

BROUGHT TO BEAR IN THE PHOENIX

Little Big Bear | Racingfotos.com

by Tom Frary

Not even favourite for Saturday's G1 Keeneland Phoenix S., it is no wild statement that TDN Rising Star Little Big Bear (Ire) (No Nay Never) could be the best juvenile Aidan O'Brien has had though his hands after a display of power to scintillate the Curragh faithful. Always in his comfort zone on the front under Ryan Moore as chief rival Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) blew the start, the June 15 Listed Windsor Castle S. and July 16 G3 Anglesey S. winner was shaken up by Ryan Moore to put the seal on the race approaching the furlong pole. Surging away, the 13-8 second favourite issued a seven-length beating to Persian Force (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), with half a length back to Shartash (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and another length to the 11-8 market-leader Bradsell.

"He couldn't have been more impressive--he did everything beautifully today," Moore said. "These looked good and had the form in the book, so it looked a strong race but he was on a different level. He gave me a super feel the last day, he felt really good and it's hard to know what he's going to do. He's very exciting--he's a big, scopey horse and it's a surprise he was beaten the first day, but that happens and he's stepped forward every time since. There's every chance he'll be a Guineas horse next year--he's very straightforward and is doing that on pure ability." Cont. p3

GLOBAL APPEAL: TOO DARN HOT'S FIRST CROP COMES TO MARKET AT ARQANA

By Sue Finley

Next week, the first yearlings by Darley's dual champion Too Darn Hot (GB) will be offered for sale at the Arqana August Yearling Sale. Expectations were always going to be high for Too Darn Hot--a son of sire of sires Dubawi (Ire), out of the triple Group 1-winning mare Dar Re Mi (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), from the deep family of the prodigious sire Darshaan (GB). An undefeated champion at two who repeated as champion at three, he also achieved the best foal sales average of 2021.

But uniquely, it will not just be observers in Europe taking careful notice of his yearlings' performance in the ring, but several in America as well, where breeders and investors are noting the traits that make for a successful sire in the New World as well as the Old. Cont. p9

Very few juveniles are able to put such sizeable margins between them and their contemporaries over this sort of trip at this level, with the stable's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) the last to do so when scoring by eight lengths in 2005 when there was another Coventry winner in Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom) in opposition. The Juddmonte trio of superjuveniles Frankel (GB), Zafonic and Xaar (GB) were able to distance their rivals over further, but it takes something special to open up daylight at six furlongs especially when the line-up appeared so strong beforehand. Bradsell's sluggish start may have aided the winner's cause to a small degree, but there is nothing that can be subtracted from this vastly superior show of strength from Ballydoyle's new idol.

As much as Little Big Bear's wins at Naas and Royal Ascot marked him as above-average, perhaps the greatest early sign that he is held in the highest regard was the fact that connections were unwilling to risk him on fast ground at Newmarket's July Festival. Taken out of the G2 July S. ultimately won by Persian Force, the imposing bay came here to issue a warning that he could be a colossus in the Anglesey over 63 yards further and backed that up with this impressive production.

Whether Little Big Bear goes up in trip or down remains to be seen, but plans are elastic as O'Brien revealed after greeting his 17th Phoenix hero on a landmark day for the family as Joseph saddled his 1000th winner. "The lads can decide what they want to do. He has plenty of options and he can do anything I suppose," he said of the G1 Nunthorpe S. and G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. entry. "He's a big, powerful, strong horse. He cruises and quickens, is strong and mature. Before the race we had a bit of a scare with him when he came up here. He kicked a wall and the clip of the shoe went into the sole of his foot. He was a little bit tender when the shoe was put back on. It could have gone either way very easily, so it was a great call by John Halley and Lynn Hillyer to let him run."

"Ryan said when he let him go it was all over," added O'Brien, who had earlier made way for Little Big Bear to be the sole representative by withdrawing Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never). "He loves good ground so he can show his speed. It was a very good race, but he has serious class. From day one we thought he was a bit special and different. At Ascot we thought he would get away with five, even though we were happy going six with him. I'm not sure we ever had one to do that in this race. It was a deep field and we were going to find out today. Ryan was very complimentary about him and he's a realist, so there aren't many he would be that complimentary about." Cont. p4

Little Big Bear's dam, the Listed Prix de Liancourt winner and G3 Prix Cleopatre runner-up Adventure Seeker (Fr) (Bering {GB}) whose first foal was the G3 Hobart Cup runner-up Andrea Mantegna (Giant's Causeway), is kin to the G3 Princess Margaret S.-placed Along Again (Ire) (Elusive City). The third dam is the French champion and 1983 US Horse of the Year All Along (Fr), courtesy of her G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, GI Turf Classic, G1 Rothmans International and GI Washington D. C. LAKOTA SIOUX BATTLES TO SWEET SOLERA SUCCESS

by Sean Cronin

Gallop Racing's 2-year-old distaffer Lakota Sioux (Ire) (Sioux Nation--Shemiyla {Fr} {GSW-Fr, $169,373}, by Dalakhani {Ire}) bounced back off a third in Royal Ascot's Listed Chesham S. to secure a career high in Saturday's G3 Jewson Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket, becoming the second black-type winner for her freshman sire (by Scat Daddy). She had earlier debuted with a May 20 third at Haydock before plundering a May 30 Lingfield maiden by 6 1/2 lengths in her penultimate start. The 10-3 second favourite was swiftly into stride and raced in a prominent third through the early fractions of this pattern-race bow. Cruising to the front in the centre of the track approaching the quarter-mile marker, she was driven along at the foot of the hill and kept on strongly under continued urging in the latter stages, all the while swishing her tail, to prevail by 3/4-of-a-length from Dandy Alys (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). Lakota Sioux's victory was a fifth in the contest for the Johnston stable.

"Every time I see her in the paddock I think how the hell did I buy her for £15,000 as she is a gorgeous filly," said Charlie Johnston. "She was difficult to break in early on and I remember it vividly as she was one of our worst problem children in the winter. The tail [swishing] has been a theme from day one. Joe Fanning has ridden her in most of her work, but he and every jockey that has ridden her does not come in and say she is not trying. You can't question her attitude there and she toughed it out well. This has been the plan since [Royal] Ascot and I thought this track would be ideal for her.

Lakota Sioux is the seventh of eight foals and one of six scorers from as many runners out of G3 Prix Allez France victrix Shemiyla (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}). The March-foaled bay is a half-sister to stakes-winning G1 Sydney Cup runner-up Sheraz (Fr) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Blue Point (Ire). Shemiyla, a half-sister to the dam of G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Shakeel (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), is out of Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie winner Shemala (Ire) (Danehill), herself one of four black-type performers produced by G1 Prix de Diane heroine Shemaka (Ire) (Nishapour {Fr}).

GO BEARS GO TOO STRONG IN THE PHOENIX SPRINT by Tom Frary

Granite tough and virtually irreproachable, Amo Racing and Omnihorse Racing's Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) was at his irrepressible best at The Curragh on Saturday when making all in the G3 Rathasker Stud Phoenix Sprint S.

Enjoying being placed on the front end by Rossa Ryan, the 11-4 favourite who was sporting first-time cheekpieces had the 3-year-old filly Ano Syra (Ire) (Kodiak {GB}) for company throughout and that was the way they stayed as the David Loughnane stalwart secured a 1 1/4-length success. "He's only been out of the frame twice in his life and is an absolute pleasure to train. He's a horse that I hold very close to my heart and probably always will," his trainer said. "He's a terrier and would step into a ring with Mike Tyson--he's afraid of no one. The longer they come at him the better he is."

Go Bears Go had an impressive 2-year-old record, winning the G2 Railway S. here, placing second in the G2 Norfolk S. and GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint and third in the G1 Phoenix S. on this card 12 months ago. Returning this term to annex Ascot's G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial Apr. 27, the bay was only 10th in the G1 Commonwealth Cup itself June 17 having been fourth in Haydock's G2 Sandy Lane S. in the interim May 21. Shaking off that uncharacteristically flat effort when second to Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) in the G3 Hackwood S. at Newbury July 16, he was back at a happy hunting ground and never looked back once posted at the head of affairs.

"He loves it here--three runs, two wins and a third in the Phoenix S. last year where I thought he was a bit unlucky in the wrong part of the track with a strong headwind," Loughnane added.

"He disappointed in Royal Ascot, but just got out of the wrong side of the bed, overheated and didn't run his race. I'd love to see him over seven. At the moment, the plan is to head to Kentucky Downs on the 10th of September. There is a Grade II over there worth a lot of money over six and a half furlongs and then possibly a tilt at the [G1] Foret in October. He doesn't want too long between his races, he gets a bit bored. He wants three weeks, maybe four, and he loves travelling."

Bahr produced the G1 Prix de l'Opera and GI Flower Bowl winner Nahrain (GB) (Selkirk), who is in turn responsible for the G1 Dubai World Cup, G1 Caulfield S. and G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis hero Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). ANMAAT DOMINATES THE ROSE OF LANCASTER by Tom Frary

Owen Burrows always seems to pull a rabbit out of the hat for Shadwell and he was at it again on Saturday as the rapidly-progressing Anmaat (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}) made light of his task in Haydock's G3 Betfred Rose of Lancaster S. Runner-up in the prestigious Cambridgeshire H. over nine furlongs at Newmarket in September, the 4-year-old had returned to give the subsequent Listed Lyric Fillies' S. winner Achelois (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) 10 pounds and a half-length beating in one of York's biggest handicaps, the July 9 John Smith's Cup over this mile-and-a-quarter trip. Settled in mid-division early by Jim Crowley, the 11-4 second favourite moved with ease in the straight and when sent to the front passing the two-furlong pole responded generously to score by four lengths from the 11-8 market-leader Grocer Jack (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

This is a race that has served as a stepping stone to the big time for the likes of Addeybb (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), Nayef and Greek Dance (Ire) and Burrows was left pondering what comes next for the lightly-raced gelding. "It was a big performance to win at York first time out and he's pleased me since, so obviously this was a natural progression for him," he said. "That's what surprised me--just how far he travelled on the bridle. He's obviously really improving and he's caught me by surprise just how quickly he is."

"Honestly, I don't have anything in mind for him yet," he added. "Interestingly, Jim thought he relished a little bit of juice in the ground and things like the Irish Champion S. are great discussions to have, so we'll see how he comes out of it and make a plan." Crowley added, "He gave me a great feel. The performance worked out well from York and I think he loved the slower conditions today. He really enjoyed getting his toe in a little bit more and he's clearly improved again from York, so he's exciting. It was a good race with plenty of strength and depth in it and he's done it well. I was amazed how well he travelled into the race, he's very nice." Cont. p9

There is one colt on day two of the sale, Monday; lot 220 for Baroda Stud, out of listed stakes winner and multiple group-stakes placed Bastet (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), and a half-brother to the Group 1 winner Beauty Parlour (GB) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

Lane's End Farm's Bill Farish said he was so impressed with Too Darn Hot that he invested in the stallion upon his retirement.

"Too Darn Hot is a very exciting stallion for a lot of reasons," said Farish. "I think he would work well over here in America, mainly because he had so much speed. He was a seven furlongs-to-a-mile Dubawi, which is pretty rare. Usually, they're middle distance to stayers. And, being a Mr. Prospector-line stallion, he just really appeals to me for this market."

American-based breeder Tanya Gunther said she bred two mares to Too Darn Hot in his first year at stud, and has sent several back since. "Smart Change was the first; she's a daughter of Smart Strike from the Without Parole family," she said. "We thought with Mr. Prospector and the speed that can come from Smart Strike that it would be an interesting mating. The other mare was a nice, well-bodied mare that we thought would suit him physically as well as on paper.

"In the two yearlings, you can really see a bit of a stamp from Too Darn Hot. They're just very athletic. One is a late foal, but super athletic and looks precocious. The other one was an earlier foal and very tall, leggy, just an exceptional individual. And one thing I see in both of them is a lot of class and quality, so that made us very excited. We've sent a mare back again, and a couple of mares back this year as well."

She added, "One of those mares is a half-sister to Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who had a very good year so far, and people will have seen him on t.v. So we're excited about the mares that we bred to him and the offspring that we've had so far and that we are expecting next year."

"I followed him very closely from his first race on because we're close friends with the Lloyd- Webbers and with Simon Marsh," said Farish, "so he was a horse I was particularly paying attention to. And, being an undefeated 2-year-old Group 1-winning champion, and being a champion at three, with his pedigree, he really checked so many boxes for us that we actually bought a breeding right in him when he retired. That's how much we thought of him.

And we just we rarely ever do that with a European stallion."

Lexington-based bloodstock agent Mike Ryan has bred to Too Darn Hot, and bred his same mares back to him a second time.

"I'm upset with myself that I didn't breed to him in his first year," said Ryan. "I was asleep at the wheel. I bred two mares to him his second year. One aborted, and I have nice foal from the other. She is back in foal to him. She has a filly foal by her side and the mare that lost her foal is also in foal to him."

Ryan said he liked what he saw on the track, as well as what he's seeing from his offspring.

"Too Darn Hot was a brilliant 2-year-old," he said. "He was undefeated at two, showed a lot of precocity, and he was champion 2-year-old. He carried on his class and ability as a 3-year-old. He had great acceleration, which we need in American racing. He had very good tactical speed. You could put him anywhere in a race. He is a lot like Kingman (GB):

brilliant speed, brilliant acceleration, fast-ground horses. And I'm hoping he's the next Kingman and that we can go over there and afford to buy some and continue to breed to him."

Said Farish, "The ones I've seen are look a lot like him. They're very typey, very attractive. Very attractive heads and very correct. I remember when they first bought Darara, the second dam, and she was very well-conformed, very straight-legged.

And he's a more sprinter-miler looking than some of the rest of the family. But they've all been very good looking and very correct."

"He's a magnificent-looking horse," added Ryan. "Beautiful quality, great shape, oozes presence and class. And I understand his foals are very, very nice, very much like him."

Both American-based breeders said that the early support he has received from Watership Down, who bred and campaigned him, and from Darley, would prove critical to his success.

"He stood at a high early stud fee (£50,000 in year one and £45,000 in year two), and if he can stand for that and consistently get full books, it's a testament to how popular he is over there and how well Darley and Watership Down have supported him," said Farish. "He's just got every chance. You know, he's not only had four books in the Northern Hemisphere, but also down in Australia as well."

"Too Darn Hot got tremendous support from both Godolphin and Watership Down, who bred and raced him," Ryan agreed. "It's a huge leg-up for a young horse to get the backing of those kind of mares, and it gives them every chance to succeed in his first and second crops, which is hugely important. Much like Frankel and Kingman--Juddmonte supported both those stallions very heavily. And we see the results today. They are two of the top stallions in Europe. So you can't do better than that. It's up to the horse then himself to see if he can do it."

Dubawi's heir apparent? Too Darn Hot at Darley | Darley

"Everybody always talks about checking all the boxes," Farish added. "Well, he really does check all the boxes. He was a champion at two and three, he was speedy, has a great pedigree. You just can go on and on about all of his qualifications and that's the best you can do is to have all those things covered. And he really does."

"I think he's one of the most exciting young stallions in the world, not just Europe," Ryan concluded. "He's beautifully bred. He's got a tremendous race record. He has every qualification that you would look for in a young horse. I think the sky's the limit for him."

At 20 years old, the race is on to find Dubawi's heir apparent at stud, and Gunther said that with any luck, Too Darn Hot may well fill that role.

"When we went to see him at the stud, when he retired to Darley, he was an impressive individual, particularly in that he took after his father," she said. "You like to see a bit of the sire in his sons. I think the hopes would be very high that Too Darn Hot could potentially be his successor."

DIAMOND SHINES BRIGHT ON RISING STAR DEBUT by Tom Frary

There were some choicely-bred fillies in Newmarket's opening British Stallion Studs EBF "Newcomers" Maiden Fillies' S. on Saturday, but one dominant member of the class in Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum's Bright Diamond (Ire) (El Kabeir--Starlite Sienna {Ire}, by Elusive Pimpernel). Sent off at 10-1, the Karl Burke-trained bay who was a bargain €52,000 purchase at the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up was at work first under Clifford Lee but responded to power her way to the front approaching the furlong pole. Devouring the rising ground to the line, the relative of the triple Group 3 winner Realtra (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) had nine lengths to spare over the Michael Bell-trained Liberalist (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) there, with a neck back to Jalapa (GB) (Expert Eye {GB}), the half-sister to Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}).

"For a Breeze-Up horse, she has always been fairly laid-back at home and just goes through the motions so I certainly wasn't expecting that," Burke said. "I'm not sure how good the race was, but she couldn't have done it any easier. She looked like the first beat at halfway, but ran very straight and she wasn't stopping at the line."

He added, “We will see how she starts working at home. It’s amazing, as we are having a great year with the two-year-olds and we have some lovely horses there. She was not near the top of the pecking order, so it will be interesting to see how she works with those horse when she gets back. Clifford said she will stay a mile no problem, so she could go for the [G2] May Hill [at Doncaster Sept. 8].”

Bright Diamond is the second of two foals out of the dam, a half to the aforementioned Realtra whose career highs came at or around seven furlongs in the G3 Sceptre S., G3 Brownstown S. and G3 Fairy Bridge S. She is also connected to the Queen Mother’s Memorial Cup winner Solid Approach (Ire) (Definite Article {GB}) and the dual listed scorer and dual group-placed Tabarrak (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}).

FRANKEL’S KELINA A NEW RISING STAR AT DEAUVILLE by Sean Cronin

Alain and Gerard Wertheimer’s hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly Kelina (Ire) (Frankel {GB}--Incahoots {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) was let go at odds of 29-5 for Saturday’s Prix des Marettes at Deauville and returned home with a ‘TDN Rising Star’ tag after posting a taking pillar-to-post performance in the 7 1/2-furlong debutantes’ heat. The eventual winner was the sharpest of one dozen into stride and seized an immediate lead. Holding sway throughout, she was shaken up when threatened passing the quarter-mile marker and ran on strongly once quickening clear approaching the eighth pole to easily outclass Shalromy (Fr) (Shalaa {Ire}) by an impressive three lengths. Cont. p14

MAURICE DE GHEEST HEADLINES ON

SUNDAY by Tom Frary

Deauville hosts its second Group 1 contest of the August festival on Sunday, with the 6 1/2-furlong ARC Prix Maurice de Gheest representing a niche for the staying sprinters of which Godolphin's Naval Crown (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is prominent. Coming of age this term with success in Royal Ascot's G1 Platinum Jubilee S. June 18, he beat everything that re-opposed from that contest again in Newmarket's G1 July Cup July 9 only to find Alcohol Free (Ire) (No Nay Never) too strong. Some of them are here too, but this is a new challenge with several new rivals entering the mix in a race in which he was only eighth on contrasting testing ground 12 months ago. Charlie Appleby is happy that the surface will be different this time. "We know that conditions in France are there to suit--he loves quick ground and has run well over seven furlongs in the past.

Naval Crown | Megan Ridgwell

Based on his form this year, he looks the one to beat," he said.

How Far Can Harry Go?

If there is one with the capability of reaching these heights in one swoop it is Clive Cox Racing's Harry Three (GB) (Adaay {Ire}), who looked every bit in the mold of some of his trainer's better sprinters when taking the Listed Prix Kistena over six furlongs here July 10. That was a step up from his win in a competitive York handicap June 11 and there is no telling where his limit lies. "He's progressing quickly, but this is a huge step up," Cox said. "He's full of confidence and he's shown solid form on the track. He's travelled and arrived early and the journey went well which I'm pleased about, given the complications that can arise with that at the moment. He's growing up all the time and becoming more experienced and I think he deserves this step up." Last year's G2 Prix du Calvados winner Accakaba (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) is another intriguing prospect among the 3-year-olds, with her strong closing effort when fourth in this venue's seven-furlong G1 Prix Jean Prat marking her as a talented performer July 10.

Minzaal's Time?

Shadwell's history with top sprinters is a rich one and the latest big gun among them could be the Owen Burrows-trained Minzaal (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}), who has taken a while to deliver on the deep promise of his 2-year-old campaign but who seemed to come of age last time when beating Go Bears Go (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) in the G3 Hackwood S. at Newbury July 16. "He's come out of Newbury great--there is another month until the Haydock Sprint Cup, so this fits in nicely," his trainer said. "He was very strong at the end at Newbury, so I don't feel the extra half-furlong will hinder him at all. He's been Group 1-placed at two and Group 1-placed at three, so it would be lovely if he can get his head in front for one."

Toy Takes Aim At Dusseldorf Classic

Narrowly denied in the Irish Oaks, Ballydoyle's Toy (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) takes to Dusseldorf to gain compensation in the G1 Henkel Preis der Diana and augment the remarkable record of top-level winners out of her dam You'resothrilling (Storm Cat). Heading the home defence is Stall Nizza's June 19 G2 Oaks d'Italia winner Nachtrose (Ire) (Australia {GB}), whose half-sister Nightflower (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) was second in this in 2015, and Gestut Rottgen's July 3 G3 Mehl Mulhens-Trophy scorer Well Disposed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-sister to the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Windstoss (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}).

"WE LOVE WINNING RACES" - JOSEPH O'BRIEN RECORDS 1,000TH WINNER

By Brian Sheerin

One thousand winners and counting. Joseph O'Brien passed yet another important milestone in his training career on Saturday when Al Riffa (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) became his 1,000th winner in the opening seven-furlong maiden at the Curragh.

And what style it was achieved in. Al Riffa, who emerged as a major eye-catcher when staying on for second in a Curragh maiden last month, showed the benefit of that initial outing to confirm himself a potential top-notcher in the making.

It was just over six years ago when O'Brien enjoyed a dream start to his career as a trainer when, on June 6, 2016, he sent out four winners on his first day with runners.

While O'Brien trained Ivanovich Gorbatov (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) to win the 2016 Triumph Hurdle in all but name, he didn't have to wait long to enjoy official top-flight success when Intricately (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) stormed to G1 Moyglare Stud S. glory under his brother Donnacha later that summer.

But it was another winner partnered by Donnacha, the Irish Derby success of Latrobe (Ire) in 2018, that was put forward as the highlight of the first 1,000 winners by the trainer, who credited the team at Owing Hill when passing the important milestone.

O'Brien said, "It's a testimony to the team of people we have assembled on the hill. We have an amazing team of staff and they work hard every day. As well as that, we have been supported by brilliant owners all over the world and we're very appreciative of that. We're looking forward to the rest of the season now."

He added, "I think Latrobe winning the Irish Derby with Donnacha riding him was the highlight [of the first 1,000 winners]. Obviously we have been lucky to win a lot of big races all over the world but, for Donnacha to ride a Classic winner for us, it will be very hard to ever top that."

Featuring among O'Brien's 1,000 winners are the Melbourne Cups achieved with Twilight Payment (Ire) and Rekindling (GB), a Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf victory with Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler Of The World {Ire}), St Leger glory with Galileo Chrome (Ire) and multiple Group 1 wins with State Of Rest (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), including the Saratoga Derby, the Cox Plate and more recently the Prince Of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot.

O'Brien, whose father Aidan hit the 1,000-winner mark within five years of taking out his licence, has also trained a number of top-level winners over jumps, highlighted by Edwulf (GB) (Kayf Tara {GB}) in the Irish Gold Cup at Leopardstown and Cheltenham festival scorers Band Of Outlaws (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), Early Doors (Fr) (Soldier Of Fortune {Ire}) and Banbridge (Ire) (Doyen {Ire}).

Asked what drives him, the 29-year-old said, "We love winning races and that's what it comes down to. I have grown up in that environment and, when we win races, it puts everyone in good form in the yard and at home. That's what we get up every day to do--to win as many races as we can. That's the life we live and we put everything into it."

Not content with 1,000, O'Brien went and recorded a double when In Ecstasy (Ire) (Caravaggio) won the one-mile handicap, elevating his tally to 1,001 winners.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND TAKE THE DUBAI DUTY FREE SHERGAR CUP

The Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup went to Team Great Britain and Ireland at Ascot on Saturday. They earned 132 points and won five of the eight races. Second in the standings was the Ladies' Team at 81 points, with Team Rest of the World at 72 points and Team Europe at 51 points.

Jockey Neil Callan, part of the winning team, was awarded the Alistair Haggas Silver Saddle Award after riding two winners on the day--Orbaan (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the Dubai Duty Free Full Of Surprises Classified S. and Adaay In Asia (GB) (Adaay {Ire}) in the nightcap, the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Sprint.

Callan said, "There is nothing to dislike about the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup, it is brilliant. There is great prize-money and Ascot make it a family event to come and watch. It is a great day at our premier track and the fields are competitive.

"This is my third time and I have been on the winning team every year, so I am going to have to retire now. And it is great to have my family here.

"I have ridden with a lot of the international jockeys here over the years, all over the world. It is nice to ride against them on a competitive stage.

"The whole concept is great. Look how much coverage there is and people come to watch--it is not just racing people, and betting and punting and all that, it is families here with kids. They are the next generation--this is what we need to be pushing towards."

The Dubai Duty Free Ride Of The Day Award went to Joanna Mason for her victory on Amanzoe (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the first race of the day, the Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup Curtain Raiser Classified S.

The Ladies' Team representative said, "The whole day has just been amazing and there has been good team morale. It's an honour to be picked to represent the girls and we have given it our best shot. We thought we would have a really good chance today and we have come second, so everyone has done themselves proud. We have won three races and done well.

"I have loved the team side of it, too, it adds a different dimension." Cont. p17

A winner of Royal Ascot's Kensington Palace S. in June, Rising Star reported home fourth in the Listed Pipalong S. at Pontefract going a mile last month, and was 13-2 to improve at Haydock on Saturday.

Able to secure a ground-saving perch in midfield, the filly bounced into the rail rounding the bend, but recovered. Drafting off of Random Harvest into the home straight, she was slipped a bit of rein as Crenelle came up to challenge Random Harvest with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Asked for her best inside the final 400 metres, she ground her way up to take command by midstretch and was always holding that duo in the rush to the line for a new personal best.

"We travelled into it going into the dip but to be honest with you I thought we were probably going to finish fourth, but once we levelled up she really dug deep and really wanted it," said pilot Andrea Atzeni. "The ground was probably a bit dead and she's a top-of-the-ground filly really." Cont. p19

He added, "It's great for the owners [Mamba Racing], she gave them a Royal Ascot winner [in this year's Kensington Palace H.] and to win again today is fantastic. It's funny because I rode this filly on her first start here and I actually pulled her up because I thought she went wrong. I haven't sat on her since then but she's come a long way since."

The second foal and one of three runners from three to race from her unraced dam, Rising Star is a half to the unraced juvenile filly Aquila Reale (GB) (New Bay {GB}) and a yearling filly by Mehmas (Ire). Her second dam is the G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Aqaarid (Nashwan), who was also second in the G1 1000 Guineas.

WHITEBEAM (GB) (f, 3, Caravaggio--Sleep Walk {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), on a hat-trick after notching wins at Newbury in May and June, found a smooth rhythm behind all four rivals until turning for home here. Making eye-catching headway on the bridle approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 7-4 chalk was shaken up to challenge entering the final furlong and ran on well in the closing stages to prevail by a half-length from Thunder Legend (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). "She's still learning and she's a very difficult filly to get to the bottom of, so we'll probably only know how good she is next time out when she steps up in grade," said winning rider David Probert. "Mr [Roger] Charlton was keen not to rush things with her, she got a little bit worked up on her first and second starts while last time over a mile she was a little bit keen. It looked as though a step back to seven [furlongs] would suit her and she was very smooth today. She had a little look around at the end, so I'd say her performance was a little better than it looked. She's very well bred and I haven't yet asked her a serious question, so she's exciting." Whitebeam is the third of five foals and one of two scorers out of a multiple-winning half-sister to four stakes performers headed by G1 St Leger hero Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and MGSW GI E.P. Taylor S. runner-up Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}). SHELTON (IRE) (f, 2, Mehmas {Ire}--Raas, by Iffraaj {GB}), who registered a July 17 debut seventh over this course and distance last time, raced in third for the most part here. Nudged along passing the quarter-mile pole, the 4-1 chance gained a narrow advantage entering the final furlong and was pushed out from there to assert by an ultimately comfortable 1 1/2 lengths from Basil Martini (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). "I think she's a nice filly and she learned from her debut," said trainer Paddy Twomey. "I was hoping she'd run a nice race coming here and delighted the way she won. I haven't thought past today, but she has an entry in the [G2] Debutante and the [G1] Moyglare. I think seven [furlongs] is no problem and we'll talk to Billy [Lee] and regroup. He said she should be well capable of stepping up in class. The trainer would love to take baby steps, but he might not be allowed!" AL RIFFA (FR) (c, 2, Wootton Bassett {GB}--Love On My Mind {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), who was heavily-supported into 1-2 favouritism following his debut second to Hans Andersen (GB) (Frankel {GB}) over this course and distance July 16, broke smartly from his wide draw to track the pace closely on the outer. Committed passing three out, the bay had a clear lead a furlong later and was pushed out to score by 1 1/2 lengths from Salt Lake City (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). In doing so, he was providing Joseph O'Brien--who was at Saratoga--with his 1000th winner. Joseph's assistant Brendan Powell said, "He's so big and still immature, but he's come on bundles for his first run. The future is bright with him and he could be anything. He'll stay well. He seems to go on this quick ground for a big horse. They have mentioned the [G1] National S. and you would have to talk about that with him. For the size of him, I think he's going to be a cracking 3-year-old." Cont. p21

Beginning to assert passing the two-furlong marker, the 5-2 favourite found the line in time to hold the strong-finishing Ballydoyle newcomer Cairo (Ire) (Quality Road) by a head. "I fancied her the last day, but Ben [Coen] just thought she didn't get home," trainer Johnny Murtagh explained. "She worked well during the week and Ben said she's getting a bit quicker with racing. There is a five-furlong listed race here next weekend so if she's okay we might bring her back out again quickly and give her a shot at it. Ben said she pulled up a bit when she hit the front as well. She travelled very strongly today for most of the race." Ocean Vision became the first stakes winner for his three-time Group 1-winning sire (by War Front) with a rallying victory in the Listed Prix de la Valley d'Auge at Deauville on Saturday. A winner at first asking at Dundalk in April, the bay was fourth in his next two starts including the May 21 G3 Marble Hill S. at the Curragh to subsequent Group 2 winner Blackbeard (Ire) (No Nay Never).

One of the longer shots on the board, the Tim Donworth trainee raced near the tail of the field down the straight until half-way. Shifted out, he began to edge past rivals up the extreme outside, until just pipping the group-placed Vicious Harry at the line. His Donworth-trained stablemate Kokachin was just touched off for second in a blanket finish.

"Jim Ryan called me and told me he had a horse for me that he thought would be better suited by the ground in France," explained trainer Tim Donworth. "That was two months ago and ever since he arrived I had this race in mind for him. I had worked him recently with the filly [Kokachin] and I felt they both had a good chance of getting a share of the money. He is a horse that's slow at the start, but capable of finding more and more in the latter stages providing there is a good pace." Cont. p22

Donworth continued, "That is what I said to Maxime [Guyon] and he rode a great race. I have no words, it's pure magic, my first listed race for my first Deauville meeting and my parents are here. We will see what could be next, the filly seems to be on her best distance, but the colt might go further."

The third winner of eight foals, Ocean Vision is the first offspring of the listed-placed Balaagha to earn black-type with Saturday's victory. From the extended family of Grade I winners Echo Zulu (Gun Runner), Echo Town (Speightstown) and Engine One (Our Michael), she has a yearling colt by El Kabeir still to come. VIDEO, sponsored by TVG.

The April-foaled bay is a half-sister to multiple Group 1-winning sire Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), G3 Autumn S. third Dhahabi (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) and multiple Graded-placed Listed Ballymacoll Stud Lord Weinstock Memorial winner Eastern Belle (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), herself the dam of dual Group 3 winner Megallan (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Princesse d'Or is also kin to the unraced 2-year-old filly Chalice (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) and a yearling colt by Kingman (GB). Sales history: 2,000,000gns Ylg '20 TATOCT.
