BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

FAME HEADS CHAMPION CAST

Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G1 Irish Derby hero Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) will bid to provide Aidan O'Brien with a first renewal of the G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket tomorrow after 14 horses were declared yesterday. Ballydoyle was denied victory by a short head two years ago when Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) failed to get past Literato (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}). Fame and Glory was second to Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the Sept. 5 G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown before failing to get into the thick of the action when only sixth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp 12 days ago. "He ran a real good race in the Arc and came out of it very well, and, although he hasn't done much since, what he has done we've been very happy with" O'Brien said. Of the withdrawals, Sir Evelyn de Rothschild's Crystal Capella (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) was the most notable, and she heads to the G2 Pride S. on the same card in a bid to follow up on her win 12 months ago. Three fillies remain in the Champion S., and among them is Lady O'Reilly, the Moussac Family and Lucien Urano's Aug. 23 G1 Prix Jean Romanet heroine Alpine Rose (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}), who will be bidding to give trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre a second win in the event following the exploits of Pride (Fr) (Peintre Celebre) three years ago. Fourth when Crystal Capella was behind her in the G1 Prix de l'Opera on Arc day, the four-year-old may have had excuses there. "She was fourth in the Opera, but did not get a good run," de Royer-Dupre commented. "She did not have a hard race that day, so I am happy for her to try the Champion S. The distance is perfect for the filly. The only concern is the up and down nature of the track. She ran very well over a mile and a half when second to Spanish Moon (El Prado {Ire}) in the [June 28] G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, so she stays further but has speed and she is a Group 1 filly for sure." Field p2

Gladiatorus on Breeders' Cup Path...

Godolphin's Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}), who shrugged off three straight defeats with a win last Sunday in the

G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua, will likely make his next start in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita Nov. 7, Racing Post reports. Transferred to trainer Saeed bin Suroor following an all-the-way win for Sheikh Mansoor bin Mohammed al Maktoum in the G1 Dubai Duty Free in March, the Kentucky-bred bay was unplaced in three consecutive Group 1 events before his Italian triumph. Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, told the Post, "It was good to see Gladiatorus come back to form, and he has come out of the race in good form. At the moment the plans is to go for the Breeders' Cup Mile, where he will be joined by Delegator, with Mastery running in the Marathon." Crisford added, "The team of American horses for the Breeders' Cup is likely to decided next week."

Trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. will attempt to collect his third consecutive Meadowland's Cup victory when he sends out the entry of Anak Nakal and Great Debater in tonight's feature for older horses at the East Rutherford oval. Dutrow won the nine-furlong test with Diamond Stripes (Notebook) in 2007 and Arson Squad (Brahms) last season. Formerly trained by Nick Zito, Anak Nakal, the winner of last year's GII Pennsylvania Derby, makes his debut for Dutrow here. The four-year-old finished second in last year's edition of the race. "He certainly came to us in the right way, and he's training very well right now," said Dutrow Jr. "I know he is going to run well. He may need a race, but he is not training that way." Dutrow confirmed that entymate Great Debater will be prominent in the early going. "The only reason I entered him was to make sure the pace is real in the race," added Dutrow. According to Dutrow, Anak Nakal, who was 14th in his most recent start in the Mar. 28 G1 Emirates Airlines Dubai World Cup, is expected to close out the season in the GII Clark H. at Churchill Downs in November.

Due to heavy rain forecast in New York this weekend, the New York Racing Association announced that Saturday's GIII Athenia S. for three-year-old fillies on the turf has been rescheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 21. The 1 1/16-mile test will be redrawn Saturday.

Godolphin's Kirklees is presently just shading the Luca Cumani-trained Cima de Triomphe in the betting market as he seeks to run his winning streak to four. The five-year-old is perfect in three European starts since finishing 10th in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic

Mar. 29. He enters this prestigious event off a handy success in the G3 September S. over the Kempton all-weather Sept. 5. Godolphin trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "I think Kirklees has a great chance in the Caulfield Cup. He has been in really good form this year, and I was pleased with the way he won his last start at Kempton Park. He did his main work before he left Newmarket, and he travelled out to Australia with no problems. He's got a great draw and he's ready to race. It's going to be a tough race to win but I think that Kirklees can run a big race in the Caulfield Cup." Cima de Triomphe accounted for Conduit (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. in May before finishing a distant fourth to Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. in July. In his most recent appearance, the gray was fourth in the Aug. 8 GI Arlington Million, some 7 1/2 lengths adrift of Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat).

BREAD AND BUTTER DAY OF TRADE AT TATTS

After the glitz of Books 1 and 2 of Tattersalls' October Yearling Sale, it was a more mundane affair in Newmarket yesterday for the first of two days of Book 3. The session turnover of 1,842,300gns dropped by eight percent on last year, the 7,000gns median was down by 12.5 percent and the 9,496gns average fell by 17 percent. The clearance rate rose from 68 percent in 2008 to 77 percent this year.

The 50,000gns paid a few minutes into the session by Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for a member of the second crop of Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) was not bettered for the rest of the day, and the youngster is set to stay in Newmarket with trainer David Simcock. The colt was a half-brother to dual Group 2-placed juvenile Salsa Brava (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}), and, bred by Crone Stud Farms, was consigned through John Cullinan's Horse Park Stud.

"He was a lovely colt, and obviously the stallion has made a fantastic start this season," said Brown, after outbidding trainer Marco Botti. "I think David has a couple more to get and will finalise the ownership of everything after that."

The day's second-highest price came for a Singspiel (Ire) colt out of a half-sister to G1 Oaks d'Italia winner Zanzibar (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}) sold from Peter Stanley's New England Stud. Michael Donohoe of BBA Ireland, acting for owner Mark Gittins, had the successful bid with trainer Ken Condon the underbidder.

"I've been mad keen to get a Singspiel all year," said Donohoe. "He's an international sire who gets horses that go on any surface and most importantly, the individual fitted the bill."

The sale finishes today with sessions starting at 10 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. www.tattersalls.com

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

Baffert Duo Prep for Breeders' Cup...

★ "TDN Rising Stars" ★ Lookin at Lucky (Smart Strike) and Zensational (Unbridled's Song) posted bullet drills for trainer Bob Baffert over Santa Anita's main track yesterday morning as they continue their preparation for the Nov. 7 Breeders' Cup. Both colts were accompanied by Joe Steiner. Undefeated Lookin at Lucky--working in tandem with GISP Always a Princess (Leroidesanimaux {Brz})--covered four furlongs in :46 flat, while his stablemate rounded out the move in :46.60. Winner of the GI Del Mar Futurity, Lookin at Lucky, slated to contest the GI Juvenile, added the Oct. 4 GI Norfolk S. in his most recent start. Also on yesterday's worktab, GI Sprint favorite Zensational was sent from the gate before rounding out six furlongs in 1:10.60. "I worked Zensational from the gate, because he drew the one hole twice down at Del Mar and I just want to make sure he is comfortable," explained Baffert. "He flew out of there and cruised around the backside. I just wanted to wake him up." Winner of three consecutive Grade I's, Zensational scored in his most recent start in the Sept. 6 GI Pat O'Brien H.

Candy Ride Colts Eye BC Dirt Mile...

The trainers of Chocolate Candy (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Misremembered (Candy Ride {Arg}) told Daily Racing Form yesterday that both could appear next in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile Nov. 7. "I've looked at a lot of horses in there, and we'll nominate to the race," Jerry Hollendorfer, who conditions Chocolate Candy, told the publication. Winner of the GIII El Camino Real Derby and fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby earlier this year, Chocolate Candy was an even fifth in the GI Goodwood S. last weekend.

Meanwhile, trainer Bob Baffert confirmed that Misremembered, who shipped to take the GII Indiana Derby Oct. 3, was probable for the Dirt Mile.

SWAN SONG FOR JONES IN CHILUKKI?

Larry Jones may be closing out his training career with Remington Park Oaks winner Payton d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) in the Nov. 7 GII Chilukki S. at Churchill Downs, reports Daily Racing Form yesterday. Jones, who announced his retirement last fall, will turn over his 27-horse string to his wife, Cindy. "I'm pleased with this," Jones told DRF. "I bought some horses for us, and I'm going to stay involved with it through ownership." Following the fall season in Kentucky, Cindy Jones will head to Oaklawn Park, where she is expected to train approximately 20 horses, most of which will be racing under their own banner. "We have so many of our own horses, and we felt some obligation to and desire to see some of the others to the end of their careers," Cindy Jones told DRF. Among those racing under their own banner is GSW Just Jenda (Menifee). "I won't be doing anything as far as the everyday work at the barn," added Larry Jones. "I'll come out for the races. And I might gallop a horse or two for Cindy or maybe haul a horse for her if she needs me to." Among the couple's other equine investments are seven yearlings, a handful of broodmares and stallion seasons, including Hard Spun (Danzig) and Old Fashioned (Unbridled's Song).

ONE CAROLINE TO RETURN IN CHILUKKI

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ One Caroline (Unbridled's Song) will mark her return to competition in the GII Chilukki S. at Churchill Downs Nov. 7, trainer Rusty Arnold confirmed yesterday. Arnold indicated that the four-year-old is scheduled to breeze Sunday morning. Winner of her first five starts, including Gulfstream's GIII Sabin S. and GII Rampart S., the grey filly suffered her lone defeat when runner-up in the May 1 GII Louisville Distaff at Churchill Downs.

NONNA MIA TO TEMPTED

GISP Nonna Mia (Empire Maker) is likely to make her next start in the Nov. 7 GIII Tempted S. at Aqueduct, according to DRF. A $200,000 FTSAUG yearling, the filly graduated by 12 lengths at Belmont in her second start before finishing third most recently in the GI Frizette S. Oct. 10. "Right now, we're doing what's best for the horse--run her one more time this year," owner Mike Repole told DRF. "She'll answer some questions for us whether to focus on sprinting or two turns next year. I think she'll be very, very tough in that race."

MIDSHIPS DONE FOR THE YEAR

MGISW Midships (Mizzen Mast) has been turned out to his owner's Juddmonte Farms in Lexington and will miss an intended start in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, reports DRF. "We had a bump in the road," said Juddmonte's Garrett O'Rourke. "At the moment, the plan is to put him back in training in December." Earlier this year, the four-year-old won the GI Charles Whittingham H., GII San Juan Capistrano H. and GII San Luis Rey H.

Citrus Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), a $50,000 OBSMAR graduate earlier this year, made it two straight decisive victories to remain unbeaten on dirt when annexing last Saturday's Dover S. at Delaware Park (video).

Trainer Gary Contessa--who picked out MGSW Peace Rules (Jules) for a mere $35,000 at the 2002 OBSMAR sale--signed the ticket on the Eisaman Equine offering on behalf of Jeff and Dave Massaro's Team Stallion Racing, John L. Moirano, Harold Lerner and David Cassidy.

"I really give all the credit to Gary Contessa because he has an amazing eye to see potential in unraced two-year-olds," Team Stallion President Jeff Massaro commented. "Citrus Kid posted a fast [quarter-mile] breeze in :21 3/5, [video at OBS], and when you combine a fast breeze with a horse that looks like it could go two turns and handle Classic distances, that's what everybody's looking for. Gary saw it in him and deserves all the credit."

Team Stallion, a racing and pinhooking syndicate launched by Jeff Massaro and his younger brother Dave in 2004, currently has 12 horses on its roster.

"Yearling sales and two-year-old sales are two different animals--no pun intended," the New Jersey native said when asked which of the two he prefers. "We buy at both, but the opportunity to watch a horse breeze an eighth or a quarter, see how it gallops out, and even how they come back to the barn after the work, are all important features. The two-year-old sales give you a little bit more to look at when trying to evaluate a racehorse."

Citrus Kid began his career with a seventh-place finish on the Saratoga lawn Aug. 5 prior to graduating by 3 3/4 lengths going a mile and 70 yards at Delaware Sept. 26 (video).

"Lemon Drop Kid is a hot sire, and his offspring have done very well on the turf," Massaro, 34, explained of trying Citrus Kid on grass in his debut. "In the morning it looked like had a turfy foot, so we gave it a try. He trained like a monster on dirt following that race, and we decided to take him to Delaware because we wanted him to go two turns, something we couldn't do at Belmont. We shipped him down there, and when he got his opportunity to go two turns on the dirt--like he's built for and like Gary saw--he showed what kind of horse he is."

Adding blinkers at second asking, Citrus Kid was the last one to exit the gate from stall six. Hustled to the front by Abel Castellano Jr., he gained a short lead on the first turn while hung out at least four wide. Enjoying a clear advantage through a half mile in :48, he turned back a challenge on the turn for home and strode clear nicely once switching leads in midstretch to win with something left.

"He wants to run all day," Massaro continued. "You watch him gallop out and he looks like he's made for Classic distances."

The dark bay employed different tactics in the Dover. With Castellano in the irons again, Citrus Kid secured good early position saving ground while racing up close in fourth. Guided three wide off the turn for home, the son of Orange Ice inhaled the leaders at the top of the lane and increased his advantage to the wire, scoring by five lengths.

"Showing the ability to win on the front end in the special weight, then using tactical speed and knowing when to make your move in the Dover not only shows talent, but also a smart racehorse," Massaro said, adding that Citrus Kid would be aimed at Aqueduct's GII Remsen S. Nov. 28. "It takes smarts to keep advancing, and he's done everything we've asked him to do so far. We have a special horse here, and I can't say enough about our partners and how much of a pleasure it's been campaigning this horse together. It's really been a great experience."

Massaro is also high on fellow OBSMAR graduate Eightyfiveinaffity (Forest Camp), who Team Stallion owns in partnership with the aforementioned Moirano and Lerner and others. Making his debut at Saratoga Aug. 1 (video), the bay ran on valiantly to place third behind subsequent GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. hero Dublin (Afleet Alex) after exchanging blows with recent GI Champagne S. runner-up Discreetly Mine (Mineshaft) through fractions of :21 3/5 and :44 1/5. He outfinished the latter by a half-length. Freshened since, the son of Lifeinthefastlane (Unbridled's Song) fired a four-furlong bullet in :49 at the Big A Oct. 9.

"We're treating him like a big horse in the barn right now," Massaro said of Eightyfiveinaffity, who brought $100,000 in the spring. "Gary did a great job identifying him at auction as well."

Massaro, a Fordham University alumnus, decided to leave law school to embark upon a handful of entrepreneurial efforts with his brother Dave, who graduated from Seton Hall University in 2001. Amongst these ventures, the siblings founded Clay Thomas & Associates, a Clifton, New Jersey-based insurance agency that maintains a division dedicated to equine insurance products and services, including full mortality coverage, horse owners liability, farm packages, veterinary malpractice, horse transportation insurance, etc.

"We're a niche market insurance agency and brokerage that engages in specialty lines of business," said Massaro, who, along with his wife Lianne, is expecting the arrival of his first child shortly. "Through our business dealings with Team Stallion Racing, we have had the good fortune of building relationships with many of the industry's prominent players, from owners to veterinarians to horse transporters, and down the line. Despite the economic climate right now, I am proud to say that our equine insurance division is consistently expanding to offer new products and services, and our client list is growing. I attribute this success to the passion my brother and I have for this sport, and the industry as a whole. We are able to assess and manage risk from a horseman's point of view, and that insight enables us to better serve our clients from their perspective." --Steve Sherack

House of Grace rallied four wide into the stretch and powered clear to a five-length debut win over the Saratoga lawn Aug. 19. Making just her second start in this off-the-turf affair, the bay filly rated patiently while saving ground near the back of the pack and began inching up along the rail leaving the backstretch. PROVENANCE

HOUSE OF GRACE (Limehouse)

The Land of Lincoln has never had, and likely never will have, the reputation for being a hotbed of Thoroughbred breeding. But over the last several years, a handful of solid, black-type winning Illinois-bred mares have made a name for themselves as producers.

In the early to mid 1990s, Bayou Plans (Bayou Hebert) rattled off four black-type wins in state-bred company and has since gone on to drop three stakes winners, including GISW Midas Eyes (Touch Gold). She is also the dam of this year's FTFEB topper, the promising Al Zir (Medaglia d'Oro). The Saratoga Six mare Sassy Pants also earned her keep on the Chicago circuit, bagging a trio of added-money events, but has made an even bigger name for herself as a broodmare. Her second foal, Madcap Escapade (Hennessy), won the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland and is the dam of the recently retired GISW Mi Sueno (Pulpit). Her next produce, Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again), took the GI Ballerina Breeders' Cup for Darley. Gracility (Known Fact) has a fair amount of work to do in order to catch up, but she is off to a good start in the form of her daughter House of Grace (Limehouse), who took Thursday's JP Morgan Chase Jessamine S. on the Keeneland Poly.

Racing for the DiCicila family's Crown's Way Farm, Gracility won the 2002 Violet S. for the late trainer Gene Cilio, and she is a daughter of another outstanding Crown's Way runner, Kuma (Naevus). The latter also produced the multiple stakes-winning Shemya (Valiant Nature), but foundered and died in 2001. Gracility was bred for the first time in 2004, but failed to get in foal and was returned to the races. She left the track for good in 2005, but did not catch that year either. Enter Dede McGehee, the Lexington-based owner of Heaven Trees Farm, who has become something of a specialist in working with mares that have trouble conceiving.

"She had trouble getting in foal for those first two years, but we finally figured out that her cervix wasn't opening very well," said McGehee, who now owns Gracility outright after breeding her first three foals in partnership with Crown's Way. "Since then, it hasn't been a problem."

With the advice of horseman and former consignor James B. Keogh, the decision was made to send Gracility to Limehouse for the 2006 breeding season.

"She was a big-boned, raw kind of mare and Limehouse is smaller and more refined," McGehee said of the mating. "James said to go with it and that's what we did."

The result was a bay filly foaled Mar. 6, 2007, and she was raised at Heaven Trees, not far from the back gate at Keeneland. With Keogh out of the consigning business, McGehee brought her Gracility filly and two other offerings to the 2008 Fasig-Tipton July Yearling Sale; it was the first time she'd consigned her own horses. Set to go through the ring in the last half-hour of session one, the filly--naturally nervous to begin with--had to endure a 10-minute power outage at the Newtown Paddocks. After finally being backed down the chute and into the ring after what seemed an eternity to McGehee, hip 268 was knocked down to trainer Ken McPeck for an even $100,000.

"She did everything fine," recalled McGehee, who had reserved the filly for just short of $75,000. "She wasn't real big and still doesn't look very big, which is strange, because the mare is big. We liked her well enough, but did we know that she'd sell well? I did like her, but Crown's Way was willing to race her if they had to," she added.

Gracility is now owned by McGehee alone, and is the dam of a Roman Ruler filly of 2008, which sold to Stephen Hillen for $100,000 at this year's FTKJUL sale. The mare, now 10 years old, foaled a filly by Langfuhr the Sunday after this year's Kentucky Derby and was not bred back due to the late foaling date. McGehee, who also sold a colt by Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) for a session-topping $180,000 (reserve $39,000) on the third-last day of this year's Keeneland September sale, has not yet decided on a mate for Gracility for 2010.

"I'm just going to wait and see how things shake out with the stallion market," she said.

McGehee, who also bred and sold GISW Panty Raid (Include) and was co-breeder of GISW Imperial Gesture (Langfuhr), admits that winning a race, even as a breeder, never gets old. "It's good, it's really, really good," she commented. --Alan Carasso

Borel Among Top Jockeys Set for 'Jockey Day':

Over a dozen top riders have confirmed their appearance for "Jockey Day" at Old Friend's Dream Chase Farm Tuesday, Oct. 20. Currently on the list are GI Kentucky Derby and Oaks winner Calvin Borel; GI Belmont S., GI Travers S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Kent Desormeaux; Hall-of-Famer Chris McCarron; Triple Crown winner Jean Cruguet; top female jockey Patricia Cooksey and Randy Romero, who partnered undefeated champion Personal Ensign. Also scheduled to ride are "Chillie Willie" Martinez; Derby winners Bobby Ussery and Craig Perret; and Jamie Theriot, Cory Lanerie, and Robby Albarado. In addition, Tommy Walters, owner of Furlongs, has signed on to handle catering details for the event, which begins at 3:30 at 1841 Paynes Depot Road in Georgetown. A live auction of high-end racing memorabilia—including an autographed racing saddle, rider's helmet, top halters, and more--will be conducted. Tickets to the event are $50 ($25 for Old Friends members and shareholders). Reservations are strongly suggested and are available by calling the farm at (502) 863-1775.

NJ Governor Cancels Meeting:

Originally scheduled for two months ago with racing commission members, who were appointed to study the issue of the future of racing in New Jersey, Governor Jon Corzine recently announced the meeting's cancellation and indicated that it would not be reset for a later date. According to Harness Tracks of America, the governor was reportedly displeased with the criticism drawn from panel members and decided to cancel the meeting because some of the 15-member panel could not attend.

MAJOR CADEAUX TO RETIRE TO BEARSTONE

STUD Major Cadeaux (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}--Maine Lobster, by Woodman), winner of last term's G2 Sandown Mile, will retire to Bearstone Stud in 2010. The Richard Hannon trainee made a winning debut over six furlongs at Newbury in May 2006 and then ran second in Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. in his only other juvenile outing the following month. He bagged the G3 Greenham S. on his sophomore bow back at Newbury and finished a close sixth in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket next time. The chestnut enjoyed a banner four-year-old campaign, bagging the G2 Sandown Mile and the G3 John of Gaunt S. at Haydock, and also hit the board in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood and the G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois at Deauville. Major Cadeaux has been winless this term, but finished fifth in the May 16 G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury and again in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua at Milan last Sunday. Terry Holdcroft, owner of Bearstone Stud, commented, "We are delighted to be bringing such a high-class son of a highly successful stallion to Bearstone Stud. He is a very impressive looking horse who went very close to being a Royal Ascot two-year-old winner, and was undoubtedly one of the best milers of his generation. His CV should certainly appeal to breeders--a top-class racehorse by a proven sire of sires, the most wonderful temperament and free of Northern Dancer blood." Major Cadeaux's stud fee has yet to be announced.

MEER ROYAL (FR) (c, 2, Meshaaheer--Royal Lights {Fr}, by Royal Academy), a debut second at Longchamp Sept. 19, recovered from a tardy start to stalk a steady pace in fourth after the initial strides of this one. Angled outside for his bid just inside the quarter-mile marker, the 9-10 chalk was ridden out late to score by a neck from Toxeas (Fr) (One Cool Cat). The homebred, a 3/4-brother to Trincot (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), MGSW-Fr, G1SP-Ger, $452,830, is the second winner for his freshman sire (by Nureyev).
