SUKANYA HAS DUERTE DREAMING OF SCEPTRE SESSIONS

Armando Duerte: bought Sceptre Sessions-bound Sukanya for £55,000
Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

TATTERSALLS, UK--Armando Duerte is a bit of a romantic. It doesn't take a lot to get the bloodstock agent's ticker beating a little faster at the best of times but, without doubt, if you were in his position right now, your blood would also be pumping.

Duerte admits to be suffering from "sweaty palms" and even revealed he has found himself "box-walking" in the Green Room at Tattersalls this week. Cont. p3

WINTER WATCH: TALK OF NEW YORK THE TOAST OF THE ALL-WEATHER DIEHARDS

By Adam Houghton

Winter Watch returns to mark your card over the next few months, highlighting all-weather winners early in their careers with the potential to make an impact at a much higher level in 2027.

"Charlie Appleby will win at least one Group 1 race in Europe in 2026 with a three-year-old that started its career on the all-weather."

That prediction, which appeared in the very first Winter Watch of this calendar year, looked like leaving this scribe with egg on his face for much of the latest season, with several of Appleby's best candidates to make the step up simply not cutting the mustard through the first few months of the campaign.

Abashiri (Frankel) showed glimmers in the spring when finishing fifth in the 1,000 Guineas and third in the Irish equivalent, while Classic dreams died for Hidden Force when he was turned over in the Craven, with the son of Frankel later being reinvented as a high-class sprinter when he returned from nearly six months off with victory in the Bengough Stakes at Ascot.

Why? Because Sukanya (Havana Grey), the best horse he has bought since Group 1 scorer Alenquer (Adlerflug), forms part of next week's eagerly-anticipated Sceptre Sessions.

"When I am mostly working at a lower level, money-wise, buying a filly like Sukanya for £55,000 makes me very proud," Duerte said. "Horses like her are very hard to find and, when you are operating with a budget, which I am, it can be even harder to get a good horse. It's great for the owners Opulence Thoroughbreds and, hopefully, she can play a big part in the Sceptre Sessions."

Sukanya has been well managed by Jack Channon--who is by far and away Duerte's biggest supporter--to win the G3 Fred Darling Stakes, as well as finish runner-up in the Listed Ingabelle Stakes as a juvenile. She is sold as a racing and breeding prospect and is a good advertisement of what the agent is good at--unearthing gems at the yearling sales.

"That's what I love the most about this business, working the yearling sales hard and trying to look at literally every horse in a sale," Duerte explained. "It's not easy, but I thrive on it. Okay, I get paid for putting in the legwork, but I think my niche is getting out there at the yearling sales and finding horses that I like at good value. Even Alenquer, he didn't cost a lot of money in the grand scheme of things at 80,000gns and he has won close to £1 million."

He added, "Finding those horses is what I dream about. Really. And I quite enjoy the fact that I am here this week looking forward to a horse that I bought being part of the Sceptre Sessions. It proves to me that, 'Yes, okay, you can do this.' Jack has done a fantastic job with the filly and, to have someone like him in your corner, it's what I thrive on. It's a massive confidence booster. I've been here for many years, but I still thrive on it. I just live every day and enjoy it more than ever."

Being a Group 3-winning daughter of Havana Grey, with the scope and potential to race on, will make Sukanya an interesting prospect for many buyers. While it's hard to put a figure on her, she's doubtless going to make a lot more than her initial purchase price of £55,000.

"I think she still has a lot more to offer," Duerte said. "The second part of the season did not go to plan, but she is a big, scopey filly by Havana Grey who could be suitable to many jurisdictions, including America, so it's quite exciting."

For Duerte, Sukanya proves that good horses can still be found at modest prices through hard work at the yearling sales. Whatever she makes in the ring, she has already justified the faith of the man who found her.

He concluded, "I love going racing and what gives me the biggest buzz of all is to see all of the owners smiling and happy. When you get a little clap on the back for finding a horse for a happy owner, it's what you do it for. It's a drug. I am not a person who goes out there and blows my own trumpet. Never do. I prefer to let the horses do the talking and, thankfully, we've found one good enough to do that. I will be walking my box over the next few days, let me tell you, because it would be nice to see her do well. Even thinking about it, my palms are sweating already! Regardless of what happens in the ring, she is a part of my CV and nobody can take that away."

AN OUTCROSS TO ALL MAJOR INTERNATIONAL BLOODLINES

Winter Watch

by Adam Houghton

Similarly, Maho Bay (Dubawi) left his previous form well behind when last seen winning the Winter Hill Stakes at Windsor, with Saturday's Jockey Club Derby at Belmont Park set to pose the next test of his top-level credentials with next year in mind. Better late than ever, I suppose.

Instead, it was another late bloomer who eventually came to the rescue for yours truly, with Talk Of New York finally putting it all together to win October's Queen Elizabeth II Stakes at Ascot. A five-and-a-half-length debut winner at Kempton Park almost exactly a year earlier, the son of Wootton Bassett was a work in progress for much of 2026, but we saw the finished article on Champions Day as he put a high-class field to the sword in the style of a colt out of the very top drawer.

Away from Moulton Paddocks, the Juddmonte International hero Item (Frankel)--Timeform's top-rated three-year-old in training following the retirement of Bow Echo (Night Of Thunder)--was another colt to make rapid strides following a debut win at Kempton as a juvenile.

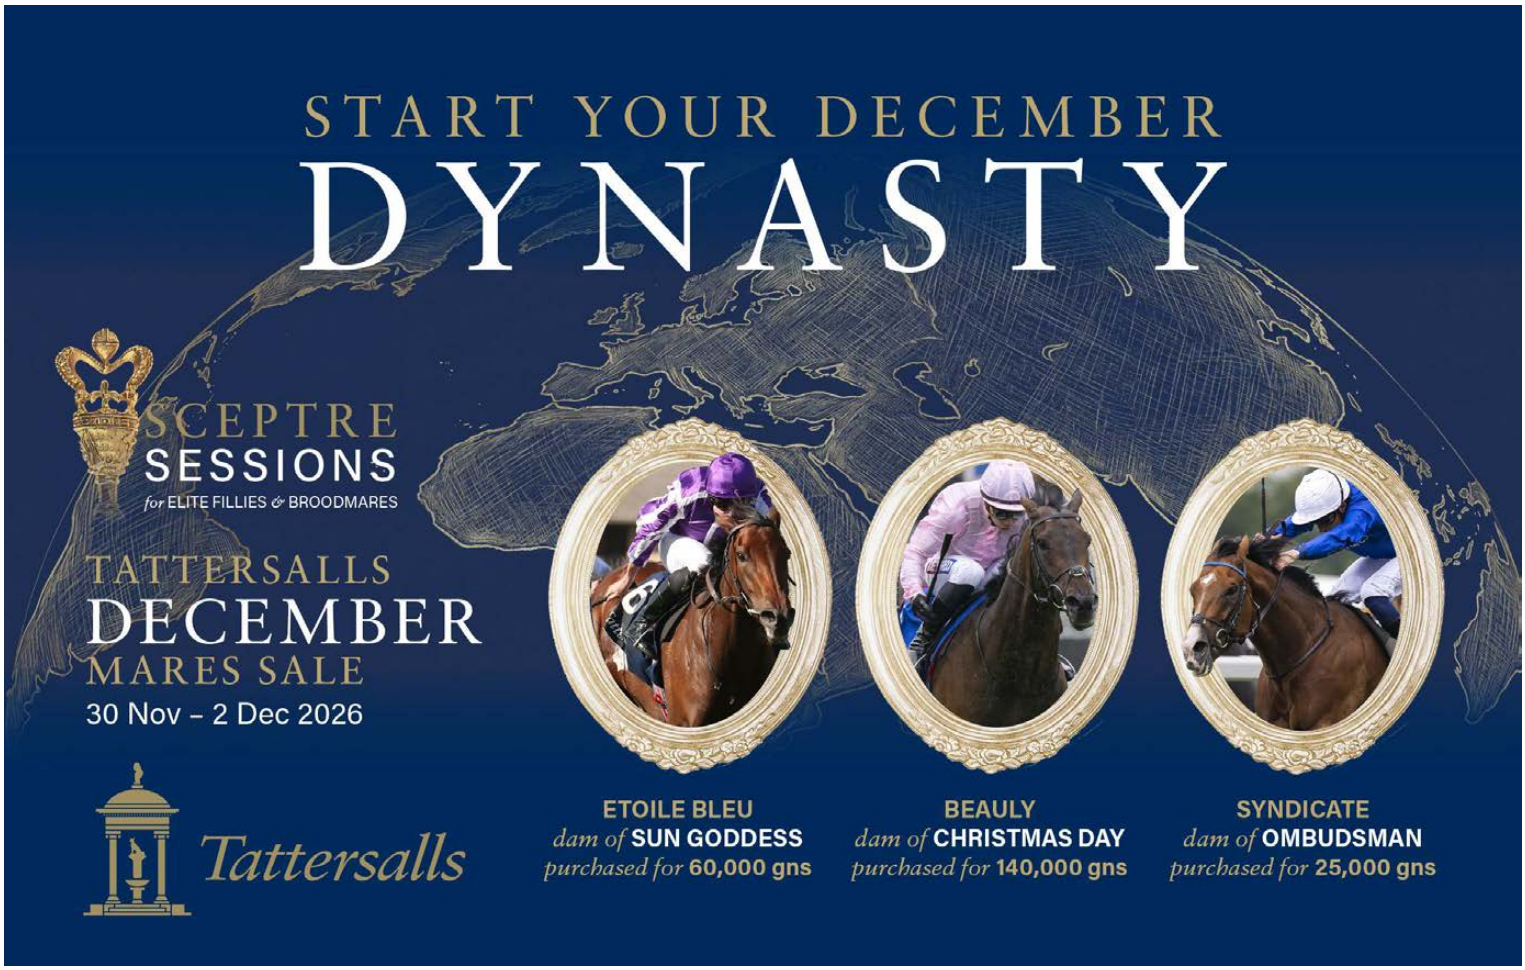

Sadly, Item's first-time-out success came in September, too early for us to claim him as a Winter Watch graduate, but his rise to stardom does serve to highlight the calibre of horse that the all-weather programme continues to attract.

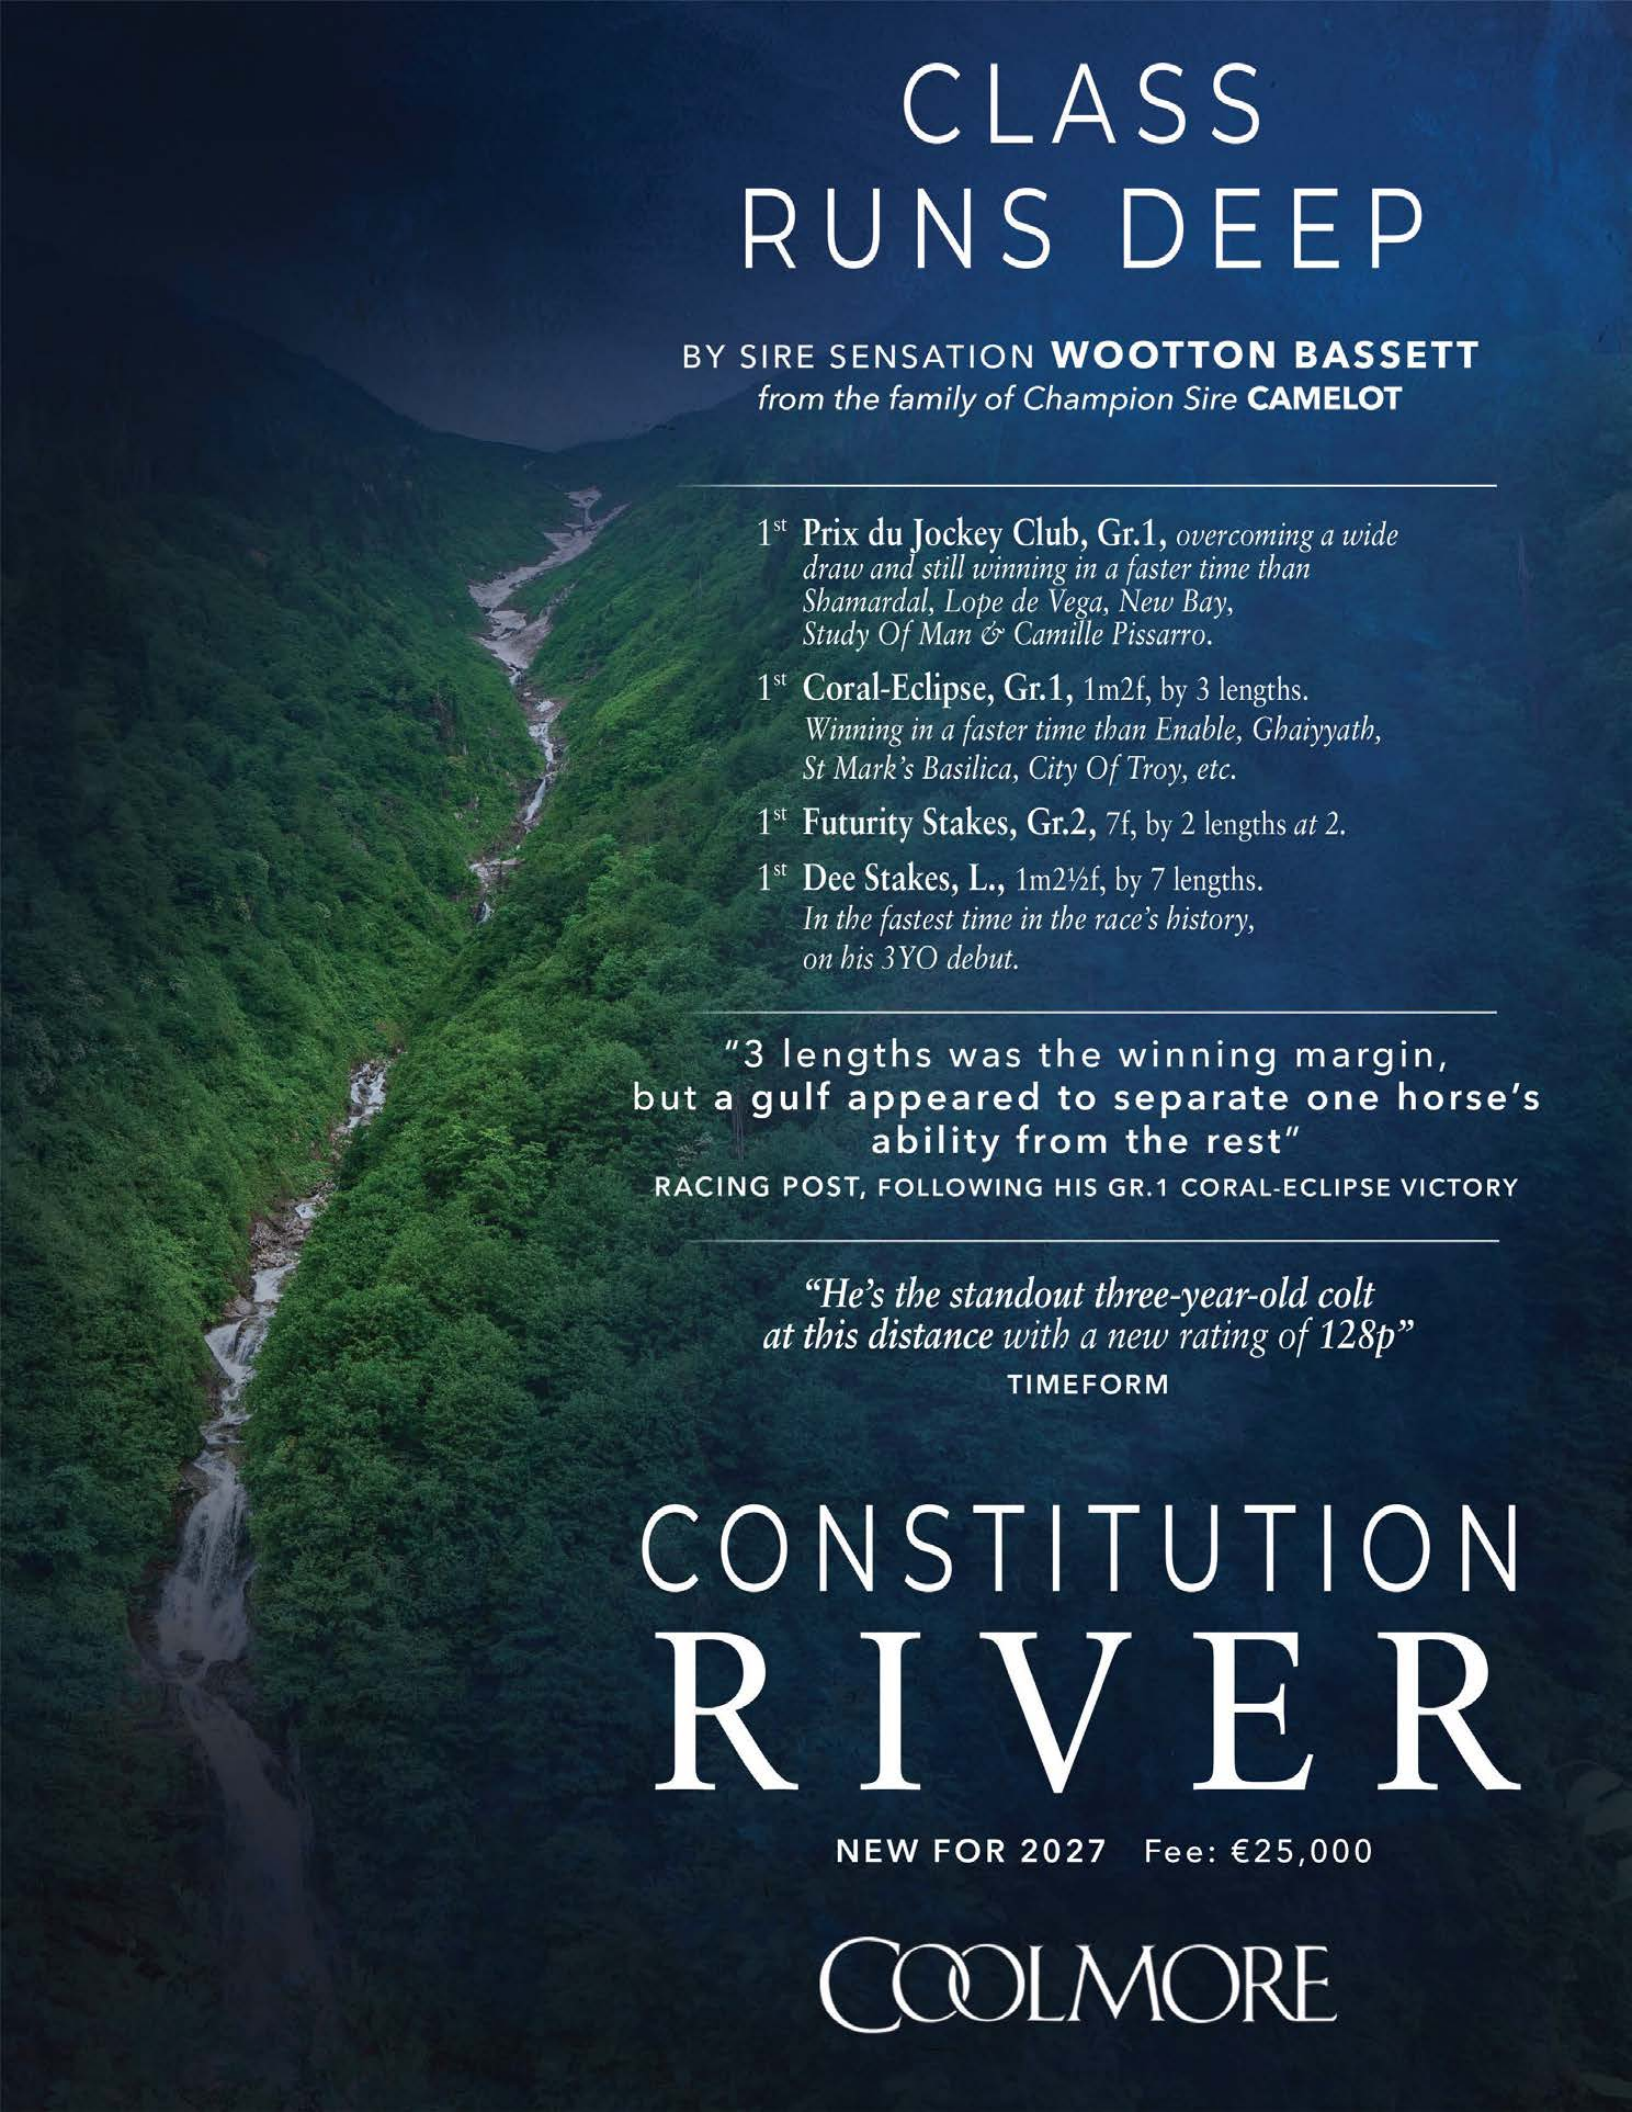

For both Item and Talk Of New York, the sky remains very much the limit in 2027, but that is no longer any of our concern. For the purposes of Winter Watch, the task now is to try and pinpoint the next Talk Of New York, or another Item, to get excited about.

We can't promise more bold predictions but, if recent evidence is anything to go by, it's a safe bet that we'll see some top-class runners of the future take their formative steps on a racecourse over the next few months. In fact, chances are we already have.

In this whistlestop tour of Britain and Ireland's all-weather tracks to get us back into the swing of things, we'll highlight some of the key action you might have missed over the past few weeks.

Gosdens start as they mean to go on

Like Appleby, John and Thady Gosden are notable exponents of the all-weather programme when it comes to giving young horses experience to prepare them for the bigger challenges that lie ahead, with Newcastle being the first port of call for the likes of Enable and Stradivarius on their way to bigger and better things.

On Wednesday (November 25), the Gosdens unleashed another exciting prospect at Gosforth Park in St Edmund (Saxon Warrior), an impressive winner of the 1m novice when quickening clear under a hands-and-heels ride to land the spoils by seven and a half lengths. A €250,000 purchase at the Goffs November Foal Sale, he's bred to stay at least 10f as a full-brother to the Ribblesdale Stakes winner Garden Of Eden.

St Edmund earned a Timeform master rating of 94P following that display which, surprisingly, isn't the highest figure given to a two-year-old sent out from Clarehaven to win on the all-weather in recent weeks. Instead, that honour belongs to Highland Ranger (Kameko), who is rated 97P after his similarly emphatic debut win at Southwell on November 7, earning himself a spot in the final instalment of our Timeform's Top Juveniles series which ran through the core of the Flat season.

To recap, Highland Ranger was a five-and-a-half-length winner of that 1m novice, easily drawing away from the standard- setting runner-up and clocking a fast time for a race of that nature in doing so. Bought for 140,000gns when he most recently went under the hammer at Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, he's out of a half-sister to the Golden Peitsche-winning sire Electric Beat, with black-type races surely on his agenda as a three-year-old.

Similar comments then apply to another stablemate in Spartan (Too Darn Hot), who also has the large 'P' attached to his master rating [92P] to underline that he is likely to prove capable of significantly better as a three-year-old. He took a while to get the hang of things when making his debut in the 1m novice run at Kempton back on October 5, but at the line he was an authoritative winner, by nearly four lengths from one who had an experience edge and was sent off the 6-5 favourite.

The first foal out of a half-sister to the Prix de l'Abbaye winning-sire Total Gallery, Spartan came from the Arqana May Breeze-up Sale where he was knocked down to the Highclere Agency for €280,000. That could prove money well spent if this first showing is anything to go by, with all three of these colts being in the right hands to fulfil their obvious potential in 2027.

Godolphin fillies Light up Kempton

Not to be outdone, Appleby and William Buick teamed up to win both divisions of the 1m fillies' novice which took place at Kempton on November 4, with Light Of The Stars (Too Darn Hot) and Valentia Light (Ghaiyyath) both looking potentially useful in making successful debuts.

Valentia Light earned the superior Timeform master rating of 88p in winning the first division by over two lengths, clocking a time around 1.2 seconds faster than the second division won by Light Of The Stars. She is out of the Shamardal mare Warning Fire, who won over distances ranging from 6f to 1m but is a half-sister to this year's Lonsdale Cup hero Al Nayyir (Dubawi), as well as the Gordon Stakes winner and St Leger runner-up New London (Dubawi). That suggests that this filly should have more to offer as her stamina is drawn out further, with a step up to at least 10f promising to play to her strengths.

Light Of The Stars, on the other hand, looked a speedier sort altogether in routing her 11 rivals by six lengths, showing the best turn of foot in a modestly-run race to skip clear in the final furlong. A full-sister to this year's Al Quoz Sprint hero Native Approach, she too has scope for plenty of improvement, with her connections unlikely to be in a hurry to step her up in trip.

Away from Kempton, Leading Role (Teofilo) also deserves a mention, having made it two from two in the Godolphin blue when following up his debut win at Nottingham with an even more dominant performance at Wolverhampton on November 16. Making virtually all in the hands of Toby Moore, he ended up defying his penalty every bit as easily as odds of 2-9 suggested he would, just needing to be pushed out in the closing stages to win by four and a half lengths.

Toderby winning at Lingfield | Racingfotos.com

Already proven over nearly 9f, Leading Role perhaps lacks a little bit of the wow factor, but he has plenty to recommend him on pedigree--his winning dam is out of the 1,000 Guineas runner-up Sundrop (Sunday Silence)--and there should be more races to be won with him over middle-distances next year.

Varian stable in sizzling form

Appleby and the Gosdens aside, Roger Varian has been the man to follow on the all-weather of late, with the Newmarket trainer currently operating at a 60% strike-rate in the last fortnight with six winners from 10 runners.

They included Hayate (Mehmas) who, having opened his account at the second attempt at Kempton last month, then confirmed the promise of that effort when defying a penalty to follow up in a 6f novice at Southwell on November 17.

Bought for 230,000gns at the Tattersalls Craven Breeze-up Sale, Hayate has been allotted an opening BHA mark of 90, which could well underestimate him if he can continue his record of run-to-run progression.

Geometry (Kodiac), a three-length winner at Southwell, and Kempton scorer Prince Of Petra (Persian King), a half-brother to this year's Grand Prix de Paris hero Maltese Cross (Sea The Stars), are other names for the notebook from the Varian yard, while Charlie Johnston has also been represented by a couple of promising sorts in Young Clarissa (Masar) and Showcasing Glory (Showcasing). Young Clarissa, in particular, ran to a big figure on debut when winning a 7f fillies' novice at Chelmsford by seven and a half lengths, clocking a decent time in what was, admittedly, a thin race.

Elsewhere, Ed Walker's Toderby (Frankel) defied odds of 28-1 when making a successful debut in the 1m novice run at Lingfield on Sunday (November 22), impressing most with his strength at the finish in winning by nearly two lengths. This colt is out of the Pretty Polly Stakes heroine Nezwaah (Dubawi), which makes him a full-brother to the Al Maktoum Classic winner and Dubai World Cup third Meydaan. He's a horse to follow, for sure.

Indica (Minzaal) looked a nice type for Julie Camacho to go to war with when downing odds-on favourite Lancaster Tower (Kingman) on his second start at Southwell, while Juddmonte homebred Fenaroli (Frankel) was successful at the same venue, having previously finished one place behind Lancaster Tower when third on her debut at Kempton. Trained by Harry Charlton, Fenaroli had clearly learnt plenty from that initial experience and duly justified odds-on favouritism at Southwell in the style of a filly with more to give. Cont. p8

Along with Lancaster Tower, Wootton King (Wootton Bassett) was another colt from the Gosden yard beaten at short odds when he finished third in the 1m maiden run at Kempton on October 21. However, that shouldn't detract from the performance of the winner, Chariots Of Fire (St Mark's Basilica), who looked a bright prospect for Andrew Balding as he overcame inexperience to kick his career off in style.

Golden Pal at the double at Dundalk

In Ireland, Natalia Lupini has been on the money at Dundalk recently with a couple of highly-rated runners in The Pipeman (Cotai Glory) and Scolyer (Golden Pal).

Purchased for just €6,000 at the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale, The Pipeman now has an official rating of 95 after he romped to victory in his maiden on October 9, powering clear in the closing stages to register an eight-length verdict. That represented a marked improvement on the form he'd shown in three previous starts, but there didn't appear to be any fluke about it on his first run since being gelded, with the step up to 7f another possible catalyst for this career-best effort.

Scolyer, meanwhile, isn't far behind with an official rating of 90, having gone one better than on her previous start when getting off the mark over 6f on November 13, making all to win by over three lengths in straightforward fashion. By Golden Pal and out of an unraced daughter of another explosive Wesley Ward runner in Acapulco (Scat Daddy), she was bought by Tally-Ho Stud for $180,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

The Michael O'Callaghan-trained Muscogee Nation is another son of Golden Pal worth a mention following his victory in a 1m maiden at Dundalk on November 6, while Pat Murphy's Rayastar (Starman) has made an excellent impression in his two starts at the same venue. A comfortable winner of the 7f maiden there on November 18, he'd previously shaped with considerable promise when finishing fourth on his debut over 6f, doing very well under the circumstances to be beaten a little over three lengths after completely blowing the start.

DAUGHTER OF MOYGLARE HEROINE SKITTER SCATTER PRIMED FOR SOUTHWELL UNVEILING

Signora Fortuna at Park Paddocks as a yearling | Tattersalls

16:15 Southwell, Nov, 2yo, f, 8f 13y (AWT)

Southwell's nine-race programme includes two Listed contests and two novice heats which feature a collection of blue-blooded newcomers.

TBT Racing's SIGNORA FORTUNA (IRE) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) is a 625,000gns Tattersalls October Book 1 daughter of G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes heroine Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy) and encounters ten rivals on debut here.

Opposition to the Ed Walker nominee includes Tony Bloom and Ian McAleavy's 475,000gns Book 1 graduate Kalypsa (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), who is a hitherto unraced full-sister to three black-type performers, headed by the multiple Group-winning G1 Coronation Cup runner-up Al Aasy, from the William Haggas stable.

17:15 Southwell, Nov, 2yo, 7f 14y (AWT)

The Nottinghamshire venue's undercard also plays host to the debut of Godolphin's 180,000gns Book 1 yearling KITE BEACH (IRE) (Mehmas {Ire}), who is a half-brother to GI Just A Game Stakes heroine Dynamic Pricing (Night Of Thunder), representing the John and Thady Gosden stable.

His opponents include the Harry Charlton-trained Barbossa (Ire) (Blackbeard {Ire}), who is a half-brother to Listed Flying Scotsman Stakes victor Benevento (Wootton Bassett), out of G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein-winning G1 Prix d'Ispahan third Pollyana (Whipper); and 1919 Racing's Kokoro (Ire) (Baaeed {GB}), who is an Ed Bethell-trained half-brother to G2 German 2,000 Guineas-winning G1 Prix Jean Prat third Fox Champion (Kodiac).

HOW THEY FARED

12:17 Chantilly, Mdn, unraced 2yo, c/g, 8f (AWT)

Alain and Gerard Wertheimer's Pianiste (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), kin to GI Canadian International hero Silawi (Dubawi), out of G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and G1 Prix Saint-Alary victrix Silasol (Monsun), shaped with promise on debut and finished 1 3/4 lengths adrift of the winner in second.

19:00 Chelmsford, Nov, 2yo, 7f (AWT)

Amo Racing's 2.5-million guineas Tattersalls December Foals sale-topper Sexy (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is a full-sister to G1 2,000 Guineas and G1 Dewhurst hero Chaldean, was never a factor and finished a well-beaten fifth of six on debut.

BRITAIN

Thursday's Results:
6th-Chelmsford City, £40,000, Nov, 11-26, 2yo, 7f (AWT), 1:26.86, st.
FORCE OF LIGHT (GB) (c, 2, Lope de Vega {Ire}--Winters Moon {Ire} {G1SP-Eng}, by New Approach {Ire}), a July 17 debut fifth at Newbury when last seen, broke well from the outside stall and raced in a prominent second through the early fractions here. Gaining control off the home turn, the 10-11 favourite was threatened by Space Bob (Space Blues) approaching the final furlong and lengthened clear in the latter stages to defeat that rival by 3 1/4 lengths.
