings for three decades before hanging up his tack in 2011 to make the switch to training. While he has done well on the Upstate New York circuit, he had never had a graded stakes winner until this past Saturday, when Dotsy (Tacitus) made him a Grade I-winning trainer with an upset victory in the Grade I Frizette Stakes at Belmont, earning him a 'Win and You're In' ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.

Grabowski was this week's Gainesway Guest of the Week on the TDN Writers' Room Podcast presented by Keeneland. Grabowski discussed his emotional reaction to the win, saying after the race that the moment was topped only by the birth of his children.

"It's amazing," he said. "It's an amazing feeling. I'd never thought in my wildest dreams that I'd ever win a Grade I stakes, let alone any stakes at Belmont Park. So it's been just incredible. It's been incredible. I'm still on Cloud Nine. It's just been an amazing ride and I'm so proud of my filly. She is just a spectacular 2-year-old filly and I have a lot of hopes and dreams in the future for her."

Grabowski discussed his deep connection to the filly, whom he picked out at the Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale. "I thought it was possible we could afford her. I had about sixty, seventy thousand to spend, and I got her for $37,000. When the hammer went down, I was shaking so hard. I was so excited and I had a hard time signing the slip."

He schooled her eight times before her next start, just to get her over her excitement in the paddock, and she responded with a four-length win in an auction maiden special weight, giving Grabowski his first win as a trainer at Saratoga.

Grabowski intended upon running her in an allowance after that, but was told that there would not be any written until November and that his only option was to run in the Grade I Frizette on Oct. 3. She won by 2 3/4 lengths.

"The emotions that came out of that race, when she crossed the finish line...I can't explain it," he said. "It was the biggest thrill of my life, like I said, other than the birth of my two children."

The “Fastest Horse of the Week” was GI Canadian International winner Arabian Crown (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}), who ran a 104 Beyer. The “Fastest Horse of the Week” segment is sponsored by WinStar Farm, home to Constitution, who sired a new Grade I stakes winner last week in American History.

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the PHBA, 1/ST TV, the KTOB, West Point Thoroughbreds, and Sky Racing World, the team of Randy Moss, T.D. Thornton ,and Zoe Cadman gave their thoughts about the multitude of Grade I stakes that took place over the weekend, including the win by 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Hughes (Into Mischief) in the American Pharoah.

NEW VOCATION KICKS OFF ANNUAL BREEDERS' CUP PLEDGE

New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program's 17th annual Breeders' Cup Pledge kicked off Tuesday with the theme, “When you win, they all win.” By pledging a portion of their Breeders’ Cup winnings, participating owners and trainers help support New Vocations’ mission to rehab, retrain and rehome retired racehorses, a mission that has helped more than 10,000 horses find their next chapter.

Last year’s pledge raised more than $100,000 for New Vocations, with more than 40 championship contenders represented by owners and/or trainers who pledged a percentage of their Breeders’ Cup earnings. Since its inaugural year in 2009, the pledge has raised more than $1.3 million for Thoroughbred aftercare.

“We are excited to have the Breeders’ Cup back in Lexington this year, only minutes from our main facility at Mereworth Farm,” said Anna Ford, New Vocations' Executive Director. “This year’s theme, 'When you win, they all win,' encompasses the mission of the pledge as it gives owners and trainers a meaningful and impactful way to give back to the horses who have given us so much. The funds raised are critical to ensuring we can continue serving more than 600 retired racehorses annually.”

All pledge information is available at newvocations.org/events or by contacting anna@horseadoption.com or carey@horseadoption.com.

KENTUCKY SENATOR BOURBON PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHAMPION NITROGEN

Kentucky Senator Bourbon, co-founded by equine attorney Andre Regard and then-Kentucky Senate Majority Floor Leader Damon Thayer, will pay tribute to champion Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) in the inaugural edition in its private-barrel Thoroughbred Legacy Series.

"Nitrogen's name says it all," said Regard. "Even in her early training, Hall of Famer Mark Casse said that the filly 'breathes different air,' hence her name. She's the perfect horse to kick off our Thoroughbred Legacy Series, which toasts Kentucky's two iconic industries: horses and bourbon."

Not available for individual bottle sales, the Legacy bourbons will be aged for a minimum of six years while distilled, aged and bottled in the Bluegrass State.

Nitrogen's picture is prominently displayed on the front of the bottle, with the D.J. Stable's maroon silks with white diamonds included on the back.

"The Legacy Series is ideal for promoting a cherished horse or equine operation, creating one-of-a-kind gifts for family, friends, partners or clients, as well as a fun and effective way to promote the bottle subject," said Thayer. "We guarantee that every private barrel will be distilled, aged and bottled with care and passion as we create a fitting tribute for a beloved horse or property."

NYRA UNVEILS $5.7-MILLION BELMONT WINTER STAKES SCHEDULE

The stakes schedule for the 2026-27 winter meet at Belmont Park will include 28 stakes races worth nearly $5.7 million in total purses, the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) announced Wednesday.

The 2026-27 Belmont Park winter meet will open Thursday, Dec. 10 and continue into March with a definitive end date to be announced prior to the 2027 Wood Memorial and in conjunction with NYRA's 2027 race dates. The one-mile Tapeta oval will be used as the exclusive surface for winter racing at the new Belmont Park while providing a year-round training option for horses stabled on the property.

The four opening legs of the Empire Trillium Series, a 14-race program of stakes races at Belmont Park and Woodbine Racetrack restricted to horses foaled in New York or Canada and worth $3.2 million in total purses, are set for Saturday, Dec. 26.

A blockbuster program on Saturday, Feb. 20 is headlined by the GII Suburban (previously contested during the summer) at nine furlongs for older horses. Among six stakes on the card are the GIII Gotham, a 50-25-15-10-5 point event for the Kentucky Derby, with its purse increased from $300,000 to $400,000 and its distance increased from one mile to nine furlongs.

For the complete stakes schedule, please visit https://www.nyra.com/belmont/racing/stakes-schedule/.

VELVET DEVIL (f, 4, Kantharos--Tizlegal, by Tiznow) was well-beaten in the Likely Exchange Stakes at Turfway Park in early January. After being scratched from the Wishing Well Stakes to start February, the filly was fifth behind Majestic Oops (Majestic Harbor) in the American Beauty Stakes at Oaklawn Park Feb. 13. Off the break, the 5-2 second choice here vied for the lead with Spring Dancer (The Big Beast) and Silent Law (Tiz the Law) up the backstretch. Taking control with an outside move towards the end of the far turn, Velvet Devil kept the task down the lane and won by 3/4 length over the late-running Justinqueso (Ghostzapper). The winner is a half-sister to SP Schoolyard-superman (Practical Joke) and an unraced 2-year-old filly named Diamond Necklace (Corniche). Herself a half-sister to GSW Crazy Mason (Coal Front), Tizlegal produced a filly by Maclean's Music last spring and visited Life Is Good for next season. Sales History: $130,000 Ylg '23 KEESEP. WEIGHTED AVERAGE (m, 5, English Channel--Charreada, by Kitten's Joy) was unlucky facing the maiden special weight ranks starting at 2, but she finally broke through with a nine-length score at Churchill Downs last November. After clearing an optional claimer over the same turf course at the end of that month, the chestnut finished third in the GIII Christophe Clement Stakes at Gulfstream Park Jan. 24. The public was unbothered by the layoff facing Weighted Average here. The 2-5 choice hesitated at the break, but settled nicely into a tracking position in fourth behind the speed. Ready to turn up with heat around the far turn, the 5-year-old fired on all cylinders down the lane and won by 1 1/4 lengths over Amie's Symphony (Mendelssohn). The first foal for her dam, the winner has a yearling half-sister by Practical Joke and a weanling half-sister by Elite Power. Charreada was entered in Goal Oriented's book for 2027. Weighted Average's extended female family includes current sire Aurelius Maximus (Pioneerof the Nile). Sales History: $260,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. SO THERE SHE WAS (f, 4, Munnings--Risk Premium, by Take Charge Indy), third in the GI Del Mar Debutante at two, took last season's Remington Park Oaks and was also a close-up second in the GIII Torrey Pines Stakes. After launching her 4-year-old campaign with a sixth after setting the pace in the restricted Tranquility Lake Stakes at Del Mar on Sept. 5, the dark bay was sent off at a tick under 4-1 to bounce back here. Pressing a modest early pace, the filly made her move on the far turn, gained control and was 4-lengths clear of favored Clairita (Gun Runner) at the wire. Risk Premium, a half-sister to MGSW and millionaire Melmich (Wilko) and GSW Iliad (Ghostzapper), produced a filly by Nashville last season. Cont.

IRON SIGHT (g, 5, Justify--Shadowing, by Tapit) left the maiden ranks behind when he won by a nose over the grass at the Big A June 26. Heading upstate for a pair of optional claimers, the gelding finished third Aug. 8 and just missed Sept. 6. Bet down to 3-5 here, the favorite was taken back to run second last as the field made for the first turn. The 5-year-old looked comfortable heading into the backstretch, but the chalk made an aggressive middle move to the outside which put him in the thick of the action around the far turn. Fanning three wide by the top of the lane, Iron Sight shifted into high gear down the lane, cleared by the sixteenth marker and got the money. Urgency (Knicks Go) was the runner-up.

The first foal for his dam, the winner has a 3-year-old half-brother in gelding Mischief Mania (Into Mischief) and an unraced 2-year-old half-sister in-training named Foreshadowing (Curlin), who was a $700,000 Keeneland September grad. Shadowing is responsible for a yearling filly by Curlin and a weanling filly by Nyquist. She was bred to Arabian Knight for 2027. Iron Sight's second dam is GISW Streaming (Smart Strike) and his extended female family includes champion 3-year-old filly Rags To Riches (A.P. Indy). Sales History: $400,000 Ylg '22 FTSAUG. 3rd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $34,000, Alw, 10-7, (NW2L), 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10.19, ft, 7 1/4 lengths.

I'M GAME (f, 3, Game Winner--Funny Feeling {SW, $143,386}, by Distorted Humor) won at second asking at Horseshoe Indy July 28, then was the runner-up against allowance company at Ellis Park Aug. 21. The chestnut was last seen finishing second versus allowance types in Indy Sept. 16. Fitted with blinkers here, the even-money favorite overcame some traffic in the early stages and seized the lead by the quarter pole. The Summer Wind homebred lived up to her name as she scampered home a winner by 7 1/4 lengths. Clarita (Gun Runner) was second.

Her dam's last registered foal on record, the winner is a half-sister to Gato Del Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), GSP, $183,652. A full-sister to current sire Jimmy Creed and a half-sister to Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet), Funny Feeling was not reported as bred for next spring. I'm Game's extended female family includes GI United Nations Stakes winner Aquaphobia (Giant's Causeway) and MGISW Midnight Lucky (Midnight Lute). 4th-Keeneland, $110,000, Msw, 10-7, 2yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:45.86, ft, 2 1/4 lengths.

JUMP SEAT (f, 2, Flightline--Delightful Quality {GSP, $253,900}, by Elusive Quality) gave her Freshman sire Flightline his eighth career winner with a confident 2 1/4-length victory at Keeneland on Wednesday afternoon. The half-sister to 2 and 3-year-old champion and Classic hero Essential Quality (Tapit) debuted with a close-up second at odds of 5-1 in a six-furlong test at Ellis on Aug. 22.

Jump Seat | Coady Media

Fresh off a bullet 4-furlong bullet move in :47 1/5 (1/44) at Churchill Downs on Oct. 1, the dark bay was installed the 3-2 choice to go one better this time. Smooth off the blocks, Jump Seat was kept closer up this time, prompting Energy Flows (Constitution) through a quarter in :24.28 and a half in :49.44. Heading that rival approaching the quarter pole, she forged clear in the final furlong and was ridden out by Irad Ortiz Jr. to win by a comfortable margin over Spectacular Sam (Cyberknife). Energy Flows was third.

A half to Essential Quality (Tapit), Ch. 2-year-old Colt, Ch. 3-year-old Colt, MGISW, $4,905,144; and Famed (Uncle Mo), SW, $312,133, the Godolphin homebred also has a yearling brother by Curlin in the pipeline. Also responsible for stakes-placed Famed (Uncle Mo), Delightful Quality, a half-sister to juvenile champion filly Folklore (Tiznow), foaled a colt by Into Mischief this season. INSIGHT Outcomes

MIORUILT (f, 2, Good Magic--Tamboz, by Tapit) made her debut as the 5-2 second choice here. The 2-year-old followed the lead of pacesetter Badittude (Uncle Mo) up the backstretch. Attached to the leader's hip around the far turn, Mioruilt pulled alongside her target at the quarter pole. The pair slugged it out down the lane, but it was Mioruilt who dug down for more to win the photo and graduate. The 'Insighted' Very Clever (Curlin) was fourth and Tinker Taylor (Gun Runner) was fifth. Cont.

DIVINER (c, 2, Mystic Guide--Rue de Cry, by Street Cry {Ire}), fourth in his career bow in a one-mile off-turf test at Monmouth on Sept. 26, was sent off at 23-1 while getting blinkers on while trying the grass this time. Settled in a stalking fifth through moderate opening splits, the homebred rallied in the stretch and took over late to score by 3/4 of a length over Captain Cody (Street Sense).

Rue de Cry, out of a full-sister to GSWs Magicalmysterycat and Burmilla, was bred to Johannes this season. The victory represents the seventh winner for Freshman sire Mystic Guide (by Ghostzapper). LAFLORDELACANELA (f, 2, Jack Christopher--Secret Garden {Per} {G1SW-Per}, by Flanders Fields) hit the board on debut at Penn National Aug. 26, but was well-beaten next out over the Delaware turf course Sept. 9. Donning blinkers here, the 4-5 favorite settled into the second flight and waited for his cue around the far turn. The filly was let loose along the rail and she responded with what was nothing short of a resounding victory by seven lengths. Port Elizabeth (Warrior's Reward) was the runner-up. The winner is a half-sister to Sequist (Nyquist), GISP, $179,108. Secret Garden produced a colt by Elite Power last year. She visited Goal Oriented for 2027. Laflordelacanela is the 15th winner for her freshman sire (by Munnings). Sales History: $40,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP; $30,000 2yo '26 OBSAPR. JERRI JO (f, 2, Jackie's Warrior--Double Blessed {MSP}, by Treasure Beach {GB}), runner up second time out going a mile at Ellis on Aug. 23, was sixth last time out while negotiating that distance at Churchill Downs on Sept. 13. Installed the 9-5 choice while debuting on the grass here, the bay was camped near the back early, rallied near the half-mile pole, took over in the stretch and was 3/4-of a length clear of Paciano (Blame) at the wire. The victory represented the 13th winner for Freshman sire (Maclean's Music).

Double Blessed, a daughter of Canadian champion grass mare Points of Grace (Point Given), produced a filly by Tapit earlier this season and was bred back to Justify. The multiple stakes-placed mare is also a half-sibling to Canadian champion juvenile filly Victory To Victory (Exchange rate) in addition to GI Whitney victor Arthur's Ride (Tapit). SILVER STAR (g, 2, The Factor--Lucky Betty {GSP, $147,336}, by Munnings) made his first start on the grass at Horseshoe Indy and finished just off the board. The 3-1 second choice here flashed speed out of the blocks, but was taken back to race in third as the field rounded the first turn. With a sudden outside move for the front at the end of the backstretch, the homebred found himself in command. Cont.

Silver Star | Coady Media

Silver Star drove towards the wire and could not be caught. First-time starter Sir Caden (Connect) acquitted himself well as the runner-up. The second foal for his dam, the winner has an older half-brother in 3-year-old gelding Quiet Mischief (Goldencents). Lucky Betty produced a colt by Authentic back in the spring and she was entered in Upstart's book for next spring. Silver Star's extended female family includes sire Bayerd (Speightstown). ‘HE’S THE SPITTING IMAGE OF FRANKEL’: COOLMORE STRIKES FOR 4M GNS COLT

MV Magnier: was the dominant force at Book 1 on Wednesday
Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin and Emma Berry

NEWMARKET, UK –– Julian Dollar knows a thing or two about excelling at Book 1, so when he says that a certain yearling is the best that Newsells Park Stud has ever brought to auction then it is worth taking note.

The colt in question is by Frankel and has the extra benefit of being a full-brother to Group 1 winner Ylang Ylang. His May 13 birthday was no barrier to sales-ring success either, as the elegant son of Shambolic (Shamardal) sashayed around the straw until Alastair Pim dropped his gavel at 4 million gns.

DAM OF DUAL GROUP 1 WINNER CONSTITUTION RIVER TO BE OFFERED AT ARQANA VENTE D'ELEVAGE

Chuppy (Le Havre), the dam of this year's G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Coral-Eclipse hero Constitution River (Wootton Bassett), will be offered in foal to Lope De Vega at the Arqana Vente d'Elevage, which takes place from Saturday, December 5 to Tuesday, December 8.

Consigned by Haras du Cadran, Chuppy is a full-sister to the G1 Prix de Royallieu and G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes winner Wonderful Tonight, while her other siblings include the Forever Together Stakes scorer Penjade (Air Chief Marshall) and G3 Prix Cleopatre third Heartache Tonight (Recorder).

Constitution River, last seen finishing third in the G1 Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown, is the first foal out of Chuppy, who is also responsible for the two-year-old Sensational Filly (Mehmas), an encouraging third when making her debut at Dundalk last month. Her yearling filly by Kodiac was bought by David Redvers for €430,000 at the Arqana August Sale.

Haras du Cadran's Pierre Talvard said of Chuppy, "She's a stunning mare, without doubt the most beautiful that we have at the stud.”

Anthony Stroud and Sheikh Mohammed threw in a couple of bids from outside the ring, while Kia Joorabchian was also in play from the bidders' section and an unidentified underbidder got involved online. In the end though, it was MV Magnier who was in the hotseat when the music stopped, ensuring that lot 237 would be following his elder sister – the winner of the G1 Fillies' Mile on this weekend three years ago – to Ballydoyle.

"In fairness to Newsells, they do a great job," Magnier said. "They have bred a lot of good horses and we bought his sister off them a few years ago. She's a very good filly and is in foal to Justify. Aidan [O'Brien] and Dad [John] were here the other day and they liked him a lot."

Shambolic, who is owned by Newsells Park's Graham Smith-Bernal in partnership with Craig Bennett of Merry Fox Stud, had multiple black-type placings in her racing days for the Dukes of Devonshire and Roxburghe, and she is a half-sister to the Hong Kong champion Viva Pataca. The Frankel colt is the third of her yearlings to bring a seven-figure return at Book 1: Ylang Ylang sold for 1.5 million gns, while Group 3-placed three-year-old Act Of Kindness (Siyouni) sold for 3.7 million gns to Godolphin.

"I thought he might even make more than that," said Smith-Bernal after the yearling became his mother's most expensive offspring yet.

"You know, when you have your stud manager, who's been there for 20 years, describe the horse as the finest horse he's ever produced for the sale, no exaggeration, born on the 13th of May, then you have Juddmonte, who's visited him a couple of times, saying he is the spitting image of Frankel." Cont. p4

He continued, “For me, it was his temperament that was so special. From being weaned, he was always a horse more interested in interacting with humans rather than other horses. He led the pack, and you'd click your fingers, he'd come walking over from 400 yards away, and there he was. You could see he wanted to know what you were all about, and so he was very special.

“He vetted very well, he moves very well, and he looks like Frankel. Hopefully, if he's 10% of what Frankel is, they would have done quite well. I wish them all the best.”

Craig Bennett added, “It's 20 years since we started the business. We were joint-top buyer in 2006 and top on our own in 2007. We're not quite top here, but we're not far off 20 years later. There aren't many people that can say that. That's the real pride. To earn the respect of the industry through what you produce. So I'm over the moon.”

Frankel is currently at the head of the Book 1 sires’ table with 12 yearlings sold at an average of 992,917gns, while his son and fellow Banstead Manor resident Chaldean is leading the first-season sires. His seven yearlings sold over the last two days have achieved an average price of 181,429gns.

Those figures have helped to contribute to solid figures across the board at Tattersalls. Another 42,625,000gns was added to the aggregate on Wednesday from the sale of 120 yearlings for a clearance rate of 85%. The median was up by 2% at 220,000gns and the average up 1% at 355,208gns.

Book 1 is well on course to exceed last year’s tally of 16 seven-figure lots with 13 in the bag already.

“ISN'T IT GREAT THAT SHEIKH MOHAMMED IS HERE? HE GIVES A LOT TO THIS INDUSTRY AND WE ARE LUCKY TO HAVE HIM HERE. THAT'S THE WAY I SEE IT.”

--MV Magnier

Strike Two for Marlhill House with Justify

If Tuesday was Godolphin’s day to dominate, by Wednesday their key rivals Coolmore stepped into the hotseat to sign for the top two lots of the session in partnership with Peter Brant’s White Birch Farm. That included Marlhill House Stud’s colt by Justify (lot 260), who brought 1.6 millions gns and was the second big result that Eddie Irwin’s operation has enjoyed with the same stallion this yearling season.

Marhill House Stud’s manager Brian McConnon said, “We've been blessed. We had three colts [by Justify] to sell and I knew at the start of the year we had three nice colts, but until you get them to the sale, you don't know how it will go. We decided we'd split the three of them up, so we sent one to France, one to Goffs and then one here.”

At Arqana, through the Fairway Consignment, they sold a son of Joie De Soir (Fastnet Rock) for €1.25m, while the Tattersalls colt is out of Stars At Night (Galileo) and thus bred on the same cross as City Of Troy. His half-brother Poker Face (Fastnet Rock) won the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein and G2 Zabeel Mile for owner Ed Ware, while that horse’s full-sister Star Devine is a Grade III winner in America.

Irwin said, “We bought the dam here in 2016 because I was looking for a Galileo mare at the time. I was involved in the racing of Fastnet Rock and I was involved with him when he went to stud as well. The cross with Galileo mares was working really well. And then, when Fastnet Rock came to the end of his stallion career, we were saying, ‘Where do we go next?’ We had always just stayed with the cross, really. We sent her over to the States to be covered by Justify. The one from last year has turned out well so it's good.” Cont. p5

Last year's colt is now known as Hmas Perth, of whom buyer MV Magnier said, "Aidan [O'Brien] thinks that the brother is definitely a Group horse. Justify is going very well so we're delighted to get him."

Ace Backs Amo Colt

Yuesheng Zhang has been present at Tattersalls over the last few days and, sitting alongside his son-in-law Harris Li, the official owner of Ace Stud, the outfit went to 1.6 million gns to secure a Night Of Thunder colt from New England Stud.

Lot 276 is from a family that the owners know well given Ace Stud spent 600,000gns on the sister, the Listed-winning Town And Country (Earthlight), at the December Mares Sale last year. The Night Of Thunder colt is out of Sweety Dream (Dream Ahead) and was bred by Amo Racing. The mare's other offspring include the yearling's full-sister Romantic Style, who won the G3 Prix Imprudence for Godolphin.

Ace Stud's Paul Curran said, "He was the standout for us all week and we went to see him on Sunday - we were in the market to buy a nice one by the sire. He is from a good farm, we liked everything about him.

"There is a premium on the Night Of Thunders. The price was around what we thought we'd have to spend. He will go to Andrew Balding – he has had great success for us with Night Of Thunder and had Gewan for us and he won the Dewhurst this time last year. We hope we will have a nice one again with Andrew. This is a later sort, but we will be in good hands with Andrew."

Different Day, Same Story

Godolphin and Night Of Thunder. It's a partnership which has endured, and another colt by the champion sire was added to the royal blue haul on Tuesday when Anthony Stroud bid 1.5 million gns for lot 189, the second foal of Purple Ribbon (Gleneagles) from Hascombe & Valiant Studs.

"We've had the family for generations," said breeder Anthony Oppenheimer of the dynasty which includes great granddam Victoria Cross (Mark Of Esteem), whose offspring Bronze Cannon and Across The Stars are both Group 2 winners while another, Grade III winner Valiant Girl, is the dam of this year's GI Belmont Derby winner Title Role (Too Darn Hot).

"Title Role was very good this year – he won a Group 1, a Group 2 and a Group 3. He's not doing too badly. We had high expectations, I'm afraid. We would have been very disappointed if he did not sell well," Oppenheimer said, adding that Purple Ribbon now has a Study Of Man foal at foot.

Godolphin's spending spree on the second day of Book 1 included lot 298, a Blue Point colt out of the Listed Chelmer Stakes winner Tippy Toes, bought from Newsells Park Stud for 950,000gns.

The colt had been pinhooked as a foal by mystery entity Vista Bloodstock from breeders Colin and Melba Bryce of Laundry Cottage Stud for 250,000gns.

By the end of the second session, another seven yearlings had been added to those bought by Godolphin on the first day, taking the total to 18 horses purchased for 20.86 million gns.

Swirral Edge Delivers Again for Redpender

Sometimes you've got to think on your feet in this game. That's exactly what Paddy Twomey did to land the Frankel sister to G1 July Cup winner Mill Stream (Gleneagles) when amalgamating a group of existing owners, headed by Bond Thoroughbreds, to go to 1.5 million gns on Jimmy Murphy's filly. That outlay represents the largest sum that Twomey has ever paid at public auction and tips his overall haul this week beyond 2.7 million gns on five well-bred yearlings. Cont. p6

Twomey said, "This is the premier yearling sale in Europe. We came here hoping to buy some nice stock and, luckily enough, we've been able to buy some of the ones that were on our list. It's a competitive marketplace but we want to compete at a high level. I've never spent that sort of money on a yearling before. She has been bought on behalf of a new partnership of existing owners, which is quite exciting. Hopefully she'll be lucky now. She is a collector's item and is an exciting racing prospect who will hopefully be a foundation broodmare."

He added, "A lot of kudos has to go to Jimmy Murphy. He's after breeding three very fast horses out of the mare and it's a pedigree I know well. She's a credit to Jimmy Murphy and is a culmination of his lifetime of hard work. He is a man I have incredible respect for and we're delighted to be able to take her home. She could be a very important foundation broodmare for this new partnership and we are very excited to have her."

Mill Stream is not the only black-type winner for his dam Swirral Edge (Hellvelyn), who has been a wonder for Murphy's Redpender Stud. The 13-year-old mare is also the dam of G2 Richmond Stakes winner Asymmetric (Showcasing), while this year's two-year-old Crownbreaker, from the first crop of Minzaal, won the Listed Prix Yacowlef and was second in the G2 Flying Childers Stakes for Amo Racing and Kevin Philippart de Foy. Cont. p7

Wild About The Wild Card

The Frankel filly out of G2 Middleton Stakes winner Queen Power may have been a late addition to the catalogue as lot 196A, but she caught the eye of both Richard Brown and his underbidder Simon Mockridge of Juddmonte, ultimately selling for 1.4 million gns.

“She had everything: sire, pedigree, the farm she was raised on, beautiful physical, and she looked exceptional walking round there. She had everything you want, and the depth of the page there is quite exceptional. We very much hope she’s a racehorse but there’s a long-term future there as well.”

From the family of Serena’s Sister, which includes new Juddmonte stallion Field Of Gold and his fellow Group 1 winners Zabeel Prince and Rizeena, the filly was consigned by Whatton Manor Stud.

"We knew coming here we had a very special filly, but there's so many hoops they've got to get through. She did that and we are delighted with the result,” said Whatton Manor’s Ed Player.

"She was popular here, lots of people vetted her, and it was lovely that they all came in the ring. You can never be 100 per cent sure who will follow in but to have two very good operators Juddmonte and Richard Brown fighting out for it at the end was just the stuff of dreams. Whoever gets to train her has got a nice filly, and I'm convinced she will be a racehorse.”

Thoroughbred Racing Corporation’s Big-race Riches

Jane Mangan | Tattersalls

Fresh from a Group 1 double with Green Empress (Saxon Warrior) and Miss Scott (Night Of Thunder) at ParisLongchamp on Sunday, The Thoroughbred Racing Corporation reinvested to the tune of 925,000gns on a Dubawi filly from WH Bloodstock.

The Dubawi filly is out G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sweet Lady (Lope De Vega) and Jane Mangan, who buys on behalf of Prince Faisal bin Ahmed's operation, said her purchase was the opposite of "rocket science."

Mangan said, "She's by one of the great stallions of our time, and she's out of a Group 1-winning mare. We saw her three times and she showed very well. Prince Faisal bin Ahmed watched the videos from home and we were very keen.”

She added, "We don't buy quantity, we try to buy quality, which everyone does. We knew she would be expensive and we are delighted to get her. We come in here with our feet on the ground and we came in with the same modus operandi as we've always done, and these are the fillies that we want to breed from in the future."

Another from that shopping list was a colt which helped Baroda Stud boss David Cox to produce one of the pinhooking results of the sale when selling the son of Kingman for 1.1 million gns – and apparently he has the stud's Noel McDonnell to thank for allowing him take a piece in the first place!

Offered by Baroda at the December Foal Sale, the Kingman colt was shrewdly purchased by a group – including McDonnell – for 155,000gns under the banner of Auburn Bloodstock. That outlay looked a snip shortly after 4pm on Wednesday when Godolphin out-battled some serious bidders, including Amo Racing's Kia Joorabchian on the colt.

A delighted Cox said, “Kia was very lucky with the family so he loved him as well. Sheikh Mohammed came to see him yesterday so we were hoping he would stay on the big lists. It's great for our whole team. Noel McDonnell, who works for me, bought him as a foal. We had him at the foal sales here and I really liked him so, when he came to me afterwards telling me he bought him, I was delighted to take a piece. It worked out great. He has a huge pedigree and these are the types of pinhooks that can go the right way. He is by the right sire and he is a nice horse. I was just lucky that I got the call to buy into him.” Cont. p8

Asked how he felt pinhookers had been performing all year, Cox added, "It's been tough. The O'Callaghans [Yeomanstown Stud] got the touch yesterday with the Ghaiyyath colt making 1.3 million gns but it has been tough. I can't complain anyway."

Buy of the Day

Described by a leading player as "a seven-figure yearling who cost only 500,000gns," it's hard not to give lot 162, a Night Of Thunder colt, the buy of the day on that metric alone. And it makes sense. Up early in the sale, Clearwater Stud's colt is from a good family, and was reported to be a smashing horse in the flesh from people who would know. At half a million gns, he could look value in time.

He said, “She is extremely easy and is never a problem. Her first foal is an exceptional horse, while her second foal made a very promising debut and should improve a lot for that. Her yearling is a beautiful filly that is set to go to a top calibre trainer.

"By crossing Chuppy with Lope De Vega, we wanted to continue what has guided us and served us well since the beginning: adding speed to a mare that has a pedigree that is distinguished by its stamina. Lope De Vega possesses this speed as well as the consistency that characterises great stallions."

The full catalogue for the Vente d'Elevage will be available on the Arqana website from Monday, October 19.

NEXT STOP ASCOT FOR CALANDAGAN, BIG-RACE RIDER STILL TO BE DETERMINED

Calandagan (Gleneagles) looks set to defend his crown in the G1 Qatar Racing Champion Stakes on Saturday week, although it remains to be seen who will be riding the six-time Group 1 winner at Ascot.

Francis-Henri Graffard's five-year-old proved too strong for Ombudsman (Night Of Thunder) and Almaqam (Lope De Vega) on Champions Day last season, after which he became the first overseas horse in 20 years to lift the G1 Japan Cup and was crowned Longines World's Best Racehorse for 2025. Cont. p11

A second appearance in the Japan Cup remains the primary end-of-season target for Calandagan, who is set to follow an identical path to Tokyo as he did in 2025, having again enjoyed a short break since being beaten by Kalpana (Study Of Man) when trying to win July's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot for the second consecutive year.

Should Calandagan take up his intended engagement in the Champion Stakes, however, it appears likely that a substitute jockey will be required, with regular rider Mickael Barzalona having picked up a two-day whip ban when winning Saturday's G1 Prix de Royallieu at ParisLongchamp aboard the aboard Simon and Ed Crisford-trained Fairy Glen (Farhh).

"Calandagan has come back to himself really well," said Nemone Routh, French racing manager and director for the Aga Khan Studs. "He worked really well [on Tuesday] and he's in really good form with himself. I think the little break he had after Ascot really freshened him up.

"We'll have to look at the weather because, if it became bottomless [ground], he wouldn't go there [to Ascot]. We know he doesn't like that, but he's in great form, so I think, if the ground is decent and he works well again next week, we would plan to go to Ascot."

She continued, "It's all become very complicated with this ban for Mickael Barzalona. That's not helping things. We are likely to have to find a jockey and we haven't got very far on that.

"He [Barzalona] only got two days, but he got the ban in France and obviously the rules are not harmonised. I think, if it had been five uses of the whip in the UK or in Ireland, it wouldn't be considered a misdemeanour, but only four are allowed here. Because it was a Group 1, I think it's an immediate ban.

"It's not ideal, obviously. We haven't really got as far as thinking what we'll do but, focusing on the horse, it looks like he's on target."

ALEX FROST TO STAND DOWN AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE TOTE

Alex Frost | Emma Berry

Following nearly nine years as CEO of the UK Tote Group, Alex Frost will stand down at the end of 2026, with Gaming Innovation Group COO James Coxon set to succeed him in the role. Frost will reportedly remain on the Tote board as an executive director until the end of 2027, before moving to a non-executive role thereafter.

"All good things come to an end eventually," Frost told the Nick Luck Daily Podcast on Wednesday. "I've thoroughly enjoyed my time and I just feel it's time to put new energy into the business. We've got a new plan that we're rolling out and it's time for somebody else with more energy and drive to take the role. It's a great opportunity for them and a great opportunity for me to help in the background."

He continued, "James Coxon has huge experience in the sector, with DraftKings and so on. He's a highly capable guy who I think can do a tremendous job. The Tote is approaching its 100th anniversary and we feel that the business is in great shape. We're passionate about making sure that the UK and Ireland have a very strong Tote infrastructure. We've seen the benefits of World Pool so far, but we've only scratched the surface and there's plenty more to go for."

As CEO of the UK Tote Group, Frost--who is also the owner of Ladyswood Stud in Wiltshire--has been heavily involved with the World Pool since its launch by the Hong Kong Jockey Club in 2019. Cont. p12

He added, "Fundamentally, the principle of World Pool is what we stand for. We've seen already £65,000,000+ come into the sport from World Pool. We desperately need that international infrastructure to put the sport on a proper pedestal that allows the world to bet on our racing. Legally, it's the only means of doing so. By that, we can really roll out integrations across the world to allow more people to bet into British and Irish horse racing. You'll hopefully see the benefits of that.

"You only had to be at Saint-Cloud on Friday where my dad had a runner. Nineteen grand went to the winner of the Prix Dahlia. The equivalent over here is the Galtres and races like that where you're getting 100 grand in prize-money, thanks to the brilliant work of York and the World Pool funding mechanism behind all of that."

CONTENT CREATOR RACE DAY SET FOR 2027 AT CRAON, AS AKTEM PARTNERS ON NEW INITIATIVE

AKTEM has backed a new content creator-driven race day at Craon Racecourse in 2027. The initiative aims to contribute to the revitalisation of horse racing and is the brainchild of Noah Khelifi.

A racehorse owner alongside his father and a passionate racing enthusiast, Khelifi is an active member of Generation Z who has a strong understanding of the codes and expectations of today's youth. His ambition is to bring together horse racing and the new codes of entertainment, drawing on content creators capable of generating very large audiences.

Khelifi said, "The concept is based on eight teams, each represented by a content creator, who will compete throughout a day across several races. The event will take place physically at Craon Racecourse, but it will also be developed in advance so that the content creators can discover the behind-the-scenes world of racing alongside industry professionals, develop a genuine passion for the sport and share the experience with their respective communities. It creates a virtuous circle: not only will this introduce horse racing to a large young audience, but it will also give them the opportunity to experience it live and in person during a day dedicated entirely to this objective.

"The real gap between horse racing and younger generations is not sporting, but media-related and narrative-driven. We want to reinvigorate the ecosystem and showcase the people who make it happen every day: more spectators, greater audience engagement, more owners, more runners, more value."

AKTEM president Sofiane Benaroussi said, "AKTEM is delighted to support Noah and his innovative initiative. This project will help make horse racing more appealing to young people, who represent the next generation of participants and owners, by using codes and formats that are specific to them and have already proven successful in other sports."

SOSIE'S BROTHER JUMEAU TAKES TO SAINT-CLOUD

2.31 Saint-Cloud, Cond, 2yo, 8fT

Following a successful debut in ParisLongchamp's Prix de Fontenoy last month, the Wertheimers' JUMEAU (IRE) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) takes it steady for now as he reappears in Thursday's Prix Esmeralda at Saint-Cloud.

Given his win first time out over this mile trip, big things can rightly be expected of the homebred whose full-brother Sosie only really came into his own during the summer of his three-year-old campaign prior to winning the Grand Prix de Paris, Prix Ganay, Prix d'Ispahan and Hong Kong Vase for Andre Fabre.

Along with daughter Lavinia, the master of Chantilly has opted to run Jumeau against another of their promising juveniles in Prince Faisal's Moneefa (Ire) (Baaeed {GB}), a daughter of the Prix Chloe winner Noticeable Grace (Make Believe). From the family of the Oaks and King George heroine Taghrooda (Sea The Stars), she was like her stablemate off the mark on debut having mastered her first 7 1/2-furlong test at this venue last month.

HOW THEY FARED

1.29 Nottingham, Novice, 2yo, f, 6f 18yT

Lady Bamford's 1.1-million guineas October Book 1 graduate Venetian Storm (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) was never a factor and finished a tailed-off last of eight.

2.29 Nottingham, Novice, 2yo, 8f 75yT

Quantum Leap Racing's Prince Of Petra (Ire) (Persian King {Ire}), a €65,000 Arqana August half-brother to G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero and G1 Derby second Maltese Cross (Sea The Stars), raced greenly when coming under pressure in the home straight and finished fourth of five on debut.

5.30 Kempton, Novice, 2yo, 7f (AWT)

Fenaroli (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the half-brother to the Arlington Million hero Set Piece (Dansili), could not have shaped with more promise on debut overcoming a slow start to finish a close-up third.

Wednesday's Results:

3rd-Nottingham, £30,000, Nov, 10-7, 2yo, 8f 75yT, 1:48.83, g/s.
GAINFUL (GB) (f, 2, Nathaniel {Ire}--Here Again {GB}, by Pivotal {GB}), who shaped with promise when hitting the board over one mile at Newmarket in her Sept. 19 debut last time, broke well and led from flagfall in this celebrated Oath Novices heat. In command throughout, the 5-6 favourite stretched further clear inside the final quarter-mile and maintained a high tempo in the closing stages to easily outpoint Caldo (Nathaniel) by an impressive three lengths.

"She showed a bit of knee action at Newmarket and I was a bit surprised she wasn't in love with the [good-to-soft] ground," said Rossa Ryan after completing a double on the card. "She'd have probably preferred it a little quicker, but for the time being it's fine for her. I got into a good rhythm and a great comfort zone, but I didn't want them to come at me quickly and she's done it well. She'll get a trip no problem, she's got a great attitude and she's very straightforward."

Gainful is the second of four foals and first scorer produced by an unraced full-sister to Listed Noel Murless victrix and G2 Lancashire Oaks third Hereby (Pivotal).

The winner, whose second dam is G1 Oaks heroine Look Here (Hernando), is full a yearling filly and half to a weanling colt by Chaldean. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $22,632.
O-J H Richmond-Watson; B-Lawn Stud; T-Ralph Beckett.

TWELVE BARS (IRE) (c, 2, Space Blues {Ire}--Tamaara {Ire}, by Sepoy {Aus}), runner-up at Newmarket on debut last month, quickly held the lead. Pressed late by Lancaster Tower (Kingman), the 4-5 favourite held on to prevail by half a length.

The dam descends from the matriarch Fall Aspen, linking her to Dubai Millennium, Fort Wood, Timber Country and Bianconi to name a few. Her yearling filly by Calyx was bought by Donnacha O'Brien for €50,000 at the recent Tattersalls Ireland September, while she also has a colt foal by Shouldvebeenaring. QUEEN OF SCOTLAND (GB) (f, 3, Pinatubo {Ire}--Flower of Scotland {GB}, by Gleneagles {Ire}), who scored at Windsor last month, was restrained early to race in mid-division. Working her way to the front inside the final furlong, the 7-4 second favourite had 1 1/2 lengths to spare over Yamnah (Pinatubo) at the line.

The winner is the first foal out of the dam, a daughter of the British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes heroine Seal Of Approval (Authorized) and half to the dual Group-placed Promissory (Dubawi). Also linked to the luminaries Hurricane Lane (Frankel) and Harzand (Sea The Stars, her second live foal is a yearling colt by Dubawi's son Too Darn Hot due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 2. CASTLEROCK GIRL (IRE) (f, 2, Bayside Boy {Ire}--Servalan {Ire} {MSW-Ire}, by No Nay Never), runner-up over much this trip at Southwell in her Sept. 24 debut last time, broke well and led from the outset here. Holding sway throughout, the 2-1 second favourite was shaken up in front approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly to defeat California Angel (Dark Angel) by 2 3/4 lengths, becoming the 19th winner for her freshman sire (by New Bay).

"The objective wasn't to lead, but I got left there," explained Rossa Ryan. "We had it easy [up front] and she showed a good turn of foot. It was a good performance and she's done it well. She has taken a big step forward from the first day, but she still has plenty to learn."

Castlerock Girl is the fourth of five foals and second scorer produced by the dual Listed winner Servalan (No Nay Never), herself the leading performer out Listed Knockaire Stakes third Catch The Eye (Oratorio).

The winner is half to a weanling filly by Look De Vega. Sales history: 65,000gns Ylg '25 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $10,525.

JESUS GREEN (IRE) (c, 2, Ghaiyyath {Ire}--Marbella {Ire}, by Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who had chased home Darkness Falls in Leopardstown's Golden Fleece last month, was content to stalk the steady early tempo under Joey Sheridan. Launched passing two out, the 4-11 favourite soon had the measure of his rivals and went to the line in the expected strong manner to score by three lengths from Ballydoyle's eye-catching newcomer Choctaw Nation (Sea The Stars).

"He obviously handled good ground the last day, but handled soft ground here because it is plenty soft on the round track," Sheridan said of the Futurity Trophy entry. "He gave me a brilliant feel and won as he liked."

"Joseph [O'Brien] and Dylan loved him before Leopardstown, so that was not a surprise to us--he has a lovely mind and is obviously very exciting," he added. "He's the type that you could put anywhere in a race and he will get further too."

The dam, whose yearling son of Starspangledbanner was a 230,000gns purchase by Amo Racing at the previous day's session of Tattersalls October Book 1, hails from the family of the Bengough Stakes winner Lightning Moon (Shamardal) and the Listed-winning Song Of My Heart (Footstepsinthesand).

One of Song Of My Heart's three Stakes performers was the Musidora third Pandora (Galileo), producer of the aforementioned Ballydoyle bigwig Man's Best Friend. Marbella's 2026 foal is a full-sister to the winner. Sales history: 100,000gns Ylg '25 TATOCT. Lifetime Record: G1SP-Ire, 3-1-2-0, $104,651.

Inching closer once into the home straight, the 2-5 pick was set alight with 350 metres remaining and kept on strongly under a late drive to deny Riscal (Kingman) by a neck in the dying strides.

Ring Joy, half to a yearling colt by Hello Youmzain, is the first of two foals out of a half-sister to the dual stakes-placed Pearling Path (Holy Roman Emperor).

Her Listed-placed second dam Sacrifice My Soul (Nayef) is a half-sister to G1 Star Epsom hero I'm Your Man (Cape Cross), Group 3-winning G1 Prix Saint-Alary third Perfect Hedge (Unfuwain) and the dual Listed-placed Ragazza Mio (Generous). PROLIFIC GLOBETROTTER NATIONS PRIDE TO STAND AT SOHNA STUD IN INDIA

Nations Pride | Sarah Andrew

Godolphin globetrotter Nations Pride (Teofilo), a four-time winner at the top level in three different countries, has been purchased to embark on a stallion career at Sohna Stud in India in 2027. The deal was brokered by Ajay Anne of New Approach Bloodstock.

Trained by Charlie Appleby, Nations Pride was successful twice from three starts as a two-year-old, before making the breakthrough at the top level at three when following a near miss in the Belmont Derby with a decisive success in the Saratoga Derby. The son of Teofilo then won the GIII Jockey Club Derby Invitational Stakes to cap a productive summer on American soil.

At four, Nations Pride won both the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis - Bayerisches Zuchtrennen and Canadian International, with his final top-level victory coming at five when he won the Arlington Million Stakes at Colonial Downs. He retires as the winner of nine of his 24 career starts and nearly $4 million in prize-money.

"4x G1 winner Nations Pride to stand at India's premier Sohna Stud!" said Anne in a post on social media. "He joins a legacy that famously stood Noverre and produced champions like Juliette, Enabler and Jacqueline. A thrilling new chapter for Indian breeding under fresh family leadership!"

Godolphin homebred Nations Pride is one of four winners from six runners out of the German Listed winner Important Time (Oasis Dream), who is herself out of the G1 Prix de l'Opera scorer Satwa Queen (Muhtathir). This is also the family of the Australian champion Militarize (Dundeel) and the G1 Phoenix Stakes-winning sire Lucky Vega.

So impressive in the May Hill, it will take something special to lower the colours of Musical Times with the main ray of hope for her opponents being the possibility that she is less effective on this faster ground. Rogue Passion beat Amusingly and Data in the Prix d'Aumale last month and is most likely the chief threat given the performances of that pair on Sunday, while the Flying Scotsman winner Forbidden Fire has stamina to prove along with fellow unbeaten TDN Rising Star Lex Victoria. Ballydoyle's Haven will appreciate the step up from seven furlongs and is hard to rule out based on the record of their runners in this particular heat. [Tom Frary].

Second to More Thunder in the Park Stakes, Flora Of Bermuda may have the edge over stablemate Never So Brave who has disappointed much more often than not this season after such a profitable 2025 campaign. Pina Sonata has a lot of upside, but she enjoyed the crowded nature of the Sceptre Stakes on her turf breakthrough last month and this small field may not see her in her best light. [Tom Frary].

This is an ideal opportunity for the Oaks runner-up Legacy Link or the Coronation Stakes runner-up Touleen to get back on track, but both have question marks on recent evidence and the latter has stamina to prove. That could pave the way for Silver Lake to make her mark in this company and after handicap wins at the high-profile Festivals of Goodwood, York and Doncaster she is more than ready for the challenge. So promising in the spring, Felicitas may be one to follow in the autumn but she has to reverse Upavon Stakes form with On Message having finished behind her and the eventual Prix de l'Opera winner Miss Scott in that Salisbury contest. [Tom Frary].
