

A CLASSIC SEASON FOR CASTELLANO

Javier Castellano celebrates Arcangelo's win in the Belmont Stakes | Sarah Andrew

by Steve Sherack

ARCADIA, CA – As Javier Castellano gets ready to ride three mounts on Breeders' Cup Saturday, the recently turned 46-year-old is amidst one of the best years of his career. And it almost never happened.

A pair of Breeders' Cup wins at the 2019 Championships put an exclamation point on the Hall of Famer's eighth straight season with more than $20 million in earnings. But, the year 2020, like it was for so many, was more about overcoming adversity for the native of Venezuela.

Castellano was the first jockey to test positive for COVID-19--he wasn't symptomatic, thankfully--during the beginning of the pandemic in March and was on the sidelines again after undergoing hip surgery at the end of the year.

"It was tough, not just for myself, but for everybody in the world in 2020," Castellano said. "I only missed three months. And it seemed like it was forever."

Castellano returned to action in 2021, but wasn't exactly welcomed back with open arms. Competing in pound for pound the deepest jockey colony in the nation in New York, Castellano rode 105 winners that season, good for $9,804,024 in earnings. After going just 13-for-142 at the prestigious Saratoga meeting, Castellano's career was suddenly at a crossroads.

"I was devastated. I was ready to give up," said Castellano, a winner of four straight Eclipse Awards as Outstanding Jockey between 2013-16.

"I just came back from everything and people didn't give me an opportunity. One moment I thought, 'I think this is it. I can't keep doing what I'm doing.' I was really really depressed."

He continued, "They didn't care about who you are or what you did in the past. It's amazing. I was a Hall of Fame rider, a four-time leading jockey in the nation in back-to-back years, had six Travers then, 12 Breeders' Cups and won more than 5,000 races. And it didn't mean anything. You have to prove yourself and that you belong."

Castellano picked himself up off the mat and hired longtime former racing official P.J. Campo to handle his book. He began to right the ship with 163 victories in 2022. By comparison, Castellano rode a total of 212 winners combined the previous two years.

How did he power his way through?

"Mentally, I had to be strong," said Castellano, a married father of three. "A lot of discipline and dedication. Do the homework every single day. Regroup and try to be very positive."

The momentum began to build for Castellano after he won three races on Saratoga's opening day card that summer.

"In 2022, we started rolling a little bit in Saratoga," Castellano said. "I also went out of town for the right people and won some races. I knocked a little bit and the door began to open a little here and there."

Castellano is no longer the one doing the knocking this year. He put to bed an 0-for-15 mark on the first Saturday in May with a 15-1 upset aboard Mage (Good Magic) in the GI Kentucky Derby, and, just five weeks later, secured his first GI Belmont S. victory with Arcangelo (Arrogate). Castellano became the first jockey to win two Triple Crown races on two different horses in the same year since Calvin Borel did so in 2009. He's won 16 graded races so far this year, including seven at the top level.

"Thank God, I've been very blessed and very fortunate to have one of the best years of my career," Castellano said. "It was a great achievement to win the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes, two Triple Crown races in the same year. I was always missing something on my resume."

With Castellano's two Classic winners on a collision course this summer, he stuck with the recently retired Arcangelo, who followed up with a convincing win in the GI Travers S., the rider's record seventh victory in the 'Mid-Summer Derby.' The gray, unfortunately, was scratched from the Breeders' Cup Classic--a race Castellano won aboard the sensational Ghostzapper in 2004--earlier this week after developing a foot issue.

"He gave me an opportunity to regroup in my career, and, in my life, and enjoy these beautiful moments with my family," Castellano said.

As for Arcangelo missing the Classic and now off to begin his career at stud at Lane's End, he said, "This is hard, but one decision I fully support. Arcangelo is safe and sound and that's all I can really think about. He has given me so much and I'm so blessed to have been part of the team."

Castellano's mounts on Saturday's Championship program at Santa Anita include: GI Beverly D. S. winner and GI E.P. Taylor S. winner Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) in the GI Breeders' Cup

Filly & Mare Turf; GI American Turf S. winner and narrow GI Saratoga Derby Invitational S. runner-up Webslinger (Constitution) in the GI Twilight Derby; and Time for Trouble (English Channel) in the 1 5/8-mile GI Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance S.

"It could be a good example for anybody," Castellano concluded. "You never give up. When you want something in life, you have to work for it. When you work for it, you get it."

LONGINES BREEDERS' CUP CLASSIC

Two years ago, the last time the Breeders' Cup was held in California, Japan came away with a historic double when Marche Lorraine (Jpn) won the GI Distaff and Loves Only You (Jpn) took the F/M Turf. The country may have its first Classic winner Saturday with Ushba Tesoro (Jpn) (Orfevre {Jpn}). By the same sire as Marche Lorraine, the 6-year-old is already a winner on the world stage after his draw-dropping last-to-first victory in the G1 Dubai World Cup in March. Given the summer off, the bay returned with what proved to be a paid workout in a listed race at Funabashi in September. Ushba Tesoro, who takes a six-race win streak into the Classic, impressed onlookers with his unofficial four-furlong work in :49 2/5, as well as strong gallop-out, at Santa Anita Sunday. While his gate schooling session Monday proved to be an adventure, connections plan to utilize mats on race day to avoid the big horse rubbing against the gate.

Zedan Racing Stables' Arabian Knight (Uncle Mo) was considered a major Kentucky Derby contender, following a 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy debut at Keeneland on the Breeders' Cup undercard last fall with an effortless victory in the GIII Southwest S. in January. But the $2.3-million OBS April graduate was knocked off the Triple Crown trail and was away from the races for six months. Trainer Bob Baffert called his return effort in the GI Haskell S. in July "a disaster" after the colt failed to rate on the lead.

He proved he was back on track with a determined victory in the GI Pacific Classic Sept. 2 and is the leader of a depleted group of sophomores in the Classic.

After his bullet five-furlong drill Monday, Baffert said, “He’s ready. I know this is going to be a tough race, but if he brings his ‘A’ game, I don’t really care who’s running against us.”

St Elias Stable and Repole Stable’s Bright Future (Curlin) could be peaking at the right time after a series of stops and starts in his career. The 4-year-old--by the sire who gave the same connections the 2019 Classic with Vino Rosso--is coming off a career best effort with his win in the Sept. 2 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup.

Wild Card...

FMQ Stable’s Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming), nosed out of victories in the July 1 GIII Dwyer S. and the roughly run GI Jim Dandy S. July 29, finally earned his first graded victory with a front-running victory in the Sept. 23 GI Pennsylvania Derby. The lightly-raced 3-year-old will be trying an extra furlong in the Classic, but his sire had his best moment on the track going 10 furlongs on the first Saturday in May.

LONGINES BREEDERS' CUP TURF

He'll be among the lesser-fancied of a seriously strong European contingent for this year's GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf, but Onesto (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) gets the upset nod in his career finale before heading off to stud at Haras d'Etreham in 2024.

Bred in Ireland by Adam Bowden's Diamond Creek Farm, the 185,000gns Tattersalls October yearling turned $535,000 OBS April juvenile won last year's G1 Grand Prix de Paris and was unlucky to have not finished closer than seventh in the G1 Japan Cup to close the season. The chestnut resumed with a useful fourth behind GI Filly & Mare Turf favorite Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in Deauville's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois over an insufficient mile trip Aug. 13 before finishing a better-than-it-looks seventh to Auguste Rodin (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G1 Irish Champion S. the following month. No better than a 55-1 outside in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, Onesto settled at the rear on the back of the ultimately victorious Ace Impact (Ire) (Cracksman {GB}) and attacked the line to just miss second behind the high-class Westover (GB) (Frankel {GB}). He is tactically versatile and can take down his sexier market rivals on his very best.

Off his body of work this season, Mostahdaf (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) is a deserving ante-post favorite at 5-2. After demolishing the field in the G2 Neom Turf Cup in Saudi in February, a race in which the highly touted Missed the Cut (Quality Road) was basically a no-show, the homebred was thrashed--like the rest of the field--by Equinox (Jpn) (Kitsan Black {Jpn}) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic, finishing seven lengths adrift in fourth.

The dark bay has been carefully managed since, winning the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot by four lengths June 21 and made all in taking the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 23.

Withdrawn from the G1 QIPCO Champion S. due to the unsuitably easy ground, Mostahdaf is likely to be consigned to a midfield trip over a 12-furlong distance he has not won over and at which he owns a single placing from four runs.

Auguste Rodin, a son of 2017 GI Filly & Mare Turf runner-up Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was well-beaten in the G1 English 2000 Guineas on seasonal return May 6, but atoned in no uncertain terms with a half-length defeat of the comebacking King of Steel (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G1 Derby at Epsom in early June. More workmanlike than spectacular in the Irish equivalent 29 days later, he was eased home last of 10 in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot July 29, but again bounced back with a victory in the G1 Irish Champion S. Sept. 9 where he enjoyed a perfect trip and just outbattled his stablemate and defending champ Luxembourg (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). The hulking King of Steel, a close fourth at Leopardstown, overcame the desperate underfoot conditions to take out the Champion S. and wheels back on two weeks' rest.

Wild Cards...

Up To The Mark (Not This Time) is the likely Eclipse Award-winning turf male with Grade I victories this year at eight, nine and 10 furlongs--a remarkable accomplishment. Connections opt for this spot over the Mile, for which he'd be among the top few choices. He's a player here if he handles this trip, but offers little to no value at or near his 5-1 morning line. On the flip side, Shahryar (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) may represent the value play. Just one spot behind Mostahdaf at Meydan, the son of 2010 Filly & Mare Sprint heroine Dubai Majesty (Essence of Dubai) was 11th to recent G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) third Prognosis (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 Sapporo Kinen Aug. 20, but has since undergone a procedure for a breathing issue. --Alan Carasso

LONGINES BREEDERS' CUP DISTAFF

Wet Paint | Sarah Andrew

With a bevy of top tier winners lining up for this divisional championship deciding contest, this year's Distaff is shaping up to be one for the ages. Team Godolphin enters with a pair of Classic-winning fillies--TDN Rising Star Pretty Mischievous (Into Mischief) and Wet Paint (Blame). The former, trained by Brendan Walsh has shown remarkable consistency throughout her career, having annexed seven of 10 starts, highlighted by four graded victories, including three at the Grade I level. Victorious in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. in February, the daughter of GISW Pretty City Dancer kicked off a three-race winning skein in the May 5 Kentucky Oaks, also adding the GI Acorn S. and GI Test S. over the summer. Catching a soggy edition of Parx's Cotillion S. Sept. 23, she had to settle for second--beaten a half-length--by the loose-on-the-lead Ceiling Crusher. Godolphin's other challenger, Wet Paint, enjoyed a three-race win streak of her own to launch her sophomore season. Skipping through Oaklawn's spring filly series--the Martha Washington S., GIII Honey Bee S. and GIII Fantasy S.--with relative ease, she showed solid closing ability but had to settle for fourth behind her stablemate in the Oaks. Runner-up behind the pace-making Hoosier Philly (Into Mischief) in Ellis Park's Monomoy Girl S. in June, the Brad Cox trainee bounced back to take the nine-furlong GI CCA Oaks by a neck over Sacred Wish (Not This Time) at the Spa July 22. Favored while stretching to 10 panels for her latest, the daughter of GSP Sky Painter gave a good account of herself to finish second, beaten four lengths by winner and subsequent GII Beldame S. scorer Randomized (Nyquist) in the GI Alabama S. Aug. 19.

Sporting an all-important home-court advantage, Adare Manor (Uncle Mo) has been on a tear of late, having won her last five trips to the post. Having shown some sparkle early on in her juvenile campaign--highlighted by a scintillating debut win at Santa Anita in January followed by a 13-length demolition of her rivals in the GIII Las Virgenes S. the following month--the Bob Baffert trainee finished runner-up in graded company while under the care of a pair of former Baffert pupils over the spring. A lack-luster sixth in Parx's Cotillion in September all but assured she would get some time off and regroup for the 2023 season.

Second in her seasonal bow going seven panels at Santa Anita in February, she won going a mile in Arcadia Mar. 31, adding four graded wins, including Del Mar's GI Clement L. Hirsch S. Aug. 5 and GII Zenyatta S. back in Arcadia Oct. 1.

Wild Card...

The 5-year-old Clairiere (Curlin) has several things going for her as she tries to recapture some of the earlier flash in her form. A four-time Grade I winner at 8 1/2 furlongs, the impeccably-bred daughter of MGISW and TDN Rising Star Cavorting (Bernardini) has also shown the ability to excel while adding some yardage, as evidenced by her 2022 GII Shuvee S. score and placings in the 10-furlong GI Alabama S. and nine-panel GI CCA Oaks during her sophomore season. A narrowly beaten third in last year's renewal of this race, the Stonestreet Stables homebred won this spring's GI Apple Blossom S. before successfully repeating in the GI Odgen Phipps S. in June. Favored to defend her title in the July 23 Shuvee S., she had to settle for second behind the classy Nest and could be excused for an uncharacteristically poor showing when fifth in a sloppy renewal of Saratoga's GI Personal Ensign S. Aug. 25. "We're very happy with her," said Hall of Fame trainer Steve Asmussen. "She's an unbelievable mare. She's doing extremely well right now. She's acclimated very well and is in a really good rhythm."

Given her potent connections, Asmussen who has eight wins and jockey Joel Rosario with 15, in addition to her come from off-the-pace style that should help in a race laden with speed types, Clairiere may be poised to rebound come race day.

FANDUEL BREEDERS' CUP MILE

The all-conquering Into Mischief has been represented by 31 Breeders' Cup starters, with seven winners and at least one of his progeny has been draped with the blanket of flowers at each of the last four renewals of the championships. But only four of those 31 runners came on the turf and none has succeeded--to this point--but giving Peter Brant's Gina Romantica a puncher's chance to make some history in the GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile this weekend.

Though not necessarily bred to excel on the grass, the good ones run on anything, and this $1.025 million Keeneland September yearling improved markedly with the surface switch, with a record of 3-2-0 from six starts to date. Her victory in last year's GI QE II Challenge Cup came at the expense of her Filly & Mare Turf-bound stablemate McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and she returned with a fourth in the GIII Eatontown S. June 17, a race she was likely to need. Second to loose-on-the-lead Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire})--who also rates a look in the F/M Turf--and in front of recent GIII Dowager S. heroine Romagna Mia (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in the GI Beverly D. S., the bay defeated fellow Chad Brown trainee and 'TDN Rising Star' In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) fair and square in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland Oct. 7, sprinting home in a slick :22.71. She projects to sit a similar trip here and if her last race is for real--granted, it's a significant 'if'--she's in the mix at a juicy price.

Japan's top miler of either sex is Songline (Jpn) (Kizuna {Jpn}), making her second overseas trip for the Mile after plans to come to Keeneland last year were scuppered.

A no-show 10th in defense of her title in the G3 1351 Turf Sprint in Saudi Arabia in February, the Sunday Racing runner returned home to best fan-favorite Sodashi (Jpn) (Kurofune) in the G1 Victoria Mile in May before landing the G1 Yasuda Kinen for the second straight season the next month. She just missed in the G2 Mainichi Okan over 1800 meters, but her best efforts have come at Tokyo with its near three-furlong straight, while Santa Anita is a tighter track with a much shorter run home. Treading cautiously.

Master of the Seas (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) has victories in Dubai (G2 Zabeel Mile), Ascot (G2 Summer Mile) and Woodbine, where he was tons the best in the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile and 'TDN Rising Star' Shirli's Speight (Speightstown) was a distant second. Pipped on the post by Up to the Mark (Not This Time) in the GI Keeneland Turf Mile last time, he was certainly done no favors by drawing widest, but it should be noted that Lure, Six Perfections (Fr), Goldikova (Ire) and Karakontie (Jpn) each overcame double-digit gates to win at Santa Anita. Godolphin also has QE II heroine Mawj (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), the half-sister to last year's Mile winner Modern Games (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) tries the Mile for the third time in his fourth Breeders' Cup appearance overall and is in the best form of his career. Once again just beaten in Saudi Arabia, he returned to be a close third looking for a GI Jaipur S. three-peat, but has since won the GIII Kelso H. and GI Fourstardave H.

BEST OF LUCK TO ALL THE KY-BREDS

in the 40th running of the Breeders' Cup

Kentucky-breds have won 240 Breeders' Cup races—more than any other state or region—and boast 27 wins in the Breeders' Cup Classic (G1). They are poised to add to their win total this year as 111 Kentucky-breds were entered in the 14 Breeders' Cup races, including defending Breeders' Cup Champions CODY'S WISH, ELITE POWER, and GOODNIGHT OLIVE.

And 9 of the 12 horses entered in the $6 million Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) field hail from the Bluegrass State.

BREED THEM,

Wild Cards...

Kelina (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) defeated her peers in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly this past June and has faced the boys in her last two efforts, finishing seventh of eight in the G1 Prix du Moulin Sept. 3 before proving a somewhat fortunate winner of the 1400-meter G1 Prix de la Foret on the Arc undercard Oct. 1. Bob Baffert has run three horses in Breeders' Cup turf races, including Mile runner-up Tuzla (Fr) (Panoramic {GB}) in 1999. Du Jour (Temple City), campaigned in partnership by his wife Jill, enters the Mile on a two-race winning streak, including a 2 1/4-length defeat of Exalted (Twirling Candy) in the GII Del Mar Mile Sept. 2. Flavien Prat retains the call. --Alan Carasso

MAKER'S MARK BREEDERS' CUP F/M TURF

Inspiral | Megan Ridgwell

The last time the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf was held at Santa Anita in 2019 it was Joseph O'Brien trainee Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler of the World {Ire}) as an 13-1 shot who brought home the trophy. It's been 10 years since a favorite won this race when Dank (GB) (Dansili {GB}) pressed the pace over this same course to get her picture taken. Flashing forward, all 12 of this year's entrants were bred outside of the United States, and O'Brien returns with another potential big price with G1SP Lumiere Rock (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Ire}).

When it comes to favoritism, that will most certainly fall on the strong shoulders of Inspiral (GB) (Frankel {GB}) who has done little wrong in three successive campaigns for trainer John Gosden. Highlights for this 4-year-old filly include her win in last season's G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot and when she returned to successfully defend her title in the G1 Jacques Le Marois S. at Deauville this past August. Buoyed by a last out win in the G1 Sun Chariot S. Oct. 7, Gosden obviously feels strongly that the perennial miler owned by Cheveley Park Stud can stretch out and get this distance. Regular rider Frankie Dettori will once again take the mount.

If Inspiral isn't up to the task, then there are a number of talented runners that are waiting to hoist the crown.

Chief among them is Aidan O'Brien trainee Warm Heart (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who is actually cutting back after traveling 12 furlongs in her last four races this year. Three of those attempts were wins including the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 22 and against older females in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks Aug. 24 and the G1 Prix Vermeille S. at ParisLongchamp Sept. 10.

Chad Brown has collected four wins in this race, with the last coming with Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) in 2018. MGISW In Italian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) returns for another chance after she ran second to Tuesday (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at Keeneland last year. The Peter Brant-owned 'TDN Rising Star' will set the pace early, while her stablemate, GISW McKulick (GB) (Frankel {GB}), will try to muster a rally late for Klaravich Stables.

In the mix is Didia (Arg) (Orpen {Lure}) who won over this course and distance Oct. 7 in Santa Anita's GII Rodeo Drive S. for trainer Ignacio Correas IV and Lindy (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) who was second to GI Breeders' Cup Mile entrant Mawj (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Keeneland Oct. 14.

Also present are the top three finishers from the GI E.P. Taylor S. Oct. 8 at Woodbine. Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}), who has won group/graded races in three different countries, took home the prize that afternoon in Toronto for trainer Mark Casse. She bested With The Moonlight (Ire), a multiple group winner from Dubai for trainer Charlie Appleby, and Canadian Horse of the Year Moira (Ghostzapper) from the barn of Kevin Attard.

Wild Card...

Win Marilyn | Horsephotos

Japanese entrants in the Breeders' Cup, especially when the event is held on the West Coast, will be considered legitimate threats to win by some, but probably most would agree that they personify what it means to be a wild card. Lest we forget what happened two years ago at Del Mar when Loves Only You (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) surged to capture the F&M Turf at Del Mar.

Win Marilyn (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) might not possess the same form coming into this year's race as Loves Only You did then, but she has some class lines that speak to being able to compete at a high level. She's been unlucky after winning the G1 Hong Kong Vase at the end of her 5-year-old campaign in 2022.

Trainer Takahisa Tezuka shipped her to Dubai to contest the G1 Sheema Classic where she finished sixth behind international Japanese sensation Equinox (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}). After a roughly five months away, she was well-beaten ninth in both the G2 Sapporo Kinen S. Aug. 20 and the GII Sankei Sho All Comers S. Sept. 24 at Nakayama. Coming to Santa Anita might be just the trip she needs to get to the winner's circle at the Breeders' Cup.--J.N Campbell

BIG ASS FANS BREEDERS' CUP DIRT MILE

The Dirt Mile was hit by tragedy Tuesday morning when GI Santa Anita Derby winner Practical Move (Practical Joke) suffered a suspected cardiac event and passed away suddenly. Later the same day, G1 Dubai World Cup runner-up Algiers (Ire) (Shamardal) was scratched due to heat in his right front foot, slating the Dirt Mile as the shortest field in this year's Breeders' Cup with a mere seven contenders.

Defending Dirt Mile winner Cody's Wish in the Vosburgh
Sarah Andrew

But what a seven they are. Top of the bunch is undoubtedly Bill Mott's Cody's Wish (Curlin), responsible for one of the most moving stories in racing of the last few years. You'd have to be living under a rock if you're in racing and don't know the story--the four-time Grade I winner is named for Cody Dorman, who suffers from Wolf-Hirschhorn Syndrome and shares an otherworldly connection with the horse. The Godolphin homebred carries Dorman on his back every time he runs and has been undefeated at a mile or less since May, 2022. His lone loss during that streak came when stretched out to nine furlongs in the GI Whitney S. two back in a less-than-ideal trip.

Cody's Wish is also the defending winner of the 2022 edition of the Dirt Mile, has won seven of his last eight, and has the highest Beyer Speed Figures of the field (twice up to 112). He's also been breathing fire in the mornings training at Santa Anita. He's at the top of his game and will likely--and deservedly--be a single on multiple tickets Saturday. Tears flowed unabashedly across the Keeneland grounds when he won the Breeders' Cup last year. Four returning winners from Breeders' Cup 2022 and one from 2021 will go to post this year; there's no one the sport collectively pulls for more than this horse. Cody's Wish is unbeaten in seven starts at a mile.

Although Cody's Wish positively towers over this field, GI Preakness S. winner National Treasure (Quality Road) will get some attention. He fired a bullet :46 1/5 half (1/49) on Oct. 20, is on his home track for Bob Baffert, and is shortening up considerably. He's dropped three straight since the Preakness, but just might relish this trip.

Whisper Hill Farm homebred and Todd Pletcher trainee Charge It (Tapit), a 'TDN Rising Star', is capable of jaw-dropping brilliance--his 23-length GIII Dwyer S. last year is testament to that and his GII Suburban S. this year was stellar--but he's inconsistent. Butzow homebred and fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Zozos (Munnings) is coming into this sharp, signaled by a bullet Oct. 21 at Churchill in :59 1/5 for five panels (1/58), and Brad Cox knows how to win these. Winner of the GIII Ack Ack S. at this distance Sept. 30, he's a consistent horse with a big upside that anyone would love to have in their barn. But can anyone beat Cody?

Stage Raider (Pioneerof the Nile) moved to Cherie DeVaux's barn this summer and has thrived in her program. His Beyers in two starts since have been in the high 90s; he won his first black-type event, albeit a minor stakes at Ellis Park; and he was closing on Zozos in the Ack Ack. A half to Triple Crown winner Justify, Stage Raider was retained as a homebred by John Gunther and was a 'TDN Rising Star' at three. Despite never facing these kind, he's been reinvigorated in the last few months and could pick up a placing at a big price. Might be worth a play in the exotics. --Jill Williams

QATAR RACING BREEDERS' CUP SPRINT

Reigning Sprint champion Elite Power (Curlin) saw his eight-race winning streak end at the hands of familiar foe Gunite (Gun Runner) at the Graveyard of Champions this summer. That GI Forego S. saw Gunite turn the tables on his elder rival after finishing just behind him in both the G3 Riyadh Dirt Sprint to open the year back in February and more recently over a sloppy track in Saratoga's GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. Ironically, the pair will line up next to each other in the gate Saturday in what stands to be Elite Power's final start before retiring to stud at Juddmonte for 2024. The $900,000 yearling, trained by Bill Mott, will look to add to his over $2.7 million in earnings in the iconic green and pink silks. The 9-5 morning-line favorite has not one but two titles to defend as last year's winner of his race locked up his end-of-year honors.

Gunite, no slouch in the earnings category himself at just shy of $2.2 million, shortens back up to the sprint distance for owner/breeder Winchell Thoroughbreds off a second-place performance in the one-mile Parx Dirt Mile Sept. 23. Steve Asmussen's had his runner at Santa Anita since early October and he's been on a steady work tab ever since.

Wild Card...

California-bred The Chosen Vron (Vronsky) is on a streak of his own and brings eight straight wins into Santa Anita including a last-out upset win in the GI Bing Crosby July 29. While he's faced mostly state-bred company, he's also seven-for-eight at the track and beat three rivals he'll face Saturday in that Bing Crosby score. The hard-knocking 5-year-old gelding already has over a million in the bank for an ownership group that includes his trainer, Eric Kruijac. —Stefanie Grimm

Elite Power | Sarah Andrew

Joining those rivals on the outside of the gate is Speed Boat Beach (Bayern), a Bob Baffert trainee who just switched off the turf last time out to miss the newly-announced Taylor Made stallion Dr. Schivel (Violence) by a head in the GII Santa Anita Sprint Championship Sept. 30. After beating Hejazi (Bernardini) to break his maiden at Del Mar last Fall, the $200,000 OBSMAR grad picked up a pair of turf sprint victories out west. The Sprint Championship was his first start however since winning last December's GIII Cecil B Demille S. at Del Mar.

BREEDERS' CUP TURF SPRINT

Since its inception in 2008, the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint has been contested a total of seven times at Santa Anita. The first six of those runnings were conducted on the downhill turf course over the about 6 1/2-furlong trip, and it was shortened to five panels when Belvoir Bay (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) scored in 2019. In those seven renewals, foreign horses have come close without winning, while just one horse--the fast-finishing Bobby's Kitten in 2014--was based outside of California. That local domination stands a reasonable chance of continuing in the form of Motorious (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}) in the penultimate event of the afternoon.

Owned by Anthony Fanticola, who campaigned 2016 winner Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) in partnership with Joseph Scardino, the 5-year-old likes this course, having amassed a record of 2-2-1 from five starts, including a 2 1/4-length success in the Mar. 5 GIII San Simeon S. down the hill. A slashing second to Nobals (Noble Mission {GB}) in the GII TwinSpires Turf Sprint on Derby day May 6, the gelding was a comprehensive winner of Del Mar's GIII Green Flash H. when last seen Sept. 2. Flavien Prat is a notable upgrade in the saddle.

Mizdirection (Mizzen Mast) and Stormy Liberal (Stormy Atlantic) have already been repeat winners of the Turf Sprint and Caravel (Mizzen Mast) will try to join that list Saturday. Last of 12 when tried in this race in 2021 at Del Mar, the Pennsylvania-bred was a 42-1 outside when wiring the field at Keeneland last year.

Cont.

She has won three from five this year, including the GII Shakertown S. and GI Jaipur S. against the boys, but was defeated by Tony Ann (Cairo Prince) at 72 cents on the dollar in defense of her crown in the GIII Franklin S. in Lexington Oct. 15.

Europe's top sprinter Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) was a low-odds fourth at Keeneland last fall, but connections have opted for a trip to the Far East for December's G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint over another try here. The 3-year-old Bradsell (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) outfinished that mare to cause a 14-1 upset in this year's G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot in June and was a creditable third to coast-to-coast winner Live In The Dream (Ire) (Prince of Lir {Ire}) in the G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. over the straight five furlongs at York in late August. Making his first start around a turn, the bay, who will have Luke Morris in the irons for the suspended Hollie Doyle, was a latest seventh in the G1 Flying Five S. at the Curragh Sept. 10. Live In The Dream set a furious gallop in Keeneland's GII Woodford S. Oct. 7 and was found out late, finishing fourth to the re-opposing Arzak (Not This Time), who is not without a shot here, albeit from a tricky draw.

Wild Card...

The Machmer Hall and Godolphin-bred Jasper Krone (Frosted) further fortifies the Japanese Breeders' Cup challenge this year and there will be little suspense where it comes to gameday tactics. The blaze-faced chestnut took them all the way to win the G3 CBC Sho at Chukyo in July and backed that up with another front-running tally in the G3 Kitakyushu Kinen at Kokura in August, besting Mama Cocha (Jpn) (Kurofune), who would return to take out the G1 Sprinters' S. Oct 2. Jasper Krone will find this slight turnback to five furlongs on a tight-turning track to his liking. --Alan Carasso

PNC BANK BREEDERS' CUP FILLY AND MARE SPRINT

Before heading into the ring for Fasig-Tipton's 'Night of the Stars' November Sale, First Row Partners and Team Hanley's reigning GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint heroine Goodnight Olive (Ghostzapper) will be favored to double up in Saturday's renewal at Santa Anita. Since its inception in 2007, only the brilliant Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band) has put them back to back in the seven-furlong contest.

Last year's champion female sprinter has faced the starter four times for Chad Brown since concluding her 2022 season with a powerful victory over Echo Zulu (Gun Runner) at Keeneland last fall. Goodnight Olive returned to the site of her biggest career victory and successfully launched her 5-year-old campaign with a win in the GI Madison S. Apr. 8. With absolutely nowhere to run down the stretch, her seven-race winning streak, however, came to a frustrating end after finishing a luckless third in the GI Derby City Distaff S. on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard. Goodnight Olive got there in time with a neck victory in the GII Bed o' Roses S. at Belmont June 17, then earned a career-best 108 Beyer Speed Figure while finishing 2 1/2 lengths adrift the aforementioned recently retired 2021 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies heroine while failing to repeat in the GI Ballerina H. at the Spa Aug. 26, a race she won impressively in 2022.

While Echo Zulu continues to recover from surgery to repair broken sesamoids in her left front leg, Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen won't be empty handed here. Far from it. He will saddle the very dangerous Society (Gun Runner), who enters in top form off a pair of runaway wins. Last term's GI Cotillion S. winner around two turns has thrived since turning back to seven furlongs with front-running victories in her last two tries, albeit in small fields, romping in both the GIII Chicago S. at Ellis Park June 24 and the Pink Ribbon S. at Charles Town Aug. 25. The Peter Blum homebred has won her last two races by a combined 16 1/4 lengths with Beyer Speed Figures of 105 and 106, respectively.

Eda (Munnings) had a seven-race winning streak snapped when a disappointing third as the favorite behind the stretch-running Kirstenbosch (Midnight Lute) in the local GIII Chillingworth S. Sept. 29.

MACHMER HALL SALES

Carrie Brogden 859.983.1109 | Amy Bunt 703.216.8444 | www.MachmerHallSales.com

The 2021 GI Starlet S. heroine, a $550,000 OBS March graduate, previously won this summer's GII Great Lady M S. at Los Al and GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar.

The field of nine also includes: this spring's Derby City Distaff winner Matareya (Pioneerof the Nile), who was a well-beaten third in both the Chicago and Ballerina; GIII Princess Rooney S. winner Three Witches (Into Mischief); and game GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. winner Yuugiri (Shackleford).

Wild Card...

Sophomores Shamrock Rose (First Dude) (2018), Covfefe (Into Mischief) (2019) and Gamine (Into Mischief) (2020) all defeated their elders in three straight renewals of this contest. Could a new streak begin this year?

By the same leading sire as two of those aforementioned winners, the lightly-raced Clearly Unhinged (Into Mischief) has some upside at what has to be an enticing price at the windows here. Second, beaten a head, following the tragic breakdown of Maple Leaf Mel (Cross Traffic) in the GI Test S. Aug. 5, she did all the heavy lifting the Chillingsworth and ran huge in defeat to finish second after shaking free in the stretch. Her two career wins have come in Arcadia and her trainer Michael McCarthy upset this race at 6-1 with Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) in 2021. She'll need to up her game on the speed-figure scale, but has every right to move forward here. --Steve Sherack
