GRADE I WINNER ENGLISHMAN RETIRED TO LANE'S END FOR 2027

Englishman | Sarah Andrew

Multiple Grade I winner Englishman (Maxfield--In It for the Gold, by Speightstown) has been retired from racing following a routine end of season vet exam, and will take up residence at Lane's End for the 2027 breeding season, the farm announced via press release Monday.

He will stand for $50,000 LFSN in 2027.

The decision to retire Englishman from racing was made following a routine end of season veterinary exam that revealed a flake in both ankles, which were subsequently removed.

He is anticipated to be available for inspection beginning the first week of December.

Campaigned by Lee and Susan Searing's C R K Stables LLC, the son of Maxfield garnered 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' honors on his debut September 2025 before going on a layoff until March of this year. Returning with another sensational performance at Fair Grounds against allowance company, he made his graded debut in the GII Pat Day Mile Stakes at Churchill Downs and after that runner-up effort, remained racing against elite-level company for the rest of the year.

CITING PROGRESS IN NEGOTIATIONS, HISA POSTPONES GRAMM HEARING by Bill Finley

A Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority hearing scheduled Monday that was slated to be the next chapter in the Marshall Gramm saga has been postponed. The order to postpone the hearing was posted on the HISA website Monday and was issued Friday and signed by Joe DeFrancis, the chair of the Board Panel and Racetrack Safety Committee.

According to the ruling, the decision to postpone the hearing was made because HISA and Gramm and his legal team have made a "good-faith effort to resolve this matter at mediation."

The date of the mediation sessions has not yet been determined. Gramm does not have to accept the mediator's ruling. If the mediation is unsuccessful, the matter will shift back to HISA and a new hearing before the HISA committee will be held.

The TDN reached out to both Gramm and DeFrancis and both declined to comment.

The Paulick Report was first with the story.

Adding runaway victories in the GI Woody Stephens Stakes and GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial Stakes to his resume, he made his career final start in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland Oct. 31 when running a valiant second to Japanese sensation T O Elvis (Volatile). He retires with a 6-4-2-0 record and $1,134,500 in earnings.

"Englishman is the fastest horse I've ever worked with," said trainer Cherie DeVaux. "When he gets into full stride, he is something to behold. I had an inkling of it when he first started training, but when he broke his maiden I knew the sky was the limit. That other worldly talent was evident in his Woody Stephens victory, and his win in the H. Allen Jerkens was special for so many reasons."

Englishman's dam, recently purchased at the Fasig-Tipton November sale for $2.1-million, is a daughter of MGISP All Due Respect (Value Plus). He is a half-brother to SP Thought Control (Gun Runner) and two other winners.

"There is no doubt about Englishman's speed, which he displayed every time he stepped on the track," said Lane's End president Bill Farish. "He is a correct and beautifully made horse, as his yearling sale price reflects. That combination of brilliant speed and exceptional looks will be of great appeal to breeders and makes an excellent addition to our roster."

Gramm, a horse owner and horseplayer, has admitted that he improperly accessed confidential veterinary records on horses he did not own. A HISA investigation revealed that Gramm had improperly gained access to the HISA portal to obtain the information. According to HISA, Gramm acquired the information over a six-week period from early May to mid-June and gained access to as many as four million records.

In August, Gramm accepted a provisional suspension from HISA that barred him from owning any horses. At that time, his Ten Strike stable was disbanded. The provisional suspension will remain in effect until the matter is resolved. Though admitting that he improperly accessed the records, Gramm has vowed that he will fight back if he feels the final penalty is too severe.

"I hope we can resolve the remaining issues fairly and put this matter behind us so that everyone can refocus on the sport we care about," Gramm said in a statement after the provisional suspension was announced.

After it was initially announced that HISA was moving forward with a case against Gramm, he was anything but conciliatory. He posted the following on X: "I intend to vigorously defend myself in the HISA proceedings. I am a college professor and data analyst, and gathering and analyzing large datasets is something I have done throughout my career, including extensive work with horse racing data. The information at issue was available through my authorized HISA account. It was a large dataset, and at the time I accessed it, I had not fully reviewed its contents or understood the scope of the information it contained."

HISA charged Gramm with Fraud, Attempted Fraud and Misrepresentation in connection with the care or racing of a covered horse.

Gramm is also an economics professor at Rhodes College.

The Book 4 section of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale concluded with the auction's seventh session Monday, and while the average and median increased for the section, gross sales fell with an increased buy-back rate.

Through the two Book 4 sessions, 513 horses sold through the ring for a gross of $18,486,200. The section's average was $36,035 and the median was $27,000.

During the two sessions of Book 4 last year, 766 horses sold through the ring for a gross of $22,585,400. The section's average was $29,485 and the median was $20,000.

“I think that what we are seeing is the market is holding its own, but it's more fragile, with the cheaper mares, in particular,” said Mark Taylor of Taylor Made Sales Agency, which is the auction's leading consignor through seven sessions and consigned the co-topper of Monday's session. “Rising costs of just keeping a mare are really pinching the breeders and I think that's one reason you are seeing the foal crop diminish. It costs almost as much to keep a cheap horse as it does an expensive one. The vet costs are a big driver of that--X-Rays are expensive, now you have to ultrasound all these babies, and if you want to ultrasound all four limbs, that's $700 or $800. And now the market is almost dictating that you do that.”

Last year's red-hot weanling market may have encouraged breeders to purchase mares with hopes of a quick return on their investment, according to Taylor.

“Last year, we were getting yearling prices for foals,” he said. “It gave people a little bit more confidence to buy mares. Everyone is dreaming, 'If I get this foal out that's by a first-year sire, I could be one of those people who are getting $200,000 next year.' So it makes you more confident to buy a $25,000 or $35,000 or $45,000 mare. But now, the foals are a little bit more realistic. I think some of the pinhookers got hurt a little bit last year and they've pulled in their horns a little bit. And so the people that are buying the mares aren't seeing the home runs being hit quite as often. I just think the cost of production is what is squeezing the breeders and what is making owning lower-end mares less appealing. And I think that is driving the buy-back rate.”

Taylor concluded, “Unfortunately, I think we are losing some breeders every year that just can't keep up with the cost of production. That's the bottom line.”

With 422 horses catalogued for Monday's session, 312 horses were offered and, with 63 horses reported not sold, the buy-back rate was 20.19%. It was 18.30% at the same session a year ago. Cont.

Hip 2595 | Keeneland

Weanlings dominated Monday's seventh session of the November sale with two Grade I-winning sons of Gun Runner--Gun Pilot and Gunite--siring the $225,000 session co-leaders.

First to bring the co-top price was a filly from the first crop of Gun Pilot (hip 2595) who sold to Bull Elk Bloodstock. A half-sister to stakes winner Great White (Volatile), she is out of Kelly Bag (Uncle Mo). She was bred by Three Chimneys and consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

"Our sales team has been really high on Gun Pilot since he retired," Taylor said. "We thought he was good value. We thought he had a lot of talent and we love sons of Gun Runner. This filly was an example of what we thought could happen. She was just an exceptional individual. She had enough pedigree--her half-brother was one of the top 3-year-olds this year. She was just a great individual and I think it's an example of what can happen in the market when you get the top physical by an exciting young sire."

Also bringing $225,000 was a colt by Gunite (hip 2733) consigned by Noel Murphy's Castle Park Farm. Out of Sachem (Cairo Prince), he is from the family of Grade/Group 1 winners Hystericalady, Sacramentada (Chi), Senora Bonita and O'Connor. He was bred by Baalbek and purchased in utero for $52,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

A total of 226 Book 4 weanlings sold for a gross of $9,361,300 this year. The average was $41,422 and the median was $30,000.

A year ago, 308 weanlings sold through the ring during Book 4 for a gross of $10,607,800, an average of $34,441 and a median of $22,000.

The Keeneland November sale continues through Wednesday with sessions beginning each day at 10 a.m.

"OUR DARK HORSE" IS A HOMAGE TO SUSAN KAYNE'S FIGHT TO SLOW THE SLAUGHTER PIPELINE: A MOVIE REVIEW

by Bill Finley

There's nothing glamorous about what Susan Kayne does at her Unbridled Sanctuary in Greenville, New York. Along with her husband Andrew Elsbree and a handful of volunteers, she works long hours, braves the harsh upstate New York winters, puts thousands of miles on her truck going to auctions where "killer" buyers proliferate and you get the feeling that despite her tireless work soliciting donors she's just getting by.

But there's nothing Kayne would rather do. All that matters to her is saving the most vulnerable Thoroughbreds out there. That is what she does, and little else matters to her.

"Once you have truly seen a horse, not as livestock, not as a vehicle for profit, but as someone, love no longer permits you to look away," she says in the documentary "Our Dark Horse," which premiered earlier this month at a sold-out Orpheum Theater in Saugerties, New York.

Kayne believes in a concept she calls "whoness," which challenges people to see horses as individuals with feelings rather than objects used for sport or profit.

Kayne fell in love with horses while watching Canonero II win the first two legs of the Triple Crown in 1971. Over time, she became disillusioned with the sport, first over the prolific use of legal and illegal medications that were given to horses at the time and then over how horses were routinely sent to the slaughterhouse when their careers ended.

So she decided to do something about it, and in 2004 opened Unbridled Sanctuary. She now cares for 60 horses, about 50 of which are Thoroughbreds.

While the sport has worked together and made major strides when it comes to retraining horses who come off the track for second careers, there are many who still fall through the cracks and get caught up in the slaughter pipeline. They include the older broodmares and the horses who are so unsound that they cannot be ridden. They are often the forgotten casualties of racing, but the ones who make it to Unbridled Sanctuary have found an angel of mercy.

"We'll be looking for the ones nobody wants to help," she says in the opening minutes of the documentary as she prepares to head to the notorious Unadilla, New York auction. "I'm only bidding against the kill brokers."

The movie is directed by Grace Barry, who received the New York Women in Film & Television Maverick Award for Excellence in Directing a Documentary Film or her work on “Our Dark Horse.” Barry and her team started following Kayne in 2024 and they produced what is called a verite documentary, which is a style of non-fiction film making that captures real people and events as they unfold naturally, without scripted dialogue, formal sit-down interviews or voice-over narration. That means you get Susan Kayne unfiltered.

She doesn't come across as someone who is anti-racing, but she can't hide her dislike for the people who refuse to do right by their horses. She has no tolerance for them. Cont.

"If you can't care for and feed your horses, you shouldn't be breeding them," she said. "If you can't offer them a lifeline when needed, you shouldn't breed them. This is fundamentally a supply chain issue."

"We're taking care of other people's problems," Elsbree said.

Barry needed a co-star and found one in a horse named Karen's Sue's Kitten, a Kitten's Joy mare who went 1-for-23 in her career, last raced in a $7,500 claimer in 2014 at Will Rogers Downs and is now 19. No one knows what happened to her after her last race, but in 2024 she wound up in a feedlot in Oklahoma, where she was rescued by Kayne.

Through the documentary, she goes from a horse who was severely underweight to one who blossomed under Kayne's care. Also used in barrel racing, she had serious enough stifle problems that a second career as a riding horse was out of the question. The filmmakers want you to get to know the horse who becomes known as Kitty, that she is sweet, has an emotional capacity and is able to form a friendship. She and a horse named Marrazano become inseparable.

Kayne was so devoted to Kitty that she tracked down one of the two live foals she produced, a hopeless case named Hoopers Joy. He ran three times in bottom-level maiden claimers and was beaten by a combined margin of 117 1/2 lengths. The owner wasn't ready to give up on him as a race horse, but relented after Kayne came forward and convinced him to give her the horse.

After the movie wrapped up, Hoopers Joy was adopted by High and Mighty Therapeutic Riding and Driving Center, which provides equine-assisted services for children and adults, including veterans.

As the story of someone who has rescued so many horses, "Our Dark Horse" can be uplifting. But never do the filmmakers try to gloss over the horrors of slaughter and what happens to so many unwanted horses, and neither does Kayne.

"I was never so fully aware of how traumatized these horses are that we bring in from the slaughter pipeline," Kayne said. "They are just so unnerved at a cellular level."

But Kitty s a survivor.

"Kitty is eating and she's happy," Kayne said. "She's relaxed, which is just amazing with everything that she has been through. The difference in how horses view us when they've never been ripped apart from friends or from their mothers or when they have not been abused by human hands. It is absolutely astounding and it takes a long, long time to regain their trust."

FIVE FASTEST MAIDENS FOR THE WEEK OF NOV. 2-NOV. 8, 2026 by Randy Moss

Gun Runner 2-year-olds claim three of the top five spots, including an interesting Chad Brown exacta at the top.

The two Gun Runners were sloppy track co-favorites, and while Gun for Glory was no match for Barrel Roll (below) with his head high despite a shadow roll, he ran a new Beyer top to splash in 14 3/4 lengths ahead of the rest. The farther he runs the better: full-brother Disarm took the Matt Winn (Gr. III) for Ron Winchell while also 2nd in the Louisiana Derby and Travers, 3rd in the Whitney and 4th in the Kentucky Derby.

At 1/5 odds in his third start, the $550,000 yearling dropped into a below-average $150,000 claimer. But he put it to bed the first three furlongs, zipping to a 3-length lead and continuing unchallenged (with no takers in the claim box). His performance was also flattered by the 12-length gap between 2nd and 3rd. His unraced dam is a half-sister to Hollywood Futurity (Gr. I) winner Stormello plus another Gr. II winner.

His 5 1/2-length score at 2/5 odds against three rivals told us nothing we didn't already know: the $4,500 bargain yearling is an overachiever with some talent, hailing from a Seltzer family tree cultivated for decades. In his first start, he was second with an 82 Beyer behind Frustrated, a Mike Repole/Brittany Russell runner.

In August 2024, M.V. Magnier and Brant signed a $1.9 million ticket at Saratoga for Paladin, who debuted Oct. 17, 2025, and earned an 87 Beyer with a win-by-DQ over Renegade in a one-mile maiden under Prat. The Gun Runner colt ran only twice more, taking the Remsen (Gr. II) over Renegade and the Risen Star (Gr. II) over Golden Tempo. Last September at Keeneland, Magnier and Brant went to $1.55 million for another Gun Runner for the same partnership--with eerily similar results thus far. Bletchley took his one-mile debut at Belmont by 7 3/4 lengths under Prat--also with an 87 Beyer--and since he's already in New York could be a Remsen contender, too.

Take your pick of Brown's promising Gun Runners who both won over sloppy tracks by 7 3/4 lengths (weird, huh?). This one ran faster by Beyers but might rate behind Bletchley in pecking order only because he lost twice on fast tracks before his slop freakout, although in those he was beaten by Breeders' Cup Juvenile runners American History and Damavand. Last week he looked like a winner a long way out and is a $1.2 million yearling with family cred: his unraced dam is a half-sis to champion Covfefe and third dam Aurora (Danzig-Althea) was a multiple Grade I producer.

EMERGING KENTUCKY APPRENTICE ORTIZ SUSPENDED THREE DAYS FOR TWO WHIP OVERUSE VIOLATIONS by T.D. Thornton

Yomar Ortiz Jr., the 17-year-old Kentucky-based apprentice who has won 11 of 46 starts since launching his career 3 1/2 weeks ago, has been suspended three days after incurring two separate Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) whip overuse violations at Churchill Downs Nov. 1.

According to two rulings signed by the Churchill stewards and posted to the HISA infraction portal, Ortiz is to sit out this Saturday, Nov. 14, and next Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 18 and 19.

His first Nov. 1 violation occurred in the fourth race, when the Churchill stewards wrote that he exceeded the six-strike limit by two when riding Mo Reviews (Mo Town) to a seventh-place finish in a $20,000 maiden-claiming mile. That overage cost him a $250 fine and a one-day suspension.

Three races later, the stewards ruled that Ortiz struck Gardiner (Audible) once over the limit in a fourth-place try in a $12,500 claiming sprint. This was his second crop violation in a 180-day span, so the penalties were doubled, to a $500 fine and a two-day suspension.

The rulings noted that Ortiz waived his right to a hearing for both violations. He could still appeal the rulings within 10 days.

A call to his agent, Steve Rushing, to ask about an appeal did not yield a reply prior to publication of this article.

Riding with a 10-pound allowance, Ortiz is currently second in the Churchill Downs standings in victories. He's also been picking up mounts at Horseshoe Indianapolis.

Nolan (9) and Callan (7), sons of Tom and Katie Ryan, have launched Front Row Kids, a new venture aimed at introducing children to the Thoroughbred breeding industry.

The brothers made a potentially shrewd first investment at Keeneland Monday, purchasing Soluna (Tiznow), in foal to champion juvenile Citizen Bull, for $65,000. The mare, offered as hip 2757, is carrying a colt.

The initiative will allow young participants to follow the mare through foaling and eventually to the sales ring, with farm visits, educational updates and opportunities to help name the foal.

"This for-profit venture has no guarantees and aims to educate and inspire kids along the way," Tom Ryan wrote on X.

Interested families can contact Tom Ryan at 859-619-1976.

'RACETRACKS OF AMERICA' NAMED TONY RYAN BOOK AWARD WINNER

"The Racetracks of America," a sweeping history of present and past U.S. Thoroughbred racecourses, is the 20th recipient of the Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award, presented by the Ryan family's Castleton Lyons to recognize excellence in Thoroughbred racing literature published in 2025. The National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame's Brien Bouyea and Keeneland Library's Roda Ferraro, representing the 440-page reference book's co-publishers, received the winner's $10,000 check and Tipperary crystal trophy during a Nov. 4 reception held at Castleton Lyons' historic stallion barn in Lexington.

Several of the 35 turf writers and authors whose essays made up "The Racetracks of America: From the Pre-Civil War Days to the 21st Century" also were on hand, as were Keeneland Library curators who helped assemble the book's hundreds of historical photos and other memorabilia.

"The broad scope of 'The Racetracks of America' makes it a winner on that merit alone," said historian, author and turf writer Dr. Maryjean Wall, one of four Book Award judges. "But when readers open this book, they will discover an unexpected bonus in the refined writing, the keepsake photos, and the thoughtful presentation of what collectively amounts to one of the greatest stories ever told. Horse racing has been waiting a long time for such a book."

The book was published by the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame, based in Saratoga Springs, in partnership with Keeneland Library. Bouyea, the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame's communications director, assembled the writing team and edited the book.

In his remarks, Bouyea credited Stella Thayer, a longtime Racing Museum president and Tampa Bay Downs executive, with the idea of creating a comprehensive book to celebrate the museum's 75th anniversary. She saw it as "a love letter to the sport, something to show its tradition and history," Bouyea said.

The end result, said Keeneland Library's Roda Ferraro, is a tribute to "these living, breathing places at the core of the American racing experience. The beauty of this book is that it celebrates how we as people have shaped these places and how those places have shaped us."

Dr. Tony Ryan, the late philanthropist and founder of Ryanair, loved a good book and was equally passionate about horse racing. Cont.

Observing that book-length racing works such as Laura Hillenbrand's 2001 bestseller "Seabiscuit: An American Legend" had received no industry recognition, he worked with Thoroughbred Times editor Mark Simon to launch the literature award in 2006. Since Dr. Ryan's passing in 2007, the competition has been carried forward by his son, Shane.

U.S. BRED & SIRED WINNERS IN JAPAN

by Alan Carasso

Saturday's Results:

6th-Tokyo, ¥14,800,000 ($94,250), Newcomers, 2yo, 1300m, 1:17.6, gd.

SATONO HERCULES (c, 2, Gun Runner--Devil by Design {GSW, $268,041}, by Medaglia d'Oro) was all the rage at the windows at 3-5 in the exact same race on the exact same date that future two-time Japanese champion dirt horse Lemon Pop (Lemon Drop Kid) won at his first career outing six years ago. Sent straight into the lead from gate four by the visiting Cristian Demuro, the $600,000 Keeneland September yearling galloped them along comfortably and was held together into the straight. Asked for a sprint, the chestnut colt lengthened away nicely and had a half-dozen lengths on the filly Believe Harmony (Nashville) on the line. Lemon Pop, three times a winner at Group 1 level, defeated another 'Satono' runner--namely Satono Mustang (Mineshaft)--on his debut in 2020. Devil by Design was victorious in the GIII Chicago Handicap in the colors of John Gunther and has bred four other winners, including Competitionofideas (Speightstown), GISW, $585,662.
The latter resides in Japan, having fetched $1.3 million from Shadai Farm at Fasig-Tipton November in 2020. Devil by Design foaled a Life Is Good colt this past Mar. 3 and was bred back to Vekoma.

6th-Kyoto, ¥14,880,000 ($94,250), Newcomers, 2yo, 1800m, 1:55, ft.

YOKOHAMA BLUES (c, 2, Flightline--True Feelings {GSP, $111,205}, by Latent Heat) became the second Saturday winner and 17th overall for his freshman sire (by Tapit) with an eye-catching debut performance of his own going long on the dirt at Kyoto. Drawn widest in a field of 11, the $1.1-million Keeneland September graduate showed enough early speed to get a forward position and settled midfield, but a touch deep on the course, down the back. Well within the grasp of Yuga Kawada for the run into the final 600 meters, he was four wide into the lane and asserted inside the final furlong to take it by two convincing lengths. Runner-up Stanislas (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) is a son of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff upsetter Marche Lorraine (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}). The seventh winner from eight of Flightline's first-crop runners to face the starter in Japan, Susumu Fujita's Yokohama Blues is a half-brother to Royal Act (American Pharoah), GSP, $198,871; and to Feeling Mischief (Into Mischief), SW, $118,019. Yokohama Blues shares his GSW second dam Grand Charmer (Lord Avie) with 2006 champion 3-year-old filly and three-time Grade I winner Wait A While (Maria's Mon). This is also the family of multiple Eclipse Award winner Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike). True Feelings, purchased by Stonehaven Steadings for $210,000 at Keeneland November in 2012, has a yearling colt by Cody's Wish, a weanling colt by Into Mischief and is due to Constitution for 2027. 2nd-Tokyo, ¥11,280,000 ($71,414), Maiden, 2yo, 1300m, 1:18.7, gd.
ECORO VOLK (c, 2, Roadster--Joyous Angel, by Grey Swallow {Ire}) overwhelmed his rivals to take his Florida-based first-crop stallion (by Quality Road) to 20 winners. Having narrowly missed when tried over 1400 meters on his career debut at this venue Oct. 10, the gray colt was pounded into 1-5 favoritism for the slight cutback and stamped his authority on the race in the final 200 meters. With Frenchman Alexis Pouchin in the boot, the New York-bred won the break from the inside gate and disputed it early, but eased back off the pace to chase from fourth into the turn. Going very well with cover on the swing for home, Ecoro Volk was pulled off heels, loomed boldy approaching the eighth pole and kicked impressively away to score by nine lengths. A $60,000 OBS October yearling turned $200,000 OBS April juvenile, Ecoro Volk is out of a half-sister to GIII Virginia Derby winner English Bee (English Channel). The unraced dam was purchased by John Dowd for $13,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Fall Mixed Sale in 2024 and produced a colt by Bucchero the following spring. Joyous Angel is due to Bucchero next year. 4th-Tokyo, ¥11,280,000 ($71,414), Maiden, 2yo, 1800mT, 1:48.5, gd/fm.
RAINBOW FLIGHT (f, 2, Flightline--Win the War {MSW-Can, GSP-US, $151,526}, by War Front) gave an excellent account of herself when beaten just a length into second on 1800-meter debut at Nakayama in September and was the 11-10 choice to go one better this time around. Allowed to find her footing one from the tail behind just a steady gallop up front, the $450,000 Keeneland September purchase raced three deep with cover and in no particular hurry entering the final 800 meters. Pulled off heels once heads were turned for home, the blaze-faced dark bay came with a strong turn of foot in the final furlong and went on to defeat her chief market rival Suave Basileus (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) by a half-length. At the time the 16th winner for her sire, Rainbow Flight is out of a half-sister to GSW Dixie City (Dixie Union), the dam of Korean champion and GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile third Blue Chipper (Tiznow). The family also includes 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard and sire Unified (Candy Ride {Arg}). Win the War is also represented by the yearling filly Cast a Spell On Me (Good Magic) and a weanling colt by American Pharoah. Win the War is due to Mindframe in 2027. 3rd-Kyoyo, ¥11,280,000 ($71,414), Maiden, 2yo, 1800m, 1:52.7, ft.
NOBLE SCEPTER (KSA) (c, 2, Mystic Guide--Noble Ready, by More Than Ready) did no running whatsoever as a 7-2 chance over a muddy local main track Oct. 24, and was back on a couple weeks' rest, albeit as a no-hoper pari-mutuelly. Off at 90-1, the bay colt had to do some work but was able to make the front entering the first turn and took them along into the second half of the contest. There for the taking as they raced on the final bend, Noble Scepter pinched a bit of a break when popped the question and managed to see it out by two lengths to become the ninth winner for his freshman sire (by Ghostzapper). A half-brother to Japanese Group 3 winner Noble Roger (Palace Malice), Noble Scepter is out of a three-times stakes placed full-sister to GSW Zindaya, herself the dam of MGISW 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Carl Spackler (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). A half-sister to GISW Western Aristocrat (Mr. Greeley), Noble Ready was purchased for $25,000 at Keeneland November in 2023 and foaled this colt on Feb. 24, 2024. Exported to Japan, the dropped a colt by St Mark's Basilica (Fr) in May 2025. Sales history: $25,000 i/u '23 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $37,224. VIDEO (#4)

HIMARI (f, 3, Nyquist--Miz K, by Tapit) made a winning debut here Aug. 6, but burnt money in her last two, finishing fourth at 30 cents on the dollar Aug. 29 before missing by a nose at 1-2 at Santa Anita Oct. 9. Still, the bay had them over a barrel on figs and proved too good here, if only just. Himari broke to her outside and was content to track before being asked to get closer on the the turn. She wanted to lay out when bidding for the lead passing midstretch and was home narrowly best as Clarina (Northern Causeway) tried her late. Himari is out of a daughter of GI Ogden Phipps Handicap heroine Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow), the dam of G3 UAE Oaks third Serein (Uncle Mo) and of the MSP Surfer Dude (Curlin). IN ORDER OF PURSE:

4th-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $32,000, Msw, 11-9, 2yo, f, 1m, 1:40.04, ft, 1 length.

CONGA (f, 2, Nyquist--Gone to Town, by Munnings) led home a Brad Cox debutantes 1-2 finish, just holding off Run Kiki Run (Essential Quality) in a driving finish. Ridden away from gate three by Marcelino Pedroza, Jr., the $235,000 Keeneland November weanling purchase set a contested, if not overly taxing, pace and was confronted by 3-5 Rocksie Girl (Upstart) turning for home. The Churchill class dropper looked to have dead aim on Conga, but the Stonestreet runner turned back that challenge despite hanging on her incorrect lead into the final furlong and managed to claw her way home first. Conga has a yearling half-brother by Practical Joke and her dam is due to Tiz the Law in the new year. Sales history: $235,000 Wlg '24 KEENOV. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

ARACI BIDS TO CROWN BRILLIANT YEAR WITH GLACIUS IN $1.5 MILLION BAHRAIN TROPHY

Glacius | Sarah Andrew

By Brian Sheerin

It has been a year to remember for Ibrahim Araci with Libertango (No Nay Never) and Glacius (Too Darn) flying the flag on the international stage for the Turkish-born owner-breeder--and the latter will bid to keep the party going when doing battle in Friday's $1.5-million Bahrain International Trophy.

Trained by Hugo Palmer, Glacius has rightly earned a reputation for being a top-notch globetrotting star for Araci following his GI Saratoga Derby success. Connections decided to forgo joining Breeders' Cup heroine Libertango at Keeneland in favour of lining out for the big-race riches on offer in Bahrain, and Araci's racing manager Rob Speers reports the homebred son of Too Darn Hot to be heading into the 10f contest in the form of his life.

"Glacius loves fast ground and he travels," Speers explained. "He actually put on weight and looked fantastic in Saratoga the first time we travelled him. The same when he went to Nashville--he really thrives in those warmer conditions. He loves fast ground, and he eats every nut and drinks when he travels. Horses that do that, and give themselves a chance when they get abroad, are exciting horses to have." Cont. p3

FRANKEL HEADS JUDDMONTE ROSTER AT £350,000; NEWCOMER FIELD OF GOLD TO STAND FOR £20,000

Frankel will once again lead the Juddmonte roster for 2027 at an unchanged fee of £350,000, while newcomer Field Of Gold, the winner of last year's G1 Irish 2,000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace Stakes, has been introduced at a fee of £20,000.

It will be the fourth consecutive year standing at a fee of £350,000 for Frankel who, in 2026, was ranked alongside Dubawi as the world's most expensive stallion. Of the sires whose 2027 fees have already been announced, the son of Galileo again sets the benchmark.

In 2026, Frankel added two further Classic winners in Oaks heroine Thundering On and Irish Derby winner Benvenuto Cellini, taking his number of Northern Hemisphere Classic winners to 14, more than any other active stallion. Cont. p5

'TDN Rising Star' Erdenali (Caravaggio), last seen winning the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, has reportedly touched down safely in Japan ahead of his tilt at the G1 Mile Championship, which takes place at Kyoto Racecourse on Sunday, November 22.

5 | HOTAZHELL LEADS SEVEN-STRONG ROSTER AT ETREHAM

Three-time Group 1 winner Hotazhell, the first son of Too Darn Hot to stand at stud in Europe, will command a fee of €15,000 when he embarks on his debut season at Haras d'Etreham in 2027.

6 | GALIWAY FEE REDUCED TO €22,000 FOR 2027

Haras de Colleville's popular dual-purpose sire Galiway has had his fee reduced to €22,000 for 2027, having stood at €30,000 for the last five seasons.

He added, "After the Saratoga Derby, we made a plan that Bahrain would be the race we targeted him at, via the Nashville Derby. Mainly because we thought, with it being such a dry summer, at some point the ground would go here and that options in Europe wouldn't be suitable, because he must have fast ground--he needs to hear his hooves rattle. As it turned out, the ground actually stayed pretty quick right through until into October. But once we made the plan, we decided to stick with it, and he'll go to Bahrain in great order."

Win, lose or draw in Bahrain, Glacius will be kept in training in 2027 alongside star filly Libertango, who will be given a 1,000 Guineas preparation by trainer George Boughey. Purchased by Speers for 400,000gns at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-up Sale, Libertango has been a revelation this season and, if it weren't for a certain Sun Goddess, would be a shoo-in to be leading two-year-old filly in Europe.

Reflecting on Libertango, whose brilliant campaign culminated with a no-nonsense victory under Billy Loughnane in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint, Speers said, "She has been an absolute superstar. She's rated 115, has won the Albany, the Lowther and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. Nine years out of ten, her rating and winning those races would make her the Cartier Champion Two-Year-Old Filly. Unfortunately, Sun Goddess--who Aidan O'Brien hasn't missed with--has probably achieved more on the track than we have.

"Even though we beat her nicely at Ascot, and maybe if things had been different in the Cheveley Park, we'd have been able to serve it up to her. Both Libertango and Sun Goddess lowered the track record that day. That shows the level of ability Libertango has. It's one-all between her and Sun Goddess, and hopefully we get a chance to meet again."

He added, "Regarding the Breeders' Cup, it was a wonderful trip. It's the type of meeting you just hope you have a horse good enough to go to. It's one of those international pinnacle meetings, and particularly for Mr Araci, who is an international owner, it's really special to go there with a runner--and particularly one with a chance. I'll be honest, from a personal point of view, in the run-up to the race, she was such a short-priced favourite that I felt a little bit of pressure. In my mind, and in everyone's mind, with her rating and looking at the field, she really should have won. There's nothing worse than being a short-priced favourite because you don't want it to go wrong. But ultimately it didn't, and she won as we thought she would."

Libertango is the latest big-race winner that Speers has sourced from the breeze-ups on behalf of Araci. Between Native Khan and Koropick, and now Libertango, there was a brief sales ring hiatus given the owner was placing all of his emphasis and resources into refurbishing a stud farm in Newmarket. With that complete, Speers believes that Old Mill Stud will be spotted more frequently at the breeding stock, yearling and breeze-up sales in the future.

He said, "The breeze-ups have been very successful for Mr Araci over the years. However, about seven years ago, we purchased a stud farm in Newmarket that needed a lot of work so the focus had been on that more recently. We had to demolish a barn, get planning permission to rebuild and spend a lot of time and money refurbishing as well as buying extra mares and stock to go into it. So, the focus for a while came away from the track."

He added, "The first thing that struck me about Libertango at the Craven was her pedigree. She's out of an own-sister to a horse called Aktabantay, who I bought as a yearling for Mr Araci many years ago. He was a very talented two-year-old and Hugo Palmer's first-ever Group winner. So, it's a pedigree we know. We had half a dozen horses on the list and she was quite late in the sale--I think she was only six or seven lots from the end on the final night. We decided to let the others go and put all our eggs into one basket, hoping we'd buy her. Thankfully, that worked.

"I think it's wonderful that one of our Group 1 winners this year is a homebred, and the other was bought from the sales. That sums up where we are. Mr Araci has eight or nine mares here on the farm. They're well-bred, nice mares, but trying to be successful and have high-quality horses on the track from just homebreds, if you have nine mares, is almost impossible. We are lucky we have Predawn, the dam of Glacius, and some other nice mares on the farm, but we'll also be dipping in and out of the sales going forward. As each foal crop comes through, we'll look at what we have, colt-wise and filly-wise, and where we might need to top up. Whether we top up by buying a foal or two, going to the breeze-ups, or buying a yearling or two, we'll just be topping up what we breed by going to the sales."

Speers agrees that with Libertango, his boss has a mare who he can send to just about any top stallion he chooses. Before that day comes, connections are happy to chart a path towards the 1,000 Guineas, with Speers admitting that Boughey and Loughnane are quietly confident that the filly will stay at least seven furlongs.

He said, "The plan will be to give her a Guineas prep, and she's likely to start in the Guineas. We'll just have to see if she stays. A week before the Moyglare Stud Stakes, we worked her over seven furlongs on the summer gallop with some older horses, and she galloped right out over the top of them. Billy has always said seven furlongs would be no problem. If she gets the trip, great. If she doesn't, she can come back in trip and head to the Commonwealth Cup. But that's all for next year. For now, hopefully she has a good winter."

The wait to see whether Libertango will see out the Guineas trip or not will be made a whole lot shorter with Glacius to look forward to and, according to Speers, the ultimate winter warmer has "a big chance" in Friday's showpiece Bahrain International Trophy.

He concluded, "There are a lot of things in his favour. We will go there hopefully with a big chance. He's already won his Group 1, and he's a Group-performing two-year-old. He's by Too Darn Hot out of an own-sister to an Oaks winner. It's just about building on what he's achieved so far. I think he certainly has the opportunity to go to Turkey to be a stallion for Mr Araci if he chose to do that, but the horse doesn't have to improve much more to get a job in Europe either. He's a very talented horse and, being by Too Darn Hot, he'd have no problem getting a Southern Hemisphere deal. If we can pick up another Group 1 or Group race along the way, we'll have to start thinking about what we might do with him in time. But he'll certainly be staying in training next year."

Frankel is also now the sire of over 200 stakes winners worldwide, including 45 individual Group 1 winners.

Field Of Gold, meanwhile, joins the roster at Banstead Manor Stud having retired from racing as the winner of five of his 11 starts and just shy of £1 million in career earnings.

The John and Thady Gosden trainee notably won the G3 Solario Stakes at Sandown as a juvenile, before returning the following year with an impressive success in the G3 Craven Stakes at Newmarket. He was then beaten just half-a-length in the 2,000 Guineas at the same venue, before confirming his standing as the leading miler of his generation with wide-margin victories at the Curragh and Royal Ascot.

In completing the Irish 2,000 Guineas/St James's Palace double, Field Of Gold emulated his sire, Kingman, who will also stand for an unchanged fee of £125,000 in 2027.

Many of Kingman's stallion sons enjoyed success on the racecourse in 2026, with Calyx, Chachnak, Palace Pier and Persian King all being represented by Group 1 performers. His yearlings continued to prove popular in the sales ring, too, with an average of £283,197.

Elsewhere, Frankel's Classic-winning son, Chaldean, remains at a fee of £20,000 after registering some notable results when his first yearlings went under the hammer in 2026. He achieved a top price of €650,000, with 32 six-figure lots across all yearling sales, more than any other first-crop sire.

Chaldean covered over 180 mares at Banstead Manor in 2026, while Lead Artist proved similarly popular in his first season on the Juddmonte roster as he received 170 mares.

The G1 Lockinge Stakes winner, who was based at Arrowfield Stud in Australia for the Southern Hemisphere breeding season, will again command a fee of £12,500 in 2027.

Completing the six-strong roster is Bated Breath, who will stand for £5,000 for the second consecutive year. His stakes winners in 2026 include the G2 Hungerford Stakes hero Coppull, as well as the GIII Santa Ana Stakes and GIII Royal Heroine Stakes scorer Take A Breath, who also finished third in the GI Gamely Stakes.

Breeders are invited to contact the Juddmonte sales team of Ed Sackville, Shane Horan and Tom Parry to discuss mating plans. Call +44 (0)1638 731115 or email nominations@juddmonte.co.uk.

HOTAZHELL TO STAND FOR €15,000 IN DEBUT SEASON AT HARAS D'ETREHAM

Three-time Group 1 winner Hotazhell, the first son of Too Darn Hot to stand at stud in Europe, will command a fee of €15,000 when he embarks on his debut season at Haras d'Etreham in 2027.

Trained by Jessica Harrington, Hotazhell won four of his six starts as a juvenile, culminating with his breakthrough Group 1 success when beating Delacroix by a nose to win the Futurity Trophy at Doncaster.

A consistent performer at the top level as a three-year-old, notably finishing third in the Irish 2,000 Guineas at the Curragh, he then proved himself better than ever this season when registering consecutive Group 1 victories in the Grosser Dallmayr-Preis - Bayerisches Zuchtrennen at Munich and Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown.

"We are absolutely delighted at the prospect of welcoming a horse of Hotazhell's calibre to Etreham for the 2027 season," said Haras d'Etreham's Nicolas de Chambure when announcing the purchase of the six-time winner, in partnership with Antony Thompson of Widden Stud in Australia.

"His pedigree and racing record are of the very highest standard, and his conformation is impeccable. He has great presence and quality, and plenty of size and scope."

Hotazhell is one of seven stallions on the Etreham roster for 2027, with the others including Persian King, the sire of this year's St Leger winner Highwayman and G2 Prix Eugene Adam scorer Pearled Majesty. Persian King remains at a fee of €15,000.

The Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Metropolitan is also unchanged at a fee of €12,000, having covered a total of 217 mares in his first two seasons at stud, while Hello Youmzain and Onesto will both stand for €10,000.

Hello Youmzain, who stood for €25,000 during the latest breeding season, boasts a strike-rate of almost 10% black-type horses to runners, while Onesto's first-crop yearlings proved popular in the sales ring in 2026. Of the 37 yearlings offered, 31 sold at an average price approaching €50,000.

City Light will stand for the slightly reduced fee of €8,000 (from €10,000), with Beauvatier completing the roster at €6,000, having covered close to 100 mares when standing his first season at Etreham at a fee of €7,000 in 2026.

GALIWAY HEADS COLLEVILLE ROSTER AT REDUCED FEE OF €22,000

Galiway | Haras de Colleville

Haras de Colleville's popular dual-purpose sire Galiway has had his fee reduced to €22,000 for 2027, having stood at €30,000 for the last five seasons.

His stud-mates Kendargent and Goken will both be available at €10,000. Now 23, Kendargent is entering his 18th stud season in Normandy and is at his lowest fee since 2013.

Kendargent's son Goken, who was represented by a breakthrough Group 1 winner when Master Man won the recent Criterium International at Saint-Cloud, remains at the price he has been for the last two years. All three stallions will stand on live foal terms exclusive of VAT.

Haras de Colleville will continue to offer incentives for international breeders for the 2027 breeding season which can be discussed with the stud's representative Sally Ann Grassick.

NEXT STOP HONG KONG FOR MAP OF STARS FOLLOWING BREEDERS' CUP NEAR MISS

Wathnan Racing's Map Of Stars (Sea The Stars) is an intended runner in Hong Kong next month following his runner-up effort behind Benvenuto Cellini (Frankel) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf.

Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, Map Of Stars arrived at Keeneland in a rich vein of form, notably having won the Listed Wolferton Stakes at Royal Ascot, before pushing Wimbledon Hawkeye (Kameko) all the way to the line when finishing second in the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville.

Returning from 11 weeks on the sidelines in the Breeders' Cup Turf, the five-year-old picked up where he left off with what was arguably a career-best performance to be beaten just three-quarters-of-a-length.

"Map Of Stars ran an absolutely tremendous race," said Wathnan's racing adviser Richard Brown. "I thought it was a brilliant, cool ride from James [Doyle] to get him across from the widest draw and go around on the rail. He picked up and quickened well, but Benvenuto Cellini quickened better than us."

Map Of Stars is likely to face a rematch with his Keeneland conqueror if taking up his entry in the HK$26-million G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin, with the son of Sea The Stars also having the option the HK$40-million G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup.

Brown added, "We were all delighted with his run and the plan now is that he'll probably go to Hong Kong."

Map Of Stars was one of two Breeders' Cup runners for Wathnan, with Hamad Al Jehani's Final Objective (Sioux Nation) also performing with credit when finishing fourth behind George Boughey's star filly Libertango in the GI Juvenile Turf Sprint.

"Final Objective ran a very good race," Brown continued. "He jinked coming out of the stalls which didn't help him. He lost his position slightly, but we were very happy with the way he ran."

On Tuesday, the team's sights switched from America to Australia where Boughey's Ebor runner-up Hopewell Rock (New Bay) was a leading fancy for the G1 Melbourne Cup.

The four-year-old was ultimately unable to land a telling blow, however, passing the post around seven lengths behind the winner, Point Of Law (Frankel), in finishing ninth.

Brown added, "It didn't really happen for Hopewell Rock. There was probably a lack of pace and it just didn't pan out for him.

"It was an amazing experience for everyone and I'm sure it will do the horse the world of good having travelled. We'll get him home and we live to fight another day."

TDN EUROPE'S EMMA BERRY SHORTLISTED FOR RACING WRITER OF THE YEAR

Emma Berry

Emma Berry, chief correspondent at Thoroughbred Daily News, is among four nominees in the running to win the Alastair Down Trophy, which will be awarded to the winner of the Racing Writer of the Year category at the 2026 HWPA Derby Awards. The annual ceremony will take place at the Lancaster Hotel on Monday, December 7.

Berry is nominated alongside two Grand National-winning jockeys in Marcus Armytage and Patrick Mullins. Mullins previously lifted the trophy in 2024, while Chris Cook, successful in 2023, completes the four-strong list of nominees.

Elsewhere, the nominees for the John Oaksey Trophy, awarded to the Racing Reporter of the Year, include a trio of previous winners in Bill Barber, Nick Luck and 2025 victor Jack Keene, as well as Frank Keogh.

Luck is also one of six named in the Broadcaster of the Year category, alongside fellow previous winners John Hunt and Lydia Hislop, plus a trio from ITV Racing, namely Ed Chamberlin, Oli Bell and Richard Hoiles.

There is also a shortlist of six for the Specialist Writer of the Year, with Kevin Blake, who won this in its inaugural year, joined by three-time Racing Writer of the Year Lee Mottershead and a quartet who are seeking their first Derby Award--Xander Brett, Molly Hunter, Amy Lynam and Phil Turner.

The nominees in the Photographer of the Year category include Edward Whitaker and 2025 winner Patrick McCann, who have won the award nine times between them. They are joined as nominees by Francesca Altoft and Debbie Burt, with Whitaker, McCann and Burt also featuring on the Picture of the Year shortlist for the Gerry Cranham Trophy. They are joined by Malcolm Wells.

The second year of the Content Award sees last year's winner Ash Symonds on the shortlist again. He is joined by Stephen Darbyshire, Peter Moore and Mark Walsh, while the quartet nominated for the Alan Lee Trophy for Emerging Talent are two Racing Post writers, Matt Rennie and Catherine Macrae, as well as photographer Max Carter and Lewis Tomlinson of Timeform/Sporting Life.

The other nominees are as follows:

TRAINER OF THE YEAR

- Andrew Balding
- George Boughey
- Willie Mullins
- Dan Skelton

JOCKEY OF THE YEAR

- Sean Bowen
- Billy Loughnane
- Saffie Osborne
- Paul Townend

OWNER OF THE YEAR

- Godolphin
- Juddmonte
- J. P. McManus
- Susannah and Rich Ricci

INTERNATIONAL TRAINER OF THE YEAR

- Charlie Appleby
- George Boughey
- John and Thady Gosden
- Sir Mark Prescott

SHARE IN SEALIWAY TO BE OFFERED IN AKTEM ONLINE BREEDING STOCK SALE

A share in the Haras de Beaumont stallion Sealiway features among the first lots catalogued for the AKTEM Online Breeding Stock Sale, which takes place on Monday, November 23.

Sealiway is the sire of 10 individual winners in Europe from his first crop of two-year-olds, more than any other freshman stallion based in France. The share in the stallion, who won the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at two and G1 Champion Stakes at three, entitles its holder to one nomination per year.

A similar share will also be offered in The Grey Gatsby, the sire of the Group 3 winners Atomic Blonde and Mylady, while the share in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier hero Fly With Me entitles its holder to one nomination per year, except in 2027, when shareholders will benefit from an additional bonus nomination on top of their annual one.

Elsewhere, the share in the Haras de la Hetraie newcomer Shannon Maestro entitles its holder to two nominations per year for his first three years at stud, followed by one nomination per year from 2030 onwards.

The winner of the G3 Prix Fleuret at Auteuil, Shannon Maestro is joined at Haras de la Hetraie by Leon Du Berlais, whose first foals were born in 2026. Breeders will have the opportunity to bid for two half-shares in Leon Du Berlais, each entitling its holder to one nomination in 2027, followed by one nomination every two years from 2028 onwards.

Meanwhile, the mares catalogued include the Raven's Pass mare Miss Raven, a half-sister to the dual Group 2 winner Beautiful Romance (New Approach). Miss Raven has already produced the smart Brentford Hope (Camelot) and will be offered in foal to Puchkine.

A selection of Flat and National Hunt foals will also feature in the catalogue, which is available to view here. Entries remain open until November 14.

JUKEBOX JURY COLT HEADLINES TATTERSALLS IRELAND CURTAIN-RAISER AT €88,000

A colt by the late Jukebox Jury topped Monday's session of the Tattersalls Ireland November National Hunt Sale when bought by Timmy Hillman for €88,000, the highest price ever paid for a foal on the opening day of this sale.

Lot 203 hails from Burgage Stud's leading family, being out of the unraced Shantou mare Easeaway, a full-sister to the G1 Champion Bumper winner Briar Hill. Their dam Backaway is a full-sister to the multiple Grade 1 winner Boston Bob.

"I am just hugely relieved," said Burgage Stud's Victor Connolly. "We knew he was a nice horse. He was very popular but, until it happens, you just don't know. From day one, he was a very straightforward horse with a great temperament.

"There is every hope that the pedigree will improve further. We have the mare and she has a four-year-old full-brother with Donnchadh Doyle. I spoke to him this morning and he's happy with the horse. It is a pedigree that's done us very well--it's been around for decades. We've had great days and now it's fantastic to see this young mare doing the same thing."

Hillman, who outbid Tim and Peter Nolan, added, "I have bought him for myself and Tally-Ho Stud. He is a lovely individual and will have some value when he comes back for resale. There are few better pedigrees and I just hope he will be lucky. He was the best on offer today."

Earlier in the session, a colt from the first crop of the four-time Group 1 winner Luxembourg, offered by Kilbarry Lodge Stud, changed hands for €85,000. Lot 135 was bought by George Case, working with his father Ben Case, and Kevin Ross.

"As he is by Luxembourg, we think he could be a nice forward-going sort," said Ross. "He has been bought for Lady Jane Grosvenor and will be for resale. We have seen everything by the sire and this was the one for us. They are good-walking foals and this colt has plenty of size and scope.

"His half-brother by Santiago made €135,000 at the Derby Sale and has gone to Willie Mullins. Hopefully, he will do something before this colt comes back here."

Total turnover on the day of €1,859,950 represented a 4% increase on last year, despite a smaller catalogue, while the €14,645 average was up by 15% and the €11,000 median was up by 29%. The clearance rate was 67%.

Charity Auction Raises €55,000 for Kaitlyn Ryan

A charity auction held by Tattersalls Ireland later on Monday raised €55,000 in support of amateur jockey Kaitlyn Ryan, who suffered a serious spinal cord injury in a gallops accident.

A nomination to Poet's Word, donated by Boardsmill Stud, topped the auction at €16,000 when purchased by Joey and Edelle Logan. Coolmara Stables Ltd secured a nomination to Harzand (Kilbarry Lodge Stud) for €10,000, while Fergal and Bronagh Eastwood paid the same amount for a nomination to Jeu St Eloi (Rathbarry and Glenview Studs). Colm Browne purchased a nomination to Affinisea (Whytemount Stud) for €7,000, while Joey and Edelle Logan also secured a nomination to Al Riffa (Capital Stud) for €7,000. Liam O'Meara paid €2,000 for a nomination to Rich History (Kedrah House Stud), and Glenmore Farm's donation of a lorry load of shavings was purchased for €3,000.
