MOMENTUM STRONG AT FASIG-TIPTON SARATOGA FALL MIXED SALE

by Alan Carasso

With a wildly successful yearling sales season in the books, the auction focus turns its attention to the breeding stock sales. While the big events occur in Lexington in the immediate aftermath of the Breeders' Cup World Championships at Keeneland Oct. 30 and 31, Fasig-Tipton conducts its annual Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale at the Humphrey S. Finney Sales Pavilion, with bidding for the single-session sale set to begin at 10 a.m. ET Monday morning.

A total of 310 horses have been cataloged for the sale, the majority of which (260) are weanlings, but the catalog also includes some yearlings, in-foal broodmares and broodmare prospects.

During the inaugural Saratoga Fall Mixed Sale in 2012, a well-bred Bernardini filly named Closing Move was the lone seven-figure seller, hammering for $100,000.

Suffice to say the New York racing and breeding landscape has changed a wee bit since then.

The 2025 Saratoga Mixed Sale, for example, featured no fewer than 21 horses that sold for pricetags in excess of $100,000, topped by then 8-year-old mare Showmethemagic (Power Broker) at $260,000.

AS JERSEY SEASON NEARS END, DRAZIN VOWS TO FIGHT ON

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

Saturday was the penultimate night of the 2026 New Jersey racing season and the card at the Meadowlands was, sadly, typical of what has become of the sport in the Garden State. There were only six races, with 44 horses taking part, and the all-sources handle was an anemic $1,109,739.

These are very tough times for New Jersey racing, which just can't compete with its neighbors in the Mid-Atlantic region, all of which receive funding from gaming.

The average total daily handle during the 50-day Monmouth meet fell by 22 percent, a direct reflection of field size and how the quality of racing has slipped.

Fasig-Tipton

Just eight horses made $100,000 in 2024. That mare's then-weanling colt by Golden Pal was one of the five offerings to breach the $200,000 level after being knocked down for a shade more than that $210,000. As recently as 2022, it took just $150,000 to account for the sales-topper.

The 2025 Saratoga Mixed Sale achieved record highs in all statistical categories when 133 horses sold for $6,177,500.

The average of $46,447 was up by 74.2% while the median price of $22,000 jumped by 46.7%.

That sets a considerable standard for the 2026 renewal, but Fasig-Tipton CEO Boyd Browning, Jr. is always up for that sort of challenge.

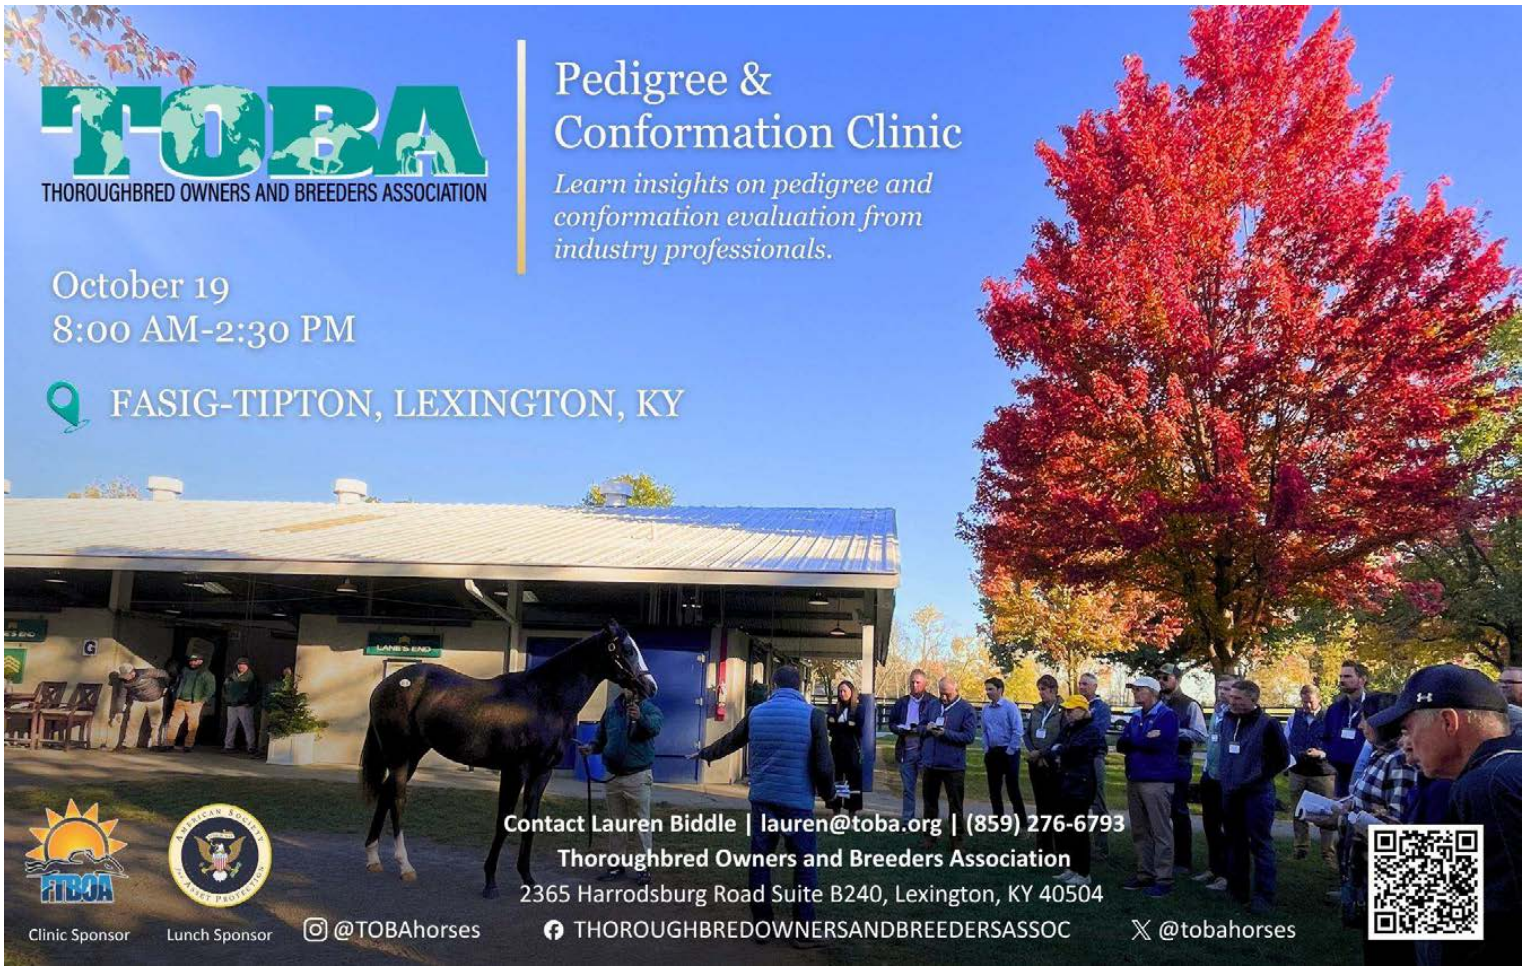

"We would expect to see the same market trends continue that we've seen throughout 2026 and, honestly, 2025," Browning said. "The New York-bred program is so good, both in terms of racing opportunities and for breeders that we expect there to be a very strong marketplace."

Prize money at the tracks of the New York Racing Association continue to entice any number of top outfits to the state, with New York-bred 2-year-olds racing for the same six-figure purses as their open counterparts.

"You've got purse parity, you've got the new Belmont opening, you've got significant purses and breeding awards," Browning continued. "It's the leading state-bred program in the United States and we have every reason to be optimistic heading into this sale."

That old advertising campaign that suggested that 'New York-breds start with an advantage' rings true with the Fasig-Tipton CEO to this day.

"They truly do," he said. "They're not just state-bred horses, they can win graded races anywhere in the country or around the world. There really is no ceiling as to what a New York-bred can do on the racetrack. As a result, the quality of horses for this sale continues to increase every year."

It is an exciting group of stallions that call New York home these days, with well-performed Grade I winners, other fashionably bred sires and stallions who have migrated to the Empire State from elsewhere to try to take advantage of a program on the up. Mind Control is punching well above his weight in the freshman sire ranks, not just locally, but nationally the Into Mischief line is represented by the productive Honest Mischief and Kentucky Derby winner Mandaloun's full-brother Mullion and, like Mind Control, Americanrevolution--a Fasig-Tipton New York-Bred Yearling Sale grad--also gives breeders chance to avail themselves of a stallion with winning form at the elite level. Bucchero has fortified the New York lineup since his arrival and is about to cover his fourth book of mares in the state in 2027, the same year his first New York-conceived crop of 2-year-olds hit the track.

Bucchero | Sarah Andrew

"The exceptional results from this year's yearling sales have created tremendous excitement heading into the weanling market," said John Dowd of Ironhorse Stallions, home to Bucchero. "Demand for New York-breds continues to strengthen and with the right strategic decisions, New York has an opportunity to elevate its breeding program and compete head-to-head with Kentucky for the attention of buyers nationwide."

There were only 800 horses stabled at Monmouth this year, down from 950 the year before, and the population is expected to continue to decline due to the foal shortage and the fact that more and more trainers are opting for the longer meets and the richer purses offered elsewhere.

The hope is that Monmouth will eventually get a casino, but that won't come easily. Legislation that would allow for gaming at Monmouth (and the Meadowlands) must pass by a 60 percent margin in the legislature and all that would do is get the question on the ballot. Getting casino gaming at New Jersey's racetracks has proved to be all but impossible because of the stranglehold the Atlantic City casinos have on so many legislators based in the southern half of the state. There was a referendum on the ballot in 2016 to allow for casinos outside of Atlantic City and it went down in a landslide, by a 77-23 margin.

Racing at Monmouth Park | Sarah Andrew

With just one more day of racing--Friday night at the Meadowlands--left on the 2026 Jersey racing calendar, the TDN reached out to Dennis Drazin, who heads the management team that runs Monmouth, to get his views on the track's future. Here are the topics that the 74-year-old veteran executive Drazin covered:

(*) On whether or not voters, if given a chance, will approve a casino at the Monmouth: Drazin said the landscape has changed since 2016. He noted that New Jersey will soon be losing even more customers to a neighboring state once three casinos in New York City are all up and running. He also said that it will be essential for Monmouth, the Meadowlands and their political allies to push for measures that will benefit Atlantic City, as well as all New Jerseyans.

"Money will be constitutionally dedicated to go to Atlantic City," Drazin said. "(Meadowlands owner) Jeff Gural is the driving force behind that." Cont.

"He feels the license fee is a good place to start. He projects $50 million a year going to Atlantic City to support the debt service on whatever money they need to create the fixes that are necessary."

Money from the proposed new casinos, he said, must also be earmarked for such things as property tax relief.

"I hate to say this, but the public is not concerned about saving racing or saving the Atlantic City casinos," Drazin said. "What they are concerned about is property tax relief, affordability, savings when it comes to energy costs, and having money going toward children with disabilities."

(*) Legislation has already been introduced that, if passed, would put the casino question on the ballot, but Drazin believes the best strategy is to wait for 2028 before starting a major push to get it passed:

"2028 is not our first preference, but we have to be realistic," he said. "In 2027, all the legislators are up for re-election. Things can change, but right now leadership is not looking to put this question on the ballot next year."

(*) He is optimistic that if the casino question does get on the ballot that it will pass:

"We're convinced, from our polling, that it will pass," he said. "Our polling shows that 65-66 percent will be for it. But I know that there will be a lot of money spent, both for and against this."

(*) Among the few bright spots for Monmouth of late has been the GI Haskell Stakes, which continues to draw top 3-year-olds and is a major event on the Jersey Shore: But even that is now in jeopardy thanks to the creation of the NYRA-Churchill Downs Thoroughbred Championship Series, which does not include the Haskell. Drazin said he will work toward maintaining the Haskell's status as marquee race.

The Meadowlands | Sarah Andrew

"The new six-race series put together by NYRA and Churchill obviously hurts the Haskell," he said. "We weren't thrilled to see that, and neither was Maryland or Pennsylvania. But we'll figure it out. Maybe I will put together some sort of big bonus that will include races like the Travers, the Breeders' Cup and (Monmouth's) the Pegasus. The Haskell is an event and will continue to be an event."

(*) With no help on the way for 2027, Monmouth will face many of the same issues that hampered its meet this year: Drazin believes that a shorter meet might help with field size and also holds out hope that some of the Mid-Atlantic tracks might work in conjunction with Monmouth to form a circuit. He said that the 2027 Monmouth meet will be cut from 50 days to 44. There will also be nine days of all-turf racing at the Meadowlands. Convincing horsemen to approve a shorter meet is a tough ask.

"There are horsemen who are happy with smaller purses and more days. We have this battle all the time," he said.

(*) Then there's the doomsday question: what if the effort to get a casino fails? Can Monmouth survive?

"If we don't get a casino and we don't transition to and get historical racing, we will continue to offer somewhere in the range of the days we're currently doing for less purse money. I mean, that's the only answer I have for you," Drazin said.

(*) Will that work? Drazin said that it will have to, that he will never allow Monmouth to close:

"I've constantly said, 'I'm not going to let Monmouth die on my watch.' So I keep losing money. I keep injecting my own money into the operation in order to keep it going. At this point in time, I'm committed to continuing to do that. Not to be grim, but if I die, I don't know what happens because someone else isn't going to pick up and do this. But as long as I'm alive, I'm committed to making this work. I've tried a number of things over the years, like exchange wagering and fixed odds wagering. What is going on here, it's not for a lack of trying. Getting a casino, that's really the solution. When people ask what the future plan is, we'll continue to make it a go the best we can if we don't get casino revenue. But getting a casino, that's the overall answer."

TIME TO DAZZLE REPEATS IN THE FRANKLIN

Time to Dazzle (outside) | Coady Media

by Stefanie Grimm

Time to Dazzle (Not This Time) came flying down the center of the Keeneland turf course Sunday to successfully defend her crown and win the GII Franklin Stakes for the second year running.

Unable to find the winner's circle since this race one year ago, the Mark Casse runner was coming into form at the right time, entered Sunday off a pair of back to back runner-up efforts in both the GIII Hendrie Stakes on the Tapeta at Woodbine July 25 and most recently in the GI Ladies Turf Sprint at Kentucky Downs Aug. 29, an effort which netted her her best Beyer Speed Figure (93) since her Franklin win in 2025.

Racing over a course labeled as yielding for the first time in her career, Time to Dazzle broke with the leaders but was quickly taken in hand by jockey Irad Ortiz Jr. and dropped to the back, outrunning only Movin' On Up (Accelerate) as longshot Itzel (Mo Town) opened up a clear advantage up front through the first quarter in :22.47.

Racing sixth of the seven onto the far turn, the 2-1 favorite still had plenty to do with Itzel hitting the quarter pole still alone on the lead and only Kehoe Beach (Omaha Beach) moving on the wet course to make a run.

Still sixth inside the furlong marker, Time to Dazzle was absolutely motoring home, running up into third with less than a sixteenth to go while Kehoe Beach and Itzel both desperately sought the wire. Able to get up in time, the favorite got there when it mattered, denying Kehoe Beach by a bob of the head as Itzel settled for third in a final time of 1:04.52.

"The ground was a little soft, so I just wanted to give her a chance and try to make a run at the end; hopefully, they'd come back to me," Ortiz said. "She broke so good. I just waited (for) my time, trying to relax. On the turn I had to wait a little longer, but she got there. She did a great job. When I tipped her out, she gave me a good kick turning for home. Especially on this ground--a little soft, it's hard to have that kind of turn of foot, but she did and I knew we had every chance to get there."

"(One reason she likes Keeneland so much is that) she's about five miles from home, so she's wanting to go home, I think, but she loves it here and this is her weather," added winning owner Tracy Farmer. "It's wonderful to win a race at Keeneland. She does it that way (from well off the pace) all the time, but it makes you nervous. She's a wonderful filly."

Pedigree Note:

One of 79 stakes winners for leading general sire Not This Time, Time to Dazzle was purchased by Tracy Farmer for $310,000 as a yearling at Keeneland September in 2022. She is a half-sister to a pair of Louisiana-breds in Sir Genghis (Tale of the Cat), who banked north of a half-million and several stakes wins across the state, along with stakes-placed Holiday Song (Harlan's Holiday). First dam Staria, who has four winners from six to the track, has one graded-stakes winning half-sibling in Patience Game (Woodman). Time to Dazzle is Staria's last reported foal.

BREEDERS' CUP PREP CONTINUES AT BELMONT FOR FOREVER YOUNG

Reigning Eclipse-winning Older Dirt Horse Forever Young (Jpn) (Real Steel {Jpn}) continued his preparation for a return tilt in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 31 with a half-mile breeze at Belmont Park Sunday morning.

Working solo with assistant trainer Yuki Araki aboard, Japan's Horse of the Year went four furlongs in :51 4/5 (37/38), with NYRA clockers capturing him through splits of :13 4/5 and :38 flat.

Araki opted to let Forever Young roll a bit more Sunday ahead of anticipated poor weather later in the day and through the upcoming week.

"I decided to breeze a little bit stronger than we planned before. It's good," Araki said. "When I asked him, he reacted really well and showed a turn of foot--a little bit, but I asked only a little bit. He's following our orders well. He's done well."

Forever Young will have one more breeze at Belmont in a week's time before shipping to Kentucky on Oct. 20 to train with stablemate and GI Breeders' Cup Sprint contender American Stage (Into Mischief).

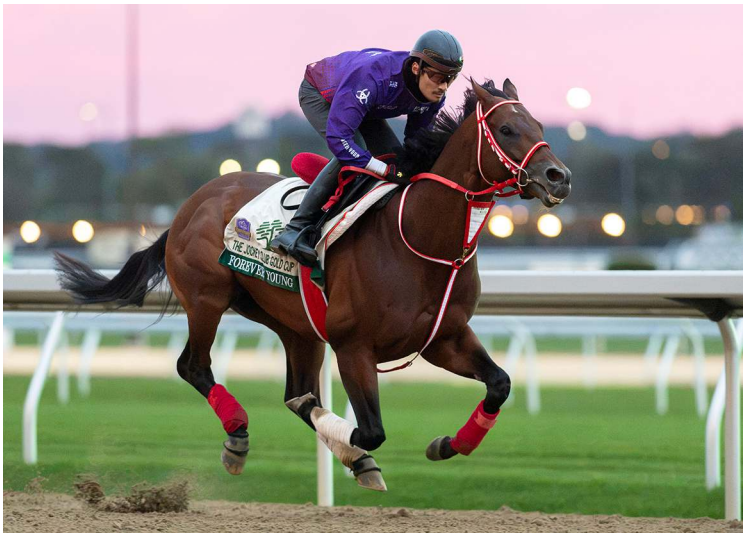

"At Keeneland--planning to do an even pace [open gallop] same thing we did last week on Saturday or Sunday," Araki said. "We will do the final breeze out on Wednesday, with jockey--and probably we will bring American Stage and do it together."

Joining Forever Young in his Classic prep Sunday was Phileas Fogg (Astern {Aus}) who went out for trainer Gustavo Rodriguez, working five furlongs in 1:00.60 (2/11).

"I loved what I saw, and Kendrick [Carmouche] was very happy with the way he worked," Rodriguez said. "Everything is good and if he stays healthy, we are going [to the Breeders' Cup]. The way he worked today, I love what I saw."

It was Phileas Fogg's second work back since running fourth in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Sept. 18.

GRADE I WINNER TOM'S D'ETAT PASSES

by Bill Finley

Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike), who won three graded stakes races, including the 2019 GI Clark Stakes as a 7-year-old, has passed away. The news was reported via X by Greg Bensel, who oversees and manages the GMB Racing stable, which campaigned the earner of $1,762,272. Tom's d'Etat was 13.

Bensel's tweet read: "Sad news @GMBRacing Tom's d'Etat passed away after a brief illness. Winner the G1 Clark, G2 Stephen Foster, G2 Fayette Stakes, Alydar Stakes at Saratoga and Tenacious Stakes at Fairgrounds - 11 wins from 20 starts. A special thanks to Al Stall, Jay Adcock and @WinStar Farm."

Tom's d'Etat, who was trained by Al Stall Jr., won 11 of 20 starts, including six stakes races. His other graded wins came in the 2019 GII Fayette Stakes and the 2020 GII Stephen Foster Stakes.

He began his stud career in 2021 at WinStar Farm and remained there until 2025. He moved to Louisiana's Red River Farm for the 2026 breeding season.

As a stallion, he sired 71 winners to date including five stakes winners and one graded stakes winner in Take Charge Tom.

He was a $330,000 purchase at the 2014 Keeneland September yearling sale.

ARMY MULE

2027 Stud Fee: $25,000 LFSN

NEW STAKES WINNER

After a resounding 11 3/4-length debut maiden victory where she earned the highest Beyer for a 2YO at Woodbine this year, LAMIRADA continued to announce herself as a star in the making by dominating her rivals yet again to score an 8 1/4-length victory as the favorite in Sunday's $143,000 Glorious Song Stakes at Woodbine.

Under wraps at the wire, the Army Mule filly stopped the timer in a blazing 1:21.29– the fastest seven furlongs clocked at the meet by a juvenile and faster than the Display Stakes for colts earlier on the card by more than a second.

Named for Windfields' Hall of Famer, the race has historically been a stepping stone to Championship honors.

Although she faded in the stretch after setting the pace in the Sept. 12 GI Natalma Stakes on the grass, the public remembered Lamirada's maiden special weight tour de force going six furlongs on the all-weather surface Aug. 8 when she left the field 11 3/4 lengths in her wake. The public made Lamirada the 3-5 pick Sunday in the seven-furlong Glorious Song Stakes and she rewarded her backers with a performance reminiscent of her debut.

At the break, Lamirada burst out of her outside stall, but From Time to Time (Not This Time) was a bit quicker to the early lead from the inside. Lamirada, a Mark Dodson homebred, joined her rival, toying with her briefly as she pulled alongside to stick her head in front at the :22.29 first quarter.

With regular rider Fraser Aebly keeping a tight hold, Lamirada had two lengths on Madeleine Swann (Girvin) and From Time to Time at the :44.87 half, and then pulled away effortlessly to cross the wire 8 1/4 lengths the best while geared down. Epic Affair followed in second. Lamirada's 1:21.29 time for the seven furlongs was a full second faster than the boys went in the Display Stakes one race earlier.

A half to MSW & GSP Notorious Gangster (Classic Empire) from the same family as GISW Evita Argentina (Candy Ride {Arg}) and GSW Money Supply (Practical Joke), Lamirada has a yearling half-sister by Complexity who sold to CJ Thoroughbreds at Keeneland September for $200,000. Her dam produced a Life Is Good filly this year and was bred back to Flightline. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

Margins: 5 3/4, HD, 12HF. Odds: 1.35, 1.45, 4.40.
Also Ran: Unbridled Freedom. Scratched: Quipster.

D. J. Stables LLC's Odenkirk captured Sunday's Display Stakes at Woodbine for 2-year-olds over seven furlongs on the synthetic to stay unbeaten after a slight delay when Quipster (Practical Joke) acted up in the gate. The field was backed out as Quipster was evaluated and scratched, then reloaded with Odenkirk--favored at 6-5--hightailing it out of the stalls after exchanging a bump with Uncle Dodo to his outside. The bay showed the way through :23.37 and :46.58 quarters before kicking clear in the stretch for a facile win by 5 3/4 lengths. Uncle Dodo, winner of the Victoria Stakes July 12, rallied from last to score runner-up honors by a head over Verge (Vino Rosso). Odenkirk got the seven furlongs in 1:22.30.

Odenkirk's only previous start resulted in a 1 3/4-length Woodbine maiden special weight win Sept. 26 going six furlongs on the turf.

Odenkirk's dam is a half to GISW Hard Aces (Hard Spun) and to 2026 GIII Prioress Stakes winner and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Mashallah (Maxfield). She has a yearling filly by Midshipman and was covered by Sergei Prokofiev for next term.

The King of Louisiana kept his crown firmly affixed to his head with a stylish win in the Gold Cup Stakes Saturday night at Delta Downs.

Touchuponastar has won 22 of 30 lifetime starts, counting this victory, and has claimed 17 consecutive races against fellow Louisiana-breds. Despite being the elder statesman of this group, Touchuponastar is in the best form of his career on paper--his last eight triple-digit Beyers came in 2026 or 2025. He won the GII New Orleans Classic two back Mar. 21 to garner a 106 and was last seen producing an uncharacteristically flat effort to run fourth in the GIII Steve Sexton Mile at Lone Star.

Touchuponastar | Hodges Photography

Bet like he couldn't lose here, Touchuponastar left the blocks as the overwhelming 1-9 favorite and was content to cruise along from the outside of two rivals who were keen for the lead. Sailing to the head of affairs on the far turn, he was barely out of a canter as the field desperately tried to reel him in and strolled home a clear winner over 100-1 wild longshot Tdzshininluckystar. Sippin On Gin got up late for third.

The victor casts a looming shadow as he is far and away the most accomplished runner for the dam. He has a half-brother, 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Voila Magic (Volatile), with black type and they are the only two of her offspring to claim any thus far. Touch Magic has a juvenile filly by Maxfield named Magic Max in the wings as well as a yearling filly by Flightline and a 2026 full-sister to Touchuponastar. The broodmare was bred to Mindframe for 2027. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

LISA JOY (GB) (f, 3, Too Darn Hot {GB}--Royal Decree, by Street Cry {Ire}), winner of the very first race at the new Belmont Park Sept. 18, switched from turf to Tapeta Sunday to make it two in a row. After breaking nicely, she settled midpack between horses behind Dividend Recap (Summer Front)'s :26.60 and :53.23 pedestrian early fractions. Second choice as 2-1, Lisa Joy eventually landed in a close third under a tight hold on the rail as Dividend Recap continued to show the way. When a hole opened off the final turn, Lisa Joy set her sights on the leader, reeling her in gradually. The Andrew Rosen homebred got up in time to prove victorious by a neck. Previously trained by Ralph Beckett in Britain, Lisa Joy has been in Shug McGaughey's barn since this spring. A half to Skims (GB) (Frankel {GB}), GSW-USA, GSP-Can, $426,685; and to War Decree (War Front), GSW-Eng, GSW-Ire, $312,212; Lisa Joy also has a 2-year-old half-brother by Frankel (GB) and a yearling full-brother. FLEETFOOT MAC (c, 2, Maclean's Music--Fascination, by Into Mischief) stepped out to lead as the 3-2 favorite and set a pressured pace through :22.90 and a half in :46.58. Shaking clear of Steve Wood (Maximus Mischief), who played the longtime shadow in this debut, Fleetfoot Mac shook clear of the field in the lane to win by 1 3/4 lengths. The victor is the first to the races for Fascination and has a yearling half-sister by Jack Christopher in the wings. She was bred to Sierra Leone for 2027. JOZEMPIC (g, 3, Practical Joke--Taylor A. Little J, by Medaglia d'Oro) was sent away in this sloppy Keeneland night cap carrying 4-1 odds, and ran to his looks with a strong late rally.

Cont.

Tracking the action up front from midpack, the gelding tried to push the issue from the outside, but had a rival even farther out take his lane coming off the turn. Forced to re-rally at the furlong grounds after going six wide, he overhauled We Be Mischief (Into Mischief) and expanded his advantage to 2 1/4 lengths on the line.

The victor is the second winner from two to make the races for Taylor A. Little J, who hails from the immediate female family of GSW & MGISP Super Espresso (Medaglia d'Oro)--herself the mother of MSW & MGSP Eamonn (Pioneerof the Nile). ZOMORODA (f, 2, Corniche--Over Emphasize {MGSP, $109,745}, by Overanalyze), sent at 10-1 for her first go after working steadily since August, kept close in fourth as Breaker (Into Mischief) showed the way through a :22.09 first quarter. Advancing on the turn with good energy, Zomoroda swung about five paths wide, hooked up with Aerial Affair (Flightline), and battled down the stretch all the way to the wire. Despite swapping to her wrong lead, Zomoroda edged clear late for a one-length victory. The 'insighted' Cornichiwa (Corniche) and Peaceably (Epicenter) finished fourth and fifth, respectively. The winner's dam has a yearling filly by Constitution who sold to Grassroots Training and Sales for $80,000 at the recent Keeneland September sale. Straight to the front, he showed the way through :23.34 and :47.17 fractions and never wavered, pulling away down the stretch with a few right-handed reminders to win by five lengths. Samaritan Trail (Connect) closed from midpack at 28-1 to win the race for second. MISS TWITTER (f, 3, Not This Time--Tigress Tale, by Tale of the Cat) produced a pair of thirds at Saratoga this past August--on debut Aug. 5 over the main track and Aug. 30 when trying grass for the first time. She was made the 6-5 favorite for this third jump and despite the racing being rained off the lawn to the synthetic track, got the job done at third-asking. Breaking well to stalk from second as the leader set uncontested fractions, she took over while coming four wide into the lane and edged clear of Legal Squeeze (Tiz the Law) to win by three lengths.

The victress is the most recent to the races for Tigress Tale. She's a half-sister to Empress Tigress (Classic Empire), SW, $167,763, whose first of racing age is a juvenile named Tigresa (Charlatan), and has another sister who is a winner producer in Chile. Miss Twitter has a yearling half-sister by Golden Pal in the wings as well as a 2026 half-brother by Blazing Sevens. Their dam, a half to GSW & MGISP Stays in Vegas (City Zip), went back to Golden Pal for 2027. Sales history: $250,000 Wlg '23 KEENOV; $350,000 RNA Ylg '24 KEESEP; $170,000 Ylg '24 FTKOCT. ASSET LIGHT (f, 3, Into Mischief--Vaudevillian, by Distorted Humor) hit the board twice in her last three starts, twice on the grass at both the sprint and 1 1/16-miles distances, and skipped over the slop here to break her maiden in dominating style. Out well to set an uncontested pace, Asset Light rolled into the lane on a clear advantage over her three rivals that steadily increased until she hit the wire 18 1/4 lengths to the good of Fairy Tale (Vekoma), who was best of the rest.

Asset Light is the second winner from three to the races for her dam, whose youngest is an unplaced juvenile in Japan named Regarder (Munnings). SIP IT (c, 2, Greatest Honour--Dirty Shame, by Aeneas) proved his disastrous first start was a fluke with this second try Sunday. First facing the starter Aug. 23 going 5 1/2 furlongs at Ellis Park, he hit the gate at the start hard enough to knock his rider out of his irons. Pulled up and walked off that day, Sip It made the most of his second chance Sunday, despite the public sending him at 20-1. Cont.

Greatest Honour | Spendthrift Farm

He broke smoothly, settling midpack and in the clear in the extremely strung-out field. Jimmy's Winchester (Golden Pal) showed the way through :21.25 and :44.14 fractions before surrendering as Sip It was tipping out off the turn. Green but good, Sip It came flying down the middle of the lane, complete with lugging in and hanging on his wrong lead, but he ran down the late leader Ocean Club (Ire) (Persian Force {Ire}) for a three-quarter length triumph. Sip It is his dam's last reported living foal. Sales History: $15,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP; $65,000 2yo '26 OBSMAR. 'NOT A BAD BATCH, IS IT?' - HASCOMBE AND VALIANT ENJOYING BANNER YEAR FOR BOOK 2 GRADUATES

By Adam Houghton

The October chill in Newmarket has already brought with it a couple of results to warm the soul for the team at Anthony Oppenheimer's Hascombe and Valiant Stud, with perhaps the most unexpected coming at Pardubice on Sunday when the 10-year-old gelding Final Orders (Camelot) negotiated 31 formidable obstacles to win the Velka Pardubicka.

From a Dewhurst winner one day to the winner of the Czech Republic's most famous race the next, it seems that Camelot can do it all, likewise the team at Hascombe and Valiant, overseeing a Flat-breeding operation that has also enjoyed success in more familiar territory over the past few days.

On Wednesday, there was the knockout result achieved by one member of the seven-strong draft sent to Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, with the Night Of Thunder colt consigned as lot 189 being knocked down to Godolphin for 1.5 million gns. Then, just two days later, it was the turn of homebred Night Of Thunder filly Song Of The Clouds to impress, this time on the racecourse as she showcased her Group 1 potential for next year in winning the G3 Pride Stakes. Cont. p3

SAXON WARRIOR'S WESTERN ROUTS WINTERFAVORITEN RIVALS IN STYLE AT COLOGNE By Sean Cronin

Trainer Henk Grewe annexed Cologne's G3 Wettstar Preis des Winterfavoriten with Rubaiyat in 2019 and Sea Bay in 2021 and made it a hat-trick of triumphs in Germany's premier juvenile contest when Western (Saxon Warrior) overpowered four rivals in imperious fashion.

"He is a fantastic horse and it is a great joy to ride him every morning," said winning rider Thore Hammer-Hansen. "There are only a few horses in my life that are really close to my heart. Flatten The Curve and Assistent are among them, and Western is now part of that group."

Grewe added, "He is a completely different horse at home and he really seems to know when things are getting serious. He will end his season here and we are now done for this year."

Now, all eyes are on Park Paddocks for Book 2, the sale where another son of Night Of Thunder found his way into the Godolphin fold after being purchased for 340,000gns in 2022. Consigned by James Hanly's Ballyhimikin Stud, said colt is better known today as Ombudsman, arguably Night Of Thunder's best son, with a fifth Group 1 victory in his sights when he lines up in Saturday's Qatar Racing Champion Stakes at Ascot.

In the meantime, 809 lots are catalogued to go through the ring at Park Paddocks during the latest edition of Book 2, including three in a small but select team from Hascombe and Valiant, bidding to keep the hot streak going.

"Book 1 can be tough at times," stud secretary Fiona McGlone says of last week's three-day extravaganza. "We were lucky and, in fairness to Sheikh Mohammed, he's a great supporter of Book 1. Without him, we'd be lost. We brought two home [from Book 1], but we were happy to bring them home and the Night Of Thunder was obviously fantastic. Fingers crossed for this week--we're hopeful that we'll have another good week."

Both McGlone and stud groom James Frank single out lot 789 as their best hope of hitting the heights again over the next three days. The Mostahdaf colt is a half-brother to the G3 Oh So Sharp Stakes heroine Calendar Girl (Advertise), who narrowly missed out on Group 1 black type when last seen finishing fourth in the Sun Chariot Stakes at Newmarket.

Calendar Girl, of course, is herself a previous Book 2 graduate, having sold to Lillingston Bloodstock for 45,000gns in 2024 when part of a five-strong draft from Hascombe and Valiant. Remarkably, also among that number was this year's GI Belmont Derby winner Title Role (Too Darn Hot), bought by Blandford Bloodstock for 90,000gns, and the G2 Ribblesdale Stakes heroine Earth Shot (Time Test), who was purchased by Jill Lamb Bloodstock for the same sum.

"Not a bad batch, is it?" says McGlone with a smile, with Frank adding, "I remember when we brought Calendar Girl here, people were looking at her and thinking, 'Will she be a racehorse?' I kept on telling people that she lunged very well. It was quite nice for Luke [Lillingston] to buy her and she's doing wonders for the owners. It's a young family and I think the dam is doing very well.

"The Mostahdaf half-brother [to Calendar Girl] is a lovely colt. We think he's our main horse for Book 2, really. The Cracksman that we've got is a very nice looking horse and we've got a nice Blue Point filly. She's big and strong with a nice long stride. Hopefully, we can have another week like last week."

In truth, the three yearlings from Hascombe and Valiant catalogued to sell at Book 2 have what would seem an impossible act to follow in the shape of the Night Of Thunder colt out of Purple Ribbon (Gleneagles), one of 17 millionaires sold at Book 1.

"We thought we had a special one but, if you asked us two weeks ago, we probably didn't expect to get that much," Frank says of that result. "But he was a nice horse and, every time we pulled him out, people would just look at him and go, 'Wow, you've got a good one there.' It was really nice for the farm and everybody concerned."

"Mr Oppenheimer is still as enthusiastic as ever," adds McGlone. "He puts a lot in, is very invested in it and loves his mares."

Certainly, Oppenheimer and his team are entitled to have an extra spring in their step following the Pride display of Song Of The Clouds, who is now the winner of three of her four career starts. Friday's black-type breakthrough at Newmarket was particularly poignant for all concerned following the loss of her dam, Token Of Love (Cape Cross), earlier this year.

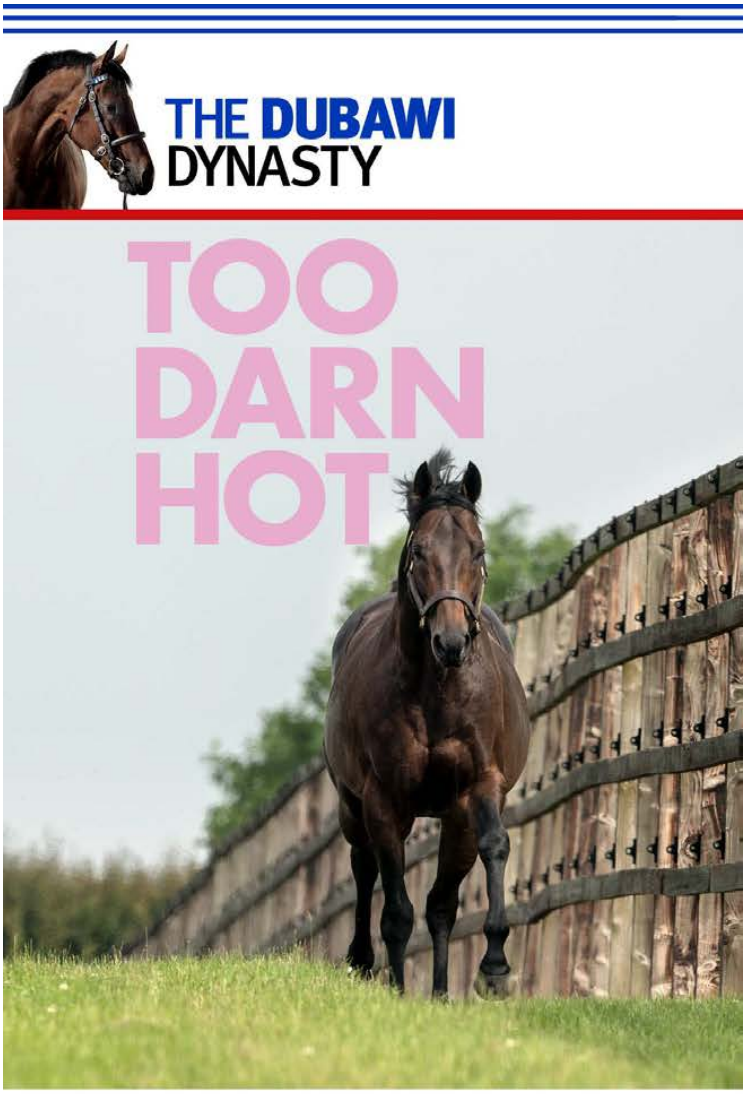

"We always had high hopes for her," Frank says of the William Haggas trainee. "We thought at one stage that we were going to bring her to the sales. But, if we did, we might not have had her winning for us yesterday. She's a lovely filly, a big Night Of Thunder.

"The mare [Token Of Love], I adored her. She was probably one of my favourite mares because, when I started at Hascombe, she was a two- or three-year-old. She came back into our yard from William Haggas for a rest and I just adored her. She was my mare. Seeing her die, when she coliced and it went from there, it was quite painful. So, it's nice to see something out of her doing very well."

McGlone adds of Song Of The Clouds, "She's a beautiful filly. I think the plan is that she stays in training next year, so there's hopefully more to come from her."

Earlier on Friday's Newmarket card, there was another winner who offered plenty to work on for the future in the two-year-old Mussab, who completed a hat-trick when landing the G3 Cornwallis Stakes for Richard and Peter Fahey and owner Sheikh Abdullah Almalek Alsabah.

In victory, Mussab became the first Group winner bought by former jockey Sebastian Woods, who last year purchased the son of Ten Sovereigns for just 5,000gns at Book 3. He later changed hands for 52,000gns when offered through EMW Equine at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-up Sale.

That Mussab has gone on to prove such a talented performer for the Faheys has a nice symmetry to it, with Woods having been apprenticed to the Malton stable before hanging up his riding boots in 2021, having ridden 47 winners on the Flat in Britain.

"I'm still pinching myself now," Woods says of Friday's result. "I always knew that he was quite nice and I was just glad to see him get his head in front for the Faheys and for the owners as well. It means the world because they were so good to me and they gave me a hell of a lot of very good opportunities. It's nice for them to buy one of my horses that has gone on to do big things--and I don't think we've really seen the best of him, either. He had a sidewind to deal with at Newmarket and he was drawn 1, so he got the worst of it."

Explaining what first drew him to Mussab when the colt appeared at Book 3, Woods continues, "He was very raw, so he slipped through the cracks, I think, for most people's lists. But, even with that rawness, he still ticked a lot of the boxes. He had a nice length of rein and he walked well. He had a good mind, with a strong hip and shoulder--everything that you look for in a nice breezer.

"Ellie [Whitaker of EMW Equine] breaks in some of the yearlings for Sean [Woods, trainer and uncle of Sebastian]. I'd seen her breezers every year and she does a very good job. I knew that, if anybody could get the best out of him, in the small amount of time that they had, it would be her. There was just a question of whether he'd get in to the sale because of how cheap he was, but I was really pleased [with the result]."

He adds, "I was very happy that Pete bought him and for such a good price for him as well. Because of my time there, I knew that the horse would flourish with them. I'm over the moon for the owner and I wish them all the best in the future. He's my first Group winner and for him to go to the Breeders' Cup would be fantastic."

As well as being the nephew of Newmarket trainer Sean Woods, Sebastian is the son of Wendyll, who owns Brook Stud, situated just outside Newmarket, alongside his other brother, Dwayne.

According to Sebastian, it was always clear to him that his future would be in bloodstock once his career as a jockey came to an end, with the 27-year-old hoping to be busy over the next few days in his search for the next Mussab.

"I love it--it's nice to be able to eat and drink a little bit!" he says of his new role. "It's very different, but I always knew that it was going to be the future. Obviously, with Brook Stud and my family, it kind of fits in really nicely, being able to do this and at a young age. I also do a bit with Richard Ryan during the sales. He's brilliant and being able to learn from him is fantastic."

He adds of the yearling sale season so far, "Sean has bought a few, but we've not got any breezers just yet. We'll be looking to strike in Book 2 and Book 3.

"I think it's a good Book 2--there's a bit of everything for everyone. We're definitely looking for some smart types, for breezing and to go into training. Hopefully, we pick the right ones like we were lucky to do with him [Mussab]."

Book 2 gets underway at 10am on Monday, with two further sessions beginning at the same time on Tuesday and Wednesday. Book 3, meanwhile, has 507 yearlings catalogued and will take place on Thursday and Friday, beginning at 9.30am both days. Book 4 is made up of 61 yearlings and will commence immediately after Book 3 concludes on Friday.

Grewe continued, "The [G1 Deutsches] Derby is the main goal next year, but which route we take there has to be yet decided."

The Eckhard Sauren-owned €100,000 BBAG graduate made a stylish winning debut at Munich in July, his only prior start, and shadowed the leader in second for most of this one-mile contest.

Asked to stretch soon after turning for home, the even-money favourite swept by the pacesetting Taylor Made (Rubaiyat) approaching the final quarter-mile and thundered clear of that rival under minimal urging in the closing stages to hit the line with a 6 1/2-length buffer. Gokturk (City Light) made some late headway to finish 3/4-of-a-length back in third.

Pedigree Notes

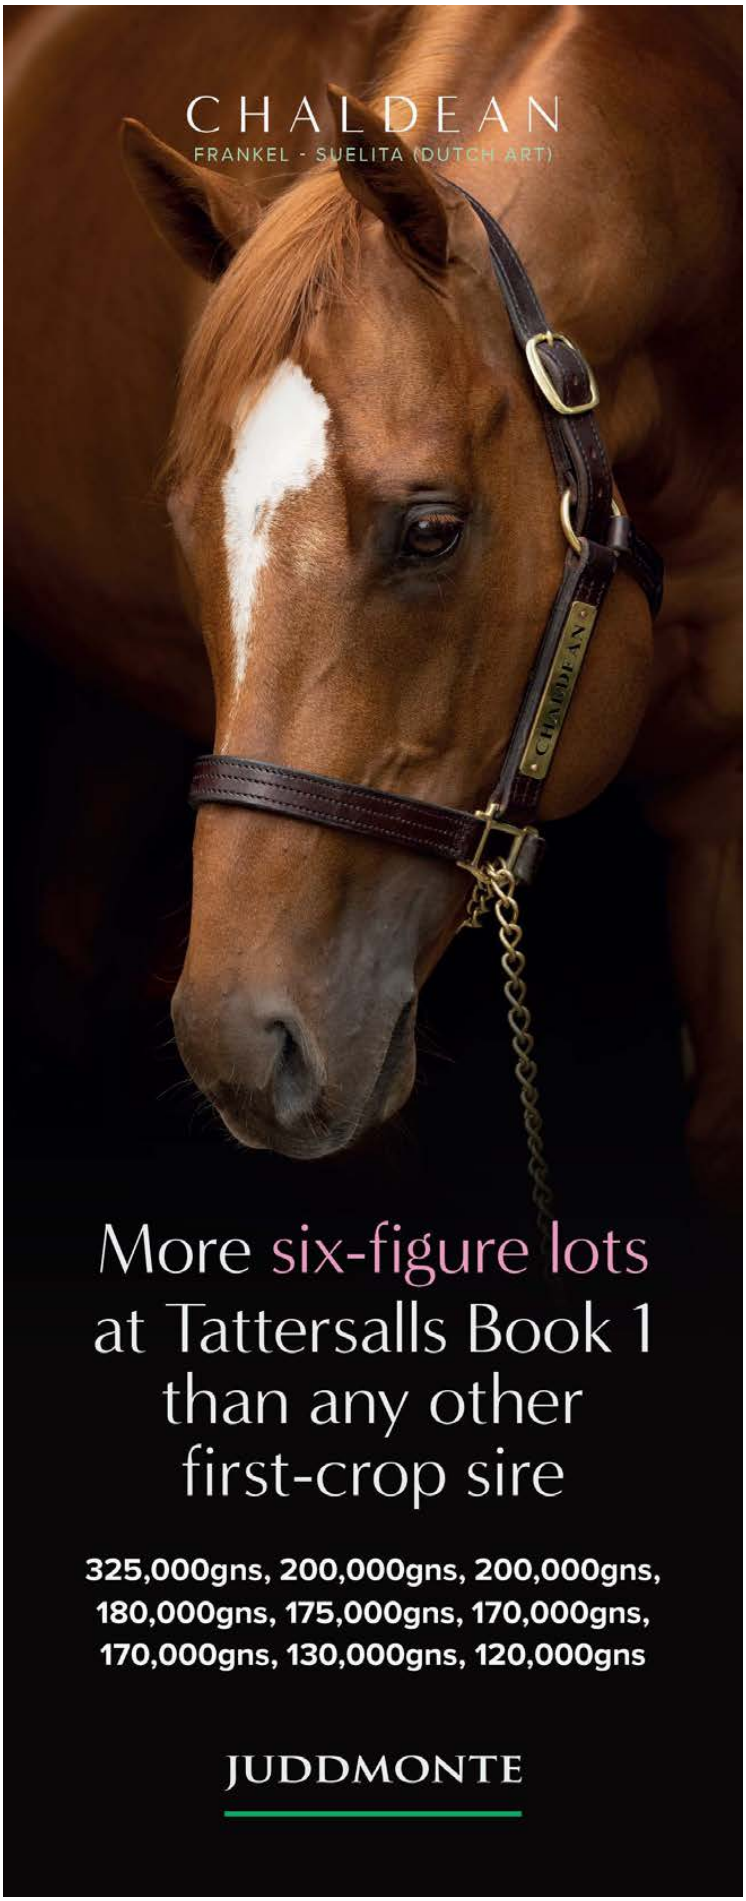

Western becomes the 13th Group-race winner for his sire and is the second stakes scorer produced by a half-sister to G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Wild Coco (Shirocco), G2 Diana Trial second Weltmacht (Mount Nelson), the multiple Group-placed Wilddrossel (Dalakhani) and the Listed-placed Wild Silva (Silvano).

Weltmacht's trio of black-type performers is headed by Group 3-winning G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Wagnis (Adlerflug), while Wild Silva is the dam of Listed Grand Prix La Ville de Nantes third Weetamoo (Le Havre).

Western, whose second dam is G2 EuropaChampionat victrix Wild Side (Sternkonig), is a half-brother to Listed Baden-Baden Diana-Trial victrix Wild Gloria (Olympic Glory), a yearling colt by Victor Ludorum and a weanling colt by Iquitos.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

YOU CAN'T BE THE BEST IF YOU CAN'T RUN

By Patrick Cooper

Avec Gitane and Pastis, a bunch of youngsters are hanging out in a bar in Paris on the eve of the Arc.

"Mon Dieu, tomorrow is the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and it's the best race in the world, we must go. By the way, did you know the world champion racehorse is trained here in France?"

"Is he running then?" asks one of his companions.

"No, he can't, he is not eligible."

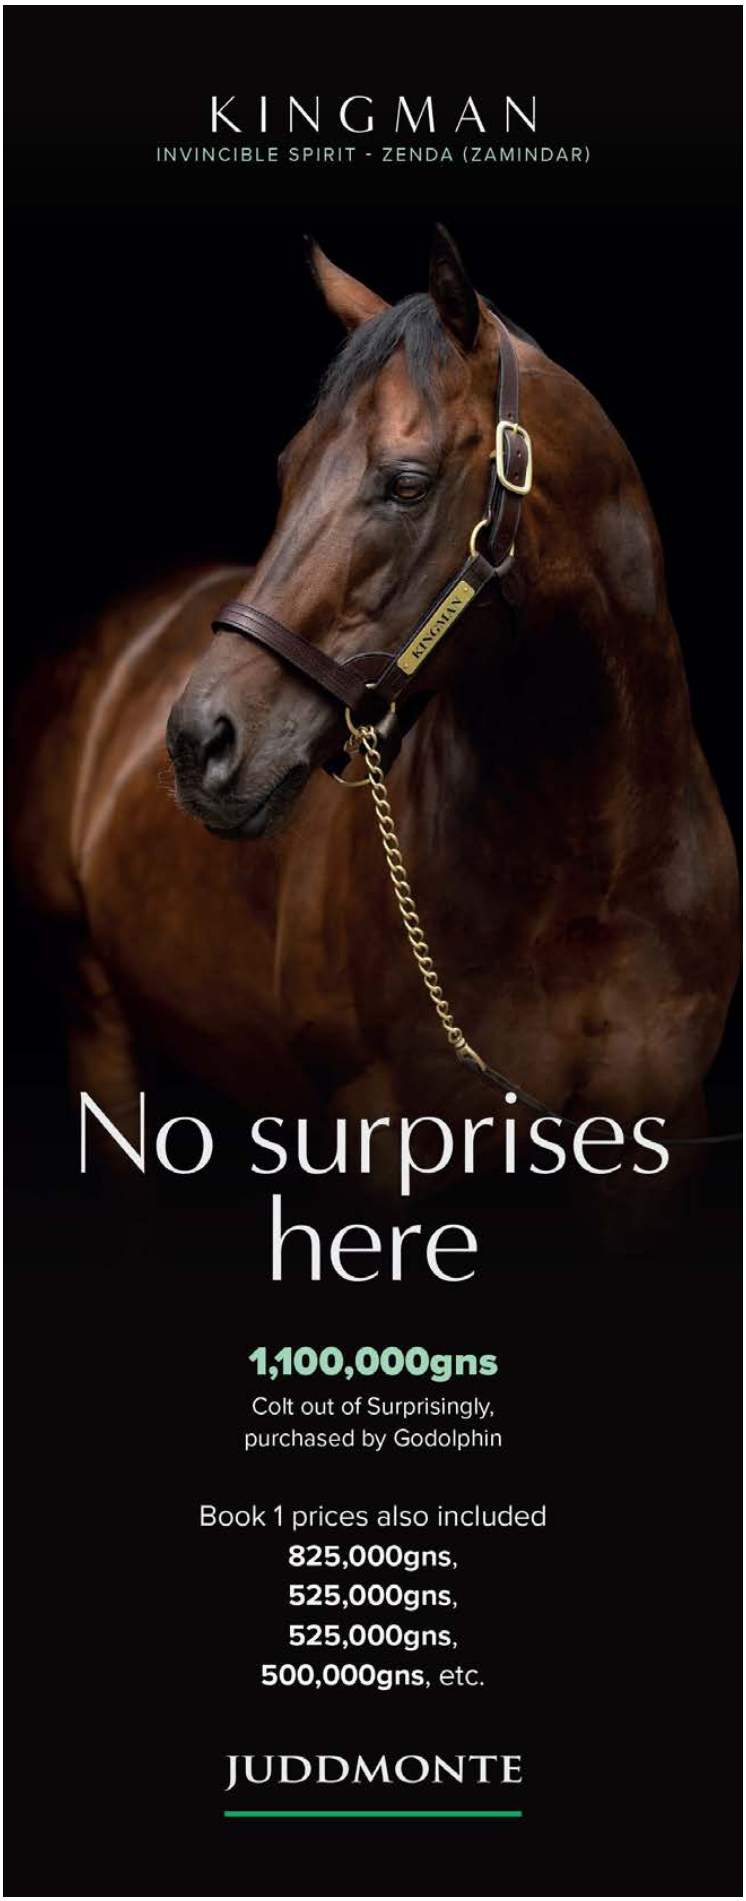

"Very strange, pourqois non?"

He shrugs. "Not really sure, something to do with his balls." They all collapse in fits of laughter and decide there is no point in going if they can't see the best of the best.

Speaking to the Racing Post ahead of what was looking like a vintage Juddmonte International, Aidan O'Brien said, "It's what the sport is all about, seeing horses like that take each other on." I couldn't agree with him more.

Well done Pimlico. Threatened with the demise of their flagship race, the Preakness Stakes, they have acted decisively.

Getting both the Governor and the state of Maryland to back them, they have shifted the date of the Preakness back a week in the hope of attracting the Kentucky Derby winner to run. They know they need the star power the Derby winner brings.

Meanwhile, back at the Curragh the Irish Derby is headed for a hat-trick of hat-tricks. It looks like being the third straight year that none of the first three home will win another race in the calendar year. Awful rubbish. Yet nothing gets done. No balls.

If we don't look after our racing fans by giving them the best entertainment we possibly can, then we are failing them. I bet you I am not the only tennis fan whose interest waned considerably this year when one or both of Alcaraz or Sinner couldn't play the majors.

It is the duty of the racing authorities and stadia in each jurisdiction to try to get the best racehorses to their best racecourses. It's what competition is all about. It's what the fans want.

Bravo, France Galop and the European Pattern Committee. You have had the balls to innovate, to try and improve. I think you are dead right.

DUAL CLASSIC-PLACED INIS MOR JOINS ALL-STAR CAST FOR TATTERSALLS SCEPTRE SESSIONS

The list of stars set to be offered at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale continues to grow, with the announcement that the G1 Irish Oaks runner-up and G1 Prix de Diane third Inis Mor (Galiway) will be offered as part of the Sceptre Sessions.

Trained by David Menuisier for Quantum Leap Racing, Inis Mor has been a model of consistency at a high level in 2026. The daughter of Galiway won the Listed Height of Fashion Stakes at Goodwood in May, beating the subsequent G2 Ribblesdale Stakes winner Earth Shot, before finishing a close third in the Prix de Diane at Chantilly behind Diamond Necklace. She then secured another Classic placing when second in the Irish Oaks at the Curragh--behind fellow Sceptre Sessions entry Johanna Walsh--and was last seen filling the runner-up spot again in the G3 Princess Royal Stakes at Newmarket.

Inis Mor | Racingfotos.com

Inis Mor is out of Mellow, a winning daughter of Deep Impact and the dual Grade I winner Harmonious (Dynaformer). She possesses an official rating of 109.

Syndicate manager Niall O'Connor said, "Inis Mor has given our partners some fantastic days out over the past two years all over Europe, and it has been a great thrill to see her placed in both the French and Irish Oaks." Cont. p11

He continued, "She looks a filly of exceptional potential and will, in time, make a wonderful broodmare for any breeding operation."

Tattersalls managing director Matthew Prior added, "The list of exceptional fillies and mares catalogued for the Tattersalls December Mares Sale continues to grow, and Inis Mor is an exciting addition to the Sceptre Sessions. Quantum Leap Racing are no strangers to the sale, having sold Tamfana last year, and it is a wonderful achievement for the syndicate to have another filly of such ability. We look forward to showcasing her to leading names in the racing and breeding world."

ONLINE GAMBLING EXPECTED TO REMAIN UNAFFECTED BY EU BUDGET NEGOTIATIONS

Dr Paull Khan | Paulo Savio

The European and Mediterranean Horseracing Federation (EMHF) and the European Trotting Union (UET) have welcomed the Irish Presidency's decision to leave online gambling out of the EU budget negotiating box.

"We welcome the Irish Presidency's decision," said Dr Paull Khan, CEO of the EMHF. "Horse racing is financed by legal betting and an additional tax would have pushed customers towards illegal operators, reducing revenue for governments and racing alike and leaving consumers with less protection.

"But this threat has not gone away completely. We will continue to urge policymakers to carry out a product-specific assessment of the effects of any extra taxation on legitimate horserace betting on Member State tax receipts, racing funding, consumer protection and financial crime."

It is now very unlikely that online gambling will be reinstated in this round of the EU's 2028-2034 Multiannual Financial Framework (MFF) negotiations. Cont. p12

However, the principle still has considerable support in the European Parliament which, although it does not have the final say, remains an influential voice.

Dr Peter Truzla, president of the UET, added, "Trotting and gallop racing depend on regulated betting. It is important our organisations keep raising awareness of the long-term implications of such a policy and the disastrous effect it could have on horserace funding."

Sunday's Results:

2nd-Goodwood, £20,000, Novice, 10-11, 2yo, 6fT, 1:13.56, g/s. BRYNMAIR GOLD (GB) (c, 2, Lope Y Fernandez {Ire}--Always Dreaming {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), runner-up on debut at Kempton last month, showed speed from the outset. In command approaching the final furlong, the 5-6 favourite poured it on heading to the line to record an impressive seven-length success from Cornichon (Goken).

The winner is the second foal out of the dam, whose first was the Prix du Bois runner-up Ali Shuffle (A'Ali). A daughter of the dual Listed scorer and multiple Group-placed Along Came Casey (Oratorio), she is a half to the Group 3 winner Feliciana De Vega by Lope Y Fernandez's sire Lope De Vega and to this year's Empress Stakes winner Glorious Game (Pinatubo).

Also connected to the Challenge Stakes and Sceptre Stakes winner and 1,000 Guineas third Matilda Picotte (Sioux Nation), Always Dreaming's yearling colt is by Ardad.

Solid at this level and the next one up, Princess Child kicked off a stakes double for her all-conquering stable to add to her Fairy Bridge success from last year. Needing every yard of the trip, she overhauled Juddmonte's Faiyum close home with jockey Joey Sheridan among her biggest fans.

"She's extremely tough and honest, she has a lovely attitude and ground it out at the end," he said. "I'm delighted for Janine [Byrne], it's great for her. She loves her horses."

The unraced dam, a half to the Group 3 winner Chilean (Iffraaj) from the family of the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup-placed Lindy (Le Havre), has a yearling colt by Ace Impact heading to the Arqana Deauville October Sale and a filly foal also by that sire.

Another for Owning Hill, John Farrell's homebred Snapretend was one of the least-expected of the stable's contingent but managed to better three previous placings at this level when warding off her favoured stablemate Beset.

Jockey Jamie Powell, who had partnered Bamako Beach to Listed success on Saturday, said, "She was just always lugging out a little bit to her right, but she's very genuine and she kept coming in the straight. She loves the slow ground."

The dam is a half to the multiple Listed winner and dual Group-placed Snapraeterea (Buratino) and the dual Group 3-placed Snapraeceps (Canford Cliffs). From the family of the Breeders' Cup Turf and Champion Stakes hero and sire Kalanisi (Doyoun), Pedisnap's unraced two-year-old filly by Ghaiyyath is named Fire In The Air, while she also has a yearling colt by Naval Crown and a filly foal by Sioux Nation.

Sent up the rail to take command with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the €55,000 Tattersalls Ireland September purchase was strong to the line to score by six lengths from Banks Of The Boyne (Space Traveller).

"She was very good. She quickened up better than anything," Jessica Harrington said. "To win that race by six lengths is great. I'd say we'll put her away for the year. We'll talk to Patrick Cooper, who bought her, and see what happens. She got seven furlongs there and we might look at some sort of trial in the spring."

The unraced dam, whose daughter Sixteen Arches (Mehmas) was runner-up in the San Clemente Stakes, is a half to the Molecomb winner Tournedos (Rossini). Her yearling filly is by Good Guess.

In front overall inside the final furlong, the 3-1 joint-favourite had 2 1/4 lengths to spare over the far-side 'winner' Ita Florence (Sioux Nation) at the line.

"She came forward an awful lot from the first day and was very professional," jockey Joey Sheridan said. "She was there plenty soon. She was strong through the line and took a bit of pulling up. She really likes that ground as well."

The dam, who has a yearling full-sister to the winner to come, is a half to Cheveley Park and Flying Five heroine Fairyland (Kodiac) and to the dual Group winner and Irish 1,000 Guineas third Now Or Never (Bushranger), as well as the unraced dam of this year's Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes and Haydock Sprint Cup-winning sprint sensation Almeraq (Dark Angel). "He had a grand run the first day, came forward lovely the next day and jumped forward again. But that's what they have been doing from their first, to their second and their third," Aidan O'Brien said. "Ryan [Moore] really liked him. He was impressive. I think he'll go to seven and might get a mile next year. He's a lovely-natured horse."

The unraced dam, whose first foal Galleria Borghese (Caravaggio) took the Naas Oaks Trial and was third in the Blandford over middle distances, is a full-sister to Galileo's Racing Post Trophy hero Kingsbarns and a half to the graded stakes scorer Sweeter Still (Rock Of Gibraltar), who produced another winner of that Doncaster feature in Kameko (Kitten's Joy). Kameko, whose finest hour came when winning the 2,000 Guineas, is establishing his reputation as a young sire.

Also a half to the Group 3 winner Belle Artiste (Namid), she has a yearling filly by No Nay Never's son Little Big Bear and a colt foal by Wootton Bassett to follow.

QUESTA LUNA (GB) (f, 2, Sea The Moon {Ger}--Questabella {Ger}, by Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) followed the 'Asket' route in this debut and remained out wide, along with several others, before cutting across in fifth at the end of the back straight. Coaxed forward off the home turn, the 4-5 favourite quickened to challenge with a quarter-mile remaining and kept on strongly to easily assert superiority, hitting the line with 1 1/2 lengths to spare from Siel (Accon). Cont. p16
