1 Respondent, the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB), submits the following opposition
2 to the Petition for Writ of Administrative Mandamus pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 3 1094.5 filed by Petitioner Jerry Hollendorfer.

4 INTRODUCTION

5 The petition for writ of administrative mandamus should be denied. Petitioner was not a 6 party to either of the two administrative proceedings conducted by the CHRB, and has no 7 standing to challenge the results of those proceedings. The CHRB conducted one administrative 8 hearing between the California Thoroughbred Trainer's Association (CTT) and the Stronach
9 Group entities, the Los Angeles Turf Club (LATC) and the Pacific Racing Associations (PRA), 10 relating to a dispute regarding terms in a contract between those two parties, referred to as a Race 11 Meet Agreement (RMA). The CHRB adopted the hearing officer's decision that the dispute was 12 moot because the term of the RMA expired. The CHRB began a second administrative hearing 13 process between the CTT and the Del Mar Turf Club (DMTC) relating to the same disputed 14 language in the RMA between the CTT and the DMTC, but the parties later settled their dispute 15 and withdrew their request for a CHRB hearing. Petitioner, while a member of the CTT, was not 16 a party to either RMA. Because he was a CTT member, he authorized CTT to negotiate and 17 enforce the RMAs on his behalf; that does not give him standing here.

18 Even if Petitioner did have standing, the petition should still be denied. As to the LATC 19 administrative process, the CHRB correctly decided that the matter was moot. Subsequent actions 20 by the CHRB to impose the terms of the RMA on later race meets because parties could not agree
21 on the terms of a RMA was unforeseeable, and is irrelevant to whether the CHRB's mootness 22 decision was correct at the time based on the administrative record before the CHRB. As to the 23 DMTC proceeding, there was no hearing, and the CHRB never issued an administrative decision 24 that would be subject to judicial review under C.C.P section 1094.5. The CHRB accepted the 25 parties' representation of settlement and never rendered a decision. Thus, that aspect of 26 Petitioner's cause of action is not ripe for adjudication now.

27 Petitioner has no standing to challenge the outcome of either administrative proceeding 28 conducted by the CHRB, and his petition under C.C.P. section 1094.5 should be denied.

1 STATEMENT OF FACTS

2 A. The CHRB Is Charged with Protecting the Public and the Industry.

3 Horse racing under the pari-mutuel wagering system was created by constitutional 4 amendment in 1933. (Cal. Const., Art. IV, § 19, subd. (b).) The expressed intent of the Horse 5 Racing Law is to allow pari-mutuel wagering on horse races and: (1) Assure protection of the 6 public; (2) Encourage agriculture and the breeding of horses in this state; (3) Provide uniformity
7 of regulation for each type of horse racing; and (4) Provide for maximum expansion of horse-8 racing opportunities in the public interest. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 19401, subds. (a)-(d).)<sup>1</sup>

9 To accomplish these objectives, the constitutional amendment created the California Horse 10 Racing Board (CHRB/Board) to oversee the industry’s activities in this state. The California 11 Horse Racing Law, codified at Section 19400, et. seq., and the rules and regulations promulgated 12 under Title 4 of the California Code of Regulations, govern this case. (§§ 19412, 19590-19608.8.)
13 The CHRB is vested with all powers necessary to carry out the purposes of the Horse Racing
14 Law. (§ 19440, subd. (a)(1); § 19562; title 4, Cal. Code Regs., § 1400, et seq.)

15 B. The CTT Represents Individual Trainers in Negotiating RMAs.

16 The Horse Racing Law requires every licensed Thoroughbred racing association to enter 17 into a Race Meet Agreement (RMA) with the official organization representing the interests of 18 licensed Thoroughbred trainers prior to the start of each such race meet. (CHRB Rule 2044.)
19 Though not a party to this action, the California Thoroughbred Trainers (CTT) acts as the official 20 organization representing the interests of licensed Thoroughbred trainers in the State of 21 California. (§ 19613.) Pursuant to CHRB Rule 2044 (Agreements to Be Filed), since 1995 the 22 CHRB has required licensed Thoroughbred racing associations to enter into a RMA with the 23 CTT. Thus, the CTT is charged with statutory and regulatory duties to negotiate, among other 24 matters, the terms and conditions under which individual licensed trainers participate in licensed 25 race meets. (FAP ¶¶ 18, 19). The RMAs existed between the CTT and the relevant racing 26

noted.

1 associations. (FAP ¶¶ 20, 48-50; Petitioner’s Amended Notice of Lodgment of Administrative 2 Record (AR), AR 00046-64 [CTT/PRA RMA]; AR00066-84 [CTT/Santa Anita RMA].)

3 C. Petitioner Is a Thoroughbred Trainer and Member of the CTT.

4 Petitioner is a trainer who has been licensed by the CHRB for over 40 years as a trainer and 5 owner. (FAP ¶¶ 11, 12.) As a licensed Thoroughbred trainer in good standing, Petitioner is, and 6 was at all relevant times, a member of CTT. (FAP ¶ 21.) “[E]ach licensed trainer, including 7 Petitioner, who participates or seeks to participate in a race meet does so bound by and subject to 8 the terms of the required RMA between the CTT – as the official acknowledged horsemen’s
9 organization – and the licensed racing association.” (FAP ¶ 51; CHRB Rule 2041.)

10 D. The Racing Associations Ban Petitioner After Six of His Horses Died 11 Between December 2018 and June 2019 at Tracks Operated by the 12 Stronach Group.

13 During the 2018-2019 winter and spring race meets conducted at Santa Anita Park 14 Racecourse (“Santa Anita”), 31 horses suffered catastrophic breakdowns. (FAP ¶ 29.) Four of 15 Petitioner’s horses died at Santa Anita during its 2018-2019 season. (FAP ¶ 33, Exh. G, p. 2.)
16 Two of Petitioner’s horses died at Golden Gate Fields before the Santa Anita 2018-2019 season
17 started. (FAP, Exh. G, p. 2.) On June 22, 2019, the Stronach Group (which operates the racing 18 associations at Golden Gate Fields and Santa Anita) issued a press release stating that Petitioner, 19 a CTT member, “was no longer welcome to stable, race, or train his horses at any of [TSG’s] 20 facilities” because his “record in recent months at both Santa Anita and Golden Gate Fields has 21 become increasingly challenging and does not match the level of safety and accountability [the 22 race tracks] demand.” (FAP ¶ 49, 54; AR 4, AR 5, 90.) DMTC issued a similar statement a 23 couple weeks later. (FAP ¶ 54, 170).

24 E. The CTT’s Complaints Regarding Petitioner.

25 On July 12, 2019, the CTT filed a complaint with the CHRB requesting an investigation of 26 the exclusion of Petitioner from the summer race meet at Del Mar. (FAP ¶ 56; AR 00390-393.)

27 On July 24, 2019, on Petitioner’s behalf, the CTT filed a second complaint with the CHRB 28 – as against LATC and PRA – based on their exclusion of Petitioner from Santa Anita and Golden Gate Fields. (FAP ¶ 80; AR 00041-42.)

1           F.     Petitioner’s Complaints.

2           On July 23, 2019, Petitioner filed complaints under Section 19573 and CHRB Rule 1765.
3 (FAP ¶ 60.) The next day, the CHRB responded that it would not grant a hearing on the basis of a 4 racing association’s action under Rule 1989, Removal or Denial of Access, which provides that 5 “Any person may be removed or denied access for any reason deemed appropriate by [an] 6 association, fair or simulcast facility notwithstanding the fact that such reason is not specified in 7 the rules.” The letter referred to CHRB Rule 1485, License Subject to-Conditions and 8 Agreements, stating “that ‘Possession of a license does not confer any right upon the holder 9 thereof to employment at or participation in a race meeting or to be within the inclosure.’ These 10 regulations reflect the Board’s longstanding position on this issue.” (FAP, Exh. A.)

11           On September 26, 2019, Petitioner filed an urgent Second Complaint with Respondent; this 12 one against the LATC. That complaint was based on LATC’s refusal to accept a valid race entry 13 submitted to the Racing Office at Santa Anita earlier in the day. (FAP ¶ 83.) As will be discussed
14 in the CHRB’s opposition to Petitioner’s petition for traditional mandamus under C.C.P. Section 15 1085, the CHRB properly investigated his complaint and determined in its discretion that no rules
16 were violated. (FAP, Exh. D, p. 2.)

17           G.     The CHRB Held a Hearing on the CTT’s Complaint That PRA and LATC
18           Violated the RMA and Decided the Dispute Was Moot.

19           The CHRB appointed Hearing Officer Patrick J. Kane (Officer) who presided over the 20 action pursuant to CHRB Rule 1414. The Officer held a scheduling conference and the parties 21 agreed to a briefing schedule. (AR 6; AR 00388-389.) Following submission of the parties’ briefs,
22 the Officer found the dispute appropriate for disposition without holding a hearing. (AR 4, 6.)
23 The following exhibits were entered into the record: Exhibit “1,” The Race Meet Agreement 24 Between the PRA and the CTT; Exhibit “2,” The Race Meet Agreement Between the LATC and 25 the CTT; Exhibit “3,” The Stronach Group Press Release Dated June 22, 2019; Exhibit “4,” 26 Correspondence to Charles Winner, Chairman of the CHRB, Dated July 24, 2019; Exhibit “5,” 27 The September 26, 2019 Order Setting the Briefing Schedule; Exhibit “6,” Petitioner's Opening 28 Brief Dated November 1, 2019; Exhibit “7,” Respondents' Brief Dated December 6, 2019;

1 Exhibit “8,” Petitioner's Reply Brief Dated December 16, 2019; Exhibit “9,” Respondents’
2 Request for Judicial Notice; and Exhibit “10,” a ruling on CTT’s Evidentiary Objections.

3 The Officer found that the CTT and PRA (both PRA and PRA II) entered into a RMA on or 4 about November 14, 2018, to hold a race meet at Golden Gate Fields from December 26, 2018 5 until December 25, 2018. (AR 3, 4-5.) The Officer found that the CTT and LATC executed an 6 RMA governing the race meeting at Santa Anita Park from December 26, 2018 to December 25, 7 2019. (AR 3, 5.) Both RMAs appeared identical. (AR 5.)

8 The Officer found that on “June 22, 2019, the Stronach Group, the entity overseeing 9 Respondents LATC, PRA and PRA II, issued a press release stating that CTT member Jerry 10 Hollendorfer ("Trainer") ‘was no longer welcome to stable, race, or train his horses at any of 11 [Respondents’] facilities’ because Trainer's ‘record in recent months at both Santa Anita and 12 Golden Gate Fields has become increasingly challenging and does not match the level of safety 13 and accountability [Respondents’] demand.’” (AR 5.)

14 The Officer found that on July 24, 2019, the CTT submitted a formal complaint to the 15 CHRB pursuant to California Code of Regulations, Title 4, section 2043 claiming Respondents 16 violated certain provisions of the RMAs, referring to Exhibit 4. Specifically, the CTT alleged that 17 the “unilateral decision of [Respondents] to eliminate [Trainer’s] participation in racing and 18 training at [Respondents’] tracks under [Respondents’] ‘safety and accountability’ procedures is 19 violative of Section 5 of the [RMAs].” (AR 5.)

20 Section 5 of the RMAs provided in pertinent part that:

21 Track may, in its discretion, establish rules, regulations, and 22 security procedures that may limit or eliminate Applicant's ability 23 to participate in racing or training activities at Track or any 24 auxiliary training facility, subject to the agreement of the CTT. The 25 agreement of CTT shall be a condition precedent to any execution 26 of a decision by Track to limit or eliminate Applicant's ability to 27 participate in racing or training activities at Track or any auxiliary 28 training facility.

(AR 6, citing Exhs. 1-2, AR 46-64, quoted portion at AR 50.)

1 The Officer determined he had the ability to adjudicate the Dispute pursuant to CHRB Rule
2 2043 (Cal. Code Regs. Tit. 4 § 2043), and that the CTT had to prove that the LATC/PRA violated
3 the RMAs by a preponderance of the evidence. (AR 6.) The Officer denied respondents’ request
4 to take judicial notice of a news article, but took notice of three superior court orders. (AR 7-8.)
5 The Officer ruled on CTT’s evidentiary objections. (AR 8, citing Exh. 10, AR 00359-387.)

6 The Officer ruled that any supposed violation of the RMAs was moot. The Officer 7 reasoned that “[The CTT’s] assertion that [the LATC/PRA parties] violated Section 5 of the 8 Agreements is moot because the Agreements are no longer enforceable against either [the CTT]
9 or [the LATC/PRA parties] as they are ‘applicable only to thoroughbred race meetings conducted 10 by [the LATC/PRA parties] under license from the CHRB for the period commencing December 11 26, 2018 through December 25, 2019.’” (AR 00048 [GGF RMA]; AR 00068 [LATC RMA] at ¶ 12 1.) As a result, the instant Dispute should be dismissed on mootness grounds.” (AR 8.) The 13 Officer found that the CTT sought declaratory relief, and that meant that CTT had to show that 14 the Dispute was a proper subject of declaratory relief, which it did, and that the Dispute 15 concerned an actual controversy involving justiciable questions relating to the CTT’s rights or 16 obligations. The Officer found the CTT could not demonstrate an actual controversy because the 17 RMAs expired on December 25, 2019. “Thus, [the CTT] cannot meet the second element of a 18 declaratory relief claim since the Dispute now improperly seeks redress for ‘past wrongs.’” 19 (Citing Gafcon, Inc. v. Ponsor & Associates (2002) 98 Cal.App.4th 1388, 1403 [“[D]eclaratory 20 relief operates prospectively, and not merely for the redress of past wrongs.”].) (AR 9.)

21 The Officer separately found that CHRB Rule 2043’s language also supported the mootness 22 finding. (AR 10.) “[The CTT] cannot be granted any relief Section 2043 provides because the 23 expired Agreements cannot be the basis of an “actual controversy to adjudicate” as require. “Nor 24 can this Officer order compliance with the terms of the Agreements since they became 25 unenforceable as of December 25, 2019.” (AR 10, ref. to Exhs. 1-2 at ¶ 1.)

26 Finally, the Officer rejected the CTT’s argument that the issue is not moot because it 27 involves a matter of public interest that is likely to recur. (AR 10.) The Officer determined that 28 “[b]ecause the Dispute requires a factual determination to be resolved by considering the

1 Agreements at issue, and because any dispute thereunder must be resolved on a case-by-case 2 basis, this Officer finds the Dispute does not concern a broad public interest. (AR 10.) The 3 Officer further reasoned, “Nor is there is any probability that the Dispute will likely recur because 4 any future dispute between [the CTT] and [the LATC/PRA parties] will solely concern whatever 5 race meet agreement is in place at that time as opposed to the Expired Agreements.” (AR 11.) The 6 Officer ruled that no exception to the mootness doctrine applied. “Simply put, [the CTT’s] ability
7 to seek a declaration as to whether [the LATC/PRA parties] violated Section 5 of the Agreement
8 expired at the same time the Agreements did. Thus, [the CTT’s] remedy against [the LATC/PRA
9 parties], as it relates to the Agreements, is to pursue a fully matured claim for breach of contract, 10 if such a claim exists.” (AR 11.) The CHRB adopted the Proposed Decision on February 20, 11 2020, effective February 24, 2020. (AR 2.)

12 H. The CTT and DMTC Settled Their Dispute and the CTT Withdrew Its 13 Request for a Hearing by the CHRB.

14 On or about December 24, 2019, counsel for the CTT advised the CHRB that the CTT and 15 the DMTC settled their dispute regarding the Rule 2043 complaint assigned to CHRB hearing 16 officer Patrick Kane. Counsel for the CTT advised that the CTT “is hereby withdrawing its 17 complaint; consequently there is no need to proceed with the hearing of that complaint.” (AR 18 332; AR00394 -404 [settlement agreement].)

19 I. Petitioner’s Civil Action Here.

20 Petitioner filed this action on May 28, 2020, alleging causes of action for mandamus under 21 Code of Civil Procedure section 1085 and 1094.5, and for a statutory violation of Government
22 Code section 815.6. The gravamen of the First Amended Petition (FAP) is that the CHRB
23 allegedly refused to conduct a hearing regarding LATC’s and DMTC’s refusal to grant Petitioner 24 stabling and accept his race entries under Business and Professions Code and CHRB rules. The 25 Petition seeks a writ of mandate pursuant to either Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5 or 26 Code of Civil Procedure section 1085 compelling the CHRB to hold such a hearing. (FAP, ¶¶ 157 27 [1085 writ], 187 [1094.5 writ].) As discussed here and in its concurrently-filed opposition to 28 Petitioner’s traditional mandamus petition, the CHRB conducted the administrative processes

1 relating to the RMAs pursuant to complaints by the CTT, and properly investigated Petitioner's 2 complaints and determined no violation of the Horse Racing Law occurred.

3 STANDARD OF REVIEW

4 Code of Civil Procedure, section 1094.5 governs judicial review of decisions of 5 administrative agencies. (Coombs v. Pierce (1991) 1 Cal.App.4th 568, 575.) This court is to 6 exercise its independent judgment and also afford a strong presumption of correctness concerning 7 the administrative findings. (Manriquez v. Gourley (2003) 105 Cal.App.4th 1227, 1233 citing to 8 Fukuda v. City of Angels (1999) 20 Cal.4th 805, 817.)

9 The burden of proof rests on Petitioner. His burden is to convince the court that the 10 CHRB's decisions were contrary to the weight of the evidence. (Drummev v. State Board of 11 Funeral Directors (1939) 13 Cal.2d 75, 85.) Petitioner must satisfy this burden in the face of the 12 presumption that official duty has been regularly performed. (Evid. Code, § 664.) This 13 presumption applies to hearings before administrative agencies. (Mednik v. State Dept. of Health 14 Care Services (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 631; Chosick v. Reilly (1954) 125 Cal.App.2d 334; Santa 15 Clara Federation of Teachers, Local 2393 v. Governing Bd. of Santa Clara Unified School Dist.
16 (1981) 116 Cal.App.3d 831.) Absent contrary evidence, it is presumed that a decision of an 17 administrative agency was made after consideration of evidence and that the agency proceeded in 18 the manner required by law. (Cooper v. State Bd. of Public Health (1951) 102 Cal.App.2d 926.)

19 Petitioner must also satisfy his burden by demonstrating not only error below but 20 prejudicial error. Under Code of Civil Procedure, Section 1095.4, subdivision (b), the inquiry is 21 whether there has been any prejudicial abuse of discretion. The court in Dami v. Department of 22 Alcoholic Beverage Control (1959) 176 Cal.App.2d 144, noted: "Due process cannot become a 23 blunderbuss to pepper proceedings with alleged opportunities to be heard at every ancillary and 24 preliminary stage, or the process of administration itself must halt. Due process insists upon the 25 opportunity for a fair trial, not a multiplicity of such opportunities. Due process is not a frozen 26 Draconian code but the concept that in some one of multifarious procedures the accused shall be 27 afforded before judgment the right to a full hearing. The form of the procedure is not vital, only 28 the substance of the right." (Dami, supra, 176 Cal.App.2d at 151.)

1 ARGUMENT

2 I. PETITIONER DOES NOT HAVE STANDING TO CHALLENGE THE FEBRUARY 2020
3 DECISION ON THE PRA/LATC MATTER.

4 A. Petitioner Was Not a Party the CHRB’s Administrative Hearing, and 5 Therefore Cannot Seek Judicial Review of the CHRB’s Decision.

6 There is no dispute that Petitioner was not a party to the administrative hearing process
7 between the CTT and The Stronach Group’s racing associations (PRA/LATC) before Hearing
8 Officer Kane. There is no dispute that the CTT and PRA/LATC, the parties to the subject RMA, 9 participated in the hearing process. (AR 2-13.)

10 By way of this writ, Petitioner is asking this court to allow him to stand in the shoes of CTT 11 and pursue judicial review of the administrative decision that he was not a party to. This is 12 exactly the type of serious due process problem raised by the California Supreme Court in Pacific
13 Legal Found. v. California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (1981) 29 Cal.3d 101, 108-
14 111. There, the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board appealed a judgment 15 declaring its decision that a claimant was eligible for benefits was invalid. The Pacific Legal 16 Foundation sought declaratory relief under Unemployment Insurance Code sections 409 through 17 409.2, but was not a party to the administrative proceeding before the Board.<sup>2</sup> The Supreme Court 18 noted that allowing a person who was not a party during the agency’s administrative action to 19 challenge and perhaps set aside that action would result in due process concerns. “Indeed, if the 20 section were interpreted to mean that third persons not affected by ‘adjudicatory aspects’ of the 21 original proceeding could bring an action to which the original disputants were not parties -- in 22 which adjudicative facts, as well as orders directly concerning those disputants could be 23 reexamined -- there would be serious due process problems.” (Id. at pp. 108-111.)

24 Such is the case here. All of the parties to the adjudicatory proceeding before the CHRB’s 25 Hearing Officer (to determine whether the race meet agreement provisions had been violated)

26 <sup>2</sup> Unemployment Insurance Code section 409.2 is patterned after Government Code 27 section 11350, which gives “interested persons” the right to “obtain a judicial declaration as to the 28 validity of any regulation . . . and allows those affected by a regulation to test its legality before risking violation.” (Pacific Legal Foundation, supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 108-109.) Thus, even if Petitioner alleged a claim for declaratory relief under Government Code section 11350 he would have no standing to pursue that claim either per Pacific Legal Foundation.

1 chose not to seek judicial review of the decision by way of a C.C.P. section 1094.5 petition for 2 writ of administrative mandamus to the superior court. The parties to that proceeding chose not to 3 demand a hearing after briefing, and neither party filed a petition for rehearing of the mootness
4 decision. Therefore, the decision should not be vulnerable to challenge by someone who was not 5 a party to the underlying case. (See Pacific Legal Found., supra, 29 Cal.3d at pp. 108-111.)

6 Moreover, since Petitioner was not a party to the underlying proceeding, he was not an 7 appellant who could appeal the decision of the CHRB Board. (See Comerica Bank v. Runyon
8 (2017) 16 Cal.App.5th 473, 479 [Nonparty cannot appeal because she is not and never has been a 9 party to this lawsuit]; see also City of Alameda v. Carleson (1971) 5 Cal.3d 730, 736 [“It is 10 generally held ... that only parties of record may appeal; consequently one who is denied the right 11 to intervene in an action ordinarily may not appeal from a judgment subsequently entered in the 12 case.”].) Petitioner has no standing to bring this administrative mandamus cause of action.

13 B. Petitioner Was Not a Third-Party Beneficiary Under the 2018-2019 Race
14 Meet Agreement.

15 Petitioner was not a third-party beneficiary to the 2018-2019 RMAs. The RMAs plainly 16 state that the only parties subject to the 2018-2019 RMAs are CTT and PRA/LATC, or the CTT
17 and the DMTC. The language of a contract “govern[s] its interpretation, if the language is clear 18 and explicit and does not involve an absurdity.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 1638.) Petitioner is, and was 19 at all relevant times, a member of the CTT. (FAP ¶ 21.) “[E]ach licensed trainer, including 20 Petitioner, who participates or seeks to participate in a race meet does so bound by and subject to 21 the terms of the required RMA between the CTT – as the official acknowledged horsemen's
22 organization – and the licensed racing association.” (FAP ¶ 51; CHRB Rule 2041.)

23 Therefore, Petitioner is bound by the CTT’s enforcement of the RMA, and cannot 24 independently do so as a third-party beneficiary to the RMA. Petitioner is not a third-party
25 beneficiary of the RMA. Section 24(h) of the RMAs, entitled “No Third-Party Beneficiaries,” 26 plainly states that the RMA provisions “are not intended to be for the benefit of, or enforceable 27 by, any party other than Track or CTT,” and that “Except for Track and CTT, no party shall have 28

1 any right to rely upon or enforce any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement other than the 2 indemnification of obligations set forth in this Agreement.” (AR 59.)

3 The explicit language of the RMAs demonstrates that the CTT and the racing associations
4 intended that they should be the only parties who can enforce the RMA. Petitioner cannot claim 5 to be a third-party beneficiary because that position clearly contradicts the expressed expectations
6 of the CTT and PRA/LATC and is expressly disclaimed in the RMA. If the CTT and the racing 7 associations did not both intend for Petitioner to be able to bring his own lawsuit to enforce the 8 provisions of the 2018-2019 RMA, then he lacks standing to enforce the 2018-2019 RMA as a 9 third-party beneficiary. (See Blank v. Kirwan (1985) 39 Cal. 3d 311, 331 [party who was “not 10 legally interested in the contracts as to which he seeks a declaration of validity” could not “state a 11 cause of action for declaratory relief”]; Lafferty v. Wells Fargo Bank (2013) 213 Cal. App. 4th 12 545, 570 [plaintiffs lacked standing to seek declaratory relief when plaintiffs were not party or 13 third party beneficiary to the contract].) Petitioner lacks standing, and thus, the Court cannot and 14 should not reach any other issue challenging the CHRB’s administrative decision in the LATC
15 matter or the decision by CTT and DMTC to settle their dispute and withdraw their request for a 16 CHRB hearing.

17 II. THE CHRB’S ADMINISTRATIVE DETERMINATIONS WERE CORRECT

18 A. The CHRB Correctly Ruled That the CTT’s Action Was Moot Because the 19 2018-2019 RMA is Not a Legally Operative Contract Beyond Its Stated 20 Expiration Date.

21 Even if Petitioner had rights under the RMA, the matter is moot. An issue becomes moot 22 when “the question addressed was at one time a live issue in the case, but has been deprived of 23 life because events occurring after the judicial process was initiated.” (Wilson & Wilson v. City 24 Counsel of Redwood City (2011) 191 Cal. App. 4th 1559, 1553, internal quotations omitted.) In 25 other words, an issue is moot when a court cannot “grant the plaintiff any effectual relief.” (Id. at 26 1573.) A court should “not to give opinions upon moot questions or abstract propositions, or to 27 declare principles or rules of law which cannot affect the matter in issue in the case before it.”
28 (Vernon v. State of California (2004) 116 Cal. App. 4th 114, 120, internal quotations omitted.)

1           The RMA between the CTT and the LATC states that “the provisions of this Agreement
2 shall be applicable only to the thoroughbred race meetings conducted by Track under license
3 from the CHRB for the period commencing December 26, 2018 through December 25, 2019[.]”
4 (AR 48, ¶ 1.) In the hearing officer’s decision adopted and approved by the CHRB, the CHRB 5 found that the 2018-2019 RMA “expired on December 25, 2019 mootng all issues involved in 6 the [d]ispute” over its terms. (AR 9.) The CHRB further found that “any future dispute between 7 [the CTT] and [the LATC/PRA] will solely concern whatever race meet agreement is in place at 8 that time as opposed to the Expired Agreements.” (AR 11.)

9           The CHRB therefore dismissed the CTT’s complaint against The Stronach Group entities.
10 The CHRB’s decision explained that even the CTT’s “ability to seek a declaration as to whether 11 [The Stronach Group entities] violated Section 5 of the Agreement expired at the same time the 12 Agreements did.” (AR 11.) Furthermore, there has not been modifications to the RMAs that 13 extend its scope. Section 24(a) of the RMA states that the RMA can only be changed by written 14 agreement signed by the CTT and the racing association. Neither side presented a written 15 agreement modifying the RMA to extend its effective dates. Accordingly, the CHRB correctly 16 ruled that the exceptions to the mootness doctrine are inapplicable because “(1) the Agreements 17 expired; and (2) the Dispute is unlikely to recur.” (AR 11, citing Wilson & Wilson v. City Council
18 of Redwood City, supra, 191 Cal.App.4th at p. 1574 [“If events have made such relief 19 impracticable, the controversy has become ‘overripe’ and is therefore moot.”].

20           B. The CTT and DMTC Settled Their RMA Dispute and Withdrew the 21           Request for Hearing, so the CHRB Never Issued an Administrative 22           Decision Subject to Judicial Review.

23           1. Petitioner has waived this issue by not briefing it.

24           Petitioner raised the issue of the CTT/DMTC complaint in his FAP (FAP, § 187(a)), but has 25 not briefed the issue. The issue is therefore waived. (City of Merced v. American Motorists Ins.
26 Co. (2005) 126 Cal.App.4th 1316, 1326 [“When a brief does not contain a legal argument with 27 citation to authority, this court may treat an issue as waived and pass it without consideration.”].)
28

1                   2. Petitioner’s lack of briefing concedes he cannot challenge the 2                   settlement.

3                   There is no dispute that the CTT and the DMTC settled their dispute and withdrew their 4 request for a CHRB administrative hearing. (AR 332.) The RMA explicitly states that its 5 provisions “are not intended to be for the benefit of, or enforceable by, any party other than track 6 and CTT. Except for track and CTT, no party shall have the right to rely upon or enforce any of 7 the terms and provisions of this agreement...” (AR 59, para. h; FAP, §§ 17-21.) Petitioner’s 8 failure to argue and cite to law and the record demonstrates that his argument has no merit.

9                   III. PETITIONER’S REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE SHOULD BE DENIED.

10                  Petitioner again seeks to have this court judicially notice documents that are complete 11 hearsay, including twelve CHRB meeting transcripts (Exhs. 1-12), a “The Mercury News” article 12 (Exh. 49), and an extensive 76-page CHRB report in March of 2020 entitled “Report on Fatalities 13 at Santa Anita Park from 12/30/18 through 3/31/19.” (Exh. 64.)

14                  As to the hearing transcripts, The CHRB does not disagree that the CHRB meeting 15 transcripts (RJN Exhs. 1-12) evidence an “official act” that such meetings actually occurred at a 16 specific date and time within the meaning of Evidence Code § 452, subdivision (c). But in a 17 mandamus proceeding, “[I]t would never be proper to take judicial notice of evidence that (1) is 18 absent from the administrative record, and (2) was not before the agency at the time it made its 19 decision. This is so because only relevant evidence is subject to judicial notice.” (See Western 20 States Petroleum Association v. Superior Court (1995) 9 Cal.4th 559, 574, footnote 4.)

21                  However, Petitioner presumes that the transcripts are noticeable government records 22 without offering any argument or authority to support his presumption. (City of Merced v.
23 American Motorists Ins. Co., supra, 126 Cal.App.4th at p. 326.) Petitioner has failed to meet his 24 burden to demonstrate on what grounds and in what manner each of the 12 meeting transcripts are 25 judicially noticeable. Moreover, Petitioner seeks to use them for an improper purpose by culling 26 them for ad hoc statements by board members in an effort to prove the truth of the matters
27 asserted. But the law is clear that a court cannot take judicial notice of the existence of facts 28 asserted in every document of a court file. (See Day v. Sharp (1975) 50 Cal.App.3d 904, 914.)

1 Specifically, a court cannot take judicial notice of hearsay allegations as being true just because 2 they are part of a record or file subject to notice. (Ibid.)

3 Both the news article and the CHRb report suffer from the same infirmities. Neither are 4 relevant, and both are hearsay within hearsay. (Id.; Evid. Code, §§ 1200, et seq.)

5 IV. IF THE COURT DETERMINES THE LATC MATTER WAS INCORRECTLY DECIDED, 6 THE APPROPRIATE REMEDY IS REMAND TO CHRb FOR A HEARING.

7 If the Court determines that the CHRb improperly decided or denied a hearing, and that the 8 determination of rights and responsibilities under the RMA are not moot, then the appropriate 9 remedy would normally be to remand the case for a new hearing, but this court does not have 10 jurisdiction over the parties to the RMA. Typically, our Supreme Court has made clear that where 11 a court finds that an administrative agency’s “decision lacks evidentiary basis, a hearing was 12 denied or it was otherwise erroneous, it is the proper procedure to remand the matter to the 13 agency for further and proper proceedings rather than for the court to decide the matter on the 14 merits.” (Fascination, Inc. v. Hoover (1952) 39 Cal.2d 260, 269; See also Voices of the Wetlands 15 v. State Water Resources Control Bd. (2011) 52 Cal.4th 499, 535 [remanding matters to 16 administrative agency “promotes orderly procedures, and the proper distinction between agency 17 and judicial roles.”]; Code Civ. Proc., § 1094.5, subd. (f) [“The court shall enter judgment either 18 commanding respondent to set aside the order or decision, or denying the writ. Where the 19 judgment commands that the order or decision be set aside, it may order the reconsideration of the 20 case in light of the court’s opinion and judgment and may order respondent to take such further 21 action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the judgment shall not limit or control in any 22 way the discretion legally vested in the respondent.”].)

23 Here, the issue is not whether additional evidence can be introduced before the Board on 24 remand. This was never requested or even suggested. Petitioner was not a party, and cannot 25 involve himself in the proceeding now. The parties to the RMA are not parties to this case and the 26 court has no jurisdiction to order them back to an administrative hearing. The record and 27 submissions before the CHRb’s Hearing Officer plainly demonstrated that the dispute was moot 28 by the terms of the agreement to be construed, and neither party objected to the CHRb’s decision,

1 sought reconsideration or rehearing, or brought a petition for writ of mandate challenging the 2 CHRB's administrative determinations. As to the DMTC matter, the CHRB accepted the parties' 3 settlement of the matter and no administrative decision was ever approved by the CHRB. There is 4 no error requiring remand.

5 V. RESPONDENT REQUESTS A STATEMENT OF DECISION.

6 Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 632, the CHRB timely requested that a 7 Statement of Decision as to all controverted issues be issued should this petition be granted.
8 (Answer to FAP, p. 36:3-4.)

9 CONCLUSION

10 The CHRB properly adjudicated the dispute between the CTT and the Stronach Group 11 racing associations as moot because the applicable RMA's term expired. Petitioner was a member 12 of the CTT and was bound by the terms of the RMA providing that only the CTT could challenge 13 a track decision under the RMA to refuse stalls and entries. He has no standing to seek judicial 14 review of that determination, and is not a third-party beneficiary under the RMAs. As to the 15 DMTC, the CTT settled its dispute and so advised that the CHRB that it was withdrawing its 16 request for an administrative hearing over the terms of that RMA. Petitioner Hollendorfer's 17 petition for writ of administrative mandamus should therefore be denied.
