TATTERSALLS SHORTLIST: FOALS OF INTEREST AT PARK PADDOCKS

Four foal sessions begin on Tuesday at Tattersalls | Alisha Meeder

By Emma Berry

Exactly 1,000 weanlings have been catalogued for this year's Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Though that may seem like the equine version of attempting to find a needle in a haystack, fortunately we have compiled something akin to a most-wanted list to guide you through what could be some of the highlights of the next few days at Park Paddocks.

The trade for foals was certainly not slow to ignite over the past week at Goffs in Ireland and, if Tattersalls can repeat the vibrancy of last year's foal sale, then there will be plenty to keep onlookers entertained. To recap, last November in Newmarket saw 109 foals sold for 100,000gns or more, led by West Blagdon Stud's Frankel colt out of the Group 3 winner Cloudy Dawn, the sole weanling to push into seven-figure territory when sold to MV Magnier for 1,150,000gns.

There are some obvious horses to note this time around. Three years ago, Magnier bought a Starspangledbanner half-brother to that season's dual Group 1-winning juvenile Vandeek for 450,000gns. That turned out to have been money incredibly well spent as the Starspangledbanner colt is now better known as Gstaad--Cartier champion two-year-old colt of 2025 and this year's Irish 2,000 Guineas winner who retires to Coolmore Stud for the 2027 season. Cont. p3

ERDENALI MAKES HISTORY IN KYOTO'S MILE CHAMPIONSHIP By Adam Houghton

The Aga Khan Studs homebred Erdenali (Caravaggio) broke new ground in Japan on Sunday when becoming the first overseas winner in the 42-year history of the G1 Mile Championship at Kyoto.

Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, Erdenali was sent off the fourth choice of local punters in a field of 18, having registered his fourth success from five career starts when making the breakthrough at the top level in September's Prix du Moulin de Longchamp.

Hugging the rail throughout in the hands of Mickael Barzalona after breaking a shade slowly from the inside stall, Erdenali raced in around sixth position for much of the contest, before moving up to take closer order as the field fanned out early in the straight. Cont. p7

The world's highest-earning racehorse, Romantic Warrior was flanked by jockey James McDonald and trainer Danny Shum as the dual Hong Kong Horse of the Year paraded for his adoring public at Sha Tin on Sunday. The son of Acclamation will make one final public appearance at the Longines Hong Kong International Races (Sunday, December 13) before travelling to Australia for his retirement. | HKJC

8 | STRAIGHT TO STAND AT GESTUT KARLSHOF

The dual Group 2 winner Straight (Zarak), who was also placed at the top level on three occasions, will retire to his birthplace at Gestut Karlshof for 2027.

13 | KA YING RISING STARS IN PURTON SEVEN-TIMER

Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) was one of seven winners for jockey Zac Purton on Sunday's card at Sha Tin when strolling to victory in the G2 Jockey Club Sprint.

Breeder Kelly Thomas brings just two foals to this year's sale in her Maywood Stud draft: one is a Havana Grey colt out of Vandeek and Gstaad's half-sister Lady Kheleyf (lot 839) and the other is a half-sister to that pair of Group 1 winners. And it just so happens that the filly in question, lot 902, is from the final crop of the late Wootton Bassett. Did somebody say light the blue touch paper and retire to a safe distance?

Clive Cox has won the Middle Park Stakes twice in the last six years with Supremacy and Orthodox, and half-siblings to each of those smart colts feature in the foal catalogue, with the Too Darn Hot half-brother to Orthodox (lot 933) featuring among a 22-strong draft from breeder Whitsbury Manor Stud, which also includes a full-brother to Chaldean (lot 935). The latter was a Tattersalls Foal Sale graduate of 2020 at 550,000gns and Chaldean is also the sire of Supremacy's half-sister, who is being consigned by Baroda Stud as lot 896.

An intriguing inclusion to Tuesday's action is an hour or so in the evening devoted to National Hunt foals (lots 317 to 334). Scarlett Knipe is usually a lone wolf when it comes to bringing jumping stock to the December Foal Sale, and indeed her Cobhall Court Stud features prominently, including with an It's Gino colt (lot 332) from the family of Nirvana Du Berlais, who in turn is the sire of the following lot (333), a granddaughter of the Grade 2-winning hurdler Nikita Du Berlais. During that section, Ringfort Stud will offer a colt from the final crop of the late Jukebox Jury out of the Listed-placed hurdler Fabianski as lot 324.

It is worth restating that the 'dark day' during this week is now Thursday, giving an extra day of viewing between two sets of two-day sessions from Tuesday to Saturday. Tuesday has a later start time of 12 noon, but action will get underway at 10am each day thereafter.

With the sterling assistance of Conor Wixted, Brian Sheerin brought you his Goffs shortlist that had the dogs barking and the ducks quacking. Of the dozen sold from the 14 selected (one withdrawn, one unsold), the average price was €190,500. I expect Conor and Brian are feeling pretty smug right now.

Over the other side of the Irish Sea, however, we have assembled a similarly fearsome brains trust to compile a list for Tattersalls and, we're not suggesting we're competitive or anything like that, but let's see who has the biggest smug grin come next Saturday. Cont. p4

The Shortlist…

In addition to those mentioned above keep an eye on:

Lot 579 C, Auguste Rodin - Switzer (Exceed And Excel)
Consigned by Ballinacurra Stud

The Ballinacurra team of David and George Mullins and Dinny McCarthy has already rung the bell with an Auguste Rodin colt at Goffs which sold for €270,000 to Lynn Lodge Stud last week. This colt, another from the sire's first crop, is a half-brother to a Camelot yearling filly bought by Amo Racing for 350,000gns at Book 1 last month.

Lot 585 C, Charyn - C'est Ca (Galileo)
Consigned by Norelands

This colt from the first crop of Sumbe's champion miler Charyn has the benefit of a recent update thanks to his two-year-old half-brother Vignelli (Siyouni), who won the Listed Prix Zeddaan for Francis Graffard last month.

Lot 746 F, Look De Vega - Persist (Frankel)
Consigned by Ballylinch Stud

Another first-cropper, this time by Ballylinch's Look De Vega. A filly with a strong page which has been bolstered further still by the G3 Prix des Reservoirs victory of Coaxed (Baaeed), who is a half-sister to her dam.

Lot 866 F, Sea The Stars - Tayma (Exceed And Excel)
Consigned by Altenbach Bloodstock

Tom and Alexandra Whitehead offer one of six Sea The Stars foals in the catalogue. This filly is another with a decent update as her full-sister Sea Empress is the dam of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Green Empress (Saxon Warrior).

Lot 871 F, Lope De Vega - Stamina (Oasis Dream)
Consigned by Ballylinch Stud

There is only one Lope De Vega weanling in the catalogue and fittingly she hails from Ballylinch Stud. Her dam is a winning half-sister to dual Group 1 winner and Group 1 producer Silasol (Monsun) from a strong Wertheimer family which includes the Arc winner Solemia (Poliglote).

Lot 879 C, Starspangledbanner - And Yet It Moves (Galileo)
Consigned by Ballybin Stud

Consecutive lots from the Kelly family's Ballybin Stud have pretty active pedigrees, starting with this Starspangledbanner colt from the family of Sun Goddess (Sioux Nation) and Thesecretadversary (St Mark's Basilica).

Lot 880 C, Too Darn Hot - Sagaciously (Lawman)
Consigned by Ballybin Stud

Too Darn Hot was represented by a €380,000 filly at Goffs last week, and this colt is closely related to this year's French Guineas third and Group 3 winner Hankelow (Night Of Thunder). Group 1-winning juveniles Perfect Power and Wise Approach are also close up on the page.

Lot 886 C, Frankel - Doom (Dubawi)
Consigned by West Blagdon Stud

James Wigan was king of the vendors last year and his foal draft is always a sight to behold. Could this Frankel first foal out of the Listed winner Doom--herself a daughter of the Breeders' Cup heroine Dank (Dansili)--be West Blagdon's next showstopper?

Lot 898 C, Wootton Bassett - Archangel Gabriel (Arch)
Consigned by Norris Bloodstock

Described as a "standout physically with an exceptional walk", this colt from the final crop of Wootton Bassett has big shoes to fill as his Frankel half-brother made 700,000gns in this sale two years ago, while another three siblings have been six-figure foals.

Lot 926 C, Night Of Thunder - Jolie Chanson (Mount Nelson)
Consigned by Hunting Hill Stud

There are eight foals by the champion sire to sell this week, including this colt from Conor and Kathryn Quirke. His half-brother Majestic Dawn (Dawn Approach) won the Listed Festival Stakes, while another, Rousing Encore (Acclamation), was second in the G2 Mill Reef Stakes.

Lot 486, the Good Guess colt out of Balmaha | Tattersalls

Tragically, two-year-old half-sister Spirit Tango (Sioux Nation), a €185,000 Goffs foal pinhooked into a 475,000gns Book 1 yearling by Paul McCartan, suffered a fatal injury in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac having won two of her three starts prior to that for Lady Bamford.

Lot 970 C, Little Big Bear - Hug (Dark Angel)
Consigned by Kellsgrange Stud

What a year it has been for Brendan and Anne-Marie Hayes, breeders of Blue Bolt (Blue Point) and Ten Bob Tony (Night Of Thunder), and this half-brother to the latter in the Kellsgrange draft could yet mean that it ends on a high.

Four More To Keep In Mind...

Lot 486 C, Good Guess - Balmaha (Dark Angel)
Consigned by Oakleigh Bloodstock

In their second year consigning, Basil Brindley and Brigitte Murphy are testing the waters at the Tattersalls Foal Sale for the first time with a draft of three which includes this colt from the second crop of Good Guess whose dam is a half-sister to this year's G1 National Stakes winner and G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagaradere runner-up Folsom Blues (Blue Point). A first foal with a commercial outlook.

Lot 573 C, Sioux Nation - Jangala Star (Bungle Inthejungle)
Consigned by Greenville House Stud

Another first foal for whom similar comments apply is this colt by the red-hot Sioux Nation and from the family of Dream Ahead, Fairyland and this year's Cartier Champion Sprinter Almeraq.

Lot 784 C, Havana Grey - Gumhrear (Kodiac)
Consigned by Whatcote Farm Stud

Paul Coe's Whatcote Farm Stud brings this colt by the ever-popular Havana Grey. He is a half-brother to the Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed American Sonja (Tasleet), who will be offered during the following week's Sceptre Sessions.

Lot 809 C, Sioux Nation - Shortmile Lady (Arcano)
Consigned by Drumlin & Yellowford

Shortmile Lady has already produced the Group 2 winners Sakheer (Zoffany) and Lemista (Raven's Pass) and her latest offering by Sioux Nation is bound to be closely scrutinised. Now at Ballyhane Stud, Sakheer has his first foals at the sales this year, including two at Tattersalls, one of which is a colt out of the Royal Applause mare First Party in this same draft.

The three-year-old Erdenali then unleashed his trademark burst of acceleration to hit the front with 100 metres to run, before sticking to his well to keep some serious challengers at bay by three-quarters-of-a-length.

The three-time Group 1 winner Embroidery (Admire Mars) fared best of the rest under Barzalona's compatriot, Christophe Lemaire, just a neck ahead of her fellow Oka Sho (Japanese 1,000 Guineas) winner Star Anise (Drefong) in third. Godolphin's Off Trail (Farhh) was beaten another head in a bunched finish for the minor honours as he came home fourth in this Group 1 for the second consecutive year.

"I'm very happy. It wasn't an easy race and I'm very proud of Erdenali," said Barzalona. "The pace was quite fast early on. I just had to go with it a little bit to make sure we could maintain a good position. Being able to get through on the inside and stay close to Embroidery was a big help.

"When we came up to the top of the hill, it was very tight and we were all very close to each other. We needed a bit of luck to find a gap, but everything came together on the inside at the beginning of the straight. Once he found his rhythm, he really picked up and went on to win quite easily in the end."

Erdenali | Horsephotos

He added, "The horse has always been very talented and, if I hadn't been boxed in at Chantilly that day [when Erdenali finished third in the G3 Prix Messidor], he would have won and would be unbeaten. But that's how racing goes. He has proved himself in the last two Group 1 races. He's a top-class horse with a very good temperament and a big engine."

The Mile Championship was established in 1984 and first allowed international runners in 1998, with Saphresa (third in 2009 and 2011 and fourth in 2010) and Charyn (fifth in 2024) featuring among the high-profile names to have tried and failed since the turn of the century.

"I'm very, very happy for the whole team back in Chantilly," Graffard said of the historic achievement. "It was a big challenge and required a lot of work, so we couldn't be happier. It was a very difficult race to win, but we have a very nice horse, so I'm very happy for the team.

"It was a very strong performance. He's a lovely horse with a good temperament and a lot of ability. Regarding his next race, it depends on how the horse comes out of the race. He seems nice and relaxed after the race, so I will discuss with the team here to see how he has taken it. He has the option of going to Hong Kong, but we will make that decision based on the horse himself and how he's doing."

It was a second major triumph on Japanese soil for Barzalona, Graffard and the Aga Khan Studs after that of Calandagan (Gleneagles) in last year's G1 Japan Cup. Next Sunday [November 29], Calandagan will attempt to emulate Gentildonna (2012 and 2013) and Almond Eye (2018 and 2020) as a dual winner of Japan's premier race.

"We're extremely thrilled," added Nemone Routh, racing manager for the Aga Khan Studs in France. "Obviously, this was a big challenge. It was a very long trip and he's a young horse, but we knew he was a very good horse and we're absolutely ecstatic to win.

"Halfway up the straight, he still had quite a lot of ground to make up, but I felt he was very tough today. He really fought for the win because, although we know he's a very good horse, he has never had to battle like he did today. He showed that he's a tough horse and I'm very proud of him.

"He's been invited to the Hong Kong Mile and we need to make a decision probably within the next day as to whether he goes back to France or continues on to Hong Kong."

Erdenali earned 'TDN Rising Star' status back in March when producing a dazzling display to win a newcomers' race at Saint-Cloud by six and a half lengths, before extending his winning sequence with further victories in a conditions event at ParisLongchamp and the Listed Prix de Saint-Patrick at Deauville.

Bouncing back from his first defeat in the Prix Messidor, when beaten just half-a-length into third after being denied a clear run, the son of Caravaggio was a decisive winner of the Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, by over a length from the G1 Queen Anne Stakes hero Ten Bob Tony (Night Of Thunder).

Pedigree Notes

Erdenali is one of five Group/Grade 1 winners for his sire, Caravaggio, who is now based in Japan, having joined the JBBA roster in 2023. The son of Scat Daddy first stood at Coolmore's Irish base between 2018 and 2020, before spending two seasons at that operation's Ashford Stud in America.

DUAL GROUP 2 WINNER STRAIGHT TO STAND AT GESTUT KARLSHOF IN 2027

Straight | Racingfotos.com

The dual Group 2 winner Straight (Zarak), who was also placed at the top level on three occasions, will retire to his birthplace at Gestut Karlshof for the 2027 breeding season. A stud fee will be announced in due course.

Initially trained by Andreas Wohler, Straight made a successful debut at Baden-Baden as a juvenile, with his three-year-old campaign then yielding a five-length victory in track-record time in the G2 Union-Rennen, as well as a close-up third in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden.

At four, the son of Zarak regained the winning thread in the G2 Gran Premio del Jockey Club and was beaten just a neck behind Rebel's Romance (Dubawi) in the G1 Preis von Europa after being transferred to the care of Marian Falk Weissmeier.

Straight then ended his career with Henk Grewe, notably finishing third in the Grosser Preis von Baden for the second time in three years when behind Goliath (Adlerflug) in 2025, before later finishing fourth behind the same rival in this year's Preis von Europa.

One of the highest-rated runners produced by Zarak, Straight features among three winners out of the winning Henrythenavigator mare Seductive who, in turn, is out of the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio heroine Sortilege (Tiger Hill). Sortilege is also responsible for the G3 Premio Guido E Alessandro Berardelli winner Sirjan and the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) runner-up Spanish Eyes, both also by Zarak.

Straight's great granddam Sahel (Monsun) is herself a full-sister to the multiple Group 1-winning sires Schiaparelli and Samum, as well as the Preis der Diana scorer Salve Regina and the unraced Sanwa, the dam of the G1 Deutsches Derby winning-sire Sea The Moon.

Sahel's other notable offspring include the Listed Prix Coronation third Sosia (Shamardal), the dam of the four-time Group 1 winner Sosie (Sea The Stars) who is new to India's Poonawalla Stud Farms for 2027.

NHRM TO BECOME TEMPORARY VENUE FOR STALLION VIEWING DURING TATTERSALLS DECEMBER SALES

Hawk Mountain: will stand his first season at Culworth Grounds Farm in 2027 | Culworth Grounds

Record-breaking Japanese sprinter Sonshi (Night Of Thunder) and Group 1-winning two-year-old Hawk Mountain (Wootton Bassett) will headline a new temporary venue for stallion viewing during the Tattersalls December Sales this year.

The joint venture between the National Horseracing Museum (NHRM) and the British EBF has attracted five stallions which will be available to view in the Rothschild Yard between the hours of 10am and 3.30pm, from Saturday, November 28 through to Monday, November 30.

Hawk Mountain will be joined by El Caballo (Havana Gold) on the journey from Culworth Grounds Farm, with Royal Scotsman (Gleneagles) and Isaac Shelby (Night Of Thunder) also available to view over the course of the three days.

Finding a venue for regional studs to showcase stallions at a time when a large number of domestic and international breeders are viewing stallions around Newmarket and making mating plans for the year ahead has been a key focus for the British EBF over the last year, according to its chair, Emma Berry.

"Encouraging a broad range of stallions in Britain is vital for the long-term health of our breeding sector," said Berry. "We are delighted to have brought this project to fruition with the National Horseracing Museum. It is just a five-minute walk from the sales ring, has great facilities, including a cafe, and a very supportive team.

"We are delighted with the interest from stallion studs and hope that breeders will take advantage of going to view this fantastic collection of British-based stallions."

Frances Stanley, chair of the NHRM, added, "We are delighted to be able to showcase the great facilities we have at the Museum and host these five stallions. We are very much looking forward to welcoming breeders from the 28th November and hope people will make the most of all the Museum complex has to offer while visiting this exciting group of stallions."

Further details of stallions on show across Newmarket will be advertised in the bloodstock press, sent direct to TBA members, ROA owners and international breeders in a further collaboration between GBRI, the TBA and the British EBF.

Stallions on show at the National Horseracing Museum:

- EL CABALLO (Culworth Grounds Farm)
- HAWK MOUNTAIN (Culworth Grounds Farm)
- ISAAC SHELBY (Newsells Park Stud)
- ROYAL SCOTSMAN (Genesis Green Stud)
- SONSHI (Batsford Manor Stud)

TODERBY (GB) (c, 2, Frankel {GB}--Nezwaah {GB} {G1SW-Ire & MSW-Eng}, by Dubawi {Ire}) raced in a handy fifth through the initial fractions of this debut. Shaken up rounding the home turn, the 28-1 chance came under sterner urging in the straight and quickened smartly in the latter stages to deny Rey De Vega (Lope De Vega) by 1 3/4 lengths nearing the line.

Toderby is the fifth of six foals and third scorer out of G1 Pretty Polly heroine Nezwaah (Dubawi), herself kin to last month's Listed Noel Murless winner Infraad (Ghaiyyath).

The winner is a full-brother to G2 Al Maktoum Classic victor and G1 Dubai World Cup third Meydaan and kin to a yearling filly by Baaeed. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,185.

3rd-Lingfield, £13,000, Nov, 11-22, 2yo, 8f 1y (AWT), 1:38.96, st.

MAGARI (IRE) (c, 2, Ten Sovereigns {Ire}--Gaja {Ire}, by High Chaparral {Ire}) occupied a forward berth throughout this debut. Straightening for home with a half-length advantage, the 28-1 outsider was shaken up approaching the final furlong and kept on well thereafter to comfortably outpoint Two Of A Kind (Saxon Warrior) by two lengths.

Magari is the fourth of five foals and third scorer from as many runners produced by an unraced granddaughter of G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club-winning European champion Awaasif (Snow Knight).

The winner is kin to the dual Listed-placed Beauty Of Tuscany (Starspangledbanner) and a weanling colt by Aesop's Fables. Sales history: €11,000 Wlg '24 GOFNOF; €70,000 Ylg '25 GOFORY. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $9,185.

OLYMPIC CHARTER (IRE) (g, 3, Kingman {GB}--Powder Snow {GSW-Fr & SW-Ger}, by Dubawi {Ire}), penalised seven pounds for annexing his debut at Nottingham in April when last seen, broke well and raced in a handy third after the initial exchanges of this second start. Slipping to fifth on the home turn, the 4-6 favourite came under pressure to challenge approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from Maneuver (Sea The Stars).

Olympic Charter is one of five winners from as many runners out of G3 Prix Fille de l'Air winner Powder Snow (Dubawi), herself a half-sister to the dual Group-placed Snow (Sea The Moon) and Listed Woodcote Stakes third Sea Of Snow (Distorted Humor).

Inching closer once into the home straight, the 69-10 chance was shaken up to launch his bid with 300 metres remaining and ran on well under whipless cajoling to defeat Where Is My Mind (Romanised) by 1 1/4 lengths.

Bay River is the latest of five foals and fourth scorer out of an unraced half-sister to the Group 3-winning G1 Oaks and G1 Coronation Cup third High Heeled (High Chaparral) and Listed Cairn Rouge victrix Bella Estrella (High Chaparral).

Descendants of his dual Grade II-winning second dam Uncharted Haven (Turtle Island) include G1 Irish 1,000 Guineas and GI E P Taylor winner Just The Judge (Lawman) and G1 Falmouth and GI Belmont Oaks Invitational heroine Cinderella's Dream (Shamardal). Cont. p13

Zac Purton: celebrated a seven-timer on Sunday's card at Sha Tin
HKJC

WORLDWIDE NEWS

KA YING RISING BACK TO WINNING WAYS AS ZAC PURTON HITS SEVEN AT SHA TIN

Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress), the world's highest-rated horse, was one of seven winners for jockey Zac Purton on Sunday's card at Sha Tin when regaining the winning thread with a smooth success in the G2 BOCHK Private Wealth Jockey Club Sprint.

Purton also struck aboard My Wish (Flying Artie) in the G2 BOCHK Private Wealth Jockey Club Mile, but Hong Kong's nine-time champion jockey was unable to complete a clean sweep of the three Group 2 races on the card. The BOCHK Jockey Club Cup went the way of Winning Wing (Preferment) and Jerry Chau, with Purton having to settle for sixth aboard Massive Sovereign (No Nay Never).

"It was a good day, a bit of fun. It's been a while since a big day like that," said Purton, who also rode seven winners in a day back in 2022. "Obviously, all of the horses have run well, we've won a couple of good races, and there are a couple of horses to look forward to in December. It was good to ride seven winners again."

Top billing, of course, went to Ka Ying Rising, who made no mistake on his return to home soil, having had his remarkable winning streak stopped at 21 when he suffered a shock defeat in last month's G1 The Everest at Randwick.

The David Hayes-trained superstar is now on track to bid for a third consecutive victory in next month's HK$28-million G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint, with the trainer expecting Sunday's outing to put him spot on for "the big one".

"Really happy," said Hayes. "I thought he'd win, and the market suggested that, but it was good to see him actually do it. The mid-race tempo wasn't particularly fast, which I'm really happy with because I didn't want him running a track record as a lead-up race.

"I think, in the big race, it'll be more truly run and you'll probably see Ka Ying running some fast times there. I think this race will really bring him on for the big one. He [Purton] said he felt really good and he thinks that will bring him to his top. He had a really good blow."

Hayes said that Ka Ying Rising was clearly more comfortable and focused at Sha Tin than he had been when beaten just a neck behind Tempted (Street Boss) at Randwick.

"It's just sad to see a champion get beaten [in The Everest], but I thought it was an honourable defeat," he continued.

"I really think the main factor was him getting lost at Randwick, where he couldn't see the rail. That saw him stargaze and, of course, he got caught wide. But I think it was the stargazing that cost him the race," Hayes added.

The Week in Review by T.D. Thornton

Beware of newly gelded sprinters who produce breakout Beyer Speed Figures good enough to compete at the national level.

In April, the 4-year-old Hymn (McKinzie) was gelded in an effort to turn around a career that started with a debut maiden victory, then nine losses. He had never run a Beyer higher than 91.

After being gelded, Hymn won three consecutive sprints with Beyers ranging between 92 and 100, rising through the allowance ranks at Oaklawn Park and Churchill Downs before taking down the $175,000 DeFrancis Memorial Dash Stakes at Laurel Park.

Hymn then ran second in the GII A.G. Vanderbilt Stakes and won the GI Forego Stakes, both at Saratoga, and was necked out of third at 32-1 odds in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Keeneland.

The next ascending first-time gelding could be One Nine Hundred (Dialed In), who races for LJSS Thoroughbreds, Reeves Thoroughbred Racing, and Adelphi Racing Club.

The new gelding announced his presence Friday by returning from a half-year layoff and dropping out of New York Grade III company into a Laurel allowance/optional claimer to wire the field by 8 1/4 lengths as the 7-10 favorite.

RACING HAS THE DATA, LET'S PUT IT TO WORK by Henry Nothhaft, Jr.

We can pull up a horse's past performances, trace its pedigree back generations, study how its siblings have raced, review its auction history and examine its workouts. The Thoroughbred industry knows an extraordinary amount about its horses. Yet finding a clear, comprehensive picture of the health of the industry itself is considerably more difficult.

I've always found that one of the best ways to communicate an idea is to sketch it out. That's what I did with a rough industry dashboard I recently published at tbintel.com. Working alone with public data, I built the prototype in about eight hours, hoping it would give the industry something tangible to consider, discuss and improve upon.

The result brings together breeding, auctions, racing, wagering, purses and safety, with historical charts and the data behind them. It identifies sources, reporting periods and figures that remain provisional. Some measures are incomplete, and some may turn out to be the wrong ones. Cont. p7

One Nine Hundred covered six furlongs in 1:09.42, the fastest time of the meet, equated to a 104 Beyer.

Although One Nine Hundred ($45,000 FTKFEB, $57,000 RNA FTKOCT, $240,000 OBSMAR) had run a 103 three starts back at Aqueduct when he last won, his Beyers typically fall in the mid-90s.

Jockey Jaime Rodriguez didn't need to send One Nine Hundred from the gate, administering only light coaxing through the stretch before gearing down the gelding well before the wire.

Rodriguez told the Laurel media team that when he was based in New York earlier this year, One Nine Hundred caught his eye in trainer Tom Morley's shedrow.

"I'd been watching him every morning in New York," Rodriguez said. "He's a classy horse. I used to work a lot of horses for [Morley] in the morning, and every time I saw him in the barn, he was a happy horse."

Rodriguez said he received only minimal instructions from Morley.

"The only thing he told me was not to send him. Let him get away out of the gate by himself, because if you send him, he'll be gone. He's quick, he's a rocket out of there," Rodriguez said.

"He was comfortable. In the fractions he went, he was just playing with his ears. When we turned in at the top of the lane, I asked if he had something, and he kept going. I looked back and asked him to finish up just to get something [out of the effort]," Rodriguez said.

A winner in three of his first seven races through the N2X allowance condition, One Nine Hundred was the beaten odds-on favorite in two Aqueduct stakes earlier this season, the Feb. 28 GIII Tom Fool (third) and May 9 GIII John Nerud (fifth).

"I felt that he moved kind of wide behind, and that maybe his testicles literally inhibited him a little bit," Morley said. "He just hasn't been an easy horse to keep on the track, and we're in the racing business."

One Nine Hundred's lifetime record from 10 starts is 4-1-3 with $256,900 in earnings.

"I wanted to try and get a race into him before we started looking at graded stakes again. He's a very fast horse when he's right, and hopefully we can keep him on the track," Morley said.

Mountain climber

A mare at Mountaineer Park has built a six-race win streak with an eye-catching combined winning margin of 64 1/4 lengths.

Competing against just three rivals in a $10,000 starter allowance/optional claimer last Tuesday, Back On Track (Prospect Park) took command straight from the start under Jose A. Leon and won the 5 1/2-furlong sprint under wraps by 19 1/2 lengths as the 1-10 favorite.

Back On Track's final time of 1:04.91 might have been faster had she not been kept five paths off the rail for most of that Nov. 17 race.

Sure, she's a dominant force at a small track and has been beating up on short fields for owner Tijuana Racing Stables and trainer Juan Pablo Silva, with three of those wins coming in races against only three competitors and one other in a scratch-depleted match race.

But even though Back On Track is eligible for easy starter-allowance pickings because she raced for a $10,000 tag at Santa Anita back in April, not all of her wins have come in those restricted races.

She's won at the allowance/optional $35,000 claiming level and in a conditioned $20,900 allowance in West Virginia. Back On Track started her streak in May at Thistledown by wiring a $31,400 NW4 allowance field by 10 lengths.

The California-bred, who sold for $1,500 as a FTKOCT yearling, has a 25-9-1-2 lifetime record with $206,211 in earnings.

Early risers

Tampa Bay Downs and Fair Grounds both opened last week for meets that will span into the spring of 2027. They'll be joined this coming week by Oaklawn Park and Turf Paradise, both of which open Friday.

At Tampa, 82-year-old trainer Gerald Bennett, who has won nine previous meet titles there, was off to a fast start, winning with four of the first six horses he saddled, including three straight on Friday.

Samy Camacho, a five-time leading rider at Tampa, tops the early standings with four wins in his first 16 mounts.

In New Orleans, Brad Cox (3-for-6) and Joe Duhon (3-for-8) lead all trainers through the first three days of racing, although W. Bret Calhoun's two victories were notable for lighting up the tote board at 52-1 and 24-1 odds.

Axel Concepcion was aboard for both of Calhoun's long shot winners. The jockey's 7-for-14 clip tops the Fair Grounds leaderboard.

Entries for both tracks spiked on opening day, then dipped.

Including alternates and also-eligibles for three nine-race cards, Tampa drew 91 entries on Wednesday, 81 for Friday, and 78 for Saturday. Turf races were washed off the grass course for all three days, resulting in expected scratches, including one three-horse race on Saturday.

MOUNTAINEER PARK HAS NO CONTRACTUAL ANTI-SLAUGHTER POLICY

by Dan Ross

Last week, TDN published Bill Finley's investigation into several horses that had raced at Finger Lakes racetrack in New York and Mountaineer Park in West Virginia, before subsequently finding their way into the horse slaughter pipeline.

The horses included Post Facto, who finished eighth in a $5,000 claimer on Oct. 27 of this year at Finger Lakes.

Twelve days later, he wound up at the Southern Ohio Horse Ship Pen. The owner and operator of this holding pen, Brian Duggan, told Finley how some horses that come into his possession wind up being sent to slaughter.

Another horse was Crystal Water (Curlin's Honor), who last raced at Mountaineer Park Nov. 4, finishing eighth of 10. Three days later, the 4-year-old filly was sent to the Smokey Lane auction in Ohio and purchased by Duggan.

Smokey Lane is a family-run operation under the Smokey Lane Stables banner.

Crystal Water, owned and trained by Moises Valdez, is entered to race at Mountaineer Park Nov. 24--a strange state of affairs, as Crystal Water was, at least recently, in the process of being bailed from Duggan's Southern Ohio Horse Ship Pen.

Unlike the vast majority of tracks around the country, Mountaineer Park does not currently have a contractual anti-slaughter policy.

“If you are found guilty of selling a horse to the slaughterhouse, then we would 1000% take your stalls, management will exclude you,” said Michael Bish, the track's director of racing. “We take that very seriously here.”

However, no language is written into Mountaineer's 2026 stall app--the contract between the track and the trainer, and the document into which anti-slaughter policies are typically written.

Online overnights and condition books from the track do not contain any such policies either.

Anti-slaughter language, said Bish, will be inserted into the track's 2027 stall application.

“I'm going to tell you right now, that's going to be the first order of business for me as far as next year, to get that written into the stall app,” said Bish.

The track used to have an anti-slaughter policy.

According to multiple trade industry publication stories from 2012, Mountaineer's policy stated at that time how owners and trainers allotted stalls “shall not directly or indirectly cause a horse to be put to slaughter,” a process that reportedly involved vetting third parties before horses are sold to them.

When asked when that language had been removed, Bish wasn't sure, as he had entered the job in 2025, he said.

West Virginia Racing Commission's executive director Joe Moore declined to discuss the status of Mountaineer's anti-slaughter policy.

TDN called Moore Friday to discuss these policies at the state and track level. In a follow-up email, Moore shared the commission's anti-slaughter language.

The commission can refuse to issue or renew a license to a permit holder who has “knowingly, or without conducting proper due diligence, sold a horse for slaughter, directly. ‘Due diligence: as used in this subdivision, shall mean the care and prudence that a reasonable racing permit holder should exercise to avoid selling a horse to a person or persons who may cause a horse to be conveyed to slaughter,'” according to state's rules.

Both over the phone and in a follow-up email, Moore declined to discuss Mountaineer's approach to stemming the track-to-slaughter pipeline.

“Questions regarding any such house rule at Mountaineer Park need to be directed to track management,” wrote Moore, in an email.

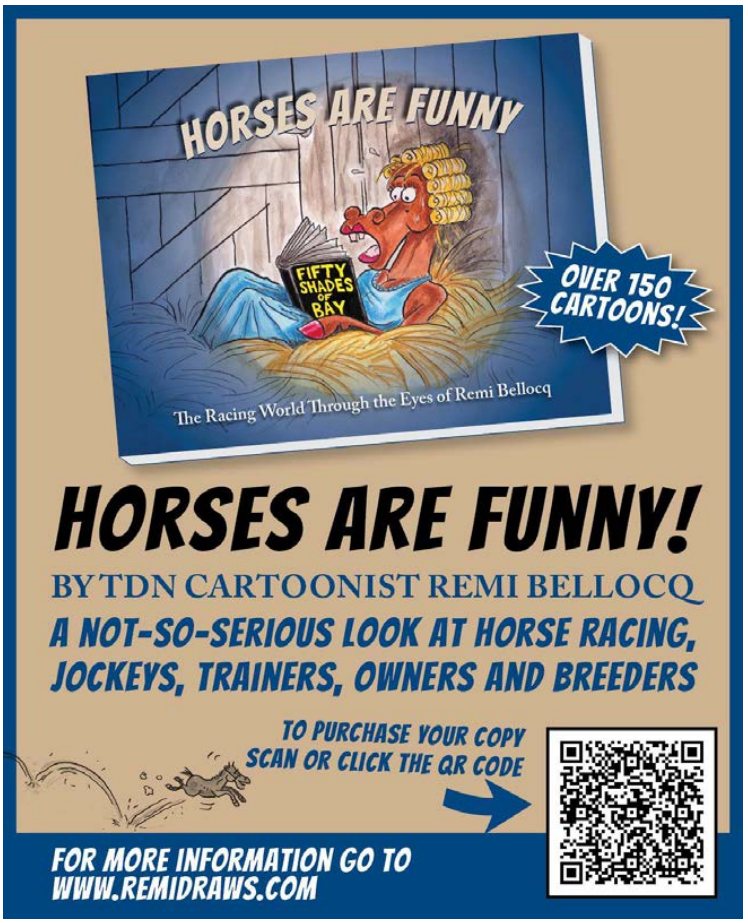

West Virginia is currently operating outside the jurisdiction of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) through a court ruling.

When asked about Crystal Water being entered to race at Mountaineer this Tuesday (after having been sold through Smokey Lane), Bish said the track will likely initiate the process to potentially exclude the horse's trainer, Valdez.

“I've recommended to our stewards that we need to do something about this,” said Bish. “As far as I'm concerned, I'm going to put in the motion to management [to] exclude this guy,” said Bish.

When asked about Finley's investigation more broadly, Bish said that the Smokey Lane auction is not a kill pen. “It has been vetted out by the state of West Virginia as a reputable horse auction,” said Bish.

In Finley's investigation, however, Duggan, who attends the auction, describes the process by which he purchases Thoroughbreds and other horses and tries to sell them for a mark-up. But he admitted that the ones he can't sell, he sends for slaughter.

“We buy and sell horses to sell them for a profit,” Duggan told Finley. “That's what we do. I mean, if they don't want to buy them, they don't have to. I mean, we buy ponies, we buy work horses, we'll buy anything.”

When asked directly by the TDN if he would admit that horses that have come through his operation sometimes wound up in a slaughterhouse, Duggan's answer was simple. He said, “Yeah.”

“There's only so many places to go with them,” Duggan told Finley, defending his acceptance of slaughter. “There's only so much you can do with them, so many people that can feed them. And if they don't feed them, they end up in very poor condition. In my opinion, I'd rather see one slaughtered than starve to death.”

When asked about Duggan's comments in the story, Bish admitted that, with the meet set to conclude Dec. 9, this is a period in which many of the track's horses are vulnerable to similarly falling through the cracks.

“You're going to have people just mass exit as [a] fire sale, you know, get rid of everything that's not going to pan out,” he said. “This is the end of the meet. You know, I've got people all over the place back there trying to dump horses because they don't want to feed them or sit on them all winter,” he said.

INSIGHTS from THOROUGHBRED INTELLIGENCE

Racing Has the Data, Let's Put it to Work

The larger ambition is a public set of industry metrics of record, easy to find and understand, with consistent definitions, historical trends and regular updates. Today, the pieces are scattered across The Jockey Club, Equibase, racetracks, sale companies and wagering operators. They arrive on different schedules, in different formats, and sometimes behind paywalls. Even the public figures can be difficult to reconcile.

A common scorecard would give us a comprehensive view of the industry's health. Breeders, horsemen, racetrack managers, owners and policymakers could work from the same numbers, see how different parts of the business affect one another, decide where to direct resources and measure whether their efforts work. It would help us understand where we are, envision where we need to go and evaluate our progress getting there.

My working list contains 50 measures. Fourteen are represented in the prototype, another 16 can be assembled from existing public data, and 20 require cooperation from data holders or agreement on definitions. Industry participants should decide which measures belong on the final scorecard. The gaps should be visible, too.

The scope should cover the Thoroughbred's full lifecycle, from breeding and sales, through racing to retirement and aftercare, alongside the business that supports it. Fan participation and retention, ownership, purse funding and humane treatment of retired athletes belong in that picture. Some categories can be marked “not yet integrated” while we work out how to measure them.

The yearling market offers one example. Yearlings sold at North American public auctions equaled 18% of the prior year's registered foal crop in 1988 and 39% in 2025. That raises questions about the role of public auctions in the breeding economy, and how it has changed over time.

Wagering offers another. In 2025 dollars, average U.S. handle per race was $372,358 in 2015 and $375,395 in 2025, while total real wagering and race volume each declined about 24%. The average may have held partly because lower-handle races disappeared. We need comparable races and tracks before drawing conclusions about demand. A shared dashboard should make those questions easier to investigate, and the findings easier to scrutinize.

A PROPOSED INDUSTRY DASHBOARD

What a shared dashboard for racing would cover

Eleven modules, each built around a question, grouped by the life of the horse and the health of the business.

THE LIFE OF THE HORSE

Breeding and supply
How big is the crop, how concentrated is the breeding, and how many of the best mares are exported?
Data held by The Jockey Club, stallion farms

Market
How deep is demand below the top of each sale?
Data held by Keeneland, Fasig-Tipton, OBS

Racing
How much racing is there, and how good is the everyday card?
Data held by Equibase, state commissions

Safety, welfare and aftercare
Is the sport getting safer for horses and riders, and what happens to horses after racing?
Data held by Equine Injury Database, HISA, aftercare groups

THE HEALTH OF THE BUSINESS

Wagering
Where does the betting dollar come from, and what does the bet cost?
Data held by Equibase, tracks, tote companies

Horseplayers
How many people bet, how many are new, and who pays full price?
Data held by ADW operators, wagering hubs

Audience
Who watches and who attends, on the big days and on a Thursday?
Data held by Networks, streamers, tracks

Money and labor
Where do purses come from, how dependent are they on gaming, and are owners staying in the sport?
Data held by state commissions, horsemen's associations, The Jockey Club

Venues
Where is racing concentrating, and who controls the tracks?
Data held by Equibase, state commissions

Competing gambling
How does racing compare with sportsbooks, casinos and historical horse racing?
Data held by American Gaming Association, state regulators

Governance
Which industry initiatives achieved their stated goals, at what cost and with what measurable impact? What does oversight cost, and where do the rules apply?
Data held by HISA, state commissions

THOROUGHBRED INTELLIGENCE tbintel.com

The Equine Injury Database offers a precedent. Participating tracks adopted common reporting standards, making changes in racing safety measurable. The Jockey Club has also pushed for transparency. At its August Round Table, Charlotte Clement de Bona proposed a collaborative participation dashboard, and the organization has pledged to publish dashboards of its own. On Nov. 19, it announced expanded access to racing and pedigree data for developers. Those are welcome steps. Making datasets available to developers is useful; maintaining a comprehensive public picture of industry health requires a broader, collective commitment.

Consider what sports betting has accomplished. Widespread legalization began in 2018. By 2025, Americans were wagering $166.94 billion annually with legal sportsbooks. These companies compete fiercely, answer to different state regulators and operate in a heavily regulated business, much like racing. Yet in less than a decade, they built a national industry deeply embedded in American sports culture. It is remarkable what vision, organization and execution can accomplish. Racing has been taking wagers for generations. We should bring that same ambition and urgency to understanding and managing our own industry.

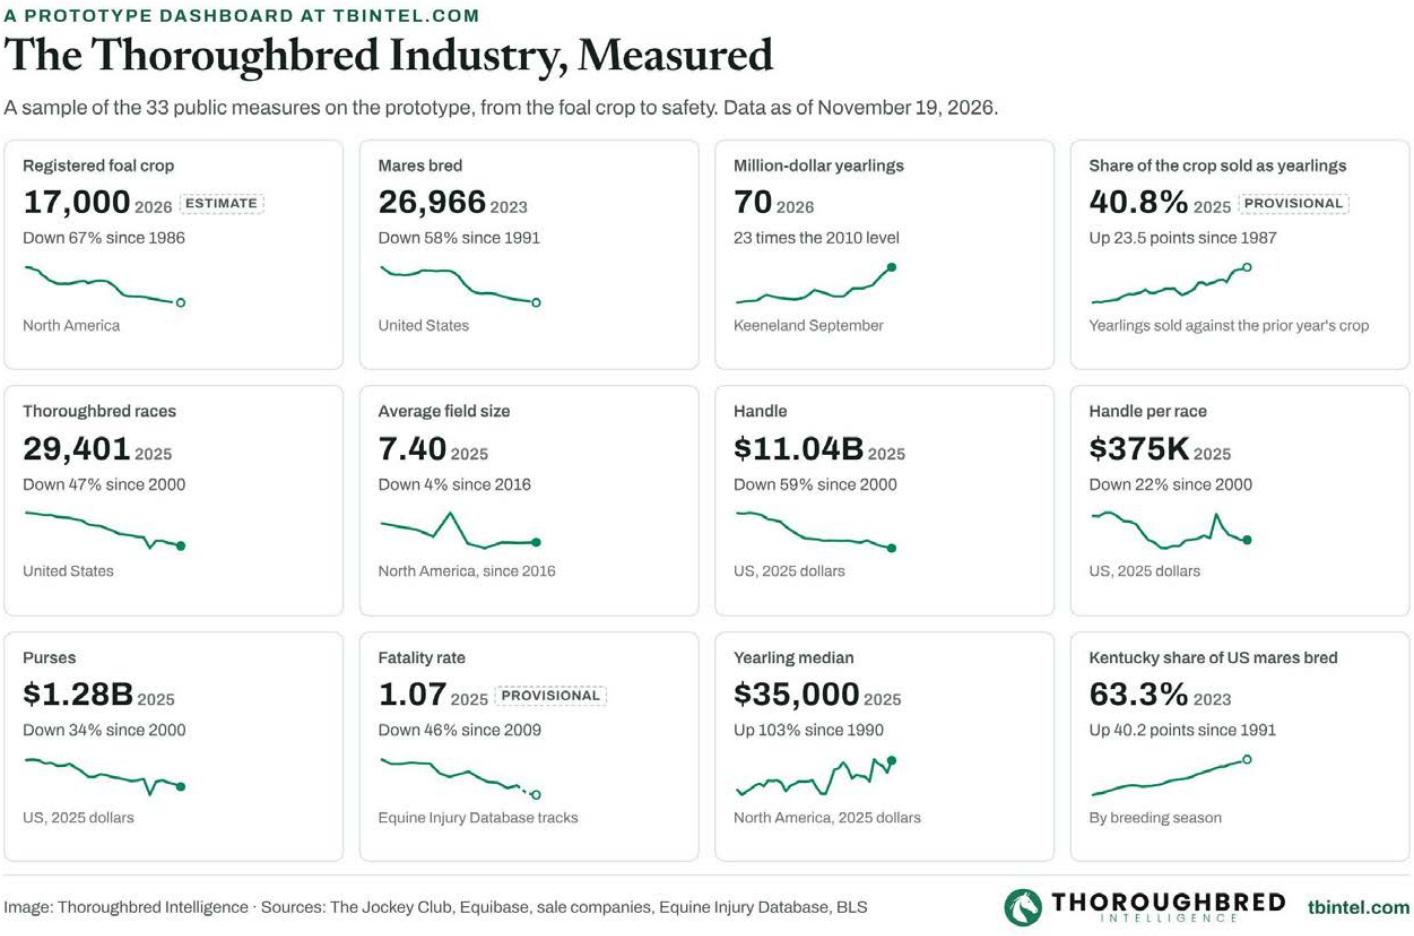

The Jockey Club, Equibase, racetracks, horsemen's groups, sale companies, wagering operators and aftercare organizations should agree on the measures, contribute the information and jointly maintain a public dashboard. Sensitive data can be reported in aggregates. A useful first release should not require a year of planning.

For an industry enthralled by speed, we sure don't move very fast. What is stopping us from publishing a first integrated industry dashboard in early 2027?

McCready, sent off at 10-1, overtook pacesetter Let's Be Frank in the shadow of the wire to win the GIII Manila Stakes at Belmont Park Sunday. The bay colt, with blinkers off for this effort, settled in midpack as Let's Be Frank took the field through fractions of :24.31 and :47.84. Waiting for racing room along the rail heading into the lane, McCready found a seam at midstretch and forged past the determined longtime leader in the final strides and Print was closing powerfully to get up for third.

"He really settled this time," said Cecily Evans, assistant to winning trainer Mac Robertson. "A lot of his past races, he broke slow and got too keen, but this time he allowed the jockey to put him where he wanted to, relax and make a run. I think that really helped him."

McCready was third in the Black Gold Stakes at Fair Grounds in February before taking an Apr. 19 allowance over the Keeneland lawn and the off-turf Kent Stakes at Delaware Park June 27. He was eighth in the Aug. 8 GI Saratoga Derby and was coming off a fifth-place effort in the oct. 24 GII Bryan Station Stakes at Keeneland.

"The horse has been training super, so it's nice to see what he actually has," Evans said. "He's had some bad luck the last two times he ran, and I don't think we saw his true potential."

Pedigree Notes:

Walk Close, winner of the 2015 GIII Modesty Stakes, has a 2-year-old colt by Jackie's Warrior who sold for $235,000 at the 2025 Keeneland September sale and a yearling filly by Girvin who sold for $140,000 at that sale this year. The mare, who was purchased by breeder Lochlow Farm for $550,000 at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November sale, was bred to Mullikin.

McCready is the 33rd worldwide graded winner for Practical Joke and the first out of a Tapit mare.

SAFFIE JOSEPH TAKES 17TH STRAIGHT GULFSTREAM TRAINING TITLE

Saffie Joseph Jr. saddled two winners Sunday to lock up the training title on the final program of the Sunshine Meet, securing his 17th Gulfstream Park meet title in a row.

Entering Sunday's 10-race program, Joseph held a narrow 36-35 edge in wins over Jose D'Angelo. He found the winner's circle early on the card with Empress New Groove in the first race and Guns of Roses in the third.

"When it got close, everyone was talking about it. It got very exciting," Joseph said. "Thankfully, the horses pulled through at an important time. Credit to the whole staff."

Saffie Joseph, Jr. | Ryan Thompson

Leonel Reyes enjoyed a much more comfortable margin of victory while topping the Sunshine Meet jockey standings. The 40-year-old jockey, who has won more than 1,100 races since venturing to Gulfstream from Venezuela in 2016, rode 56 winners, 15 more than Royal Palm Meet titlist Diego Herrera.

Reyes, who missed all of the 2025-2026 Championship Meet due to a fractured left ankle, is looking forward to Thursday's 2026-2027 opener.

"I'm happy to win the title after missing the [Championship Meet]," Reyes said. "I'm 100% now. It's been going better and better. I'll try to keep it up. I'm ready for the Championship Meet. I am motivated."

Reyes rode the winners of six races on a nine-race program at Gulfstream Park Nov. 6.

Odenkirk (inside) | Michael Burns

Odenkirk maintained his unbeaten career here with a determined victory in the Clarendon Stakes Sunday afternoon at Woodbine.

A winner over the neighboring turf course at first-asking Sept. 26, he followed up that performance with a frontrunning masterclass Oct. 11 in the Display Stakes, and took home the hardware by a dominating 5 3/4-length margin. The betting public saw no reason to fix what wasn't broken for this third start and they sent him away as the 2-5 favorite.

Squeezed coming out of the gate, but determined nonetheless to push the issue, he stalked Marvellous Marvin from second as that one posted the opening fractions of :22.86 and :45.58 from along the fence. In the thick of it as the field swung into the home straight, Odenkirk was set loose at the furlong pole to overtake Marvellous Marvin for the lead to his inside. He had just enough left to deny the late charge of Verge by a half-length while the longtime frontrunner had to settle for third.

“When my horse felt [Verge], he give me another gear. He just kind of passed [Marvellous Marvin] and he waited a little bit for [Verge] and when he feel him, he just keep going," said winning rider Rafael Hernandez.

“Three for three is unbelievable. I was so confident as [trainer] Mark [Casse] told me ' Raffy do whatever you want, he's ready. Do your thing. He's going to do his work'. So I was not worried, especially when Mark and Davey [assistant trainer David Adams] give you that option--tell you do what you want, he's ready. So, it's too much confidence.”

The victor is the fourth consecutive winner to the races for Astrollinthepark, but is her first stakes runner. He has a yearling half-sister by Midshipman in the wings who is the last registered offspring thus far. The mare was sent to Sergei Prokofiev for 2027. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

JOKE TELLER (c, 2, Practical Joke--Novella, by Red Rocks {Ire}), a runaway winner on debut Aug. 25 at Parx on the dirt, switched to the turf for the third race in a row. After two close seconds, including last out Oct. 9 over course and distance, Joke Teller went straight to the front Sunday, battled through :22.31 and :45.37 splits, opened up in the stretch, and held on as All Nessed Up (Peace and Justice) got within a neck at the wire. The 4-5 choice, Joke Teller hails from the same family as GISW Finder's Fee (Storm Cat). His dam has a weanling Yaupon filly and was bred back to Goal Oriented for 2027. IAMKIRK (c, 2, Tiz the Law--Dream Marie {MGSP, $278,420}, by Graydar) was the runner-up in the Clever Trevor Stakes last out Sept. 27 to Grand Yaupon (Yaupon), and before that broke his maiden at first-asking against the locals by a widening seven-length margin. He defeated Fate of War (Essential Quality) in that aforementioned stakes race and that rival returned next out to break his maiden by over nine lengths. Stalking the pace from midpack here, he was rolling on the bend and held his long drive into the lane to win by four lengths over Epsilon (Epicenter). The victor is the first winner to the races and first stakes horse for his dam. He has a yearling half-sister by Tapiture as well as a 2026 Goldencents half-sister. Dream Marie went to Drain the Clock for 2027. Sales history: $40,000 Wlg '24 KEENOV; $80,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP. BURNT ORANGE (f, 3, Knicks Go--Roadbug, by Quality Road) broke her maiden June 28 at Lone Star and came back Oct. 10 from the layoff to run third against local first-level allowance company. Breaking well here to stalk the action from just off a loose early leader, she saved ground on the rail, slipped through an opening coming for home, and rolled on to win by 4 11/4 lengths over Grand Circle (Speightster). JASMINE ABSOLUTE (f, 2, Girvin--Stormandaprayer {SP, $169,484}, by Songandaprayer), favored at even money, bumped the filly to her inside at the start before rushing up to take on the quick-out-of-the-gate Goodbye Girl (Life Is Good), wresting the lead away for herself before the first quarter registered in :22.36. Moving smoothly along the rail, the dark bay let French Sand (Omaha Beach) look her in the eye off the turn, then dispensed of that rival and all the rest with ease. Jasmine Absolute kicked clear down the lane to post a facile 4 1/2-length triumph under Junior Alvarado as French Sand held for second. The 'insighted' Wauwinet (Into Mischief) raced midpack before fading to seventh, while Beautiful (Authentic) was scratched.

Jasmine Absolute debuted Oct. 25 with a third-place finish going six furlongs at Churchill, setting the early pace that day before dueling with the eventual winner and getting caught by a neck for the runner-up spot.

3rd-Belmont, $100,000, (S), Msw, 11-22, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:42.41, fm, nose.

DON'T BLAME TATE (g, 2, Blame--Lyn B, by Quality Road) was a 10-1 shot here as the only horse in the field with no racing experience, and broke well to watch the pace unfold from midpack for most of the contest. Under a mild ride with three furlongs left, he really got into gear from five off the fence swinging for home and gamely launched his rally from between rivals before collaring the leader with forty yards left to race. Bracing for another charge as Raise the Roof (Tourist) was coming fast with Calling Mr. Mo (Mo Donegal) also arriving on scene in the closing strides, the trio hit the wire together with Don't Blame Tate coming up on the lucky end of the bob.

Raise the Roof was a nose ahead of Calling Mr. Mo for second.

The victor is the most recent to the races and third consecutive winner for Lyn B. The mare's 2025 Practical Joke was stillborn, but she did deliver a 2026 filly by Oscar Performance this past spring. She went back to the stallion for 2027. TURN N BURN (f, 3, Maclean's Music--Morning Star, by Sky Mesa) jumped from the blocks as the 2-5 favorite over her stablemate Magic Bijou (Good Magic) at 3-1 odds here, and immediately stepped out to lead the procession. Showing the way through :22.61 and a half in :45.88, she turned back a would-be challenger heading into the turn while still under a confident hold by Flavien Prat. Weaving greenly heading for home as Immaculate Moon (McKinzie) again tried to challenge her, Turn N Burn put that one away inside the final furlong to win by five lengths. Magic Bijou came on late to claim second.

The victress is a half-sister to It's Viper (Super Saver), SP, $229,470 and a full-sibling to SP Jester Calls Nojoy. She has a juvenile full-brother in the wings as well as a 2026 Olympiad half-sister. Morning Star was sent back to Maclean's Music for 2027.

This is the extended female family of Queen's Plate hero One Bad Boy (Twirling Candy) as well as GSW Ms Bad Behavior (Blame) and is the distant family of GI Santa Anita Derby victor Personal Hope (Storm Bird). START THE PARTY (g, 2, Constitution--Confetti, by Mendelssohn) was fractious in the gate on his Keeneland debut Oct. 17, and he faded to last after rushing up to the front early. Shedding blinkers for this jump and made the 4-5 favorite, the Wesley Ward trainee pressed the early pace and was well in hand around the turn as he ranged up into contention. Overtaking the leader at the quarter pole, Start the Party straightened out for the homeward drive and kicked on with it in the lane to win by 2 1/4 lengths over Big Tuna (Shancelot).

The victor is the first to the races for Confetti, a half to MSW Mischief in Motion (Into Mischief) and SP Amusing Antics (Super Saver). He has a yearling half-brother by Constitution as well as a 2026 half-sister by Oscar Performance in the wings. Their dam was bred to Omaha Beach for 2027.

Start the Party's second dam, Acrobatique (Discreet Cat), is a half-sister to two-time champion MGISW Covfefe (Into Mischief). That sister is herself the mother of SW & GSP Ellen Jay (Constitution). This is the immediate female family of GISW Acoma (Empire Maker) and her half-brother GISW Arch (Kris S.) as well as 13-time winner GSW Aztec Sense (Street Sense) and MGSW Campaign (Curlin). TIZ LADY LUCK (f, 2, Tiz the Law--Lucky I Guess, by Giant's Causeway), the second-longest shot in the eight-horse field at 18-1, broke from the outside post to secure a wide spot off the early leaders. After a first quarter in :22.57, she was on the move and just two heads off the front by the :46.07 half. Still wide, Tiz Lady Luck hooked up with Rahab (Into Mischief) on her inside into the lane and the two first-time starters battled all the way to the wire. A granddaughter of 2010 champion 3-year-old filly and six-time Grade I winner Blink Luck (Pollard's Vision), Tiz Lady Luck won by a head. The 'insighted' Dragon Reign (Constitution), who had a terrible start, and Bunners (Girvin) finished fourth and sixth, respectively. The winner's placed dam has a 2026 filly by Jackie's Warrior and was bred to Sierra Leone for 2027. Sales History: $50,000 Wlg '24 KEENOV; $75,000 Ylg '25 KEESEP; $330,000 2yo '26 OBSAPR. GUNS OF ROSES (f, 3, Gun Runner--Velvet Crush {MSP, $196,731}, by Tapit) hit the board in two of her prior three starts, including last out Oct. 8 at Belmont Park when she faded late to run third by a length. Off here as the 1-2 favorite, she had to overcome early contact leaving the blocks and recovered to lead the way heading up the backstretch. Comfortably in the lead turning for home, Guns of Roses had more than enough late to hold Song of Sarah (Curlin) to a 2 1/4-length margin despite drifting in toward the rail.

The victress is the first to the races for Velvet Crush and has an unplaced juvenile half-sister named Celebrate (Medaglia d'Oro) on the track. Their dam's youngest is a yearling filly by Uncle Mo after her 2026 McKinzie was stillborn.
